Chapter 71

Yasenia calmed and tightened the hug as she asked, “So you aren’t sad or anything, right?”

Evelyn smiled, “Fool, I was crying because of happiness. I love you, Yasenia. I truly do.”

Yasenia sighed in relief and rolled with Evelyn to pin her down softly, knowing that she was so happy that she cried; her mood became excellent. Yasenia kissed Evelyn while growling in happiness, and Evelyn answered happily.

Evelyn saw that even her long tail was wagging, and hearing Yasenia growling, she found Yasenia’s actions adorable. Yasenia nibbled on Evelyn’s lips and licked her, rubbing her body on Evelyn. Evelyn couldn’t help it and exclaimed, “You are so cute!!”

Yasenia laughed and continued her loving actions for another ten minutes.

Yasenia got carried away and lowered Evelyn’s shorts. She then penetrated her slowly. Evelyn moaned and said. “Yasenia, mmm, we have to go down.”

Yasenia didn’t stop and continued pushing. Evelyn felt a difference in her thrusting. It was slow yet trying to reach deep.

Yasenia moved and continued her thrust while growling in her neck. Three minutes passed, and she pushed her waist all she could and came fertile semen with her head hitting her cervix.

Evelyn felt her cum, and after sensing the life energy on this discharge, she opened her eyes because of the pleasure and surprise. Evelyn squirted as the life energy invaded her uterus, trying to find something to fertilize.

However, she controlled her functions to prevent pregnancy. Evelyn’s heart thumped fast as she exclaimed. “Y-Yasenia, that was fertile! Extremely so! Be careful!”

Evelyn wanted to berate her teachers, ‘Why did they say that becoming pregnant was hard!? The amount of life energy in her discharge is enough to get three women pregnant!’

Yasenia responded while growling lovingly, “To show you my happiness~ I want my dear pregnant~” Yasenia even licked her neck, trying to entice her.

Evelyn fell in love all over again, and her insides clenched on the deeply buried member, making Yasenia moan. Evelyn said, a little insecure of her words, “In t-the future, Y-Yasenia, we can’t now.”

Yasenia was in her spoiled state, so she lifted her head and looked at Evelyn, then she pouted, “I want my dear to have my child~.”

Having Yasenia’s seductive face pouting while she was deep inside her was a critical hit!

Evelyn blushed at her cuteness and felt her heart rate going astray. She almost gave in! “W-we can’t. I don’t want to be a mother at home while you fight our enemies.”

Yasenia started thrusting again, “One~ Only one~ My sweetheart doesn’t want one, and mom still can’t, please, dear~.”

Evelyn was at her limits!

Yasenia nibbled her ear while growling and thrusting, making Evelyn moan. In another three minutes, Yasenia came again, adding life energy. Then, Evelyn's insides clenched and tried to milk Yasenia.

She was about to accept because of the pleasure waves and her dearest dragoness's insistence but came back to herself. She bit her lips, using the pain to clear her head and control her body functions.

Yasenia hugged Evelyn, burying her below her soft body, and used her energy to feel her dear's uterus. Seeing her still resisting, she sighed and said in a more normal tone, "Okay, later... But I want a lot of them! I had Cecile promise me 1000 of them!"

Evelyn laughed and hugged the woman on top of her. She rubbed her face on her smooth skin, filling her nostrils with her scent, and said, "I will not give you so many! When we are prepared, I will accept every time you feel like impregnating me. I can promise you that"

Yasenia separated a bit and looked at her violet eyes. Her golden eyes shone with happiness as she smiled. "Sure! I love you, Dear~."

Yasenia asked shyly, "Can I fill you one more time~?"

Evelyn looked outside and saw that dawn was near. She said, "twelve minutes as much as you like, let's go cultivate after that."

Yasenia turned Evelyn and laid her face down, then Yasenia bit Evelyn's nape and thrust quickly and strongly.

Evelyn thought she would die of pleasure during these twelve minutes; Yasenia came six times! Worse, all loads were fertile, making her brain go deep into the Pleasure Heaven!

After the deed, Yasenia picked up the fully pumped and limp Evelyn with a satisfied smile and went to bathe her. Yasenia thought with a smile, 'A full wife is a satisfied wife! Mom is truly wise!'

Our dear dragoness took the literal meaning of that saying! Well, who can blame her when the person that told her the saying is doing it also the literal way...

Yasenia's thought wandered while bathing Evelyn, 'Should I try with Angel and Andrea? They might accept... But we are indeed too young and weak for children....'

A new determination to become stronger grew in Yasenia's heart.

Yesterday's situation repeated, with Yasenia coming down with Evelyn in her arms and Evelyn's face buried in her neck. However, while receiving the pampering of the dragoness, Evelyn was speaking, "We are almost late to cultivate! Did your brain go to your melons?"

Yasenia sat and put Evelyn's breakfast in front of her, then she picked a spoon and started to feed Evelyn Evelyn continued speaking from her lap, "Munch munch munch You have to learn to control yourself! Munch munch munch Although I love that part of you, you have to, munch munch munch learn to control yourself sometimes!"

