

Hail the King 791

Chapter 791: The Meeting of Two Royals (5) (Part One)

Buckingham's expression instantly paled.

The soldiers of the Sea Tribe who were rushing over shocked him to his core, and this terrifying power that suddenly appeared also made him shiver. That violent and destructive force was overbearing, and it was clear that it didn't belong to an entity who was kind and orderly.

As a high-level noble of Leon, he knew what it meant to the living creatures on land if such an entity were alive.

"What is that?" Buckingham asked Fei as he tried to mobilize his warrior energy in his body and get his body used to his power which was gone for a while, "King of Chambord, tell me what happened in these few days!"

Fei completely ignored him.

"Huh? According to the memories of the three masters of the Sea Tribe, this vicious god could only break through the seal in about half a year. Why is he waking up so soon?" Fei murmured to himself as he looked at the center of the sea which was about 50 kilometers away. On the dark ocean surface, a blackish-red energy was gushing out of the sea like a beam that connected to the sky, standing in the world strangely.

Now, Fei already realized what was happening, and his expression looked serious.

"What is going on? King of Chambord? Where are the 184 warriors of Leon?" Buckingham looked around the campsite and realized that only he and Fei were still here.

After he instantly thought of one possibility, he got stirred up as he shouted, "You killed them? You killed them and sacrificed them to the vicious Sea Tribe? You are a damn butcher. You damn devil... You..."

"Enough!" Fei shouted impatiently and cut him off, "What, Mr. Buckingham? You are starting to care about the lives of those captives? Not long ago, weren't you trying to kill them along with me in this vast sea?"

Buckingham was instantly at a loss for words.

That was right. About eight days ago when the Sea Tribe first appeared, Buckingham got a crazy plan in his mind. He was going to borrow the blades of the Sea Tribe to kill the King of Chambord, the Imperial Martial Saint of Zenit. This way, he could kill a powerful enemy of Leon silently.

Therefore, he was willing to sacrifice the lives of his soldiers as well as his own life to achieve that goal.

On the way, he used his persuasive power and military status to convince those hundreds of captives of Leon. That was how he was able to make [Brilliance] go off track, heading toward the center of the [Sea of Fragrance] instead of the Leon Empire. He thought that he had done this without the detection of the Chambordians, and that was why the ship encountered more and more members of the Sea Tribe.

In the beginning, everything was happening according to Buckingham's plan; more and more masters of the Sea Tribe appeared.

In the end, even a powerful master like the King of Chambord couldn't protect the entire [Brilliance], and the people on the ship had a hard time surviving.

However, the appearance of [Blood Crime] Island ruined Buckingham's plan.

Buckingham was greatly disappointed, and he broke one side of [Brilliance] sneakily and tossed most of the food and drinkable water into the ocean, wanting to cause disruptions to Fei and the other Chambordians. This way, the Sea Tribe would have the upper hand and kill all of them who were on the ship.

Unfortunately for Buckingham, red-haired Louise discovered the strangeness when [Brilliance] docked at [Blood Crime], and he and the other captives of Leon were locked up into a tent which was isolated from the outside world. What happened after was out of his control.

Every day, he was praying to the gods and hoping that the vicious members of the Sea Tribe could break through the defense-line of Chambord and kill all the Chambordians, his men, and himself. This was the most effective way of getting rid of a big enemy for Leon.

He thought that Fei didn't know any of this.

Now that Fei pointed it out, he knew that the King of Chambord saw through his plan from the beginning.

This made him feel embarrassed, and he didn't know what to say.

Chapter 791: The Meeting of Two Royals (5) (Part Two)

Right now, Fei already finished observing the phenomenon which was happening far away and looked back at Buckingham. The king said lightly, "I was planning to leave those captives of Leon here as food for the Sea Tribe. After all, they are nothing but burdens to us. However, I'm not a vicious person like you guys who can sacrifice so many people for the so-called benefit for the empire. Therefore, I have already ordered my men to take them to a safe place."

Buckingham was stunned after hearing what Fei said, and he looked away awkwardly. After a while, he sighed and said, "Thank you."

A playful smile appeared on Fei's face, and the king said, "You are a vicious and cunning character whose hands are stained by the blood of Zenitians, but you are righteous from the perspective of the Leon Empire. As a commander of Leon, you risked your own life to save the military forces of Leon when they were in danger, and you placed yourself at life-threatening situations to get rid of me. Therefore, you can be counted as a real man. Just for that, I won't kill you. Now, this island is already surrounded by the members of the Sea Tribe. Since everything is in fate, you can try to escape. If you can survive and escape from this island, then you can make it back to the Leon Empire."

"Huh?" Buckingham was stunned by what Fei said again since it was unexpected.

He subconsciously looked at the low-level members of the Sea Tribe who were charging over like a flood as well as the high-level members of the Sea Tribe who were standing far back on water beams that were shooting out of the ocean. Gradually, he understood that the situation was dangerous. If he walked out of this campsite which was protected by the King of Chambord's Fist Spiritual Spatial Seals, the hundreds of thousands of members of the Sea Tribe would attack him without mercy.

It wouldn't be easy for him to survive this.

“What about you? Where are you going?” Buckingham suddenly thought of something and asked Fei subconsciously.

After asking, Buckingham felt a little awkward; he didn’t even know why he asked that.

“Me?” Fei suddenly laughed and said, “I’m going to vent my anger! Then, I will go into the deep sea to meet this terrifying entity who is rumored to have the power to kill gods!”

In the next moment, Fei turned into a dash of golden light and flew toward the distance. His powerful energy flames made him look like a sun, and all the low-level members of the Sea Tribe were turned into ashes. Also, the black surface of the ocean at night was pressured. A massive groove which was more than 100 meters wide appeared in the sea, and the waves moved to two sides. It looked like the entire ocean was divided into two halves by Fei, and it was terrifying.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

Bam! Bam! Bam!

A series of booming noises sounded and resonated in the sky.

Further away, the Moon-Class Elites of the Sea Tribe were standing on water beams that were jetted more than 100 meters into the sky. They were wearing ancient armor, holding strangely-shaped weapons, and creating a unique battle array formation. They tried to block the king and stop him from moving forward, but Fei simply punched out one fist after another, and the powerful golden energy fists flew across the dark sky and destroyed the masters of the Sea Tribe.

This was a one-sided massacre.

The vicious and reckless Sea Tribe met the more overbearing king, and they couldn’t fight back at all.

Buckingham’s heart lurched, and he turned into a dash of light immediately and followed Fei tightly without thinking. He was also flying toward the center of the ocean where that destructive and vicious sensation was coming from.

He was only at the low-tier Full Moon Realm now. Compared to Fei, he was as weak as an ant. However, he was much stronger than ordinary members of the Sea Tribe.

Also, since Fei showcased his power again and killed the masters of the Sea Tribe, Buckingham didn't run into any danger, and he was able to follow Fei.

Very soon, the two of them arrived at the location that was more than 50 kilometers away from [Blood Crime] Island.

Buckingham got close to Fei and looked down with the king.

What he saw instantly made him gasp, and he couldn't maintain his composure.

Something unbelievable was happening.

Chapter 792: The Meeting of Two Royals (6) (Part One)

Within an area of 30-kilometer-radius, the entire ocean now turned grey. A grey vapor that was filled with deathly sensations came out of the sea and connected with the sky, and the center of the ocean that had a radius of about 1,000 meters was being sucked down by a mysterious force, creating a vortex that was at least 1,000 meters deep.

At the very center of the vortex, a grey energy beam was shooting out. This energy was supreme and filled with bloodiness and violence, and it dashed into the sky and tore the dark clouds, piercing directly into the dark sky. No one knew where the other end of this energy beam connected to.

The air was chilly; it was freezing.

However, it seemed like the seawater in the area was being evaporated by high temperature. Within the area, grey vapor was everywhere. Then, thunders rumbled while lightning bolts flashed across the sky.

After a lot of noises, heavy rain started to pour down from the sky.

With this giant vortex as the center, no members of the Sea Tribe could be seen within 20 kilometers.

It seemed like this vicious race was also scared by this destructive energy, escaping from the area as quickly as they could.

“God... this; this is a power that mortals can’t have!”

King Buckingham of Leon was a calculative and experienced person, but he turned ashen-faced at this moment when seeing this scene. Although he wasn’t a Sun-Class Lord yet, he was a royal of the Leon Empire, and he had a lot of knowledge. Therefore, he instantly realized what kind of power this was. Even though he was persistence and brave, he felt a chilliness, and he wanted to turn around and flee instinctively.

“This is too fast. The Sea Tribe must have used another method!” Fei thought as a thin golden energy sphere appeared around him, blocking all the raindrops half a meter away from his body. He organized all the information that he obtained from the memories of those three masters of the Sea Tribe, and his expression darkened even more.

