

Heaven 31

Chapter 31

Later that day, when Evelyn and Cecile saw Andrea, although they knew, they were astounded at her height. Yasenia went forward hugged Andrea's waist and tip-toed a little to kiss her. Andrea returned the kiss and then they separated. Leaving Evelyn and Cecile with a slightly opened mouth.

Then Andrea looked at the other three girls that had different expressions and laughed "You work hard! To think you would find another two!"

Yasenia also followed with a teasing tone "En, aren't they beautiful. I couldn't resist and picked them up. I truly am a sinner~"

Evelyn and Cecile responded in synch for the first time "We are not in her harem yet!"

Only to receive strange gazes from the three of them. Andrea smirked and said "'Yet', hum? En, Yasenia you truly work fast."

Angel laughed at their slip and Yasenia shook her head. "Are you doing anything now, darling?"

Andrea patted Yasenia's black hair and answered "I was about to forge some things, but they aren't anything serious. How about I accompany you all?"

Yasenia's tail wagged a little and said "Sure!" Then she turned and left, failing to notice that the wag of her tail was noticed by the four of them! 'S-so cute! So, when she is happy, she will wag her tail? Why didn't I notice until now!'

Yasenia looked back and saw the four of them looking at her tail so she also looked down, then she wiggled it and asked "What's wrong?"

While three of them thought that those movements were cute... One of them was blushing!

They passed the day normally and Yasenia went to the side with Andrea for a while. "Andrea, do you want to have a day for the two of us? We can go to the mortal city and see some places? I have already planned one day with Angel, so I wanted to know if things like that are interesting to you."

Andrea thought for a moment and said "Well, to be honest, I seldom leave the academy grounds. However, it seems like fun. Tell me the date and I will let one afternoon free."

Then she smiled and hugged Yasenia by the waist. She lowered a little and whispered in her deep and sexy voice "We can also cross that last step if you want."

Yasenia shuddered a little and licked Andrea's lips, making Andrea kiss her again. After some time Yasenia whispered. "Prepare yourself, darling, I will suck you dry~"

Andrea smiled happily and continued kissing Yasenia, "I will be waiting for it."

While the two of them were flirting, and speaking exchanging kisses, one woman came to bother them. "Oi you, the lizard-girl, how dare you do things like that with our senior-sister!? Who do you think you are to be able to have her affections!?"

Both of them looked at that girl as if she was an alien thing. Yasenia answered still hooked in Andrea's neck, "What things? Things like this~" She kissed Andrea, "... Or maybe things like this?" She licked Andrea's cheek completely with her long tongue.

Andrea just laughed and let her do whatever she wanted. The female, however, unruffled her cultivation which, surprisingly, was at the third level of the Mental Nourishing realm! “Shameless vixen! You are just an outer disciple and you think you are so high and mighty!? How dare you use your mind-controlling spells on senior-sister Andrea!”

Andrea’s expression changed and was about to make her shut up but she felt Yasenia’s tail tapping her back, so she stopped.

Cecile, Angel, and Evelyn arrived at the moment the senior was screaming at Yasenia. They were about to involve themselves but they saw Yasenia’s tail tapping Andrea’s back so they hold it back.

Angel today was especially sensitive about anything to do with Yasenia because they just have their first time, so her face right now was so cold that some people got scared just looking at her.

Yasenia said a little playfully “Mind-control? What makes you say that? My darling can do whatever she wants and I won’t stop her. I have that much trust in her.”

Then she separated from Andrea and started walking towards that senior ignoring her pressure. “Who are you? You come here interrupting our time, you then start to shouting like a shrew, and now you are even slandering me?”

Yasenia’s pupils thinned into a vertical line and the red color grew inside her irises thus making her gaze become extremely murderous, her voice started to be accompanied by a growl “Do you think that I’m someone easy to bully?”

Then, Yasenia stopped walking and unruffled her own spiritual pressure completely *ROAR!* her aura exploded like a dragon roar and suppressed the senior-sister aura pushing her back two steps. Worse, it felt as if a superior being has locked her gaze onto her making the senior sister tremble a little.

For Angel and the rest, this was the first time they saw Yasenia get truly angry, and all four had one same thought ‘If that woman doesn’t back down, she is finished!’

The girl, however, thought differently ‘E-even if she is stronger, I’m at the Mental Nourishing realm. No matter how strong, cultivators of the body modification realm aren’t my match!’

Thus, she continued her tirade. “Hmph, since you are so arrogant don’t blame me! I, Lucinda, challenge you to a duel! If I win you won’t ever come close to senior-sister Andrea again and I will win your current position!”

Yasenia looked at her with her golden-red slit eyes and the red continued to invade the golden inside her irises leaving only an outer golden layer, however, her mind wasn’t getting clouded by rage, it was cold wrath that was invading her body.

