

My gorgeous wife

6: Chapter 6 is released, it will scare you to death!

6: Chapter 6 is released, it will scare you to death!

Li Chen's words were unmasked, and the meaning was clear—you, Shouzi Shenglang, do not have the capability to destroy my lab on your own.

You're backed by others, and to think I'm not aware of your limited strength?

"Hmph!

Lord Nether King, do you think yourself supremely clever?

I know that even though you're injured now, I'm no match for you, but did you think I came alone?"

Having said that, Shouzi Shenglang gestured with a wave of his hand, and soon two people stood beside him.

These two people, Li Chen was very familiar with.

Once upon a time, they were his brothers too.

But what Li Chen didn't understand was that the two had just left the base.

How did they arrive here so quickly?

"Wild Wolf, Ghost King, have you two truly decided to oppose me?"

As Li Chen spoke, he shook his head.

Not that he resented their betrayal, but he felt somewhat sorry for Alice.

Initially, it was he who had introduced Wild Wolf to her.

He didn't anticipate that Wild Wolf would betray him now.

Given Alice's loyal attitude towards him, she must be feeling quite guilty at this moment.

"A good bird chooses a tree to nest in, rest assured, after your death we will take good care of your burial."

Wild Wolf remained silent, but Ghost King spoke first from beside him, showing no regard for Li Chen, his former leader.

Had he forgotten who it was that gave him a meal and money to woo women?

“Heh...

Just the two of you dare mention the word ‘death’ in front of me?

You...

are not worthy!”

Li Chen extended his index finger and waved it in front of them.

Such blatant contempt immediately annoyed Ghost King and even caused Wild Wolf beside him to look irritated.

“Still so defiant when death is at hand...

I want to see how capable you still are!”

After Ghost King spoke, he immediately charged forward.

He was known as the Ghost King because of his extremely fast movements, ghost-like, that ordinary people sometimes couldn’t even discern how he approached.

Ranked thirty-eighth on the Earth Ranking, Ghost King truly lived up to his name.

However, everything was given by Li Chen, and naturally, he had the right to take it back.

“Hmph!”

Li Chen snorted coldly.

Although Ghost King’s moves were elusive, was he scared?

He slowly extended his arm, and the dagger in his hand instantly flew out, a glint of cold light...

“Pfft...”

It seemed to hit the air, but the sound of a dagger piercing into flesh was heard.

And in that space, suddenly a shadow appeared, and the shadow was hurled backward.

Up close, it was visible that the person had a dagger stuck in his chest, with just the hilt protruding.

A deadly hit, the mighty thirty-eighth ranked master on the Earth Ranking, was killed by Li Chen with a single strike.

Upon seeing this, both Shouzi Shenglang and Wild Wolf were dumbfounded.

The information they had was not like this at all.

A one-hit kill, Li Chen at this moment was clearly in his prime.

Li Chen, however, was fighting the urge to vomit blood, because this one strike had drained all his strength.

If either of the two men made a move, he couldn't possibly withstand it.

The reason he chose to kill Ghost King with a single strike was because that was all he could do, as he couldn't kill the other two with one strike.

Although Ghost King's ranking wasn't low, he had a fatal flaw—that was speed without high martial force.

Against those with lower strength, this flaw might not seem significant, but what about facing someone faster than him?

Then this disadvantage would be magnified, and Li Chen was exactly that faster opponent.

Even though he had killed Ghost King with one strike, Li Chen still felt uneasy, not because of Shouzi Shenglang, but because of another person.

But at this moment, he couldn't care about that much anymore.

He coldly looked at Shouzi Shenglang and said, "Well?"

Does anyone else want to continue?"

Although he was completely out of combat power, the momentum around Li Chen was still strong enough to make Shouzi Shenglang and Wild Wolf shiver together.

Shouzi Shenglang was somewhat afraid, but leaving like this, he felt reluctant.

Wild Wolf realized how foolish he had been, foolish for having followed Li Chen for so many years and yet not understanding his true strength.

A single strike had killed the Ghost King!

His martial force was slightly better than Ghost King's, but his speed wasn't as fast as Ghost King's.

If the two really fought each other, he had a slight advantage, but he could not inflict substantial damage on Ghost King.

Li Chen was injured, but even so, he still killed Ghost King with a single strike.

How terrifying must Li Chen have been in his prime?