“What is this? King of Chambord, you know, right? You have to know what this is, right?” Seeing Fei’s serious expression, Buckingham asked loudly as thunders rumbled and lightning bolts flashed in the sky.

“If I tell you that this is a vicious god of the Sea Tribe, would you believe me? Haha!” Fei laughed as he looked at Buckingham.

He continued to chuckle, but he said in all seriousness, “Ok, Leonian, don’t stay here anymore; leave before this vicious god comes to life. Go back to the Leon Empire and tell your emperor that the Sea Tribe reappeared, and so did their vicious god! The wars between humans are no longer meaningful. If the Leon Empire doesn’t want to become the first empire that will be exterminated by the Sea Tribe, it should stop fighting with empires like Zenit. We need to come together and figure out a way to battle these vicious creatures!”

All kinds of expressions appeared on Buckingham’s face, and he didn’t know what to say.

He sensed the thick sensation of death from this energy beam, and he knew that Fei wasn’t lying.

The entity with such an evil and murderous aura must be a god-like figure who loved killing. Also, since this entity was a god of the Sea Tribe, then it must be a powerful enemy of humans. The Leon Empire was very close to the [Sea of Fragrance], and it would suffer a lot of damage if it weren't prepared for the attack of the Sea Tribe and their vicious god.

After some thinking, Buckingham felt cold inside.

He was sure of one thing; the humans couldn't stop this force.

At least no one at the Leon Empire could stop this force which could destroy the world.

Suddenly, a series of thunders rumbled, waking Buckingham up from his deep and messy thoughts.

Chapter 792: The Meeting of Two Royals (6) (Part Two)

Just as he was about to turn around and escape, he suddenly looked at Fei and asked, "What about you? Aren't you escaping as well?"

"I can escape and hide for now, but I can't do that forever," Fei said calmly.

Under the light of the lightning flashes, Buckingham suddenly felt like his opponent who made him and the entire Leon Empire shiver gave him a strange sense of security.

Right now, he felt like Fei's eyes were as bright as the stars, and a unique charisma was being emitted. Like two black holes, Fei's eyes were able to devour anything in the world.

At this moment, Buckingham who was haughty and conceited even when Fei captured him felt like he was inferior for the first time in his life.

Whoosh!

With golden energy flames around him, Fei dashed down toward the center of that terrifying vortex rapidly. The friction between his energy flames and the air created a lot of sparks.

Buckingham was shocked as he thought, "Is this madman trying to commit suicide?"

However, in the next moment, he suddenly understood the King of Chambord's intent, and he was stunned once again.

Unexpectedly, he didn't turn around and escape. Instead, he gritted his teeth and followed Fei again, dashing into the giant vortex that looked like the enormous mouth of a vicious prehistoric beast.

He didn't know why he made such a decision. Perhaps, he just wasn't willing to accept the fact that the King of Chambord was better than him.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

...

Boom!

As if a meteor crashed down into the ocean, giant waves that were more than hundreds of meters tall appeared.

In the next second, Fei already dived into the ocean and got down more than 1,000 meters.

Then, another noise sounded behind Fei.

"An interesting Leonian," the king thought. Before he dived into the ocean, he knew that Buckingham didn't escape and instead followed him.

However, the king didn't pay attention to this Leonian. Instead, he observed his surroundings.

It was pitch-black inside the ocean, and it felt like someone spilled ink into the water. Also, the seawater was spinning with the vortex, making Fei feel like he was inside a laundry machine.

The terrifying spinning force disrupted the old environment. Even though colorful lights were flashing in the water, Fei couldn't tell what they were.

However, with Fei's eyesight, he was able to see 1,000 meters around him.

The cause of the vortex was that grey energy beam. It was shot up from the bottom of the sea, and it contained a strange power.

It was stirring the seawater crazily as if it wanted to crush everything in the sea before starting over again.

Fei decided on a direction and dashed toward the depths of the sea without hesitation, moving closer to the source of the grey energy beam.

His speed in the water was greatly reduced.

As Fei got deeper into the ocean, the spinning force seemed to have decreased, but that grey energy beam got brighter, and the sensation coming off it was also more intense.

Even Fei didn't dare to get too close to the energy beam. He stayed about 500 meters away from it and continued to dive deeper.

It seemed like this ocean was bottomless.

After half an hour, the water pressure increased dramatically. Fei looked around and couldn't see anything; he felt like he was in the void.

He couldn't tell how deep this ocean was, and he wasn't able to sense the existence of any creatures.

"A small inland sea is already this deep. Then, how deep are the real oceans outside of the Azeroth Continent in the legends?" Fei thought to himself and was shocked.

After another half hour, Fei had dived deeper than 20,000 meters. Gradually, he vaguely saw the seabed and some structures on it. It seemed like he had reached the bottom.

Chapter 792.2: The Meeting of Two Royals (6) (Part Two)

Just as he was about to turn around and escape, he suddenly looked at Fei and asked, “What about you? Aren’t you escaping as well?”

“I can escape and hide for now, but I can’t do that forever,” Fei said calmly.

Under the light of the lightning flashes, Buckingham suddenly felt like his opponent who made him and the entire Leon Empire shiver gave him a strange sense of security.

Right now, he felt like Fei’s eyes were as bright as the stars, and a unique charisma was being emitted. Like two black holes, Fei’s eyes were able to devour anything in the world.

At this moment, Buckingham who was haughty and conceited even when Fei captured him felt like he was inferior for the first time in his life.

Whoosh!

With golden energy flames around him, Fei dashed down toward the center of that terrifying vortex rapidly. The friction between his energy flames and the air created a lot of sparks.

Buckingham was shocked as he thought, “Is this madman trying to commit suicide?”

However, in the next moment, he suddenly understood the King of Chambord’s intent, and he was stunned once again.

Unexpectedly, he didn’t turn around and escape. Instead, he gritted his teeth and followed Fei again, dashing into the giant vortex that looked like the enormous mouth of a vicious prehistoric beast.

He didn’t know why he made such a decision. Perhaps, he just wasn’t willing to accept the fact that the King of Chambord was better than him.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

...

Boom!

As if a meteor crashed down into the ocean, giant waves that were more than hundreds of meters tall appeared.

In the next second, Fei already dived into the ocean and got down more than 1,000 meters.

Then, another noise sounded behind Fei.

“An interesting Leonian,” the king thought. Before he dived into the ocean, he knew that Buckingham didn’t escape and instead followed him.

However, the king didn’t pay attention to this Leonian. Instead, he observed his surroundings.

It was pitch-black inside the ocean, and it felt like someone spilled ink into the water. Also, the seawater was spinning with the vortex, making Fei feel like he was inside a laundry machine.

The terrifying spinning force disrupted the old environment. Even though colorful lights were flashing in the water, Fei couldn’t tell what they were.

However, with Fei’s eyesight, he was able to see 1,000 meters around him.

The cause of the vortex was that grey energy beam. It was shot up from the bottom of the sea, and it contained a strange power.

It was stirring the seawater crazily as if it wanted to crush everything in the sea before starting over again.

Fei decided on a direction and dashed toward the depths of the sea without hesitation, moving closer to the source of the grey energy beam.

His speed in the water was greatly reduced.

As Fei got deeper into the ocean, the spinning force seemed to have decreased, but that grey energy beam got brighter, and the sensation coming off it was also more intense.

Even Fei didn't dare to get too close to the energy beam. He stayed about 500 meters away from it and continued to dive deeper.

It seemed like this ocean was bottomless.

After half an hour, the water pressure increased dramatically. Fei looked around and couldn't see anything; he felt like he was in the void.

He couldn't tell how deep this ocean was, and he wasn't able to sense the existence of any creatures.

"A small inland sea is already this deep. Then, how deep are the real oceans outside of the Azeroth Continent in the legends?" Fei thought to himself and was shocked.

After another half hour, Fei had dived deeper than 20,000 meters. Gradually, he vaguely saw the seabed and some structures on it. It seemed like he had reached the bottom.

Chapter 793: The Meeting of Two Royals (7) (Part One)

Fei didn't dare to be arrogant. After all, the sea was the territory of the Sea Tribe, and this race that was recorded in history books had many masters. They had occupied the sea for tens of millions of years, and it was hard to tell what kind of powerful trump cards they had at the bottom of the ocean. If he weren't careful, he might be trapped and killed.

Therefore, the king got very serious, and his spirit energy radiated outward like waves. After everything around him was detected, and he didn't discover anything strange, he descended more and slowly landed on the seabed.

It was indeed the seabed.

When Fei took a good look, the landscape here was quite flashy. There weren't any giant hills, and the chilly whiteness extended into the darkness in the distance. However, when Fei took a more detailed observation, he realized that this was supposed to be a dense underwater fossilized forest.

