

Heaven 101

Chapter 101

Yasenia didn't plan to hold back anymore. She directly used [Celestial coat], [Starry Sky], and [Lingering star step] at full strength. Then she stomped the ground and sped up towards Long Tian Xue, sinking the floor under her!

Bang!

Long Tian Xue played her flute, and rifts opened around her. 10 Skeletal wolves appeared one after another and charged toward Yasenia.

Yasenia measured their strength 'Similar to Low-level rank-three beasts.'

Long Tian Xue ended another melody when Yasenia was about to clash with the wolves, and the wolves became coated in a black-green aura.

Yasenia played it safe, and while running, she spun once, making a wide horizontal slash activating a full strength [Crescent Moon]. A 60m wide silver crescent shot forward toward Long Tian Xue and destroyed the six wolves in its path. Yasenia used the horizontal strike, and she completed a whole spin with her sword while advancing, activating [Moonless Night].

While the silver domain covered most of the arena, Yasenia continued towards Long Tian Xue ignoring the remaining four wolves at the side.

Long Tian Xue was surprised at the crescent coming her way. She changed the melody, and a skeletal wall appeared between Yasenia and her. Bang! 'Even when weakened, it made the wall tremble!?'

Yasenia pointed her sword upwards 45 degrees, "[Moon Charge]."

Like a silver meteor, she ascended above the skeletal wall. Long Tian Xue saw that she was in the air and smirked, she played another melody, and countless bone lances shot from the ground.

Yasenia didn't even flinch at this sight and pointed at Long Tian Xue "[Moon Charge], [Shooting Star]." A single star ballooned to one meter in diameter and shot toward Long Tian Xue at extreme speeds.

Long Tian Xue finished a fast melody, and a shield-bearing skeleton of similar strength to a level 6 cultivator appeared before her. Confident in her skeleton and spears, she started a long melody.

Yasenia descended straight toward the bone lances with an emotionless face, leaving a silver trail. She collided with the spears, and the [Moon Charge] and [Celestial Coat] broke through them as if they were made of cardboard.

The people observing were with mouths agape, 'Wasn't she level one!? She is breezing through the obstacles!'

The 1m wide star collided with the shield skeleton, BOOM! The skeleton exploded into bits! Long Tian Xue reacted fast and used her movement technique to avoid the debris and changed her melody to a fast one to strengthen the four wolves that returned to her side.

Yasenia landed with a loud explosion and used her strengthened legs to push forward, closing more distance between them.

The wolves put themselves in Yasenia's path. Yasenia didn't even use her sword as she tackled them with her body strength and [Celestial Coat].

BANG! BANG! BANG! BANG!

The four wolves were sent flying, unable to stop the dragoness!

Yasenia reached beside her extremely quickly and swung [Draconic Heart]. "[Crescent Moon]!"

Long Tian Xue blocked with her instrument... BANG! Only be blown away. Worse, the giant crescent was pushing her while she blocked with her flute.

The spectators' eyes bulged, 'Did she just send a half-step flying!?'

One nearby person couldn't help but ask, "How does the Long girl rate between half-steps?"

One knowledgeable senior spoke, "She has recently advanced, and she is quite weak since she has practically forced her way there with her family's resources. Moreover, her foundation is quite shaky. The dragon girl is practically the other way around; calling her genius is insulting her." Some spectators nodded, a little relieved.

Long Tian Xue broke the crescent and used the distance Yasenia gave her to continue her previous melody. She finished a complex yet short song, summoning nine sword-wielding skeletons. 'I just need a little bit of time! Stop harassing me!'

Yasenia used [Wanning moon], adding another layer of chills to her attacks. Yasenia sped up toward the nine skeletons. While advancing, she spun, using [Crescent Moon] with her sword and tail. The silver crescent impacted one of them and blew it to smithereens. Yasenia managed to shoot four crescent before closing up with them, making the odds five against one.

Yasenia had one approaching from the right, two from the left, and two frontally.

Yasenia changed her tail to the blunt form and lashed at the one coming from the right Bang! Its head exploded.

"[Shooting star]." The ballooned star shot in the middle of the ones on the left and exploded, consuming them in the white explosion.

The last two managed to close in and slash at her. Yasenia used the black part of her tail to block one and her sword to block the other.

Clang! Slash! Yasenia frowned, feeling pain in her tail. 'Their swords are sharper than I thought.'

She pushed them back with brute strength and slashed at one of them with her giant sword. Bang! It exploded, unable to take the sword swing strength

. Yasenia changed her tip to spear-like and pierced the other skeleton extremely fast in the head. Then, she switched to the sword form and slashed downwards, bisecting the skeleton.

The people watching the match were astounded. "She is incredible!"

"She is cutting down those skeletons like cabbage!"

One of them said worriedly, “Look at the Long girl!”

Yasenia turned towards Long Tian Xue and heard her finishing a melody and chanting. “Come to my aid! [Death March]!”

Fifty-one rifts appeared, and a large variety of skeletons came out of them.

Yasenia looked around fast, and her thoughts spun quickly, slowing down the surroundings. ‘There are twenty-sword skeletons, ten shield-skeletons, ten wolf-skeletons, five skeletons with a bow, and five that are especially eye-catching being four meters tall each; moreover, their swords are three-meter-long. The last one is a humanoid skeleton with skeletal wings and armor. It has the same strength as a half-step cultivator... I need to separate it from her.’

The people watching now were anxious. However, they saw Yasenia raise her sword with her two hands and shout, “[DAWN]!”

Yasenia did a vertical strike, and a giant 50m tall crescent shot extremely fast with strong chilling energy at the winged skeleton. The skeleton only had time to use its long sword to block.

BOOM!

The powerfully charged [Dawn] attack shot the winged skeleton back like a cannonball. It had its right side partially destroyed.

With this attack, Yasenia’s accumulated Moon energy changed into Sun Energy. Yasenia smirked, ‘With him out of the way; I can do this!’

She lifted her sword again, pointing at the sun in the sky!

Long Tian Xue made all of her summons run toward Yasenia, trying to interrupt another attack like the previous one. Then, she began playing a strengthening melody. However, Yasenia’s sword exploded in golden radiance, and her aura inflated.

BOOM!

Long Tian Xue’s eyes opened widely and instantly changed her command, ordering her units to protect her. The shield bearers put themselves before the army, just as Yasenia pointed up with her sword. After the golden radiance subsided, Long Tian Xue saw Yasenia pointing her sword at her and heard her voice echoing through the arena “[NOON]!”

The next thing she saw was gold. Everything turned golden in front of her.

BOOOOM!!

The sword-like energy beam crashed against the shield skeletons incinerating them.

Then, the numerous sword skeletons tried to stop the destruction beam, only to get obliterated by it.

The five giant skeletons stepped forwards and tried to protect Long Tian Xue! However, the golden-colored death beam destroyed the first one, the second one, and a third!

The fourth and the fifth used the death energy around, and a black aura exploded around them. They slashed at the weakened golden destruction wave, and

BOOOM!!!

They were sent flying backward, but they managed to stop the devastating attack!

The people looking had their mouths opened in shock.

“W-What was that!?”

“S-She destroyed the whole a-army....”

“KYAAA!!! SHE IS SO COOL!!”

Long Tian Xue looked at the landscape before her, completely shocked, and a black scorched ground greeted her. The only part with the grey-colored stone was under her feet and behind her!

She looked with fear at those still glowing golden slit eyes and the sword that was still pointing at her. Yaseia took one step and leaned forwards. “I haven’t finished yet! [STAR CHARGE]!”

The stars gathered around her from the beginning of the battle started spinning around her sword. Yaseia’s legs inflated, and she pushed forward.

BOOM!

The ground sank, and she became a white vortex of destruction, soaring toward her! Long Tian Xue managed to play a fast melody making the five archers, the damaged winged skeleton, and the two semi-destroyed giant skeletons appear in front of her.

The eight of them prepared themselves to protect their master. However, Yaseia stomped the ground mid-charge! “[SOLAR STAR CHARGE]!”

A golden glow appeared on her tip and fused with the white! Then, Yaseia zoomed forward extremely fast, enveloped in a golden and white aura!

When Long Tian Xue saw her charge changing colors, she wanted to surrender, but how could she speak faster than Yaseia’s charge?

Yaseia annihilated everything in front of her and arrived in front of Long Tian Xue almost instantly. The last thing Long Tian Xue saw was the merciless draconic eyes of Yaseia.

BOOOM!!!!

For the spectators, this happened fast.

Yaseia turned into a white-golden meteor, leaving a wake of destruction. Her light consumed everything in her path. She was so fast that after a second, Yaseia had collided against the barrier on the side of the arena with an extremely loud explosion!

After the aftereffects subsided, they saw a calm and collected Yaseia walking towards the stands. She wasn’t even breathing roughly. This made some competitors that classified her as weak, swallow in fear. ‘Thankfully, I didn’t provoke her!’

Yaseia, on the other side, was hurting everywhere! Her energy was low after using [Noon] and [Solar Star Charge]. Those two techniques consumed 50% of her energy! Considering every skill used, she only had a little more than 40% of energy left.

That wasn't the worst part. Yasenia's leg muscles were screaming right now! She still couldn't control her combined attributed charges well enough. Attacking in a straight line was the best she could do without making her legs half-useless.

When she reached the stands, a golden bullet jumped into her embrace. Yasenia caught her excited baby with a grunt and chuckled. Angel just giggled in her embrace.

She sat and put Angel on one leg, without caring about her pain, and the secretly excited Evelyn on her other leg. Evelyn didn't say anything and also hugged Yasenia. Andrea spoke, "That last attacks were impressive!"

Yasenia nodded and said, "However, I let her do what I didn't want. She managed to summon her army. Although I was accumulating energy for a while and managed to send the winged-skeleton flying, it was closer than you think."

Tatyana nodded, "You reacted fast and directly blew it away before Long Tian Xue empowered the winged skeleton. The radiance of your [Noon] attack also disrupted Long Tian Xue's melody because she thought it was an instant attack and not a charging one."

Tatyana said, "If Long Tian Xue reacted correctly, you would have only been able to destroy half her army with your [Noon] attack. Not to mention that the winged skeleton and the giant skeletons would have been able to stop your charge if Long Tian Xue properly strengthened them."

Yasenia nodded, "Although I would have been able to win no matter what. I would have to use more strength and maybe use [Midnight] to finish her off. Moreover, killing her would have been an arduous matter without the surprise factor."

The others were surprised because they thought that Yasenia had overwhelmed her opponent!

Chapter 102

Tatyana chuckled. "However, don't put yourself down too much. You fought extremely smartly and made hard and precise decisions correctly throughout most of the fight. Little treasure, that was a very well-fought battle."

Yasenia smiled widely, and her tail wagged at high speed. For Yasenia, receiving recognition from her mother was even better than any treasure out there! The others chuckled, seeing her cute reaction.

The battles continued. Yasenia fought against another half-step and having seen the previous match; the other side didn't choose deathmatch. Yasenia fought defensively this time and managed to deplete his energy 10 minutes later, attaining victory.

The battles passed, and Yasenia managed to get 30 points at the end of the day, something only 169 of the 20 000 people managed to do. The points needed to pass were 17. They all managed to get there except Evelyn, who was now at 15 points and had only one match left.

Evelyn's jade trembled, and all of them looked at it. "Arena 1, Suichiro Sonata."

They looked towards the arena and saw a man with a longsword walking towards it. Yasenia bit her lips, worried for her dear, "Eighth level..."

Evelyn looked at Yasenia's concerned face and smiled. She tiptoed and pulled Yasenia down to kiss her lips. "Don't worry, Yasenia, I will win, and I won't disappoint you."

Yasenia hugged her and said, “You won’t disappoint me no matter what, dear. I see the efforts you put into cultivation.”

Yasenia looked directly into her violet eyes and caressed her electric blue hair. “Go for it, dear. I’m cheering on you.”

Evelyn’s smile widened, and she nodded.

Evelyn walked towards the arena. When she reached the arena, she directly chose deathmatch. Sonata raised an eyebrow and said, “I will let you think about it a little more. Are you sure about choosing deathmatch? I don’t want to brag, but I’m not a normal level eight cultivator....”

Evelyn didn’t speak and took out her spear.

Sonata shook his head and also chose deathmatch. “Don’t blame me for being ruthless, little girl.”

He covered himself in a brown and grey aura. Evelyn also used her energy coat; however, it was different from normal coats!

It was the evolved coat from [Thunder light coat], [Thunder light armor]! An armor of blue lightning wrapped around her chest, legs, and wrists, giving her an imposing aura. She managed to advance her coat today morning. Before this battle, Evelyn had used her normal coat because the energy consumption of the advanced version was much higher. Since this was her last battle, she didn’t have to hold back!

Yasenia on the stands smiled widely and laughed, “Impressive! She managed to transform her coat first of us! Hahaha, my dear is a genius!”

Even Tatyana raised an eyebrow in surprise. The seniors in the stands also were surprised. “So young, and she managed to evolve her elemental coat!?”

“Where is that little girl from?”

“I think she is also from the academy. So many monstrous geniuses have appeared in the academy this year....”

