Chapter 181

After that, without going in circles, Yaseenia said bluntly, “The reason that your sister was able to improve so fast was that I dual cultivated with her daily. My Yang energy is very nourishing and good for the body.”

Lidia looked at Yaseenia, and the gears in her head clogged, unable to process what Yaseenia had just said. ‘Huh? Is she speaking in a language that I don’t know? What does she mean?’

Angel looked at Yaseenia with red cheeks, embarrassed of Yaseenia’s forward attitude in the matter in front of her sister... But she found it attractive in a way... ‘In front of big sis saying things like that, ahh!! So embarrassing!’

Selena began massaging Angel’s scalp while chuckling, amused at everyone’s reaction. ‘Young miss doesn’t go in circles~. As expected of my dearest young miss, she is so brave~.’

Yaseenia didn’t say anything more and waited for Lidia’s brain to restart. Yaseenia saw Lidia’s expression take a turn after the information became comprehensible in the big sister’s mind. Then, with a wrathful face, Lidia’s aura exploded, filling the ground with cracks, and she lunged toward Yaseenia, sword in hand. “HOW DARE YOU HAVE SEX WITH MY MUNCHKIN!?”

Since Yaseenia was already prepared she calmly took out [Draconic Heart] and placed the sword in Lidia’s way.

Clang!

Weapons clashed in a shockwave that blew away all the dust, creating an area where only the two remained on flat terrain. To Lidia’s surprise, Yaseenia didn’t move from her standing place and was looking at her with her golden-red slit eyes and pupils thinned.

However, Lidia didn’t mind and continued attacking Yaseenia to vent the rage she was feeling inside. Her sword blurred in extremely complex attack patterns that showed high expertise in the sword and slashed toward Yaseenia continuously.

A melodic cacophony of swords clashing followed.

Angel became nervous and wanted to interfere to stop them; she would hate if any of them became hurt because of this. However, to Angel’s surprise, Selena stopped her by hugging her waist and pressing her back onto her breasts. Angel sunk again in the lamia’s soft embrace and looked at Selena with a frown, “Why aren’t you letting me interfere? She is my big sis!”

Selena smiled gently at her and said. “Little Angel, look closely. There isn’t a reason for you to interfere.”

Angel was confused and looked at them closely as Selena said. After observing closely for a while, something clicked. Lidia nor Yaseenia were using their elemental coats, nor any skill. It was a pure sword fight based on skill and body strength.

Moreover, after looking a little more, she saw that Yaseenia wasn’t even attacking. She was just receiving Lidia’s sword strikes with her feet solidly planted on the cracking ground. The dragoness’s valiant stance made Angel’s thoughts deviate. ‘Uhh~ Yaseenia looks so beautiful~. Kyaa!’

Meanwhile, Lidia was becoming increasingly frustrated after seeing Yasenia blocking her attacks without problems, ‘Even if I’m not going full strength, I’m still four levels higher than her! Moreover, one of those levels is from level nine to half-step, which is a big jump! How is it possible that I’m not even capable of moving her!?’

The reason for this was that Yasenia’s body, even if it was extremely soft and seemed boneless, in reality, was absurdly sturdy. Even if they looked beautiful and slim, thanks to the [Beauty Pill], her muscles carried beast-like strength. Furthermore, the fact that she was a dragon made all these physical qualities even more monstrous. On the same level, Yasenia was probably unmatched in bodily strength.

Lidia stepped back and charged energy quite obviously as if giving Yasenia a hint that she would strike with a stronger attack. In the end, even if she was angry, she just wanted to vent, not kill Yasenia. So the attack was quite simple, yet strong nonetheless. “[Light strike].”

Yasenia saw all these hints, and it was the reason she was on the defensive. Even if Yasenia considered herself stronger, she would never underestimate an opponent. Her dragon pride had been shattered in the Ice Nirvana Mountain Battle, and her thoughts carried none of the arrogance they carried before. Therefore, after seeing her gathering strength, she prepared herself.

Lidia’s sword shone, and she struck Yasenia with much more strength and speed than before. She shot forward with her sword aiming up, clearly doing a downward strike with her sword covered in light.

Even with this attack coming her way, Yasenia didn’t even flinch. This time, instead of receiving the sword strike, she counter-attacked, putting some strength into it. Her sword was engulfed with golden flames, and the red core changed to golden. Then, she swung it in a rising motion. “[Sunrise].”

BANG!

Swords collided, and Lidia felt like a beast rammed her sword. The dragoness’s strength passed through the sword into her body, and her feet left the ground. Right after that, she shot backward tens of meters with a painful grunt.

With extreme expertise, she managed to plant her feet on the ground and slide to kill momentum and stop herself, leaving a deep trench.

While she slid backward, she could feel her whole body trembling because of the aftershock. Lidia looked at her trembling sword and arm with a surprised face, ‘I almost lost the grip on my sword. Her bodily strength is absurd!’

When Lidia stopped, she looked at Yasenia and saw that Yasenia didn’t move and was looking at her with a smirk. Lidia humphed and walked toward her, putting her sword away. “At least you have the strength to protect her. I will guess that your excessive beauty wasn’t the thing that swayed her into your arms.”

Yasenia’s expression turned strange for a moment, but she didn’t say anything. ‘I’m sorry, sister-in-law. My looks indeed swayed her at the beginning! But don’t worry, sister-in-law, you won’t know this!’

Angel jumped from Selena's tail and ran toward both of them. Lidia looked at Angel and sighed, resigned. 'So young, and she has already left the nest...'

Then, Lidia smiled and said. "I'm happy that you found someone to love, munchkin. Since you seem to like Yasenias a lot, and for the moment, she seems a good catch, I will support you when we speak with mom."

Angel shouted in happiness and jumped into her sister's embrace, "I love you, big sis!"

Lidia laughed softly and looked at Yasenias, "Sorry for the test. I know it is rude and that I had no right to do it. But I wouldn't be able to come to terms if you didn't have the strength to protect her... Also, my previous promise will solely remain if you treat Angel nicely."

Yasenias approached and hugged both sisters' faces into her bosom with a smile. "Don't worry, Lidia. I understand that you might feel uncomfortable when your loved little sister starts a relationship. Especially when we are this young."

Angel smiled blissfully between her sister's and Yasenias' arms and rubbed her head on them. Lidia, however, was slightly blushing with the attractive dragoness so close to her. 'Wow... She is so soft and smells heavenly... W-What am I thinking about!?'

Lidia separated with a blush that didn't escape our dragoness's sharp eyes. It was redundant to say that, even if their personalities weren't too similar, Lidia and Angel's likes and dislikes were quite similar.

Seeing the previous stern big sister shy, Yasenias's teasing soul awakened and approached Lidia with seductive steps. "Sister~in~law~, don't you have to give me some compensation for all the trouble~? Mmm~?"

The moment Yasenias started walking seductively, Lidia felt that she had lost all the momentum she had before. Her face burned, and she became meeker, "W-What compensation? D-Don't go too far, Yasenias!"

Yasenias reached before her and lowered her head to whisper, deepening her voice into a bone-softening voice. "How about... Something really~really~ pleasurable?"

Lidia blushed and tried to push Yasenias from her shoulders, but the height difference made her hands land on something squishy, soft, and big. Yasenias purposely moaned, and Lidia's cheek burned, becoming even shyer.

The sensation on her hands was so heavenly that Lidia instinctively squeezed.

Angel appeared and slapped her hands away, saying. "Big sis! What are you doing to Yasenias?"

Lidia got a big scare and woke up from her stupor, jumping backward with her hands up in the air, "I-I-I, she-she-she. Yasenias! W-Why did you do something like that!? Seductress! Is this how you tempted my little sister!? I'm going to fight you! You hear me!?"

Angel hugged Yasenias and pouted, looking at her. "Don't seduce my sister, Yasenias."

Yasenias burst into laughter while patting her. "Okay, baby. It's just that your sister looked very cute when she was embarrassed; I couldn't help myself~."

Lidia shouted with a shrill, blushing. “Who are you calling cute!?”

Cecile approached them with Lidia’s group. “My love, will we still look at the low-level sects? We have lost some time here, and it may become late.”

Yasenia interlocked her tail with Cecile’s and said, “Let’s go anyways. It is rare to have this kind of opportunity. Moreover, I’m quite curious about the strength of cultivators there. Sister-in-law, Do you want to come with us?”

Lidia regained her bearing and looked at her group, “I’m going with them for a while; we will see each other later. Unless...”

Lidia looked at Yasenia questioningly. The group didn’t mind and also wanted to go with them, so one man asked, “Can we accompany you? We don’t have anything to do anyways.”

Yasenia shrugged and looked at Angel and Cecile. Seeing that they also didn’t mind, the group of ten people went together. One girl asked curiously, “Although I can understand why you made us make that oath, is there something else you wanted to say to Lidia, Yasenia?”

Yasenia looked at that woman and chuckled, “Quite a curious one we have here~.”

The girl smiled awkwardly, and Yasenia said, looking at Lidia. “Well, since the oath still stands, I can tell you one more thing.”

Lidia looked at Yasenia curiously, and Yasenia said bluntly, “I have a penis and vagina.”

Then she continued walking with Angel and Cecile, leaving the group with opened mouths and eyes behind. Lidia’s face went through a rainbow-colored string of facial expressions. ‘W-W-WHAT DID SHE JUST SAY!? T-Then... Angel has... has... ARGH!!!’

She went to all fours and pounded the ground with her fists, lamenting. “My munchkin!”

The others walked after Yasenia and began asking questions.

“Is that true!?”

“You must be lying!”

“I haven’t heard of a woman with the two sexes!”

“How big is it?”

Everyone shut up and looked weirdly at the blushing girl that had a slip of tongue. “I-I’m just curious.”

Lidia caught up with suppressed emotions.

To everyone’s surprise, it was Cecile who answered. “Big enough and pleasurable enough to penetrate your cervix without pain.”

Lidia spat blood and fell to her knees again. All the women in the group blushed crimson and looked at Yasenia with doe eyes.

‘S-So big.’

‘H-How would it feel?’

‘I’m so jealous of them!’

This time even Yasenias looked at Cecile weirdly. Cecile tilted her head and asked, “What?”

Yasenias didn’t even know how to react, ‘Is she bragging? When she spoke about it, I could sense pride in her voice, but... There was another emotion; I’m not clear what it was...’

Lidia stood up, cleaned her lips, and walked toward Angel. Angel felt an iron claw- Cough A hand; she felt a hand on her shoulder and looked at her sister... Only to have a big scare. “Hiiii!”

Lidia ignored Angel’s shout of fear and asked inquiringly with a voice that left no room for lies. “That big?”

Angel was scared, but will she lie to her dear sister? Especially when she was this scary looking? She dared not. So she nodded almost imperceptibly.

Lidia released her sister’s shoulder and said with a trembling voice, “I-I see. G-Good for you, A-Angel.”

Angel didn’t want to deal with her currently unstable sister, so she went to Yasenias’s side and hugged her arm, asking for protection. Yasenias was laughing out loud at their interaction.

Meanwhile, the women present were looking at Yasenias hungrily, and the men had faces that screamed, “I give up! Have them all! I can’t compete with you!”

However, while laughing, Yasenias suddenly felt a chill up her spine and looked at Cecile. Cecile was looking at her with a big smile, but Yasenias didn’t see her eyes smiling!

Cecile asked, “Are you happy with their reactions? Didn’t you want to seduce more women? How about you also tease them? I’m sure they will jump into your bed with open legs with a single command of yours, right? My love?”

Even if her tone was even, Yasenias couldn’t help but feel a sweat drop falling from her temple. ‘Did I provoke sweetheart when I teased Lidia?’

Yasenias said with a flattering tone, “H-How could I!? I’m more than satisfied with my current dears!”

Cecile turned toward the women and men with a smile that chilled even their souls. However, they couldn’t look away because Cecile was too beautiful when smiling, even if she was scary! “Have you heard her?”

Seeing them unresponsive and looking at her face dazed, her smile disappeared, and she looked at them with a face that could freeze hell itself. “Have. You. Heard. Her?”

All of them repeatedly nodded, ‘This pair of goddesses can be very scary!’

Cecile nodded, satisfied. “Good.”

Then, the dangerous aura that lingered around disappeared without a trace, making everyone sigh in relief. Tatyana felt a disturbance in the energy and smiled, ‘A comrade has awakened!’

Chapter 182

After that little episode, the atmosphere around returned to how it was before, and they began speaking about different things until they reached a camp from a third-rate sect. Angel asked, "Which sect camp is-"

"Ahn~."

"Yes! Harder!"

"Your pussy is so good!"

Everyone froze for a second. Yasenia said with interest, "Hoh~, so it is a dual cultivation sect... Well, nothing interesting to see here. Let's go!"

Yasenia turned around, dragging the stunned Cecile and blushing Angel away. Yasenia grumbled lowly, "However, do they not know about sound canceling formations? Shameless..."

"Of course we do! But some of them like to be heard and watched as they dual cultivate~." Answered a feminine voice that Yasenia hadn't heard in her life.

Yasenia instantly took out her mother's talisman and used her long tail to wrap Lidia, Cecile, and Angel to herself, jumping away from the voice warily. Her reaction was extremely swift, and she didn't even let the other people react. At the same time, with the talisman pointing at the intruder, she turned to look at the... Man? That had appeared beside them.

His face and body looked like a man's, but the mannerism, gestures, clothes, make-up, and voice screamed "woman." Yasenia had never seen someone this... Quirky, so she was somewhat confused. But above confusion, there was wariness toward the person that appeared beside her so suddenly.

Yasenia saw no movements from that person. So after landing, she instinctively placed Cecile, Lidia, and Angel behind her and asked with a cold voice, taking a protective stance. "Who are you, and what do you want?"

Cecile was letting herself be carried, but that didn't mean that she hadn't taken out her bow and had an arrow nocked into it!

