

Hail the King 811

Chapter 811: Escaping If Meet Again (Part One)

At this moment, Fei was risking it all.

The [Throne of Chaos] was very fast, and it instantly got close to Evil God Kluivert of the Sea Tribe. Fei stood on the throne, waved his hand to summon the [Immortal King's Stone Crusher], and swung it at Kluivert's head with the barrel-like hammerhead that had many dark-red runes engraved on it.

Buckingham gritted his teeth, and his body was shivering.

He wasn't sure if it were fear or excitement, but he didn't hesitate. He had a clear understanding of what was happening, and he punched out just in time and shot a wave of red energy flames toward the wound on Kluivert's arm.

Fei and Buckingham had good coordination.

However, their opponent was a demonic god.

"You guys? Damn humans!"

This evil god of the Sea Tribe didn't think that two ant-like figures would dare to attack him aggressively. He was enraged and swung his right arm casually, easily handling Fei's war hammer. In terms of Buckingham's attack, he didn't even look at it. Buckingham was way too weak for him to even acknowledge. Although he was already severely injured, Buckingham's attack couldn't wound him.

Fei unleashed all his power and tried his best to swing his hammer, but the hammerhead was tightly grasped in the right hand of the demonic god, and it felt like it was stuck in a mountain and couldn't move.

In the next moment, a vast amount of energy was passed down from the hammerhead and crashed toward Fei's body, instantly shattering the bones in Fei's hands that were on the handle of the hammer.

The power of this rage-fueled evil god of the Sea Tribe wasn't something that Fei could stop.

However, Fei wasn't afraid at all.

He smiled since that mysterious stone pillar in his body lightly shivered.

Although it seemed like this stone pillar moved reluctantly, it was enough to overturn this situation. A warm and comfortable current gushed out of the inner of Fei's body, and it instantly healed Fei's hands that were completely broken. Then, this warm current rushed out through the [Immortal King's Stone Crusher].

A shocked expression appeared on Kluivert's face.

In the next second, he started to scream as his entire right arm including half of the [Demonic God Shoulder Guards] were instantly burned into ashes as if they were dry straws. As a breeze blew by, all the ashes got blown away.

This process took place so fast that Kluivert couldn't even react in time even though he was a god.

"Roar..." this evil god roared again in fear as he lost another arm, and that silver light climbed up his remaining upper arm toward his shoulder and neck. Without thinking, Kluivert spat out a mouthful of dark-purple blood, cutting off the remaining parts of his right arm.

A big sacrifice, but it was a logical one!

At that moment, Kluivert was clear that if the silver light spread to his body, then his entire body would be burned into ashes just like his right arm, completely disappearing from this world without a doubt.

"What is this power? How can it injure me so easily?"

Seeing that his right upper arm had instantly disappeared into nothing as soon as he cut it off, Kluivert was terrified. He had lived for tens of thousands of years, and this moment was the most dangerous. He felt like the Grim Reaper grabbed his throat, and his heart was racing.

Chapter 811: Escaping If Meet Again (Part Two)

“This human is too terrifying!” This thought appeared in Kluivert’s head, and he turned around and fled without looking back.

“I have to get as far away as I can from this terrifying human!” This was the only thought in Kluivert’s head right now.

He finally got out of the [Thousand Year Seal] and the eternal darkness, gaining his freedom; he didn’t want to be killed instantly.

In his eyes, this black-haired young man was too terrifying, even more so than Continental Martial Saint Maradona.

“Damn it! If I see this human ever again, I will flee right away!” he thought to himself.

With a flash of purple light, Kluivert disappeared from the area.

Fei wanted to control the Throne of Chaos] and chase after Kluivert, but he lost track of Kluivert and didn’t know where this evil god went. Even though this throne was insanely fast, Fei couldn’t track down Kluivert. Therefore, he couldn’t do anything but give up.

This scene was stunning in Buckingham’s eyes.

Of course, he had no idea what happened in that second, and he didn’t know that there was an invincible yet lazy mysterious stone pillar inside Fei’s body.

From Buckingham’s perspective, he saw the enraged King of Chambord swinging his hammer and destroying half of Kluivert’s right arm, forcing this evil god to cut off his right arm from his right shoulder. Then, it seemed like Kluivert got terrified and escaped like a wild dog.

This nobleman of the Leon Empire had thought that they were dead for sure. However, this evil god of the Sea Tribe, who wasn’t even defeated by that white-robed D’Alessandro with a god-tier combat weapon, was destroyed by Fei.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

“Could it be that the King of Chambord has always been hiding his real strength? Yeah! It must be it!”

Buckingham thought back to when he first ran into the King of Chambord, and he felt like this sly b*stard could always unleash incredible strength when in desperate situations. If the King of Chambord achieved breakthroughs under pressure, then this type of event which was super rare in other masters' eyes happened on the King of Chambord repeatedly. Therefore, the only reasonable explanation was that the King of Chambord had been hiding his strength all along.

Thinking of this, Buckingham shivered a little in fear.

“Such a monster is now the enemy of the Leon Empire? This is a disaster for the Empire! If we really trigger the King of Chambord, he could easily destroy Leon with one finger!” Buckingham thought to himself and decided that if he could get back to the Leon Empire alive, he would convince the Royal Family of Leon to stop the war and apologize to the Zenit Empire before establishing an alliance with the King of Chambord.

If that could be done, then the Leon Empire would be protected even if the war between the gods and the demons started again.

Fei didn't know that this risky gamble made Buckingham think so much.

After wiping the cold sweat off his forehead, Fei sat back into the Throne of Chaos] and breathed heavily.

“If the mysterious stone pillar didn't respond to the danger, I would have instantly died before I could realize the situation,” Fei thought to himself, and all the fear that he had been suppressing rushed back into his head now.

This trip to the bottom of the sea was half successful.

His mission was to stop this evil god of the Sea Tribe from coming out. Even though Kluivert was released, Fei severely injured him.

Chapter 812: Port City (Part One)

Even though Fei tried his best and almost died, the evil god of the Sea Tribe still broke out of the seal and appeared in the world. Although the process was complicated, the result was already determined.

The good thing was that this evil god of the Sea Tribe was severely injured several times, and his strength decreased drastically. It would be impossible for him to cause any issues in the short term. Before Kluivert recovered his power, the human empires around the [Sea of Fragrance] were still safe.

Except for stopping Kluivert, this trip to the bottom of the sea was also very beneficial to Fei.

For the first time, the king realized that there were higher realms above peak Burning Sun. This came as a huge shock to Fei.

It also brought up a critical issue that Fei was going to face soon.

After passing Hell Mode in Diablo World, it seemed like the power of his 'golden finger' would come to an end. How should he increase his strength afterward? If that were the end of his cultivation path, then he could never stand at the peak of the world.

Of course, seeing the impressive Continental Martial Saint Maradona was also one of the rewards that Fei received. Although it was only a quick glimpse at Maradona's vague shadow, it was enough for Fei to understand that the humans had someone as powerful as the gods!

As the wind blew by, the sun was already setting on the horizon.

While sitting on the [Throne of Chaos] with his eyes closed, Fei continued to think back to the gains and losses of this adventure, as well as the effect that this evil god of the Sea Tribe was going to bring to the Azeroth Continent.

In three hours, Fei didn't move or say anything; he just stayed there like a stone statue.

Four hours later, Fei opened his eyes again.

Confusion and uncertainty could no longer be seen in his bright eyes; he looked confident and determined again.

After slowly standing up and stretching, he exhaled deeply and said to Buckingham who was beside him with a smile, "Alright, let's go."

"Ah? Go where?"

"The Leon Empire! You already told me that you are going to help me find that mysterious master in a black cloak who planted that bloody skeleton inside your body."

The [Throne of Chaos] turned into a dash of light and pierced through the water, disappearing into the distance.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

...

-Not long after Fei and Buckingham disappeared-

On the surface of the ocean that had many surging tides, a mysterious figure appeared in silence. This entity was tall and wearing a cloak. While staring at the direction where those two disappeared, two red flames appeared in this entity's eye sockets.

"It is him! It is really him! This weak human got the inheritance of the King of Gods, and I still can't kill him while borrowing others' strengths. Damn it! Damn it! Damn it! Without enough energy, I can't recover my strength quickly! Damn! I'm no match for him right now, but I will kill him! One day! Hahaha! The inheritance of the Godly King is mine! It will always be mine! No one can rob it from me! Even if the entire world gets destroyed, I don't care!"

Waves of spirit energy gushed out of the black cloak, and it dashed around like violent wind, creating even more giant waves.

“Right, they are heading toward the Leon Empire. Hehehe, it looks like I should go to the Leon Empire once more...”

After thinking for a while, this figure turned into a dash of light and headed toward the direction of the Leon Empire.

