

Heaven 271

Chapter 271: Unexpected Blunder. The Crystal Key's use.

After their buying spree, Angel and Kali were left with only several thousand Trial Points. Their gains in this town were tremendous, from knowledge in their profession to equipment in the Heaven rank. There were various tools for each side job, and obviously, they didn't have a whole set of Heaven-ranked equipment. This is another thing they managed to gather.

Yasenia didn't use her points, reserving them for when she came out of the trial Han Xue spoke about. Who knows what she would need inside such an expensive trial or after it?

Yasenia also looked into the acupuncture book she got while they walked, it was interesting, and Yasenia was trying to see if it would be difficult to use for her. Yasenia sighed and thought, 'Unless my energy also goes wild with the acupuncture needles, it shouldn't be too hard to use. I didn't have problems with acupuncture in the past, so I should be able to use it.'

While Yasenia revised her book and Kali finished spending her points, Angel suddenly remembered the [Crystal Key]. Remembering that the Guard Captain said that only people with authority knew about it, she approached Han Xue to ask.

Han Xue's liking didn't stop at Yasenia. Angel's cute and sweet appearance and character made Han Xue treat her like her daughter. Each time Angel asked something, she would try to answer to the best of her abilities.

On the other side, Kali's experiences made Han Xue treat her with care. She was patient with her and always had a mindful way of speaking. However, this mindful way of speaking wasn't about taking care of Kali's feelings. Instead, Han Xue spoke with her normally.

Speaking with exaggerated care and too differently would only make the affected person realize they were different, so speaking normally to people like Kali was the best thing to make them included.

Not to mention the fact that they were Yasenia's wives, which only made Han Xue even more fond of them.

Therefore, when Angel approached Han Xue, the Mayoress patted her head and asked with a gentle smile, "What's wrong, little Angel?"

Angel smiled and took out the [Crystal key]. Then, failing to realize Han Xue's instant change in expression, she asked. "What's this for?"

Han Luan exclaimed, "Impressive! How did you get this, little Angel? Ah, forget that. That is not important. You really lucked out!"

Han Xiao also chimed in, "Yeah, that is one of the best treasures in our town."

Angel blinked and looked at the key with interest.

Yasenia and Kali also paid attention.

Han Xue thought about it and explained, "This key is to open one of the inheritances across our world. The inheritance is from someone extremely influential. However, the records say that you have to be able to manipulate glass for it. So I don't know if little Angel can receive it."

Angel chuckled and created a lump of prismatic glass in the air. Then she began moving it around with her will, making different forms and shapes.

The glass changed from a fluid-like state to a solid one. She made different shapes and forms as she manipulated the glass lump around. The sunlight beautifully refracted and created a mesmerizing scenery.

Then, Angel transformed the thirty-centimeter glass into Yasenia's shape and began making it dance. The glass figurine spun and jumped agilely and beautifully, attracting the attention of the people in the surroundings.

Looking at the thirty-centimeter tall glass Yasenia dance was an extremely magical and beautiful scene.

Every mortal around was mesmerized by Angel's spectacle; this included the Han trio.

After three minutes, Angel made the glass Yasenia bow and dissipated it in the wind with a wave of her hand.

Someone began to clap, and many followed. Soon, the whole street was clapping at Angel's performance.

Angel was slightly bashful and hugged Yasenia's side to hide a little from the ovation. Yasenia smiled gently and said, "That was very beautiful, baby. I really liked it."

Angel's face blushed with happiness. "I'm glad you liked it, Yasenia."

Han Xue asked a little sheepishly, "Little Angel, could you create a permanent glass Yasenia? I would like to have it."

Angel looked up at Yasenia to ask her opinion. Yasenia nodded, "She has helped us a lot, baby. Create a real size one wherever Han Xue wants."

Angel nodded, and Han Xue looked at Yasenia gratefully.

As they spoke, they arrived at Han Xue's house.

It was very big, even bigger than their house back in the academy.

It had a pair of tall gates leading to a wide frontal garden. Yasenia saw some guard patrols, but seeing that they were all mortals, she was curious about how they prevented cultivators from sneaking in. Nonetheless, Yasenia didn't ask since it should be a deep secret.

After walking for ten minutes, they arrived at the front door of the house; the frontal garden was that big.

The main building had three floors, but it was immensely wide. Yasenia calculated that it would be enough for 400 people to live inside. And this number was an approximation without knowing about the additional buildings and structures in the area.

When they entered, two rows of people welcomed them. The left row was made of beautiful maids and the right one of handsome butlers.

"Welcome home, mistress!"

Yasenia teased Han Xue, "You should have some fun with all these beautiful faces around."

Han Xue laughed, "Believe it or not, I haven't touched a single maid or butler in the house. I'm very loyal to my husband."

Yasenia looked at her doubtfully, 'You wanted to have sex with me, and you call yourself loyal?'

Han Xue knew what she was thinking and whispered, "You are special, dear Yasenia. I'm really loyal."

Yasenia nodded. She believed her. She understood how much her charm could affect a single person.

They walked up some stairs of the luxurious house, the walls were of a pristine white, and the floor was made of elegant marble. Moreover, red carpets covered the hallways, giving them a more authoritative feel.

There were some exquisite bases decorating the sides of the hallways, together with some exotic plants, increasing the feeling of luxury.

The whole building was truly impressive. Yasenia thought to herself, 'Leaving aside that everything is basically of mortal quality, it isn't much different from my house in the Moon Empire.'

Angel even commented, "Wow! My house is not much bigger than this!"

Han Xue lifted her eyebrow, "Are you someone important outside, little Angel?"

Angel tilted her head and asked Yasenia, "Is a viscount house important, Yasenia?"

Yasenia thought and answered, "Somewhat in the middle? You are not too influential, but people also won't take your house lightly."

Kali was somewhat speechless, "Yasenia, not even one person in ten billion has the influence viscounts have. My family would have to lower their heads to a baron, not to mention a viscount."

Yasenia nodded, "I know, but compared with the real big shots, a viscount is not someone too influential. It is truly an awkward spot. Not too influential for taking part in the big events, but also influential enough that you are targeted by those that want to climb up."

Yasenia smiled and said, "Only after reaching Count rank would the family gain real stability and be able to prosper for many generations. That is why Mom decided to become a Countess and not a Duchess. She just didn't want to bother with the politics of the Empire, but she didn't want to be too bothered by other families."

Han Luan asked curiously, "Is your mom strong, Yasenia?"

Yasenia smiled proudly, and even her tail wagged, "The strongest cultivator in the continent and the strongest cultivator in my heart!"

Han Xue laughed, "You really love your mother."

Yasenia nodded, "En, I love her the most."

"More than your lovers?"

Yasenia lifted her eyebrow and said, not hiding it. "Yes. She is the person I love the most. For her happiness, I wouldn't mind setting this world in the way of destruction or bringing salvation to it."

Yasenia's golden slit eyes were deep as she said, "For her, as long as she is happy, there is nothing I wouldn't do." Her tone sent a chill up Han Xue's spine.

The Han trio looked at Angel and Kali, but they didn't see any reaction. Angel said with a giggle, "Mommy Tatyana is super charming~."

Yasenia returned to her previous self and teased her, "En, little Angel reaaally~ likes mom. Calling her almost every other night, she is very attached to her~."

Angel blushed and got fidgety, "Yes... I really like Mommy Tatyana."

Han Xue's eyebrow jumped after realizing in what way Angel liked Tatyana. 'Yasenia is okay with it? It seems like it...'

While making casual talk, they reached the Major's room.

Han Xue knocked on the door, and a man's deep voice was heard on the other side. "Who?"

Han Xue spoke, "It is me, husband."

"Enter." Said the same baritone voice.

Yasenia and the others entered the spacious room.

It had bookshelves at the sides, filled with different books.

The floor was covered with a reddish-brown carpet, and the furniture had a natural light brown color, clear that they were made carefully so that the wood didn't lose its original traits. The artistic nature emphasized letting the wood's rings create beautiful patterns, giving the whole study a pleasant feel. 'Nice decoration.' Yasenia thought.

There was a black-haired middle-aged man behind the wide desk. He was much more handsome than Yasenia expected, with an angular face and thick brows. He had some of the perfection cultivators naturally had.

His face didn't look stern but gave of an authoritative aura of someone that had been giving orders almost all their life. Yasenia's first impression was that he looked like a natural leader.

Han Xue naturally approached him and sat beside him after exchanging a kiss as a greeting. "Let me present Yasenia to you. She is an immortal with 500,000 Trial Points. I thought about letting her take the trial for that treasure. What do you think, husband?"

The man looked at Yasenia up and down, and if it weren't because of all his years of seeing all kinds of beauties, he would have had a hard time maintaining his currently straight face.

Still, he was slightly dazed and continued looking at those delicious curves for a little longer than he planned to.

"Husband?"

Han Xue's call, laced with a threatening undertone, woke him up from his stupor. His tone was frank and sincere as he said, "Excuse me for being rude, immortal. Sometimes the surreal beauty immortals have stills affects me. I accept my wife's proposal. Adding another person to the trial will make it more interesting after all."

Han Xue asked, surprised. "Another? How is it possible? We've yet to announce it. As tradition says, we can only announce about its existence one month after the first immortal steps into our town."

The major nodded and tapped the desk with the pen in his big hand, "I was also surprised when that woman came and asked about it. I don't know where she got the information from, and I can't force an immortal to speak about it."

He sighed and said, "I was frustrated since the competition for the treasure is normally the biggest event in our town. She would've been able to win it effortlessly if it weren't for you carrying this immortal here."

Yasenia was curious about who had been able to gain so many points as fast as her.

Yasenia knew that there had been more cultivators that passed through the Heaven Gate, but Yasenia also knew that they entered at least two or three days after her.

The main reason was that people's respect toward the Heaven Gate increased after seeing so many strong cultivators die on it. Therefore, only after some days would cultivators begin challenging it again. Realizing that it wasn't as hard as it seemed, the number of Heaven Gate cultivators grew exponentially.

Of course, Sarah crossed the dragoness's mind for a second, but there was no way for her to learn about this since they had been together these weeks. 'Is it possible that the thing possessing her learned about it? But how could it know where to ask for it? Another problem is that she didn't have enough Trial Points unless... She lied to me.'

Yasenia frowned when she thought about this, and her heart cooled down even more than it already was for Sarah. 'She is more cunning than I thought. In the end, I got to comfortable around her and I let my guard down. If I didn't meet with Han Xue, she would have gobbled up another powerful treasure in this town. First, that tattered scroll, and now whatever this is.'

Yasenia wasn't angry at Sarah but at herself.

She wasn't angry because Sarah didn't tell her about the treasure, she had all the rights to keep it from her.

What the dragoness found infuriating was that she didn't find it strange when Sarah didn't struggle as much in insisting to keep traveling with them. She did cry, but there wasn't a lot of words about not separating.

Chapter 272: Mysterious Black Orb.

A pair of red fox ears appeared before her, which snapped her out of her thoughts.

Yasenia looked down and saw Kali looking up at her with worried eyes. Her veil was only at nose level, so she could clearly see her verdant green eyes. "Is everything okay? You are giving quite a strong aura."

Yasenia looked at the other people and saw that, besides Angel, who was also looking worriedly at her, Han Xue and the others were sweating with nervousness. 'Oops, I scared them.'

Yasenia smiled and said, "It's nothing. I was just thinking about some unrelated matters. Anyway, we are allowed to participate in this Trial, right?"

The Mayor nodded, regaining his bearing. "Yes. Even though we can't announce it yet, we will be able to let in those that learn about it. Han Xue telling you is also okay since she has that much authority. We aren't the Mayor and Mayoress just by name, after all."

Angel asked curiously, "You gain authority in the town?"

The Mayoress walked to her side and answered, "Yes, our family guards this town's order."

Yasenia asked curiously, "What if a corrupt leader appears?"

Han Xue calmly smiled as she said, "Then, the Divine lightning would destroy their whole family and choose another family to fill in the empty spot. It has happened in the past more than once. The written history of our town goes more than 10,000 years in the past, so mortals are bound to commit those mistakes. Our family has only been in power for two thousand years."

