Chapter 361 Fired

“Ms. Pamela, when Mr. White moved the company back to Lilyrose, you were just a fresh grad looking for a job. He took you in even when you didn’t have related work experience and he helped you a lot in your career. How can you just forget about that?”

“When Mr. White’s wife, Winnie, was pregnant, you tried to seduce White but got turned down. Mr. White showed you mercy because we were still young and transferred you to another branch so that his wife wouldn’t suspect anything. He saved your career as well could you forget that?!”

Megan's expression turned grim as she glared at Sophie who fired shots like a machine gun. Her dark past was displayed on the table, exposed for everyone to see and hear, yet she had no words to argue back. Sophie then switched her attention to Gino.

“Mr. Hebrew, you were one of the pioneers of the company but we all know you were not capable enough to keep up with the company’s expansion, yet you still embezzled money from the company.

“Mr. White didn’t kick you out for old time’s sake and transferred you to a branch that required less of you. Yet you badmouthed him behind his back and he still didn’t do anything to you even when he heard it!

“Before Shangrila went bankrupt, you stayed and didn’t betray the company because you were not even capable of doing that!” Gino was infuriated.

Sophie went on to criticize every other executive in the room.

Before Shangrila Group went bankrupt, she was one of the members of the board. She knew every other member’s dark past and their actions.

It was also why Megan gave her a hard time using her position.

Sophie's growl echoed across the room.

"All of you only remember how Mr. White drove the company to bankruptcy but never the good things he did!

"It's not even Mr. White's fault, or Kaze's fault. It's because the three families wanted to annex Shangrila Group. They were greedy and they already had their eyes on the company for a long time

"You dared not criticize the top three families and shifted all the blame on the deceased and his good friend who had a mental disability!"

In the end, Sophie shouted, "Every single one of you is afraid of the higher power but never seems to be afraid of bullying the weak!"

More than twenty executives of the company were being criticized mercilessly by a girl.

All of them were furious as they glared at Sophie. If their gazes could kill, Sophie would have died ten thousand times over. "Sophie Song, you little bitch! I'll slap your mouth off your face!"

Gino bolted up angrily and raised his hand at Sophie.

She was stunned. Her face turned pale as her mind went blank.

Splat!

Right before Gino's hand could touch Sophie, a strong hand ceased his wrist and stopped him. "If you hit her, I will break you," Kaze said grimly and he tossed the man's hand away.

Gino rubbed his painful wrist as he stared at Kaze. He dared not choose violence anymore. Sophie regained her composure and looked uneasily at Megan and the others.

The small conflict pulled her out of her angry trance.

It was like a bucket of cold water diminishing the flame of her, and fear took over.

She got so carried away with her anger that she scolded Mega all the executives, and before she knew it, she offended every the room.

"Sophie, you are just a team leader. This isn't a place for you to ra your voice..."

When the executives finally reacted, they lashed out at Sophie as revenge.

"Sophie, you are fired! You don't need to come back tomorrow onward!" Megan said coldly.

She was the HR deputy director and Sophie's direct superior, so she had the right to fire the girl.

"It's over. My mother is still in the hospital and now I just lost my job Sophie's expression turned pale. The sudden gush of sorrow made her tear up.

Chapter 362 Live Footage

Sophie was no one and she could not possibly threaten Megan and the other executives.

Megan and the other executives focused their firepower on Kaz they got rid of Sophie.

“Kaze Lee, you piece of useless garbage! Listen up! If you dare foot in our company, I'll ask security to throw you out!” “If you get an arm or a leg broken in the process, don't blame m

Even the security chief, Carlos, who barely had any power in the company, joined the rest in threatening Kaze. Insulting Kaze and preventing him from entering the company was the main objective of Megan and the other executives. There were only so many executive positions in the company.

If Kaze became the COO, he would hinder more than one person's

Kaze was quiet as Megan and the rest ganged up on him. They took his silence as their victory.

