

The Guardian's Sword #Chapter 1541 - Read The Guardian's Sword Chapter 1541

Chapter 1541

Chapter 1541

“Someone wants to see you.”

The young man said.

Zander did not answer but turned around to look at Sean.

He was Sean’s subordinate, so he had to follow Sean’s orders and could not randomly answer others for him.

Sean did not hesitate. He smiled and nodded.

“Okay, lead the way.”

With that said, Sean said to Caitlyn and May, “Wait here with the kids for a while. I’ll be right back with Zander,”

“Be careful.”

Caitlyn reminded him instantly.

May did not say much and only nodded to Sean.

Sean was no longer a child. May had faith in his abilities and trusted him,

The young man in military uniform led the way, zig zagging around Martyrs’ Memorial Garden. Besides that, he walked very fast as if to spite Sean and Zander.

However, forget about Sean. Even Zander could easily keep up with him. He would never lose him.

They soon came up to a middle-aged man.

It was Hanson, of course!

A smile slowly spread across Sean’s face when he saw Hanson.

He had seen Hanson, not in person, but in a photograph.

After all, the Lupin family was famous in Dragon Kingdom. Although they gradually kept a low profile in recent years, they were legendary 20 years ago!

Twenty years ago, it was no exaggeration to say the Lupin family was a household name. The Lupin family was the pillar of Dragon Kingdom.

Hanson was a member of the prestigious Lupin family!

“Do you know who I am?”

Hanson asked first.

His voice was not loud, but it gave off an intense dominance!

Zander frowned deeply. His muscles in every part of his body tensed, ready to strike!

He felt an intense threat from the middle-aged man before him, so his body could not help but react.

The expression on Sean’s face was still indifferent, but the look in his eyes grew solemn.

“The Lupin family’s Commander Hanson Lupin?”

As soon as Sean said this, the entourage nearby looked startled.

They were shocked when Hanson guessed that Sean was at least above a seven-star commander.

Sean shocked the entourage even more by revealing Hanson’s identity as soon as he met him.

“You do know me.”

Hanson laughed.

Sean smiled slightly and said, “I’ve heard that you’ll be coming to Joules Town, Commander Lupin. And I did run into you. What a coincidence to meet you.”

“It’s indeed a coincidence.”

Hanson nodded in agreement. Then he stood before Sean and Zander with his hands behind his back.

Looking at Sean and Zander, Hanson continued saying. “You’re not the average guy in the army, are you? You already know who I am, and it’s time you told me who you are.”

Sean instantly said without hesitation, “Nine-star commander, Sean Lennon!”

“Zander Young!”

Sean and Zander’s identity came as a slight surprise to Hanson.

He did not expect Sean to be Dragon Kingdom’s youngest nine-star commander.

Sean’s appointment as nine-star commander was big news in the army. Even most people who did not belong to the army had heard of it.

Chapter 1542

Chapter 1542

After all, Sean was only in his early twenties. There were almost no nine-star commanders under 40 years old in the past!

Therefore, for a young man in his early twenties to be awarded the title of nine-star commander was tantamount to causing a major earthquake.

Hanson, a commander himself, naturally heard about it.

However, Sean later disappeared from the army as if he had vanished into thin air, leaving no trace.

Hanson was unrelated to Sean. He regretted not being able to meet him but had not paid much attention to him since then. However, he did not expect to see him here today!

“So you’re Sean... What happened? Why did you suddenly leave the army?”

Hanson asked, turning solemn.

Sean's brow furrowed.

"It's all Blaze's doing."

Sean did not hide anything from Hanson,

Why?

It was because the Lupin family was like the guardians of Dragon Kingdom.

Everyone in the Lupin family was brave and honorable.

Dragon Kingdom might be doomed if even the Lupin family could not be trusted.

Therefore, Sean did not hold anything back from Hanson. He told Hanson everything.

Sean's father, Colin, was killed in battle two years ago. In a fit of rage, Sean led millions of soldiers to fight against the enemy, and the enemy was crushed and fled in disarray.

Sean fought for revenge and retook the land.