After a small conversation about the town's history, Han Xue guided Yasenia's group toward the Trial area. "Han Luan, Han Xiao, wait for us in the dining room. Remember that only the heads of the family are allowed in that area."

They both pouted but nodded nonetheless. After bidding a short goodbye to our girls, they probably left to speak to their other sisters and brothers.

Yasenia, Angel, and Kali followed behind Han Xue. they traversed the big mansion and left through the back door. There was another garden here. A building that gave an ancient aura stood in the middle of this garden. It was extremely similar to a mausoleum. The color was grey, and the material was similar to common stone. However, it was clear that it was much more than that.

Yasenia lifted her eyebrow, "We have to enter there?"

Han Xue laughed and said, "I also don't know why it looks like that. It is like we are going inside a tomb or something. However, you will see that there is more than meets the eyes when we enter inside."

Yasenia nodded and followed after Han Xue. The guards in the doors let them pass, and Han Xue placed something circular-shaped in a slot. Then, Han Xue spun it to the right. After Han Xue retrieved the item, the doors slid downward, opening a path for them.

A chilly wind left the door and blew their hair softly. The ancient aura got much stronger, giving them chills.

Angel and Kali subconsciously hugged Yasenia's sides when the chilly wind and aura came out and brushed their bodies.

Yasenia also frowned.

Although it seemed creepy, she couldn't feel any danger. However, she understood that her instincts could fail her, so she asked seriously, "Are you sure this place is safe?"

Han Xue looked curiously at them, and after seeing their guarded faces, she laughed aloud. "I didn't know you were scared of these things. You look very cute~. However, don't worry. If you don't believe me, we can go back and wait until we announce it to the public. Although you will lose the privilege of entering two weeks earlier, at least you will gain reassurance that this isn't something shady."

Yasenia looked at Han Xue attentively but couldn't feel anything wrong. 'Maybe I'm just being oversensitive.'

Yasenia shook her head and said, "Let's go."

They entered the mausoleum. The building had at least forty square meters. In the middle was a single column adorned by various formation lines. Angel looked at them curiously, but they were too high level for her to understand.

Han Xue walked toward the column. Yasenia looked to the ground and spotted a staircase that went downward in a spiral. The stone staircase was wide enough to let five people comfortably walk side by side.

Han Xue said, "The place is underground. The stairs are somewhat long, but for cultivators, it should be easy."

Yasenia didn't say anything, but her energy was silently revolving inside her body. Their steps echoed as they went lower and lower.

Torches illuminated the walls, but these torches weren't common. Yasenia realized the fire was illusory, but it lighted the staircase nonetheless.

Step by step, ten minutes went by. Yasenia calculated that she would need, at most, seven seconds to go back up at her top speed.

At the bottom of the staircase, a small passage led to another room.

When they crossed it, an impressive place welcomed them.

It was a luxuriously decorated hall. It was wide, with enough room for thousands of people. The main color was dark purple, which complemented the grey and blue tones in the decorations.

The hall had thick columns that supported the ten-meter-tall ceiling. It was really similar to a crypt, but with a very tall ceiling. The aura in the surroundings gave a hint of respect and fear because of the ancient feeling the energy inside of here gave.

In the middle of the crypt, there was an ominous black orb. It had at least a two-meter radius. The size and feeling it gave made it hard to ignore. The surface was like something that absorbed even light, looking into it gave a feeling of vertigo, as if your eyes wouldn't be able to escape it.

Yasenia looked at the surroundings and black orb and joked with Han Xue, "Are you sure you aren't going to sacrifice us to a shady ritual or something? This place gives a very bad first impression. Moreover, that thing in the middle doesn't give too good vibes."

Han Xue laughed, "How could that be? This was built here before the town itself. The Monoliths on the surface get their energy from this area. The history books say that there is an enormous formation here that absorbs the energy from outside our world and releases it around the world using that orb as the core."

Han Xue sighed, "However, we haven't found anything formation-like in here, so we think it is just a legend."

Yasenia said, "It should be real. The energy inside the town is very different from the outside. So either there is something that generates the energy inside the realm, or there is something that absorbs the energy outside and transforms it."

Angel also looked around curiously and asked, "Isn't this whole place a formation?"

Han Xue tilted her head, "What do you mean?"

Angel's clever blue eyes observed everything as she said, "The whole hall is a formation. The way the columns are placed, the markings on the ground and the ceiling, and even the lines created by the carpet. Everything complements to form a giant formation. However, the complexity is too high for me to say any more than it is a formation. I can't decipher anything from it. I can barely see the flow of energy, much less say what is this for."

Han Xue looked around with interest and said, "Well, I'm not a formation master, but I will tell this to our experts. Thank you, little Angel." Angel nodded with a smile.

Han Xue smirked and said, "Let's get to the point. Do you see that black orb floating in the middle? That orb in the middle is a powerful treasure that generates energy. However, we don't know its name. Moreover, besides being the thing that supposedly fuels this place, it is also the thing that will carry you to the Trial."

Han Xue continued, "To enter, you have to stand on one of the surrounding circles and let it absorb the 300,000 trial points. After that, you will be transported to the Trial."

Yasenia asked, "Does it have mortal danger? What is it about? What are the rewards?"

Han Xue shook her head. "I can only tell you that there is a chance to die—everything else I had to keep a secret until the month had gone by...."

"Well, I can tell you that the Trial for each person is different. Depending on your strengths and weaknesses, the Trial will drastically change. However, I can tell you more than this."

Yasenia asked two more things, "How much time will I be inside? And will Angel and Kali benefit from entering there?"

Han Xue shrugged, "It depends. From the records kept in this building, the fastest challenger completed it in less than one week, but the rewards were honestly mediocre. On the other side, the slowest one completed it in six weeks; even then, the rewards weren't that good."

Yasenia frowned, "Then, isn't it pointless?"

Han Xue shook her head, "Some amazing prizes have also appeared. What I'm trying to say is that time isn't relative to the prize and that the time to complete it varies widely. So I can't tell you how much time you will be inside."

Yasenia nodded.

The Mayoress continued, "Also, there can only be a single winner, so I don't think Angel and Kali will benefit in any way, especially since the fatality percentage approached forty percent. Besides the tallest Monolith with a 100% fatality rate, it more than doubles the fatality rate of any other Monolith."

Han Xue complimented it, "I've also heard that sometimes, challengers fight each other. So you may end up in a life-and-death situation that only one of you may live. In short, I don't recommend it."

Yasenia nodded, "Then, I will challenge it alone."

As soon as she said that, she felt her hand being grabbed by someone. She looked to her left and saw Angel holding her hand. Yasenai saw that Angel wanted to say something, but her words got stuck in her throat. Then, she said, smiling normally but looking extremely pitiful in Yasenia's eyes. "Good luck, Yasenia."

Yasenia felt like a punch landed on her heart. How could Yasenia not know that her dear baby didn't want to separate from her side?

Kali encouraged with a soft tone, "Go, Yasenia. I will accompany Angel toward the place to activate the [Crystal Key]. I'm sure that time will fly by after she enters her own Trial to get the inheritance. I will also communicate with the others and tell them about it."

Yasenia hugged them both and asked Kali softly. "What about you? You will remain alone during that time. What if our enemies take this opportunity to capture and hurt you?"

Kali snuggled closer and her fox ears danced, "I'm happy you worry about me, but you don't have to worry that much. I can protect myself, and Valeria is also with me. Also, I don't believe that all your enemies know about my transformation. How could they identify me?"

Yasenia sighed and gave up. "How much time has that other person stayed inside?"

Han Xue thought and said, "Not more than six hours since there wasn't anyone before we left to celebrate Han Luan's coming of age."

Yasenia's tempting full lips raised in a seductive smile. "Since it takes weeks, I can waste another two hours to feed my dears. Han Xue led me to an empty room."

Han Xue didn't understand at first, but after seeing Angel's face gaining a red color and Kali's wagging tail and fidgeting appearance, she also blushed. "Oh my~. Follow me."

Chapter 273: Kali's first time (1) (R-18)

It didn't take long to walk back up the stairs and reach the room. Yasenia took the chance to warn Han Xue about her mating scent as they walked toward the room. The last thing she wanted was to die because of a mortal's curiosity.

Han Xue saw Yasenia's serious face and also remembered her experience, so she ordered all personnel not to get near that room. Even then, Han Xue told Yasenia that the divine lightning was quite forgiving about accidental deaths if you overcame the Heaven Gate. Even then, Yasenia didn't want to bet, so she insisted on it, to which Han Xue agreed without a problem.

A big bedroom greeted them when they opened the wooden, decorated door. This room was in the corner of the big mansion, so it wouldn't hinder anybody if they used it.

The room was wide enough to hold a big bed for three people to sleep comfortably. This meant enough space to roll around the sheets comfortably.

The bed sheets were beige-colored, with transparent curtains at the sides.

The room's atmosphere was quite romantic, and the furniture, luxurious. There was a desk near the window and a big closet.

Clearly, this room was owned by someone with a high position.

This made Yasenia doubtful about whose room this was. Han Xue had already left. Hence, she couldn't ask, but she had a good idea. However, the fidgeting of her two dears made this quite irrelevant as her panties were becoming very tight.

Yasenia looked at Angel and Kali and saw them both looking at her with red-colored cheeks.

Yasenia knew she was going to be away for a while, so even when there was already someone in the trial, she wanted to take her time.

Yasenia was confident that even if there was someone ahead of her, she could afford to spend some hours with them.

Nevertheless, Yasenia knew that it wouldn't take that long since Angel and Kali didn't have high stamina. Yasenia smiled gently and grabbed their hands, leading them onto the bed. "We will go slowly. Do not worry about anything, and enjoy."

She laid them down side by side on the bed and positioned herself above them. Each of her legs was between theirs, and each hand beside their heads. She was careful not to step on Kali's tail with her left knee, first creating a space to position her leg between her abundant fur and then placing it down.

Kali and Angel had their shoulders touching each other, with the alluring and seductive dragoness on top of them. Her overpowering presence gave a dominant tone they couldn't escape from.

Their eyes met first with her face, and with a simple move, they could see her big breasts dangling in front of them, showing a big expanse of flesh and a deep valley.

Each white mountain lowered enough to rest on Kali's and Angel's bodies. The feeling of softness and weight made their hearts beat louder and faster, finding the dragoness's voluptuous but slender body extremely attractive. Her scent was slowly but surely enveloping them, and they couldn't help but gulp.

The dragoness's tempting smile in those moist and oh-so-kissable red lips, together with her tender golden slit eyes, made their soul quiver with the temptation to move forward and melt in her.

Yasenia's deep and sensual voice caressed their hearing sense, spreading a pleasant tingling through their body. "Today, we will take our time. We will do things slowly, pleasantly, and full of love~. We will do it until you can only moan. Until you can only call my name as I submerge your bodies and minds with pleasure."

Their hearts pounded faster, and their core squeezed in anticipation.

Angel was already damp, and her hard nipples could be seen through the robe. She wanted to close her legs and rub her thighs, but the leg of the dragoness avoided that action, making her feel more trapped.

Kali was so used to using her mouth that she was salivating, wanting to taste Yasenia. Her mouth produced such an amount that she had to gulp. Moreover, she could also feel her lower mouth 'drooling' as much.

Their cheeks gained a deeper and more alluring red color, and their eyes became moist with passion.

Yasenia lowered her upper body, resting on them and squishing their breasts together. Her legs pressed on their cores, stimulating them with her thighs.

Then, her head moved, and her full lips met with Kali's scarred ones.

The dragoness's long tongue invaded Kali's passionately, making even the fox's cheeks bulge. Their tongues and saliva meshed together in a delicious flavor that invited both of them to swallow.

Yasenia's hand wasn't idle as it slithered under Angel's robes, caressing her skin with a divine touch that ignited Angel's pleasure nerves. Her long and beautiful fingers climbed the big and soft marshmallows and arrived at the rosy cherry on top, playing with it until Angel's voice leaked no matter how much she tried to hold it in. "Oh~, mmmh, ahn~."

Yasenia separated from Kali, and her long tongue slowly retracted inside her mouth, leaving a breathless and pleasure-filled Kali.