Yasenia smiled while receiving her earful, thinking, 'She looks so cute! Eat dear, and grow bigger~.' Evelyn's earful seemed to be going in through one ear and leaving from the other...

Andrea laughed and said in her deep and clear voice, "You are not very convincing the way you are sitting, Evelyn. I think Yasenia is more focused on your munching than your voice!"

Evelyn looked questioningly and then analyzed her position. She was seated sideways in Yasenia's lap while being fed, and Yasenia's tail was petting her head. Moreover, Yasenia had a gentle smile and gave her kisses from time to time. 'I'm being completely pampered while scolding her!'

Evelyn pouted, and Yasenia didn't lose her chance to kiss Evelyn's pouty lips. Then, she licked her lips and said, "Today's breakfast is delicious."

Evelyn blushed and buried her head in Yasenia's neck, stopping talking.

Yasenia said, "Auction time today! I hope that my words sank in yesterday and that no more people bother us today...."

Tatyana said, "They did not. It seems that the Tang and Long families are having a meeting today. They are probably planning something to make you look bad. They most likely will change sides and ally with our adversaries. It's a shame I can't simply destroy them and get done with it."

Evelyn sneered, "With Tatyana and Yasenia, they will fail whether the juniors or seniors come; their fate is to be beaten to a pulp."

Angel and the others raised an eyebrow teasingly. Evelyn noticed their looks and then analyzed what she said. She hastily tried to defend herself, "I did n- "

Angel cut her off with an 'I understand' face, "I understand, Mommy Tatyana is just too good."

Evelyn blushed and said, "That is not... What do you mean with Mommy Tatyana!?"

This time it was Angel's time to blush. She refrained from answering and continued eating her food. 'Yesterday night, I asked Yasenia to let Tatyana participate again, and I wrongly spoke the nickname they made me call them both! Thankfully I didn't say Mommy Yasenia! Kyaaa!! So embarrassing!'

Yasenia put food in her mouth and fed Evelyn mouth to mouth, making her forget about Angel. After feeding Evelyn, Tatyana and Yasenia looked teasingly at Angel but didn't say anything.

Then, they looked at each other and nodded. 'The baby has been spoiled to the heavens and above! Good job us!'

Andrea and Cecile didn't comment because they were barely holding their laughter! Yasenia looked toward Andrea and said, "Don't laugh too fast, darling~ Today is your turn!"

Tatyana remembered something and looked at Andrea, who was beside her. "Andrea, don't take it badly, but when you cum from your male part... Can you do it outside?"

Andrea said calmly with a smile, "You don't want other than Yasenia's seed inside you, right? Don't worry, Tatyana, I would be the same if there were another one like Yasenia and me. I never planned on releasing inside any of the people here apart from Yasenia."

Tatyana smiled and kissed Andrea's cheeks "Tonight, you will be squeezed dry as a reward for being so understanding~."

Andrea caressed her own cheek and smiled shyly. Yasenia laughed at Andrea's shy appearance after that little kiss. She added, "Mom, you have been doing the thrusting too much these two nights. Tonight you are forbidden from using your toy!"

Tatyana nodded sagely, "Although we also had our alone sessions these two nights, it is true that I haven't been on the receiving end a lot."

Evelyn was surprised and looked toward Yasenia. "You have your alone sessions with her even after doing all four of us!?"

Yasenia nodded, "Don't worry, I'm satisfied after doing it with the four of you. What Mom does afterward is...."

Without shame, Tatyana said, "I milk her until she can't spurt anymore of that delicious cum from her tail and dick. I basically fuck my little treasure to sleep."

They all choked and thought. 'Tatyana is mighty!'

Yasenia looked speechless at her mother, "Couldn't you say it... more censored?"

Tatyana sneered, "You are writing sex scenes and want to censor words while we are speaking normally? Are you stupid?"

Yasenia choked and changed the topic, "Cough Now that I mention it, will we be able to enter the auction? We don't have entrance tickets, right?"

Tatyana smiled and said, "Don't worry, little treasure. I have them prepared. I imagined that the auction house couldn't be missed visiting a city, so I reserved them. There are some nice treasures on display."

Yasenia nodded, and the rest were impressed. Cecile asked, "Tatyana, you have quite deep connections within this city, right? I've been paying attention, and if the people are from the senior generation, they all look at you with fear and reverence."

Tatyana shook her head, "It is my position in the continent that draws those looks from people. However, that doesn't mean I don't have influence in this city. Well, I have a hunch that you will be able to learn about it soon."

Andrea smiled and said, "If a fate attribute cultivator of your level says that, it shouldn't be wrong. I'm quite curious."

After preparing, all of them walked out toward the auction house. When they reached the Auction house, they bumped into two middle-aged handsome men; one of them had blonde hair, and the other had dark-colored hair.

The blonde man looked at Yasenia up and down and sneered, "Truly a seductive demoness. Do you think you will be able to live after killing my daughter?"

Yasenia stopped and looked toward the seniors. She asked, "Who may you be, senior? I can more or less guess, with what senior has just told me, but I want to confirm."