Yasenia looked at Anna, Eve, Clara, and Selena, and not seeing them moving and with a relaxed stance, she was somewhat relieved. Yasenia wasn't someone to judge appearances, but appearing so suddenly near them without warning made all her alarm bells ring unceasingly.

Yasenia saw the man inspecting her up and down with clear wonder in his eyes. There wasn't lust, but it was as if he had just found a precious treasure. After not hearing an answer from the man, Yasenia frowned and asked again. "Are you done inspecting me as if I were merchandise? Who are you, and what do you want? Answer!"

The man spoke, doing gestures with his hands, "Oh dear, you are the most beautiful woman I've seen, and I just wanted to get to know you. Why are you so defensive?"

Yasenia snorted, "Appearing beside us all of a sudden, wouldn't you be alerted too? You are lucky my maids didn't react to your intrusion, or you would be dead."

The man tilted his head, "Maids?"

He looked at the side and saw a group of four women with maid outfits looking at him with an extremely cold gaze. He felt a chill and gasped, "Since when were you here!? I didn't sense any of you!"

Anna sneered, "A mere level one Dantian Spiritualization cultivator, of course, you wouldn't be able to sense any of us. Speak your business to our young miss before we lose our patience, and your luck runs out."

The man turned serious and tried to look into their cultivation levels, only to fail miserably. He changed his attitude to a servile one, smiled, and said, "I just wanted to get to know such an exceptional junior. I have high sensitivity to pure Yang energy, and I couldn't help but come to take a look when I felt your young miss'. I apologize if I was rude, seniors."

Yasenia asked, approaching the maids with the others. "This is your last chance to ask. Do you want something, or not? You are being extremely annoying."

He almost lost his smile. But knowing that he was at a disadvantage, he just shook his head and said. "I just wanted to get to know you and maybe speak about what you will do in the future after you graduate from the Academy. Are you interested in joining our sect?"

Yasenia said, crossing her arms under her bountiful bosom. "I'm sorry, senior. My future lies within the academy. I don't plan to leave it unless something happens. Moreover, isn't poaching cultivators of our level against the Academy regulations?"

He smiled and said, "Don't worry, dear. No one follows that rule, hohoho. Our sect is a powerful third-rate sect, but I can promise that if you come, you will receive our sect's full support, which will be no different from the top sects. What do you say?"

Some people from Lidia's group laughed aloud, "Senior, do you know who you are trying to poach? If I were you, I would stop before something happens~."

The man was confused, but since Yasenia didn't want to lose any more time here, she just bluntly said. "I'm the daughter of the Academy's Headmistress."

The man opened his eyes wide with fear and instantly bowed, "I'm so sorry for being rude, miss! I-I'm going to go now."

He looked at the cold looks the maids were giving him and almost pissed his pants. 'I almost died! Let's get out of here fast.' He smiled a little stiffly and said, "Okay, have a good day."

Then, he used his movement technique and returned to the encampment.

Yasenia frowned slightly, "Why are all my encounters with dual cultivation sects so unpleasant...? Well, some are funny, but..."

Yasenia still had the tail around them, so Lidia said. "Yasenia, although I'm thankful... Could you let me go?"

Yasenia untangled her tail from them and nodded, "Sorry, I didn't want anything bad to happen to you."

Angel jumped onto Yasenia's back and sat on the root of her tail, using it as support. Then, she said, "Thanks for protecting big sis too, Yasenia. I love you!"

Yasenia lifted her with her tail until they were eye level and turned to give her a quick kiss. "She is my baby's family, after all."

Cecile answered her previous question, "You are too excellent, my love."

Yasenia looked at Cecile and tilted her head, confused, "What do you mean?"

Cecile said, "I mean it literally. Your constitution is practically peerless as a dual cultivation partner, so greed sprouts in their heart, thinking about the many advantages they would get if they managed to dual cultivate with you."

Cecile sighed, "Even if I'm sometimes bothered by it. I know that things like this won't ever stop happening... So, I can't be bothered to be angry at every person filtering with you..."

Cecile smiled at the group and said, "However, I rather prevent it if I can, right?"

They nodded continuously, afraid that Cecile would snap again.

One man from Lidia's group confirmed honestly. "What Cecile says is true. Even when I know that you are taken, and like women, I can't help but feel attracted to you, Yasenia."

Yasenia looked at him and smiled, "Being able to speak honestly about your feelings is commendable. If you keep that forward attitude, you will find someone soon."

The man scratched his cheek, "T-Thank you!"

The day passed without any more interesting events. The sects they visited weren't anything special, the camps quite basic, the disciples interesting, but Yasenia didn't see anyone she considered dangerous.

Hers and her lovers strengthening these months had made the dragoness confident. Even if each got lost on their own, Yasenia wouldn't be too worried about their survivability as she was in the formation in the tournament.

A week went by, and their cultivation continued improving.

During this week, Angel and Evelyn managed to reach the eighth level, overcoming Kali. The difference between real dual cultivation and what Kali and Yasenia were doing was extremely apparent.

Because of this, Kali was becoming impatient again. You have to understand that she was three levels higher than Evelyn and Angel when they first met, but now she was a level lower. Being easily overcome when you feel that your improvements are fast is hard to swallow.

Yasenia noticed this and tried to tone it down when they interacted, which mostly worked.

However... The demons inside Kali's heart fueled all her negative emotions, making Kali emotionally unstable this week. Yasenia noticed so she was spending a little more time with Kali than the others. No one complained because they knew how their dear dragoness operated. They even made opportunities to let them alone from time to time. The result? Kali's and Yasenia's relationship advanced a lot more.

Today was a special day.

Today they woke up like always, all over the soft dragoness and surrounded by her delightful sweet floral scent. However, they woke up earlier than Yasenia.

They first checked if Yasenia was asleep, and after confirming it, they looked at each other and nodded. Then, Tatyana made all of them float and moved them out of bed without waking up Yasenia.

They all chuckled and went down to prepare a surprise.

Yasenia woke up half an hour later and felt strange; the weight around her was too light. She looked down and only saw Tatyana by her side, looking up at her.

Yasenia spoke with a hoarse, sexy voice from just waking up, "Good morning, mom. Where are the others?"

Tatyana chuckled and laid on top of Yasenia. "Are they so important~? You aren't paying too much attention to mommy, hmm~."

Tatyana rubbed her moist lower lips on the morning erection and whispered sensually, sending any other thoughts of the dragoness flying. "How about a morning mmph-."

What followed were moans and slaps of flesh against flesh for half an hour.

Right now, Tatyana was naked and letting Yasenia use her thighs as a pillow. She moved her hand on the twitching member slowly and caressed Yasenia's damp hair. Tatyana looked down at the cuddly Yasenia and said softly. "Let's stop here, little treasure."

Yasenia buried her face between her thighs and put pressure on them. Tatyana understood what she wanted, so she opened her legs. After Tatyana spread her legs, Yasenia reached the beautiful and plump lower lips. She sucked and breathed in greedily the potent smell there, making her member rock hard. Then, she began slurping greedily.

Both went at it one last time in that position.

After bathing and putting on their robes, they went down with interlocked arms. Yasenia chuckled, "Morning action sure is pleasurable~."

Tatyana laughed, "You sure got your fill~."

Yasenia slapped her butt with her tail playfully, "I sure did~."

Tatyana looked sideways at Yasenia and shook her head with a smile.

When they reached the big living room, Yasenia was greeted by a collective shout from a ton of people, "Happy 21st birthday, Yasenia!"

Yasenia opened her eyes wide and looked at the big group of people before her. There were obviously her lovers and maids. However, the people Yasenia didn't expect were Madeleine, Dr. Ava, Mason, Lidia, Linda, and a group of 20 or so disciples that were friends with her.

Yasenia smiled happily, her eyes curved into crescents, and her cheeks became rosy with happiness, creating an extremely charming face.

With that face that charmed all people present, she said with a gentle tone. “Thank you! I didn’t expect this.”

Her words woke them up from their stupor, and they all clapped at the happy birthday song rhythm from the Moon Empire. Yasenia continued laughing and clapped with them.

She approached everyone present and gave a tight hug and a kiss on the cheek. The 20 disciples were left smiling from ear to ear; how could they not? A hug and kiss from Yasenia was something to be happy.

Then, the party went on for the entire day; there was food and games. After a little while, and with Yasenia’s instance, the seniors told some of their stories, leaving Yasenia and others with a face that shouted for more.

However, the day was coming to an end, and the moment to deliver the presents approached! Everyone took out their gifts and waited their turn to give them to Yasenia.

First, Yasenia’s friends, Lidia, and Linda approached; they gave Yasenia some heaven-ranked healing pills, attack talismans, and similar things. They were useful items that could save one’s life in a dangerous moment, a very big present.

Yasenia didn’t refuse and gave them another big kiss on the cheek, leaving everyone happy again.

The seniors didn’t give Yasenia any presents, but Yasenia didn’t mind. She was extremely happy that they came to celebrate with her, especially Madeleine and Mason, who didn’t grow up with her.

The reason both of them came was that they had become quite fond of the dragoness. Madeleine as her master, and Mason as her instructor in the sword, have shared quite a lot of time together, and they didn’t escape the charm and charisma of our dragoness.

The maids went forward and presented ten or so life-saving treasures each... Each treasure was in the High-level Heaven rank...

Chapter 183

After presenting this absurd present, they all said happily and simultaneously, “Young miss happy-.”

Tatyana snatched the present away and said. “Ten life-saving treasures!? That is too much! Do you want to make her immortal or something!?”

The maids pouted, and Anna said, “Lady Tatyana! At least let us give her one!”

Tatyana shook her head, “No, a pill or something similar isn’t bad, but there is no way I will let you give her something so precious.”

After hearing that a pill was okay, Anna and Eve smiled widely and took out a transcendent level pill, each with an aura that gave the surroundings an ancient vibe. Tatyana and the rest looked stupefied at those pills.

“Happy birth-”

Tatyana directly snatched them away again. “Do you want fate to go to hell!? Also, where the hell did you get these pills!?”

Dr. Ava looked at them and frowned. Then, realization hit her, and she exclaimed. “Oy, aren’t those pills mine!?”

Anna and Eve froze for a second and said simultaneously, “O-Of course not, master. How could you think we stole these pills to give them to our young miss four months ago!? It is impossible we would disrespect you for our young miss!”

Dr. Ava felt some veins pop in her forehead out of anger and her aura turned turbulent, making Anna and Eve sweat nervously. However, suddenly everything calmed down, and Dr. Ava smiled at them. “We will talk later, dear disciples.”

A chill ran up their spines. The angrier Dr. Ava got, the calmer and more gentle she looked. ‘W-We are going to suffer...’

But, Yassenia interrupted with a smile and came to their rescue. “Don’t be so angry, Aunt Avalonia. They did it out of goodwill, so could you reduce the punishment?”

Dr. Ava sighed and said, “Fine, you two are lucky that I like little Yassenia a lot.”

Anna and Eve jumped into Yassenia’s embrace with tears in their eyes. “We love you, young miss!”

They totally did this out of gratefulness and not to take advantage of the situation and have more skin-ship with their young miss, absolutely not.

Yassenia patted the pair of sisters and said, “Do not do this again; I know you want to give me things, but stealing from people we know is not good.”

‘So stealing from people we don’t know is good.’ Were the collective thoughts of all the maids.

Yassenia continued speaking after she looked at the other maids, “Also, don’t worry about the life-saving treasures; I already have a lot of them! Thanks a lot anyway. The intention is more than enough.”

But, the maids were thinking, ‘A chance to give young miss good things, how could we not bury her with treasures?’

Therefore, Anna and the rest gave her even more healing pills, beast repelling pills, and similar pills of not a very high grade until Tatyana had to intervene again. The maids tsked and stopped giving her things, leaving Yassenia with arms full of pill jars. Yassenia and the rest of the present people were looking at the pile of pill jars stupidly. ‘Isn’t that still a little too much!?’

How could they know that the “small present” meaning was also a little skewered inside Tatyana’s mind? Yassenia wouldn’t be lacking low-level pills for a long time!

After Yassenia put away all the pills, Angel was next. Yassenia saw her little girl coming forward with a sweet smile and a formation rock on her palm. “Yassenia, here, this is an instant formation with my [Laser Prison Formation] inscribed in it! You can use it up to five times! Moreover, it will gain the strength of the attribute you use it with!”

Yassenia’s eyes opened wide, ‘That formation is extremely complex; to be able to ingrain it in something that can use it instantly, you need an extremely precious material and a ton of months of perfecting the energy circuits. This object is similar to a mid-grade earth rank treasure only because of its limited uses. If it wasn't limited, reaching the low-level heaven rank wouldn't be impossible!'

The reason Tatyana didn't take these presents over was that they were gained by people of a similar level to Yaseia, so they won't affect fate even if they give her a transcendent ranked treasure. And for those curious, no amount of "smart" cheating will make it possible to deliver these kinds of presents through low-level cultivators without altering the recipient's fate.

Yaseia looked at the nervous Angel and hugged her close, burying her in her softness and filled with gratefulness. "Thanks a lot, baby. I like it a lot. I love you."

Angel became extremely happy and rubbed her little head between Yaseia's breasts. 'Yay! She liked my present~.'

Yaseia kissed her and then let her return. Angel retreated with a sweet smile and blushing cheeks from the joy she was feeling.

Evelyn and Andrea came up next.

Yaseia looked curiously at the two of them. 'Hoh~ is it a shared present? I'm eager to know what it is~.'

Andrea smirked and said, "Since Evelyn entered the tailoring profession, we've decided to make a present together for you."

Yaseia became excited. 'It truly is a shared present~, is lovely to see my dears getting along together~.'

Evelyn said, scratching her head. "Well, Andrea is exaggerating. She almost finished it completely by herself; I just helped her here and there..."