Soon after that mysterious figure in the black cloak disappeared, another huge wave rushed to the surface of the ocean from the bottom of the sea.

While being enveloped by golden energy flames, that princess of the Sea Tribe who had disappeared for a while stood on top of the wave and looked in the direction of the Leon Empire. Under the gold mask, murderous spirit and hatred shot out of her purple eyes.

“That damn conspirator! The Sea Tribe at the [Sea of Fragrance] was used! We lost a lot! The Capital City that had been preserved for thousands of years is destroyed, and millions of my citizens are killed. Even the god of our tribe got severely injured and disappeared. The continent today is even more dangerous than thousands of years ago. Has the world changed that much? Is the Sea Tribe no longer on the top of the ladder? I need to wake up the tribes at the other sea areas and persuade them! We need to use the force of the entire Sea Tribe to redeem our honor and glory!”

Chapter 812: Port City (Part Two)

After this princess of the Sea Tribe thought back to what had happened, reflected on herself, and re-strategized, she divided the seawater and dashed back into the sea.

Then, no one else appeared on the sea surface.

The chilly wind was blowing under the gloomy sky, and the sea waves got higher and higher. As the black seawater continued to move around aggressively, some corpses of the vicious members of Sea Tribe floated to the top of the ocean, and it looked like a watery hell.

It seemed like a new and terrifying era had quietly begun.

...

-Ten days later, at a port city by the northern coastline of the Leon Empire.

Under the bright sunlight, a faint stinky mud smell permeated the air.

A lot of people were running around on the port, and loud shouts could be heard.

Tink! Tink! Tink! A lot of metal-colliding noises also resonated in the area.

Almost everyone was trying to repair broken ships, and a lot of workers were cleaning up the mud on the port under the supervision of soldiers. After observing the surroundings, it seemed like a giant flood ruined the city. Even the lighthouse which had been serving the area for more than 30 years got destroyed.

“Nine days ago, a giant tsunami which hadn’t been seen in 100 years crashed into Talon City. The waves were more than several hundred meters tall, and they almost instantly destroyed the port. The fishermen and the navy of the Leon Empire were severely harmed. Under the rough estimation, more than 10,000 people died in this tsunami, and the entire administrative system in the city is disabled right now.”

Buckingham came back and reported to Fei after he went around the city and got information.

The two of them only finished their journey on the ocean about ten minutes ago, finally getting to this port.

Under the free guide of Buckingham, they decided to come to the most northern city of Leon, Talon. According to Buckingham, this city was the commerce center of the northern region of Leon, and this was the biggest port of the empire. Various merchants came and went from this port, and it was convenient to get around; this was the best place to collect information.

After hearing the information from Buckingham, Fei fell silent.

It was clear that this giant tsunami which was rarely seen was caused by that insane battle at the bottom of the ocean.

More than ten days ago, D’Alessandro and Kluivert battled at the bottom of the sea, destroying that ancient city of the Sea Tribe and causing a lot of unintended consequences. Undercurrents were pushed around the sea. Although the power of the undercurrents was less than one-tenth as before when they reached the land, it was still devastating for the mortals who didn't expect this.

In front of the natural disasters, ordinary humans were too powerless.

Talon City was hundreds of thousands of kilometers away from the center of the battle, yet it received such a devastating blow. If the same logic applied to the Byzantine Kingdom, then it must have suffered even more severe consequences. If King Constantine were unlucky, the brand-new navy of Byzantine might have got crushed.

Fei didn't say much. He wandered around the port with Buckingham before going into the city and finding a nice hotel to stay.

After flying for close to ten days on the ocean, both Fei and Buckingham were fatigued even though they could be considered top-tier masters. Before they headed to the Capital of Leon, Fei decided to rest in Talon City for a day and get re-energized.

After entering his room, Fei lay on the bed and slept.

When the king opened his eyes, it was already evening. Right now, Buckingham wasn't in the hotel and was nowhere to be found. Fei got some food, changed his outfit, and left the hotel quietly.

Talon City was indeed the No.1 Port City of the northern region of the Leon. Although the tsunami struck the port, the city soon went back to its usual busyness.

The streets were cleaned, and they were now bustling with pedestrians. Since the night market was about to open, the atmosphere was great, and it seemed like people had forgotten about the disaster.

By following people on the main street, Fei quickly went to the busiest region in the city.

When the sky darkened, the beauty of the magic civilization was demonstrated. Magic lights were everywhere, and the sky was even lit up.

The Leon Empire was a level 6 empire, and it wasn't only based on top-tier masters and a powerful army. Even though Talon City was only a city in the northern region, it was almost on par with St.

Petersburg. Except for the different dressing styles, almost everything else looked the same to the people who lived at the Capital of Zenit.

Soon, Fei stopped inside a large-scaled weapon store.

There was a giant black flag in front of the shop, and there was a giant dog with a pair of wings on its back. This image was strange to many people since it looked ugly and ominous, but Fei was very familiar with it.

This was the symbol for the local branches of the [Letter Office].

Chapter 813: Greetings, Master

After more than one year of development, the [Letter Office] which was the intelligence network of the Chambord Kingdom had reached outside of the Zenit Empire. It had intelligence workers in all the countries within 500,000 kilometers of Zenit, and the Leon Empire which was the No.1 Enemy of Zenit was the key target for the [Letter Office].

Under the management of [Old Man] Zolasc, the local branches of the [Letter Office] had popped up everywhere in the big cities and military towns of Leon under the cover of proper businesses.

Fei entered this shop with curiosity.

The great hall was wide, and all kinds of weapons were hanging on the walls. Silver and chilly light flashed in the shop, and it looked majestic. This shop's business was good; mercenaries, soldiers, and warriors came and went, and some merchants and young noblemen were also choosing weapons.

Fei walked to the [Sword Wall] and casually took off a thin and short sword.

This was a fast sword, and its body looked like a dash of silver light. The blade was already sharpened, and a chilly aura appeared after Fei wiped the blade with his fingers. It was clear that this sword was made by Blacksmith Charsi using the rare forging technique from the Diablo World. Although this sword wasn't a combat weapon, it was still a precious weapon.

There were also other swords on the [Sword Wall], and they were also on this level. No wonder this shop was doing so well.

“Hello, are you looking for a sword for self-protection? What do you think of this one? Are you satisfied with it? If not, you can just tell us what you are looking for. Our shop has all kinds of weapons, and I’m sure that one of them will fit your taste.”

A fragrant and pretty figure appeared by Fei’s side.

She was a saleswoman who was in a dress that looked like a cheongsam. Her short red hair made her look refreshing, and her eyes, nose, and mouth were delicate. Although her chest wasn’t big, her figure was graceful under the emphasis of her uniform.

Right now, she was looking at Fei with a gentle smile.

Fei smiled back at her.

This type of uniform was designed by him in his free time, and the décor of the shop, as well as the hiring of young women as salespeople rather than burly blacksmiths, were all ideas he came up with when he was bored.

[Old Man] Zolasc was indeed a genius.

He had executed Fei’s seemingly strange ideas perfectly, and the returns generated by the businesses were great. The [Letter Office] was involved in many fields, but weaponry, magic crystals, banking, and food were the main industries. On top of disguising the real identity of these local branches, these shops also created a lot of wealth for the Chambord Kingdom. Another big thing was that the high-level magic crystals that Fei combined from low-level ones using Horadric Cube could be sold through these channels.

After placing the sword back onto the wall, Fei pretended to look around before saying in a half-jokingly tone, “Oh, I see. I want to buy the most expensive weapon in your shop. How much is it?”

He acted like someone who recently got a lot of money.

The smile on this red-haired girl’s face froze for a second, and she observed Fei in detail.

“Although this young man is handsome, especially his starry and mystical eyes, he doesn’t look rich. However, his tone is...” This saleswoman thought to herself.

Then, she frowned and explained patiently with the smile, “When you are picking a weapon, it is best to get the one that fits your strength and your habit. Each weapon has its own characteristics, and the best weapon is the one that fits you. Typically, the most expensive weapon isn’t the best weapon for you.”

She sounded caring, and no disdain or impatience could be sensed.

“Huh?” Fei was a little surprised.

He knew that the salespeople whom the [Letter Office] hired were paid uniquely. Since Fei brought over the business ideas from Earth, these salespeople were paid a base wage with a commission. Fei thought that this girl would be thrilled when he asked the question and would bring him to the most senior person here. Then, Fei would be able to reveal his identity to that person and ask for the news.

Chapter 813: Greetings, Master (Part Two)

However, this girl’s direct reply surprised Fei a little.

“What is your name?” Fei grabbed a double-handed sword casually and knocked it with his finger as he asked.