With arrogance and pride that seemed ingrained in the bones, the blonde man said, "I'm the Patriarch of the Tang family! The despicable act of killing my daughter won't go unpunished!"

The people around stopped and looked at the show.

Yasenia turned toward the other and asked, without losing her smile, “May I know your position, senior?”

The other said calmly, “The Long family Patriarch. You are quite educated for a beast. It seems that you were trained since birth.”

Tatyana’s eyes glowed crimson, but Yasenia’s hand grabbing hers stopped Tatyana from instantly killing him.

Yasenia smiled and asked, “Seniors, can you answer one question honestly?”

They motioned her to speak, and Yasenia said, “What would you do if someone came to your face and said they want to buy your wife as a slave?”

The Tang family father’s face turned black, and he berated Yasenia, “You uneducated brat! Do you want to die here and now!? Do not take my nonactive stance as fear! Do you think I can’t kill you with that woman protecting you!?”

The people around started murmuring, and Tatyana was debating whether to add this whole city to her army or not.

Yasenia smiled without fear and said, “That is what your daughter said. She wanted to buy me as a slave in front of my mate.”

The people around were surprised, and the murmurs went in another direction. Calming the about to explode Tatyana a bit.

The Tang family head sneered and said, “So what? Do you think it is the same? It would be your glory to be my daughter’s slave!”

Yasenia looked strangely at him. “Senior, how old are you? You are also above the mortal realms, so you must be at least older than a thousand years old, right? Without offense, but did your age affect your head? How can you be so unreasonable?”

The Tang Patriarch, Tang Guo, released his aura on Yasenia with the intent to flatten her on the ground! Bad choice.

A black-green colored aura exploded from Tatyana. The aura took the shape of a giant skeletal hand, absolutely crushing his, and BOOOOM! It was him who was flattened on the ground! Because of the sheer pressure of Tatyana’s aura, the space trembled as his bones cracked!

For the spectators, Tatyana’s aura felt like the hand of Death itself had descended on the earth, wanting the life of mortals and gods alike.

Her voice carried so much killing intent that people had the illusion of seeing countless corpses around her, “I don’t want to kill one of the leading family heads in this city yet. I’m here to pass my time with my daughter. Reel back your aura before my hand slips, and all people inside this city turn undead.”

Chapter 72

After being pressed down like an insect and feeling his bones crack, he released his full aura, trying to fight against Tatyana’s. His aura pushed against the black and green skeletal hand, but it didn’t even budge. Tatyana released Yaseia's hand and approached step by step until they were 10m apart.

The Long family head was surprised at her strength, but he said calmly, "Do you really think yourself as invincible? Release him; your daughter killed our children, so she must pay for it."

She lifted one hand and commanded. Her voice sounded imposing, like an Empress ordering a subject, "I ordered you something, now do it. [Fate weaving]." Then, countless threads of different colors appeared around Tatyana.

Patriarch Long's eyes widened, scared shitless. "Those are fate threads! She can pluck fate threads!?"

But he then relaxed; he denied other thoughts, "That skill won't work on our strongest cultivators. She should only be able to change simple things, making the skill useless in combat. She must be above the Transcendence realm for that skill to work in combat, and no one is above the transcendence realm in this continent!"

Fate threads were what dictated the fate of every single creature who had sentience. Being able to pluck them meant that Tatyana could literally change someone's fate at will! Of course, there were limitations.

However, unlike Patriarch Long's thoughts, Tang Guo was too weak to resist! Tatyana moved her beautiful hand and plucked three of them. Then she stopped using her aura, and the threads disappeared.

After the Tatyana plucked the threads, Tang Guo stopped using his aura, stood up, not bothering about his broken bones, and walked calmly to the side of the Long Family Patriarch.

As if it was the most natural thing in the world.

As if it was what he had to do in this instant, no matter the consequences.

Even the people around didn't find it unusual.

Of course, this feeling lasted until he stopped walking. Tang Guo's eyes widened, and he started sweating cold. 'D-Did she just control my fate!?"

The knowledgeable spectators also were shocked.

Tatyana calmed down during this time and said flatly, "A petty squabble between Mental nourishing realm children and you, a transcendental realm cultivator, want to poke your nose in it. Aren't you ashamed? Moreover, about you not calling me senior, do you think you are on your family's ancestors' level? Even they give me respect, not to mention you, their descendant!"

Tatyana didn't stop there; she sneered as she reprimanded, "No wonder you have been stuck in your cultivation realm for who knows how long. I'm surprised you haven't been consumed by your heart demons yet! Your great-grandfather was stronger than you by three levels at your age!"

The Tang family head didn't dare retort; he was still too shocked! However, the Long family head's face became ugly. "You, the headmaster of the Rising Talent Academy, truly have guts that reach the heavens! Is it because those shitty empires didn't want to fight for those small pieces of land? Do you think that you can fight our Ancestors together? Foolish!"

Yesenia and the others almost choked to death. ‘THE HEADMASTER!?’

Yesenia looked at her mother adoringly, and her tail wagged. ‘My mother is so cool!!’