“That's what we have to say and you better take our words seriously. Or else, we are business elites who have multiple powerful resources and we have more than one way to deal with you,” Megan said proudly as she lifted her chin.

She strutted past Kaze and walked out of the room.

“Hahaha! Today is a good day! It feels like Christmas!”

“That piece of garbage won't be showing up in Shangrila Group anymore.”

“leven

got a video of him. We can replay and see his humiliation over and over again.”

Megan and the executives left, leaving Kaze and Sophie, who was just fired and crying because she lost her main source of income to pay for her mother’s medical bills.

“Stop crying. Megan can’t fire you. You can continue working at Shangrila tomorrow,” Kaze said as he gave Sophie a piece of He admired the righteous girl and her sense of justice. Sophie accepted it and wiped her tears. She might or might not heard Kaze.

She looked at Kaze’s shirt smeared with cake and confetti. “| bet yo wife will worry if you go back like that. You should clean yourself up before you head home.”

“That’s what | am thinking right now. Can you buy me a set of new clothes?”

Sophie agreed.

Kaze gave her the money to run the errand for him. “Thank you.”

“You're welcome. You gave your ride to me.”

Sophie went out to buy a set of new clothes for Kaze and they were strangely fitting.

Kaze cleaned himself up in the washroom of Star Ocean Room before leaving with Sophie.

When Kaze returned to Horizon Mirror, he saw Darcy looking at her phone with a bitter look on the couch. Darcy immediately put her phone behind her back when she heard Kaze open the door.

"You're back. I heard from Miru that you went searching for a job at Shangrila Group. How was it?" Darcy asked with a normal look.

Kaze nodded with a smile. "It's okay, I'm starting there already." "That's great." Darcy looked somewhat disappointed. Then, Agnes came over with a strict face. "Kaze, you're 1. You didn't start anything at Shangrila. Miru sent us the video of you being bullied at the gathering.

"You lied to me saying you were joining some executive firm, it turned out that you were trying to use your connection with White to get a job there. The executives found out and humiliate you!" Someone took a video of Kaze being bullied at the gathering.

Gino sent the video to Miru and she immediately forwarded it to Darcy.

Darcy and her family found out about what happened.

It explained why Darcy was so nervous about keeping her phone away when he came in.

He saw the disappointment in Darcy's eyes because she assumed that he lied to her about getting a job.

Kaze explained immediately, "Darcy, I didn't lie to you. I am really working at Shangrila Group. Those people who bullied me just now, I'll get them tomorrow."

Darcy might or might not believe him but Agnes refused to accept his excuse.

“Get them? You were the one being bullied! You said nothing when they ganged up on you! Yet you are talking about tomorrow!?”

Agnes pointed at Kaze and shouted, “Kaze, you are already useless. How are you such a coward? Why didn’t you talk back when they ganged up on you?! You are really useless!

“If Darcy got robbed on the street, are you going to run away and leave her alone with the robber? “You are poor and powerless. You can’t find a job and can’t like a real man! How does it benefit Darcy by being with you?”

Chapter 363 Darcy Blames Herself “Mom, stop it!” Darcy shouted to stop her mother from berating Kaze.

“You stupid girl! | scolded him for your sake and you shouted at me? Look at how cowardly he is in the video! He’s nothing like a man!” Agnes yelled back with widened eyes.

Darcy said, “Kaze had gotten himself in a lot of trouble me. If he fought back and hurt someone, like what happen Radar, you would scold him for causing trouble for our fami matter what he does, you just have a reason to scold him!”

She had an epiphany.

Kaze did not fight or talk back because they were bullying him, her.

If she was the target, Kaze would have fought back.

She did not see Kaze as a coward. He simply did not want to cause trouble for the family. Kaze’s tolerance of the bullies and her mother’s scolding made Darcy feel bad.

“You! How dare you talk back to me!” Agnes was furious.

