Chapter 161

Yasenia walked around, giving her routine morning kisses to Cecile, Andrea, and Evelyn. When she reached Evelyn's side, she kissed her and sat beside her.

Evelyn asked, "What is your plan for today, Yasenia?"

Yasenia thought about it. Then, she looked at Evelyn and said with a smile, "I will go with my dear to decide what tools she needs for tailoring!"

Evelyn smiled happily and hugged her arm. "Awesome!"

When Andrea heard Yasenia, she raised an eyebrow, intrigued. "Tailoring? Are you going to change your profession, Evelyn?"

Evelyn nodded and looked at Kali, "We have an excellent alchemist. I rather do something else. Moreover, after I learn tailoring, we will be able to create fancy things together, Andrea."

Kali was about to get flustered, thinking she had done something bad, when a golden tail appeared between her legs, wiggling funnily. Kali let out a laugh and relaxed. Then, she played with it, thinking. 'Is Yasenia able to read minds? How did she know what was I about to ask?'

Meanwhile, Andrea nodded and added, "Whenever I needed leather or something similar, I had to hire someone outside. If you become a skilled tailor, I will save quite a lot of time.... Moreover, I can be much freer with my demands and not worry about money."

Evelyn chuckled, "Although I'm still a novice, so I don't know if I will ever be able to catch up to you in skill."

Andrea smiled and said in her deep and clear voice, "Everyone starts as a novice, don't worry about it. You just need to be patient and have the motivation to learn." Evelyn nodded.

Yasenia turned toward Anna and asked, "Will mom leave any tools to Evelyn for tailoring? I don't want to buy something she already has."

Anna took out a communication jade and asked. Then, she said, "Yes, Lady Tatyana will take back the alchemy tools she gifted miss Evelyn and give her a set of needles, pins, scissors, and an ironing board together with an iron. She will also give a thimble."

Yasenia looked at novice sewing tools and equipment in a book and said, happily surprised. "So we have almost anything! We may need to buy the needles and scissors types that mom won't give you, a pin holder, and maybe some machinery?"

Anna said, "Do not worry about machinery, young miss. The new tailoring workshop will have the most basic machinery inside."

Yasenia nodded and looked at the stunned Evelyn, "Remember to make a budget and a list of what you need the most after revising what mom gives you."

Evelyn looked at Yasenia and sat on her lap, hugging the dragoness. "I will revise it later. Let me stay like this for a little bit..."

Yasenia, of course, wouldn't lose the chance to hug her dear, so she surrounded her with her arms and pressed her breasts on her, knowing how much Evelyn liked for her to do that.

They continued speaking for a while, and Cecile decided to train; she was eager to gain control of her new strength. Moreover, she didn't want to deal with all the questions she would receive when their friends saw her changes.

Angel and Kali followed Cecile. They thought they were the weakest of the group, so they wanted to train and not fall behind. However, their assumptions weren't completely true. Although Kali and Angel were the weakest in one-against-one battles when it came to group battles, they were absolutely terrifying.

With the protection of teammates, Kali could summon an army that could overwhelm cultivators stronger than herself, and Angel could set up her big formations, becoming a menace on the battlefield. Therefore, they weren't the weakest.

Nonetheless, even if they knew that they would still go to train. Both of them rather die than become a burden for their dear dragoness.

Selena, Alaia, and Flora went with them. Selena would train Angel in shield-wielding. Alaia was going to teach Cecile how to use her wings. And Flora would teach Kali about summoning and battlefield control. Clara would stay in the house, doing the chores. Anna and Eve were the ones that accompanied them.

While they were walking toward a tailoring shop, hand in hand, Yasenia spotted Oliver waiting for someone. She stopped walking and, out of curiosity, she waited to see who it was. To her surprise, she saw Lucia approaching him, and Yasenia lifted an eyebrow. 'What are those two doing together?'

Evelyn and Andrea stopped walking when they saw Yasenia stop. They looked at Yasenia and saw her looking in one direction with a teasing smirk. They followed their gaze and saw a smiling Oliver speaking with Lucia. Andrea chuckled and asked, "What is the dragoness verdict?"

Yasenia freed her hands and rubbed her chin, "Unfortunately, just friends. Should we approach? I may be able to help big bro to get the beauty, hahaha!"

Evelyn advised, "Isn't it better if you ignore them? Knowing Lucia's naivety, she might overthink and interpret your approach as you getting jealous. So... In my opinion, if you approach, it would crash Oliver's chances of getting together with her."

Yasenia could totally see it happening, "You are right. Let's ignore them. If they get together, it will be nice."

Yasenia grabbed their hands and left that spot, not caring anymore about them.

They passed through the outer part of the Academy, drawing fanatic screams from some girls, and went to the nearby city with Anna and Eve in tow.

Meanwhile, at home, Angel and Kali fought against their personal maids.

Selena slithered forward and struck her sword against Angel's shield.

BANG!

The strength behind the sword strike made Angel grunt, and her feet left the ground; she was sent flying tens of meters back. Selena reprimanded, “Put strength in your legs and lower your waist! As a shield user, even if the hits are heavy, your feet must not leave the ground!”

When Angel managed to get up again, she saw Selena before her, already making a rising strike. It was so swift that Angel couldn’t even position properly, so she only managed to put her shield before her.

BANG!

Angel flew high up in the air, her shield arm terribly hurting. ‘I was sent flying again... How is my arm?’

She checked it midair; her shield arm had slight fractures because of Selena’s heavy strike, and some blood veins had burst. However, Angel only did as much as a grunt with her blue eyes still filled with determination.

While she was airborne, Selena appeared behind her and slashed at her unprotected back. Angel reacted fast and barely managed to put her shield in the way of the sword before it impacted.

BANG!

Angel let out a short, painful scream and flew down like a bullet impacting the ground heavily. However, her eyes hadn’t lost their focus yet. During the exchanges previous to this one, she had been placing [Glass Nodes] all the time! “Cough, cough, I’m not done yet! [Glass Prison-]”

Crash!

Nonetheless, before she could activate it, the sound of glass shattering echoed, announcing the destruction of some [Glass Nodes]. Angel’s energy didn’t have a place to go because her formation was destroyed and began running rampant inside her body, making it damage her internal organs. The pain was too much, and a pained scream left her mouth, “Ah!”

Selena appeared before her and tapped some acupuncture points, forcefully letting out her overflowing energy. Then she said. “Not bad, miss Angel. You blocked well that back attack.”

Kali ran beside Angel and began treatment under Flora’s guidance.

By the way, Dr. Ava came from time to time to impart classes and left different assignments for Kali to resolve until her next visit. For now, Kali has been doing quite badly, unable even to get a passing grade. This showed how difficult and demanding Dr. Ava’s teachings were. However, Kali’s knowledge and skill in medicine have been upgrading by leaps and bounds.

While Angel fought, Cecile could be seen slamming into the ground painfully from time to time because of Alaia’s teachings.

Alaia was ordering Cecile to follow her by flying, and with Cecile’s poor flight control, the turns, accelerations, and sudden stops Alaia made were making Cecile slam the floor, rocks, or trees quite often...

BANG!

After a big collision with the ground, Cecile stayed in the crater she made, looking at the sky. 'I'm getting more hurt by just flying with Alaia than normally training...'

Alaia appeared before her with a smile and said, "Not bad; it seems that miss Cecile is quite natural when flying."

Cecile looked at her from the ground with a deadpan expression, "Oh... Is that so..."

Alaia laughed, making her voluptuous body jiggle, and said, "Today is basically your first day flying. The fact that you can somewhat follow after me is quite commendable." Cecile sighed and stood up.

This training continued until Yasenia, Evelyn, and Andrea returned.

By the time Yasenia and the rest arrived home, Angel, Kali, and Cecile were completely beat, with their energy reserves nearing zero. Yasenia looked at them, lying on the ground half-dead, and chuckled. "How was training?"

Angel looked toward Yasenia with moist blue eyes and whined, "So difficult...."

Yasenia approached her, and Angel directly put her arms forward, asking for a hug. Yasenia picked her up and gave her a big kiss on the cheek. "My baby has worked hard. Tonight, I will reward you nicely and lovingly."

Angel began thinking of colorful things and her cheeks slightly reddened. While Angel had her thoughts flying, Cecile and Kali stood up and approached Yasenia. They all moved to the living room, and everyone picked up their profession books and began studying.

Yasenia sat beside Evelyn, learning about Spirit Tailoring from the beginning with her, Kali sat to her right, and Angel on her lap. Cecile and Andrea were across them with their respective books, Andrea with blacksmith and Cecile with a book about archery, hunting, and beasts. All of them had their respective maids helping them.

Alaia spoke to Evelyn with exaggerated sadness, "Miss Evelyn! How could you!? You left alchemy aside! What will I do now? I don't know anything about spirit tailoring. I'm useless!"

Evelyn thought about it and asked, "Will someone take your position?"

Alaia hugged Evelyn from behind, pressing her big bosom on her back, and asked sensually, "Do you want someone different~? Miss Evelyn~."

Evelyn stuttered a little, "I-I don't, but a teacher for Tailoring would be nice...."

Yasenia raised an eyebrow teasingly, "Blatantly flirting before me again? It seems that your previous punishment wasn't enough~."

Evelyn defended herself, "W-What do you mean by flirting!? I'm totally not happy about her big breast pressing on my back!"

Yasenia and Alaia burst into laughter. Alaia straightened and said, "There is already someone coming here to teach miss Evelyn about tailoring; she will see your talent in the profession and advice you if continue forward or not."

Evelyn became a little sad, "O-Oh, so you will leave...."

Alaia smiled gently and kissed her cheek. "Worry not, miss; I won't leave. Combat training is much more important than professions. Therefore, I will still be your personal maid and teach you about the spear. Moreover, a personal maid's most important duty is to protect their master, and not many are stronger than me inside the mortal realm maids."

Yasenia asked, "Who is coming?"

Eve answered, "She is new inside the maids and didn't have the chance to appear before young miss before. Moreover, she is quite weak. The only reason she managed to become a maid is that her tailoring skills are extraordinary. Moreover, she is quite a good teacher and has already produced some skilled tailors for our maid division."

Yasenia nodded, "There isn't anything strange with her, right?"

Anna answered, "There isn't. She will just pass here one or two hours daily to teach miss Evelyn. She is human and has normal dark hair and brown eyes. She is still nameless."

Andrea, who had been listening, lifted an eyebrow, "Nameless?"

Leila, who Andrea was petting, answered her. "Yes, when we join to become close maids to the young miss, we lose our names and identities outside. Only when we reach a certain level do we regain a name. Lady Tatyana is the one who renames us as a symbol of graduation and gaining her trust."

Kali was surprised and asked, "Is training to become a maid near Yasenia harsh?"

Eve answered calmly, "Seventy percent of the maids in training die, twenty-three percent become either traumatized or crippled, a sixth percent lose their sanity, and one percent makes the cut to be normal, nameless maids. To become higher ranking, harsher training is delivered."

Eve looked at the maids that made mistakes, Clara, Alaia, and Selena, and said coldly. "The only reason Clara, Alaia, and Selena are still here, after their mistakes, is that the misses were happy with them and that compatibility between the misses and them is excellent. However, there won't be another chance."

Meanwhile, our girls were shocked and looked at their maids with a whole new level of respect. If becoming a normal maid was that harsh, reaching the personal maid level should be an accomplishment to be proud of for their entire life.

Not to mention them, Anna and Eve, who were the personal maids of Yasenia herself and head maids, should be monstrous cultivators even between same-level cultivators.

Chapter 162

When she came out of her shock, Kali asked. "What happens with those that fail and do not die?"

Flora answered her, "We send them to a recuperation camp, trying to reduce the after-effects created by the training. After one century, we let them leave or try again. Because of my medical expertise and my relaxing aura, I was part of this camp before I aimed to become a personal maid."

Kali nodded and smiled, "I'm not surprised. Being beside you is always relaxing, Flora."

Flora smiled and patted Kali's head, "I'm glad. Miss Kali has suffered, and the young miss would only want the best for you."

Kali's smile widened under her veil, receiving Flora's pats. Yasenia said, "Of course, I want the best! I was very happy when I knew that Flora would be honey's personal maid. I remember being quite often in your lap when I was little and...."

They continued speaking until night arrived.

Yasenia, now rested, was ready to make her dears unable to walk tomorrow!

She first went to Angel's room and found Andrea also there. Angel and Andrea saw Yasenia's eager face and swallowed. Andrea said, "Y-Yasenia, tomorrow I'm giving public classes, control-"

Yasenia jumped on her, storing her clothes mid-jump, and tackled her onto the bed. Then, she released her scent without holding anything back, showing how eager she was. Assaulted by the sweet floral scent, Andrea and Angel moaned, their cores getting wet at impressive speeds. Yasenia didn't lose time, and while moving Angel with her tail, she lowered Andrea's pants, releasing her erect member and wet vagina.

Without losing a single moment, Yasenia aimed and penetrated Andrea in one thrust. Andrea felt her labia spreading to welcome the dragoness and a loud moan escaped her mouth. "Aahn~."

Yasenia began thrusting while she placed the already naked Angel on her shoulders, with her flower in front of her face. Then while she made Andrea moan with delight, she used her hands to push Angel's butt, pressing her mouth on her flower.

Angel felt Yasenia's mouth on her vagina, and then her long tongue expertly explored her folds, making her moan with delight. Her clitoris was stimulated with fast movements of the tip of her tongue, and its length explored her insides. Angel loved how Yasenia devoured her privates.

