Chapter 311: Lovely session with Angel. (R-18)

Yasenia opened her eyes after closing them for ten seconds; she had activated the skill at that moment. Then, she opened her eyes slowly and looked at the woman on the bed and below her. When she saw her eyes so focused on her bosom, her lips raised in a tempting smile, "Do you like what you see, baby?"

Angel blinked, feeling hot all around her body, and moved her eyes to look at Yasenia's face. That smile which was clearly telling her what they were about to do, made her ears feel hot and her heart accelerate.

Yasenia saw Angel's shyness and felt heat rush to her head. She loved the way Angel was shy but forward with her attitude. Although her body was telling that she was embarrassed, those blue eyes were eating her without restraint and calling for action.

Yasenia leaned forward and kissed her. Angel disrobed as they kissed, soon getting naked from head to toe. Skin against skin, Yasenia rubbed her body on hers, wanting to imprint her scent on her. The dragoness's claw grabbed the left breast and squeezed, releasing a hot breath on Angel's lips. Her other hand caressed Angel's abdomen and inched down until it reached the wet flower. Angel moaned softly, "Mmm~."

After her fingers sank into the squishy, juicy lips, Yasenia knew Angel was more than ready. She took off her lower garments and set free her dragon. Angel's eyes immediately locked onto it. Seeing that rock-hard penis, ready to pierce her deepest parts, made Angel take a shaky breath out of anticipation.

Yasenia blocked Angel's sight with her breasts and kissed her eyes softly. "I love you, baby."

Angel blushed and smiled sweetly, looking at the caring and soft look those golden slit eyes had at that moment.

"I love you too, Yasenia~." Her voice was soft, like the calling of a purring cat. It had a tone that tickled the heart.

Without waiting anymore, Yasenia moved her waist back and opened her lower lips with her penis. She didn't penetrate and used her hand to move it up and down, smearing the head with Angel's fluids.

The feeling of the wide head caressing her privates pushed Angel to wrap her legs around her lover's waist, giving her easier access to penetration. Yasenia felt Angel's eagerness and didn't wait anymore. "I'm going in, baby." With a soft and breathy whisper, Yasenia pushed forward slowly.

The small, pink entrance stretched before the mighty member. Both of them let out a moan full of satisfaction when the head completely entered. However, Yasenia didn't stop there. While kissing Angel's eyes, nose, cheeks, and lips, Yasenia pushed her penis deeper.

Angel was in heaven. Yasenia's tall body completely covered her, and her voluptuous curves rested on her, creating a weight that made her feel safe. Yasenia's soft and caring kisses had a deep growl accompanying them, making her eardrums vibrate pleasantly. 'I'm in Heaven~.'

On the other side, Yasenia felt Angel's fleshy walls and became spellbound. The feeling of being able to penetrate her dear Angel after all that happened was like a dream coming true. She couldn't help but kiss every part of Angel's cute facial features as loving sounds escaped her throat.

Without saying anything, Yasenia moved her waist in long and seductive motions. She pierced forward and rotated her waist two times. Then, she took it out slowly and made sure to scratch all she could with her wide head. The trembling of the pink passage, the softening body between her arms, and the mewl-like moans let Yasenia know how good Angel was feeling.

Yasenia didn't go for depth or speed with her thrusts. No. What Yasenia was currently making was love. She felt the sweaty lover between her arms, kissed her face softly, sensed every inch of the tunnel with her rod, and softly growled beside her ear.

The pleasure was not overwhelming, but their hearts felt full, truly feeling each other inside. Angel was currently a complete blob. The feelings pouring through their recently created connection, the caresses and kisses, the hot waves of soft pleasure invading her body. Angel wanted to melt inside the person holding her so preciously and meld into one. "Yasenia~, Yasenia~."

"I'm here, baby. I'm all yours. Oh... It feels so good inside you, my love. I'm soon going to reach it."

Angel opened her half-closed eyes and wound her arms around Yasenia's neck, bringing her down and asking for it. "Please~, I want to feel your release."

Without delay, Yasenia invaded her mouth with her tongue, and her waist movements changed. Instead of rotating, she went in and out faster, stimulating both further.

The dragoness's and her lover's bodies rocked back and forth until Yasenia's soft grunt reached Angel's ears. "I'm cumming."

Angel felt the rod inside her inflate, and then it burst the white, thick fluid right inside her uterus. Angel's eyes rolled, her body tensed, and her nails dug inside Yasenia's skin, letting out a loud moan. "Ahhh!!!"

The orgasms rocked both women like a storm, electrifying every part of them. Angel's uterus felt hot as the feeling of squirting wouldn't leave her. Yasenia felt her rod throbbing and spurting white semen with each pulse.

Pleasure.

An orgasmic pleasure invaded both their worlds as their mouths continued exchanging saliva in a wet alluring dance.

Yasenia stopped cumming and let out a satisfied sigh. She lifted her upper body without leaving that clenching vagina and looked at the flushed woman below her. The tears of pleasure at the corner of her eyes, the heavy breathing, and the semi-damp long blonde hair created a beautiful scenery.

Yasenia smiled and asked with a pampering tone that sounded sweet as honey in Angel's ears. "Who wants to drink her favorite milk now~?"

Angel looked at Yasenia's heavy breasts and licked her lips. Without teasing her, Yasenia leaned forward, using their height difference as an advantage to bury Angel's head with her milk-filled breast.

The girl didn't lose a second as her mouth immediately latched on the beautiful pink nipple and sucked. Yasenia let her body weight fall onto Angel and felt the milk leaving her breasts. She sighed and started moving her waist again. Nothing too complicated, just up and down, piercing the breastmilk-drinking girl and stirring the semen inside her.

Angel was excited now that she had her mouth filled with the dragoness sweet milk and her insides being massaged again. She used her legs around Yasenia's waist to sync with Yasenia's waist movements, making their pelvis hit.

Pah. Pah. Pah.

The sound of lovemaking continued for an hour straight. Yasenia and Angel didn't only have normal sex. Yasenia wanted her insides filled with Angel's squirt, so they used the special toy to have sex the other way. Yasenia leaned on the headboard, and Angel leaned on Yasenia, her face burning in her breasts and her waist slapping onto Yasenia's.

The way the excited little girl moved, trying to fuck Yasenia as fast as she could because of eagerness, made Yasenia smile and moan. She really liked how Cecile and Angel had been when penetrating her. The look of pure ecstasy as they pierced her vagina and anus was extremely fulfilling.

Angel moaned aloud, "I'm cumming!"

Then, she thrust the dick the deepest she could inside the dragoness's and released all her fluids without restraint.

Yasenia hugged Angel with her arms and legs, and because of their size difference, Angel was basically buried in Yasenia's soft flesh. The feeling of cumming inside the dragoness was heavenly. Yasenia also came, her penis smearing both their bodies with ropes of white cum.

However, Yasenia could hold herself enough to pay more attention to the girl trapped in her embrace. Looking with a loving look as she drooled while cumming inside her. She leaned forward and licked her mouth, whispering with a bone-softening voice. "You've filled me with your cum~. Does it feel that good?"

Angel's shuddered. Yasenia's body, voice, scent, and actions were like a drug pushing her to want to have more and more sex. The way her body bounced when she fucked her, the way her vagina clenched on her member, she couldn't get enough of it. Yasenia saw Angel's look and smiled, igniting an inferno inside the tired Angel. "Fuck me until you can't go on, baby."

And so, Angel's last sanity thread snapped, only focusing on slamming her waist one more time and filling Yasenia until she fell unconscious.

Inside the bath, Yasenia was slowly cleaning the fainted girl. She also was inside the water, hugging the girl between her arms. The tired smile on Angel's face made Yasenia's heart flutter with delight. 'Fufufu~, she was so excited~.'

Yasenia kissed her cheek and cleaned her completely. Then, she dressed her up in comfortable pajamas and tucked her into a bed big enough for the six of them. Yasenia dressed and left the room with a single sentence. "You are going to see this almost daily, so you either get used to it or find a way to block your view."

Yasenia heard an arrogant snort and someone muttering. "It's not that unpleasant to watch." The tone made Yasenia chuckle.

When she went out, she saw that they were all seated in the hallway, speaking with each other. Well, Kali was somewhat being interrogated.

Yasenia asked curiously, "What's wrong~?"

What she didn't know was that, currently, her sex appeal had broken some limits. Her whole demeanor, aura, and facial expressions were pure seduction.

When Yasenia saw the four of them stop speaking and look at her with wide eyes, she lifted her eyebrow in a gesture that spectators would only perceive as blatant seduction. "Not talking anymore~?"

Gulp.

Yasenia instantly understood their situation, and her lips and eye corner raised, hooking their souls away. "Let's go with Honey next~."

And without letting them speak, Yasenia dragged the two-tailed fox into another room.

They all only woke up from the spell only after the door closed. Evelyn cursed aloud, "Fuck, that's my wife? I think I spent all my luck in getting liked by her."

Andrea laughed, "Well, you are not wrong. She was really sensual back there. However, she hasn't changed physically that much, right?"

Cecile coughed to regain her bearing and said, "It's her aura. It felt like she was caressing us with it. Moreover, her gestures are more mature, similar to Tatyana's."

Evelyn sighed, "So, her gestures are slowly becoming as seductive as her mother's but with that body of sin. I wonder if one day I will orgasm just from looking at her."

Andrea looked down at her bulge and said, "Maybe not us since we have the luck of interacting with her daily, but I'm not so sure others will be the same."

Cecile and Evelyn looked at Andrea's tent, and Cecile said, "How is it to have sex with the real thing? I don't know how close it is feeling comparing the real thing to the toy."

Andrea explained, "It is very similar to me, but Yasenia always told me that she preferred my thing. Although the toys are bigger, Yasenia told me not to use them after the first time I used them out of curiosity."

Evelyn asked, confused, "Why?"

Andrea smiled happily and said, "She said that she prefers mine over any false ones~. She told me that the size didn't matter as long as I was the one with it."

The other two smirked at Andrea's happy tune. Evelyn grabbed Andrea's bulge and said, "Well, yours isn't small by any means."

Andrea looked at Evelyn speechlessly, "Why are you grabbing my dick?"

Evelyn shrugged, "I wanted to feel the size."

Andrea said with a deadpan expression, "Oh."

Cecile then said with a cool tone. "By the way, although her penis is a marvel in making me shout in pleasure, her vagina is much more pleasurable than before."

Andrea and Evelyn blinked and said with smiles, "I see. Thank you for telling." They knew how little tact Cecile had when speaking of these things, so it didn't bother them the direct way she talked.

Meanwhile, inside the next love room, Yasenia and Kali were kissing pleasantly. Yasenia had tangled her long dragon tail around Kali's, basically creating a braid with them. Yasenia asked. "Honey, how do you want to do it? First, some mouth action to heat you up, or do you want to try doing it after a short foreplay?"

Kali said, with her scarred cheeks flushed, "I-I really want to feel you inside again."

The dragoness smiled and kissed her lips, "Sure, let's get naked, my love. I only got to penetrate you with the head, so let's try today to fit everything we can inside."

Kali's verdant green eyes glittered, "You remember?"

Yasenia laughed and hugged Kali close, "I've certainly forgotten some things. But I will never forget what each of you likes, my love. Just meeting with each of you reignited almost every memory, so don't worry."

Kali's tail waged, moving the tail braid from side to side. "What's my favorite food?"

Yasenia lifted her eyebrow with amusement, "The lasagna made with my breast milk."

Kali flushed red.

Wanting to ask Yasenia something, she had forgotten that her favorite food was somewhat strange. Yasenia saw Kali's embarrassed face and laughed aloud, "I know the perfect way to make our little foreplay~."

Kali let Yasenia carry her toward the bed and asked. "What way?"

Yasenia untangled their tails for easier movement and rested Kali's body sideways in her embrace. Then, as she lowered her upper robes, Yasenia tempted, "Drinking a little bit of that milk~."

Chapter 312: Kali's euphoria, Valeria's surprising proposal. (R-18)

Kali let Yasenia carry her toward the bed and asked. "What way?"

Yasenia untangled their tails for easier movement and rested Kali's body sideways in her embrace. Then, as she lowered her upper robes, Yasenia tempted, "Drinking a little bit of that milk~."

Kali's eyes gravitated from Yasenia's face to her chest and her mouth salivated. The flavorsome memory of its taste was making her mouth drool.

Then, while sneaking two glances at Yasenia, she leaned her head in and trapped the nipple in her mouth. Yasenia looked at her tenderly and caressed her head softly. "I'm going to move my hand now, okay? Open your legs, honey."

Kali hugged Yasenia's waist and leaned on her arm, obeying her and also opening her legs. Yasenia's breast milk consistently was not watery but somewhat thick, with a rich taste and texture. Each time she gulped a mouthful, she felt as if the warmth of her lover spread throughout her entire body.

Then, she felt the hand sneaking inside her robes and approaching her precious place. When those long and elegant fingers touched her lower lips, her legs subconsciously opened, wanting to give easier access to her.

Yasenia saw her actions, with those beautiful verdant green eyes half-closed and her lips curved upwards. "Does it taste good~?"

Kali looked up at the dragoness's current gentle and pampering face, and her heart beat faster. She loved how considerate Yasenia could be when they were doing these things. She didn't want to stop drinking, so to answer Yasenia, she licked the sweet nipple inside her mouth.

"Ahn~."

A moan that made Kali's heart skip a beat left Yasenia's mouth. Moreover, she could feel something hard and powerful poking at her back, and the hand on her privates was molding her lower lips in ways she had never felt before. "Mmm~."

The way Yasenia touched her was extremely sensual, without penetrating with her fingers and only caressing the outer area. However, this only made the fox's body burn, making her two tails happily wag.

Yasenia continued in that position until she felt her fingers completely damp with Kali's fluids. She also felt Kali's ragged breathing and the strength of her sucking increasing. Yasenia's eyes thinned like a predator who had warmed up her prey enough. "Now, it's time for the real deal, honey."

Kali had been teased for five minutes straight, and she was already close to orgasm. Waves of pleasure rocked her body with the slightest of touches in her private area, and her face was flushed with excitement.

Yasenia took this to her advantage and undressed Kali's lower clothes. Kali felt the chilly wind hitting her moist area, making her a little more aware. However, the mouth and tongue of the dragoness attacked her, making her thoughts fly away one more time.

Kali loved this way of treating her. She felt like the world had disappeared each time they made love, and only the two of them remained. Yasenia also took off her lower garments, freeing her dragon, and laid Kali on the bed.

