Chapter 84 Darcy's Savior

Darcy's emotion calmed down when they reached home.

When Kaze went to park the car in the garage, he called Snow to investigate James' mysterious death. James died right after he visited the fake Kaze in the psychiatric ward.

Something must have happened!

Meanwhile, at La Familia Club, where Dan Niner usually hung out, he got wind of what happened to Manny and the rest of his men.

"What? Manny and the others were arrested by Tiger Fangs?" Dan collapsed onto the couch when he received the news. He was in shock.

Manny and fifty of his men were sent to cause problems at Passion Fragrance District but after a while, he lost contact with all of them.

He later ordered more men to find out what happened and the news shook him-Manny and the others were arrested by Tiger Fangs!

It reminded him of Gold Tooth's encounter with the militia. Could it be that Kaze was capable of commanding the Tiger Fangs?

Dan was frightened. No matter how fierce of a gangster he was, he was no match for the militia armed with guns and armored vehicles.

He quickly called Roger.

"Chairman Hilfinger, we've hit a snag. Kaze Lee is able to command the Tiger Fangs." "You useless piece of shit. Look at you, frightened by some little tricks!"

Roger grunted coldly from the other end of the line and then scolded

Dan.

He never dared to raise his voice at Dan or other gangsters but now with the Lee family's support, he looked down on the gangsters.

Dan's narrowed eyes gleamed with killer intentions. Roger must have gotten carried away to have raised his voice! Dan joined the new Construction and Material Society because of the Lee family.

Roger said, "I've already received news that Tiger Fangs had a routine practice and they passed by Passion Fragrance District. The Commander of Tiger Fangs, Shin Scarlet, is a righteous man, so it's inevitable that he would arrest Manny Mare and your men. "Huh?"

Dan felt absolutely embarrassed. He thought the idiot was capable of commanding the Tiger Fangs but it turned out to be just a routine practice.

He clenched his teeth and said, "Fifty of my men were arrested by the Tiger Fangs and I lost contact with them."

"Spend a few millions to bribe your way in and you can get your men back." Roger continued casually, "As for Quintessential Group, send more men over to the construction site, send all your men if you can. Continue to pressure them. They won't be so lucky every time."

"I got it."

Dan nodded. He heard that the other mob bosses had succeeded in coercing other construction sites to purchase construction materials from them and stopped their partnerships with Perfect World Group.

Dan swore to take down Passion Fragrance District tomorrow, or else mcupavic.

Back at Horizon Mirror, Darcy was still worried about the commotion that happened earlier at the construction site.

“Manny Mare was arrested today. His boss, Dan Niners, is a notorious gangster and they won’t just let this go so easily. They might be back at the site again tomorrow.”

“Maybe the Tiger Fangs will have another routine practice tomorrow.”

Kaze was not concerned at all. No matter how many men Dan sent, he would just tell Shin to arrest them all and turn them into free laborers.

He could also use them to lessen the burden on his wife’s shoulder. It was also the main reason he did not go after Dan directly.

“We were just lucky today. What about tomorrow?”

Darcy rolled her eyes at him and refused to believe in luck.

Then, her phone rang.

When she saw the caller ID, she cried happily. "My savior is here!"

Chapter 85 Miru Scarlet

"Miru, are you back in Lilyrose?"

Darcy answered the phone immediately.

Two days ago, Miru said she went home to deal with family matters and disappeared. Darcy could not even call or text her. She was worried sick about her friend.

Now with the phone ringing, Miru must have dealt with her family matters.

Darcy was happy to answer the call.

"My little Darcy, happy to hear my voice? Did you miss me?"

Miru's lazy and teasing voice came from the phone.

"Geez, you have perfect looks and body but that mouth of yours. doesn't fit you at all." Darcy had gotten used to her friend's tease, so she skipped the chatters and told Miru about her situation. She believed Miru could help her to deal with Dan Niners.

There was one time when they went out shopping and were surrounded by a few gangsters who wanted to drag them into the car.

Darcy was horrified but Miru remained calm and steady. She asked the gangster who they worked for and then made a call.

Awhile later, the gangsters' boss came and apologized to Miru in person. He even addressed her respectfully, trying to flatter her.

Darcy was proud of her friend.

Miru agreed and said she would be at the construction site tomorrow.

Then, she scolded Darcy, "Darcy, do you still take me as your BFF? You didn't even tell me about your birthday party!"

"You were the one who disappeared to god-knows-where! | couldn't even contact you! Did you get yourself in trouble? | think you were the one who didn't take me as your BFF! You didn't even tell me where you went!" Darcy argued.