Today, Yasenia was extremely dominant and filled them until it overflowed, sending Angel and Andrea to heaven again and again.

When she finished, Angel and Andrea were completely dazed because of pleasure, with their bodies twitching and lewd smiles on their faces.

Yasenia took out her penis from Angel's uterus and her tail from Andrea's with a satisfied sigh, letting her sperm spill from their entrances. Then, she picked them up in a princess hug and placed Angel on top of Andrea, carrying them to the bath. Yasenia cleaned them carefully and lovingly, kissing from time to time her groggy dears.

When she finished, she put on their nightwear and said to the personal maids. "Leila, Selena, lie them on my bed. With the same order as always."

They both bowed and picked their respective miss and answered. "Yes, young miss."

Selena and Leila moved toward the bedrooms. While they were going up, Selena commented, "Our miss is a beast in bed~. I don't think I've met anyone with more stamina than her in the same level..."

Leila nodded with a wagging tail, "I never get tired of young miss' scent~. It always makes my body tingle pleasantly."

Selena chuckled, "Her scent was already a treat when she was little. Now it is a delicacy~."

Leila asked, “Has Flora told you?”

Selena had an extremely happy smile as she said, “The Lady doesn’t care if we have sex with our miss~ I can’t wait to give birth to our miss children~. I will spoil them rotten! However, I will also properly raise them! I want our children to become extraordinary and make their mama dragon proud!”

Leila looked at her stupefied, “You did quite the jump in conclusions there... Will our miss want to impregnate us?”

Selena said, “She won’t before she has some children with her lovers, but I don’t see why she wouldn’t after that... I want to help our miss spread her bloodline!”

Leila thought about it and imagined herself taking care of her children sired by her young miss. They would be extremely beautiful, with those characteristic golden eyes... Her cheeks gained a slight blush and her bushy dog tail wagging speed accelerated. “M-Maybe having that as an objective wouldn’t be too bad....”

Meanwhile, Yasenia had just entered Evelyn’s room and was walking with a predatory gaze toward her. Evelyn felt her loins and butt cheeks tingling, knowing she was in for a ride.

Ten minutes later, Evelyn was on all fours, moaning loudly with the dragoness pounding her from behind. Flesh against flesh sounds filled the room while Yasenia scolded Evelyn. “You are such a naughty girl!”

SLAP!

“Each time I slap your butt, you tighten so much!”

SLAP!

“Since you like it so much. How about I fill your uterus and send you to heaven!?”

SLAP!

Yasenia grabbed Evelyn’s arms and thrust deeply, making Evelyn feel her dick knocking against her cervix repeatedly. “AH! AH! AH! MORE! PUNISH ME MORE MISTRESS!!”

Yasenia’s eyebrow twitched but didn’t stop her pounding, she was also feeling extremely good.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

“AH! AH! AH! I’M CUMMING AGAIN!!!” Evelyn shouted in ecstasy.

Yasenia felt Evelyn cumming thanks to her inner spasms, and she pressed her tip on the entrance of her deepest place and let herself be carried to orgasm, releasing her hot seed inside of her. “Get filled!”

When the thick release of the dragoness filled Evelyn, she felt her uterus nerves send a pleasure wave toward her brain, which wrecked her mind in a mind-melting orgasm. “OHHHHHH!!!!”

She sprayed like a broken faucet, wetting the sheets below.

Now that Evelyn didn't even know her own name because she only had pleasure assaulting her body, Yasenia changed their session to a loving one. She placed Evelyn on her back and kissed her deeply and slowly. Then, she used her tail absorption quality to bring her down from the potent orgasm.

As she did that, Yasenia helped Evelyn equip a dick and penetrated herself, moving her waist up and down with long, deep, and slow strokes. Yasenia's voice was sensual and deep, caressing Evelyn's every sense. "Here is your reward, dear~. Do you like it~?"

Evelyn hugged the dragoness on top of her and thrust upward, feeling her warm, moist, and pleasurable insides. Yasenia used her height advantage to rest her breast on Evelyn's face, letting her dear suck on them. Evelyn did this with passion. Thrusting inside Yasenia while drinking her milk was one of Evelyn's favorite positions.

This continued until Evelyn succumbed to tiredness and fell asleep. Yasenia tenderly looked at her dear and laid her face down on the bed. Then she kissed her reddened butt cheeks tenderly.

After kissing every place as many times as she hit them, Yasenia picked her up princess carry and went to the bath. Yasenia sighed, 'I will never be completely comfortable with my dear's demands... But well, she likes it a lot....'

While washing her, Yasenia smiled helplessly and tapped Evelyn's nose, "You are such a naughty girl, dear. But don't worry, this dragoness will fulfill any demands you have~."

She went out and kissed her on the lips one last time. Then she passed Evelyn to Alaia and ordered the same she did to Flora and Selena. Alaia bowed and carried Evelyn to the master bedroom.

Yasenia decided to go to Kali. She wanted to leave Cecile for last and, on the way, recharge a bit of stamina to later go to her mom. Yasenia chuckled, "Now that sweetheart is so mighty, I have to strategize~."

Yasenia's smile became a little awkward, 'Well, not really... I still would have strength even if I went to Cecile and following that, to mom. But I would be less than usual with mom...'

Yasenia sighed and then frowned, thinking. 'When will I be able to dual cultivate with honey... I want her to get the benefits of my Yang energy... Maybe, I can dual cultivate without having sex? But will she accept...? Moreover, she will know I have male sex the moment we cultivate since we will exchange energies and would be able to feel each other's body in detail....'

Yasenia thought about it. 'She is more comfortable with bigger stimulation after these weeks. Her fear of my tail coiling is over-cured since now she likes being coiled by it. Better, she seeks for me to breastfeed her from time to time... However, I haven't been able to touch any of honey's privates with my hands, only by pressing my body on hers....'

Yasenia reached Kali's room and sighed. 'Do not be impatient, Yasenia. Even if she gets behind in cultivation a little, it would be worth it if I could make the shadow of that incident reduce. I will accustom her to pleasure me so that she can gradually see that if done correctly, it is not something to fear but something marvelous that can bring us closer.'

Yasenia nodded to herself, determined. Then, she knocked on Kali's door. She heard Kali's telling her to enter, so she did. She saw Kali sitting a little stiff on top of the bed, without wearing a veil and in a nightgown covering every patch of skin.

Even then, Yasenia smiled gently and praised her, "Waiting for me without the veil~? Thank you so much, honey! I love you." Kali blushed and looked down, smiling happily.

Her recent happiest moment is when Yasenia praises her. To be honest, she loved that Yasenia genuinely praised her and did not just do it to make her more comfortable. Kali could tell that her praises were sincere. Kali answered with a stutter, "I-I love you too."

Kali saw Yasenia approaching and crouching in front of her. This position made it quite easy to see the big valley and Yasenia's seductive facial features, which always accelerated Kali's heart.

Then with a gentle smile, Yasenia's golden slit eyes looked into Kali's verdant green ones. "I was thinking of doing something new today, honey. Want to hear about it?"

Kali timidly grabbed Yasenia's hands and nodded. Yasenia interlocked their fingers and kissed Kali's hand, looking at her. The sight was very seductive and alluring but also extremely comforting for Kali.

Yasenia said, deepening her voice, "Do you want to pleasure me? I want to teach you about the joys of pleasuring your partner, the love we share with those actions, and that pleasure is not scary if done correctly."

Kali's heartbeat accelerated at the thought of it, 'M-me pleasuring Y-Yasenia? W-Would she even be able to feel something from anything I do...? M-Maybe touching down there...?'

Kali saw Yasenia's face closing in until their foreheads touched. Yasenia's slightly deep and mellow voice tingled her senses while her fragrant breath caressed her olfactory sense and tingled her lips. "I will guide you all~ the way. If you feel uncomfortable even for a moment, we will stop. What do you say, honey? Do you trust me?"

Kali still wasn't accustomed to Yasenia's seductive face, so right now, she was blushing to her ears because of their position. She could also feel Yasenia's big breasts on her chest, emphasizing their size. "O-Okay, I-let's try. I-I also want to do w-what the others d-do with you."

Yasenia closed the distance and kissed Kali softly. Even if she had plans for Kali to pleasure her, Yasenia wanted to relax Kali before they did anything.

Yasenia's sweet, soft, and plump lips made Kali limp until Kali and Yasenia were lying next to each other, exchanging saliva. Yasenia wrapped her arms around Kali's neck and buried her in her soft body. After ten minutes of kissing, Yasenia asked. "Do you like my tail, honey?"

Kali took deep breaths of the dragoness scent and let her body rest on top of Yasenia's. She loved Yasenia's squashy and warm body with all her being. Resting near her relaxed her mind, heart, and soul. She answered Yasenia, "Like...."

Yasenia said, "Honey, this is a secret, so don't tell anybody outside our family, okay?"

Kali's scarred lips arched when she heard "Our family" and nodded, snuggling closer. Yasenia kissed her forehead and said, "You see... My tail is also a sexual organ...."

Kali froze, and her eyes widened. She looked at Yasenia's face and asked incredulously, "A what?"

Chapter 163

Yasenia said, "Honey, this is a secret, so don't tell anybody outside our family, okay?"

Kali's scarred lips arched when she heard "Our family" and nodded, snuggling closer. Yasenia kissed her forehead and said, "You see... My tail is also a sexual organ...."

Kali froze, and her eyes widened. She looked at Yasenia's face and asked incredulously, "A what?"

Yasenia almost burst into laughter, seeing Kali so expressive, but got a hold of herself. She moved her tail tip until it was between their faces. Then, she changed it into the sex shape, which imitated the form of a penis, and said, "A sexual organ."

Kali looked at the tip that was now cylindrical with the top part a little wider and very slightly frowned. However, the dragoness caught the slight change in expression, and Yasenia instantly changed her tail to a normal dragon tail. Yasenia hugged Kali closer and asked, concerned, "Are you okay, honey? Are you uncomfortable? Did any bad memories resurface?"

Kali was startled. Yasenia had reacted so fast that Kali didn't even have the time to feel that rising discomfort that began rising, and before she knew it, the dragoness was already consoling her. Kali couldn't help but smile, not caring about her facial features, and said, "Nothing like that, don't worry, Yasenia. I'm okay."

Yasenia pecked her lips and softly reprimanded, "How could I not worry, honey? Do not say stupid things. If you feel any discomfort, you must tell me! I will do all I can to make it disappear. And I won't accept buts! Even if I can more or less read you, I'm not a mind reader!"

Kali couldn't help but think, 'Is she a dragoness or a saint? How was I so lucky to meet someone like her?'

Kali reassured the worried dragoness, "Nothing is wrong, just a slight discomfort when I saw its shape, but it disappeared shortly after. Moreover, because the tail is golden and scaled, it has quite a big censuring power..."

Yasenia looked at Kali's eyes for a moment and nodded with a smile, "Good~ Let's try again, okay? If the feeling becomes even slightly uncomfortable, you must tell me, okay?"

Kali nodded and chuckled, "Such a worrywart."

Yasenia snorted and said playfully, "You dare call me a worrywart? As punishment, I will show you my strongest technique! Dragoness tickling and kissing attack!"

And therefore, unable to resist this all-powerful attack, Kali burst into laughter while receiving kisses from the dragoness. "Stop! Hahaha, Yasenia, hahaha. Kiss You are tickling me too much! Hahaha!"

The dragoness continued her attack for a short moment. After leaving Kali breathing heavily, Yasenia asked, lying on top of Kali, with a smirk. "Let's see if you dare call me a worrywart again~."

Kali answered with a chuckle, "This only makes me want to call you that even more."

Yasenia smirked, "Ho ho~ I didn't know that honey was a pervert that likes being punished!"

Kali raised an eyebrow, “That was a punishment? Then, I’m eager for the rewards!”

Yasenia put her mouth beside her ear and whispered seductively, deepening her voice. “Wait for them then. You will like them so much that your brain will only register the reward and nothing more~.”

Kali blushed and gulped. Yasenia’s voice, when she whispered like that, was making her body tingle and starting a fire in her navel.

Yasenia moved her face, dragging her lips through her scarred cheeks, leaving a trail of little tap kisses. Kali took a shaky breath and turned her head to meet Yasenia’s lips with hers. Their lips met, and Kali moved hers, tasting the creamy and soft lips in front of her mouth. Yasenia had to stealthily raise her waist not to let Kali notice her bulging rod.

Yasenia and Kali kissed for a while and then separated. Yasenia asked, “Are you prepared, honey? I will show you my tail again, okay?”

Kali nodded, looking with watery and tender eyes at her lover. Then, Yasenia moved her tail tip in front of them again in the sexual form. Kali looked at the golden phallus and didn’t feel much but a slight discomfort. “I only feel slight discomfort....”

Yasenia thought to herself, ‘Is it as Kali said? Even if the form is similar, the color and scales make it less... Visual? Well, this is good news; I can use this to transition to the real deal later on.’

Yasenia looked down at Kali and wiggled her tail while speaking, “As I was saying, my tail is also a sexual organ. I can use it... Well, as if it was the real deal, I can also feel pleasure from it.”

Kali was surprised again, “Y-your tail, going inside?”

Yasenia nodded. Kali frowned and looked at the thick and long tail. “Wouldn’t it be painful? I’ve seen you block heaven-rank weapons with your tail....”