White fossilized trees were everywhere, connecting with each other since their branches had grown into one another. Compared with the ordinary trees on land, these fossilized trees didn't have leaves, and mystical patterns were on the empty branches.

Each of these fossilized trees was at least ten meters tall, and they had many branches.

However, since they already fossilized, they weren't moving at all in the water, and they looked like corpses that had been at the bottom of the sea for many years.

At the moment, Fei was standing on the fossilized branch of a thick tree.

When he reached the bottom of the sea, he felt like it was no longer that dark. The chilly white bodies of these fossilized trees emitted faint white lights. The lights weren't eye-piercing, but they were quite significant when hundreds of thousands of fossilized trees connected.

Like moonlight, they illuminated the seabed softly, making it look stunning.

Since Fei was now tens of thousands of meters deep in the ocean, the water pressure was insane.

Buckingham who had followed him tightly with gritted teeth was feeling this water pressure more, and big sweat drops appeared on his forehead.

As he unleashed his warrior energy, a red energy sphere appeared around him and protected him. However, he was cultivating fire-elemental warrior energy, and its effectiveness was greatly reduced in this vast ocean. His strength was almost reaching low-tier Full Moon, but he was like a mid-tier Half Moon Warrior in the sea. If he dived deeper for about 5,000 meters, he wouldn't be able to last.

"Leonian, if you don't want to die, go back. If a fight occurs later, I won't have the energy to save you." Fei glanced at Buckingham and said calmly.

Even though it was well-intentioned, it sounded vicious and mean coming from Fei's mouth.

Buckingham blushed, and he opened his mouth, wanting to say something.

However, without sparing another glance at him, Fei decided on a direction and dashed forward by stepping on the branches of these fossilized trees, quickly approaching that grey energy beam which was shooting into the sky.

He could only get close to that vicious god of the Sea Tribe who was waking up by approaching this grey energy beam, and he could potentially do something.

“Hey! Hey! Hey! King of Chambord, I know what you want to do, but you won’t succeed. Even if a god isn’t completely awakened yet, we mortals couldn’t deal with it.” Buckingham followed Fei tightly as he shouted, “You will fail going alone! We should find more masters and unite. Perhaps we can attack this vicious god together or prolong this seal.”

Fei completely ignored Buckingham and didn’t even slow down.

The closer they were to that grey energy beam, the more vicious and evil the energy sensation became.

The only thing was that the water calmed down in this region, and there was no longer that powerful spinning force.

Everything was as calm as a windless summer night, and no members of the Sea Tribe could be seen. However, Fei and Buckingham felt like they were walking in hell and traveling through a sea of blood and corpses.

Make sure that you subscribe to us on – [noodletowntranslated dot com! You will get the most recent update in your email!]

Chapter 793: The Meeting of Two Royals (7) (Part Two)

If ordinary masters were here, this evil and violent energy which permeated the water would have killed them and sucked away their souls. This intense water pressure wasn’t even needed.

“This madman...” Buckingham was angry that Fei completely ignored him.

However, he could only follow Fei and continue moving forward as well while gritting his teeth.

He was a haughty and smart individual. Seeing how Fei reacted, he knew that it was impossible for him to convince this young warrior to back off. In fact, he also knew that his suggestion didn't make any sense. From the increase in this evil and demonic energy in such a short time, he knew that there wasn't enough time for humans. Before the human masters could gather, this vicious god of the Sea Tribe probably would already finish waking up, and he would be able to step out of the sea.

By then, the vicious god of the Sea Tribe would have already recovered his strength, and he would devour many lives, destroying the few empires around the [Sea of Fragrance]. If that happened, the land that was within thousands of kilometers of the coastline would be full of corpses, and humans in the area would go extinct.

This god of the Sea Tribe was an evil and vicious entity.

In ancient legends, the battles between gods and demons were able to destroy the world, and they were destructive. Those vicious and demonic gods ate all other races as food, and they could devour tens of millions of lives in one day. No one could stop them.

However, as the Mythical Era came to an end, the real gods and demons hadn't appeared on the continent for thousands of years.

Some people made bold assumptions and said that the gods and demons killed each other, depleting the power of each force. In fact, some of the priests in the Holy Church didn't believe in the gods and the holy land; they spoke of the gods and acted devotedly because they wanted to make what they were doing seem righteous.

At this moment, Buckingham still felt like it was unbelievable.

"There is a vicious god of the Sea Tribe who is alive at the bottom of this sea? Didn't people say that all the gods were gone? Such a terrifying entity is really about to appear in the world," Buckingham thought to himself. He didn't know if others would believe him if he told them about what happened, but he wouldn't believe this if he didn't see this with his own eyes.

Therefore, he gritted his teeth and followed the King of Chambord. At this moment, he had unimaginable confidence in this No.1 Enemy of the Leon Empire. He didn't even realize this consciously.

“Perhaps this madman can do it,” Buckingham thought as he gritted his teeth more.

He was a decisive person. At this moment, he would stand with the side that he believed was right.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

...

Fei stopped when he felt like he was really close to that grey energy beam.

Before him was a deep and wide valley. In fact, it could be more accurately described as an abyss.

Black energy was slowly rising from this abyss, and it looked like black flames were burning here. Like an opening to hell, it was suffocating to look at. Fei felt like an immeasurable amount of danger was hiding in here.

After hearing the light noises behind him, Fei frowned but ended up taking out a few items from his storage ring and tossing them at Buckingham with golden energy flames wrapped around them.

Buckingham was surprised at first, and he reached out his hand to catch them subconsciously. When he looked down, he realized they were a set of magic armor with dense fire elements around it, a fire-elemental magic spear, a red sword, and a few crystal bottles that were several-thumbs-thick; it seemed like they contained high-level healing potions.

Buckingham was thrilled as he understood Fei’s intentions.

Without hesitating, he put the armor on his body, placed the sword on his belt, held onto the spear, and stored the potions in his storage ring.

These items were all fire-elemental and suited his fire-elemental warrior energy, helping him improve his strength.

Just as he was feeling heroic and about to thank Fei, he looked up and saw the King of Chambord leaping into the abyss.

Buckingham murmured a complaint and followed suit without hesitation.

Chapter 794: The Meeting of Two Royals (8) (Part One)

On the two sides of the cliff, dark-red stone spikes pointed outward, looking like the messed-up teeth of a monster. Since water flowed around these spikes in a pattern, these spikes were sharpened by the water and were very dangerous.

After diving down for 400 meters, dense stone spikes were everywhere, and it was hard to tell the directions as if they were inside a maze.

Fei dashed around and stepped on different stone spikes, diving deeper into the ocean rapidly.

Buckingham was barely able to follow Fei. While gritting his teeth, he dived deeper with a determined expression on his face.

After about 1,000 meters, the bottom of the abyss was finally reached.

It was wider than Fei had anticipated, and the cold seawater somehow got warm. What surprised Fei the most was that there was a layer of red plants on the seabed. They were about ten centimeters tall, looking like the grass on land. As the seawater moved, they tilted in one direction, and it looked like a red wave was moving underwater. It was quite a fantastic scene.

For some reason, the water pressure at the bottom of the abyss was less than above. As if there were a magical force field, at least half of the water pressure got canceled out.

When Fei looked up, he was still able to see that murderous grey energy beam more than 1,000 meters away. In this dark bottom of the sea, that energy beam was as obvious as a lighthouse, pointing out the direction.

As his spirit energy spread out and filled the area with a radius of 5,000 meters, Fei got a quick scan of his surroundings and learned that no members of the Sea Tribe were around.

This surprised Fei a little.

Theoretically, the Sea Tribe should know about his whereabouts and the intention of his trip.

“But why isn’t there anyone who is stopping me? Why aren’t the masters of the Sea Tribe stopping me? Could it be... that they think my power couldn’t stop this vicious god of the Sea Tribe from waking up?” Fei thought.

After he self-mocked a little, he dashed forward and got closer to that grey energy beam.

Finally, some structures and ruins appeared in the front. These were all the relics that represented the former glory of the Sea Tribe, and they were ancient. There were collapsed walls, damaged palaces that had seaweed growing on them, giant god statues that fell on the seabed, and some shattered staircases.

The further Fei went, the more ruins and relics there were. They had been sealed for thousands of years, and vicissitude couldn’t be hidden. However, through the outer shapes of these structures, Fei was able to tell how prospers this place was thousands of years ago.

It was clear that this was a city of the Sea Tribe.

Unfortunately, this city had collapsed under the passage of time. More than 1,000 years of being sealed robbed this place of its former glory.

Fei didn’t stop and continued to move forward.

Gradually, some members of the Sea Tribe appeared. They were high-level members and looked very similar to humans. They weren’t weak; the weakest warrior among them was equivalent to a Five-Star Warrior.

