

Got Busted 57

Chapter 57: Paranoia

Benson narrowed his eyes slightly, "You're not coming back tonight?"

Although through the phone, Juliana still felt the danger.

Benson's aura was so strong!

But Juliana was not afraid of him and said truthfully, "My grandmother knew I was married to you and feared I would be killed by you, so she wouldn't let me go back."

Benson's voice went cold, "So?"

Juliana said, "Come over when you have time and let Grandma know that you are nice to put her off. Grandma's not well and I don't want to irritate her and go against her."

Benson's cold voice softened and he was even a bit pleasant, "I'm nice?"

Since his illness began, all that he heard was how crazy he was and how terrible he was.

Even if someone said he was good, it was flattering and false.

But Juliana was the first one to make him feel genuine.

Juliana, "Hmm?"

have missed the

said, "I'll be over there some time, so you can

packs and also made you a custom pillow.

listened to the soft voice and felt that all the mania

that if she was not around, he could also call and listen

from the other side, thought she was disconnected, and

eyebrows and said in a slightly raised blushed, "Mr. Leach, did you hear what

Benson insisted, "Husband."

little deeper, "Mr. Leach,

Leach, I like you to

that there was something wrong with this listening, it's your body anyway, not mine, and my phone is broken, so

said and hung up the phone phone hanging up and look at the phone with a frown. Was it that hard to get

woman

said, "Cancel all

there are two