“Mother, Darcy isn’t trying to blame you. I know you are scolding me for my own good. You just don’t want to see me being bullied,” Kaze said to console Agnes and stop the mother and daughter from arguing.

He even poured a glass of water for her.

“Don’t get ahead of yourself! I am not scolding you for your own good! Don’t always act like the innocent when I scold you. You always keep quiet and wait for Darcy to save you! You make me look like the villain!”

Agnes slapped his hand away and strode to the stairs.

Kaze shook his head and sighed before he went over to Darcy.

“Darcy, come on. Everything is okay. I said I will get those who threw the cake at me today. I’m fine.”

Darcy sat down. Her eyes teared up. “I’m sorry, Kaze. I let you go look for a job. Don’t go back to Shangrila. Ja gone and the people there hate you. They won’t let you w

She blamed herself for what happened to Kaze.

How could Kaze get a job in his condition?

It was her fault for not arranging for Kaze to work at her comp

Kaze was forced to go to Shangrila Group and used his relationsh with James to get a position there.
“Darcy, but I’ve already started working there.”

Kaze felt bad when Darcy blamed herself for what happened to him.

He would rather Darcy scold him like Agnes did and not take all the blame on herself.

After watching the video, Darcy no longer believed Kaze could get a job at Shangrila Group. She decided to arrange a position for Kaze.

She did not spew her thoughts because she did not want to hurt his pride.

After a quiet night, a new day came.

Before Bersina Group was renamed to Shangrila Group, another executive meeting was held in the afternoon. Winnie called Kaze and asked if he wanted to attend.

She thought Kaze used the alias of Jesse White to frighten the top three families and refused to show himself in public, but Kaze said he would be there on time.

After the name-changing ceremony, Shangrila Group would on track and continue its development.

Therefore, he had to eradicate all the existing problems, including Megan and the executives who tried to get back at the company Kaze wanted to see the look on their faces when they learned the truth.

After yesterday, Sophie went home without taking Kaze's words seriously.

She knew Megan was a vicious woman.

There was no way Megan would let her stay after what happened yesterday.

After Sophie visited her mother at the hospital, she went back to the office in the afternoon to settle the resignation.

"I heard Sophie slept with someone and Ms. Pamela found out about it. That's why she got fired!"

Chapter 364 The Executive Meeting

"She's not married. What's wrong with sleeping with a man? It's a private affair. The company can't meddle with her personal life."

"But that guy is someone with a mental disability and spent a few years in a psych ward. He's the son-in-law of the Quint family! "No way. Sophie has that kind of fetish? She's into a retard?"

"Sophie is here! Shhh!"

Sophie heard her colleagues talking about her when she entered the HR department.

They zipped it when she arrived but continued to look at her strangely.

Some looked at her coldly while some with contempt, but most of them gloated at her. Sophie felt anxious, surrounded by unfriendly looks that fueled her anger.

She did not expect Megan to fabricate a story to slander her and Kaze.

The fake story had already started to circulate in the office.

Megan wanted to tarnish Sophie's reputation even after she was fired.

Sophie was fuming. Her lips were shaking as she tried to argue but she suppressed the urge. The more she explained, the worse the situation would get and it would only do more harm than good, Acommon employee who was fired and the HR deputy director who had a bright future. Anyone with a sane mind would know who to believe.

“Sophie, I told you to come back to settle the resignation in the morning, why are you here now?”

Megan came out of her office and saw Sophie.

“The recruit is coming. Someone move her stuff out from her workstation!”

Clank!

Sophie’s belongings on her desk were swept away and thro the hallway by her colleagues. Even her favorite mug was smashed.

“Sophie, this is what you get for defending that retard yesterday

“We used to work together but I am going to attend the executive meeting and welcome my bright future and you losing your job. How are you going to take care of your mother from now on?”

Megan stomped on the items on the floor before she strutted away coquettishly. Sophie squatted quietly and picked up her things.

She was devastated by what Megan said and she teared up.

“Megan did this?”

A piece of tissue was handed to her.

