Chapter 131

Yasenia said, “I think we should focus on developing the tool. Although I’m very tempted to try what Honey just said and tie all of you to me... I don’t find it healthy for our relationship. I want all of you to have some privacy and not feel chained to me...”

Cecile frowned a little, which Yasenia noted, “Sweetheart, if you are thinking of what I think you are... You better stop your thoughts, or I will attack you for two hours straight when I recover!”

Cecile felt her uterus twitch, and her heart rate sped up, ‘Two hours having sex with Yasenia... Would I even remain the same person?’

The others couldn’t help but swallow, ‘Two hours with Yasenia would be... Too much.’

Kali looked confused at her “Seniors,” ‘Is Yasenia that good doing that? I only felt pain and....’

A warm hand surrounded hers. Kali looked up and saw Yasenia looking at her and with the broken arm stretched towards her.

“Yasenia! Don’t move like this! Don’t you care about your wounds!?” Said Kali hastily while moving Yasenia’s arm to the previous position.

Yasenia ignored the jarring pain and gently said, using her mellow and slightly deep voice, “It is a shame that I’m like this because the moment I’m recovered, I will show you, little by little, that those things are something to cherish and not fear. Honey, do not think about the past. The moment we became together, you became my treasure. ”

Yasenia chuckled and said with a smile, looking at Kali’s eyes through the veil, as if peering into her and speaking directly to her heart, “Remember that I’m a dragon~. We don’t let our treasures slip, especially if they are our beloved. Therefore, I will always take care of you. Since the day you told me you loved me, your life was destined to take a turn for the better. No matter how often you need that reassurance, I promise to give it to you. Patiently and lovingly.”

Kali looked entranced at Yasenia’s pair of beautiful golden slit eyes, and another trait of dragons crossed her mind, ‘The dragon race, a race that never breaks promises. No matter how difficult, once they promise something seriously, they will fulfill it until the end...’

While they returned, Yasenia kept a grip on Kali’s hand, no matter how many times Kali said to release it and let it rest. Kali just gave up and sat on Yasenia’s floating bed, smiling under the veil.

After the tour around their new house ended, they returned to the big living room. There was a big sofa... Well, it was more like a sofa-bed, with enough space for two rows of people to sit and long enough for five people to sit side by side. There wasn’t only this sofa; there were two armchairs, another two normal sofas, and a big table in the middle.

Anna and Eve laid Yasenia on the sofa, levitating her to the middle, and then moved behind her in case she needed something. The other maids did similar things with their respective mistresses, sitting them around Yasenia.

Yasenia said, "Well, I won't have intercourse with any of you this week. I want to use the nights to cultivate and use the energy to mend my body. Then, I will use the day to try and comprehend the next realm of my cultivation technique. This routine will keep the seven days straight... To do this, I will also go to another place so... I won't be seeing you for one week."

Angel looked with a face that screamed betrayal at Yasenia. Yasenia looked at her baby, 'Come on, Yasenia; you have to do this!'

Yasenia was about to speak, and, as if seeing the determination in Yasenia's eyes, Angel became like a wilted little eggplant, her light blue eyes watering a little. Yasenia felt like a punch directly landed on her heart, so she said, "Of course, I will take my baby with me."

Angel's face instantly brightened with a wide smile, and the others snickered. Already expecting this outcome.

The maids started asking for their favorite dishes and similar, but instead of them, it was Yasenia who answered. The dragoness spoke about everyone's but Kali's tastes perfectly, even saying things the girls themselves didn't know but couldn't refute.

They looked amazed at how the dragoness spoke comprehensively and excitedly for almost half an hour. Feeling that the dragoness was about to talk about their favorite panties to wear, they stopped Yasenia right in her tracks before she said something barbaric.

After stopping her, Evelyn asked, stunned, "How do you know all of that?"

Yasenia was confused and said, "Of course, I observe all of you daily and deduced it. Then I memorized it."

Evelyn exclaimed, "Where do you keep that information? In some kind of storage inside your enormous ti-"

Bang!

While she was on the floor, Evelyn looked at Cecile, who just gave her forehead a flick with complete confusion. Cecile said with a deadpan expression, "Since my mate can't lash you, I will take care of it, don't worry. Yasenia's Tail Dao shall reach you even it is through me, her [Soulmate]."

Yasenia and the rest laughed.

The sunset was arriving, and Yasenia said. "Well, it is time to go... I will miss you, dears."

Andrea came forward and kissed Yasenia on the forehead, "Take care of yourself, and don't let Angel distract you. Remember that pampering can be done after you finish what you should."

Yasenia chuckled, "I like darling when she is naggy~."

Andrea smiled tenderly and kissed her lovingly, then let the others approach. Evelyn said seriously, "When you try to advance in the connection realm, do not feel the sun; try to reach for it and grab its presence. I think this could help you in your advancement."

Yasenia nodded and said, "Give me a kiss, dear. I will miss you."

Evelyn smiled and went forward, giving Yasenia a nice and slow kiss, "Take care, Yasenia. We are all worried about you. Moreover, I haven't had my fill with your breastmilk!"

Yasenia laughed aloud, "Of course, my dear. I will make sure you drink it daily. But... Haven't you noticed that breakfast tasted different?"

Evelyn nodded, "It was extremely delicious these last days! You are the best cook there is, Yasenia."

Yasenia smirked and didn't say anything else. Evelyn, for once, didn't understand the implied meaning and let Kali speak with the dragoness. Kali didn't know what to say, so she spoke a little awkwardly, "Um... Take care, and I hope you get better soon."

Yasenia smirked at her and asked, "How about a little kiss to send me off, honey?"

Kali blushed under the veil, but having seen the others doing the same, she approached and lifted the veil to let her scarred lips free. She leaned forward and pecked Yasenia. Then she let the veil fall and turned, letting Cecile approach.

Yasenia smiled gently, looking at her back; she was satisfied as long as Kali took the initiative.

Cecile said, "Yasenia, since you are going out for a week, I will also disappear for some weeks. I need to attune to my bloodline, and after speaking with teacher Madeleine through a communication jade, we decided to go some weeks on a journey to the north. We are going to the place where [Ice phoenixes] reside. She told me that we can't go to the [Moon Phoenix] territory because it is beyond our five continents."

Yasenia frowned, but looking at Cecile's eyes, she asked weakly, "Can't you wait until I return, so we can also go with you? What if someone tries to hurt you?"

Cecile shook her head and looked at the sad dragoness, "My Love, I will be receiving a ritual. It is a reward from the academy for reaching the top 200. This journey will only benefit me; I don't want to delay their advancement because of my selfishness."

Yasenia nodded and transmitted her feelings of wanting to be pampered to Cecile. Cecile smiled gently and kissed Yasenia while scratching her under the chin as she liked it. Yasenia growled comfortably while receiving the kiss. Cecile separated and said softly, "My dragoness is the cutest~."

Yasenia had a wide smile receiving her praise. Cecile continued pampering Yasenia, and after a while, they separated. Yasenia looked toward Tatyana pleadingly. Tatyana looked at Yasenia awkwardly as she said, "Little treasure, I'm also leaving for a short while; I need to go to the Forest of Life to deliver an item to the dragons."

Yasenia looked incredulously at her mother, 'I wanted mom to convince Cecile, but now she is leaving too?'

Tatyana walked forward and said between kisses to the depressed dragoness, "Little treasure, I shouldn't take longer than two weeks."

Yasenia returned the kisses and said a little sadly, "I will miss you, mom."

Seeing her daughter's face, she almost sent a subordinate to be done with it. However, this was important. She may get some unexpected rewards for Yasenia or her future dragon companion. She can then give it to her as a reward for reaching the top 100 in the tournament, and nobody would complain, not even fate.

While leaving, Yaseenia said to Cecile, "If I don't see you here in two months, I'm going to pick you up!"

Cecile nodded and left with Clara; she would accompany her these weeks. The group separated, and each went to do their things.

After preparing, Anna, Eve, and Selena carried Yaseenia and Angel on the floating bed toward a mountain. They were wearing their respective energy-gathering robes. Yaseenia had her revealing kimono, and Angel had normal green and yellow robes. "Baby, even if you are coming with me, I will focus most of my time on my recovery. Then, when I'm better, we can cultivate together. While I recover, you should also focus on advancing."

Angel nodded seriously, "Don't worry, Yaseenia. I just wanted to be near you...."

Angel said quietly, "I don't like being away from you...."

Yaseenia looked at Angel tenderly and said, "I know, baby. That is why I allowed you to come. Come here and let me pamper you until we reach there."

Angel approached with a sweet smile and laid beside Yaseenia, receiving the caresses and kisses of the dragoness. Angel was careful with Yaseenia's wounds while receiving her pampering.

After 4 hours of travel, they reached a very tall mountain. It was deep into the night, but since the sky was cloudless, the light from the moon and stars illuminated everything clearly.

When Yaseenia and Angel looked at the top of the mountain, they were completely awestruck. The top was severed horizontally as if something had cut it. They climbed and reached that area. Their wonder only increased when they arrived there; the surface of the cut was so smooth that it seemed like a mirror.

Yaseenia and Angel looked around, amazed. It was one thing to know that high-level cultivators could do feats like this and then see them in person.

Selene spoke while slithering around, "Mason cut this mountain while he trained his sword skills. This is the best sword swing he has achieved in his life... At least that I know about. As young miss and miss Angel can see, it was a cut so clean that the mountain's surface became mirror-like."

Chapter 132

It was deep into the night, and the landscape was astoundingly beautiful.

The mountain's mirror-like surface combined with the night sky, encompassing everything with the mysterious beauty of the firmament.

It was similar to walking on top of a sky full of stars. Yaseenia looked around and began feeling the celestial energies. The Moon and Star energy around were very enticing for Yaseenia. Therefore, entranced, Yaseenia stepped down from her bed, not minding her injuries.

Seeing the strange state Yaseenia entered in, no one stopped her and observed her.

Yaseenia ignored the pain as she walked a little shaky on the mirror-like surface. She felt the energies around her, the cold energy of the moon and the mysterious energy of the stars.

Yasenia couldn't help but remember the nights with her mother when she was little. She remembered Tatyana carrying her to different places and looked at the night sky together, all the while Tatyana spoke to her about the constellations and similar things.

Yasenia smiled and recited, her voice rich and mellow. "Walking in the night sky as I feel the celestial energies... Walking in the night sky, as I look at my memories...."

Yasenia subconsciously activated the [Celestial Coat], and the energy mended her wounds as she walked. The wound regeneration soared, making it less painful, making her steps firmer, and making her posture more natural.

With her posture recovered, Yasenia walked slowly, feeling the night breeze.

She looked like a lone celestial goddess with the silvery-golden energy surrounding her and the white firefly-like lights around her.

Suddenly, Yasenia felt the energy surrounding her clearly, as if she could touch it and mold it with her will. When all of this combined, it resulted in the third enlightenment Yasenia had in her short life, displaying her heavenly talent.

Anne, Eve, and Selena reacted instantly, dispersing around to avoid interruptions. Angel found Yasenia's figure so beautiful that she took a camera and began filming her!

Yasenia moved her energy around her body and focused it on her hands. Then, Yasenia reached out toward the moonlight and starlight, breaking it down and creating silver and white long threads.

These threads floated around her as she moved; Yasenia was like a celestial maiden selecting the tools for her next creation.

The process was slow, but Yasenia walked around and moved her hands, breaking down more and more moonlight and starlight.

The threads accumulated as time passed, and the seconds turned to minutes and the minutes to hours.

Yasenia now had a long silver and white trail behind her.

Yasenia began to struggle to maintain all this Yin energy, and she felt it chilling her body. Her energy dwindled fast.

Yasenia needed a source of Yang energy before her energy reached zero, or her efforts would be in vain. However, her worries were unfounded since a lot of time had passed since she started this celestial dance.

Sunrise arrived.

The first sunlight reflected in the sky and the mirror-like surface, and Yasenia's face formed a smile as if welcoming the lover she had been waiting for. Evelyn's comment flashed in her mind, and Instead of waiting for the Sun to appear completely, Yasenia directly looked at the horizon and extended one hand toward it.

The weak sunlight of dawn gathered and shot toward Yasenia's hand. When this ray of sunlight passed through her hand, Yasenia seemed to grab the sunlight and pulled slowly, breaking it into golden threads.

The golden threads moved toward her silver-white trail and combined with them. The energies became berserk because the Moon and Sun were opposite poles and reacted violently. However, Yasenia's [Celestial Yin and Yang] constitution kicked in, and these chaotic energies were tamed without effort. Thus, a balance was created.

Yasenia's aura inflated and exploded outwards when this happened, making all the threads fly around!

Then, Yasenia started dancing around while picking up the threads with her hands and tail, weaving them together and creating a garment.

Angel and the others held their breath as they saw the energy of the Moon, Sun, and stars ethereally interlocking with each other. The lights of dawn and Yasenia reflected in the mirror-like surface, creating a scene of pure empyrean beauty.

Yasenia weaved them faster the more time passed.

The garment began taking form, showing it was a dress. Its main color was white, with long and wide sleeves. An intricate golden and silver eastern dragon climbed up her long sleeves—the golden one from the right and the silver one from the left.

They reached her shoulders and interlocked in the middle above the chest area. Yasenia began sweating as it became more and more difficult to continue creating the dress.

She created the waist area and began with the skirt. First, she made a very long white flowy skirt with a silver moon on the left side and a golden sun on its right side. Yasenia spent her silver and golden threads with this, and only some white threads were left. Since the dress was very open in the front, she made a white miniskirt below the long skirt, reaching mid-thigh and covering her privates.

With this, Yasenia finished it and made it levitate in front of her. It was almost the end of sunrise by the time she finished.

Then, Yasenia walked through it and spoke aloud, her voice resounding from everywhere and nowhere simultaneously with imposing might.

“[Celestial Dress]!”

The dress adjusted to her, and when it covered her, Yasenia's aura tyrannically exploded! Her presence multiplied and covered everything as her wounds healed with abnormal speed. Thirty seconds later, Yasenia was as good as new.

Yasenia's aura relaxed and floated downwards gently again. She turned toward Angel and the rest with a smile. Angel blushed deeply, ‘Oh my heavens, if she becomes even more gorgeous, I won't know what to do!’

