Chapter 870 Fight Made the Headline Ash frowned. She had no idea what caused Mathias' anger. She stepped in and said, "Mathias, this is too much. Dayton is quite capable..."

"Shut up!"

Mathias glared at her.

Ash was unhappy with his attitude. She served the Queens for many years yet Mathias was being rude to her.

"Mathias, Sky Ocean Corporation belongs to the Queens. If Ms. Quint continues to act this way, it will hurt the company's profit. Understandably, the executives were unhappy with her decisions..."

Ash mentioned the Queen family to remind Mathias not to protect Darcy.

Slap!

Ash was slapped in the face.

Mathias shook his head and laughed. "You know nothing! Sky Ocean Corporation doesn't belong to the Queens! It's Darcy Quint's! We are just the nominal owner! Even if Darcy lost everything in the company, you have no right to speak to her like that!"

Ash was stunned.

Sky Ocean Corporation belonged to Darcy?

The Queens were just the nominal owner and were working for Darcy?

It shocked her.

She was the one who bid for Sky Ocean Corporation and got Mountain Dew Estate for the Queens. It clearly stated that the Queens were the biggest shareholder, yet Mathias claimed it was Darcy's.

Mathias scoffed. "Don't believe me? Do I need to call my uncle to verify it for you?"

Mathias' uncle, Matthew, was the family head and he was a man of his word.

If Mathias mentioned him, then it must mean that the Queens were working for Darcy.

Ash looked down in silence.

Mathias pointed at her and then the others. "All of you, go apologize to Ms. Quint! You better hope that she will forgive you or else none of you could bear the consequences!"

He was overflowing with a murderous aura. Everyone, including Ash, was scared and they all quickly went up to Darcy's office.

Thump!

Dayton got down on his knees the moment he saw Darcy.

What happened?

Darcy was stunned. "Dayton, what is this about?"

"Ms. Quint, I was wrong! I shouldn't have suggested Mr. Lee apologize to Lil Dee! It's my fault Dayton cried like a baby. He was truly scared.

Even the Queens were working for Darcy, yet he tried to abdicate Darcy's position as chairwoman.

He was really having a death wish.

"Ms. Quint, I officially apologize to Mr. Lee as well."

Ash and the other executives apologized.

Darcy might be unhappy with their suggestions but since they apologized, she forgave them.

Mathias then came over and said, "Ms. Quint, what do you think about Ash's performance if you are unhappy with her, I can transfer her away from Sky Ocean Corporation and send someone else to help you."

"Mathias, you are being too kind."

Even Darcy had no idea she owned Sky Ocean Corporation. She thought she was the one working for the Queens, so she found Mathias' question strange.

She said, "Ash is capable and helpful. Why would I want to switch her away? Let her stay please."

Mathias looked at Kaze and saw the approving nod, He then looked at Ash. "You should thank Ms. Quint for letting you stay."

"Thank you, Ms. Quint. I'll do whatever I can to assist you." Ash bowed and pledged her loyalty.

After this little commotion, Ash received a call and it put a bitter look on her face.

She said to Darcy, "Ms. Quint, the news of Mr. Lee hitting Lil Dee is out online and it has gone viral. People are criticizing our company already."
