

Heaven 151

Chapter 151

All the sixth-ranked phoenixes channeled energy through their meridians crazily as they used their strongest defenses to protect them. Between the nova and the lower-level phoenixes, giant ice domes, walls, pillars, and other defensive structures formed. Feng Guoshi, Anna, and Eve joined the defensive team, summoning an extra Ice dome and mountain-sized roots surrounding the Ice phoenixes' defensive measures.

The Fire Nova collided with their defenses in an explosion that dimmed the heavens!

“BOOOOOM!!!!!!”

The world trembled and cried in agony as the enormous explosion changed the landscape.

When Yasenia and the others opened their eyes, they saw half of the phoenixes with burned wings and feathers; four of the Legendary ranked phoenixes died in this explosion.

Anna, Eve, and Feng Guoshi came back to Yasenia's side with similar injuries. Anna and Eve had lost an arm and had more than half of the body with badly burnt marks. They both picked a transcendent ranked pill and consumed it; they still had to protect their miss!

Yasenia looked around, and her eyes opened wide with fear. Everything around turned into a hellish landscape. The fire nova was so strong that it had changed the snow-filled mountains into a crater tens of kilometers deep and so wide that Yasenia couldn't see the end.

The previous snowy landscape was now a bubbling magma ocean, the mountains in the surroundings were evaporated, and the sky had changed colors to red. It was like an abyss to hell had opened in front of the Phoenix Mountain. Yasenia's body couldn't help but tremble in fear, ‘This is the strength of Transcendence realm cultivators? They are basically walking Natural disasters!’

The sentence that Tatyana said to her came to her mind again, and she couldn't help but say it out loud with a trembling voice. “All under transcendent realm are ants.”

Seeing the obvious shock on her face, Anna and Eve went to her side and hugged the more than one head taller dragoness, ignoring their injuries. “Don't worry, young miss; we are here to protect you. Unless we die, young miss will remain unscratched!”

Yasenia hugged them back and took a deep breath, trying to relax, but this filled her nostrils with the scent of burning flesh, land, and air. However, she managed to put her body reactions under control and looked at her dears. All of them were still registering the catastrophic consequences of that attack.

With now confident steps, trying to hide her own fear, she approached them and hugged them all, using her tail and arms. Andrea and Cecile weren't that affected, but the same wasn't true for the other three. Trying to change their focus to something else, Yasenia said, “Look, it seems that mom is about to start fighting-”

However, countless howls and roars interrupted her. The mass of demons that were on wait far away charged forward without giving Yasenia and the rest a chance to relax. On the battlefield, the only way to relax was death! The rest of the maids prepared to defend their mistresses.

Since the explosion happened on the mountain's north side, and the demons were positioned south, there was ground to walk toward the Ice Nirvana Mountain.

The sheer quantity of creatures made the earth tremble with their steps. They had a single high-level Demon Queen in front of them, using her powers to solidify the ground and make it easier for the army to reach the Phoenix Mountain. The only mountain that was still standing.

The mass of creatures was so dense that they seemed to consume the land as they approached the mountain.

The fourth and fifth-ranked phoenixes prepared to defend their home.

The Demons prepared to attack their would-be home.

The hundreds of thousands of ice Phoenix cried in unison, filling the air with their melodic voice.

The tens of millions of demons howled and roared, answering with their own battle cry!

The mass of demons and phoenixes approached. Then, the armies collided.

Ice and wind spells appeared everywhere, consuming the demons, and the demons answered with fire, darkness, and magma spells, creating explosions through the battlefield. The demons overwhelmed the phoenixes in numbers, but the overall strength of the Phoenix was higher.

The phoenixes managed to form a defensive perimeter with the use of defensive skills, Making use of this discrepancy in strength. However, this didn't lower the brutality of the unfolding chaotic battle.

A demon jumped on a Phoenix's back, ripping its wing off and making it cry in pain. But another Phoenix defended it, hitting the demon with his wing and blasting it into bits. This was followed by a demoness that appeared below the injured Phoenix, piercing upward with a spear and carrying a geyser of flames, charring that Phoenix's chest. However, before the spear delivered the final hit, the sharp talons of another Phoenix pierced her chest, ripping her into pieces.

A big Phoenix on the verge of advancing to the sixth rank was using a breath attack on another place, freezing hordes of demons, and other phoenixes flapped their wings, creating ice vortexes and gales.

The strong Phoenix suddenly got tackled by the side, making it fall toward the demon mass below. It got swarmed by the demons, and blood splashed everywhere. But with a mighty cry, its aura exploded, blasting the demons away, showing his now injured body.

There were also strong demons. However, they aimed toward the biggest phoenix present, Feng Guoshi. He was locked in a fight against the high-level Demon Queen and other strong demons, careful not to kill Yasenia by mistake.

Moreover, since he was near Yasenia to protect her, a lot of the battles happened near them.

Anna and Eve joined the fight, showcasing their transcendent power. Giant laser beams and enormous roots lashed everywhere, destroying hordes of foolish demons that tried approaching their young miss.

A demon aimed directly at Yasenia with a claw and-

*SLASH!***

Anna bisected the demon and shouted, “Filth! How dare you aim your claws at my Young miss! [NAUTRE’S EMBRACE]!”

Ten titanic roots grew from the floor, trapping a ten-kilometer area filled with demons, then they collapsed, flattening every single one of them.

Eve coldly chanted, “[Thousand Devouring Flowers].”

One-hundred-meter tall plants with mouths filled with serrated teeth grew around, devouring the demons. They feed on them to multiply and spread at terrifying speed around the battlefield, creating an absolute massacre. Then, Eve and Anna used their light attribute to make the plants’ metabolism kick in and reproduce at a much higher rate.

These two transcendent level women were a big reason the demons didn’t overwhelm the phoenixes yet.

Meanwhile, the personal maids weren’t left behind!

Selena was carrying a giant shield and sword. She slithered rapidly toward a demon charging toward them. The five-meter-tall demoness swung her giant Ax!

*CLANG!***

Only to be repelled badly by Selena; Selena didn’t even move! Then she lashed with her red-colored tail, hitting the demoness’s side and bending her body with a sickening sound of flesh exploding.

Countless projectiles fired toward Yasenia’s group rapidly. Selena flashed and appeared before them. Her shield hand blurred as she blocked every attack, avoiding any damage to befall them. Another demon approached, and she just rammed it with her shield, literally exploding it into fleshy bits!

Selena slithered through the rain of flesh, reaching a group of ten demons that were nearing them. They sent ranged flame attacks, but Selena’s body flashed as she blocked with her shield or resilient scaled tail.

*CLANG!* *CLANG!* *CLANG!* *CLANG!***

Selena swung her sword, sending a horizontal glass crescent that cut the demons in half. A ten-meter demon approached, and Selena slithered toward it, blocking the hammer that was bigger than her human half.

*BANG!***

The ground lifted, and Selena smirked. While she was smirking, Alaia appeared from behind Selena, like a bolt of yellow lighting, and pierced through the demon’s chest, making an “Alaia-sized” hole through it.

The dragoness extended her left wing and made a sharp turn, charging through other demons and creating wide holes with her spear.

Alaia spun the spear and landed it at the side of another demon, creating a sickening sound of bones breaking. She flew above a big group and opened her mouth; an obscene amount of energy gathered and then released in a devastating attack.

*BOOM!***

Her light and lightning dragon breath scorched kilometers in front of Alaia. She flashed toward another group being retained by Selena. It was clear that her speed and strength were absurd as she sent her opponents flying. She continued coordinating with Selena, and the duo harvested lives left and right without letting a chance to the demons retaliate.

Flora walked slowly as she summoned an army of plant creatures, from bipedal to quadrupedal, human-sized to sky-scraper sized, and sent them to assist Selena and Alaia. They multiplied endlessly as they swarmed the demons and consumed them.

When any of the maids got injured, she would send a life energy wave, healing them over time. Her battlefield control and awareness were on a superior level as she timely helped with defensive root walls, avoiding most of the damage.

Clara used Flora's summons to move around with her bow in hand, delivering lethal arrows to the heads of one demon after another. Then, she charged an attack and shot an arrow upwards; it exploded and made the sky darker as countless arrows rained on the demons. While the arrows rained, she shot, jumped, and spun in the air, raining death from above with cold eyes. Her kill count was second only to Flora.

Meanwhile, Leila walked with a gentle smile toward a group of demons and summoned her weapon, an ominous black halberd. The demons charged at her.

Leila stomped the ground, and it sunk several meters in front of her, elevating the ground that the demons were on and sending them flying. While they were in the air, her eyes flashed as she jumped toward them, making the ground below her explode. Flames danced around her halberd, and her arm moved, making it disappear and appear again. In the next second, all the airborne demons split into flesh bricks and then became ashes. She saw another group approaching, and she waved her left hand, sending a one-kilometer tsunami of molten metal.

Yasenia and the rest watched in awe as the maids dominated the battlefield, fighting off the hordes of demons fearlessly and harvesting lives left and right.

Tatyana and the other 30 Demon Monarchs were in the air, watching everything unfold. After seeing that Yasenia was still safe after that formation broke, Tatyana looked at Horux and asked, "You won't attack? I've been waiting here quite some time already."

Horux was also observing the battlefield and frowning slightly. 'Those maids are killing too many demons... And Guriasha seems on the losing side against that Phoenix.'

Horux communicated mentally, "Rorosh, go fight those two transcendent level maids; they are causing too much damage. At this pace, we won't have low-level demons even if we win."

Horux turned toward Tatyana and said, "I don't know how strong you are. Attacking you blindly would be stupid."

Tatyana looked at the demon King that shot toward Anna and Eve and smiled, “Where are you going big guy? [Fated Death].”

Tatyana cut a white fate string and turned her attention toward Horux. Horux didn’t understand what she did, but Rorosh was able to go and start fighting with Anna and Eve.

Tatyana nodded at his previous comment and said playfully, “That is why you are trying to build a trapping formation around me sneakily? It is not a bad-”

Horux had appeared before Tatyana almost instantly, but Tatyana took out her [Death Dragon Bone Sword] and blocked it.

*CLANG!***

The collision of the five-meter longsword and Tatyana’s longsword created a shockwave that moved all the ash flying around.

Tatyana looked at him and said with a smirk, “So hasty~. I was about to compliment the formation~.”

Horux’s sword blurred as he repeatedly slashed toward Tatyana. Tatyana blocked all his strikes without moving from her floating place. Horux frowned, ‘Even if I’m not going full strength, she is blocking too easily.’

Tatyana swung her sword a little stronger, and *BANG!* After a heavier collision, Horux was sent flying backward 10 km with hurting arms. Tatyana stopped her games, and her disposition changed, releasing a tyrannical aura fitting of a ruler.

Her aura washed over the 29 demons before her as she said coldly, “To be honest, I wasn’t going to participate in this war. I was going to bunker up in the Academy and see the events unfold without interfering. However, you had to target my little treasure’s [Soulmate]. Death is too cheap for you.”

Chapter 152

Tatyana’s aura exploded outward, pushing the 29 Demon Monarchs back some kilometers just from her aura pressure. Her aura release became extremely dense, and a black and green haze covered the sky, changing the red sky into an ominous night. Light still shone through, creating a very strange atmosphere.

Horux, accompanied by another ten Demon Monarchs, charged toward her and the other 18 continued building the formation. The attacks came one after another, and Tatyana dodged and moved in the air, evading through their attacks.

Clashes of weapons echoed in the sky as Tatyana weaved through their attacks effortlessly. It was as if the attacks weren’t even aimed at her, even the Demon Monarch got aware of this, but they didn’t stop.

For the ones looking at them, it seemed as if the attacks were evading her!

This was thanks to Tatyana’s passive skill, [Future sight], which enabled her to see some seconds into the future with extreme clarity.

Tatyana moved like a fish in the water through their attacks, blocking some, parrying some, and sometimes sneaking a counterattack that sent those Demon Monarchs she hit flying with painful grunts.

*CLANG!CLANG!* *BANG!* *CLANG!CLANG!CLANG!* *BANG!*

While dodging, Tatyana began to chant, making her voice echo through the entire battlefield.

“You who rules the undead....”

A thick death aura gathered at one point behind them. Tatyana continued evading as her chant went uninterrupted.

“...You who, even with that ascendancy, is under my command.”

The aura got denser, and the demons attacked faster, trying to stop her. However, Tatyana dodged easily and ended her chant.

“Awaken, [Sovereign of the Underworld: Undead Empress].”

A spatial crack opened, creating a pitch-black zone in that area. Laments of countless souls passed through the crack as a woman with ethereal beauty stepped out of it wearing a green and white regal dress and holding an elegant longsword. Her eyes glowed with a ghostly green light, and her aura carried the bearing of a monarch.

Ying Yue looked at the demons attacking Tatyana and instantly charged right into the fray.