Evelyn straightened and said proudly. "But, although I've dragged Andrea back with my low skill, at least we managed to make a nice pair of gloves."

Andrea chuckled and patted Evelyn's electric blue hair. "She has put a ton of effort into this. It is clear that she has a lot of potential in tailoring, much more than she had in alchemy. The learning pace was almost visual during these months. I'm actually quite eager to work with Evelyn together in the future." Evelyn smiled happily, receiving Andrea's praise.

Yaseia went forward and hugged Evelyn while nestling inside Andrea's embrace. "Thanks a lot, dear, darling. I will treasure these gloves."

Evelyn's smile grew uncontrollably, and she scolded jokingly. "You haven't even seen them, and you are already saying this! You are still a stupidly lovable dragoness."

Yaseia chuckled and said softly, "Even if there are mortal ranked, this dragoness will wear them!"

Andrea lowered her head, and Evelyn tiptoed to kiss Yaseia's cheeks simultaneously, making the dragoness smile. Evelyn then commented, "If they were mortal ranked, we wouldn't let you wear them out of fear they hurt you!"

Then, without letting the dragoness wait anymore, Evelyn took out a pair of white and golden fingerless leather gloves. Andrea said with pride, "After our efforts, we managed to create a high-level Earth-rank pair of gloves. Their effect is simple and effective, doubling the strength of the bearer's punches. Although the gloves that come with your battle dress are sturdy and can act as a nice defense, I think being on the offense is more fitting for you. Moreover, we made these gloves with yours in mind so that you can put them both. They should fit quite well together.”

Evelyn nodded, “With your absurd body strength, these pair of gloves are very fitting. You would be able to punch things into oblivion!”

Yasenia was more than delighted.

It was already a happy event to our dragoness, no matter what they gave her. So them giving her something so useful, as Angel did, made our dragoness wash them with kisses and love.

The people around looked at the attacking dragoness and her laughing victims and chuckled.

Andrea and Evelyn went down with kiss marks all over their face and smiles that couldn’t leave their faces.

Next, it was Cecile’s turn to go up. Yasenia looked at her, and her tail wagged. “Even sweetheart is giving me something?”

Cecile smiled gently, highlighting her peerlessly beautiful face, and nodded. Her face didn’t have her normally cold features but a constant gentle smile on it, bewitching a lot of people present. Her voice was clear, like always. “I was troubled for a long time since I’m not an expert in any profession... I didn’t know what to give you for your birthday for a long time.”

Yasenia embraced her and said, “It doesn’t matter; anything you give me is something I will cherish my whole life.”

Cecile embraced her with her arms and wings and said, “I know. That is why I tried to find something useful. So... I went to the library and found something that may be useful to you. However, it was extremely rare, and there wasn’t any place that sold it.”

Cecile took out a fist-sized pearl. It was gold, silver, and white. Those colors swam around the pearl in mesmerizing waves. The aura around it was mysterious and profound. At a single glance, every person present could sense that it was a natural treasure from the Heavens and Earth.

Treasures were divided into natural and artificial. The meaning was quite literal.

Natural treasures were created after countless years passed and because of environmental factors.

Cultivators created artificial treasures with different techniques in a much faster way.

The main difference was that Natural treasures grew with the bearer if they managed to link together. This was because they had that ability to evolve after so many years of tempering themselves in nature. On the other hand, artificial treasures did not have this quality.

So this extremely beautiful pearl was actually something very precious.

Tatyana and the seniors around raised an eyebrow, impressed. Even themselves wouldn’t be able to get their hands on something like this easily.

‘How did she get her hands on this?’ Were the thoughts of many people around.

Cecile said, “This is a [Celestial Pearl]. From what I read about, it will be able to aid you with cultivation and comprehension of your elements and grow with you.”

Yasenia glanced at that pearl and was instantly mesmerized; she felt like it was made for her. Entranced, she slowly moved her hand forward, grabbing the fist size pearl.

When her skin touched the pearl, Yasenia felt her thoughts become clearer, and she was able to gain an understanding of the world she didn't have before. Her eyes unfocused, and in the next instant, she had a single vision of herself.

Yasenia was floating in the sky, wearing royal robes that made her beauty become Empyreal, and her golden slit eyes glowed beautifully radiating imperial might.

A gaze so bewitching that could captivate even the most apathetic of Gods and Goddesses.

With innate elegance, she commanded the firmament as if she were a supreme being, moving stars, planets, or any celestial being as if they were an extension of her own body. And behind her, a dragon so immense that it could dwarf those celestial bodies was flapping its wings majestically.

Its body seemed to be made with a piece of the starry night sky, with one half governed by the Sun and another by the Moon. Around them, the stars rotated, making Yasenia and that dragon that represented herself seem to be the center of the universe.

Everything and Everyone trembled beneath her absolute might! Or fell for her unmatched beauty!

Then, the vision shifted, and she felt herself floating in space, surrounded by the countless stars of the firmament, with the moon to her right and the sun to her left. Everywhere she looked, only the infiniteness of the universe welcomed her sight. Everywhere but before herself.

In this mysterious space, before Yasenia was a flame that carried the same attributes as everything she governed, dark blue with white glitters. It was moving in a mesmerizing way, making Yasenia unable to look away from it once she spotted it. When Yasenia looked at that flame, she felt that thing that was about to awaken extremely clear.

It was a kind of energy that was hidden inside of her, energy so chaotic, yet beautiful; so powerful, yet mysterious; so ancient, yet it seemed everywhere in the world, creating new life and destroying it at will.

It was clear in Yasenia's mind what it was.

The Celestial Attribute.

An attribute that governs everything in the sky.

Chapter 184

In the party room, when Yasenia touched the [Celestial Pearl], it shone with a soft dark-blue starry color, illuminating everything around with a soft and not blinding glow and immersing the room in a night-sky-like space. This glow seemed comforting, powerful, ancient, and mysterious, arousing a lot of emotion inside the people present.

The glow powdered Yasenia and the nearby Cecile beautifully, letting many people in a trance when they looked at them.

Then, without previous indications, Yaseenia's aura unfurled powerfully, washing everyone in the room in an instant. Behind her, the phantom of her dragon form appeared, looking down at herself. It wasn't big, not more than five meters tall, yet the aura it leaked was enough to make all juniors present feel like the sky was falling on them.

Alaia, who had a very pure dragon bloodline, almost kneeled when she put her eyes on that dragon, and when she felt its current aura, she had to use all her willpower to not kneel to Yaseenia's current aura release. Not because of its strength but because of the authority it exuded.

Yaseenia's colorless aura suddenly took a dark-blue tone, which multiplied the aura's might again and created a shockwave that pushed the juniors back some steps, including Cecile, leaving only Yaseenia in the middle of the room. The aura kept becoming denser as if something unfathomable was about to awaken.

However, when that aura was about to transform completely to something completely new and show Yaseenia's true potential, the [Celestial Pearl] stopped emitting that soft dark-blue starry glow.

Together with the pearl, Yaseenia's aura and the surroundings relaxed, returning to the previous atmosphere, allowing the juniors to take a deep breath to relax their pounding hearts. Then, the phantom dragon disappeared as if it was an illusion. It was at this moment that Yaseenia came back from her daze and opened her previously closed eyes slowly.

In her golden slit eyes, the people saw that dark-blue starry glow flash once before it completely disappeared. When Yaseenia let out a sigh and began looking around, confused, the pearl hurt Yaseenia's palm and opened a small wound on it.

The stinging pain made Yaseenia look down curiously at the mysterious pearl. Her blood, as if unaffected by gravity, flowed around the pearl. Following that, those blood droplets zoomed into the pearl and got absorbed by it. As the pearl absorbed the blood, it became smaller and smaller until it entered through Yaseenia's wound inside her body.

The people around looked stupefied, and Yaseenia hastily checked her insides with her energy. Yaseenia saw that the pearl had shrunk and sunk into herself, traveling into her dantian!

Yaseenia looked inside the Dantian and saw that pearl floating around and spinning, like a beautiful marble in the middle of her ocean of energy inside. The energy inside her dantian spun around the pearl and strengthened passively.

Cecile looked from the side with a smile, delighted by everything that happened. She wasn't worried because none of the present seniors stopped the pearl, so she was reassured that everything that happened was beneficial for Yaseenia.

Cecile wanted to give something meaningful to Yaseenia for her first birthday. Therefore, each time she went on a mission on her own, she had actually sneaked into the cloud layers. Cecile knew that treasures from other continents could drop in this place, so she chose this as a place to search for a treasure.

With her current strength, if she treaded the area carefully, she was able to fight against almost any threat that appeared in the first layer.

However, even with the abundant treasures inside the Cloud Layers, getting this pearl had been extremely difficult. She had been close to death a lot of times, something she hadn't talked about to Yasenia, but all her efforts were rewarded when she found this inside the belly of a low-level fourth-ranked beast.

Yes, Cecile managed to defeat a weak level four beast! That was a creature that was inside the Unification Realm. To be able to surmount cultivation in this realm was something not many could accomplish because the Unification realm was an enormous boost to the cultivator.

At that time, she didn't want to fight it. However, she spotted that this beast was slightly different, so, after preparing herself, she tried to kill it. The battle was the most difficult one in her life, but thanks to her bloodline abilities and regeneration, she was able to exhaust it and finally kill it. One of the reasons she could beat it was that she could fly, and that beast was similar to a giant elephant, and it couldn't attack her easily. Moreover, she was lucky that it wasn't a cloud beast, so it couldn't escape well when she weakened it.

Yasenia returned to her senses and looked at Cecile emotionally. After receiving the treasure, how could our dragoness not realize how precious this treasure was? 'My sweetheart must have worked hard to get this pearl...'

Yasenia couldn't hold herself back and pounced on Cecile, giving her a deep and passionate kiss. She didn't hold back a bit and didn't care about the surroundings. Cecile happily kissed her back and melted in her embrace, feeling Yasenia's long tongue filling her mouth. The squishy, soft, sweet, and long tongue tangled with hers and almost made her moan.

After Yasenia stopped kissing her, Cecile had moist eyes and blushing cheeks; Cecile snuggled closer and almost began purring in comfort, surrounded by Yasenia's soft body.

The 20 disciples were speechless after seeing the normally ice-cold woman like a docile little wife in Yasenia's embrace. Cecile's melted, blushing, and smiling face was sending many of them into a daze, unable to look away. 'Is this the same Cecile we know!? What did you do with the peerless iceberg beauty!? That woman that seemed like a lone Moon Goddess!? She looks like she is the sweetest girl in the world, ahh! She is so beautiful like that!'

Yasenia asked without loosening her embrace and using her tail to caress Cecile all over. "Mom, how can I benefit from this pearl?"

Tatyana debated whether to tell her or not. In all honesty, this pearl is something that Tatyana had her forces looking for; she knew that this was extremely beneficial for Yasenia, and she wanted to give it to her even before Yasenia began cultivating.

Sadly, her subordinates weren't able to find it no matter how hard they searched. They were still searching for more treasures even at this moment, unsuccessful.

The effect of the pearl would become apparent in the Dantian Spiritualization realm. Instead of creating a core with just energy, the pearl would become the core, multiplying Yasenia's strength even more. Moreover, her affinity with the Sun, Moon, and Star energies will become even higher. Furthermore, this kind of pear was a Natural Treasure created in space after hundreds of thousands of years of accumulation of celestial energies, resulting in something that would be able to get Yasenia closer to her Unique Attribute.

In short, it was an essential object that would make Yasenia a lot stronger. Tatyana thought, ‘Yasenia’s body strength and energy quality make her monstrous in the Mental Nourishing Realm. Yasenia’s spiritual breakthrough, ingested pills, and abnormal soul strength will make her monstrous in the Unification Realm. And this single pearl will make Yasenia monstrous in the Dantian Spiritualization Realm. Moreover, when I give her the thing I’m creating with the dragon’s resources... Wow, my daughter will be quite scary.’

Tatyana thought with excitement, ‘Will she be the first to surmount cultivation and fight against Transcendent Realm cultivations? I can’t wait to see it!’

Tatyana said calmly, hiding her enthusiasm. “I will tell you later. Know that right now, it is beneficial for you to understand your element deeper. I will tell you the rest when the time is right. Don’t worry, even if I don’t tell you, you will be able to understand its functions by yourself. I don’t want to limit your thinking on its uses with my information since I don’t know if what I know is accurate or complete.”

Yasenia nodded in understanding, and she separated Cecile from her. Cecile recovered her cold and indifferent face the moment she left Yasenia’s embrace and returned to her seat, leaving the people around with twitching eyebrows and speechless. ‘Where is the soft Cecile!? Is everything that isn’t Yasenia-related irrelevant to you!? Is being inside Yasenia’s arms a completely different world for you!?’

Thankfully, they didn’t ask aloud because Cecile would have certainly answered “Yes.” Making them spurt blood or something.

Kali’s turn arrived. She advanced toward Yasenia, and after she took a deep breath, she took off her veil, walking toward Yasenia with confident steps. Most disciples cringed slightly at the sight of her face but recovered their calm fast. This reaction was inevitable since Kali’s face was badly deformed. From seeing Yasenia and Cecile, two goddess-level beauties, to seeing our Kali’s face was truly hard to process without giving a reaction. Yasenia didn’t blame them.

However, this calm they regained didn’t last because they saw Yasenia gathering Kali in her arms and, without a shred of hesitation, kissing her. To say they were surprised was an understatement!

Even though they knew that they were a couple, most of them thought that it was something superficial without physical contact. Cultivators generally were very shallow, so they could only think that their affection was based on benefits more than love. However, this deep kiss overturned their understanding of Yasenia, Kali, and everything they thought about their relationship.

But instead of feeling nauseated or something, they admired Yasenia with all their hearts. The fact that Yasenia could see past superficial flaws and love Kali sincerely made them all think that Yasenia had a very pure heart under all that she was.

