Chapter 1571

Chapter 1571

Ronald introduced his children to Sean and Zander when they were eating.

Ronald had many children. Sean did not remember them. He forgot about them after meeting them, but Sean remembered his eldest daughter, Lillian.

It was because Ronald chased the maid away and left Lillian pouring drinks for Sean and Zander at the dining table.

Ronald's eldest daughter, Lillian, sneaked into his bed while he was in the shower. Besides that, she wore... such indescribable clothes. It was nonsense!

"What are you doing?"

Sean let go of Lillian and asked with a frown.

Lillian touched her throat in grievance and explained, "I... I didn't want you to be bored, so I came to keep you company."

Didn't want me to be bored?

'How considerate!'

Sean sneered and asked, "Is this your father Ronald's idea?"

Lillian immediately knew Sean was angry when she heard Sean's question and cold tone.

While helping Sean and Zander at dinner, Lillian already knew from their conversation with her father that these two men were special.

Especially Sean. Lillian was shocked to learn from the conversation that he was the new commander-in-chief of Dorodo's city defense army.

After all, he was so young, but it was unimaginable that he had such a high position and great power.

Therefore, Lillian thought maybe she could put herself under Sean's patronage.

Besides, her father Ronald hinted after dinner that she could look for opportunities to approach Sean. It would be great if this could happen, and the Townsend family would have a commander-in-chief as a son-in-law.

The Townsend family would have no one to fear in Dorodo.

Therefore, Lillian sneaked upstairs to Sean's room after a shower.

When she heard Sean had gone to shower, she opened the door and climbed into his bed to surprise him.

Unexpectedly, she got into a chokehold for no reason.

"Talk! Is this your idea or your father's idea?"

Sean was irritated.

If Ronald had arranged for his daughter to sleep with him, he would have been no different from a shameless man.

If so, once he took over Dorodo's city defense army, he would cut off the city defense army's business dealings with Ronald and choose other weapons dealers to do business with.

Lillian immediately answered fearfully, "It's not my father's idea. I wanted to do this. My father only told me to take good care of you... Mr. Lennon, I didn't have any other ideas. I just wanted to keep you company..."

Lillian's remark made Sean slightly relieved.

However, it did not soften his attitude.

"I don't need you. Get out of here."

Sean said coldly.

“Why? Am I not beautiful, Mr. Lennon?”

Lillian was shocked.

The City-State Union’s folk customs had always been open-minded. She approached Sean. Such a thing. might be embarrassing in Dragon Kingdom, but it was normal in the City-State Union.

However, she did not expect Sean to reject her so straightforwardly and even kick her out!

It was humiliating to a woman.

Throwing yourself at a man only to have him reject or even throw you out was a terrible shock to any woman!

Chapter 1572

Chapter 1572

“I’m not interested in you.”

Sean’s tone brooked no negotiations.

At the same time, footsteps came from outside.

Sean grabbed the covers from the bed and wrapped them around Lillian. Zander was soon at the door, followed by Ronald.

*Commander, what’s going on?”

Zander asked, looking at Lillian in bed in shock.

“Nothing It’s just a small issue.”

Sean said casually

Then Sean looked at Ronald outside the door and snapped, “Take your daughter away. I don’t need her care.”

“I’m sorry...”

Ronald was smart. He knew what happened as soon as his eyes scanned the room.

He rushed in, grabbed his daughter’s hand, and pulled her out of bed. Then he nodded and apologized to

Sean

I’m sorry I’m sorry. I think my daughter misunderstood me. I only wanted her to be friends with you. Of course, if it turns into a relationship...”

I’m tired I need rest”

Sean interrupted Ronald

Ronald had no choice but to say, “Alright, Mr Lennon Get some rest. You won’t be disturbed again tonight

With that said, Ronald grabbed his daughter Lillian’s hand and left Sean’s room.

At the end of the hall, Ronald looked down exasperatedly at his eldest daughter, Lillian, and said gloomily, “How could you be so stupid? Since when did I ask you to seduce Commander Lennon? Is a man like Commander Lennon someone you can seduce?”