Yasenia approached step by step, sashaying her hips and swishing her tail. Her white sleeves and dress flowed with the soft wind, and the tight-fitting top accentuated her body, making it an alluring sight. Angel's little heart was going astray!

Eve, Anna, and Selena woke up from their stupor and bowed, saying simultaneously, “Congratulations, young miss!”

Yasenia nodded and reached Angel’s side, burying her baby in her breasts. Angel hugged Yasenia’s waist, feeling the extremely silky dress and soft breasts around her head. “You are so beautiful~. I love you~.”

Yasenia laughed gently and said, “Baby, you have to cultivate. You haven’t done anything but watch me all this time.”

Angel looked up without separating and said shyly, “I couldn’t look away from you... You were very beautiful...”

Yasenia smiled tenderly and lowered her head to kiss her. Angel tip-toed and wound her arms around her neck, and Yasenia took the chance to pick her up. After kissing a short while, Yasenia said, “Let’s continue cultivating. I finally got a hint about the connection realm thanks to this.”

Angel nodded but didn’t seem to have the intention of moving from her embrace! Yasenia didn’t mind and carried her to the middle. However, when she started sprinting, Angel had to grab onto Yasenia strongly! ‘S-s-so fast!?’

They reached the middle of the mountain at absurd speeds! The maids looked completely impressed at their young miss. ‘If she had this dress in the battle against Isla, she would have been able to fight back slightly against her transformed state!’

Yasenia sat cross-legged, sitting Angel in the hollow between her legs, and hugged her baby from behind, resting Angel’s head on her softness. They cultivated in that position.

The most important thing while cultivating is being relaxed, comfortable, and able to focus while ignoring the outside. For Angel being between Yasenia’s arms, surrounded by her softness, was the best place to cultivate. For Yasenia, having her baby between her arms was no bother.

Therefore, Yasenia and Angel cultivated seated like this. It wasn’t recommended to gather energy that way because you leave yourself too vulnerable, but Yasenia’s trust in her baby was maxed out!

Not to mention Angel’s trust in Yasenia, for Angel Yasenia was her heaven, who pampered and loved her so much? Not even her parents in the Star Empire!

This doesn’t mean that Angel doesn’t love her parents or vice versa; they have always been quite a loving family. Her parents are a single couple, and even her elder sister, who was very strict with her, always treated her nicely.

However, since her elder sister was extremely talented, she had been under too much pressure since she was little.

Angel’s sister was from the Heavenly sect, and her parents wanted her to enter there too. However, Angel decided to go to the Academy to avoid being under her sister’s shadow. This is why Angel was quite lonely during the first years in the Academy. She didn’t know how to make friends since she always relied on her sister for social interactions.

At first, she was a little regretful since she had trouble making companions. But after two years passed in the Academy, she met the love of her life. A dragoness who blows away her sister's talent by a mile and who is always loving and caring of her.

She never pressured her into anything and supported her decisions, aiding her in everything she could. Angel sometimes can't believe she was this blessed, but she was reassured when she woke up on her lover's soft and fragrant body every morning.

Nonetheless, there was one thing that sometimes bothered her. Her mother, Anastasia, doesn't like harems one bit! She was somewhat nervous, thinking about the time she had to present Yasenia to her parents...

Yasenia felt Angel getting uneasy and unable to cultivate, so she asked, "Is it about your mother again? Haven't we spoken about this already, baby? We will face her in the future, and I promise to convince her to let us be together."

Angel looked above her shoulder at Yasenia with her droopy and big blue eyes showing few insecurities. Yasenia tightened the hug and lowered her head to kiss her.

Angel closed her eyes and relaxed, opening her mouth to receive Yasenia's sweet and slimy tongue. Angel felt it invade her mouth and tasted it with delight, sighing through her nose. 'I could be kissing with Yasenia all day....'

Angel felt the tongue leaving her mouth, so she bit softly in protest. Yasenia reentered her mouth and caressed Angel's big breasts with her hands. The maids turned around and dispersed.

Yasenia continued fondling with one hand, and the other went down between Angel's legs. Angel moaned while kissing, and she relaxed her whole body. Yasenia passed her fingers through Angel's plump lower lips slowly and rubbed her.

Using Angel's fluids, she lubricated her fingers and entered her tight entrance. Angel opened her legs, leaving Yasenia's hand better access to her. "Mmm, Mmph!"

Yasenia hooked her fingers up, caressing that spot, and also touched Angel's clitoris softly with her thumb. After hooking her fingers up and pressing there, Angel's waist jumped, and a big moan left her mouth. Yasenia took out her fingers and massaged her plump labia. Then, she started again.

Yasenia's hand movements sent electric sparks through Angel's body, and Angel's legs twitched in pleasure. When Yasenia began hastening her movements, Angel didn't have any other option but to surrender to the dragoness's hand, and shortly after, she reached orgasm. "MMPH!"

Oh, how much she loved kissing Yasenia deeply while she orgasmed. Angel trembled as she came and sucked voraciously on the tongue inside her mouth.

Yasenia stopped the stimulation and took out her fingers. Then, she gently rubbed her labia while Angel orgasmed, leaving a blob instead of a person in her embrace. Yasenia separated her mouth and asked huskily, "Baby, are you more relaxed now~?"

Angel mewled, "I love you~."

Yasenia lowered Angel's garments to her knees. Then, she kissed her again and continued the soft rubbing. However, she moved her tail this time, and without changing positions, she approached

Angel's entrance. She pressed the tip on her flower, and while she fondled and rubbed her clitoris, the thick tail tip entered, spreading her labia. "Ohh... Yaseenia~."

Yaseenia thrust her tail and moved her hands. Angel entered a world of pleasure, receiving the dragoness's assault. Angel's orgasm reached again, and she squirted. Yaseenia stopped her tail and pleasantly felt Angel's inner contractions. She stopped kissing her and said, looking at the orgasming girl, "My baby's insides are so comfortable~."

Angel's insides clenched even more when she heard Yaseenia's 'motherly' tone.

When Yaseenia felt her spasms stop, she started again. This time, she lowered the hand on Angel's breasts, passed her vagina, and reached her back entrance. With the fluids that dropped from the orgasm, she penetrated her butt with her fingers and stimulated her. Angel moaned, looking up at the dragoness captivating golden eyes. Yaseenia didn't kiss her again; she stared at Angel with a loving expression as she stimulated her.

Angel became entranced looking at her and could only moan, "Ah! AH! Ah! Mmm~."

Angel reached another orgasm shortly after. "Ahhh!!"

Yaseenia slowed down her ministrations and asked, "How is my baby feeling~?"

Angel's answer was slurred, "Shoo good~."

Yaseenia restarted her thrusting, this time to paint her insides white. Angel felt the more aggressive thrust pushing against her cervix and knew what was coming. "Yesh~ fill me~!"

Yaseenia sped up, and after 3 minutes, she pressed the tail-tip on the cervix, almost opening it, and came strongly.

Angel felt the electricity rush up from her uterus to her brain strongly. Her eyes rolled up, and she sprayed strongly. "AAAHH!!!!"

Yaseenia pressed the tail against the cervix and released as much Yang energy as possible. Angel started spasming, feeling the overwhelming Yang energy in her uterus, and had continuous orgasms. "OHHHH!!!"

Yaseenia focused on her discharge, and when she felt that it would start overflowing, she stopped cumming. However, she didn't take out her tail, using it as a stopper for her release. Angel had a lewd smile on her face as her body trembled with pleasure. Yaseenia looked at her belly and saw a little bump, "This is what I call filled to the brim~."

Chapter 133

Yaseenia looked at her belly and saw a little bump, "This is what I call filled to the brim~. Anna, Eve, Selena, you can come."

The three appeared and looked at the two of them. Yaseenia didn't mind them seeing her baby naked, "Selena, help me clean my baby without touching my inserted tail. Anna, clean my sweat; I don't want my mating scent bothering us while we cultivate."

Both answered without a change in expression, "Yes, young miss."

The maids were all quite old, most being above the five hundreds. Therefore, they didn't mind such a scene; they were more eager or expectant to try this themselves than any other thing.

They approached and did as told. Selena couldn't help but sniff around, and Yaseña's potent sweet floral scent caressed her olfactory sense, sending pleasant shivers all around her serpentine body. Selena looked at Yaseña with her red slit eyes and said coquettishly, "Young miss, your scent has become so pleasant~ I liked it when you were little, but now it is on another level~."

Yaseña lifted her arm, letting Anna clean her under-boob, and asked curiously, "Does it affect you?"

Selena nodded with a wagging tail. "I feel myself tingling very slightly and pleasantly. It isn't something that normally would arouse me, but being the scent from young miss, I can't help but become excited~."

Selena smirked and said, "This is an achievement since I'm more than two realms above young miss. The scent is truly potent. I don't know how miss Angel and the rest can sniff during intercourse without becoming completely sex crazed..."

Yaseña sighed, "I'm also not sure, but I can guess that it is because they have been getting accustomed to it these months and because they have grown a lot cultivating my Yang energy. I think they have become somewhat immune to its bad side effects."

Yaseña looked at Selena and smiled apologetically, "The stronger I get, the harsher it will be for you, the beast-human maids. Tell me if it becomes too much, and I will be careful."

Selena laughed and kissed Yaseña's cheek, "Don't worry, young miss. We are all eager to mate with you~ Even if we can't gain your affections, having intercourse with the young miss from time to time would be a reward for us and something to celebrate."

Selena finished cleaning Angel, and Angel started coming to herself after her big orgasm. Selena raised Angel's pants until it was impossible to raise them more because of the inserted tail and nodded, satisfied.

Meanwhile, Yaseña looked strangely at Selena. She thought for a moment and said, a little awkwardly. "I don't have plans to mate with anyone other than my lovers. So I don't think it would be wise for all of you to live with those expectations..."

Selena nodded in understanding and said gently, "We know, but who knows what will happen in the future~ Even if young miss doesn't love us, could you imagine all of us carrying young miss child? What a beautiful scene it would be! The house filled with Young miss's beautiful children, with different traits and looks, as they laugh and play around~."

Selena's long serpentine red tail wagged excitedly, thinking about how her child with her dearest young miss would be.

Yaseña was about to speak more, but looking at Selena's dreamy face, she didn't comment anymore. 'Who knows what would happen in the future... I will just let it in the air and let nature take its course. If it happens, then it happens. Moreover, it wouldn't be a bad way to spread my bloodline. I'm sure the maids would be extremely good mothers.'

Angel came back from her orgasm and was a little absentminded, "Sho much energy inside me~ So comfortable~."

Angel heard four laughs instead of one and was startled. She looked around and saw the maids near, she looked down to confirm what she was feeling, and she indeed saw the tail still inserted, spreading her labia open. Her face went red with a puff, and she tried to cover her privates with her hands. “W-W-Why are they here?”

Yasenia chuckled and kissed her cheek, “To clean us, of course. Let’s cultivate, baby. I have filled you so much to accelerate the cultivation speed since you are starting to be left behind by the others. I know you work hard, but you focus too much time learning formation theory.”

Angel looked at Yasenia, still blushing, and asked, stuttering, “C-cultivate like this? W-With the tail in? A-And them looking?”

Yasenia nodded, not understanding her hesitations. Common sense in this aspect was null for our dear dragoness. For Yasenia, the maids seeing her naked was extremely normal; they have even cleaned her privates before. So she didn’t see a problem. She saw the maids as professional people who wouldn’t overstep their boundaries unless you let them, and of course, like family.

Yasenia said, “Selena is your personal maid, and Anna and Even are mine. There aren’t strangers here. I don’t see the problem with cultivating like this. Are you uncomfortable, baby?”

Angel looked at Selena and saw her looking back at her with a gentle smile; there wasn’t anything more in her red slit eyes. Those eyes somewhat resembled Yasenia’s, and she couldn’t help but feel comforted.

Yasenia felt Angel relaxing because the very clenched vagina was loosening. Yasenia looked at Angel and said, “Baby, this time for real, let’s cultivate before I begin to think that you are a distraction and don’t carry you with me anymore!”

Yasenia felt the vagina clenching again and almost laughed out loud. ‘This is funny. I can tell her reactions through my connected tail~.’

Angel closed her eyes and tried to relax. It wasn’t easy at first because, well, she had the thick tail inserted, and she was filled with her dear dragoness seed in front of relatively new people.

But, after half an hour, her nerves relaxed completely, and she was able to start cultivating. When Yasenia felt Angel start, she activated the dual cultivation technique and circulated the Yang energy inside her baby.

Angel felt her hot Yang energy circulating around her body and nourishing her, and moaned in comfort. She loved this part because Yasenia’s Yang energy was so potent that it seemed to be giving her life.

Angel felt her airways expanding and her pores opening, breathing the energy of the world while the Yang energy inside combined with that energy, multiplying its effectiveness many-fold. Her meridians strengthened, and her energy became purer, accumulating in her dantian. ‘My Yasenia is like a cultivation treasure~ She is the best~.’

They continued cultivating that way until Angel completely absorbed the Yang energy. Then Yasenia took out the tail. Angel opened her eyes and saw Yasenia lifting her legs and pants like a baby and pushing above her uterus with her hand coated with energy. She blushed when she felt and saw all the semen pouring out of her.

The maids lifted an eyebrow, and Anna asked curiously, “Young miss, how many times did you release to fill Lady Angel so much?”

Yasenia looked strangely at her and said, “Once.”

The maids’ eyes widened and looked at their miss, stupefied. Eve asked, “H-How many times can young miss release? Three times? Four?”

Yasenia looked even more strangely, “I haven’t counted, but that isn’t even 10% of what I can release.”

Selena choked, and Anna and Eve looked at their miss like she was an existence of another universe. Anna said, “I’ve heard Lady Tatyana bragging of young miss sexual prowess, but this... Will our other ladies be able to remain alive after she reaches higher levels of cultivation? Not even an incubus of the same level is this absurd.”

Yasenia saw their looks and asked, “Is it that... exaggerated?”

Eve said, looking at the big white puddle. “Young miss, the amount you can release once is more than what a single male cultivator of your level can without a high-level dual cultivation technique. And an Incubus of young miss level can release five times that amount on average. Taking into account that, as Lady Tatyana described, “Her pussy is a marvel of the world!” well....”

Yasenia almost spurted blood, ‘What the hell is mom spreading around!?’