Yasenia started walking step by step towards that girl and spoke with a freezing voice “I know that there is someone behind this so I was going to leave you a way out of this, but... ”

Yasenia’s throat started growling again and her voice became wrathful “Scum! Not only are you a brainless puppet, now you want to transform my lover into a betting thing!? I will accept your duel, but not with that insulting stake! I will bet my stay in the academy! Now what? Scum, since you are so confident, how about betting the same?”

Right now, Yasenia's aura was so terrifying that some people with lower cultivation than her couldn't help take a step back. Some teachers that were watching raised their eyebrows with praise. 'Angry, yet clear-headed, complete control of her emotions! Impressive.'

Not to mention others being scared, Lucinda that was in the middle of that aura was starting to sweat buckets! But believing firmly in her previous thought, and because of the constant pressure of Yasenia's aura, she accepted "S-sure! Tomorrow at Noon I will see you in the arena!"

Yasenia reached in front of her and being a whole head taller than the other girl she looked down with the now red-golden slit eyes and said "Sure, don't flee on me Lucinda, I want to vent this rage I'm feeling right now."

Lucinda couldn't bear it anymore so she turned and left. The others also left fast not wanting to be targeted by the angered dragoness.

When everyone left there were only Yasenia and the other four left. Angel came to her side fast and when Yasenia turned, she hugged her waist and dived head-first into her breast.

Then, feeling Yasenia's arms around her shoulders, she looked up and saw the red inside her irises receding little by little. However, she rambled worriedly with her silvery voice "Yasenia, are you okay? She isn't even worth getting angry for! Don't become sad. Just beat her up, and be done with it!"

Yasenia smiled and lowered her head to kiss the top of her head. Then she looked at Angel's eyes with her now normal golden slit eyes with the tinge of red and said, "Don't worry baby, I was not angry at her at the beginning, I was angry because of the person instigating this. However, I didn't like her treating Andrea as a betting thing."

Andrea went forward and squished Angel between them while she was hugging Yasenia and said in her deep and clear voice. "Just a little thing, no need to be so angry. However, I must say..."

She lifted an eyebrow ignoring the fidgeting Angel between them and said "You were very sexy when angry. I liked it a lot."

Yasenia laughed making the sandwiched Angel's head bounce.

Evelyn and Cecile reached their side and Evelyn nodded "Our most beautiful flower can also bite! My first time seeing someone change their personality so drastically, to keep that hidden...No wonder you have big ti-" *Bang!*

Cecile was speechless, doesn't she know that the tail will come if she says things like that? Yasenia has already separated from the hug, leaving a mumbling red-faced Angel saying things like "Sandwiched... On the bed... Hard and soft..."

Cecile decisively ignored her and asked, "What is your plan?"

Yasenia looked around and seeing them alone, she answered lightly "Beat her, and with the expulsion hanging on her neck, I will make her say to me who instigated her to buy my forgiveness and let her stay in the academy. After knowing who did this... That person better prays that she isn't within my reach."

Yasenia looked at Cecile in the eyes and said gently “If today that person aimed my relationship with Andrea... Next time she may harm any of you. I’m not betting on any of your safety. I am going to clear the problem by the roots.”

Cecile felt her heart skip a beat after being looked at by those now gentle golden eyes. She nodded slightly “En, I trust you.”

After that they returned home, Yasenia now had a date with Angel and Andrea to full and tomorrow a duel! That night Yasenia rewarded her little baby as she promised her in the morning.

When Yasenia finished with her Angel could only tremble in pleasure for a long time. Yasenia, like yesterday, bathed her and herself, cleaned the room, and went to sleep after positioning Angel on top of her.

The next day after class, it was already approaching noon so she was about to go to the arena. Madeleine approached and said, “Are you confident? Your opponent is in the Mental Nourishing realm. Although you may be stronger than her, she can play you around.”

Yasenia looked doubtful at Madeleine and said, “Master, didn’t you see how I passed the heart-demon formation?”

Madeleine tilted her head and shook it “I didn’t see it.”

Yasenia raised an eyebrow and said, “Master go ask teacher Mason, I bet your worries will go away after that. During my duels in class, I have been holding back because I wanted to polish my fight style.”

Then she left with her naturally sashaying hips. Madeleine went to find Mason to see Yasenia’s duel together and ask about it.

Yasenia walked alone to the stadium, she has told the girls to go first and take a good place to see her fight. She walked slowly and looked up to the rising sun. Her lips raised slightly ‘Is almost noon...’

She walked through the entrance and saw the arena stands almost filled, she also saw the girls in the front with Angel and Evelyn were enthusiastically waving at her.

Yasenia smiled and waved with her tail and hand making some older sisters clutch their hearts at the cuteness. ‘I want one at home!!’ Was the thought of the soon-to-be members in Yasenia’s Fanclub.

She looked towards the arena and saw that Lucinda was already there, she went up and her face became emotionless. “Let’s begin.”

Lucinda sneered and said, “First we have to say our bets so that you won’t escape from punishment when you lose!”

Yasenia sneered and said, “If any of us loses they will leave the academy, are you satisfied now?”