Tatyana almost broke her serious face seeing the adoring look of her daughter and her wagging tail, but she endured! However, her internal struggle was intense!

‘To maintain my appearance, I will use my hundreds of thousands of years of experience to hold back from directly throwing my little treasure to the bed and... Maybe I shouldn’t hold back... No, no, no! Hold yourself together, and your daughter will worship you more!’

Tatyana nodded internally, ‘That’s right! Face slap these people harder and then slap your daughter’s softness the hardest- Stop my traitorous thought process! Resist the impulse!’

Tatyana looked at them with ridicule while her inner demons fought an all-out war. “Do you truly think that I gained my position because of pity? The foolish one is you! Do you truly think your families are my match? Do you think I will not use all the Academy forces to flatten your proud Long and Tang families? Can you even resist a tenth of my forces?”

Yasenia swooned with Angel and Evelyn making Tatyana’s inner demons battle lean towards the ‘Throw Yasenia to bed now’ side. Nonetheless, she stayed strong and didn’t bend!

The two patriarchs knew they were losing more face by the second, so they entered the auction house while saying, “Don’t brag too much, I know you don’t want to start a war, or you would have started it long ago. We can have a tournament with the juniors to decide your daughter’s life or death. However, if you want to fight, then fight! Send whatever you want. Your academy isn’t the only strong power in this continent!”

Tatyana looked at their back. When they disappeared, she led the others inside as she said, “There is one hour left until the auction begins. How about taking a look at the catalog? There may be something you want to buy. However, I will not lend you any money.”

Yasenia went to Tatyana’s side and said in a worshipping tone, “Mom, you are the best~ The headmaster, I love you the most~.”

Then, Yasenia kissed her cheek, and everyone heard something snap, followed by Tatyana speaking, “Go to the room. I will appear with Yasenia after half an hour.”

The rest nodded, and Tatyana entered another private room, sealed it, and threw Yasenia towards a bed face down. Yasenia didn’t know what was happening until she felt Tatyana lift her skirt from behind, and Tatyana pressed her face down on the bed. Then, a very thick and slimy object opened her to the limits. Yasenia’s eyes rolled up, “OHHH!!”

Tatyana proceeded to pound sanity back into herself while making a certain dragoness scream herself hoarse.

Meanwhile, in another VIP room, Andrea spoke, amazed. “To think that Tatyana was the headmistress of our academy... Doesn’t our headmistress go by the name of Katherin? So which one is the real name?”

Angel answered, “Tatyana is the realm name for sure. Do you think Tatyana would lie to Yasenia about her own name?”

The others nodded. Cecile asked, "Are they going to speak about her identity or something?"

Evelyn nodded. "I'm sure they will have an in-depth conversation. That is why we couldn't listen."

Cecile suddenly blushed, and Andrea asked curiously, "What's wrong?"

Cecile shook her head and said, "They must be having a very in-depth conversation."

She thought shyly, 'I just felt Yasenia's complete submission towards another person before all the signals disappeared....'

Being her marked mate had its perks! This would have normally been something that would make her furious. However, knowing it was Tatyana who made her dragoness submit completely, she didn't mind.

Cecile knew that Tatyana wasn't Yasenia's [Soulmate] because she was her mother; therefore, she couldn't gain that status. Moreover, Cecile didn't love Yasenia because she was her [Soulmate]. She loved her even before that; the mark made those feelings deeper.

Cecile looked to the Auction theater to distract herself. The walls were white with some colored sculptures, showing different types of objects, probably the rarest objects that have passed the Auction house.

The theater could accommodate 100 000 people easily, only counting the public seats. The seats had a nice wine color and were lined up efficiently.

The ceiling was tall, and the VIP customer boxes had three levels on the semicircular wall, and it was impossible to see what was inside unless the people didn't mind it.

Looking around, she could spot the Tang and Long Patriarch in the same room. They were on the low right, quite near the wooden stage. Their own room was opposite them on the low left, also near the stage.

The stage was also large, prepared to show any object, and the wood was also extremely resilient. Damaging it would probably be impossible unless one was nearing the Transcendent realm.

They continued speaking and looking through the catalog for a while until the door opened. Tatyana and Yasenia appeared, with Yasenia sticking to Tatyana's side. She was growling lovingly while giving kisses and licks to her neck, as a tamed beast would do to its owner.

Her face had a melted smile, and her tail coiled around Tatyana's body. They even saw her irises colored with a pink-golden color.

Tatyana, who was walking with a refreshed smile, sat. Yasenia plastered herself on Tatyana, sitting on her lap, and continued her entranced actions, growling softly and licking and kissing her cheeks, lips, hair, and neck. Tatyana asked while hugging the soft body on her lap and receiving her affections, "Have any of you found anything interesting in the catalog?"

The rest swallowed their question because the answer was obvious! Evelyn answered by asking about the things they didn't know what they were. Tatyana answered with a sing-song voice. Anyone could hear her excellent mood through her voice.

Angel asked curiously with a whisper to Cecile. “I know what they did, but... When does Yasenia show this side?”

Cecile answered with a smile. “That is when her mate makes her submit completely, she becomes very loving and cute in this state~.”