One Demon Queen saw a blur approaching from the side and hastily defended; however...
*BOOOOOM!!*

She felt like an asteroid just smashed against her and was sent flying hundreds of kilometers away with tumbling organs and broken bones. Ying Yue didn't follow and sped toward the others that were attacking Tatyana.

*BANG!* *BANG!* *BANG!* *BANG!*

Ying Yue danced around like a whirlwind of elegance, beauty, and strength, blowing away all the Demon Monarchs. Shortly after her summoning, all the Demons decided to retreat and regroup.

When she saw that the demons were regrouping, Ying Yue and Tatyana communicated in an instant. “How strange to see you fighting like this... Why are you not stopping their formation?”

Tatyana said, “They wanted to target my little treasure.”

Ying Yue eyes became murderous, “Aiming for the little princess!? Eternal punishment is to light for these scum!”

Tatyana said, “I will also summon Hui Zhong. I need both of you to buy me time to summon Little Long.”

Ying Yue's eyes opened in surprise. “Empress is going to summon Lord Long? Why?”

Tatyana said, “Little treasure is here with me.”

Ying Yue instantly searched for Yaseia and saw her down there between the mass of demons and flocks of phoenixes. She said, “Then what are you waiting for, Empress!? Our little princess is endangered!”

Tatyana began accumulating energy again. However, Horux bellowed, “Foolish woman! You let us build the formation, and now it will become your death sentence! Activate, [Demon Emperor Killing Formation]!”

Tatyana smirked and said, “Thank you, I will take that. [Formation Reversal].”

She waved her left hand, and a wave of fate energy crashed into a specific spot in the formation. Before they could realize what Tatyana did, the formation began attacking them!

Tatyana sneered, “Playing with formations in front of me? Courting death is an understatement!”

Using the time frame they needed to deactivate the formation, Tatyana chanted again, making her voice reverberate around, “You who rules the undead, you who, even with that supremacy, is under my command. Awaken, [Sovereign of the Underworld: Undead Emperor]”

Another crack opened in the space, making the atmosphere even more ominous. An extremely handsome man stepped out of it, wearing a black and white regal garment and holding an imposing longsword. His eyes shone with spectral black light, and his aura carried the tyrannical power of death.

After he appeared on the battlefield, the demons destroyed the formation. Horux looked at Tatyana and saw the new fighter beside her; his face became ugly. The world slowed down as he looked around.

He looked down and saw the mortal demons fighting against the mortal-ranked ice phoenixes; except near Yasenias, the demons had the advantage.

Then, he looked toward the group of Demon Monarchs fighting against the injured group of Sixth ranked Ice phoenixes; the demons had the advantage.

Finally, he observed Eira and Boreas, who were still fighting against the group of 20 Demon Monarchs; the fight was in a lock, with no sides with a clear advantage.

‘Should we retreat? It wasn’t easy reaching here. If we can hold Tatyana enough time, we will manage to usurp and kill most of the young Ice phoenix and some of the Legendary ones. This will be a harsh hit for their race. Their leaders are still fighting against the 20... 18 Demon Monarchs. And the other sixth-ranked phoenixes are still fighting against the others... Thankfully we managed to kill some of them.’

Horux thought, ‘Shall we make her lose her calm? Maybe we will have more chances if she acts recklessly. Moreover, I will be able to know what level is she really and plan against her.’

Horux said aloud, “It will be hard to win against her before the other fights end! Stall her! We will have an advantage if we get a hold of her daughter!”

The other Demon Monarchs howled and roared, shaking the heavens.

Tatyana froze for a second, and then her aura swelled!

The Demon Monarchs looked horrified as Tatyana’s aura collapsed under its own might and exploded outward in an implosion of energy.

*BBOOOOOOMM!!!!!!*

The shockwave that deformed space around her darkened the sky and drowned the Demon Monarchs' shouts.

Ying Yue and Hui Zhong thought, 'Oh... The Empress is truly angry.'

Tatyana's eyes glowed crimson as she ordered with a voice that sounded more demonic than theirs, "Protect me. I shall send them to the underworld to suffer for eternity and beyond!"

Then her voice covered the whole battlefield again. However, this time it was accompanied by a phantasmal undertone and laments of countless souls, giving chills to everyone present. The dread they felt was so bad that the fights around stopped to look at them. "You, King of Undead, King of Souls, King of dragons. You, who went against fate, and won, who went against the heavens, and won...."

A Titanic vortex of Death and Fate energy gathered in the sky, forming a black and green spiral cloud of 100km. However, it was so high up in the sky that it looked small.

Looking at that vortex, Horux felt fear for the first time and hastily said, "Charge! Interrupt her chant!" All 29 Demon Monarchs charged against Tatyana.

Anna and Eve looked at the sky and opened their eyes wide in fear. They hastily began chanting and using defensive skills around Yasenias and the rest. "FENG GUOSHI! COME HERE AND CREATE DEFENSIVE DOMES AROUND OUR YOUNG MISS!"

Feng Guoshi instantly flashed beside them and created transparent domes one after another, letting the people look at the sky as if they weren't there.

The rest also felt fear, but it was more an instinctual fear against death.

However, Yasenias and Alaia were trembling in fear, not because of the thing's strength, but because they felt like a superior being was being summoned, something Yasenias hadn't ever felt due to her superior bloodline. "W-what is Mom summoning? M-my instinct a-are screaming to run."

Eve said. "Her mount."

Ying Yue and Hui Zhong charged against the 29 Demon Monarchs fearlessly. The two against twenty-nine began with Ying Yue and Hui Zhong releasing a giant wave of death energy.

Fifteen Demon Monarchs blocked the attack, *BANG!* And they were sent flying backward. The others took the window they created and rushed forward.

Ying Yue began gathering energy.

Hui Zhong's sword blurred, and countless black slashes filled the sky. Horux stepped forward and met them with his own technique, sending red energy waves crashing against them. However, he was completely overpowered by the Undead Emperor's sword strikes. Another group joined Horux to repel his sword attacks.

Thanks to this, the rest could go toward Ying Yue and interrupt her.

Hui Zhong wouldn't let this happen. To stop the other Demon Monarchs for a second, he let himself be struck with Horux sword and redirected his attacks toward the others. Horux's attack sent Hui

Zhong flying with a big lash in his chest. However, his attack managed to stop the others in their tracks for a second.

This maneuver let Ying Yue enough time to activate her skill. She chanted in her ethereal voice. “[Empress’s Legion Summoning].”

Countless green cracks opened, but nothing came out. Then, she took over Hui Zhong’s place while he gathered energy for his skill.

Ying Yue danced elegantly and imposingly between the Demon Monarchs, using her absurd strength to send the five to ten-meter creatures flying. She saw that Horux had changed direction toward Hui Zhong, so she hastily used a skill, summoning bone pillars around him.

The Demon Monarchs attacked the pillars, destroying them. However, Hui Zhong completed the energy charge. Then, he chanted in his magnetic and deep voice, “[Emperor’s Legion Summoning].”

Countless black cracks appeared around them. Each green portal sent an energy beam toward the black portal, disappearing. The portals transformed into black-green ones.

Then both appeared beside the changing portals and chanted simultaneously, “[Regal Death’s Procession].”

Following this, countless undead dropped like rain from them, covering the sky with different skeletal creatures.

A green aura exploded from Ying Yue and a black one from Hui Zhong. All the undead became strengthened and gained the ability to fly. Hui Zhong and Ying Yue commanded aloud, “Protect the Death Empress.”

All the undead charged toward the Demon Monarchs.

The Demon Monarchs hastily attacked, destroying chunks of the army with each strike. Nonetheless, the undead pouring through the cracks seemed endless!

It was at this time that Tatyana’s voice continued to reverberate, sounding more imposing with each line. “You, who gave up life for the unlife, who was the first, but also the last. Who ruled and lost everything, who ruled again and gained everything.”

Horux was getting anxious and cursing at himself, ‘Why did you have to provoke her!? We have to stop the summoning.’ His voice rumbled as he shouted, “[DEMON KING’S PRESENCE: HELLISH TORMENT]!”

*BOOM!***

A red aura exploded from him, damaging everyone, including the nearby Demon Monarchs. However, this red aura, even if it was weaker than the previous fire nova. It was enough to incinerate nearby undead, clearing the undead around him and creating a path toward Tatyana.

All of them took the chance and charged through it, not minding the injuries.

Ying Yue and Hui Zhong moved fast between Tatyana and the demons, summoning every defensive spell they could. Tatyana was covered by countless bones, domes, and skeleton walls, hiding her from sight. The 30 demons attacked continuously, making a hole through those defenses in less than two seconds. However, two seconds of margin in a battle of their strength was something that could change the tides of the battle.

And it did.

Tatyana's aura inflated again and exploded outwards, destroying every defense around her and sending the demon monarchs flying. This energy explosion revealed her current cultivation level. Horux opened his eyes, stunned, and incredulously said, "Huh...? A level two Law Creator? A level two demigoddess!?"

Horux came to a harsh realization while Tatyana's last verse was heard, carrying the strength of the world's laws.

'She could have killed us from the start... She is trying to capture us!'

"I call you, my eternal companion, my eternal partner, [Sovereign of the Underworld: Progenitor King, Abyssal Dragon]!"

Chapter 153

Tatyana's aura inflated again and exploded outwards, destroying every defense around her and sending the demon monarchs flying. This energy explosion revealed her current cultivation level. Horux opened his eyes, stunned, and incredulously said, "Huh...? A level two Law Creator? A level two demigoddess!?"

Horux came to a harsh realization while Tatyana's last verse was heard, carrying the strength of the world's laws.

'She could have killed us from the start... She is trying to capture us!'

"I call you, my eternal companion, my eternal partner, [Sovereign of the Underworld: Progenitor King, Abyssal Dragon]!"

And at that moment. Tatyana's voice made everything come to a stop, forcing everyone to focus on the 100km vortex very high up in the sky. No one could move; the only thing they could do was look with horror at the following events.

With an aura that made everyone present feel insignificant, a dragon claw pierced the vortex, and every single finger of that titanic claw had 20km in length!

Of all the present living beings, the ones with dragon bloodline had it the worst, and Yasenia's reaction showed it. Even after only feeling the creature's aura across the countless defensive layers of Anna, Eve, and Feng Guoshi, she still felt like a mountain pressed on her shoulders, and she knelt on the ground with a bang, her tail curling around her with fear.

That giant claw moved, grabbing the side of the vortex and opening it, opening enough space for its other hand to grab one side of the vortex. When there was enough space, the other hand of the enormous creature held the other side of the vortex, and it ripped open the space around as it stretched it.

The crack in the sky kept widening under the absurd strength of the creature until it reached an absurd 1000 km wide. Then, with a roar that shook the heavens, the head of the enormous dragon passed the spatial crack. He had dense black miasma covering his body, and his mountain-sized eyes glowed like two red Suns in that ominous darkness.

The dragon descended, carrying with him the bone-chilling atmosphere of the underworld and that black miasma. All the high-level demons and phoenixes fighting in the air wanted to move away, not wanting to touch that miasma, but they were still locked in place, unable to move!

The miasma covered them, but it didn't do anything but limit their vision.

The enormous western dragon passed through the spatial crack, seemingly without end. Until his 1600km (1000miles) long body made an appearance, shrouding the sky with his silhouette.

The dragon unfurled its wings with a wingspan as wide as his body length, making a powerful wind wave to blow the clouds and ash away. His titanic body cast a shadow on everything below him, leaving only his glowing red underside and the two red suns.

His maw opened as if a red hole opened in the sky, showing that the red glow went out from his insides. Then, his voice rumbled, "The living never learn, they never change, repeating their errors through the eras, as I did... as you will... Injudicious demons, antagonizing us is your doom, as it always was... as it always will... [Spatial Lock]."

The black miasma that covered everything dispersed around, getting very thin yet solidifying space to the point that it was impossible to use spatial treasures.

With this, the miasma disappeared, revealing the majestic creature behind it. He had ashen scales covering his body and a red glow inside his maw as if it was the entrance to Hell.

His body had crevices that ran along his body, exuding that red glow to the outside. Most of them were in his underside, which was covered with glowing red cracks, giving his entire being an ominous appearance.

Its body was rough as if it was made of rocks, giving him a fierce look. With his size, he seemed made of mountains instead of scales.

Tatyana said, annoyed, "Little Long, I know you wanted to make an entrance since you weren't out for a long time... But can you stop using your aura? You are making my little treasure kneel!"

The mountain-sized red eyes moved and quickly located the kneeling and trembling Yassenia. He instantly stopped using his aura and said, impressed, "Your daughter's bloodline is impressive... A shame that I can't reproduce anymore. I would have liked her as my mate when she grew up...."

Tatyana snapped at the dragon, "Oy! She is mine."

Tatyana looked at Horux and the rest of the demons that were sneakily trying to run out of here, "Do not move, or I swear that-"

Suddenly, the dragon's tail flashed at speeds that made the solidified space tremble around it, aiming toward Yassenia. Yassenia didn't even know what happened when a grey-colored tail tip appeared beside her, impaling something. She looked at the side and gasped.