This girl blushed a little; it seemed like the appropriate response after being asked this personal question by a handsome young man.

Seeing that Fei didn’t pay attention to her and was observing the sword, she quickly hid her embarrassment and replied, “Grace Ellen.”

After that, Ellen’s face burned again, and she thought, “What is happening? This never happened before. Why is my head fuzzy? When I look at this man’s bright and expressive eyes, my heart races on its own...”

“Grace Ellen? Nice name. Alright, Ellen, I want to see your manager. Is that possible?” Fei asked as he placed the double-handed sword back onto the wall.

“Eh.... This... you can,” Grace Ellen replied with a smile while acting calm.

However, she was quickly surprised by her own answer.

“Damn it! What are you saying, Ellen? Are you dumb? You should know how busy the manager is, and he doesn’t meet with ordinary customers!” Ellen thought to herself. She was planning to say no, but she somehow blurted that out; it was the opposite of what she wanted to say!

“Thanks a lot! Please lead the way,” Fei replied with a smile.

“Ah? This... that... ok...” Ellen murmured.

“Damn it! I’m done!” she thought as she pinched herself. She felt like she was under a spell and couldn’t refuse this handsome young man. Every time she was about to say no, something different came out of her mouth.

After walking past the busy crowd and climbing the stairs, they reached the fourth floor and stopped in front of a room in the center which had a large red door. While they were climbing up, Ellen felt like she was going to get fired, and all her co-workers were looking at her in surprise.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

“Please come in!” a dignified voice sounded from the inside.

Grace Ellen was about to cry. She lightly pushed open the door and led Fei inside.

She nodded at the white-haired senior who was sitting behind the desk which was placed before a floor-to-ceiling window and said nervously, “Manager Kane, this guest... he... he wants to see you.”

Manager Kane had whitish-silver hair, and he looked thin. However, he didn’t look old.

He was wearing a black suit which was popular in the Leon Empire, and he had a pair of gold-framed crystal glasses on his nose. He looked graceful yet energetic, seeming like a noble.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

However, his bright eyes behind the crystal glasses looked calculative.

Hearing Ellen's words, he looked at Fei in surprise. Then, he looked back at Ellen who was blushing with her head lowered, and a trace of anger appeared on his face. However, he didn't express his emotion.

With a bright smile, he waved his hand and signaled Ellen to leave before standing up and greeting Fei.

Then, he asked with a confused expression, "Sir, you are..."

In the [Letter Office], except for [Old Man] Zolasc and [Young Man] Modric, only a few top-level officials knew that the organization belonged to the Chambord Kingdom, and most of them didn't know the big boss, Fei.

Although Kane was responsible for the business in Talon City, he didn't know who Fei was.

Fei smiled and sat on the fancy Narra Wood chair on the other side of the desk, not saying a word.

However, his spirit energy already spread out and scanned the room.

At least six Moon-Class magic arrays were placed in the room, and there were two small teleportation arrays, two secret tunnels, and six Five-Star Warriors in the hidden compartment.

This room was very secure. Even if the official military of Leon came to siege this building, this setup would give Kane enough time to destroy all the documents before leaving this place using either the teleportation array or the secret tunnel.

The professionalism that the [Letter Office] achieved was beyond Fei's estimations.

“Sir, why are you looking for me? Please speak.” Kane frowned slightly.

His intuition told him that this young man in front of him was powerful and dangerous. Therefore, he moved his right hand to his back and made a hand gesture. If anything went wrong in the next second, the magic arrays would be activated, and the warriors hidden in the compartment would attack.

Fei had noticed all this already. With a smile on his face, he opened his palm and revealed a delicate black token. It was made from pure [Black Stone Essence], and it was in the shape of a black dog. It was made by Blacksmith Charsi, and it was life-like, making others feel like it was alive.

“Ah, you are...” Kane was shocked.

After he carefully inspected the token and confirmed that it was authentic, he single-kneeled and said respectfully, “I’m Solomon Kane. Greetings, Master!”

Chapter 814: Crimes Against Humanity (Part One)

There were four mysterious supreme tokens inside the [Letter Office].

The red dragon token represented the [Old Man], the blue dragon token represented the [Young Man], and the green dragon token represented the No.1 Master of the Organization, [Bloody Yellow Cape]. As a core member of the [Letter Office], Kane was fortunate enough to see all three of these tokens.

Only the creator of the organization and the mysterious ruler had a black dog token, and it had never appeared before. Kane thought that he would never get to meet this legendary ruler, but this man unexpectedly appeared in front of him today!

Kane didn’t know Fei’s real identity, and this handsome young man didn’t fit the image of the great ruler who created the organization in his mind. However, he knew that this token was real.

The person who held this token could command any member of the [Letter Office] and move all the organization’s resources.

“Please get up.” Fei waved his hand, and an invisible energy helped Kane get up from the ground.

Fei's move stunned Kane. Kane was a Five-Star Mage, and he wasn't a weak person. However, he felt extremely fragile in front of this invisible force, and he couldn't fight back at all if this force attacked him. Therefore, he was surer of Fei's identity as the ruler of the [Letter Office].

"Sir, why are you here today?"

"I'm just passing by and want to know if anything major happened on the Azeroth Continent."

"Sir, the five regions of the continent fell into chaos about two month ago, and this is the era where all the empires battled against each other. Wars are happening everywhere, and even the super powerful empires are involved in this. Therefore, there are all kinds of big news. However, the most stunning news right now are some of the rumors that are being passed around."

"Huh? Tell me about it."

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

"Yes, Sir! The first thing is that some of the merchant ships and fishermen who returned from the sea claimed that the Sea Tribe, one of the powerful races during the Mythical Era that had disappeared for more than 1,000 years, has returned! These people claimed that they saw the Sea Tribe in the [Sea of Fragrance]! Also, a lot of traveling poets are also spreading the prophecies, claiming that this is the sign that real chaos is about to hit the continent! They said that on top of the Sea Tribe, all other races that had disappeared thousands of years ago will be returning, and they will fight with the current ruler of the continent, us humans, for the leader position!"

"Eh." Fei nodded; he wasn't too surprised since he knew that this news would get out sooner or later.

Kane continued, "About six or seven days ago, a powerful tsunami that had the scale which hadn't been seen in hundreds of years occurred in the [Sea of Fragrance], and giant waves hit all the coastlines. All the towns and cities of the empires around the [Sea of Fragrance] suffered great damage. The only exception is the Byzantine Kingdom of the Zenit Empire that is close to the Storm Point Bay. Since the troops of the Leon Empire were attacking Byzantine, the Byzantines moved north and avoided this natural disaster... A lot of people believe that the Sea Tribe caused this tsunami, and it is the provocation that the Sea Tribe issued toward us humans. Quite a few empires are trying to establish an alliance and declare war on the Sea Tribe."

“Eh, I see. Please continue.”

“As you wish. The more shocking news is that Mr. D’Alessandro, the No.2 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, suddenly appeared at the Capital of Leon five days ago, and he was severely injured. Here is the incredible thing; Mr. D’Alessandro stated that King Alexander of Chambord, the talented genius warrior of the Zenit Empire and the current Imperial Martial Saint of Zenit, has betrayed humans. Together with King Buckingham of Leon who got captured by him not long ago, they conspired with the Sea Tribe, killed Saviola who was the No.1 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, and released an evil god of the Sea Tribe who was seal at the bottom of the sea. That was why D’Alessandro got so injured, and the humans who are living around the [Sea of Fragrance] are under great threat!”

Chapter 814: Crimes Against Humanity (Part Two)

“Puff!” Fei almost spat out the water that he just drank. He gasped and asked, “What? The King of Chambord has betrayed humans? Together with Buckingham, they conspired with the Sea Tribe and released one of their evil gods?”

Kane was slightly surprised, and he thought to himself, “When I mentioned the Sea Tribe, the ruler wasn’t even surprised. When I mentioned Mr. D’Alessandro, the No.2 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, his expression also didn’t change at all. However, why is he so surprised when I said that King Alexander of Chambord betrayed humans?”

Even though he gained new questions of his own, Kane held back his curiosity and nodded, saying, “That is right; that was what Mr. D’Alessandro said, and all the empires around the [Sea of Fragrance] believe him. After all, Mr. D’Alessandro represents Continental Martial Saint Maradona. People don’t think that he is lying. Therefore, the Leon Empire used this opportunity and allied with the empires around the area along with Mr. D’Alessandro, pressuring the Zenit Empire together. They are asking the Royal Family of Zenit to destroy the King of Chambord’s cultivation strength and hand him over. Otherwise, the alliance is going to form a master group headed by Mr. D’Alessandro, and they will wipe out the Royal Family of Zenit along with the King of Chambord!”

“D’Alessandro!” Fei gritted his teeth and spat out this name.