They were cultivating the Sea Power. After living in the sea for tens of millions of years, they evolved and became one with the sea. Instead of being suppressed by the water pressure, they were able to move rapidly in the water like black lightning bolts. They swam around quickly and released high-pitched sound waves, but they didn’t attack.

The further Fei got, the more members of the Sea Tribe he saw.

They were all high-level members of the Sea Tribe.

Some of them were standing on top of broken walls, some of them were sitting on the shoulders of the collapsed god statues, and some of them hid in the ancient temples. While blue lights flashed in their eyes, they controlled their vicious and violent temperament and grasped their weapons tight while looking at Fei who was walking in this ancient fallen city; it felt like they were waiting for something.

Buckingham was still following Fei, but he was nervous; he felt like his heart was in his throat.

More and more high-level members of the Sea Tribe appeared, and there were a lot of Moon-Class Elites. They stood on either side of the street, only leaving out a path that was about five meters wide for Fei and Buckingham.

It seemed like a battle could occur at any moment now. If that did happen, Buckingham was sure that he couldn't escape from here.

Chapter 794: The Meeting of Two Royals (8) (Part Two)

Suddenly, Fei stopped moving.

Four figures appeared in front of him, and they were all Sun-Class Lords.

"Humans, your trip ends here," the creature in the middle of the group said. He was several meters tall, looking like a small giant, and he was looking down at Fei and Buckingham.

He had four eyes and four arms, and his waistline was more than 20 meters. Chilly white scales covered his body, and he was wearing a set of magic armor. He should be a rare species that only existed in the deep sea, and his innate powers were terrifying.

When he spoke, the soundwaves created several swirls, destroying multiple stone pillars that had diameters of more than one meter. He was quite pressing.

Buckingham recognized this master of the Sea Tribe.

About half a month ago, he appeared on the surface of the sea and battled with the King of Chambord for about four hours. In the end, they matched even, and he forced [Brilliance] to dock at the [Blood Crime] Island to avoid the Sea Tribe momentarily. This creature was a terrifying master.

Beside him, the other three Sun-Class Lords all had strange forms as well since were rare marine species. More than 60% of their bodies were already human-like, and Buckingham couldn't see through their strengths.

Although these three new Sun-Class Lord hadn't unleashed their powers yet, the energy fluctuations around them already created a series of hissing noises in the water. Also, black energy flames burned around them, making it seem like this space couldn't handle their powers and was about to collapse.

Buckingham cursed in his mind and thought, "Damn it! Before we can find the place where that vicious god of the Sea Tribe is sleeping, we are blocked by such masters! If this giant creature can battle with the King of Chambord for a few seconds, and other three masters can tear me into pieces! In the end, the King of Chambord probably can't escape as well... This time, I'm dragged into hell by this madman of Zenit!"

Just as various expressions appeared on Buckingham's face, and he was about to get close to the King of Chambord to whisper some potential ways of getting away, he was suddenly stunned while his pupils contracted immediately.

At that moment, Fei sneered and charged forward.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

With neither hesitation nor fear, the King of Chambord shouted and punched out.

Fei's target was that giant member of the Sea Tribe who had battled him for four hours before.

A golden energy flames flashed, the seawater between Fei and this master were turned into nothing, creating a vacuum.

Then, a terrifying light beam shot out of Fei's fist, instantly enveloping that master of the Sea Tribe.

"Hahaha! Poor human! You are seeking your death!" that giant master of the Sea Tribe laughed and punched out instantly.

A blue light shot out of his fist, and his aura was even more powerful than Fei's.

He had battled this [Demonic Human] before, and he had a rough idea about how powerful his opponent was.

“Although this [Demonic Human] is more powerful than me, the difference isn't big. It is impossible for him to defeat me when so little time passed. Also, Princess Her Highness had sent three more Sun-Class Lords to come here with me. Our goal is to instantly kill this human who caused many of our people to become fearful. This is the best way to establish the confidence of our people!” he thought to himself.

The other three Sun-Class Elites of the Sea Tribe saw Fei's attack and only sneered. They were waiting for the perfect opportunity to strike and kill.

However, in the next moment...

“No, wait! You... AHHH!”

The smile on this giant master's face froze, and he couldn't believe what he was experiencing. When the two different energies collided, he sensed a power that was several times stronger than his, and this power instantly crushed his strike.

When he realized that this human was no longer that human from a few days ago, he wanted to dodge, but it was too late. That destructive energy rushed into his body already and shattered all life energy.

Chapter 795: The Meeting of Two Royals (9) (Part One)

While that giant master of the Sea Tribe shouted in his hoarse voice, eye-piercing blue lights flashed around him as if he wanted to fight back.

However, it was useless as his opponent's powerful golden energy flames had already enveloped him.

Boom! He lost consciousness, and his world turned black.

Others observed all of this, and it made their hearts stop beating for a second. This scene was way too shocking for them! This visual made them lose the ability to talk or think.

It was hard to imagine that one punch from the [Murderous God of Humans] was enough to explode a Sun-Class Lord of the Sea Tribe!

No wonder the Sea Tribe gave Fei this nickname!

It was an instant-kill!

That giant body was turned into a cloud of blood mist, and none of his arms were intact. His muscles, bones, armor, and weapons were all turned into the smallest particles. Even if gods descended from heaven, they couldn't bring this Sun-Class Lord of the Sea Tribe back to life.

When the other three Sun-Class Lords wanted to help, it was already too late.

Boom! Boom!!!!

Now, the loud explosive noises finally sounded, and all the water within the 1,000-meter radius was pushed out by the force within Fei's punch. The thousands of high-level members of the Sea Tribe, the collapsed palaces, ancient god statues, and city walls were all crashed by the energy waves, and the golden energy waves continued to expand in all directions while opening deep and dark cracks in the seabed. It felt like the entire ocean was about to be penetrated by this strike.

Buckingham opened his mouth wide, so wide that his mouth was almost torn.

His mind blanked out, and he suddenly felt like the intelligence which he was proud of wasn't enough to process this information.

"What? How? Why is the King of Chambord suddenly this powerful? How many days passed? Is this real?" Buckingham thought to himself. Only a little over ten days ago, the King of Chambord and this giant master of the Sea Tribe were evenly matched; he saw it with his own eyes. But today, the King of Chambord easily killed his opponent!

“What? Instantly killing a Sun-Class Lord? AHHHH! It isn’t as simple as killing an ant! Unless the difference in strengths between the two parties is giant, this isn’t possible!... What happened? Did the King of Chambord hide his strength before? Or did he achieve another breakthrough?” he pondered even more.

“Hahahaha! Whoever dares to stop me will die!”

After instantly destroying his opponent, Fei dashed toward that grey energy beam rapidly like a bolt of lightning.

“Damn it!”

“Stop him!”

The other three Sun-Class Lords of the Sea Tribe were terrified.

They were woken up from their shock by Fei’s shout, and they couldn’t even think about other things at this moment. They instantly unleashed their full strength and chased after Fei.

They knew what was happening behind them, and they couldn’t allow this [Murderous God of Humans] to get close to the [Revival Altar] and disrupt Mr. Kluivert’s awakening process. The awakening of that demonic god was crucial to the long-term plans of the Sea Tribe.

“Haha! Idiots! You are fooled!”

At this moment, Fei who was charging forward suddenly turned around and laughed. Then, his body paused before turning back in an unimaginable speed and angle, attacking those three Sun-Class Lords of the Sea Tribe.

Boom!

It was another punch!

Without any doubt, one of the three Sun-Class Lords was killed. This giant master from the eel clan was also turned into blood mist. Like an overinflated balloon, he popped instantly without being able to fight back, and his flesh slowly floated down the sea.

Chapter 795: The Meeting of Two Royals (9) (Part Two)

However, that golden energy fist was too mighty! After killing a Sun-Class Lord, it continued to move forward like a golden light beam. The ancient buildings and thousands of high-level members of the Sea Tribe who were behind that master from the eel clan were turned into dust, and a deep hole appeared on one side of the cliff, causing the seawater to rush into it immediately.

Such power!

Such presence!

Now, Buckingham realized that the King of Chambord acted as if he were about to charge past the Sun-Class Lords, making them instantly lose focus and unable to coordinate with each other quickly. The king's attack was astonishing! As a result, this Sun-Class Lord who was powerful enough to be admired by many warriors was sacrificed under the King of Chambord's iron fists.

Unbelievable strength!

Insane battle experience!

In the blink of an eye, two Sun-Class Lords who were enough to support a powerful empire died with their bodies turning into particles.

“AHHHH! Damn! Despicable human!”

One of the two Sun-Class Lords who survived until now was terrified and angered. It seemed like he was from the octopus clan since he still had features of an octopus.