If Tatyana were here, she would have undoubtedly answered, “The truth.”

Selena finished saying, “Young miss is like a powerful incubus and succubus blended into one, with the perk that it is not harmful to have intercourse with you. Calling you peerless in sexual prowess at your level wouldn’t be an exaggeration.”

Angel, who was listening, was stunned. ‘A-And here I thought Yasenia was not much different from any other male... Knowing things in perspective is quite shocking... Wait, isn’t this sexual prowess keep growing the stronger she gets?’

Angel looked at Yasenia and saw her frowning; Yasenia was thinking very similarly to Angel, ‘I knew I was abnormal, but I didn’t know that I was that out of the norm. I now am satisfied with my dears and can control my lust, even if I have to do little escapades from time to time... But what about when I become stronger? What will happen when I reach the Unification realm? Or the Dantian Spiritualization Realm?’

Angel raised one hand to caress Yasenia between her eyebrows, trying to ease her frown, and spoke gently, “Yasenia, we will cross all the bridges when we reach them. Thinking about it right now is not worth it. Moreover, our sexual stamina will also grow the higher our cultivation.”

Yasenia smiled and reinserted the tail, moving it again. Angel moaned at the surprise insertion and opened her legs, leaning back and placing her head between Yasenia’s breasts. Yasenia continued moving her tail and said sensually, “You are right, baby~ But, since the energy is already zero, we have to fill you one more time~.”

Angel grabbed Yasenia’s knees as the tail thrust strongly against her cervix. She moaned and moaned again, going crazy with stimulation.

The maids had already retreated when Yasenia's tail moved toward Angel. Even if looking at them naked wasn't a big deal, they didn't want to intrude on their intimate time.

Yasenia and Angel used this... Training regime for 2 hours. Yasenia filling Angel, then cultivating the energy, spurring the semen outside, and restarting the cycle. Our poor baby was completely limp between Yasenia's legs as the dragoness sent her to heaven again and again.

After these two hours, they cultivated normally for eight hours, letting Angel relax. Then they started again.

On the fifth day of receiving this "Heavenly" Training, after an hour of the sexual intercourse, Angel was spasming on Selena's arms as Selena cleaned her. Her speech was completely slurred as her vagina was still squirting with each spasm, sending electrical currents to her brain even at this moment. "Yhashenia, I can't anymhore~."

Yasenia chuckled and thought, 'Well, although she is dead tired, her cultivation has skyrocketed. On the seventh day, she will advance to the third level. I'm also closer to the second level~.'

Yasenia approached Selena and hugged her baby, taking the towel from Selena and cleaning her. Angel was limp in her embrace, her waist twitching repeatedly. She looked at Yasenia's face, completely entranced and waiting for her answer.

Yasenia smiled gently as she sighed, "How can I make my baby do something she doesn't want? Cultivating normally these last two days should be enough for you to advance."

She kissed Angel's forehead and said, "You've worked hard, baby. I'm proud of you."

After hearing that, Angel felt something hitting her heart. 'I have to work harder!'

Therefore, even though all her muscles ached and her meridians were flooded with Yasenia's Yang energy, which caused her to feel pleasure over the slightest stimulation, she said with slurring speech, "C-Continue, I will lasht until the end."

Yasenia looked at Angel's eyes and asked Anna and Eve, "Can she continue the next two days without long-term issues?"

Anna approached Angel and picked her wrist, sending energy scanning her body. 'I can't help but marvel at young miss's Yang energy purity; Angel's body is being nourished and strengthened by the second. Miraculous is the word for this effect. However, if young miss had a single lover... This would be the outcome just five days in...'

Anna scanned every meridian, blood vessel, and dantian. 'She is completely saturated with Yang energy. Although she has Yang energy saturation... Her body is absorbing it faster as time passes. It seems that young miss's speculation is accurate, and their bodies adapt to her potent Yang energy as the time passes.'

Anna said, "Young miss, she is saturated with your Yang energy; she has enough for the next two days... And more even if you don't refill her. I recommend stopping right now since it would start to be harmful if young miss continues. Moreover, there won't be any long-term repercussions as long as she stays with you."

Yasenia nodded and looked at her baby, saying firmly, “Then, we will only do normal cultivation. You have enough pressure trying to follow after me. I won’t make our cultivation sessions harsher than they should be.”

Angel hugged Yasenia, burying her face between her breast, and nodded.

Yasenia sat cross-legged and sat Angel in the hollow of her legs again, this time facing her breasts. She hugged her baby and surrounded her with her softness.

Angel suddenly caught a point in Anna’s words and asked, her speech still slurred. “What do you mean as long as I’m with Yasenia?”

Anna said, “If you continue having intercourse with young miss, miss Angel will develop sexual anhedonia for any other person that it isn’t young miss. Meaning, miss Angel won’t be able to feel sexual satisfaction doing it with other people other than young miss.”

Angel smiled and hugged Yasenia tighter, burying herself more in her dragoness’s embrace. “That isn’t a problem~.”

Yasenia, however, was frowning slightly. “Isn’t there a method to avoid this? I don’t want my baby to live with that condition if something happens to me.”

Eve answered, “Stop having intercourse with miss Angel. This isn’t a condition caused by cultivation, disease, or other afflictions. It is caused because young miss is too good at having sexual relationships, and young miss’s energy is very potent. Not only miss Angel, I’m sure the others are also having their bodies changed to resist the high stimulation young miss gives while having sexual intercourse. After all, a cultivator’s body has high adaptability.”

Yasenia sighed, “I see... Since it is something inevitable, I won’t look further into it. However, could you try to research a way to undo this?”

Anna and Eve nodded, “As you wish, young miss.”

After this conversation, they passed the last two days cultivating normally. Angel had recovered a lot, and her speech was already normal. Angel’s body had absorbed most of the Yang energy inside, and her cultivation had already reached the bottleneck.

When the hour to return was approaching, Angel had enough energy inside her, so she accumulated it in her dantian and started compressing it.

Using her own energy and Yasenia’s lingering Yang energy, she rotated the energy and pushed through the spiritual bottleneck. After a while Bang! she advanced to the next level.

The energy circulated around her body, focusing on her mind and healing the little effects left of the five-day “Heavenly Training.”

Completely recovered and feeling her new strength, she looked up at Yasenia, who was looking at her. Then, with a radiant smile, Angel said, “I broke through!”

Yasenia kissed her once and said, “But of course, my baby is a cultivation genius!” Angel laughed happily, receiving her praise.

Yasenia picked her up and stood up, going toward the maids. “Time to return~ I miss my dears, and now that I’m recovered is time to make honey fall head over heels for me!”

All of them nodded and prepared to return. They mounted a flying boat and left the mirror-like mountain. These days have been quite enlightening for Yasenia since she has approached the next realm of her cultivation technique again. If before she saw it as a tall mountain without a visible peak to climb, now it was a tall mountain with a visible but still unreachable peak.

During this week, Andrea, Kali, and Evelyn got accustomed to the new house and set up their workplaces. Evelyn was nearing advancement, and so was Andrea.

Kali didn’t have major improvements in terms of cultivation. Still, she has been able to gradually stabilize her shaky foundation thanks to Flora’s guidance and gaining a more stable heart. If before her soul was dark with slight green spots, after confessing, she had all those green spots gathered in one place, pushing against the corruption in her soul.

Meanwhile, Tatyana had already reached the core of the forbidden zone, The Forest of Life, and was staying there. Not completely out of her will, but because the dragons were very grateful and wouldn’t let her go after returning the thing for their princess.

This was true, especially for the young dragon princess, who wanted to meet with Yasenia. Tatyana was thinking, ‘I feel that you will only be heartbroken if you meet with her now! No matter what you do, you won’t be able to enter her harem...’

Due to this, she tried to convince the dragon princess while picking up some items to create a core similar to what the princess ingested and give it to Yasenia. She wanted to give this core to her little treasure as a reward when she achieved something worthy of it. ‘It doesn’t matter when she ingests this as long as it is before the transcendence realm, so I have no haste in creating it... I’m going to rob- Cough get the necessary materials as my reward and then create it little by little with Avalonia’s help.’

The dragons let her choose materials from their treasury, so she wasn’t holding back. Some dragon elders had their eyebrows twitching because she was practically robbing them blind. But what could they do when their Dragon Emperor, Empress, and Princess were all smiles as Tatyana put item after item inside her ring?

On the other side, Cecile, Clara, and Madeleine had just reached the [Ice Nirvana Mountain], which was the territory of the Ice phoenixes. The mountain was a sky-reaching mountain with more than 800km in altitude. (100 times the Everest)

Madeleine was speaking with an Elder of the phoenix clan about the trade they have done with the Academy for the chance Cecile will receive. Madeleine said. “Then, the deal is set. We will be here accommodating until our student acclimates to the aura in your mountain, elevating the chances of the ritual [Glacial Rebirth] succeeding. After that, we will proceed with the ritual.”

The person Madeleine spoke to wasn’t a person but a tremendously giant phoenix! With over 2km in height and a sky shrouding wing-span of 5km. This mountain-sized [Ice Phoenix] was one of the strongest and oldest of them. When he answered, his voice sounded ancient and deep as it echoed around, “This is only a one-time trade, be grateful that we owed something to that child, Tatyana.”

Cecile couldn’t help but have chills hearing this monstrous bird calling Tatyana “child.” ‘How ancient must one be to call Tatyana child?’

The phoenix moved his football-field-size phoenix eyes, looking directly at Cecile. His giant beak arched slightly, "I remember ending my youth when the Heavenly Cataclysm happened, so you can more or less guess... Oh~ Your bloodline is quite pure... But you weren't born with it, right? You had our bloodline before transforming into [Moon Phoenix]. Hmmm, an inheritance. Girl, do you know the name of the God that gave you this inheritance?"

Cecile bowed respectfully, not minding about the phoenix mind reading. "Answering senior, I don't. I received it more than a week ago, so I'm still quite unfamiliar with it."

The phoenix moved his head up and down, creating gales around him, and said, "Being honest is good. It is a shame that you are already marked, or I would have liked marrying you to my son. What a shame."

Cecile bowed again and said, "Senior, I know I'm being rude, but I love my current mate with all my heart, so I hope any mishaps can be avoided. Maybe telling the juniors about it would be ideal."

The phoenix chuckled and lowered his giant wing, "Get on; since you had our bloodline before, I will carry you up to the mountain. It will be quite fun."

Cecile looked at Madeleine, and when she saw her nodding, Cecile started climbing the majestic creature with eagerness. She used her top speed since a single wing was more than 2 km long. Cecile used the enormous feathers as a foothold, jumping, and shot up to the middle of his back.

While climbing, Cecile suddenly heard him say, "And don't worry about what you just said, little chick. Let me know if anyone tries anything funny. I don't want to be on the bad side of that child."

Cecile, who was excitedly climbing the phoenix's wing, almost tripped with one feather. 'Not even the phoenixes want to become Tatyana's enemies!?'

Madeleine levitated at the side and also helped Clara. When Cecile reached the middle of the back of the phoenix, it extended its wings, creating a shadow on the landscape. Then, he flapped once gently.

Cecile could see the air compressing below the giant wings, terrifyingly making the space tremble! Then the landscape stretched in Cecile's vision as they went up with nonsensical speed.

The scenery completely blurred, and Cecile could only hold her breath, thinking that she was about to die. A barrier made by the phoenix protected her, so she didn't feel the momentum, wind, or anything else. It was just the incredible experience of flying at such speed that had Cecile completely stiff and with a widely beating heart.

The flight only lasted a minute, but Cecile could have sworn that she was in that back for hours. After the elder stopped, Cecile fell to her knees, breathing roughly. 'What a frightening experience! Mount the giant phoenix; it will be fun, he said. I thought I would die!'

If you look closely, you could see a smirk on the phoenix's beak, as if he was successful in pranking someone and was quite happy. Madeleine shook her head with a smirk, 'He is as playful as ever with the children.'

Back at the Mansion, Kali and the others waited for Yaseña's return. They've received a message from a communication jade, and they knew that they would arrive today. Therefore, they walked toward the entrance and waited there.

They saw Yaseña and the others approaching the mansion's gates some minutes later. They focused on Yaseña and saw her walking confidently with her typical sashaying hips without injuries. Seeing their dragoness safe and healthy made their lips arch, happy at her recovery. Andrea said, "It seems that you recovered perfectly... Wow, Angel, you had a breakthrough! What kind of training did you do?"

Angel blushed and said, sounding a little sluggish, "I will tell you, girls, later, I'm beat, and I want to sleep a bit."

Yaseña walked toward Kali, and when she was near, she embraced her and asked, placing their foreheads together and deepening her voice, "Did you miss me, honey~?"

Kali's heart rate accelerated as she didn't know what to do with her arms. Moreover, having the soft and fragrant body surrounding her and the sweet floral scent assaulting her senses short-circuited her brain.

Yaseña felt the woman between her arms going stiff, so she slightly kissed her ear and used her tail to guide Kali's arms around her waist. Yaseña separated slightly and lifted Kali's veil slowly, only showing her lips.

Kali felt the breeze on her lips and woke up. Yaseña's gentle actions, as if asking permission to continue her actions, tickled something in her heart, making her more receptive to the dragoness.

Yaseña was delighted to see that Kali wasn't rejecting intimacy. Not wanting to test her limits or startle her, she went forward and kissed her, only placing her lips on her.

Kali felt the soft, plump, and moist lips landing on her scarred ones, and she tightened the hug instinctively. 'I've missed this more than I thought. Her soft and moist lips feel heavenly.'

She closed her eyes, forgetting about the surroundings. Yaseña gave Kali tap kisses and then separated. Yaseña said, adding a seductive tone that made Kali's ears tingle, "I'm happy that honey likes my kisses~ Let's continue later, okay, love?"

Kali opened her eyes, looked at Yaseña, and blushed. She looked down, only to be greeted by a deep valley of soft flesh. 'I don't know where to look when I'm with her!'

Yaseña waited for her answer patiently. After Kali managed to remove her gaze from her attractive breasts, she looked at the side and nodded very slightly. Receiving the affirmative from Kali made Yaseña laugh happily. She gave her one last peck over the veil and moved toward Evelyn.