Kaze was already beside her before she knew it.

Sophie had a good look at him and said, “Kaze, what are you doing here? Go! If Carlos sees you here, he will throw you out by force!”

Carlos the security chief said he would throw Kaze out if Kaze set foot in the building and break his legs in the process.

“It's more like me throwing him out.”

Kaze helped her collect her items before they walked away from the HR department. When they entered the elevator, Kaze tapped on the 29th floor.

“Kaze, why are you going up? That's the meeting room. Megan and the other executives are having a meeting. I'll bring you to the lot and you can leave there. Don't go through the main entrance security guards will see you.”

Sophie was mortified. She wanted to press B1 and canceled

Kaze held her wrist and said, "From now on, you are also an e of Shangrila Group. We are going to attend the meeting." More than a hundred executives gathered in the main meeting ro on the 29th floor.

The CEO, Winnie, sat in front but not in the main seat. She was on the right side of the center seat.

Everyone knew the main seat belonged to the chairman, Jesse White.

No one had ever seen their mysterious chairman before, so they were curious.

"Ms. Souffle, is Mr. White attending the meeting today?" Megan asked.

Chapter 365 | Grant Her the Power

Winnie dressed up in branded clothes, giving her an entirely different image from when she was a full-time housewife.

She smiled and said, "Of course. The chairman will be here so

"Oh!"

The executives were delighted.

They respected and were grateful for the mysterious chairma brought them back to rebuild Shangrila Group.

Surprised, Megan straightened her body.

Compared to her current position, she preferred to be the chairman assistant, that was if she could get the chairman's attention. It was the fastest way to rise in the ranks.

She glanced at all the other executives and no one was as young and beautiful as she was, so she believed she would stand out.

More than a hundred pairs of eager eyes were glued to the door behind Winnie.

The chairman's office was an independent space and it was connected directly to the meeting room via a personal passage. The chairman would surely enter from that door.

Creek!

Under everyone's anticipated gaze, the door opened.

The anticipation of Megan and the other executives reached its peak as the chairman arrived.

Unfortunately, all of them were stunned when they saw the person at the door. Some of them got mad too. The one at the door was none other than Sophie in her bag, staring at the meeting room with a blank look. Slam!

Agitated, Megan slammed the table and shouted, "Soph you interrupt this meeting! You were already fired! Don't about asking Ms. Souffle to reinstate your position! There that you must follow!"

The shout woke Sophie from her blank state.

She did not know what happened up until now. She thought Ka joking with her when he tapped on the 29th floor.

There should be security guards outside the meeting room while the meeting ongoing.

Yet Kaze brought her into a strange room and went into a secret passageway to reach the other end of the meeting room. The strange room was spacious and grand, it looked like an expensive suite and it was even equipped with a personal pool. The strange thing was that no one stopped Kaze at all!

Sophie reached the meeting room at the end of the passageway.

She nervously looked at the table of executives and Winnie, who looked at her baffled.

"I'm sorry, Ms. Souffle, I am not here to ask you for a second chance. I know the rules!"

Winnie did not say a word. It was Megan who shouted again, "You know nothing!"

dare

“Do you know where you came from? That's the chairman's office! You know there are security guards outside the meeting room, so you snuck in through the chairman's office!”

The chairman's office? Sophie was more baffled than ever. Her face turned pale.

“Sophie, you got some nerves! How dare you sneak into the chairman's office? Who gave you the authority and access who sided with Megan, shouted at the girl as well.

“I granted her the authority and access!”

Kaze emerged from behind Sophie.

“Kaze Lee?! How dare you come back here!?”

Megan and the others were shocked to see him. They were furious with his interruption.

They believed Kaze did not take their warning seriously yesterday and came all the way here to disrupt the meeting so he could talk to Winnie himself, asking her for a position in the company.

He even asked for the COO's position based on his relationship with James.

Megan and the other executives would never let it happen.

