

Heaven 15

Chapter 15

‘Good, I almost didn’t use energy except to protect from that hit in the sword and the final strike.’ Then she turned took the beast-core and dashed towards the exit. After a while, she came across a wide river. ‘Now I must cross this river? How?’

She looked around and didn’t see anything useful. She took a long stick and tried to touch the river with it. When the stick touched the river water, it instantly froze and broke. ‘I can’t resist that amount of coldness and this wood also can’t. this river is 200m at most with the help of my energy and tail I can jump 40-50 m how to cover the rest?’

Then she went along the Rivershore and at one point she saw some trees growing inside the river water. A picturesque scene. ‘Those trees are close enough for me to reach but...’ She took one fruit and threw it to the tree only to be eaten by a giant snake that was living in that tree!

She smiled wryly ‘What to do now?’ She looked behind and suddenly she saw a forest of really tall bamboo. And had an extremely weird idea. ‘Should I catapult myself with the help of these bamboos?’

She swallowed, will I be able to reach the other side? She approached one and used her energy in them, surprisingly it absorbed it! She took one rock of her size and put it on one of them and she used one-tenth of her energy while bending it until it touched the ground. Then she released the rock.

The rock flew like an arrow released from a bow and passed the river easily! She smiled and did the same using the same amount of energy. Then with the tail, she anchored to the soil and mounted the bamboo.

After releasing her tail, she was launched across the river, she couldn’t help but shout a little and laugh “Hahaha this is so fuunn!!!”. After seeing the floor coming closer, she used her arms to grab one branch, used the momentum of the fall to do some spins slowing her fall, and “Bam!” landed safely on the ground.

“I must tell my mom to buy some of those to bring home hahaha! So fun!” when she looked back and saw some people appearing. “Oh... they took their time to catch up.” Then she saw some people jumping directly into the water and opened her eyes stupefied!

Like she expected those people directly jumped to their deaths! They started to freeze and when they wanted to return, some aquatic monsters entangled them and dragged them to the bottom of the river.

She turned around and spoke. “Truly haste makes waste” Remembering her blunder saying this saying when she was little, she laughed. Yaseenia ran forward and finally reached the end! ‘In the end, it was an agility test, a combat test, and a mental flexibility test. I’m sure there were more methods to pass that river.’

A teacher was waiting in the end. "Congratulations for being the first in this circuit and the third within all the stages!" Yaseenia bowed and thanked him. "Pass this teleportation circle, it will lead to the next test." Yaseenia walked forward and stood in the center of the circle, then it lit up and she disappeared from the sport.

When she arrived, there were other two people there. One girl and one boy. The girl was chatting nonstop with the boy, but the boy seemed to be ignoring her. The girl after a while pouted and looked towards the entrance.

When she saw Yaseenia, her eyes lock onto her, well, onto her chest. This was the first time even when looking at someone that she received such an unabashed lecherous gaze, from a woman no less!

Feeling curious about this strange person she smiled a little and was about to start to walk towards her when that girl flashed like an electric spark towards her! Now that the girl was near, she was able to inspect her.

She seems to have a rare lightning attribute that has been perfected to a very high degree for her age. She has rather average facial features and she is flat-chested, with 166 cm of height. However, her striking electric blue hair and piercing violet eyes give her a good appearance.

"Hello! Hello! My name is Evelyn! I'm 21 years old, single, and trying to find a beautiful, tall, busty and seductive wink wink woman as a partner! I'm at the seventh level of the Body modification realm and my constitution is super awesome! [Lightning devouring body] I can also devour other thi-" Bang! she was slapped to the ground by Yaseenia's tail! The boy said, "Finally, she shut up. She has been speaking since I came to this room"

Yaseenia couldn't help but massage her forehead "Has she also flirted with you too?" The boy shook his head "No, that was new..." Yaseenia couldn't help but sigh, then she picked Evelyn from her waist with her tail and lifted her up. Well, she was a funny person, different from that young master who was as arrogant as a peacock, one can tell that her tone is playful and doesn't mean bad.

Yaseenia said with a little laugh "Evelyn, I say, do you have a stop button? I don't want to slap you to the ground every time... Oi, my face is up here." Evelyn said with a completely serious face "I know, but your tits are no-" Bang!.

Seeing that people were arriving Yaseenia turned around and sat cross-legged with her eyes closed. Evelyn stood up and went to her side. Yaseenia opened one eye and swished her tail a little, in a form of a warning "I know! I know! Don't swish that dangerous thing in front of my face! By the way, what is your name? And what are your three siz-" Bang! this time Evelyn didn't stand up...