Kali blushed while Yasenia kissed her and her verdant green eyes looked at Yasenia with tender feelings. ‘She didn’t mind about others and kissed me! So happy~.’

In truth, this action was Kali betting on Yasenia. She still had insecurities in this aspect, no matter how intimate the relationship was in private. When they were in public, Kali had a lot of reservations, thinking things like, ‘Does she mind me being affectionate outside?’, ‘Should I be more modest when there are other people present?’ Or similar questions.

This kiss smashed many of these questions and deepened the love Kali felt for Yasenía.

From the side, Linda looked with a pout at their display, jealous of Kali, but then smiled lightly. 'I'm happy for you, Kali. I hope your happiness last to eternity and beyond, and you have a lot of children.'

To Linda, the interactions she had these months with Kali had made her realize what kind of woman Kali was, and besides her social awkwardness and appearance, Kali was extraordinary in every other aspect. Linda could say without a doubt that if Kali had her previous appearance, she would be on the same level as Angel and Andrea.

Kali took out a pill jar. Inside, a single pill resided. Kali said, "I thought about making healing pills, but I knew that most people would give them to you, so I created this."

Kali made the light green pill with golden patterns float and said, "After studying with Master Frederick, Master Avalonia, and Flora. My attainments in alchemy have improved a bit."

Flora and Avalonia at the side chuckled silently, 'A bit? She had made monstrous improvements! From being able to craft low-level earth-ranked pills with 74% purity to crafting high-level earth-ranked pills with 80% purity! If this were known outside, people would probably kill themselves, thinking about what were they doing for the last 100 years to make the same improvement!'

Kali continued and said, "This is a pill that is able to maintain someone's life even if they are at death's doorstep, no matter the injuries. It lasts for 10 minutes; I hope you never have to use it, but... Better be safe than sorry."

Yasenía took the pill with her energy and opened her eyes. 'A low-level heaven-rank pill? Even if the others also gave me similar pills, they are from shops and made by senior alchemists!'

Yasenía stored the pill inside the jar and kept it in her ring, "Thank you, honey. I'm extremely happy that you advanced so much."

Kali nodded and hugged Yasenía one last time, then stepped back and returned to her seat.

Tatyana approached with a smile, and Yasenía was surprised, "Mom will give me something!?"

Tatyana almost tripped. She appeared beside Yasenía and hit her head lightly... Well, lightly for her.

BANG!

Yasenía was slammed into the ground, her legs twitching. Tatyana ignored her recently planted daughter and said, aggravated, "How could you say something like that! It's as if I refuse to give you anything!"

While Yasenía stood up dizzily, Tatyana suddenly said, "Every night, I give- mmmph."

Yasenía flashed before Tatyana and silenced her with her hands with blushing cheeks, "What are you trying to talk about before so many people!?"

Tatyana looked at the side and saw Evelyn taking photos at high speed and lifted her thumb at her. 'We have to catch every time my daughter blushes! Good job, Evelyn!'

Tatyana flashed between Yasenía's arms and kissed her chin. "Little treasure, I have something for you!"

Yasenia looked at the gorgeous woman between her arms and sighed with a smile, “What is it?”

Tatyana smiled and flickered her hand to make a book appear, “This book is part of your [Heavenly Maiden Ascends To Heaven] Dual cultivation technique. Until now, you just dual cultivated normally, benefiting both parties equally. However, as everything in this world, dual cultivation can also be a weapon~.”

Chapter 185

Yasenia looked at the title of the book. [Heavenly Maiden Absorbs The Heavens]. Tatyana said, “There are plenty of strong dual cultivators entering the secret realm. If you fall into a trap with any of them or want to use your beauty to your advantage, you can use this. This technique can forcefully absorb Yin and Yang and counter almost any dual cultivation techniques.”

Yasenia frowned and looked at Tatyana, “Although I heard it from the maids... You truly don’t mind if I have sex with other people? Are you that indifferent at me being under another man or woman?”

Tatyana looked at Yasenia and shrugged. Then she said in a composed manner, “What is sex without love? Nothing more than lustful people satiating their cravings. There isn’t real emotion; there isn’t a real connection, just the pleasure of the flesh and nothing more. I don’t find it any different than a massage.”

Tatyana continued, “I don’t care if you have sex with other people; what I care about is....” Tatyana used a finger and pointed at Yasenia’s heart. “... This.”

Tatyana smiled slightly, “If you love mom as you do now in the future, and this thing in your chest doesn’t move because of the people that have sex with you, then mom is satisfied. ”

Yasenia was about to protest, but Tatyana interrupted. “The other girls also don’t care if you do it for necessity; they all understand your needs, especially after these last months when your cultivation increased.”

Tatyana sighed, “If Cecile hadn’t had that improvement and I wasn’t present, they would have begun struggling to cope with your stamina in three to ten years.”

Yasenia’s face became grim. Tatyana chuckled and said, “Moreover, they also understand that you are someone with a good head over your shoulders. So don’t feel guilty if something like that happens; inform us truthfully like you always do, and we will be happy and understanding.”

Yasenia looked at the others and saw them nod, including Kali. Yasenia didn’t say anything and looked deeply into their eyes. After five minutes of silence, Yasenia didn’t see any struggles in their eyes; they were composed and still looking at her gently.

Yasenia sighed and took the book without saying anything. Then, Yasenia turned toward the other guests and said with a smile. “Thank you all for coming today. I would love to spend the rest of the day with my family.”

Everyone nodded and began leaving. Yasenia sent them off with one last hug and kiss, leaving them all with smiley faces.

After they left, only her lovers, Tatyana, and the maids were left. Yasenia looked at them and smiled, “Thank you for everything today, dears.”

Angel went to her side with a little jog, and Yasenia picked her up. Angel secured herself between her arms and smiled sweetly; she loved being carried by Yasenia. Then, they went to the sofa and sat there. Yasenia and the others began speaking a little until it was time to go to bed.

This night Yasenia didn't hold back. She poured her happiness inside every hole, leaving them a twitching mess.

First, Angel was penetrated with slow but long strokes. It was gentle sex that stimulated every nerve and made the stimulation permanent. Angel was high up in the orgasm zone, constantly moaning with all her might and squirting almost every minute. Her abdomen and legs constantly trembled as her pleasure nerves flared continuously. Yasenia's skillful strokes were making Angel crazy with stimulation. "AH! Yasenia, it feels so good!! Oh my heavens, I'm cumming!"

Right now, Angel was on all fours while Yasenia pounded her from behind with deep and long strokes and used her hand to caress Angel's clitoris and fondle her big breasts. Her tail wasn't idle as it was penetrating her butt, using double penetration to maintain this level of ecstasy at a higher level.

Angel could only moan and was deliriously spouting blabber as she felt Yasenia's long and thick tail penetrating her ass deeply. "I'M CUMMING AGAIN!!!"

Yasenia leaned forward and bent Angel's body with one hand to kiss her from behind. When Angel came, her inner spasms made Yasenia moan, pushing her into an orgasm. Yasenia poured her extremely pure load with Yang energy, including life energy, into the uterus and rectum. The potent semen trying to inseminate her made Angel jet spray and lose control of her bladder, pissing herself.

Yasenia felt the hot liquid against her hand, but she didn't mind and continued rubbing Angel and splashing her fluids with her hand while invading Angel's mouth with her long tongue. Her penis, and tail filled Angel's holes until it was pouring out into the pool of liquids below Angel's legs.

Yasenia continued cumming inside until Angel fainted mid-orgasm after shouting with pleasure until she was hoarse. Her body filled with the dragoness electrifying, thick, hot, and pleasant seed.

Yasenia took out her members, letting the holes overflow, and went to clean her. Selena looked at the mess they made and almost slipped a hand into her heating core between her human and serpentine half. However, she resisted.

Then, Yasenia went to Andrea's room. Twenty minutes later, Andrea was pounding Yasenia from above in the mating press position with the tail going deep inside her butt.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

The pleasure she received during these 20 minutes made Andrea completely sex-crazed, and the only thing she could think of was filling Yasenia until she couldn't cum a single more time. Yasenia loudly moaned as Andrea penetrated her cervix, messed up her insides, and her powerful thrust hit her uterus wall repeatedly.

The strong pounding Andrea was giving her made her cum with a lewd smile, smearing her big breast with her own semen, and her tail released her semen inside Andrea.

Andrea throatily moaned as electricity coursed her body, and her semen shot out her penis inside the full uterus of the dragoness.

After calming down, they changed positions, and Yasenia began filling Andrea next. Andrea's eyes rolled up in just the first thrust as Yasenia's big member penetrated her cervix, expanding her insides to the form it had taken shape of during these months. "OHH!!"

Yasenia didn't hold back and pounded Andrea with all her might, making the bed creak continuously, accompanying the sounds of flesh against flesh and pleasure-filled moans in the room. Andrea could only last thirty more minutes. Then, she went to clean her as she did with Angel.

Leila's nose was twitching as she cleaned the sheets, her eyes had a slight mist in them, and her bushy dog tail was wagging. 'My heavens, it will be difficult to control myself when young miss is stronger~. It smells so good~.'

Next was Evelyn's turn. Evelyn was lying belly up on the bed with her head dangling on the edge and her mouth wide open. Yasenia was holding her throat and face fucking her, letting Evelyn's slurping sounds spread in the room.

Yasenia came with a grunt, hilding herself and pouring her semen directly into her stomach. Evelyn sprayed as the penis occupied her throat, and Yasenia's vagina squirted in her nose, making her only able to breathe Yasenia's fluids.

After taking out her penis, Evelyn took big gulps of air and coughed; Yasenia caressed her back and cleaned her face, "Did you like this, dear? I don't know if I did it as you wanted."

Evelyn was still twitching with pleasure, and her vagina squirted a little with each spasm. Her speech was slurred as she looked at Yasenia with adoration. "You are the best~."

Yasenia entered character again and sneered, "Degenerate, to be able to feel pleasure like this SLAP! You are a disgrace!"

Evelyn moaned and shouted out, "I'm bad; please punish me mistress!"

Yasenia's eyebrow twitched, 'Mistress?'

However, even while she pondered about this new title, Evelyn's butt didn't have time to rest. SLAP! SLAP! SLAP!

Evelyn had a lewd smile as Yasenia's hand delivered the slaps. Yasenia pressed Evelyn face down with a hand above her head and said, "What do you say before this mistress pounds you? Answer!"

Evelyn shouted with ecstasy, "Please, mistress, plow my unwor- OHHH! "

Yasenia didn't wait to finish the sentence and pierced her. Then while shaping her small butt, Yasenia pounded her mind to oblivion.

After the deed, while Yasenia cleaned Evelyn, Alaia cleaned the sheets with a sadistic smile, 'Young miss is so domineering~.'

Cecile's and Yasenia's mating was on a whole different level as they fucked each other with only the objective of making their waist meet one more time.

Yasenia fucked Cecile's throat with her tail, and Cecile used the monster dildo to expand Yasenia's vagina and cervix more than what a human woman would find pleasurable.

The dragoness, however, was shouting with euphoria as Cecile ravaged her insides. Their mating went on for one and a half hours. Then, their animalistic mating changed into a lovely one; Cecile and Yasenia entangled with each other as they moved their waist lovingly. Yasenia growled and licked Cecile, penetrating her backdoor with her tail and her insides, massaging Cecile's enormous penis inside her.

Cecile surrounded her with her wings and entangled Yasenia's tongue with hers as she moved inside Yasenia's flooded uterus. This went on for half an hour until Cecile couldn't go on.

Yasenia was extremely satisfied with Cecile's performance. She only had a quarter of her stamina left after this. Yasenia took quite some time cleaning Cecile because her silver wings were quite big, and her silver hair and three tails were quite long.

Clara's silver eyes were looking at the mess of a room with dreamy eyes. Her tan skin was slightly flushed, and she passed a hand through her white hair dreamily. 'I hope Young miss pounds me like this one day~. Ahn~ her big members ravaging my insides must feel heavenly~.'

After Yasenia cleaned Cecile, she decided to go to Tatyana first and leave Kali for last. With Tatyana, they had slow sex from the beginning. Yasenia was on top of Tatyana, growling lovely and pouring life energy inside Tatyana. Tatyana kissed Yasenia and also released life-energy fluids inside her uterus. Even if there was absolutely no chance, for both of them, this act was extremely pleasurable for the heart.

Yasenia growled beside her ear and nibbled it while saying. "Mom, I love you~. I'm filling you again~."

Tatyana was in heaven, receiving Yasenia's affections. This way was her paradise, "I love you too, little treasure."

Yasenia came with all the life energy she could, and Tatyana answered the same way. Their fluids mixed, but Tatyana's fluids devoured Yasenia's without letting anything happen.

Yasenia didn't mind and continued pouring everything she had inside Tatyana. Tatyana's insides spasmed, signaling her orgasm and made Yasenia moan in pleasure.

Yasenia was almost empty twenty minutes later. Tatyana pecked Yasenia and said gently, "One day, something will happen, don't worry."

Yasenia licked her neck and nodded, staying inside Tatyana's embrace and connected for another ten minutes.

Then, after becoming a blob dragoness under Tatyana's administration, she was helped by her and went to her final stop after four hours.

Yasenia had already turned back to her seductive self the moment she arrived at Kali's room. She then knocked on the door and entered. To Yasenia's surprise, Kali was seated inside the bed with the sheets covering everything down her neck.

Yasenia approached with a gentle smile and said, "Are you eager, honey?"

Seeing the big beauty approaching with the usual skimpy nightgown, Kali flushed red. She could see everything except her private area, her big breasts, beautiful and slim waist, wide hips, long and plump legs, and swishing tail; all of this was enhanced by Yaseenia's tender, creamy, and flawless skin. Kali was practically salivating. 'I-I think she is more attractive like this than if she were naked.'