“Ms. Souffle, no matter what this retard says, don't believe it! Don't forget he was the one who got Mr. White killed!” Gino and the others warned Winnie and prepared her for Kaze's trickery.

“Ms. Souffle, Kaze and Sophie trespassed the chairman’s office. They might have gotten access to the company’s secret. If our company secret is leaked, we might face a huge financial loss!”

Megan added, “I will call security to arrest them immediately and hand them over to the police!” “Yeah! Ms. Souffle, this retard here is the husband of the Quartet Group’s chairwoman. Maybe he is here with the same intention as those who wanted to find out about our chairman's identity! I'll seize him right away!”

Carlos, the security chief, came in and strode over to Kaze.

Slam!

Winnie slammed the table all of a sudden.

Her eyes were burning with rage as she glared at everyone. you all doing?” “Vv

Her shout stopped everyone from moving and talking. She then her seat and went over to the center seat, pulled the chair out to a suitable distance, and looked at Kaze respectfully.

“Mr. Chairman.”

Chapter 366 Fire All

Winnie’s words and actions shocked everyone in the meeting room like a bolt of lightning.

Everyone in the meeting room was petrified.

“W-What? This retard is the chairman?!”

“The chairman's name is Jesse White!”

Megan, Gino, and the other executives who attended the birthda event last night were shocked and aggrieved. They did not hold back in humiliating Kaze last night.

If Kaze was the real Jesse White, then none of them could escape t responsibility.

“Jesse White is just an alias the chairman uses. He used another identity as a cover to avoid those who hurt James and Shangrila Group so that he could announce the return of the company with a bang,” Winnie explained. Winne’s explanation crushed everyone’s hope.

“No!”

Megan's mind went blank. Her delicate face turned pale as paper.

Gino got so agitated and worked up that his face turned a deep shade of crimson. The pressure overwhelmed him. He felt a rushing stream and a salty taste in his throat.

Splat!

Blood gushed from his mouth.

The other executives who attended the event yesterday were horrified as well.

Some collapsed on the ground, some wet their pants, and some leaned on the table, panting heavily like a fish out of water.

The other executives were less shocked because they did not offend Kaze in any way, though they were still surprised that Kaze was the chairman.

Kaze was a well-known figure in Lilyrose, not because of fame, but because of him being the retard son-in-law of Everyone knew him. Everyone looked down on him, yet he top three families and reformed Bersina Group from the Shangrila Group to wage war on the Everia, Golding, and families.

They could not wrap their heads around the situation. Thump! Thump! Starting with Megan, Gino, and Carlos, all the other executives who attended the birthday event last night knelt before Kaze.

“Mr. Chairman! We are so sorry! We shouldn't have humiliated you or thrown cake at you. Please forgive us! We will never do it again!”

Megan and the others cried and begged. The arrogance and vicious tongue from yesterday were absent.

They regretted what they did to Kaze.

If they knew Kaze was Jesse White, they would never talk back at him, let alone humiliate him.

They went through two terrible years and had always wanted to return to the days when Shangrila Group was at its best.

They used to drive expensive cars, stayed in big houses, and followed James into war, conquering market after market to boost the or company's net worth.

When they received the call to come back, they were thrilled.

Now they realized it was Kaze who gave them the chance, yet they ruined it without knowing it.

Kaze stood before them with a condescending expression. He was not moved because they begged and cried. "Even until now, none of you know what you did wrong. It's no because you humiliated me or threw the cake at me." Kaze was thrown out of the Lees at fifteen, locked up in a psy ward, and married into the Quints as their son-in-law.

He had suffered worse than having cake in his face, which also trained him to be mentally invincible. Even if he had to suffer the humiliation of the world, he would not waiver.

He did not take th humiliation or the cake seriously.

Kaze said coldly, "What you did wrong is disrespecting James and his legacy! James is my friend, my brother! | rebuilt the company because of him, yet you people enjoyed the benefits he brought you and badmouthed him from the back. You disrespected him!

