Chapter 1291 Deadly-

Juliana Lewis sank directly into Benson Leach's arms.

Benson Leach hugged her tightly and looked down to smell the faint fragrance on her body. "I can't blame you, sitting there and looking at me straight, as if you were going to take my soul away."

Really.

As long as it's Juliana Lewis, she doesn't need to do much more.

It only takes a look to make him want to stop.

Juliana Lewis smiled and pointed his finger on his chest: "I am not firm, and I blame it."

"Who makes Mrs. Li beautiful?" Benson Leach grabbed Juliana Lewis's finger.

He looked up at her. "How's it going?"

Juliana Lewis looked down at Benson Leach and felt that he should still be given a kiss.

So, she held Benson Leach's face, bowed her head and kissed him heavily, just about to retreat.

But Benson Leach has clasped Juliana Lewis's waist and deepened the kiss.

Juliana Lewis was almost breathless when he was kissed before he was released.

While she was sitting in Benson Leach's arms, she could clearly feel his physical changes.

It's shameful.

Juliana Lewis blushed, clenched his little fist, and gave Benson Leach a gentle hammer.

Channing Payne joked with a smile: "Li Ye, little lady."

Everyone else pointed to Channing Payne. "Pete asked us to peek. It's none of our business."

Then, they clattered up and ran away.

Channing Payne tried to run, but he couldn't.

Because Juliana Lewis and Benson Leach were stuck in the doorway with their breasts in their hands, and looked at Channing Payne with a gentle smile on their faces.

Channing Payne knew it was useless to ask Benson Leach, and he could only look at the landing wine eagerly: "Little madam, you are so beautiful, gentle and generous, virtuous..."

Juliana Lewis looked at Benson Leach sideways: "Husband, is your family special help coveting me?"

Channing Payne just tried to shoot a rainbow fart, but he caught a biological weapon.

"Only Li Ye is worthy of a woman like a young lady. As for me, I only dare to look up and dare not covet."

Little madam is a little difficult to serve today.

Why did he choose today to take his subordinates to peek and eavesdrop?

Don't you just want them to see, Li Ye can't see people's side?

Benson Leach smiled at Channing Payne. "Channing Payne, are you on a blind date recently?"

"Huh?" Channing Payne froze and looked at Benson Leach in disbelief.

Zhangbao co.

A small artist came to the company to get the script and went downstairs.

The security guard was patrolling and saw the little artist: "Miss Lin, you are still in the company late at night."

Lin Yin: "Yes, I forgot an important script, so come and get it myself."

She is still a new artist and has no assistant at all, so she can only do things by herself.

Security guard: "Did you get it?"

Lin Yin smiled: "Take it well, don't bother you."

The security guard likes this little artist very much. He is very sweet and has a good temper, mainly making progress.

I won't look down on their security work like some other artists.

Lin Yin: "I'm leaving, can you have a rest? I think there is no one else in this building."

Everyone was going home from work.

The lights are off in the office building.

Few people work overtime in this company.

Security guard: "Yes, Boss Wolfgang people are very nice, so work is easy."

Juliana Lewis let people take hot water, and then let Lin Yin drink it.

Lin Yin was in shock, and the whole person was still shivering. He grabbed the hand of landing wine and refused to let go.

"Wine, wine." Benson Leach is coming.

Juliana Lewis looked up at him: "Ah Cheng, how is it now?"

Benson Leach: "The police are investigating."

He only asked politely, "How is she? Is she all right?"

After all, he is an artist of wine and wine, and he really asked so casually and politely.

Juliana Lewis was appeasing Lin Yin and said, "Not very good."

The scene just now is a subversive sensation for normal people.

It will leave psychological shadow and trauma.

Benson Leach gave a faint huh.

Lin Yin heard Benson Leach's low voice and couldn't help looking up at him.

Chapter 1295 Fear of Death-

In Juliana Lewis's memory, I really haven't seen Mrs. Mu.

The policewoman asked a few words about Juliana Lewis within the scope of her work.

Seeing that she couldn't ask, the policewoman said, "Before the case is found out, please don't leave S City for Mrs. Li."

"And because the case is special, we will find Mrs. Li at any time. Please ask Mrs. Li to cooperate with the investigation."