It was not until this moment that he understood, the title of King of the Netherworld wasn't given for no reason.

"Nobody move!"

Just then, a crisp voice rang out, its tone indescribably cold.

There were still people around?

Shouzi Shenglang's face showed a panicked expression.

Hearing the rustling footsteps around, he exchanged a glance with Wild Wolf and the two quickly retreated backwards.

An Earth Ranking expert, incredibly fast.

The likelihood of catching up was very low.

Li Chen did not watch the direction in which the two were escaping but turned around to look behind himself.

He saw a woman, all wrapped in black clothing, revealing only a fine figure; her face was not very clear.

Seeing the newcomer, Li Chen's vigilance increased because he felt that this woman was more formidable than Shouzi Shenglang.

"Our esteemed Lord Nether King, what's the matter with you?"

Why aren't you staying in your Palace of the Nether King instead of coming to Huaxia?"

Mockery, it was definitely mockery.

“Nothing much, just felt that there are quite a few beauties in Huaxia, thought about finding a wife to settle down with, that’s all.”

Despite the pain in his body, Li Chen said this casually.

Li Chen had been through too many experiences, encountering countless life and death crises.

Naturally, he could handle today’s situation with ease.

“Oh?

So, have you found one yet?

Our Huaxia girls are very traditional, they might not take to you.”

The woman’s voice still carried a tone of mockery, seemingly not very fond of Li Chen.

“Really?

I haven’t noticed that.

I find the girls in Huaxia quite welcoming.

When I came here, I just pretended to be a seller of egg-filled pancakes.

But you know what happened?

A beauty actually said she wanted to marry me.

She really is a beauty, her name is Lin Yi.

We’ve already registered our marriage, you know.

As for what you said about Huaxia girls being conservative, I don’t agree with that.

That Lin Yi is quite open; we just had a lengthy battle in the bedroom.”

If you look down on me, I will immediately prove you wrong, face to face.

You say Huaxia girls are conservative, but what about my wife then?

“You...don’t get too cocky.

I’m telling you, this is Huaxia, and as long as you dare to violate the laws here, I guarantee I’ll personally arrest you!”

The woman was a bit enraged by Li Chen's teasing yet somewhat helpless.

She dared not treat the King of the Netherworld lightly, even going so far as to scare off those two men earlier because if the King of the Netherworld died in Huaxia, it was likely that the masters from the Palace of the Nether King would tear Huaxia apart.

"What about Huaxia?"

Don't you know that I am a Huaxia person?"

This is my motherland!"

"You..."

At this, the woman was stunned by Li Chen's words.

The mighty King of the Netherworld was actually a person from Huaxia; this news was too significant, the impact on her immense, and she couldn't accept it immediately.

"You must be a Dragon Soul, right?"

Do you know someone named Ouyang Wan'er?"

I want to meet her; can you arrange it?"

Li Chen did not care about the woman's inner shock, expressing his request.

Now that the Z substance was gone, there was probably only one way to control the mysterious power inside his body, and that method was in the hands of a person called Ouyang Wan'er.

"Alright... I can pass on the message for you, but as for whether she wants to see you or not, I can't promise."

After hearing that Li Chen was from Huaxia, the woman's tone improved a lot.

"That's enough; she will definitely meet me."

Qilin Princess, your figure is so good, how come your chest is so flat?"

Li Chen said with a laugh and then turned around and walked toward a spot not far away.

The woman was still in shock because Li Chen had just called out her name.

Qilin Princess, that was her rank on the Earth Ranking.

But hearing the latter half of the remark, her expression changed instantly, though no one could see it.

“Damn it, how dare you say my chest is flat!

I was just worried that letting them show would scare you all to death!”

7: Chapter 7: The Beautiful Wife’s Marriage Contract!

7: Chapter 7: The Beautiful Wife’s Marriage Contract!

Li Chen returned to the villa at top speed and, finding Lin Yi’s room quiet, he finally relaxed.

Just as he was about to lay down on the bed to rest for a while, he suddenly felt a chill behind him.

Years of experiences outside had honed his alertness; even the slightest hint of danger would raise his hackles.

And now, he was experiencing that exact sensation.

Someone was behind him—a master!

Li Chen turned around slowly.

At this moment, he could only rely on deep breaths to calm his emotions.

His body was too weak, lacking the capacity to react to danger.

“Phew...