She tried to invite Darcy to her birthday party at Genting Highland Club a while back but she was not able to reach her. It actually affected her a lot. "Then, | guess we're even."

Miru gave up arguing and continued, "I've heard about your situation. Your extended family is really a bunch of jerks. They made you clean, up their mess! If | was at Lilyrose back then, I'd run them over! And Kaze! That useless piece of shit! How could he do nothing and watch them take advantage of you?"

"Don't worry. Now that | am back, I'll get rid of the stupid idiot for you. | have something to do now, talk to you soon!" Before Darcy could say a word, the call ended abruptly. Darcy knew Miru was dissatisfied with Kaze.

She looked concerned as she said, “Kaze, Miru is coming over tomorrow to help. She’s my best friend, but she’s got a vicious tongue. If she offended you, don’t take it personally.”

“I got it.” Kaze nodded.

At the same time, the three million dollars Dan spent to get Manny and his men bailed went down the drain.

One of his men came back frustrated and said they got someone who knew an executive serving in Tiger Fangs. They paid the money but Tiger Fangs refused to release Manny and the others and claim that they must pay for the problems they had caused.

Dan was furious but he dared not bring the problem to Tiger Fangs. He was frustrated for the whole night.

On the next afternoon, when he received news that the construction at Passion Fragrance District resumed, he sent all two hundred of his men to the site.

This time, he did not bother to get the relocation households as a disguise anymore and simply resorted to violence as the solution.

Darcy had expected Dan’s retaliation, so she arrived at the construction site extra early. Soon, Miru arrived in her car. She went up to Darcy and then shot a contemptuous gaze at Kaze.

“Hey, when are you going to divorce Darcy?”

Chapter 86 Trouble at the Construction Site Again Kaze’s eyes narrowed coldly when he heard Miru’s offensive words.

Every time she saw him, she insisted that he divorce Darcy. She n have thought too highly of herself. Nevertheless, he promised Darc to not take Miru's words seriously, so he did not bother to argue.

Darcy was irritated by her friend's words. "Miru, Kaze and | are doing fine. Why must you say that?"

"What are you planning to do with this stupid idiot? Are you really going to spend your life with an idiot who couldn't do anything?"

Miru's vicious tongue was indeed merciless. She called Kaze an idiot in front of his face.

Darcy was afraid that she would exacerbate the matter, so she said, Miru, stop it. Kaze isn't an idiot. He had just come out from the psychiatric ward and was now looking for a job. | ran into a lot of problems lately and he helped a lot."

Miru knew Darcy was being kind and her saying so was because she pitied the idiot. She shot another contemptuous gaze and grunted coldly at Kaze, who remained silent.. Any man with dignity would not be so unresponsive. She looked down on Kaze.

She sneered, "Kaze, you can't even help your wife. | have to step up to help my friend because you are incapable! If you had some dignity, you wouldn't be this calm!"

The woman continued to disrespect him and it grinded his patience down.

He said coldly, "Miru, if not for Darcy, | would have slapped you a thousand times for what you just said." "You?" Miru looked askance at him.

“Don't try to provoke me. I'm not slapping you because of Dard contacted Shin to bring his Tiger Fangs here to arrest the troublemakers. You are not needed at all.”

“You stupid little man. I heard that it was just a coincidence yesterday. You called the Tiger Fangs? Who do you think you are? The God of War? You must have lost your mind.”

Mitu burst into laughter as she leaned on Darcy.

Darcy frowned and stared at Kaze with dissatisfaction. It was just a coincidence that Tiger Fangs passed by during their routine practice yesterday, yet Kaze claimed it was he who called Commander Scarlet.

Hellied without even flinching!

However, she understood Kaze's feelings because Miru was being disrespectful. No one could tolerate her vicious tongue. It was impossible for Tiger Fangs to have a routine practice every day.

She held Windshield and said, “Miru I'm counting on you.”

“Don't worry, nypit! People from the gangs respected me, so Dan and his men should too!”

Miru was not scared of Den at all. She had another identity that her friend did not know of which was the goddaughter of Alan Curmingham, the Chairman of Lefteria Group.

The Lefteria Group was a well-known multinational company in Lilyrose City.

Little did people know that the predecessor of Lefteria Group was ume pussLU,

Alan decided to retire from his criminal life and turned his gang into a legitimate company.

The current gang bosses like Gold Tooth and Dan Niners were juniors in front of the legendary Alan Cummingham. With such a powerful background, Miru was confident to take care of Darcy's problem.