Knowledge about the transformed elemental coat wasn’t very spread among low-level cultivators because evolving an elemental coat will normally be done during the Unification realm or the Dantian transformation realm. Madeleine also mentioned it once in class on passing and nothing more. Of course, she has instructed Yasenia and Cecile personally about them. Andrea was nearest to evolving the coat of their group, just a single step away.

Yasenia didn’t think her advice at that time would lead to this, but she was beyond elated!

Sonata looked confused, “A materialized elemental coat? It doesn’t matter; let’s begin. [Black Tortoise carapace]” His brown and grey coat gained a black undertone.

Evelyn charged toward him using [Flash lightning steps]. When Evelyn saw he was about to move, she completely focused and activated [Thunder light charge].

Rumble! Blue electric arcs surrounded her figure as her speed soared, flashing toward him spear first.

The cultivator was surprised by her speed. However, he reacted fast. He slashed up with his sword, creating a metal and earth wall from the ground. Evelyn's spear collided with the wall with a loud explosive sound, BANG!

Evelyn managed to destroy the wall, but its hardness made her charge come to a stop and rebounded her. 'His defense is too high...'

Evelyn advanced again using [Flash lightning steps]. This time, her movements became erratic like an electric spark. Since Sonata had problems following her actions with his eyes, he waited for her to approach.

With quick footwork, Evelyn managed to position herself on his side. Her body exploded with blue lightning, activating [Electric Overcharge]. Her reflexes, agility, and strength multiplied. Then she chanted, "[Lightning Barrage]."

By the time Sonata turned, Evelyn was already thrusting forwards.

He blocked using his defensive coat, and... BANG! His feet slid slightly, but he didn't receive damage. He turned toward her and was about to counterattack, but her spear was already reaching for him again! He didn't have any other option but to block,

BANG!

Then another.

BANG!

Another.

BANG!

BANG!

BANG, BANG, BABABABANG!

Each spear thrust was going faster and faster, and the electricity around Evelyn coursed in wider arcs and around her whole body. Sonata knew that he couldn't continue like this, so he used his footwork to move around and create muddy terrain.

Sword and spear collided again and again. Evelyn didn't lose momentum as she continued her barrage, sticking to his side like a shadow. Sonata was becoming frustrated because Evelyn's attacks were too quick.

A white light began leaking from the side of her eyes, and her eyes suddenly glowed "[Light Overcharge: Eyes]."

Everything slowed down for Evelyn, and the world lost color except for Sonata's attacks and himself.

Sonata knew that he had to interrupt this barrage, or he would have a problem. After blocking the next spear thrust, he used his body and lunged towards Evelyn. "[Black Tortoise charge]."

Evelyn saw how the grey and brown energy covered his body instead of his sword, so she anticipated a body attack. Then, as she expected, she saw him lunging towards her. With graceful steps, she circled him and swung her spear horizontally with the spin. "[Thunder swipe]."

Her spear flashed like a bolt of blue lightning, and her horizontal strike landed on his unguarded side.

BANG!

Sonata was sent flying with his body bent. 'That hurt!'

'Even with all this attacks, I haven't hurt him in the slightest!' Evelyn decided to do an all for nothing.

"[Thunder Light Overcharge]."

The blue lighting around her was consumed by white lightning, and thick electric arcs surrounded Evelyn.

Evelyn felt her meridians tensing and about to burst, but she didn't stop.

"[Luminous spear]."

While Sonata was flying, she created a light and lightning spear and took it with her right hand. She took one step forwards with her left foot. Her body rotated from her ankle to her waist. Carrying that momentum, her torso followed, using all her upper body muscles to carry that force and multiply it. Then, her shoulder transferred all that momentum to her arm. "[Luminous Spear Throw]."

RRUMBLE!!

With a thundering sound, the white spear disappeared from her hand and instantly impacted his chest.

BOOOM!!

Sonata didn't even know what happened when he felt like something rammed his chest, knocking out the air from his lungs and accelerating his flying speed.

BANG!

Sonata smashed heavily against the protective wall, breaking some bones, and gaining a serious concussion that made him dizzy for a moment.

A moment that Evelyn didn't miss.

While she was still overcharged, she pointed her spear towards him, and trying to ignore the pain in her body; she shouted, "[Luminous charge]!"

The ground cracked below her, and she shot forward like a bolt of white lightning.

Sonata spat blood and shouted, "[BLACK TORTOISE RESISTANCE]!" His unresponsive body recovered instantly, and he focused his defensive aura, transforming it into a black shield before him.

BOOM!

Evelyn collided with the shield, and the energy shield bent inwards. Evelyn kept pushing as electric currents consumed the surroundings.

Evelyn's eyes started bleeding as she screamed,

“BREAAAANK!!!!”

CRASH!

BOOM!

Evelyn destroyed the shield and pierced him in his chest, impaling him in the protective barrier!

Sonata felt the white bolts of lightning coursing through his body and tried to resist. However, Evelyn pumped her energy to her limits, making the white lightning harm not only Sonata, but also herself!

Sonata couldn't keep them at bay anymore and shouted, “I surrender!”

A senior appeared instantly and dispersed the lightning bolts and their energies. Evelyn stopped her attack and spat blood heavily, then her skin split open in some parts, unable to contain the energy inside of her.

The medical staff instantly appeared and began healing both. Then, the announcer shouted, “Winner... EVELYN!”

The spectating crowd exploded in cheers! “What a battle! That girl gave 200% of effort!”

“Truly impressive. She took the initiative from the beginning and didn't lose it until the end!”

“However, she was too reckless. I don't know if she will have permanent damage after this.”

“Youngsters nowadays are more and more uncaring.”

Yasenia jumped from the stands and followed the medical staff. When she reached their side, she saw that white lightning was still coursing around her body and asked, “Seniors, do you want me to absorb the extra energy? I can use my tail to absorb it.”

The medical staff looked at her and nodded. “It will help the recovery a lot.”

Yasenia asked, “Where is best to coil my tail? Please guide me.”

Yasenia coiled her tail as they said. When the tail came into contact with the bolts, Yasenia hissed in pain! ‘Strong! Her lighting is hurting me even in this passive state....’

After working with the medical staff for half an hour, Evelyn was already out of danger. Yasenia looked at the burn marks on her tail with a smile. ‘They aren't being left behind. It seems that my dual cultivation technique is working properly. I must ask about it more deeply to mom when I have time.’

She felt a weight falling off her shoulders.

Although she didn't mind becoming a lot stronger than her lovers, their growth was as important to her. Yaseia didn't want to leave her lovers behind while she advanced because that way, not only would she be able to explore the world with them and without worries, but they would become her strongest allies wherever she went.

Angel and the rest arrived after hearing about the next and final stage of the tournament. They saw Yaseia sitting beside an asleep Evelyn and caressing her head. Cecile asked, "How is Evelyn? We've heard about the next stage of the tournament. There are some rules you might want to hear."

Yaseia nodded and asked, "When is it starting? I want to let Evelyn wake up before hearing about it. Evelyn is quite insightful and might give some advice."

Cecile answered, "They have to modify the formation; hence, it will take some time. It is the day after tomorrow."

Yaseia nodded and asked, "Is that why mom isn't here?"

The others nodded. Andrea said, "This infirmary is safe, so she told us to wait here until she finishes helping there."

Yaseia nodded and reassured them that Evelyn was okay. Angel went to her side, and Yaseia placed her on her lap. Then, they began speaking about Evelyn's fight.

Meanwhile, a group of cultivators from the junior generations were having a conversation. The first one was the silver-haired man that spoke with Yaseia before, "We didn't expect her to be that strong. After her battle, the academy in the eyes of the public has become even mightier. Worse, we lost Long Tian Xue."

A woman with purple hair and seductive clothing exclaimed, "Our Poppy sect must get her! Her Yin and Yang energy are extremely pure. Ahn~ Just thinking about sucking her is making me wet~."

One blonde man with tanned skin and a lean build nodded, "With her quality of Yin energy, her insides must also be top-notch. Raping her should be a delight. "

The silver-haired man shook his head, "Tang Luo Xuan, I'm not sure if to be impressed that you can think about that of the murderer of your sister or be impressed because you don't seem angry at all."

Tang Luo Xuan sneered and said, "My sister was a waste of resources anyway. Now that she is dead, her things will become mine. It is a shame that her slaves were transported to the slave houses after her death. I wanted to break some of them."

The purple-haired woman, Natalia, asked, "Anyway, Gerd, why did you gather us here? Aren't you from the academy? Why are you trying to kill people from it?"

Gerd said, "My sister wanted to advance cultivation faster to catch up to that lizard woman. It seemed that she has become stupid after meeting with that seductress."

He shook his head and said, "Therefore, I contacted a recruiter of the demonic sect. He saw that both of us had good potential and told me to end our contract with the academy. The elder will send us to a branch of the Demonic Sect. With our talent, becoming part of the main sect of the Demon sect will be easy. That way, I can also take Lucia far away from her."

Another nearby man with a tall and bulky frame asked, “Does your sister know that you are applying to enter the Demonic sect? It is not that I want to brag, but our Demonic sect is quite brutal with newcomers, especially naïve and beautiful girls like your sister.”

Gerd shook his head and said, “Not a problem, I will protect her, and nothing will happen.”

He then said, “Continuing our previous conversation. We don’t have any more chances to aim at Yasenía or our other targets in this tournament. It seems that we will have to wait until the secret realm.”

A short boy with an innocent face asked, “Isn’t that big sister advancing fast? By the time she enters the secret realm, she will be a lot stronger. Can’t I just play with that big sister? I bet that if I “call” her friends, she will come and play for sure!”

Gerd didn’t like speaking with this boy. The boy was from the Thousand Poison sect and was a genius in poison making. However, he was quite eccentric and very ruthless. Just staying near was enough for Gerd to be uncomfortable, “Elias, Do you think that someone outside the tournament doesn’t protect her? Trying to kidnap her friends to lure her is plain stupid.”

Elias laughed happily, “My Master gave me some useful things! He said that I can put to sleep a level six and below Transcendent cultivators with it!”

Gerd and the others gasped. Jaxon, the muscular man, spoke impressed, “That thing must be very precious. Is it worth it to use it to kill or catch them?”

Elias’s smile became face splitting, “I will also be able to catch a transcendent cultivator~ I bet master will be happy with the new poison tester!”

A woman with an Icy countenance, black hair, and brown eyes said, “It seems that your brain has been flushed down the drain. Haven’t you seen that the senior beside them is the academy’s Headmistress? Do you think your master’s poison would even tickle her? I bet she can drink all your poisons for breakfast and write a taste review later.”

Elias’s face became expressionless, and he looked at that woman, “Everyone knows that the headmistress is weaker than the elders and some teachers. Don’t you think that she would have ruled these five continents already if she were as strong as rumors say?”

Elias sneered and said, “Those rumors are bullshit created and over-exaggerated by the academy to scare people and increase their fame and prestige. My master has been trying to speak to our Sect Leader and put some sense into him, but because thrash like you, Emery, exists, the Academy has the power it has!”

Emery looked at him with pity and shook her head, “Delusional children are truly troublesome. Do you think the ones behind us getting together would have tried to play these low tricks if Headmistress Katherine wasn’t strong? After discovering that Yasenía was her child, they began moving and aiming at her. That is why they contacted us.”

Elias became angered, and when they were about to explode into an argument, Gerd said, “Stop, I also do not think that the headmistress is that strong, but rumors can’t be fabricated out of thin air. Some of those rumors might be accurate. Elias, I will let it at your discretion, but I advise you not to use it now.”

Emery didn't want to get a companion killed so soon and said, "Our organization has also tried to find a clue about the rumors being false. We found nothing. Do you think our silent blades information network is that unreliable?"

Elias sneered and left, "A bunch of cowards, brainwashed by propaganda, and misled by bribed information dealers."

While leaving, his face returned to the innocent smiling face, and he spoke to himself, "Mom likes this face the most; I bet I can become friends with them and trap them later~ I will kill everyone from the academy! Master will also praise me lots if I make his poisons work on the headmistress~ hahahAAAAHA!"

In the infirmary, Evelyn groggily opened her eyes. She looked at the ceiling and tried to remember why she was here, 'Ah... I won... I won!'

She looked at the side and saw Yasenia looking at her gently. She said excitedly, sitting up, "Yasenia, I won! Ouch, ouch, ouch."

Yasenia hastily put her down on the bed again and praised her mischievous girl, "How can my dear not win? She even used a partially evolved coat! My dear is a genius!"

Evelyn smiled gleefully, "I came up with it when we sparred with Andrea. Her usage of the [Chromosphere] skill is very different from your [Celestial coat]."

Evelyn began rambling, trying to tell everything she had learned to the dragoness. "If you use the coat as a skin layer, Andrea uses it more like a garment. I thought of solidifying my electric currents and making them armor-like, gaining a lot of defense and strength I lacked before. Before this, even if I was fast, I couldn't pierce some armors. Now, I don't have that problem! The armor makes it easier to use my [Radiant Lightning], the white lightning, and I can now make stronger attacks! However, it is very hard to control... I still need a lot more practice and cover more of my body with the armor..."

Yasenia listened to the excited Evelyn and marveled at her insights and ability to apply it. 'Her energy control is outrageous. Well, Evelyn can absorb heavenly lightning, which is the strongest type of lightning.'