Aunt Wang, it’s you?”

Indeed, standing at the door of Li Chen’s room was Aunt Wang.

Aunt Wang had a faint smile on her face, seemingly harmless, but the alert that Li Chen had felt a moment ago told him that there was more to Aunt Wang than met the eye.

“Son-in-law, I saw you going out in the middle of the night and was a bit worried, so I decided to check on you.

Are you all right?”

Aunt Wang’s question was filled with concern—seemingly genuine.

Li Chen suddenly felt that his marriage might not be as simple as it seemed.

A nanny giving him an inscrutable feeling was unexpected.

“Oh...

It's fine, I just went out for a walk.

I'm back now, aren't I?”

Li Chen's condition wasn't great.

Anyone with a bit of martial arts training could tell that his Qi-blood was in disarray; he was seriously injured.

However, Aunt Wang didn't seem intent on delving deeper, merely commenting, “As long as you're okay.”

After seeing Aunt Wang out, Li Chen immediately closed the door to his room and rushed to the bathroom to vomit fresh blood.

...

On the first floor of the villa, where Aunt Wang lived, Lin Yi and Li Chen resided on the second floor.

At this time, in her own room, Aunt Wang made a phone call.

“Master, the young mistress brought back a man today, and... they even got married?”

Aunt Wang communicated this with some caution but without a hint of groveling.

“What?”

She...

she's trying to kill me with anger!”

A flustered voice came from the other end of the line, and it belonged to an elderly man.

“Master, please don't get angry too quickly.

I've looked into the young mistress's recent behavior, and it seems unusual.

I suspect their marriage isn't ordinary..."

"That's good to hear!

Aunt Wang, you've been with me for forty years.

You should know that Little Yi has a marriage arrangement.

Although the other party hasn't mentioned it lately, what if they bring it up again?

What Little Yi is doing will drive the Lin Family to ruin!"

"I understand.

You're talking about the Li Family from Yanjing, right?

Master, forgive my presumptuousness, but that Li Family's young man has been missing since he was three.

How easy would it be to find him?

Besides, Little Yi...

she..."

Aunt Wang was someone who could refer to Lin Yi by her nickname.

"That's not acceptable!

If she can't marry that boy, she must marry someone from the Li Family!

From birth, she was destined to be part of the Li Family, and nobody can change that!

I entrust this matter to you.

Whatever it takes, get rid of the man Little Yi brought home.

If push comes to shove, don't hesitate to employ other methods!"

Hearing these words, Aunt Wang's expression shifted slightly.

What could she say when the old man on the phone had spoken thus?

After hanging up, she hesitated.

"That Li Chen, he seems to be no ordinary guy, and he has a good temperament too.

If the young lady were to be with him, it would be quite nice, but...”

“Forget it, this isn’t something this old woman can meddle in.

In the upcoming months, the families in Yanjing will certainly be too preoccupied to help.

Let’s just cover for you for a few months first!”

...

Li Chen was completely unaware that he had been marked and someone was planning to drive him away.

At this moment, he was meditating on the bed.

Fortunately, he had just coughed up a mouthful of fresh blood, getting rid of all the congested blood in his body, otherwise, his health would have been worse.

Even so, three hours later, he still felt a sense of weakness.

It’s been a long time since he was this seriously injured.

The dozen men who took the zombie drug were truly terrifying in terms of combat power.

Combined with the poison from Sicalin in Lin Yi’s body, even though he was known as the King of the Netherworld, he was still human after all, not a god.

Thinking back on the day’s events, Li Chen slowly figured out what had happened.

It was clear that Lin Yi’s poisoning with Sicalin’s toxin was no accident, it was intentional.

And then there was the emergence of Shouzi Shenglang.

What kind of strength did Shouzi Shenglang possess?

Li Chen was very clear about that.

Even if Shouzi Shenglang wanted to kill him and take his place, it wouldn’t be easy, not with his laboratory, which wasn’t something Shouzi Shenglang could just destroy.

Having an inside man was one thing, but what could Shouzi Shenglang offer to turn Wolf Dog and Ghost King against him?

Wolf Dog wasn't doing badly by his side, he had even won over Alice, and with his own strength and status, he was practically a king in North America.

As for the Ghost King, there was even less need to mention.

After working with him for so long, his status was even higher than Wolf Dog's.

What reason would they have to betray him?