“This despicable b*stard! He is shameless to this degree! He turned the whole thing around and made me take on the blame of crimes against humanity!” Fei thought to himself. He was so angry that the crystal cup in his hand got turned into a cloud of dust in silence. Before the dust could settle onto the desk, the particles vaporized and disappeared into the air.

Now, it was Kane's turn to be surprised.

This cup was carved from a piece of top-tier metal crystal, and it worth more than 100 gold coins. Of course, the most important thing was that metal crystal was extremely tough, not inferior to precious metals. It wasn't hard for anyone beyond the level of Five-Star to crush it, but turning it into a fine powder that was smaller than sand grains required a lot of power! Kane wasn't sure how powerful a person must be to do this, but he was sure that a Half Moon Elite couldn't do this.

"The real ruler of the organization is so young, but he is already this powerful!" Kane who looked down at Fei a little due to his young age put away that faint slight in his mind and adjusted his attitude.

Fei only lost his composure for a moment, and he quickly reacted and stood up quietly. Then, he walked to the floor-to-ceiling window and looked out, trying to gather his thoughts.

As the No.2 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, D'Alessandro enjoyed high status, and his strength was shocking as well. However, his character was lacking; he was a cruel and despicable coward.

It was him who ignored Fei's warning and released that evil god of the Sea Tribe, trying to prove himself, but he blamed it on Fei when he created a disaster. This move was vicious! Now, Fei and Buckingham were regarded as extremely guilty criminals, and they were like demons in others' eyes.

It was fortunate that he decided to come to this branch of the [Letter Office], and now he knew what was going on. If he and Buckingham accidentally revealed their identities, they could be chased after by many warriors, and they would be in big trouble!

However, that wasn't the most troubling issue.

The viciousness of this framing incident tarnished Fei's reputation and struck his weak point – the Zenit Empire and the Chambord Kingdom.

Right now, Fei could imagine the enormous pressure that the Zenit Empire and the Chambord Kingdom were facing.

Chapter 815: Rumor Is Like A Seed (Part One)

This D'Alessandro sure didn't deserve to be a disciple of the Continental Martial Saint. Even though he was of high status, he used shameless lies and rumors to push off his crime and whitewash himself. Since he was the No.2 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, almost everyone believed his claims. Even if Fei and Buckingham came out and stated the truth, how many people on the continent would believe them?

Except for that, Fei remembered that this despicable man was greedy over his [Immortal King's Stone Crusher] and [The Throne of Chaos]. The greedy expression on D'Alessandro's face was clear to Fei, and it felt like a hungry mouse was looking a big piece of cheese.

His tactics were cruel.

Fei stood before the giant window and thought carefully.

For a moment, it was tranquil inside the room, and Kane stood there in the room and didn't dare to make any noise. While Fei was thinking, he subconsciously emitted a powerful aura that only belonged to a powerful ruler, making Kane shiver a little. He was very proud of himself, and he never imagined that he could one day be so nervous in front of a man who was more than 30 years younger than him.

After more than ten minutes, Fei slowly turned around.

"Inform all other branches of the [Letter Office] and tell them to spread the news that D'Alessandro is lying. The person who released that evil god of the Sea Tribe was him, and the King of Chambord and Buckingham were the two heroes who tried their best to stop that evil god from coming out!"

"This..."

Kane was surprised that this young man in front of him would make such an order.

To be honest, he was a little hesitant at this order. Right now, the people who resided around the [Sea of Fragrance] were stirred up, and they wanted to capture the King of Chambord and Buckingham who were the two 'criminals'. If they chose to go against the public, it was not different from pouring oil onto a burning fire. The [Letter Office] would instantly become the target for the angry crowd, and it would suffer huge losses.

Fei smiled when he saw the puzzled look on Kane's face.

"I know what you are worried about. When spreading this information, there is no need to declare your identity. Things like rumors are like wild plants. Once you plant the seeds, they will quickly grow and mature. Just let [Old Man] manage this."

Kane instantly blushed and thought, "What is going on with me today? I didn't even see through such a basic concept. I acted this way in front of the real ruler of the organization, and it is bad!"

After thinking about this, he quickly nodded and accepted it.

After thinking for a while, Fei added, "Also, when spreading the information, say that the evil god of the Sea Tribe was already severely injured by the King of Chambord and King Buckingham of Leon using an ancient array at the bottom of the sea. For a short time, this evil god won't cause any trouble for the humans!"

Kane froze for a second before asking, "This... is it true?"

"Hahahaha! Of course! Didn't D'Alessandro say that the evil god of the Sea Tribe got released and will quickly kill the humans around the [Sea of Fragrance]? Hehehe, then, let's see if Evil God Kluivert will show himself. By then, the smart ones will know who is lying."

Right now, Fei had calmed down from the initial shock.

Even if the [Letter Office] spread this news, it wouldn't instantly clear Fei and Buckingham's reputations. However, it would plant seeds in people's minds, and these seeds would one day be very useful.

Also, Fei was very sensitive and noticed one fundamental weakness in D'Alessandro's story."

After D'Alessandro escaped in a hurry, he didn't see what happened next. Therefore, he had no idea that his master, the most powerful human on the continent, cast his shadow and injured Kluivert before taking back that god-tier combat weapon. Also, he didn't know that Kluivert lost both of his arms and was severely injured, and that couldn't recover in a short time and cause massacres.

Chapter 815: Rumor Is Like A Seed (Part Two)

Therefore, D'Alessandro told everyone that Kluivert was going to appear any day now when he was telling a lie.

This was the weakness.

Although it wasn't enough to throw everyone off his story, it would make people cast doubts around his story.

Even a giant dam would collapse at the existence of a small ant hole. Therefore, even the most perfect lie would be soon revealed after a person stood up and cast doubt. By then, the truth would reappear before everyone's eyes.

After thinking everything through, Fei calmed down a lot.

Even though this incident caused a lot of issues, it wasn't without benefits. By using this incident to his advantage, Fei would be able to see how all the surrounding forces would react.

Since there was already a small circle forming around Fei and the Chambord Kingdom, and many people wanted to jump on the ship, Fei could use this opportunity to see how trustworthy people were and who were the ones that would jump ship at the first sight of trouble.

After stretching, Fei heaved a sigh of relief and returned to his seat, signaling Kane to continue with his reporting.

In the last ten days or so, a lot of things had happened.

Except for the two events that Kane mentioned, the war in the southern region of the Zenit Empire also caught a lot of attention.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

After the initial wins, it went into another stalemate. In the beginning, Second Prince Dominguez obtained a series of victories over the Leon Empire, recovering a lot of territory of the Red Leaf

Province. However, Fourth Prince Chrystal became irrational after the initial wins, and his commands were terrible. Soon, the troops that he was leading got surrounded by the enemies, and almost all the soldiers were killed. If the masters and the death squad of the Beag Family didn't try their best to save him, this arrogant yet useless prince would have become a captive himself.

The failure of the Fourth Prince made the Second Prince the only force of Zenit in the southern region. To avoid the situation of being surrounded by enemies, he had to slow down and defend the territories that he had recaptured. Therefore, the excellent situation for Zenit got ruined by the Four Prince singlehandedly.

However, the local force in the southern region of Zenit was doing well. The resistance force led by the Byzantine Empire used the guerrilla warfare and caused a lot of headaches for the Leon Empire and other empires in the alliance.

Overall, Zenit's first attempt at taking back its lost territories by using military force failed regretfully.

This failure caused a big shuffle of power inside the Zenit Empire.

Fourth Prince Chrystal who was arrogant yet untalented had to say goodbye to the political arena, losing the ability to fight for the throne. Also, the Beag Family who supported Fourth Prince Chrystal was greatly weakened since the [Gigantic Force Legion] which was once under its control was destroyed. Now, it was a second-tier noble family in Zenit.

The strangest thing was that even though the Zenit Empire had expanded the military through the conscription order, and it had the power to take back the southern region which belonged to it, the Royal Family and the Military Headquarters were not giving the order. It seemed like they were waiting for something.

Even after D'Alessandro, the No.2 Disciple of Continental Martial Saint Maradona, asked Zenit to hand over Imperial Martial Saint Alexander, the Royal Family and the Military Headquarters were keeping quiet; it was really strange.

"That is all the information that we have on the Zenit Empire." Kane finished telling Fei the information in one breath. Then, he started to breathe heavily to replenish his oxygen. Since Fei paid a lot of attention to Zenit and the King of Chambord, Kane already guessed something but didn't dare to ask.

Fei nodded after hearing all the news. Some of it was good, and some of it was bad. However, nothing was out of his expectations.

“Ah, right. That girl named Ellen Grace who led me here is not bad. Don’t you blame her for bringing me here, alright?”