Even with his gargantuan size, his tail ended in a normal pointed form that wasn't thicker than one meter. Right now, that tail tip was piercing a Demon King that tried to sneak across the defensive skills toward Yassenia when everyone was distracted by the dragon in the sky.

Yasenia looked at the grey tail that extended up into the sky incredulously. ‘What is this body control!? He can impale a thing that is basically cell-sized for him!?’

Tian Long moved the tail again and launched the Demon King toward his maw. The throwing strength was so high that the Demon King didn’t even know what happened! The Demon King first felt a pain in his chest, and then the world shifted around for a short moment, finally becoming red, disappearing inside the giant dragon’s maw.

“Wanting to hurt the little princess in front of me? I see that you had a death wish. What do I do with the low-level demons and birds, Tatyana?”

Tatyana said, “Tian Long, the phoenixes are our allies, just kill-”

Horux interrupted with a shout, completely crazed, “HOW THE HELL ARE YOU IN THE LAW CREATION REALM!? WORSE, HOW CAN YOU SUMMON A SEVENTH-RANKED DRAGON!? ONLY 1000 YEARS HAVE PASSED SINCE OUR LAST REPORT ABOUT YOU!”

Tatyana was annoyed at being interrupted twice, and the dragon was confused. Tian long asked, “Aren’t two zeros missing in that statement?”

‘What do you mean by two zeros!?’ Were the thoughts of a lot of the creatures present.

Tatyana said, completely glossing over what Tian Long said. “I had a fortuitous encounter; you can just blame yourselves. Little Long, forget about killing; they’ve annoyed me too much. Incapacitate and capture the Demon Monarchs. Let Ying Yue and Hui Zhong deal with the rest.”

All the demon Monarchs widened their eyes with fear, turned tail, and ran! ‘Captured!? They wouldn’t mind being killed, but if that devil captures them, what horrors will they suffer are uncertain!’

Tian Long looked at them and flapped his sky-shrouding wings once, moving the air and creating countless hurricanes and tornados just because of the wings’ movement. Then, his rumbling voice followed, “[Death-law: Eternal Chains].”

Ninety-three, five-kilometer-wide black chains shot out of his body with a space-cracking shockwave! The chains chased after the remaining Demon Monarchs.

Seconds later, one of the chains tensed and began sinking into his body. At the other end of the chain, a Demon Queen was tangled onto the chain by smaller chains, shouting with a shrill. “I don’t want to die!”

Tatyana said with a smirk, “That’s the best part; even if you die, you live! Well... Sort of.”

Ying Yue and Hui Zhong summoned their legions again and guided them toward the lower-level demons. Normally a senior wouldn’t attack mortal realm cultivators. However, that was while the top cultivators were somewhat balanced in strength.

For the record, Tatyana’s summons could only be a level above Tatyana’s cultivation. However, normally this wouldn’t be possible since their cultivation speed is slower than Tatyana’s. But Tatyana had been lazy with her cultivation these last millennia while her summons never stopped cultivating.

Tian Long was above Tatyana's level, unable to advance further. Ying Yue and Hui Zhong were at Tatyana's current level, nearing the next.

The rest of her army also cultivated without stop, and she had a lot of her generals at the half-step of the Transcendence realm, Alysa being the weakest general, at just the half-step of the Unification Realm.

Now that Tian Long had appeared, the only end for the demons was complete annihilation.

Yasenia saw how the mass of demons was beaten back by the summons and the phoenixes.

With Tian Long above them, the moral of the battle was overwhelmingly in their favor.

Boreas chased a demon king and hit him once with his wing. The strike was enough to slow it down and let the chain reach him, dragging him toward Tian Long. Eira appeared at his side and said, "Who would have thought that Tian Long would become so big... He is twenty times bigger than he was the last time we saw him."

Boreas chuckled and said, "He was already quite a big guy before with his 80km long body, but now...."

Boreas shook his phoenix head and chased after the fastest Demon Queen. Eira accompanied him. They activated a combination skill, and their speed soared, reaching beside that Demon Queen. With a nicely placed ice wave, they stopped her in her tracks for some seconds, which was enough for the chains to reach.

Meanwhile, while this chasing game happened, Tatyana moved beside Yasenia. Yasenia looked at her mother and didn't know how to react.

After witnessing her mother basically single-handedly beating back the demons, our young dragoness's normally confident face was full of doubts. 'Will I be able to reach her strength before I can help her meaningfully.'

Tatyana approached Yasenia and stopped before her with the same smile she always carried beside her, a smile full of tender feelings for her dearest daughter. Then, she looked into her eyes and saw her normally determined golden slit eyes full of doubt, insecurities, and fear. Even her pupils were dilatated because of her current feelings.

Yasenia looked at her smiling mother and honestly poured her feelings, "I-I'm scared, mom."

Tatyana hugged her big trembling girl, tiptoeing to kiss her cheek, and asked with the gentle tone she used when she was a child, "Scared of what, little treasure? Of Tian Long?"

Yasenia shook her head but then nodded. She hugged Tatyana and lowered her head, burying it in the crook of her neck, feeling safe there. "Well, not that, but why did I kneel to him?"

Tatyana caressed her silky long black hair and answered, still with the same gentle tone. "I will talk about that later with you, little treasure. Now, you have to tell me why you are afraid. Do not worry; between my arms, nothing can hurt you, little treasure."

Yasenia lifted her head and looked around. She looked at the apocalyptic landscape, the demons being massacred almost single-handedly by Tatyana's undead and the Demon Monarchs being chained to the colossal Tian Long. Then she said. "I-I can't see myself reaching this level and being able to help you...."

Tatyana looked up at her young, insecure daughter and smiled tenderly. Tatyana ignored the surroundings, not caring about anything else other than her daughter, and spoke to her. "Little treasure, it is normal feeling the way you are feeling right now. You've just seen what you are going to fight against and what kind of power is above the mortal realms. This is why I've never told you about the realms above the mortal realms. You feel small, right? Look at your dears."

Yasenia looked at them and saw that, besides Andrea and Cecile. Evelyn, Angel, and Kali were worse than she was.

Angel had a pale face and trembling legs, Evelyn was sweating, her eyes darting everywhere, and Kali was frozen in place; sadly, Yasenia couldn't see her face and know how she was.

Andrea had more years behind her back and had been lucky enough to see a battle like this before, so the shock factor was smaller. She was holding Evelyn's and Angel's hands, giving support.

On the other side, Cecile had been followed by similar level cultivators when she was little since her father was a strong, level two, transcendent cultivator. Moreover, her recent transformation had been quite a shocking event for her. Therefore, she could take this with a stronger heart. She was beside Kali, trying to give her reassurance with her presence.

Yasenia began trying to relax her wildly beating heart.

Chapter 154

What was happening to Yasenia and the rest was quite normal. It also had a name in their world, [Cultivator's Will Wall]. It happened when a low-level cultivator saw an all-out battle between seniors.

This "Wall" made advancing harder for some cultivators, and others directly stopped cultivating, unable to bring themselves to cultivate again, knowing what kind of battles laid ahead.

Of course, most cultivators had heard, read, and seen pictures about the amount of power senior cultivators have. However, knowing "They can blow up mountains with a single attack" to seeing a literal landscape-changing attack in person was something hard to process.

However, for our girls, the worst shock came with Tian Long. Before this, they were scared but still had their bearings.

However, they just saw cultivators that were on a level above their imagination, changing the landscape, making the space tremble, and moving at speeds impossible to follow. Cultivators they saw as invincible. They could barely take this with a strong heart.

But suddenly, this titanic creature appears, and it just one-shots one of these all-powerful Demon Monarchs, shortly after proceeding to take the others down like flies.

Yasenia began taking deep breaths, filling her senses with her mother's scent, and slowly calmed her crazily beating heart. 'Come on, Yasenia, be strong! I have to take care of my dears, give them security! Do it for the future you want with mom. That future you pictured yourself in....'

Yasenia's heart rate lowered slightly, and her golden eyes regained strength. This was enough for her to stop her obvious trembling. Then, her face became calmer, and she straightened herself away from Tatyana's embrace.

Tatyana looked at her and made sure that she was recovering from the shock. Seeing Yasenia move toward the others to console them with an almost calm disposition, she smiled, gratified. 'It seems like it will be only a momentary stump. She will overcome it shortly. Moreover, with this, I solved her growing dragon pride problem~. I'm such a good mother~. Well, even if she decided to stop cultivating because of this, I would take care of her for the rest of her natural life, finally dying with her...'

Tatyana looked around, and saw that only Horux was left, still escaping the chain but unable to leave because of Tian Long's Domain. Tatyana looked up at Tian Long and said, "Stop playing around; you will be able to come out more often from now on."

Tian Long snorted, creating a hurricane in front of him, and said, "You always say the same, and then some millennia pass before I get out. Moreover, since you have been slacking in cultivation, I also can't cultivate. It has been very boring lately; I can only sleep...."

Yasenia, who was consoling her dears, entered a coughing fit, 'Slacking!?'

Tatyana almost blushed, 'How dare he say these things in front of my little treasure!? I will spank him later!'

Then she said, tempting him, "I will let you out often to play with my little treasure. What do you-"

*WOOOSH!*

The whole sky was covered by chains, bringing darkness to the area below him. Horux' final thoughts before being captured were, 'This fucker was playing around all along!?' And then, his world turned black, being surrounded by layers upon layers of chains.

Of all these situations, for the demons, the worst thing was that they couldn't use space-attributed treasures or just run out to get out of there since Tian Long had locked everything; their only fate was being captured without any possible retaliation. Worse, self-explosion wasn't an option since the time to activate it was enough for the chains to reach them and stop even this.

Ying Yue and Hui Zhong appeared beside Tatyana, and Hui Zhong said, "All of them are dead, Empress."

Tatyana nodded and floated above the sea of dead demons; some dead phoenixes were also lying around.

Boreas wanted to interrupt, but Eira stopped him. "Let her do what she wants. I would also like their corpses to return to us, but I rather not put little Tatyana against us because of the ones that died protecting us." Boreas sighed and nodded.

Tatyana began gathering an obscene amount of energy, making her long black hair float around. Her voice echoed as she chanted. "Death, the end of everything. An unavoidable fate for all living beings, no matter the strength, no matter the status, no matter who they are. Death claims all."

Tatyana's red eyes glowed as her aura inflated, making the land tremble. "But death isn't the end, for my power bends Fate! For my power bends the meaning of death! Thus, I call you to live eternally in your death under my command until the day I perish and beyond! [Death Empress decree: Eternal Legion Awakening]!"

Tatyana's green-black aura burst out, covering the whole battlefield. Then, her aura sank into the corpses, disappearing and returning everything to normal. However, this was the beginning.

All the dead creatures began rising, howling, grunting, and moaning. Filling the land with the sounds of countless laments. Then, Tatyana spoke with regal authority, "[Death Empress decree: Path To The Underworld]."

Under Tatyana's floating position, black cracks appeared in the ground below each recently raised undead, swallowing them. The cracks multiplied in number as they spread, covering more and more ground, sending every single undead creature into the dark abyss.

When all the undead disappeared, the cracks closed, returning the landscape to its previous state as if nothing had just happened. Tatyana flew down toward Yasenias again, and Boreas and Eira followed.

While Tatyana made her army even bigger, Yasenias was beside Evelyn, Kali, and Angel. She was hugging the three of them and kissing their heads softly. The three of them returned the hug strongly and breathed in Yasenias's scent, cleansing their nostrils of all the burnt scent and filling them with their dragoness sweet scent.

Angel was in the middle, with her head buried between Yasenias's softness.

Evelyn had Yasenias's arm over her shoulders and was pressing her face against the soft side breast.

Kali had Yasenias's tail coiling around her body, and her veiled face was buried in her neck.

Yasenias's voice was mellow and slightly deep, caressing and soothing their heart. "Are you better now? There, there. We still have some years until we reach this level. We've just begun our path, isn't that right, my loves?"

Andrea approached from behind Angel and squished the little girl. Extending her arms to hug the four of them. She spoke in her deep voice, "Take deep breaths, girls. Relax your nerves. Once we return home, imagine what kind of pampering you will receive from Yasenias since you all were scared."

Angel and the others chuckled, relaxing their nerves. Cecile covered them with her big silver wings and said, "However, don't forget about this scene. Like you all did with the event at the tournament. Burn it in your hearts and use it as motivation. We are going to reach this level and become even stronger than this."

Yasenias gave another kiss to them and said, "Let's go, dears. Mom is coming back."

Yasenias picked up her baby, supporting her little butt with one arm, and placed the other arm over Evelyn's shoulder. Then, she coiled her tail around Kali's body.