Not wanting to interrupt the natural flow of their session, Yasenia aimed her penis and pressed on Kali's vagina. She didn't penetrate and felt Kali's reaction.

Kali only felt pure excitement. She had wanted to have sex again since the first time Yasenia managed to pierce her, and now she was about to welcome that beautiful and tasty precum leaking rod with her lower mouth.

Yasenia felt the excitement and bit Kali's lips while lowering her voice, making it sound like a seductive growl. "I'm going in."

Kali shuddered with anticipation as she looked into the half-pink half-golden slit eyes. Then, Yasenia pushed forward.

Kali's very tight entrance widened slightly. Yasenia remembered that Kali's hole was very small, so she went in slowly. 'First, the head. Then, I can push deeper.'

Yasenia's wide glans slowly opened Kali's hole. It went around it, caressing it slowly. Their energies roused and began circulating around their private area. The powerful and fertile Yin energy pierced inside Yasenia's rod, igniting her pleasure receptors. Yasenia's eyes rolled as she bit Kali's cheek, "Ohh~, so good."

Yasenia's actions, like a satisfied beast while tasting her prey, made Kali even more excited. She loved Yasenia's love for her energy.

Not wanting to delay much more, Yasenia pushed deeper and sunk her whole head inside. The moment she penetrated Kali, the entrance closed tightly, which made Yasenia's wide head pressure the nerves there. This sent a pleasurable electric bolt through Kali's body, tensing her body.

"Aahn!" A loud moan escaped her mouth, a mouth that was sealed right after by the passionate dragoness.

The pleasure was enough, even if they didn't move and danced with their tongues. However, Yasenia craved more pleasure, and so did Kali.

Yasenia pushed her waist forward and opened the flesh canal. Kali groaned as the big penis opened her insides powerfully. Pure euphoria and happiness invaded her body as pleasure waves coursed her. "Yes. Deeper, go deeper, Yasenia! Mark my insides with your fluids!"

What could be more stimulating than this sentence? Yasenia licked Kali's chin and bit her, hugging her strongly with her arms. Then, she pushed her waist strongly, finally reaching the cervix of the fox.

At that moment, Yasenia had to stop because the Yin energy she previously vaguely felt at her entrance was now extremely clear. Kali's Yin energy was strongly linked with her bloodline, a bloodline named [Life's Origin Nine-Tailed Fox], which made it so fertile that it was about to make the strong restraints of the dragoness shatter.

Everything about Kali's insides seemed to be designed to make tempt the lover to impregnate her. "Fuuuck~, your insides are so good!"

Kali's insides squeezed with delight at Yasenia's compliment, and Kali herself began kissing everything she could of the dragoness. Her two tails coiled around Yasenia's legs, and her legs went around her waist, clamping down in that position. "Cum, Yasenia. Fill me! Fuck me and fill me with your semen."

A sentence Kali would have never guessed to escape her mouth was said. Yasenia didn't disobey, and her waist got to work.

Pah! Pah! Pah! Pah!

Finally being fucked by her lover, Kali moaned without restraint. The feeling of her lover's dick going in and out, meshing her insides into a squelching mess, was making her crazy, "YES! YES! More, I want more!"

Yasenia growled and accelerated one more time.

PAH! PAH! PAH! PAH!

Kali's eyes rolled up, and her back arched, pushing Yasenia's body into hers with her arms and legs. "YEESSS!!!"

Kali orgasmed like she never did before, and it seemed as if she wanted to meld into one with Yasenia. Yasenia felt the trembling insides, and she also went over the edge. "Get filled!"

The penis spurted the white so strongly it pierced right inside the uterus through the cervix and hit the womb's walls. Unlike the last time, Kali's body was able to resist the monstrous orgasms rocking her world. Although her world went white, her body spasmed without control, her pussy squirted like a broken faucet, and her nails pierced and scratched Yasenia's back, she wasn't in danger.

Yasenia activated her dual cultivation technique and, as she came inside, got to work. The Yang energy was like a fire, spreading through Kali's body and cleansing her.

Inside Kali, a closed-eyes Valeria slowly opened her eyes and smiled, "Thanks for the delicious Yang energy, Yasenia."

With Valeria's and Yasenia's efforts, Kali's body was cleansed one more time. It wasn't anything crazy, but a slight improvement, something that would accumulate each time they had a session together.

Kali came back to herself after a while and woke up to Yasenia's tongue softly licking and grooming her and Yasenia's chest vibrating together with her lovely deep growls. The penis was still deeply inserted, pushing against her cervix. The semen inside was warming her core, making her feel fluffy, like floating on a cloud. 'A paradise~. I'm inside a paradise.'

Yasenia saw Kali's eyes opening and nibbled and licked her neck, asking sensually. "Can you do it one more time~?"

If there was someone able to resist this temptation, it wasn't the current Kali. She turned her head to capture Yasenia's lips and pleaded, "One, two, or three more times. Do me until I faint."

Yasenia obeyed and moved again. She didn't change position, maintaining a normal missionary position. They had plenty of time to try new things. Today, however, it was about finally being able to have proper sex with each other.

Even when Yasenia's fluids overflowed, she didn't stop and continued pushing against the baby room repeatedly. She also didn't pierce the cervix, wanting to reserve that kind of pleasure for when Kali was more used to her pleasure.

Yasenia was right since Kali only lasted two more creampie, fainting right after with rolled-up white eyes and a drooling mouth. Observing the ruined face of the fox, Yasenia's lips hooked up in a satisfied smile.

Slowly, Yasenia moved her waist back and popped out from Kali's insides. A literal pop sound was heard once the head went out, followed by a river of white cum flowing out of Kali's fucked pussy.

Yasenia looked at it and smirked, "Now, I've marked almost everything~." They still hadn't used the last hole, and she still hadn't pierced the last entrance, but Yasenia was extremely happy.

Valeria appeared beside them, sitting sideways. Yasenia looked at her and lifted an eyebrow, "You shouldn't have appeared."

Valeria was about to ask why when Yasenia's powerful mating scent and the smell of her semen hit her brain like a sledgehammer. "Mmm~." The Spirit Queen moaned as her eyes toward Yasenia changed. They shone with a leafy-green light as her tone became deeper. "Such a powerful life force ~. Fufufu, we'll have to have a deep conversation in the future if Kali doesn't mind, Yasenias~."

Yasenia didn't know why but felt that her tail-organ was in danger of being permanently sucked dry.

"That gaze is dangerous... I feel like when my mother is aroused and looks at me. Is this woman also a professional in that aspect?"

With a green blush on her cheeks, Valeria said what she came out to say. "The way you used your cultivation technique was different, right?"

Yasenia took out a circular bathtub and carried Kali there. Then, she answered honestly, "Yes. Previously, I only used it to increase their cultivation base. However, after testing with it in different ways, I learned that I could also cleanse the marrow, strengthen the muscle, harden the bones, and make the internal organs work better."

Valeria observed Yasenia clean Kali and continued asking. "Hoh~, Did it fail anytime?"

Yasenia nodded, "If I'm not careful when strengthening other things besides cultivation, I can destroy those things I want to improve because I pushed them past the limits."

Valeria lay on the fluid-drenched bed, looking at the naked seductive dragoness up and down, and said, "Would you mind giving me children?"

Yasenia looked at Valeria curiously and asked, "What's that question? It is quite sudden, right?"

Valeria picked some semen with her finger and tasted it. She blinked twice and said, "Delicious~. Was this your fertile semen?"

Yasenia saw her actions but wasn't fazed, "No. That's infertile."

Valeria nodded and asked Yasenia's previous question, "Well, I still have some things I want to tell all of you. But I want to wait until you all are stronger. Having this burden in your minds is not worth it."

Yasenia laughed while her fingers spread soap on Kali's body, "All of you, seniors, like to be mysterious."

Valeria chuckled. She looked gently at how meticulous Yasenia was while cleaning Kali and smiled softly, "We don't want to burden you with things you can't do anything about. It is like telling a mortal child that the company is going bankrupt because of various economic problems. It would only create worry since the child can't do anything about it."

Yasenia hummed, "That's a good analogy. Are you good with children? I've realized that your attitude toward us is like a mother's toward their child."

Valeria's smile widened, "Well, I've had progeny before, so yes, I could be said to be good with children."

Yasenia looked at Valeria and saw her gentle look while observing their interaction. She smiled back and said, "I don't mind giving you children, but that will be after I give your master one. Also, she has to agree."

Valeria blinked, surprised. "You agreed so easily."

Yasenia sighed, "Well, giving someone like you a child is not something I would regret. You seem like a good mother. Moreover, I find you pleasant. Be it your aura, your attitude toward Kali, or your strength. You are someone worthy of being a mother."

Valeria walked toward her, her floral dress clean as if she wasn't just lying on their fluids. She hugged them both and kissed their cheeks, "I'm happy at your compliment, Yasenia. Leave me the rest with Kali. You have to go to the others, right?"

Yasenia blinked twice, surprised. Then, she chuckled and teased, "Are you trying something with that sneak attack?"

Valeria laughed, "Did it work?"

Yasenia stood up and caressed Valeria's jaw, "Who knows~." Then, she turned and put on her robes, giving a final caress to both of them with her long tail.

Valeria squinted comfortably and then focused on Kali. 'I'm sure she will be happy~, she has been secretly speaking to me about it, after all.'

Chapter 313: Small talk about Yasenia's experience. Evelyn's fantasies come true! (R-18)

Yasenia exited the room in high spirits. These sessions with her dears were doing wonders for her mentality. The line before and after the Trial was blurring, making those memories of the past clearer.

Yasenia was a high-level cultivator when she met them, so her brain was already empowered. Her ability to retain memories was extremely high. However, this didn't mean that she could remember everything at will. Sometimes, a trigger was needed.

Like it or not, night activity was a big part of her daily life with her dears, so having intercourse with them was an experience that made her remember many things. When Yasenia had sex with them, they didn't only vent their lust to each other.

Yasenia always has tried making love, making each and every session with them special one way or another. Now, finally connecting with Angel and Kali, her entire soul felt like it was singing with happiness.

Not only did she feel their Yin energy across her meridians, but the feeling of intimacy and closeness was also there again. It was the last step Yasenia needed to recover most of her previous pampering self. Of course, it was impossible to be without changes, but the sweet, lovely, and pampering dragoness had returned without any dramatic issues.

This was thanks to the relationship Yasenia built with effort and love.

Suppose Yasenia hadn't been completely loyal, adding many other women as she did in her Trial. In that case, she could see some of them either being angrier or directly leaving her side out of jealousy or other negative feelings.

However, her previous loyalty and honesty made Angel and the others understand her plight, her train of thought as to why she did that, and her decisions regarding her way of overcoming the Trial.

Evelyn, Cecile, and Andrea saw Yasenia walking out of Kali's room into the hall again. Her mouth was hooked into a happy and tender smile, and her whole being felt like a cozy blanket that surrounded them. Their lips unconsciously raised, infected by Yasenia's happiness.

"What are you smiling for, my love?" Asked Cecile.

Yasenia walked toward them; unlike previously, she didn't directly take one of them away. She walked toward Andrea, who was sitting in the middle of the three, and sat on her lap. Andrea wouldn't lose the chance to hug that soft and slim waist and her arms wrapped around the dragoness. Yasenia turned her waist and tail to the side to avoid bothering Andrea.

"Well, I'm happy that I'm back with all of you. All that time in the Trial took a toll on me." Yasenia's voice was soft and soothing, as if reflecting on her memories. Evelyn and Cecile grabbed one hand each, playing with those long, slim, and elegant fingers.

Andrea was curious and asked, "Say, Yasenia. Do you mind speaking about your intimacy within the Trial?"

Yasenia rubbed her side face on Andrea's neck and softly said, "I don't, as long as you don't mind."

"Did you try new things at night? You know, with five-hundred-plus women at your beck and call, you should have experimented, right?"

Yasenia chuckled and surprisingly said, "I didn't. I just had normal sex. Go to their room, give them my Yang energy once, and leave. I didn't do anything more."

The three of them blinked, surprised. Evelyn asked, "You didn't even bathe them?"

Yasenia shook her head, "How could I do that? Although it is hypocritical on my part since I'm having sex with them already, I wanted to have the least contact possible with them. The kisses were far in between, and I never used toys, I never used my mouth, I didn't even spend one on one time with them..."

Yasenia smiled wryly and said, "I just took a bunch of them, carried them into a room, and filled them one on one. Well, there is an exception."

Curiosity shone in their eyes. Evelyn asked, "Which one?"

Yasenia smiled and said, "Once, I wanted to see my limit. I gathered every single girl I had at that time and went into a wild orgy for three days and three nights. Out of the seventy-three women, I knocked out sixty-eight. I released so much Yang energy that I needed two days of rest before my energies balanced again!"

Their mouths opened, and Andrea said, "My love, I will need more details about that."

Yasenia felt something rising between her buttocks and lifted an eyebrow. She turned her head to look at Andrea and smiled, "You are quite the pervert, do you know that?"

Andrea laughed and said, "Well, I'm honest with my feelings. I mean, hearing about your adventures with so many women makes the thing so unfeeling and unreal that I don't feel anything. It is like a wondrous tale of erotica."

Evelyn chortled, and Cecile shook her head with a small smile, "Well, leave me out of the tale. Although it really is hard feeling something about something so... exaggerated. I rather not hear about it."

Evelyn shrugged, "Count me in when you are about to talk about it. I'm sure Angel and even Tatyana would be interested in it."

Yasenia frowned, "Do you girls think Mother won't mind?"

The three girls had quite the same thoughts. Andrea said, "Don't worry. Tatyana had talked to us about future possibilities before and the fact that she had prepared the maid division for you."

Evelyn laughed, "I've been waiting for the time you wanted to vent on the maids~. Being sandwiched between Alaia and you will be quite a delight."

Cecile sighed, "You already know how I feel about it. I'm not exactly in favor of it since I want you all for myself. But I wouldn't mind if you did it out of necessity."

Andrea and Evelyn looked at Cecile and snorted. Evelyn accused her, "Who was the one that had her three tails wagging after Yasenia spoke about her "Exploits."?"

Cecile raised her eyebrow, unfazed. "Hearing about it at passing and hearing the details is very different."

Yasenia smiled, "Don't worry. I'm full with you six at the moment, and if something happens with other people, it will be much further in the future. Around the time when we are ready to have children."

Evelyn asked, "Speaking of children. We are already inside the Unification Realm. When do you plan to begin your... "Bloodline propagation?"