Angel blushed and nodded. “She is truly adorable right now.”

Yasenia separated a little from Tatyana without leaving her lap and looked at the items on the catalog. At first sight, she didn’t see anything interesting. And what interested her was extremely costly.

However, she spotted one thing that picked her curiosity; it was also quite affordable. She asked to confirm, “An egg?”

Tatyana said, “This is an unknown beast egg. It looks like a normal chicken egg but somewhat bigger... I heard it has a very sturdy shell. Some high-level beasts conceal their eggs with normal shells to protect them from strong beasts. I mean, what high-level beast or cultivator would aim at a normal-looking egg.”

Yasenia nodded and returned to bathe Tatyana with love. Tatyana sighed in comfort. Evelyn asked, “Then how did they get this one?”

Tatyana said languidly, relaxed by her daughter’s caresses. “Some cultivators picked it up from a destroyed site between a battle of two powerful beasts. The battle destroyed everything around but the egg. Thus they think it is from a powerful beast.”

They continued to talk until there was a knock on the door. When Tatyana permitted them to enter, six handsome men with different body types and uniforms entered. The tallest one said with a magnetic and deep voice. “We are here to offer services if your excellencies want.”

Then the sexiest one said with a seductive tone. “We can offer any kind of service. Do not hold back.”

Andrea and the rest knew that this was just their working model, so they didn’t get angry. Andrea smiled and said in her clear and deep voice, “We have a knowledgeable person in our group, and we don’t want any other kind of entertainment. Thanks for the offer.”

The leading male nodded with a smile, bowed, and they left without insisting.

Evelyn was impressed, “I thought they would be very pushy! They are quite professional.”

Tatyana said, “They can’t afford to offend people in the VIP rooms. If someone accepts, they luck out; if not, it is their bad luck. This kind of extra service is only for VIPs.”

Yasenia asked, stopping her actions, “Are there cases when they don’t get paid after giving their services?”

Tatyana said, “There are. Normally young men and women; you can already guess why. However, the punishment is that no matter how honored a guest is, if you do that, you will be revoked of the VIP position and will have to buy it again. The auction house secretly gives the victim a part of the rebought VIP, so they win money anyway. Almost no staff has resigned since the new owner took place.”

Yasenia said, “For people to not complain after the VIP is revoked... The owner must be strong, right?”

Tatyana shook her head, “She is only at the peak of the mortal realm, half-step level of the spiritualization realm. She can be glared to death by people like patriarch Long or Tang. However, no one has ever seen her.”

Yasenia was doubtful and asked. “Then, how can they have so much influence that no one refuses to pay? Moreover, how can you know about it if no one has ever seen her?”

Tatyana shrugged, “Who knows~?”

Yasenia bit Tatyana’s lips as she said, “Why do I feel like you are hiding something again?”

Tatyana silenced Yasenia, kissing her deeply, making the recently tamed dragoness putty in Tatyana’s embrace.

Chapter 73

Angel asked, embarrassed. “What is the auction house name? I didn’t see it....”

Yasenia managed to exert enough willpower to liberate herself and said, her voice now sensual. “It is called [Dragoness Lair], very fitting for this one to visit~.”

The others smiled while a glint flashed for a moment in Tatyana’s eyes.

Suddenly, the lights dimmed, and the stage below illuminated.

On the stage below, a very sexy woman appeared. She was wearing a skimpy red “dress”. They were just two tape-like clothes circling her neck and going downwards, covering her nipples and privates below; she also had a pair of red high-heels... And that’s it.

Yasenia almost spluttered her water. “What is with that outfit!? She is practically naked!”

They looked at her strangely, thinking, ‘You are not much better!’

Yasenia saw their looks and defended herself. “Even if I show skin, at least I have half...” Yasenia looked down and continued, “A third of my breasts hidden! And I have a miniskirt that doesn’t let anybody see anything! Moreover, my back is nicely covered, and I have a back long skirt!”

Tatyana answered, “Love, we would believe you if the long skirt’s material wasn’t semi-transparent.”

Yasenia looked down at Tatyana and pouted. Tatyana gave her a peck and said, “Listen to her, love. She will say the rules.”

The woman spoke charmingly and walked around the stage, making her body jiggle. “Today we are also together~ Do you like my dress? I bought it, especially for you~.”

A lot of whistles sounded, and a lot of obscenities too!

“You are the most beautiful Rose!”

“I want to have a night with you!”

“Goddess, please step on me!”

The woman laughed, which set her bountiful bosom in a constantly jiggling motion, and winked at those that said those things.

The woman, Rose, continued speaking after laughing. She licked her lips and said, “For those who don’t know, my name is Rose~ Well, it is very accurate. I may be beautiful but beware of my spines~. I like handsome men and beautiful women the most; if you have confidence in yourself, come to me after the auction~ However, only if you buy something!”

She put a more professional voice and said, “The rules are like always, the auction house will set the initial price, then we only will accept a minimum increment of 10% of the initial value! If it costs 100 gold, ten gold increment is the minimum.”