Yasenia thought to herself, 'Maybe her understanding of the lightning element has improved that much this way?'

Yasenia lowered her head, and kissed her forehead, then she said, "Dear, let's hear tomorrow's tournament rules; I also have yet to listen to them."

Evelyn was surprised, "What happened to you to be unable to listen?"

Yasenia lay on the bed beside her and hugged Evelyn from the side, pressing her soft body on Evelyn's while avoiding her wounds. Andrea answered, "What can happen, Evelyn? Yasenia directly jumped off the stands when your match ended and has been helping the medical staff since the beginning."

Andrea smirked and said, "How do you think you had your clothes changed and body washed?"

Evelyn looked down and saw that, as Andrea said, she had normal clothes instead of her previous cultivating robes, and the parts of her body that weren't damaged weren't smeared with blood. Yaseniasnorted and said, "My dear was so badly hurt; Naturally, I had to help heal her! Now, stop stating the obvious and tell the rules. I want my dear to rest all she can after that."

Evelyn looked at Yasenias, and, ignoring her wounds, she turned and buried her face in her breasts. Yasenias looked at the buried Evelyn and caressed her head. "Why do you move so much, dear? doesn't it hurt? Stay still so that your injuries get better."

Evelyn's voice sounded muffled as she said, "L-let me be; I want to hug you. M-moreover, your scent relaxes me..."

Yasenias smiled tenderly and hugged her closer, making her scent a little stronger. "Since my dear wants to, who am I to say no, right?" Evelyn nodded and tightened her hug.

Angel spoke in her silvery voice, "The thing that you should watch out for is that everything is allowed. People can use poisons, stronger treasures, pills, and similar. Thankfully, the matches won't be to the death. There will be a senior protecting the disciples."

Yasenias nodded, so Cecile continued. "The matches will be against people of similar strengths. Although it seems impossible to order us like that, it seems that the formation has a recording function only accessible by the sect leaders. They will use this to make a "fair" tournament, which is very rare. It seems that instead of sending the strongest from this tournament, they want to send the disciples with the most potential."

Yasenias raised her eyebrow and asked sneering, "Did I understand it wrongly, or am I going to face off against the others who managed to get a perfect score? Isn't this going to reduce a lot of the strongest competitors?"

Evelyn spoke with her head still buried, which tickled Yasenias, "With the previously distributed entrance slots, the sects already have the strongest disciples entering anyway. They want to unqualify the strongest competitors under the banner of fairness. That is also why we are allowed to use anything. Even if someone is strong, a rich kid can bury them with their wealth. Truly insidious, we will have to prepare for a harsh tournament."

Yasenias looked down and smiled, "En, I was thinking the same. This seems a tactic used by the righteous side, doesn't it?" Evelyn nodded.

Angel and Cecile, who don't give things so much thought, were impressed by Evelyn. Angel chuckled and said, "No wonder Yasenias wanted to wait for you to wake up! Evelyn, you are impressive!"

Evelyn hmped, but one could see her ears getting redder. Then she said, "Since you think I'm impressive... You have to keep your promise and let me fondle your tits!... Huh?" She looked up at Yasenias strangely.

Yasenias flickered her forehead softly with her finger and smiled, "My dear is injured. Do you think I would have the heart to flicker you like always?"

Evelyn, this time blushed for real and play with her hands. She mumbled, "These gentle attacks from time to time are unfair!"

Yasenia chuckled and hugged her near again, giving tap kisses on her head. She deepened her voice and said, “Am I only gentle from time to time? It seems that I have to spoil you more from now on~.”

Evelyn smiled happily, ‘More pampering! Lucky~.’

Tatyana arrived shortly after, and they left the infirmary. While they were walking down the road, a little boy approached them. He looked quite innocent and had a nice smile. He looked at everyone and looked at Tatyana a little longer, then he said with a smile, “Hello, big sisters-”

When he was mid-sentence, he saw Yasenia’s tail whipping towards his head, covered in a golden-silvery coat. He evaded with a hairbreadth of margin. However, while he was dodging, Yasenia shot a star toward his head extremely fast.

BOOM!

It exploded in front of his face and shot him backward like a bullet with a charred face.

BANG!

He hit a house at the side, and the wall cracked because of the impact strength. Cough he spat a mouthful of blood and looked towards Yasenia only to see the tip of a giant sword in front of his face. Then, he heard a voice carrying a terrifying growl, “Leave your spatial ring and scarm. Either that or you die. Choose!”

Before this, when Yasenia saw him approach, she instinctually didn’t like him. Moreover, he smelled like herbs that made her instincts tingle with alarm bells. Regardless, she didn’t act because this wasn’t a valid reason to move.

But when he looked at Tatyana, some killing intent leaked, so faint that only she and Tatyana caught on it. However, for Yasenia, aiming killing intent toward her mother was the same as touching her reverse scale. Something you shouldn’t do.

Yasenia’s golden-red eyes saw that he was about to speak and thrust her sword forward, touching his throat with [Draconic Heart]. Some stars were already flying around her, “One last chance, Take. Off. Your. Spatial ring.”

He looked up with hatred but did as Yasenia told him.

When he took it off, he threw it toward Yasenia! Then, he used the distraction to take out the poison...

Well, that was the plan if he didn’t have a giant sword currently piercing his throat and spine, immobilizing his lower body.

Yasenia wasn’t even looking at the spatial ring. She was already stabbing her sword the moment he made a suspicious move!

Chapter 104

Gerd and the rest arrived at that moment. They saw Yasenia’s sword piercing Elias’s throat, and Emery said with a gloomy voice, “Yasenia, he is a very important person. Don’t be stupid and do something you might regret later. The seniors can still heal him.”

Yasenia growled and said, “Sometimes, stupidity gets the best of us, [Sunrise].”

Their eyes widened as her tail lashed in its blunt form under his chin!

BANG!

Because the sword was still piercing his neck, the tail lash decapitated him, sending his head flying into the air!

Looking at the blood shower, everyone on the scene became stupefied. Although Yasenia's sword had pierced his throat and damaged the spine, with the right treatment, the wound wasn't lethal for a cultivator of Elias level.

Even Elias didn't think that she would truly kill him. He wanted to use Yasenia's aggression on him to his advantage later! That is why he didn't use his poisons after being stabbed.

What they didn't know was that the dragoness won't let someone that could harm her family alive if she had the chance to kill them. Yasenia doesn't bet on the safety of her dears!

Yasenia took back her sword and walked towards the spatial ring under the stupefied eyes of the people around.

Knowing what was inside that ring, Emery reacted fast. She used her movement technique and shot forwards to grab it. Yasenia slashed toward her without holding anything back and using [Crescent Moon]. Emery continued forward as if she didn't see the silver crescent.

Yasenia's crescent attack passed through her without harming her as if she were black smoke instead of flesh.

Yasenia realized something was wrong the moment Emery ignored the energy wave. Therefore, she also sprinted toward the ring and used her long tail to reach toward it first.

Emery took a dagger and slashed directly at Yasenia's tail. Yasenia didn't want to bet on the durability of her tail, so instead of clashing with her attack, she pulled back her tail as fast as she could, carrying the ring with the tip of it.

Emery threw a small knife with astounding precision hitting the ring on the tip of the tail, sending it in the air. Yasenia used [Shooting Star], letting the one-meter star blow before it hit Emery.

BOOM!

Emery was dispersed in the wind, stopping her from moving toward the flying ring. Yasenia didn't lose the chance and jumped, using her long tail again.

Yasenia managed to catch it, but Emery used a rope and threw it towards her tail with her free hand. Before her tail got tangled, Yasenia hastily threw the ring towards Angel and the rest.

All of this happened extremely fast!

By the time the ring was flying towards Angel and the group, Gerd's group had already reacted, closing distance on the ring.

Tatyana saw everything from the side with an amused smile. She also ensured that the seniors around didn't intervene and that Yasenia's attacks didn't harm any bystanders.

Gerd and Jaxon sprinted towards Cecile's group extremely fast. At the end of the day, they were all at the half-step. However, they saw that Cecile was already grabbing the ring when they started running! 'How did she react faster than us!?'

Cecile took the ring, and without looking at Emery, who was approaching from behind, she said, "Trying to compete in coordination with Yasenia and me? Delusional fools, you are 1000 years too early!"

In the middle of her speech, when Emery tried to stab her in the back, Yasenia appeared with a full-body [Celestial Coat] Before Cecile and stabbed the sword on the ground, "[Full Moon]!"

A silver dome expanded from her body, and Emery, Gerd, and Jaxon were repelled after crashing into the growing silvery dome.

Yasenias looked at them and said, "Close, but now it is mine. Let's see why you guys were so desperate to retrieve it, shall we?"

Jaxon recovered the fastest and lifted a two-handed black war hammer, striking against the dome.

BANG!

Yasenias felt like a giant punched her chest and hastily looked towards the area where Jaxon hit. The dome was bending inward and filled with cracks! Yasenia said after coughing once. "To think that you damage my weakened [Full Moon] so much. It seems that you are not completely useless. [Shooting star]."

A star inflated to the one-meter size and shot towards the second attack that Jaxon was doing.

BOOM!

The hammer slowed down after the explosion and hit the barrier with much weaker strength.

BANG!

Meanwhile, Cecile began taking out the most important things from the ring and placing them inside Yasenias's. Moreover, Angel had already set up her formation and chanted, "[Laser prison formation]."

The formation extended right beneath the [Full Moon] dome and made a double layer defense.

Yasenias continued using [Shooting star] while she searched inside the ring with Cecile's help. She didn't care what she was taking and continued pouring his possessions inside her ring. By the time she was halfway done. They managed to break the weakened [Full Moon].

Angel began receiving their attacks with a frown and said. "Yasenias, I can only last for five more seconds. Stopping three half-step cultivators is too much."

Yasenias answered without stopping her plundering, "Baby, that is impressive! You are still at the third level, and you can stop three half-step cultivators by yourself~ Tonight, there will be lots of rewards for you~."

Angel blushed and smiled happily. If she had a tail, it would be wagging at impressive speeds!

"Aand done!"

CRASH!

By the time Yasenya stopped speaking, the shield had broken! However, one thing that Tatyana didn't forget to give Yasenya was a very high-level spatial ring. It was Tatyana's previous spatial ring, which she changed with one that she found in the ancient tomb and was better than hers.

After advancing to the Mental nourishing realm, the space inside was divided into five sections.

Better yet, the ring had slight spiritual consciousness and knew which type of treasure was being stored inside of it. It was quite easy to find things after being stored because of the fifth section of the ring.

The first four were called, the alchemy section, the Blacksmith section, the Cultivation section, the treasure section, and finally, the spiritual section.

The alchemy section was the first section. It had a place to grow spiritual plants, spiritual trees, or low-level lifeforms that didn't have much energy inside of them.

There were ecosystems necessary to grow all types of high-level plants and accelerate their growth. The egg of the auction house was here.

There also was a place to keep Alchemy tools, a place to store the pills, and a place to store poisons and more dangerous alchemic substances.

The blacksmith section had a place to keep blacksmithing minerals, beasts' body parts, blacksmithing tools, and dangerous blacksmithing substances.

Moreover, the dead beasts you placed inside the ring were dismantled by the ring over time and then classified depending on the rank of the beasts.

The cultivation section had everything related to cultivation, from weapons to cultivation skills; everything was sorted out by rarity.

The Treasure section, or treasury, had all the things that weren't classified above. Books, ornamental weapons, coins, one-time use formations, formation materials, normal clothes, furniture...

Finally, the most important section was where the spiritual consciousness of the ring resided, the fifth section.

Similar to the armory of the Academy, Yasenya could ask for anything, and the ring would show her where the thing was, or if she wanted it directly out, she only had to think about it, and the ring would deliver it.

Thanks to this ring, when Yasenya was putting things inside, the poisons and dangerous materials were separated and left for Yasenya to inspect later. Moreover, there were some seeds of poisonous spiritual plants that she would be able to plant later and grow.

The variety of poisons can also become handy in the future. There were also almost 200 000 crystal coins and some high-level weapons and armors. The cultivation techniques were related to Wood and life element. Elias' elements.

The most interesting for Yasenias was a letter that the ring classified as a high-level treasure. In short, she got quite the haul.

Gerd and the rest took some steps and looked at Yasenias with hatred. Not because she killed Elias, but because she plundered his treasures. Being almost a core disciple of the Thousand Poison Valley, his wealth was large.

Tatyana looked around, and her eyes suddenly glimmered with white lights for a second, 'Something like that will happen? Things are going to get more and more interesting, fufufu~.'

Her fate energy had just delivered a vision to her!

Tatyana approached, seeing that they had finished this fight, and she said. "Well, bad luck, guys. It seems that Yasenias wins this one. Retreat, we will end it here."

Jaxon said, "We can still kill her and plunder back his treasures."

Tatyana chuckled and flickered her finger.

BANG!

Jaxon disappeared from the spot and slammed against a nearby house, destroying it completely. Tatyana said, smiling, "Child, you better control that mouth of yours. Even if I can't kill you, I can still teach you a lesson."

Yasenias went beside Tatyana, ignoring everything around, and hugged her from behind. Tatyana chuckled and started scratching Yasenias under her chin a little strongly.