Evelyn said with a mischievous smile, "I see that you are cooking our new companion rather slowly and nicely~ I'm getting jealous."

She was silenced by Yaseña grabbing her waist and lowering her face to invade her mouth passionately and aggressively. Evelyn could only surround Yaseña's neck with her arms and become limp under the Dragoness administration. After separating, Yaseña said, "I missed you, dear."

Evelyn said a little shyly, "I also missed you! Especially your giant ti-" Bang!

After sending Evelyn flying because she ruined their romantic moment, Yaseenia turned toward Andrea.

This time it was the dragoness's turn to get conquered. Andrea unceremoniously hugged Yaseenia and kissed her dominantly, as Yaseenia liked the most. Yaseenia hugged Andrea's waist as Andrea placed her arms over Yaseenia's shoulders and deepened the kiss.

They put their waist and chest together, feeling each other's hardness and softness at the same time. Yaseenia didn't forget to use her tail to hide their erections.

Andrea said after the kiss, "Let's go inside; I'm impatient to eat my dragoness's cooking again."

Yaseenia's tail wagged happily as she said, "Then, I will cook a nice meal~ I'm learning something interesting!"

Yaseenia looked at the maids and said, "We are back, Flora, Leila, Alaia."

The maids bowed and said, "Welcome back, young miss!"

Chapter 135

Yaseenia looked at the maids and said, "We are back, Flora, Leila, Alaia."

The maids bowed and said, "Welcome back, young miss!"

Leila, the brown, gentle-looking dog-kin, said, "Young miss, all your credits have been used buying the tools needed for Spirit Cooking."

Yaseenia frowned, "We will have to go on some missions... Can I change coins into credits?"

Alaia, the yellow-blue, voluptuous, seductive dragon-kin, said, "Yes, miss. However, I don't recommend it. The conversion rates are awful."

The light-green-skinned beautiful dryad, Flora, shook her head, rustling her branches as she said. "Lady Tatyana didn't want rich people from the outside buying her resources, so she made the conversion rates absolutely nightmarish. This, however, doesn't stop the Academy's purchasing power since we have coins coming from our shops on the outside."

Yaseenia lifted her eyebrow, "Then, can't they do the same? Setting up shops and winning credits?"

Alaia smirked and said, "They can, but they must place a shop with better items than ours, which would benefit us. And most importantly, they must amass wealth from the beginning again. If they go bankrupt, the number of coins they have to pay is rather... profitable."

Yaseenia asked, "So what is the main power that my mom controls?"

None of the maids answered; Yaseenia tsked, "Since you were answering everything so nicely, I hoped you would slip up."

The maids kept silent and smiled at her, making Yaseenia pout, a critical strike for everyone present! Leila said, "I'm sorry, young miss. Even if we are completely loyal to you, Lady Tatyana is someone we can't go against."

Yaseenia turned and walked toward the house sensually, "Nevermind, little by little, I will uncover her secrets~ I'm not in a hurry to do so."

The rest followed behind the dragoness, looking at her back. Yasenya said, “I’m going to the kitchen to make the dinner since it is already quite late~. Wait for me in the living room.”

Yasenia walked toward the kitchen. It was very big, clear that they had put effort into making it. There were normal cooking tools, advanced ones, and giant ones. Yasenia looked curiously at the three-meter-long kitchen “knives,” or five-meter diameter saucepans, frying pans, and more. ‘What will I do with these? Maybe some technique in the spirit cooking book will need them later?’

Yasenia shook her head and began reading the spirit cooking book. She saw the way of applying energy to the food, how the quality of the food affects the result, and that the condiments are also extremely important. The level of the beast or plant someone could cook was the deciding factor in ranking a spirit chef.

It was easy to cook high-level meat, but to spiritually cook them was an extremely different matter. With spirit cooking, second-ranked beast meat can compare with fourth-ranked beast-meat nutrient-wise.

Yasenia used her super-enhanced mind and read at extremely high speed. It was a shame that she was still in the first level, and she only had her thinking speed accelerated. ‘I want to reach the seventh level... The comprehension enhancement will be a very big plus.’

After thirty minutes, she memorized the first book. She picked up the cooking knife, low-level first-ranked beast meat, and started. ‘Let’s start low and go up. I have some time to practice before I need to make food for my dears.’

Halfway through, while Yaseria heated the stove with the meat in it, she added her energy to begin refining the food. The thing that happened with Alchemy and Blacksmithing happened again.

Her energy went astray inside the tool, and all the food was ruined, burned, and melted at the same time; a very unsightly mess. ‘Why is my energy always reacting so differently with the tools!?’

Yasenia sighed as she looked at the mess she had made. “Not even mortals would eat this... They would die!”

Yasenia looked at the hour and saw she had time for two more attempts. She tried again. This time the food literally blew up from the stove, staining everything. Yasenia stood there, with dead eyes, looking at the mess she had made. She sighed and began cleaning everything. “Cooking normally is going to be the way....”

Yasenia thought for a moment and smiled, “I will make a cream with my milk to be more nutritious. I’m sure my dears will like it~.”

She took out a milking tool and pressed it on her nipple; then, she milked herself. After four minutes, Yasenya looked at the filled two-liter bottle with a smile. “I’m rather productive~ Let’s make something delicious for my dears~.”

She decided to do a lasagna!

She took the tools and heated two tablespoons of vegetable oil in a medium-sized saucepan. Then, she put the onion and diced it with her tail instantly. She sauteed it for some minutes until it was soft and translucent.

Yasenia nodded as she put the 500 grams of spirit beast ground beef until it browned, breaking it with a wooden spoon. She added one teaspoon of cinnamon, black pepper, salt, and minced garlic.

Yasenia smiled as she saw her dish coming into being.

Then, she added tomato sauce, tomato paste, some basil, oregano, rosemary, thyme, and marjoram and let it boil for five minutes. Finally, she added half a cup of hot water and let it simmer for 30 minutes, lowering her Sun flames.

While that simmered, she went to do the béchamel!

In another saucepan, she melted one-quarter of a cup of butter with the flour at medium heat. After whisking for three minutes until it was golden brown, Yasenia picked up her recently milked warm milk. She put two cups of it and one cup of heavy cream. 'Mortals should warm the milk and heavy cream for one minute, making it warm... Well, it is warm since I just milked it~ Fufufu, so convenient~.'

After pouring them, she whisked constantly. Then she added minced garlic and a pinch of nutmeg. She reduced the heat so that the mixture simmered and continued to whisk until it thickened. 'Mortals should take 8 to 10 minutes to thicken it... Weak.'

She sped up her hand at inhuman speed and used her energy to create that thick, delicious sauce. Yasenia smirked and thought, '30 seconds, and it is done!'

She turned off the heat and mixed some cheese. 'Special cheese made from my milk! It is delicious~.' (recommended Parmesan cheese).

Then, she set it aside to cool slightly. Yasenia tasted it, 'Mmm~ Delicious, my dears will love it~.'

She preheated the oven to 180 C (350F) and coated the bottom of the 9×13 inch ceramic baking pan with a little of her delicious béchamel sauce. 'Like this, the lasagna noodles won't stick to it~ I wouldn't like my dears receiving a broken lasagna!'

She waited for the meat to simmer. When everything was prepared, she placed one layer of uncooked lasagna noodles on the bottom of the pan. After covering everything with them, Yasenia nodded, 'Completely covered~ Like I cover my dears with my love! Without letting anything out!'

After placing that base, it was time to build the layers! Yasenia poured one-third of the meat sauce, and on top, one-third of the béchamel. Then dry noodles again, another third meat sauce, another third béchamel. Finally, the last layer, doing the same order of noodles, meat, and bechamel. Yasenia picked her specially made cheese again and added some shreds on top. (Mozzarella cheese or shredded parmesan can work too).

She covered it with her energy (Or loosely covered foil) and let it bake for 30 minutes. While those thirty minutes passed, she began making more meat sauce since she would do more than one lasagna.

Conveniently, when that half an hour passed, she made the energy dissipate (Or remove the foil) and left it inside another 5 to 10 minutes until it was golden brown and bubbling. 'Like my baby will be when she knows the ingredients, a bubbly happy cutie.'

She took it out, and an aromatic and delicious smell spread around. Thanks to the special ingredient, the smell was so potent that the others in the living room had their noses twitching when the smell reached them. Kali asked, surprised, “Is that Yasenias cooking? It smells heavenly.”

Angel nodded, excited, “Yasenias cooking is the best! You won’t be able to taste normal foods again~.”

Meanwhile, Yasenias thought, ‘How many lasagnas do I make? I’m afraid my little baby and darling will devour one each. I will also make two extra for the maids...’

Therefore, Yasenias made another six of them simultaneously. With accompanying food like salad, some roasted vegetables, and some steamed vegetables. ‘Eat healthily, and your mind will remain healthy! Well, us being cultivators doesn’t affect us at all....’

Another hour passed, and Yasenias finished making all the lasagnas. Yasenias called the maids, “Anna, Eve, Flora, help me carry this to the living room.”

The three appeared and looked at the food with raised eyebrows. Flora sniffed and said, “What did you use as ingredients? It smells delicious~.”

Yasenias chuckled as she said, “Well, one ingredient was myself~.”

They couldn’t help but look toward the tail, and Anna asked, “Dragon meat?”

Yasenias almost tripped. “Milk! I used my breastmilk! Did you think I would amputate myself... for a... dish...?”

Yasenias asked, “Is dragon meat tasty?”

This time it was their turn to almost trip; Flora said, “Please, young miss, although we are all eager to eat you up, we don’t mean it the literal way! Control yourself!”

Anna pleaded, “Please, young miss, it was a joke! I’m afraid of becoming addicted to your flavor in more than one way!”

Yasenias’s eyes shone as she said, “I can make it for Kali then!”

These thousand-year-old cultivators wanted to cry, ‘Why do I feel like I opened a whole new realm for young miss!?’

Leaving the self-cooking aside... For the moment. Anna, Eve, and Flora went to the dining room with the dishes while Yasenias called her dears. Yasenias took Kali’s hand and guided her excitedly, “Today is the first day you try my food~. Can I feed you, honey?”

Kali was a little shy, but she nodded. Seeing the veil wave with Kali’s nod, Yasenias was elated. Yasenias sat with Angel and Evelyn at her sides. Kali was confused, ‘Where should I sit?’

Yasenias answered her question by coiling her tail around her waist and carrying her to sit on her lap in one motion. Kali felt her butt land on the soft thighs of the dragoness, and her scent surrounded her, making her a little stiff. Then, Yasenias’s arms went around her, and her softness pressed on her back, making the hard tips poking at her back quite hard to miss.

Poor Kali's brain froze again, which the dragoness didn't miss and took advantage of by taking off her veil. Yasenia looked at Kali and smiled, 'I can finally see the face of my little fox~.'

Yasenia observed her face and kissed her on the scar on her cheek, bringing Kali back from feeling those wonderful sensations. Now that she had her attention, Yasenia asked, "Can I see your face as we eat? I want to see your reaction to my food."

Kali looked into her golden slit eyes and was comforted. She nodded, "Okay."

Yasenia rewarded her with a peck on her lips, making Kali's lips arch uncontrollably. 'Feels so good to be pampered...'

Yasenia talked with the others while she rested her tail on Angel's lap, letting her play with it. The maids served the food.

After everyone had their portion in front of them, Yasenia cut a slice of the delicious-looking lasagna and carried it to Kali's mouth. She whispered sensually, "Open your mouth, honey."

Kali became fidgety but obeyed her words, 'Being fed by someone is more embarrassing than I thought....'

The food entered her mouth, and a flavor explosion occurred into her mouth, which made her widen her eyes. When she started munching and the flavor spread, she couldn't help but moan in delight. 'Oh, my heavens, so delicious~.'

The other three reacted the same way, as this was the first time Yasenia used her breastmilk to make something that wasn't on the breakfast. Yasenia looked at their gleeful faces and chuckled, "Do you like it~?"

However, no one answered as they were occupied savoring the food, making Yasenia laugh. After the second bite, Andrea asked, amazed, "You've done this dish before, but it wasn't this delicious. What did you do differently?"

Yasenia's tail wagged happily as she answered bluntly, "I made the cheese and sauce with my breastmilk!"

While munching the third bite, Kali choked and entered a coughing fit. 'HER WHAT!?'

Chapter 136

Andrea asked, amazed, "You've done this dish before, but it wasn't this delicious. What did you do differently?"

Yasenia's tail wagged happily as she answered bluntly, "I made the cheese and sauce with my breastmilk!"

While munching the third bite, Kali choked and entered a coughing fit. 'HER WHAT!?'

Yasenia hastily used her energy to help the food go down and asked, worried, "Why did you choke? Even if you like it, you have to eat slower, honey. No one will take it away from you!"

Kali looked at Yasenia and asked, still shocked, "D-did you just say breastmilk?"

Yasenia nodded with a smile, and her brain spun excessively, thinking about her reasons for choking. Yasenia hastily said, with a serious face, "Don't worry, honey, I'm not pregnant. I can lactate because I'm a dragon."

Talk about making things more confusing. Kali felt that she had landed in an illusion and would wake up at any moment. Yaseenia almost burst into laughter seeing Kali's face so expressive. 'I think I made her rethink her life choices, hahaha.'

Yaseenia said, clearing up everything nicely. "Us dragons don't lactate when we get pregnant, so normally we learn techniques to simulate human-like lactation if we have children with humans. Since the girls liked my breastmilk after tasting it, I have used it since then for simple cooking. This is the first time I use it in such an elaborate manner."

Kali nodded in understanding but suddenly thought of something, "However, we are all females; how will you get pregnant?"

Yaseenia looked at Kali and debated whether to tell her or not, 'If I'm honest and tell her now, I think that a distance will open again... But if I don't tell her now and she discovers it by mistake, she may overthink... What a dilemma.'

Yaseenia sighed and said, "I could tell you, but... I feel that if I tell you now, the distance may grow between us. Do you want me to tell you now or wait until I think that telling you is safe for our relationship?"

Kali was stumped; she didn't expect such a serious face from Yaseenia, 'She is not lying... Hurt my relationship with her? Why would I want that?'

Kali shook her head and said hastily, "Don't tell me, don't tell me. I understand that some things must be kept a secret. I-I also have some of them, so don't worry and tell me when you are ready."