As his dozens of arms swung in the water, each grabbing a powerful high-level combat weapon, he suddenly sensed a coldness. Just as he was about to use his most powerful strike, he looked down and realized that a golden energy fist was already pressing on his heart without his notice.

“AH... No!” He screamed desperately. In the next moment, his body blew up, just like his two comrades who died.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

Until the last moment, he still couldn't believe that he, a Sun-Class Lord, was so easily killed by a young human master.

Right now, the last Sun-Class Lord of the Sea Tribe was already ashen-faced. He finally understood that the strength of this [Murderous God of Humans] was far beyond the information in that intelligence report, and he wasn't able to block such a figure.

As he screamed, fear appeared in his eyes, and he turned around and fled.

Cold lights flashed in Fei's eyes.

Since the relationship between him and the Sea Tribe already got to this stage, there was no way that he would let his enemies go.

When he pulled back his right arm, it seemed like the water in front of him was grasped by a terrifying force, turning into a golden gel-like matter. That Sun-Class Lord of the Sea Tribe who was escaping instantly slowed down.

At this moment, Fei suddenly punched out quickly like a bolt of lightning, and a golden light beam dashed out, penetrating the sea.

Invincible Emperor Fist – One Strike to Kill!

The golden light beam dashed out of Fei's fist and penetrated that last Sun-Class Lord. This light beam was so eye-piercing that no one could see anything else for a moment.

When this light disappeared, that Sun-Class Lord was also completely gone from this world!

Like a snowflake on a hot summer day, that high-level member of the Sea Tribe was nowhere to be found!

All four Sun-Class Lords who came here to stop Fei were destroyed in a way and in a speed that were unimaginable to others!

Buckingham was blanking out; he didn't know how to describe what he saw.

"Those were four Sun-Class Lords! Not four white cabbage! They disappeared just like that... Is this young man a god? Is he the reincarnation of a god? If that is the case... perhaps this evil god of the Sea Tribe can be stopped!" he thought to himself.

Standing in the middle of the valley, Fei took out a bottle of [Mana Potion] before drinking it slowly.

He killed those four Sun-Class Lords, but it didn't seem like a big deal to him.

Chapter 796: The Meeting of Two Royals (10) (Part One)

Even though Fei finished the battle in a few quick seconds, and it looked very easy, the king indeed used a lot of energy.

These four punches were the most powerful strikes that Fei had ever used since he walked onto the path of a warrior.

When he used his first punch to kill that giant master of the Sea Tribe, he benefitted from the impression that he left in his opponent's mind more than ten days ago. That member of the Sea Tribe still thought that their strengths were on the same level, but Fei had been working hard in Diablo World and leveling up. Although that fight only happened not long ago, Fei's strength had improved drastically. Since his opponent was a little careless, and Fei was fully prepared, he was able to instantly finish the battle using the barbarian skill – [Bash].

Before he used his second punch, he thought that these Sun-Class Lords of the Sea Tribe stopped him here because they didn't want him to move forward. By understanding their thoughts, the king pretended that he was going to charge through by force. He distracted his opponents, broke their coordination, and maximized his individual strength. While those three Sun-Class Lords panicked, Fei turned around and punched out, instantly killing the most powerful Sun-Class Lord among the three.

When Fei punched out the third time, the two surviving Sun-Class Lords of the Sea Tribe still looked powerful but were terrified. When battling on this level, any negative emotions would put one to a disadvantageous and passive position. Since neither of the two Sun-Class Lords posed a threat to Fei, the king picked the weakest one and killed him instantly.

After that, the last Sun-Class Lord was shocked to his core, and he no longer dared to fight back. It was very easy for Fei to take care of such an enemy who was fleeing.

Fei used the barbarian skill [Bash] four times, and this skill was very mana-consuming.

After those four punches, Fei used one-fourth of his energy, and his mana dropped by half.

When Fei drank that [Mana Potion], he was slowly recovering, trying to get his body into its peak state.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

If he continued forward, he would enter the place where that demonic god was reviving. Fei didn't know what to expect.

Even though Fei was used to being overbearing and had many trump cards, he got very nervous.

After all, he would be facing a real god!

From reading the memories of those few members of the Sea Tribe, Fei learned that this branch of the Sea Tribe always wanted to revive Evil God Kluivert whom they worshipped. They wanted to use the power of this evil god to restore the Sea Tribe's former glory.

However, according to these members of the Sea Tribe, this evil god could only be revived in about half a year. Therefore, Fei was shocked that this evil god was going to wake up after only about two weeks. It seemed like the Sea Tribe used a mysterious method and achieved the unimaginable.

Fei could escape, but he didn't choose to do that.

Once Evil God Kluivert was revived, all the humans within 500,000 kilometers of the [Sea of Fragrance] would be killed in a short time, becoming this evil god's food and helping him recover his strength.

If the nest broke, no eggs would be intact. If that happened, the Zenit Empire would be affected right away. Starting from the Byzantine Kingdom, the killing would spread from the southern region of Zenit to St. Petersburg and then to the Chambord Kingdom.

If such a terrifying evil god attacked, even that underground cave behind Chambord City couldn't block his strikes!

If Fei didn't take this risk, Chambord would be in great trouble.

Chapter 796: The Meeting of Two Royals (10) (Part Two)

Therefore, Fei had to take this risk.

If he could disrupt the Sea Tribe's plan of reviving this evil god, it would be the best outcome.

If he failed this mission, he would have to rely on the last resort.

Right now, Fei felt like he was a bit crazy as well. He was going to challenge a god as a mortal; it was no different from committing suicide.

The only thing that the king could bet on was that this evil god had been sealed for many years, and his strength probably was close to depletion. During his recovery, he would be significantly weaker, giving Fei a rare opportunity.

However, before he faced off such a god, Fei had to make sure that he was in his best state possible.

When he killed those four Sun-Class Lords, his terrifying golden energy waves spread out and took the lives of more than 4,000 high-level members of the Sea Tribe.

Currently, Fei and Buckingham were surrounded by the members of the Sea Tribe who were enraged but also scared.

However, these members of this vicious race didn't move forward. They just stood there and watched as the [Murderous God of Humans] slowly got back to his prime and walked toward that bright grey energy beam.

Buckingham followed the king tightly.

After walking for about 1,000 meters, a grand and organized city of the Sea Tribe appeared. A giant blue energy barrier enveloped this city.

Fei had seen this before; the Mythical Palace which was at the seabed of the underground ocean under Dual-Flag City also had such an energy barrier around it, but that one was tougher and contained some godly power!

Through the blue energy barrier, Fei got a good look at this ancient city which had a unique architectural style. He felt like a city from the Mythical Era had traveled through space and time, appearing right in front of him.

The tall and fancy palaces, the smooth and organized streets, the many statues of the Sea God, the mystical water fountains, the colorful plants... Everything seemed so dreamy and beautiful that it made Fei feel like it was a paradise.

"So, this is a city of the Sea Tribe... It is so beautiful!" Buckingham murmured uncontrollably.

That grey energy beam originated from an altar-like structure located in the center of this city, and it pierced through the blue energy barrier and extended outward, releasing the terrifying suppression of a god.

"Guard this gate for me!" Fei looked at Buckingham and said while he pointed at a portal-like structure at the base of the energy barrier.

Then, the king grabbed onto Buckingham's shoulder, and they instantly appeared in front of the portal.

It was clear that this was the only way in and out of this city.

When Fei moved, the tens of thousands of high-level members of the Sea Tribe finally overcame their fear and chased after Fei and Buckingham like a flood.

Dashes of golden lights shot out of Fei's body.

The terrifying Fist Spiritual Spatial Seals were placed around this portal, and the high-level members of the Sea Tribe who got close were turned into pieces. However, some of them got through the small slits and charged over.

Fei ignored them and disappeared into the portal.

With his hands grasping the long spear tightly, Buckingham somehow gradually calmed down at this moment. While staring at the high-level members of the Sea Tribe who were charging over, he copied the King of Chambord's heroic laughter and said, "Come on, b*stards! I will let you know that besides the King of Chambord, there is me, Buckingham!"

Chapter 797: The Meeting of Two Royals (11) (Part One)

As soon as Fei entered this city which was inside the energy barrier, he was able to relax right away. The huge water pressure that he was experiencing a moment ago disappeared. There was no water pressure inside this city at all.

The refreshing, moist air rushed toward Fei, making him feel very comfortable. Although holding the breath for a long time wasn't a challenge for anyone on and above the Moon-Class Realm, Fei still felt better coming into this environment which he was more familiar with.

Like a dash of lightning, Fei charged forward and headed toward that ancient altar in the middle of the city.