Yasenia stood up and thought for a second, "Hmm, probably when we overcome the Dantian spiritualization realm or even when we enter the Transcendence Realm. The Sky Continent is now too chaotic to have children."

Yasenia turned and pulled Evelyn up. Cecile asked, "What if we move to a safer continent?"

"I don't know." Yasenia shrugged, placing her arm over Evelyn's shoulders. The height difference was just right for that motion to look extremely natural.

"However, I don't think it will be soon. I want to do something about the Celestial Attribute soon. I've already recharged the [Celestial Pearl]. Moreover, with the reward from the Trial, I'm on the verge of making a breakthrough in that aspect. It's just... There is one puzzle piece missing, and I don't know what it is."

Seeing Yasenia frown with doubt prickled their hearts. They really wanted to give her the answer and change her face to the previous smile.

Evelyn subconsciously raised her hand to smoothen the wrinkled skin between her brows. "Don't worry, Yasenia. I'm sure that you will find something soon."

Yasenia looked down at Evelyn's face and smiled. She grabbed her small hand to kiss it. Then, she said, "Let's go inside, Dear. It's time for your awaited reward... Or punishment~. It all depends on your choice."

Andrea and Cecile saw with smiles as Yasenia dragged the blushing Evelyn inside. Andrea and Cecile made small talk about what to do in the Town, waiting for Yasenia to exit one more time.

When Yasenia and Evelyn entered the room, Yasenia picked Evelyn up and made her surround her waist with her legs, holding her small butt with one arm. Evelyn looked down at Yasenia's smiling face and felt her heart full. She couldn't help but feel somewhat shy, uncharacteristic of herself. "Y-Yasenia, you've become more beautiful."

The dragoness's face bloomed into a delighted smile, making Evelyn even more flustered. "I'm glad you think that way, dear. Do you want to have normal sex or do the things we did before?"

Evelyn hugged Yasenia closely, hiding her face in her neck, and whispered. "I-I want you to punish me, mistress."

Yasenia's hand groped Evelyn's butt strongly, making her shudder, and carried her toward the bed. "You are such a bad girl~." Then, each time she finished a sentence, she smacked Evelyn's small cheeks. "I wanted to have a pampering time with my dear, but you, Slap! perverted little girl, Slap! Wants to be punished. Slap!"

Evelyn's blush grew deeper as the tingling sensation climbed up her spine. Her arms and legs tightened around Yasenia, and she whispered. "I-I'm bad, I-I'm sorry!"

Yasenia sat on the bed and placed Evelyn on her lap, face down. "Do you think an apology is enough?"

Then, Evelyn felt chilly down there as her pants disappeared. Following that, a hand went down and slapped hard.

PA!

The slap was so hard that Evelyn's body arched as a moan left Evelyn's mouth, "Ah!"

Yasenia used her other hand to invade Evelyn's mouth and play with her tongue, her other hand getting to work. "You say you are a bad girl, but here you are, sucking my fingers as if they were my cock."

PA!

"Ahn~."

"Do you think these fluids down here are also because you feel bad?"

PA!

"Mmm~."

"Not only are you a bad girl, but you are also a dishonest one!"

PA!

"Oh~. I'm sorry, mistress! Please punish this one with your mighty cock!"

Yasenia turned Evelyn's face forcefully and smiled sadistically, "Now you are honest. You want my dick to fuck your throat until you choke."

Evelyn trembled as those golden slit eyes focused on her like a predator looking at her prey. Then, Yasenia threw Evelyn to the bed and stripped. Evelyn looked at that goddess-worthy body and erect dragon rod and her body heated up. She crawled forward, opening her mouth to taste the beautiful and imposing dick, but Yasenia's tail tied her hands behind her back, making her fall face-first to the bed. "Do you think you are in control here, dear?"

Evelyn looked up, observing the imposing naked dragoness from below, and then heard. "You are not." Then, her body got pulled up by the tail, and two hands grabbed her face.

The next instant, Yasenia's dick pried her mouth open and pierced and unprepared throat. Evelyn instantly gagged, but her pussy only overflowed with fluids. Yasenia took out her dick completely, now wet with Evelyn's saliva, and asked with a domineering tone, "Hoh~, You didn't like that? Why did you gag on your mistress dick, huh?"

SLAP!

A hand landed on her butt, making Evelyn moan in pleasure. "Please, forgive me! I-I want your dick, please. I swear not to gag again!"

Yasenia snorted and lifted Evelyn's face by her chin. Her expression was one of disdain as she said, "You better, or else I will just fuck you as I want."

Then, Evelyn's head was grabbed again, and she instantly opened her mouth wide. Evelyn saw Yasenia's dick approaching and piercing her mouth, lodging deep into her throat. Her throat vibrated as a moan came into being. Then, Yasenia began to throat fuck her without restraint.

Her tail left Evelyn's hands-free, and she began slapping her butt like a soft whip. The pain and pleasure were perfect, making Evelyn's experience much better.

Yasenia didn't cause pain to Evelyn. Although she was throat fucking her, she was careful not to pierce too deep and damage her. Moreover, her tail whips weren't too strong, only stimulating her further.

Although Evelyn's reflexes made her tear up and for snot to drip out of her nose, the eyes rolling in pleasure and Evelyn hugging her legs as she moved her head told Yasenia that she was having the time of her life. All Evelyn's movements were asking for more. "You like this? Pervert, degenerate! Look at your saliva and snot dripping while my dick fucks your throat."

The slurping sounds of saliva being meshed by her dick filled the room, soon being accompanied by Yasenia's grunts and moans. Yasenia moaned, "You are such a good hole! I'm cumming shortly; take my load!"

Evelyn's misted eyes because of pleasure from the domination came to life when she heard Yasenia; she even pressed her face forward, hitting Yasenia's pelvis with her nose.

Yasenia didn't expect Evelyn to allow it to go deeper and moaned aloud, "Oh yes! I'm cumming!"

With Evelyn kissing the base of her dick, Yasenia let out her semen, cumming directly into her stomach. Evelyn throatily moaned as she felt electricity course her body. She orgasmed and squirted as the dragoness's semen flooded her stomach.

She truly felt like Yasenia fucked her brain and, right now, was spasming in pleasure.

She held onto Yasenia's thighs with her arms as if she was about to fly away as the transparent stream coming out of her pussy drenched the bed sheets. The penis inside her throat twitched, releasing the delicious electrifying cum.

Yasenia took out her penis enough to cum the last three ropes inside Evelyn's mouth, flooding her tongue with a white liquid. Evelyn's taste buds instantly tingled with absolute happiness as the taste of the dragoness's cum filled her mouth.

She rolled her tongue, spreading that flavor and texture for a while.

Chapter 314: Evelyn's pampering. Andrea tasting the dragoness. (R-18)

Yasenia took out her penis completely and crouched in front of Evelyn, hugging her close. She took off all her upper clothes and looked at the savoring Evelyn with a heated look.

Yasenia's tone deepened, becoming bone-softening, and she growled beside Evelyn's ear, "You are such a good girl, drinking and savoring my everything. Now, it is time for a reward~."

Evelyn gulped the delicious semen and pleaded, her body soft between Yasenia's clutches. "Please, fuck my pussy numb!"

Yasenia didn't delay and pushed her down, pounding her to oblivion and beyond. She lifted Evelyn's legs, positioning her in the mating press position, and went wild on her.

Evelyn let out a beastly moan as Yasenia's dick pierced her passage until it crushed her womb. "Mistress, you are so deep!!"

Yasenia, however, wasn't satisfied. "Deep? Wait until the second thrust to comment on those things!"

Then, Yasenia lifted her waist and pierced down again. Evelyn's eyes rolled up as Yasenia's penis forcefully opened her cervix, entering her womb and pushing right against her uterus walls. "OH YES!"

Then, Yasenia leaned forward and trapped Evelyn with her whole body below her. "You are mine to fuck, dear."

Then, her waist got to work.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Evelyn was buried below a ridiculously soft body of alluring flesh, her face between Yasenia's breasts as the wild dragoness pounded her pussy. The waist movements made the Heavenly mounds she liked so much bounce up and down on her face. Evelyn could only moan as Yasenia fucked her.

Yasenia came for the first time. "Second load of the day for you, dear. Mmm~." She used her whole body to bury Evelyn and came.

If looked at from above, only Evelyn's legs at the side would be visible as Yasenia released her cum inside.

Evelyn had already orgasmed twice in the wild pistoning, but now that the Yang energy was directly stimulating her uterus, fireworks exploded in her mind. The hot cum that filled her felt heavenly, "OHHHH!!!"

Yasenia looked at Evelyn's crown and growled comfortably as she filled her spasming and moaning dear below her. Evelyn stopped moving five minutes later, breathing heavily as if there wasn't enough oxygen. She felt Yasenia's chest trembling together with that deep growl, and her body melted into a human blob. She looked up and saw Yasenia looking at her from above.

The sight of a completely buried Evelyn, looking up from between her breasts, was amusing and endearing. "Dear, how do you feel? Did I go too far?"

Evelyn just sighed, "Can we not move from this position?"

Yasenia blinked and asked, "Do you feel comfortable with me above you?"

Evelyn rubbed her head between her breasts and kissed them intermittently. "Yes. I feel in heaven completely buried below you."

Yasenia moved her tail and poked at Evelyn's back hole. "Do you want to do it with this hole too?"

Evelyn purred and nodded, "Yes~. I want to have your cum leaking from every hole!"

Yasenia softly laughed, "Good, but now, we will do slow and pampering sex. I want to treat you like a treasure, Evelyn."

Evelyn looked up with an emotional face and said, "Of course, my love. I would love to have slow sex with you."

And so, Yasenia slowly pierced her butt with the tail and then moved her waist and tail inside Evelyn. She was stimulating her pleasure spots without being too aggressive.

After forty minutes of slow sex and cumming another four times inside Evelyn, Yasenia asked Evelyn to take out her toy.

Evelyn passionately complied. She smiled as she put on the large toy. Her voice was hoarse but excited, "I will finally taste your holes~."

Yasenia went on her all fours, showing her two holes and dangling penis to Evelyn.

Evelyn's blood boiled as she looked at Yasenia from behind. The large butt, pink asshole, drooling pussy, and leaking penis made an erotic scenery that would send anyone into a frenzy. She sunk her hands in Yasenia's soft buttocks and pierced the dragoness's pussy.

"Oh yes! I'm finally fucking this peak-quality pussy!" Evelyn didn't lose time and slapped her waist on Yasenia's bouncy behind, creating fleshy sounds and waves in the dragoness's voluptuous body.

Yasenia looked back as Evelyn pounded her, showing Evelyn her ecstasy-filled face. This only made Evelyn act like a rampaging beast, piercing that last entrance and moving back and forth rapidly. Yasenia's uterus happily received Evelyn's rampage and release.

Their mating continued in various positions. As Evelyn fucked Yasenia face to face, she came one more time, receiving a deep kiss from the dragoness. Her body straightened after cumming inside Yasenia. Then, slowly, her body became limp. Yasenia whispered, "I love you, goodnight."

Evelyn's eyes closed, and she fell on top of Yasenia's voluptuous body. Yasenia breathed heavily and hugged the fainted woman above her. Seeing the satisfied smile, Yasenia chuckled. "You were really active, Dear. Good job."

Yasenia lovingly kissed Evelyn's closed eyelids and summoned from her ring the round bath. She took out Evelyn's deeply inserted dick. Evelyn's squirt flowed out of her hole, drenching the floor with the liquid.

After submerging both of them in the water, she cleaned herself and Evelyn deeply. The Yang and Yin energies were already coursing the body thanks to Yasenia's use of the Dual Cultivation technique, so leaving the fluids inside was unnecessary.

Of course, Yasenia's dears would argue that having the cum inside them felt comfortable, but that was a thing for another day.

Then, she didn't bother putting on her clothes and went outside with a fully dressed Evelyn horizontally in her embrace.

Andrea's and Cecile's eyes gravitated toward the naked, jiggly, and tall body. They got a good look up and down, feasting on the scenery. Then, they looked at Evelyn, curled in her embrace like a kitten, and smiled. Andrea chuckled, "Look at her. She is smiling like a fool even when asleep."

Yasenia also chuckled and kissed Evelyn's forehead. "She did a really good job~."

Then, she carried her toward Angel's room, and her tail motioned Andrea to follow her.

Who was Andrea to ignore the naked dragoness's call? She stood up and said, "Goodnight, Cecile." "Goodnight." Cecile stood up and went inside her own room to wait for the dragoness.

After leaving Evelyn on the same bed as Kali and Angel, Kali was moved there by Valeria; she turned around and jumped into Andrea's embrace.

Andrea caught the flying body. Their bodies squeezed as Yasenia landed, and Andrea's hands instantly grabbed the full butt of the dragoness, lifting the Heavy dragoness in the air easily. That long tail was pure muscle, which made Yasenia's weight very high.

Andrea and Yasenia didn't lose time and kissed deeply.

As Andrea felt Yasenia's hands roaming her back and the thick thighs surrounding her, she carried the excited dragoness toward another room and closed the door.

Yasenia stopped devouring Andrea's tasty mouth and sighed deeply, looking at Andrea's light-green eyes passionately. "Darling, I'm yours to do as you see fit. I've been really waiting for this."

Andrea kissed Yasenia's neck slowly and rested her on the headboard. "You want me so bad~? Well, well, you'll have to wait because I want to taste your delicious body for a while."

"Mmm~, I see. Go ahead, darling. Taste me all you want." Yasenia's heartbeat accelerated, and she left her body defenseless, ready to be eaten by Andrea as she liked.

Andrea's smile deepened, and she began kissing downward. From Yasenia's neck to her shoulders and collarbone. She went down slowly, leaving a trail of moist kisses that ignited Yasenia's core. Yasenia's hand roamed Andrea's hard body, feeling those defined muscles below the soft flesh.

She was like a mix of womanly charm and power, arousing the dragoness with just touches and kisses.

Andrea reached those two big breasts and kissed them to her heart's content. After being there for merely thirty seconds, Andrea was not surprised when she saw milk leaking from her excited nipples.

She knew Yasenia loved feeding them her milk, which hadn't changed. Andrea had observed that each time she sucked her breast milk, Yasenia would become very excited.

What the heroic, tall, and beautiful woman didn't realize was that only with her would her nipples leak milk. Yasenia's body just over-lactated in front of the one who would impregnate her as if showing how good her body was for feeding children and being a mother.