“What should I do then...”

Lillian was so aggrieved that her voice was tearful.

“You should treat him politely before slowly developing your bond. Don’t you understand that the more honorable the man, the more he looks down on easy women? I taught you for nothing!”

After a pause, Ronald said again, “But I’m sure there will be another chance. Once Commander Lennon takes over, I’ll take you to the city defense army’s base more often. You can keep your eyes open and observe, got it?”

“Got it, Dad.”

Lillian nodded heavily, and the indifferent man’s figure appeared in her mind.

After Ronald left with his daughter Lillian, Zander entered Sean’s room and locked the door behind him.

“Ronald probably meant no harm.”

Zander said as soon as he entered.

Sean nodded and said in agreement, “He doesn’t mean any harm to me, but he’s blinded by greed and dedicated to pleasing me. We can’t get too close to a man like him.”

Zander said flatly.

Zander’s statement made sense, and Sean did not contradict him.

Zander continued saying, “We’re going to Dorodo’s city defense army’s base tomorrow. Commander, what do you think of it?”

Sean smiled at Zander’s statement and said, “The chiliarchs, Gregory and Anthony, have no problem with me, but not Wesley. Since he can get his son George to join the city defense army and take him under his wing shows that his loyalty cannot be guaranteed.”

Zander’s eyes turned hard after hearing Sean’s statement.

Sean went on saying, “Don’t worry. It’s pointless for Wesley to mess with me. He’s no match for me!”

Chapter 1573

5 a.m.

The sun had just risen in the east, and reveille blared in Dorodo's city defense army base.

3,000 city defense soldiers stood on the field, neatly dressed. They began running in a neat line on the field at the word of command.

The team of 3,000 men ran orderly. Most importantly, they ran for a full hour.

A five-kilometer jog for an hour was Dorodo's city defense army daily routine.

They had to jog five kilometers every day, regardless of weather, rain, or snow. Besides that, no one was allowed to take the day off.

Not only regular soldiers must run, but also officers of all ranks.

The three chiliarchs were running on the field with their respective troops.

Wesley was the one at the front.

The two younger men at the back were the other chiliarchs-Anthony and Gregory.

Wesley was 55 years old, Anthony was 35, and Gregory was only 32.

Neither Anthony nor Gregory was married, let alone had kids. Only Wesley married and had a family in Dorodo. He also enlisted his only son, George, into the city defense army.

The 22-year-old George did not cause major trouble in the city defense army but was not up to any good either.

Many city defense soldiers had much to complain about him.

However, with the chiliarch Wesley on top, it did not matter, even if the soldiers complained.

"Commander Jokerman, you're old! You can't keep up!"

Anthony came up behind him and said with a laugh.

Wesley immediately turned gloomy and said, "I'm old, but I can do this job for a few more years. You two can never catch up with me!"

With that, Wesley quickened his pace and ran ahead.

However, how could he be a match for two men more than twenty years younger than him?

No matter how hard he tried, Anthony and Gregory stayed close behind him.

“Never? There are ways!”

Anthony said with a laugh, sounding presumptuous.

Gregory said solemnly, “I heard the new commander-in-chief is only in his 20s. He’s young and is appointed by Commander Lupin. What do you think about that?”

Anthony’s expression did not change much at Gregory’s statement, but Wesley’s expression turned aghast.

It was because Wesley was paving the way for his precious son. He wanted his son George to replace him as the city defense army’s new chiliarch when he retired.

A leader suddenly overrode the three chiliarchs, which made the whole thing a lot more volatile.

It would be strange for Wesley to be happy.

“Hmph. What commander-in-chief? I think he’s only a young punk! I’ll show him when he’s here!”

Wesley said coldly.

“You said it yourself. Don’t go back on your word when the time comes!”

Anthony exclaimed, pointing at Wesley.

Wesley snorted coldly and said nothing.

Just then, a messenger came running and stood before the chiliarchs as he panted.