Yasenia smiled and asked, still lying on top of Kali. “Can you grab it?”

Kali looked at it and slowly moved her hand, and frowned. ‘I should be able to grab it if I force myself, but I can feel the discomfort growing... I think I should tell Yasenia and not force myself....’

Kali looked apologetically at Yasenia and said, “I feel more and more discomfort the closer I put my hand to it... S-Sorry, Yasenia... Even though it is your body part.... I-I can’t.”

Yasenia smiled gently and lowered her face to kiss her again. This time the kiss was slow and deep. Kali sighed in comfort as the dragoness kissed her while lying on top of her. Yasenia’s long tongue filling her mouth always made her feel extremely comfortable. ‘She tastes divine; I could kiss her all day long without being tired of it.’

After the kiss, Yasenia said, “Then, let’s stop here. We will advance with my tail daily. Let’s try to get you to touch it as fast as we can, without forcing yourself too much, okay honey?”

Kali nodded and timidly asked, a little reluctant to move forward with the relationship. “U-umm, is there a reason you suddenly wanted to advance the relationship more? I-I think that we are quite good right now....”

Yasenia looked at her and was able to read her quite easily. 'Is she afraid that the relationship may worsen if we advance?'

Yasenia didn't expose her. She shook her head and answered while caressing her chestnut-colored hair. "I want to dual cultivate with you, Kali. But dual cultivating with me is extremely pleasurable, so I want to prepare you for it."

Kali asked, doubtful, "Is it that bad?"

Yasenia looked into her verdant green eyes and said, "I can make Angel, Cecile, Andrea, and Evelyn faint from pleasure every day. That is controlling myself, or they would have Yin deficiency problems."

Kali's eyes widened, this time completely shocked. "H-How could you make four Mental Nourishing Cultivators faint with dual cultivation alone!? M-Moreover, isn't Cecile someone with an extreme Yin constitution? She should have extraordinary sexual stamina."

Yasenia rose and placed the sheets over Kali, "From what my maids told me. My sexual prowess is in the same level as a succubus and an incubus of the highest order put together without using techniques."

Kali looked seriously at Yasenia and asked, "Who told you that? Are you sure they weren't exaggerating?"

Yasenia said, "They were Anna, Eve, and Selena."

Kali contemplated, 'If it was those three, they shouldn't be wrong... Especially Anna and Eve who are medical experts way above most in medical knowledge and expertise.'

Another kiss on her lips interrupted Kali's wandering thought. "Don't worry about it, honey. You will understand when we start dual cultivating. For now, you should sleep. I'm sorry if I wake you up with my nightmares these days."

Kali shook her head and said, her voice grateful. "I-I don't care; I've been having fewer and fewer nightmares since I slept beside you... I will gladly help you with them."

Yasenia smiled and said, "Sleep, honey. I will be beside you until you fall asleep."

Then, Yasenia patted her head while she hummed the lullaby she hummed yesterday night to the sleeping Kali. Yasenia's voice was soothing, relaxing, and pleasant to listen to. Kali closed her eyes and relaxed her body, 'Why do I find this song familiar...? Listening to it makes me relax....'

Yasenia continued humming until Kali fell deeply asleep. Then she stood up slowly and left.

While walking toward Cecile's room, Yasenia was looking through the windows and smiling with a wagging tail, 'Although she found it uncomfortable, she should be able to touch it tomorrow or the day after if she forces herself a little more. Better, we won't be entering the "too much forcing" bracket. Moreover, the fact that she told me and didn't force herself is a big jump in trust and decision-making~. That means that she trusts me a lot~ So happy!'

Yasenia reached Cecile's room and entered. Cecile was waiting for her while reading a cultivation book. Yasenia jogged toward her with a happy smile. Cecile chuckled and opened her left big silver wing and arm, to which Yasenia jumped, impacting her.

Cecile grunted with a smile after the impact of the dragoness and closed the wing and arm. She looked to the side and saw Yaseenia's happy smile infecting her face with one too. "What is making you so happy, my love?"

Yaseenia recounted what happened with Kali. Cecile kissed her forehead and said, "Good job, my love. What do you want to do now?"

Yaseenia snuggled closer to Cecile, breathing her refreshing scent, and growled coquettishly. "Maybe some action~?"

Cecile used her tails to entangle Yaseenia and put the book aside. Cecile's voice became seductive and said, "Does my dragoness want to be filled with my fluids~?"

Yaseenia nodded and whispered seductively, "I also want to fill your back entrance~."

They both got naked, and Cecile equipped her dick. Then she penetrated Yaseenia while letting her tail penetrate her buttohole. Then the phoenix dominated the dragoness, making her cum from her three sexes and receiving inside her the white, thick, and electrifying sperm.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Cecile had violet eyes as she looked into Yaseenia's pink ones. She was on her knees with Yaseenia's tail deeply buried in her butt and grabbing the dragoness's waist, pounding her into oblivion. Yaseenia had her back on the bed and was open-legged, making her big breasts and dick bounce each time their flesh hit together. "AH! AH! AH! I'm cumming! AHHH!"

Yaseenia came from her three sexes spurting cum over her own belly and breasts while filling Cecile with her tail. Cecile felt Yaseenia's inner muscles spasming, wiggling, and tightening, making the pleasure nerves in her dick flare up and elevating her to orgasm. Moreover, the orgasmic semen filling her butt made her moan with delight. "So good!"

However, Cecile's waist didn't stop. She continued penetrating Yaseenia while both continued the orgasm, elevating their pleasure further.

One hour and a half later, Cecile was completely drained, and Yaseenia was bathing her, cleaning her silver wings, tails, hair, and body meticulously. She didn't let even a single feather out.

Cecile fell asleep comfortably thanks to the dragoness's ministrations while Yaseenia cleaned her wings. It wasn't an easy task, and Yaseenia only carried her outside after a one-hour bath, "Clara, carry her up. Be careful with her wings and tails."

Clara chuckled, "Don't worry, young miss. Miss Cecile won't even know how she got onto your bed." Clara used her energy instead of her arms to make Cecile float, careful not to wake her up.

Yaseenia nodded and went toward Tatyana's room. She entered and greeted Tatyana. "How was your day, mom?"

Tatyana was on her desk, with some papers in front of her. She used her energy to levitate her big girl onto her lap. "Not bad. I spoke to Elder Irina about your sword in detail and took care of post-war administration."

Yaseenia hugged her neck and looked at Tatyana working.

Yasenia reached Tatyana's study room and entered while greeting her. "How was your day, mom?"

Tatyana was on her desk, with some papers in front of her. When Yasenia entered, she used her energy to levitate her big girl onto her lap. "Not bad. I spoke to Elder Irina about your sword in detail and took care of post-war administration..."

Yasenia hugged her neck and looked at Tatyana working; seeing papers appear and disappear with blurring speed was interesting in its own way. While working at unnatural speeds, Tatyana said, caressing the base of her tail, "It seems that Cecile has improved a lot in sexual stamina. You are three-quarters empty."

Yasenia nodded happily but then said, "But she has the same problem as I have... Since she has marked me, her instincts to breed are strong.... I've been this close to impregnating her more often than I would like..."

Tatyana continued working with her left hand as she sneaked the right hand into Yasenia's skirt. Yasenia pressed her face on Tatyana's neck and growled softly, feeling the slim and long beautiful fingers massaging her soft and plump lower lips. Tatyana asked with a sensual voice. "Do you want to do it, little treasure?"

Yasenia licked Tatyana's neck and basically purred in her neck. "I want to~."

Tatyana left the paperwork and carried Yasenia onto the bed, placing her back on the headboard. Since the time they did this position, it has become one of their favorites. After disrobing, she straddled Yasenia and penetrated herself. Their movements were slow and tender, trying to feel each other through their connected genitals. As they moved, their bodies pressed together, and they exchanged a deep kiss.

They continued like that until Yasenia came twice inside Tatyana, elevating Tatyana to an orgasm.

After getting filled twice in that position, Tatyana changed to other positions and used her other holes until Yasenia couldn't go on. Then, with a warm tummy, she bathed Yasenia and carried her to her room.

(Author Note: END of the small R-18 scene)

When they finished, it was deep into the night. Yasenia was tired and fell asleep while Tatyana carried her toward her room. Tatyana looked at her and smiled, 'She really looks good when she sleeps. Her facial features soften, and the moon's glow gives her an ethereal and gentle beauty...'

Yasenia's activity of making love, speaking to her lovers, and then bathing them lasted for almost four hours, finishing only deep into the night. Even if it would seem a bother, Yasenia loved this part of the day because she knew that she was keeping her dears happy and satisfied.

Moreover, bathing them after their lovemaking filled the dragoness's heart with warm feelings. Even if Yasenia had to reduce her sleeping time, she was more than happy to do so.

Tatyana looked at Yasenia's sleeping face while walking slowly toward the master bedroom. She could see that she was tired, but the happy smile on the corner of her lips stopped her from saying anything to her little treasure.

Tatyana reached the room and placed them around Yasenia in the normal position. Andrea to the left, then Evelyn, Yasenia, Kali, Tatyana, and Cecile, with Angel, of course, on top of Yasenia.

When she placed Yasenia on the bed, Tatyana smirked, seeing them closing on the dragoness instinctually. She was about to move Angel, but she saw the little girl's nose twitching and then sleepwalk until she landed on top of Yasenia. Better, when Angel's head landed on Yasenia's breasts, Tatyana heard her mewl, "So comfy~."

Tatyana had to control herself, or she would burst into laughter. 'Now I'm getting reluctant to move Angel... My little treasure will hurt her if she stays on top of her...'

Tatyana thought for a moment and decided not to lie on the bed with them. 'Anyway, I can't sleep. I might as well stay here and look at them.'

So she moved them and placed Angel between Kali and Yasenia. Tatyana nodded, satisfied, and took out an ancient-looking book and an extremely high-grade chair. Then, she sat and began reading, waiting for Yasenia to begin her nightmares.

This night was a repeat of the previous one. Yasenia began getting restless, and after a short moment, she started roaring menacingly. Tatyana didn't even waste a second to lay on top of Yasenia, protecting the others and the bed from the whipping tail and aura bursts of Yasenia.

Of course, Tatyana didn't bother placing a sound canceling barrier. She wanted to see their reaction to this. 'Will there be annoyance? Reluctance? Maybe regret toward sleeping with her?'

When the others heard Yasenia's roar, they all woke up with a start and hastily looked toward Yasenia. They saw Tatyana hugging Yasenia while Yasenia scratched her back and bit her. Tatyana's voice was gentle and soothing as she spoke to Yasenia, reassuring her unceasingly.

Andrea said with a slightly hoarse voice from just waking up; however, you could also hear a silver of concern in her voice. "No wonder she was against us sleeping with her... Was her previous night this bad, Tatyana?"

Tatyana nodded without stopping her coaxing. Cecile said, "Can I move beside her, girls? I want to surround her with my wings. My aura and scent should be able to help her relax."

The others didn't argue and nodded, leaving space on the other side of Yasenia. Cecile hugged her from behind, placing her tail between her legs, and used her wings and tails to surround Yasenia. The others looked attentively to see Yasenia's reaction. When they saw her struggles lessening and her tail tightening around Tatyana and Cecile, they let out a sigh of relief.

Evelyn had a small smile on her face as she whispered, "It seems that it is working very nicely... Look, she is now licking them, hahaha, so cute~."

Angel asked quietly, a little concerned, "Why are Yasenia's nightmares so bad?"

Tatyana opened a mental channel between all of them and answered, "The fight was very impacting for her, especially when she received the full burn of Tian Long's aura. I can more or less see what she is dreaming. They are mainly scenarios when she losses someone dear because of her weakness... It seems that small insecurities have sprouted in her heart. Thankfully, they haven't become a heart demon."

Andrea frowned and asked, “Will they become a hear demon? I don’t want that to happen, so I rather prevent it.”

Tatyana shook her head, “Don’t worry, it is almost impossible for Yasenias to sprout heart demons. Her heart is extremely strong and her mentality and foundation are rock solid. If it was another dragon-kin of the same level in her position that day, they would have directly become Tian Long’s slave and would have become submissive toward him.”

Kali asked, “Weren’t you scared that that would have happened to Yasenias, Mother-in-law?”

Tatyana said, “As I said, there is nothing to worry about. Yasenias’s bloodline level is a notch higher than Tian Long’s, which I find absurd, so even if he can intimidate her, she will never show submissive feelings, well, unless she fell in love with him, which is even more impossible.”

They nodded and laid again on the bed, surrounding Tatyana and Cecile and leaving Yasenias in the middle. The night passed, and morning came. Yasenias woke up groggily and looked around. She saw Tatyana hugging her from the front and felt Cecile hugging her from behind. Cecile’s cool wings surrounded her comfortably, and her soft feathers were similar to a blanket.

Tatyana spoke softly, “Good morning, little treasure. Did you sleep well?”

Yasenias nodded and said, her voice with a hoarse sensual tone from just waking up, “Very well~. Thank you for the hug, mom, sweetheart.”

Cecile, already awake, chuckled from behind, “You moved so much, my love. No wonder you didn’t want us to sleep together.”

Yasenias turned and kissed Cecile, “Was I a bother?”

Cecile answered, “Of course not. Now that I know what you go through at night, I will sleep with you daily to cocoon you in my embrace.”

Yasenias smiled and looked at the others, who were still asleep. “Are they tired because of me?”