When Tatyana arrived, she saw this scene of them welcoming her with a smile, a little stiff, but a smile nonetheless. Tatyana's lips slightly raised, 'Good, all of them seemed to be overcoming this wall rather fast. Yaseenia's eyesight was good.'

Tatyana spoke. "Time to return to the Academy. There are only less than five months left until the realm opens!"

Angel looked at Tatyana and said, "Umm, Tatyana-"

Tatyana pinched Angel's cheek and reprimanded, "Not calling me mommy Tatyana anymore? Are you afraid of me, little Angel?"

Angel blushed and smiled shyly, feeling happy that nothing changed. This action also seemed to affect the other five besides Yaseenia since their rigid postures relaxed slightly.

Yaseenia couldn't help but marvel at her mother. One sentence, and the tension dissipated. She said with a smile, "Oy, is it my harem or mom's? Why do I feel love emanating from my baby!? She is stealing my dears!"

They burst into laughter while Angel blushed crimson. She honestly asked, looking at Yaseenia, "I-Is it bad if I also like Tat-" Angel felt a red gaze locking on her! "**Cough* m-mommy Tatyana?"

Yaseenia laughed and rained her cheek with kisses, "Of course not!" Then Yaseenia said with a sage tone, "Heavenly tribulation is unavoidable, and so is falling in love with mom."

Tatyana raised an eyebrow, "Don't slack, little treasure. Or they may leave you for me~."

Then she dramatically said, while Yaseenia looked at her stupefied, "The difficulties of being so attractive, I'm in danger of stealing even my dearest daughter's harem. I'm a sinner!"

If Yaseenia didn't know that Tatyana loved her the most, Yaseenia would have become scared for real. 'Mom as a love rival? I rather fight a Demon Monarch! I have more chances of winning that way!'

Then they heard another big explosion, followed by an earthquake. Yaseenia thought, 'Now what!?'

She turned with her baby still in her arms, only to see that the culprit was Tian Long, who had just landed on the ground. Now that she was more clear-headed, Yaseenia couldn't help but be speechless. 'This is just... Impossible to describe the sight. We are at the top of the phoenix mountain, an enormous 800km tall mountain, yet we only reach the middle of his body.'

Tian Long tilted his head to look at Tatyana and the rest with one of his red eyes. His deep rumbling voice echoed as he asked, "Tatyana, how about presenting me to the little princess?"

Tatyana looked at him speechless and said, "Present what? I think that it is quite hard to miss a dragon of your size."

Yaseenia could swear that Tian Long was giving a 'are you serious?' gaze to her mother. He said, "I will do it myself then. Hello little princess, I'm your mom's mount. The story of how we met is quite lengthy, so let's speak about it in detail-."

Tatyana cut him, "Another day. Do you want to stay here months or something?"

Tian Long honestly said, "Yes. I don't want to return yet. I'm bored. Moreover, I want to raise little princess into a proud dragoness!"

Tatyana waved her hand, creating a 100km phantom hand above Tian Long's head and...

*BOOOM!***

She slapped the back of his head, making his giant dragon head hit the ground like a meteor and creating more destruction.

Everyone, without exception, had their mouths wide open, 'Did she just slap the giant dragon into the ground!?'

Chapter 155

Tian Long lifted his head from the crater and looked at Tatyana tauntingly, "That didn't hurt at all. It seems that you are quite a weakling now."

Tatyana snorted, "I've begun cultivating seriously again, don't be too happy yet!"

Tian Long communicated mentally with Tatyana and said, "It was already time. You have been more than 10 thousand years without cultivating even a little bit. Even though we have some enemies in the underworld, things are quite stabilized, and there haven't been any wars I could partake in. Do you know how boring it is getting?"

Tatyana shrugged and said, "With the teacher there, I almost don't have to pay attention to the Empire."

Tian Long said, exasperated, "He was on the verge of dragging you into the underworld to cultivate, but he stopped at one point. At first, I didn't know why he stopped, but..."

Tian Long focused on Yasenias and said, "I can guess why he stopped now. You got pregnant with the little princess."

Tatyana said, "What drive did I have to improve? I was on the verge of ending my own life at that time."

Tian Long looked at Tatyana but didn't say anything.

When they finished the mental conversation, Yasenias woke up from her stupor and asked, "Lord Tian Long, if you want mom to take you out more often, couldn't you, um, become smaller? With your... size, it should be inconvenient for Mom to walk around with you, don't you think so?"

Tatyana hugged her daughter tearfully, "Finally! Someone that understands my hardships! Where the hell should I place a moon-sized dragon! It would be easier to build the whole Academy on top of him!"

Anna and the rest of the maids thought, feeling wronged. 'Lady Tatyana, before you had our dear young miss, who would have the guts to tell you what to do!? You were like death, taking lives if something bothered you even a little!'

In the next moment, the maids' eyes shone with infinite love as they looked at Yasenias. 'Thank you for being born, young miss. We love the new softer Lady! We will protect you with our lives!'

Yasenias felt the maids' scorching and passionate gaze, and she looked at them, confused. 'Why do I feel like they are swearing their eternal loyalty to me? And what is that loving look they are giving me!?'

Tian Long said, ignoring Tatyana's fuss. "Little princess, do not call me Lord! I'm very close with Tatyana, so you should call me uncle Long!"

Yasenia looked at the titanic dragon and stuttered, "U-Uncle Long."

Tian Long's giant red-glowing maw arched in a "smile" that looked extremely evil and repeatedly nodded, generating various natural disasters around him. "That sounds quite good. And to answer your question, little princes, am I not more handsome the bigger I am? Why would I shrink?"

Tatyana looked at him with disdain, and Yasenia and the rest looked at him with an open mouth, 'He is this big because he thinks he is more handsome!?'

Yasenia tried to fill that giant dragon head with a little bit of common sense. "Uncle Long, I think you are... Too big."

Suddenly Yasenia got a genius moment. She said excitedly, "Uncle Long! How could others admire your handsomeness if you are this big? Since you are so big, I can't perceive more than a little bit of your face! I can't remember the rest of your imposing and majestic body!"

Everyone clearly saw how his mountain-sized red dragon eyes opened widely, visibly stunned at Yasenia's declaration. Then he grumbled, "I knew he was envious because I was getting all the dragonesses all those years ago! But I decided to trust his advice until now!"

Tian Long looked at Tatyana and asked indignantly, "Why didn't you tell me earlier? I've wasted so many years!"

Tatyana snorted, "I already told you he was lying. You even dared to ignore me then and even became this big! Since you didn't trust me at that time, I didn't bring it up again to make you suffer! Moreover, why would you believe my little treasure and not me?"

Tian Long definitely ignored Tatyana and looked at Yasenia, "Thank you, little princess. I will make sure to repay this kindness!"

Receiving the thanks of such a powerful being, Yasenia was slightly overwhelmed and waved her hands and tail, "No, no, no, it wasn't a problem at all. With my limited knowledge, I will try my best to say the best I can every time Uncle Long wants advice."

Tatyana saw Tian Long was about to laugh, so she reacted fast and covered the remaining Ice Phoenix Mountain with a green and black defensive dome. Then Tian Long's happy laughter resounded. "Hahaha, of course, little princess, if you need to beat someone up, call uncle Long, I will make them suffer for eternity!"

Yasenia and the rest saw the sound waves of his laughter hitting against the barrier and pushing the clouds that began gathering away. 'Everything he does is too destructive!'

Tatyana spoke, "Oy! Are you going to shrink, or should I send you back!?"

Tian Long closed his eyes and began gathering energy. The energy in a 10 000 km radius began converging toward him in a whirlpool.

Tatyana strengthened the dome, protecting all of them and the mountain from his catastrophic transformation. Then, the energy absorption became even bigger, and the energy in more than a 20 000km radius rushed toward Tian Long, making the earth crack again.

When Tatyana saw some energy began gathering in his throat, she opened her eyes and said. “Ying Yue, Hui Zhong, help me reinforce the dome! He is going to roar!”

Both of them instantly unfurled their aura and built a black transparent dome each on top of Tatyana’s. With the defenses prepared, Tatyana smirked and said, “Little treasure, prepare yourself. This is what a high-level dragon roar looks like!”

Tian Long opened his maw, and Yasenias saw the space literally inflating, then...

*RRROOOAAAAARRRR!!!*

*BBBOOOOOOMMM!!!!*

Space literally exploded, and a massive shockwave expanded from Tian Long, going exponentially faster! The shockwave advanced at vertiginous speeds, flattening everything around with terrible might.

The earth lifted, and the ground sunk, deepening the previous crater to an abysmal depth. The pressure from the roar made magma explode from the ground as vortexes, and other catastrophic events appeared on the destroyed landscape. Those vortexes lifted the magma, creating magma tornados and making the surroundings apocalyptic. Even while all of this happened, the people inside the defensive dome weren’t injured nor deafened.

Evelyn stuttered, “I-Isn’t the roar more powerful than the demonic fire nova...?”

Andrea asked Tatyana with a doubtful expression. “Tatyana, are those Demon Monarchs inside him alive after this?”

Tatyana looked doubtful at Tian Long and said, “The [Eternal Chains] should protect them... I hope... Maybe? Probably...”

After almost two hours of destructive events and with the help of the high-level phoenixes and Tatyana, everything calmed down.

Boreas, who was in human form, looked around and winced, “Little Tatyana, you’ve done it this time....”

Tatyana saw that only the Phoenix main mountain remained while the dragon’s roar flattened the rest. She knocked her head and said, taking out her tongue, “Upsie?”

Yasenias blushed, thinking, ‘So cute!’

Eira just chuckled and said, “Well, at least we are alive. Using some blizzards and other skills, we should be able to rebuild the landscape within hundreds of years. We could also ask for help from the Earth Kingdom and the Nature Queendom. Moreover, we have to strengthen our formation... It was destroyed too easily.”

Tatyana looked at them with eager eyes and said, “How about you contr-”

Both spoke at the same time, “No.”

Tatyana asked, “Why n-”

Both said, “I have a hunch that we will be scammed very badly.”

Tatyana crossed her arms and snorted, looking toward Tian Long.

From all the destruction, the new Tian Long appeared. He was still big, with 20km of wingspan and length, but it was much better compared to his prior massive 1600km. When they were curious about why he didn't become smaller, Tian Long said, surprised, "I can't shrink further..."

Tatyana sighed and said, "Well, you are much better than before. Now at least you will be able to move around without destroying everything."

He looked around at the devastation he had caused and asked, "Was this place important?"

Tatyana answered, "The home of the Ice Phoenix."

Tian Long nodded and looked toward Eira and Boreas, "Well, sorry, let's leave it as if I owe you a small favor."

Eira directly asked, "How did you enter the Mythic beast realm? Boreas and I have already been stuck in the Legendary beast realm's peak for tens of millennia. We don't know how to advance. All the records about advancing further were lost before we moved here."

Tian Long asked, "That is what you want to know?"

Eira nodded, "If Boreas and I can advance, then your favor will be more than enough to compensate for the destruction."

Tian Long said, "I won't tell you much, but I think this should help you. You have to feel the world's laws and modify your energy for it to influence those laws. If you have understood an intent or domain, you have to deepen your knowledge of them or rise them in ranks until they reach perfection. When you are able to do that, transform them into laws that you can control."

Eira and Boreas almost facepalmed, "Do you think we didn't know that? Are you taking us as children?"

Tian Long shook his head and said, "Well, I did it like that."

Eira asked, getting impatient, "How did you first connect with the world's laws? How did you modify them? How are you able to reign over them? How can you advance the domain or intent to perfection?"

Tatyana interrupted, "If you want to talk about this, do it later. I don't want to remain much longer here."

Now that he wasn't like a world-destroying creature, the others could gather the courage to speak to him. Kali asked, curious "Senior Tian Long, can't you transform into a human? Wouldn't it be more practical to move around like that?"

He shook his head, "I can't, little girl. I lost that ability when I got resurrected by Tatyana. Also, you are the little princess's mate, right?"

Kali and the rest nodded. Tian long smirked and said, "Then, all of you should also call me Uncle Long! We are practically family."

Then he lowered his wing and said, "Get on, we are leaving."

‘We are going to mount him!? So cool!’

Yasenia became excited, placed Kali on her back with her tail, and picked up Angel between her arms. Then, she jumped onto the wing and stomped on it, propelling herself through the 10km wing with the two of them on her.

Yasenia looked sideways at Feng Yuan and thought, ‘I hope sparing him doesn’t turn into a calamity in the future...’

Cecile, Evelyn, and Andrea followed behind, with the maids closely following after them.

Meanwhile, Cecile was thinking to herself, ‘I hope he doesn’t do anything as senior Feng Guoshi did... I almost lost my soul in that short flight.’

Chapter 156:. End of the War and returning to the Academy (End Of the third Volume)

Yasenia ignored Feng Yuan and looked at her side. To her surprise, she saw Cecile right beside her, running as fast as her without seemingly any effort. This showed the tremendous improvement her transformation gave her. Angel was impressed and spoke, "Cecile! You are so fast!"