“Commander Jokerman! Commander Laurent! Commander Killian! The new commander-in-chief has arrived. He’s already here to take his position. He wants the three of you to see him immediately.”

The messenger felt a lot of pressure as soon as he finished speaking.

Wesley looked angry as he said, “A new broom really sweeps clean. He wants to intimidate us old-timers as soon as he reaches Dorodo’s city defense army. How dare he!”

“Hahaha, I don’t think there’s anything wrong with that. Besides, he’s the commander-in-chief. We’re only chiliarchs. We have to see them, of course.”

Chapter 1574

Chapter 1574

Anthony said with a smile.

Gregory did not say much but was clearly on Anthony’s side.

Wesley looked at the two and said, “Don’t you have any complaints? The three of us had a chance to be the commander-in-chief, but Commander Lupin sent an outsider to be commander-in-chief out of the blue. Even that I can accept. I accept orders from our higher-ups. But how can I stand it when that person is a punk in his 20s?”

Wesley said and snorted angrily. You could tell that he was furious.

“Forget about it for now. Let’s hurry over. He might be waiting for us.”

Gregory reminded.

The commander-in-chief’s office in the city defense army base.

Zander stood aside solemnly while Sean sat in the commander-in-chief’s chair, flipping through the papers in front of him.

These documents were about the city defense army’s affairs over the last six months.

Sean read quickly. He had an idea of the city defense army’s situation.

Just then, there were loud footsteps outside. They could tell it was Wesley, Anthony, and Gregory-the chiliarchs of the city defense army.

Besides that, it was not only the three chiliarchs, but several soldiers also gathered before the headquarters building.

It was unknown whether the soldiers gathered there spontaneously or were summoned over by the chiliarchs.

“Are you the new commander-in-chief, Sean Lennon?”

Wesley came in and leered at Sean, speaking in a dismissive tone.

Sean nodded slightly.

“How old are you?”

Wesley asked.

Sean laughed and asked in reply, “What does my age have to do with you?”

“Of course it does. You must have pulled some strings or gone through the back door when you become a commander-in-chief at such a young age! I don’t trust people like you to handle things and run the city defense army!”

With that said, Wesley snorted coldly.

Zander lost his temper immediately.

He glared at Wesley and yelled, “Who are you to talk to Commander like that? Are you trying to offend your superior?”

“I wouldn’t dare. I’m just a subordinate trying to warn my superior.”

Wesley said sarcastically.

www

“You...”

Zander snapped and drew his saber.

However, Sean raised his hand and stopped him before he could strike.

“Take it easy, Zander.”

Sean said and looked at Anthony and Gregory.

“Do you think the same too?”

Sean asked with a smile.

Anthony and Gregory glanced at each other before shaking their heads with a smile together.

Sean was slightly relieved to see that.

It would be tricky if Anthony and Gregory sided with Wesley.

If the three of them sided against him, he could not intercept even if he wanted to.

However, it was clear that Anthony and Gregory were on the same team. There was bad blood between them and Wesley, so it would be much easier.

Three men were separated into two forces, and Sean was confident he could handle them!

Chapter 1575

Chapter 1575

Now that the morning training was over, some soldiers went to the canteen to eat, while others went back to their dormitories to wash up.

However, more city defense soldiers gathered at the headquarters building.

It was because many of them had heard about the sudden appointment of a young commander-in- chief.

Besides that, the chiliarchs were currently in the commander-in-chief’s office, arguing with the young commander-in-chief, who appeared out of the blue!

“Hey, do you think the three chiliarchs are a match for the young commander-in-chief?”

A square-faced city defense soldier said, looking excited.

Another slightly younger city defense soldier immediately said, “Who knows? But a commander-in-chief is still a commander-in-chief after all. The three chiliarchs combined still have a lower rank than him. Could they intimidate him?”

“But this guy was appointed all of a sudden after all. He’s not promoted step by step. I don’t think he could do anything if the chiliarchs were to work together to neutralize him!”