Whatever conditions Shouzi Shenglang could offer, he could match!

In fact, Li Chen still had one doubt in his mind, which was how the Ghost King and Wolf Dog managed to get here.

Alice had reported to him that his laboratory was just recently destroyed.

His laboratory was unimaginably far from Huaxia, it would take about eighteen hours by plane...

Could it be that Alice deceived him?

Impossible, anyone might deceive him, but not Alice.

Li Chen hadn't forgotten the circumstances under which he had taken in Alice.

At that time, in the United States, Alice was just a fifteen or sixteen-year-old child, begging on the streets with her sister, who was about seven or eight years old.

It was he who gave them hope to live, he who gave them a bright future.

And Alice hadn't let him down.

In management, she had demonstrated unmatched talent.

Alice had saved him, and he had saved her; they could be said to be very good friends.

Although Li Chen's judgment wasn't the best in the world, he had no doubts about Alice.

With that thought, he immediately got out of bed and turned on his computer again.

On the other side, Alice had quickly tidied up her appearance.

She wasn't as disheveled as before, but one could vaguely see the busy figures behind her.

The laboratory had been destroyed, and it would take a large sum of money to rebuild it, especially the research materials and personnel, the losses were substantial.

“Alice, tell me, when the laboratory was destroyed, were Wolf Dog and Ghost King really there?”

Li Chen asked as soon as he saw her.

“They were there, definitely there!

I even clashed with the Ghost King, there’s no mistaken it!”

Alice said with certainty.

“Then... Alice, I have something to tell you, because... just now, I killed the Ghost King!”

“What?!”

8: Chapter 8 8: Chapter 8 After a sleepless night, Li Chen was very restless.

Why did the Ghost King appear at the base but also in Huaxia at the same time?

Could the Ghost King that fought with Alice have been a fake?

Because Alice had said that her opponent was masked.

However, it seemed unlikely.

How could Alice possibly mistake someone else for the Ghost King?

And they had even clashed.

With Alice’s abilities, it wasn’t possible that she’d assert something like that without being certain.

So...

the Ghost King that fought with him was a fake?

That was even less likely.

Could someone’s appearance change?

And then there was the Ghost King’s speed, which was unmatched in the world.

The one he fought with was definitely the real one.

But...

Something seemed off, and Li Chen suddenly couldn't find his train of thought.

Playing with the dagger in his hand, Li Chen's face showed a contemplative expression.

Suddenly, he noticed a trace of blood still on the dagger.

This bloodstain belonged to the Ghost King, whom Li Chen had killed with a direct stab.

"No...

no, did I really kill the Ghost King with just one stab?"

Li Chen suddenly realized the crux of the problem.

He didn't deny that, in his prime, he could kill the Ghost King in a second.

Even under the circumstances of the previous day, catching the Ghost King by surprise and killing him was within reason.

But was the Ghost King such a foolish person?

Shouzi Shenglang might not be aware of his own strength, but could the Ghost King also be oblivious?

After following him for eight years, with the cunning of the Ghost King, it was impossible that he didn't understand Li Chen's capabilities.

Despite this, he still dared to pretend in front of him?

And he even took the initiative to try to kill him?

The character of the Ghost King was something Li Chen understood very well.

He was someone who preferred to bide his time, a schemer.

The last thing he liked was to put himself in danger.

The Ghost King he killed didn't seem to understand him at all and charged at him, which was precisely why Li Chen was able to kill him outright.

Not knowing how formidable one's opponent is, one could die without even knowing how it happened.

Clearly, the Ghost King had made such a mistake.

There was a problem; the Ghost King he killed was definitely problematic!

Li Chen finally understood the key to the situation, though he was still somewhat unclear about the reasons.

Just then, it became morning, and there was movement in Lin Yi's room.

After freshening up, Li Chen had just stepped out the door when he saw Lin Yi was also coming out.

Lin Yi had just woken up.

Though she had freshened up, her face still carried a touch of laziness.

Without any makeup and dressed in cartoon pajamas, she wore a pair of cotton slippers on her feet.

Startled by a man staring at her, Lin Yi's heart fluttered for a moment, but she quickly remembered...

It seemed that she and this man had just registered their marriage yesterday?

If Li Chen knew what Lin Yi was thinking at that moment, he would have been even more frustrated because Lin Yi had actually forgotten him...

forgotten him.