Just like those ancient and collapsed structures outside the energy barrier, it seemed like this ancient city was in a similar state. While Fei dashed forward, he was able to spot the signs which suggested that this city was renovated and built on top of the ancient relics by the Sea Tribe after they woke up from their long sleep.

It was empty in the city; no member of the Sea Tribe came to stop him.

Therefore, Fei's journey was very smooth, and he didn't face any obstacles.

Soon, Fei arrived before that grey energy beam. This energy beam was shooting out from an altar which was constructed inside a godly palace. This square-shaped godly palace stood on top of 600 stairs, and it seemed like it was on top of a giant mountain, looking particularly majestic and grand.

From the center of the godly palace, the grey energy beam was shooting out and reaching the sky!

On the top stair in front of the gate of the godly palace, that beautiful figure stood there in silence with golden energy flames around her. Her long purple hair fluttered in the air, and she looked down at Fei viciously.

She was the leader of the Sea Tribe at the [Sea of Fragrance].

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a dash of golden light shot up from the ground, and a deep hole was left at where Fei was standing; the king attacked without saying a word! The energy fists that were the size of ordinary human fists shot up, but there were many of them. They aimed at this princess' face and dragged out many long golden tails in the air.

Bam! Bam! Bam! Bam!

The golden trident drew a beautiful arc in the air, and it created a golden energy sphere, surrounding this woman who had a sexy figure and was wearing the fancy gold mask.

The energy fists landed on the golden energy sphere like meteors, creating a lot of sparks and loud noises.

The princess of the Sea Tribe tried to block Fei's attack as her body shivered, but she was too weak. The giant force coming from Fei pushed her backward, and her body smashed into several giant stone pillars. She only stopped after backing away for hundreds of meters until she almost leaned onto the square gate of the godly palace!

A streak of golden blood slid down the gold mask and dripped down this princess' white chin.

Tick!

Fei flew onto the platform above the stairs and asked with doubt in his eyes, "You became weaker. You are way weaker compared to a few days ago!"

This princess of the Sea Tribe gave Fei a lot of pressure several days ago, forcing him to use [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] to block that ultimate strike from her.

But now, Fei's test strike already forced this woman to retreat so much. This princess with the gold mask had experienced a huge drop in strength.

This wasn't because Fei's strength increased too fast!

To be more accurate, it seemed like her body had aged drastically. The energy in her blood dropped, resulting in the decrease in her strength!

This princess slowly straightened her back and lightly wiped the golden blood off her chin using her left hand. Her fingers were slender and white like jade, and it looked like a bright light was coming off her body. At the same time, her golden blood looked chilling and shocking in contrast.

Chapter 797: The Meeting of Two Royals (11) (Part Two)

It was clear that she had evolved to perfection. From her appearance, it was impossible to tell her apart from an ordinary human. Since there was no trace of the Sea Tribe on her, Fei didn't know which clan she came from.

"If you are not willing to talk, then die!"

Fei only moved his mind and didn't punch out, but innumerable golden energy fists appeared out of nowhere and shot toward this beautiful woman who looked weak and defenseless.

While that was happening, the king was suddenly enveloped by his golden energy flames as he dashed forward like a bolt of lightning and lightly pulled back his right hand before clenching it into a fist. This was the initiation pose to unleash the Invincible Emperor Fist – One Strike to Kill!

Perhaps the face of this princess was insanely beautiful under that gold mask, but Fei didn't have any plans on being lenient toward her.

“Strike you down when you are weak!”

Although Fei didn't know why this princess of the Sea Tribe was this weak, he was sure that it was an excellent opportunity to kill her. If he did that, it would be great news for humans.

When facing this unstoppable and destructive strike, this princess of the Sea Tribe who was already injured by Fei didn't try to dodge. Instead, a mocking smile appeared on her face.

Pop!

As soon as Fei's fist touched her, she suddenly shattered and disappeared like a bubble.

Boom!

As if a prehistorical beast opened its bloody mouth, that gate of the godly palace which had many mystical symbols engraved on it suddenly opened. As whistling noises sounded, a powerful suction force appeared.

As soon as Fei's fist passed through the afterimage left by the princess of the Sea Tribe, he knew that something was wrong. When he was about to pause his attack, that strong suction force increased his momentum and pulled him into that pitch-black godly palace.

Bam!

As soon as Fei was pulled in, the gate of the godly palace closed.

The king was locked inside the godly palace.

Pop!

As if another bubble were popped, the princess of the Sea Tribe who disappeared a moment ago reappeared outside the tightly-shut gate.

Drips of golden blood slid down the gold mask and dripped onto the black platform in front of the godly palace, and they were instantly sucked into the floor as if water droplets met a dry sponge; that absorption speed was beyond strange.

“Such a terrifying human. Are the humans on land all this powerful after thousands of years?”

While she caressed the cold gate of the godly palace with her slender and white fingers, the princess of the Sea Tribe didn’t even try to wipe the blood on the gold mask, letting it drip onto the floor.

At the moment, she was pondering to herself, “Killing four Sun-Class Lords with four punches... Human, although you are powerful, and you are the first man who harmed me, now you have to pay the price! Hahahaha! Inside the [Sacrificial Saint Palace], anyone will be sacrificed. Hahaha! You will be the first sacrifice offered to the great Kluivert after his revival! With the help of our demonic god, the redemption of the Sea Tribe’s honor can’t be stopped! After the agreement is fulfilled, and the sacrifices are offered, the owner of this world will change! The great prophecy will be realized!”

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

...

It was pitch-black all around.

There was a strange smell in the air; it smelled like blood, but it was also a little sweet and filled with fragrance.

Of course, the most obvious thing was the murderous and violent sensation, and Fei felt cold as if thousands of god-tier combat weapons were cutting him. If his body in Barbarian Mode weren’t extremely tough, his body would have been turned into pieces.

There were some mystical laws of nature inside the godly palace; they were completely different from the ones in the outside world.

Even though Fei's eyesight was great, he could only see about ten meters around him. Anything further away was pitch-black to his senses.

Gradually, he heard the subtle sounds of flowing water.

Chapter 798: The Meeting of Two Royals (12) (Part One)

It was clear that this grand godly palace which was located at the center of this city was used to revive the demonic god.

Also, since that princess of the Sea Tribe tried her best to trap Fei in this palace, the king felt like there might be other mysterious and terrifying entities in here.

Therefore, the king didn't dare to be reckless. While his body was enveloped in his golden energy flames and well-protected, he slowly moved forward.

There were many giant stone pillars in the palace, and they had spiral patterns on them. These stone pillars were of the same size and same height. Like the trees in a forest, they stood there silently and held up the ceiling of the palace, connecting the smooth floor and the tall roof.

The black stone floor had a mystical yet terrifying light glaring on it, and it was suppressive and gloomy.

Fei observed the floor carefully and realized that it was as smooth as glass. The surface of the floor was covered by a layer of crystal that was one-inch-thick., and there were small red tunnels inside this crystal layer as if they were the blood vessels in a human body. In fact, they were all moving lightly, looking extremely strange!

Tap! Tap! Tap!

Fei unleashed his full strength and summoned all the components of the [Immortal King] item set that he had. His pair of metal battle boots created a series of crisp tapping noises when he walked on the smooth floor, emphasizing the chilliness and loneliness of this place.

Quickly, Fei's spirit energy spread out like waves to detect the surrounding.

However, Fei's expression instantly changed.

He suddenly noticed that his spirit energy was greatly suppressed inside this palace. His spirit energy could cover an area of about 6,000 meters around him outside, but it could only reach out about 500 meters inside this palace; it was less than one-tenth of the effectiveness.

Also, the laws of nature regarding time and space were different compared with the outside world and messed up; Fei wasn't able to tell the directions at all.

At the same time, Fei felt like the sensitivity of his five senses were significantly reduced. The air in this space was thick and evil, making Fei feel like he was inside a stinky swamp that he couldn't get out of!

All this strangeness made Fei believe that the altar which was waking up that evil god was inside this palace.

With the [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] in his hand, Fei slowly proceeded forward with 100% focus.

This scene was somehow reminiscent of when the king moved around in Diablo World alone and faced a terrifying boss at the end.

Gradually, Fei discovered another strange aspect of this palace.

Although this palace looked magnificent from the outside, it was in a square-shape, and each side couldn't be more than 1,000 meters long. However, Fei had walked for at least 5,000 meters, but he still couldn't reach the end of the palace. Fei felt like these stone pillars inside the palace seemed endless and formed an illusion array. After all, he wasn't able to see the end as it was still pitch-black in front of him.

"Spatial magic? Or an illusion array?" Fei thought to himself.

Then, he closed his eyes and tried to use his pure spirit energy to detect his surroundings.

After he walked forward like this for more than ten minutes, the water-flowing sounds that he heard earlier got louder and louder.