Andrea looked into Yasenia's eager golden-slit eyes and sucked her right nipple. Yasenia moaned and pushed Andrea's head deeper inside her bosom. "Mmm~, yes! Suck my milk, darling!"

Andrea felt her penis twitch as Yasenia's seductive voice caressed her hearing sense. Her tongue rolled on the nipple and sucked, filling her mouth with the tasty sweet flavor.

However, she didn't stay there for long. Andrea resumed her journey to the depths and continued kissing downward. Yasenia felt somewhat empty, wanting Andrea to continue sucking her breasts. However, those ardent kisses that approached her precious land ignited her with anticipation.

Andrea kissed below the nipple, the underboob, and the abdomen and finally met with a very erect weapon. She separated, and her eyes met with Yasenia's lower head. Seeing the big penis leaking precum, Andrea smirked as her finger caressed the rod, "So excited~. My little girl is dripping."

Yasenia's penis twitched, creating more translucent liquid in the tip that dripped down her shaft. Andrea opened her mouth and licked the leaking precum from the bottom of the rod up to the urethra. She squinted with delight, 'Her flavor is so powerful and deep, leaving a delicious aftertaste, and her musky, sweet scent makes my head spin with arousal. Giving her a blowjob is a treat~.'

Yasenia felt the tongue climbing up, and she moaned delightedly, caressing Andrea's curly hair. Leaving the lead to Andrea was always a delight for the dragoness.

Andrea then used her big hand to grab the bottom part and devoured the penis's head. Right after that, she began giving Yasenia a blowjob.

Yasenia threw her head back as electricity rushed up her spine. Her tail wagged happily as she let out moans, "Mmm~, Yes! You are so good at this!"

Andrea used her tongue and lips expertly to suck Yasenia. Her hand, which was pumping the penis up and down, stopped and went lower, visiting the lower lips.

Her fingers caressed her plump lips and her swollen pink bell, creating a melody with Yasenia's soul-enticing moans.

Under Andrea's skillful attack, Yasenia didn't last long and came. She grabbed Andrea's head out of reflex and pushed her down, wanting to go deeper. "I'm cumming, darling!"

Andrea let Yasenia force her head down, allowing the penis to force its way inside her throat, and after the dragoness's half-roar, half-moan, she felt Yasenia's semen shooting from her dick. The liquid filled her mouth and throat, but Andrea swallowed without a problem.

She felt her whole body heating up as if she was drinking a powerful aphrodisiac with instant effects. However, that way of thinking isn't wrong, as Yasenia's semen could have that effect.

After there wasn't anything more to release from Yasenia's dick, Andrea gave one final lick, and she straightened her body. Yasenia's breath was laborious as she observed her lover's next move in great detail.

Andrea looked at Yasenia, and after giving her another smile, she began stripping naked.

Yasenia's eyes roamed as the sculpted female body began appearing in front of her.

Chapter 315: Andrea's hidden concerns. Passionate time. (R-18)

Yasenia's eyes roamed as the sculpted female body began appearing in front of her.

First, Andrea took off her upper garments. She revealed her defined arms and abdominal area together with her perky breasts and slim waist. That upper torso combined the beauty of a woman and a powerful body, looking like an agile leopard. Moreover, her light chocolate skin accentuated those crevices, creating a body worthy of being called art.

The lower part of Andrea's garments came off, liberating the powerful weapon hidden in the clothes. Yasenia licked her lips as she saw Andrea's rock-hard dick, ready to pierce her the moment the show ended. She could feel her pussy drooling, lubricating itself to welcome a deep penetration. She observed Andrea's thighs, which didn't look too muscular until she tensed her body, giving her big sensual thighs with attractive long legs.

The only reason Yasenia didn't jump at her and bounced on that rod until she sucked her dry was that Andrea's light-green eyes had locked her in place.

Andrea saw Yasenia's cheek blushing with an alluring red, and her long tongue licked those tempting red lips, creating a glossy surface that looked delicious.

She leaned forward with a deep smile of her own, looking right into those half-golden, half-pink slit eyes. Her low and deep voice tingled Yasenia's hearing sense. "Do you like what you see? Your eyes are roaming my body hungrily."

Yasenia's hands moved and made Andrea fall on top of her. She roamed Andrea's body, exploring and touching that female warrior's body all around.

Andrea also wasn't shy, her own hands sinking into the dragoness's curves.

Yasenia buried her face and breathed on Andrea's neck, saying with enough temptation in her voice to invite even a monk to commit carnal sin. "Yes. I love what I see. And I would love it even more if I could feel what I see~. What do you say, darling? Do you also want to feel what you see~?"

Andrea chuckled slowly and opened Yasenia's legs. "My dearest asks, and I answer yes."

Yasenia lifted her waist, causing her dick to rest on her abdomen, and presented her open pussy to Andrea. Andrea looked at the pink flesh and twitching hole and aimed at it with her own dick.

Then, she pushed her waist, opening that hole with the meaty rod. Both breathed roughly as they saw Andrea's dick sinking into Yasenia. Andrea's waist almost buckled as she felt the vaginal walls trembling and clutching her penis like a vice, pushing her deeper. The pleasure was otherworldly.

Finally, Andrea's pelvis hit Yasenia's, fully sinking into the dragoness's pussy. They looked at each other for a moment and then began devouring each other mouths.

Andrea danced her tongue and danced her waist.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

Their genitals rubbed and stimulated each other, and the fluids Yasenia released covered the whole light-chocolate skin. The white and brown mixed as their moans spread in the room. "Yes~, I finally have this dick inside! Oh~, It is so good. You fuck so good, darling!"

Andrea continued moving her waist in ways that pushed every button inside the dragoness and answered, "Yeah? Do you like it? Tell me how much you like it, my love."

"Your dick is like electricity! It stimulates my core to the point that I feel my waist jumping!"

Andrea bit Yasenia's lip and picked up speed and strength.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Andrea's balls slapped Yasenia's butt, creating loud sounds. Each time Andrea slammed her waist, Yasenia's body bounced lewdly, her big breasts going up and down as they leaked milk.

Yasenia's free dick was bouncing up and down at the rhythm of Andrea's hips, complimenting the melody of ongoing fleshy ecstasy.

Hearing all these sounds, they both became euphoric. Yasenia's long tail wagged with delight. She wound her arms around Andrea's neck, and her legs were opened completely, allowing Andrea to pierce her deeper. "Yes! Fuck me harder, Andrea!"

Andrea grunted and made a strong thrust, aiming to pierce that last entrance.

"Ahh!!"

Yasenia moaned aloud as her cervix opened to welcome Andrea's dick. Then, Andrea began double-piercing Yasenia. She moved her waist back until the dick popped out and then thrust inside, penetrating even the cervix.

"Ohh!"

Yasenia had her two vaginal entrances fucked by the skilled woman, making her release a throaty moan.

However, this was as stimulating for Yasenia as it was for Andrea.

Andrea couldn't hold on to the pleasure the dragon-pussy gave and made one last thrust, cumming inside. "I'm cumming!"

Both bodies became close, leaving no gaps between them as Andrea came inside. Yasenia captured the tall woman's mouth, and her legs locked Andrea's legs, not allowing her to move from the deeply pierced position. In this way, Andrea's moan was devoured by the dragoness.

The penis inside Yasenia twitched and released the white nectar, making Yasenia's uterus squeeze with delight.

Andrea hummed pleasantly as she released inside Yasenia without any concerns. How she missed cumming inside her dearest. How she missed the feeling of releasing her load in her deepest parts. How she missed Yasenia's neediness for her.

After she stopped cumming, she freed her mouth and looked at the dragoness's countenance. Her sweaty skin shone in the clear moonlight, giving her a silvery sheen. The half-closed eyes, looking at her with boundless love, filled her heart with fuzzy feelings. Then, the arms and legs locking her in place and the tail wags hitting her leg made her soul flutter with feelings of love.

To be honest, Andrea had been scared. She had been scared that Yasenia would have become less dependent on her after all those years. That she would have outgrown that coquettish attitude toward her in a place where her eyes couldn't reach.

However, their session made Andrea's love for Yasenia break the limit and go beyond.

Even after the Trial, her dear dragoness still maintained the same feelings.

Although sex wasn't all, it was a big part of a relationship. It was the time when they bonded deeply and when Yasenias showed her true self to all of them. It was something they could feel.

Whenever Yasenias made love to them, her heart was like an open book they could read. Her soul opened for them to investigate.

This time it wasn't different, and this made Andrea emotional. Andrea felt Yasenias's hand on her cheeks and then heard her ask. "Why are you crying, my love?"

Andrea blinked and touched her cheek, realizing that she was indeed crying in relief. She laughed aloud and kissed Yasenias's lips, cheeks, and eyelids. "I'm so happy, my love. So happy that you managed to maintain yourself after that Trial. In truth, I was scared. Scared that you would have changed in ways that would make you unrecognizable for us."

Yasenias was momentarily surprised, but then her heart softened in a puddle. She coiled her everything around Andrea and returned her soft kisses, "I love you too much, darling. I hope you remember that no matter what happens to me, I will always be your little wife. A pampered little wife that wants your support."

Andrea tightened her embrace around the soft body surrounding her. Her lips raised in an uncontrollable happy smile, "I love you. Yasenias. With all my heart and my soul."

They looked into each other eyes and then kissed slowly and deeply, allowing their feelings to seep inside them, creating a bond that would likely last forever.

As if their thoughts were in sync. Their waist moved at the same time. Their connected genitals began rubbing each other again, and their session restarted. However, something was different.

After liberating their feelings, they could feel each other love much clearer. Andrea excitedly pounded the dragoness, and Yasenias moaned with happiness.

After just five minutes, Andrea and Yasenias climaxed at the same time.

"I'm cumming!"

"Get filled more, my love!"

Yasenias's back arched, emphasizing those big breasts even more, and she screamed aloud. Her penis shot rope after rope of cum, staining their stomach area and breasts.

Andrea lowered her head and caught one of those breasts, biting the nipple and making it squirt. Her buttcheeks tensed each time a rope of cum shot as if trying to jet that cum the deepest she could.

Their orgasm was long.

After it ended, both their bodies were covered in Yasenias's fluids. Andrea's arousal grew as she felt her thick, hot cum rub between their bodies. "Now it's time for the other hole, my love."

Andrea took out her dick, and cum spilled from the hole. Then, she turned the dragoness, laying her face down, and spread open her full buttcheeks, revealing the pink anus between them.

The long tail moved to the side, allowing Andrea to do as she wanted without it bothering her. The almost instinctual movement of the tail made blood rush to her head, and she began pushing against the hole.

Laying Yasenia that way made an extremely arousing scenery because her breasts spilled from the sides clearly. The figure of the naked dragoness lying down was nothing but stimulating.

Andrea leaned forward as her penis head opened her buttock, and she kissed Yasenia's back. "You are so beautiful, my love."

Then, as Yasenia's heart skipped a beat because of the compliment, Andrea pushed forward, opening the hole and piercing inside. "Mmm~."

The dragoness tightened because of stimulation, squeezing the inserted member and making Andrea grunt in pleasure.

Then, she slowly began moving her waist up and down. The hole was smeared with Andrea's cum after it leaked from Yasenia's pussy, so Andrea was slowly lubricating everything with her own cum.

Moreover, the dick was smeared in various liquids, so it was also slippery.

Each time Andrea thrust downward, her penis penetrated deeper. This continued until Andrea could finally slam onto the jiggly butt.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

The sounds of flesh hitting together spread once again in the room as Andrea fucked Yasenia from behind.

For five minutes, Andrea went at it as if she was entranced. She kissed the dragoness's back, nape, and spine without stopping her waist, finally reaching another orgasm. "Ugh!"

Andrea came before Yasenia and hugged her from behind as she released one more time inside Yasenia. The tail was moved to the side, not bothering them in the slightest.

Yasenia was close, so it was time to let Andrea also feel like a woman. Yasenia moved her tail, and while being hugged from behind by the tall Andrea, she touched Andrea's anus.

Then, as Andrea came, Yasenia pierced forward. The feeling of being penetrated while cumming extended Andrea's orgasm. "Oh!"

Yasenia's tail slid in and out easily, making both moans in pleasure. When Andrea finished cumming, Yasenia looked back at her. Taking her cue, she leaned forward and captured Yasenia's lips one more time.

This was like a trigger, and Yasenia also reached her next orgasm, cumming through her tail. Andrea received her first load through her butt as the deeply pierced tail pushed deeper, wanting to smear her insides as deep as possible.

The electrifying feeling of Yasenia's potent Yang energy spread through her meridians, making her pussy squirt a little. "Uhh, your cum feels so good inside, my love."

Yasenia said, her voice dripping with lewdness, "Now it is time to receive my rod, darling."

Andrea chuckled lowly, "I can't wait." Then, without giving Yasenia a chance to move, she turned her around and placed her legs to her sides.

Yasenia thought that Andrea wanted to do the mating-press position. However, her eyes almost rolled up after she felt her dick piercing the pussy she wanted to mess up so badly.

Using the mating press position as a standard, Andrea took Yasenia's dick and pierced herself, riding her up and down.

She was basically fucking herself, moving back and forth, up and down. Yasenia and Andrea moaned simultaneously, "OH, YES!"

Andrea's vaginal depth was short, so it was extremely easy to pierce the cervix for the well-endowed dragoness. This time, Andrea did it to herself, and the feeling of that large penis opening her forcefully was divine. "You are so big!"

Without a care in the world, Andrea fucked herself in Yasenia's meat pole. Yasenia was completely dominated by the woman, becoming completely submissive. Her tail didn't lose a second to lodge deeply into the cum-leaking anus and stimulate herself further.

The sight was erotic as Andrea's dick bounced up and down in front of Yasenia's eyes while Andrea jumped on her dick with an ecstasy-filled face. It didn't take long for Yasenia to cum, and her orgasm to trigger Andrea's.

The vagina was filled with the dragoness's seed, and Andrea spurted her cum all over Yasenia.

Andrea let Yasenia's legs free and fell on top of her without taking out the large penis or tail. Yasenia instantly hugged Andrea and licked her neck lovingly. Her growl in her voice was deep and seductive, "I loved that position~. You have to milk me more like that."

Andrea rubbed her cheek on the nuzzling head and whispered softly. "Of course, my love."

Their session continued until Andrea couldn't go on. Yasenia was surprisingly tired. Her three hours of sex with Cecile and now almost four hours with her dears were taking a toll on the dragoness's stamina..'