The dragoness flavor was completely spread in her mouth, leaving her no choice but to taste her.

Yasenia moved her head and attacked Angel next. Similar to what she did with Kali, her long tongue mercilessly invaded Angel's mouth. The woman's blue eyes became misty as she sighed through her nose, excited.

The way Yasenia kissed them was a wonderful experience.

Yasenia knew how sensitive Kali's mouth could be, so her fingers didn't go for her breasts but to her mouth. They softly invaded it and played with her tongue as if it were a sensitive organ.

Kali moaned excitedly, and together with the earlier kiss, a powerful feeling built up and assaulted her body. Kali just reached her first climax just from Yasenia playing with her mouth.

Yasenia felt her body trembling as her left thigh got wet from the fox's fluids. 'Hmm~, Honey reached it out of that? Maybe I've taught her to feel with her mouth too much? Fufufu~.'

Yasenia didn't stop her kiss with Angel, but her eyes looked into Kali's verdant green eyes with seductiveness.

Kali's face flushed because Yasenia was still playing with her tongue and sending pleasant shivers down her spine and up to her brain.

The voluptuous dragoness took out her drenched hand from her drooling mouth and moved her tail. Kali's eyes locked onto the golden tail tip like a predator would with their prey. "Ahh~." She even made a sound as she opened her mouth, and Yasenia felt a rush of arousal from that.

The tail thrust inside, filling the empty space left behind by her fingers.

Finally having Yasenia's thick, squishy, and precum-leaking tail inside her mouth, Kali moaned in ecstasy, sucked, and moved her head. Kali realized that she was getting really hooked to these pleasurable sensations and she loved it.

Yasenia let all her weight fall on them to free her two hands.

Her left hand moved downward and arrived at Kali's precious place, sending Kali into a muffled moaning spree.

Her right hand wasn't idle as it was still playing with Angel's big breasts, making them extremely sensitive. Angel was so excited by Yasenia's foreplay that her waist was moving on Yasenia's tight, trying to rub herself into an orgasm.

Yasenia turned her attention to the horny Angel, who she hadn't stopped kissing for a moment, as she penetrated Kali's mouth and rubbed her garden.

Her hand on Angel's big breasts lowered and went under the skirt, reaching the flooded treasure land. After passing her soft and light blonde pubic hair, her fingers sank into Angel's soft labia as she caressed her vagina with surreal dexterity.

With her two mouths assaulted, Angel felt as if all her buttons were being pressed, and her waist jumped intermittently. 'My heavens, Yasenia's hand is hitting the spot!'

Yasenia continued her assault, controlling their orgasms until both of them reached it at the same time.

"MMMMPH!"

"MMM~"

The dragoness felt her two dears twitching again with delight as a small stream of juices splashed her two hands.

Kali's throat vibrations because the moan almost sent Yasenia over the edge, but she held it in. Kali's stamina wasn't too high, so she didn't want to send her into a big orgasm yet. 'She is too good with her mouth. My heavens, I almost came.'

She used her hands to lift her body and sat on the bed, looking at both of them tenderly. Then, when she knew that she had their attention, she began undressing.

Yasenia's voice dripped with such an allure that it woke up both climaxing girls from their afterglow. "Get naked, my loves. I want to feel your bodies."

After being cooked for so many minutes, they didn't even hesitate to store their robes inside their rings.

Kali even forgot about Angel's existence and got naked before another woman that wasn't Yasenia. However, she didn't have to worry too much as Angel's eyes were too occupied looking at the slowly stripping sexy dragoness.

Yasenia let the straps of her dress fall, revealing her two big, perfect breasts. They stood proud before Angel's and Kali's eyes as if claiming to the world that they didn't care about gravity.

Then, Yasenia turned around and continued lowering her robes. Angel and Kali saw Yasenia's round and big butt slowly revealing, and between the naked cheeks and slightly opened legs, her juicy and plump pussy lips appeared, followed by the long rod below it.

They could see both sexes literally dripping with transparent fluids. Yasenia semi-turned, twisting her waist, and smiled lovingly but with an undeniable predatory undertone.

The positions showed everything, her dancing tail, soft butt, dangling breasts, juicy pussy, beautiful dick, elastic waist, and thick but not fat thighs on her long longs.

If there was a scale of horniness, Angel and Kali would have already created new records.

Yasenia slowly crawled toward the pair. Her body moved side to side as her legs and knees moved her body. Her dragon tail swayed from side to side together with her body, giving her allure a playfully attractive tone.

First, Yasenia crawled over the naked Kali and pressed their naked bodies together.

Yasenia's silky soft skin and ridiculously malleable body pinned Kali down, burying her in a world of softness.

Yasenia licked her neck slowly and sensually as she lowered her waist. Naturally, she didn't penetrate her. She just placed the shaft between her lower lips, a calculative light dancing in her pink-golden slit eyes.

Chapter 274: Kali's first time. (2) (R-18)

Yasenia licked her neck slowly and sensually as she lowered her waist. Naturally, she didn't penetrate her. She just placed the shaft between her lower lips, a calculative light dancing in her pink-golden slit eyes.

Kali felt the dragoness' thick shaft opening her lower lips and resting there as if it was its nest and a pleasant electric current zapped her brain. "Ahn~!"

Kali moaned as the thick penis was surrounded by her pussy-lips, and the thick shaft was pressing her clitoris. Her moist verdant green eyes looked into Yasenia's golden-pink ones, her face flushed with arousal.

Yasenia smiled and undulated her waist in sensual movements, rubbing her vagina with her penis. The dragoness smeared her whole penis with Kali's fluids, and Kali felt her pleasure increase as Yasenia rubbed her sensitive core with her dick.

Yasenia felt zero resistance to this intimacy. On the contrary, she felt her little fox moving her waist to match her movements, trying to feel more of her member. Her heart pounded excitedly, and she was over the moon because this could only mean one thing.

Kali had become completely accustomed to her penis.

Although Yasenia's heart was beating fast from excitement, her head remained clear. 'Slowly, Yasenia. Don't fuck it up because of greediness.'

Yasenia didn't stop her waist and lowered her face to kiss Kali's neck. At the same time, she looked at Angel sideways with a little bit of guilt.

She was with the two of them, but this was too precious of a chance to miss, only to give momentary fairness.

Angel was also very aroused because of Yasenia's previous administrations, but after looking into her eyes, she understood that this was an important moment. Therefore, she pointed at Yasenia's tail, telling her quietly that she could comfort herself with it in the meantime.

Yasenia's eyes flashed with gratitude and love toward her. It was a shame she still didn't have her spiritual sense, or she would have drowned her dear baby with words of love.

As the dragoness tenderly kissed Kali's neck and rubbed the fox's core with her dragon, her long tail surrounded Angel softly.

With more than two meters in length, she had enough to loop around her twice, squeeze one of Angel's large breasts, and slither down her belly, leaving enough tail to penetrate Angel deeply.

Angel felt constricted as Yasenia was creating pressure with it after coiling. The controlled sense of suffocation and restraint made Angel's heart pound with anticipation.

Then, Angel felt Yasenia's thick tail penetrating her in a single thrust. It opened her labia as her insides forcefully parted, leaving way for the assaulting member to smash against her cervix. Angel felt as if lightning had struck her. Her toes and fingers curled, and she bit her hand to avoid moaning without restraint. Even with all her efforts to keep silent, her voice leaked, "Mmm~."

Yasenia felt Angel's inside clamping on her tail, making it difficult to thrust in and out. Therefore, she didn't just penetrate. Yasenia wiggled and moved it in ways no penis would ever be able to.

The soft and bumpy scales scratched her vaginal walls deeply in places no finger could reach, sending Angel's mind into the pleasure realm, her eyes rolling and her body spasming.

Yasenia did this in no more than ten seconds, seconds when she didn't stop caressing, kissing, and massaging Kali's scarred body. She was multitasking perfectly, submerging both her dears in the deepest abyss her love could give.

Yasenia's kisses began going up, approaching Kali's right fox ear and biting it softly. She felt Kali's body tensing between her arms as a loud moan left her mouth. "Ah!"

Yasenia sultrily whispered as she moaned because of Angel's vagina spasms. "Kali, ahn~ are you prepared to take the last mmm~ step?"

Kali's fuzzy mind understood her meaning, and her heart squeezed. She felt an instinctual dread and discomfort.

However, unlike previous times when Yasenia asked, she didn't answer instantly. She closed her eyes for a second, feeling the rod caressing her pussy, and the dread and discomfort were basically devoured by anticipation and pleasure.

Her green eyes were filled with arousal as she took a deep, shaky breath and pushed those feelings down. "Let's try it, Yasenia. I want to be one with you."

Yasenia had been observing and had felt her reaction. 'She can probably take it. I'm nearly one hundred percent sure. Moreover, delaying it more will only make her more fearful about it. It is good to take it slow, but too slow will also affect her negatively.'

With those thoughts in mind, she wanted to try inserting just the tip and see her reaction.

Since Kali didn't show any signs of discomfort while giving her dick a pussy-massage, her confidence in penetrating her was high. 'Most probably, she might be feeling a placebo effect. Even so, I have to be careful. The heart demon will surely attack the moment I penetrate her.'

Yasenia involuntarily let out a loud moan, "Ahn~!"

The moan was divine, like a soft melody that made their hearts pound. Angel and Kali felt even their uterus squeeze.

Yasenia looked back at Angel with intense eyes. 'My baby is clamping down more than usual, is being ignored while I fuck her turning her on?'

Angel had already stopped trying to hold back her moans and was moaning aloud, making Kali aware of her friend's state. 'W-Wow, Yasenia is really going at it with her tail...'

Yasenia turned back to Kali and dove down to kiss her. Kali's thoughts about Angel popped like a bubble as the delicious tongue invaded her mouth.

The dragoness wouldn't penetrate her directly. She wanted to melt the nervousness that had appeared after asking her to do it.

With Angel's ecstasy-filled moans as a background melody, Kali didn't take long to soften again.

Yasenia felt the woman's whole body relaxing, and she smiled, satisfied. Then, she lifted her upper body, holding her breasts with one arm, and moved Kali's legs with her own legs.

In this position, Kali could see her own vagina and Yasenia's big dick hovering above it. Yasenia's sensual voice entered Kali's ears, accelerating her heartbeat. "Look closely, honey. It is the first time we are going to become one~."

Kali's eyes were locked there, even without Yasenia telling her. The scenery made her feel a complex array of emotions.

She felt distressed seeing her scarred and ugly body so close to Yasenia's perfect one.

She felt excited when she saw Yasenia's penis dripping with precum, staining her belly, and twitching, eager to penetrate her.

She felt fear because the Heart Demons may trigger again, and injure Yasenia. Now there weren't any seniors around to heal her, making her heart palpitate with dread.

She felt arousal because Yasenia had been making her body extremely sensitive, and she knew that the moment that thick head penetrated her, she would almost certainly climax.

These convoluted emotions made her body feel slightly suffocated and confused, but with pleasure coursing through it.

Yasenia saw it and stopped her movements, she had been in a dry spell for more than a week and was having a hard time holding back, but she wouldn't hurt her dears because of this.

She moved the arm, holding her big breasts, letting them fall again and blocking Kali's vision from their intimate parts. Kali saw the bounces they did and was impressed.

Yasenia decided to convince her using a little trick. 'Honey, don't blame me~. This is for ourselves.'

Then, the dragoness put on a saddened expression and looked at her little fox. Her voice was slightly weak, and her smile small. Kali's heart squeezed for real. "Kali dear, do you still find me fearful?"

Kali instantly denied it, her voice hasty. "No! I really love it. It is the first penis I have seen that didn't repulse me since then. On the contrary, I find it and everything in your body beautiful and attractive."

Yasenia lowered her face because she almost moaned in front of Kali's face because of Angel's vaginal stimulation on her tail.

However, Kali took it as if she didn't believe her, so she managed to steel herself and said, her voice unflattering and determined. "Yasenia, my love. Make love with me. I want to feel you inside."

Yasenia lifted her head with a smile and flushed cheeks.

Kali's heart almost stopped because of how beautiful and attractive she looked.