The two hundred men that Dan sent over had arrived in front of the construction site.

Similar to yesterday, the men blocked the entrance so no one could go in or out.

Since Manny Mare and the other fifty men were still confined, the leader today was another of Dan's men, named Big Fly. "Where is the person in charge? Get out here right now!"

Chapter 87 Routine Practice Again!

"Kaze, watch and learn how | solve problems!"

Miru shot another contemptuous gaze at Kaze before she went up to the gangsters. "I am Miru Scarlet, the COO of Lefteria Group."

Big Fly licked his lips perversely and said, "So you're the well-known Madame Miru. I've heard of you, Mr. Cummingham's goddaughter. You are damn beautiful now that I've seen you in person."

Miru was disgusted by Big Fly's perversed look and she frowned.

"If you've heard of me, then bring your men away!"

Slap!

Big Fly slapped her on the face without saying anything, leaving a red handprint on her face.

“Fuck off, bitch. My boss is Dan Niners. | don’t care if you are some asshole’s goddaughter. I’m not getting paid to know about that!”

A ferocious gangster like Big Fly was not afraid of power or authority. He only served for his own benefit and money. Moreover, his boss would soon be a board member of the new Construction and Material Society, whose backbone was the Lee family of the capital.

He did not care about Lefteria Group or its COO.

“Miru! Come back here!”

Darcy darted out as soon as Miru was slapped. Her eyes teared up and felt bad for putting her friend in such a dangerous situation.

Miru had never suffered such an embarrassment. It was all because of her.

Miru covered her face in pain. Her hair was messed up by the slap. She clenched her teeth and said, “You are dead meat!” “You are just one lady! Fuck off! Come back if you have a few hundred men with you!” Big Fly threw another slap at Miru.

Before his second slap hit, Kaze, who came over together with Darcy, caught his hand. “Madame Miu is it? Is this the show you want me to see?” Kaze grinned as he looked at Miru. Miru was silenced. She was so embarrassed that she did not know how to react.

It gave Kaze a chance to sneer at her.

“Let go of me, you piece of shit!”

Big Fly was insulted when Kaze caught his hand and chatted with Miru.

Kaze’s expression turned cold and twisted his hand strongly.

Big Fly immediately cried in pain. His arm was broken.

Kaze then kicked him away.

His eyes were fixated on Miru throughout the little confrontation with Big Fly

“He slapped you, I broke his arm. My wife doesn’t owe you anything. now.”

Miru looked at Kaze in shock. She did not expect the idiot to be this

“Get him! Fuck him up!”

Big Fly was on the ground as he shouted at his men to attack.

Darcy was horrified when the gangsters marched on them.

Kaze's action angered the army of gangsters!

A rumbling resonated in the distance.

The low sound of iron belts resounded from far away.

Shin and the Tiger Fangs had arrived!

The gangsters knew what happened yesterday, so when they heard the rumbling, no one moved.

They all squatted and put their hands over their heads, waiting patiently as the soldiers arrested them.

After Big Fly and the two hundred men were taken away, Manny Mare and his fifty men who were arrested yesterday were released.

It had just been one night and the gangsters were able to get intel from the soldiers.

"You good-for-nothing gangsters disrupted the peace and order of society and caused disturbance at construction sites. You are hereby sentenced to work at the construction site for a month. There will be no pay and no rest until you people are reeducated!"

Shin waved at Manny and his men, and the group of gangsters marched into the construction site in an orderly manner. The first thing they did was clean the site and they showed unusual enthusiasm in their work.

Shin then saluted Kaze before he left.

“The practice continues!”

The Tiger Fangs then retreated.

“The idiot is right! Tiger Fangs are having routine practice again!”

Miru applied some cream on her face as she looked at Kaze skeptically.

Chapter 88 Master Quint Infuriated Darcy was speechless as well.

They thought it was pure coincidence that the Tiger Fangs were having another routine practice, not even considering the fact that it was Kaze who called them.

Darcy was delighted when she saw Manny and his men working at the construction site for free.

Free labor would save the project a lot of money.

Back at the Quint family’s mansion, Rudy and his family arrived with a concerned look on their faces.

“Father, do something about Darcy! If she continues, our company will be done for!”

Rudy cried and begged his father the moment he stepped into the house.

“Why? What’s wrong? What did she do this time?”

Master Quint was sulking for the past two days and had not gone out for a while. He did not even pay attention to the company’s operation.