After all, they had registered their marriage, and it was extraordinarily careless of Lin Yi to have forgotten about him.

"Hey, wife, you're up?"

Li Chen didn't know these thoughts and wanted to tease Lin Yi upon seeing her.

Wife...

wife?

The moment she heard this word, Lin Yi shivered.

Then she frowned and gave Li Chen a frosty look.

"From now on...

I don't want to hear those two words!"

“So what should I call you in the future?”

Actually, I also feel that the word ‘wife’ doesn’t quite express the feelings between us.

How about I call you Little Yiyi from now on, is that okay?”

Li Chen continued with an innocuous smile.

“You...

you’re not allowed to call me that either!”

Lin Yi felt like he was going insane, ever since the first sight of Li Chen, his mood had never been good.

And... wasn’t this man shamelessly thick-skinned?

He had just shown his disdain for him, couldn’t he see that?

“Then what should I call you?”

‘Wife’ won’t do, ‘Little Yiyi’ also won’t do, should I call you ‘dear’?

Or maybe ‘Little Darling’...”

With every word Li Chen spoke, Lin Yi felt a pile of goose bumps rising.

Did this man have no shame at all, saying such things?

Had he forgotten that they were merely in a contract marriage?

Turn his head, and walk away straight away!

Lin Yi had realized that this man was beyond reason.

You shouldn’t talk to him, the more you talked the angrier you got.

“Hey, ‘Wife’...

‘Little Yiyi’...

‘Dear’...

‘Little Darling’...

don’t leave, let’s have a proper talk...”

Li Chen was shouting from behind, and in the end, Lin Yi simply plugged his ears.

...

Downstairs, Aunt Wang had already prepared breakfast, and Lin Yi started to eat as soon as he arrived.

Lin Yi didn't eat very quickly, he ate at a moderate pace, but he looked truly beautiful while eating, without any trace of artifice, presumably he would be like this at home too.

Li Chen didn't stand on ceremony and sat down right next to Lin Yi.

It was obvious that Lin Yi's body shifted to the side a bit, but he didn't say anything.

Li Chen ignored this, he was really hungry, and when he saw the food on the table, he started to wolf it down.

In an instant, Li Chen felt as if he was the only person in the world, along with the heap of food in front of him.

"Hmm..."

"What is this thing, why is it so squishy?"

Li Chen subconsciously grabbed something, about to put it to his mouth when he realized something was wrong.

Around him, there seemed to be killing intent.

Another look at the thing in his hand...

Not good, he had grabbed Lin Yi's little hand.

"Ahem... I mean... I ate too quickly just now, I'm going to step out for a walk."

After that, Li Chen ran out of the villa without looking back.

If he didn't leave now, Lin Yi's gaze could have killed him on the spot.

In fact, he wanted to take the opportunity to leave the villa.

As for Lin Yi, he couldn't say he felt anything in particular, yesterday was interesting, so he just went along with the other.

As for now...

he was confused whether to play dumb and follow Lin Yi in the upcoming life, or to leave after the three months were up.

Seeing Li Chen running out, Lin Yi immediately pouted.

The reason she was so indulgent towards Li Chen was that the incident yesterday had indeed left a deep impression on her.

Li Chen was saving her, she was very clear on that, and that was enough.

The two were destined not to be people from the same world, so why should she be so harsh?

Being nicer to him, at least...

...

After Li Chen left, he walked around the villa and realized that rich people really knew how to enjoy life.

He could be considered well-off too, but he wouldn't go buy such a luxurious villa.

The villa Lin Yi had bought was nestled against mountains and near water, with a small river running around it.

Life here would be as enjoyable as it could get.

But just as he reached the riverbank, a figure appeared before him.

"Hey, is that not the Qilin Princess?"

Tsk tsk, I must have seen wrong last night, didn't expect you to have such substance!"

Seeing her, Li Chen teased her with a comment.

When the Qilin Princess heard this, no unusual expression appeared on her face, she just said coldly, "Ouyang Wan'er is already here, I'll take you to meet her."

"Let's meet then, putting on a sour face, you women are all the same!

One at home, and now another one here!"

Of course, these were Li Chen's inside thoughts.

As for Ouyang Wan'er, his desire to meet her was urgent, but he didn't know if the girl still remembered him or not.

9: Chapter 9 You Got Married?