A while later Yaseenia saw Oliver appear with some injuries. Yaseenia raised her beautiful eyebrow. "What happened? Was the beast too strong?" Oliver shook his head "Those bastards attacked me after my battle with the beast, I could only run for a while to lose them, and only then was I able to make it to the finish line"

Yaseenia asked curiously. "Did you already make enemies?" Oliver said with an exaggerated manner "Miss, it was your suitor that spoke to you before! I got shot down even when I was lying down!"

Yasenia was surprised “Is he that petty? He didn’t have the guts to attack me so he targeted you?” Oliver shrugged his shoulders. Yasenia couldn’t help but frown a little.

Evelyn on the side was actually nervous! ‘Who is he? Her boyfriend? A-although I was a little joking... I really like this girl! I still don’t know her name... will I have a heartbreak before I even get to know her name?’. Yasenia felt that Evelyn was nervous and after thinking for a while she understood. Her teasing habits surfaced again!

She lowered her face and whispered sultrily, “Evelyn, why are you so nervous? hmm?” Evelyn could feel all her senses becoming numb and her heart-rate speed up! “I-I am, uh, T-that” ‘Why did I lose my ability to speak endlessly right now!?’

Yasenia chuckled lowly on her ear and hugged her from behind, using her tail tip to caress her cheek, and pressing her softness on her back. Moreover, Yasenia’s sweet floral scent assaulted Evelyn all around!

Evelyn’s brain short-circuited and Oliver couldn’t help but save the little girl with a laugh “say Yasenia, can you stop teasing her? Her face has become as red as a rose! I don’t think she can even think straight anymore hahaha.”

Yasenia relented and separated from the back of Evelyn. Then she started to massage the scalp of Evelyn softly with her moon energy relaxing her thoughts and bringing her back to earth. “Sorry Evelyn, your nervous appearance was very cute and I couldn’t help but tease you a little.” Then she asked putting a pitiful expression “Are you mad?”

‘Who in this world is able to tell you they are mad when you put that face!?’ “N-No, b-but if you do something like that again I will have you take responsibility for me!” Yasenia said sincerely “I won’t, don’t worry. I will become better and control myself.”

Evelyn thought ‘Why did it become like that!? Don’t become better at controlling yourself! Can’t you see that I want for you to take responsibility!?’

The teacher arrived at this moment interrupting what Evelyn was about to say. This time Mason appeared, when he reached his position, he felt murderous intent from an electric blue-haired girl and was stupefied. ‘Did I provoke someone recently? Well, it doesn’t matter.’

He started with a general-like tone “I’m Mason the practical teacher of the cultivation branch, I’m a triple attributed master controlling metal, earth, and space. All of the people here will be able to participate in the next test. The next test will prove your heart. A cultivator with a weak heart will become a Demonic cultivator sooner or later, and in this academy, we don’t raise demonic cultivators.”

“You all will enter one of the five formations that are behind me. If you are able to stay inside the formation for one minute it will be a pass, you will be ranked based on the duration, if two people last the same, we will take into consideration the previous assessment and order you like that. Begin!”

Yasenia spectated for a while; she saw some people failing in the tenth second there was even a girl that failed in the 59th second. The people that pass were having pale faces for the most part. After seeing them for 20 minutes, she prepared to enter. She started advancing and Evelyn and Oliver followed. Each entered one formation sat cross-legged and closed their eyes.

Some days have passed since her heart demon examination. Yasenia was at the carriage almost reaching home. She was returning home because she failed the heart demon test and thus didn't pass the academy entrance.

Anna and Eve were cold-faced and didn't even bother talking to her. Yasenia looked outside the carriage with a saddened expression and thought 'Who would have thought that my heart demon was so bad I didn't even last 15 seconds, at least, Oliver passed.'

She closed her eyes to rest. After a while, Yasenia heard Anna calling her stoically "Miss, we have arrived." Yasenia opened her eyes and seeing the expressionless face of Anna, she couldn't help but feel pain in her heart, but she endured. 'Even if your heart is weak, you can't let this affect you. You just have to train harder and try another path. There isn't only one path to the summit.'

Yasenia opened her mansion doors and instead of the normally lively atmosphere, there was an oppressing silence. She was confused 'What happened?'

She continued onwards and when she was about to pass the living room, Richard appeared devoid of his usual gentle smile and with a sad feeling around him. "Miss, we have some bad news."

Yasenia looked over and asked with a restless heart, "What happened?" Richard said "Lady Tatyana has been captured by one of her old enemies. Right now she is being..." Richard paused and decided not to say it, but Yasenia's heart gave a painful Thump Richard continued "We... can't do anything," Richard continued with a pained expression "The enemy is too strong..."