Chapter 816: Provoker (Part One)

“Uh... Ellen has been performing great in the shop, and I was thinking about giving her a promotion. However, bringing a customer to the manager’s office is strictly against the rules of the organization, and she should be punished according to the code written by Mr. [Old Man].” As the head manager of this shop, Kane upheld the principle even though he was facing the mysterious ruler.

Fei nodded in satisfaction, and his impression of this manager improved even more.

Since he had already expressed his intentions, a smart person like Kane understood it, and he would execute it well. The principles couldn’t be broken without punishment, but Grace Ellen was going to be rewarded as well. It seemed like after a small penalty for her mistake, she was going to be promoted.

...

-In the grand hall on the first floor-

It was late into the night, and Talon City’s night market had reached its peak. The magic lights made it seem like daytime, and more people were on the street. It wasn’t an exaggeration to say that people’s elbows and shoulders were rubbing against each other tightly.

Right now, this weapon shop got to its busiest hour.

While Grace Ellen introduced various weapons to the potential customers half-heartedly, she was thinking back to that mysterious and handsome young man. Even though they met briefly, that young man’s figure was already sealed into this girl’s heart.

As she turned around and looked at the stairs repeatedly, she thought to herself, “More than 40 minutes have passed. What is that handsome young man talking with the Manager about? It has been so long already!”

Ellen felt like that young man had magical powers. His starry eyes and bright smile were enough to make any inexperienced girl fall for him.

Ellen had already fallen deep into the ‘trap’ in such a short time.

From a little beggar who lived on the street and couldn’t even eat food regularly, she had become the best saleswoman in the most popular weapon shop in Talon City. Perhaps this transformation was nothing in others’ eyes, but it was life-changing to Ellen. Her poor and low-class life when she was younger somehow gave her an ultra-sharp instinct, and this instinct allowed her to judge and sense strangers accurately during the first encounter. It was this instinct that allowed her to capture the potential customers’ needs and successfully bring them to the correct weapons.

But today, her sharp instinct made her sense the ethereal and celestial aura of that young man, and she fell for that man’s presence.

As an old employee of the shop, she knew her action of bringing that handsome young man to the Manager broke the rules, and she was going to be fined accordingly. However, she didn’t regret doing so at all. If she went back in time and could get the chance to decide again, she would still choose to bring that handsome young man onto the fourth floor.

Perhaps everything was determined by fate.

Just as Grace Ellen was feeling unsettled, a series of loud and chaotic shouts sounded from the direction of the gate. Then, one of her female co-workers gasped.

While the people who were looking at the weapons in the shop all walked to the two sides, more than a dozen warriors in red light armor already charged in and kicked a saleswoman to the ground. Then, they started to curse and smash around.

Behind these warriors, there was a thin and bald old man, a muscular man who was more than two meters tall, and a few military officials in uniforms.

“Them again? They are pushing it too far! They are here to cause trouble again!”

Grace Ellen was looking at that thin and bald old man. He was Glazer, the owner of another large-scale weapon shop.

One year ago, Glazer's business, [Blade-Washing Shop], was the largest weapon seller in Talon City, and Glazer was one of the most influential figures in the city as a result. However, this man was vicious and greedy, so his shop had a lot of shady practices and cheated and bullied the customers.

Chapter 816: Provoker (Part Two)

Soon after, [Cauldron-Casting Shop] that was supported by the [Letter Office] came to Talon City. The superior service, top-tier quality, and fair prices instantly allowed this new shop to gain popularity quickly. In just a short time, it surpassed [Blade-Washing Shop] and became the No.1 Weapon Shop in Talon City.

Of course, old fox Glazer was jealous and envious over this. He had been operating in Talon City for many years, and he wasn't willing to be squeezed down by this new force. Therefore, he used many methods to affect [Cauldron-Casting Shop]'s business, and the new shop lost a lot of revenue. In fact, even a few employees were injured during the process.

However, the people of [Blade-Washing Shop] still came here aggressively; it was clear that they were up to no good.

“Nina! Go and get Manager Kane!”

Grace Ellen quickly said to one of her co-workers who was in a state of panic. Then, she gritted her teeth, suppressed her fear, and walked toward those warriors who were smashing the shop forcefully.

She wanted to delay and possibly stop these fierce warriors before Manager Kane got here.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

...

After about 40 minutes, Fei already got all the information that he needed.

Just as Fei was about to get up and leave after declining Kane's offers of accommodations, a series of footsteps sounded outside the door, and a series of rushed knocking came next.

Before Kane could tell the person outside the door to come in, a girl who was in the store uniform rushed in while panting. Her face was round like an apple, and some cute freckles could be seen on her face.

"Kane... Manager Kane, please come down! That... That old fox Glazer is here to cause trouble again! Some of our people are injured..." This girl with freckles said in panic.

Kane frowned and cursed in his mind, "What the f*ck is going on? So many things are happening."

However, he didn't dare to make any decisions while Fei was here, and he looked at Fei with an awkward expression.

"Huh? It seems like we have quite a lot of enemies. Let's go and look. Who dares to cause trouble here?" Fei smiled and walked downstairs.

Kane heaved a sigh of relief, wiped off the cold sweat on his forehead, and walked behind Fei.

When he was with this young ruler, he was sensing an enormous pressure all the time; he never felt this way when he was facing the two legendary leaders, [Old Man] and [Young Man].

"However, since the ruler is here today, we might be able to solve the issue with Glazer who is a sly and vicious fox, eliminating one of the headaches of [Cauldron-Casting Shop] once for all!"

That round-faced girl with freckles followed behind them quietly, and she was wondering why Manager Kane who was quite powerful in the city was so respectful and a bit fearful toward this handsome young man.

Soon, the three of them came to the first floor.

While they were walking down the stairs, Kane used the most concise words to tell Fei the entire story.

Right now, the grand hall on the first floor was packed with people, and most of them were curious customers who wanted to see drama. Since most of them were fearless warriors, they didn't mind the bloody fight scenes. Also, they all heard about the direct and hidden fights between [Blade-Wash Shop] and [Cauldron-Casting Shop], so they gathered here to watch the show.

In fact, even the street outside the shop was filled with people.

Slap!

Right after the slap, a girl screamed in pain, and an arrogant shout sounded, "You are just a dirty worker! How dare you stand in front of me and talk? F*ck off! Tell that damn old Kane to get out here! You guys, don't just stand there. Smash everything! Let everyone see what kind of trash that [Cauldron-Casting Shop] is selling!"

Chapter 817: One Glance (Part One)

Fei's eyelids twitched violently.

This was one of Fei's habits, and it would occur subconsciously when the king was mad.

That's right! Fei was enraged at the moment.

He could tell that the girl who got slapped was Grace Ellen, the talented saleswoman who led him upstairs. This red short-haired girl who was direct and kind like an elf left a good impression in Fei's mind. However, before he could thank her, she got attacked, and her face swelled.

After making a path through the crowd, Fei and Kane walked to the center of the confrontation.

"Quickly move! The big figure is here! Do you see him? That white-haired old man? He is the manager of [Cauldron-Casting Shop], Solomon Kane. It is rumored that he is a Five-Star Mage. He isn't someone who should be messed with. This time, we are in for a treat..."

“Hey, even Kane can’t do anything. This time, this old fox Glazer came prepared. He came in and ordered his men to smash the shop. It is clear that something else is happening. It seems like [Cauldron-Casting Shop] is going to lose a lot this time. Perhaps it has to close the store in Talon City.”

“Yeah. Do you see those sneering military officers behind Glazer? They are the henchmen of the Castellan! They are here to back Glazer! It seems like the Castellan is on the side of [Blade-Washing Shop].”

“What do you know? This old fox was cheating all the shoppers and doing shady stuff. Without consent from the Castellan, do you think he dares to do so? After all, he is only Castellan Henry’s dog. Ever since [Cauldron-Casting Shop] took [Blade-Washing Shop]’s business, the Castellan has been enduring it. Now, it seems like he is going to...”

“Huh? Who is that young man in white? Why can’t I see his face? Something is blocking my vision. However, it seems like he is of high status based on how Kane is treating him. Where is he from? Could he be [Cauldron-Casting Shop]’s reinforcement?”

“His is too young! What can he do? Even if a god is here, [Cauldron-Casting Shop] can’t flip the situation around.”

“Ah, such a pity. The saleswomen of [Cauldron-Casting Shop] are all young and beautiful. After [Cauldron-Casting Shop] closes, old fox Glazer probably won’t let them go and will ruin them one by one...”

The crowd murmured to themselves.

Among them, there were quite a few hooligans who had stayed in Talon City for many years, and they understood the entire situation. They could tell that old fox Glazer endured [Cauldron-Casting Shop] for so long and finally attacked, meaning that the latter was well prepared. Unless a miracle took place today, [Cauldron-Casting Shop] would be in big trouble.