Samus said, "Grandfather, Dan Niners, the gangster boss, sent his men to cause problems at the construction site. They forced Darcy to buy construction materials from them, or else they would trash the place. Then, Tiger Fangs passed by during their routine practice and arrested the gangsters.

"Darcy took it as a sign and started to disregard Dan Niners and his men. Not only did she refuse to purchase from the gangster, she even made Dan Niners' men work at the site without pay! She's putting all of us in danger!"

Master Quint was infuriated when he learned of the news. He had just placed Darcy in charge of the operations and she successfully offended Dan Niners.

"Grandfather, Dan Niners is a ferocious man. He's not someone we can afford to mess with. Darcy is trying to get rid of us, she wants all dead!" Deborah elaborated.

"She must have thought too highly of herself. How could she not tell me about this?" Master Quint was fuming. He called Darcy immediately.

"Grandfather, what is it?" Darcy answered the phone right away.

"Why didn't you tell me that Dan Niners sent his men to cause problems at the construction site?" Master Quint asked angrily. Darcy said aggrieved, "Grandfather, you put me in charge of the company's operation, and I am confident enough to handle the matter."

Master Quint had clearly stated he would not interfere with her work at the construction site, yet he called and questioned her about the matter.

“You are now allowed!” Master Quint slammed the table and roared, “Dan Niners might not go after Tiger Fangs but he will surely come after us! You really think you are blessed by Lady Luck because Tiger Fangs come to your rescue every time? Go apologize and tell Dan Niners that we will purchase the materials from him!”

“Grandfather! The price that Dan Niners offered us is three times the price Perfect World Group offered us. It will increase our cost and we will face a shortage of funds!” Darcy explained helplessly.

If it was market price, she would probably compromise with the decision as long as the project could continue. a

With three times the market price, it would be over budget and the whole project would be meaningless.

If your budget increases, just cover it with an increased sale price! It's the consumers who would buy the houses we built and if you have a shortage of funds, go get a loan from the bank if you even know how to deal with these matters, you shouldn't be in charge of the project!”

Master Quint refused to listen to Darcy's explanation. He just threatened Dan to stay away from his family.

“Darcy, deal with this by this afternoon. I will be at the site later and if the problem persists, I will swap you out. Do remember that I still have the right to relieve you if you make a mistake!”

Master Quint then hung up the phone before Darcy could explain.

Back at the site office, Darcy put her phone down with a helpless look!

“Grandfather wants me to apologize to Dan Niners and agree to purchase his construction materials.”

Kaze said, "Why apologize? His men are arrested. Darcy, don't listen to your grandfather."

Miru was gone after being slapped. She was too embarrassed to stay.

Darcy did not want to trouble her friend anymore either.

"Dan Niners' men were arrested, not him. A gangster boss like him is dangerous. Who knows what he will do to us?"

Chapter 89 You Are Zar Niners?

Kaze knew he was no alle dissuade Darcy, so he said, "I have something else to do. I'm going out!

"Sure."

Darcy was worried about the site and did not stop Kaze, or question him. She simply nodded.

After Kaze left the office, he sercely gestured at Fish, the sales manager.

"What is it, Mr. Chairman?"

Fish came over immediately and respectfully stood in front of Kaze. Darcy saw it through the window from her office but it did not bother/ Ther.

Fish, Andy, and Trevor were respectful and cuteenus to her as well. She told them many times that they could just becasual around her but they insisted otherwise. "Findia reason to hold Darcy back. Stall as long as you can. I'm going to see Dan Niners."

Kaza then walked off while Fish entered Darcy's office.

"Mas Quint, | came up with a sales proposal and | would like you to havyatoak. | would appreciate some advice and suggestions. Darrywwassccared and nervous about the meeting with Dam but stie had to concentrate on her work first.

She nodded hand said, "Sure. Let's have a look."

After Kaza obtento is car, he called Snow.

"Tell contact me."

old Tooth to

Soon, Gold Tooth called. "Master Lee, what can | do for you?"

Gold Tooth sounded excited. After he left the meeting with the gang bosses and Roger Hilfinger, he informed Kaze that Roger was trying. to rebuild the Construction and Material Society.

However, he knew he was not qualified to call Kaze in person, so he delivered the message to Snow instead. He was surprised that Kaze would ask him to call today. It must mean that Kaze had acknowledged his effort. Kaze asked, "Where is Dan Niners?"

"Master Lee, you are going after Dan? I'll gather my men and wipe him.

out!”

Gold Tooth pledged his loyalty immediately. He was ready to do the dirtiest chores just for Kaze.