“You got a point, but everyone knows the chiliarchs fight their own battle. There’s no way they’ll work together.”

“Commander Killian and Commander Laurent are on good terms. Commander Jokerman’s reputation and authority in the city defense army have only declined because of his son. Don’t mix it up, okay?”

“Anyway, the commander-in-chief and chiliarchs are bound to get into an argument today!”

“Who shall we help later?”

The city defense soldiers gathered and discussed, and their discussion grew more animated.

The headquarters building was not tall-only six floors in total. Sean, Wesley, Gregory, and Anthony could hear them from the commander-in-chief’s office on the top floor.

Sean’s expression was nonchalant, and you could not get any clues from it.

Gregory and Anthony’s expressions looked slightly ghastly.

Personnel changes at the top affected the morale of the soldiers at the bottom, which was not a good phenomenon.

Wesley rushed to the window, opened it, and shouted to the city defense soldiers downstairs, “Dragon Kingdom’s army has appointed a commander-in-chief for Dorodo's city defense army out of the blue Are you willing to have a young man in his early 20s control you? Can you stand it?"

"Have you lost your mind?"

"What are you doing?"

Startled, Gregory and Anthony rushed to grab Wesley by the shoulders and yanked him back.

However, it was too late.

Wesley waved his arm, making the soldiers downstairs excited.

"Of course not!"

"What commander-in-chief? Come out and show us!"

"How dare a punk in his 20s want to be the commander-in-chief and control all of us? I'm the first to disagree!"

"Come downstairs! Come downstairs if you dare!"

Countless city defense soldiers yelled downstairs. The entire city's defense army's base was abuzz

Wesley looked smug as he listened to the noise from downstairs.

He looked smugly at Sean and said, "You hear that? That's what most of Dorodo's city defense soldiers think! Punk, you're too inexperienced and young! You can't handle it! I advise you to be smart and return to where you came from. Don't humiliate yourself at Dorodo's city defense army base!"

Wesley did it on purpose.

He wanted to use hundreds of city defense soldiers to force Sean to give in!

After all, Sean was the commander-in-chief with a higher rank than him. He was no match for Sean on his own. He did not even qualify to fight against Sean.

Chapter 1576

Chapter 1576

However, if so many city defense soldiers did not accept Sean as the commander-in-chief, he could use it to his advantage!

Sean and Zander understood Wesley's intentions.

Anthony and Gregory read his mind too.

The atmosphere in the commander-in-chief's office was tense at the moment.

"What if I refuse?"

Sean asked with a smile.

Wesley snorted coldly and said, "I'd like to see you subdue so many city defense soldiers! Come down with me now if you have the balls!"

Wesley was only talking tough. He did not think Sean would agree to such an insulting request.

Unexpectedly, Sean agreed immediately.

"Okay, let's go downstairs and spar. I'd like to see what you're capable of!"

With that said, Sean strode out the office door.

Instead, Wesley, who made the request, froze in place. He did not recompose himself for a long time.

"You're still here? You're not afraid, are you?"

Sean looked out the door at Wesley, who was still standing in his office, and said flatly.

“I’m afraid? I don’t know what’s fear! Lennon, don’t think I’ll go easy on you just because you’re the commander-in-chief! I want you to know that older people are experienced!”

With that said, Wesley strode downstairs with Sean.

Gregory and Anthony quickly followed suit, and Zander was right behind.

When Sean, Wesley, Zander, Anthony, and Gregory came downstairs and stood in front of the city defense soldiers, the city defense soldiers clamored excitedly!

“Silence...”

Gregory hesitated for a moment before biting the bullet and stepping out. He shouted and quickly silenced the noisy crowd.

“As you may have heard, Dragon Kingdom has suddenly appointed a commander-in-chief for Dorodo’s city defense army base. The commander-in-chief is Commander Sean Lennon, who’s standing before you! Commander Lennon is a nine-star commander and the youngest Guardian God of war in Dragon Kingdom! He came to Dorodo to assume the position of commander-in-chief as per Commander Hanson Lupin’s order...”