However, the battle also left Sean badly wounded and exhausted.

Blaze jumped at the chance and attacked Sean, making him unconscious and crippled.

Later, Sean had to leave the army and go to the Quinn family in River City to recuperate.

After two years, Sean finally recovered. He recovered from all his injuries.

However, Sean lost his military influence after two years out of the army. He wanted revenge on Blaze, but there was no way he could do it.

Sean left River City for Joules Town, partly to escape Blaze's pursuit, but also to meet Hanson through William to get help from him and rejoin the army.

Hanson's expression turned ghastly at Sean's words.

His followers looked angry!

What Blaze had done was disgraceful.

A man like him was even a nine-star commander of Dragon Kingdom, which was the biggest insult to Dragon Kingdom!

“Do you want revenge? Do you want to kill Blaze?”

Hanson asked.

“Yes!”

Sean replied firmly, his eyes sharp as his hands clenched.

“Do you know how powerful Blaze is in the army? He’s well connected like a thousand-year-old tree with a deep-rooted system. Many top officials in Dragon Kingdom had an indescribable relationship with him. Your hope of revenge against him is slim.”

Hanson sighed and shook his head.

Just because he liked and appreciated Sean did not mean he would risk everything he had for revenge.

Sean looked disappointed as he asked, “Are you going to stand by while Blaze infests Dragon Kingdom’s army? Will Dragon Kingdom have a future if this goes on?”

Hanson instantly shuddered at this.

After a long time, he finally said, “How do you want me to help you?”

Sean’s face lit up, and there was finally hope in his eyes.

“Commander Lupin, please don’t worry. I won’t ask for too much and make things difficult for you... As long as you can help me return to the army, I will handle the rest myself.”

Sean’s words drew a look of surprise and admiration from Hanson.

“So you only wanted a chance from me. A chance to get back into the army.”

Chapter 1543

Chapter 1543

Hanson had expected Sean to be greedy and ask him to help him unconditionally.

However, it turned out he was being paranoid.

Sean's request was as simple as it could be, and it was easy for him to do without leaving a trail or something for people to use against him. They would not be detected by Blaze's people either.

Hanson was even embarrassed by Sean's request.

"You can ask for more."

Hanson said after a moment's hesitation.

It made the attendants present look unconvinced.

They thought Hanson would never agree to Sean's request. However, Hanson not only agreed, but he also offered to do more.

Sean shook his head and said with a smile, "No thanks, Commander Lupin. I'm already satisfied if you could let me return to the army. Besides, I don't want to give you too much trouble. If Blaze finds out you helped me, maybe he'll go after you."

"Why would I be afraid of Blaze?"

Hanson said domineeringly with a wave of his hand.

However, Sean stood by his decision. He did not want to cause Hanson too much trouble.

After all, the person before him was one of the few people he admired.

Ten minutes later, Sean left Hanson with Zander.

He had gotten a written letter from Hanson.

With the letter, he could travel to Southern Clan's borders and take charge of one of Hanson's team.

The team would be the base for Sean's comeback, the springboard for his return to the army, and the first step in his revenge against Blaze!

However, he could not leave for Southern Clan's borders for a while.

After all, he still had unfinished business in Joules Town, so he had to wait a little longer.

"Great, Commander. With a letter from Commander Lupin, we'll be able to fulfill our potential in Southern Clan!"

Zander said excitedly.

Hanson had only given Sean only a team of 3,000 men, and it seemed very weak.

However, far from being disappointed, Zander was confident about the future.

It was because Zander started as a lowly soldier. When he started working for Sean, Sean was only a nobody.

However, he watched Sean grow to a nine-star commander in a short time, becoming the youngest high- ranking general in Dragon Kingdom and even Guardian God of war!

Sean would be returning to the army with 3,000 men, which was a much better starting point than at the beginning!

Chapter 1543

With Sean's abilities, Zander did not think he would fail!

"Commander Lupin has done us a huge favor. We owe him too much..."

Sean said slowly, looking at the written letter in his hand.

"Commander Lupin expects so much from you, Commander. You are someone he approves of."