Rose winked. “Of course, if you want to double or triple the price, you are more than welcome~.”

Rose continued, “You can use only money, we don’t care if you kill the person that won something at the entrance of the Auction House, but they are completely out of reach while they are inside our building. You will be expelled from the auction if you use threats and other things while betting! Of course, you can insult or provoke each other as much as you like. Just don’t use your influence to make the people give up. Many people had ignored our advice before, and well, all of them are dead! We are very proud of that achievement~.”

Rose’s smile became seductive as she said, “By the way, you can’t bid more money than you have on yourself, and the winner will make the payment in situ. To bid, pass your jade card through the formation on your armchair, or if you are in the VIP room, pass it through the crystal on the table~.”

“If you don’t have a card, shouting the amount is also valid, but if we discover that you don’t have the money, you will be punished depending on the amount you overstated. The rest of the rules are common sense, and they come with the catalog, so I will assume that you all have read them!”

Rose let everything sink in, and she said, jumping excitedly, which made every single person focus on her for various reasons. “We will begin! If you manage to impress me with one bid... I may come together with the item no matter your appearance~.”

She stopped walking and pointed to the side, where a handsome pair pushed a table with a shiny black colored sword. “The first item is a high-level earth-ranked long sword, not too shabby. It is called [Dark Glass sword], and It is made of a special glass located in the mines from the Wicked Forest, 2200km to the east from here.”

“The glass is extremely durable and sharp! If you get injured by this baby, the edge will shatter and let corroding glass shards into your skin! Scary~ It also has natural regeneration, so don’t worry about losing your sword after some slashes~.”

Angel was surprised, “Nice sword, especially for darkness, death, or glass attributed cultivators. A shame I use only a shield...”

Feeling that no one was interested, Yasenia asked, “Baby, your shield is a high-level earth-ranked treasure, right?”

Angel nodded. Yasenia asked, “I think I haven’t seen you use what you picked up from the armory yet. Sweetheart picked her [Blue Crystal] bow, and Dear the spear [Solid Thunder], what did you pick?”

Angel said, “I picked a battle robe, but it is quite plain, so I normally wear other things.”

Angel waved her hand, and pure white female cultivation robes appeared, “They are called [Radiant Robes]. They enhance my light attribute and movement technique. Thanks to the pill you gave Evelyn and me, we are now quite strong! Sadly none of our attributes mutated.”

Tatyana said, “You can eat a total of five of that type of pill for each attribute; you should try to get them in the future. I was lucky enough to have my death attribute mutated, which made it useful for undead rising.”

Yasenia nodded, and after making a mental note, she focused again on the stage.

After showcasing the sword effect with a dummy, Rose said, “The starting price is not a much 250 gold! The minimum increment will be 25 gold!”

When the bids started flying, her voice accelerated, “300 over there, 350! Do I see 400? 450! Sir, you are mighty~ Oh! Five hundred over there~ 525? 550! can we reach 575? the beauty over there says that is too low and goes for 600!...”

Her speaking speed accelerated, and, after using her charms and suggestive gestures, the final price reached 975 gold won by a cultivator on the lower stands.

Andrea was impressed. “She is very good. The price should have been 650 at most... But using gestures and calling softly, she tempted those cultivators... You can’t judge a book by its cover. This saying applies perfectly to her.”

Tatyana smiled, “She is truly good. She is the second-best in this auction house in terms of selling profit. She isn’t afraid to even offer herself if she can make the price rise. She enjoys this kind of thrill and doesn’t care if the target is a woman or man.”

Yasenia said, “Mom, you know so much about her!”

Tatyana patted the big girl on her lap, “She is very famous in the Champion City. If you are handsome or beautiful, she will hit on you. Since she is very beautiful, not many resist her advances.”

Yasenia asked, “Did you also have a night with her?”

Tatyana burst into laughter and kissed Yasenia; after kissing her, she asked, “Jealous?”

Yasenia shook her head, “Curious. Mom is very beautiful; she should have hit on you, right?”

Tatyana answered with a smirk, “She doesn’t dare hit on your Mom.”

Time passed, and Rose sold two mediocre objects, a top high-level magic-ranked bow and an earth-level cultivation scroll. One started at 20 silver and sold at 106. The other started at 400 gold sold at 1080 gold.

Rosa clapped, attracting attention, not to her hands, and said, “The next object is quite nice. It is a broken sword! What is nice then? This sword is a transcendent ranked sword! Better, the engravings are almost intact. However, the expert blacksmiths couldn't fix it, so it is just as strong as a middle-level magical treasure.

“However, the blacksmithing arts used to create this sword are quite profound. You will be able to improve your skills as a blacksmith with this item! At the owner's demand, the starting price is one crystal coin or 1000 gold! A real bargain if you tell me!”

The price started escalating fast, and soon, it reached three crystal coins! Suddenly, a mellow and charming voice echoed, “3400 gold.”

Rose looked over, and when she saw Yasenia, her face lit up! “3400 for the absolutely charming woman on the VIP stand!”