Yaseenia nodded with a gentle smile and continued feeding her. "Honey, if you discover it in the future by mistake, don't become upset or anything, alright? I'm truly not telling you in order to advance our relationship."

Kali nodded and said, "Okay, I will keep it in mind."

After the dinner went by, Yaseenia said, looking at the maids, "There is more of my cooking in the kitchen for all of you. Feel free to taste it~."

They smiled and bowed, "Thank you, young miss."

Yaseenia looked at the outside and saw that sunset was approaching. "Let's not lose the routine. I'm going to cultivate, and then I will pass your bedrooms. If you want to be together, wait for me in the same bedroom~."

Yaseenia gave Kali a tight hug, kissed her cheek, and then said, "Stand up, honey. I will go to your room after I'm done with the other girls. So don't get asleep, okay?"

Kali blushed as she asked nervously, "W-What are we going to do?"

Yaseenia smiled gently and said, "Nothing more than a few kisses and cuddles. I won't do anything you are uncomfortable with, honey. Trust me."

Kali thought for a bit and nodded. Yaseenia put the veil on Kali again and patted her butt once, "Done!"

Kali jumped a little because of the tap and stood up, amusing Yaseña. Then Kali went toward her bedroom, with Flora in tow. Yaseña watched her back until she disappeared and spoke with the other three while they went toward the cultivation area.

Yaseña separated and went to her personal area. She couldn't help but be impressed at the size of their mansion. Compared to her previous house in the Academy, it was like the difference between heaven and earth. 'To be able to buy this enormous house... Darling's and Kali's savings sure were deep... Well, we are broke now. We have to start doing missions and creating treasures to sell. I hope I can help them as an assistant.... The plants in my ring are also growing nicely~ Some are mature enough to make pills. A good present for Kali and Evelyn.'

Yaseña changed to her kimono and cultivated until dusk ended. 'No more progress with the connection realm... While creating my [Celestial dress], I took a step forward to that realm, that is for sure. I also think I can use the dance I did to create a skill... The ideas are in my head; only hard work is needed to get them out to the real world!'

After finishing, Yaseña stood up and went toward Andrea's bedroom. When she entered, she saw Evelyn and Andrea talking with each other. Andrea was reclining on the headboard and hugging Evelyn from behind between her legs. Yaseña smirked and said, "It seems that someone wants to be attacked on two sides~."

Andrea laughed, and Evelyn blushed a little. She looked at the side to hide her slight embarrassment and said, "I sometimes almost suffocate with you burying my head between your big melons!... Huh?"

Since the tail didn't come, Evelyn looked at Yaseña, only to see her walking on all fours on the bed with a seductive smile and a swishing tail. The way Yaseña arched her back to pronounce her breasts and butt was enough to send Evelyn and Andrea on a trip with their eyes. Moreover, Yaseña's softness dangled as she approached, creating a deep valley.

Evelyn gulped when Yaseña reached before her and covered her face with her breasts. Yaseña asked seductively. "Do you want to suffocate with these, Dear~?"

Evelyn hugged Yaseña's waist and nodded, burying her face in her big breasts. Andrea massaged Evelyn's small breasts, making Evelyn tense between her arms. Yaseña continued pressing her breasts on Evelyn's face and put their pants down, liberating the hardened member of Andrea and letting Evelyn's lower part bare. Yaseña asked Andrea, "Lift her and place her butt above your member, darling. I'm going to pound her against you until she cries herself hoarse."

Evelyn's insides quivered, and Andrea smirked. She lifted Evelyn by the legs, positioning her above her standing member. Yaseña said, "maintain her there for a second, darling~."

Andrea waited in that position. Yaseña lowered her head and went below Evelyn to glomp Andrea's member.

Andrea grunted in pleasure, and Evelyn got wetter being positioned so vulnerably like this. Yaseña moved her tail and penetrated Evelyn's mouth as she used the full extent of her long tongue, circling Andrea's member. Evelyn began slurping on the tail, and Yaseña squeezed her tongue around the shaft, making Andrea groan in pleasure. Then she moved her tail in and out and her head up and down.

Evelyn heard Andrea grunting in pleasure and Yasenia's slurping noises, arousing her more. She vacuumed on Yasenia's tail, making Yasenia moan. The tail penetrated her throat deeply and gave her a slight sense of suffocation that she loved.

Yasenia was also sending Andrea to heaven with her mouth, and Andrea couldn't hold long against Yasenia's stimulating tongue and throat. Then, she warned, "I'm cumming."

Yasenia removed her length from her throat, leaving only the tip in her mouth, and used her hand to carry Andrea to climax.

Andrea came, and her semen filled Yasenia's mouth. Yasenia squinted her eyes in delight as Andrea's warm, thick substance filled her mouth. Yasenia couldn't help but savor it, passing her tongue through the tip, stimulating Andrea further, 'Her taste is so strong~ a little salty, a little bitter. But I love it~.'

After Andrea ended spurting cum, Yasenia lifted her head with her cheeks bulging and swallowed, licking her lips afterward, "Darling, you are Aahn~ delicious." Andrea's penis twitched at her comments. Yasenia looked at Evelyn, who was pleasuring her tail and had her vagina dripping with juices. "Andrea, lower her; it's time to send this mischievous girl to heaven~."

Andrea didn't waste a second and penetrated Evelyn's butt, burying her 18cm in one go. Evelyn moaned, but Yasenia didn't let her get comfortable as she moved forward and penetrated Evelyn's vagina, spreading her labia with her hardness and pressing the tip against her end.

Evelyn's insides clenched, feeling the two deeply buried members inside of her.

Then Andrea and Yasenia began moving their waist without mercy, making Evelyn's eyes roll up in delight.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Yasenia and Andrea stimulated Evelyn's three holes and Evelyn couldn't even moan properly because of the tail fucking her throat. Evelyn squirted shortly after, moaning throatily and sending those vibrations through Yasenia's tail. Her insides spasmed and Andrea and Yasenia moaned.

Evelyn came another two times before Yasenia and Andrea reached climax. Evelyn was delirious with pleasure and felt the three rods inflating and becoming warmer. She moved her mouth more vigorously and her insides clenched on both, wanting that white seed. Because of the position, Andrea couldn't take it out before both of them painted Evelyn's insides white.

"'I'm cumming!'" They Shouted as their penis, and the tail spurted cum.

Evelyn had her uterus, rectum, and throat filled with cum. Yasenia's release in the uterus made her pleasure nerves explode with electrical signals, making her legs straighten because of pleasure. Moreover, when the dragoness's cum went down her throat, her mind entered a euphoric orgasm that made her world go white. "OOOHHHHH!!!!!!!"

Evelyn's vagina squirted strongly, splashing her fluids on Yasenia's navel and herself. Andrea and Yasenia kissed each other as they filled Evelyn.

One hour later, Andrea and Evelyn lay completely spent on the bed. She placed Evelyn on top of Andrea and carried them in a double princess hug toward the bathroom. Leila had already prepared the water, and Alaia gave the bathing tools to Yasenias. "Thank you, Leila, Alaia. You can retreat; I will call you when I finish here."

They both bowed and went outside. Alaia couldn't help but lift an eyebrow at the thick sweet scent in the room. "How do you feel, Leila? You have quite a sharp nose, right? I myself am feeling tingly all over. Our young miss is fearsome~."

Leila said in a gentle voice with seductive undertones. "This will be a problem in the future~ I may jump at the young miss without consent~."

Her dog tail was wagging, and her nose twitched as she smelled the air. Alaia nodded and laughed, "To think I would be getting wet if I didn't control my body... Thankfully we are two realms higher than young miss."

Leila nodded and said, "Clara will have an advantage resisting her... Let me correct myself; Clara will not jump at the young miss as easily."

Alaia chuckled. Twenty minutes later, Yasenias appeared with Andrea and Evelyn in her arms, fully clothed and cleaned. Yasenias said, "Bring them to my room. lay Andrea on the left, and Evelyn beside her."

They bowed and carried them to the main bedroom.

Yasenias then passed through her baby room. They had pampering sex, and Angel sucked one of her breasts clean as the tail filled her backdoor, and her hand squelched Angel's vagina. Then Yasenias laid Angel face down on the bed and, covering her from above, penetrated her vagina slowly. Yasenias moved her waist as she turned Angel's face to kiss her. "Baby~ Do you like it~?"

The thrusts were slow, but Yasenias made sure to reach the deepest she could, slapping against Angel's little butt.

Pah... Pah... Pah

Angel, who had Yasenias's presence all around, had her entrance clenching hard on Yasenias, showing her delight. Yasenias's arms went around Angel and her tail coiled around her legs, entangling around Angel completely, which Angel loved.

Her soft body surrounded Angel as her scent invaded her nostrils. Better, her hardness moved slowly but caressing every fold. Angel loved this position, 'Oh my heavens, I think I have a new favorite position~.'

Yasenias thrust downward, pushed against Angel's cervix, and slowly opened it wide. As her last entrance stretched and her body trembled with pleasure, Angel reached an orgasm and squirted on the sheets. Yasenias penetrated her uterus while she had the orgasm, and she stopped until Angel came down from the heavens. Angel came back and looked at Yasenias's gentle smile. Angel mewled, "Yasenias~ I love you~."

Yasenias's smile widened as she put their lips together, speaking gently, "I'm going to cum shortly; prepare yourself, baby. This one is big."

Angel puckered her lips, kissing Yasenia's plump lips again and again. Yasenia moved again without stopping their tap kiss exchange. Yasenia's waist slapped against Angel's butt.

Pah Pah Pah

Shortly after, Yasenia thrust strongly, pushing her tip against the uterus wall, and came with a grunt, filling it.

Angel felt the hot liquid hitting her uterus wall as rope after rope of cum filled her. The electric currents climbed her spine as she spasmed. Yasenia whispered as she released strong Yang energy filled with life energy, "I love you, baby."

The pleasure of the added life energy exploded her pleasure senses, making her spasm as her vagina squirted like a broken faucet. Angel's eyes directly rolled up and released a high-pitched moan, riding one of the biggest orgasms in her life. "AAAAH!!!"

Yasenia didn't stop cumming, licking Angel's ecstasy-filled face and kissing her until her semen overflowed her entrance. Ten minutes passed when Angel finally came back, and Yasenia continued in that position.

Fifteen minutes passed, and Angel was repeatedly sent to the Pleasure Realm, finally fainting because of pleasure shortly after.

Yasenia stood up and carried her baby in a princess hug, not caring about her vagina dripping with her semen the whole way. Seeing a spurt of semen shooting each time an inner spasm happened was quite stimulating.

After washing Angel and herself, she returned to the room, where Selena was looking directly at the white puddle on the bed. Yasenia asked, "Something wrong?"

Selena said something absurd that she had rather not heard in her life, "I feel that it can be used to fertilize plants."

Now Yasenia had to live knowing the fact that, if she didn't have anything to fertilize her plants with, she could try and use her cum! Yasenia shook her head and said, "Carry Angel to my room. Leave her beside Evelyn."

Selena nodded as she cradled Angel with a gentle smile, "Yes, young miss."

Then, she slithered away.

Chapter 137

While walking toward Kali's bed, Yasenia took out the dragon egg she bought in the auction house. 'I have tried to drip blood on it, to have it beside me as I cultivate. I also left it beside the medicinal plants in my ring and have tried to pour my energy inside it directly. I have also tried the combination of the previous ones, but nothing worked....'

Yasenia suddenly remembered what Selena had just said, and her face became strange. Yasenia shook her head, "No, no, no! I refuse to believe that it needs my cum! What does it have that other's fluids don't? Fertilization? Huh? Is this egg not fertilized?"

Yasenia massaged her temple, "I will speak about it when mom returns... I really hope that I don't have to fertilize it... Maybe I can lodge it inside my uterus...?"

Yasenia slapped her cheeks softly, “What am I even thinking about? I think I need to rest....”

Can you imagine her future children asking, “How did mommy open the egg that nobody could?” And Yasenia answered, “I came on it.” Or worse, “I shoved it inside my uterus until it hatched.”

Yasenia almost tripped thinking about that situation. ‘Anyway, there isn’t any haste to hatch it. I don’t need a mount yet. Moreover, I won’t be able to carry a living mount to the secret realm since it would occupy an entry slot if you aren’t a beastmaster. It makes sense since beastmasters are bound with the beasts through a soul link, so they count as one.’

Yasenia began thinking of her connection with Cecile. ‘Do we also count as one? I need to research about it... If that is true, we could sell one of the entry jades... Maybe give it to Oliver? No, it is too dangerous. He wouldn’t be able to even defend himself against the weakest cultivator entering the realm.’

While thinking about these things, Yasenia reached Kali’s room. She smiled seductively and thought, ‘I’m here. Let’s make honey even more in love with me~.’

Yasenia knocked on Kali’s door. Then, she opened her nightgown in the chest area and moved her hands through her long black hair, making it a little wilder.

When she heard Kali saying enter, she pushed the door open.

A little earlier, Kali was reading a book, wearing pajamas that covered her nicely, and waiting rather fidgety, ‘Will it truly be just kissing? Maybe she wants to advance the relationship? But I don’t feel like I can... Take that step yet.’

Knock Knock Knock

Kali jumped off the chair with a start and hastily combed her hair. Then she said, “Enter!”

The door opened, and Yasenia appeared in a sexy black nightgown behind it. She had it open in the middle, showing a large expanse of her white mountains. Better, the upper part was semi-transparent, leaving very little to the imagination.

Kali’s eyes couldn’t help but gravitate toward that area. Seeing her pair of big and standing breasts jiggling with each step was something her poor little heart couldn’t take!

Yasenia observed how Kali had her eyes locked in her bosom, looking at it unblinkingly. When she saw that Kali was about to look up, Yasenia slowly arched her lips seductively, making eye contact with Kali. With the big beauty’s blatant seduction, Kali’s heart rate accelerated, finding her incredibly attractive. ‘S-s-seductress! My poor heart can’t take this sight!’

Yasenia walked toward the stiff woman sashaying her hips and swishing her tail. When she was before her, she lowered her torso and plastered her body on Kali’s. Yasenia hugged her, burying Kali’s face in her neck and making her feel her soft body. Her voice was a little lower than normal, with a very sensual tone that made Kali even more flustered, “Honey, I’m a little tired~ let’s lay down in bed~?”