Zander said solemnly.

Sean was in good spirits and smiling when he got to where Caitlyn and May were.

Caitlyn and May were relieved to see Sean so happy. They knew Sean and Zander's visit to the mystery man was not a bad thing.

It was getting dark.

Sean and Zander did not stay in Martyrs' Memorial Garden. There were children after all, and it would be hard to watch over them when it got dark.

Therefore, Sean, Zander, Caitlyn, and May, returned to Queen Children's Orphanage with the children.

Night. The Collins family's back garden.

Chapter 1544

Chapter 1544

The patriarch of the Collins family, William Collins, was holding a coffee pot in his hand and was smiling as he poured the middle-aged man in front of him a cup of coffee.

If it was not Hanson, whom Sean had met earlier during the day, who else would it be?

"I've visited Joules Town's Martyrs' Memorial Garden. I met many of my old subordinates and comrades... How time flies! Before I knew it, I've been in the army for more than 20 years."

Hanson said with a smile, picking up his coffee cup.

William nodded repeatedly. After exchanging a few pleasantries, he said cautiously. "Commander Lupin, now that you're in Joules Town, I'd like to invite you to see someone."

"Who is it?"

Hanson looked puzzled.

William smiled and said, “He’s called Sean Lennon and is Colin Langdon’s adopted son. He’s pretty capable. As soon as he arrived in Joules Town, he founded Lennon Group and toppled Billion Trees Group, a local conglomerate. He eclipses everyone, leaving all affluent families in Joules Town with no choice but make way for him...”

William went on talking without noticing that Hanson’s expression had become odd.

“This young man’s capable and ambitious. I think he’s worth meeting.”

William paused before looking intently at Hanson, waiting for an answer.

If Hanson agreed, William would have done Sean a great favor, and the bad blood between the Collins family and Sean would be erased.

However, to William’s surprise, Hanson burst out laughing.

“Does this Sean Lennon you’re talking about have a subordinate named Zander Young?”

Hanson asked with a smile.

“Yes, how do you know... Have you met him already?”

William was indeed the astute patriarch of the Collins family, and Hanson had guessed it before he had spoken.

“Yes, I did. I saw him at Martyrs’ Memorial Garden today with a large group of children, paying respects to the martyrs, so I talked to him.”

Hanson said, nodding.

William’s expression instantly turned ghastly.

Hanson went on saying, “I also gave him some help. I’m sure he will be leaving Joules Town soon!”

William’s expression grew even ghastlier.

“Commander Lupin, since you already met Sean, pretend I said nothing. Hahaha...”

William looked like he could not be more embarrassed!

Hanson left half an hour later.

No sooner had he stepped out of the Collins family door than William summoned his youngest son,

Chapter 1544

Jacob, and anxiously ordered, “Hurry! Prepare the car! We’re going to Queen Children’s Orphanage!”

“Now? It’s almost 10 PM...”

“Cut the crap!”

William badly wanted to kick Jacob to vent his anger and anxiety.

Hanson had already met Sean and offered to help him, so there was nothing the Collins family could do.

Sean was already unstoppable with Hanson’s help. If they did not restore the Collins family and Sean’s relationship, Sean would leave Joules Town and they would have nothing!

William did not want to make a mistake that would make a formidable enemy for the Collins family!

The latest silver-gray BMW sped out of the Collins family house’s compound and headed toward Queen Children’s Orphanage.

In the car, William felt an intense regret, and he said to himself, “Why couldn’t I tell Sean is this capable? Did he play dumb to take advantage of me?”

“Dad, don’t worry so much...”

“Hanson was one of my trump cards. How can I not worry now that it’s gone?”

William could not help slapping Jacob on the head.

Chapter 1545

Chapter 1545

Ten minutes later, the car stopped in front of Queen Children's Orphanage.

Without waiting for the car to come to a stop, William pushed open the door and got out. However, he only noticed that the orphanage's entrance had been locked when he approached it.

It was already past 10 PM, and the night was dark.

Queen Children's Orphanage was not an entertainment club, so it closed early, of course.