Yasenias couldn't help but growl comfortably under her mother's caresses, half squinting her eyes. 'Ohh~ Mommy knows where to scratch best~.'

Yasenias completely ignored her; her mother was petting her. Do you think she had brain functions for more than feeling her caresses?

Yasenias took out a letter while being scratched and asked while growling, "Mom~ What is this? Grrrr~. A little stronger ohh~" Grrrrrr~.

Angel and the rest laughed at her cute actions. Gerd's face became terrified when Yasenias took out the letter! He screamed, "Headmistress Katherine, please be mindful and do not open it. Opening that letter will create chaos everywhere!"

Tatyana raised her eyebrow and thought, 'So... What future might happen more probably if I open this letter? The less chaotic one, or the more chaotic one....'

Tatyana used her fate energy and looked at the letter. Her smile widened, 'So the more chaotic one occurs If I open it!'

Tatyana looked at Yasenias, who had half-closed eyes, and asked her, "Little treasure, do you prefer a chaotic future or a more relaxed one?"

Yasenias asked back, "Will you be in danger in the chaotic future?"

Tatyana paused and looked at Yassenia's golden slit eyes, 'The first thing that came to her mind is my safety?'

Tatyana laughed. It was an extremely genuine laugh full of happiness. Many people became mesmerized by her now relaxed, otherworldly facial features. Angel, Evelyn, and many more spectators directly blushed while looking at her, 'Oh my heavens, her smiling face is gorgeous!'

Tatyana took out a sofa and sat, putting Yassenia's head on her lap. Tatyana looked down at her daughter and said with a tender tone, "Little treasure, I love you."

'How many years have passed since someone had asked about my safety sincerely? I don't even remember....'

Yassenia's tail wagged, feeling her mother's happiness, and she waited for her answer while being petted by Tatyana, "To be honest, I don't know. I can't see a lot into the future; they are like snippets that I learned to put together after many millennia... What do you say, little treasure? Do I open it or not?"

Chapter 105

Besides Yassenia's girls, the rest were completely stunned at their relaxed position. Jaxon, who just got out of the rubble, would have charged forward if the person sitting on the sofa wasn't rumored to be one of the strongest of all five continents.

Yassenia thought for a while and said, "Let's go for the more chaotic one."

Tatyana raised her eyebrow and asked, "Why have you chosen that one?"

Yassenia smirked and said, "Because it would be more entertaining for mom, right? If there isn't anything bad surely happening, then I have absolute confidence that mom will pass any challenges thrown at her!"

Tatyana thought, 'Haaa... How much of my heart do you want little treasure? I will get jealous of the other girls in the future if you continue like this!'

She cradled Yassenia so that both could see the letter; Yassenia couldn't help but remember her childhood days when Tatyana read her books being nestled like this... 'Mommy's embrace is the best~ So comfy!'

Yassenia didn't forget to call Angel and the rest. The six of them approached and looked at the letter.

Someone at the side asked, "Are Yassenia and Headmistress Katherine somehow related? They seem like mother and daughter. Even their facial features are somewhat similar."

Another answered, "I heard that Yassenia is a child of countess Tatyana from the moon Empire. Maybe headmistress Katherine is very close friends with countess Tatyana? Headmistress Katherine must have known Yassenia since she was a child..."

One person that was at the auction joined the conversation, "That is possible. The dragon girl didn't know about Headmistress Katherine being the headmistress. They were completely shocked when they heard it some days ago, hahaha. It was an interesting scene."

They started discussing their relationship when suddenly the letter began emitting a glow! Some people stepped back, thinking that it would explode or something.

When Tatyana cracked the formations, she opened the letter, and energy started condensing on it; as people feared, it was truly going to explode!

Even when some people retreated, Yaseia didn't move a single millimeter. Angel even had the leisure to say, "Waaa, it glows so much, so pretty~."

That was the level of confidence they had in Tatyana.

Tatyana moved her hand, and it looked like it had disappeared from Yaseia's sight. The hand moved so fast and did so many formation symbols that they couldn't even grasp its movements.

Glowing green and black, runes and characters appeared in the air. Tatyana combined them in geometrical shapes, forming an extremely complex three-dimensional structure. Yaseia's eyes glittered, looking at Tatyana's completely calm face while doing all of this.

Tatyana looked at her and kissed her forehead without stopping her hand movements. "My little treasure looks so cute when she looks at me adoringly; I want to eat you up!"

Yaseia chuckled and nestled closer to Tatyana, looking at her work on the about to explode letter. Yaseia's tail wagged, hitting the sofa she was lying on as she thought, 'So pretty~ What a shame I have problems using my energy in formations... I would have loved learning from mom~.'

Angel at the side was completely awed, 'So this is how a high-ranked formation master works... Wow... I can't understand a thing...'

They saw how parts of the geometrical shape broke and dove into the letter, lowering its glow. Little by little, Tatyana assimilated her formations inside the letter. Fifteen minutes later, she managed to stabilize the letter, saving most of the information inside. "Impressive, they managed to protect some information! Let's see what I managed to recover."

All of them looked at the contents. However, Yaseia and the rest didn't understand the language written in it. Cecile's eyes suddenly opened widely. "Tatyana, isn't this Abyssal tongue? I found some samples of it in some books in the library, and these are very similar!"

Tatyana finished reading the letter and frowned a little. Then her expression returned to normal, saying, "Well, the future will be chaotic indeed... I think it is time for me to drop the Countess position and return all of my forces to the Academy... This will get interesting~."

Yaseia pulled her robe twice. Tatyana looked at her and saw Yaseia begging expression, "Can you tell me please~."

Tatyana thought about making her beg for something else but held the impulse. "The letter speaks about~ A big secret!"

Yaseia nodded and waited for her to continue. But Tatyana didn't open her mouth anymore!

Yaseia almost coughed blood! Cliffhanged by her dearest mother, how is this possible!? The betrayal, the pain!!!

Yaseia said with teary eyes, "Mom~ I will grow heart demons if I don't know what is written. Can you tell me, pleasee~?"

After freezing for a second, Tatyana took a deep breath and said, “Well, the show is over. Everyone can go to do your own business!” Then, she took out a flying boat and moved Angel and the rest inside.

Tatyana sped toward the inn, and they reached in less than five seconds. After arriving, Tatyana said, “We will come out in 30 minutes, wait for us outside.”

Then they saw Tatyana dragging Yasenia towards one room and closing it. Evelyn asked, confused, “What did Yasenia do that triggered Tatyana?”

Andrea said, “Didn’t you see her begging expression? I had heat rush to my privates after seeing it...”

Evelyn looked down and saw a slight bulge on her crotch. She couldn’t help but ask curiously, “Say, Andrea. Is it hard to control it when it grows?”

Andrea shook her head, took a deep breath, and the erection disappeared. Then she sat on the sofa and said. “Although I can control it easily, I normally let my body react. I don’t want to have to... Control my arousal reaction. However, I’ve heard that mortal men sometimes have it hard to control it.”

Angel approached Andrea and sat on her lap. Andrea hugged the little girl from behind with a smile, “Do you like my lap, little Angel?”

Angel hummed and said, “Yasenia’s better! You are very hard, Andrea.”

Andrea laughed aloud. “Saying things like that, you will make others misunderstand!”

Angel tilted her head up, looking at Andrea without understanding. Andrea pecked her cheek and said, “Don’t mind it.”

Angel nodded with a smile. Cecile took out some books she had in the spatial ring and said, “Look, these are some books with information about The Abyss.”

They seated closely and started putting together the information they had about the Abyss.

Meanwhile, after being dragged inside, Yesenia knew what was coming. The previous escapade in the auction made it clear that she was in for a ride! Thinking about it had her loins already wetting and her cheeks blushing.

Tatyana threw Yesenia on the bed, and Yesenia stored her clothes in her ring while she was midair. Tatyana did the same and walked towards Yasenia. Tatyana saw Yasenia going on all fours and laying her face on the bed. Then her hands went to her butt cheeks and spread them, showing her vulnerable spots in a completely submissive position.

Tatyana put a 35 cm monster dildo. Then, she positioned the penis head, which was bigger than her whole vagina, on her entrance. Tatyana smiled sadistically and ordered, “Beg!”

Yasenia’s tail wagged in anticipation after she felt the giant head pushing her softness down there. Thinking of the monster Tatyana was going to mess her insides with; her voice trembled as she begged, “M-Mommy, please breed your daughter!”

Tatyana felt excitement rush up to her spine and pushed her waist. Yasenia felt her entrance spread open by something that would break a human woman, making her sexual nerves light up, and she moaned throatily, “OOOOH!”

Tatyana marveled again at the elasticity of her daughter’s entrance. Her warm insides and the spasming walls that massaged her giant member felt heavenly. After burying all she could of the massive member, Tatyana didn’t hold back and began thrusting fast, hard, and deep.

The pounding began, and Tatyana buried more of the 35 cm with each thrust. Tatyana remembered her pleading face, and when she saw Yasenia losing herself in ecstasy, she stopped her movements.

Yasenia, feeling the heavenly sensations stop, whimpered and looked back with a begging expression, “Mhommy pleash mhoree~.”

Tatyana’s hardness twitched; she grabbed Yasenia’s arms and started pounding her again. With her insides messed by that monster, ecstasy began building up again, and Yasenia moved her hips to meet Tatyana’s.

Yasenia wanted to eat Tatyana whole and relaxed her last entrance. Tatyana realized and pounded her excitedly until she finally stretched the cervix with her giant member and hilted herself.

PAH

Yasenia came from her penis and vagina, “OOOOHHH!”

Tatyana continued pounding her for twenty minutes in different positions and filling her with her discharge. Then, she took off her dildo and pressed the delirious Yasenia’s back on the bed. She raised her hips, and after aiming Yasenia’s cum smeared rod at her flower, she slammed her hips, eating her whole length.

Yasenia spasmed, feeling her warm insides, and came directly filling Tatyana. Then, Tatyana took her tail tiimed it at her buttohole. When Yasenia felt the entrance, she invaded it deeply, making Tatyana moan.

Tatyana moved her waist and lowered her head to Yasenia’s bouncing breasts. She put a nipple in her mouth and sucked. Milked sprayed and tasting her daughter’s breast milk, her insides tightened, wanting to milk more of the other milk.

The next ten minutes were Tatyana milking Yasenia of every single fluid inside her body.

After Tatyana felt Yasenia having dry orgasms inside of her, she stopped stimulating her. She lifted her waist and unplugged Yasenia from her holes. She lowered her head and cleaned her rods with her mouth sucking everything from the tips, ‘Mmm~ Delicious... Sigh I have to try a day of only blowjobs and drink every last drop she releases.’

After finishing, Tatyana hugged Yasenia and kissed her tenderly. After being gently kissed by Tatyana, Yasenia came down from the almost constant orgasm.

She looked at Tatyana and growled softly; she became spoiled and coiled herself around Tatyana, asking for pats, scratches, and kisses.

Tatyana smiled widely and complied, scratching her under the chin, kissing her head, and caressing her long black hair. Yasenia's growls grew louder until she was all over Tatyana, asking for more caresses. "Little treasure, how do you prefer our sessions? Rougher or softer?"

Yasenia spoke while lovingly licking her neck, "What does mom like more~? I love everything I do with mom, so I can't decide~.

Tatyana chuckled and said, "It seems that we have the same problem~. However, I must say that I really like you right now. You are so precious little treasure~."

Yasenia happily showered Tatyana with love.

Tatyana sat up, hugging the soft body between her arms, and took out Yasenia's nightgown from her ring. Then, she helped her put it on while spoiling her with a smile.

After finishing dressing her up, she put on her own nightgown. Yasenia approached and hugged her from behind, kissing her nape tenderly. Tatyana spoke softly, "We have to go outside, little treasure."

Yasenia bit her neck in protest. Tatyana chuckled and said, "I have to speak about the Abyss a little to the others, little treasure."

Yasenia moved in front of her and hugged her neck. Tatyana picked up the big girl in a princess carry, and after she felt the tail coil around her body, she walked outside.

When they went out, 45 minutes had passed. The others looked at the clingy Yasenia, and the four of them nodded. Evelyn said, "Spoiled Yasenia is best Yasenia. Good job, Tatyana."

Tatyana laughed. When they reached the sofa, Yasenia sat first, cross-legged. Then, she placed Tatyana between her crossed legs. After hugging her from behind, she plastered herself on her back and coiled her tail around her.

Tatyana made herself comfortable in that position, surrounded by Yasenia, and explained about the abyss while receiving the caresses of the dragoness. "Unlike some people might think, The Abyss, or demon realm, isn't the place where souls go. It is just the place where most of the demon race lives. Their realm is underground, and it is massive."

Chapter 106

...Tatyana made herself comfortable in that position, surrounded by Yasenia, and explained about the abyss while receiving the caresses of the dragoness.

"Unlike some people might think, The Abyss, or demon realm, isn't the place where souls go. It is just the place where most of the demon race lives. Their realm is underground, and it is massive."

Tatyana continued explaining, "For them to come to the surface, they must go through some natural spatial cracks. However, these are guarded by the surface strongest races. Because of this, the strongest of their race open spatial cracks from time to time to invade the surface, steal resources, and create demon colonies."

