

GORGEOUS CEO FELL IN LOVE WITH ME

Chapter 8: Devil's Rules

"Rules? What rules?" Lin Fan asked curiously.

"Of course, the rules for living here. I discussed it with Yanyu, and we decided on three rules for you." Feng Chengcheng tilted her cute little nose and said coquettishly.

"Don't worry, boss, I absolutely won't install miniature cameras in your room. As for the three rules, let's forget about it." Lin Fan said awkwardly, as he didn't like living with restrictions.

It was fine until Lin Fan mentioned miniature cameras, which caused Feng Chengcheng's face to change immediately. She panicked and said, "Who... who installed miniature cameras in your room? You scoundrel, don't falsely accuse people!"

"Oh, Miss Feng, when did I say you installed miniature cameras in my room? Did you really do something in my room? No, I need to quickly check my room." Lin Fan pretended to look panicked and turned to leave.

Su Yanyu looked uneasy. She had also secretly watched for a long time last night. If Lin Fan found miniature cameras in the room, what then?

"Stand still!" Su Yanyu immediately shouted.

"What's up, boss?" Lin Fan turned his head and asked curiously.

"I didn't allow you to leave. You're not allowed to go. Sit back down!" Su Yanyu, exerting her authority as a president, pointed to the chair in front of her and said forcefully.

Lin Fan awkwardly touched his nose and had to obediently sit back down!

"Chengcheng, go get paper and a pen!" Su Yanyu said sternly.

Feng Chengcheng immediately jumped off the chair and fetched paper and a pen!

"I'll say it, and you write it down!" Su Yanyu said to Feng Chengcheng, then seriously looked at Lin Fan, commanding, "The first rule, no drinking, and no bringing strangers back to the villa!"

"Yanyu doesn't like vulgar women, so this first rule is necessary. But I bet no woman would be willing to come back with you anyway..." Feng Chengcheng rolled her eyes at Lin Fan disdainfully.

Lin Fan felt dejected, thinking, what do you mean no woman would want to come back with me? Just take a good look at my face, am I really that bad? Come on! I'm quite a handsome guy!

"Second rule, the second floor is a private space for Chengcheng and me. Without our permission, you're not allowed to go up there." Su Yanyu continued.

"That's right! I think he looks sneaky, surely has a habit of peeping!" Feng Chengcheng raised her hand in agreement.

"Third rule, you're not allowed to use the bathroom in the villa. Feel free to use the one in the yard, and remember to flush and wash your hands afterwards..."

"Fourth rule, if we go out together, you must keep a hundred-meter distance from me..."

"Then how am I supposed to protect you closely?" Lin Fan grumbled.

"Aren't you the expert? This is exactly the time to test your skills!" Su Yanyu said domineeringly.

"Fifth rule, all cleaning in the villa is your responsibility from now on..."

"Sixth rule, you must be ready to cook for us whenever we're hungry..."

"Seventh rule, if you dare to disgust me and Chengcheng again, all your points will be deducted immediately!"

Su Yanyu looked at Lin Fan with disdain, thinking about how she almost threw up bile just now.

"I'll add the eighth rule!"

Just as Su Yanyu opened her mouth, Feng Chengcheng suddenly interjected.

This girl surveyed Lin Fan's gaze sneakily, then suddenly shouted, "Eighth rule, you're not allowed to stare at Yanyu's chest."

Lin Fan nearly stumbled off his chair in shock!

I'm being wronged! I wasn't sneaking looks at Su Yanyu's chest; I was clearly only sneaking looks at yours!

"Yanyu, look quickly, this scoundrel dares to stare at your chest, quickly deduct all his points!" Feng Chengcheng shouted, pointing at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was utterly speechless at this point!

"Feng Chengcheng, shut your mouth. If you keep talking nonsense, I'll rip it off!" Su Yanyu glared at Feng Chengcheng, pretending to be angry.

"I'm just worried about how beautiful Yanyu is and afraid this guy might have bad intentions, so I'm giving him a warning in advance." Feng Chengcheng pouted and muttered quietly.

Su Yanyu was both amused and exasperated, feeling helpless about her sister!