"Call them! Hurry and call them!"

William ordered.

"Yes."

Ignoring his humiliation, Jacob pressed on Queen Children's Orphanage's doorbell.

As he did so, Jacob kept yelling, "Open the door! Mr. Lennon! Madam Randall, I'm Jacob. I need to see you for something!"

The doorbell blared in the yard.

Many children, already asleep, were awakened by the doorbell ringing.

Caitlyn got out of bed in a daze, looked toward the yard door, and muttered angrily.

Director May also got out of bed.

Even Zander and Sean, camping out at the orphanage today, had woken up.

Both of them were already on high alert. It was a habit they got from the army.

Jacob rang the doorbell and made a loud noise. How could they not hear him?

"I think it's the Collins family."

Zander came over to Sean and said.

“Yeah, after meeting Hanson today, I knew the Collins family would come over.”

Sean smiled slightly.

Upon arriving in Joules Town, he visited William at the Collins family house and tried to meet Hanson through William, who was contemptuous and refused his request.

Now, he had worked his way to meet Hanson and no longer needed to rely on the Collins family.

The patriarch of the Collins family, William, could not sit still.

Sean also felt the need to meet William, so he stayed at the orphanage and waited for them.

“Brother Sean, there’s someone out there looking for you. It looks like the man who made fun of us at the party that day!”

Caitlyn came to Sean’s door and said as he popped his head out and looked around.

“I see... It has nothing to do with you. Go and rest.”

Sean said as he waved his hand.

“Got it.”

Chew 1545

Caitlyn made a face and returned to her room. She knew Jacob’s sudden visit at such a late hour must be because he had something important to discuss with Sean, so she would not disturb him deliberately.

“Come on, let’s go outside. It’s inconvenient to receive guests here.”

Sean said to Zander.

The two then moved to another room in Queen Children's Orphanage, which served as a reception room.

It was called a reception room but was only slightly more spacious. May occasionally worked here. The room was unused most of the time.

Of course, none of this mattered.

After sitting there for a while, May walked in with Jacob and William.

Jacob obediently stood aside to make room while William stepped over to Sean.

"Sean... Sean, have you met with Commander Lupin?"

Chapter 1546

Chapter 1546

William asked straight to the point once he saw Sean.

Sean nodded and said, "Yes, Commander Lupin and I have met at Martyrs' Memorial Garden today. What's the matter? Do you have an opinion on that?"

"Of course not... I've only come to you to explain that I was already planning to introduce you to Commander Lupin. But I didn't think you'd coincidentally meet him in Martyrs' Memorial Garden today."

Awkwardness came over William's face.

"Thank you very much, Old Master Collins."

Sean said indifferently.

Although he thanked him, Sean's expression was indifferent. There was no sense of gratitude.

William knew Sean was giving him a hard time, of course. He was also difficult at the time. Besides, he did so much worse than Sean did!

Sean did not say anything sarcastic or add to his misfortune, which was already pretty good!

“Sean, I know you’re bitter about what happened back then, but you should know that I may have a history with your adoptive father, but I’m also the patriarch of the Collins family. I have to think about what’s best for the Collins family. That’s why I didn’t immediately agree to your request when you came to Joules Town...”

William explained with a smile, but Sean cut him off.

“What’s the use of saying these now? It’s getting late. Old Master Collins, you and your precious son should go home and get some rest.”

Sean said coldly.

Hearing this, William’s expression became infinitely awkward.

Jacob, who was standing aside, had a ghastly expression.

However, neither William nor Jacob could convince Sean now.

It was because the Collins family did not give Sean any help when he needed it most, and now Sean did not need the Collins family anymore.

On top of that, Sean’s capability and influence now were far beyond the Collins family!

With Lennon Group and the Lathan family of Joules Town as his super foreign aids, no affluent families in Joules Town had the strength and qualifications to oppose Sean!

Not even the Collins family!

“Sean, I apologize.”

After some hesitation, William eventually lowered his head and said slowly with a long sigh. His tone was solemn.

Sean still sat in his chair without looking up.

