

Heaven 35

Chapter 35

After their little escapade, they both tidied up and changed inside the concealing formation. They didn't forget about their objective and also went to sign for the cultivation grounds.

Evelyn wanted to go with her to the same cultivation grounds, but Yasenia knocked her head softly saying that it wasn't suitable. Each cultivation ground had a single attribute and served to deepen the understanding of that specific element.

They finished the registration fast and decided to walk around a little hand in hand, feeling the afternoon spring breeze. Yasenia saw that dinner time was approaching and sent Evelyn to her residence. Yasenia watched Evelyn's back disappear inside the house and returned to her house with Angel.

On the way back, Yasenia deviated and walked to an opening in the side. It was surrounded by nature with a little hill, she went up and set up a concealing formation. She stayed there, looking at the sunset and planning her future days.

Shortly after she started cultivating, but at the same time thinking about someone... 'I haven't seen mom for three months... When will I see her again? I really miss her embrace, her warmth...'

Looking at the Sun at dusk, Yasenia stayed there thinking about Tatyana for a while. 'Even if she comes... I can at most hide if something happens...'

She smiled bitterly, she knew that she just began cultivating, that she had thousands of years before her, but she couldn't help but think, 'I am... weak, so incredibly weak, that in mom's world I'm not even considered an ant. I can be killed by a glance of any of my mom's enemies from hundreds of kilometers away... I don't even know the cultivation realms above the mortal realms...'

She looked at the night sky and said calmly "I want to... No... I will become stronger."

She continued speaking to the clear sky as if trying to speak with the stars, the Moon, and the Sun. She continued while cultivating softly "I need your help for that, to comprehend the mysteries about all of you... about my inheritance... about... myself."

Yasenia closed her eyes, and let all her robes fall. She let the breeze, the moonlight, the starlight, and the sunlight envelop her naked figure.

When the sun disappeared and only the Moon and stars were present, Yasenia spoke with her eyes closed, "What is the starlight, how can I... absorb it. It happens the same as with their presence. The sunlight and moonlight are a lot stronger than the starlight. This time, however, the sunlight and moonlight are able to cover everything, they overshadow the starlight in every sense..."

Yasenia opened her eyes and looked up, "But is that true? Is the starlight so insignificant?"

She looked across the night sky, she could see stars everywhere, but besides the moon, there wasn't a single one, the glow of the moon covered the stars.

However, Yasenia noticed that everywhere else besides the moon, the vast sky had countless stars filling it, even if their glow was small... Yasenia's raven black hair waved with the wind and her mouth arched in a simple smile.

With the glow of the moonlight and her smile, if someone were to see her right now, they wouldn't have a single impure thought. Yasenia right now looked pure, untainted, and sacred.

Yasenia's eyes flashed and her mouth arched even more "Even if they are overshadowed, even... If they can't illuminate our steps... Don't they guide us? They can tell us the seasons, they can tell us where the north is, they can tell us stories from the past, and about us through their constellations..."

"If the sunlight illuminates our path through the day, and the moonlight guards us against darkness at night... The stars are our guides in life!" Bang!

Yasenia's aura exploded and myriads of white lights appeared around her! The golden and silver glow also appeared with strength! Yasenia finally broke through the realm of [Absorption of starlight].

After completing the three, she managed to complete the realm [Absorption of Celestial light]! Thanks to this she unlocked the last techniques in this realm. They were [Starry Sky], [Dawn], [Dusk] and [Midnight].

With these, she completed the whole day cycle giving birth to an ultimate technique that can empower her several folds for a moment. The skill name was very simple [Day and night]. However, the effects weren't simple at all!

[Starry Sky] is a skill that can be activated. Yasenia will then create one star per second around her. She can fire these stars with two different attacks. [Shooting star] Let's Yasenia shoot a single star at high speeds and it will explode on contact! Yasenia can also release all her accumulated stars at the same time with [Starfall] However, the stars will have half the strength than when shot with [Shooting star].

[Dawn] is a devastating vertical strike that transforms all the accumulated Moon energy into Sun energy and also releases a crescent attack!

[Dusk] Similar to [Dawn], it is one powerful horizontal strike that changes all the accumulated Sun energy and transforms it into Moon energy.