Tatyana said with a smirk, “Well, you are not wrong~.”

Yasenias got the innuendo and chuckled. She waited until everybody woke up, and they started the day cultivating.

Like this, a month went by.

Yasenias was getting closer to Kali, and the others were advancing their cultivation like a rocket... Except for Kali, who was still at the fifth level. Even with Yasenias’s reassurance, Kali was becoming a little self-conscious after seeing everyone advance so fast.

Because of this, she forced herself too much some nights, leading to slight problems with her heart demons. Nothing that some cuddling with the dragoness couldn’t solve. But Kali was... “Punished,” by Yasenias after those events.

Today, Kali was determined to advance that step and touch Yasenias’s tail tip in her sex form and advance a little more.

Meanwhile, Yasenias was going with Tatyana and Andrea toward Elder Irina’s smithy.

The main building was not very big, with just four floors, but another building that dwarfed the frontal one was about two kilometers behind it. Its size was so big that the main building appeared more like a single-floor house in front of a one-hundred-floor skyscraper. It was mainly black-colored with different white, red, and golden-colored complex formations and runes. Its form was extremely simple being rectangular.

Yasenia was impressed and asked, “Why is it so big?”

Tatyana said, “She is the Academy’s main blacksmith, and sometimes she has to create very big things. Spatial formations can interfere with delicate and intricate works in the creation phase. Therefore, the size is as you see. It is quite impressive when that massive building moves around to let things go inside and outside.”

While Tatyana explained some more things, they entered the building. There, a healthy but slightly elderly woman was waiting for them. She had a light tan, and her body was muscular but perfectly proportioned, emitting beauty in her roughness. Her hair was red-colored with some white hairs on her temples.

Elder Irina approached and gave a big slap on Andrea’s back. “You are truly lucky! To think you are able to become a part of Little Yasenia’s harem, hahaha.”

Andrea chuckled painfully while caressing her back. Elder Irina looked at Yasenia with a gentle smile and said, “Do you remember me, child?”

Yasenia looked at her confused but suddenly remembered an aunt that played with her when she was little and had loud laughter. Her eyes opened, and she asked, “You are aunt Rina!?”

Elder Irina laughed happily, “So you do remember me!”

Yasenia went forward and hugged her with a wagging tail. “Why didn’t you come to visit again!? I had a lot of fun learning with you!”

Elder Irina was as tall as Yasenia, so she could easily pat her head. “That is because there was a big jealous bug-”

BANG!

Yasenia was stumped when Elder Irina practically disappeared from her arms. She looked at Tatyana, who was exactly in the same place with the same smile and facial expression, doubtful. Meanwhile, Elder Irina stepped out of the hole she did on the wall, unharmed. “What was that for, Tatyana?”

Tatyana played silly, “It wasn’t me~. Did you see me move? I have stayed in my place all this time~.”

The three of them looked at her with a deadpan expression. Elder Irina nodded and said, “Because a half-step Transcendence level cultivator can suddenly fly away because something hit her, right?”

Tatyana nodded with a serious face, “Especially when they say things that can embarrass a level two demigoddess before her daughter.”

Yasenia and Andrea laughed, and Elder Irina shook her head, “Let’s get to business, little Yasenia, follow me. Andrea, you come too; this will be very educational.”

They followed through the luxurious halls and corridors until they reached a tall door, at least ten meters tall. Tatyana raised her eyebrow, surprised. “You are going to use your main smithy?”

Elder Irina snorted, “Do you think you are the only one who wants to spoil her? She asked for my help, so I will do the best I can!”

Yasenia went to her side and hugged her arm, “Thank you, Aunt Rina.”

Elder Irina laughed happily, “Do not worry, little Yasenia! Your mom and I have known each other for many thousands of years already. Calling you my niece wouldn’t be an exaggeration! Therefore, Aunt Rina will do the best she can!”

After she heard that Elder Irina was friends with Tatyana, Yasenia’s eyes sparkled with happiness, “I hope aunt Rina can continue to be friends with mom!”

Elder Irina found her choice of words strange but nodded with a smile. “If my little niece tells me to, how could I not listen to her!”

Tatyana knew why Yasenia was saying this, and her face became gentle. She stepped forward and grabbed her hand. She didn’t mind clearing some doubts, so she explained through a mental link, ‘She said that because she doesn’t know anything “good” that has happened to me long ago and still lasts today. Probably she has linked our friendship as a good thing.’

Elder Irina understood and looked with a gentle smile to Yasenia. ‘You’ve softened up a lot since you had her, Tatyana. I hope you find that happiness you’ve been searching for with her and stop thinking about that stupid technique. You know that its chances of being successful are abysmal.’

Tatyana didn’t answer, but her hand tightened a little more on Yasenia’s. To be honest, Yasenia was her last try to find happiness in life. If she doesn’t manage to achieve it even with her, then...

When they opened the doors, an extreme heatwave washed over them. Elder Irina protected Andrea with her aura, and Tatyana protected Yasenia in the same way.

Inside the smithy was a world of fire and metal. Different machines of different sizes filled the room, and several materials were glowing red and changing forms with automated machinery. This automatic functionality was very limited but useful for all the tedious stuff. The way to make them automated was with high-grade formations and rare materials that had memory. These materials were semi-sentient and could be used in different ways.

There also exists sentient and even sapient materials, but these are always of an extremely high ranking and rarity. Some weapons, armors, or other tools that were used often could also gain sentience and sapience if the quality was high enough.

Elder Irina looked around and disappeared from the spot. Right after, sounds of metal against metal echoed through the enormous smithy in different places. Elder Irina wanted to leave everything aside to be with Yasenia for a while, so she was preparing for that and giving the last touches to some things she was making here.

In Yasenia’s and Andrea’s eyes, some things suddenly changed places, changed forms, and red, gold, and black formations lit up everywhere. It was an astonishingly beautiful spectacle. Tatyana said, “She is retouching some things she is creating right now. The reason we are protecting you is that the current heat inside the smithy is enough to kill high-level unification realm cultivators. Not to mention the two of you.”

Yasenia curiously took out a magic-ranked metal piece and threw it toward a place where there was nothing. When the metal left the protective bubble, it became a liquid in three seconds and then evaporated. Yasenia opened her eyes, stunned. ‘Metal evaporated!?’

Andrea and Tatyana laughed, seeing her expression. Andrea said, “It has been a while since I entered here. I think it was four years ago? Seeing all of this brings memories back...”

Elder Irina appeared before them, sweating a little, and said to Andrea. “There wasn’t any reason for you to come here since you got that heaven-rank smelting machine. By the way, I’m still waiting for another heaven-ranked treasure from you! Have you been slacking?”

Andrea scratched her cheek, “I haven’t been seriously smiting for a while. I’m focusing more on cultivation. With Yasenia running behind me, I can’t slack in cultivation, or I would be overtaken before I know it.”

Elder Irina nodded in understanding, “With my talented niece behind you, I bet you are feeling pressure for the first time!”

Andrea was speechless. “You’ve appropriated of that title quite fast, master. Doesn’t your cheeks burn?”

Yasenia hugged Andrea and tiptoed to bite her chin, “Do you have any problem with Aunt Rina, mmm~?”

Andrea laughed and kissed Yasenia, “None.”

Elder Irina smirked and said, “Enough with the dog food; we’ve come here for a reason! Take out your sword, Yasenia! Let’s unravel its mysteries~.”

Yasenia and Andrea chuckled and separated. Then, Yasenia took out [Draconic Heart]. Elder Irina’s face turned serious, and she looked at it. After touching it through the edge, she frowned slightly and said. “Yasenia, try cultivating while holding it.”

Yasenia sat cross-legged, placed the sword on her lap, and emptied her mind. It didn’t take long before she began circulating her energy and making the energy around her gather toward her. Then she started absorbing it.

The Moon, Sun, and star elements separated from the world’s energy and entered Yasenia through her pores. Then, this energy circulated around her meridians, nourishing her body. The energy that wasn’t absorbed by the body reached her dantian, elevating her energy amount.

Elder Irina saw how the sword absorbed all the energy Yasenia couldn’t absorb and went through complicated circuits inside the sword toward its glowing red core. The red core seemed like a bottomless abyss as it absorbed energy without disrupting Yasenia.

Yasenia continued cultivating for two hours straight while Elder Irina didn’t lose concentration for a second. Then, she nodded and told Yasenia that she could stop.

She went forward and took the sword from her. Then, she tapped the ground once with her feet, and formations lit up on the far right. Some training dummies appeared.

The ten dummies were made from different materials, growing in durability the further they were to the right.

Elder Irina approached the dummy in the middle and swung the sword with unification realm strength.

Yasenia and Andrea saw a blur followed by a loud metallic sound.

CLANG!

The sword didn't pierce the dummy's exterior, just creating a slight dent. You could see the marvel in Elder Irina's face. "This sword is... It goes against a lot of concepts I learned... How can it be so resilient yet dull...."

They continued hearing murmurs like this coming from Elder Irina. Then, Elder Irina moved one dummy to the right and used low-level Dantian Spiritualization strength.

This time, Yasenia and Andrea didn't even see the shadow of the sword.

CLAAANG!!

The dummy only had a single scratch on the surface, but what made Elder Irina awestruck was that the sword was impeccable. Even if it looked ancient and slightly worn out, after the hit, nothing changed. There wasn't even a nick on the sword.

Then she asked, "Little Yasenia, can I swing it with real strength? If it breaks, I will create a transcendent ranked sword for you."

Yasenia nodded, "This sword seems to have some secrets, but I will trust aunt Irina."

Elder Irina's smile grew like a child with a new toy, and she said without losing the smile. "Come with me~ We are going to test this baby!"

They walked through the smithy, passing different objects that were mid-creation. Some seemed weapons, others giant cages, some ship parts also could be seen, and entire buildings that were made of metal... In short, there were plenty of things around.

They reached an unassuming door, not taller than three meters, and entered.

On the other side, there was a room bigger than the smithy behind them, but it was completely empty. Its walls were white, and the floor was light brown colored. "This is one of the few places that can resist against Transcendent realm strength. Don't move from Tatyana's side, this will get dangerous."

Yasenia and Andrea weren't strangers to the Transcendence realm cultivator's strength, so they obeyed without complaints. Elder Irina prepared [Draconic Heart] and circulated her energy. A scorching aura spread around the whole place, giving the ambient a reddish hue. Space slightly trembled as Elder Irina gathered the energy inside her body.

However, when Elder Irina's energy reached the sword...

BOOM!

She lost control of all of that massive amount of energy, and it exploded violently from the handle.

Elder Irina had been prepared for any situation but this one! She hastily tried to release the handle, not expecting that reaction, but it was too late.

The explosion hit her squarely on the side, and the explosion blasted her away with a mangled arm and internal organs misplaced!

Bang!

She hit the wall on the side, splashing blood, and slid downward.

Yasenia, Andrea, and even Tatyana were surprised at what happened. They looked where Elder Irina previously was, and only the sword was there, laid on the ground as if nothing had happened. When Elder Irina appeared before them again, their eyes widened.

Blood covered the side of her body, and deep gashes could be seen in some places. However, most of the injuries had stopped bleeding and were already regenerating.

Yasenia went toward her and asked, concerned, “Are you ok, Aunt Rina? What happened?”

Elder Irina patted her head with her good and clean arm and laughed spiritedly, “To think we had such a treasure in our armory all these years! I will have to revise our inventory to see if there are more hidden treasures like this one. Tatyana, where did this sword come from?”

Tatyana shrugged, “I had it in my ring and left it in the academy. I don’t know when did it appear in it. Probably as I looted dead bodies.”

Elder Irina sighed, “You are always like this; no wonder Xiao Xian is a little crazy....”

Yasenia asked, curious, “Who is that person?”

Tatyana said, “She is the one I refer people to after they join us... She also manages a lot of my affairs, including my secondary treasury. For the curious, the main one is managed by me and only me.”

Tatyana continued, speaking to no one. “Remember the crazy person Gilda, the slave house owner, spoke to? The one that wanted to burn the world? That’s her.”

They became confused, and Yasenia asked. “Who are you talking to, mom?”

Tatyana tiptoed and patted her head, “I wasn’t speaking to you, little treasure. Don’t worry; my crazy mind was just going overdrive... So, what’s wrong with the sword?”

Elder Irina was accustomed to these “speaking to the air” outbursts, so she answered calmly while her wounds regenerated at a visible speed. “This sword has sentience. Moreover, the will inside of it is so strong that it was able to counterattack using my own energy.... Now that I know how it works, I could definitely use it, but I don’t want to risk it. It seems that it has chosen Yasenia as its wilder, and it won’t let anybody else swing it with real strength.”

Elder Irina smirked and said, “If I’m not wrong, this sword is from before the Heavenly Cataclysm. I can’t tell you exactly what rank it will be, but after evolving, it should reach at least the transcendent rank, if not higher. Moreover, its quality is very high. Can you come from time to time to let me see it, little Yasenia? I can also teach you cooking-.”

“YES!” Answered the excited dragoness instantly. Even her tail was showing her excitement with speedy wags. They couldn’t help but laugh out loud after seeing Yasenia’s eagerness.

Speaking of cooking so suddenly made Yaseenia remember her problem with energy. Even if Tatyana had told her that she shouldn't worry much, she wanted to start as soon as possible. Therefore, she asked Elder Irina, hoping she could shed some light on it. She tried to go the roundabout way. "Aunt Irina, how much would it cost for you to do tools that I can use for spirit cooking?"