-In the middle of the confrontation-

Four saleswomen were knocked to the ground, and they were surrounded by the warriors in red who were sneering.

Several shocking red handprints were on Grace Ellen's white cheeks, and her face was swollen. Even though several streaks of blood slid down her face, she was still stubborn and opened her arms, protecting other girls behind her as she stared at the old and bald Glazer who was laughing arrogantly.

As soon as Fei arrived downstairs, he used the laws of nature to blur the space around his face. This way, no one below the realm of Sun-Class would be able to see his face. By doing this, Fei wouldn't bring trouble to the [Letter Office]. After all, most people believed that Fei committed a crime against humanity. If someone discovered the connection between him and the [Letter Office], then all the proper businesses of the [Letter Office] would be smashed and robbed. Even though Fei was in another world different from Earth, it didn't lack riots and protests.

After signaling Manager Kane to deal with the situation, Fei walked toward the girls who were surrounded by the warriors in red armor.

“Hey, stop! Who the f*ck are you? F–k off! Damn it! Ouch! Do you want to die?”

Three warriors saw Fei walking over and wanted to stop him by attacking him instinctively. However, as soon as they punched, they were knocked back and rolled on the ground. It seemed like this young man in white had a layer of bouncy protection around him.

Chapter 817: One Glance (Part Two)

The four girls who were crying behind Grace Ellen were shivering on the ground. Even though they were angry, they were all girls from ordinary families and never experienced such hard confrontations. Therefore, they were too terrified to do anything. Only Ellen who was brave suppressed her fear and protected her friends with her thin arms even though she was shivering herself.

Right now, the girls looked like fragile birds who were caught in a massive storm, making others feel bad for them.

“Does it still hurt?” Fei sighed and squatted down before helping these girls to get up one by one. When he saw the clear red handprints on Ellen's face, he couldn't help but feel sorry for her. The person who attacked her was merciless, and her smooth and cute face was almost deformed after being hit.

Ellen looked up at Fei with a blank expression.

After a few seconds, this girl finally came back to her senses after the laws of nature that were blurring Fei's face toned down a little toward her. She saw Fei's face and starry eyes, and Fei's expression and tone were caring and gentle.

"Ah, it is you..." Ellen finally recognized Fei.

However, the few words she said pulled on the swollen parts of her face. The pain made her cry subconsciously, and she couldn't speak anymore.

Fei signaled her and told her not to speak. Then, he placed his hands on this girl's cheek, and a streak of golden energy appeared on his hands and glided by.

Ellen instantly gasped and looked at Fei in shock.

She clearly sensed a streak of cool and refreshing energy, and her cheeks that were numb from the pain suddenly returned to normal.

"Who hit you?" Fei asked after pulling back his hands.

"Ah... you... you... It is ok, you need to go. What is happening here isn't relevant to you." As if she suddenly thought of something, Ellen quickly tried to get Fei to leave. She was smart and knew that this was a huge trouble for [Cauldron-Casting Shop]. Since that old fox Glazer decided to smash the shop in daylight, then he was prepared. It was hard to say if [Cauldron-Casting Shop] could last through this, so she didn't Fei to get involved and be punished.

Of course, Fei knew what was happening in this girl's mind. After sighing in his mind, he smiled and asked in his gentle voice, "It is ok; don't be scared. You just have to tell me who hit you."

"It is me! What? Kid, do you want to be a hero and save the beauties? You won't even know how you are going to die!" A loud voice sounded from the side.

Those warriors in red rolled on the ground and finally got up, and they quickly gathered around a young man who was in a fancy red silk robe.

This young man was handsome, but his aquiline nose didn't fit his other facial features and destroyed his presence. Also, his small eyes made others feel like he was vicious and cunning.

However, he wasn't weak. A surge of energy flowed inside his body, and it seemed like he was at least a Five-Star Warrior.

The person who just spoke was this young man.

"It was him?" Fei asked Ellen.

This elf-like girl looked at Fei earnestly. Then, as if she understood something, she nodded firmly.

"Hahaha! Yuck! I already told you that it was me! Kid, where are you from? Do you want to protect a dirty maid-like girl? Hahaha! I think you are seeking death! Hahaha! I will give you an opportunity! Use your most powerful strike! Let me see how you... Ah!... You?"

Just as this young man was taunting Fei, he suddenly saw that his opponent turned around and stared at him. Even though that young man in white didn't attack, a vast amount of energy rushed over and forced all the words that he was about to say back into his stomach. Before he could use his Five-Star earth-elemental warrior energy which brought him pride, his legs turned to jelly, and he kneeled onto the ground.

Then, a series of crackling noises sounded from his knees as if something broke.

A series of gasped sounded from the crowd.

"You... You... Who are you?" This young man with the aquiline nose propped himself up from the ground with his arms, and he unleashed all his energy and was barely able to look up at Fei.

"How powerful is he? Just one glance made me kneel, and I can't even fight back as a Five-Star Warrior," he thought to himself.

Too powerful!

Master!

Absolute Master!

At this moment, all the arrogance in this young man's head disappeared, and the only emotion that he could feel was fear. He knew that he ran into one of those unparalleled masters who were rarely seen on the continent.

Chapter 818: Truly Arrogant (Part One)

-On the other side of the hall-

Kane walked up with the guards of [Cauldron-Casting Shop] and stopped the warriors in red from smashing the shop further. Then, the situation turned into a stalemate.

As Kane took out his magic wand from his storage ring, he stared at old fox Glazer and asked coldly, "Mr. Glazer, what is the meaning of this?"

"Smashing your shop! Can't you tell? I think you are too old to understand the basics." The old and bald Glazer shrugged and sneered.

"The items that you broke and the weapons that you destroyed add up to 13,650 gold coins. Since you are done smashing around, it is time for you to offer compensation," Solomon Kane said calmly as he looked at the broken weapons and the walls that had many holes in them.

"Are you a fool? Have you seen anyone offer compensation after smashing a shop?" Glazer rubbed his bald head and laughed proudly, "Besides, we only smashed a small part of the shop. Today, we are going to destroy your shop entirely and arrest you damn foreigners!"

This old fox was arrogant, and he didn't even try to hide his intentions.

"Who gives you the power and right?" Kane frowned and asked. Throughout the whole exchange, he was very calm.

However, the blacksmiths and guards whom [Cauldron-Casting Shop] hired were angry, and they stared at Glazer while standing behind Kane. For the last while, [Blade-Washing Shop] played a lot of tricks and injured a lot of their peers. The grudges between the two shops were intense.

“Right and power? Haha! I don’t need the right to destroy a little store like [Cauldron-Casting Shop]!” Glazer started laughing as if he heard the most ridiculous joke in the world. After laughing for a while, he suddenly got serious. After pretending to think for a while, he said, “However, I’m reasonable and fair. I will make you submit fair and square... Someone reported this shop to the Castellan, and this person claimed that [Cauldron-Casting Shop] is selling counterfeit items, forcing customers to buy, running a scam, conspiring with bandits, and murdering residents of Talon City. Also, the Castellan suspects that your shop is connected to the Sea Tribe, so everyone at [Cauldron-Casting Shop] needs to be arrested and interrogated!”

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

“Impossible.” Kane was still calm, and he laughed as he shook his head, “Things like selling counterfeit items and forcing customers to buy are the privileges of your [Blade-Washing Shop]. As to conspiring with bandits, murdering residents, and colluding with the Sea Tribe, those are all nonsense! If you want to arrest anyone, bring out the evidence first!”

“You want evidence? I have a lot!” Glazer sneered and said viciously, “Hehe, when you are being interrogated in prison, I will show them to you one by one. Hahaha! Stop wasting time. Manager Kane, I know that you are a powerful Five-Star Mage, but I advise you to stay put. Castellan Henry gave this arrest order. Anyone who dares to resist shall be executed on the spot!”

After saying that, Glazer looked back, and those military officers in uniforms walked up.

They weren’t weak, but the most important thing was that they represented the Castellan of Talon.

The muscular man who was more than 2.3 meters tall and standing behind Glazer also walked over.

Bam! Bam! Bam! While he walked, he unleashed his shocking aura, making others feel like he was a beast from an abyss. As red warrior energy flames flashed around him, the temperature in the hall increased drastically. Six red star swirls could be vaguely seen on this man’s forehead, signaling that he was a fire-elemental Six-Star Warrior.

Both in terms of the number of people and the number of masters, Glazer was in the advantage.

A cruel expression appeared on Glazer's face.

This thin and bald old man enjoyed the feeling of making his opponents feel desperate.