She was even shyer than usual because of one fact. After Yaseenia sat beside her, she stammered with red cheeks, "I-I'm na-na-na..."

Yaseenia looked at the nervous Kali tenderly and waited to know what Kali wanted to say to her; she didn't mind waiting until her honey relaxed. Kali knew that Yaseenia would wait, so after feeling that she was too nervous, she stopped trying and closed her eyes, regaining some calm in her wildly beating heart. Then, after taking a deep breath, she looked at Yaseenia's golden slit eyes and said, "I'm naked under the sheets!"

Yaseenia's gentle smile froze, and her eyes opened wide with surprise.

Seeing that silly expression on the normally charming and confident Yaseenia made Kali burst into laughter. 'So cute~.'

Yaseenia recovered from her shock and asked excitedly, "I can see your body?"

Kali didn't imagine that Yaseenia would be so excited, so she became apprehensive. 'Being so excited... W-Won't she be disappointed after seeing me?'

However, this was her last struggle with Yaseenia, and Kali wanted to overcome it on Yaseenia's birthday. Moreover, If Yaseenia didn't show disgust for her body, Kali felt that she would be prepared to give even her soul for her.

However, at this moment, when she was about to overcome one of her biggest fears, a voice female mocking voice echoed in her mind.

'Naïve.'

Kali frowned, 'Shut up!'

Instead of contradicting, the voice spoke with a smile, 'However, go ahead, show her your body. We are quite happy that you decided to take this step~. Finally, a chance to turn the tables! Do you really think that she won't judge your body? Hahaha.'

Kali wanted to answer again, but pair of soft, delicious, and plump lips landed on hers, distracting her from her thoughts. Kali answered the kiss instinctively and refocused on the dragoness. After the kiss, she looked at Yaseenia again and saw that her nightgown was half undone, showing even one of her nipples. Kali gulped.

Yaseenia said with a seductive tone that made her body tingle, "Do you want for me to be also naked? Or you prefer me with clothes~?"

Kali forgot about her demons and looked at the sexy dragoness more closely. Her voluptuous body and creamy skin made her utterly irresistible. Kali remembered what was hiding in Yaseenia's core, but she nodded nonetheless. 'H-How will it be?'

Yaseenia smiled tenderly and stood up. Then, a sexy striptease began.

Chapter 186

Yasenia looked at Kali sensually and made the left strap fall; the nightgown fell until Yasenia's hard nipple prevented it from descending. Looking at Yasenia's aureola, Kali gulped.

The right strap followed, and Yasenia's dress was now perched on her nipples. It was an extremely sexy scene, and Kali felt her nether regions dampening.

Yasenia walked forward until she was beside the bed, the dress about to fall all the time with the breasts' jiggling. Kali was looking with unblinking eyes at those proud mounds, wanting to see but unable to.

Then, Kali saw Yasenia slowly lifting one of her long legs and placing it on the bed; the raising knee moved the light nightgown enough and made it fall, revealing the arousing scenery behind it. Kali was now able to see those breasts she knew the taste of so well and adored. She licked her drying lips and gulped.

After placing the leg on the bed, Yasenia leaned forward, letting her breasts dangle as if they were made of pudding. Knowing how good it felt to sink her hands in those soft mounds, Kali almost let go of the sheet covering her naked body to grab them.

Yasenia's golden and seductive slit eyes met with Kali's flustered and excited verdant green eyes. Her voice was slightly deep and mellow, softening Kali's bones. "Like what you see, honey~?"

Kali was blushing, but she nodded shyly and rubbed her thighs together. 'I-I'm so wet... W-Will the sheets become t-t-transparent?'

Yasenia didn't miss these little actions, but she didn't expose her. Yasenia then continued speaking and making Kali more aroused by her. "Honey~, do you know what will happen now~? Now it is time to let the nightgown slip down~."

Kali knew what she would be putting her eyes on now, and instead of fear, she felt a little bit of anticipation. After months of playing with Yasenia's tail, she finally felt prepared to see Yasenia's every part and adore it with all her being.

She heard Yasenia say, "Kali, mine is big, so don't get scared, alright? Tonight you will see your lover's every part directly for the first time~."

Kali nodded and looked at Yasenia's waist. Of course, Kali knew that it was big; every time they were intimate, Yasenia's big penis would always touch her, so she was mentally prepared.

What entered her sight when she looked down was a big bulge that lifted the nightgown, and knowing what it was, Kali felt a strange mix of positive and negative emotions, mainly positive. 'S-She is truly b-b-big.'

Yasenia retracted the leg that was on the bed and stood straight again. She wasn't wearing anything below, so she just let the nightgown slip down and reveal her body.

Kali saw the silky nightgown slip through the penis until the whole nightgown passed and revealed Yasenia's naked glory.

Kali's eyes locked onto the big and thick penis of the dragoness and gulped. Seeing it firsthand was making her heart beat erratically for more than one reason. Her subconscious mind was a little scared of it, but its beautiful form made all other things not register in Kali's mind. Kali couldn't help but compare it with what she had seen in person in the past. 'S-So attractive. It is much more beautiful t-than those... it is big, but not too big, the skin smooth, the veins not too thick, the tip beautifully round and wide...'

Kali was a doctor herself and has learned male and female biology deeply, including sexual organs, so she knew that this shape would bring a woman a lot of pleasure. The wide but soft head would massage the vagina walls, the thick phallus would make the entrance stretch enough to stimulate the clitoris through penetration, and the not-too-thick veins would caress those extra spots, making the penetration not feel like a simple cylindrical object entering.

Kali even felt her entrance twitch at the sight of such a perfect penis, 'I-Its as if it has grown to make a woman surrender at it...'

Yasenia saw Kali look unblinkingly at her penis without any repulsion and became ecstatic. Then, she asked, not moving forward yet. "Do you like it, honey? I would say that mine is quite nice to please human women~."

Kali looked up at Yasenia with a deep blush and gulped again. She wanted to answer and say that it was very pleasing to the eyes, but her shyness got the best of her, and she couldn't speak.

Yasenia didn't mind her silence and used one hand to guide Kali's eyes. She began caressing her breast; then, she lowered it across her skin to her waist. Kali followed the hand across Yasenia's silky and smooth skin, passing the slim waist and reaching again to the big weapon.

She saw Yasenia pump her penis a little, making some transparent liquid leak through the tip. Even at a distance, Kali's nostrils were filled with the sweet-smelling nectar, and she almost crawled forward to lick it, but that subconscious fear stopped her.

Then, the hand continued down, and Kali's eyes followed, eager to know what it would show her next. She wasn't disappointed as the hand went below the penis. Kali was surprised because she didn't see testicles, but the body part she laid her eyes on was as tempting as the attractive penis.

The beautiful vagina had plum labia that looked extremely soft, the skin was smooth, and the slit was perfectly vertical. It looked like a beautiful peach, moist, plump, and juicy. Kali could also see a little bit of liquid leaking, making it look more moist and attractive. 'I-Is this woman a perfect b-being? How is everything about her so Gulp Tempting.'

Yasenia saw that even if there was a subconscious rejection, Kali looked as if she was going to pounce forward and devour her privates. So she became confident that they could take the next step she had in mind, which was Kali giving her a blowjob and drinking her release through her real penis. If this night they could do this, Yasenia was sure that they would be able to advance to the last step in a month at most.

Therefore, she advanced slowly toward Kali, speaking seductively. "You are eating me with your eyes, honey~. Your gaze is making me soo~ wet. Can you see it~?"

'Of course, she could see it! And now that you are approaching, I can even smell it! Oh my heavens, it smells so good!'

Yasenia reached the bed and continued approaching on her knees. Yasenia saw that Kali hadn't lifted her eyes for a moment and had even seen her licking her lips and swallowing. Yasenia felt excited knowing this. 'Ahn~ honey likes my privates so much~.'

Yasenia finally reached her side and approached her penis to Kali's face. The penis was longer than her face, so it covered a big part of it. Kali felt the thick phallus on her face and took a deep breath. The sweet musky scent assaulted her brain and made her insides twitch, spurting a bit of liquid from her vagina and making her moan. Yasenia saw these actions, and her eyes took a pinkish hue, becoming predatory as if her prey was about to fall into the trap she had laid for months. However, she retracted that gaze, and her eyes became gentle. "Let's begin, honey~."

Kali felt a gentle force making her lay on the bed and saw the tip of the penis lowering toward her mouth. 'Can it enter my mouth?' Were Kali's thoughts right now.

Yasenia knew that her next actions would be a little forceful, but she had been preparing Kali these months for this step and was confident.

However, Kali's body reacted subconsciously and began to resist more approaches, trying to get up and regain control. Yasenia wanted to continue forward, but her heart wouldn't let her. Since she saw her struggling a little, she had begun retracting her waist, sitting on Kali's belly over the sheets that were still covering Kali's naked body. She wryly smiled inwardly, 'In the end... I can't be forceful with my little fox.'

Kali looked with a mixed gaze of longing and fear at the retreating penis. She wanted to do it, but her body wouldn't listen to her! When she was becoming a little anxious, she suddenly felt a tender hand patting her head. "Kali, this step is important, fight your fears."

Kali looked up at Yasenia, and she didn't see the lust she expected in her eyes. What she saw was a golden-pink gaze that was as tender as the petals of a blossom tree bathing in sunlight. A gaze so tender that it filled Kali's heart and body with warmth. That beautiful gaze stopped her body from resisting, letting herself relax again. "I-I'm ready, Yasenia. I-I-I want t-t-to suck your penis!"

Yasenia gently laughed and lowered her upper body, kissing Kali's lips tenderly. "This time, I won't stop, okay honey? I believe in you."

After that, she lifted her upper body again and approached slowly. When she was over Kali's chest, her penis head almost reached her mouth. Kali was trembling slightly, but Yasenia grabbed her penis and approached it to her mouth.

Kali took another deep breath out of nervousness. This made the smell from Yasenia's penis fill her nostrils. The arousing and sweet scent made her remember about Yasenia's tail.

Kali now loved ingesting Yasenia's release, even if she couldn't drink much at once. Therefore, after she smelled the scent she had come to love so much these last months, her body acted on its own and moved forward, opening her mouth wide and glomping the penis.

Yasenia moaned softly and caressed her hair. Meanwhile, Kali's eyes opened to the extreme; she still had the penis in her mouth and was even tasting it with her tongue. 'W-Why did I? Huh? What is this? So delicious~. Oh my heavens, I'm licking Yasenia's penis!?'

Yasenia felt Kali's tongue going around her head and said with a sensual sigh, "You are doing so good, honey~."

Kali woke up from her contemplative state after Yasenia's praise, which always filled her with delight. She looked up across Yasenia's big breasts and saw a sensual face with half-closed eyes, clearly enjoying her ministrations. Moreover, the head pats made it even more pleasurable doing this action.

Her head began moving more, and her tongue got to work. She had been learning these last months with Yasenia's tail, so she was actually quite skilled at doing blowjobs. Yasenia moaned and said, "So good! Kali dear, I love your mouth~!"

Kali's cheeks blushed and became even more energetic, 'My jaw is at its limits, but having the penis inside my mouth feels so good. The taste, its warmth, the texture, and the delicious liquid that is coming out...'

Kali even used a hand to grab the base of the penis and moved it up and down, trying to squeeze more liquid out of it. Her fingers pressed the right spots and sent electric waves to Yasenia. Yasenia released a shaky breath and said, "Kali, my love, if you continue, I will cum. You are so good at this."

Kali's whole scarred face was blushing from excitement, embarrassment, and arousal. She loved making Yasenia moan; it filled her with pride and confidence the fact that she could make her cum.

After five minutes, Kali's skillful blowjob made Yasenia reach orgasm. Kali felt the penis becoming warmer and inflating and sped up her head. "Kali, I'm cumming!"

Kali let the tip in her mouth, wanting to fill her mouth with her release and drink everything. Then, it spurted her delicious semen.

Kali felt it twitch and release the thick, white seed, and she greedily swallowed. Yasenia's semen went down her throat continuously and made her brain enter a euphoric state. Her world went white, her eyes rolled up, and her body tensed. Electricity cursed her body and reached her vagina, making her squirt, her toes curling and back arching up.

The sheets that covered her waist wet at incredible speed as she squirted. However, Kali continued gulping this nectar of the heavens, and every time she ingested it, she just wanted more and more.

Yasenia came for thirty seconds. Kali continued licking and sucking even when nothing was left, in a state of euphoria and being mid-orgasm.

Yasenia didn't move and let Kali continue to greedily suck and lick as she caressed her head with a tender smile. 'Finally, we took a big step forward, little fox.'

Chapter 187

After drinking all of Yasenia's release, she felt heavenly. Kali's body felt anew, her strength increased, her skin smoothened, and her thoughts became clear for a short period of time. Even with these refreshing sensations, she couldn't control her body's spasms because of one thing. The energy from the release filled her body with extreme pleasure that wrecked her nervous system. But

It was a sensation that she always looked forward to every night since that day she was able to ingest her semen.

Yasenia kept her penis in her mouth even after she stopped cumming because she felt Kali deliriously sucking it. She wanted to wait for her orgasm to stop before taking it out, not to let Kali's mind wander and know what thing was delivering this pleasure. Yasenia controlled her sensations, making her erection disappear little by little to free more space in Kali's mouth, and caressed her head tenderly, waiting for her to come down from her orgasm.

Kali took five minutes to stop twitching because of pleasure. After coming down from her orgasm and feeling the soft member in her mouth, she unconsciously continued to lick the now soft head adoringly. Her tongue slowly caressed it as if it were a treasure in her mouth, her mind still in a haze because of the brain-wrecking orgasm. When her tongue tip passed the tip's slit, her tongue tingled pleasantly, and she savored every bit of the remaining liquid on it.