“I was wrong before. I’m senile. Sean, since I was old friends with your adoptive father, can you forgive me this time?”

William said in dismay.

If he had been a little nicer when Sean first came to Joules Town and visited the Collins family, he would not need to apologize so humbly to Sean now!

However, regret was pointless!

“The Collins family isn’t your enemy no matter what. If you need help in the future, we can still help you in some way... So let’s not make this any worse, Sean...”

William’s words finally had some effect.

Sean looked up at William, got up from his chair, and helped the 60-year-old man to a seat.

“What you said is too serious. After all, you and my adoptive father were friends. How could I possibly go too far with you? I won’t give the Collins family a hard time, but I hope the Collins family won’t give me a hard time either. We can help and support each other if we’re in trouble.”

Sean said with a smile.

William was relieved to hear this.

He knew Sean had moved on and was no longer hostile toward the Collins family.

Jacob finally sighed in relief. His heart finally found its peace.

Half an hour later, William left Queen Children’s Orphanage with Jacob.

William sighed and felt sad in the car.

“It seems that I’m really old and senile... Jacob, I will gradually hand over the Collins family to you. You and your elder brother will take over the Collins family together. Remember not to offend Sean again. This boy is no ordinary man.”

Chapter 1547

Chapter 1547

Jacob was thrilled when he heard this.

It was because William was old now-already 60 years old, but he was still healthy and energetic.

At this rate, he would have no problem living for another ten years.

Besides, he had Hubert before him.

Therefore, Jacob did not think he could take over the Collins family and be the patriarch. However, he did not expect William to come to a rude awakening and take the initiative to relinquish power because of Sean.

It was a huge blessing for him.

In that case, Sean was probably his good luck charm!

With that in mind, Jacob made up his mind secretly that he must strengthen his bond with Sean and keep in touch with him more often.

“Yes, Father. I got it. I’ll work hard!”

Jacob said excitedly.

Queen Children’s Orphanage.

May walked in and asked in confusion, “Sean, what did William come to see you about? Wasn’t he rude to you when you visited him earlier? Why did you come over tonight?”

May’s series of questions left Sean at a loss for a moment.

However, he soon said with a smile, “Don’t worry, Aunt. It’s not a bad thing... William didn’t want to help me at the beginning because he looked down on me. He thought there was no need to help me and no potential to invest in me. But I’ve proved my potential with what I have done during this period, so William has begun to hesitate to change his previous attitude and offer help.

“But neither William nor Jacob could imagine that I would coincidentally meet the person I wanted to meet without the Collins family’s help. So I don’t need the Collins family’s help at all. William and Jacob freaked out. That’s why they came rushing to me and apologized.”

“Did you say yes in the end?”

May asked curiously.

“Yeah.”

Sean nodded before saying, “Whatever it is, William was my father’s friend. There’s no way we’ll become enemies. I might be of some use to the Collins family, so it’s best to ease things up with him. It’ll be good for the Collins family and me.”

May was not stupid at all. After all these years as the orphanage director, she could figure it all out.

“You’re right. Having one more friend is better than having one more enemy.”

May said with a smile.

It was getting late. May did not stay with Sean and Zander. She soon returned to her room to rest.

Time flew. It was a month later in the blink of an eye.

The new orphanage was completed ahead of schedule.

Sean had bought complete facilities as soon as possible so they could immediately move into the new orphanage.

The children of Queen Children’s Orphanage moved into the new orphanage.

The new orphanage was several times larger than the old one. Besides that, it had all kinds of facilities, including cafeterias and fields, which were also perfectly built.

The new orphanage provided the children with living conditions that were many times better than Queen Children’s Orphanage!

Both Caitlyn and the director May were thrilled. After all, they were very close with the children.

Seeing that the children could grow up healthy and carefree in a new environment, they were genuinely happy.

Lennon Group was on the right track.

Chapter 1548

Chapter 1548

However, Sean and Zander were leaving, and Lennon Group had to be handed over to someone else.

Sean intended to hand it to Caitlyn. However, after spending some time with her for a while, Sean found that the girl had no management talent.