Cecile was running on the ground since she was still a beginner with her wings, but she could match Yasenia's speed easily. Cecile said, "When I learn how to fly, do you want to get a ride, Angel?"

Angel's eyes sparkled, and she nodded. "I would love to!"

Yasenia said with a suggestive tone, "I also want to ride you while we fly~."

Cecile looked at Yasenia, and a strand of violet flashed through her icy blue eyes. She answered, "We will see who rides who." Then, she accelerated and reached the middle of Tian Long's back, leaving an aroused dragoness behind.

When all of them reached the middle of his back, they looked around to search for a sitting place. Tian Long's back was very uneven, with areas where small hills could be seen. Tian Long said, "Come to my head, little princess. The view should be better."

Yasenia obeyed and moved on top of his head. Then, she found the best place to look around and a large grey scale to sit on. Yasenia placed Angel and Kali down and said, "Darling~ come here! I want to sit on your lap~."

Andrea gladly moved over there and sat on the wide flat scale with a small wall to recline her back. Then, Yasenia moved and put her soft butt on her lap, moving the tail to the side to not bother Andrea. After accommodating and rubbing against Andrea, she smiled, satisfied.

Andrea hugged her from behind and sighed in comfort. Feeling the soft dragoness between her arms and the soft behind on her legs, Andrea couldn't help but tighten her embrace and kiss Yasenia's nape.

Yasenia chuckled and leaned back. She looked at her two little girls and patted her legs. Angel and Evelyn moved, and each sat on one leg.

Kali sat beside Andrea at the orders of the dragoness and Cecile on the other side. Yasenia smiled happily with her dears surrounding her. Tatyana appeared and said teasingly, "Look at my baby dragon, hoarding her dears around her."

Yasenia's gaily smiled as she looked at Tatyana. "Mom, sit near me too!"

The happy tone in her voice made Kali and the others gently smile while looking at the dragoness. Tatyana couldn't help but have her face soften looking at that scene. She walked in front of Yasenia and said, "Little treasure, let me present Hui Zhong to you. He was my sworn brother when he was alive."

Like Ying Yue, he had long white hair and ghostly green eyes that shone with a phantasmal glow. His height was similar to Yasenia's at 190cm of height.

He had a muscular build, and his face seemed carved by a master, with such sharp contours that it looked sculpted to perfection. He was extremely handsome, which made Yasenia and the others fall into a daze for a moment.

Hui Zhong bowed and said, his voice deep and magnetic. "It is my pleasure to meet you, little princess. I'm the Empress's [Undead Emperor]. I will always be at your service if you want advice on anything."

Yasenia woke up from her stupor and nodded. "Nice to meet you, Hui Zhong! I will keep it in mind. Do you have a specialization like Ying Yue?"

Hui Zhong shook his head and said, "I'm a pure fighter and also talented in politics and governing."

He chuckled a little and said, "I'm less of a brute compared to Ying Yue."

Ying Yue swiftly smacked him behind the head, generating a big Bang and sending him flying outside Tian Long's head. Ying Yue then spoke with a gentle smile and voice, "Who are you calling a brute, Zhong? I'm a refined lady. Do not listen to him, little princess. He sometimes exaggerates things."

Yasenia was controlling her laughter while nodding to Ying Yue. "En, Ying Yue is elegant and beautiful."

Ying Yue's smile widened, and she looked tauntingly at the returning Hui Zhong.

Tian Long saw that the presentation was done and asked, "Where are we going, Tatyana? Did the continents change a lot while I wasn't here?"

Tatyana answered, "We are returning to the academy. Also, you don't have to worry, it hasn't passed too much time on the continent, so there haven't been any changes. By the way, don't go too fast since we aren't in a hurry. Let little treasure enjoy the ride back."

Tian Long made a sound of approval and prepared to take off.

Cecile looked toward the phoenixes and said, using energy in her voice. "Although some problems arose, I'm grateful for the opportunity to be reborn. This favor, I will remember in my heart!"

Eira, Boreas, and Feng Guoshi smiled. Then, they transformed into phoenixes and waved their wings. Eira spoke with an imposing aura. "I hope your wings carry you high up in the sky, and your cry harmonizes with the Heavens."

The other Phoenix echoed, "May your cry harmonize with the Heavens!"

Then, all of the Phoenix cried, filling the world with their melodic sound.

*QYAA!*

Tian Long flapped and flew off, leaving the Ice Nirvana Mountain behind. Like that, the group left the mountain, closing another chapter of their lives.

While they were flying, they observed their surroundings. Because Tian Long wasn't flying too fast, they actually took a while to leave the devastating landscape. They could see dust clouds around, even if some time had passed since the battle. The destruction was extremely big. After flying for a while, Kali spoke, "Look, that is where the effects of the battle end."

Evelyn whistled and commented. "Uncle Long! Your roar was impressive. Look all the damage you did!"

Tian Long laughed, "It seems that I'm not that rusty. I can still create these results after all these years without fighting."

Andrea was curious about something, so she asked. "Why did Yasenias and Alaia kneel to you, Uncle Long?"

Yasenias and the rest also paid attention. It was Tatyana who answered, "It's not hard to explain. Tian Long's bloodline is at [Progenitor King] level. Moreover, his realm is in the seventh realm, a Mythical Beast. Therefore, all the dragon-related bloodlines are under him, allowing his aura to make all of them kneel. This could also be summarized with the words, 'Bloodline Pressure.'"

Evelyn frowned, "But Yasenias's bloodline is also at his level, right? She is also a [Progenitor Queen], so there shouldn't be too much difference."

Tian Long answered. "You are incorrect, little girl. Her bloodline is one notch stronger than mine, which I found impossible since I always thought I had a peak level bloodline. However, the little princess is just a young and weak dragon compared to me. Therefore, even if her bloodline quality is strong, compared to this old fossil, it is just minuscule! I'm sorry for making you experience that, little princess; it must have felt terrible."

Yasenias laughed and said, "Don't worry, uncle Long! It was a valuable experience. You slapped the little arrogance I was growing out of me, hahaha."

Tian Long said, "It is bad to be arrogant, however! Remember that you are a dragon, be proud of-"

Tatyana slapped his back with a phantom hand, making him dip almost to the ground. Tian Long exclaimed, "Why did you hit me, Tatyana!?"

Tatyana said with a menacing tone. "Don't you dare ingrain dragon pride in my little treasure! Do you think I can't beat you up because you are tougher than before!? Then think again!"

*BANG!* *BANG!* *BANG!***

While Tatyana protected them and beat up the dragon left and right, Yasenias's respect toward her mother broke the max level and evolved into faith. How often can you see a human practically spanking a dragon of this level?

Tian Long exclaimed, "Okay, okay, stop! Even if it doesn't hurt, you are hurting my pride! Moreover, Remember who I am carrying!"

Tatyana stopped and looked at Yasenias. Wrong choice because Yasenias's current admiring expression and wagging tail were begging to be thrown onto a bed for Tatyana. While heat spread in her nether regions, Tatyana seriously thought, 'Is it worth it to accelerate to the academy and eat her clean? Of course! The sensation of sinking in- No, no, no, let her rest a bit after all the events... But maybe... '

Seeing Tatyana stop, Tian Long sighed. Even if it didn't hurt him physically, it hurt him emotionally! A dragon had to keep some pride in them!

Meanwhile, without the world knowing, another fight of epic proportions happened inside Tatyana's head.

The rest of the way back was relaxing, without anything more happening, and they arrived at the Academy territory in some hours.

Tian Long's massive body flew over the Rita State, scaring everyone. The four elders appeared beside Tian Long, and Elder Ron asked, "Headmistress, Did something happen? You rarely summon Lord Tian long."

Tatyana said, "The Ice Phoenix Matriarch and Patriarch will arrive soon. Guide them toward Tian Long when they arrive. I will tell all of you de details when I have time."

All of them bowed and dispersed. Yasenias asked, curious, "What level are they, mom?"

Tatyana said, "They are at the half-step of the transcendence realm. They are one of the strongest on this continent. The four can go against the Heavenly sect leader or the Demonic sect leader. However, in a death match, it is hard to know who would win."

While they were floating down to their mansion entrance, Cecile asked, "Tatyana, I want to control my wings and tails. Who do you think I should find for it?"

Tatyana looked at Alaia and said, "Help her. However, phoenix tails aren't for combat like a dragon's, so only teach her how to fly."

Alaia bowed, "As the Lady says!"

Evelyn looked at Cecile and commented. "We are going to be training together, Cecile! Let's do our best!"

Cecile nodded.

They felt the remaining tension leaving their body when they walked inside their house. Yasenias went to the sofa bed and slumped on it, face up. Then, Angel and Evelyn followed, slumping on top of the dragoness. Yasenias caught them. Cecile sat beside Yasenias's head and patted and scratched her. Andrea sat next to her feet and began massaging them. Kali sat on a chair nearby, looking at them.

Tatyana smirked and said, "Hui Zhong, Ying Yue, I'm sending you back. Help Teacher arrange the new army."

They both nodded and bowed, "Farewell, Empress, Little princess."

Yasenias waved her hand, "See you soon~."

They both disappeared, dispersing in a cloud of green and black smoke.

Yasenia let her hand fall limp and growled comfortably, closing her eyes. Andrea asked while massaging Yasenia's beautiful and round toes. "So, what is the plan from now on?"

Cecile massaged Yasenia's scalp as she answered, "Get stronger, perfect our skills, deepen our understanding of the side professions, and win more credits."

Andrea exclaimed, "I almost forgot! Yasenia, I spoke to Elder Irina before we went to the Ice Nirvana Mountain about the sword, and she has agreed to give it a look in one month or so. Has it become stronger since you began cultivating with it?"

Yasenia said languidly, "I think it has... It hasn't upgraded in rank, though...."

Now that they were speaking about upgrading the sword, Yasenia remembered the egg. Yasenia looked at Tatyana strangely, not knowing how to ask.

Chapter 157

Now that they were speaking about upgrading the sword, Yasenia remembered the egg. Yasenia looked at Tatyana strangely, not knowing how to ask. 'Should I ask about the ideas I thought of before? I know they are illogical but maybe....'

Tatyana looked at the weird face Yasenia was making and said with a chuckle, "Say whatever is crossing your mind, little treasure."

Yasenia asked, "Is it possible that the dragon egg isn't fertilized?"

All the women present stopped and got thoughtful. Tatyana asked, "The question is quite normal and even a good one. Why the weird face, little treasure?"

Yasenia decided to say it bluntly, 'I won't be giving away anything to Kali if I ask this way so...'
"*Ejem* If it isn't fertilized... Do I have to shove it in my uterus or cum on it?"

The juniors entered a coughing fit, Kali being the one who had it the worst. 'What did she just say!?'

Meanwhile, Tatyana directly burst into laughter, "Hahaha, what do you... hahaha, oh little treasure, you are killing me! Hahaha."

Even the maids were having a hard time controlling their laughter. Yasenia was a little embarrassed but waited patiently for her answer. After laughing for almost a minute straight, Tatyana looked at Yasenia, amused, and said, "Where did you get that idea, little treasure? I think we learned biology and fertility together, right? Normally, you can't fertilize an egg just like that. Let me see the egg for a moment."

While Yasenia took out the egg, she looked at Selena, "It was Selena who gave me the idea..."

All the eyes landed on the red lamia with obvious questioning. 'Yasenia is still young, and you can pass these silly ideas as momentary stumps, but someone like Selena, who is hundreds of years old...'

Selena opened her eyes and asked, surprised, "When did I say something like that, young miss? I could swear I didn't say anything similar."

Yasenia said, "You didn't directly say it, but when you told me that my release could fertilize plants, I just thought about it...."

This time it was Flora's turn to look at Selena in disbelief, "You told her what? How could young miss' discharge fertilize plants!?"

Selena remembered saying something like that and coughed, a little embarrassed. "Young miss' release is so thick and full of life that it just came out from my mouth... I'm sorry for misguiding you, young miss. It was just an expression and not something you can actually do... I think." Selena looked questioningly at Flora. Even if she was sure, she wanted the expert in, well, flora and vegetation to answer.

Flora raised an eyebrow at that statement and got thoughtful. Since she was Kali's personal maid, she still hasn't seen Yasenias release because the intimacy between them stops at some cuddles and kisses.

Flora turned toward Yasenias and was about to ask something when she remembered that Kali was in the room, 'Right, I can't ask something like that... I will ask Young miss later when we can speak without being on guard.'

However, to alleviate momentary doubts, she said. "There are extremely few and rare plants that use humanoid fertile liquids to reproduce; between them, the most famous one would be the Alraune. They are similar to us dryads but hunt for males and females alike to reproduce. Us dryads can reproduce asexually or sexually. By the way, all Alraune have both female and male sexes. In short, besides these specific floras... Female or male discharge can't be used to fertilize plants."

The people around nodded.