9: Chapter 9 You Got Married?

In an off-road vehicle, a girl was sitting.

Her wavy curly hair gently scattered over her shoulders, giving her an appearance somewhat green but predominantly cute and vivacious.

Li Chen, upon seeing the girl, was also slightly surprised, but he quickly regained his composure.

“Are you Ouyang Wan’er?”

Yes, Li Chen knew the name but didn’t know what she looked like.

Qilin Princess stood beside, not saying a word.

“Yes, I am.

And you are?”

Ouyang Wan’er turned her small face, looking puzzled.

She didn’t understand why this man specifically wanted to see her; in the organization, she was a special existence who didn’t need to participate in missions, yet sometimes she had to intervene to save some people.

Indeed, she was a doctor by profession.

Li Chen didn’t answer directly but instead took out a jade pendant from himself.

“Take a look at this, and you should understand.”

The jade pendant was ordinary, but it had the character ‘Chen’ engraved on it.

Others might not take a second glance at this jade pendant, but Ouyang Wan’er, upon seeing it, showed a solemn expression on her face.

She looked at the jade pendant over and over again until finally, she also took out a jade pendant from herself.

It was made of the same material, but it had the character ‘Wan’ on it.

“Are you...

Brother Chen?”

Finally, Ouyang Wan'er spoke those words.

“What?”

“Don't recognize me after ten years?”

No sooner had Li Chen spoken than Ouyang Wan'er had already dashed out from the vehicle and tightly hugged him.

“Brother Chen, it really is you...”

Where have you been all these years, how come there was no news at all, do you know how hard Wan'er has searched for you, the mountains behind, I don't know how many times Wan'er has sneaked in there.”

Ouyang Wan'er spoke tearfully, each sentence profoundly stirring Li Chen's heart.

Yes, he shouldn't have impulsively left that place for ten years; over those ten years, who knows how many people had been concerned about him.

“Actually, I did send messages back, surely Grandpa didn't tell you; otherwise, I wouldn't know your current location, right?”

Li Chen knew of Ouyang Wan'er's position in the organization indeed through family messages.

Over the years he had left, Li Chen hadn't forgotten to occasionally contact his family and had learned some news.

This time when he had returned to the country, he didn't go home immediately because he hadn't yet decided how to face his family.

Li Chen didn't know who his parents were; since he could remember, he had lived with several grandpas in a village, behind which there was a big mountain.

He still remembered Third Grandpa carrying a medicine basket on his back going up the mountain to gather herbs every day, always bringing back things like wild chickens and hares for him, along with some unknown fruits each time.

He also remembered Fourth Grandfather calculating some strange numbers with him every day, only now did he realize what those numbers meant.

He, having left at the age of fifteen, had managed to build such a great foundation at such a young age, which was inseparably linked to his grandfathers' teachings.

“Is that so?”

Then Grandpa is too bad.

When I get back, I must pull their beards for daring to deceive me!”

Ouyang Wan’er heard that and immediately pouted and said.

“Haha, Third Grandpa’s beard hasn’t been spared from you plucking it out.

When we were kids, he often complained to Second Grandpa, saying you were too troublesome and that he regretted not choosing me instead.

I was so well-behaved when I was little.”

Li Chen and Ouyang Wan’er were both brought up together, and a few old men decided on who would adopt whom.

As a result, Li Chen followed Second Grandfather, and Ouyang Wan’er followed Third Grandpa.

Third Grandpa had superb medical skills, and Second Grandpa had extraordinary martial arts skills, which led to the current situation.

“Hmph, he’d probably cry if he had chosen you!

He never cooks, and neither do you; the two of you would just starve.

It was still me with the clever hands who did the laundry, cooked meals, made the bed, and even bought cigarettes...”

“Alright, are you the best-behaved or what?”

Li Chen said with a bitter smile, thinking to himself that this little sister sometimes really was very childlike...

Qilin Princess was completely taken aback by the side.

It was true that Ouyang Wan’er had a good temper, but she was always so cold when she spoke in the organization.

How did she change this much after seeing this guy?

“Of course!

By the way, Brother Cheen, did you need anything from me?

Do you want me to go back with you?"

Ouyang Wan'er thought about this matter; Li Chen's visit must have been for a reason, not just out of boredom.

"This...

no, I don't plan to go back yet; let's wait a little longer."

"Oh."