Kali stuttered and said, “Y-Yasenia, I-I-I’m not ready, to-to take the next s-step.”

Yasenia chuckled beside her ear, and whispered, “I know~ We are going to cuddle, honey~.”

Kali, of course, didn't have the courage to refuse anymore, and let herself be guided by Yasenia. Yasenia separated and grabbed her hand, guiding her toward the bed. Yasenia paid attention to Kali's reactions, ensuring she didn't force Kali too much, doing just enough to break her walls little by little.

Yasenia lay on the bed first and looked at Kali, who was still standing. Yasenia opened her arms invitingly and changed her tone from seductive to gentle, "Come here, honey. You deserve lots of pampering today."

Kali's scarred face blushed and moved toward Yasenia. While she was lowering on the bed, she asked in a whisper, "W-why do I deserve that?"

Yasenia hugged Kali, positioning them sideways as they looked at each other eyes. Yasenia didn't make too much skin-to-skin contact, making Kali feel more secure and relaxed, but she also didn't lose eye contact. Yasenia said with a pampering tone, "Because you were brave enough to eat dinner without your veil~. How could I not reward you~?"

Even when she tried not to make expressions on her face, Kali's scarred lips arched uncontrollably. She really liked Yasenia's praise. She looked sideways, avoiding the beautiful golden-red slit eyes, and said, "Yasenia, I do many things without a veil. I, umm... I don't think I deserve praise for it."

Yasenia arched an eyebrow and asked playfully, "Telling me this, is my love asking for more praise? Then this dragoness will deliver!"

Yasenia hugged her closer and neared Kali's lips, almost kissing. Kali, expecting the kiss, didn't know what to do when Yasenia stopped an inch away from her lips. With Yasenia's charming slit eyes looking at her verdant green ones so closely and feeling her warm body temperature, her heart rate sped up again. Yasenia spoke, filling Kali's nostrils with her fragrant breath. "Kiss me, honey. You just have to pluck your lips."

Kali felt her heart thumping strongly. This situation was very different from the pecks she gave before. Right now, they were alone, which added a romantic layer to this situation and made it more difficult to do actual intimacy.

However, Kali didn't want to disappoint Yasenia or herself, so she gathered her courage and puckered her lips. When her lips grazed Yasenia's, she felt like electricity zapped them. Kali's heart thumped excitedly, 'S-Starting the kiss feels too different. My heart is beating crazily.'

Yasenia smiled, arching her eyes beautifully, and said gently, "Such a good girl. I will do the rest, okay, honey?"

Kali nodded with a shy smile. 'I may get addicted at her praises... It feels good to be praised.'

Yasenia pressed her big breasts on her C cups and put their lips together. Kali closed her eyes and felt the cream-like lips on hers and the soft and warm body of the dragoness. Yasenia's warmth and scent were things that relaxed her from the first time she felt them. It felt like a cocoon that could protect her.

Yasenia began licking the scar that went across her lips, making Kali hug her tighter. Yasenia asked, "Do you like it, Kali?"

Kali nodded; she liked when Yasenia licked her scars. She felt like Yasenia was cleansing them, as if something was being replaced with her love toward Yasenia.

Yasenia was, of course, delighted to know that she liked her ministrations. Therefore, Yasenia traced her scars with tap kisses as she caressed her back with her hand. Then, her tail started coiling around her.

However, Kali seemed a little adverse to the act of coiling, so Yasenia stopped and only rested her long tail on top of her. 'Is she associating it with... Ropes? Let's be careful in the future. I have to change her perspective of my body. That anything that is mine won't hurt her....'

Yasenia continued kissing her face, going down to her lips from time to time and then tracing all the scars on her face with the tip of her tongue. Kali answered to her intimacy, returning the kisses and closing her eyes. Kali's body relaxed and willingly closed the distance between their bodies, trying to feel more of Yasenia's soft and warm body. 'So comfortable.'

Yasenia stopped her kisses for a bit and looked at the slight smile on Kali's mouth. Then, deepening her voice, she asked, "Kali dear, can I kiss you more deeply? As we did that morning?"

Kali half-opened her eyes, looking at the person that treated her so carefully, and nodded. 'Who can deny you in this world if you are like this?'

Yasenia closed on her lips and tasted them, trapping them with hers. Kali's flavor was slightly sweet and cool. It was as relaxing as nature itself.

After Yasenia put their lips together, she guided Kali to open her mouth. Kali complied, and Yasenia's tongue entered her mouth, greeting Kali's tongue gently and slowly.

Kali answered clumsily, licking Yasenia's tongue with hers like a cat. Yasenia smiled gently and guided her, deepening the kiss and making it more sloppy.

Yasenia slowly turned Kali and positioned herself on top of her. Kali liked this position because it reminded her of the time they got together. Moreover, she felt extremely good with Yasenia's weight on top of her.

Seeing no adverse reaction, Yasenia was delighted, which her tail and kiss showed.

Kali caught the tail movement on the periphery of her vision, and she felt warm and fuzzy inside. 'Is she this happy because of the kiss?'

Kali wound her arms around Yasenia and hugged her closer. With Yasenia on top of her and her black hair acting as a curtain, Kali felt like she was in another world, full of tender feelings.

Yasenia stopped the kiss and looked at Kali, who had half-lidded eyes as she looked at her. "How was it, honey?"

Kali said while sighing comfortably, "Good~."

After thinking about Kali's problem with stronger pleasure sensations, Yasenia asked, a little hesitant. "Honey... Do you want to... Taste my breastmilk?"

Kali opened her eyes and looked surprised. She asked with a stutter, "Like... Directly?"

Yasenia nodded; she lifted her body and freed one of her big breasts. She looked at Kali, and while on top of her, she approached her nipple to her mouth, grabbing her own breast to guide it slowly.

Kali saw the beautiful pink nipple in front of her and swallowed. Seeing no rejection and even a little bit of anticipation, Yasenia said with a pampering tone, "Open your mouth~ It may be pleasurable to drink it, but don't worry. I'm here for you, honey."

Kali looked at Yasenia's gentle face, then at the nipple. She hesitantly opened her mouth, and Yasenia moved forward, letting the nipple fall in her mouth. Kali had the big soft breast, which was bigger than her face, resting on her, and she became slightly embarrassed.

Then, she sucked the on the nipple shyly. When the milk sprayed, invading her tastebuds, that embarrassment turned into wonder. 'So delicious~. It is sweet and warm, somewhat thick.'

Then she sucked a little more and swallowed. When she swallowed, pleasurable tingling coursed her body, which scared her at first. She unlatched and looked at Yasenia.

Yasenia expected this to happen, so she didn't mind her reaction. She looked at Kali and said in a gentle voice. "Did you like it? We will use this to adapt you to feel pleasure again. What do you say, honey? Do you think you can do it?"

Kali looked up at Yasenia's caring eyes and steeled herself, then she nodded. Yasenia smiled, and she sat on her knees. "Come here, Kali. Let me feed you."

Seeing this 'motherly' Yasenia made her nervous for another reason. 'She is so attractive right now!'

Kali approached, and Yasenia cradled her; Kali couldn't help but blush at her current position. Then Yasenia put her nipple in her mouth again, and Kali sucked on it. She felt Yasenia patting her head while she hummed a lullaby.

She began drinking again, and even with the pleasure tingling through her body, Kali relaxed as she hugged Yasenia's waist. Hearing the beautiful lullaby, Kali couldn't help but feel a little nostalgic, and some tears dropped.

Yasenia noticed but continued humming and patting her as she fed her. She even changed the properties of her breastmilk to become more soothing, leaving the pleasure training for another day.

Kali continued sucking on her breast until she fell asleep in the embrace of the dragoness. Yasenia didn't move for another ten minutes and continued humming as she traced each scar on Kali's face with her eyes. She couldn't help but realize how fragile Kali was. 'I will take care of you, Kali. No one will look down on you anymore, not while I'm alive.'

Then, with the help of her tail, she lifted Kali and carried her to her bedroom, not caring about her exposed breast. She didn't want to move Kali from her current position and wake her up.

Yasenia reached the bedroom and placed Kali on the right. Then she tidied her nightgown and placed Angel on top of her, hugging Evelyn and Kali with her arms. She also coiled on Andrea with her tail, closing her eyes.

The four of them closed on Yasenia instinctively, noticing her presence even in their sleep, which made the dragoness fall asleep with a smile.

The night passed, and morning came. They woke up one by one and surrounded Yasenia with their bodies, wanting to absorb some of her body warmth and fill their noses with her sweet scent.

After they woke up, they gave Yasenia the morning kisses and played a little on the bed. Even Kali joined, clear that she became closer to Yasenia after the previous night.

They went down, and Yasenia went to the kitchen to prepare breakfast. Kali followed after Yasenia to help her in the kitchen, acting like a little tail. After Yasenia and Kali returned, Kali sat beside Yasenia willingly and silently and began eating.

The others couldn't help but notice Kali's actions, and they were barely holding their laughter, 'A single night and she is already like this? Our dear dragoness is fearsome!'

From Yasenia's lap, Angel asked Kali curiously, "How was yesterday night, Kali?"

Kali swallowed the food in her mouth and answered, looking sideways at Yasenia shyly, "Comfortable, really liked it."

Angel nodded with a smile. She didn't want to meddle too much in Yasenia's plan, so she glossed over it with a sentence and changed topics. "Didn't I tell you that Yasenia was super gentle? Kali, let's spar later; I think we are quite near in strength, and we can learn from each other!"

Kali nodded, making her veil wave, and thought to herself. 'She was truly gentle... I really liked it. B-But the last p-part... I feel my cheeks burn just thinking about it! I got carried away again...'

Then she smiled and thought, 'But I didn't have a nightmare again, and I slept the whole night without waking up...'

She looked sideways at Yasenia, 'Both times I slept with her, I didn't have nightmares... Why is that?'

Yasenia looked at Kali, making her jump a little, and avoided her gaze, startled. Yasenia had been feeling her gaze the whole breakfast, but she didn't say anything. Yasenia knew that Kali must be reflecting on what happened yesterday, and seeing the stability of her aura, she didn't interrupt her thoughts. She just caressed her chestnut-colored wavy hair, making Kali's lips arch, and continued feeding her baby.

She looked at the others and said. "Yesterday I was thinking about our funds, and well, we are quite low on them after buying this house and the other tools. Therefore, I wanted to ask. Darling, honey, do any of you have a shop or something where you sell your creations?"

Andrea nodded and said, "I do have one; I bought it three years ago. Do you want to use it to sell our things?"

Yasenia nodded, "Yes... But how we will proceed depends on whether Kali also has a shop or not."

Kali shook her head and said, "I don't. I sold everything via the alchemy house of the Academy. I'm quite curious why you don't do the same, Andrea. Aren't you a disciple of Elder Irina? You should have some privileges in this aspect."

Andrea nodded and said, "I do have them. However, I wanted to set up my own stall. At first it was quite desolate, but after I began receiving orders, my smithy's popularity grew. Now I have some loyal customers, and I was saving money to expand the smithy... Well, all that money is gone now, hahaha."

Yasenia apologized, "Sorry, darling. Maybe using this money without your permission was a bit out of turn."

Andrea stood up, and after Angel got off Yasenia's lap, Andrea lifted Yasenia and sat her on her lap. Yasenia chuckled and wound her arms around Andrea's neck. "You know... Yasenia. I really appreciate the fact that you don't try to control our lives, and on the contrary, you give us as much freedom as we want. However, sometimes, you have to think about our near future."

Yasenia looked at her light green eyes and nodded, "I know that using the money this way was the best outcome. But I want all of you to be aware of the "option" of the best outcome and not be forced into it. We don't have to follow a perfect plan, and we can deviate from time to time since we aren't machines."

Andrea smiled and kissed her, "So you have thought a lot about it?"

Yasenia snuggled closer, burying her face in her neck, and said, "I'm always thinking about all of you, darling. You all are my priority."

Evelyn said with a gentle tone, "Yasenia, you have to know one thing. And I want you to understand this clearly."

Yasenia looked at Evelyn, and Evelyn said, "We are your priority, but you are ours. Remember when taking a decision, that if you hurt yourself in the process of giving us something... "good." That good thing will lose its value since it was acquired with the cost of endangering you. So... If you really think of us as a priority, always put your safety first, please."

Yasenia smiled and nodded, "I will, dear. The last thing I want is making all of you upset."

Yasenia looked at Andrea and said, "Is it okay if we sell formations and pills in your shop? I think we can create a family brand, using your business as the foundation."

Andrea hugged her and nodded, "Sure. But we need funds to make my smithy bigger."

Yasenia nodded, saying, "We will win that through production and missions. I have tons of materials in my ring; we haven't begun using them yet. They will come in handy right now. I want to help production and gather experience as an assistant. What do you think?"

Angel said, "Yasenia, I think you should save the materials above the magic rank for ourselves. We may need them in the future."

Evelyn nodded, "We can use our materials since you have the best quality ones in your ring. I think with this we can profit as well. Moreover..." Evelyn smirked pervertedly and said, looking at her breasts, "If you dress up to attract customers, we will be successful no matter the quality~."

Yasenia put her hand in her face and said dramatically, "My dear wants for me to sell my body! Are your profits more important than your wife!?"

Andrea sighed and said, "We are sorry, love. You will have to use everything to make us famous. Don't worry; we will certainly share our profits with you."

Yasenia cleaned a tear that wasn't even there and said, "I will do it! I'm ready to give everything for my dears, even if I have to cook myself and sell dragon skewers!"

All of them laughed and continued the previous topic. Andrea caressed Yasenia's tail and said, "I'm not against you helping us, but how will you be with all of us?"

Yasenia chuckled and said, "Silly darling, I will be with one of you each day unless a project we are doing takes more than a single day."

Kali suddenly asked, "What is this assistant thing?"

Yasenia explained the thing she said to the others some weeks ago. Kali frowned and asked, "Won't that be too time-consuming for you? You were also learning spirit cooking, right?"

Yasenia pouted and said with a whine, "I can't do it again! The tools react strangely to my energy, and everything goes to waste!"

Angel moved beside Yasenia and lifted her hand to pat the upset dragoness. Yasenia looked down as Angel said, "There, there- mmph!"