Andrea didn't even faint but was half-asleep after so much sex.

As Yasenia cleaned Andrea's body, her eyes shone with delight and love. 'Compared to those in the Trial, my dears are basically a succubus. They are sucking me dry~.'

She had basically conditioned them herself, so it wasn't a surprise that their sexual stamina was much higher than normal. Moreover, their strength increase also increased their sexual strength.

Andrea observed Yasenia and said, her voice groggy, "You don't have to do this, my love."

Yasenia playfully raised Andrea's waist and glomped the flaccid dick, playing with it with her tongue. As she did that, she answered. "But I want to~. Can't I do that?"

Andrea had zero energy, so the member stayed flaccid. Moreover, instead of stimulating, the way Yasenia was playing with it was comfortable. Her eyes closed as she muttered, "Of course... You can... I was just..."

Andrea didn't finish her sentence. However, Yasenia knew what she wanted to say.

"Don't worry. I will never get tired of taking care of all of you. Even after so long, I still feel that this is my favorite part of the night. Bathing my tired dears." She gave one last lovely kiss to the penis head and then properly cleaned Andrea's body.

Andrea's lips raised because she heard Yasenia's comment and leaned on the body that sat beside her. Then, she completely fell asleep, cradled in Yasenia's lovely and tender embrace.

After Yaseenia carried Andrea to the bed, she stretched her body and walked toward Cecile's room. Her lips raised in a satisfied smile. 'One last room~. Time flies when I do things with them. fufufu~.'

Chapter 316: Peaceful, Intimate moment between a Phoenix and a Dragon.

After Yaseenia carried Andrea to the bed, she stretched her body and walked toward Cecile's room. Her lips raised in a satisfied smile. 'One last room~. Time flies when I do things with them. fufufu~'

When Yaseenia reached Cecile's room, the Phoenix was reading a book. She was leaning on the headboard, and there was a flame beside her illuminating the room dimly. The window on the other side spilled moonlight on her other side.

The view of the silver-winged female reading calmly under the Moon was peaceful and beautiful.

This scene was like a deja-vu.

Since Yaseenia normally left Cecile for last, this scene wasn't strange. Yaseenia approached, still naked, and sat beside Cecile.

Cecile opened her arm and wing, letting Yaseenia cuddle with her. Yaseenia didn't do anything strange and just leaned inside her lover's embrace. Her head rested on her shoulder, and Cecile used her arm and wing to surround her naked mate and secure her.

Even then, there was no sexual tension. The feeling they gave was harmonic and peaceful.

Cecile kissed Yaseenia's forehead and started to read aloud. Yaseenia hugged Cecile's waist and listened attentively.

"There was once a human that gained everything."

"He was talented, passionate, and attractive to both genders."

"He used his natural advantages to build a town. Then, as his strength increased, his town transformed."

"First, a city. Then, a kingdom. Finally, an Empire."

Cecile's voice was relaxing and soothing. Like an ethereal whisper that lulled people to sleep. Yaseenia's body relaxed as she leaned deeper inside Cecile's soothing embrace.

"He built a family, a country, a reputation, and everyone revered him as the strongest."

"However, nothing last forever. Even if his Empire was the strongest and his strength was unmatched, he also had plenty of enemies who grew daily in the shadows."

"If one can reach such strength, others also would eventually be able to."

"Once such foes appeared, the relentless attacks weakened the Empire. The people he trusted, afraid of getting killed, betrayed him. Finally, even a part of his large family abandoned or betrayed him."

"In the end. Everything he built was razed to the ground, and his life was lost in battle. The people he held dear and stayed with him until the end followed shortly after."

"The End."

Yasenia saw Cecile turn the page. There was another story there. Yasenia asked, "What is this book about?"

Cecile said softly, "This book is a compilation of short stories."

Yasenia looked at Cecile, leaning her naked body over hers, and asked. "Are you afraid I will follow that man's steps?"

Cecile secured the dragoness with her arm and looked at her. Even with all Yasenia's parts touching her, her heart could remain calm. Cecile kissed Yasenia's nose and answered. "Yes. I don't know how much your thoughts have changed over the years. I understand and feel that you've slowly rediscovered yourself in how you feel about us, and your current feelings for us are even deeper than before. However, what are your ambitions?"

Yasenia kissed Cecile's chin slowly as she thought about it. After kissing her two times, she said, "I want to create a space where we can safely grow our family."

Cecile looked into Yasenia's eyes and said, "That's difficult, my love."

Yasenia looked mesmerized at that pair of phoenix eyes and asked. "What do you think we should do?"

Cecile kissed Yasenia's lips softly once, making Yasenia close her eyes in comfort while it lasted. "How about, instead of creating it, we blend into a place where we can create a safe space and grow our family."

Yasenia blinked and then understood. Yasenia laughed and asked, "Since when did you think about those things? That's a really good idea."

Cecile smiled, making her peerless facial features even more beautiful, and said. "Since a certain person opened my eyes. I was too ignorant and short-sighted before."

Yasenia really liked this change.

She moved and placed a leg on top of Cecile. Her voluptuous naked body and other things touched the Phoenix. "I'm glad. That's a good change."

Cecile made her garments disappear, allowing their naked bodies to touch together. However, none of them moved further.

Yasenia leaned her face in Cecile's neck and licked her softly. Her penis wasn't even erect as it rested on Cecile's thigh.

Their breast touched, and Cecile's arm circled Yasenia's waist.

Cecile sighed in comfort as their skin touched together, and she nuzzled her face with Yasenia's.

Then, Cecile opened another book with her free hand and began to read for the two of them while receiving Yasenia's touches and lovely caresses.

The Phoenix's beautiful voice spread in the room, giving the ambient a nice touch. Yasenia felt her soul relax as she heard Cecile's voice, and their bodies practically melded into one.

Cecile would, from time to time, turn her head and kiss Yasenia. Yasenia left her body in Cecile's care, giving her lovely caresses, kisses, and licks, and received Cecile's kisses whenever she gave them to her.

Their interaction was lovely and peaceful.

Even if they were naked, it wasn't necessary to have intercourse. Hugging each other close and feeling each other presence was enough for them.

Under Cecile's voice and care, the tired dragoness's eyes slowly closed, and her eyelids grew heavier. She wanted to remain awake, but the soft pats on her waist and the tender kisses she received from her mate softened every bone inside her.

In truth, Yasenia had avoided sleeping inside the Trial all she could because she feared that someone would attack her in her sleep.

She had almost forgotten the feeling of safety her lovers gave her.

Now, even in her most vulnerable state, Yasenia could relax her guard.

After reading for twenty minutes, Cecile felt the woman between her arms softening even further. She felt like she was holding a boneless woman.

Cecile lowered her gaze and looked at her beloved.

Yasenia had her eyes closed, and her breathing was even. Her arms hugged her loosely, and the long tail behind her was limp. The long leg on top of hers rested its whole weight, the same as the rest of the body. As if she was leaving her everything to her.

The Phoenix smiled tenderly, her icy blue eyes filled with boundless love.

Here, completely naked and between her arms, her dear dragoness had fallen asleep. Her facial features had completely relaxed, and her breathing was even.

Under the moonlight and dim candleglow, Yasenia's sleeping face was gentle and peaceful. Her straight eyebrows softly curved, her tempting mouth was slightly opened, and her features had softened.

How good that felt? How fulfilling was having Yasenia fall asleep in her embrace?

Cecile felt as if she had drunk a jar of honey. It was as if Yasenia's every action after reuniting with them confirmed further that, even after twenty long years of separation, their dearest dragoness still loved them dearly.

Cecile stored her book inside her ring and hugged her lover with both her arms. Then, she whispered with a lovely tone that no one other than Yasenia would ever hear from the cold and indifferent Moon Phoenix.

"My mate. My beautiful mate. It has been hard, right? Don't worry. We are here for you now. With us, you can relax. Sleep, my love. You've already made enough today."

Then, she softly kissed Yasenia's lips. "I love you, my love. Rest well." Yasenia heard Cecile's voice and moved closer to her in her sleep.

Cecile didn't move and stayed in that position for almost half an hour, observing Yasenia sleep. With their naked bodies touching as they were, Cecile felt fulfilled and complete.

Although she still didn't have enough of cuddling with the sleeping Yasenia, she wanted everyone to wake up beside her. Therefore, she decided to carry Yasenia toward the other bedroom.

First, Cecile used her three phoenix tails to lift Yasenia's long and heavy tail and avoid dragging it across the floor. Then, she lifted her between her arms horizontally and carried her toward the other bedroom.

Using her energy to open and close doors, Cecile had no difficulties carrying Yasenia across rooms. When she reached the room, she saw Angel positioned in the middle, Kali and Evelyn to her sides, and Andrea beside Evelyn.

Cecile was reluctant to be separated from the soft body between her arms, so she decided to be a little selfish and steal Angel's place this night.

She placed Yasenia between Angel and Evelyn. Then, she laid on top of Yasenia, using her as a mattress. And spread her wings to cover the other four with them. Then, using energy, she moved the bedsheets on top of them.

With Yasenia's body below her and using her breasts as a pillow, Cecile closed her eyes and happily welcomed sleep. Her nostrils filled with the calming, sweet, floral scent, and her head sunk into the malleable big breasts. 'Sigh, lying on top of her is satisfying. Especially skin to skin as we are.'

And with that thought, the Phoenix also fell asleep.

The night went by without problems, and the first rays of daylight entered through the window at the side.

The first person to wake up was Evelyn. She opened her eyes slowly, her waist still aching from yesterday night. After remembering how wild she went, a satisfied smile appeared on her face. 'That was crazy good. I really missed the feeling of waking up with Yasenia's comfortable, warm Yang energy nourishing my meridians.'

She looked to her sides and saw Andrea and Yasenia beside her. She felt the sheets a little heavier than normal, but the refreshing and cool scent was very nice. 'What kind of bedsheets are these?'

Everything made sense after seeing Cecile lying on top of Yasenia and her wings covering them like a blanket. 'Oh, that's why. I can perfectly see Yasenia's naked breasts as soon as I wake up. What a perfect morning.'

Without anything to do, she waited for Yasenia to wake up as her eyes roamed not only the two pieces of flesh she loved so much but also her attractive sleeping face.

The next person waking up was Andrea. She looked at the ceiling for a second and then softly chuckled, 'Finally, I'm back with her. I've truly missed her.'

Then, she searched for Yasenia and saw that she was quite far from her. Even if only Evelyn was beside her, unlike other times, Yasenia wasn't hugging Evelyn close. 'What a shame; I wanted to cuddle her.' She then heard Evelyn whisper, "Good Morning, Andrea."

Her gaze moved from Yasenia's sleeping face, and she saw Evelyn looking at her with her violet eyes. Andrea kissed her forehead and said, her voice deep from having just woken up, "Good morning, Evelyn."

Evelyn smiled and snuggled closer to Andrea, "How was yesterday night? I, myself, went totally crazy on her."

Andrea put an arm over Evelyn and smirked, "I think we all did. Yasenia's body is truly like a drug. I don't think I will be able to quit in my entire life."

Evelyn nodded, fully agreeing with the sentiment. Even if there wasn't a real addiction occurring, the emotions, sex, and Yang energy were so great that they basically worked as one.

The next person to wake up was Cecile. She opened her icy blue eyes slowly and saw Yasenia's tender flesh first in the morning. Her scent directly entered her lungs as soon as she took in a deep breath and stretched.

Cecile stretched, her silver wings extending even further, stretching all her back muscles. She even rubbed her face on the malleable breasts below her head, sinking in the delight of Yasenia's soft body. This big movement caught Andrea's and Evelyn's attention.

However, the Phoenix was too occupied feeling Yasenia's body because morning made a certain part of Yasenia rock-hard, the opposite of the rest of the body. Moreover, that part was pressing on her privates.

However, like the previous night, Cecile didn't become aroused and just relished in the comfortable feeling of the dragoness's seductive body.

Only after Cecile's wings stretched did they realize that Cecile was actually naked.

The rare sight of Cecile's perfect, naked body made both of them dazed.

It wasn't that her seductiveness was high. On the contrary, Cecile's figure had an aesthetic beauty that caught the eye. Her body gave the impression of something ethereal, pure, and elegant. A relic that shouldn't be tainted by mortal dust. Beautiful as the reflection of the Moon and the night sky in a lake.

Evelyn muttered with awe. "Fuck me; she is beautiful."

Andrea nodded, "The opposite attractiveness Yasenia gives, but not weaker in the slightest."

Cecile heard them and turned to look at them.

With her head resting on the big breast, her lips raised in a simple smile as she said, "Thanks."

That day, Andrea and Evelyn learned that Cecile's morning smile was bad for the heart.

Chapter 317: Yasenia's surprise.

After being stunned for a good second by Cecile's expression, their mutters actually woke up Yasenia. They saw her opening her eyes, a sharp glint flashing through her eyes for an instant.

The small threatening aura awoke Kali and Angel up, their instincts kicking in. Yasenia looked down, her irises thinning. The gaze was truly penetrating and imposing, making them even stop breathing for a second. However, when the dragoness was about to open her mouth, they saw her freeze, looking at Cecile stupidly.

They all blinked, confused, and waited for Yasenia to speak or something. Angel, who had been startled awake, asked. "What's wrong, Yasenia? Is there an enemy nearby?"

Yasenia leaned on the pillow and looked at the ceiling with a sigh. She hugged Cecile closely and looked at Angel. "Sorry, for a second, I thought you all were other people. I didn't know where I was after waking up."

Kali asked curiously, "Did you think that it was still the Trial?"

Yasenia chuckled and nodded, "Yeah. I prohibited them from intruding on my room at night unless something important happened, so I was about to scold you all."

Cecile mischievously moved her waist, rubbing you-know-what together, and said with a straight face. "You were really scary. I'm terrified."

They looked at Cecile's deadpan face and couldn't help but think that she was really cute at the moment. Yasenia's eyes became deeper and whispered. "Oh~. What should I do to gain your forgiveness, my love?"

Cecile crawled up Yasenia's body, making their two naked bodies rub together, and she approached her mouth to Yasenia's ear. "Maybe, give us some kind of reassurance?"

And well, this triggered the recently awakened dragoness. She carried each of them to one room, one after another, and she proceeded to reenact the previous night's action, including Cecile in her pierce-and-fill attack this time.

After three and a half hours went by, they all were in the common room of the place they were staying. The spectators had strange faces as they saw four out of the six people sit strangely, sometimes rubbing their waists.