Tatyana raised her eyebrow, amused at Yaseenia's poor try to cover her intent, and sent her a mental message to Elder Irina, explaining Yaseenia's problems. After hearing them, Elder Irina laughed and said, "You want to hire me for that? Oh, little Yaseenia, I'm too expensive for that. Not even me treating you like my niece will change that."

Yaseenia sighed. She already saw it coming. 'No shortcuts, huh?'

Andrea won't let her dragoness be down, so she asked, "Then teach me, master. I would love to create something for Yaseenia."

Yaseenia's eyes sparkled, and she threw herself in her embrace. Andrea caught the soft and voluptuous body with a smile. Elder Irina said, "I will start teaching you when you create another middle-level heaven-ranked treasure."

Andrea grimaced, 'I've created my silver armor and halberd by sheer luck... I can only create earth-ranked treasures with consistency.'

Yaseenia looked at Andrea and kissed her neck, "Don't worry, darling. I don't mind waiting for it."

Andrea kissed her forehead and answered, "I will work hard and create them soon. I can't let my love without her cooking tools for too long, right?"

Yaseenia nodded with a happy smile and snuggled in her embrace. Elder Irina continued speaking. "Probably you already know, but this sword will feed off the residual energy you create while cultivating. Moreover, it is extremely durable, so don't fear clashing with higher-ranked swords. You can also use it as a shield... In short, keep in mind this extreme hardness."

Yaseenia nodded. Elder Irina said, "To end with today's investigation, I want to see you fight with it. Andrea spar with her; let's see how much you have improved since you started training with my little niece!"

Chapter 166

Elder Irina said, "To end with today's investigation, I want to see you fight with it. Andrea spar with her; let's see how much you have improved since you started training with my little niece!"

Andrea and Yaseenia moved and positioned themselves 500m apart.

Yaseenia took out her [Dragon heart] and Andrea her [Molten Red Gold Halberd]. Then, they looked at each other and smirked, chanting at the same time.

"[Celestial Dress]."

"[Chromosphere]."

A tight-fitting and long silver, golden and white dress covered Yaseenia, multiplying all her powers manifold. The beauty of the dress with the current aura release of the dragoness made her appear as if a celestial being had just descended on the battlefield.

Tatyana and Elder Irina raised an eyebrow, impressed.

At the same time, a molten heavy armor covered Andrea completely, releasing infernal temperatures around her. With the double armor, Andrea was like a juggernaut made out of molten metal, holding an imposing halberd.

Yasenia smiled and said, "It looks imposing! You finally completed your [Chromosphere]~."

Andrea spoke through the molten helmet, giving her deep voice a menacing tone. "Your [Celestial dress] looks great in you, love. However, won't you trip with such a long trail?"

Yasenia laughed charmingly and said, "It is made of energy~."

Yasenia passed her leg through the dress as if it wasn't there. "As you can see, I can pass through it. However, don't be fooled, darling; this dress has some tricks besides multiplying my strength~."

Andrea laughed and said, "Let's discover those secrets! [Molten spear]!"

A ten-meter-long spear made of superheated metal appeared beside her, and a part of her [Chromosphere] detached and then inflated and changed forms, creating another spear with an orange color almost instantly.

Yasenia was so surprised that she exclaimed, "Your armor can duplicate your skills!? Wow~. Darling, you are so mighty~."

Andrea smirked and pointed at Yasenia. "Be careful, love."

The spears accelerated abruptly, shooting toward Yasenia with blurring speed. Yasenia smiled and grabbed the right side of her long skirt. Then she waved it before her, creating a white curtain made of the dress in front of her.

Andrea raised an eyebrow as the spears and dress collided in a big explosion. Molten metal covered an area of 50 meters, but there wasn't a single drop beside Yasenia. Moreover, Yasenia was unharmed, and the dress's skirt didn't even show burning marks. Andrea was surprised, "That is stronger than I thought."

Andrea smiled happily inside the helmet, "You finally have a defensive skill other than [Full Moon]. Congratulations, my love."

Yasenia smiled and leaned forward, then she put strength in her legs and burst toward Andrea like a cannonball, [Draconic Heart] in hand. "Darling, I'm a heavy hitter now~ be careful! [Sun charge]!"

Yasenia stomped midcharge again, pointing her sword toward Andrea. Golden flames consumed her sword as she became a golden meteor with terrible momentum.

Andrea wasn't left behind. As soon as Yasenia leaned forward, she was also preparing to charge toward Yasenia. Andrea used [Solar charge], gaining strength along the way and charging straight toward Yasenia.

Then, the two collided.

BOOM!

A heatwave consumed everything within 200 meters around them!

When they collided, Andrea's [Chromosphere] cracked everywhere as she grunted painfully. Her feet left the ground and shot backward like a bullet! While flying midair, Andrea smiled helplessly, 'Heave hitter indeed. Thankfully my double armor protected me from most of the damage.'

Yasenia laughed out loud, almost unharmed by their collision, and charged after Andrea, "I'm coming for you, darling! Hahaha!"

After hearing her, Andrea shook her head while chuckling. She landed expertly, and then she smirked and played dirty, "Love, I think you broke my arms...."

Yasenia continued charging forward with a worried face. When she reached beside Andrea and was about to ask if she wanted to stop, Yasenia saw Andrea's halberd flashing toward her from the side. Yasenia hastily lifted her dress and placed the sword behind it, holding it with one hand.

CLANG!

To Andrea's surprise, the halberd rebounded on the dress without even reaching the sword. 'Just how durable is this dress!? Even if I didn't use any skills, it only has a scratch after receiving a middle-level Heaven weapon!'

Then, when the dress dropped, she saw Yasenia pouting and making a rising strike with her sword. Andrea smiled wryly. "Stupid Andrea! [Sunrise]!"

BANG!

Andrea used her [Chromosphere] to tank the strike, but even with that, she felt like a carriage had just rammed her. The dragoness's absurd strength sent her flying again; this time, there truly were slight fractures in her bones. Andrea didn't know whether to laugh or cry, 'Isn't she too strong?'

With her new [Celestial Dress], the burst in cultivation to level three, and the [Sun enhancing pill], Yasenia's strength took a big leap again. Even if she wasn't as strong as Isla in her transformed state, she was closing on her with a scary speed.

Yasenia then shot forward again toward Andrea with the intent of beating her up for deceiving her. "I'm coming for you, darling~!" Andrea didn't know whether to be excited or scared after hearing that sentence, but after analyzing her situation, she decided to be scared.

For the two spectators, it was as if Yasenia was playing by throwing Andrea with each swing of her sword. However, Elder Irina was extremely satisfied because the way Andrea received the strikes mitigated most of the damage, allowing Andrea to resist Yasenia's strikes even when there was a big difference in strength.

Andrea managed to stop herself with extreme agility you wouldn't expect from such a juggernaut. Then, she used [Prominence], making molten pillars shoot upward, changing the surroundings, and she prepared to receive the charging dragoness.

Yasenia reached beside her with her sword pointing up. Then she lowered it. "[Sunset]!"

The air visibly compressed below the sword as it fell wrapped in flames.

Andrea met her giant sword with her halberd, using [Solar Rising Strike].

When the weapons collided with a loud clang, Andrea let the weapon absorb the momentum, allowing it to be blasted backward without losing her grip. The remaining impetus sent Andrea back, but she let her feet slide, transferring the rest of the attack to the ground and avoiding being blasted backward again.

Yasenia's eyes sparkled seeing such masterful control, and Elder Irina nodded with praise. However, Tatyana was frowning slightly, not happy with her daughter's performance.

Yasenia continued showering Andrea with her love- Cough attacks, with her attacks, making Andrea slide through the training area. But looking closely, Andrea was sliding less and less, gaining maneuvering room in their interchanges. 'Even if I can't win, I can drag the battle all I can.'

However, she suddenly saw Yasenia make a full swing with all her strength.

BANG!

The brute force of the sword almost made her feet leave the ground again. While she slid backward, she heard Yasenia say, "I'm going to use [Dusk] darling~ Prepare your defenses~."

Andrea opened her eyes wide and used three skills consecutively.

"[Metal enhancement]." Her armor and halberd became a lot sturdier, rising from middle-level to the high-level heaven rank.

"[Molten Shield]." A ten-meter-wide oval disc appeared before her. Following that, a part of her [Chromosphere] transformed into a second shield.

"[Molten Wall]." Before the two shields, a thirty-meter-tall wall appeared with five meters in thickness. Moreover, her [Chromosphere] also duplicated this wall.

Just as the last wall was created, Andrea felt Yasenia's aura expanding, followed by her roar, "[DUSK]!"

Yasenia swung her sword horizontally, creating a wide horizontal silvery-golden crescent that carried the scorching Sun combined with the chilling Moon energy. Andrea could feel the enormous attack approaching and hardened her jaw, preparing for the big hit.

The crescent arrived, and a loud explosion occurred! The first [Molten Wall] was blown apart as if it was mud and the crescent arrived at the second wall almost instantly. The second wall also didn't last a lot as it exploded when Yasenia's [Dusk] impacted it. Then, it arrived before the two [Molten shields].

The attack slammed onto the shield with overwhelming might, denting it badly. Andrea felt the power behind the attack through the connection with the shields, and it transmitted the feeling of a giant punching her. She smiled wryly, 'I'm going to fly again....'

And as Andrea expected, the crescent's strength exploded the shields only after a second and reached her.

BANG!

Even with the double-layered defense of [Chromosphere] and her armor, the attack cracked Andrea's ribs as her chest slightly caved in. She flew backward again, coughing blood while thinking that her dear dragoness didn't have mercy on her, so miserable!

Yasenia saw the blood and her eye twitched slightly. However, she pointed at Andrea with [Draconic Heart] and used [Moon Charge]. They were sparring, and holding back here will only damage her and her lovers in the future.

Andrea used the ground to backflip and kill momentum, then she cast [Solar Pillar] before her, hoping to stop Yasenia for a moment. Two magma pillars shot up before Yasenia.

Yasenia poured energy into her [Celestial Dress], and the long dress skirt moved as if it wasn't influenced by inertia and wrapped around her with the chilling Moon attribute surrounding her.

Yasenia collided with the pillars, creating a big explosion because of the sudden temperature difference. Andrea looked slightly worried since the explosion was very strong, not something the previous Yasenia would have been able to resist without heavy injuries.

However, she realized that those worries were unfounded as the dragoness appeared from the explosion, unharmed, wrapped in the silver aura, and with almost the same speed as before, continuing her [Moon Charge].

Andrea chuckled and prepared to meet Yasenia's attacks again. Even if she wasn't her match, she wasn't someone that would cower before a stronger opponent!

She buffed herself even further, using [Sharpness increase], [Solar domain], and [Prominence] to full strength and recasting [Chromosphere].

Yasenia reached beside her.

Halberd and giant sword clashed with a loud metallic clang. Andrea slid backward and used [Solar Pillar] again, making the area around her an inferno. Yasenia used [Moonless Night], creating a chilling domain that lowered the temperature around her and ran toward Andrea again.

An exchange of attacks unfolded, filling the area with explosions and metallic sounds. Even if Yasenia was stronger than Andrea, thanks to her battle experience, Andrea was keeping Yasenia at bay, mitigating most of her damage.

Inside the inferno Andrea created, Yasenia was smiling adoringly as she delivered attack after attack, 'Even with our current strength disparity, she can keep up! My darling is the best~.'

Their battle continued until Andrea was out of energy. Yasenia wasn't able to give Andrea the finishing hit without using trump cards like [Noon], [Midnight], or [Starfall]! Moreover, Andrea managed to deliver some sneaky hits, slightly damaging Yasenia.

Elder Irina and Tatyana appeared beside the battered Andrea and heavily breathing Yasenia. Tatyana praised Andrea, "Good job, Andrea. You managed to keep Yasenia at bay for 20 minutes straight and damage her. You are improving at a very fast pace; you can be proud of yourself. However, do not slack. Maintaining the improving pace is what is difficult. Remember that you just started your journey to become an expert."

Elder Irina nodded, fully agreeing with her. "You've improved a lot these last months. I almost couldn't recognize you."

Andrea nodded and smiled, satisfied with her performance.

Elder Irina looked at Yaseenia and said with a face filled with praise, "I would have thought you were deceiving me about your age if I didn't see you growing up! It was a good show of strength for a 20-year-old. Good job."

However, Tatyana reprimanded her, "were you pulling punches?"

Andrea looked at Yaseenia with doubt, and Yaseenia shook her head, "I wasn't. I just didn't use my strongest skills like [Noon], [Starfall], or [Midnight]."

Tatyana then became stern and used her aura on Yaseenia, making her feel like the world was pressing on her. Tatyana scolded her. "Then that is even worse! Why the hell didn't you use your tail during the fight? Is that long tail of yours just to fuck!? I've been teaching you since you were little to use it and ingrained that into you, but you are beginning to use it less and less in battles. Yaseenia, I'm honestly disappointed in your battle performance."

Yaseenia began sweating and fumbled with her hands, her tail curling under her.

Chapter 167

Tatyana then became stern and used her aura on Yaseenia, making her feel like the world was pressing on her. Tatyana scolded her. "Then that is even worse! Why the hell didn't you use your tail during the fight? Is that long tail of yours just to fuck!? I've been teaching you since you were little to use it and ingrained that into you, but you are beginning to use it less and less in battles. Yaseenia, I'm honestly disappointed in your battle performance."

