

Got Busted 1019

Chapter 1019 It hurts

Sebastian Yates looked at this scene, his face went white, and then went forward and asked Hou Chaosi with concern: "Little monkey, it's good that you are fine, and you are worried about me."

Hou Chaosi was a little shy when she saw Sebastian Yates, but she just changed from a girl to a woman. Whoever saw it would be shy.

Timothy Greene looked up and looked around, then asked, "Where's Juliana Lewis? How is she ...?"

Sebastian Yates was very upset at Timothy Greene and said coldly, "Master and Father are gone. Let me wait for the little monkey here. Put her down quickly. I will inject antidote into you."

Although the happy poison is solved, they still have neurotoxins of hallucinogens, which stay in the body for too long and damage their nerves.

Timothy Greene put Hou Chaosi on the sofa: "You inject her first."

Sebastian Yates rolled his eyes and gave him. "Do you still need to say this?"

Antidote, of course, is to inject little monkeys.

Hou Chaosi said anxiously: "Sebastian Yates, you inject Mr. Gu first, I am fine."