Listening to Gregory’s introduction, all the city defense soldiers cast curious glances at Sean.

However, many of them were dismissive.

Sean was so young that they felt Gregory’s introduction to Sean was embellished.

Sean’s appointment as a nine-star commander and the commander-in-chief of Dorodo’s city defense army was likely acquired by going through the backdoor!

Therefore, a significant number of soldiers were skeptical of Sean.

Gregory continued saying, “I’m sure you heard that Commander Jokerman does not acknowledge the qualifications and identity of the commander-in-chief, so he wants to challenge him.”

The atmosphere changed instantly as soon as he said that.

‘Commander Wesley wants to challenge the commander-in-chief?

‘What does he want? Does he want to replace him?

‘He’s too ambitious!’

However, Wesley’s courage and determination to do such a thing were admirable!

Chapter 1577

Chapter 1577

Gregory stepped back and gave the floor to Sean and Wesley.

After all, the two would be putting on a show for them!

Sean turned to Wesley and calmly asked, “Commander Jokerman, how do you want to challenge me?”

“You can choose, lest you deny it when you lose! Archery, swordsmanship, strength, and close combat. Take your pick!”

Wesley spoke generously.

Sean narrowed his eyes slightly, and a faint murderous aura came from him.

He had put up with Wesley many times, but Wesley repeatedly disrespected him. He even spoke rudely. He was basically treading over him!

It seemed he had to be taught an unforgettable lesson so that he knew there would always be someone better!

“Okay, archery then. But since it’s a challenge, there has to be a prize.

Sean took two steps forward and said slowly.

Wesley knew the highlight was here when he heard the word “prize”.

He was forcing Sean to agree by challenging him to pay some price for his failure.

Therefore, he went on. "We do need a prize... Commander Lennon, what are you prepared to give if I win?" Hearing Wesley's words, everyone in the place pricked up their ears and listened quietly, waiting for Sean's answer.

If nothing else, the prize would be Sean's position as commander-in-chief!

Sure enough, Sean said immediately, "If you win, you'll be the commander-in-chief. I'll write my resignation letter to Commander Lupin and recommend you for the post of commander-in-chief!"

The place was instantly silent as soon as he said that!

Although everyone had guessed the answer in advance, no one believed Sean to be so straightforward!

It was the position of commander-in-chief for Dorodo's city defense army!

He would give away such enormous power without hesitation.

The man's resolve and control were terrifying!

"Okay!"

Wesley was overjoyed. He quickly agreed to prevent Sean from going back on his word.

"And what if you lose?"

Sean asked again.

Wesley laughed and said, "There's no way I'll lose!"

"I meant what if."

Sean added, holding back his anger.

With so many soldiers looking at Wesley, he could not avoid the question.

AND

After thinking about it for a while, Wesley said, "At the very least, I will resign as chiliarch and let Commander Lennon choose someone else to take over if I lose!"

"That's settled then."

Sean nodded with satisfaction.

The challenge began.

Zander, Gregory, and Anthony took dozens of steps back, clearing the place.

The city defense soldiers backed away so as not to interfere with Sean and Wesley's battle.

They competed with each other in archery.

A hundred meters away were two wooden stakes, each with a circular target.

A longbow with three arrows beside it lay in front of each of them.

The longbows were military special bows. It had a long range and was powerful, but it was strong. People with weak arms could not draw it at all, so they could not use it.

The arrows were made of compound metal. There was no wood material.

With heavy metal arrows and a powerful longbow, a shot would likely pierce a person!

"Commander Lennon, it's not too late to give up."

Wesley picked up the longbow and said with a laugh.

Chapter 1578

Chapter 1578

He was exhilarated.

It was because he could not rebel against Sean in his capacity as a chiliarch.

However, thanks to so many city defense soldiers emboldening him today, Sean had no choice but to go downstairs and compete with him. It was a great opportunity for him.

