

Hammer God 576

Chapter 576 Come All!

Kyle retreated from the corpse and charged to his allies.

Their bodies were quickly recovering, but their Energy was still critically low.

Swamp Dragon and Warp Space breathed sighs of relief.

They had survived.

Kyle's eyes narrowed, and he gritted his teeth as he charged towards them.

His humongous body shook the destroyed forest as he rushed to them with urgency.

At that moment, Warp Space felt a distortion in space, and her eyes widened in horror as she looked to the side.

The shadow of a humongous snake covered the two of them.

Level Four Primal Beast!

The snake opened its mouth, but before it could strike, its eyes suddenly looked to the side.

A giant burning with red and blue flames charged at it.

The snake saw Kyle, and it was immediately attracted by his Sin Aura.

Its instincts told it that killing Kyle would bring much greater benefits than killing these two.

Additionally, that giant felt much more dangerous than the two weakened humans.

The snake's body pulled together like a spring.

BOOOOM!

And it shot forward.

Kyle's body bled as his muscles bulged once again.

He readied his hammer.

But then, the snake suddenly opened its mouth, and a glob of venom flew towards him.

The blue fire around Kyle intensified.

The green glob froze.

CRACK!

Kyle struck the glob with his elbow, and it exploded into green dust.

That was when the snake's maw arrived, and Kyle swung his hammer upward.

CRACK!

The pick of Kyle's hammer burrowed into the snake's neck.

CRKSH!

But at the same time, its head bent downward, and it sank its venom-filled teeth into Kyle's arm.

BOOOOOM!

Kyle immediately detonated his arm off his body and continued swinging upward with only one hand.

The next moment, his right leg stepped onto the dent between the hilt and the head of his hammer.

He used his left arm as a guide while using his right leg to push.

The snake's body flew over Kyle's body as his hammer created an arc.

It went up, to the side, and finally, down.

BOOOOOM!

Kyle hammered the snake into the ground, stunning it.

BANG!

Then, he pushed his right leg further down, pinning the snake's head to the ground.

Finally, Kyle opened his mouth and chomped down on its body.

His teeth tore on its scales and flesh, as the snake's head tried to bite him.

However, Kyle just moved the handle of his hammer back and forth, keeping it between him and its fangs.

Kyle tore the flesh off the snake as his arm recovered. That was when its tail flew towards Kyle.

CRACK!

Some of his bones broke, but Kyle kept biting down, keeping him from getting flung into the distance.

CRACK!

Finally, Kyle's Energy-dissolving maw consumed enough of the Energy in the snake's spine to break it.

He got hit by the tail again, and this time, he was flung away.

But not alone.

The head and neck of the snake were in his mouth.

The 80% of the snake's body that had just attacked Kyle started to spasm.

The snake's brain was in the snake's head, while its Beast Core was in the other part of its body.

The brain needed the Beast Core, and the Beast Core needed the brain.

Both parts of the snake quickly started dying, and Kyle looked to the side.

An enormous rhinoceros was charging at him.

Kyle grabbed his hammer and pulled it out of the dead snake, more Energy and flames gathering around him.

He spun.

The rhinoceros reached him.

BANG!

The rhinoceros' head flew into the distance as its body rammed into him, injuring him again.

This was only a Level Two Primal Beast, but its heavy weight and speed still had enough force to injure him.

The body of the rhinoceros fell onto Kyle, who grabbed it and pushed his legs against it.

BANG!

Kyle pushed the body off, and it flew to the side.

CRACK!

The body was bisected in the air as the terrifying tail of a humongous iguana tore through it.

Level Four Primal Beast!

The iguana continued charging at Kyle, who readied his hammer again.

Blood and flames scattered across the surroundings as he charged at the iguana with an enraged shout.

The iguana launched its tail once again.

The surroundings turned black as Kyle's Momentum activated.

The tail became stiff for just a moment, ruining its strike.

The tail still hit Kyle, but it only tore a crevice into his back instead of bisecting him.

At the same time, Kyle swung his hammer.

BOOOOOM!

The pick of the hammer burrowed into the iguana's eye, and its body was pulled off its feet as the hammer pulled it along.

Kyle threw the iguana to Swamp Dragon and Warp Space.

The body flew over them.

BOOOM!

And hit an approaching peacock, which had just planned on eating the two humans.

The iguana was still half-alive, and it moved its body chaotically above the peacock.

The peacock was trying to get away from the body, while Kyle charged at them.

However, at that moment, Kyle stopped.

Instead of charging at the two beasts, Kyle's hand tore through the ground and lifted Warp Space and Swamp Dragon onto his right shoulder.

Not a moment too soon, as two wolves jumped towards him.

CRACK!

Kyle's hammer broke off the head of one of the wolves with his hammer, but the other wolf bit down on his left arm.

BOOOM!

Kyle detonated his arm and kicked the wolf.

CRACK! CRACK!

Several feathers from the peacock, which had just managed to free itself, shot through the wolf's body.

Some of the feathers stuck to Kyle's body, but they had lost enough force that their attack wasn't lethal.

Kyle jumped to the side as several metallic spears shot through the space he had just occupied.

A metallic tortoise had joined the fight as well.

Several more beasts were charging at them from a distance as well.

Kyle's Momentum activated, and the fire around him intensified.

"Come and die!" he shouted.

The next moment, the space around him warped, and green Ether appeared around his body.

"You're not alone," Warp Space transmitted with focused eyes.

"We've recovered," Swamp Dragon added from Kyle's shoulder.

Kyle's Momentum turned the world colorless and bleak.

His red Meteor Energy fused with the red of his Sin Aura.

His blue flames surrounded him.

The space around him was green and warped.

His hammer lifted, illuminating the darkness in a red light.

"Come at me!"