These two skills will play an important role within the [Day and Night] skill.

Finally [Midnight] Is Yasenia's most powerful attack. She must be airborne and can do a descending strike with the collected Moon energy and all her gathered stars. The stars will launch themselves to the sky and then fall before her descent with the actual full strength of Yasenia. These stars, however, can't be aimed and will fall randomly.

The skill [Day and night] lets her combo all the day cycle skills in order and release all of the gathered energy with the [Midnight] attack giving it devastating strength. It also creates a zone that unless you are stronger than Yasenia's cultivation level you won't be able to escape!

Yasenia felt that below the Mental Nourishing realm there wasn't anyone that could challenge her. It was like all the puzzle pieces got together. Yasenia's eyes glowed with determination, "With this, I'm one step closer to you, mom... Wait for me, I will become your strongest ally."

She crouched down and pick up her robe, after putting it she went home. At home, Yasenia told Angel that she and Evelyn became partners. Angel smiled happily that her friend finally confessed, she felt different from Andrea's situation because she knew Evelyn. Moreover, she was already prepared and she also secretly cheered on them.

Angel wanted to ask more about it, but Yasenia silenced her with a kiss. "I'm sorry Angel we spoke some private matters about her, I won't be able to tell you..."

Yasenia smiled seductively "However, how about we do your favorite position today?"

Yasenia took all her clothes slowly while looking at Angel. Under Angel's expectant and red face, her clothes fell one by one. When Yasenia became naked, she sat on her knees. She looked at Angel, with her member already standing proud "Today baby, you will not suck my breast~"

Yasenia used one hand to pump her dick slowly and licked her lips and said, "I will let you drink my other milk while I use my tail on you. What do you say, baby?"

Angel stepped forward swallowing her dry saliva, she crouched down and put her breast against Yasenia's thighs- She opened her little mouth and put the hard member in. When she started to taste and lick the delicious rod in her mouth, she felt Yasenia's tail tip caressing her spine and going downwards.

Angel felt the tip slowly lowering, then reaching between her butt cheeks, Yasenia teased while caressing her head, "Do you want to try this hole, baby?"

Angel put more effort into her head movements and her garden became flooded. Seeing that reaction, she spread the tip lubrication around her little butthole and then started to put it in. "Aahn~You are so tight, baby mmm~"

She put all she could of her tail tip in, and Angel's head movements were becoming faster and faster. She tried to put the delicious precum leaking rod in her throat.

Yasenia started her tail movements and feeling her dragon entering her throat moans started escaping her mouth, "Be careful, baby, I don't want you to, Oh... hurt yourself."

Angel, however, continued her head movements. Yasenia didn't stop her anymore and put more effort into her tail movements reaching deeper. She also started to wiggle it inside making Angel moan delighted.

After some time Angel had already squirted twice and she was moaning even with her member going inside her throat from time to time. Then she felt the two things become hotter and her pleasure-filled mind awakened her anticipation soared 'The yummy thing is coming!'

Yasenia felt the vibrations of her throat and her insides tightening, "Ahn~ I'm about to cum baby! Mmm~ here it is~ Ahhh! I'm cumming!!"

Angel felt the two tips inflate and then the pleasure waves hit her brain strongly and turned her world white inside-out. The hot pleasure waves sent from below with the delicious nectar going down her throat and sending electric currents to fry her brain with pleasure made her squirt almost continuously and unable to control her bladder pissing herself. "Oohhh!!"

Angel calmed down only after two minutes of continuous squirting, the liquids inside her were sending pleasure waves even after Yasenia came extending her orgasm.

Yasenia had already taken her in her arms and kissed her without caring about her own fluids inside and around her mouth. Yasenia even took the overflowing fluids from her mouth and drank them herself letting Angel come down faster.

She just wanted to relax her mind, using the tail energy absorption qualities and massage techniques she was able to end Angel's potent orgasm in two more minutes after she stopped squirting. Making a total of a four-minute strong orgasm.

This is one of the reasons why Angel dared to have these otherwise mind-blowing orgasms. She knew that Yasenia could tone them down enough to bring her back without repercussions and trusted her a lot.