Fei stopped moving and opened his eyes.

He saw a small ditch in front of him. Instead of calling it a ditch, it was a narrow channel in the ground that was about one-palm-deep. The edges of this tunnel were smooth, but it was positioned in the crystalized floor in a strange yet chilling way. What was most surprising about it was that a mysterious golden liquid was flowing in the tunnel. Although this streak of golden liquid was thin, it somehow created loud, booming noises as if Fei were standing in front of an ocean.

Chapter 798: The Meeting of Two Royals (12) (Part Two)

A shocked expression appeared on Fei's face. After a short moment of observation, he already figured out what was inside the tunnel.

Blood!

Golden blood!

"It is the blood from that princess of the Sea Tribe..."

Fei suddenly recalled the golden blood which dripped down from that woman's face when his Invincible Emperor Fist injured her outside of this godly palace. The sensation and aura of her blood were the same as this golden liquid in the tunnel.

"Could it be that the princess of the Sea Tribe at the [Sea of Fragrance] is crazy enough to release her own blood into this tunnel?" Fei frowned as he continued to ponder.

Then, he squatted down and touched the golden liquid with his finger before smelling it and sensing the energy inside it carefully.

There was a faint energy inside this liquid, and it was of high-level.

As if a light bulb went off in Fei's head, his furrowed eyebrows suddenly relaxed, and he murmured, "I got it now! So, it is like that! Although this leader of the Sea Tribe at the [Sea of Fragrance] is female, she is terrifying and vicious. She is vicious to others and cruel to herself as well. To speed up the revival of this evil god, she paid such a hefty price!"

The king instantly stood up and followed the tunnel that had the golden blood in it, dashing forward quickly.

As he expected, the end of this maze-like palace appeared after a few minutes.

A bright square-shaped gate appeared at the end of the palace.

Whoosh!

Fei dashed through this gate instantly, and it was extremely bright on the other side.

The intense lights made Fei who was used to the darkness squint his eyes, but his mind was ultra-clear. He instantly moved the [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] in front of him to protect himself, and his legs exerted force, helping him to dash around and change positions, just in case if terrifying enemies attacked.

After all, there was an evil god who was about to be revived in here.

However, the sneak-attack that Fei was anticipating didn't appear, and it wasn't a bloody hell in here.

Instead of mountains of corpses and rivers of blood, Fei heard a series of chirps and smelled an intoxicating fragrance.

As the breeze blew by, it felt warm and not chilly.

Fei opened his eyes slowly and was stunned.

He couldn't believe what he was seeing!

In front of him, there were green grass and vibrant trees. Further away, a few beautiful yellow birds were jumping between trees and singing like little fairies, and some seven-colored baby deer were running around. As a clear river ran through the trees, white splashes appeared from time to time, and a few golden fishes jumped out of the water while wagging their tails.

In the middle of this beautiful scene, a handsome young man who was in a white robe looked at Fei with a smile on his face. His body was burly, and a beautiful yellow bird was standing on his shoulder.

“What... is going on?” Fei was shocked.

“This doesn’t make any f*cking sense!” he thought to himself.

According to all the stories that he read in his previous life, the altar which was reviving that evil god should be behind the gate. Even if there weren’t mountains of corpses, it should at least be gloomy, dangerous, and full of vicissitude. Also, that evil god who was half awakened should attack any strangers crazily, especially humans who were like food to the Sea Tribe!

Therefore, Fei couldn’t understand this paradise-like space in front of him!

Chapter 799: Sudden Change (Part One)

No evil and violent energies were coming off this handsome young man in white; he made Fei feel like he was a hermit who had been away in the mountains alone while enjoying nature. While inside this beautiful scenery, he played with the small animals and befriended the vibrant plants. He was celestial and ethereal, making it hard to connect this young man to the evil god who was reviving.

In this entire space, there was no evil and violent aura that could be felt outside that gate. The breeze and fragrance made Fei feel comfortable.

“Little Brother, where are you from? Who are you looking for?” With a gentle smile on his face, this handsome young man in white asked with a mild voice, making others feel intimate toward him.

Fei paused, put away the [Immortal King’s Stone Crusher], and calmed down. After glancing around one more time, he scratched his head and said, “Eh, I might be in the wrong place... Oh, who are you? Why are you here?”

“Me?” The young man in white caressed a cute seven-colored deer as a streak of blood suddenly slid down his mouth, dyeing his white robe red.

After a short pause, he suddenly became sad and said, “I’m the No.1 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, and I came from the Continental Martial Saint Mountain. My name is Saviola, and I was ordered to come here by my master. Mr. Martial Saint sensed the strangeness in the [Sea of Fragrance], and he ordered me to come here to check it out. However, I fell into the trap of the Sea Tribe and got severely injured. Right now, I’m imprisoned here... Eh, what a shame!”

“Continental Martial Saint Maradona?” Fei gaped as he thought, “This man is like a god on the continent! Different from all the Imperial Martial Saints like me in various empires, the Continental Martial Saint is the most powerful person on the continent! He is like the guardian of Azeroth! Even the powerful emperors on the continent had to lower their heads and pay respect to this god-like figure. Also, even the arrogant Holy Church doesn’t want to mess with this man.”

On the Azeroth Continent, Continental Martial Saint Maradona was unique and above all. With his invincible strength, he had absolute control in this world that was ruled by the law of the jungle.

Fei had heard many stories regarding the Continental Martial Saint Mountain, and he knew that this legendary figure had many talented disciples who were also powerful masters that traveled the world and handled all kinds of issues. Maradona’s no.1 disciple was named Saviola.

After hearing this, a relieved expression appeared on Fei’s face, and he quickened his steps forward and asked with care, “Mr. Saviola, you are injured? What happened? With your strength, who could injure you in the Sea Tribe?”

More streaks of blood slid down from this young man’s mouth, and he suddenly started to shiver and stagger. After he slowly sat down and tried his best to circulate his warrior energy, he said with shame on his face, “Ordinary members of the Sea Tribe are no match for me. However, there is an evil god of the Sea Tribe sealed in this [Sea of Fragrance]. This evil god is named Kluivert, and he was infamous during the Mythical Era for killing so many creatures. However, these members of the Sea Tribe who had woken up from their sleep used a secret technique and broke the godly seal which was put on him by the Battle God of the Dwarfs. I thought that I was more powerful and didn’t listen to my master’s advice, and I got sneak-attacked...”

After hearing that, all the doubts on Fei’s face disappeared, and he quickly walked over and stood beside this handsome young man in white. He said anxiously, “What should we do? Where is that Evil God Kluivert? How powerful is he? Should I... Let me take you away!”

This young man in white took a good look at Fei, shook his head, and said with a thankful expression, “You are still too weak; we wouldn’t be able to escape the chase of that evil god. If you can heal me up first, I would be able to break this stalemate situation and leave with you!”

Chapter 799: Sudden Change (Part Two)

“Ok! Let’s do it!” Fei stood behind this young man in white and started to unleash his golden energy flames. Then, he placed his palms on this young man’s back and said, “I will try to open up the clotted energy channels in your body first. Let’s see if that helps you.”

“Ok, thank you!” the young man in white nodded.

At this moment, Fei didn’t notice that a strange smile appeared on this young man’s face. His right hand that was on his abdomen suddenly had a bright grey light on it, and his expression turned vicious.

Just as this young man in white was about to do something, his expression suddenly changed as he got angry and shocked.

He roared and spat out a mouthful of greyish-golden blood, and his body was sent flying forward like a cannonball, breaking many green trees.

“You... What are you doing?” this young man in white shouted as he quickly retreated.

Fei didn’t speak with a cold smile on his face; he simply dashed forward like a flash of lightning and chased after this young man. Golden light beams shot out of Fei’s fists and all landed on this young man’s body, beating the latter like a sandbag. This young man was sent flying in the air, crashing into many trees and shattering them.

This young man in white didn’t move first, and he was now in a passive situation.

What was surprising was that each punch from Fei was enough to kill a Morning Sun Lord, but this young man in white was able to endure all those. No injuries appeared on his body, let alone getting killed by such terrifying force.

In fact, this young man in white was still roaring and trying to fight back.

As a dark-red energy flame flashed by, the [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] appeared in Fei's hands.

[Whirlwind]!

[Leap Attack]!

[Stun]!

[Battle Cry]!

The strength of the Hell Mode level 42 Barbarian and the powerful barbarian skills all landed on this young man in white.

The [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] was indeed a god-tier item. Under Fei's full strength, all kinds of dark-red runes that were engraved on the surface of the hammer came to life. As if life energy were instilled into the hammer, lights shone through the engravings and projected dark-red runes into the surroundings, and they looked like giant tadpoles that were flowing around this war hammer and Fei.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

Crack! Crack! Crack! Crack!

