

Miss Mystery Got Busted Novel

Chapter 16: Kneeling down

Selene was so angry that she couldn't keep her smile when she realized what Juliana meant.

She looked at Juliana and said aggressively, "You still love Jayden. You're jealous and don't want to give your blessing. But why do you have to curse us?"

Juliana was looking at her phone without looking up: "The garbage matches the garbage can. What do I have to be jealous of?"

The garbage and the garbage can.

These words made Selene's sweet and aggrieved face twitch all of a sudden.

She wished to slap Juliana on the face.

Selene was in the sulks, "You married Mr. Leach, which is the envy of many women. Mr. Leach should not lose to Jayden except for his looks and personality, right?"

Juliana was editing a text message. When she heard this, her fingers paused slightly.

Thinking of that handsome and aloof man, she smiled slightly and said in a cold voice, "Jayden doesn't deserve to be compared with him."

Selene stared at Juliana as she said, "It seems that you're very happy with Mr. Leach and you've moved on from Jayden so quickly?"

Juliana looked up, laughed sarcastically, and continued to look down at her phone, not bothering to pay attention to Selene.

In Juliana's memory, Selene has always been an angelic bitch, who always pretended to be gentle and generous, giving in to Juliana, and being bullied by her in front of everyone.

But when there were only the two of them, Selene showed her true self, ridiculing and mocking Juliana and bragging about her relationship with Jayden.

Juliana often cursed and hit Selene when she was irritated by Selene, which then resulted in Juliana being hated by Jermaine and a reputation for being arrogant and domineering.

Juliana didn't pay any attention to Selene, because her skills were not even a tenth of Wendy's.

Selene stared at Juliana with a frown for a while. She had noticed that Juliana seemed to have changed since yesterday.

Although Juliana used to be arrogant and playful, she was obedient to her sister, even if she was pushed into the water.

Moreover, Juliana loved Jayden. She used to be jealous when she heard that Jayden was close to any woman, so how could she be so light-hearted now?

Juliana was faking it, wasn't she?

Selene lowered her head as she spoke in a soft voice: "You loved Jayden so much. I... I can give him up to you."

Her sudden words made Juliana look up at her and then to the door.

As expected, Jayden was standing at the door.

Before Juliana could say anything, she suddenly heard a thud.

She looked up and saw Selene kneeling down in front of her.

Selene knelt in front of Juliana, took off the diamond ring on her hand, and offered it with both hands crying, "Jill, I'll give Jayden back to you. And the diamond ring too."

She took a step forward on her knees: "I promise you everything as long as you don't hurt Jayden. I won't marry Jayden and I'll marry Benson Leach instead of you."

Jayden, who had just come in, immediately burst into a fury when he heard such words and saw his beloved girl kneeling on the ground.

Jayden stepped forward quickly, pulled Selene up, and shouted angrily, "Juliana, come at me for anything! What are you forcing Selene to do?"

Selene grabbed Jayden's hand and shook her head in tears, "Jayden, it has nothing to do with my sister. She didn't force me. It was all my own idea. Don't blame her."

Selene grabbed Jayden's hand and shook her head in tears, "Jayden, it has nothing to do with my sister. She didn't force me. It was all my own idea. Don't blame her." Jayden shouted angrily, "Selene, she has always made things difficult for you because she does not want you to be happy."

He turned to Juliana and shouted, "I will never fall for a slut like you even if I die! You should give up already!"

Chapter 17: Punishment

Juliana put away her phone and calmly raised her eyes to watch the two of them acting like two clowns.

Selene cried pitifully in grievance: "Sister is not like this. She is very nice. She is beautiful right now. She..."

Jayden looked at Juliana and ached at the thought of being chased and bitten by a dog: "She has a murderous heart. I'd rather marry a dog than this vicious woman!"

The two of them were talking, but they didn't hear Juliana speak.

They looked up at Juliana, who had her face resting on her hands and looked at them with great interest with her big, bright eyes as if they were actors on stage acting for her entertainment.

It left Jayden and Selene speechless.

The sudden silence made the air freeze in an awkward way.

Juliana looked at them: "Why did you stop? Go on, I haven't watched enough."

This comment made Jayden and Selene even more depressed.

Jayden looked at her and said angrily, "Juliana, I will never be fond of you! If I were to marry you, I'd really rather marry a dog!"

Juliana laughed lightly, "So, except for me, the only one you'd marry is a dog?"

She then looks at Selene: "If you want to marry Jayden, you have to learn how to bark first."

It was Selene's turn to look grim. She was cursed by Juliana again.

She lowered her head sadly and sobbed, "Jill, I won't marry Jayden, really, so you don't have to call me a dog and curse Jayden for being a trash can and infertile..."

Jayden was more furious: "Juliana, you are so vicious!"

With those words, Jayden raised his hand to slap Juliana's face fiercely.

Sitting on the sofa, Juliana felt the air fluctuations, looked up at Jayden's hand, and her face turned grim.

Then she stretched her long leg and kicked.

Bang!

Jayden was kicked in the abdomen, fell down, and hit the corner of the sofa hard, knocking him on his waist and causing him to scream out in pain.

Selene was stunned before she immediately stood in front of Jayden, crying and begging: "Jill, I beg you not to hurt him. I promise you everything. I won't marry him. I'll go to the Leach family for you."

Jayden was heartbroken when Selene protected him and he took her in his arms, "Selene, why are you begging her? She's a nutcase and a perfect match for Benson the madman."

Juliana stood up and walked over to them, looking down at them.

Jayden looked up and met Juliana's cold eyes, only to feel a chill run from the bottom of his feet to the bottom of his heart, which made him shiver.

How come Juliana suddenly became so powerful?

Selene was so scared that she hid behind Jayden because she saw the murderous look in Juliana's eyes.

She had the feeling that Juliana would really kill them.

"Juliana, do you have to make trouble and pick on your sister as soon as you come back?"

As the atmosphere became extremely icy, the sound of Jermaine's angry rebuke sounded from upstairs.

Juliana looked up and saw Jermaine standing at the stairway with a sullen face, while a charming lady stood beside him.

It was Jermaine's current wife - Suzanne Lewis.

Suzanne said to Jermaine, "The kids are just playing. Why are you so mean to Jill?"

After that, she scolded Selene with a sullen face, "Selene, apologize to your sister."

Comments

Gift