"That's all for now. The following rules must be adhered to unconditionally, and we reserve the right to add more..." Su Yanyu said sternly.

"I protest!" Lin Fan said, dissatisfied.

"Protest denied!"

Su Yanyu swiftly refused in one breath, asserting forcefully, "Since you used the kitchen, it's only right that you wash the dishes. You have ten minutes to sort it all out, then drive me to the Group."

With that, Su Yanyu gracefully turned and headed upstairs. Feng Chengcheng smugly tossed the paper filled with rules in front of Lin Fan, then chased after Su Yanyu on her bare feet.

Lin Fan was on the verge of tears. This isn't three rules; it's the devil's rules!

You can bully me, but you can't tread on my dignity! Even though I'm just a driver, I'm not a slave!

In less than ten minutes, Lin Fan had tidied everything up. After Su Yanyu came downstairs, they left the villa together!

Upon arriving at Yanyu Group, Lin Fan personally escorted Su Yanyu into the office building. Along the way, every employee greeted Su Yanyu with respect, not daring to show any negligence. Returning from the United States as an elite expatriate, this female president commanded both reverence and fear!

The President's Office!

Knock knock knock~

A series of knocking sounds came.

"Come in!" Su Yanyu said authoritatively, seated comfortably in the armchair.

Su Funong pushed the door open, and upon seeing Lin Fan, he once again bypassed Su Yanyu and greeted Lin Fan politely.

"Mr. Lin, how did you rest last night? Did Yanyu give you any trouble?" Su Funong asked with a smile.

Just as Lin Fan was about to express his grievances, a cold glare was fixed on him. Su Yanyu was staring at Lin Fan as if warning him to watch his words, or else she'd deduct all his points!

"Good! Very good!" Lin Fan said, swallowing his frustration.

Seeing this, Su Yanyu smiled triumphantly and gave Lin Fan a challenging look, making him curse under his breath in anger!

"Then I'm relieved." Su Funong sighed in relief and said to Su Yanyu, "Yanyu, now that you're back, I'm planning to hand over all authority to you. Do you have any plans for the Group's current situation?"

"I plan to introduce a scoring system for the Group!" As soon as business was mentioned, Su Yanyu became serious.

"Scoring system? What do you mean?" Su Funong asked, puzzled.

"The so-called scoring system involves tallying scores for each employee. Everyone starts with 100 points. Performance improvements result in added points, while drops result in deductions. Rewards and penalties will be based on these scores. Of course, if all points are deducted, you'll be directly fired. I don't need useless employees under me." Su Yanyu said with authority, exuding a queen-like aura.

Su Funong pondered for a moment and said, "That's a good idea. Anything else?"

"Nothing for now." Su Yanyu shook her head.

"Alright! I'll implement this system!" Su Funong said happily, feeling proud of his daughter internally.

Then he turned to Lin Fan and said, "By the way, Mr. Lin, without any official position in the Group, coming and going might be inconvenient. How about I appoint you as a vice president? We can set up your office next to Yanyu's to ensure her safety."

"Dad! A vice president is a high position; it's too careless to appoint someone randomly like this!" Su Yanyu's brows furrowed as she said in a deep voice.

Su Funong's attitude toward Lin Fan made Su Yanyu quite uncomfortable. Lin Fan seemed more like Su Funong's child than she did... No, wait... like the son!

Lin Fan hadn't anticipated Su Funong being so accommodating. Although Lin Fan was tempted by the idea of playing at being a vice president, he knew he was here to work, not to play!

Lin Fan rationally replied, "Chairman Su, let's forget about the vice president position. If a vice president appears in the Group out of thin air, it could attract enemy attention. My task is to protect the president, so I must conceal my identity. Just assign me a regular position."

"Haha, I was too hasty. Mr. Lin is quite foresightful. So, Mr. Lin, which department do you prefer?" Su Funong asked with a somewhat awkward smile.

"Anywhere is fine with me." Lin Fan shrugged nonchalantly.

"Then how about..."

"Go to the Marketing Department!" Su Yanyu suddenly interjected, a peculiar look in her eyes.