However, half of the people present almost spat their food when they heard the electric-blue-haired girl speak, "Yasenia, you are too much in the morning. Can you fuck me a little more gently? My waist hurts!"

Ignoring the room filled with coughs of people choking on their food or drinks, Evelyn continued. "Moreover, I have to consciously close my pussy, or your cum will leak!"

COUGH! COUGH! COUGH!

Well, to say that the place was livelier would be wrong because some may have died choking on their food.

Anyway, the cute, saintly, blonde, blushing, big-breasted girl's answer was like the nail in the coffin. "E-Evelyn is right, Yasenia. Even though I haven't eaten, I feel full..."

"Wake up, brother. You must live on!"

"I can't... How can such an unfair lucky bastard exist."

"But brother, look at her! There is no way of competing." Wrong choice of words. This only made it worse.

"Fuck me... She is fucking gorgeous... Tell my wife... I love her."

"NOOO! Brother, hold in there!"

The person at the side shook his head seriously, "We've lost him. The dragoness's beauty was too much for his heart."

"Medic, please! Now that he is dead, help my cute-girl-loving sister! She is dying out of heart-bleed!"

The woman between her arms spat blood and said, "How could she defile such an adorable girl... My heart! It hurts too much!"

Yasenia looked at Angel and Evelyn with a smirk, ignoring the shouts for medics in the surroundings. "I'm sorry, dears. I was just too excited."

Kali waved her two tails and spread a healing mist. Then, she commented, "Yasenia, those mortals almost died."

Yasenia blinked and looked to the side, "Oh... They didn't. Don't worry. It was just acting. Can't you hear those dramatic shouts and absurd reasons for dying?"

Kali looked at Yasenia weirdly for a second, but she decided to keep to herself that they almost really died. She stuttered and answered. "Y-You are right. How silly of me!"

Andrea laughed aloud, finding the whole situation too funny. Even Cecile smirked. Evelyn placed her hand on her hand, "So, what will we do today? Will we stay for a long time in the town?"

Yasenia shook her head, "I don't think so. I still have the 200,000 Trial points, so I wanted to do some laps so that you girls can buy something."

They nodded and continued their breakfast while speaking about trivial things.

Then, they stood up and walked outside, leaving behind a messy hall.

Without anything interesting happening, they visited some shops, bought some interesting things, and even participated in some Monoliths out of curiosity. After trying the first one, Cecile, Andrea, and Evelyn were impressed. Evelyn exclaimed, "Wow. It feels completely real. No wonder you were confused."

Andrea blinked and asked Evelyn, "Evelyn, did your Thunder Soul try to swallow the Trial Points? My [Star Born Searing Flame] consumed half of them before I managed to stop it."

Evelyn smirked, "Ha! You are such a loser~. My [Storm Roaring Thunder] did try to devour it, but I managed to stop it when it only consumed a quarter~."

Andrea lifted an eyebrow and teased, "Doesn't that mean my Heaven-born flame is more powerful than your Thunder Soul? It could absorb more in a smaller time frame."

Evelyn blinked twice, stumped. "Can you stop being so clever?" Andrea ruffled Evelyn's head while laughing, making Evelyn also smile.

Yasenia said with an apologetic tone, "Sorry, I forgot to tell you that Natural Treasures do like that energy."

They waved their hands, dismissing her concerns. Cecile asked, "How much did yours consume, Yasenia?"

It was Cecile's gift, so she hoped that it absorbed everything. Yasenia smiled, "The [Celestial Pearl] is very obedient, so it didn't touch the Trial Points."

Well, although it wasn't the answer she wanted, Cecile felt happy. Evelyn asked, "Did you feed it points before, Yasenia?"

The dragoness guided the group toward another spot and answered. "No. I'm saving that consumable energy. Who knows if it will become useful in the future? Moreover, with the item I got from the Trial, I very much think that it will come in handy shortly."

Valeria asked Kali to summon her, so she did. After appearing, Valeria looked at Yaseia and said, "Yaseia, you should avoid using One-hundred-thousand of those points."

Yaseia looked up at her and tilted her head, "Why do you say that?"

Valeria got thoughtful. This time, Mirrory appeared and looked at Valeria, "Let the children find the solution to their problems. In my memory, the crazy mother of the lizard didn't tell her the solution. We should allow her to think things further unless it is a life and death matter."

Valeria looked at the red-hair avatar and nodded, "Well, you are right. However..." Valeria looked toward the outside of the town and muttered, "That time may not be far away."

Mirrory also looked outside and nodded, "You are right. But let things take their natural course. Aren't you the Nature Spirit Queen? Do what you have to do."

Mirrory then disappeared inside Angel with a single comment. "You know what happened when you didn't adhere to it."

Valeria's eyes flashed with pain for a second, but then she sighed. "You are right. I was too hasty." Kali hugged Valeria's leg and worriedly asked, "Why are you sad, Valeria? Can I do something about it?"

Valeria leaned down, making Evelyn's eyes bounce up and down as those massive green mountains bounced, and she picked Kali up. Then, she kissed her forehead and reassured her, "Don't worry, Kali. Everything is okay. Can I walk as I carry you around?"

Kali hugged the tall lady's body and nodded with a smile, "Yes! Your embrace is very comfortable~."

Evelyn commented, "I bet. You are practically resting on that giant pair of tits."

Yaseia's tail flashed and hit Evelyn's forehead before she could react, sending her into a spinning spree. Yaseia blinked, confused, and looked at her tail.

Evelyn landed on her feet as if nothing had happened and crossed her arms. She sighed and looked toward the horizon, "The tail-slapping Dao is timeless. No matter if you forget about it, it will return."

Yaseia almost tripped. However, she knew better than to answer when Evelyn was serious. Sierra was walking behind her and looked at her master, speechless.

She had been learning proper common sense under Evelyn's teachings, so she understood how peculiar Evelyn's wording and attitude were.

Of course, the reason Evelyn taught her properly was to receive more weird eyes and reactions.

Leaving aside the reawakening of Yaseia's tail-slapping Dao, the day went uneventful. Following Valeria's advice, Yaseia used her points sparingly, maintaining the 100,000 Point threshold.

The next two days in the town were also without problems. However, the following day, they finally got bothered.

After eating in a restaurant, Yasenia and the others spotted a group of Demons and Humans walking toward them.

They were at least twenty. A female demon and a human male guided the rest. Moreover, the man was inside the Unification Realm, and the female was a Demon Count. Unlike previously beautiful female Demons they encountered, this one was from the gorefiend demon race, which had vertical mouths and long, slender limbs.

Valeria was unsummoned, and only our girls, Sierra, and Ebirah, were in front of them. In real-time, Cecile and the others felt Yasenia's warm and cozy aura that surrounded them take a turn and become freezing and threatening. Her face had changed into an unemotional expression, and her pupils thinned.

This was the demeanor that almost awakened that morning three days ago. Even they, who knew Yasenia would never hurt them, felt a chill up their spines.

The gorefiend demon and human male stopped for a second but continued walking forward after recovering. When they were only twenty meters apart, a distance close enough for those in their realm, Yasenia ordered. "Speak. However, choose carefully. I don't want my happy morning to be accompanied by corpses."

The female gorefiend's unpleasant voice escaped its throat when that vertical mouth moved. "Hahaha~, you seem cockier after you gained that treasure, future breeder~."

Cecile and the others were about to look menacingly at her, but they saw Yasenia taking out her giant blue sword, [Draconic Heart]. Then, they heard Yasenia spat a sentence, "What a shame. [Celestial Dress]."

The next instant, Yasenia disappeared and appeared before the gore-fiend. She was a head taller and was swinging the sword vertically with both her hands. The presence she gave was extremely oppressive.

However, a Demon Count was not something to underestimate.

Yasenia currently wasn't in her [Day and Night] form, so her strength was much lower than when she fought against Fu Jing Jing.

She reacted by swinging her long right arm at the sword, a demonic sword already equipped on it. Then, as Yasenia's sword fell downward, she chanted, "[Sunrise]."

Their swords collided, strength similar, and none of them moved. The female demon's mouth opened like flaps, showing three rows of terrifying sharp teeth.

However, Yasenia had chanted "Sunrise," not "Sunset."

After the demon opened her mouth, she spat a mouthful of blood. She blinked, surprised, and looked down at the place where she felt burning pain.

Yasenia's tail had pierced her tough skin and was deeply lodged inside her body!

Instantly, she flapped her five pairs of wings and flew backward.

Yasenia sneered. "Where are you going? Come back here!"

She lifted her tail's scales and changed the tail into the barbed spear form. Then, her powerful tail muscles coordinated and pulled the demoness toward her.

The demoness felt countless needles pierce her insides, and then a force powerful enough for her to feel weightless for a second threw her toward the dragoness.

Yasenia clenched her fist, and after taking a step forward, she punched her torso.

BANG!

With the sound of an exploding bomb, a visible shockwave spread when Yasenia's fist landed on the demoness's chest.

Another stream of blood left the demoness's mouth as she felt all her internal organs shaking at Yasenia's monstrous bodily strength. The punch felt worse than a war hammer landing in the same spot!

The counterforce generated by Yasenia's tail's pull and punch was enough to brutally withdraw her pierced tail from her abdomen. However, you have to remember that Yasenia's tail was still in barbed form. Therefore, while leaving, it also took plenty of flesh and organs it impaled on its way out.

"AH!!!" With an ear-drum-piercing scream, the demoness's body spewed blood and flesh as it rolled through the ground.

Yasenia looked at the side toward the Unification realm male and saw that he was completely immobilized. His limbs were tied by powerful roots, his feet frozen to the ground with silver ice, and a spear was touching his throat, cracking with terrifying blue and black lighting.

The rest of the group had been captured inside a glass dome she didn't even realize had appeared, and their attacks couldn't even scratch it.

Moreover, when she looked back at the demoness, she saw Andrea grabbing the gorefiend's head and dragging her toward her. When did Andrea appear beside the demoness? Yasenia was clueless.

That arm and part of Andrea's side were covered in magma-like armor, scorching the flesh of the demon as she grabbed her.

The demoness retaliated and attacked Andrea. However, those hits didn't even dent Andrea's magma armor, leaving only the sound of her struggle, pain-filled screeches, and sizzling skin.

The dragoness couldn't help but blink twice, completely stunned. 'Aren't they stronger than me? When did I become the weakest in the group?'

Chapter 318: One Week inside Lost Town and preparing to leave!

The dragoness couldn't help but blink twice, completely stunned. 'Aren't they stronger than me? When did I become the weakest in the group?'

Andrea approached Yasenia and asked calmly, "So, what do you want to do with them?"

Yasenia looked at Andrea, holding the demon that could resist her blows quite decently with one arm, and her tail wagged. She leaned on Andrea's unarmored part, ignoring the heat, and said coquettishly, "Darling~, you are so powerful!"

Andrea didn't expect a wild dragoness to throw herself in her embrace, so she was first scared the high temperature around her would hurt her. However, then she remembered that Yasenia had the Sun attribute and relaxed.

She used her free hand to hug Yasenia's waist and laughed, "Impressed? How about a reward at night~."

Yasenia licked Andrea's neck and purred in her ear, ignoring the screaming demoness completely. "I will do whatever you want, darling~."

Cecile approached, waiting for Yasenia's instructions. Yasenia looked at the demoness and said, "Kill them all. They already came intending to antagonize me; killing them is of no consequence."

The twenty individual's eye's opened, not expecting this result. They were about to plead, but Andrea clenched her hand, Evelyn decapitated the man, and Angel rained lasers inside the glass dome.

In an instant, twenty people lost their lives.

The spectators who thought it would be an intense battle were stunned when it ended in less than a minute. They gathered the twenty spatial rings and looked over them. Evelyn smirked and said, "Look! This man has a high-level cultivation technique. It is at least Transcendent-level. It may even be in the next rank... Which rank is the next after Transcendent?"

They looked over curiously but saw that it was for darkness attribute cultivators. So they lost interest.

Andrea answered Evelyn's question, "I think it is the Supreme rank. I read it in a book I stealthily took from Master Irina."

Angel commented with sparkling eyes, "It sounds powerful! Supreme artifacts."

Yasenia and Andrea instantly caressed her head because she looked very cute. "Yes, my baby is right. It sounds super powerful."

"Of course, little Angel is going to be right. She is very cute, after all."

With the two tall women trapping her between them and pampering her, Angel's thoughts flew to another dimension and melted with a silly smile on her face.

Cecile said with palpable disdain. "The other rings don't have anything interesting. There are low-level Heaven-ranked treasures, but nothing we don't have. In all honesty, this can only be considered garbage; they didn't even have a single life-saving treasure."

The people listening in the surroundings spat blood. For them, a single low-level Heaven-ranked treasure was like hitting the jackpot. Evelyn asked, "What do you think they wanted?"

Yasenia answered, "I'm sure they wanted us to go outside the town."

They didn't understand. Angel looked up from Yasenia's embrace and asked, "Why do you think so, Yasenia?"

Yasenia kissed her forehead and said, "Well, look at it for yourself~."

Then, Angel felt her body weightless as she shot toward the sky. "Whoo~."

Yasenia laughed at Angel's shout. While she looked up, her tail coiled around her other dears one by one and also threw them upward.

Cecile didn't need that help and just flapped her silver wings to shoot into the sky.

Finally, Yasenia herself put strength in her legs and jumped after them. After her legs straightened, she shot upward with a sonic boom, catching up to the others easily.

After reaching a certain altitude above the Town's walls, Yasenia caught up to them.

Although cultivators in their realm couldn't fly, they could use different methods to maintain themselves airborne for a short time. Their strength was enough to create enough counterforce and "jump" in the air, allowing them to maintain their altitude.

Yasenia pointed toward the entrance of the Town. "Look, there is an army assembling. I'm sure it is to wait for us to go outside."

They all looked at the place Yasenia pointed, and indeed, there was a group of cultivators in wait. They had even built tents.

Kali asked, "How do you know they are there for us?"

Yasenia pointed at another point, "Focus in that tent." They followed her finger and used energy to increase their vision range.

To further amplify their vision, Cecile used her space attribute to create something like a lens by bending the space to make the light travel less distance.

These small tricks were something Tatyana and their maids taught them when training energy control.

Beside the tent, the place where Yasenia pointed, there was a handsome silver-haired man standing. He was waiting for someone, looking in the direction of the Town. Without knowing that they were there, no one in their right mind would look to the sky and spot them.

Evelyn smirked, "That's Gerd, right? I can understand why you said what you did."