After hearing this, Ouyang Wan'er looked somewhat downcast.

"Well, there are still four or five months until the New Year.

How about we go back then and see?"

Li Chen essentially made a promise to Ouyang Wan'er.

Hearing this, Ouyang Wan'er finally cheered up a lot, as four to five months was not too long, and she would have some free time during the New Year.

"So, Brother Cheen, what did you need me for?"

"Well, I've been having some problems with my health, and haven't you studied that Five Elements Yimu Divine Needle with Third Grandpa?

Could you take a look for me?

I've been relying on some medicine to keep it under control, but lately, there have been some issues with the medicine, and I'm afraid it won't be delivered on time."

Li Chen was straightforward with Ouyang Wan'er, directly sharing his current predicament.

Upon hearing this, Ouyang Wan'er's face instantly showed a worried expression.

"Brother Cheen, give me your wrist.

I'll take a look."

...

A few minutes later, Ouyang Wan'er's expression was grave.

"Brother Cheen, tell me what exactly happened, what is this thing in your body?"

Ouyang Wan'er asked, but Li Chen couldn't give her any answer, as he himself didn't know what it was, only that it was a huge power.

Seeing Li Chen shake his head, Ouyang Wan'er did not continue.

Perhaps she knew, or perhaps even she didn't know.

"My Five Elements Yimu Divine Needle skills are not yet complete, but suppressing that power inside you shouldn't be a problem.

However, I can only suppress it for about ten days at a time, and during these ten days, you must not use your Inner Strength, or that power will erupt quickly.

If I'm not around when it does..."

"It's okay, ten days is enough.

I have some news for you—I'm married now and won't be fighting recklessly with others anymore..."

As Li Chen was speaking, Ouyang Wan'er's expression suddenly changed.

"You..."

you got married?"

10: Chapter 10 I Want Everything You Have!

10: Chapter 10 I Want Everything You Have!

"Yeah, I got married right after returning to the country, and the wedding was kind of confusing."

Next, Li Chen explained how he had gotten married.

When Ouyang Wan'er heard that Li Chen would be divorcing in three months, a smile appeared on her face.

"Brother Cheen, you sold yourself just for one million?"

Ouyang Wan'er felt that what Li Chen said was a bit exaggerated, but she still chose to believe him.

"Yeah, after returning to the country I was really broke.

I couldn't contact anyone, so what's wrong with slightly selling off my flesh for money?"

Li Chen gestured dismissively, his face full of sorrow.

If someone uninformed saw him, they might think his marriage was a matter of great misfortune.

“You should have said so earlier.

But I’m really curious, who is it that fell for you?

Given your current state, it must be a rich old lady, right?

And a very plump one?”

Ouyang Wan’er began joking with Li Chen.

“Haha, you guessed wrong there.

My wife is quite beautiful.

Look, the woman behind you should know.”

Li Chen pointed at Qilin Princess, actually unsure of her real name.

In the rankings of Heaven, Earth, and People, everyone used codenames, never their real names.

“It’s Lin Yi from Lin’s Group.”

Qilin Princess said flatly, her eyes clearly showing some surprise.

When she first saw the information, she too was startled.

Lin Yi was a high-priority protection subject for them, and now she had married this man of unknown background.

“What?

Brother Cheen, the woman you mentioned is Lin Yi?”

Like the first time she heard the news, Ouyang Wan’er showed an extremely shocked expression.

“Haha, how about that?

The loss isn’t too bad, right?

At least the wife is decent.”

Li Chen said with a swagger.

“Brother Cheen, don’t you know how famous Lin Yi is in Linchuan City?

Don’t you know that every man in Linchuan wants to marry Lin Yi?

Where’s the loss here?

You struck it big, seriously!”

Ouyang Wan’er truly felt like punching Li Chen.

He had made himself sound so pitiable before, selling his flesh for money, yet who would have thought it was to Lin Yi?

If such good fortunes were possible, forget about being paid, people would probably line up from Linchuan all the way to Zhonghai just for the opportunity.

From Linchuan to Zhonghai is about four hundred kilometers.

Assuming two people per meter, that’s two hundred thousand meters, able to accommodate four hundred thousand people...

“Where’s the profit in that?

I’ve been at a loss, okay?

She’s cold as ice.

None of that warmth I get from my Wan’er.

Besides, Wan’er and I have a childhood betrothal.