"You reaped the benefits yet don't want to share the burden. | dared not hire any of you to work for the company, neither would Winnie."

Kaze's frosty voice echoed across the meeting room like God's judgment. He announced the fate of Megan and the other executives. "From this moment onward, those who knelt on the floor will be fired by Shangrila Group!"

Chapter 367 Ideal Fantasy

Following Kaze's announcement, Megan and the others were devastated.

“Argh! | just bought a Cayenne! How am | going to pay for it now that | lose my job?!”

Cries and wails echoed across the meeting room.

“Get them all out of here!”

Kaze mercilessly fired Megan and the others.

A few minutes later, more than twenty executives were throw the office building with all the employees watching. They were thrown in front of the square where the stage was built tomorrow’s renaming ceremony.

This time, it was Megan and the executives’ turn to be looked at strangely.

“No! | will accept this! We are the ones in charge of Shangrila Group!” Megan shouted in frustration.

The others looked at her as if she was an idiot. They shared the same feeling but there was nothing they could do. Kaze was the chairman of Shangrila Group and they could do nothing to stop him from firing them.

Megan said viciously, “Listen to me, Kaze Lee used the alias of Jesse White to trick us and the top three families. He’s not trying to get back to the top three families but to scare them, so that they won't go after him.” The other executives were surprised but found her words reasonable. The top three families were extremely powerful in Lilyrose.

Kaze said he wanted to take revenge on them but was he capable enough? If he was capable, he would have taken revenge already. Why use the alias of Jesse White?

He might be bluffing rather than using the alias to scare the top three families. “What use is knowing it now? It can’t change anything

“No? We can use this to threaten Kaze!” Gino said with as realization.

He saw how Miru sneered at Kaze yesterday and he started to Megan’s words. said

He said, “We can demand Kaze to fulfill our request and hire us because we will make him give us the position that we desire, like COO or CFO. We will have shares in the company too! If he doesn’t fulfill our requests, we will expose his identity to the top three families!”

Of course, they would not want things to exacerbate to that point because they had no leverage to negotiate with the top three families either. They could only take advantage of the weak.

“Gino is right.” Megan said with a vicious grin, “We will let Kaze be the chairman for now and scare off the top three families. When we get a hold of Shangrila Group, we will kick Kaze and Winnie out!”

“Until then, we can join the top three families since we already have enough leverage. They would surely accept us!” Her explanation ignited hope in everyone.

“Yeah! Let’s do it!”

They felt energized once more. They strutted back to the entrance and wanted to return to the meeting room as winners. Suddenly, a truck with a recycle logo stopped behind them.

Megan and the others were not aware of the truck since there was a lot of garbage to clean up at the venue of the renaming ceremony.

Before they could react, the putty powieewwas unloaded on them, drowning them in a white powder storm. When the powder settled, twenty plus plasteen focures were erected at the entrance of the building. Passersby looked at them curiously and realized her eyes were moving but not their bodies.

“What the fuck! You, get out of the truck!”

“Get out!”

Gino and the others disregarded their messy state and ran over two trucks that splashed water and putty powder on them. They shouted at the drivers and urged them to come down.

The drivers came down from the trucks and were surrounded by a bunch of people in sticky putty powder.

“What the fuck is wrong with you? Did Kaze Lee tell you to get back at us?!” Gino shouted.

“What Kaze Lee? Who is that?”

The drivers shrugged and giggled, looking frivolous. Their attitude made Gino and the others even more angry. “Hmph! Look at what you’ve done! How can you laugh?!”

“These two must be faking it! It must be Kaze! Or else why would a truck carrying putty powder come here?”

“I don’t care if it’s Kaze Lee or not! I’ll make him pay for what he has done! He must kneel and apologize!”

Megan pointed at the two drivers and shouted, “We are business elites and you two are just stupid drivers! How dare you do this to us! Kneel and apologize or this won’t end well for you two!”

“What if I refused?” One of the drivers scoffed.