After analyzing it for a little while, Tatyana said. "Little treasure, the dragon egg is fertilized, so don't worry. Be patient, and you will probably be able to open it in the future."

Yasenias nodded, 'Well, maybe I will be able to open it after the secret realm? That is too soon....'

Kali's brow jumped, and she asked, "You have a dragon egg?"

Yasenias chuckled and said, "A lucky finding in an auction house."

Yasenias related their trip to the auction house, and after some laughs at the cost of the Tang and Long families, they continued talking. After today's events, they decided to skip today's cultivation. They were emotionally tired and wanted to rest.

When it was getting late, Yasenias said while stretching. "Let's sleep separated today. I feel that I'm going to have nightmares, and I don't want to hurt any of you."

The others nodded, but when Yasenias saw Angel's sad face, she said with a helpless smile, "Who of you want to be put to sleep by me?"

Angel smiled and said, "Me!"

Evelyn also joined a little shyly, "If it isn't much a bother...."

Yasenias sighed with a smile and said, "Okay, all of you wait for me in your rooms. Cecile, Andrea, Kali, you three too."

Even if she was dead tired, Yasenias didn't mind putting a little bit of effort and putting them to sleep.

She went with Angel first. They entered Angel's room, and Yasenias placed Angel on the bed, lying beside her. Angel looked at Yasenias with her droopy blue eyes tenderly. "Thank you, Yasenias. I'm sorry if I'm too much of a bother sometimes..."

Yasenias lowered her head and kissed her lips softly while caressing her long silky blonde hair. "You will never be a bother, baby. Anytime you want my presence, ask for it. I will gladly be by your side."

Then she hugged her close and pampered her for a little while.

When she saw Angel snuggling closer, Yasenias began to sing a lyricless lullaby. Her voice was mellow and a little deep, making the melody very relaxing.

With Yasenias's voice and caresses, Angel felt her whole body relax. 'Her voice is so beautiful...'

Dear Angel didn't last long and fell asleep with a smile shortly after.

Yasenias didn't stop her actions and continued singing and caressing her. Only after she felt that Angel was deeply asleep did she stop.

Yasenias lowered and kissed her forehead tenderly, then she whispered. "Goodnight, baby. I love you." Then, she stood up silently and left the room.

Yasenias walked toward Evelyn's room, looking through the windows to the darkening sky. She didn't have to walk far, and she reached there.

Yasenias knocked on the door and opened it. Evelyn was sitting on a chair, reading a book beside the window. She had a candle by her side and the natural light from the outside behind her to aid her reading.

Yasenias approached and moved behind Evelyn, looking over her shoulder. "What are you reading, dear?"

Evelyn answered, "Spirit Tailoring. I'm not as proficient as Kali in Alchemy, and I am not good with formations or Blacksmithing. You are learning Spirit Cooking, so I thought about what to do that could distinguish me from the others. What came to my mind was Spirit Tailoring."

Yasenias lifted Evelyn from under her armpits and sat on the chair, placing Evelyn on her lap. Yasenias hugged her little girl from behind and kissed her cheek, "You don't have to distinguish yourself, dear. Normally cultivating can also work; you are very talented."

Evelyn smiled and looked at Yasenias's golden eyes. The tiredness in Yasenias's eyes was hidden, yet, for Evelyn, it was apparent. 'She always goes to the limits for us... How could we not put effort and let her carry the big burden named family alone?'

Even if Evelyn always acts like a pervert around Yasenias, and she naturally loves her seductive curves, in truth, the feature Evelyn liked the most about Yasenias was her eyes.

They were like a landscape at sunset; the golden iris and reddish color around the pupil created a peculiar and exotic gaze. But in Evelyn's opinion, Yasenias's eyes were very charming, always giving her peace of mind. Evelyn kissed Yasenias's chin and said, "I want to... Do my part for our family. Andrea is a genius blacksmith and always reliable. Cecile is a powerhouse that is almost on par with you. Kali is an outstanding healer and alchemist. Angel is a formation expert...."

Yasenia listened closely to Evelyn, not interrupting her reflections. Evelyn looked down and grabbed Yasenia's hand, playing with it. Her lips rised in a ridiculing smile as she said, "I'm... Mediocre at everything. I'm not as strong as Andrea or Cecile cultivation-wise, not as good an alchemist as Kali, nor cuddly as Angel or as talented as her. Inside our family, I have below-average features, average strength, and average talent... I have nothing I stand out for besides my pervert funny side...."

Yasenia kissed the corner of Evelyn's lips, making Evelyn focus on Yasenia again. When Evelyn looked at Yasenia, Yasenia spoke with a gentle and tender voice that warmed Evelyn's heart. "Dear, you have a lot of good points. First, you are very sharp. You are always giving advice when it matters. You don't back down and always give your all in battles, no matter the opponent, going to almost any length to win. For example, when you fought in the entrance exam, fought against Sonata, or stood before Angel when everything looked grim inside the formation... For me, that is more attractive than any other quality you have."

Yasenia put a finger over Evelyn's heart and said, "For me, your courage and wits stand out like the midday sun. Much more than the beauty or talent of any heavenly maiden."

Evelyn's heart thumped, and she teared up a little. Yasenia kissed her eyes as she said soothingly, "You want to try Spirt Tailoring? Then go for it, dear. You have my full support. However, know that I will love you no matter what you do. You are my mischievous little girl, and I love you because of that."

Evelyn hugged Yasenia, buried her face in her neck, and sobbed a little. "I-I always feel unworthy of you, Yasenia."

Yasenia said gently, "Dear, you will never be unworthy. No matter how we got together, now that you are my treasure, I don't care what you become. A devil or a saint. A hero or a villain. A murderer or a savior. My love for you will remain as strong as it is now."

Evelyn said with a sob, "I love you, *Sob* Yasenia."

Yasenia caressed her back and put her sideways on her lap. They stayed like that until Evelyn relaxed.

Yasenia felt Evelyn relax in her embrace and wanted to cheer her up. Therefore, she asked with a smile. "How do you want me to put you to sleep, dear?"

She looked at Evelyn's ear getting red, and her smile became soft. She kissed her lobe softly and asked. "Does my dear want to drink my milk~?"

Evelyn looked at Yasenia with a slight blush and nodded. Evelyn really liked the sensation of Yasenia's cradling while she drank her milk.

Yasenia gave her a peck and took out a handkerchief, helping Evelyn wipe her tears and nose. Then she picked her up princess carry and moved to the bed. Yasenia sat on the bed with Evelyn and lowered her robes. After cradling Evelyn on her lap, Evelyn hugged Yasenia's waist and gently placed her mouth on Yasenia's breast.

Yasenia felt Evelyn's sucking and surrounded her with her arms as she let her drink. Like she did with Angel, Yasenia hummed a lullaby.

With her voice, embrace, scent, and soothing milk, Evelyn closed her and melted between the dragoness arms.

Some minutes later, Yasenia felt Evelyn's motions slowing down and her arms losing strength. With her tummy warm from the dragoness milk and her heart fuzzy with warm feelings for the dragoness, Evelyn slowly fell asleep.

Like she did before, Yasenia waited for Evelyn to fall deeply asleep before positioning Evelyn on the bed, standing up, and leaving silently.

Yasenia walked through the corridor, thinking about what Evelyn had told her. 'She needs a place to practice her tailoring... I will ask mom if we can change her alchemy lab for a tailoring workplace... Right, she will need a teacher because there aren't any teachers for Spirit Tailoring in the academy... I also need to buy her tools, some designs for her to practice with, and some proper books. Well, I can buy these with Evelyn. Sadly I have little to no experience with this profession. Should I read some books about it?'

While thinking about Evelyn, Yasenia reached Kali's room, only to find Flora in front of the door. Yasenia approached and asked Flora, "What can I do for you, Flora?"

Chapter 158

Flora struggled and bowed, asking, "I'm sorry if this offends young miss, but could Young Miss ejaculate with life energy inside of me? It doesn't need to be through the vagina. It can be through the mouth."

Yasenia frowned and looked at Flora questioningly, "Why do you want it, Flora? I need a very good reason to accept this demand... Moreover, have you asked mom? I think that she would be the one more against this, right?"

Flora lifted her body and said, "Lady Tatyana gave the go-ahead. The Lady told me that she doesn't mind young miss having sex with others. The thing the Lady doesn't want is for young miss to love more people than you do right now."

Yasenia massaged her temples and said, "Follow me, Flora. I want to ask you some things."

Yasenia and Flora moved to the fourth floor, reaching the room with the transparent ceiling. Yasenia sat on a white sofa and patted the place beside her. Flora smiled gently and sat there. Then, she waited for Yasenia to speak.

Yasenia looked at the sky and said, "Flora, you don't need to refer to me as young miss right now... I wanted to ask you... Is my behavior strange?"

Flora reclined and asked, her tone relaxed, "Why do you ask, Yassy?"

Yasenia looked at the dryad and smiled, "It has been a while since someone called me that way...."

Yasenia let her head fall on Flora's lashed, "Is seeing sex as a part of love... strange? I mean... After these months with my lovers, I can't imagine myself having sex with someone before falling in love. It feels like I'm betraying them, and I always feel uncomfortable thinking about it."

Flora caressed Yasenia's midnight black hair and asked, looking at Yasenia, "Yassy, what you are feeling is normal... But that way of thinking is only common to mortals. Most cultivators, especially after so many years alive, seek stimulation, joy, happiness, novelty, power, knowledge, new experiences... Sex is a wonderful tool that can make people feel many different things..."

Flora continued speaking, "From the thrill and pleasure at the moment, to the sensations of guilt and betrayal of cheating. The scope of feelings that sex can induce are many and varied. Therefore, the longer someone lives, the less important sex becomes in a relationship."

Flora frowned and said, "Well, that is a lie... The importance of sex becomes higher and higher until it reaches a point where it begins losing precedence."

Flora chuckled and said, "You will be able to see that people in their hundreds give sex a somewhat exalted position in the relationship, but the older they get, the more this position falls in their hearts."

Yasenia asked, "Then, if one person of a couple that has been together for hundreds of years suddenly has sex with another, because they felt like so... The other person won't get angry?"

Flora giggled, "Everyone is different, Yassy. Some people would brush it off since they deeply trust each other after being together for so many years, and they know it was just a fling at the moment. Others may ask who the person who tickled their partner's interest was and sometimes join them. Others ask for permission first, and they talk about it. And finally, some get angry to various degrees."

Yasenia nodded, and flora lowered her head to kiss her forehead, "Yassy, in this world, sex is as important in a relationship as you want it to be. You can treat it as sacred or treat it as another activity like hugs and pecks. You didn't dislike my kiss on your beautiful forehead, right?"

Yasenia nodded with a smile, "I liked it."

Flora smiled and continued, "Therefore, I'm not in a rush. You can speak it with your lovers first. However, you must address something important first."

Yasenia nodded and spoke that thing aloud, "How would I feel if they had sex with another woman... Without me present."

Flora nodded and asked, "How would you feel?"

Yasenia made a wry smile and said, "Awful... I don't mind having sex between us if I'm present... But I don't like it if I'm not... Just imagining my baby or sweetheart moaning with another woman or man without me knowing is twisting my guts...."

Flora nodded and said, "Then, what you have to ask is...?"

Yasenia said, putting an arm over her eyes, "An extremely selfish and unfair question... I feel especially bad and guilty because of Kali.... I mean, I have known all of you since I was little, and there is affection between us. It may not be romantic affection, but satisfying your wishes of having intimacy with me from time to time, I wouldn't mind. However, to the others, all of you are practically strangers."

Yasenia expressed, "And the main reason I don't mind is that you and the other maids have seen me grow up, cared for me, and always filled me with love and joy... Ugh, my mind is so messy, I think I'm contradicting myself..."

Flora didn't interrupt her and stayed beside her, listening to her. After Yasenya put out her thoughts, Flora said, "The reason I wanted to have your semen with life energy inside me is to know if you can impregnate humanoid plants. Unlike other humanoid races, humanoid plants can't get pregnant with the different types of humanoids besides the few exceptions I spoke about earlier."

Flora looked at the sky wistfully. "At first, I and the other plant lifeform maids abandoned thoughts of having progeny for life... But after Selenia's comment, a speck of hope appeared in my heart. Maybe I've been a little impatient bringing this up so early."

Yasenya put down her arm and shook her head. "Don't worry, Flora. I understand what kind of sacrifice the maids have made to become my maids."

After a moment of silence, Yasenya asked. "Flora, I've always had this question in my mind... Why did some maids disappear from time to time?"

Flora said, "I need to ask permission from the Lady to answer that. Wait a second."

Yasenya nodded, and Flora took out a jade. After some short conversation, Flora looked at Yasenya and said. "The main reason is that they died. Lady Tatyana was near you most of the time, and enemies wouldn't dare approach at those times. However, the Lady had to do some things from time to time, so we, the maids, protected you. Assassins were a normal occurrence, getting near you at least weakly, and some maids fell to them. Others, a minority, were fired or killed due to mistakes they made or because they were spies. The ones remaining right now are completely loyal to you and the Lady, me included."

