

ONLINE: I CAN SEE HEALTH BARS

Chapter 6: Chapter 6 Slander (3 more updates)

Upon hearing the three words "Foolish Underworld", the crowd around them changed their expressions and uniformly stepped back ten steps, making room.

"How come people from the Foolish Underworld are here?"

"Damn, stay away, these guys are insane! Don't get ourselves drenched in blood."

Fang Yu looked forward and saw a troop of men charging towards them, each carrying a sword and a bow, towering figures.

Among them, one was riding a horse, clearly a leader-level figure.

[Li Qianxuan: 100/100.]

Damn!

A three-digit health bar!

Looking at the people in the troop, each had a health bar of around thirty to forty, with three individuals even having 60 and 70, clearly not ordinary, but among them, there was one younger-looking individual with just over ten health points, seemingly like someone who got in through the back door.

Fang Yu felt a surge of excitement.

Although the person with the highest health bar in this group was Li Qianxuan at 100 health points, it couldn't compensate for the large number, almost a small squad of thirty people!

It seems that the white-clothed young man feared precisely this power!

"My lord!"

Just as Fang Yu was about to claim innocence, the white-clothed young man next to him had already knelt down with a thud, kowtowing continuously.

Damn! Kneeling when there's gold under a man's knees? Just like that? Don't you want any dignity at all??

"Li Shihu! Lord Li, you must stand up for me. Diao Deyi..."

Before the white-clothed young man could continue, he saw Li Qianxuan place his finger to his lips, making a 'shush' gesture.

The white-clothed young man immediately fell silent.

If it weren't for Fang Yu being able to see the health bar, he would've doubted whether Li Qianxuan was really the Thousand Blood Monster.

[Li Baigu: 785.2/1000.]

Looking at the health bar of the white-clothed young man, aside from losing two hundred health points when both his arms were severed, the other losses were minimal.

Lucky that this group could restrain him; otherwise, he would've respawned on the spot in the next second.

Li Qianxuan rode his horse past them and came to Tu Goudan's side.

At this moment, Tu Goudan had been shot in the leg and was being pinned down by Li Qianxuan's men.

[Tu Goudan: 2/8.]

The arrow did not take Tu Goudan's life, but it did immobilize him, causing him to scream like a slaughtered pig, completely losing the madness he had at the beginning.

"Stop howling, I saw you committing murder on the street earlier, chasing after that guy. Do you have any excuses?"

Li Qianxuan sat on his horse and glanced at Tu Goudan.

"I was punishing evil and pro..."

Buzz!!

Tu Goudan hadn't finished speaking when a flash of sword light swept across his neck.

The head rolled directly onto the ground.

Such a fast sword!

Fang Yu thought he hadn't even blinked, and the sword light had already flashed by.

[Tu Goudan: 0/8.]

Blood splattered everywhere, causing the onlookers to cry out in shock.

However, the other members of the Foolish Underworld seemed used to it and let go, letting Tu Goudan's headless corpse fall to the ground.

Handling the corpse wasn't their job; someone else would take care of the aftermath.

This was when Li Qianxuan finally rode his horse to Fang Yu and the white-clothed young man.

"Now, it's your turn. You first speak, and remember, I don't like idle talk; make it concise."

Li Qianxuan was pointing directly at Fang Yu.

Fang Yu's spirit was uplifted, although he hadn't knelt down, his integrity had gained others' recognition!

"Diao Deyi, speaking!"

"Lord Li, I have two points."

"Firstly, from the Shopkeeper to the helpers at the pharmacy, and Wang Er and those people, all were killed by Li Baigu!"

"Secondly, Li Baigu is pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger, concealing his true nature! His identity is definitely suspicious!"

Fang Yu took the initiative, directly pointing out the key issues.

Li Qianxuan just slightly furrowed his brow, then asked a question.

"What you've said is plausible, but I have a question for you. How could a young man who just lost both arms kill over a dozen people in the pharmacy?"

You might as well ask where Zhao Xin is jungling!

"So he had hidden his strength! Lord Li, this is what happened..."

"Enough, make him shut up."