If he could take this opportunity to defeat Sean, Sean would have to resign and make him commander-in-chief as promised!

Wesley's heart instantly gushed with ecstasy at the thought of his impending success.

Sean was calm.

His expression and eyes were calm. There was not a single emotion in them. It was almost as if nothing in the world could make him angry.

It was Sean in battle mode.

People might unleash a force far greater than usual when they were angry.

However, archery was not a contest of strength but skill.

Therefore, a calm mind was more appropriate than an angry outburst.

'Don't try to irritate me, Wesley. I'm young, more than 30 years younger than you. But I've experienced more in 20 years than you have in 50. You're older than I am but not necessarily wiser.'

Sean's statement made Wesley frown.

'How arrogant!

'This punk is so arrogant!

'I want you on your knees, begging for mercy and admitting your defeat in front of all the soldiers!'

Filled with anger, Wesley fired the first arrow by loosening his fingers.

The black arrow hit the target as it fled across 100 meters like a bolt of black lightning.

Boom!

The stake and the circular target trembled slightly.

The city defense soldiers widened their eyes and looked over and saw Wesley's arrow deeply nailed on the circular target's ninth ring.

'Commander Jokerman's first arrow hit the ninth ring!'

Gregory shouted, announcing Wesley's result.

He hit the ninth ring in one hundred meters.

It was not bad, considering the accuracy of a bow and arrow was no match for a thermal weapon.

Besides, it was the first arrow.

The first arrow was usually uncalibrated. Forget about the ninth ring. Even the seventh or eighth ring was normal.

Wesley had surpassed 99% of the city defense soldiers by hitting the ninth ring.

The old man was narrow-minded and sheltered from his shortcomings, but he was surprisingly strong!

Wesley did not hesitate. After taking a deep breath to calm himself down, he picked up the second arrow.

The target trembled once he fired the shot.

Bullseye!

This arrow hit the tenth ring!

Commander Jokerman's second arrow hit the tenth ring!

Gregory shouted.

The achievement of hitting the tenth ring made many city defense soldiers look admiringly at Wesley, especially the soldiers under Wesley!

"Hahaha, see? This is what Commander Jokerman's capable of!"

"Commander Jokerman's old but strong!"

"Go, Commander Jokerman!"

Various cheering broke out in the army base.

Wesley smiled smugly as he listened to the soldiers cheering him on.

"Commander Lennon, do you see what I can do now? I kindly advise you that it's not too late to change your mind."

Chapter 1579

Chapter 1579

Though Wesley said so, he had no intention of giving Sean a chance to back out.

Before he had finished speaking, he had taken up his third and last arrow.

He drew the bow, set the arrow, and aimed.

Wesley did it smoothly and quickly.

As soon as he loosened the fingers, the bowstring shook as the arrow shot out. The black arrow shot like lightning toward the circular target 100 meters away.

Boom!

The ninth ring!

The ninth ring again!

Although it was not a perfect tenth ring, hitting the ninth ring was also pretty good.

"Commander Jokerman's third arrow hit the ninth ring. His total score is 28!"

Gregory announced loudly.

Putting down his longbow, Wesley snorted coldly and stepped aside.

It was Sean's turn to shoot.

"Punk, you exaggerate your abilities. I've given you many chances, but you refuse to give up. Will you only regret it after getting into trouble?"

Wesley said bitterly.

Zander nearby was furious and wanted to lash out instantly, but Sean shook his head at him.

"Haha, you won't even speak. A heartless, spineless, and undignified wimp like you can forget about being the commander-in-chief of Dorodo's city defense army and commanding so many soldiers!"

Wesley said and laughed.

Gregory and Anthony glanced at each other, and Gregory said, "Wesley, watch your mouth!"

Anthony also warned, "You're not commander-in-chief yet. You're so eager to show off. Are you not scared of it backfiring?"

They could not stand Wesley's taunts anymore.

It was because Wesley was too disrespectful.

Wesley's taunts were not about venting his anger.

He deliberately did it to make Sean lose his temper by insulting him.