Besides, her character was unsuitable to run a company.

May could run it, but she had the new orphanage to run and would have her hands full if she had to run the entire Lennon Group too.

After much hesitation, Sean divided Lennon Group's power and gave it to the heiress of the Lathan family -Chloe and May, allowing the two women to run it together.

He knew Chloe would never go after the Lennon Group's property. As the heiress of the Lathan family, she was generous.

Not to mention May, who was considered Sean's adoptive mother. Sean's fortune was hers, so there was nothing to worry about.

With all this in place, Sean and Zander prepared to leave Joules Town.

The weather was just right, and the sky was clear and blue.

A silver plane flew over the sky, leaving two lines of parallel contrails. It even looked a little poetic.

"Are you really going south? I heard that it's under dispute in many countries. The situation there is complicated and chaotic."

Chloe asked, a little worried.

May and Caitlyn came to the airport to see Sean and Zander off, but Sean did not expect Chloe to be there too.

Chloe was standing in front of Sean with a worried expression.

However, Chloe's concerns were not without reason.

Southern Clan was also known as the multinational alliance or the City-State Union.

The area of about two million square kilometers of hills and plains was located in the southern area of Dragon Kingdom, where hundreds of cities were all over it.

Most cities were a city and a country, which meant a city was a small country.

Therefore, hundreds of cities meant there were hundreds of small countries.

All these small cities joined together to form a multinational alliance, also known as the City-State Union. Dragon Kingdom's citizens were used to calling it Southern Clan.

In addition to being located in the south, it was called Southern Clan because affluent families dominated the urban countries there.

Basically, there would be a super-rich family in each city, and this super-rich family was the main force that controlled the city or small country.

The City-State Union was chaotic because of this. It was chaotic to the extent that any Dragon Kingdom citizen could hardly imagine it.

Sean and Zander were headed to Southern Clan-also known as the City-State Union. Chloe felt uneasy. of course.

She did not have a strong bond with Sean, but she knew him after all. She did not want him to die in a disorderly place like that.

However, Sean smiled and said, "Don't worry. I'll be fine. the City-State Union is chaotic, but the more chaotic, the better for me."

"So that you can take advantage of the chaos?"

Chloe joked.

Sean nodded.

The City-State Union's area was a complex and chaotic place where large-scale weapon fights and even wars happened daily.

It was awash with weapons and mercenaries. Every city had its own army, and the City-State Union was hostile to Dragon Kingdom.

In this case, Sean could find plenty of opportunities there.

Chapter 1549

Chapter 1549

The more chaotic the City-State Union was, the more difficult it was for Blaze to meddle.

In all likelihood, Blaze must have information on Sean's whereabouts now. However, if Sean reached the City-State Union, Blaze could not go after him even if he wanted to.

It was too chaotic. There was no way to touch Sean remotely unless Blaze was there in person.

In such a complicated situation, Sean could seek the opportunity of development for himself, recover his power as soon as possible and look for the chance for revenge!

It was why Sean said the more chaotic it was, the better for him.

It was true that a hero emerged in troubled times.

Chloe could not understand it, but it did not bother her. She trusted Sean anyway.

The director, May, came over, put her hand on Sean's shoulders, and reminded earnestly, "You must protect yourself when you get there. Don't let anything happen to yourself."

"Got it, Director. I'm not a child anymore. I can take care of myself."

Sean said in between laughter and tears.

May's nose turned sore as her eyes reddened slightly.

Caitlyn quickly joked. Otherwise, May might have wept over their separation.

“Brother Sean, remember to come back and visit us. Bring some delicious food when you come back!”

“Got it.”

Sean nodded with a smile.

May glared at Caitlyn and complained, “All you know is how to eat!”

“I’m still growing. I need to eat more delicious food, of course.”

Caitlyn smiled mischievously.

The plane was about to take off.

Without further ado, Sean and Zander got on the plane while turning to look back repeatedly at every step they took.