How about we get married when I return home for the new year?”

Li Chen then teased Ouyang Wan’er a bit.

Hearing the term “childhood betrothal,” Ouyang Wan’er blushed.

Indeed, they had been engaged since they were little, a match made by the elders in their families.

Although it was common knowledge, she felt somewhat bashful having it mentioned in public.

“Hmph, who would want to marry you?”

You’ve already been married.

That’s too much of a disadvantage for me.”

Ouyang Wan’er said, hanging her head.

Watching from the side, Qilin Princess turned her head away.

After all, she was considered the most beautiful flower in their organization, and it was unexpected that she would be so easily taken.

“So what should we do?”

Maybe you should get married once too?

No, no, that would be too much of a loss for me.

I’ve hated losing out since I was a kid; better let me take advantage a bit more...”

...

The two of them talked for a long time, and Ouyang Wan’er gave Li Chen a few needles, immediately making him feel much better all over.

Shouzi Shenglang probably wouldn’t dare to come by again soon.

Once the lab develops the Z substance, he would no longer have anything to fear.

If he returned to his village for the new year, maybe the old man at home could cure him.

Ouyang Wan’er had not gone to Lin Yi’s villa because she said she would feel awkward if she did.

After all, in a certain sense, the relationship between Li Chen and Lin Yi was only a contractual marriage that would be annulled after three months.

That place was Lin Yi’s home, and for Li Chen, it was merely a temporary residence.

By the time Li Chen returned home, it was already past ten o’clock.

Aunt Wang did not have much to do all day; since Lin Yi seldom came home for lunch, she would clean the villa when she had nothing else to do, which was why the entire villa was very clean.

Ever since he found out that Aunt Wang was also an expert, Li Chen could no longer underestimate this middle-aged woman.

Despite her constantly gentle demeanor, he guessed that he would have a hard time overpowering her if she really made a move.

“Hello, Aunt Wang.”

Upon returning, Li Chen immediately greeted Aunt Wang.

“Hello, young master.

What would you like for lunch?

I will go to the supermarket to buy some groceries soon.”

Aunt Wang responded cheerfully.

“Hmm...

I feel like eating braised beef with potatoes.

It has to be shank meat to be delicious, and it needs to be fresh.”

“No problem.

Aunt Wang’s beef dishes are second to none.

You just wait.”

“That’s great.

Thank you, Aunt Wang.

I’ll head to my room now.

Call me if you need anything.”

After speaking, Li Chen smiled and headed to his room.

Actually, to tell the truth, he was starting to like this kind of life, carefree every day, with someone to take care of the household, and a wife who was beautiful as a flower.

The only pity was that the wife had nothing to do with him.

Although they lived in the same villa, and the distance was close, Li Chen had recently been too drained to think about anything else.

The laboratory was trouble enough, and he had no idea when it would be resolved.

Z material was now his lifeline.

Without it, he could be in danger at any moment.

The real Ghost King and a Wolf Dog, as for Shouzi Shenglang, he did not take him seriously.

What he cared more about was the person standing behind the Ghost King and Wolf Dog.

Such a big incident, to say there was no one behind it, Li Chen would never believe it.

So, who was the person behind all this?

After thinking for a long time, Li Chen eliminated group after group of people, and eventually, he took out his phone.

Guessing like this was no solution; it was better to try to find out clearly.

The phone was quickly answered, and Li Chen said, "The real King of the Netherworld!"

"Yes, Master!"

A woman's voice came from the other end.

"Shadow, do me a favor.

My laboratory in North America was destroyed.

Go and find out who did it.

Also, keep an eye on someone for me.

His name is Ghost King, he used to be under my command.

You should know him.

Once you find out where he appears, tell me immediately."

"Yes, Master!"

“One more thing, don’t expose your trace.

I don’t want everyone to know about my last trump card!”

“Yes, Master!”

Li Chen hung up the phone, but he could never have imagined that at that moment, in a secluded manor in Linchuan City, a woman was also hanging up the phone.

After hanging up, she looked towards the man beside her.

“What?

Did he call?”

“Exactly as you predicted, he still thinks Shadow is his last card.”

The woman slowly spoke, then slowly walked over to the man and leaned on him.

At this moment, a gleam flashed in the man’s eyes as he muttered, “King of the Netherworld, I want not only your life but also your woman, everything of yours!”