Yasenia's flushed face and happy smile made her drip with a lovely feeling that coated her heart with honey. Kali internally sighed, 'She is so beautiful. How could I hate any part of her?'

Yasenia gave her one last passionate kiss and gathered her breast with her arm again.

The two big white Mountains spilled from the sides of the arm, almost surrounding it completely, but Yasenia was able to let Kali see again.

The scenery now was even more arousing than before. Yasenia's penis was twitching almost every two seconds, and it was leaking that thick precum on top of her belly button.

So much leaked that there was a small puddle of transparent precum on Kali's flat, scarred belly.

That wasn't all. Yasenia's vagina wasn't drooling any less, creating a translucent and shiny thread between the bed and her privates. The dragoness was extremely excited.

Angel had been looking there while Yasenia fucked her; that was the real reason she was so excited and clamped on Yasenia so much.

Seeing Yasenia's beautiful and plump pussy drooling was extremely stimulating.

If she wasn't constricted by the tail, Angel would have jumped face first to drink everything there. However, the tail fuck she was receiving made it impossible to even move her legs as they were spasming with pleasure. 'OH YES! Yasenia's tail feels so good I'm cumming again!'

Leaving Angel's almost constantly orgasming self, Kali wasn't any less aroused at that sight. Imagining herself slurping all that nearly made her cum. She even felt and saw her own pussy spurting a stream of liquid, which made the excitement and ecstasy soar. Moreover, the sight of such an aroused Yasenia made her soul quiver with delight.

Yasenia said, her voice deep and extremely sensual, making both girls whimper. "I can't hold it anymore, Kali. I'm going it."

Kali saw Yasenia move that glistening penis back and position the wide head in front of her labia. The size became apparent at that moment, as it almost covered her whole vagina.

Then, the dragoness slowly pushed forward.

Chapter 275: Kali's first time (3) (R-18)

Kali saw Yasenia move that glistening penis back and position the wide head in front of her labia. The size became apparent at that moment, as it almost covered her whole vagina.

Then, Yasenia slowly pushed forward.

Kali felt and saw her labia opening wide to accommodate that incredible girth, but then a slight pain came. Yasenia was too big. The small entrance was somewhat stiff and tight, making it hard to continue forward. Yasenia grunted, 'I already expected it after fingering her, but my heavens, she is tight!'

Still, Kali's heart was pounding fast as she saw Yasenia slowly penetrating her. However, only positive feelings created this fast heartbeat, and surprisingly she didn't feel anything bad.

Her previous initiative to ask for it made this much easier for her to accept, allowing Kali to have a much sturdier mental fortitude.

Taking the lead was certainly more embarrassing, but at the same time, it gave her more confidence.

Yasenia saw that she was about to enter, so she stopped for a second and took a deep breath. She also stopped moving her tail inside Angel, or she may cum as soon as her head entered Kali.

Just the small amount of Yin energy she was feeling from her dick was enough to let Yasenia know that Kali's pussy would feel heavenly.

The temptation of thrusting her waist and reaching her deepest parts was so high that Yasenia's waist was trembling, and her breathing was rough.

Moreover, her instincts were shouting that the moment she pierces to the end, it would feel otherworldly. The sensation was similar to the one she got from Cecile the first time, but this time she was in much more control of herself because of her experience.

Therefore, even when her body wanted to pound Kali silly and fill her with her semen, Yasenia was focused on Kali and Kali only.

This was an extremely important step to fuck up because of horniness and instinct.

Yasenia observed Kali as her head put pressure on the tight entrance and saw zero negative feelings on Kali's face. The dragoness was encouraged and continued pushing forward.

The tight and small entrance widened as Yasenia's head made more pressure.

Kali felt electric currents from the feeling of being stretched and moaned. Her fox tail was wagging so much that it was blowing air to Angel.

Then, Yasenia's head slipped in.

Kali's entrance immediately clenched on her dick like a vice and squeezed her penis head.

Kali and Yasenia let out a loud moan.

"Ah!"

"Aahn~."

Kali didn't lose sight of their currently connected part. Her heart was beating so loudly that she feared that it would begin to echo through the room because of her excitement.

The sight of that beautiful big dick widening her scarred labia was stimulating, and the feeling was elevated since the person connected to that member was her dearest dragoness.

Yasenia's dick constantly sent electric pleasure waves as it not only widened her entrance but also created enough pressure to stimulate every single nerve there. Not to mention Yasenia's heavy breathing beside her ear, her grunts and moans, and the leaking precum filled with electrifying Yang energy elevated these stimuli to the point that she felt her brain being directly massaged.

The pleasure came in waves, and Kali could only moan as she looked there. "Oh! I- Ahn~. So good!"

Shortly after, she felt heat lower from her uterus and reached climax. Her eyes rolled up, losing sight of their now fused parts for the first time, and she shouted, "I'm cumming!"

Kali squirted as her entrance squeezed Yasenia's dick as if its life depended on it.

Before Kali came, Yasenia was having a really hard time not thrusting in and cumming to her heart's content inside her uterus.

Kali's Yin energy was almost on the same level as Cecile's; the dragoness's salvation came from Kali's blood being impure with nearly forty percent human blood, or else this situation would have unfolded very differently.

Doing it with Cecile for Yasenia felt extremely pleasant, as if she was making love with her fated partner. Their movements synched, their thoughts connected, and it felt like they were melting into a single person.

On the other side, Kali's Yin energy was boosted by her absurdly pure Life and Nature energy. The feeling was fundamentally different.

Yasenia felt as if her Yin energy was tempting her to make her pregnant, to flood that sacred place and put life in there.

Yasenia's brain was in the middle of a war right now. She really wanted to thrust in and cum. To thrust inside Kali's uterus, piercing through her cervix, and unload an ungodly amount of semen until her fox gets pregnant. Fuck her until a child was created.

Thankfully, she had plenty of experience resisting the temptation, so even if it was ten times more intense than what she felt with her other dears, Yasenia managed to hold her waist.

Still, what she couldn't hold in was her orgasm. The moment Kali came, all her Yin energy smeared Yasenia's penis. The feeling felt like a gentle and temping hand squeezing her whole shaft, stimulating her nerves.

Yasenia's eyes rolled, and her voice was trembling because of pleasure, "Honey, it feels too good! I can't hold it in! I'm going to cum!"

Kali was orgasming, and her head high up in the Heavens. Not thinking twice, she moaned aloud, "Cum! I want your cum!"

Something snapped inside the dragoness's brain.

The last restraint in the dragoness's head shattered, and like a dam breaking, Yasenia relaxed her two rods and let herself reach climax.

Angel and Kali felt the inserted rods heat up and inflate, and their minds became active.

They knew what was coming. They could feel practically feel it as the discharge went through Yasenia's rods.

Then, Yasenia's rich Yang energy jetted through her penis and tail. "OHH!!!"

Yasenia almost roared as her cum shot through her penis and tail. It was so strong that it pierced all the way into the two uteri that were thirsty for her release.

Thankfully, Yasenia subconsciously held back the only way she could.

Yasenia used Angel to release all the semen with life energy because she knew that her dear baby would be able to resist.

Angel had been kept at the edge for a while now. So when the semen filled her lower mouth without restraint, all her nerves exploded like a firework.

Our baby could feel the extremely potent Life and Yang energies assaulting her uterus, reaching for her eggs to fertilize them. Angel's face morphed with euphoria as she sensed the vigorous, fertile semen causing havoc in her uterus. The orgasm was so strong that her world went white.
"OOOOHHH!!!"

The awaited orgasm rocked our baby's body like a storm, sending her legs, abdomen, and torso wildly spasming without a sign of relaxing soon.

Her arms held onto the tail for her dear life as she squirted like a broken faucet, spraying Yasenia's and Kali's legs with her fluids. Her uterus was filled so much that her stomach bulged slightly, and semen spilled from her entrance. The tail was shooting cum and didn't seem that it was going to stop soon. Her piercing moan echoed in the room. "I'm going to break!!!"

Kali wasn't any better. No, she was much worse.

When Yasenia's potent Yang energy, thankfully without life energy, literally pierced through her entire vagina and cervix, filling her uterus, Kali felt an enormous electric wave climbing up her body. Her thoughts accelerated as her eyes widened to the limits.

In the next instant, that current exploded in her brain, and her soul almost left her body.
"AAAHHHH!!!"

Her eyes rolled up until only the whites could be seen. Her mouth chomped down on Yasenia's neck, drawing blood. Our fox's legs and tail straightened up as her nails scratched Yasenia's back, leaving bloody marks.

Her pussy was spasming crazily and uncontrollably, squirting as she pissed herself.

Her meridians were flooded with Yasenia's powerful Yang energy, carrying those surreal pleasure waves through her whole body.

It was as if Yasenia was fucking her brain's pleasure nerves directly.

Continuous orgasms assaulted her, and she was unable to stop herself from spasming, biting, and scratching her mate on top of her.

Yasenia painfully grunted as Kali assaulted her.

She had already unwrapped her tail from Angel and used it on Kali, trying to reduce the enormous orgasm.

Even then, Kali's powerful orgasm from feeling such high-quality semen invading her uterus didn't seem to be ending.

Yasenia saw this and made a split-second decision. She took out her clamped penis with a pop, and her hand slapped above Kali's uterus to expel all her fluids.

Slap!

Kali's vagina widened for a second, spurting all the semen in a pure white and thick stream.

Yasenia refocused on Kali as she continued to assault her and saw improvement. Only then did Yasenia's effort to stop Kali's orgasm begin to work.

Even then, it lasted for almost ten more minutes.

After somewhat relaxing, Kali's body became limp, like a puppet whose strings were cut.

Yasenia was bleeding profusely from her back and neck, but she didn't mind and lay on her back, placing Kali's body on top of her. Then, she used all her massage techniques to bring her dear fox back from the Pleasure Realm.

However, Yasenia knew that this was just the beginning. Her eyes were looking at Kali as if expecting something to happen.

Meanwhile, Kali, who was completely limp, was inside her mind again.

She was in the small green forest surrounded by a completely black and dead world. Even when the thing here was her soul, she still felt sluggish after her world-shaking orgasm. This surprised her to no end, "Even my soul got affected by Yasenia's induced orgasm? Wow. She is really on a whole other level."

In the sky, she felt that evil and sickening presence appearing one more time, and Kali looked over it with a calm gaze. Her sluggishness was gone the moment she laid eyes on the sky-blotting maw. As the previous one, it was filled with serrated teeth and dripped with that disgusting black miasma.

Its voice was screeching as it said, somewhat surprised, "Why aren't you kneeling in fear?"

Kali's lips raised, and she said, "Why should I?"

The maw screeched angrily yet somewhat confused, "You shall fear Yasenia because she ra-"

Kali's aura burst forth, slamming the maw away with a terrible might. Her words were icy as she said, "Don't you dare slander her, Heart Demon. No matter how powerful you are, you can't sway my opinion of her."

Then, she coated herself in the Fox green aura and ran forward without fear. At that moment, the world changed like the last time. The simple sky drastically changed. Countless stars appeared, a giant Moon shone her chilly silver light over half of the black world, and an imposing Sun seared the other half with its unmatched light.

The Heart Demon screeched, confused, "What is happening!?"

The stars fell from the sky and surrounded Kali's fox figure, giving her a mystical appearance, and Kali said, "The previous time, I could use Yasenia's energy to aid me, so I've been practicing each time I had the chance."

Kali's fox figure soared to the sky, running on top of the river of stars. Then, she looked at the Heart Demon as if it was an insect and said, "You have no chance. Surrender, and I will painlessly destroy you."

Chapter 276: Kali's first time. (4)

The nine-tailed green fox's body was two times smaller than the maw. However, the tails made up for the fox's size as they were incredibly long and big.

Coated in her Life, Nature, and Wood energy, Kali slammed against the black maw with serrated teeth.

She already had experience in fighting it, so the fight went much smoother than before.

She first maintained her distance as she slapped it continuously with her nine tails and slashed with her claws whenever it came close.

Kali internally frowned, 'Why is it so easy? Even if I'm using Yasenia's strength, this is much easier than fighting my last Heart Demon.'