Slap!

Fang Yu was about to continue, but a bouncer next to him covered his mouth.

Fang Yu struggled again, but the cold blade was already pressed against his neck, causing his heart to panic immediately.

He looked around.

[Nong Chao: 15/15.]

[Nong Han: 31/31.]

Nong Chao was shockingly the team member with only slightly over ten health points, a boy of about thirteen or fourteen years old.

The other person was a team member with over thirty health points.

They pressed on Fang Yu's shoulders from both sides, immobilizing him.

Fang Yu immediately regretted, wishing he had shouted more details earlier; it's all because Li Qianxuan didn't give him the chance to elaborate, insisting on concise statements.

"Now it's your turn."

Li Qianxuan had just approached the white-clothed youth, who had almost cried his eyes dry, showing an acting skill far beyond any young idol.

Since he was already kneeling, the white-clothed boy was relentlessly kowtowing.

When he raised his head again, there were blood marks on his forehead.

After starting with the kowtows, his emotions seemed to be in place, he furiously cursed at Fang Yu with blood and tears.

"Please, Lord Li, seek justice for me!"

"I am the son of the pharmacy's shopkeeper. Today, when I returned home, the casino people burst into the pharmacy, first they killed the assistants, then they killed my parents, and broke both my arms. If it weren't for their infighting over my family's assets which allowed me a chance to escape, I would have been killed in the pharmacy too."

"I don't know the outcome of the other bouncers after their infighting, but Diao Deyi was the last to chase me out of the pharmacy!"

"My parents were also killed by him! Please, Lord Li, seek justice for me! Please, Foolish Underworld, seek justice for me!"

The white-clothed youth cried bitterly, giving two more violent kowtows.

This intense and emotion-filled performance, if Fang Yu didn't know the truth, he might have been completely misled by this act.

No, what do you need such acting skills for?

Damn it, you're the Thousand Blood Boss!

Brother, don't play dirty! Dare we not fight openly and nobly?!

Fang Yu was furious, he had been framed and falsely accused, and what's more, it seemed like everyone actually believed it!

Swoosh swoosh swoosh—

Whether it was the onlookers at the perimeter or the members of the Foolish Underworld, all their fierce gazes concentrated on Fang Yu.

For heaven's sake, I'm just a newbie who just entered the game, what can I do? Can I fight ten people by myself??

This is bad, I'm really going to be killed and removed from the game! The worst way to exit the game!

"Speak up! He's just a child, how can you, the casino's bouncers, bear to do this!"

"Breaking someone's both arms, annihilating his whole family, and still pursuing to kill and silence him! The Black Tiger Casino has gone against heaven, thinking it can do whatever it wants! They don't even consider the lords of the Foolish Underworld anymore!"

"Arrogant... too arrogant! If this doesn't result in a public beheading, I can't swallow this down! Poor Li family's boy, suddenly disabled in a day, not to mention he lost his home, wuuu wuuu wuuu... this old man can't bear to see a child suffer like this..."

No, brother, sister, it's not like what you think!

Fang Yu wanted to speak, but he noticed Nong Chao's body trembling slightly, and the knife in his hand was already pressing into his flesh, piercing the skin and causing blood to ooze out.

This feeling of the knife slowly cutting into the flesh is unbearable.

Lord Li Qianxuan hasn't even ordered yet, don't mess around!

Fang Yu was very panicked, his eyes shifting, just when he caught Li Qianxuan's gaze.

Clearly, he wasn't someone who believed only one side of the story; he didn't immediately order an execution.

Fang Yu seized the opportunity, shouting hastily.

"I am innocent! Lord Li, he is the murderer, he is the real murderer! I can guarantee with my life that he is..."

Zi!

Fang Yu's words were only halfway through when a sharp pain suddenly erupted from his neck, cutting his voice off abruptly.

-4!

As the large bloody number appeared, Fang Yu's head flew off directly.

Zi—

Blood spurted forth, and Fang Yu's headless body also fell down.

This scene left Li Qianxuan slightly astonished.

But upon seeing that it was Nong Chao who had acted, he immediately understood.