Yasenia invaded Angel's mouth and placed her on her lap, making a triple tower. Then she kissed her baby silly. After Angel didn't even know north from south, Yasenia said, "Baby, I'm speaking seriously. Can't you stop tempting me with your cuteness!?"

Angel was dizzy and unable to understand what just happened, 'I only wanted to comfort her!'

The others chuckled at their silliness, and Yasenia answered with an even tone at Kali, "Don't worry, honey. I'm already advancing speedily in everything, and my comprehension ability and memory are top-notch."

Kali asked, "What makes you stronger than the rest, mentally? Something related to your bloodline?"

Yasenia said, "Well, while I was in the body modification realm, I've had a spiritual breakthrough that boosted my mind. I've also consumed a [Beauty pill], boosting my constitution, and then, because of an incident, I've ingested a [Mind Strengthening Pill]."

Kali's eyes went wide as she exclaimed, "Spiritual Breakthrough!? [Beauty pill]!? [Mind Strengthening Pill]!?"

At this moment, Kali's understanding of Yasenia did a 180° flip. 'She is already talented without ingesting treasures, and you are telling me that she has eaten two of the best pills for our realm!?'

A little envy also invaded her heart, 'She ingested a beauty pill even when she was already beautiful....'

Kali didn't want to be envious of her lover, but the feeling couldn't help but grow in her heart. Yasenia moved beside Kali with a gentle smile and wrapped her in a hug. Kali stiffened a bit, but Yasenia's gentle voice made her relax. "Kali, it is normal to feel that emotion. Do not resist it. Instead, feel it and control it, then put it in words. So what if you are envious of me? I will love you the same no matter what."

Kali looked at the smiling dragoness and listened to her. She said, a little bitterly, “I just... It is true; You are already beautiful, and you ingested the [Beauty Pill], and I’m like this... I’m feeling very jealous of you right now. ”

Yasenia nodded and chuckled, “Who wouldn’t feel jealous of me? All my lovers are exceptional~.”

Kali looked down without answering, and Yasenia tightened the hug, speaking with palpable pride, “Even honey is one of a kind~. She has a triple elemental constitution with one extremely rare attribute, and she is also extremely talented in medicine and alchemy! Moreover, her cultivation speed is even above that of the genius class! A 25-year-old fifth-level Mental Nourishing cultivator. Only two levels lower than Andrea, who is 31 years old!”

Kali looked at the bragging dragoness, and a small smirk appeared on her lips. Yasenia said, “Kali, you are an extraordinary woman. Those who don’t see that are just stupidly blinded by your appearance.”

Evelyn nodded, “That’s right, hearing you speak about alchemy is always a delight; your ideas are original yet easy to understand, and your method somewhat innovative. My skills are growing just listening to you!”

Kali smiled slightly, and Andrea asked with a smirk, “Is that feeling still growing?”

Kali examined herself and was surprised, finding herself rather relaxed and calm. Kali shook her head, and Angel said excitedly, “You don’t feel it, right? That’s right! If you feel down, you just have to tell Yasenia, and she will always solve it.”

Kali couldn’t help but be surprised at Ange’s trust in Yasenia.

Yasenia patted Angel as she said to Kali. “If you feel jealous, is it bad? It is not; it just means that you want to improve yourself and achieve that thing that gives you that feeling. What you have to do after that is put in hard work and improve yourself without losing yourself in that feeling.”

Yasenia looked at Kali and smiled gently, “You did something like that after what happened to you that day. How many people would stand up again and reach where you have? That is something I’m extremely proud of and will brag to the people when presenting you!”

Kali chuckled slightly with teary eyes, “En, if I feel like that again, I will tell you and not bottle it up. Thank you, Yasenia.”

Yasenia raised her tail and caressed Kali’s cheek with it. “That’s my girl.”

Their conversation continued for a short while, and Yasenia asked. “Have you girls consumed the attribute pills?”

All of them shook their heads, which made Yasenia confused. Evelyn said, “I feel that I will be luckier while fondling your enormous ti-” Bang!

Yasenia asked Andrea, “So, what’s the reason.”

Andrea was holding her laughter as she said, “What Evelyn said is true.”

If stupefaction had a face, Yasenia’s current one was very near to gaining that place! Yasenia sighed and said, “Well, at least you didn’t wait to consume them while sucking my breasts.”

However, to Yasenias dismay, Angel flinched. Yasenia looked at her baby, and Angel made a sad face, saying, "I can't~?"

Yasenias felt her heart squeezing and changed her expression like a coinflip. She smiled and said, "Of course, you can! Who told you that you can't, baby?"

Angel smiled sweetly with a little blush because of happiness.

Yasenias thought, 'En, what other method exists besides consuming pills while breastfeeding them? That's what I thought; there aren't any!'

Chapter 139

They went to the living room, and Yasenia sat on the big sofa with Angel and Kali on her sides. Andrea sat on an armchair nearby, and Evelyn was about to sit on another one of those when Yasenia asked. "So? Who goes first?"

Evelyn instantly changed directions and approached. Yasenia smiled, patting her lap, "Come here, dear." Evelyn obeyed and sat on her lap. Evelyn was about to fondle them, when Yasenia suddenly lowered her robes, presenting the big naked full breast to Evelyn. Evelyn looked stupefied at it. 'Wait, she isn't seriously going to breastfeed us the pills, right? RIGHT?'

Yasenias said, shaking her bosom, which made the breast jiggle right in front of Evelyn's face, "Come on dear, take the pills and the suck~."

That jiggle made Evelyn's thoughts disappear except one, 'Well, who am I to deny my dearest dragoness?'

Evelyn latched onto her and sucked with all her might. Yasenia felt the strong suction and said while moaning, "Evelyn, aahn~ the pill! You are forgetting the pill! Mmm!"

However, would Evelyn unlatch from the delicious milk spurting breasts? The answer was Evelyn sucking harder to plaster herself through suction. Yasenia felt her milk leaving her breast at incredible speeds, and that was quite stimulating for her.

"Ahn~ Dear, please stoop~." Yasenia pushed Evelyn's head, but the breast lover was sucking with such passion that Yasenia's breast was being pulled with her head, making quite an arousing sight. "Ohh! Dear, let go! Hyan! Don't bite!"

Seeing the woman practically sucking as her life depended on it and the other woman trying to unlatch her, the others burst into laughter at the absurd situation.

After finally unlatching Evelyn, Yasenia said, breathing roughly, "You... little demon... Although I don't like to punish any of you... No more breast-sucking for you..." Evelyn was about to become horrified when Yasenia continued, "...Until the night!"

Evelyn nodded, relieved. 'Of course, here I thought Yasenia learned how to punish us. How could I forget that her pampering is practically infinite? I think the day Yasenia punishes us seriously will be the day we messed up so extremely badly.'

Yasenias said, tidying up her clothes. "Hmph, now I won't do it like that. Everyone will now take the pills on your own."

However, when she caught the listless Angels in the corner of her vision, she instantly blurted out, “Wait for a second, I’ll be right back.”

They saw Yaseenia leaving, and after ten minutes, she returned with four transparent glass bottles of half a liter full of milk. While they looked with raised eyebrows at Yaseenia, she said. “Don’t get me wrong. I had it saved in the kitchen.”

However, when they grabbed the bottle and felt that it was warm, they raised the corner of their mouths with their eyebrow, looking at the dragoness.

Yaseenia dodged their stares and began to take out the pill jars. “Anna, how should we take them?”

The others found Yaseenia’s way of avoiding their questioning stares utterly adorable. ‘Changing topic because she knows she won’t be able to lie to us? How can our dragoness be so adorable!’

Evelyn, Angel, and Andrea moved and glomped the dragoness into a hug. Yaseenia blushed slightly, knowing they had seen right through her lie.

Andrea, Evelyn, and Angel washed the dragoness with kisses, scratches, and caresses until she was growling and sprawled all over them. They were the three of them seated, and Yaseenia lying on their lap.

Andrea had her legs on her lap and massaged Yaseenia’s perfect little feet and the round toes with pink nails.

Angel had the waist on her lap and massaged the tail’s base and lower back with her little hands.

Evelyn had Yaseenia’s head on her lap and massaged her scalp, and gave her kisses from time to time.

To say that our dragoness was in another realm was an understatement. Andrea saw Kali looking at them and said, “You can grab her tail and massage it-.”

Before she could finish the sentence, Yaseenia’s long tail moved and landed on Kali’s lap. Kali was a little flustered, but when she picked it up, she was surprised, ‘So soft and smooth, I can barely feel her scales. They feel like little bumps, but they are also squishy.’

Now Yaseenia was totally out. Her deep and lovely growling grew, and her tail wagged slightly. Thankfully, she wore a band on her penis to hide the erection, because she was in heaven right now.

Anna looked from the side with a smirk, and after the four girls began making her young miss a blob dragoness. she spoke. “Answering miss’s question about the pills. It is quite rare to have all of them as you do. Since they are one of the pills with the most demand, they are quite costly and scarce. I would recommend a single pill of each element per year. It would be optimal if young miss and miss Kali took each attribute pill four months apart. For miss Andrea, miss Angel, and miss Evelyn, I recommend taking each pill six months apart.

Yaseenia stopped growling and asked, “Angel and Evelyn have ingested a [Light Enhancing Pill] not too long ago... Will they have any complications if they ingest them now?”

Eve looked at Selena and Alaia with a sharp gaze. Both answered by instantly kneeling and pressing their upper body on the floor, which startled the four girls.

Yasenia sat up between Andrea and Kali and looked on calmly, knowing how the maids work. ‘If they are kneeling, the mistake is quite big... I hope they don’t get relegated from their posts...’

Eve reprimanded, “Committing such a rookie mistake of not knowing which pills your mistresses have taken!? Did all the training go to brainless pigs!? Why did you give your misses the [Light Enhancing Pill]!?”

Alaia and Selena admitted their mistakes without putting any excuses. “We are sorry, head maid.”

Eve sternly said, “You better be! Thankfully it was a harmless pill that would just lose efficiency if taken wrongly. This better not happen again, or you will be substituted!”

Alaia and Selena said, “Yes, head maid.”

Angel was about to defend Selena, but Selena interrupted with a gentle smile, “Do not worry, miss, we will just receive an oral warning this time. I will make sure to be more attentive in the future.”

Angel looked at her red slit eyes and nodded, “I will also tell you about it... It was partly my fault.”

Selena chuckled and picked up Angel, sitting her on her coiled tail. “En, let’s get along better, miss Angel.”

Angel moved her little but, getting comfortable, and nodded with a smile. ‘Second best sitting spot, granted!’

Meanwhile, Evelyn looked at Alaia and said, “It was my oversight. I’m still not used to having someone help me like this....”

Alaia laughed charmingly and said, “Your oversight? It was a blunder on my part~ Say, miss, do you want to fondle my breasts as a punishment~?”

Evelyn’s gaze couldn’t help but lower to the dragon-kin’s bountiful breasts. “I-I will pass the offer... Maybe a little? Definitely not more than a few sec- minutes.”

Alaia winked at her and returned to her position. Evelyn returned her gaze to the others, only to see Yasenia looking at her with a raised eyebrow. Evelyn stuttered and said, “I-It’s not like I fondled her breasts previously every night before going to bed because I missed yours! So don’t get the wrong idea!”

Yasenia directly burst into laughter, making the people focus on her, “Hahaha, dear, how can you be so cute? Hahaha. Don’t worry; you can rub them as much as you want. I won’t get jealous~.”

Evelyn tilted her head, and Yasenia pointed with her chin toward Andrea beside her. Evelyn looked over and saw how Andrea was patting Leila’s droopy and fluffy dog ears while discussing which pill to take first. On Yasenia’s other side, Kali was similarly passing her hand through Flora’s branches as she discussed with her, smelling Flora’s relaxing fragrance.

Evelyn felt Alaia closing on her ear and whispering, “See~? I told you it was completely fine~ Next time if you don’t believe me... I may spank miss~.”

Evelyn blushed, hearing the seductive dragonkin’s whisper in her ear. Yasenia shook her head with a smile, thinking. ‘Mom was scarily accurate with the maids for each of them. Is this a test of some sort? I hope not...’

Yasenia looked at Anna and Eve and asked, “So? Which one do you recommend I ingest first? Sun, Moon, or star attribute pill?”

Anna and Eve answered simultaneously, “[Sun Enhancing Pill]].”

Yasenia asked why, to which Anna answered, “Young miss is trying to enter the [Connection with the Sun realm]. Therefore, enhancing that attribute will be ideal.”

Eve added, “Moreover, in the unlikely case of the pill evolving young miss’s attribute, the Sun attribute is the best since it has the most offensive power out of the three.”

Yasenia nodded and took out one yellow round pill. It had small Sun patterns on it and smelled hot, similar to spicy foods. Anna said, impressed, “It has 89% of purity. Is this the one with the best quality, young miss?”

Yasenia took out the other fourteen pills, floating them in the air with her energy. Anna and Eve analyzed them in a single second, and Eve said, “Impressive, all of them are between 89 and 91% purity. In the upper-middle grade and lower high-grade rank.”

Yasenia asked, “With how much purity can you both create this pill?”

Anna thought and said, “If I had the materials... I think I could create them with a 93~95%.”

Eve said, “I would surely reach 96%, but higher than that is difficult.”

Yasenia said, “Is it worth finding the materials and waiting until you do it for me?”

Anna and Eve chuckled. Eve said, “Do you think your funds can hire us, young miss? We are your maids, not your alchemist~.”

Yasenia pouted and ingested the pill. Then she sat cross-legged on the couch. Yasenia felt the pill dissolving instantly after it touched her tongue, and it reached her stomach a second later. ‘Not only does it smell hot, it feels like I’m ingesting strong alcohol...’

Yasenia circulated the energy and felt even her meridians getting hotter. Yasenia started perspiring, making her skin gain a beautiful luster.

The others looked at that sweat droplet that fell from her straight, beautiful eyebrow, continued down her cheek, and passed her full tempting lips. It ran through her rounded jawline and slid through her neck, reaching the collarbone.

Then it continued its journey surrounding the full breast, falling into her deep cleavage and disappearing into her softness. Evelyn commented, swallowing and observing more droplets do the same. “I’ve never thought I would one day want to transform into a droplet of sweat so badly.”

A lot of nods followed that statement.