Yaseenia began sweating and fumbled with her hands, her tail curling under her, but she didn't lose eye contact. Even if she had to look at her mother's angry face, which was honestly terrifying, she didn't want to disappoint her further with a half-assed disposition.

Tatyana noticed this and appreciated it. However, this won't make her scold her less fiercely and continue pressuring her with her aura, making Yaseenia slightly tremble.

Andrea also didn't interrupt and instead listened closely, the same as she did in the tournament. Andrea wanted to remember Tatyana's advice toward Yaseenia and guide Yaseenia later if Tatyana wasn't around for whatever reason. She didn't want her dear dragoness getting weaker; instead, she wished Yaseenia was the strongest so she could be out of harm's way.

Tatyana put their battle in a reproduction device, and they saw it together. She didn't say anything in the beginning since Andrea and Yaseenia were just playing around slightly. However, the moment Andrea stopped being thrown flying and started sliding, Tatyana looked at Yaseenia and asked, "Explain to me what you could have done."

Yaseenia was still nervous over her mother's anger, but she answered with a steady tone, "I could have grabbed Andrea's leg with my tail as I swung my sword."

Tatyana nodded, "At least you haven't forgotten about that long thing above your ass!"

Then, she continued reproducing and asked Yaseenia in each exchange what she could have done to finish Andrea off. After going over the fight once, it was Tatyana's turn to dissect it.

At first, when Yaseenia was speaking, Andrea thought that she would have been in severe danger and lost rather easily with some moves she pointed out.

However, only when Tatyana began speaking did Andrea realize that the only reason she could even fight back was that Yassenia almost completely forgot to use her tail.

Tatyana pointed out more than 300 different chances for Yassenia to win the match if she had used her tail. And this was only at punctual moments! If she had been using it from the beginning and through the whole battle, Tatyana pointed out that Andrea would have lost in just two minutes.

Yassenia had her shoulders hunched, and she was biting her lips, frustrated at herself, as Tatyana pointed at the overwhelming amount of mistakes she made. However, she didn't lose eye contact, not even once, and listened to everything Tatyana said, absorbing it as a sponge did with water.

One hour later, Tatyana finished her analysis. Being under Tatyana's pressure for so much time had made Yassenia perspire crazily and had her hair damp and body quite wet, showing quite an alluring sight. Andrea couldn't help but steal some glances at her.

Tatyana looked at Yassenia and walked to her side with an indifferent face. Yassenia tensed, but Tatyana dissipated her aura and smiled, tiptoeing to pat her head. Yassenia felt relief washing over her, and her legs buckled, falling into Tatyana's embrace. Tatyana caressed her damp black hair and said, "Since you could maintain eye contact all this while, I can see that this wasn't because you are slacking in tempering or your will is decreasing. Remember, little treasure, use everything you have in a fight, whether it is considered dirty, underhanded, or cowardly. The winner is the only one that can smile and see tomorrow's sunrise."

Yassenia nodded and snuggled closer. These, from time to time, reprimands were hard to take because Tatyana was extremely strict and always pressured her to her limits. However, all of what Tatyana said was extremely rational and were things that were inside her ability to perform.

Tatyana didn't nitpick but analyzed her mistakes very deeply. Moreover, she always used her aura to make her experience true aura pressure when doing this, making it mentally exhausting.

However, Yassenia didn't complain; she welcomed these from time to time scoldings. She knew that they were for her own good, and she knew that Tatyana was right about what she told her. If she thought that Tatyana was wrong about something, Yassenia didn't fear speaking out, and Tatyana always listened to her.

Elder Irina spoke, "I've observed how the sword channels your energy through its energy veins and formations, and it is impressive, to say the least. I'm not confident in creating a better way to do it. The energy circulation is optimized to a very high degree and amplifies your energy release. Moreover, its energy usage efficiency is extremely high, approaching the 100%..."

Yassenia and the others nodded as they heard the details. The day passed like this, and Yassenia, Andrea, and Tatyana returned home when the sky began darkening. Since reached quite late, Yassenia went to the kitchen to prepare something for dinner and clear her mind a bit. She found doing things for her dears relaxing and always did things like these after working hard into something.

Tatyana went to the study she had in this house to clear some work that had accumulated through the afternoon while she accompanied Yassenia.

Meanwhile, Andrea went to the living room and saw all the other girls there. Andrea said in her deep and clear voice, “We are back~.”

Angel and the others greeted Andrea, and Evelyn asked, “Where is Yasenia?”

Andrea said, “In the kitchen, do you need her for something?”

Angel stood up and ran toward the kitchen. Evelyn shook her head, “I was just curious. How was your day, Andrea?”

Andrea chuckled and recounted everything. Cecile nodded and said, “It is good that there is nothing wrong with that sword. I’ve read that too powerful things are more often than not dangerous.”

Andrea said, “Well, master still has to investigate further, but I was really surprised seeing the sword be able to damaging master....”

Kali said, “It must have been quite dangerous. Thankfully, the headmistress was there to mitigate the explosion for both of you.”

Evelyn was more curious about what Tatyana told Yasenia that she did wrong during the fight, so she asked a little more. Andrea took out a device and showed the conversation. The maids behind looked closely and assimilated everything Tatyana said. Anna and Eve were also there, paying 100% attention to the recording.

Midway through the video, Yasenia returned with a clingy Angel and Tatyana. The dinner was floating around them. Yasenia dramatically said, “Is hearing mom bashing me so interesting~? How cruel of all of you! Taking joy in my disgrace!”

They chuckled and continued watching it while eating dinner. Yasenia had Kali on her lap. From time to time, she liked feeding her while spoiling her. Angel giggled, “Yasenia looks so cute when she is frightened. Look at her tail!”

They focused on it and saw it curled like a chameleon’s tail. Some chuckles escaped their mouth. Yasenia bit Kali’s neck playfully when she heard her laugh and said seductively, “Even honey is laughing~? Tonight, I’m going to punish you~.”

Kali blushed; she still wasn’t accustomed to Yasenia’s voice when she whispered sensually. Her mellow but slightly deep voice always made her tingle pleasantly. Moreover, thinking about what Yasenia told her, she was actually a little expectant to see what this “punishment” would be.

Being together for almost two months already, Kali understood that Yasenia’s will when speaking about actual punishment for all of them was as strong as common paper against a fire cultivator. It seemed that their dragoness could only pamper them with all her might and was unable to punish them properly!

Dinner ended, and Yasenia went to cultivate. The more she advanced in cultivation and the stronger her mind got, Yasenia felt closer to the [Connection with the Sun] realm. Furthermore, lately, she had a feeling that she was approaching something. The more her comprehension ability developed, the clearer she perceived this feeling. She was awakening something, and she didn’t know what that was.

Yasenia ended her cultivation session and began her night tour. This time, she decided to go to Kali's room first, even if she normally reserves her for last, because she wants to be somewhat clearheaded when having sex with Cecile. If she wasn't clearheaded, Yasenia feared that tomorrow morning Cecile would be with a child in her stomach.

The reason she went to Cecile first was to go to Kali right after being emptied by Cecile. Today was the day she decided to take a step forward in their relationship, so she wanted to be as aware of Kali's mood as possible. Yasenia decided to begin little sexual plays with Kali, like touching each other privates and deepening their skin-to-skin relationship. 'Yesterday night, she was comfortable touching the tail in its sexual mode... Today she will begin to milk me from my tail~ I also hope she shows me a little of her naked body... I haven't seen more than her arms, calves, and collarbone....'

Yasenia chuckled and thought, 'Well, if she doesn't want to show me, it doesn't matter. I can afford to take it slow with honey so that I can get closer to her carefully. Her fear for pleasure has also lessened quite a bit after our lovely sessions together. Who would have known that I would begin such a prude relationship after all I did with my other dears, hahaha.'

Flora saw Yasenia approaching and bowed with a smile, "I hope you are doing great tonight, young miss."

Yasenia hugged Flora and said, "Tonight, I'm going to try to advance my relationship with Kali, be attentive and do not fear interrupting us if you think I'm doing something wrong."

Flora asked, "Doesn't young miss mind me spying in your intimacy?"

Yasenia said, "I rather you are attentive and look over us so that you can interfere if something bad begins happening to Kali. Moreover, you have seen everything about me that you had to. You had even cleaned my privates before! What would I be against by now?"

Flora chuckled and said, "Then, this maid will do everything she can to help you have an enjoyable evening with miss Kali." Yasenia nodded with a smile and went toward the door.

At the same time, Kali was daydreaming about what they would do tonight. 'Will she kiss me while lying on top of me? I really like her body pressing me down... Or maybe... Will I be on top again? I-It was s-so embarrassing when Yasenia told me to act more d-d-dominant...'

Kali then heard knocks on the door and looked doubtful toward it. 'Doesn't she normally come two hours later? Maybe it is Flora-.'

"It is me, honey~. I've come to deliver punishment~."

Hearing that mellow and rich voice, she knew it was Yasenia. She stood up and went toward the door. Kali took a deep breath and then opened it.

Chapter 168

Kali took a deep breath and then opened the door.

On the other side, the dragoness stood tall, with a skimpy black nightgown that didn't make any effort to hide her enormous breasts. Moreover, it hugged her slim waist, accentuating her body figure even more.

Kali's eyes couldn't help but wander across Yasenia's body. She found her utterly alluring, especially so when the nightgown was semitransparent!

When she looked up to her face again, her verdant green eyes met with the charming golden-slit eyes of the dragoness. Yasenia sashayed toward her and put her arms over her shoulders, pressing their bodies and foreheads together. Then she said in a seductive voice. "Are you surprised by my early arrival, honey~? I hope you are delighted~."

Kali swallowed and felt her nether regions heating up. However, she didn't dislike this feeling, in turn, it made her ecstatic.

The fact that she could feel aroused by Yasenia's seductiveness without feeling uncomfortable was proof that Yasenia's care broke down little by little her fears and replaced them with love and more love toward the dragoness.

Kali smiled and moved forward to peck Yasenia. Then, she looked sideways and said shyly, "S-Surprised. W-why did you come so early?"

Kali stuttered slightly every time they were together alone, mainly because of nervousness or excitement. She has also taken the habit of looking sideways instead of down because looking down would always place those two melons in her sight, increasing her fidgeting.

While she thought about this slight stutter and new habit she had taken, she felt a pair of soft lips pressing on her forehead, followed by Yasenia's voice caressing her hearing sense. "I wanted to do something special with you tonight. Let's go inside and lay down comfortably."

Kali looked up at Yasenia with a slight blush and nodded. These gentle actions, combined with her seductiveness, were truly deadly. They never failed to make Kali's heartbeat slightly faster.

They moved toward the bed and lay down side by side. Yasenia gathered Kali in a hug, and after giving her some kisses and feeling Kali's body soften in her embrace, she spoke. "I wanted to begin a simple dual cultivation with you...."

After hearing Yasenia, Kali directly tensed. However, she didn't do anything more and began thinking about it.

Kali was able to tell her about all of this because of how supportive Yasenia was always with her. Kali had the security that Yasenia would listen to her sincere opinions and try to do her best to accommodate them. Therefore, Kali didn't lie and tried to tell Yasenia about her honest feelings.

However, even with all the efforts from the dragoness and herself, it was still hard for Kali to speak about certain topics, especially if they were related to her traumatic experience. "I-I don't want to show you my... Not that I d-don't want for you to see... Umm, that's also wrong...."

Yasenia caressed her back and tightened the hug, letting Kali feel her soft and supple body. Kali felt herself sink into a world of softness as Yasenia said with a calming and slightly deep voice. "Take your time, honey. You don't have to answer immediately."

Kali nodded and buried her head between Yasenia's breasts. After the first time she did this, she understood why Angel loved doing this. It wrapped her head in warmth, softness, and a silky feeling. Moreover, her scent was stronger in her cleavage, which relaxed her body and also gave it a slight but pleasant tingling.

After a short time of thinking, Kali lifted her head and looked at Yasenia, “I-I’m still uncomfortable showing you my body... I fear you will h-hate it....”

Yasenia smiled, “You know I won’t hate it, honey. Can’t you feel how much love I give to the scars on your face? If you want to, I can give your body’s scars the same love I give these ones~.”

Yasenia licked the scar that went through her lips, making Kali half-close her eyes with comfort. The feeling of Yasenia’s tongue was heavenly.

After that lick, Yasenia said, “But I can wait all you want. Of course, I also expected you to be against showing each other’s bodies. Therefore, I had something else in mind to increase our intimacy levels... Let me rephrase what I want to do with you.”

Kali nodded, and Yasenia said, “You have seen how effective dual cultivating with me is, right? Angel and Evelyn are catching up to you, and Cecile and Andrea are gaining distance from you strength-wise. Moreover, all of this is happening quite fast.”

Kali nodded. Their group’s cultivation speed was extremely abnormal compared to the rest of the people. It was like seeing someone in a sprinting race using a car. Kali always felt anxious because of this.

Yasenia said, “You should also know that their speed is possible because they dual-cultivate with me daily, right?”

Kali nodded again and felt even worse about not being able to do so herself. It felt like she was rejecting Yasenia, even when Yasenia put a lot of effort into getting close to her. Kali felt Yasenia pecking her lips, making her attention shift toward her again. “Don’t worry, honey. I completely understand your difficulties, so don’t you dare think you are a nuisance! Am I clear?”