Just after boarding the plane and settling into their seats, Sean and Zander had barely had time to catch their breath when a strikingly dressed and beautiful woman strode over

The woman was about 20 years old. She was young and beautiful. Most importantly, she was tall. Her long legs were slim, sexy, smooth, and fair, giving people many ideas.

Moreover, the woman’s face looked foreign. Although she did not have black hair, her dark red eyes, deep- set eye sockets, and red curly hair were not common in the country.

The plane was bound for Crosac in the City-State Union. The woman must be heading for the City- State

Union too.

At the same time, she was a foreigner, so her identity was obvious. She must be from a small country in the City-State Union!

“What can I do for you, Miss?”

Zander asked instead of Sean.

The woman had her boarding ticket in her hand. After a moment's hesitation, she forced a smile and asked Sean, who was sitting by the window.

"Sir, would you please swap seats with me?"

'Swap seats?'

Sean frowned and asked in reply. "Why do you want to swap seats with me?"

"I want to sit by the window. I like viewing the landscape from the sky, so I choose the seat by the window every time I book a flight."

The woman smiled and replied with a hint of arrogance.

You could choose your seat on the plane, but only in first and business class. Economy class did not have such privileges.

Sean and Zander wanted to keep a low profile, so they booked flights in economy class. After all, there were more passengers in economy class. The two would be less noticeable here than in first or business class.

"Since you like to choose a window seat, why not buy a ticket in first or business class when you booked the flight?"

Sean asked with a smile.

The woman shook her head and replied helplessly, "I was going to choose first or business class, but I was too late. First and business class were full, so I could only buy economy... Sir, I think changing seats is just a small matter. You won't refuse a small request, will you?"

Chapter 1550

Chapter 1550

However, Sean shook his head. "Sorry, I refuse."

"What?"

The woman immediately looked shocked.

Perhaps she had not expected the man to reject her request, so she was shocked.

“You’re very ungentlemanly.”

The woman shook her head and said in a disappointed tone.

“I was never a gentleman.”

Sean said casually.

“I’m disappointed in you. Are all men in Dragon Kingdom as ungentlemanly as you?”

The woman muttered with a frown.

“I’m disappointed in you too. Are foreign women as unreasonable as you?”

Sean replied with a smile.

Several Dragon Kingdom men got up and defended the foreign woman by criticizing Sean.

“You have no manners. It’s just changing seats. Do you have to go that far?”

“Oh, do you have to be so fussy about such a trivial matter? What would our foreign friends think of Dragon Kingdom?”

“If I were you, I would have swapped seats. I could have swapped ten seats with all the time spent talking!

“He’s humiliating Dragon Kingdom!”

What Dragon Kingdom’s men said infuriated Zander.

However, Sean pressed his shoulder and shook his head to tell him not to act impulsively.

A middle-aged man with gold-rimmed glasses, who looked like a university professor, came over and said to the foreign woman, “Pretty lady, my seat is also by the window. You can swap with me if you don’t mind.”

“That’s great. Thank you! You’re a gentleman!”

The woman smiled and looked even more triumphant.

Then she turned around, looked at Sean, and said, “Even if you won’t swap seats with me, someone will. Do you see how stupid you are now?”

With that said, the woman snorted and sat down happily in the seat by the window after changing seats with the man wearing glasses.

However, it did not end there.

Many Dragon Kingdom citizens nearby seemed to have developed hostility toward Sean and were now looking at him contemptuously.

Some even discussed him in a whisper.

Chapte

“Jeez. Narrow-minded men are a disgrace wherever they go.

“They humiliate Dragon Kingdom.”

“No wonder Dragon Kingdom has a bad reputation internationally. It seems there are too many such people!”

Zander became angrier as he heard this.

Sean patted him on the shoulder and said indifferently, “Ignore them.”

“Commander, you’re too nice.”

Zander said helplessly.

The plane took off.

After a jolt, the plane flew into the air and retracted its landing gear.

Sean turned his head slightly to look at the landscape from the window. Watching the airport get further and smaller and the tall buildings on the ground gradually become as small as matchboxes, he suddenly understood “the landscape” the foreign woman spoke about.

