

Hammer God 107

Chapter 107: Violence

The Sparkly Bear was starting to turn invisible while the Narvonian Worm approached.

Kyle jumped to the side.

The Narvonian Worm entered the opening where Kyle had just been, following him with its eyes.

When Kyle saw that, one of his eyebrows rose.

'Bro, did you not see that fucking bear behind me?' Kyle thought.

The Narvonian Worm charged at Kyle.

BANG!

Suddenly, the Narvonian Worm's head was flung to the side.

When its huge head hit a tree, some of the tree's bark exploded off it.

'Guess not,' Kyle thought.

Naturally, different breeds of beasts rarely teamed up.

This was not a 2v1 but a 1v1v1.

The next moment, Kyle saw how a gigantic piece of flesh was torn off the Narvonian Worm's head.

'Lucky!' he thought. 'Gives me time to prepare.'

The next moment, Kyle pulled something out of a sack hanging on his belt.

"Take this seriously!" Theodor shouted as he watched Kyle spreading Basic Mage Stone powder over his arm.

"I am!" Kyle shouted.

As another huge chunk of flesh was torn out of the Narvonian Worm, Kyle snorted the line of Basic Mage Stone.

"WHOOOOO!" Kyle shouted. "Let's go!"

Theodor almost exploded in anger.

What the fuck was this idiotic inheritor doing?!

Kyle's entire body enlarged as all of his muscles pumped up.

Some tears appeared on his robes, but he didn't even notice that.

BANG!

Kyle saw a tree vibrate, and moments later, the Narvonian Worm's head retreated.

It was bloody and battered, but it was still strong enough to push the Sparkly Bear to the side.

But compared to the Sparkly Bear, the Narvonian Worm was not an aggressive fighter.

It just wanted to eat.

Because of that, it immediately fucked off, back into its weird turtle shell.

The next moment, Kyle's ears picked up some steps.

With his mind momentarily enhanced, Kyle could almost perceive the Sparkly Bear's location.

"Let's go!" Kyle shouted as he charged forward.

He heard and felt the Sparkly Bear charging at him.

Then, Kyle heard a louder step than the ones before it.

'It always attacks with its right claw first!'

Kyle swung his hammer forward.

BOOOOM!

The hammer hit something insanely heavy, and if it weren't for the impact-canceling function of the mining weapon, Kyle's bones would be shaking.

Kyle's hammer stopped in the middle of the air before it was thrown to the side.

CRKSH!

An explosion of blood covered Kyle before he felt three huge gashes opening on his chest.

BANG!

Kyle's body was thrown to the side, and he hit a tree, shaking it.

Then, he heard approaching steps.

But then, the floor in front of Kyle vibrated heavily, and he heard scrambling.

At that moment, Kyle also saw the blood covering the gigantic invisible arm.

According to the blood, the arm was bent at a strange angle.

The Sparkly Bear had tried to step forward, but its right arm was broken.

CRKSH!

That was when Kyle saw a huge bone appearing in the air.

'Can't make your bones invisible, huh?' he thought with a smirk.

The stress on the arm had been so great that the broken bone pierced the skin.

'That's why I love my hammer!'

Kyle quickly jumped back to his feet and charged forward.

He saw the bent arm jumping back, more blood coming out of it.

When it landed again, Kyle's enhanced mind saw the angle.

'It's protecting its injury!'

Kyle swung his hammer from a distance.

Then, he saw the mass of blood moving back again.

Based on the angle of the arm, the bear's body would have been in the spot that Kyle had swung towards.

Naturally, the Sparkly Bear jumped back to avoid the strike.

It was intimidated by the hammer.

Kyle grinned.

He knew how terrifying this hammer was.

He still remembered the time Nervon had used Kyle's hammer against him.

That thing was fucking scary!

When Kyle's hammer missed, the arm moved towards him, which meant that the bear was attacking.

However, Kyle's hammer stopped in the middle of the swing, placing itself between the two.

The next moment, the teeth-filled insides of a maw opened in front of the hammer.

CRKSH!

'Fucker bit my hammer!' Kyle thought.

If he got disarmed, he would be helpless.

Thanks to his improved mind, Kyle already expected what was going to happen.

While he was not a Fighter, Kyle's Center and mind were also enhanced, which gave him superior insight into battle.

Beasts like bears acted in very straightforward manners.

The next moment, Kyle pulled himself closer to his hammer and basically wrapped his entire body around the hilt.

BANG!

He felt like a train had just hit him, and Kyle also felt some of his ribs breaking.

Naturally, after grabbing the hammer, the bear would use its healthy paw to separate Kyle from his weapon.

It would hit Kyle into the distance, spit his hammer away, and charge after him.

Kyle's body was flying away, but he held his hammer in a tight grip.

His body straightened, but he didn't let go.

The hammerhead inside the maw spun as Kyle's body circled around it.

The next moment, Kyle's eyes widened, and he gnashed his teeth with all of his power.

He still had the hilt of his hammer in his hands as the spinning ended, and he landed beside the injured arm of the bear.

Immediately, he changed his grip into a wide one.

His right hand held the hammer right beneath the head, while his left hand held the hilt at the bottom.

"RAAAAAH!" Kyle shouted as his entire body bulged.

Bones broke out of his torso under the strain.

CRK!

A tooth broke, and the maw let go.

The Sparkly Bear wanted to retreat.

BANG!

But the hammer dug further into the maw, and some blood splattered out as the pick of Kyle's hammer rammed into the bear's throat.

"FUCKING DIE!" Kyle shouted.

His arms bulged, and his hammer continued moving forward.

The bear lost its focus as the pick rammed into its jaw, and it became visible a moment later.

Kyle kept shouting as his arms shook under all of his power.

His Center emptied all of its Ether into his body.

His mind put most of its Ether into his body.

Kyle's body grew even further, and his bulging muscles broke past his clothing.

CRACK!

The bear's jaw dislocated, and Kyle's hammer could no longer be stopped.

It rammed into the flesh, and the bear's entire body fell to the side.

CRKSH!

The hammer broke free, creating a huge crevice in the bear's cheek.

Blood appeared in Kyle's eyes as he spun in place.

He extended his swing.

When he turned back to the bear, he saw it trying to get back on its feet.

Its broken arm gave out beneath it.

Spinning during a battle was a bad idea since the enemy could counterattack during that time.

But what if the enemy couldn't do that?

"DIE!" Kyle shouted as he swung with all of his power.

BOOOOOM!

The hammer hit the Sparkly Bear's head.

Teeth, bone, and blood flew everywhere.

A gash opened in the bear's neck due to the strain.

The huge body fell to the side.

BANG!

And finally, the head hit the ground hard.

The bear's body convulsed.

When Kyle saw that, a huge grin appeared on his face.

"FOOD!" he shouted.
