

ONLINE: I CAN SEE HEALTH BARS

Chapter 8: Chapter 8 Diao Deyi (5 more updates)

A crisp sound exploded in front of Li Qianxuan.

The strange force that came out of nowhere sent Li Qianxuan flying two to three meters away, and he knelt on the ground, looking up ahead, no longer hearing the bizarre whooshing sound by his ear.

Before he could think deeply...

"Ah ah ah ah!!"

Suddenly, someone in the team let out a shrill scream, their blood-soaked upper body was torn apart and thrown high into the air, with intestines and blood falling down.

Demon!

Li Qianxuan immediately reddened his eyes and roared: "Tighten the circle! Turtle Formation defense formation!!"

Faced with an invisible enemy, everyone panicked and huddled together, back to back.

But...

"Ah!!"

"It's over here!!"

"No!!"

Every time blood suddenly splattered in the team, it meant the invisible demon had attacked again.

It only injured or killed one or two people each time, never lingering, almost always using guerrilla tactics, making it impossible to catch it!

Cold sweat overflowed Li Qianxuan's forehead.

In just a short while, their numbers had dwindled from nearly thirty people to barely more than ten.

If they lost more men, they might not even have the capacity to confront the demon face to face.

This can't go on, if this continues, everyone will die here!

Li Qianxuan gasped for breath, support from the Foolish Underworld wouldn't arrive so quickly, or to say, since they exposed the demon until now, it actually hadn't been very long.

With the current rate of casualties, they simply couldn't hold out until help arrived.

"What to do... it's a...dead end now!"

Sss—

Just as Li Qianxuan thought of this, a confidant beside him suddenly screamed, and an arm flew high into the air.

"Zhang Yu!"

Li Qianxuan exclaimed, full of self-reproach.

He was confused, his heart was in chaos, if he had cooperated fully with his confidant, the demon would have had no chance to harm them!

But now...

"Lord Li, I'm okay!" Zhang Yu, after all, had been fighting alongside Li Qianxuan all this way; after losing an arm, he just tightened a strip of cloth around it and immediately stood back-to-back with Li Qianxuan again, guarding against the demon's attacks.

The entire situation had shifted from them actively hunting the demon to the demon slaughtering them!

"Lord Li, our situation is very dire now, there's only one way to break through this!"

Zhang Yu lowered his voice.

Li Qianxuan of course knew what he meant and immediately shook his head.
"No, it's too dangerous."

"Someone has to do it! Otherwise, we'll all die here!"

Zhang Yu said firmly, then, without waiting for Li Qianxuan's response, suddenly dashed out.

"I'll go out and call for help! You all hold on!"

"Cover him!!"

Zhang Yu's fierce yell and Li Qianxuan's voice almost coincided.

However, before the others could act, just as Zhang Yu ran out ten steps, a twisting entity that was almost invisible under the sunlight crossed paths violently with him.

Sss!!

The next instant, Zhang Yu's head flew off.

"Zhang Yu!!"

Li Qianxuan's face changed drastically, his eyes reddened, veins popping on his forehead.

"Come out! Demon! Come out! Don't let me catch you! Once I catch you, I'll tear you limb from limb!!"

Li Qianxuan's loss of control brought even more unrest to the team, putting everyone from the Foolish Underworld in a perilous situation.

In this extremely difficult moment.

Suddenly, a sigh sounded mysteriously from not far away.

"Who?!"

The sharp Li Qianxuan immediately noticed the source of the sound, but looking around, all he saw was a headless corpse.

Just as Li Qianxuan was about to look away...

The headless corpse, damn it, moved!!

Li Qianxuan instantly widened his eyes, almost thinking he was seeing things.

But he rubbed his eyes, and when he looked at the corpse again, he saw it slowly raising its right hand.

A corpse... turning into a zombie?!!

With demons in front and a turning corpse behind.

Li Qianxuan felt like he was about to break down when the corpse suddenly made a sound.

"Uh, Lord Li, I think I can't keep a low profile anymore."

A corpse! The corpse is speaking!!

This sudden zombie transformation seemed to have confused the demons too, and they did not launch any attacks for a long while.

At this moment, the headless corpse seized the opportunity and ran towards their side, suddenly picking up a human head halfway through.

Only then did Li Qianxuan recognize who the headless corpse was.

"Diao... De Yi??"

The others in the team were so frightened they almost peed themselves, their nerves already tense, and they began aiming their bows at Fang Yu.

"Don't shoot!!"

"He's one of us!!"

The headless Fang Yu, clutching his head, hurriedly shouted.

"Everyone, look at me!"

"I am Diao Deyi! Diao Deyi is a good person! Diao Deyi requests to lead the team!!"

"Diao Deyi can see where the demons are! The demons are crouching at the fruit stand more than seventy meters to my left, peeking at us!"

It seemed like he feared being immediately shot down by an arrow since his current health was [Diao Deyi: 1.5/7] - fragile and unable to withstand even the slightest misfortune.

That's right! Fang Yu didn't die!

Decapitated but not dead, all thanks to one thing, the Human-level skill [Digital Life].

One of its effects is... digitalized body.

Sounds ordinary.

But when Fang Yu's head was chopped off, and he felt his vision flipping upside down, and he landed and found himself still alive, still having his health bar, he realized how incredible this skill was!

Losing a head isn't fatal to me, it just causes blood loss!

Of course, Fang Yu also took the opportunity to play dead right then.

Initially, he thought to quietly slip away after Li Qianxuan and his team achieved victory. How could he have known that these people couldn't even defeat the white-dressed young man!

Oh, wrong! It should be called Hidden Light Demon now.

Literally changing skin and names, luckily the health bar remained the same.

Fang Yu looked towards the fruit stand ahead; the Hidden Light Demon was crouching there motionlessly, pretending to be playing hide-and-seek while actually, its health bar was more conspicuous than the fruit stand itself, impossible to ignore even if one tried, as if equipped with a flashing light, visible at all times.

After all, the demon's invisibility was of the body, not the health bar—the health bar exists independently from that lousy skill.

Therefore, the demon's whereabouts were completely betrayed by its health bar.

The problem was Fang Yu could only look on anxiously, watching as Li Qianxuan and others were forced into a corner and gradually defeated.

If the demon won and started to feast on the corpses, wouldn't he be finished?

Under no choice, Fang Yu had to step forward.

However, gaining the trust of Li Qianxuan and others was not easy, evident by the way the team looked at him as if watching a monster.

Just as he was thinking, Fang Yu suddenly tensed up.

Hey! Hey hey! Don't move! The teammate on the right, don't move! If you move your fingers and shoot the arrow, I would die right here for you to see!

As Fang Yu was nervous, Li Qianxuan suddenly lowered his hand, and the people received the order and slowly moved their bows' aim downward, facing the opposite direction.

"Diao Deyi, is it really you? No! What's important is not this, but whether what you said about being able to see the demon's position is true?"

"Of course!"

Li Qianxuan was silent, then suddenly as if he had made up his mind, he fiercely turned towards the headless corpse holding its head, which was Fang Yu.

"Point it out!"

Although Fang Yu's headless appearance was no less bizarre than that of the demon, at least he could communicate, and he was on the side helping humans.

The most crucial point was, Li Qianxuan had no choice but to take a gamble!

But soon, he realized he had gambled correctly.

Under his command, the teammates followed Fang Yu's direction and launched an attack.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh—

Dense arrows rained down in the direction Fang Yu was pointing, and they actually saw blood burst into the air.

"The demon is really there!!"

"Damn!"

"Diao Deyi can be trusted!!"

"Diao Deyi! Diao Deyi!! Amazing!!"