Tatyana then said, "Their modus operandi is like this. They send an advanced unit and try to tempt powers with their demonic craft and techniques. Then, they get a foothold in a difficult to attack the place, and finally, they open a portal to The Abyss and let the invasion begin in full force."

Andrea asked, interested, “Demonic craft?”

Tatyana nodded, “Similar to blacksmithing, but they use demonic energy... Before you ask, yes, there are different types of energy apart from attributed energy. For example, Yaseenia’s energy.”

Yaseenia stopped rubbing herself on Tatyana and asked languidly, “So this is why Master told me to deepen my Celestial energy comprehension and not my Sun, Moon, and Star energy comprehension...”

Tatyana nodded, “When you did the elemental roulette, your attribute was called Celestial attribute. Moreover, it is a unique attribute. This means you are the only one under the heavens with this attribute right now, and no one else can be born with it until you die.”

The others raised their eyebrows. Cecile said, “Why did no one tell us about this until now?”

Tatyana shrugged, “This is something that you will naturally learn in the Dantian Spiritualization realm. Moreover, it is very rare for humans to have these energies, so it isn’t a priority to teach about it in sects and similar. I am telling you because I don’t think you will remain in the Academy much longer...”

Yaseenia asked, concerned, “Are demons that strong that the academy won’t be able to fight back against them?”

Tatyana said, “If their attack is on the scale that it was 30 000 years ago... I think only the first-rate sects will have a fighting chance. Even I am helpless against their stronger demons. Thankfully, other strong races like Divines, dragons, phoenixes, quilins, Spirits, Elves, and more will come to fight against their invasion.”

Yaseenia frowned and asked, “What did we do when we opened the letter?”

Tatyana chuckled and said, “Well, we sent a signal to them telling them that they got caught on their sneaky invasion!”

Yaseenia and the others choked, ‘Why do you look so happy!?’

Cecile asked, “Do they respect seniority? Or will their transcendent realm cultivators attack mortal cultivators without any care?”

Tatyana smirked and said, “Depends; they can’t be put in a single group. Can you generalize humans and say that every human will respect seniority? If there is nobody to stop them, they will just invade the continents they appear in and impose their rules and culture.”

Tatyana elaborated, “There are already some continents that fell to them, and living there is absolute hell for most non-demonic cultivators. Their culture is quite different in some aspects, especially in relationships, learning, and common sense. Of course, they know about our culture and learn about it in the later phases of their lives. However, most of them learn about this after their original culture is internalized.”

Tatyana sighed and said, “This war has already been going for a million years, so it isn’t something out of the norm having demons attack a place. Moreover, it doesn’t seem that it will ever end.”

Angel gasped and asked, “A million years!? How do people keep track of something that has been going for so long!?”

Tatyana smirked and said, “A million years ago, a big war happened. In that war, a lot of gods stopped being neutral and fought. The fights between gods are normally catastrophic. However, after reaching the transcendence realm and above, you gain the ability to fly freely. Hence, to not destroy the land, our battles normally happen high up in the sky to avoid total destruction.”

Tatyana then said, “However, one attack happened that seemed to reverse heaven and earth, and the damage to the land was enormous. Continents shifted, some land sunk in the vast oceans, and new land appeared. The attack was a cataclysmic event.”

Tatyana continued, “The heavens, whose main priority is the protection of the balance of the world, were absolutely furious and punished all gods unleashing The Heavenly Catastrophe. All over the world, for more than 100 years, the sky could be seen flashing with fearsome energies killing god-level cultivators all around and their legacies. Most of the gods of that era created inheritances all around the world, with hopes that their legacy would continue.”

Tatyana looked at Yasenia and kissed her cheek, “Little treasure, your legacy enters that category.”

Yasenia nodded, absorbed in Tatyana’s tale. Tatyana continued speaking, “After the heavens unleashed their wrath across the land, reaching Godhood became harder. However, thanks to this event, the demons, divines, and other races that the gods oppressed were finally able to reclaim the land.”

Tatyana sighed, “When this land became available, without high-level gods protecting them, a brutal world war started. This war has been going on since then. Since the records of this catastrophic event had been kept around until now, we can guess how much time it had passed since the start of the war.”

It wasn’t a question but a statement. Tatyana chuckled and said, “It was my order. One of the reasons that Academy students who graduate are so fought for is that they only know the basics of the world and have completely neutral thoughts most of the time. What the academy trains are logical and rational thinking.”

The others nodded. Tatyana leaned back, resting her head between Yasenia’s breasts, and continued, “Even if there are bad seeds like Alysa, that is normal and inevitable, so we don’t care much. We don’t tell you that demons are bad or that divines are good. We let the students investigate by themselves and develop their own ideologies. Thanks to this, Academy students can be said to be the least discriminatory.”

Andrea said, “Didn’t you just say that the places where demons live are hellish? How can demons don’t be bad?”

Tatyana was about to answer when Yasenia said, “It is hell for non-demonic cultivators. For demonic cultivators must be a paradise, right? Everything depends on the point of view you see things from.”

Tatyana smirked proudly, “Exactly, I had lived in demon lands for a while, and debauchery, massacres, and the like are daily things... My days there were quite crazy.”

Tatyana chuckled and said, “There aren’t rules other than the stronger fist is right. Even then, there are cities, towns, and society. There, rules don’t bind people; they are bound by logic. You won’t see a demon or other habitant killing a bystander just because, but you may see a very strong male or female cultivator forcing themselves on beautiful females or handsome males in the middle of the street. And I speak about female and male in general, demon, human, beast-human, spirit, elves, undead....”

Angel said, horrified, “That’s awful!”

Tatyana, however, shrugged and said, “Is it? What is the objective of a cultivator besides achieving strength and longevity? A family, right? Leave your bloodline and legacy in the world. In demon lands, being liked by a strong cultivator, be it a demon or not, is something to cherish. They aren’t stupid, so, most of the time, when they take a liking to a person, they protect that person and use resources to strengthen them. This way, they will be able to sire or give birth to stronger children.”

Tatyana nodded, “Yes, on someone unwilling. But people grow up differently there. Their culture, where the strong are revered and the weak are bullied, is something taught from the beginning. “Stealing” weaker cultivator’s mates is something normal there.”

Tatyana sighed and said, “However, for the rest of the world, their culture is... Abhorrent, and thus, demons and their allies are hated by “normal” cultures. This is the root of the ongoing war. Neither side wants to give up their culture and accommodate the other, and consequently, there is a constant war ongoing.”

Tatyana continued, “After so many years of war, hatred had accumulated, making the only outcome to end this war one side being completely wiped, which is impossible. Thus, even if it is in constant war, the world is also in a strange balance.”

Andrea asked, “Do they have the same cultivation system as us?”

Tatyana nodded, “Yes, but their transformation is different. Some races add racial features each time they upgrade their realms. For example, demons and divines gain wings with each realm. Divines have feathered wings on their back, and demons have fleshy wings. These wings aren’t only to fly; they also have a similar but weaker energy absorption function than Yaseenia’s tail. That is why more wings sprout in each realm to multiply those qualities.”

Tatyana said, “Mortal demons and divines have a single pair of wings, Dantian and Meridian creation demons and Divines have two pair... You get the gist. They are also called differently. mortal demons are just demons, Dantian and Meridian creation realm demons are called adult demons, then, demon barons, demon viscounts, demon counts, demon dukes, and here ends the mortal realms.”

“On the other side, mortal divines are called angels, Dantian and Meridian creation realm divines are called archangels, then, principalities, powers, virtues, and finally dominions, they are the last realm of the mortal realms.”

Tatyana ended by saying, “The first realm above the mortal realms for each of them is called, Demon Monarchs, and Thrones. Moreover, in this realm, the number of wings reverts back to a single pair of normally bigger wings with different traits.”

Evelyn asked, “Then how to differentiate a normal demon from a demon monarch? Or an angel with a Throne?”

Tatyana chuckled, “Well, if they are good at concealing their aura, you can’t. However, you won’t see them use cheap tactics like that. Both races are quite arrogant.”

Yasenia wanted to ask more, but Tatyana cut her. “We will speak about them more in the future. For the moment, you have to know that the abyssal realm wants to attack here, other races will come to aid, there will be a war, and they have very different cultures compared to us.”

Chapter 107

Yasenia chuckled and asked, “Why don’t you tell me about everything? I don’t really care, but I’m curious about this mysteriousness.”

Tatyana caressed her tail and said, “To not give you a very distant goal, little treasure. What can you do even if you know about the demons, divines, or, cultivation-wise, the transcendent realm?”

Tatyana looked at Yasenia and said, “Nothing, you will only have useless ideas floating around your head. How about knowing more about the political situation?”

Tatyana sighed, “Well, you could avoid offending someone, but will the people at the top be easily offended by a junior? They won’t. Even the Long and Tang families were just waiting for a trigger to pick their sides. You just became the useful trigger. They showed only real anger in the auction house when they lost that formation core.”

Looking at their thoughtful expressions, Tatyana elaborated, “That is also why some disciples of the academy and other sects died the first days. They were just triggers for the big players to move. These tournaments are much more than you think. They are not only a place to show the future generation’s strength, but they are also a place to make alliances with the first-rate powers.”

“For example, the slave house owned by Gilda changed sides toward us. They aren’t strong cultivation-wise, but they have a good commercial value. However, this value only becomes real when you have the strength to protect it. Even If you knew all these things before arriving at the Challenger City, you would only have been worried all the time, leading to an unstable heart.”

Tatyana saw that they nodded in understanding and smiled, “I will start telling you about more complicated matters when you reach the Dantian spiritualization realm. Until then, just focus on advancing and becoming stronger with your harem. Your conflicts for the moment are only small conflicts. So, don’t worry and do whatever you like.”

Cecile asked, “Will we be able to advance that far before the demons and the others arrive?”

Tatyana nodded, “With the too effective dual cultivation technique and your talent, you girls are flying through the mortal realms. To be honest, I’m impressed and expectant seeing your advancement speed.”

Angel tilted her head, and Tatyana clarified with a seductive smile, “Expectant about the efficiency when I can finally absorb useful Yang energy from my little treasure. I will suck her dry daily fufufu~.”

Yasenia tightened the hug and tap kissed Tatyana's cheeks, making her laugh. Yasenia whispered seductively, "I will also be able to get my mommy pregnant~."

Tatyana imagined herself carrying her daughter's child, and excitement rushed to her brain. She looked back and invaded Yasenia's lips. The others looked at the mother and daughter duo and got aroused. Yasenia stopped the kiss, looked at the others, and said huskily, "Later at night, my loves. Right now, I'm empty~."

They all calmed down and nodded.

The next thing to do was revise their loot! Tatyana looked at the ring and snorted, "I hate this the most. I was ordering loot for a while not too long ago."

Yasenia asked, "Loot from what?"

Tatyana answered, "I destroyed a second-rate branch of the demonic sect, and they had too many things to go through! What a pain. Can't they have fewer treasures?"

All of them but Yasenia choked, 'So it was you!? You were the mysterious cultivator that massacred a whole sect!'

Yasenia's tail wagged doing Tap Tap Tap sounds against the sofa, and she looked at her mother adoringly. Tatyana swallowed, she was weak to this look, but she controlled herself, 'At night, you will mess her up at night again, control yourself!'

They refocused on the ring and went through everything. Yasenia said out loud, "Poisons and antidote pills ranging from mortal quality to this one transcendent poison bottle... Transcendent poison bottle!? I was lucky he didn't use it. I wouldn't have known how I died." The others also got a big scare.

Yasenia asked Tatyana, "How would you fare against this poison, mom? I know that I would die with just a whiff from this!"

Tatyana looked at it and said, "I can bath in it, and I won't feel a thing."

Yasenia and the others burst into laughter and read the note that was beside the poison out loud. "My dearest student, you can use this poison on Headmistress Katherine. I'm sure that her strength is weak, unlike the rumors flying around. If she smells this poison, she will certainly fall unconscious for a while if nothing threatens her. During this time, you will be able to complete the mission of securing the dragon girl easily. Regards, your most beloved master." All of them burst into laughter.

Tatyana raised an eyebrow and looked at the handwriting, "Oh~ I know this man!"

Yasenia tightened her hug and asked, "Another past lover?"

Tatyana was surprised at her daughter's sharpness and nodded. Yasenia snorted, "Mom, how many lovers have you had?"

Tatyana held her laughter at the sour face of Yasenia and said, "I don't know. Do you count how much bread you eat? Do you want me to summon them? I'm sure they will be delighted."

Yasenia lowered her mouth and bit her neck. Tatyana couldn't hold it and burst into laughter.

Angel, however, was confused, “If he was a past lover of mommy Tatyana, why did he tell his disciple this lie?”

Tatyana said, “When I was with him, this poison would have worked, but... Did he truly think that I won’t advance my strength during these millennia?”

Yasenia wanted to know a bit more about Tatyana, so she asked, “Mom do you have any past lover that you still... Like, love or keep contact with?”

Tatyana shook her head and looked through the window in reminiscence. “I don’t, however... There is one regret about a girl I was with before I passed the mortal cultivation realms... She is the one I loved the most.”