What Kali didn't know was that as her brain was completely out of her body because of the effects of that world-changing orgasm, Yasenia wasn't still and waiting for her.

The reason she bought the acupuncture manual was for times like this one. But since it was a recently purchased item and now Yasenia was too occupied finding solutions, it went over her head for the moment.

As pleasure still caressed Kali's whole body like a lover's touch, making her unable to form thoughts, Yasenia tried communicating with Kali three times, but she didn't seem to be listening.

Her first thought was to blame herself as she searched for solutions.

The dragoness just felt euphoric for being able to penetrate Kali, so her body naturally reacted, trying to fill her to the brim. Therefore she released too much inside Kali.

Moreover, Kali felt like the perfect mate to impregnate, even more than Cecile, making her unable to control the quality of the Yang energy and release the most potent one.

At first, Yasenia thought that no problem would arise since the dragoness had been feeding this quality Yang energy to her dear fox.

The dragoness had been using the most potent Yang energy with Kali for a while, trying to compensate for the fact that they couldn't dual cultivate properly.

But Kali's body reacted in this exaggerated manner. Yasenia was reasonably confused and worried.

Only after her mind regained clarity after the orgasm did the reason click in her mind.

Yasenia's Yang energy was lethally attractive for beast humans.

Cecile wasn't a good example since she was also an extremely powerful complete beast, so Yasenia momentarily forgot that her Yang energy was much more effective now on Kali.

Furthermore, Cecile was Yasenia's [Interlocked Soul], giving her many benefits when dealing with the powerful dragoness.

On the other side, Kali was still a beast human that hadn't touched on the real potential of her bloodline.

To add salt to injury, this was her first time having intercourse with Yasenia, and her bloodline was extremely sensitive to powerful and fertile energy.

Furthermore, receiving Yang energy through the mouth or uterus was two completely different things.

The uterus was many times more sensitive than the stomach, and since Kali's body could instinctively feel Yasenia's powerful bloodline, it made all her instincts dance with pure and unadulterated euphoria. Even her soul got affected by her orgasm!

All of this, coupled together with Kali's previous experiences and Yasenia's mistake of not holding back her Yang energy quality, resulted in an explosion of pleasure for Kali that nearly damaged her.

Thankfully, Yasenia reacted fast enough and emptied Kali's uterus, using her tail on her to reduce the pleasure further down. Else, Kali could have been permanently hurt.

Even then, Yasenia was worried since Kali was still unresponsive, her vagina squirting a small stream from time to time.

Angel was hugging Yasenia's side and looking at Kali with worry in her eyes. She hugged Yasenia because she couldn't even sit on her own after her powerful climax. "Why isn't she coming back, Yasenia?"

Yasenia placed Kali on top of the bed face down and sat on her thighs, giving her a back massage with her moon energy.

Yasenia bit her lip and said, "I don't know, baby. I've tried everything I know, but she is still feeling pleasure."

The dragoness didn't know that, at that moment, Kali was, in truth, fighting against her Heart Demon. Unlike the previous times, no outside clues appeared, increasing Yasenia's confusion.

Yasenia's efforts in relaxing Kali's body were what gave Kali the strength to fight against the Heart Demon with relative ease. If Yasenia stopped her treatment, Kali would quickly fall into a disadvantage inside her soul.

Angel suddenly said, "Why don't you use that technique you bought earlier?"

Yasenia stopped and opened her eyes, "Right! I was in such a hurry that I forgot about it. Thanks, baby; I love you."

She used a single hand to continue the massage, reducing its effectiveness and opened the [Yin-Yang Acupuncture Resonance Manual] book with the other.

Kali suddenly felt part of her strength leaving her, and the maw didn't lose the chance to begin its counterattack. Her brows furrowed, and she entered a defensive battle. The injured maw used the black world to create countless illusory images of Kali's traumatic experiences, shaking her heart.

Although Kali herself was over it, the Heart Demons were able to amplify her negative feelings until they became relevant.

If Kali were a normal mortal, she would have already stepped out of her trauma. However, being a cultivator with such powerful Heart Demons made it more difficult to escape these fears than normal.

Kali saw how a group of ten men attacked her, restrained her, and ripped her clothes off. In the distance, a green-haired woman saw all of this unfold with a smile.

She wasn't an ethereal beauty like Cecile, a seductive beauty like Yasenia, or a heroic or cute one like Andrea or Angel.

Kali's beauty was relaxing.

She was extremely good-looking, to the point that looking at her would relax even the most nervous of people. She had the purest of forms of gentleness.

Her verdant green eyes appeased your heart, and her chestnut-colored hair reminded you of autumn and aroused tender feelings. Her facial features, when she smiled, gave the surroundings a peaceful aura. And her laugh would make your day ten times better.

However, at that moment, that gentle beauty was being assaulted by a group of ten people and was about to be defiled.

No matter how she screamed.

No matter how she cried.

No matter how big her struggle was.

"This is what you are! A simple toy for people to use you!" The Heart Demon's maw became closer to her.

"This is what happened to you! Pleasing a group of ten men until they broke you!" Kali's blows lost strength, unable to keep it at bay.

"This is where you lost your right to live a normal life! Fallen pray to a superior cultivator's scheme named Alysa!" The maw opened in front of herself, ready to devour her.

"Used until you couldn't even form coherent thoughts!" Tears ran down Kali's cheeks as she saw everything, and the black world began to consume the forest.

As the darkness was slowly overrunning her soul world, every part of her was assaulted, tainted, and filled with things she would never be able to vocalize in the illusion.

And her assaulter's faces? They were filled with mockery, speaking at her as if she was a toy.

They punched her when her reaction was not amusing.

Whenever she stopped reacting to one place being touched or abused, they slashed it with poisonous blades, physical and metaphorical blades.

They deformed her face, her body, and, most importantly, her soul.

That was why her whole body was scarred, not leaving a single place out. She became completely numb and unreactive to whatever they did to her.

Even then, she still didn't know how she got away from that place, from that hell.

She didn't know when the light began entering her eyes again, but she knew that she was able to hold on until the turning point in her life arrived.

Kali couldn't even look away as she saw those three days of agonizing torture. She couldn't escape because the Heart Demon showed it directly into her mind.

However...

Kali's mouth opened and said as tears ran down her cheeks.

"It doesn't matter."

The Heart Demon that was about to chomp down on Kali was suddenly tied with countless vines, stopping it on the spot.

Kali's fox figure disappeared as she floated her own body toward the Heart Demon.

She arrived in front of it and repeated, her voice somewhat weak. "It doesn't matter anymore, Heart Demon."

It was confused as it struggled against the vines. "Why don't you fear us!? Why are you so relaxed when you are about to be consumed!?"

Kali said, "It is because the reason my tears pour isn't because of sadness, fear, or pain, Heart Demon."

A smile bloomed on her scarred face as she said, "My tears pour down because of happiness. Even someone like me was accepted, Heart Demon. Even after that woman knew what I went through, she accepted me with wide open arms and created a cozy place inside her heart for me to rest comfortably. Therefore, you can't scare me or affect me with these things. Moreover..."

Kali said, smiling calmly, "...I know for a fact that she won't let me down even if she doesn't know I'm fighting with you. Her light is not something darkness as weak as yourself can compete against."

And at that precise moment, the shine of the Celestial bodies throughout Kali's soul world multiplied, blowing the darkness away like the Morning Sun!

The Heart Demon's body cracked in innumerable places as it released an inhuman screech that couldn't be put into words.

"You've been tormenting me for long enough. Now, disappear."

Kali then poked it with one finger, and from the point where her finger poked it, the maw slowly disappeared into light particles, creating a shower of golden specks that purified her soul!

Those particles fell on the floor and bloomed into different vegetation. A big part of the lifeless world blossomed into a beautiful forest full of life. The part that was being purified was a total of fifty percent of her soul world!

The forest that was about to be consumed shone with a gentle light as it disintegrated the miasma.

It wasn't a violent end. It was peaceful and beautiful. Even the screeching of the maw stopped when half of its body was gone, as if it was calmly converting itself into what it was before.

A gentle breeze blew through the Soul World, and the energy from the restoring part of her soul world rushed toward her in multiple green streams.

However, Kali heard a thought in her subconsciousness that told her to store it instead of absorbing it.

She didn't know where this thought came from, but Kali instinctively obeyed it. She guided all of that energy and created a cocoon. It was a beautiful green cocoon that contained pure Life, Nature, and Wood energies.

When she finished guiding that energy, the Heart Demon completely dissolved. Kali looked toward the last golden specks falling into the ground, and a smile appeared on her face. It was a smile that regained a part of her previous innate gentleness, "Goodbye, Heart Demon."

Chapter 277: Kali's first time. (5)

Yasenia read the book extremely fast. Her brain spun as it absorbed all the knowledge in close to no time. She had already read the theory, so she was memorizing the most basic procedure at that moment.

Although Yasenia wouldn't be able to understand the complex parts, her extremely powerful comprehension abilities made it so she could read, understand, and internalize the first chapters.

She found the basic treatment to reduce the efficiency of the Yang energy with Yin energy and focused on it.

The book focused on treating Yang with Yin and vice versa. These treatments varied a lot, so although they could be summed up in a sentence, the book had many different procedures within.

Yasenia turned Kali over, placing her on her back. The fox was limp, so she had no problems in moving her around. Then she took out a set of 81 needles.

They were kept in a cloth roll, ordered from the smallest to her left to the longest on her right.

Yasenia unrolled it and observed them. Each was very thin, and their length varied from seven to fifteen centimeters.

They were divided into batches of nine, each group increasing the length by one centimeter. The group of fifteen-centimeter needles was different since she had a total of eighteen compared to the other groups of nine.

The color of all the needles was black, again, with the last eighteen being different. The eighteen biggest needles were divided into two groups—a set of golden needles and another set of silver needles.

For this procedure, she needed a total of eighteen needles. Since she was treating her overwhelming Yang energy, Yasenia used the silver needles to guide it with her Ying energy. She used a total of four silver needles, and the rest were black.

With everything prepared, Yasenia began to work. The world around Yasenia disappeared as her golden slit eyes thinned and focused on the woman before her. Her energy flowed in harmony, and her hands and heart were steady.

Her hand moved slowly yet smoothly, and picked the black needles. She coated them in pure energy and approached her naked chest. Then, the first needle pierced above her left breast slowly until it hit the acupuncture point.

These points were nodes inside the cultivator's body that helped the meridians circulate the energy in complex patterns. Therefore, damaging these acupuncture points may result in considerable amounts of damage.

Some special acupuncture points were located in sensitive parts like the brain, heart, dantian, and many more. These points could mean death if something broke them with accuracy. However, one must be extremely knowledgeable of someone's body to pierce these with precision.

As previously mentioned, Yasenia had studied medicine and anatomy in the past, so it wasn't difficult for her to sense them.

Right now, the difficulty of her task was the same as following a somewhat complicated cooking recipe. If she fucked up, it would end up very badly, but the recipe was very detailed, so unless she were distracted, it would be hard to mess up.

As the needles pierced Kali's skin, she revolved her Yin energy and slowly inserted it inside of her. The dragoness used this energy to counter the Yang energy inside Kali.

Since she was treating energy problems, Yasenia needed to pierce them in the dantian area. Some sweat accumulated on Yasenia's nose as she moved her hand. She was slowly approaching the first silver fifteen-centimeter needle toward the dantian area.

If that book resulted in being a scam or something, she would be effectively crippling Kali. However, her thoughts only lingered there for a second and continued forward. 'Although doubting is good, I haven't seen a single misleading treasure in the town. All the things we bought were legitimate, so it would be extremely bad luck for this book not to be.'

Yasenia began piercing Kali's skin in the dantian area with extreme concentration.

Angel felt a strange pressure emanating from Yasenia as the first silver needle slowly sank into Kali. It wasn't big or suffocating. It had a touch of mystery.

The second needle pierced two centimeters down to that one. Each silver needle would be piecing in each of the cardinal directions taking the dantian as a center.

Four black needles surrounded them, also piercing in cardinal directions with the silver needles as a center.