Ever since [Cauldron-Casting Shop] came into the picture about a year ago, Glazer had lost a lot of profit. If it weren't for Castellan Henry who wanted to wait and see if this new shop had a great background, Glazer would have tried to kill all these foreigners right away. After enduring this for more than half a year, he finally convinced Castellan Henry to launch this operation.

Glazer couldn't wait to torture the old mage in front of him who had gone against him for a long time. Also, he was planning to enjoy the bodies of these young saleswomen in [Cauldron-Casting Shop].

Glazer had to admit that he admired Kane for this; the latter was able to find so many pretty girls from the poor neighborhoods and train them to become great saleswomen.

Chapter 818: Truly Arrogant (Part Two)

Just as Glazer thought that the destruction of [Cauldron-Casting Shop] was set in stone, something unexpected happened.

Boom! Right after the loud noise, gasps sounded from the side.

Glazer turned around and saw that Five-Star Warrior on his side kneeling in front of a young man in white; he had never seen this young man before.

That warrior on his side kneeled so hard that two large dents could be seen on the crack stone floor, and blood flowed out of his knees and slowly filled the spider-web-like cracks.

Even an idiot would know what was going on.

When Kane just walked downstairs, Glazer saw this young man in white. However, he ignored this young man, thinking that the latter was only an insignificant servant. Therefore, he was surprised to find out now that this young man was a powerful master.

For some reason, a bad feeling appeared in his mind, and he couldn't stop it from spreading.

...

Grace Ellen gasped at the scene; she didn't expect Fei to be such a powerful master.

Although she didn't have any warrior energy or magic energy, and she had no supernatural abilities to sense the pressure that only warriors and mages could detect, her crisp instinct told her that this handsome young man had unparalleled strength.

The people in the crowd were more shocked.

This young man with the aquiline nose was one of the most powerful masters in Talon City, and his nickname was [City-Burning Finger]. His fire-elemental warrior energy was impressive, and people said that he could burn an entire city with just the power in his finger. Of course, it was an exaggeration, but there was no doubt that he was the most powerful in the city when it came to the use of fire elements. His fire-elemental combat techniques were ferocious, and he had killed many famous masters without losing a single fight.

However, such a master was instantly crushed by one glance from this mysterious black-haired young man in white. Now, [City-Burning Finger] kneeled on the ground like a dying animal, and no one would have believed it if they didn't see it with their own eyes.

Master!

An insane master!

The people who were here for drama were excited, and they started to gossip.

They thought that Glazer was going to crush [Cauldron-Casting Shop] and become the most popular weapon shop in Talon City again, but such a powerful master appeared and stood by Kane. Now, they knew that they were in for a treat.

“Hahaha, it turns out that I have misjudged you. Friend, who are you? Why do you want to get involved in the conflict only between [Blade-Washing Shop] and [Cauldron-Casting Shop]?” Old fox Glazer’s lips twitched, and he said to Fei with a bright smile.

However, Fei didn’t even look at him.

Bam! Bam! Bam! Bam!!!!

As the king walked forward, an invisible energy rushed out of his body, and everyone in the hall felt like the air was being pushed out of the shop. Before they could realize what was going on, they heard a series of muffled noises.

As if giant mountains fell onto their backs, the warriors in red inside the shop suddenly kneeled and couldn’t even look up, and their faces changed color. They were trying hard not to collapse onto the ground completely, but they couldn’t even let out a scream.

“The order from the Castellan? Good. Then, let him come here and announce the order himself! I want to know which law of the empire did [Cauldron-Casting Shop] break. Why must they all be arrested and interrogated?” Fei asked with a serious expression.

Then, he glanced around, looked past Glazer who looked embarrassed and angry at the center of the hall, and said to one of the anxious military officers, “You, go and fetch that supreme Castellan.”

As Fei said that, he waved his hand, and that military officer flew out of the door and smashed onto the street.

After getting up, this military officer didn’t dare to say anything and disappeared into the crowd anxiously.

Then, Fei looked at Kane and the guards of [Cauldron-Casting Shop]. With a slight frown, he said, “Why are you still standing here? Go and block the door! Don’t let anyone leave and kill anyone who dares to try! Calculate how much money the shop lost and let them compensate ten times the price!”

The people in the crowd gasped subconsciously.

“This is truly arrogant! Compared with this black-haired young man in white, Glazer’s arrogance is child’s play,” they thought.

Chapter 819: The Castellan Is Here (Part One)

Since the ruler of the [Letter Office] was willing to step up and take care of the situation, it was the best scenario in Kane’s mind. He knew that no one in Talon City could rival with the ruler, so he wasn’t worried at all. Therefore, he turned around and gave a few orders. The guards and workers at [Cauldron-Casting Shop] were excited, and they divided the crowd and guarded the windows and doors, stopping anyone from leaving.

It was finally time for them to vent their frustration.

Although Manager Kane was calculative and rarely made mistakes, he lacked a dominating presence. When facing [Blade-Washing Shop]’s provocations, he continued to back off and reserve strength. Even though it seemed like the correct decision, it was frustrating.

This black-haired young man in white was mysterious to them, but his overbearing and direct style made them feel thrilled.

At this point, almost everyone was able to tell that the status Fei had in [Cauldron-Casting Shop] was higher than Manager Kane. Many people already started to guess that this young man might be the mysterious owner of [Cauldron-Casting Shop].

Since the situation changed drastically, it made old and bald Glazer feel awkward.

“This... hehe, Friend, there is no need for such trouble. If we bother the Castellan, the military force might even get involved. It won’t be good for either of us. Today, it is us [Blade-Washing Shop] who did things rashly, and we will compensate for all the losses that we caused. How about we end it here?”

Even though Glazer was furious, he couldn’t do anything but to hold back his emotions and submit to Fei.

To this old fox, dignity was worthless. He had lived in this cold world that was ruled by the law of the jungle for a long time, and he knew when he should be arrogant and when he should be soft. He instantly realized that this young man who suddenly appeared was far more powerful than everyone on his side, so it was better off for him to pretend to be nice. Then, he could go back and re-strategize.

In his mind, he would get back at this young man sooner or later and obtain the payback with interest.

However, Fei didn't even look at him.

This time, everyone in the audience knew what was happening. They realized that this young man didn't ignore Glazer due to fear; it was this young man's way of saying, 'Who the f*ck are you? You aren't qualified to talk to me!'

Seeing this, almost everyone couldn't hold back the laughter. Glazer was one of the bullies in the city, and most people didn't like him. Now, he finally got owned, and the people who were once bullied by him were all excited.

Glazer couldn't do anything, so he had to swallow the shame. As various expressions flashed on his face, he wanted to cut Fei into pieces and devour his flesh. However, he held everything inside and smiled, trying to show his gentle side to Fei.

After all, a wise man wouldn't act irrationally and fall into a trap.

"Ah!... Roar!" At this moment, that giant man behind Glazer couldn't hold it in anymore.

His Six-Star warrior energy was fully unleashed, and the energy flames enveloped his body as if he were being burned. He casually grabbed a weapon off the floor, and the weapon that was made from purified iron got instantly turned into reddish-black liquid. As this liquid dripped onto the ground with green smokes, black holes appeared on the stone floor.

This scene was shocking to a lot of people, and the crowd gasped. To the ordinary people and low-level warriors, this scene was even more terrifying than the invisible pressure that was coming off Fei.

After doing all that, this strong man sneered and provoked, "Mr. Glazer is willing to settle this with you, and you should feel lucky. What are you being arrogant about? I have seen people who are more arrogant than you, and they were all arrested and captured. Guess what happened to them?"

Their limbs were cut off, and their genitals were severed as well. In the end, they begged for mercy like poor dogs. If you don't want to die too gruesomely, just let us leave, and this will be it! Huh!"

Chapter 819: The Castellan Is Here (Part Two)

Fei finally turned around to look at this man, and he shook his head and said, "It is a pity."

The strong man was stunned, and he asked, "What do you mean?"

"It is a pity that you have the strength of a powerful warrior. You are a Six-Star Warrior, and you are in the middle-to-top tier Star-level. Even if you can't be a hero, you can be a good mercenary and earn a living that way. However, you decided to work for bad people and create trouble for others. It is a pity that you are like a slave to a low-life!"

"You... you are seeking death!" This strong man was enraged, and he tried to grab Fei's neck quickly with energy flames around him.

The girls such as Ellen finally calmed down a little, but they gasped again at this scene.

Fei smiled and blew out a mouthful of air.

Something unimaginable occurred!

The terrifying energy flames around this Six-Star Warrior suddenly became very fragile. The energy flames were enough to melt iron, but they were completely extinguished by this young man's light blow as if they were faint candlelight.

