Chapter 46: PDA

Sebastian accepted things fast. It only took him a little while to accept that the good-for-nothing who once forced him into a relationship was his master.

He took the sealed bag, "Is it so urgent?"

Juliana said softly, "Yes, and don't tell anyone else."

It was about Benson's life and death.

And she would have liked to have the results in two hours if Sebastian hadn't been less competent.

Although Sebastian seemed to be quite unreliable, he was not at all hesitant in his business, "Okay."

Juliana asked him, "What's new with the ancient medical school now?"

"Nothing, why?" Sebastian finished his answer before asking her in doubt, "It's weird. You are my master and you should know the latest news faster than me."

Juliana didn't explain but just faintly asked back, "It can't be?"

And she didn't know if Wendy would also take her place in this identity to the ancient medical school.
