

ONLINE: I CAN SEE HEALTH BARS

Chapter 10: Chapter 10 Square (2 Updates)

Sssss—

Fresh blood spray gushed from their bodies, flesh severed from bone.

On the left side of the team, five people's health bars emptied and vanished.

Flesh exploded in the air around them.

Limbs flew every which way, blood and gore spatter the ground, all in the blink of an eye.

The Hidden Light Demon, after surging a hundred meters away, halted, turned, and let out a sinister chuckle.

Without giving the team time to react, it charged straight towards the remaining half!

"What?!"

"We've been tricked!!"

"Ah Wei—"

"No!!"

"Damn it!!"

Everything happened so fast there was no chance to react.

By the time they realized, the people on the left were mostly dead, cries of agony filled the air, and the demon was charging forward like a harbinger of death.

Crises piled upon one another. At that moment, Fang Yu's mind was exceptionally clear. He took a deep breath and suddenly roared!

"Everyone shut up!! The demon is attacking!!"

Fang Yu's voice was louder than everyone else's, and he grabbed Li Qianxuan's arm.

"Lord Li, it's certain that it will target me first this time."

Li Qianxuan was quick to respond and composed. He asked, "Why?"

"Whuhan psychology! It feigned last time, so this time it will be serious!"

Li Qianxuan was silent for half a second then made a decision right away.

"...Ok! I believe you!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the demon was upon them.

Fang Yu swiftly pointed out the target.

"All on my command—Strike with your swords!!"

As Fang Yu spoke, Li Qianxuan suddenly did a 180-degree turn, staring intently at Fang Yu.

Fang Yu was taken aback, yet his focus remained on the demon ahead.

At this moment, everyone struck out in unison, but the demon leaped into the air!

Dodging all attacks and dropping straight towards Fang Yu's location!

Time seemed to slow in that instant.

Fang Yu's facial expression gradually changed dramatically, his pupils tracking the demon's leap upwards, mouth agape, a look of astonishment.

While in his dilated pupils, reflected Li Qianxuan seemed to gain feedback from Fang Yu's micro-expressions, and he suddenly thrust his sword forward fiercely!

"Roar!!"

Whom!!

The demon's roar and Li Qianxuan's sword thrust sounded almost simultaneously.

Time resumed its flow.

Fang Yu saw a flash of eye glare and sword light.

Bang!!

A collision-like explosion sounded.

-89!

-111!

Immediately after, two bright red critical hit numbers burst forth before his eyes.

Swish swish swish—

The next moment, a large splatter of blood sprayed onto Fang Yu's face as if it were jet ink.

Fang Yu watched helplessly as the Hidden Light Demon's health bar above [3/1000] flew backwards for two to three meters, landing on the ground, while the nearby Li Qianxuan collapsed, a jagged, claw-like wound torn open in his chest, spitting blood from his mouth, with a continuous 'damage indicator' of '-0.1' '-0.1' above his head, and his eyes rolled back as he passed out.

What, what happened?

Fang Yu was completely dazed.

"Lord Li!?"

"The demon injured Lord Li!"

"Look at the blood on the ground! The demon's also severely wounded, it's over there!"

The words of his team jolted Fang Yu back to reality.

Shit! This isn't the time to be zoning out, go for the kill! They're fighting for the kill!

Although Fang Yu didn't know what level the demon was, a thousand health points meant it was a formidable foe!

Could they let such a chance slip??

"Damn it! Move aside, leave that demon to me!!"

Fang Yu cried out, but it was too late.

His indignant teammates had already pounced towards where the health bar had plummeted.

My experience loot bag...

Fang Yu hadn't even finished regretting when suddenly, a wild beast-like roar erupted from ahead.

"ROAR!!"

-215!

-172!

-188!

In the next instant, three human heads flew directly outward.

The remaining people were so frightened that they hastily retreated, and only then did Fang Yu take a clear look, seeing the Hidden Light Demon had actually revealed its true form, visible to all.

It was a monster whose head nearly occupied its entire body.

It somewhat resembled an owl, but with an enormous head, its gaping maw twisted into a ferocious sneer.

Its fur was dense, covered the body like feathers, without distinction between arms and legs, just four sharp claws, two severed stumps, and a tail wound—it stood upright like a human.

Was this the true form of the Hidden Light Demon? Its feathers reflected specks of light under the sunlight, blending with the surroundings as if ready to merge into one.

Most peculiar, red steam rose from the body of the Hidden Light Demon, with '-0.1' '-0.1' loss of blood indicators constantly bubbling from its head.

Its eyes were as if covered by cataracts, devoid of pupils and focus, it just furiously roared in all directions, as though it had fallen into some state of frenzy.

In just this brief moment, its health had dropped to only 1.5.

[Hidden Light Demon: 1.5/1000.]

"Shoot your arrows!!"

Seeing the demon still so ferocious, Yue Guang immediately drew his bow and sternly commanded.

The remaining people hurriedly did as ordered.

But unexpectedly, just as Yue Guang's arrow flew towards the Hidden Light Demon, it was caught by its claw and was snapped in two.

Other incoming arrows were similarly gathered by the Hidden Light Demon in one sweep, spun around, and flung back at them!

"Ah!!"

"Not good!"

"What kind of demon is this?!"

-198!

-211!

-179!

Screams of horror erupted, with three people being pierced by the arrows and dying instantly.

The survivors, barely avoiding the arrows, were too scared to make any rash moves.

Everyone could hardly believe their eyes as they looked towards the Hidden Light Demon; after revealing its true form, its power had seemingly surged, and they were no match for it!

Only in Fang Yu's eyes, the Hidden Light Demon's health was already '-0.1' '-0.1' dropping to just 0.5.

[Hidden Light Demon: 0.5/1000.]

"How can this be... how has it become so strong?!"

"So that wasn't the limit of this demon before!"

"Is this the real power of the demon... was it just toying with us before??"

The crowd watched the incredibly strong Hidden Light Demon, feeling like it was an insurmountable mountain, so oppressive they could hardly breathe.

Stomp!

Just then, the Hidden Light Demon took a step towards them!

That one step scared everyone into a sudden fright!

"Run! We must run!"

"We cannot fight it! With the demon's current strength, we're no match!"

"We have no choice but to run! Save as many as we can, take Lord Li with us!"

Before they had still been able to whittle down its health with arrows from afar, now the demon made arrows ineffective.

This overwhelming power caused everyone to quickly pick Li Qianxuan off the ground and turn tail to run.

But as everyone fled, one person moved against the current, passing by those who were escaping.

Step after step, he walked towards the Hidden Light Demon!

It seemed with every step he took, his aura grew heavier.

Yue Guang seemed to remember something; he suddenly turned his head, his face changing drastically.

"Diao Deyi?!"

Hearing Yue Guang's shout, the others turned back to look, their expressions changing in unison.

"Diao Deyi, stop! Have you gone mad?!"

"Run! Escape with us, Diao Deyi!"

"What is he trying to do?!"

"You're seeking death! Diao Deyi, you're seeking death!"

Amidst the sounds from behind, Fang Yu laughed, laughed out loud! Clutching the sharp sword in his hand tightly, he continued determinedly forward.

You don't understand... you don't understand anything!!

Where others fear, I covet!

Where others take small losses, I make huge profits!

Where others close their positions, I go all in!!

I declare, this place is now... Diao Deyi Square!