Kali blushed and asked, “A-am I so e-easy to read? I t-thought I had quite a good of an emotionless face...”

Yasenia lifted her straight eyebrow. “You think you can hide your discomfort from this dragoness? Not in a million years!”

Kali chuckled, and Yasenia smiled with her. Yasenia said, “You remember these last days we’ve been trying for you to touch my tail as rehabilitation, right?”

Kali nodded, and Yasenia continued, “We have been doing this to implement a certain solution I’ve come with... With this solution, you will cultivate my energy. However, we won’t do it through a complete dual-cultivation method. I will send my Yang energy inside of you, and you will cultivate it without intercourse or sharing of energy.”

Kali opened her eyes and asked, “I-Is there such a good thing?”

Yasenia nodded and then said, “There is, but there is also a catch to this....”

Kali listened as Yasenia said, “You see, I can release my Yang energy from my tail as if it was... Well, a normal male organ. So, what I was thinking of is for you to drink my Yang energy through it and then cultivate it.”

Yasenia looked at the frozen Kali and almost burst into laughter. 'She looks so cute~.'

Yasenia waited patiently and suddenly saw Kali's face made myriad facial expressions, from blushing to doubtful; from confused to excited; from happy to worried.

Yasenia was thankful that she didn't see repulsion or a similar emotion. She had confusion, worry, and excitement in general.

After giving it a lot of spins in her head, Kali asked with a worried face, "Umm, so if it works similar to male organs... It should also need to be pleased to release the substance, right?"

Yasenia nodded, and Kali asked. "H-how could you feel pleasure from me?"

Yasenia was completely confused, "Why wouldn't I be able to feel pleasure from you, honey?"

Right after asking that, she saw Kali's hand going up to her own face, tracing the scars, "W-won't my face be a problem? I don't think you can get aroused with this face...."

Yasenia looked at Kali and sighed. Instead of answering with words, Yasenia dove down and captured her lips. Then she began a passionate kissing session. Kali was completely overwhelmed by the loving and aggressive dragoness. She could only answer as Yasenia's long tongue messed the insides of her mouth and coiled around her tongue, making Kali let out small moans.

Kali's heart sped up with happiness the longer the kiss lasted. They tasted each other saliva and battled with their tongues. Yasenia pressed their breasts together and stimulated Kali without touching any sensitive place, massaging her earlobes, pressing her fingers on her lower back, or rubbing her soft body on hers.

Kali moaned with comfort as Yasenia made her melt in her arms.

Five minutes later, Yasenia separated with one last kiss. Kali was breathing roughly and looking at Yasenia with her moist, half-closed, verdant green eyes. Yasenia caressed her chestnut-colored hair and spoke. Her voice had a slightly hoarse and charming tone, making Kali whimper, "Do you still think you can't arouse me, honey?"

Kali was too entranced to answer, so Yasenia smiled seductively and guided her hand toward her privates. With care to not reveal the fully erect big weapon she had below, Yasenia pressed Kali's fingers on her soft, plump, warm, and now moist lower lips.

Yasenia neared Kali's ear and licked her earlobe, whispering with a deep tone, "Do you feel it, Kali? I'm soaking wet from you."

Meanwhile, Kali felt like lightning hit her the moment her fingers pressed on Yasenia's lower lips. Yasenia's sexes passively released Yang and Yin energies when she was aroused, and Kali was feeling her pleasure senses lit up just from touching it. Kali had a battle in her subconscious mind, a part of her afraid of continuing, and a part of her wanting to feel more of the soft flesh her fingers were touching.

Yasenia saw that Kali was completely turned on, but still struggling, so she took the chance and moved her golden tail tip before Kali's face. She was also using one hand to move Kali's hand in circles on her labia.

‘Thankfully, I don’t have testicles, or doing this would have been impossible.’
Thought Yasenia.

When Kali saw the golden phallus before her eyes, she had no adverse reaction to it. Instead, she looked a little excited at the transparent, thick, and heavenly-smelling liquid dripping from the tip. The feeling on her hand that was caressing the soft, warm, and moist place below, coupled with the strong musky, sweet scent from Yasenia’s tail-tip, was sending her mind in a loop of pleasure and arousal.

Yasenia guided Kali’s other hand and approached it toward her tail tip. Yasenia embraced Kali and placed their cheeks together, looking at her tail. Then, she said seductively, “Grab it, honey.”

Kali breathed heavily, filling her senses with Yasenia’s strong sweet scent. Her arousal was extremely high as she obeyed Yasenia’s words and grabbed the squishy and soft tail. Yasenia let a bone-softening moan escape her mouth, “Aahn~.”

Kali pressed her thighs together after hearing that moan; she had felt a little bit of liquid squirting. ‘D-D-Did I just cum a little?’

Yasenia whispered sensually again, making Kali whimper. “Good girl~. Now pump it, honey. Up and down. As I told you before.”

Kali had a red face as she followed Yasenia’s instructions. Kali moved both her hands, pleasuring Yasenia’s both intimate spots as she followed Yasenia’s instructions. Yasenia started moaning and kissing Kali’s cheek and neck, spreading heat in Kali’s loins and making Kali also moan.

As Kali heard more and more of Yasenia’s moans, she got more and more excited and placed more effort into her movements.

Making Yasenia feel good with her hand was more exhilarating than she thought, especially hearing Yasenia’s moans; she felt that she was reaching something just from this.

Yasenia licked Kali’s ear as she warned with a seductive and deep tone, “Honey~ when you drink my release, it will be very~ very~ pleasurable, more than anything we have ever felt together. Are you ready?”

Kali continued her hand movements as she turned her head and nodded. Yasenia invaded her mouth and complimented her. “Such a brave girl~ Ah~. You are doing great.”

Yasenia didn’t want to let Kali feel too much pleasure, so she thought about doing something to help regulate the pleasure.

When she felt the orgasm coming, instead of separating her mouth from Kali’s, she placed the tail tip between their lips. ‘I will cum in my own mouth and regulate the amount of intake she has with my tongue. I don’t want anything bad happening.’

“You are making me cum, honey~. I’m reaching it!” said Yasenia, making Kali feel more accomplished. Then, Kali felt the tail tip in her hand inflate and warm up.

Yasenia opened both their mouths with her lips and placed the tip on the side. Then, she released her sweet nectar.

Chapter 169

Yasenia opened both their mouths with her lips and placed the tip on the side. Then, she released her sweet nectar.

Kali had her mouth filled with a warm, delicious, thick liquid while Yasenia's tongue scooped some of it out of her mouth. Then, Kali gulped, and Yasenia's cum went down her throat.

The feeling of it going down sent electric currents up to her brain, and her world turned white. Her eyes rolled up, and her body tensed. Kali gurgled with the semen as it wrecked her body in euphoria. "OHHHH!!!"

She continuously squirted from her sex as the big orgasm wreaked havoc in her brain. It was something she had never felt.

Kali, as any other person would do, continued gulping the heavenly nectar as it entered her mouth to continue feeling these heavenly sensations. Even if Kali was going through a trip on the Pleasure realm, Yasenia was taking out most of it and ingesting it herself to prevent Kali's pleasure senses from overloading more than they currently were.

However, the sensations in her unaccustomed body were making Kali spasm.

This was the result of Yasenia's current strength in sexual prowess. The effects only became evident when she had sex with someone that hadn't been growing with it before it was this powerful. The purity, energy amount, nourishment, and pleasure it gave were completely overwhelming for a normal cultivator of a similar level to her. It was as if the body screamed with joy after ingesting a heavenly treasure made especially for it.

When Yasenia stopped cumming, she placed her tail around Kali's head and across her spine, using its greatly improved energy absorption qualities to reduce the pleasure waves that were still overwhelming Kali.

Yasenia hugged the drooling, spasming, moaning, and squirting woman with slight worry. 'Even when I drank most of it myself, she is still like this... Thankfully I thought about controlling how much she ingests, or I may have damaged her irreversibly.'

Yasenia looked around and didn't see Flora, so she supposed that Kali was still out of real danger.

Kali's squirting went on until she was completely empty, but even then, her spasms continued. Yasenia noticed that the intensity had lowered by a lot, but Kali was still mid-orgasm! Yasenia frowned, 'Is this what happens to those unaccustomed to me? This is... Dangerous.'

Ten minutes later, when Yasenia began really worrying, Kali came down from the big orgasm, and, as Yasenia expected, she began to tremble extremely badly. However, this tremble wasn't from pleasure but a deep fear that the orgasm had aroused.

After Kali came down from the orgasm, she didn't even know where she was or what had happened to her. She was in an extremely strange state, clearly awake, but with her mind somewhere else and her eyes somewhat unfocused. Then, feeling the lingering pleasure, a black miasma began wrapping around her as she dazedly started mumbling things like "no more, no more" or "please stop, someone help."

Yasenia hissed as the corruptive aura of the powerful Heart Demon was damaging her own heart, making some flashbacks of Tian Long's aura appear in her mind. However, she didn't loosen her hug. Instead, Yasenia had her heart twisting seeing her like that. She still didn't see Flora intervening. So, Yasenia did what she usually did.

Not minding about this miasma that was trying to hurt her own heart, she hugged her close and spoke softly to her ear, gently caressing her head as she normally does. "You are with me, honey. I'm here. I'm here. No one else is beside us. No one can hurt you when you are by my side. You are with Yasenia, your lover. We are in your room, doing good things together."

Outside, Flora was fidgeting, sometimes wanting to move forward, and then stopping herself. She wanted her young miss to be the one resolving this so that Kali wouldn't rely on Flora when they were about to do something like this again.

Flora wanted Kali and Yasenia to be able to have an intimate time without thinking about someone watching over them. 'Miss Kali is still out of real danger, but if miss doesn't do something soon... The heart demons may consume her. I will intervene just before that happens.'

Meanwhile, when Kali heard Yasenia's voice, she latched onto Yasenia, wounding her arms and legs around her, and burying her face in her neck. Then she said with a brittle voice, "H-Help, please help me; they are, they are..." Kali's eyes were wandering around, unfocused, and looking at nothing and something simultaneously.

Yasenia tightened the hug as her heart also tightened and consoled her further, "Don't worry, don't worry, I'm here. I'm here..."

As Yasenia continued speaking with her, the miasma shrunk and returned to Kali's body. Yasenia really wanted to rip apart, chew, and devour that miasma, but she didn't have the skill nor methods to do that. It was different from the thing that affected Cecile in the past, instead of artificial, it was a naturally born heart demon, and these could only be defeated by a mentality change from the cultivator bearing them.

As if the miasma calming down was the cue, Kali started to return back to reality more and more. Yasenia didn't stop her coaxing while thinking, 'Her heart demons must have used the lapse when Kali had her orgasm to induce illusions on her... Thank the heavens I didn't let her drink too much of it...'

Even if some people would find it somewhat disgusting drinking her own release, Yasenia didn't mind doing it for Kali, especially after seeing what just happened. Instead, she was extremely glad she did that.

Meanwhile, Flora was with a hand on the door and with the entirety of her spiritual sense all over them, attentive to any slight changes in Kali's aura. She was so focused that even a mortal would be able to sneak on her right now.

She saw that Yasenia was taking care of it alone, so she didn't interrupt. 'Thankfully, the young miss managed to do it... Her aura, scent, and tail properties, combined with Miss Kali's familiarity with young miss' voice and body are making her relax.'

However, she didn't lose focus for a second, her miss was counting on her in case something went wrong, and she had taken a liking to Kali during these months. She found her heart strength admirable; it was extremely rare that someone could live with the powerful heart demons that Kali bore and remain a sane and functional person.

Besides her normal timid behavior, slight stuttering, and other small signals, you wouldn't find anything wrong with Kali at first glance, and that is what made Flora's respect for her soar. She was determined to aid her young miss in healing Kali's heart demons with all her strength and experience in the matter.

Kali returned to herself after another ten minutes, still with a rapid breathing rate but aware of her surroundings. Some time passed with Yasenia just caressing her and Kali calming down completely. Then, Kali remembered what had happened; she looked up at Yasenia and teared up, ashamed of her reaction. 'I-I can't even have proper intimate relationships! I-I'm a failure!'

Seeing her cry, Yasenia almost freaked out and asked, concerned. "What's wrong, honey? Are you still afraid? Don't worry. I will stay by your side as much as you need. I will tell you all the times you need to hear it; by my side, you are safe. I won't let anybody do anything to you while I have a single breath in me!"

Kali directly burst into tears and hugged Yasenia. She choked out her words in between snuffles from crying. "H-How can you s-say that for s-some-someone like me... I'm a worth-worthless woman! Used u-until I couldn't even move! T-They used me until s-some c-called me dead frog because, because m-my posture! While they, they used a poisoned k-knife to..."

Yasenia's irises became redder the more she listened until she cut her with a kiss. Yasenia feared that she might go on a rampage instantly if she continued listening. However, this didn't mean that the anger lessened. This debt will be paid with large amounts of painful screams and agony, 'I will find them all, and I will make them suffer a hundredfold this suffering!'

She looked into Kali's eyes with her red slit eyes and said with a gentle but firm tone, "Don't you dare call yourself worthless, my love. You are an impressive woman, Kali. A genius cultivator with a gift others can only dream about in alchemy and medicine. An extremely rare plant summoner and someone that has fought against terrible heart demons and didn't bend against them. Kali, my love, you are a woman with one of the strongest hearts I will ever know."