Slap!

Megan slapped the driver in the face and shouted, “Refuse? I will blacklist you and you won't be able to find a job in this city! Your family will suffer as well!"

The driver did not expect such a feisty reaction from Megan and he did not dodge the slap in time. He covered his face in shock and humiliation.

"You fucking bitch! You slapped me?! You are fucking dead!"

He pulled his phone out. "Boss, some fucking bitch slapped n our men here!"

"Hmph! You are just a stupid truck driver! Who do you think yo Who is coming to help you?" Megan and the others crossed their arms and scoffed.

Soon, more trucks arrived and they filled up almost the entire stre

Megan and the others were shocked.

All the trucks had surrounded the square in front of Bersina Group and blocked all escape routes. "King Kong, this bitch slapped me!"

Asinister-looking bald man came over.

"King Kong? Gold Tooth's right-hand man, King Kong?!"

Carlos' face turned pale as he stared at the man.

Gold Tooth and Dan Niners were the biggest gangsters in the underworld. Carlos heard a lot about them when he hung out with his friends.

“Hey, bitch. You slapped my brother?”

King Kong went up to Megan and slapped her to the ground.

Megan covered her face and cried.

The others were afraid and dared not lend a helping hand.

“Fuck you. You want my brother to kneel and apologize? Who do you think you are? Take them back and we'll teach them a lesson!”

King Kong signaled his men to take Megan, Gino, Carlos, and the others away.

They kicked and urged Megan and the others into the truc were livestock being sent to a slaughterhouse. [Master Lee, we've taken them away.]

Back in the meeting room, Kaze received a text from Gold To Kaze arranged for the water truck and putty powder truck to ge on Megan and the others. Other than taking revenge, it was als deter them.

Megan and the others were ungrateful traitors and they would surely get back at Shangrila Group if they had the chance. They might even use the alias of Jesse White to threaten Kaze.

Kaze would never allow clowns to mess up his plans. He did not want the top three families to know he was Jesse White, at least not yet.

Fight gangsters with gangsters.

Now that Gold Tooth and King Kong had brought Megan and the others away, they would not cause any trouble for now.

108

Kaze put his phone down and looked at the other executives.

“I have two announcements to make.”

Chapter 369 Create Specialize Security Department “First of all, Sophie will be the chairman’s assistant, taking over Megan’s duties in the HR department.” Kaze’s words sparked a debate among the executives.

Sophie might be a long-time employee of Shangrila Group but she used to be a team leader in the HR department, yet she was promoted to chairman's assistant.

Anameless employee rose in the ranks and became the chairman’s assistant. It was a huge leap in her career! With her new position, it was not surprising that she could also be the new HR director.

The chairman’s assistant was considered a high-ranking position in the company, so it was normal for her to also take up the HR director’s position.

Kaze admired Sophie’s righteous and strong personality, but since she was still young, making her COO or CFO of the company might spoil her.

All the other executives shot a jealous gaze at Sophie but no one dared to question the chairman's order. It was all because of Megan and the others.

Kaze fired all of them in the first meeting he attended. He also used the chance to erect a stern and fierce image in front of the others.

Sophie was stunned. She did not expect she would be favored by Lady Luck this time. Awhile ago, she was humiliated by Megan and thrown out of the HR department. Now, their positions swapped, and it was all because of Kaze.

"Thank you, Mr. Chairman! Thank you! | will work hard and won't let you down!"

Sophie bowed repeatedly at Kaze as her eyes teared up.

She did not need to worry about her mother's medical fees anymore since she got promoted.

Kaze then made the second announcement. "The other thing is all the security personnel in the company will be relieved and the entire department will be reformed."

He did not reform the security department to get back at Carlos, but he was extremely displeased with how the security guards did things.

He and Sophie got into the elevator and entered the chairman's office without any hindrance. There were no security guards in sight.

It was a sign of how terrible the security was in the building.