Yasenia was beginning to become aroused and ready for round two, but she didn't want that. Now, it was time to relax with her honey and make her realize what she did, so she slowly took out her penis, making Kali frown slightly. Yasenia smiled, amused, after seeing Kali's expression and lay beside her, hugging Kali without minding the wet sweets surrounding her.

When Yasenia lay beside her, Kali looked sideways at Yasenia's face sluggishly. When the dragoness's tender smile and beautiful golden slit eyes entered her eyes, that frown disappeared, and her mind cleared up slightly. Then, she began recalling what had just happened and became slightly dazed, looking at the divine face in front of her.

Yasenia hugged Kali over the sheets and used her tail to absorb the excess energy that was still coursing Kali's body, giving Kali a tail full-body massage as she did that. Yasenia smiled gently and kissed her scarred lips softly, "You've done well, Kali. Our hard work with my tail was worth it. How do you feel?"

Kali's body softened with Yasenia's administration, and she continued looking at Yasenia's gentle face, completely dazed, still unable to believe what had happened. 'Did I really do that? Was I able to make that with Yasenia?'

Yasenia saw that she was still dazed and trying to understand what she had done. Her voice was still gentle as she whispered in Kali's ear. "It must be like a dream come true, right, my love? Don't worry; I will stay beside you until you understand what we did together..."

After saying that, she hugged her closer and buried Kali's face in her breasts, using her soft body to bury Kali in comfort. Then, she patted and kissed the top of Kali's head softly.

Kali felt her head surrounded by that familiar softness and fragrance and took a deep breath. The sweet floral scent awakened her mind enough to realize what she had accomplished. Then, after realizing and understanding what she had done, a burst of happiness invaded her body. Kali teared up and whimpered, "I did it..."

She hugged Yasenia tighter and sobbed in her embrace.

Yasenia knew this was an extremely big step, so she understood why Kali was crying. Yasenia praised her little fox with a smile, "That's right, honey. You did it. You were very good and didn't fall into your fears." Kali nodded and pressed her body closer to Yasenia's.

Yasenia continued speaking words of praise and pampering her for a while. After Kali relaxed, she sat up, carrying the sheets. Then, she turned and looked at Yasenia's eyes with a firm gaze.

Yasenia didn't say anything and reclined on the headboard, looking at her. Kali spoke with a slight tremble, "I-I always thought that a lot of time would need to pass before I was willing to show my body to you... T-To be honest, at first, I wasn't even expecting to have actual intimacy with you..."

"After becoming your lover, I was always filled with fear each time I rejected your advances. I can't even count the number of times I thought you would leave me before I decided to take this step."

Kali's voice became tender and brittle, "H-However, you have always been so good, tender, loving, and careful with me. You didn't push my boundaries too hard and always stopped when you felt like you could hurt me. You always encouraged me and looked at me with your beautiful golden eyes, filling my life with light."

Kali took a deep breath and let the sheet fall, revealing her upper body. "Yasenia, you are like the Sun that illuminated my world when it was dark. I love you, no matter what you will think of my body. I will always love you with all my heart."

Yasenia didn't immediately look at her body; she maintained eye contact with her teary green eyes. Was seeing Kali's body important to Yasenia? It was not. What Yasenia wanted was for Kali to surmount her fears, for Kali to become more confident in herself. Yasenia's objective has always been to lift this girl that had gone through years of mental torture and let her face the world with a smile.

Therefore, Yasenia moved forward and embraced her, closing the distance between their naked bodies, still looking into her verdant green eyes.

Kali stiffened a little at the beginning. Yasenia's naked body pressing on hers was a very pleasant thing. Her breasts were bigger than hers, and pressing them together, she could feel that softness in a different way than normal. Moreover, the feeling of her skin was extremely pleasant, and the warmth that she released naturally seeped into her body, filling her with security.

However, all of this was almost insignificant before the pair of golden slit eyes filled with tenderness. "Kali, my love, the one that should receive praise is you. Even after going through your trauma, instead of cowering and trying to hide inside the walls built around your heart, you always tried to break them down. Bravely pushing forward even when what lies ahead might be scary. You never surrendered to your inner demons and fought them relentlessly."

While hearing her, Kali sunk herself more in the dragoness comfortable embrace, closing the gap between their bodies until it disappeared. They stayed like that, hugging each other for some minutes until Yasenia began separating.

When Yasenia began separating, a shred of hesitation flashed through Kali's eyes; it was a thought born out of nervousness, a very insignificant thing that went even unnoticed by Yasenia. However, the inner demons who had felt danger for a long time didn't lose the chance and flared up at full strength!

BOOM!

A disgustingly thick and black miasma surrounded them. At that moment, the aura of corruption was so thick that Tatyana and the maids turned their heads toward Kali's room instantly and flashed beside it to see what was happening. After seeing the situation, even if it was extremely dangerous, Tatyana forbade everyone from interfering.

Meanwhile, when that black miasma covered them, the light inside Yassenia's eyes dimmed, and she felt all her thoughts go into disarray for a moment, imagining countless situations that would only cause her to feel despair. Her lovers leaving her, betraying her, dying, or worse... However...

'YOU THINK YOU CAN INFLUENCE ME, HEART DEMON!? DELUSIONAL THING! SCRAM!'

Almost instantly, Yassenia's eyes glowed with golden light, and her aura swelled and burst out, blasting the thick, black, corrupting substance trying to influence her away and recovering herself in the process. The first thing she did was look at Kali to see if she was okay.

Even though they were still hugging, when Yassenia looked at Kali, her heart twisted with pain. Kali's eyes were void of light, and tears constantly fell from them. Yassenia tried speaking to her, "Honey, can you hear me? Honey!" But Kali kept staring at nothing and crying.

This was the Heart Demon's real intention. The heart demon knew that they couldn't influence Yassenia, but they just wanted a time frame without Yassenia's intervention to drag Kali inside herself.

And they managed to do it.

Seeing the woman unresponsive, she tried to separate, but the black aura that was affecting Kali thickened when she did that. Yassenia became enraged and her irises reddened, "HEART DEMON I SWEAR I'M GOING TO EAT YOU IN THE FUTURE!"

However, Yassenia calmed her thoughts fast and began thinking. 'Think, Yassenia, think! Since Flora nor Mom had intervened, there must be still a chance to reverse this with our strength.'

While Yassenia was looking for ways to take Kali out of her current situation, Kali's conscience was in a desolate black world. She could see some green trees near her, but they were all half-dead and completely corrupted. When she looked outside the small area that had some green, her eyes met with a dead forest. Everything in this world was either withered, dead, or covered with a disgusting black substance. 'Where am I-?'

But Kali didn't even have the chance to ask herself because she felt an aura slam onto her from the sky, and her body was pressed to the ground powerlessly. The aura invaded her flesh and corrupted her body, making all her scars ooze black miasma and make her shout in pain.

Alyssa's distorted voice rumbled throughout the entire black world, and a black aura fell from the sky. "YOU THOUGHT YOU COULD DESTROY US!? YOU THOUGHT YOU COULD REGAIN A CLEAR HEART!? THE ONLY REASON WE HAVEN'T CONSUMED YOU WAS BECAUSE OF OUR WHIM!"

This aura and rumbling noise made Kali grab her ears as she continues to shout in pain. “Ahhh!!!”

The voice continued, “YOU THOUGHT YOU COULD BEAT US. YOU THOUGHT WE WERE WEAKENING. HAHHAHAHA! DELUSIONAL WOMAN, NOW IT IS TIME TO KNOW YOUR PLACE AND FALL INTO DEPRAVITY!”

However, instead of continuing to wail in pain, Kali gritted her teeth and looked at the black sky with a defiant gaze, snarling, “Now that I was about to recover my happiness, you dare to interfere!? HOW DARE YOU INTERFERE WITH MY HAPPINESS WITH YASENIA!”

A single protrusion began growing above her hips as a verdant green aura exploded from her. The aura burst cleansed her body from the black miasma and covered the surrounding, revitalizing the dead forest. The Heart Demon became confused and used more pressure on Kali. However, Kali continued standing up while looking at the sky, her eyes burning with rage!

Then, this green aura surrounded a part of the black aura and squeezed it. The Heart Demon couldn’t even react before that part exploded and was consumed by Kali, strengthening herself! A painfully distorted shout echoed in Kali’s soul world. Kali stood up, and her green aura began gaining form, together with a small change in her body. Her eyes seemed to be burning with life as she defied her fate! “Since you want to fight. BRING IT ON, HEART DEMON!”

Her aura swelled again and burst outward, inflating that vague form into a clearer fox form. The blurred fox roared to the sky filling the surroundings with Kali’s battle intent. With this aura burst, two fox ears appeared on Kali’s chestnut-colored head, and the protrusion behind her grew outward in a long, thick, and bushy, light-green fox tail!

After feeling that pain, the Heart Demon’s distorted voice echoed again, filled with fury, “YOU DARE RESIST US!? YOU DARE GO AGAINST YOUR END!? BE CONSUMED!”

The black aura rushed to the sky and thickened, transforming into a maw that blotted the sky. The maw was so big it dwarfed Kali’s green aura. Then, with a terrifying howl and momentum, the maw descended on Kali, with the intent of devouring her.

However, to the Heart Demon’s surprise, Kali’s aura transformed completely and ballooned! It became a titanic, light green, nine-tailed fox that didn’t lose in size with the maw, carrying an aura that was similar to the origin of life itself, ancient and profound. Kali snarled as her canines became sharper, “Let’s see who consumes who!”

Then, the fox bent its legs and jumped upward with an explosion of life energy to fight against the Heart Demon head-on!

Chapter 188

The verdant green fox crouched and jumped toward the descending mouth. Kali looked with a defiant look toward it as they collided.

BOOM!

The black and green aura collided, but the strength of the black aura was stronger. Therefore, the giant green fox was stunned for a second.

The maw didn't lose this chance and moved to the side and bit the fox, sinking the sharp teeth into it. Kali felt those teeth sinking into her flesh, ripping it apart and corrupting her. This made her scream in pain as she felt herself being changed from the very core. However, a severe light flashed through Kali's eyes.

The fox's nine tails elongated, doubling the size of the maw. Then, the tails powerfully grabbed the upper and lower mandibles of the maw and tried to open it.

With tremendous strength, the nine-tailed fox slowly opened the maw forcefully. When she had enough room to maneuver, she used her four legs and made even more strength. There was a cracking sound as she opened the maw and saw some cracks appearing on it. However, she didn't feel it weakening at all, and the abundant black miasma around was healing the mouth continuously.

A ruthless light flashed through Kali's eyes as she moved her own mouth to bite the Black maw! Her sharp teeth sunk into it, and with a twist of her neck, she ripped a piece of it apart and swallowed it! It was only now that Kali heard a painful scream from it. Then, as her tails held onto the maw, she began devouring ravenously and clawing her way into it without mercy.

Shrill painful cries echoed around, making the soul world tremble as the fox consumed the mouth.

The more the fox consumed, the more material, bigger, and stronger it became. The fur became softer, the body sleeker, and around them, beautiful flowers, green grass, and other kinds of vegetation began growing. The soil changed from an ashen grey to a moist brown, showering everything with vitality around the fox and maw fighting zone.

Meanwhile, Yasenia was nervously looking at Kali from the outside, she had tried inserting her energy into Kali, but the black aura wouldn't let her. She has even tried using her aura, hands, and tail to rip that black miasma apart, but she couldn't do anything more than hug Kali close. She couldn't help but feel powerless.

Even if the miasma didn't hurt her heart, her physical body wasn't as safe facing this level of corruption. You could see that some of Yasenia's skin had turned grey, some parts of her beautiful tail had lost luster, and her fingers had some blackish veins pulsating. The physical pain she was feeling was truly terrible, but would our dragoness separate from Kali because of this?

She would not. Yasenia knew that her presence was helping Kali, so instead of trying to separate further, she used her arms, legs, and tail to pull Kali closer, burying the corrupting woman in her embrace and gritting her teeth to fight the pain that felt like thousands of insects eating her.

After some minutes, a green aura enveloped Kali's body. The aura surrounded part of Kali's body, revitalizing it. Yasenia saw this green aura helping kali, and her lips arched in a smile. By now, Yasenia's body was in bad condition, but she didn't loosen her embrace for a second. "You can do it, Honey."

However, Yasenia suddenly saw that aura focus on the top of Kali's head, and under Yasenia's astonished eyes, a pair of beautiful fox ears popped up. The fox ears were surrounded by reddish fur, following Kali's hair color, and they were somewhat big and very fluffy. Then, the aura moved above her butt, and a long, extremely soft-looking light-green fox tail appeared.

Even with the situation they were in right now, feeling all the pain, Yaseenia had the urge to pet those fluffy ears and tail with all her might. She observed at the side and saw that Kali still had human ears. 'Four ears? Strange... Well, it doesn't look bad... Would it be bad if I pet her at this moment?'

Suddenly, Tatyana appeared beside them and looked at Kali with an excited gaze. "Bloodline Transformation!"

Yaseenia bit her teeth and tried to answer with a calm voice through her pain without losing focus on Kali. "W-What is that?"

Tatyana couldn't help but have her heart hurting seeing her little treasure like this, but she didn't intervene and answered nonetheless. "This is an extremely rare event where a human stirs the dormant lineage of their bloodline and transforms into a beast-human of that race. As their cultivation advances, their body will purify the human bloodline until only the beast bloodline is left, becoming a complete beast with human and beast form."

Yaseenia saw a green phantom fox appearing, and it began chomping and clawing at the black aura, devouring it and becoming stronger as the time passed. Tatyana's excitement grew, "Heart demon consumption!? What a fearless girl!"

There were two methods to overcome a heart demon. The first is overcoming your fears gradually, and the second is fighting them forcefully. If consuming the heart demon is successful, that fear will not only disappear but be unable to become a fear again. However, failing to do it would hurt the cultivator extremely badly, strengthening that fear and rooting it in their heart for the rest of their lives.