Yasenia nodded, "Isn't that enough to guess who are they after?"

They all nodded and agreed. Kali commented, "Well, you are right. That man really hates you."

Yasenia shrugged. "Let's go down; he is unimportant, and we shouldn't be concerned. As long as we are inside the Town, they can't attack us in large numbers. The risk of killing a towns-person would be high, after all."

They let their bodies fall toward the ground, landing beside Sierra and Ebrahim shortly after. Ebrahim was still somewhat overwhelmed by Yasenia's bloodline level, so she asked shyly. "W-Why did you toss them up, Yasenia."

Yasenia smiled softly and caressed her shell, "Because there are bad people that want to do bad things to me waiting outside. I wanted to tell them about it."

Ebrahim's black vertical eyes spun in confusion, and she asked indignantly, "W-Why are people after you, Yasenia? You are such a noble beast. No one should even question whatever you say!"

Angel nodded, "You are right, Ebirah! It's just that these people are stupid and don't know how good Yasenia is."

Ebirah felt the closest to Angel right after Andrea, so she spoke less reservedly. "Right! If this princess could tell mom and dad, they would literally shed their shells in fear! Hmph, once I get to tell them, they will have to run!"

Angel blinked, "But humans don't have shells, Ebirah."

Ebirah asked, "They don't? Then what are the silver thing Andrea had before and the white thing you are wearing?"

Angel got thoughtful, "They are clothes, Ebirah. It is different from a shell."

Ebirah asked, confused. "How is it different? Doesn't they protect your soft bodies from attacks and other things?"

And so, a conversation about whether clothes and armor were the human's shell began between Ebirah and Angel.

Evelyn felt somewhat weird and asked, "Why is this conversation somewhat childish but also incredibly profound? And why is Angel able to become friends so easily with Ebirah?"

Kali laughed gently, "Maybe because both of them are child-like? They are very cute."

Sierra smiled and said, "Well, I can definitely understand Ebirah's feelings about Yasenia. I don't understand why humans target someone with a bloodline such as hers. Isn't it going to be a disaster if her parents learn about it? To sire and give birth to a powerful beast like you, your parents must be very powerful, Yasenia."

Yasenia smirked and said, "Actually, I don't have a father. My mother created me by herself."

Sierra blinked, "Is that even possible? I may have to have a word with your respected mother. Learning to self-reproduce is a great skill."

Yasenia nodded, "Sure. When we are outside, I will present you to her. However, don't get your hopes high, Sierra. The process is something very special; I don't think she would be able to recreate it herself."

"Oh. I will keep it in mind."

Without any more interruptions, our girls managed to complete the Trials to earn prizes.

Naturally, there were more groups that approached to tell them about Gerd waiting outside. However, none of them had a Unification Realm Cultivator. Therefore, they were swiftly killed by Andrea and the rest. Most of the time, Yasenia didn't even participate and let her dears protect her.

Their happy faces after successfully protecting her were like a layer of honey on her heart, really sweet.

They completed all the Monoliths once in one more week and earned a lot of rewards. Yasenia, Angel, and Kali also participated and gained a good chunk of Trial Points.

However, overcoming the Monoliths was secondary. Most of the time, they were just calmly walking around the Town, relishing in each other's presence. They all wanted to make Yasenia feel at home again, and they were doing a great job at it.

They knew that there was still a single desire inside their dear dragoness's heart, but it was something they could do nothing about. It was Yasenia's longing for Tatyana.

Nonetheless, Yasenia was not unhappy in the slightest. That little thing wouldn't ruin her fun time with her dears.

After this week and making some trips around the Town, all of them finally wore a full set of low and middle-level Heaven items. Moreover, their rings had been upgraded to a 100,000-cubic-meters one. They didn't sell anything in the Town of all the materials they gained. After a long talk, they decided to keep them to sell them outside and gain more permanent advantages.

In terms of equipment, not only their dresses and weapons but also each of them had an earring, shoes, inner clothing, and necklaces. All the items inside the Heaven rank. If it wasn't enough with their previous strength increase, now that even their shocks were a Heaven-ranked treasure, they were honestly monsters.

Another detail to add is that during this time, Yasenia had her fill of them and also filled them daily~.

The morning of the day when they decided to leave the Town, even though they were walking around normally, all of them felt somewhat weak in their legs.

Their cores were filled with liquid since they had morning action on top of the previous night.

The dragoness has been relentless at night, not stopping until they fainted, and this took a toll even in the Unification Realm girls. Of course, Yasenia was also completely drained each time because of their strength difference. However, forcing herself, she could take on all of them.

In the beginning, they thought it would be different since they were a big realm above Yasenia! However, Yasenia had enough stamina to make it happen... Every night.

Evelyn said, "My heavens, Yasenia. Could you not fill us so much? It will spill as I walk!"

Yasenia had a refreshed smile. This week had only increased her love for them as old feelings flooded her and new ones combined into a much more powerful bond.

After hearing Evelyn's comment, Yasenia hugged her from behind and touched her above that place, over the clothes. "Let it spill, dear. That way, they will know that you are mine~. There have been some greedy eyes around. If they see all of you dripping with my cum they will surely give up~."

They looked at the dragoness speechlessly.

Yasenia had somewhat returned to calling them by their pet names naturally. Although it was less frequent than before, they found it more refreshing to be called by their names from time to time.

Another change they saw was the maturity coming from her. Her seductive aura was even more lethal than before because of this since she lost some of the "young" vibes she had, attracting every gaze with her disposition and aura.

Although she was still basically a baby dragon in terms of age, which became apparent the second, she became spoiled. Her normal self was that of a mature woman.

Yasenia was forty-four years old, after all.

However, there was a bigger change than those mentioned above, and that was Yasenias possessiveness toward them.

It wasn't possessiveness in a bad way, as they could still do as they wanted, and Yasenias would let them. However, she was more aggressive than before toward people trying to court them.

The sentence she just said was one of many that clearly carried this possessiveness. There had been more than once when a person was blown away by Yasenias aura because they looked at them in the wrong way.

They didn't hate it at all.

Before, although they were glad that she was indifferent and didn't normally react, they also secretly wished that Yasenias cared a little more in that aspect.

After combining her previous self and her current one, the result was that they had fallen in love even deeper. Call them blind with love, but for them, their dear dragoness was perfect, before and now. It was just a different form of perfect.

Our girls found that they loved her as much, if not more, than before.

Moreover, what Yasenias did in the Trial didn't affect them in a bad way.

Now, they knew what happens when Yasenias doesn't have a stopper, so they also became more careful with who interacted with Yasenias. Just imagining more than five hundred women behind Yasenias gave them chills.

Yasenias suddenly asked, "We've gathered most of the things we can get here. Should we leave?"

They got thoughtful. Andrea asked, "What about the army outside?"

Yasenias shrugged. "We will always have the chance to retreat inside the Town. I don't believe they have a person more skilled in formations than my baby! Therefore, trapping us is impossible. Worst case scenario, I can blow them all apart with my life-saving treasures, or we can directly escape."

Yasenias laughed, "To be honest, we are quite safe. Moreover, with your strength, I would be surprised if there was anything that could challenge you."

They all felt good being praised by Yasenias.

Since no one was against it, they prepared to leave the Lost Town and welcome their final struggles inside the Secret Realm.

The resolution of the Secret Realm is close!

Chapter 319: Situation outside the Lost Town.

Our girls walked slowly down the street, slowly going toward the exit. Behind them, Sierra walked slowly; her enormous size was bigger than most buildings at eight meters tall and almost twenty meters in length. The snowy white fur and the blue rune on her forehead that meant "Queen" were even more prominent. However, the aura of a level-four beast was what made most heads turn.

In truth, although Yasenias and the others' appearance would catch most people's eye, Sierras presence was like a flag, telling everybody where they were.

Evelyn looked at Sierra and jokingly complained, "Sierra, if you keep growing, I will have trouble finding places for you inside towns and cities!"

Sierra snorted playfully, "Such a terrible master. She takes me in but doesn't even try to find me accommodation. Should I change owners?"

Evelyn said, speechless, "You are taking our language and terms very fast. Is it that easy to learn?"

Sierra looked at Evelyn gently and lowered her nose to nuzzle with Evelyn. "It is because you are a great teacher, Evelyn. Thank you for your efforts."

Evelyn smiled widely and hugged her nose, "Don't worry! I really like teaching you."

Sierra softly threw Evelyn up, making her land on top of her head. "Let me carry you. After all, there could be a battle as soon as we leave the town."

Evelyn took out her spear and smirked, "If there is a battle, let's cause havoc together, Sierra!"

Yellow lightning crackled through Sierra's fur, looking extremely imposing and affirming Evelyn's words.

The others also took out their weapons and armor. With each step, they equipped one thing after another. Their common clothes slowly changed to a full gear of Heaven-ranked armor or dresses.

The people looking at them opened their eyes wider with each second until they were fully geared.

Angel was wearing a holy white dress, her hair loose, and a big shield on her right arm that covered half her body. Her long blonde hair and aura made her look like a pure and angelic valkyrie. Her dress's waving together with the soft steps made it appear like Angel was walking on the clouds, harmonious and elegant.

Evelyn was dressed in purple-black garments, her silver-blue spear sparking as lightning went from the base to the tip in erratic paths. Her arrogant smirk spoke volumes of her self-confidence, and since she was mounting the giant Sierra, she was extremely imposing.

Andrea had a full silver armor that didn't cover her head, showing her long curly hair and heroic and beautiful face. She carried a heavy-looking red and black halberd in her hand. At her side, Ebrahim walked slowly. Andrea was clearly walking in a protective manner near her. She was like a tall knight, ready to war against hordes of enemies and protect those she held dear.

Kali had her green and golden dress floating gently, a wooden sword on her waist, and her two big fox tails swaying softly with the wind. With her veil covering her face, she looked mysterious and gentle, similar to a nature spirit.

Cecile, on the other hand, was like a one-thousand-year glacier. Her expression was devoid of emotion, and her ceremonial Phoenix dress flowed with the wind. The crystal blue bow on her hand reflected the light, and her platinum-silver long hair, pair of big wings, and three phoenix tails made the air around her freeze.

At the helm, Yasenia walked confidently in her revealing clothes. Her expression was calm and slanted on her back; the giant [Draconic Heart] made her figure attractive yet imposing. Her long tail swayed from side to side, making "S" shapes at the rhythm of her sashaying waist.

Unlike previously, her disposition was more steady but didn't lose in seductiveness, creating a maturely seductive yet serious poise. Lethal for all that laid their eyes on her.

Andrea and the other girls inside the Unification Realm lifted an eyebrow the moment they approached the exit.

Yasenia looked sideways at their expression and asked, "Is something wrong?"

Andrea chuckled, "We have company right outside the gates. There is a large group of cultivators."

Kali wondered, "Do you think there are more hidden?"

Evelyn smirked, "Probably? However, I thought they would ambush us. Who knew they wanted a frontal confrontation? Asking for death is a phrase that fits perfectly."

Angel commented with a cute tone, "They are hundreds... Did they underestimate Yasenia? They are going to be squashed if more don't come~."

Cecile coldly answered, "It doesn't matter. If they dare attack her, only their corpses shall remain."

Yasenia's eyes released a faint killing intent as her pupils thinned. "Let's see who is giving us such a wonderful greeting, shall we?"

Then, Yasenia led the group, and the eight of them stepped out calmly. The people at the gates made way, creating a circle around them to spectate whatever conflict was about to happen.

At the entrance of the town, a group of nearly seven hundred cultivators was waiting for them. Their levels varied, with extremely few in the Unification Realm. Although it had been almost two months since the Secret Realm had begun, advancing into the Unification Realm was extremely rare.

The nearly twenty kilometers around Lost Town had been emptied of tall trees. Clearly, they didn't want to give them a chance to escape using the forest surrounding Lost Town.

You have to remember that although Sierra was extremely big compared to the enormous trees in the forest, she was like a small pup before a giant tree. Losing people in the forest was extremely easy.

Yasenia could identify two groups since they weren't waiting in the same area. There were also some familiar faces in front of both groups.

One group was made of demons, humans, and a low amount of Human-beasts. Nevertheless, the non-demons in the group reeked of blood and malice, clearly demonic cultivators that had plenty of bad deeds in their record.

The other group had mainly humans, without a single demon, and a quarter of them were beast humans. This group looked more righteous on the exterior, but if someone looked closer, only vanity and arrogance would fill their ranks. In Yasenia's opinion, she wouldn't like to relate with either of the groups.

Yasenia stopped walking after they were a kilometer away from both groups. Their position made the edged of a triangle. Even then, because of Sierra's size, Yasenia's group didn't look at a disadvantage presence-wise.

The person leading the Demon-Human group was, incredibly, a human. However, she wasn't surprised once Yasenia saw who this human was. That silver hair was characteristic of this annoying cockroach.

Leading the other Human-Beast Human group was the Tang and Long family pair. For those who've forgotten their names, they were Long Baidi and Tang Xian.

Yasenia looked at the Silver-haired man and spoke aloud, using energy to carry her words easily across those distances. "Gerd! Such a long time since we saw each other. How is everything going? I don't know if I've missed you or not."

Of course, Yasenia wouldn't forget about someone who wanted to kill her and endangered her dears. However, after her experience inside the Trial, the number of people similar to Gerd that aimed for her life was so high that she classified Gerd as "one more."

The silver-haired handsome human male sneered. "Stop acting so confident, Yasenia. You are surrounded by eight-hundred cultivators. Do you really think you have a chance? I alone am enough to kill you, not to mention the army I have behind me!"

Yasenia raised her eyebrow and smirked. "Am I really 'acting' confident? You don't even know how high my strength is, and here you are, leading a crowd toward me. Who is the one acting confident? Aren't you ashamed of guiding so many people toward their deaths?"

Tang Xian said, her voice sounding gentle and merciful. "Yasenia, I understand that you are nervous, and you are saying those things to maintain your calm. However, if you give us what you gained in the underground hall, we will retreat from this fight. We are not savages that know no reason, after all."

Gerd's face darkened, "That wasn't the deal, Tang Xian!"

A person from Tang Xian's group shouted, "How dare you call the holy daughter by her name, scum!? Just a filthy demonic cultivator doesn't have the right to do so!"

Tang Xian lifted her hand, making her white dress wave beautifully and highlighting her ethereal aura. The gesture was so on point that Yasenia feared she had even practiced it!

"Don't be angry; we are just speaking. Anger is an emotion that leads to disaster."