Yasenya looked at Flora and sighed sadly, "I've never noticed...."

Flora chuckled, "But of course! We couldn't let young miss be worried or sad! Seeing young miss grow up into an excellent woman was, is, and will be our pride and joy!"

Yasenya felt her throat tighten and hugged Flora's waist, burying her face in her navel. After smelling Flora's relaxing natural scent, Yasenya said. "I will repay all of you in the future."

Flora smacked Yasenya's soft butt and said. "What nonsense! There is nothing to repay. We do this because of our free will and loyalty to you, Yassy. You promising never to let us behind is more than enough."

Yasenya looked into Flora's green eyes and nodded firmly. "I won't. In this lifetime, if all of you don't betray me, I will never betray all of you."

Flora smiled and pressed Yasenya's face on her navel again, caressing her head. They stayed like that for some minutes.

Yasenya was too tired and felt so comfortable on the dryad's lap that she began falling asleep. When Flora was debating whether to wake her up, she saw Yasenya open her eyes with a start and sat up. Then she mumbled, "I can't fall asleep yet... I have to pass through Cecile's, Andrea's, and Kali's room...."

Flora said, a little concerned. "Yasenya, you are too tired. Why don't you sleep and comfort them tomorrow?"

Yasenia stood up, rubbing her eyes, and said, “After today’s events, I want to be beside them when they fall asleep....”

Flora didn’t try to stop her anymore. She stood up and followed behind Yasenia.

Yasenia arrived at Kali’s room, but Flora stopped Yasenia from knocking on the door. “Miss Kali has fallen asleep.”

Yasenia nodded and opened the door quietly. She approached the bed with quiet steps and looked at Kali’s sleeping face. Kali was frowning slightly, seemingly having a nightmare.

Yasenia lay beside Kali carefully and hugged her close to her body. Then she whispered gently, “I’m here, honey. You are safe; relax.”

Yasenia caressed her chestnut-colored hair and gave her gentle kisses, making Kali’s previous tense body soften in her embrace.

Kali, at first, was adverse when Yasenia hugged her. But as Yasenia spoke, she could observe with a smile how Kali’s nose twitched, smelling her scent, and then closed up on her body.

Yasenia continued her actions until she was sure Kali was comfortable and deeply asleep. Then, she carefully got up from bed, tucking Kali into the bedsheets, and left. When she was out of the room, she said. “Flora, your request will have to wait at least until I come back from the secret realm. I want to first take the final step with Kali, and I don’t see that happening within some months or even a year from now.”

Flora bowed and smiled, “Young Miss considering it is already something to celebrate. Thank you.”

Yasenia hugged Flora and kissed her cheek. Then, she walked toward Andrea’s room. She saw that no one was in front of the door, so she knocked on it. Shortly after, the door opened, showing Andrea in her pajamas. Andrea smiled and said, “Welcome to my room, love.”

Yasenia smiled and went forward with open arms, burying herself in Andrea’s embrace.

Andrea moved inside with Yasenia; Yasenia’s tail closed the door. Andrea spoke in her deep voice, “Are you here to accompany me to sleep? I didn’t ask for it, though.”

Yasenia pushed Andrea onto the bed, falling on top of her. With her head between Andrea’s perky breasts, she said, “I don’t care~ I wanted to be with darling a little while~.”

Andrea chuckled and said, “Just cuddles? Or do you want something more~?”

Yasenia looked up at Andrea with a seductive smile and deepened her voice, “What does darling want? I was just thinking of cuddles... But if darling wants more, I don’t mind~.”

Andrea grabbed Yasenia’s big and jelly-like butt and pulled her up, matching their face level. She looked into her golden slit eyes. Seeing the tiredness inside of them, Andrea said. “Then... Just cuddles. You are too tired, love.”

Yasenia was a little surprised and said, “I can do it if you want, don’t worry, Andrea.”

Andrea kissed Yasenia’s lips softly and said, “Nope, today relaxation.”

Yasenia chuckled and asked, “Then... What is this hard thing I feel pressing in my core~?”

Andrea sighed with a smile, “With you on top of me. I don’t think there is a human that wouldn’t be aroused.”

Wanting to pamper her darling, Yassenia thought for a bit and sat on Andrea’s erection. She said, massaging her big breasts. “Then... How about I relax that erection first, and then we cuddle~? I want to pamper you~.”

Andrea smiled helplessly and nodded, “Do what you want, love.”

Yassenia said happily. “Then sat up and put your back on the headboard~.”

Chapter 159

Andrea obeyed, and Yassenia went down and lowered Andrea’s pants, setting free her member. Yassenia smiled seductively, “I love your light chocolate color~.”

She licked the head with half-squinted eyes and then glomped it down. Then, she used one hand to caress Andrea’s balls and used her tongue expertly.

Andrea let out a satisfied grunt and placed a hand on her head, caressing it. The feeling of Yassenia’s warm mouth and slimy tongue was divine.

Yassenia bobbed her head, used her long tongue to coil around the shaft, and tightened, making Andrea moan.

She continued her head, tongue, and hand movements until Andrea’s rod was completely lubricated and then did a downward movement, hiding Andrea’s whole length inside her mouth. Andrea groaned and almost came directly feeling the tightness of her throat; it was driving her crazy. “You are so good at this, my love.”

Yassenia took out the dick from her throat and looked up at Andrea with a smile. “Now that you are wet, it is time for something you love~.”

Yassenia grabbed her big breasts and inserted Andrea’s dick between her soft and jelly-like breasts, hiding it completely with her breast size. Andrea felt her member squished in a world of softness, and her waist jumped a little, almost cumming. ‘Her breasts are just too good. They envelop every inch of my penis~.’

Yassenia moved them up and down with her hands, alternating and gyrating them. Then, she let saliva drip from her mouth to lubricate them and send Andrea straight to heaven.

*Plap.* *Plap.* *Plap.*

The sounds the breasts made when they smashed Andrea’s pelvis, and the sight of them bouncing up and down were extremely arousing. Shortly after, Yassenia felt her twitching hardness, and then Andrea grunted, “I’m cumming!”

Yassenia continued until Andrea came between her breasts. The warm, thick liquid spurted, painting her breast white. Yassenia sighed, full of satisfaction. ‘So hot~.’

When Andrea stopped cumming, she looked down at Yassenia, only to see her spread her cum over her breasts with her hands and a seductive face.

Yassenia looked at Andrea’s light green eyes and said sultrily, “I’m marked by darling~ Your scent is all over me~.”

Andrea said, exasperated. "Love, if you are like this, you are going to have to empty me before I can calm down my erection."

Yasenia smiled happily, "Then I will have my tummy warm~."

Yasenia lowered her head and glomped Andrea's member again. This time, Yasenia also used a hand to finger Andrea's vagina. Andrea felt fireworks exploding in her mind as pleasure waves spread through her body. Andrea came shortly after, and Yasenia drank everything happily.

The dragoness didn't stop her stimulation until Andrea came another three times inside her mouth. Only then did Yasenia feel Andrea's dick soften inside her mouth.

She vacuumed and drank everything from Andrea's urethra. Then, she licked the long shaft and vagina until she cleaned Andrea. Andrea felt in heaven with this kind of cleaning.

After finishing, Yasenia grabbed a towel from her spatial ring and wiped her breasts. Then, she lay on the bed with Andrea. Andrea hugged her soft dragoness and kissed her lovingly. "Is my dragoness now happy?"

Yasenia smiled cutely and snuggled deeper in Andrea's embrace, "Happy~. Now sleep~."

Andrea closed her eyes and tightened her hug, putting their bodies together without a single gap, "I love you, Yasenia."

Yasenia buried her head in her neck and said, growling and licking her neck lovingly, "I love you too, darling~."

Andrea heard and felt Yasenia's growling and licks, completely relaxing her body. If all of them were to put the single thing they love about Yasenia, it would be her growls and licks while cuddling. The growl sounded deeper than a cat purring and had a more predatory tone, similar to a lion. But the love Yasenia emanated while doing it melted their hearts.

With her recent release and the dragoness ministrations, Andrea didn't take long to fall asleep. Yasenia looked up within Andrea's embrace at her beautiful and heroic face.

She was a little more awake thanks to Andrea's Yin energy, but hearing Andrea's stable breathing made her tiredness creep up again.

She slowly got out of Andrea's arms and left the bedroom. She stretched and yawned, 'It is almost midnight... Only sweetheart left~.'

Yasenia reached Cecile's room and found the door already opened. She entered and saw Cecile look at her with a smile and her wings folded, sitting on the bed. Yasenia still wasn't very used to Cecile's new look and became a little shy.

Looking at Yasenia's reaction, Cecile's smile deepened, and she said, "Come here, my love."

Yasenia went to her side and threw herself in her embrace. Cecile caught her while laughing, surrounded her with her wings, and kissed her forehead, "Still shy, my love?"

Yasenia looked at Cecile's face and said bashfully. "Sweetheart is too beautiful~. My heart thumps fast when I look at you..."

Besides Cecile being extremely beautiful, her scent, aura, and feeling around her were extremely attractive to Yasenias. The main reason was that Cecile's bloodline came from the woman from Yasenias' inheritance, so right now, they were a perfect match for each other. Objectively speaking, Cecile was a better mate for Yasenias than even Tatyana herself.

Moreover, Yasenias was shy around Cecile because Yasenias had completely given the main role in the connection to her. Therefore, Yasenias was naturally submissive to Cecile because she recognized her as the dominant mate.

Furthermore, Cecile's wings and tails made Cecile very attractive to the dragoness.

Previously Yasenias was clueless because she had never looked at beast-humans as relationship material. Still, Yasenias has discovered that she loves beast-human traits in her lovers due to her instincts and bloodline.

After hearing what Yasenias said, Cecile lowered her head and captured Yasenias' lips slowly. Cecile knew how tired Yasenias was, so she intended just to kiss Yasenias to sleep and then carry her to Tatyana.

Yasenias wound her arms around Cecile's neck and returned the kiss tenderly.

What Cecile didn't expect was that intimacy between them was too pleasurable at the moment. So even as they were only kissing, Yasenias and Cecile moaned from the kiss and pressed their bodies together.

Cecile felt Yasenias' rock-hard member pressing against her navel when their bodies came together. A fire started in her heart and core, and she needed to quench it. She moved her hand and caught her member.

Yasenias moaned. She was about to speak, but Cecile's eyes taking a violet tone made her words stuck in her throat and made her gulp. Then, she heard Cecile say, "My love, let's do it. I want to feel your member inside again~. I'm going to milk you until you fall asleep."

Yasenias took a deep breath and kept her tone soothing and gentle, knowing that Cecile was still getting used to these instincts. "As much as you want, sweetheart."

Hearing the affirmative, Cecile instantly put her nightgown inside her spatial ring, becoming naked, and Yasenias did the same.

Cecile pushed Yasenias against the headboard and straddled her, positioning the member below her dripping flower. Yasenias' penis twitched as she felt Cecile's cool liquids falling on her member.

Cecile lowered her waist with anticipation and penetrated herself. The head opened her labia wide and caressed her every fold as she penetrated deeper. Cecile let out a shaky breath, delighted to have Yasenias inside again. She continued lowering her waist until her cervix kissed her member. "Ah~."

Yasenias felt heavenly inside Cecile; her folds tightened and wiggled on her hardness, sending pleasure waves to her brain. Moreover, when their energies mixed, they sent hot pleasure waves across their bodies. Just being inserted was enough to make both of them reach orgasm.

Yasenias hugged Cecile's body and pressed their breasts together. Then she went forward and captured Cecile's lips. They both kissed, and Cecile began to move her waist. Her silver wings flapped happily as Yasenias member sent electric currents through her body. "Ah! Ah! So good! Ohh!"

*Pah! *Pah! *Pah!*

Cecile was so aroused that she was reaching climax fast. Her waist accelerated, and the impacts on her cervix became more violent. Yasenias knew Cecile wanted her to enter that last entrance, so she thrust upward. After more thrusts, Yasenias opened that last entrance wide, entering Ceciles uterus.

*PAH!*

Cecile felt fireworks exploding in her mind and shouted in ecstasy, "Im cumming!"

Yasenias hugged Cecile close, reducing the distance to zero between their genitals and bodies as Cecile trembled with pleasure and drenched their lower half with her fluids.

After the big orgasm, Cecile relaxed a little and invaded Yasenias mouth with delight as her insides clenched in her deeply inserted member. Yasenias answered eagerly and gyrated her waist, scrapping her uterus walls and sending sparks to Ceciles brain.

Cecile separated again and moved her waist more aggressively. Her eyes became violet, and she began moaning loudly, "Ah! Ah! Ah! Yasenias, it feels so good! Ahh~!"