However, to Tatyana's and Yaseenia's surprise, the black aura burst with extreme might and strengthened, blasting into pieces a big part of the green aura and splitting Yaseenia's skin, making blood splash! Kali's and Yaseenia's painful screams followed this. "AHH!!"

Tatyana's gaze became heavy and ordered in an instant. "Little treasure! Use the yang energy you made her drink and aid her cultivation!"

Yaseenia bit her tongue, and her golden eyes regained focus. She didn't dare delay for a single second and instantly circulated the [Heavenly Maiden Ascends To The Heavens] technique, using the Yang energy inside Kali's belly to support her. Then, Yaseenia transmitted a single thought accompanied by a dragon roar! "FIGHT ON!"

Meanwhile, Inside the soul world, the half-consumed maw exploded with might and exploded the tails holding it. This aura explosion hurt the fox extremely badly and blasted her away. Kali felt like her body was ripped apart and shouted in pain.

Then, a terrifying distorted voice rumbled in the soul world, making the revitalizing world wither again at a visible speed. "A PITIFUL WOMAN ON THE VERGE OF BECOMING A FALLEN ACTUALLY DARES FIGHT BACK!? WE WERE TRYING TO INVADE YOUR BODY WITHOUT HURTING IT, LEAVING A PART OF YOUR WILL IN IT, BUT YOU ACTUALLY DARE TRY TO CONSUME US!? YOU WILL SURRENDER TO YOUR FATE!"

The maw became twice as big and zoomed toward Kali with tremendous speed. Before Kali could even react, it chomped down again and sunk its serrated teeth inside the fox extremely deeply. An agonizing scream escaped Kali's mouth. "AHHH!!!"

The maw began chomping continuously and ravenously, heavily injuring the green aura fox and recovering its stolen strength. First, the maw chomped a leg off; then a tail was ripped off; after that, an arm, part of its back, another tail...

Kali was becoming more and more wounded and basically eaten alive.

Nonetheless, even while feeling this agony, Kali still wanted to fight back, but she couldn't even move as she was being devoured. Dread began invading her soul as she fearfully thought, 'I don't want to die! I want to live beside Yasenya! I don't want to surrender!'

But the maw was unforgiving and continued devouring her.

When the fox was half eaten, a change occurred inside the soul world. As black and green fought for dominance in this desolate world, an enormous Sun and Moon appeared in the firmament, accompanied by countless stars!

Their glow instantly covered the entire world, blasting the dark miasma away and revitalizing all vegetation. Then, a shockwave accompanied by a dragon roar blasted the maw away from the fox, accompanied by a voice Kali knew so well, "FIGHT ON!"

This roar snapped Kali back and made her look at the sky. Looking at the celestial bodies in the sky, she ignored the horrendous injuries in her body and stood up on her remaining arm and leg, filled with determination! Then, gathering her strength, she roared toward the maw. "You want me to surrender to my fate!? Dream on! I RATHER DIE ON MY FEET, THAN LIVE ON MY KNEES."

BOOM!

The fox absorbed the aura coming from the heavens and healed extremely fast.

The maw became scared for the first time and wanted to attack Kali before she recovered completely. However, the Sun, Moon, and Star energy were burning, freezing, and desintegrating parts of itself, making it release another painful abhorrent scream and slam everywhere without control.

As she saw its state, Kali's scarred lips raised in a smile, and she poured the rest of her energy inside the fox.

The fox tripled in size in an instant, and its aura burst outward, changing the surroundings into a verdant forest full of life. Then, it lunged toward the mouth.

The maw knew that it was at a disadvantage and began evaporating, hiding in Kali's heart again. Kali saw this, and she wouldn't let it escape without a big wound, so she began clawing, biting, and smashing it with her nine tails.

The fight continued for some more time until the maw disappeared completely.

Kali was in her human form as she looked around the soul world and saw that one-third of the soul world regained a life, while the other two-thirds remained as a desolate and lifeless world. However, it was a tremendous step.

She couldn't help but look up at the beautiful Sun, Moon, and starry sky. Her lips raised in an exhausted but happy smile, and tears ran down her cheeks as she laughed happily. "I did it... Hahaha, Sob I did it! Sob I finally defeated one heart demon! Hahaha."

After being under their constant torment, this first complete win was something extremely significant for her and the true first step toward complete recovery. ‘Everything thanks to you, Yasenia.’

Then Kali closed her eyes and opened them right after, looking around in the real world. She only saw Yasenia hugging her extremely closely. Tatyana had left before Kali completely woke up, wanting to give them a moment together.

Yasenia still had her heart beating fast because of the scare she received at the end. However, her face had a tender smile, and her eyes revealed praise and encouragement. ‘Thankfully, we did that before this happened, or I wouldn’t know what to do....’

Yasenia could tell that Kali defeated the heart demon successfully thanks to her previous breakthrough, so she spoke with a gentle and weakened tone. “Welcome back, honey. You’ve killed one of the biggest heart demons inside of you. The fear to relationships.”

Kali was about to smile until she saw Yasenia’s current state.

Yasenia’s skin had a pale grey tone, her lips were pale, and her tail lacked any luster it normally had; completely dull. Her hands and feet were black, and her skin was open in many places. Kali felt her heart as if someone was twisting a knife in it and instantly shouted, “Flora, HELP!”

Flora instantly entered the room since Tatyana had lifted the prohibition. When she saw Yasenia’s state, even she became scared. ‘Why did the Lady say that everything is under control!?’ “What happened, young miss? How did your body corrupt so much?”

Yasenia looked at Flora and asked, “Is honey okay? Check her first before me; I want to be reassured.”

Flora bit her lips and approached Kali. Kali’s eyes became teary, and she ordered angrily, “Don’t you dare! You MUST check her first! How can I get checked with you like this before me!?”

Yasenia chuckled weakly and said, “Don’t worry, honey. I’m going to call Anna and Eve. Let Flora check you.”

Kali hugged the weakened dragoness close with tears in her eyes and let Flora inspect her. Only two seconds later and Anna and Eve appeared with serious expressions.

After seeing Yasenia’s state, they didn’t even speak and began working instantly. Yasenia couldn’t hold on for much longer and fainted because of her wounds.

Chapter 189

After seeing Yasenia’s state, they didn’t even speak and began working instantly. With the amount of corruption inside her body, Yasenia couldn’t hold on for much longer and fainted because of her wounds.

Flora checked Kali and saw that she was perfectly fine, so she changed her focus to Yasenia, helping Anna and Eve where she could. Kali was looking from the side with a sheet around her body. She still hasn’t given up her initial intention because of what Anna said. “Miss Kali, don’t worry too much. Although her injuries are severe, with our medical mastery, we will be able to drain all the corruption out of her body in half an hour at most. She will just be slightly weakened after that, but there is no reason to stop your intention.”

So Kali was watching at the side, her fox tail and ears twitching nervously out of her control. Right now, Kali could feel an enormous amount of energy inside her dantian, but she had suppressed it with her spiritual strength, waiting for Yaseia to recover. She was so focused on Yaseia that she didn't even realize that she had a new extremity and another pair of ears.

Time went by, and Kali saw Anna, Eve, and Flora poking holes in Yaseia to drain the corrupted blood from her body. The main method they were using was acupuncture. The needles were stabbing in various places on Yaseia's naked body and removing that black substance drop by drop. Yaseia's check, her recovery, and waking up with Kali beside herself.

Yaseia's grey skin tone became whiter, and her breath was also swaller, losing vitality by the second. This was because of the amount of blood loss she was going through. Even if her body had absurd regeneration, it had limits. But no one present was flustered by this because they knew that this was the process they had to go through. Then, after Flora fed Yaseia a sap of some sorts, combined with a blood replenishing pill of the Heaven Grade, her sickly white skin regained its normally creamy color, her tail regained its normal luster, and her breathing came back to normal.

By the time the thirty minutes passed, Yaseia had recovered her flawless constitution and seductive aura. Kali was far from the bed, looking at this with a relieved expression. Anna made one last check and, seeing everything in order, smiled happily. “Young miss has recovered perfectly. There also won't be any aftereffects from this.”

Then the three maids bowed and said, “We will let miss Kali continue the night with young miss; if anything happens, please call us.”

Kali nodded and said, “Thank you, seniors.” They nodded again and left the room.

Yaseia opened her eyes slowly and took a deep breath. Remembering what happened, she sat up and was about to look for Kali. However, when her upper body straightened, she saw someone jumping on her.

Kali had been looking at the woman that was always supporting her, not knowing how to react. But her feelings couldn't help but burst when she saw Yaseia safe and healthy.

Therefore, she jumped forward, tackling Yaseia onto the bed and letting the sheet fall. The two naked bodies collided and fell onto the bed again. The dragoness felt Kali's arms going around her and her face burying in her neck, and she reciprocated, tightening the hug and kissing the side of her face. “I'm here, I'm here. Everything is okay now.”

However, even if she was comforting her, Yaseia's attention was on Kali's fluffy fox tail, which was wagging fast, and her fox ears, which were twitching adorably. Moreover, the skin-to-skin contact made her feel Kali's body extremely clear, and their cores were actually touching, making Yaseia release her mating scent subconsciously.

This scent hit Kali like a truck in an explosion of pleasant sensations. After Kali transformed into a beast-human, her olfactory sense and instincts were heightened, so she took the full burn of Yasenia's powerful strength. Worse, the normal scent was already intoxicating, but Yasenia's subconscious release of her mating strength made this multiply.

Therefore, Kali was assaulted by the scent, and an electric zap invaded her brain. Her eyes rolled with pleasure, and she moaned. "Aahn~! Oh my heavens, you smell so good!"

Kali's green eyes became misty, and she began licking Yasenia's neck with an entranced expression. Her tail began wagging extremely fast, and she was unconsciously entering in heat, even rubbing her lower lips on Yasenia and releasing a natural and pleasant scent. It was clear that Kali wanted to mark Yasenia.

Yasenia felt herself tingling after smelling Kali's scent, and her penis got erect because of all these sensations. However, Yasenia frowned. 'I don't want our first time to be because of her instincts. Who knows if the heart demon will appear again?'

So, Yasenia separated the clingy and lovely Kali with reluctance and, with a gentle tone, she said to the alluringly blushing intoxicated woman. "Kali, didn't you want me to see your body? Let's look at it together."

This sentence was like a basin of cold water pouring on Kali's head, allowing our heated fox to regain her senses. After she woke up from this slight trance, her face and even her neck became red with a puff. 'W-What did I just do!? W-Was I l-l-licking and r-r-rubbing myself on her!? Shameless woman!'

Because of the rolling emotions, her fox tail began slapping the bed repeatedly in a show of embarrassment. Yasenia almost couldn't resist pouncing on it and caressing it. Feeling her tail's movements, Kali was even more embarrassed. 'Ahh! I can't even control my tail!... Wait. Tail!?'

And finally, after almost half an hour of gaining it, Kali hastily looked back, and her body completely froze. Her eyes met with a stiff, big, and fluffy fox tail on her back. The root was chestnut-red colored, and the ending tip was white, with the middle light green colored. Like a rusted machine, Kali moved one hand to her head to confirm what she was feeling. Her hand met with two pointy and large fox ears, then her hand lowered to the side of her head and touched her human ears. 'I have four ears!? WHAT HAPPENED!?'

Yasenia laughed out loud and said with a teasing voice, "You've become so cuddly~ I don't think I will be able to hold myself back from petting you~."

Kali was about to speak, but she suddenly felt that energy in her dantian bursting out, unable to be controlled anymore. The energy from consuming the heart demon was beginning to become too much for her to hold. Thereofre, she didn't have time to discuss things and sat cross-legged and began cultivating.

The burst of green aura made every plant in a one-kilometer radius begin to revitalize. Those revitalizing plants let out the excess energy created by this aura, sending it for Kali to absorb again, creating a cycle that fed Kali energy to aid her cultivation.

Yasenia sighed and said to herself, 'I will take the time when she is cultivating to look at her body, or I don't know when will I be able to do that. I really can't hold my eyes anymore; I want to see my honey!'

And so she did.

Yasenia finally let her eyes look at Kali's body, and her heart squeezed painfully. 'I should have prepared myself a little more... This is worse than I imagined...'

Similar to her face, Kali's body was covered with ugly scars. But there was something that Yasenia found strange; some scars were obviously older than others. Even if Yasenia didn't have medical expertise, a basic mortal diagnosis was easy for her. So she could see that there was at least a period of a week between the oldest and newest scar on Kali's body. Yasenia began doubting some things, 'Did she really suffer for only one night? Would a heart demon be so big and powerful if she was tormented for a single night? But Kali didn't seem to be lying...'

Yasenia questioning this was normal because Kali honestly had too many scars between her face and body. Then, a study in a book she read some time ago flashed in her mind. 'Sometimes, to cope with hard times, the brain blurs some bad memories and changes them. To the point of even forgetting them.'

Yasenia right now was wondering if something like this had happened to Kali. Her brows couldn't help but become distressed, 'Did my honey suffer more than what she told me?'

Bang!

Kali's aura swelled and became many times stronger. Kali felt that this energy was nourishing her whole body, mind, and even her soul, strengthening her foundation. Her thoughts became clear, her body became tougher, she gained physical strength, and she felt a slight barrier between the heart demon in her soul and the amount of soul she recovered. Moreover, thanks to this, Kali managed to break through the eighth level of the mental nourishing realm, catching up to Angel and Evelyn again!

Yasenia refocused on Kali's situation and saw that Kali was aiming to make another breakthrough and reach the ninth level. However, Yasenia stopped her and said aloud, "Honey, do not advance further; use the remaining energy to consolidate your foundation. With the boost from your bloodline and the heart demon consumption, you should be able to make your shaky foundation stable and strengthen your heart. This will eventually help us when we face it again."