There were a lot of employees in the company and the number would rise in the future. If they could not ensure basic security, the company would not be able to ensure a safe future.

“I will leave the rest to Ms. Souffle.” After making two new announcements, Kaze put Winnie in charge.

He never planned to take full control of the company from the start, so Winnie would have to take care of everything. He did not want to steal the limelight from her either.

After the meeting, Winnie followed Kaze to the chairman’s office.

“Mr. Chairman, the renaming ceremony is tomorrow. Many VIPs will attend. The top three families might disrupt the event. If you fire all the security guards now, I’m afraid things might go out of control.”

Winnie was worried when she heard Kaze’s announcement earlier.

However, since it was Kaze’s first meeting, she did not want to tarnish Kaze’s image, so she did not voice her concerns on the spot and decided to talk to him in private.

“Winnie, I know your concerns. If the top three families sent their men over to disrupt the ceremony, those useless security guards won't be able to do anything either.”

He added, “Don’t worry, I am prepared for this.”

He then called Koga in front of Winnie and said, “Tomorrow is the name-changing ceremony for Shangrila Group. I want a group of veterans of the Garo Spec Ops Team who are looking for a job. I am creating a specialized security department for Shangrila Group.”

Chapter 370 Won't Rest Until Death

When Kaze told Koga to recruit the veterans of the Garo Spec Ops Team to protect the Whites at Springville District, there were many names on the list of veterans.

However, Kaze only needed four to guard the mansion back

Koga was thrilled to receive the order from Kaze because help a lot of veterans find a new path in life.

Shangrila Group was a big company and the chairman was k

The veterans would be handsomely paid and it would be working with other companies.

Koga treated the veterans like his brothers. Now that Kaze had arrangements for his brothers, Koga was more than just grateful. "Yes, sir! I will arrange for it right away!" Koga nodded happily.

"It's settled." Kaze waved his phone at Winnie.

One phone call and Kaze could get veterans from the Garo Spec Ops Team. Winnie was once again in awe of Kaze's connection.

The mysterious halo that he had on him grew stronger instead of dimmer after he revealed his identity to the company. "I'll continue the preparation for tomorrow's ceremony." Winnie nodded and left the chairman's office.

Preparations for tomorrow's renaming ceremony continued as the stage was built.

"Everia, Golding, and Chapman families. I'd like to see what you have in store for me tomorrow."

Kaze peered down at the square from the window.

The second day arrived and it would be the day Bersina Group changed its name to Shangrila Group.

The ceremony made headlines for many days because everyone remembered how glorified and powerful Shangrila Group was before.

Even the mayor back then, Shein Fowler, who had transferre state office, used to be his guest. He even prepared a large land for the development of Shangrila Group.

Unfortunately, after the car crash, James was crippled. Then, a s of unfortunate events ruined his reputation. He was suffering from physical and mental stress and it ultimatel drove him to jump off the building.

The company collapsed soon after and got absorbed into the top three families.

The glorious Shangrila Group had disappeared since then.

Awhile back, someone named Jesse White snatched Bersina Group from the top three families and decided to reform it into Shangrila Group. Everyone knew what it meant.

“We are in for a show today. The renaming ceremony is a slap in the face to the top three families. | wonder how they would react.”

“They would surely send people over to ruin the ceremony and kill the company in its cradle. The top three families are like kings here, they are so powerful that no one can humiliate them easily.”

“I don’t agree. I heard the chairman, Jesse White, did not only snatch Bersina Group, but he also made Tiffany Chapman the maid of James’ parents and daughter.”

“What? I didn’t know. Does it mean this won’t end between them until one side dies?”

“Two years ago, Shangrila Group did not even last a hit from three families. Now, it will only collapse faster. It’s futile goil against the top three families.”

The time was 9 AM and the square in front of Shangrila Group building was filled with reporters with cameras. Everyone was having a fervent discussion but most of them | down on the company.

They believed Jesse White might fail and get himself in trouble wit the top three families.
