Chapter 90: Help You

The home of the Leach family covered an extensive area with many recreational facilities and a small golf course.

There was no need to mention the open-air swimming pool.

What shocked Selene was that there was a medium-sized Sea World in their residence.

How could it be called a home? It was simply a tourist spot!

Selene couldn't help but take pictures with her phone. Everything luxurious had long exceeded her imagination of rich people.

She thought her family and the Hodges family were rich enough.

But compared to the Leach's, they were nothing!

Selene took a picture and tweeted it with the location.

She looked up and saw Juliana introducing a shark to Grandma and laughing with her.

Then she saw Jayden following them behind, his gaze falling on Juliana with an unintentional fascination in his eyes.