“Just lead the way,” Kaze said with a frown.

He did not want to solve problems with violence. It would only affect Darcy and her career.

Gold Tooth answered with flattery, “Yes, sir! I’ll be right there!”

Meanwhile, at La Familia Club.

“What the fuck is going on? Why are Tiger Fangs having so many routine practices?! I’ve lost ten million dollars and two hundred men!”

Dan was infuriated after learning what happened to his men. He smashed everything within his reach to vent his anger. The middleman asked for ten million to bail his men out and it was a hefty price to pay.

He hesitated but since his men were the foundation of his organization, he had to fork out the money. Without his men, he would have no place in the underworld

He bit the bullet and transferred the money.

To his surprise, the moment he did so the middleman went silent blocked him.

Then, one of his men saw Manny and his fifty men, who got arrested yesterday, were released and now doing labor at Pession Fragrance

Construction site.

They refused to stop working and claimed that they were in a reeducation program for a month.

Beardballeved the two hundred men that he just lost would end up the same as well.

Even the reeducation! The Tiger Fangs are taking advantage of my men and made them work for Quintessential Group!! arden Starlet that little fucker! He always looked like a righteous man fucking greedily!”

Kaze said, “I thought Roger Hilfinger asked you to come after me, yet you don’t even know who | am?” Dan grunted coldly. “So you are that stupid son-in-law of the Quint family?”

Chapter 90 Here to Get You to Work at the Construction Site

Dan did not take Kaze seriously.

He got to know from Roger that Kaze was expelled from the Lee family and had been locked up in a psychiatric ward for years. He relied on his friendship with Ray Forrester to make it so far but deep down, he was nothing but a useless man. "Idiot, your wife pissed me off, so are you here to beg me on her behalf?" Dan asked.

He decided to insult the idiot and vent his anger about losing his men to Tiger Fangs.

Kaze looked at the arrogant Dan and chuckled. "No, I'm here to get you to work at Passion Fragrance District." "Get me to work?" Dan raised his brows. He did not expect such a strange answer.

Flick!

He lit his cigarette and said, "So what work are you talking about?"

"Construction work. What else could it be if not move some bricks and whatnot?" Kaze said.

Dan choked on the smoke immediately.

He pressed his chest as he coughed and bellowed, "I'm Dan Niners, a gangster boss of the underworld, and you want me to move bricks at your construction site? Are you listening to yourself?"

Dan was known for his ruthlessness in the underworld.

He was furious when he heard Kaze. His ferocious aura was 25 BONUS

guuny

Draco even laughed.

“Boss, I think there’s no dog at the construction site right? There are so many valuable things there, we should get one to guard the place and keep thieves away.”

He then pointed at Dan and continued, “This guy looks ferocious, think he has the looks of a guard dog that will fit right in at the construction site.”

Kaze thought it was a good idea as well. He smiled and nodded.

“Yeah, if you don’t want to move bricks, then we can have you as our guard dog as well.”

Dan was so infuriated that his expression turned ugly.

“You pieces of shit! You think with Gold Tooth here, you little fucks can fuck around? Stop dreaming!”

He saw Gold Tooth behind the two of them.

If not for Gold Tooth, who was also a gangster boss, his men would never let Kaze and Draco in.

However, after Gold Tooth left the meeting with Roger the other day. midway, Dan was no longer scared of him. How could Gold Tooth continue to be a gangster boss if he was afraid of the useless Kaze?

Dan sneered, "Gold Tooth, call your men here as well. | don't want others to say that I'm taking advantage of you. I'll make sure you die fair and square!"

"Dan, it is Master Lee who's coming after you, | don't even need to bring my men. You have no idea what Master Lee is capable of. | think it's better you go be his guard dog at the construction site. You

YULIL

Gold Tooth glanced at Draco beside Kaze.

One word from Draco and Dan would have to die ten thousand times over, yet someone as powerful as him had to call Kaze boss.

Dan looked at Kaze with a slight surprise. He did not expect Kaze to not request help from Gold Tooth.

He suddenly remembered the rumor about Kaze being exceptionally strong and skilled in combat. On his wedding day, he snapped and single-handedly beat up all the troublemakers.

Dan looked at Kaze. "Hey, idiot. | heard you can fight. Is this why you have the balls to face me?" "You are not worthy of my fists," Kaze said.

"Hahaha! You can really bluff!"

Dan cackled. His expression suddenly turned grim and he shouted, " Get in here!"

As soon as his voice faded, six burly men with buzz cuts barged into the room.