If you painted the needle-piercing points with a marker, it would effectively create the three-in-a-row play table. It was one of the most basic acupuncture formations but effective for what Yasenia wanted.

The fifteen-centimeter thin needles sunk into Kali's skin. Yasenia pierced one after another, plunging all the needles inside Kali.

Then, she followed the technique and revolved her Yin energy, seeping it through the needles inside Kali's body. The small amounts of Yin energy she previously inserted multiplied in might at that moment, counterattacking the Yang energy inside Kali.

It was a success!

However, Yasenia didn't celebrate too early, 'Don't lose focus. Until all the needles are outside, there is still danger.'

Kali's sluggish mind felt something refreshing lodging into her dantian area and spread across her body. The hotness and pleasure that was attacking her body were put off by that invigorating energy.

It was at that moment that Kali's burst of strength happened inside her soul realm, annihilating the Heart Demon. Her strength, assisted by Yasenia's acupuncture, gave the Heart Demon a lethal blow making it slowly dissolve in golden particles.

Kali felt the Yin energy around her body and didn't resist it because even if it was the opposite of her dearest hot and passionate energy, in essence, it was the same.

Kali knew that this energy was Yasenia's, so she welcomed it with delight.

Like a water tide on a burning forest, it put out the fire with ease and nurtured Kali's damaged nervous system and meridians.

The Yin energy finally reached her mind, and her brain reactivated.

Inside her soul world, Kali felt something pulling her out. She smiled and looked at the beautiful sky inside her world. "Time to go back. I'm very excited to know what Yasenia will say."

The energy didn't immediately wake her up. It was careful and caring, the same as its owner. She felt as if something was gently cooing her out of her sleep.

One minute later, Kali's eyes regained focus. She saw the same white ceiling and the curtains on the side of the bed. Beside her, the naked Yasenia was focusing on her abdomen area.

She was sweating as she manipulated her Yin energy toward some needles stuck in her. Even though those needles were piercing dangerously close to her dantian, Kali didn't feel any fear. 'Did she use the acupuncture manual to help me? She is really a monstrous genius. To be able to already use the most basic procedure... I have no words to explain how proud I feel for her.'

Yasenia stopped five minutes later and took out the needles one by one, careful not to mess anything up.

Kali saw the nervousness in Yasenia's golden eyes as she took them out one by one and almost laughed aloud. Yasenia looked very cute in Kali's eyes.

However, she held it in as she didn't want to interrupt her dear dragoness.

When the last needle got out, Yasenia sighed with relief, and her arms fell to the sides. 'I've done it. Thankfully, I didn't mess it up. My energy also didn't react strangely with the needle technique. I always had my heart thumping, thinking that it could go wrong.'

Kali spoke with a weak voice. "Thanks for your hard work, my love."

When Yasenia saw her like that, her heart tightened. She threw herself on top of Kali, hugging her strongly. "Thank the Heavens that nothing bad happened to you. How do you feel, Kali? I'm so sorry. I should have released outside."

Kali grunted as the voluptuous dragoness threw herself on top of her. The sweaty soft body smelled heavenly and covered her completely, igniting a small flame inside of Kali.

She didn't know whether to laugh or cry, 'My dearest is sometimes too clueless at her own attractiveness.'

Angel also asked while patting Kali's head, "You have to tell us, Kali. You better not hold anything back!"

Kali smiled weakly but tenderly. She felt so full of love right now. "I'm very tired and drained. I can't feel my legs because of the powerful orgasm numbed my lower part. But I'm okay."

Yasenia kissed her slowly and tenderly. "I'm glad nothing serious happened. Here take this."

Kali saw a pill appearing and easily discerned it as a very high quality [Yin replenishing pill]. Kali didn't make a fuss and ate it. If she dared to ask for a lower-quality one, she didn't know if Yasenia would spank her until her butt was red. 'Although... Maybe I have to feel something like that another day. Evelyn is quite fond of that, so it shouldn't feel too bad being spanked, right?'

She opened her mouth obediently, and Yasenia fed her the pill. Kali gulped it down, and since it was a mid-level Heaven-ranked pill, she felt reinvigorated almost instantly.

Kali was about to speak about the heart demon when she saw the bloody marks on her neck. Her eyes widened and she asked, "What happened, my love? Are you okay!?"

Yasenia tilted her head cluelessly for a second, but then she remembered. She laughed and smiled, pecking Kali, "My dear fox gave me love bites and scratches~, how could I not be okay?"

Kali almost spluttered, "Love bites!?! If those are love bites, eating someone would be called love cannibalism!"

Yasenia and Angel laughed aloud. Yasenia, still lying comfortably on top of Kali, said, "Don't worry about that, honey. During the treatment and our current conversation, they only look scary."

Yasenia took out a towel and cleaned her bloody neck to show pink skin below, "See? It is already healed~."

Kali blinked twice, then she said, "Here, eat this. [Healing sap]."

Yasenia saw a green substance appearing on Kali's hand. Then, she moved her hand toward Yasenia and Yasenia ate it without complaints.

The small wounds she still had closed in thirty seconds. Angel took the chance to clean Yasenia with that towel.

Kali was feeling more aroused as time passed because Yasenia was still on top of her. She could feel everything, especially that powerful weapon that sent her to another realm a moment ago.

Yasenia's lips lifted as she felt Kali heating up again. 'Now that I released, I can control myself better~. Note to self, even if I have to masturbate, release some arousal before doing it with Kali.'

Kali hugged Yasenia's neck and smiled, "Yasenia, do you know that something very important happened?"

Yasenia blinked twice and said with doubt, "That we finally became one?"

Kali lifted an eyebrow and said, "Then, two important things happened. Moreover, you only inserted the tip. I want to have you completely inside of me."

Yasenia chuckled huskily and kissed her, "We can solve that problem really fast~, honey."

Kali felt Yasenia's weapon rising for battle and gulped. However, she wanted to speak about the Heart Demon before something else happened. "When you sent me in that powerful orgasm, I returned to my soul world to fight the Heart Demon."

Yasenia's smile disappeared, and her eyes widened, "Are you okay? Do you feel anything strange?"

Chapter 278: Kali's first time. (Last) (R-18)

Kali softly laughed when Yasenia became instantly nervous. Even her dragon tail which was coiling around her fox tail, tightened. "Don't worry, Yasenia. I was able to beat it rather easily."

Yasenia frowned and asked, "Did it do something strange? You have to tell me if you feel bad! I haven't seen any outside clues."

Kali lowered Yasenia's face and kissed her lips softly, "I said not to worry, my love. What it did only made me love you more, if that is even possible, hahaha."

Yasenia relaxed, and a smile appeared on her delicious moist red lips. "That's good to know~."

Yasenia lifted an eyebrow and asked, "Do you want to continue what you asked for before?"

They were all still naked and on top of each other. When Yasenia asked that, she moved her waist to rub their lower parts together. They could do it again at Kali's call.

However, Kali shook her head, "I'm very tired. How about you spend the rest of your time with Angel? I feel like we've been ignoring her."

Angel was seated beside them, also naked. She giggled and said, "As if your well-being is as important as me getting Yasenia's attention. We have to be sure you are okay if we want to do things with a calm heart~."

Yasenia smirked and jumped on Angel, pushing her down onto the bed. A tickling attack began right after, and Angel started laughing happily. "You are so well-behaved, baby~. Should this dragoness reward you~?"

Since Kali didn't want to do it anymore, Yasenia wouldn't insist. However, since she found out that Kali liked seeing her having sex with Angel, she decided to give her a show until she had to leave. She stopped tickling Angel and kissed her forehead tenderly. Then, she looked at Kali and smirked, "Now that we are okay, let's continue, shall we?"

Kali was stupefied and asked, "Didn't I just say that I can't? I really am exhausted, my love."

Yasenia kept all the needles in her ring with a wave of her hand and nodded with a smile, "You can't, but what about my baby? Is she fed enough~?"

Angel blushed and began heating up again. The soft and big dragoness on top of her was truly too tempting to say no.

Yasenia sat on her knees, her body facing in Kali's direction, and she smirked. Then, she grabbed the small blonde girl with her tail and sat her on her thighs while facing her body.

Now, Yasenia was on her knees, and Angel was sitting with her legs open. Kali could see Angel's back and butt very clearly, and thanks to their size difference, she didn't miss Yasenia's body contour.

Then, she saw Yasenia grabbing Angel's small butt cheeks and spreading them while she lifted her. The sound of them kissing spread in the room as Angel's legs went around Yasenia's slim waist.

Kali blushed as she saw Angel's beautiful pink asshole and open vagina. As Yasenia slowly lifted her, the now fully erect member was slowly revealed.

Then, she saw Yasenia positioning her penis below the vaginal entrance and lowering her little by little. Since she was looking from behind, she could perfectly see how Angel's flower widened to accommodate Yasenia's girth.

The process was smooth, and Angel's privates ate her with care and love.

Seeing that big penis disappear inside the small woman as the woman moaned made Kali remember her previous sensations, igniting a fire down there.

Yasenia whispered to Angel, "Kali is looking at your butthole and pussy quite eagerly~."

Angel clenched on the advancing penis, and her butthole tightened and loosened.

For Kali, it was extremely stimulating as Angel's butthole was twitching the further that big dick penetrated the vagina. Then Angel's sharp cry echoed in the room when Yasenia reached her cervix. "Ah! So deep!"

Yasenia then said for the two of them to hear. "Deep? You still have a third of my cock to eat~. I will be deep once this also disappears inside of you~."

And while both of them processed her words, Kali saw Yasenia forcefully lowering Angel.

She could hear a pop sound as Yasenia's penis suddenly disappeared inside Angel completely. She instantly understood where that extra space came from, and Angel's loud euphoric moan confirmed her doubts. "OH YES! My uterus is filled!"

Kali flushed crimson, and when she looked at Yasenia, she realized that her golden-pink eyes were locked onto her, like a predator looking at its prey.

Kali understood the meaning of that gaze, telling her that she would also experience this sooner or later.

Then, Yasenia kept fucking Angel in front of Kali, switching to different positions. Angel was orgasming in embarrassment and euphoria as she felt Kali's gaze all over while Yasenia fucked her to oblivion.

Yasenia continued making love with Angel until she fainted with pleasure. Their fluids had sprayed Kali all over her body, and Yasenia had even fucked Angel on top of her to her request once.

After Angel's turn, Kali thought she had rested enough to do it one more time and asked for it.

However, Yasenia didn't want to bet, so she attacked Kali with her mouth. She penetrated her with her tongue and devoured her pussy and clean asshole until Kali also fainted because of tiredness. The feeling of cumming into Yasenia's mouth as she devoured her privates was otherworldly. Kali had never been eaten like that before, so it was an experience she wouldn't forget.

The whole ordeal had lasted two and a half hours. The dragoness had taken her time, letting them rest all they could until they truly couldn't go on. Yasenia's control over their pleasure was extremely high, so she could slowly and pleurably drain their stamina.

Since Yasenia had cummed all over their bodies, they were sticky and wet.

Still, this was far from enough for Yasenia because she had been without sex for a week. But at least she had some release. Yasenia frowned as she looked at the woman with white stuff flowing out of her lower holes and the other with a suspiciously fat tummy and white smears on her mouth. 'Without Cecile or Mom, I'm really like an insatiable beast. Thankfully I have those two, or I would have already increased my Harem size.'

The room was filled with an extremely potent sweet floral smell. Not even low-level, first-realm cultivators would be able to remain undamaged because of it.

Yasenia thought about it and went toward the window, planning to ventilate the room.

The door and windows had a good isolating nature, so her scent hadn't escaped.

When Yasenia approached the window, her brows locked. She could feel some people below it. Her frown turned into a sneer, and her eyes were cold. 'Thankfully, there are curtains on the side of the bed, so at most, they had listened to our session. It is a shame I can't kill them, or the lightning could have killed me. However, this doesn't mean I can't punish them.'

Yasenia said, her voice cold. "Those that are listening outside, you better leave before I open the window, or you will die."

Yasenia didn't hear them leaving, and her eyes became icy. 'Then don't blame me. Even if I can't kill you, I can do worse things.'