The five girls’ eyes shined with curiosity. Tatyana chuckled and told them about her, “She was a formation master, like me. At first, we meet at a competition for a treasure in a formation match. However, I lost against her, very badly at that. I wasn’t convinced, so later, I challenged her again. However, no matter how many times I challenged her, she kept stomping me. Even when our ages were quite close, and our cultivation realm was the same. ”

Andrea whistled, “She must have been impressive.”

Tatyana nodded, “Calling her heavenly genius wasn’t an exaggeration. We got closer thanks to those competitions, and well, one thing led to another, and we ended up together. I stayed with her until I reached the Dantian Spiritualization realm half-step.”

Tatyana shook her head, “At that time, I wanted to try a forbidden technique. This technique could only be used when passing to the Transcendent realm. She was opposed to it because the technique needed more than 500 years of closed-door cultivation to complete, but I was stubborn. The rewards were too tempting.”

Tatyana smiled, “Well, in short, I managed to complete it, but at the end of the procedure, something went wrong, and I hurt myself grievously. I needed another 200 years to recover completely, making a total of 700 years of closed-door cultivation...”

Tatyana’s face became calm as she said the next. “I was ecstatic and went out to share the good news with her. I went to her sect and asked about her. I still remember that day clearly. The elder guided me towards the back of the sect. When we reached the destination, what greeted me was her tomb.”

Yasenia hugged her tighter. Tatyana finished her story by saying, “She had been dead for more than a century already, it seems that she tried to advance to the Transcendent realm, but her worries about me transformed into heart demons and consumed her during her tribulation... I really loved her.”

Tatyana closed her eyes and gathered energy. The whole room seemed to enter another dimension of darkness and death, with black and green smog around. Tatyana opened her glowing red eyes and chanted, her voice bending the space before her. “You, who rules the undead, you who, even with that ascendancy, is under my command. Awaken, [Sovereign of the Underworld: Undead Empress].”

A green aura gathered before Tatyana in a whirlpool, and the space cracked. CRASH A black fissure opened in the air, from which the laments of countless dead souls were heard. From that space crack, a gorgeous female stepped out. Her pale white skin, phoenix eyes, and cold facial features gave her an ethereal beauty that could entrance mortals and gods alike. She was wearing green and white regal clothes, and her long white hair flowed because of her aura.

She had an elegant longsword in one hand, and her irises glowed with a ghostly green color. She looked at Tatyana and went to one knee; her voice was ethereal and gentle, “At your service, Death Empress.”

The others were stunned; Tatyana said, “This is her, Jian Ying Yue. When she got transformed into my [Undead Empress], the only thing left of her was her facial features. At that time, I was so obsessed that I even dated my own undead summon for a while...”

Ying Yue lifted her head and said, “It was a nice experience, Empress. Thank you for giving me that opportunity.”

Yasenia said, surprised, “She is sapient?”

Ying Yue looked at Yasenia and squinted a little, then opened her eyes, surprised. “Empress, you had a child? Hello princess, I am one of the five strongest undead under Mistress Tatyana. Moreover, I can speak and have my own thoughts.”

Knowing her connection with Tatyana, Yasenia spoke gently to Ying Yue, “Hello, Ying Yue. It is a pleasure to meet you; my name is Yasenia. I hope we get along together from now on.”

Ying Yue smiled, making all of them but Tatyana amazed at her beauty. “It is a pleasure to meet you, princess. I also hope we can get along together.”

Yasenia nodded and asked, “Are you her strongest Undead Ying Yue?”

Ying Yue looked toward Tatyana, and Tatyana nodded. “I’m her majesty’s third strongest undead, princess. Above me, there is her majesty’s mount, the [Abyssal Dragon], and the [Ancient Overlord]. I have the honor to be stronger than my counterpart, the [Undead Emperor], and the final of the strongest five undead, [Undead Grand Marshal].”

Tatyana said, “Well, I will return you to the underworld. If anything comes up, tell me.”

Ying Yue respectfully answered, “Yes, my Empress.” Then, she dissipated like green smoke.

Tatyana and Yasenia looked into each other eyes. ‘What are her emotions now that she knows about this? Has something changed?’

Tatyana looked into her golden slit eyes with that tinge of red growing from the pupil to a quarter of the iris. They seemed to carry the soft glow of the sunset, giving rest and pace to everyone who looked at them. There was vividness and determination to push forward no matter the challenges ahead. Her eyes looked at her as lovingly as before but with a trace of sadness in them.

After Jian Ying Yue disappeared, Yasenia looked into Tatyana’s eyes. ‘How many things do I not know about my mom? I’m... Practically a stranger of mom’s more private affairs. But her eyes...’

Yasenia focused on Tatyana’s red eyes. They seemed to carry the blood of the countless enemies she had slain during her years, giving people who looked too closely a sense of asphyxia and dread.

However, below all of that, there was a trace of weariness and lethargy in them, tired of a life that kept giving heartbreaks one after another.

For Yasenía, Tatyana was someone that could hold the sky if it fell, but at the same time, a really pitiful person. The more she knows about her, the muddier her past becomes. It is only filled with revenge, death, loss, betrayal, and regret.

Yasenía doesn't know a single good thing that happened to Tatyana that lasts until today. That is why...

Yasenía smiled gently, and her eyes curved into crescents, "Mom, whenever you want to rest, I'm here. I will become stronger, protect myself, and always put our safety first. I won't disappear, I won't betray you, and most importantly, I will love you no matter what you are hiding inside you. It doesn't matter if you are a saint or a devil. For me, you are my dearest mother, the person I love the most in this world."

Tatyana's eyes trembled, and she leaned on Yasenía burying her face in her neck. "I am... a little tired... Can I rest a little?"

Yasenía couldn't help but tear up, but she responded with the same gentle tone, "Goodnight, mom. I love you." Tatyana, for the first time after millennia, fell asleep.

Chapter 108

After Tatyana fell asleep, Cecile and the rest stood up and left the living room with a gentle smile. They didn't mind Yasenía's declaration; they knew who Yasenía loved the most.

When they closed the door, Andrea spoke, "We also have to become stronger. The last thing I want is to become a burden for Yasenía and Tatyana."

The rest nodded. Cecile said, "Evelyn, Angel, let's go to the training room. Andrea and I will coach you. Since we don't need to sleep, let's use the nights Yasenía can't be with us to cultivate."

Evelyn nodded and said, "The good thing is that as Yasenía approaches our level, her Yang energy becomes exponentially stronger."

Angel said with a smile, "Yasenía's Yang energy is a delish~. It nourishes our bodies, strengthens our foundation, and speeds up our cultivation."

Angel shyly said, "It is also delicious~."

The others chuckled, and Andrea sighed with a smile, "She is a walking cultivation treasure. The best thing is that besides pleasure, her energy isn't invasive and harmful. It upgrades our strength smoothly and gently. I've also noticed my sexual stamina building up, so my Yin energy is also getting stronger."

Cecile said with a gentle smile, "We are very lucky to have her." She chuckled and continued, "I sometimes want to hide her in my pocket from the world so that other people stop coveting her."

Angel repeatedly nodded, completely agreeing. However, Andrea and Evelyn raised an eyebrow at that statement, but they didn't say anything.

Meanwhile, Yasenía looked down at Tatyana's sleeping visage in the living room with a soft smile. Yasenía moved with Tatyana in her arms until she was beside the window, making the moonlight cover the mother and daughter with a silver blanket.

Yasenia traced the contour of her mother's face, looking at her long eyelashes and the shadows that the moonlight made with them on her face. Tatyana's facial features were relaxed, with her mouth slightly opened, and her breathing was even.

Yasenia cradled Tatyana with her arms and tail and hummed a soft tune that Tatyana sang to her when she was little. Her voice filled the living room with a soft and slow melody, giving a peaceful ambient to the living room, letting Tatyana sleep peacefully.

Yasenia began thinking about the end of her travel when she finally achieved her objective. 'I will have to build a place where our family can live peacefully in the future. Passing our days together, cooking together, maybe we could have a little garden and grow different things as we see our children run around...'

A natural smile formed on Yasenia's face; she really liked that future.

Yasenia kept thinking about things that they could do, away from the cultivation world, the never-ending fight for supremacy, the never-ending cycle of hatred, revenge, death, and betrayal.

However, for that scenery to become true, she needed strength. She needed to be part of the cultivation world, become stronger, and reach a level where other people won't bother them. 'I will keep advancing, even if I have to become....'

Yasenia shook her head and put those thoughts apart. The road was long, and she was just at the starting point. 'I haven't even seen clearly a senior cultivator strength... Teacher Mason's display was just a single attack. Will it shock me?'

Yasenia's face hardened, 'Even if it shocks me, I won't let it put me down too long. I will push forward and come out stronger!'

These thoughts will become her determination, her drive to push through hell, and her strength to overcome future trials.

Yasenia wanted to become Tatyana's strongest ally and become strong enough to live peacefully with her family.

The time passed, and the sunset orange glow illuminated the pair. Tatyana didn't wake up, and Cecile and the others didn't bother them. Yasenia just kept humming softly, giving her a soft kiss from time to time. When the moon was high up in the sky, and the silver glow surrounded them, Yasenia fell asleep, but her arms and tail didn't lose strength, keeping Tatyana safe and steady in her arms.

This night, the moon watched over them, letting them rest the whole night peacefully.

When morning neared, Tatyana woke up groggily, 'I fell... asleep? How many years has it been since I slept? I can't remember...'

Tatyana opened her eyes and looked at their position. After seeing how Yasenia held her, her smile turned tender and loving. 'Has she been cradling me since yesterday afternoon?'

She looked up at Yasenia. Her sleeping face was gentle, without a hint of her usual seductiveness. Her sweet scent right now only relaxed her senses, as if even her scent changed qualities to make Tatyana's sleep more comfortable.

Inside Tatyana's eyes, a new glitter appeared one that hadn't appeared in millennia inside her red eyes. 'I think... It is worth fighting again against fate instead of flowing through it. I should start cultivating seriously again.'

Tatyana chuckled, 'I hope my senses didn't rust after all these years.'

Tatyana didn't move and waited for Yasenias to wake up. She just gazed at her daughter's face, burning into her mind every detail of it. Even if it were a face that she had already looked at again and again these last years, Tatyana would never get tired of looking at her daughter.

Her every expression, mood change, or struggle, Tatyana wanted to see them.

Yasenias naturally woke up before sunrise. Her dazed golden slit eyes focused and looked down. Two pairs of eyes meet. Yasenias observed, quietly.

This time, the red eyes had a hidden strength in them, as if a dormant ancient beast had awakened, ready to take the cultivation world like a storm again. Yasenias's eyes curved into crescents and said, "Good morning. I see that you woke up."

Tatyana raised her eyebrow and said, "Yes, it was a nice and lengthy sleep."

The others entered the living room softly, and seeing that they both were awake, they moved walked toward them. Angel made a little run, and Tatyana and Yasenias opened their arms. The golden bullet jumped into their embrace, and mother and daughter wrapped their arms around her. Yasenias said, "Good morning, baby, sorry for not accompanying you yesterday night. I fell asleep here."

Tatyana chuckled, "It seems I was able to steal little Angel's mattress for one night~ What a sin!" Angel laughed happily and rubbed herself on the two women that were spoiling her.

Evelyn and the rest neared, and Yasenias made them come nearer with her tail to give good morning kisses and hugs.

Tatyana stood up from Yasenias's lap and put Angel in her previous position. Yasenias accommodated her baby in her embrace, and Angel buried her face in her breasts like a magnet attracting her face.

Tatyana said, "Today, I will teach all of you combat training! Especially Angel and Cecile. Angel, we need to create simpler formations to help your versatility in the one against one fights. Cecile, we need to make you accustomed to your new energy and change some of your basic skills. Evelyn, we will train attribute control to make your armor better. Finally, Andrea, you need more offensive moves similar to Yasenias's or Evelyn's charge skills. That jump attack you have is nice, but you are quite static. The times you lost inside the realm were mainly because the enemies utilized hit and run tactics."

All of them bowed and said excitedly, "We will be in your care today, Master!"

It doesn't matter how close they were. When training, Tatyana was their senior, teacher, and protector! They had to give her the respect she deserved.

Tatyana nodded with a smile, and they went towards the training room. On their way there, they meet with Kali... Well, they guessed that the person was Kali.

She had a cloak around her shoulders, and nothing of her body could be seen. She also had a veil covering her whole face, hiding her skin.

They managed to recognize her because of her chestnut-colored hair and her aura more than anything else.

Cecile and the others looked strangely at Kali. They didn't know what to do with this scarred girl. Yasenias, on the other side, greeted Kali normally. However, the hesitation in her gestures didn't escape Tatyana. "Kali! Where have you been these days? A lot of things have happened~."

Kali looked at their reactions and tilted her head confused, "Are you speaking of your fight against that undead summoner? I was there seeing it."

Then, Kali said, sounding a little shy. "Y-You were very heroic and beautiful."

Although the veil covered her face, there was a blush on her scarred face. Yasenias chuckled and changed the topic, "Not that. Have you heard about me killing a Thousand Poisons Valley disciple?"

Kali shook her head. They began walking, and Yasenias explained superficially about the Abyss and other things that may happen. Kali listened closely and said, "A place where they find a mate based on strength and not looks... It isn't that bad. Why would other races group up against them?"