Rose winked at Yasenia. With Rose's shout, many people looked upward and saw Yasenia with one hand on the edge of the balcony, supporting her chin, and looking towards the sword. They couldn't help but exclaim in their heads. ‘Heavenly beauty!’

A deep voice interrupted their daze state. “3500” Yasenia looked over and saw that the bidder was the patriarch of the Tang family. Yasenia laughed charmingly, making many people go limp, and Rose licked her lips. Yasenia taunted, “I say, patriarch Tang. Was being flattened into the ground by my mother not a good enough lesson? Or is it because I killed your daughter that you will start raising all of the things I want? 3600!”

The people's eyes bulged, and Rose almost tripped. ‘WHAT DID SHE JUST SAY!?’

Tang Guo answered, “Juniors nowadays dare to defy elders like this. I don't know how your mother raised you....”

Yasenia answered instantly, showing her tail through the balcony, making people know she was a beast-human. “Better than you raised your daughter who wanted to buy me and make me her slave. However, don't worry. I'm too kind, and at least her death was quick.”

Tatyana almost burst into laughter at her response, ‘What a face slap! That's my daughter!’

Even if her head was elsewhere, learning about unbelievable facts all of a sudden, her years of professionalism made her maintain her composure, “3600 at once... 3600 going twice... 3600 th-”

Tang Guo interrupted. “Four crystal coins. At first, I just wanted to raise the price to annoy you. However, since your mouth is so big, I won't let you buy anything today.”

Yasenia smiled, and they started going back and forth with Tang Guo faster and faster.

“10 crystal coins.”

“100”

“101”

“1000”

“1001”

“One mill”

Tang Guo answered instinctively, “one mill and one- Wait!”

Tatyana didn’t hold it this time and let out a peal of laughter; Yaseia also laughed, making her bosom jiggle, “Hahaha, nice purchase, that scrap metal for one million crystal coins! As expected of Patriarch Tang Guo, his wealth is impressive, hahaha. It’s yours! However, I was surprised when you wanted it even when I offered one thousand! You are truly determined!”

Rose thought with a beautiful smile, ‘my commission will be enourmous~.’

Then she said excitedly, “One million and one crystal at once!”

Tang Guo looked at Rose and said icily, “Gold coins, they aren’t crystal coins.”

Rose denied him and continued, “That would be lower than your previous offer, so it isn’t possible. One million and one crystal coins twice!”

Tang Guo was about to use his aura out of anger! However, Patriarch Long, Long Tian, stopped him. “Although it is a hefty sum, it still won’t hurt you. Moreover, we have come for another thing to get today. Do you want to get expelled before that?”

Tang Guo’s veins were popping, but he held it. However, he almost lost it when Yaseia continued, “A shame. I thought you would truly lose it and get expelled. It seems that you are smarter than your daughter.”

The spectators winced, feeling their cheeks hurt for him.

Rose finished, “One million and one thrice and sold to patriarch Tang! Thank you for your patronage!”

Rose sent a beautiful smile towards Yaseia and mouthed, ‘Backstage, after.’ Then she winked, making Yaseia raise her beautiful straight eyebrow.

Chapter 74

Yaseia raised her eyebrow but didn’t say anything. While returning from the balcony, she went to her own seat this time. She also took her baby with her tail on the way, and after sitting, she put Angel on her lap, straddling her. Yaseia pushed Angel’s head between her breasts, and after hugging her, she relaxed.

Angel circled her with her arms and legs and started to take deep breaths. Angel felt playful and licked Yaseia on her valley. “Mom, even if you would have paid that million... Aahn~ Wasn’t too much money? Baby~ stop licking~.”

Yaseia whispered huskily, “Or I’m going to take you in front of them~.”

Yaseia used her tail to trace her spine, and Angel trembled and stopped her teasing. She just rubbed her head on her softness, making Yaseia squint comfortably.

Tatyana waved her hand and made it impossible for other people to look inside, activating the room’s privacy formation. Tatyana said, “Don’t worry, love. I knew they would fall for it. If you want, I can fight for what they truly want. To be honest, I don't want to go to war with them. If we can resolve this between juniors, it will be ideal."

Tatyana said, "I heard that from the 500 disciples that came, six died during these two days... Be it because of locals or fights with our rival sects. That is why the teachers in charge recommend staying in the inn...."

Yasenia looked at the ax being sold. Seeing that it was middle-level heaven grade, she asked Andrea while petting Angel, "Darling, do you want that ax? We have enough for it."

Andrea looked and then shook her head. "Although it is better than my current one, I use halberds, not heavy axes."

Yasenia nodded. In the end, it sold for 650 crystal coins. Yasenia asked, "Mom, there is the transcendent grade after heaven grade, right? Is the same for cultivators?" T

Tatyana looked at her and said, "When you reach the unification realm, I will tell you about the next cultivation realm, it is called transcendent-realm, but I won't tell you about it now."

Yasenia asked, curious, "Why?"

Tatyana answered with a sigh, "There is a statement in our world that is the same no matter where you go. "All below transcendence are ants!" And it is true. A recently advanced transcendent can fight against 1000 Dantian spiritualization realm experts and win. The number of people that can fight against a transcendent cultivator without being one is... Zero. It is like saying to a normal mortal to win against a Body Modification realm cultivator. Chances of winning are basically zero."