After extensively speaking with Han Xue, Yasenia knew that the lightning would only react after killing with bad intentions for the Heaven Gate cultivators.

This was something that no cultivator should know since it could become dangerous for the inhabitants. But the infatuated Han Xue had told her all the secrets she could and more.

Therefore, Yasenia controlled a small amount of her scent and made a small hole in the wall.

With her energy, she moved that scent to spread it to the room's surroundings.

Right after that, Yasenia heard five different guttural moans together with the sound of fluids splashing.

Yasenia snorted and closed the hole in the wall. 'Let's see how you live the rest of your lives, whoever it was behind the wall. You will probably live with the need to masturbate, fuck, and finally become a slave to your increasing sex drive. A good end to those that dared to peak at my and my dear's private time without permission.'

Then, she used the [Body Scent Absorbing Pearl] she normally uses to suction her scent.

Like a whirlpool, all the scent and fluids inside the room evaporated and were sucked into the jade. This pearl was quite useful for Yasenia, but it had one problem, it didn't clean the fluids that were on other living creatures other than herself. So, all the fluids on Angel's and Kali's bodies didn't disappear.

Yasenia took out a bathtub and cleaned her two dears thoroughly.

First, she cleaned Angel. They were unconscious, so Yasenia took her time to look at them. 'I won't be seeing them for weeks... Sigh, how depressing. To think that it wasn't only them who got addicted to me, but also me who got addicted to them.'

Yasenia chuckled as she spread hair soap on Angel's long blonde hair. 'They all have a tight grip on my heart. Who would have thought that I once said I wanted to be loyal to only Mom?'

Yasenia thought about it seriously, 'Would I have been able to remain loyal? I think I would have. Although my problem is quite hard to manage, I could have always used Yang and Yin pills, treasures, toys, and masturbation to relieve myself.'

A smile spread on her lips as she kissed Angel's smooth forehead, "But I don't regret how it turned out. I really like my current life. I have some enemies outside that are currently strengthening themselves, but I don't feel pressure. The moment I manage to trigger my Celestial Attribute, they will be no match for me."

Yasenia dried Angel softly and said, her eyes taking a reddish shade. "All that endangers any of you; I will erase them from this world. No matter who or what it is. I will protect all of you. This... I promise."

She put on Angel's robes, took out a comfortable single bed from her gigantic spatial ring, and laid Angel on top of it.

Kali's turn was next. She took a little more time with her, carefully cleaning her smeared, big, fluffy fox tail. Her fur was somewhat impermeable, so it looked almost bigger inside the water. Yasenia had a constant smile on her lips as she cleaned Kali's body. "We've finally done it. Although it was just a small penetration, I really managed to do it."

The relief she felt was enough to know that it had always been weighing down on her. "Now, we've just had to advance in that aspect slowly. Even if it remained as it is right now, I would be satisfied since I can already make her pregnant, hahaha."

She put on her robes and placed Kali beside Angel after dressing her. Then, she went outside to see who were the five mortals that tried to peek. 'If I had spiritual sense, they wouldn't have been able to slip right below my nose. I lowered my guard because I was too focused on Kali... I'm still inexperienced. I have to be more careful in the future.'

This was a bit of a wake-up call. Even if her senses could feel danger or anything that was wrong in her surroundings, it wasn't absolute. There were many ways to overcome Yasenia's acute senses and instincts.

When Yasenia went out, she first called Han Xue. The woman arrived swiftly and saw a pondering Yasenia waiting for her. She smiled calmly and asked, "Did you finish, Yasenia? Would you like to enter the crypt again?"

Yasenia nodded, "Yes, but before that, come with me."

Han Xue followed until they went to the back side of the room. There, she saw three maids and two soldiers twitching on the ground. Their lower parts were completely wet, and their eyes rolled up their skull.

Han Xue saw the miserable appearance of those five and asked, surprised, "What happened?"

Chapter 279: Entering the Trial.

Han Xue saw the miserable appearance of those five and asked, surprised, "What happened?"

Yasenia answered calmly, "They tried to peek. So I let them whiff my mating scent. I don't recommend keeping them since they will become sexual deviants the moment they come to their senses."

Yasenia placed a hand on their wrists and inserted her energy. After doing a basic analysis, Yasenia commented calmly, "As I thought, their minds have broken because of pleasure. They won't be able to think of anything else besides sexual pleasure for the rest of their lives. However, since they will be unable to reach the heights my scent caused, they will probably become a lunatic. Dispose of them as you like."

Han Xue gulped. She had tasted Yasenia's scent potency herself. But it seemed that what she experienced was a very controlled amount. 'Thankfully, Yasenia was gentle with me, or I would have been in a lot of trouble. Even then, she caused the biggest orgasm of my life... She is a little scary when you think about it.'

Yasenia saw Han Xue's reactions and reassured her, "Don't worry, Han Xue. You won't end up like these two. What you experienced was an extremely controlled amount. I wouldn't go destroying people's minds because of small conflicts."

The Mayoress thought, 'Isn't spying on you a small conflict? You literally went to a public bath!'

She was correct. But showing their naked figures in a public bath or how they have sex is completely different. Moreover, if it was just Yasenia who they spied on, she wouldn't have reacted, but they included Angel and Kali in their "small" blunder, resulting in a result they won't ever be able to escape from.

She is too cruel? You are right, but that's Yasenia when people mess with her lovers in a way that rubs her badly.

Han Xue got over it quickly and sighed, "It is a shame since one of them was a maid directly under me. But this is what they get for defying my orders. Although I don't support what you did, I won't discuss right or wrong."

Yasenia nodded and commented. "I'm going to enter the special Trial now. Inform Kali and Angel when they wake up. I've cleaned the whole room, so it is safe for mortals to enter."

Han Xue nodded and asked shyly, "Can I get a hug before you enter?"

Yasenia smiled and gathered her in her embrace. She was a head taller than Han Xue, so she could surround the woman nicely and snuggly. "Thanks for all your help, Han Xue. I hope you take care of them while I'm away."

Han Xue rubbed her face on Yasenia's smooth skin and nodded. She was feeling pure bliss at that moment and would have accepted almost any request. 'I feel like a young girl when I'm with her~.'

Yasenia felt her actions and found her cute. She teased her a little, "A grown woman acting like this~. You are very cute, madam Mayoress~."

Han Xue looked up while blushing and reprimanded coquettishly, "Who are you calling cute!?! It is your fault for feeling this good."

Yasenia laughed and gave her a small kiss on the forehead. "Let's go, I want to leave before they wake up."

Han Xue didn't release the hug and asked, "Why? Don't you want to say goodbye?"

Yasenia smiled wryly, "If I see their faces when I have to leave, it will be difficult. I'm very weak to their demands, after all."

Han Xue laughed aloud. "You pamper them too much! You have to be more dominant to be a harem head~."

Yasenia lifted her eyebrow, "I dominate them enough at night. I think giving them control during the day is good enough."

Han Xue left her arms and coughed, "Let's go before you make me do things I shouldn't. Truly, you are like a lethal delicacy for mortals. Dangerous, dangerous."

Yasenia and Han Xue bantered on their way toward the crypt.

A while later, Yasenia stood before the ominous orb and began channeling her Trial points toward it.

The 300,000 Points flew out of her dantian one by one, illuminating the enormous room with dark light. Yasenia felt something surrounding her as those points disappeared. The circle below her also lit up, and the formation lines in the room became brighter.

The black orb shone and spun as it absorbed Yasenia's Trial points, creating ancient energy that supplied the surroundings.

Yasenia was relaxed as everything happened, and after Yasenia poured everything inside the orb, the floor below her became like a dark liquid, and she fell down into it.

She fell into a trial that would challenge every self-imposed value, break them, and transform Yasenia in ways she never thought.

This was a trial that would allow Yasenia to be reborn in many ways, maintaining her core personality.

Moments later, the broad crypt became quiet once again.

When Angel and Kali woke up, Han Xue informed them of Yasenia's departure. "Yasenia has entered the Trial. She told me to take care of you two, so tell me if you need something."

Angel instantly became teary and sobbed quietly. Staying away from Yasenia is what she hated the most.

Kali hugged and comforted her, "Don't cry, Angel. Yasenia would be sad if she knew."

Angel nodded and held her tears in but still complained. "But I will miss her a lot."

Kali thought about it and said, "How about you complete the [Crystal Key] Trial? Doing that would probably let you forget about it. If I can, I will also accompany you."

Angel nodded and looked at Han Xue, "Guide me there, please."

Han Xue nodded and patted Angel, "Don't worry, little Angel. Time will fly while you try to overcome it, and Yasenia will be by your side before you know it." Angel nodded.

They discussed when to go there, but because Angel seemed eager, Han Xue gave them the map. "Here it is. You have to follow these indications. I can't promise that you won't find people there, but only you can open it, so be careful."

Angel nodded again and looked at the map. Her watery blue eyes widened in surprise. "This is outside the Town!"

Han Xue nodded, "Yes. An inheritance as powerful as this one has to be somewhat isolated, or it can affect other things. You will understand when you take the Trial. However, I have to advise you of something, little Angel."

Angel looked at Han Xue's serious face and also sat up straight, "You aren't the first person to get this Key."

Angel tilted her head, not understanding where the problem was. Kali, on the other side, had her face changing. "Do you mean that all the others that got the key didn't make it?"

Han Xue nodded, "Moreover, this inheritance is a single-person inheritance. Meaning that unlike most of the inheritances in this Secret Realm, only a single person can get it. Failing to get it normally means death or worse."

Angel clutched the translucent blue key in her hand. However, a moment later, her big blue eyes became resolute. "I-I don't want to be left behind by Yasenya. I will do it. I will challenge it!"

Han Xue opened her mouth but then closed it. She smiled and said, "Good luck, little Angel. I pray for you to complete it."

Kali also didn't say anything. If she was in Angel's place, she wouldn't have acted differently. However, she couldn't help but ask. "Why do you say all of this now?"

Han Xue sighed, "If Yasenya knew about it, she wouldn't have let you participate. Moreover, she would have been too worried while doing the Trial, which can be fatal."

Angel and Kali looked at Han Xue strangely.

"What's wrong?" Asked the Mayoress.

Angel said, "Yasenya hates when people she trusts hide things from her, even if they are "for her own good." I think that this is the thing she hates the most after blatant lies."

Han Xue was surprised, "It shouldn't be that bad, right?"

Kali said with pity, "We won't tell if Angel makes it, but if she doesn't... Be prepared for her wrath, Han Xue."

Han Xue remembered the five people who had their minds broken and gulped. She looked at the small, cuddly, big-breasted, blonde girl and stuttered. "Little Angel, how about you don't go?"

Angel shook her head, "I will do it! I need to become stronger!"

Han Xue wanted to cry. 'Please, I pray to the Heavens and above, let little Angel make it!'

After some more conversation, tons of advice from Han Xue, and preparing themselves, they departed. Since the door for the [Crystal Key] was outside the town, they would have to move carefully.

Angel used a veil and green robes to hide from people targeting her. Although her long blonde hair was quite characteristic, she wasn't the only blonde woman around. A change in attire and a veil were enough to hide successfully from prying eyes.

Before leaving the town, Kali had asked if they could reenter. Han Xue told them that once a cultivator completed the Entry Trial, unless you were challenging higher-level gates, it would let the cultivator go through without challenging it again. The aura latched after entering the town served to recognize the cultivators.

Angel and Kali guessed that the place where the [Crystal Door] was hidden was almost two days away from the town if they went at a constant rhythm.

They traveled together, slowly approaching the place.

An important detail that has to be told is that they both didn't cultivate the Yang energy inside of them, letting it in their bodies to feel Yasenia's presence even if she was not around. Moreover, absorbing it slowly and naturally would result in a better outcome.

Normally, they don't have the chance to do this since Yasenia "refills" them every night, and letting it in their body would only result in a damaging overflow.

Anyway, after some small encounters, they reached the place marked on the map. These small encounters were against some beasts and weak cultivators, so between Angel and Kali, they could overwhelm them easily.