Yasenias thrust up, making their waist meet and creating slapping sounds of flesh against flesh. Yasenias moved her tail and penetrated Ceciles butt, wanting to end this faster. Cecile leaned forward with a throaty moan, "OHH!! YES!" She sped up her waist.

*PAH! *PAH! *PAH!*

With the double penetration, Cecile was close to cumming again. She put their lips together as she spoke, "Fill me, my love~. I want your seed~."

Yasenias felt Ceciles fertile liquid surrounding her penis inside her uterus, and lightning coursed her body with pleasure. Yasenias pushed Cecile onto the bed and pistoned from above, speeding up her tail.

*PAH! *PAH! *PAH!*

Cecile smiled lewdly because of her mates domineering attack and felt her orgasm coming. Yasenias members inflated, announcing her release. However, Yasenias had a clear enough head. She continued pistoning hard until both came at the same time.

"AHHH!!!!"

"OHHH!!!!"

Cecile felt Yasenias load mixing with her fluids and filling her backdoor. Then, when their Ying and Yang energies combined, both felt a big pleasure wave climbing, be it from Ceciles uterus or Yasenias member, up to their spines until it reached their brains. Their pleasure senses exploded with ecstasy, and their eyes rolled up with utter euphoria. ""OHHHHHHHHH!!!!""

Yasenia came strongly, filling her uterus and more. Moreover, because Cecile was clamping on her members, the dragoness release didn't have a way out, inflating Cecile's uterus and filling her butthole.

Yasenia came liters of cum inside Cecile.

After they stopped cumming, they both were breathing roughly and trembling while they hugged each other. They shared a sloppy kiss, and when Yasenia's hand passed Cecile's belly, she felt the bulge. They both looked down and saw Cecile's belly bloated.

Now that their heads were cleared after the orgasm, they longingly looked at Cecile's belly. Cecile spoke, "Is this how I will feel when I'm pregnant? I feel so full, warm, and pleasurable~."

Yasenia said, "I don't know, sweetheart."

Cecile smirked and looked at Yasenia, "You came so much, love. What do we do now~?"

Still inserted, Yasenia kissed her lips softly and said, "Sleep, sweetheart. I know you are tired. We had sex just before the battle, and now again. I don't want to tire you."

Cecile returned the slow kisses and asked, "My love, do you not mind what I did?"

Yasenia separated and tilted her head, not understanding. Cecile blushed a bit and said, "About the fertile liquid...."

Yasenia laughed and said, "Well, I know what you are going through... However, let's do normal sex less often. I don't think I can control myself more than once."

Chapter 160

Cecile nodded, "I'm quite surprised you were even able to control yourself."

Yasenia chuckled, "I've gained control of my instincts during these months, especially the ones related to breeding."

Cecile looked down at her still bloated belly. "Umm... can we stay connected until I fall asleep? I don't mind your release covering me when I relax, and it escapes...."

Yasenia looked at Cecile tenderly and said, "Wrap your legs around my waist, sweetheart. I'm going to move with you."

Cecile nodded and hugged Yasenia tighter, also tightening her insides. With both members still inserted. Yasenia moved until they were sideways; she also made Cecile place her wing on the bed for her to lay on. Then, Yasenia lay on the silver wing, hugging each other.

Yasenia put her arms around Cecile, and Cecile snuggled closer, burying her face in Yasenia's neck, pressing their naked bodies together, and using her other wing to wrap around Yasenia, surrounding her with her wings.

Lying on her feather wing, Yasenia felt extremely comfortable. It was fluffy, refreshing, and smelled very pleasing. Moreover, her penis and tail felt very good inside Cecile.

After they coiled around each other, Cecile closed her eyes and relaxed. However, her muscles loosened when she relaxed, letting all the fluids gush out. Feeling their lower halves being completely smeared with Yasenia's release, they both looked at each other and giggled. "My love, you released too much inside."

Yasenia put her smiling lips on her cheek and spoke, “It is your fault, sweetheart. How can I not fill you if you feel so good?”

Cecile turned her head, making their lips touch, and spoke lovingly, “Since our first time, I felt heavenly, my love. Thank you for loving me.”

Yasenia kissed her with a smile and pulled out her tail. Then, she coiled it around Cecile’s three tails. Yasenia continued giving Cecile these soft and tender tap kisses until Cecile fell asleep from pure comfort because of the loving caresses of the dragoness.

After she heard Cecile’s stable breathing, Yasenia stopped her kisses but didn’t separate, looking at Cecile’s peerless facial features. When she felt Cecile deeply asleep, she thought to herself, ‘Getting out from this embrace will be very difficult... Moreover, I’m still inside her....’

Yasenia gradually made her erection disappear, letting her member slip out naturally. Then, little by little, she uncoiled her tail and arms from Cecile. Yasenia looked at the big silver wings trapping her and laughed helplessly, ‘How do I get out of here without waking her up?’

Yasenia first used her tail to lift the wing she had over her. Then, she used her arm to lift her upper body slightly. Cecile’s arm fell to the sides, and with a light tap from her feet and arm, Yasenia jumped out of bed. She used the tail to control her fall and make absolutely zero noise. Yasenia chuckled lowly, ‘That was hard.’

Yasenia took out a cleaning towel with some enchantments to make it extra soft and absorb fluids. Then, Yasenia looked tenderly at Cecile and approached her. ‘Even if you said you didn’t mind. How could I let my sweetheart sleep like this?’

Yasenia slowly moved Cecile’s legs and opened them, showing the mess of fluids there. She carefully and slowly cleaned her, trying not to wake her up. She took another fifteen minutes to clean her and the bedsheets without waking her up.

Yasenia grabbed some sheets and placed them over Cecile, and tucked her in them. Then she gave one last kiss to her forehead, “Goodnight, sweetheart.”

Then, lethargic, she went to her own bedroom.

She opened the door and saw Tatyana lying on the bed, waiting for her. Yasenia went on autopilot into Tatyana’s embrace and said, “Goodnight, mom.”

Tatyana secured her daughter between her arms and said, “Sleep, little treasure. No matter what nightmares you have, I’m here with you.”

Yasenia pecked her cheek and finally fell asleep.

Tatyana looked at her daughter and thought, feeling a little helpless. ‘Which harem head goes the lengths you go for their harem, little treasure? Although there are some... It is very rare, especially in someone as young as her....’

Tatyana smiled and observed Yasenia’s features. She loved looking at her little treasure, even if she had already memorized even the smallest perks. Tatyana chuckled to herself, ‘A daughter... Who would have known I would have a daughter... Only twenty years have passed since she was born, yet I feel like much more time has passed. What are 20 years? A fleeting moment.... Yet she is already so big.'

Tatyana sighed and thought, 'I hope leaving Feng Yuan alive won't become a spine in her heart... However, the phoenixes will severely punish him for disrupting the Sacred Ritual, and I don't even know if we will see him again in this lifetime.'

After one hour, she saw Yasenia's eyebrows scrunching. Tatyana became distressed and was tempted to use her fate skills to change this. However, she let her be. It was normal to have nightmares after what Yasenia went through today.

Tatyana used her spiritual sense and looked at the others. 'They don't have nightmares... Little treasure, your efforts seem that they were worth it.'

Suddenly, Yasenia hugged Tatyana tighter and growled dangerously. Tatyana didn't mind and continued hugging her daughter. Then, a menacing roar left Yasenia's throat. "ROAR!"

Yasenia scratched Tatyana's back and bit her, but Tatyana didn't move. She even lowered the toughness of her skin so that Yasenia could sink her nails and teeth into her without hurting herself. Yasenia continued growling and roaring. Therefore, Tatyana began whispering into her ear, "Don't worry, little treasure, I'm here. No one can hurt you."

Tatyana continued speaking soft words, and hearing Tatyana's voice, Yasenia's struggles gradually lessened until she stopped biting and clawing. Then she began licking Tatyana's neck in her sleep, and her growls became soft. Tatyana smiled tenderly and said, "That's right, it's me, little treasure. Mommy is beside you."

Yasenia's tail hit the bed slowly, wagging sleepily. Tatyana's heart melted, and she looked at her daughter. The night went on, and each time Yasenia had a nightmare, Tatyana took care of it. She hugged, kissed, caressed, and spoke to her, relaxing the restless dragoness.

The night passed, and another day arrived.

Yasenia woke up feeling completely refreshed and in her mother's arms. She took a deep breath and snuggled closer to Tatyana, placing her head on her chest. Yasenia asked sleepily, "Did I have nightmares, mom?"

Tatyana caressed her head and answered, "Yes, do you remember any?"

Yasenia looked up with watery golden eyes from just waking up and shook her head, "I don't.... "

Tatyana said, "Don't worry, it's normal. However, I think you will continue with these nightmares for a week at least. Are you going to sleep separately from the others? "

Yasenia frowned and said, "I don't want to hurt them.... "

Tatyana didn't want her daughter to worry so much, so she said, "How about I protect them? You will sleep beside me but with your dears near."

Yasenia looked up at Tatyana, "Won't it be a little of a bother?"

Tatyana raised her eyebrow and laughed, "How can it be a bother taking care of you? I wish I could do it daily. More than a bother, it appears to me as a reward~."

Yasenia smiled, and her tail wagged happily, “Then... Okay, I will count on mom.”

Tatyana asked, “Do you want to do your morning cultivation?”

Yasenia wanted to slack. She was too comfortable in bed with Tatyana. However, she pushed herself, thinking. ‘Don’t be lazy. Working a little bit daily is better than doing everything at the last moment.’

After the struggle, Yasenia separated from her mother’s comfy and warm embrace and nodded. Tatyana kissed her cheek, “Good.”

While Tatyana was dressing up Yasenia, Yasenia asked, “Mom, can we change Evelyn’s alchemy lab to a spirit tailoring workshop?”

Tatyana nodded, “Not a problem. It will also cost you zero since we built the house recently. Thanks to this, you can make some changes to it freely.”

Yasenia nodded and asked another thing, “Umm... Mom, why does my energy react so strange to the tools?”

Tatyana looked at Yasenia and debated whether to tell her or not. ‘Should I tell her... I will wait a little more. I want her to work as an assistant with the others for a while to strengthen her base knowledge.’

Tatyana said, “You will have to discover it yourself, little treasure. Don’t worry too much; you have still some years before it matters whether you can do a side profession or not.”

Yasenia nodded, comforted by those words. ‘So mom knows why. Then, I should continue trying myself. I want to give mom a nice surprise, not having to rely on her for this.’

While they were going down, Tatyana informed the construction team through a communication jade.

They came across Kali, so Yasenia approached with a smile, “Why didn’t you wait for me yesterday, honey? When I reached your room, you were already sleeping.”

Kali was surprised, “I thought you would only go to Angel’s and Evelyn’s room.”

Yasenia passed her arms over her shoulders and pressed her forehead on her veiled forehead, “How could I let you without cuddles and kisses a single night? It is my joy pampering you.”

Kali’s heartbeat accelerated with the dragoness so close, and she timidly moved her hands around Yasenia’s waist. She shyly said, “T-Then, I will wait for you e-every night..”

Yasenia lifted her veil, only showing her lips, and kissed her scarred lips softly. “That’s a good girl; you must wait for me. I will try to stay beside you until you fall asleep every day. Do you want to come together to cultivate?”

Kali felt her lips arching and looked at Yasenia with a thumping heart. Every time she felt Yasenia’s creamy lips on hers, she felt heavenly.

“I want to go.” Said, Kali.

Yasenia smiled, then separated and grabbed her hand, interlocking their fingers. The three of them moved toward the cultivation grounds, and Yasenia changed into her revealing kimono. Kali became slightly flustered looking at her; she still wasn't accustomed to Yasenia's attractive and seductive figure.

Tatyana left to do other things and speak to Elder Irina about something, leaving them alone.

Dawn passed, and sunrise ended.

Kali and Yasenia moved to the living room. When they reached there, a certain golden bullet ran toward Yasenia. Yasenia chuckled and opened her arms. Angel didn't miss the chance and buried herself in her softness. Yasenia grunted and laughed. "Good morning, baby. Did you sleep comfortably?"

Angel answered with a pout. "Not bad... But I don't like waking up on the mattress..."

Angel looked up with pleading eyes and asked, "Can we sleep together tonight?" The others also paid attention.

Yasenia lowered her head and gave Angel a morning kiss. Then she said. "Yes, I will sleep with all of you tonight, but I will move a lot and make noise... Do you not mind?"

Andrea said with a chuckle. "Do you think we would? Whenever I wake up without you beside me, I honestly feel weird, as if something is missing...."

Yasenia walked toward them while coquettishly placing a hand on her cheek, "Oh darling~ You are making me blush~."

Yasenia walked around, giving her routine morning kisses to Cecile, Andrea, and Evelyn. When she reached Evelyn's side, she kissed her and sat beside her.

Evelyn asked, "What is your plan for today, Yasenia?"