Kali heard Yasenia's advice and nodded, directly using the rest of her energy to consolidate her foundation. Her body's strength, agility, defense, and energy quality grew far surpassing how it was before.

Moreover, Kali's bloodline was extremely strong, so after the bloodline transformation, her current body could become much stronger in the same realm. It was like having a pool filled with water or a pool filled with mercury. Even if the volume was the same, the mass of the second was countless times higher.

The difference between advancing in cultivation and stabilizing the foundation could be summarized with the next analogy: Advancing in cultivation is making your pool of water bigger, and consolidating the foundation lets a person hold more water into the same sized container. To do this, a cultivator must compress the liquid.

Depending on your natural talent, you can compress this liquid more or less or compress this liquid faster or slower.

A perfect foundation would be a pool full of a liquid that the cultivator can't compress anymore. However, cultivators must take into account that advancing with a perfect foundation all the time is much slower. The reason is that normally a cultivator can only absorb light liquid and then compress it, so filling the pool will be much slower.

When one advances a level, not only they make the pool of energy bigger, but they also will be able to compress the liquid further. And this is why the cultivators say that the foundation destabilizes when someone advances a level and can't advance consecutively.

On the other side, when one advanced a realm, it was like transforming the pool into a big lake, and the compression level also multiplied. Therefore, filling this new, much bigger container will take much longer, which is why cultivation slows down the further you advance.

Yasenia saw that Kali listened to her and began consolidating her foundation and nodded, satisfied. Then, she continued observing Kali's body.

Kali was physically very attractive, with a flat stomach, a small waist, and big but not too big breasts. Yasenia's eyes passed through her breasts, which had some scars on them, one dangerously close to the nipple. She took a deep breath and continued going down Kali's slim waist. There weren't many scars there, but as if they were trying to compensate, there was a deep scar on top of the belly button.

Her eyes continued downward and reached her privates. When she looked over her privates, her slit pupils thinned into vertical lines, and her irises turned golden-red. 'They didn't even leave this spot alone!? Suffer! I'm going to make them suffer an agonizing death!'

Yasenia had to control herself hard from not blasting everything with her aura. 'Control yourself. Kali is cultivating, so don't bother her.'

Yasenia closed her eyes and took a deep breath. Kali's refreshing and natural scent entered her nostrils, smelling similar to a recently watered forest, and it worked as a fire extinguisher. Yasenia released her breath and moved her gaze down again.

On her vagina, there was a big scar that crossed her lower lips, and around it, some cuts could be seen. Thankfully, this slash didn't injure her clitoris, urethra, and vagina entrance. However, understanding the regenerative power of cultivators, she wouldn't be surprised if she had regrown a lot of parts after medical attention went into that area and the others.

Her legs, back, and butt weren't any better than the rest of the body, which left the dragoness growling with a menacing tone that would scare anyone that heard it.

Chapter 190

Yasenia couldn't keep it to herself and called Tatyana with a growl in her voice. "Mom, come here."

Tatyana appeared instantly and looked at her daughter's angry face. Ignoring their naked state, she asked curiously, "What's wrong, little treasure? Are you angry because of the attack from the heart demon?"

Yasenia shook her head and spoke, her tone more relaxed. "No, I know that getting angry at the heart demon is as stupid as getting angry at the heavenly tribulation."

Tatyana hugged Yassenia from behind and kissed her cheek. "Tell me what made you angry, little treasure. Mom will take care of it."

Yassenia took a deep breath and looked at Tatyana, "Is it possible to bring the souls of the dead back?"

Tatyana's eyebrows jumped, and she asked. "Why do you want to do that, little treasure? Doing something like that is going against the heavens! You can't do that. The only way is to do it as soon as someone dies. For example, you can do it with the help of soul-controlling skills or with necromancy skills, trapping a soul in a container."

Tatyana then said, "However, if you want to raise it to become an undead serving you, what you rise with those skills is just a husk with the original creature's talents. The new being doesn't have memories, personality, or even feelings from the previous soul; it will just become an empty soul that can be controlled with the cultivator's powers. Of course, an exception can happen; Tian Long is a part of those exceptions. Moreover, a person who has heaven-defying talent with the control of souls can also do more tricks. But, everything is with the condition that the person has recently died."

Yassenia frowned deeply and clenched her fists. Tatyana asked again, "Why do you want to do that?"

Yassenia looked toward the cross-legged Kali and said, "I want to make Alyssa and those that did this to her suffer eternally!"

Tatyana looked at Kali, and she understood Yassenia's anger when she observed her body. 'She has more scars than I anticipated...'

Tatyana frowned and began thinking about whether to leave Yassenia and Kali to vent their anger with the undead Alyssa. 'But... If I do that, it would only serve as a temporary relief. Since they want to take revenge, it would be more significant if they do it with the ones that are still alive. When they find that unsatisfactory, and Kali's heart demons are much more weakened, I will let my little treasure and Kali "play" with Alyssa a little. Moreover, if Kali sees Alyssa now, it may strengthen her heart demons. Hmm... What to do?'

Tatyana looked at Yassenia, thinking. 'Before I decide anything, let's test her auto-control. I don't want my little treasure to follow the path of constant revenge and death I had to tread...'

Tatyana said, looking at Yassenia. "Little treasure, I could make your wish a reality. I could bring Alyssa's soul back and let you and Kali torment it as much as you want. Do you want me to bring back Alyssa?"

Yassenia first felt her lips rising in a ferocious smile and felt an impulse to instantly agree regardless of the consequences. She wanted to rip apart her soul and eat it! She began thinking of countless methods of torture to cause agony and what Alyssa's and the other people's cries would sound like.

She looked at Tatyana and was about to speak when the words got stuck in her throat. 'Wait, didn't mom just say that there will be a punishment for those that do this..? I don't want to hurt mom for revenge.'

Yassenia then began thinking further and frowned, 'Also... Seeing Alyssa right now, wouldn't Kali become more uncomfortable than any other thing? Crap, I almost let myself go.'

Yasenia sat cross-legged and meditated beside Kali, relaxing her angered heart. Half an hour later, she opened her eyes and exhaled. Her tone was completely normal, clear that she had regained control of her recently turbulent emotions. “Never mind, what is done can’t be undone. Killing Alyssa swiftly because of fear of her escaping may become a lost opportunity, but it shouldn’t become a regret. I’m sure her death helped Kali, and if by any chance taking it slow would have allowed her to leave... I probably wouldn’t have gotten to know Kali. Moreover, I still have the other culprits to vent my anger on.”

Tatyana smiled pridefully, ‘My little treasure is different from me. She has a good head over her shoulders and is responsible for the people surrounding her.’

Tatyana sighed with emotion, ‘If I had even a tenth of Yasenia’s attitude when I was young... How many things would have gone differently?’

Yasenia put on her clothes and helped Kali put on some without bothering her cultivation. She had already seen her body and didn’t intend to do anything more with Kali. Tatyana stood up and disappeared, leaving some words for Yasenia to hear, “Alyssa’s soul is suffering a lot, so don’t worry little treasure.”

Yasenia’s ears perked, and she looked toward Tatyana’s room. Then, she smiled gently and shook her head. ‘Mom is always one step ahead...’

Yasenia chuckled and sat beside Kali, waiting for her to absorb the abundant energy and observing her new appearance.

Her skin seemed to have become more supple, and her aura was much steadier. The scars on her face had turned pink colored and lost all the scary colors, reducing the scariness of her face by a lot. Now, although they were deforming her face, looking at Kali would not be as unpleasant as before for the others. Furthermore, one could see the previous exquisite face below all those scars.

Yasenia couldn’t help but look at her face with a smile. ‘I bet she will be happy.’

Then, her eyes gravitated toward the new body parts on Kali’s body. Yasenia blushed a little, ‘I-I really want to pet her! Her ears and tail look so fluffy, and glossy, and soft, and ahh!! My little fox is so cute!’

Sadly Kali was cultivating, so she still couldn’t pet her. Dear Kali didn’t know that a predator had locked her gaze on her! Would our poor Kali survive the attack?

The eventful night went by and morning arrived.

Yasenia didn’t leave Kali’s side; she was waiting for her to assimilate all the energy she had gained. Moreover, her presence reassured Kali, allowing her to immerse herself in selfless cultivation and speeding up the process.

The others more or less knew what happened, so when morning came, they passed by Kali’s room to greet Yasenia. When they saw Kali’s transformation, all of them were speechless, and Angel had to be controlled, or she would have jumped on Kali’s big fox tail. However, after telling them that Kali was cultivating and that it was an important period, all of them left without bothering them anymore.

Kali's cultivation went on for a week. And Yasenia didn't move from her side, cultivating together with her. Then, another thing happened to Kali on the day that Kali stopped cultivating. Yasenia saw with happiness as Kali's body began secreting a foul-smelling black substance from all her pores. The smell would make anyone gag, but Yasenia looked at it happily. "Cleansing of impurities! Did this happen because of her bloodline? She must be expelling all the residues from the pills she had ingested!"

After expelling impurities, a cultivator would have an easier time when circulating energy, and their body would become stronger. Their efficiency when absorbing pills would also become higher, and their lifespan would also become longer. In short, they were all benefits.

As a remark, Yasenia didn't need to expel impurities because her body had no impurities. The reason was that Yasenia's body was extremely efficient and didn't create waste, and the [Beauty Pill] she ingested only increased these properties. Not to mention these recent things, all the things Tatyana fed Yasenia while she grew up were a lot. Even if she had never eaten the [Beauty Pill], the chance for Yasenia's body to create impurities was minimal.

Andrea, Angel, and Evelyn didn't have the same luck. Even if they had very little impurities, they still had some. And Cecile was similar to Yasenia. After her rebirth, she had become a pure Phoenix, one of the most loved creatures by the heavens, so there was no chance for her to develop any impurities.

After Kali opened her eyes, she released a contented sigh, feeling refreshed and light. She took a deep breath, only for her face to scrunch and gag. 'What is this horrendous stench!?'

She looked down and saw all the impurities on her skin as if she was covered in black goo. Her face was extremely strange, making a happy and disgusted smile at the same time. Yasenia chuckled and said, "Let's go bath and clean that."

Kali was surprised and looked toward the dragoness at the side. She was first touched, 'Did she stay beside me all this time?'

But, right after, she remembered her current state. Her face blushed completely because of embarrassment, and she shouted, "What are you doing here!? Get out! I smell terrible!"

Yasenia laughed and grabbed her arm with her tail, dragging her toward the bath, ignoring her protests. Kali heard Yasenia's sensual voice, making her blush even more. "Today, I will finally be able to bath honey~. Don't worry, my love, at most, you will orgasm five times~."

Kali looked at Yasenia, stunned, and then tried to escape. "Nononono, let me go! I-I'm not prepared for that!"

However, could our little fox escape the determined dragoness? Of course... She couldn't. Kali was dragged into the water and then attacked by the dragoness's expert hands, sending her to heaven again and again. The only things that could be heard in the bath were Kali's moans and Yasenia's kisses.

Our dear fox didn't even have a chance from the beginning!

After the happy bath, Yasenia could finally pet and hug Kali all she wanted!

The result? Yaseenia was sitting on the sofa with Kali's face on her lap. Her tail coiled around the fluffy tail, caressing it all over, and her hand scratched expertly behind Kali's fox ear. Yaseenia squinted comfortably, 'As expected, she is extremely soft~.'

Kali was transformed into a fox-blob by the dragoness administrations, and cute sounds left her throat involuntarily.

After the bath and her current situation, Kali couldn't even think straight because of how comfortable she felt. Yaseenia looked at the melted Kali and said with a pampering tone, "Who is the cutest fox~? Of course, my honey is~!"

Reacting to Yaseenia's voice, Kali's tail wagged, and her fox ears twitched happily. Even with the scars, no one could deny that Kali looked extremely cute right now.

Tatyana said, gathering everyone's attention. Well, everyone's but Kali's, who couldn't escape the dragoness's clutches and was still being pampered and petted to the sky and beyond. "Tomorrow, you all are entering the secret realm. You've prepared everything you could, strengthened all you could, and created different tactics. However, the bad feeling I'm getting is getting stronger by the day. I've warned some people, and Tian Long is watching from above. Tonight, do not dual cultivate and rest."

Most of them answered, "Understood!" Most of them because Kali was still being scratched and petted by the dragoness.

After finally convincing Yaseenia to let Kali come back to the real world from wherever she is, they decided to make a final tour around with Tatyana and the maids accompanying them. Yaseenia and the others didn't lose the chance and searched for cultivators they could sense danger from.

While looking around, Yaseenia suddenly spotted a person that made her anger grow slightly. 'Andrea's previous partner! She managed to get the entry jade... This is dangerous because of the oath she has with Andrea...'

Then a dangerous thought crossed her mind, 'Should I kill her now? With mom's protection, no one should bother us until we leave the secret realm....'

Kali, Andrea, Cecile, Tatyana, and the maids picked up the leaking killing intent coming from Yaseenia and looked in that direction. Andrea, Tatyana, and Cecile spotted that woman.

Andrea frowned and asked, "Do you intend to kill her?"

Yaseenia didn't hide it and nodded, "Yes. A swift kill could avoid a lot of trouble. Darling, I don't want her to cross with you inside the secret realm."

Tatyana looked at her and said. "I'm sorry, little treasure, but you can't kill her now. Even though I wouldn't mind, all the sects here are allied with each other in one way or another...."

Tatyana took Yaseenia's hand and said, "I don't fear going against the whole continent for you, but I rather not do that because it would bring danger to you... Covering for Elias' death had already made some people slightly unsatisfied."

Kali tilted her head, "Elias?"

Evelyn said, "Remember the poison genius Yaseenia killed in the tournament?"

Kali searched in her memories and then remembered, “The one Yassenia spoke about to me before our first training session?”

Evelyn nodded and said, “The one that had the transcendent level poison.”