Crisp bone-cracking noises sounded from the young man in white.

The [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] finally broke through the defense of this young man and delivered destructive blows to his body!

Fei had turned into a ferocious battle machine, and the wilderness and violence of a barbarian were completely demonstrated. He was 100% devoted to this battle, and it looked like he was an overloading killing machine. Without hesitation, Fei unleashed all his strength and skills into this young man's body.

From the way that Fei was beating this young man, it felt like this young man in white had killed Fei's parents and wives.

In the end, these two people turned into two dashes of lights, one fleeing while the other one was chasing.

Finally, that young man in white had enough.

"Enough, Human!" Inhumane grey lights shot out of this young man's eyes, and dark-orange cracks appeared on his white arms. An unimaginable power was unleashed from his arms, and he roared and smashed onto the hammerhead of the [Immortal King's Stone Crusher].

"Puff... Eh!" Fei's body shivered, and he spat out a mouthful of blood before he lost grip of the war hammer. The war hammer dashed away fast and turned into a small dark-red light dot, and Fei was knocked back like a soccer ball that was kicked forcefully.

Fei flew out for more than 1,000 meters and crashed onto the ground, creating a crater that was more than 100 meters deep. After struggling for a bit, he finally crawled out of that hole.

Right now, his arms were bloody, and his white bones were showing under his skin. At the same time, he puked up a lot of blood, and he couldn't even stand still.

Chapter 800: God Slayer (Part One)

"How did you discover me?" The young man in white frowned and asked.

The ethereal and celestial sensation was gone, and a murderous and violent energy replaced it. Fei wasn't sure when, but this young man's black hair slowly turned red, looking like a pool of thick blood. Also, his white robe was dyed by the greyish-golden blood, and it was tightly wrapped around his body.

The shocking thing was that the punch marks on his body were vivid as if something carved these marks into a stone statue carefully using a carving knife, and these marks were everywhere below his neck. In addition to the punch marks, Fei's war hammer also left some shocking marks and injuries on this young man's body.

All these external injuries turned this young man's skin into a layer of meat paste, and the white bones could be seen through the wounds. Some of the bones were broken, and the sharp ends poked out of his body like the spikes on a hedgehog. It was a terrifying sight.

It was hard to believe that this young man was still not dead after being injured to this degree. The more shocking thing was that he punched back and sent Fei flying for very far like a ball.

"Hahahahahaha!" Fei laughed proudly as he staggered a little. Although he was severely injured as well, and a lot of blood dripped from his body, he was still in a better situation compared to his opponent.

While looking at that young man, an appreciating smile appeared on Fei's face as if an artist were observing his own masterpiece.

"How did I discover you? Your story was perfect, and I didn't discover anything. However, it doesn't hurt to be cautious in this place. Even if you are the No.1 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, I will beat you up and make you lose the ability to fight back. I'm more used to having everything in my control. However, as soon as I injected my energy into you, I knew that you aren't Saviola. Your body composition isn't human!"

"Oh, I see. You are a cunning human." The young man in white nodded lightly.

"How should I call you? Saviola? Haha, or Demonic God Kluivert?" Fei sneered. He was sure that this young man in white was indeed that evil god of the Sea Tribe. Except for a god, no one in the [Sea of Fragrance] was able to fight back when the king was suppressing them.

"I'm one of the 72 Pillar Gods of the Sea Abyss, Mr. Kluivert." Kluivert nodded and said with arrogant red lights flashing in his eyes, "I'm just using the body of that idiot named Saviola. A little human dared to say that he wants to slay a god. What a joke! Now, I possessed his body and used it to revive!"

Fei frowned and said, "So, the real Mr. Saviola had been here before?"

"That is right. That idiot was sent here by that damn Continental Martial Saint Maradona, and he arrived three days ago. He wanted to suppress me, but he is an arrogant idiot who is weak like a bug. Hahahaha! I killed him, merged with his body, and read his memories. I thought that I would be able to fool you with this body, but... Hahaha! It doesn't matter. Since this game doesn't work, we will play another game. I will use my full strength to kill you, hahaha!"

"I see!" Fei thought to himself and understood why this evil god just revived but knew a lot of things on the continent such as the current Continental Martial Saint Maradona and Saviola, his no.1 disciple.

"However, how come Continental Martial Saint Maradona knows that an evil god is appearing in the [Sea of Fragrance]? He sent his best disciple here to solve the situation, but it wasn't effective, leading to the death of his own disciple. Huh... Something must have happened and caused Maradona to miscalculate," Fei thought to himself.

If Fei weren't wrong, the key was that princess of the Sea Tribe.

According to Fei's discovery, that princess of the Sea Tribe used her own golden royal blood which contained godly power to speed up Evil God Kluivert's revival process.

Therefore, Saviola got careless and died under the sea, giving his body to this evil god.

As Kluivert walked closer and closer to Fei, he targeted the king and said, "For tens of thousands of years, you are the second human who injured me. You should be proud."

Chapter 800: God Slayer (Part Two)

"Really?" Fei sneered and tried to recover as fast as he could. He already drank the potion which he had been holding in his mouth, and the medicinal effect already started to heal the injuries.

While that was going on, Fei asked without any sincerity, "So, should I thank you?"

"Human, pay attention to your tone. You are speaking to a god."

Fei sneered again and replied, "God? Mr. God, how much strength do you have compared to your prime?"

Right now, the king already discovered something interesting.

“Anyone who dares to offend a god will be punished!” Fei’s ignorant tone already provoked Kluivert.

Kluivert lightly turned his neck, and his neckbone which didn’t completely shatter yet started to crackle. Then, a strange bright grey light shone on his neck and moved downward, healing the terrifying injuries on Kluivert’s body in just a flash. All the blood was evaporated, and even his white robe was restored as it now fluttered in the air.

It was an insane ability of a god!

Fei’s sneak-attack now seemed useless.

Was this the power of a god? Just this insane recovery speed could make all the opponents feel desperate.

After Kluivert did all that, a mocking smile appeared on his face as he looked at Fei provokingly.

The smile on Fei’s face didn’t change. At this moment, the effect of the [Health Potion] was fully realized, and it got rid of that violent energy in Fei’s body and healed all the injuries as well.

This scene surprised Kluivert, and the mocking smile on his face froze for a second. Then, he said, “Interesting. You can heal the injuries left by a god? Human, you sure surprise me...”

Suddenly, he waved his hand and shot out a greyish-golden light beam without any warning, and this light beam dashed toward Fei with a destructive force. It was so fast that it was beyond the human reaction speed.

“A god is sneak-attacking?” A smile appeared on Fei’s face as he thought, “This shows that he isn’t too confident!”

The king didn’t try to take this strike head-on. Instead, he moved and dodged this light beam.

In the next second, he appeared behind Kluivert. Barbarians were the masters at close-range combat, so Fei’s best option was to get close to Kluivert and beat him.

The fists that were enveloped in golden energy flames tore space apart and dashed at this evil god.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

Boom!

This space shook violently.

Fei shattered the figure in front of him, but no blood was spilled, and his fists didn't touch anything tangible. While his fists penetrated this figure, a streak of deadly energy attacked Fei from behind. It turned out that Fei only struck an afterimage that was left by Kluivert due to his fast speed.

The real Kluivert already appeared behind Fei and attacked viciously.

One golden one grey, the two of them changed positions continuously and attacked with extreme speed. The violent energy waves expanded in all directions, and the beautiful scenery with green grass and vibrant trees dimmed and disappeared. Like a painting that was torn apart, the surroundings slowly changed back into that pitch-black godly palace.

Those giant stone pillars that had spiral patterns on them were still everywhere, and the floor was smooth like a mirror. All those trees that were broken in the illusion were these stone pillars.

For a moment, Fei and this evil god were well matched.

“Hahaha! Is this the strength of a so-called god? I'm disappointed,” Fei laughed and taunted his opponent. Right now, he was already confident in the situation. He had confirmed that this evil god only had a small portion of his strength and was far from his prime.

“How dare you offend a god? Die!”

Cold grey lights shot out of Kluivert's eyes, and it felt like he was an ancient corpse. As he roared, he used all kinds of lethal and strange godly abilities, and his godly power continued to climb. He wanted to kill this damn human in front of him, but the reality shocked him. He felt like this human was experienced at battling with gods; his opponent was able to use his strength and avoid showing his weakness.

For a moment, Fei and Kluivert battled without an end in sight.

“I have less than ten percent of my true strength! If I’m fully revived, I can kill 50 ants like you with a finger! Damn it!” As a god, Kluivert was enraged by the fact that he couldn’t win this battle.

“If this is all the power you have, I’m going to be a god slayer today!” Fei roared as he was about to use some secret techniques.