Kali continued crying but was listening to Yasenia. Yasenia kissed her eyes as she continued speaking, "It doesn't matter if you have defects, don't all of us have them? So what if your face is scarred. Your heart, personality, and talents are untouched by your physical appearance. Do you know why I fell in love with you, Kali?"

Kali shook her head, now just sobbing. Yasenia used a handkerchief to wipe her face gently and said, "I fell in love with your determination to push forward, with the initiative you showed when speaking with me at the beginning, with the strong cultivator that dominated the battlefield with her summons, with the knowledgeable woman that improved my understanding in alchemy with few sentences."

Yasenia looked into her eyes firmly and said with a prideful smile, "I fell in love with the woman that had the will to confess to someone they liked, even while they think they are not worth it. The woman that said 'I love you,' even if the insecurities inside of her are overwhelming."

Kali began crying again, but for a completely different reason.

Yasenia said with a smile, “Don’t you find attractive the woman I described? I find her an extremely good catch~, and those that are unable to see through her rough exterior and see the jewel she is inside; they are just fools with eyesight problems.”

Kali hugged Yasenia as strong as she could and said while sobbing, “I lov-love you!”

Yasenia just surrounded Kali with her body and pampered her. Kali was extremely tired after this emotional rollercoaster, so, with the soft caresses and loving actions of the dragoness, Kali fell asleep between Yasenia’s arms, filled with security and warm feelings. Yasenia waited a bit, and when Kali was deeply asleep, she called Flora softly, “Flora, come in.”

Flora entered with silent steps and reached beside Yasenia. Yasenia said, “Tell the others I won’t be able to go to their rooms. Superficially Explain what happened. Also, tell them that tonight I will sleep here and if they want to come, to be silent... Right, use your energy to clean the bed and us.”

Flora bowed and waved her hand, cleaning everything in just a second. Then, she turned and left the room.

Yasenia fell asleep shortly after, looking at Kali’s scarred face and thinking about how to make her speak about the group that did what they did to her. Then, she would find every single one of them, capturing them and torturing them until Yasenia got bored of hearing their screams and pleas and seeing them suffer.

This time there wasn’t a phoenix race that could stop her from carrying out her vengeance. ‘And if there is, then I will wait until I’m strong enough to get them without no one being able to stop me! No matter how much time passes, I won’t let them die a natural death!’

Today, some people that did something out of impulse gained a dragon as an enemy, and dragons don’t let grudges down easily.

Many people might think that Yasenia’s attitude is hypocritical, and they would be correct. Yasenia isn’t a defender of morals or someone that would sacrifice herself for the greater benefit. Yasenia was someone that wouldn’t care about what someone did until they messed with her family or someone she cared about.

Then, if that someone attacks her family, she will try to kill them swiftly to avoid letting them come back with revenge. She would only stop and take it slow if she had 100% security about finishing off her enemy.

Her mother, Tatyana, is the prime example of why Yasenia had this mentality. She is the living proof of what happened to those that took their enemy lightly and let her mother escape.

From some tales she had heard from Tatyana, they thought that she wouldn’t be strong enough to get her revenge, and this led to Tatyana being able to escape.

The one alive today is Tatyana, wielding power those people only dreamt about. And those that looked down on her are dead or worse.

The others reached one by one, silently lying around Yasenia and Kali and falling asleep comfortably thanks to the dragoness’s presence. Like that, the eventful day came to an end.

Chapter 170

A new day arrived, and Kali woke up. She took a deep breath, a habit she had acquired since she began sleeping with Yaseenia. As she expected, Yaseenia's sweet floral scent filled her nostrils, making her sigh comfortably.

She opened her eyes and looked at the white mountains before her. The transparent black nightgown did very little to hide her beautiful pink tips on top of that pair of mounds. It was a beautiful sight to wake up to.

Kali could practically feel Yaseenia's boneless body around her, and she could feel that she was secured between Yaseenia's arms, with her soft and squishy tail coiling around her body. Her head was obviously between her breasts, and feeling the softness and smoothness of her skin, she couldn't help but rub her face on them like a spoiled cat. 'Her body is so comfortable~.'

Kali suddenly stopped as yesterday's memory flashed through her mind. After recalling all that happened, a blissful smile spread on her lips.

The thing she remembered the most clearly was what Yaseenia told her after she broke down. Her heartbeat sped up and her eyes slightly watered, feeling emotional. 'I'm so lucky to have her....'

Kali looked up at Yaseenia's face, and she had the luck of seeing her rare sleeping face. It seemed that she had woken up quite early. Normally, she was the first to fall asleep, and she also woke up after her, so seeing her sleeping was a rare and joyful occurrence when it happened.

Kali just stared at her charming face, which gave a gentle and relaxed feeling, completely entranced. 'She looks so beautiful... Like a sleeping immortal.'

Kali felt that this was Yaseenia's true self. Below all that seduction, domineeringness, and playfulness, what hid beneath was a pampering, gentle, and caring dragoness that placed her family before her personal desires and safety.

Kali felt lucky for the first time in a lot of time. Lucky that Yaseenia found her and took her in her protective embrace. Lucky that Yaseenia is someone that wasn't scared by her appearance. Lucky that the person to offer her a hand of support in her darkest days was Yaseenia. Lucky that, even after hearing about her incident, Yaseenia's feelings for her didn't change, that she didn't find her dirty.

This is why, to stay beside her, to support her, and to become someone Yaseenia will be able to rely on, she will work hard to become an outstanding doctor and strong cultivator. 'I will become stronger, Yaseenia. To the point that I will become someone that can protect you.'

Kali then thought about Yaseenia's release and blushed. 'T-That was... Overwhelming. I can feel my body tingling just remembering about it...'

When she remembered the taste and energy purity, she couldn't help but lick her dry lips. 'S-She is also d-delicious... So thick, tasty, warm a-and, Gulp I-I think I will become a-addicted to it...'

Kali blushed after thinking that. She really wanted to deepen their intimacy.

Of course, the main reason was not to taste the heavenly milk of the dragoness again but to become one with Yaseenia in the future without fear of her heart demons acting up.

While she thought of things like this, she felt the dragoness stirring awake.

Yasenia woke up, opening her golden slit eyes slowly. She looked down, and Kali's face greeted her. Kali saw Yasenia smile gently and open her mouth. Her voice was husky and caressed her senses as she greeted her, "Good morning, honey. Are you better yet? Or do you need a little bit more pampering~?"

Kali smiled and moved her head to kiss Yasenia. Yasenia was surprised at first but then answered happily. They exchanged a slow and nice morning kiss. When they separated, Yasenia said with a happy smile, "I'm glad you are much better, honey."

Kali smiled and snuggled closer. "I love you, Yasenia."

"I love you too, honey."

The others began waking up, and our dragoness proceeded to kiss every one of them. This made all of them wake up with a smile and full of energy to do something productive.

Three days went by, and Yasenia and her lovers kept advancing in cultivation, profession, and reputation in the Academy. They have already begun selling their products on Andrea's shop, and the addition of the tailoring, formation, and alchemy products made the sword extremely popular.

Although the quality was lower than the main shops of the Academy for their level, the price was lower and more affordable. Their prices were very attractive and made a lot of people speak about it mouth to mouth, spreading their fame around.

After that night, Kali was more and more proactive in their nights, and tonight, Kali was hell-bent on cultivating Yasenia's energy. Yasenia tried to convince her to wait a little more, but Kali shook her head.

Yasenia sighed and smiled, "Okay, honey. Here we go."

Yasenia sat with her back on the headboard and placed Kali between her legs. Then, she put her tail in front of Kali, and she hugged her from behind. Yasenia said, "When you want to, you can start."

Kali grabbed the tail with her two hands and, without a shred of hesitation, she began stimulating it. Yasenia rested her chin on her shoulder and began moaning. Ten minutes later, Yasenia was reaching orgasm.

As she did the other day, Yasenia placed their mouths together and kissed her. Kali answered without stopping her hands.

Yasenia placed the tip beside their mouth and used her lips to open Kali's mouth. Then, she came.

What happened the night before repeated, and Kali entered a mind-blowing orgasm. She squirted all over Yasenia's legs as she gulped what Yasenia fed her mouth to mouth with greediness.

The pleasure was extremely high, but Kali didn't break down. After drinking one-quarter of her release. Yasenia stopped feeding her and drank the rest herself. Then she used her tail to wrap around her head and across her spine, reducing the pleasure she received.

After coming back from the orgasm and the black miasma trying to make an appearance again, Kali reacted fast and used her meditation techniques to calm it down. Yasenia began kissing and speaking to her, using her voice, scent, and body to make Kali feel comfortable between her arms.

And it worked!

Right now, Kali was cross-legged on the bed, with Yasenia hugging her from behind and her pajama pants soaked because of her orgasm after ingesting Yasenia's potent Yang energy.

This was her first try at cultivating it. 'I feel my stomach like it is burning with pure Yang energy. But it isn't uncomfortable; it is extremely pleasurable.'

Then, Kali felt Yasenia activating the dual cultivation technique. Then Yasenia began speaking. Kali listened to Yasenia's voice as she guided her on how to revolve the energy in her meridians.

Her hot Yang energy moved from her stomach and entered her meridians. It passed through her body, nourishing it greatly and sending comfortable pleasure waves through it. Her Yang energy also had a cleansing effect, and Kali could feel some impurities in her body dissolving. The results were so great that she could feel the changes clearly, something rare since this process normally was very gradual.

After absorbing all the Yang energy, she sighed from utter comfort and let her body fall back, landing on Yasenia's soft body. Yasenia kissed her cheek and asked, "How do you feel, honey?"

Kali said with a languid voice, "You are absurd, Yasenia. No wonder the others can improve at those speeds. I feel like I just took a refreshing bath, and my body feels extremely light... As if my pores are breathing energy everywhere your energy passes."

Yasenia chuckled and hugged her tighter, pressing her softness on her back. However, she forgot about her erect member, which poked Kali's back. Yasenia instantly moved her waist back, but Kali had already felt it. She looked at Yasenia and asked, curious. "What was that hard thing, Yasenia?"

Yasenia's face became strange, 'S-Should I tell her? We've already taken a big step forward... Maybe today is the right time? Or maybe it will be a big step back? Ugh...'

Kali saw Yasenia's face becoming strange and thoughtful, and her confusion only grew. "What's wrong? Are you feeling bad after releasing so much energy?"

Yasenia looked into Kali's verdant green eyes, 'Let's just tell her and get it out of the way.'

Yasenia took a deep breath and looked at Kali. "Do you remember that I told you there was a thing I didn't want to tell you? That it could damage our relationship at that time."

Kali nodded, and Yasenia said, "I will tell you about it now, okay, honey?"

Kali nodded, and seeing Yasenia's serious face; she also got serious. Yasenia directly said, "I won't go in circles about this. I have the male member besides my female sex. The thing that poked your back was my penis."

Kali looked at Yasenia, stunned. Then, she frowned and asked, "You have a penis?"

Yasenia nodded and observed her reaction.

Kali didn't know how to react to this big bomb that Yasenia dropped. Kali took a deep breath and analyzed how she currently felt, 'She has a male member? Then, a lot of things become clear now... She must have hid this because-'

'She lied to you.'

Kali internally sneered, 'Do you think you can influence me with matters related to Yasenias?'

Alyssa's laughter echoed, 'She doesn't trust you, and you know it. How could she not tell us about this sooner?'

Kali didn't escape its provocations and faced them directly. 'She did it to protect me from you, heart demon. I can imagine what would have happened if she had told me earlier. You can't-'

'I can't what? Tell you the truth? Do you remember what happened to you? What did you go through during that time? She has one of those things that caused you so much suffering.'

'So what if she has it? She isn't-'

'Like them? You know why it is hard and poking you, right? She wants to put that thing inside of you and make you cry in agony!'

'Shut up! You know it isn't true! You can't sway me, heart demon!'

Kali heard Alyssa's mocking laughter again. 'Even if you don't want to admit it, you know it is true. Want to hear more harsh truths? I bet she is just keeping you as a pill-making machine. She just cares about your talent. Then, when you relax around her, and she doesn't need you anymore, she will repeat what happened before. She is just using you, Kali.'

Kali chuckled, 'She hasn't asked me to do a single pill for her and has even helped me create some to sell for credits. Foolish thinking this would shake my growing feelings for her.'

The heart demon didn't speak anymore and hid again. After the successful beating back of the heart demon, Kali felt as if some of the countless chains around her broke. Only a little portion, but there was progress. Kali sent a message to the heart demon, 'I'm going to... No, WE are going to destroy you, heart demon. Until my heart is clear of you and full of Yasenias!'

Meanwhile, outside, Yasenias saw that black aura appear around Kali, and she began worrying. 'Were my efforts in vain after all?'

However, before Yasenias could worry more, a verdant green aura formed a blurred fox figure and consumed part of the heart demon with a mighty chomp! Then...

BANG!

Kali broke through! Thanks to Yasenias's Yang energy and consuming part of the heart demon Kali was able to advance in cultivation. Yasenias's smile became so wide that her cheeks were hurting!

Kali opened her eyes and looked at the smiling Yasenias. The smile was contagious as it spread on her face too, ignoring her deformities for a moment. Then, she spoke without a stutter. "So what if you have the male sex? Even if I don't feel confident about seeing it yet, doesn't this mean we can have children in the future? It is a good thing."