Juliana Lewis's absolute cooperation: "Yes."

She had planned to go to F City at the end of the year to pick up her grandmother.

It seems that it should not work.

Juliana Lewis has an alibi tonight, so he won't stay long and can leave.

As for Lin Yin.

Lin Yin is still pale and has been afraid to leave people.

Benson Leach looked at the landing wine. "Little wine, you're not going to take her home, are you?"

He is also helpless.

In other couples, wives are afraid that their husbands will take women home.

When you come to him, it's completely reversed.

Benson Leach didn't know much about Mrs. Mu.

But whether it's homicide, suicide or death in Palm Treasure Company, it's all for landing wine.

It's really dead, and it doesn't make people feel better.

You deserve to die.

Benson Leach had no sympathy for Mrs. Mu's death.

Besides, his emotion is inherently weak.

Juliana Lewis also felt a headache: "Death won't make me feel better. This price is quite high."

Benson Leach: "Don't think about it, let the police check it out."

Juliana Lewis gave a cry.

The news that Mrs. Mu jumped down from the top floor of Zhangbao Company spread all over the network.

"Is Miranda Sanchez not dead, saved in a car accident, and then transformed into Juliana Lewis, and now he is back for revenge?"

"If this is possible, then I think this routine is really cool."

"Is that Juliana Lewis who died?"

"Although I support Miranda Sanchez's revenge, Juliana Lewis is innocent."

"You think so much. Mrs. Mu can raise such a sick son. What kind of good person can she be? When she dies, she will respond to people in this way."

"As long as it is suicide, as for Juliana Lewis is Miranda Sanchez, it is outrageous."

Originally, Mrs. Mu jumped from the palm treasure company and high-rise buildings, and felt that there was a conspiracy or something.

But people still don't believe that Juliana Lewis is Miranda Sanchez.

This difference is too big.

It's impossible at all.

Netizens didn't take this matter to heart.

Juliana Lewis looked at the information, but he frowned deeply.

Juliana Lewis glanced at his cell phone and then looked up at Benson Leach.

Benson Leach said, "I'll go with you."

Yes, it was the police.

I asked Juliana Lewis before if she had seen Mrs. Mu before she died.

Juliana Lewis's answer is that after the cleaning incident, I haven't seen you again.

But now.

Mrs. Mu almost crashed and died in front of Juliana Lewis.

For this point.

Juliana Lewis said firmly in front of the police: "That day, I didn't know it was her, I thought it was touching porcelain."

"You have seen the surveillance and you will know it."

Police: "We just asked, because the last time we asked you, you said you hadn't seen it."

Juliana Lewis frowned.

She could only say again: "I did, I didn't recognize her."

Chapter 1299 Coincidence-

Juliana Lewis said: "I didn't lose my temper. After all, they are officials and I am businessmen."

"I just ask some questions and throw out some answers."

The problem, of course, is about some cases in this city.

Answer, but about her opinion.

In a word, Juliana Lewis talks in Kan Kan.

Those people were sweating profusely, and Alexander's was very.

They think that a businessman in Juliana Lewis can see the essence of everything, but they don't know it.

Also, some problems and things that Juliana Lewis said really make people feel big.

If you are not careful, you will be fired.

In a word, for more than an hour, they were afraid to ask Juliana Lewis any more questions.

All the time, I broke out in a cold sweat and answered questions carefully.

As for fierce Juliana Lewis?

Juliana Lewis looked at the next date. Today happens to be Tuesday.

Juliana Lewis smiled and said, "That's my coincidence."

The elevator door opened.

Li relaxed to block the elevator door and let Juliana Lewis in very gentlemanly.

Juliana Lewis nodded slightly. "Thank you."

Li relaxed and smiled: "The three younger siblings are too polite."

Juliana Lewis smiled.

Of course you're welcome. She's not familiar with Li.

Li Baiqing pressed the floor, looked at the landing wine and said, "Third sister-in-law, you are really polite. We are a family, so we don't have to do this."

Juliana Lewis just smiled faintly and then asked, "Didn't Auntie come?"

At this time, I asked Xia Yunzhu.

Li Baiqing: "No, after all, my aunt is not familiar with my dad."