That way, Sean was more likely to make a mistake when shooting his arrows.

Therefore, Wesley was deliberately trying to undermine the fairness of the competition.

Anthony and Gregory spoke up and stopped him because they saw that.

However, no one knew that Sean was unbothered.

The external influence on him was negligible to him.

It was because he was far more capable than ordinary people!

Sean picked up all three arrows at once, with two in his mouth and one in his hand over the longbow.

Wesley instantly had a bad feeling when he saw this.

It was because biting the arrow reduced the movement and distance of reaching for the arrows, which in turn took less time.

Although archery was not about speed or taking less time, the shorter the time it took to shoot three arrows, the less energy it took.

Most importantly, he had seen this habit in someone before.

It was the nine-star commander, Hanson Lupin!

The nine-star commander, Hanson, used this move on the battlefield when he led the three chiliarchs, Wesley, Gregory, and Anthony.

He had put two arrows in his mouth, took one off, and continued shooting after each shot.

Three arrows in a row took less than a second!

Wesley, Gregory, and Anthony were shocked.

The three men were fascinated by the miraculous archery and breathtaking speed.

Wesley, Anthony, and Gregory tried to emulate Hanson's archery but could not do it, no matter how much they practiced. They could only give up in the end.

Sean did just that. How could Wesley not have a bad feeling?

Was this Sean capable of shooting three arrows in a row like Commander Lupin?

Chapter 1580

Chapter 1580

No way. No way. He could not possibly pull off such a miraculous stunt, could he?

Anthony and Gregory glanced at each other, and they saw intense wonder in each other's eyes.

"Watch, this is Commander Lennon's archery. It's a spectacular feat you'll never emulate!"

Zander said suddenly.

Sean suddenly loosened his fingers once Zander finished speaking.

The black arrows shot like lightning and disappeared in front of everyone with a swoosh.

Almost as soon as the first arrow hit the circular target, the second arrow left the bowstring and shot out again!

The third arrow was faster. The third arrow flew out before the second had even hit the circular target, following closely behind.

The first arrow hit the tenth ring!

The second arrow hit the first, splitting it in half and nailing it deep into the red center ring.

Still the tenth ring!

The third arrow hit the second arrow, splitting the second arrow in half, piercing the 10-centimeter thick wooden circular target!

It hit the tenth ring again!

Three arrows were shot, but only one remained on the circular target.

It was because the first two arrows had been split to the ground by the later arrows.

That meant all three arrows hit the same spot accurately!

"The three arrows hit the tenth ring. The total score is 30!"

Gregory shouted. Even his voice was shaking!

Three arrows fired in a second, and each hit the tenth ring!

What archery skill was this?

Even the gods could not do better than this!

There was no sound in the vast camp.

After a long time, gasps were heard.

Then thunderous shouts rang!

"Go, Commander Lennon!"

"Commander Lennon is a god!"

"I didn't go to school, so I had no education. All I can say is: Commander Lennon is f*cking amazing! F*cking amazing!"

The city defense soldiers shouted excitedly and looked at Sean from a distance with respect and admiration.

Wesley looked as if he had aged more than ten years in a flash.

Lost!

He lost!

He accepted his defeat!

Sean did not even look at him.

Turning around slowly, Sean looked at each of Dorodo's city defense army soldiers present.

Wherever he glanced, the soldiers could not help lowering their heads. No one dared to meet his eyes!

~My name is Sean Lennon, and I'm your new commander-in-chief. I'm your supreme commander from now on."

Sean said slowly.

His voice was not loud, but everyone there could hear him.

His voice was not solemn, but it was exuding intense dominance. No one could resist him!

"I'm young and appeared out of the blue, so I know you don't trust me. But that's okay. I understand.

"From this day onward, anyone can challenge me! Whoever beats me will be Dorodo city defense army's commander-in-chief! I will give you my place!

"But as long as no one beats me and I'm the city defense army's commander-in-chief, I expect you to obey me and follow my every instruction!

Is that clear?"