Yasenias raised her eyebrow, "Well, that is another way to see it. At the end of the day, everything depends on the situation of the people involved. For example, I wouldn't want to live there."

Feeling Kali confused, Yasenias elaborated. "If I lived there, other people could steal my lovers at any time, right? For me, that is something unacceptable."

Kali realized her blunder and stuttered, "S-sorry, I didn't mean that I, uh, of course, that is bad, Umm...."

Yasenias's heart softened, seeing her nervousness, and she patted her head. Then she smiled gently and said, "I know what you meant; I was just giving my side of how I feel about it."

Yasenias thought about it a little, and, seeing her fidgeting, she asked, "Do you want to come train with us? Mom is teaching us; one more girl shouldn't be a problem."

Kali looked at the reactions of the others, and seeing neither rejection nor aversion, she nodded. She didn't want to be on their bad side since she has been looking secretly at Yasenias during these days and knows that she loves them deeply.

It is clear to anyone watching how she interacts with her harem members and how much she cherishes them. Especially Angel, who is always on her lap or burying her face in her breasts. She was actually quite jealous.

Kali followed after them and looked down, thinking, 'If I want to enter her harem, I need to find a way to heal my scars, especially the ones down-'

Kali smirked disdainfully, 'I mean, I could confess, but... Will she even accept me? No matter if the scars heal, someone like me... Thinking about what she told senior sister Linda... Will she even look at me having senior sister Linda as an option?'

Kali looked down and clenched her fists under her cloak. 'Why did something like that have to happen to me!? What did I do wrong to deserve this!?'

Yasenia patted Kali on the shoulder after she didn't answer her calls, "Kali, did you hear? What would you like as a weapon?"

Kali woke up from her thoughts and answered, "Umm, a longsword wouldn't be bad."

Tatyana looked at Kali in contemplation, 'She has a very muddy heart. How did she even manage to remain sane? She should even hear illusory voices and whispers from time to time. Either her psyche is very strong, or she is too far gone... For the moment, It seems to lean toward the first option... What an impressive little girl.'

Tatyana noticed that when Yasenia spoke to Kali, her heart demons would lighten, but they would strengthen when she talked to the others. 'This isn't good. Yasenia is too carefree before this girl... Sigh At the end of the day, no matter how perceptive, she is still young and doesn't know how to handle this situation...'

"Little treasure." Yasenia looked back at Tatyana, "Come with me; I need to ask you something."

Chapter 109

Yasenia nodded and followed Tatyana. When they separated from the rest, Tatyana made a concealing formation and asked, "What are your intentions with that girl?"

Yasenia thought and said, "Deepen my friendship with her. Why?"

Tatyana sighed and asked, "Haven't you realized? How that girl looks at you?"

Yasenia nodded and said, "She loves me. Cecile already told me. However, I don't really dislike her, even with all those scars covering her... So, I don't see why I should change my way of acting around her. If something happens between us in the future, well, then it happened."

Tatyana looked at Yasenia the same way she did when she did something wrong when she was little, "Have you thought about her feelings? Does she even know that she has a chance? Personally, I wouldn't mind her joining you. Her being ugly because of the scars won't change anything. I gave you five spots, and you can fill them as you like. However, do you think she has the confidence, courage, or initiative to tell you anything?"

Yasenia noticed Tatyana's expression, so she paused and thought seriously. She looked at Kali and focused her senses, "Her aura is, fluctuating?"

Tatyana sighed, "Her heart is a mess. Little treasure, either you push her away or close the distance with her. That girl is the type that will become obsessed if you leave her hanging. Haven't you been decisive before? You got together with Angel in one afternoon, with Andrea in two days. What is stopping you now?"

Yasenia's tail tapped the ground, something she did when contemplating. Then she said slowly, "Promises. That is what is stopping me. I've told them that only the five of you will be my wives, I've told them that I won't accept any more girls unless an exception appears, I've told them that we are fine the way we are...."

Yasenia passed her hand through her hair, a little frustrated, and said, "Also, I don't know if Kali is the one. She fits perfectly; not only are her elements what we need to be complete, but her alchemy talent is also superior to Evelyn's by a lot. With her, we would have talented alchemy and healer."

Yasenia continued with a sigh, “Even if we don’t look at her obvious strong points. Her personality is quiet and would fit with Cecile and Andrea a lot. However, I have only seen her surface, even if everything seems good... Her wounds are too deep, and I don’t know how to delve deep into them without hurting her....”

Tatyana looked at Yasenia and smiled gently, “Little treasure, are you... Insecure of yourself?” Yasenia flinched a little.

Tatyana lifted her arms, wounding them around her neck, and carried her down, burying Yasenia’s face in her neck. Then, she asked again, more softly. “Tell mom, little treasure. Are you insecure about starting a relationship with Kali?”

Yasenia hugged Tatyana, putting their bodies together, and rubbed her head on her neck. “...Yes. I don’t know if I can heal the scars in her heart, and to be honest, if I accept a woman I’m not sure I will be able to make her happy; I would rather not do it. That is why I rather know more about her before doing anything.”

Tatyana chuckled, “You are so cute, little treasure.” Yasenia blushed a little.

Tatyana separated Yasenia and then raised her hand; tiptoeing, she patted her head. Tatyana advised gently, “Girls... No. Cultivators that have passed what she has at such early age most of the time become demonic cultivators. Their heart demons grow exponentially, transforming into what we call a fallen cultivator.”

Tatyana continued, “Even if they manage to resist the heart demons and people smile at them, they are very sensitive. They know if someone is secretly dissing them, afraid of them, or even disgusted with them. Because their heart demons are strong, even after being able to push through it all, they are often killed by the tribulations.”

Yasenia became thoughtful. Tatyana looked at her, stepped forward, hooked her arms around her neck, and kissed her lips softly. Then, she said, “Follow your heart, little treasure. Walk forwards the path you choose and instead of treading it with insecure steps, walk with steady steps, it doesn’t matter if they are slow, but your steps must be firm.”

Yasenia closed her eyes and murmured, “Walk with steady steps; It doesn’t matter if they are slow... Think before each step; however, do it with conviction when you act.”

Yasenia opened her eyes and looked at her mother’s red eyes. Then she closed the distance to kiss her. Yasenia hugged her by the waist, and Tatyana relished in the kiss, “Thanks, mom. I know what to do.”

Tatyana dispelled the formation, and they both returned. Tatyana started speaking about today’s training. After putting all of them but Kali and Yasenia to work, she turned towards Kali and asked, “Both of you will spar at the end of the day. Yasenia, don’t go all out.”

Then, Tatyana made Kali work with her plant summons and gave tips to increase the coordination when commanding them. She also made Kali train together with her [Crown Flower]. “Kali, this summon is a mutation of the original skill. Treat her as if she was a learning companion, and every time you train, call her and train with her. I think you will be surprised.” Kali nodded seriously and looked at the three-meter-tall green woman.

While training, the day passed fast.

Angel managed to create an instant formation that created a simple shield in front of her; it was called [Glass shield formation]. It was ideal for making time for her big formations. However, even when the effect was simple, creating it was actually quite hard. If it weren't for Tatyana's insights, she wouldn't have known where to start.

Cecile managed to change her [Ice arrow] to [Moon arrow]. Not only were they more destructive, but the wind attribute could also blend better with it. Moreover, she started to see insights into how to combine the space attribute with them. She also managed to create a single skill, which made Tatyana smirk. 'Her learning speed also exploded. I may have to speak with the Ice Phoenixes...'

On the other side, Andrea managed to create a similar charge to Yasenia's named [Solar charge]. With it, Andrea would charge forwards with her halberd behind, charging speed and momentum. Then, when Andrea wills it, she will abruptly stop and transfer her momentum, making a wide horizontal attack and sending a scorching wave of energy in front of her.

Evelyn didn't have any obvious improvement, but her attacks became heavier. This was because now, instead of using only her upper body, she also used her waist while she was attacking with her spear. Before today, even if Evelyn knew the theory, she had problems using her waist if she wasn't making a throwing attack. However, Tatyana beat it into her... Literally. Evelyn was on the floor, filled with bruises and breathing heavily.

Besides commanding, Tatyana taught Kali how to speed up her summons. Since Tatyana was also a summoner, she gave combat advice on how she should defend and also told her how to use weaker summons to gain enough time to summon the stronger ones. It was simple advice, but that made her combat style have a qualitative leap. Sometimes, obvious things are hard to see until someone tells them to you directly.

Yasenia, on the other side, was just beaten up by Tatyana. Since Yasenia had her basics smashed into her since she was little, Tatyana just made her fight and fight and fight against her. While fighting, because Tatyana didn't pull any punches, Yasenia could be seen flying around or coughing up blood from time to time. However, to Yasenia, this was a thrilling experience. She loved fighting against powerful cultivators in a strength contest.

But this time, she was getting excited for another reason. While they were fighting, Tatyana would even make her dress unkempt! Yasenia tried to rearrange her battle dress, but Tatyana would send her flying again when she was distracted. In the end, Yasenia just gave up and fought half-naked.

Although the others have seen her one too many times, this didn't make it less alluring.

Seeing Yasenia fight half-naked, with her big breasts in the air for the world to see, was very stimulating. Not to mention Angel and the others, Kali was blushing to her ears. Thankfully she had her veil hiding her face, or her expression would have been very obvious.

However, our perceptive dragoness could feel all of them looking at her. Being looked at while receiving such a shameful beating made her cheeks redden. Moreover, Tatyana's sadistic smile wasn't helping with the heat that was spreading through her loins.

You may think that Tatyana was a pervert... Which she was, but! Tatyana was doing this for one reason, well... Mainly for one reason. She wanted to kill Yassenia's shame while fighting naked.

There are a lot of different cultivators, and dual cultivators have very uncommon techniques. Tatyana wanted to prepare Yassenia for these encounters... Also, looking at Yassenia's bouncing softness while she fought was a sight to behold. Tatyana was even using her spiritual sense around her to follow her movements detailedly! Which movements was she observing? Only she knew.

Yassenia knew that this "Training" must have a reason, but was it really necessary to pinch her nipples!? After some time being assaulted, she couldn't hold back her moan, "Aahn~."

There were five simultaneous sounds of a person falling to the ground in the background. Then, Tatyana's kick sank into Yassenia's stomach Bang! And sent Yassenia flying. However, the dragoness's body was resilient, and a mix of pleasure and pain was assaulting her senses.

Yassenia stood up, breathing heavily, and her cheeks were red. She put strength in her legs and shot forwards with her dress only covering her lower body.

Tatyana looked at Yassenia's eyes and saw that the red had turned pink. She knew that Yassenia was coming, not to fight, but to "fight".

Tatyana chuckled while thinking, 'Did I push her buttons too much? fufufu~'

Tatyana let herself be tackled by Yassenia, and she transported both to another "Fighting" room.

Andrea woke up from her stupor and laughed, "Well, it seems that they will be away for half an hour at least."

Then, she ordered, "Focus, Yassenia is already a lot stronger than all of you, and she has even caught up to me in strength. We have to train harder not to be left behind!"

Angel's, Cecile's, and Evelyn's aura swelled, and they answered with determination,

"YES!"

"YES!"

"YES!"

Even if they had to grind their bones to dust, they wouldn't be left behind! This was their bottom line!

Kali was impressed at their aura, 'Even if all four of them are considered genius class, they train themselves as if they were untalented cultivators. Is Yassenia that overwhelming?'

Kali knew that Yassenia was strong, be it when they teamed up or when she saw her fighting against the Undead Summoner. Yassenia showed strength well above her level. But, in Kali's opinion, Andrea was stronger than Yassenia.

What she didn't know is that Yassenia still hasn't used her trump card, [Day and Night]. Andrea and the rest are sure that if the tournament is one fight per day, Yassenia will end up first without a doubt.

When Yasenias was still at the eighth level of the body modification realm, she showed strength at the level of a high-level Mental nourishing realm, closely approaching the half-step level. Now... They were sure that she would show tyrannical strength if she unleashed her ultimate skill.

Tatyana and Yasenias returned 45 minutes later. Kali saw for the first time Yasenias acting completely spoiled. She didn't have an ounce of her normally dominant character. When she saw Yasenias clinging to Tatyana and carefully licking her while growling lovingly, Kali almost had nasal bleeding. 'Kyaa! She is so fluffy and cute!'

Some more hours passed, and the day ended; Tatyana and Yasenias approached Kali. Tatyana spoke, "Kali, you will spar thrice against Yasenias. Yasenias, hold back a little... Don't use your movement technique."

Yasenias nodded. Tatyana looked at Kali and said, looking at her eyes, "Don't hold back; go for the kill."

Kali swallowed nervously but nodded nonetheless. They positioned themselves 500m apart. Kali took out her longsword, and Yasenias took out her [Draconic Heart].

Chapter 110

When Tatyana gave the signal, Kali saw Yasenias launch herself towards her with speed far above what she expected. The momentum of the dragoness was big, but Kali wasn't intimidated, "[Living Wall], [Mother Nature's blessing]."

Thick roots shot upwards in front of Kali blocking Yasenias's path, and a verdant green aura surrounded them. Kali relaxed a bit, 'This should hold-.'