His body froze for a second, and this giant man was also blown away by at least four to five meters. After smashing onto the ground and landing by [City-Burning Finger]'s feet, he started to cry in pain as if he were a pig that was being slaughtered. "Ah! No! AHHH! My warrior energy! Why can't I feel anything? You... you are too cruel! You destroyed my warrior energy star swirls. You destroyed my future!"

This giant man shouted and tried to get up, but he wasn't able to and looked like his muscles were gone.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

Everyone's mouth opened wide, and the sound of saliva dripping onto the ground could be heard. What was happening in front of them was beyond their imagination.

“One light puff of air is enough to destroy a Six-Star Warrior who is one of the top masters in the city. Is this young man in white a god?” people thought to themselves.

After blowing the air, Fei said lightly, “Since you are not putting the Six-Star Warrior Energy into good use, I will take it back.”

Glazer was scared right now.

The last bit of desire for revenge disappeared in his mind, and he wished that he wasn't here in [Cauldron-Casting Shop] today. He wanted to believe that what was happening was just a nightmare so that all of this would disappear when he reopened his eyes.

Unfortunately, this nightmare was continuing. The black-haired young man in white was beyond powerful, and he was direct and merciless as well.

Now, Glazer knew that he kicked an iron board this time, and even Castellan Henry couldn't do anything if he got here.

“Destroying a Six-Star Warrior with only one puff of air? How powerful must he be?” Even though Glazer didn't know any combat techniques, he was sure that no one in Talon City was able to rival this young man.

At this moment, Glazer didn't want the Castellan to get here.

“That greedy b*stard is vicious and views his dignity as something really important; he can't bend and act soft like me. If he offends this powerful master, the entire Talon City would bleed! My life would be under threat as well!” Glazer thought to himself.

At this moment, a series of metal-gliding noises sounded.

As people gasped, the crowd moved aside quickly to make a path.

Teams of soldiers in shining armor rushed through the street and surrounded [Cauldron-Casting Shop] like a red flood. Then, a team of cavaliers charged over with their weapons raised. A murderous spirit instantly appeared in the area.

That military officer who was knocked away by Fei and left without daring to say a word had now changed into fancy magic armor and rode a white horse.

As he dashed forward, he shouted in high spirits and led the way.

“The Castellan is here! The Castellan is here!”

He had gotten Castellan Henry, the person who was behind all of this, to come.

Chapter 820: Unleashing of Power (Part One)

Seeing the Castellan moving so many elite soldiers of Leon and not his private guards, people knew that the situation was getting out of control. Therefore, the timid people already started to move back and got ready to leave.

Everyone knew that Castellan Henry was vicious, cruel, and short-tempered. Even when he was in a good mood, he could torture the people who he didn't like on the street.

Recently, the tsunami came and caused a lot of damage to Talon City. It was heard that Castellan Henry's manor by the seaside got destroyed by the tsunami, and the beautiful lover whom he had there was drowned. As a result, Castellan Henry wasn't in a good mood, and it was rumored that he had beaten four to five maids in his mansion to death in the last few days. If anything upset him, the people in the crowd might be doomed.

Ordinary people gradually left.

The windows and doors on either side of the street were tightly shut as well. While hiding, people peeked through the slits in the doors and windows to see what would happen next.

Only a few mercenaries and wealthy merchants in fancy robes stood far away and spectated since they were very curious as to what would happen. After all, [Cauldron-Casting Shop] had a powerful master, and it might not lose.

Soon, [Cauldron-Casting Shop] was surrounded by close to 1,000 elite soldiers.

Then, purified iron tower shields were placed around the shop, linking together and blocking all the exits of the street just in case that powerful masters wanted to escape. Rows upon rows of crossbowmen half-kneeled on the ground with their crossbows loaded. The bowstrings were squeaking and whining after being pulled to the limit, and the chilly arrowheads were targeting the [Cauldron-Casting Shop].

Even warriors in red uniform armor held onto weapons and stood on the buildings in the area, cutting all possible escape paths.

Under the cold command of that military officer, a formation of spearmen marched forward while holding long iron spears that were more than two meters long, and the formation looked like an iron forest. As they slowly approached [Cauldron-Casting Shop], the spearheads pointed at everyone inside the shop viciously like bloodthirsty beasts.

This slow yet pressing tempo was a little terrifying for the average person, and it was a little suffocating.

In just a flash, [Cauldron-Casting Shop] was surrounded from all angles. Like a little ship in a storm, it felt like it would be flipped over and destroyed at any moment.

Inside the hall of [Cauldron-Casting Shop], the workers, guards, and saleswomen were standing straight. However, there were also a few customers who stayed there to watch the drama and didn't leave in time. They were trapped inside the shop, and they all looked terrified by this intense murderous spirit.

“Ah! Let me go! I'm not a part of [Cauldron-Casting Shop]! I'm just here to buy weapons! Don't misunderstand! I'm not involved...”

A middle-aged merchant-looking man was shocked, and his legs turned to jelly. He quickly dashed to the door and tried to explain himself while crying. Just as he was about to step out of this troublesome place, a series of bowstring vibrations sounded, and more than a dozen arrows shot toward this innocent man without mercy.

Fei frowned and thought of something.

Those 16 thick arrows suddenly stopped in mid-air before they could pierce through this man's body; that millimeter distance between him and the arrows was terrifying.

Tink! Tink! Tink!

The arrows dropped onto the ground and created a series of crisp noises.

These noises knocked on people's minds like hammers, and it made the pressing atmosphere even more suffocating.

Chapter 820: Unleashing of Power (Part Two)

That middle-aged fatty who escaped from the embrace of the Grim Reaper collapsed onto the ground, and he instantly wet his pants due to fear. Ashen-faced, he shivered as he crawled back into the hall and cried loudly. However, despite his fear, he still didn't forget to thank Fei for saving him.

"Traitors in [Cauldron-Casting Shop], come out under my command! Drop all weapons and let us arrest you! I will give you ten seconds! If you don't come out in ten seconds, you will all be charged with treason and executed on the spot!"

The military officer whom Fei let go early was now arrogant. While riding on the handsome white horse, he shouted as if he controlled the entire situation.

Tink! Tink! Tink!

The elite soldiers knocked their weapons on their armor and coordinated with that military officer's shout. The loud metal-colliding noises created by more than 1,000 soldiers were stunning, and a murderous spirit permeated the air.

Those who had never been to a battlefield and saw blood couldn't stand this murderous spirit, and they shivered in fear. In fact, even some of the guards of [Cauldron-Casting Shop] paled.

The girls such as Ellen were all terrified, and they cuddled together and shivered.

"Humph!" Fei snorted, but that light sound was more powerful than a loud bell. An invisible power rushed to the surroundings like waves and instantly suppressed the noises created by all the soldiers.

The warriors around [Cauldron-Casting Shop] felt like thunder rumbled right beside their ears, and their faces instantly paled. Those masters who stood on the buildings around [Cauldron-Casting Shop] were especially 'cared' for by Fei, and they all shivered and fell off.

Fei's snort had easily pushed back against so many soldiers and warriors, and those people's morale plummeted.

"Shoot!" That military officer on the white horse saw this and instantly ordered with a vicious expression.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!!!!

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!!!!

A series of terrifying bowstring vibrations sounded, and the archers and crossbowmen shot out the arrows instantly.

[Support the translators and read on Noodletown Translations for free.]

The dense arrow rain dashed toward [Cauldron-Casting Shop] like a group of hungry locusts, and they were about to embrace this building like the Grim Reaper while making air-piercing noises.

Fei sat in the center of the grand hall of the building and frowned. "You just don't know when to admit defeat!"

In the next moment, golden energy flames rushed out and enveloped the entire building. Like snails that were trapped inside a swamp, the many arrows slowed down drastically before completely stopping in mid-air. Before people could react, these arrows turned around as if they had lives of their own, and they pointed at those soldiers who shot them.

As Fei waved his hand, these arrows dashed back like flashes of lightning.

“AH!” Many arrows pierced the military officer who gave the order, and he was turned into a hedgehog before he fell down the white horse.

A series of gasps sounded among the soldiers.

All of them were dumbfounded, and they sensed a chill shooting into their skulls from their spines.

“This is too insane! It is clear that the master inside the building went easy on us! Otherwise, those arrows could kill us with the commander. At least we who are in the front will be turned into hedgehogs as well!” the soldiers thought to themselves.

Boom! Boom! Boom!!!

The golden energy flames grew and turned into a golden light beam, enveloping the entire building and shooting into the sky. The sky was dyed golden, and it seemed like the night turned into daytime.

In the next moment, a phenomenon appeared.

The golden light beam continued to change in the sky. Soon, it turned into a miraculous image.

Vaguely, people could see a golden sun slowly rising from the horizon and lighting up the world. This sun looked like the ruler of the world and took everyone’s attention.

Sun-Class Lord!