The man that interrupted said with an infatuated expression, "Yes, Holy Daughter! I will adhere to your teachings!"

Evelyn muttered speechlessly, "Are they blind? Why are they so infatuated with her when Yasenia is infinitely more beautiful?"

Andrea lifted an eyebrow, "Infinitely more beautiful?"

Evelyn chuckled, "Well, a zero will be a zero no matter how many times you multiply it, right?" Andrea and Kali laughed aloud, and even Cecile cracked a smile.

Yasenia also smirked but continued listening attentively. Long Baidi ignored Gerd and said aloud with a righteous tone, "Yasenia, just giving a single item will allow you to leave here unscratched. Is your life more precious than a treasure? Are the lives of those you love more precious than a treasure? You should know what to do and not be selfish!"

This hoax would work if they weren't trying to steal something! However, the masses would be sheep, and because Long Baidi's superficial arguments weren't inherently wrong, they gave him enough credibility for those who refused to think deeper about the situation they were used in.

Some were even nodding as if Long Baidi was a wise man saying something profound.

Gerd looked at Yasenia and said sinisterly, "If you dare accept their offer, I swear I will find a way to capture one of your lovers and break them until only a husk is left!"

Yasenia's eyes moved toward him, but her heart remained as placid as a still lake. However, that kind of lake hid the terrors that lay beneath extremely well.

After looking at Gerd's angered face for ten seconds straight, without speaking a single word, her gaze left his face, and she observed both groups in detail.

Her eyes had been scanning each and every single one of them while they lost time conversing with each other. Now, she knew who were the strongest ones in each group.

'Not bad, there are nine Unification Realm experts in each group counting Gerd, Tang Xian, and Long Baidi. This makes a total of eighteen Unification Realm experts. Moreover, there are two of them in the second level. Those would be Tang Xian and Long Baidi.'

Yasenia's thoughts spun rapidly, 'Assuming the worst. There should be at least as many experts hiding as they are visible. That leaves us with a one-against-five scenario, not counting the masses that may participate. However, my influence on beast humans should be able to make those in the groups either betray their group or incapacitate them. [Dragon Authority] is very powerful toward those with a high-percentage beast bloodline.'

Yasenia deduced. 'Even then, although I don't know how much my dears have grown, it shouldn't be an easy fight, and accidents may happen. Being overconfident in a one-against-many scenario is just arrogance. I think we should find a way to retreat safely.'

Cecile suddenly spoke, "Why doubt us?"

Yasenia looked at her, and Cecile repeated, "Why do you doubt our strength?"

Yasenia looked deeply into Cecile's eyes, but she didn't answer. With Cecile, words were superfluous because their link could tell more than a thousand words with a single look. Cecile smiled softly and asked, "Do you think we are going to fall as those inside the Trial did?"

Yasenia wanted to deny it, but she couldn't. She sighed and said, "Yes. I could overcome my sadness at that moment, but if any of you died, I don't know what I would transform into. It scares me just thinking about it."

Andrea lifted her hand and rested it on Yasenia's head, softly caressing her. "Yasenia, you still haven't told us what happened the first time you lost someone close. However, a Heart Demon will be born if you continue avoiding it."

Yasenia looked up at Andrea and smiled wryly, "I know."

Then, she said jokingly, "I wouldn't be surprised if I already had one. Although I've managed to grow as a person, the journey was hard and bumpy."

Angel said in an uncharacteristic serious, "You don't have one."

Yasenia lifted an eyebrow, and her smile became genuine. "How do you know, baby?"

Mirrory appeared in her flamboyant red dress, her scarlet hair dancing beautifully, and said lightly. "She can tell because of her constitution, and I can tell because I'm me. Although your heart is certainly not perfect right now, your heart defenses are like an armored mountain against a mortal with a shovel. However, don't become overconfident. If you continue as you are, it is just a matter of time before the relentless heart demons make a hole in that armored mountain."

Chapter 320: My daughter, awaken!

The enemies were stunned when they saw Mirrory.

Since she was one of the strongest and most ancient Treasures, she gave off a terrifying aura. She was obviously weakened to a spec of what her previous self was because she needed her summoner as a catalyst to summon her power into the World.

When summoned to full power in the past, not even the Truth Saint, Fu Jing Jing, could bear the strain, and she exploded into particles.

In short, currently, the strongest wasn't Cecile or Andrea. It was, in fact, Angel.

However, the surprise didn't end with the feeling her aura gave to others.

Mirrory's humanoid form was perfected as much as it could be. Her surreal beauty was on par, if not superior, to Yasenias. Of course, there was a limit to physical attractiveness. Nonetheless, the aura and sense cultivators released enhanced their natural beauty further, reaching levels of attractiveness no mortal could ever hope to achieve. This ethereal beauty was evergrowing and possibly limitless.

If you combined the red-haired, green-eyed mature Angel and Mirrory's noble temperament, together with her otherworldly aura and red dress, you would end up with a mouthwatering fiery beauty that could make hearts pound with a single stare.

As her red hair waved in the wind, Mirrory looked at the group with her emerald-green eyes and scanned them. Yasenias and the others couldn't help but feel that their most secret parts were being gauged and evaluated.

Her gaze landed on Yasenias and stayed there for a long time. The stare was so deep that even their enemies fell silent, not knowing what was happening.

Then, surprising everyone one more time, Mirrory snorted with disdain and hid inside Angel again. However, she left a single sentence behind. "A mixed dragon scared of a bunch of trash, pathetic."

They all frowned, unable to understand her last comment. However, when they looked at Yasenias, they saw her frozen stiff, her eyes widening in what seemed realization.

Valeria asked Mirrory through a mental link, 'Didn't you say that we shouldn't help them?'

Mirrory snorted one more time, 'I was getting frustrated seeing her walk in circles. How could she not understand such a simple thing?'

Valeria chuckled, 'You say you hate her, but you like her quite a lot, right? She helped your previous master to be freed from Fate, after all.'

Mirrory answered with another snort, but she didn't say anything else.

Outside, the others were about to ask Yasenias what did Mirrory meant, but suddenly their dragoness burst into a loud and free laughter. "Hahahaha!"

Yasenias placed a hand on her eyes as she shook her head and continued laughing aloud. "I'm so stupid. Hahaha!"

Her abrupt laugh gathered everyone's attention.

It wasn't a normal laugh. It was a free laugh, a laugh that carried absolute confidence. A laugh of disdain toward herself and her enemies. A laugh that made fun of everything, including the Heavens.

Something as common as laughing was giving everyone such complex feelings that they didn't know what to think.

"Did she go mad?"

"Why is she laughing? Is the red-haired woman's comment so funny?"

"I don't know. Maybe, the stress of facing so many enemies got to her..."

However, even if the common cultivator couldn't feel it, Angel and the others were different. They felt a change.

At the exact moment Yasenias began laughing, they knew something had changed. It felt like something had fallen into place, as if a small yet resilient chain that was holding Yasenias broke, freeing her from any bindings to the World!

Every single one of them could feel it; something big was about to happen.

Yasenias stopped laughing and looked at the sky with a refreshed smile. "I see... So that's why I couldn't form a connection with the Celestial Attribute. That is why I couldn't use the tools... A mixed dragon... So stupidly simple, yet so hard to realize."

A visible, transparent pulse of energy expanded from Yasenias. It wasn't violent nor gentle, like a film that covered everything it touched. It made people feel as if they had fallen into the water. The reason?

Wherever that pulse of energy passed, the energy in that place stilled as if it had become under the control of something or someone.

RUMBLE!

Without warning, the sky darkened, and tribulation clouds began to gather. However, these clouds were extremely terrifying. Black as the deepest of abysses, rumbling with silver, golden, and white lightning that seemed to want to devour the World. All cultivators that looked at them were so scared that even if they wanted to flee, their legs were failing them.

However, Yasenias looked at the sky and smirked, "Somewhere inside my mind, I still considered myself a human. I still looked at myself from a human point of view. Even if I always said I was a dragon, I never really considered myself one."

"I'm not a human. However, I'm also currently not a dragon. I'm a mixed thing without a name." With that statement, the energy inside Yasenias's meridians invaded her veins and mixed with her blood.

This was not something a person should do because the pure energy that flowed through the meridians was damaging to the body. As a result, Yasenias's blood began to boil, giving her skin a reddish glow.

The sight was scary as if Yaseenia's body was afflicted with a terrible fever. Angel and the others became nervous, not knowing what was happening. Nonetheless, the fact that Mirrory and Valeria didn't show themselves gave them some peace of mind.

Gerd and the others also wanted to approach and stop whatever the dragoness was doing. However, everybody in the cultivation World knew that trying to tamper with a Tribulation was asking for death. Therefore, they could only grit their teeth as they saw the next events happen.

Red smoke began appearing around Yaseenia; it was her blood evaporating through her pores! Yaseenia walked away from Cecile and the others, going toward the middle of the clearing between the people. "My blood is made of three bloodlines. My mother's, the golden-tailed senior's, and the black-tailed senior's bloodlines. I'm an incomplete creature, a mix of others without being fully myself."

BOOM!

Abruptly, Yaseenia's cultivation broke through and entered the Half-step realm! The aura explosion around her made the floor crack as if an enormous weight had suddenly stepped on fragile glass.

Right after, her spiritual sense flooded the place, instantly reaching 90 meters, but it didn't stop there. Yaseenia's spiritual sense continued expanding, meter by meter, covering further and further. 91, 92, 93... 97... 98...

Everyone's eyes opened widely.

Yaseenia's awakened Spiritual sense was ninety-eight meters! Or was it? Before the eyes of thousands of cultivators, Yaseenia's spiritual sense pushed through and crossed into the ninety-nine-meter area!

"Impossible!"

"Ninety-nine innate meters of spiritual sense!?"

"That's absurd!"

"W-Wait, I think it is still growing..."

"Don't tell me..."

And like most of them feared, Yaseenia's transparent yet visible spiritual sense broke through the ninety-nine-meter threshold and reached one hundred.

The second it reached the one-hundred-meter mark, it flashed with a golden light, creating a dome around Yaseenia for a second. Then, it shrunk inside Yaseenia, disappearing from everyone's sight.

Yaseenia's innate Spiritual Sense area was 100 meters!

People thought that 100 wasn't even possible, that it was just a measure seniors invented, yet Yaseenia proved everyone wrong and reached 100 meters. That meant that Yaseenia's potential was limitless. Therefore, although there were some who doubted it before, that statement about her potential being boundless was now proven.

In an instant, people fell into two categories. Do not provoke that creature that is about to soar into the sky and above, or kill that creature that is about to skyrocket into the sky and above before she does it. The first group's thought was born out of logic, and the second out of envy or fear.

Gerd and the others naturally fell into the second group. They really wanted to interrupt whatever was going on, but the aura coming from Yasenia and the fear of the Heavens made them unable to move and stuck them in place.

They felt as if a hand was pressing down on their heads and their spirits, imposing on them to kneel before the birth of an absolute ruler. This only made them angrier.

Who would want to see their enemy suddenly become stronger before their eyes? No one in their right mind.

Mirrory and Valeria knew that this would become a big event, but they underestimated it. Therefore, they appeared outside and moved the rest of the girls, Ebrahim, and Sierra, away from Yasenia.

Even in the dense surroundings, they moved rather easily.

When they moved back to almost the Town's wall, Valeria and Mirrory stayed outside, looking at Yasenia with interest.

Angel asked with an anxious voice, "What is happening, Mirrory? I can feel that Yasenia's strength is still increasing! However, look at her! Her blood is evaporating!"

Valeria laughed gently and said, "Don't worry, little Angel. Yasenia is about to be born."

Cecile and the others looked confused at Valeria. Kali asked aloud, "Born? What do you mean?"

Mirrory answered this time with a smile filled with amusement. "That's not a bad way to put it, Spirit Queen. What she means is that the real Yasenia is about to be born. Not the half-assed puppet thing she was in the past. However, I think the word "Awaken" is more suitable."

Mirrory muttered to herself, "Seeing someone breaking the chains of Fate is something interesting no matter how many times I see it."

However, even with Mirrory's explanation, they were still confused.

Valeria clarified something they didn't know, something not even Yasenia knew. A secret kept by Tatyana until today, but it was something quite easy to see for old Seniors like Valeria and Mirrory. "Yasenia shouldn't have been born as a mortal. With that powerful ritual and her mother's strength, Yasenia's realm from birth should have been much, much higher. At least in the Unification Realm and at most, in the peak of the Dantian Spiritualization Realm."

Their eyes almost popped out of their skulls out of surprise. Valeria smiled and continued, "Nevertheless, she was born as a simple human-looking mortal, that's wrong on too many levels, and it shouldn't have ever happened if all went naturally. However, it is clear that something or someone was manipulating her birth. It didn't even have to be a single thing. That's something even I can't guess about."

Mirrory said, "Stop rambling, Spirit Queen. Little brats, look on to your lover's True Birth. This is her first step! And also the step where she will destroy all her bindings."

Far away, into the Sky Continent, a gorgeous black-haired Empress opened her red eyes slowly.

She was sitting on her throne with her head supported by her fist, clearly waiting for something.

The moment she opened her red eyes, a terrifying aura of Death and Fate flooded the hall. Then, her naturally red lips opened, "[Fate Weaving: Blood Link]."

Her red eyes shone brightly as they pierced through the fabric of reality itself. The space in the middle of the enormous hall sunk and broke open, creating a void.

Right after, an image appeared in her sight.

The image was that of her daughter.

Her daughter's body was in the center of an energy vortex, and the aura around her was terrifying for someone at her level.

The sky above her was covered by a terrifying Heavenly Tribulation, so powerful that it would be impossible for someone of her daughter's strength to overcome it.

Even then, the Death Empress stood up from her throne, her lips raised in an expectant smirk. Then, she excitedly declared, "Welcome to the World, little treasure. Now, show them, little treasure. Show those old fossils, show the World, show Fate itself, that YOUR Destiny isn't predetermined but created by your own hands!"

Tatyana snarled, anger lacing her voice. "Show them that, even if the World Laws stunted your development at birth, even if the God of the Sun and the Goddess of the Moon want to make you their puppet, even if a soul wanted to steal your future even before you were born, you are not one to be stopped neither shackled by those things!"

Tatyana's imperial aura flooded everything in millions of kilometers around her, turning the day into the night as she shouted, "My daughter! Grab the firmament and steal the future between your claws! Recover the strength that was meant to be yours and awaken your Celestial Heritage!"