The place where they arrived was a cliff in the middle of the forest. This cliff was mostly covered in vegetation. The rocks on the cliff were mainly dark brown with a strange blue undertone, and the vines covering it had a peculiar translucent nature, similar to crystal. The colors of the vines ranged in a wide variety of green and blue.

Finding a gate in this area would require a lot of luck.

Even then, Kali wasn't surprised as she saw cultivators flocking around the three-meter-tall exquisite gate. 'Even if the surroundings seem well hidden, the vegetation in this area is too strange. I can guess that it has mutated after exposure to a particular energy for tens of thousands of years. Maybe even more.'

Angel saw the multitude by the doors and blinked twice. Then, she asked Kali, "How do we enter, Kali? Won't other people enter once I open it?"

Kali thought for a moment, "How about you try it when they are sleeping? Their guards will be more focused on protecting themselves than the door at that time."

Angel asked, "Will they even sleep? Cultivators on our level can go a week without sleeping without a problem."

Kali nodded, "I'm sure that they will have people on guard. Regardless, not sleeping when you can is strange. Although cultivators on our level can endure without sleeping, the habits we gained during our mortal days are difficult to erase."

Angel thought about it and asked, "You are right. Can you make us stealthy, Kali?"

Kali nodded, "If you remain inside the forest, no one will pick up your presence as long as Valeria and I are around."

Angel smiled, "You are so reliable, Kali!"

Kali chuckled and patted Angel, "What do you have in mind, little Angel?"

Angel explained with a smirk, "I will use the [Mirage Formation] to confuse them so that I can enter without them knowing."

Kali nodded and praised her, "You are so clever, little Angel. Let's do it that way."

Angel smiled and got to work. Valeria stayed by her side and focused on remaining stealthy.

Angel ran around the forest, careful not to meet with other cultivators head-on, no matter how stealthy. If they saw her, it would end there.

Angel didn't have any troubles as she covered the forest with different sized and shaped [Glass Nodes]. She even made sure to create a green-colored coating around them to mend them with the surroundings. That way, even if people saw them, they would just think they were like the special rocks around the area.

By the time night arrived, Angel was done with her preparations. After she saw the majority of the cultivators going to their camps, she looked at Kali. Kali smiled and said, "Don't worry about me. Go for it, Angel. You better strengthen yourself, or the next time we meet, I'm going to be stronger than you."

Angel blew a raspberry and said, "I caught up with your cultivation level. You will see how strong I become!"

Kali laughed gently and said, "That was before because I couldn't do it with Yasenia~. Now, beware since we are in the same playfield."

Angel smiled and hugged Kali, "Take care, Kali. Remember that if something happens to us, Yasenia will be very sad."

Kali nodded and returned the hug, "Thank you for all the help these weeks, Angel. I'm really indebted to you, so you better take care of yourself."

Angel smiled cutely and turned toward the gate. Her entire being changed as she focused on the task ahead.

Then, she activated the formation.

Chapter 280: Crystal Cave and Mysterious woman.

When Angel activated the formation, everything lit up for a second as the lasers bounced from node to node at extremely quick speeds, creating geometrical shapes.

Most of the lasers traversed at an extremely quick speed. It all disappeared in less than three seconds, returning the forest to its previous quietness.

Of course, this flash alerted some of them, but since it was just a short time frame, they didn't give it too much importance.

Regardless, they raised their guards. No matter how little importance, a flash in the middle of the night was nothing but suspicious. However, just raising their guards alone would not be enough to spot Angel.

The [Mirage formation] she built was different from the one she used in combat. It was much more powerful because she took time with it. She didn't cut on complex patterns and filled everything nicely.

The formation she built would be enough to fool even Unification Realm experts, not to mention these level eight and nine Mental Nourishing realm cultivators. Moreover, it also created an illusion that made people subconsciously ignore strange happenings around them for the duration of it. All events that would otherwise increase brain activity considerably entered the definition of "Strange happenings."

This was the main reason there wasn't an overreaction to her formation flash. Only those that previously were very attentive would have a chance to spot the strangeness of the situation, but who would be like that when most people standing on guard were basically forced to be there?

In short, Angel was able to walk across the people patrolling as if she didn't exist and reach the door.

After Angel approached the three-meter-tall light blue door, she took out the [Crystal Key] and searched for a place to insert it. However, things got out of control pretty quickly.

The key in Angel's hand dissolved and flowed toward the center of the three-meter-tall Crystal door. There was an opening there that filled the moment the key flowed into it.

The hole was precisely in the middle of a woman holding a mirror. The door had two main carvings: the woman holding a mirror and another woman looking at the heavens with majesty.

The whole door only had shades of blue, so even if it was an impressive work of art, the details in her facial features were limited. However, it was clear that this woman was someone important since even her carving gave a strange aura that imposed respect.

The hole the key filled was around the Heart area. Even the shape was heart-like. Of course, not the childlike heart shape, but a real heart shape.

Then, to Angel's surprise, the crystal heart pulsated, and the door radiated a multicolored light.

Thump-Thump.

Angel felt it in her chest as if her own heart coordinated to do that heart palpitation. Angel rubbed her chest, feeling strangely connected to that crystal heart. But she didn't focus too much on that since the multicolored light it was emitting was not dim at all! Angel had a droplet of sweat going down her temple as her body became stiff, 'There is no way my formations can hide this...'

As if that wasn't enough to test her formation limits, another big event happened when the door opened in the middle, parting the two carvings.

The sound of moving doors was loud and imposing. Even the sweet and cute Angel was about to curse. She looked back, and as she expected, even her formation was not enough to make them ignore such a spectacle. 'Why do seniors like to make everything imposing!? Don't they know that they only make other people suffer!?'

But to Angel's surprise, the forest around them suddenly came to life as countless roots lashed around randomly, slamming every part of the area with big explosions. This event took the attention of every cultivator away from the doors.

"Careful, the forest is attacking us!"

"Go wake up the others! I don't even know why they haven't yet, sleeping like a fucking dead person."

"Wait, what about the opening door?"

"Are you stupid? We can cross after we defend against the attack!"

Angel felt her heart warm, and a smile appeared on her face, 'Thank you, Kali!'

Then, the moment she could enter through the opening doors, she stepped forward and did so. Behind her, many cultivators saw her actions and followed her.

"Don't you dare enter first!"

"Who do you think you are!? We are going to kill you if you dare enter!"

However, Angel ignored them and went through the doors. Then, the doors that had opened slowly closed extremely fast.

BOOM!

The visible air shockwave of the doors closing sent the people in the surroundings flying for tens of meters. Making every single one of them roll on the floor.

After the doors closed, the forest also seemed to relax and return to normal.

Everyone was looking at the crystal doors with stupid faces.

"What happened?"

"They closed."

"Who is the stupid one now!? I'm going to kill you. That woman took the chance and was the smartest of us!"

"Right! Retarded woman, I'm going to beat you up!"

"Wait! So what if she entered? Once she comes out, we can overwhelm and kill her!"

The more than sixty cultivators in the surroundings relaxed and nodded. "We can do that."

"But who knows how much time she will take?"

"They may even have another exit..."

"..."

"Let's beat her up."

And so, wanting to place the blame on someone, the woman that gave the previous call was beaten to a half-dead state, showing again how unreasonable was the Cultivation world.

Meanwhile, Kali had already left the area with Valeria's help. She looked back and smiled, 'Go for it, little Angel. I know you can do it.'

After leaving a little prayer to her little friend, she sped up and disappeared in the darkness of the night.

Angel was unaffected by the closing doors, as they seemed to only affect the outside. Nevertheless, that doesn't mean she got a big jumpscare and was now patting her chest, "That really scared me. With all this stress, this senior is going to kill me before I even reach the trial."

She looked in front of her, and a passway met her. It had blue torches on the sides. These torches were special since the "flame" was literally crystal in the gaseous state, giving light. This made the light refract strangely. The torches created a mystical atmosphere that Angel found unsettling.

However, the blonde girl's big blue eyes locked on the end of the passage and hardened her will. "I will gain all there is here! And then... uh, then... Yasenia will pamper me!"

As always, our baby's priorities were a little twisted. Nonetheless, Angel strode forward with confident steps and with her big mirror shield equipped.

The silence was unsettling, and her steps echoed. Even if the passage was illuminated, the torches also gave a strange feeling of respect, making the atmosphere tense.

However, Angel's mental fortitude was high, and she advanced slowly and constantly. Step after step, approaching the end of the long tunnel while not dropping her guard for a second. This mental fortitude came from formation mastery since a Formation Master needed absurdly high levels of concentration not to make mistakes when creating a delicate formation.

Training with Tatyana, Angel had to maintain her focus for more than a day without rest to eat, sleep, or anything else. This was Tatyana's first step in teaching Angel personally. She told her, "If you can't do this, then I won't teach you."

Angel took three months to reach that level of concentration, surprising Tatyana. That was honestly very little time to increase concentration levels that much. To reward her, Tatyana even joined Yasenia that night to pamper the little girl to Heavens and above.

After twenty minutes of silence and only hearing her own steps, Angel reached the end of the tunnel. 'It was much longer than I expected.'

Angel looked around, and when she saw the surroundings, her little mouth opened wide, impressed at the beauty of the place she currently was.

It was a cave made of crystals.

They were mainly sky-blue colored, but some of them shone with multicolored light each time a light beam hit them.

These light beams came from the ceiling that seemed to be connected to the outside one way or another. The light beams visibly bounced, and there were five of them at all times.

The ceiling was made of five big white crystals, and these crystals were the ones that shot those light beams. They shot these beams straight down to another group made of similar material.

There was a pure white circular altar between these gorgeous walls and below the impressive ceiling. It wasn't very big, at most one-hundred meters in width.

In the middle of the mystical altar, there was a crystal cluster, roughly creating a bed-like shape that spread these light beams to the surroundings. The crystal bed wasn't too big nor small, but it stood out because of its kaleidoscopic shine.

When Angel laid her eyes on it, she couldn't look away. She felt the altar calling her. It was a feeling that came from the depths of her soul.

Angel could resist the strange urge, but since she didn't know where to go besides that place, she began walking towards it.

The entrance to the open altar was a gate that followed the surroundings, creating a multicolored crystal arch.

Angel was mesmerized by everything, but her steps continued forward, uninterrupted, getting closer to the beautiful and pure-looking altar.

When she could see the center of it, she could see more detail of the bed she saw in the distance. Now that she looked at it up close, it was very similar to the cultivation mattresses that exist on the outside but made out of sky-blue crystal with a kaleidoscopic shine.

Angel didn't directly go there and looked around, trying to spot something harmful.

Even if she was tempted to go there, sit, and start cultivating right away, the constant nagging of her dear dragoness made her careful before unknown things. No matter how enchanting they looked, she would first look for danger.

Angel feared that if she didn't do so, Yasenia would scold her. What was more fearful than getting a serious scolding from her dear dragoness? Angel couldn't really think of anything.

Therefore, she looked around carefully.

Nonetheless, Angel didn't spot anything, literally.

There was just the altar and the walls.

There wasn't even an exit place besides the place she came from. The whole cave was at least one hundred meters tall and one kilometer wide. The altar was somewhat small compared to the entirety of this place.

Still, Angel was determined to get whatever there was here.

She even tried mining some of the crystals on the walls without success. 'So stingy. There is so much, but I can't take anything.'

So after trying to break the crystal unsuccessfully to give some to Yasenia, she walked inside the altar again.

Then, Angel cutely pointed at the cultivation mattress and declared. "Hmph, I'm not easy to trifle with, mister altar. If you dare do a bad thing to me, I will create a formation to blow this place up! And if that doesn't work, be prepared to be beaten to a pulp by Yasenia!"

"Fufufu, you are very cute."

"Ahh!" Angel, who didn't expect an answer, almost had her heart jump out of her chest.

"W-What are you!? Show yourself!"

"Should I~? Or should I not~? Your scared face is very amusing, to be honest."

The voice that answered Angel belonged to a female and was gentle and ethereal, with a touch of amusement.

Angel didn't see anybody in the surroundings, so she asked aloud, "Where are you, senior? Are you a ghost?"

"A ghost? Not quite. I haven't become a soul out of resentment, after all. I just asked the creator of this secret realm to hide my inheritance here."