But she heard a big BANG! Against her wall and saw how the root wall dented badly. She opened her eyes and hastily chanted. "[Mother Nature's coat], [Treant summoning], [Dryad summoning], [Golden crown]."

Tatyana frowned a little, 'She got nervous and summoned too many things at once. This will slow down their spawning rate.'

While her summons were spawning, she heard, "[Celestial coat], [Starry sky], [Sunset]!"

BOOM!

The root wall was ripped open, and Yasenias charged through it, wrapped in a golden-silvery glow with tremendous speed. Kali swallowed at the ferociousness of the dragoness.

Kali was now wrapped in roots that upgraded her summoning speed, strength, and defense. In front of Kali, there were ten five-meter tall treants with a bulky build. Behind Kali, the [Golden Crown] was still growing from the floor. Then, out of the six summoned dryads, two had staffs with green glowing orbs on top, and four of them had bows made out of roots.

Kali commanded the treants to stop her charge and the archer dryads to shoot a barrage of arrows without holding back.

Kali sighed and thought that this should give her some time. However, "[Sun charge]."

Kali saw a golden meteor crashing against her Summons.

BOOM!

A scorching heatwave washed over her summons, and five of the ten treants were incinerated.

Thankfully the other five could block the charge even if they were somewhat damaged. Kali buffed them more, trying to make time for the [Golden Crown]. “[Poisonous spores], [Accelerated growth]”

However, Yasenia slashed upwards, “[Sunrise].”

A treant was bisected, then, using the momentum, Yasenia used her tail to do a follow-up [Sunrise].

SLASH!

another treat was diagonally bisected. Yasenia then jumped onto its body and used it as a spring, ignoring the remaining three damaged treants.

Kali saw the two of the treants split in two in what seemed a single attack and was scared.

Then she saw Yasenia jump onto one of them and use it as a foothold to shoot herself towards her. Thankfully, the [Golden Crown] managed to grow up while Yasenia obliterated the treants and summoned a root wall in front of Kali; this wall was stronger than the previous one. Then, both of the staff dryads strengthened the wall making it more resilient, ‘With this, I will be able to resummon my treants and keep harassing her with the arch-.’

“[STARFALL]!”

BOOM!* BOOM! BOOM! *BOOM!

The wall was bombarded to the ground! Kali was horrified, ‘It didn’t even last one hit!? That wall was stronger than the previous one!’

The archers shot empowered arrows toward Yasenia, trying to slow down the rampaging dragoness, but to Kali’s despair, she didn’t even dodge! The arrows bounced off the [Celestial Coat], and Kali saw Yasenia point her giant sword at her, “[Sun Charge].”

Kali only glimpsed Yasenia’s sword tip turn golden, and in the next moment, BOOM! A golden explosion hit her.

She felt like a beast carriage ran her over, and she flew backward. After she rolled on the ground for a while, she managed to stop and hastily looked up. The only thing left was the charred remains of her [Golden Crown] and dryads.

Yasenia was walking towards her with her sensual sashaying hips. She was completely unscratched and with her giant sword on her shoulder. “Your summons aren’t bad, but they are too clumsy. They have little to no agility. On the other side, your defensive walls are quite tough....”

Kali bit her lips and looked down. Even if she knew that she would lose, it was an overwhelming defeat. Yasenia just charged forwards and destroyed everything in her path as if they were dry branches. ‘It wasn’t even a fight!’

She looked up and was about to prepare for the second spar when she saw her veil on Yasenia’s hand. She reflexively touched her face, and after confirming that it was indeed her veil, she looked down, ashamed. It was one thing getting seen inside the formation since she didn’t have a veil to cover her face. However, now that she had the option to hide, being seen was more impactful.

Yasenia saw all these actions and sighed sadly. Because of the explosion, her veil had flown off her face, so she picked it up. ‘Who would have known that she would react that badly? I should have sneakily picked it and then put it on her... Should I...?’

Yasenia sighed and walked towards her. When she reached her side, she lifted her chin with one hand. Kali wasn’t prepared for that action, and her face got easily lifted.

Yasenia, this time, looked at her facial features closely.

Kali’s face had three large scars, one of them went diagonally from her right temple and across her face until it reached her left cheek.

Another one went from her left side forehead through her verdant green eye and passed her nose, crossing with the previous one and crooking it badly.

The final and most glaring one went from her left cheek, across her lips, and under her right jaw. This one deformed her lips badly.

Besides these, there were also smaller superficial ones, but these three were the deepest, almost reaching the bone.

This face would scare a normal mortal. The only thankful thing was that the across-the-eye slash didn’t damage her left eye.

When Yasenia lifted her chin, Kali came face to face with one of the most charming faces she had ever seen. Her skin was flawless and supple, her eyebrows were straight, and her naturally red lips were slightly plump and moist.

Yasenia’s golden-red slit eyes were exotic yet very beautiful. The slightly upward curve gave a natural seductive glance that quickened the heart rate of anyone who looked into them.

However, after being in a trance for a second, she remembered that Yasenia must also be looking at her hideous face, so she became restless. Yasenia didn’t take much time looking at her features.

Knowing that her experience must have been horrendous, her voice softened, and she asked, “Kali, do you love me?”

Yasenia’s reason for asking this was simple... But flawed.

Yasenia thought that If Kali didn’t have the courage to admit it, she would gradually distance herself from Kali so that she doesn’t have false hopes and become twisted because of them.

For Yasenia, looks were just one part of what makes a person attractive.

She understands that this is a heavy trauma. That is why, if Kali had the courage to confess, then Yasenia would give Kali a world of love in return.

However, Kali froze when she heard her question. She started sweating, and her thoughts became a mess after hearing her question, ‘S-She knows!?’

Kali restlessly looked around, and to add to her messy heart. She saw Cecile and the rest looking at her. Her heartbeat sped up, she felt a knot on her stomach, and her brain froze in panic.

Yasenia saw that her face was becoming paler by the second and that she was trembling badly, but she didn't release her chin. Yasenia knew that this was a very forceful method, but if she wanted Kali to join, she rather does it because of Kali's courage than for pity.

Moreover, this will avoid Kali's doubts about the reason for accepting her in the future.

Furthermore, Yasenia would also be able to remind Kali and their future children proudly how Kali was able to overcome her fears and confess, even when she had a heavy trauma.

However, Yasenia was a little inexperienced, and this forceful method sometimes is too much for the other person. Kali felt horrible right now, and her thoughts started going through a dangerous path, 'Will I have to feel this every time I fall in love with someone? This sickening feeling of-.'

She suddenly heard Alysa whispering, 'That's right, do you think that you are the same as before? You are just a broken thing, played until you couldn't even move!'

Kali answered frantically, 'I am not! I have overcome that night long ago!'

Alysa's mocking laughter resounded, 'You are a monster, Kali! I tainted your body, your will! You aren't anything but a deformed beast!'

'I am not!'

'How many months since you last looked yourself in a mirror? You are even scared of yourself! Do you think she will love you?'

'I-I'm not....'

'Do you think that you can be part of the harem of a peerlessly beautiful woman like Yasenia's? You are delusional! Let me consume you, and I will make you reach heights like no others!'

'W-What heights?'

The heart demon smiled and was about to speak when something soft, warm, and with a sweet floral scent wrapped around her head.

She heard a mellow and slightly deep voice. It felt like a refreshing spring washing her thoughts; the heart demon tsked and hid. "Kali, take a deep breath...."

Kali instinctively obeyed Yasenia's voice and breathed deeply. The floral scent invaded her senses, and she felt something soft caressing her body, relaxing her nerves. Her dangerously beating heart slowed down a bit.

Yasenia didn't want to intervene, but midway, she realized that this method was practically forcing Kali down two paths. This was extremely selfish. Therefore, when she felt an ominous aura wrapping around Kali, Yasenia smiled gently and enveloped her in a hug, not minding her corrupting aura.

Yasenia patted her head with her tail and used her arms to make their bodies closer. She wanted to share her warmth with Kali's now freezing body.

When Yasenia saw Kali responding to her voice even in that state, she resolved herself. 'How can I separate myself from her? Will I be able to maintain a steady heart if I see her being consumed because of her heart demons?... I won't.'

When Yasenia felt Kali hugging her waist and burying herself deeper inside her embrace, she spoke again soothingly, “That’s right, honey. Relax, think and answer me. Take deep breaths, and do not become nervous. Now I ask again, do you love me, Kali?”

When the others heard the nickname, they knew their fifth companion was decided.

Tatyana, looking from the side, nodded and led the others out of the room, ‘If Yasenia had let her heart-demons consume her, this would have become one of her regrets. Even if I wouldn’t have stopped it, I don’t think Yasenia would have tried to fill the fifth spot until some years passed....’

Little by little, Kali managed to relax enough to think clearer. Now, even if the nervousness was still eating her from the inside, Yasenia’s soft and warm hug seemed to cocoon her away from the world, creating a safe place for her thoughts, ‘Sigh So... Relaxing....’

Kali began thinking about the question again, considering what type of person Yasenia was from what she had learned. ‘Yasenia must have picked up some hints, but maybe she isn’t sure, so m-maybe that is why she is asking me? B-but why is she asking? I-Is she uncomfortable with someone like me liking her?’

Kali timidly lifted her head from the warm softness and looked at Yasenia. What she saw was a face that would be imprinted in her mind forever. Yasenia’s lips were gently raised, and her golden eyes were softly looking at her. Her midnight black hair fell on the sides like a curtain covering the outside world, only leaving the dragoness gentle countenance in Kali’s eyes.

Unable to remember someone looking at her like this even once after the incident, Kali couldn’t help but tear up, ‘H-How could a person that looks at someone like me with this kind of face think that I’m a nuisance?’

Kali built up her determination, and her heart rate raised again. She looked deeply into Yasenia’s golden slit eyes and began speaking, “I l-lo...”

Poor Kali was so nervous that she couldn’t continue. She was about to change her sentence, but those bright golden eyes seemed to push her forwards, filling her with courage again. Kali tried again, “I Lo-lov...”

She couldn’t finish again. However, Yasenia’s expression remained encouraging, making her push herself and try one last time. “I L-l-love y-you!”

Kali blushed crimson, and her heart accelerated, ‘I-I said it!’

Then, Kali saw Yasenia’s expression bloom like a flower in a beautiful and elated smile. At that moment, Kali’s heart was stolen by the dragoness, ‘H-how can she be s-so happy from a confession of s-someone like me?’

Next happened something that she didn’t expect.

Yasenia lowered her head, using her black and silky hair as a curtain, and Kali’s scarred lips met Yasenia’s soft and sweet ones. Kali’s eyes widened in disbelief, completely stunned, and her body froze. ‘W-w-what is h-happening!?’

While Kali’s body was as stiff as stone, she felt Yasenia trapping her lips with hers and slowly and tenderly continuing their first kiss. Then, she felt Yasenia licking the scar that went through them, sending an electric current up her brain. After that big spark, Kali's body went completely limp in the embrace of the dragoness. However, Yasenia supported her body.

The dragoness didn't stop on her mouth; she moved along her face, kissing every scar on it. As if trying to heal her with her kisses.

Kali started crying, feeling the thoughts behind her actions. Yasenia didn't mind and continued kissing each scar on her face, tasting her salty tears.

Yasenia's first regret was born today, and it was not torturing Alysa through eternity and beyond. How she wished she could go back and make Alysa's life an eternal hell.

Yasenia kissed her on the lips again, and Kali spoke between kisses and sobs, "I love you."

Yasenia stopped kissing her, and she looked at her moist verdant green eyes. Then she answered in her mellow and slightly deep voice with a smile. "I love you too, honey."

Kali directly burst into tears and wailed in her embrace. Yasenia hugged her tightly and coaxed her without stopping her kisses even for a moment. She summoned a bed and put Kali's back on it. Then, she covered her completely with her body, as if she was trying to guard her against everything in the world.

Yasenia didn't mind the salty tears or her running nose. She didn't mind how Kali looked while crying. Yasenia just felt her heart twisting by her anguished cries. "Let it out, honey. I'm here. I'm here. No one can hurt you from now on. I will protect you, now and forever."

Kali hugged her tighter and continued her loud crying. Yasenia continued in the same position, hearing her never-ending cries.

After a long time, Kali's cries became softer, and slowly, she fell asleep, feeling protected below Yasenia. Yasenia separated a little and felt Kali's arm tighten around her. She couldn't help but smile. Then, she whispered, "From now on, you are my wife, honey. I will make you feel all the happiness you lacked and more."

To Yasenia's delight, she saw how Kali's lips curved upwards. Yasenia's tail started wagging speedily because of the happiness she felt. 'Fufufu~ Just making her smile makes me this happy~ If this isn't love, then I don't know what it is~.'

The others waiting outside entered and saw this scene. Yasenia was on top of a sleeping Kali with a happy smile and a speedily wagging tail. They couldn't help but chuckle. Yasenia looked at the side with a wide smile and whispered, "Can you girls carry the bed? I don't want to bother Kali's sleep."

Andrea chuckled and said quietly, to not wake up Kali, "You seem like a dragon that got a new treasure."

Yasenia's smile widened even more, "I got a very precious and fragile treasure~ I must take care of it with all the care in the world~."