Yasenia suddenly whispered in her ear, "Baby, how about... I let you penetrate me?" Angel looked up surprised, but the glowing blue eyes seemed that could speak.

Yasenia laughed at her cuteness, "I have some toys, given to me by my mom, do you want to put this one on?"

She took out the 25 cm dildo and gave it to Angel. Angel looked at it and nodded. With the help of Yasenia, she put it on. Angel touched it and exclaimed in surprise "I can feel through it!? It is like I have grown it"

Angel touched it here and there and finally heard Yasenia laugh. She looked up just as Yasenia called her sensually "Baby~"

When Angel lifted her head, she saw Yasenia with her head on the bed's headboard and spreading her own legs widely. Her two hands opened her glistening vagina below her member, and the tail tip was pointing at her entrance.

Angel thought 'If there is a being that can control themselves after seeing this scene it isn't human!'

Angel jumped on her a little impatiently, however, being the first time she uses such a thing she didn't seem to be able to insert it.

Yasenia hugged the petite girl and used one hand to guide her, "Don't be impatient, here baby, in this entrance"

After feeling the tip positioned, she said "Now move as you like baby, use me as you want~"

And so did Angel, wanting to feel her insides, she pushed her new girl-dick in one thrust! PAH Yasenia moaned when she felt her reach her cervix. Angel stayed there, fully inserted, feeling the tightness and warmth of Yasenia's insides.

Yasenia used her inside muscles and massaged her length sending pleasure waves to her baby. "Ohhh! It feels so good inside of you Yasenia!"

Yasenia hugged Angel's head into her breast and said while opening her legs more to make it easier for her baby to slap her hips on hers, "Move baby, Ah! Good~ AH! Ahn~ Mmm!"

Pah! Pah! Pah!

Angel started to move her hips up and down hugging Yasenia's torso and burying her face in her breast. "Yasenia, Ah! Ah! it feels so good! Nnhg~ Is as if your insides are sucking me in! Ohh!"

Yasenia and Angel continued to moan until Angel felt herself reaching it “I’m cumming!!” Then she felt her own dick inflate and she squirted inside of Yasenia “Aaaahhhh!!!”

Yasenia was also close so she turned Angel and started riding her. Angel looked at the big breast bouncing in front of her and feeling her soft butt slapping on her waist, with the now more aggressive insides, she couldn’t help but reach another orgasm in just one minute!

This time both came together “OOOHHHHH!!!” Yasenia even came from her rod staining Angel’s chest.

The night continued and their lovemaking also did. Yasenia let Angel use her new dick the rest of the night. When Angel couldn’t hold on more she passed out because of pleasure and exhaustion after one last orgasm inside Yasenia.

Yasenia looked at the girl that had even her hair stained and thought, ‘Her breasts are very soft, that boob-job... I must ask her to do it more often... ‘

Then, she made a frustrated sigh, ‘I’m trying to cum the most I can, but it truly is not enough, I feel that I can make love with another 10 Angels...’

Yasenia hugged her precious baby and carried her towards the bath, after heating the water, she submerged her and used her tail to secure her above the water.

Angel woke up because of the water and after seeing Yasenia’s gentle face, she smiled groggily and said mewling “I love you~”

Yasenia lowered her head and gave her a kiss, “I love you too, baby”.

Yasenia started to massage her scalp with her soft fingers, carefully washing the stains from her head, then she continued washing downwards. Yasenia cleaned her hair slowly and softly. After cleaning her hair, Yasenia entered the bath behind Angel.

She put Angel in front of her and between her legs. She washed her shoulders, massaging them, she went to one arm and ended in her hand, cleaning each and every one of her fingers.

Angel just melted, she closed her eyes and when Yasenia finished her second arm, she already fell asleep with a comfortable smile.

Yasenia continued, she cleaned her breasts with little force without stimulating her. Without waking her up, she managed to clean her up completely. Yasenia didn’t forget to use her sun energy a little, maintaining the water warm so that Angel wasn’t uncomfortable.

After that, she carried Angel to bed. She went back, cleaned herself, and went to bed. She didn’t bother putting on their clothes. She used herself as a mattress for Angel and hugged her to sleep.