Yasenia’s body heated up, and even her cheeks gained an alluring rosy color while her breathing became heavier. Her seductive index was going up by the second.

After five minutes, she felt the heat finally lowering and sighed sensually, creating a cloud of mist.

She opened her golden-red slit eyes slowly and passed her hand through her damp hair, showing her to clean some droplets that were bothering her.

Yasenia looked around and saw everyone looking at her, scanning her body up and down. Yasenia raised an eyebrow, and she asked in a breathy voice, with half-closed eyes, “Is something wrong~?”

All the maids instantly dropped into a cross-legged or cross-tailed position and meditated. ‘Don’t jump at her, don’t jump at her, don’t jump....’

Angel and Evelyn moved toward her, entranced and hugged her while Kali instinctively leaned on Yasenia and sniffed the thick sweet floral scent. ‘As sweet-smelling as a flower bed~.’

Andrea moved aside, letting Evelyn sit closer. Then, with Evelyn on her right, Angel on top, and Kali on her left, Yasenia smiled happily and opened her arms to hug the three of them closer. However, she advised, “Baby~, dear~, honey~ do not come so close. I am very sweaty.”

Angel answered, intoxicated, “That is what makes it good~ Ohh Yasenia, you smell so good~.”

Angel buried her head in the cleavage and directly moaned, getting aroused at the thick scent there. Evelyn and Kali weren’t any better as they were at her sides with half-closed eyes, sniffing her.

Yasenia sighed with a smile and let the three of them do whatever they wanted. Yasenia looked at the sweaty Andrea and asked, “Did you have an evolution, darling?”

Andrea shook her head, “I also consumed the Sun attributed one; no luck here. What about you, Kali?”

When Andrea called her, Kali woke up from her trance and straightened her body, blushing under the veil. She answered Andrea, “I consumed the life attributed one without luck. Well, I can definitely feel the enhancement on it. So, I’m quite happy knowing that I will greatly upgrade all my elements with all the pills I have.”

Yasenia said, “Let’s shower and-.”

Angel, who was lifting her head from her cleavage with a blush, buried her face again and denied her, “I prohibit you~ Oh my heavens, here smells so tempting~.”

Yasenia sighed, ‘fragrant sweat also has its inconveniences. You can’t shower when you want to....’

They stayed in the room thirty more minutes, in which Kali, Angel, and Evelyn stayed plastered to Yasenia. Then, Yasenia pleaded, not knowing whether to laugh or cry, “Let me go shower, my loves. I know you like my scent, but we have to do things today.”

Kali and the others separated reluctantly. Yasenia said, “You three go shower too. I will go with Andrea~ I want to be alone with her for a bit~.” The others nodded and went to shower.

Chapter 140

Yasenia and Andrea entered the bath and disrobed. When they were naked, Yasenia approached Andrea with sensual steps and a very erect member.

Andrea looked at the sexy dragoness come near, and blood rushed down. Yasenia reached Andrea’s side, hugged her, and grabbed her member, pumping it and making it erect. It wasn’t difficult since her thick scent instantly aroused Andrea.

Andrea embraced Yasenia as she sighed comfortably. Yasenia’s hand was practically boneless, and her handjobs felt heavenly. Andrea whispered huskily in her deep and clear voice, “What’s wrong, my love? Why so active, mm~.”

Yasenia buried her face in her neck and sniffed Andrea's strong body scent, "Darling~ they got me aroused. Can you lower my heat~?"

Andrea smiled and lowered one hand, massaging Yasenia's wet core. The dragoness moaned and put their members together, pumping them at the same time. Andrea asked with a pampering tone, "How does my girl want to do it?"

Yasenia licked her neck, tasting her salty sweat, and growled sensually, "Deeply~ I want to be filled~."

Andrea and Yasenia walked together until Yasenia had her back against a wall. She didn't stop her handjob and rubbing their members for a second. Andrea loved having their members like this; feeling the thick shaft of the dragoness through hers was extremely arousing.

Andrea pressed Yasenia against a wall and dove down to devour her lips. Yasenia answered and stopped her handjob, wounding her arms around Andrea's neck.

Both dripping wet, Andrea lifted Yasenia into the air by her legs. Then she entered the tight, warm, and slimy entrance. Andrea felt her member surrounded and squeezed, letting her know that Yasenia really wanted it. 'Oh~. Her pussy is so good~.'

Yasenia moaned while they kissed and said, "Andrea, I love your dick~. It just hits the spots~."

Andrea moved her waist slowly, rotating while thrusting, scraping the dragoness insides, making Yasenia whimper with delight. "So good~ Ohh...."

Andrea lowered one hand, pumped her dick, and pressed the dragoness against the wall. "I'm going to start putting more strength, love. Your insides feel too good, and having slow sex is hard."

Yasenia closed her legs around Andrea's waist and hugged her closer. "Then, fuck me stupid, darling~."

Andrea grunted and pounded her stronger. Yasenia's eyes became pink as Andrea hit her cervix strongly and sounds of flesh against flesh filled the bath.

^Pah!* Pah! Pah! Pah!

"Ah! Ah! Ah! Darling, I love it~!"

Andrea looked into the pink eyes of the moaning dragoness and put their foreheads together. "Love, your insides are the best! I'm already cumming."

After hearing that, Yasenia's insides clenched and wiggled, making Andrea grunt and hilt herself with one last thrust, spurting her thick semen into her. Yasenia cried with delight, feeling Andrea's hot and thick release feeling her uterus. Andrea's Yin energy released fireworks on her brain and was enough to send her over the edge. "I'm cumming!"

Yasenia's dick jetted cum on their body, smearing their skin white, and her vagina spasmed, milking Andrea aggressively and making her moan, "Ohhh!!"

Andrea's legs trembled because of pleasure as she gently kissed Yasenia, filling her dear dragoness. The dragoness strengthened her arms and legs around Andrea until Andrea finished her orgasm.

Andrea sighed and savored Yasenia's lips while rotating her waist and stirring her semen inside of Yasenia. Then, she freed her and wanted to let her down, but the dragoness didn't relax her embrace, locking them in that position; even her insides were tightening, and her tail coiled around her.

Noticing her tight coiling, Andrea chuckled lowly. Then she asked gently, "Does my girl like me so much?"

Yasenia rubbed herself on Andrea and answered, growling lovingly, "I love darling's member the most~ Although the toys are not bad, they aren't as good as Darling's."

Andrea grabbed Yasenia's full buttocks and carried her to the bathtub in that position. She entered the bathtub and let Yasenia rest on top of her while reclining on the walls. Yasenia kissed, nibbled, and licked Andrea's neck and started moving her waist up and down. Andrea relaxed in that position as the dragoness milked her, "Why do you like it so much, love?"

Yasenia didn't stop her waist as she answered, "Because darling's can make me pregnant~."

Andrea smiled gently and asked, "Will you not like it the most if one day I become infertile?"

Yasenia looked up at Andrea and answered with a blissful smile, "Still like it the most~ I feel the best with darling's inside. Well... Mom is too good at having sex, so I don't count her! She has an unfair advantage in experience!"

Andrea laughed and hugged her beautiful dragoness while smiling. Then, she met Yasenia's movements thrusting up. Andrea smirked and lifted Yasenia until she unplugged her member, and using the lubricated rod, she penetrated her buttock. Yasenia moaned and looked at Andrea sensually, "Do you like this entrance, darling~?"

Andrea felt Yasenia clenching her muscles, making her insides extremely tight. "Do you want to know the answer?"

Andrea moved Yasenia until she could stand behind her and grabbed her big buttocks. Then, she began pounding, creating waves in the soft flesh. Not only that, she slapped from time to time, making Yasenia move her waist back, trying to bury Andrea deeper.

Yasenia and Andrea continued mating until Andrea was completely milked, filling Yasenia's three holes with her semen.

Meanwhile, Angel and Evelyn bathed together. Evelyn didn't waste her chance to do mischievous things to her big-breasted partner. When they entered the water, Evelyn grabbed Angel's breasts and said, "Impressive as always, you are so short, yet you have this bountiful bosom. What did you eat while growing up, little Angel? I want to eat that too!"

Angel chuckled as she let her fondle them, "Well, it runs in the family~ My big sister, mother and cousins are all big-breasted... Ahn~ Evelyn! Why did you pinch my nipples?"

Evelyn said righteously, "I'm fondling your naked tits, and you expect me not to play with your nipples!? Blasphemy!"

Angel looked at her stupefied, but the electric sensation of her nipples being pinched again brought her back. Not wanting to be the only one, Angel jumped at Evelyn and attacked her little, almost flat breasts, "You speak a lot about others, but I know that you are quite sensitive in your breasts!"

Evelyn moaned and counterattacked, “We’ve already had various nights together with Yasenía. Do you think I don’t see your happy face when you do a boob job to her! Pervert!”

Angel said indignantly. “You speak as if you weren’t the one that likes Yasenía pounding her butt while receiving slaps! I’ve never seen a redder butt than yours after sex! Pervert!”

Both started rolling and playing on the tub as they attacked each other and splashed water for a while.

Alaia and Selena smirked at the side, happy their mistresses got along nicely.

On the other side, Kali washed alone in her room. She was extremely averse to people seeing her face, not to mention her body, which was also filled with scars.

This was another thing that was always worrying Kali. Even if she knew that Yasenía wasn’t a person that focused on appearances... The fear still existed.

While completely naked, Kali looked at the full-body mirror, and her face grimaced, making it even more hideous. and forcing Kali to look away from the mirror. “I will not scare her, right?”

She touched her face and said to herself, “Well, she can kiss this face....”

Kali slightly blushed as she whispered, “She even licks my scars....” She forced herself to look at the mirror again and looked at her body. Then, seeing the scars on her body, her blush became more apparent, “...Will she lick these too?”

Kali shook her head and then sighed. She walked toward the tub, smiling slightly, “I didn’t have nightmares the three times I slept beside Yasenía... I also feel relaxed beside her... Her sweat also smells so good I got intoxicated.”

Remembering what Yasenía told her when having dinner, she frowned again, “What is the thing that may put distance between us? I can’t think of anything... Maybe, has she forced herself on someone before? Yasenía isn’t like that. Maybe she is overthinking?”

Kali chuckled, “She is sometimes too careful with me. Well, it is not like I dislike it. On the contrary, it feels good.”

Kali thought, ‘Maybe she is using me as a test....’

Kali shook her head and splashed water on her face, ” What test!? Are you stupid, Kali? Stop overthinking! She will tell me when the time is right.”

Kali heard a whisper. ‘Will she~? How are you so sure~?’

Kali frowned and said, ‘Obviously, thanks to how she treated me until-.’

‘For some days? She even ran away for a week to take a breather from seeing your hideous appearance.’

Kali sat cross-legged and took a deep breath. The voice continued whispering, getting quieter until it disappeared. ‘Even if you lull us, we are never going to disappear. Meditation can only buy you so much time... Kali.’

After the voices stopped, Kali opened her green eyes and had the impulse to see Yasenia soon. Therefore, she bathed fast and went out to wait for Yasenia.

After the bath, they met up again. Yasenia was smiling and hugging Andrea's arm until she spotted Kali. Kali's aura was fluctuating, and some of that dark miasma was around her. Seeing this, Yasenia instantly released Andrea's arm and went beside Kali, burying her in her embrace. "I'm here, honey. Relax, my love. Breathe in deeply, and exhale. Then, breathe again."

Kali hugged Yasenia's waist and did as told. After breathing in once, the sweet floral scent relaxed her nerves. Yasenia whispered gently, "Such a good girl. You are doing great, honey."

Kali closed her eyes as she hugged the dragoness tighter, breathing in and out. A smile appeared on her face. 'What is there to fear? I have Yasenia beside me; I will be alright.'

The others didn't speak, knowing something was wrong, and waited at the side until Yasenia and Kali finished.

After just ten minutes, Kali was completely relaxed. Yasenia kissed her over the veil and then smiled. "Better?"

Kali nodded and took off her veil. Then, looking at Yasenia, she said, "Better."

Yasenia's eyes curved happily, leaning forward to capture her scarred lips. After a quick, loving kiss, Yasenia put Kali's veil on her again, took her hand, and approached the others.

They spoke a little about what to do and decided to walk toward the mission hall. Yasenia was practically new to the inner part of the Academy.

She looked around while hugging Andrea's arm and grabbing Kali's hand, "It doesn't change much from the outer Academy... Well, the houses are more luxurious, and the items seem of much higher quality."

Andrea smiled and said, "Look closer at the people behind some of the disciples."

Yasenia observed them and asked, surprised, "Are they servants? I see that they range from mortals to... Well, I can't read some cultivation levels."

Anna asked with a smirk, "You didn't think you were the only one with servants, right, young miss?"

Yasenia nodded, "I didn't. But I also didn't think that it was this... Normalized. Does the Academy have something similar to a slave house?"

Alaia said, "It is voluntary. Inner disciples can have one servant, and they normally go outside to get one. Of course, those servants that are so strong are from influential families and heirs. The Academy controls spies using oaths. Even If they are not very reliable, together with the formation, they are enough to protect the most important parts of the Academy."

Selena said with awe, "The complexity of the Academy's formation is shocking, adding a lot of utility to everything around. I could speak for days about the formation and not end its functions. Moreover, the only ones who know all its functions inside-out are Elder Linda and Lady Tatyana."

Selena slithered beside Angel as she said, “Moreover, I’ve heard that a slave house with beast humans is going to open inside the Academy. The owner of one of the slave houses of Champion City has formed a partnership with us.”

Yasenia, Evelyn, Angel, and Andrea lifted an eyebrow. ‘Is it Gilda?’

Laila chuckled, “I’ve seen the woman, and she is quite funny, saying things like ‘I want to return to be under the Tangs,’ or ‘They are killing a transcendent realm cultivator, me, with just paperwork!’ How can that be possible? I laughed a lot with that woman.”

The others also chuckled. Well, except Anna and Eve, who had empathetic expressions, ‘Welcome aboard, Gilda. I hope you can survive long enough to enjoy the work you are investing in right now.’

These roles are normally assigned when entering the Transcendent realm. Therefore, the other maids didn’t know about it. Moreover, there is a custom not to tell anybody anything; they didn’t want potential companions in suffering, Cough work companions to slip because of fear Cough Cough respect for their seniors!