Yasenia nodded; she saw a cauldron being sold. It was also a heaven realm treasure, "Evelyn, do you want it?"

Evelyn looked and said, "I have a high-level earth-realm one... Not necessary. The thing I was lacking was a nice herb refiner, and you gave it to me."

Yasenia nodded and hugged Angel tighter. They looked at her and knew that she was getting restless. Tatyana said, "Don't worry, love. I know you are afraid of them hurting any of you when you are out of my sight, but they won't. Moreover, during my stay in this city, I won't leave your side. An instant is enough for the hidden monsters here to kill you. I won't leave your side and let that happen, not to you nor any of the girls here."

Yasenia raised her legs, putting her feet on the sofa chair and sandwiching Angel between her thighs and chest. Angel was getting heated because she could feel her hardness press in her flower in this position. Yasenia knew it, and she started to rub slightly so that no one but Tatyana realized.

Yasenia looked at Tatyana and then at Cecile. Tatyana took the hint and created a mini formation to block Yasenia's signals and scent. Yasenia said, "Look, the next treasure is a giant sword."

Angel was trembling in embarrassment, shame, and arousal. 'W-What is she doing in a place like this!?'

Their position was very intimate, and the others couldn't see Angel's face because it was buried between her big breasts. Yasenia sneaked her tail under Angel's long skirt from an angle only

Tatyana could see. She pressed it on Angel's skin and climbed upwards. 'N-No way she wants to...!'

The tail climbed between Angel's legs, rubbing her core, and went up under her robe. The tail caressed her skin, and it passed between Angel's big breasts, reaching between Yasenia's breasts or in front of Angel's face.

Yasenia's tail tip touched Angel's lips, and Angel shamefully looked down and opened her mouth to let the tail enter. Angel's face was deep red as she thought, 'I-In a place I-like this... W-Why am I getting so aroused!?'

Angel was going crazy in arousal because the scent that Yasenia was releasing was very powerful. Moreover, the delicious and pleasurable tail between her breasts and in her mouth was causing havoc in her brain!

Yasenia continued to make conversation with them while doing all of this.

Rose sold the giant sword and another object made an appearance. Yasenia said, "Interesting. Is that a bow or a sword?"

Andrea answered, "Both... Very strange, the edges of the bow are actually very sharp, and the body of the bow is very sturdy... How can you shoot arrows? I think you would need a stupidly high strength like Yasenia to shoot!"

Yasenia smiled and said, somewhat seductively, "You think I can shoot it?"

Andrea nodded. "If you advance a little more, I think you will be able to shoot it."

Yasenia said, "Good, then I will advance and shoot!"

Andrea laughed, "Are you going to buy it?"

Yasenia shook her head, laughing. Meanwhile, Angel, who was listening, knew what Yasenia was speaking about! This was because she felt the tail-tip inflate and try to advance in her throat! Angel opened her mouth and heard a husky whisper, "I'm cumming~."

Angel felt the tail penetrate her throat, bulging it and shooting cum directly into her belly, smearing her insides white.

Angel hugged Yasenia hard and tried her best to muffle her moans. Electricity zapped her brain when the cum went down her throat directly. This made her squirt powerfully; she was wetting everything as the pleasure invaded her senses. 'She came in me around all these people and in public!! But I can't stop!! It feels too good!!!'

Tatyana made them look at the stage. "Is Rose going to do one of her dances today? Look, I think she is going to start." All of them looked at the stage.

Angel has never felt so shamefully good and was enjoying it more than she should. Yasenia smirked while thinking, 'Does my baby has this hobby~?'

Yasenia stopped cumming and took back her tail. She put her legs down and took out a jade with a single-use clean-up formation, all the body fluids evaporated, and the air around them got suctioned inside the jade. Therefore, thanks to Tatyana and that jade, not a single trace was left of their little play... Besides the melted face of Angel, which was hidden between Yasenia's breasts.

Andrea felt the formation activating and asked, "Why did you activate those clean-up formations?"

Yasenia said, growling comfortably after orgasming, "I was starting to release a strong scent, especially since I have my dear baby in my lap."

Cecile and the others chuckled and nodded. Cecile said, "She truly is dancing... Well, it is more a way to show all her assets to the world. Truly shameless, doing these things in public."

Angel heard that and was aroused again! She was still feeling the afterglow of her big orgasm and a little delirious with affection, Angel licked the cleavage in front of her. Then, with her little hands on top of Yasenia's tail's root, she massaged the black part of Yasenia's tail.

Yasenia growled even more comfortably and closed her eyes, letting Angel do what she wanted.

Tatyana smiled lewdly for a second 'What a good show~ Thank you, my daughter, for the treat~.'

Tatyana woke up the two of them, saying, "The egg is next."

Yasenia opened her eyes and picked up Angel by the butt while standing up. She walked towards the balcony to see more clearly. Angel just clung to her and started kissing her neck.

Evelyn said, "Oy Angel, I know you feel comfortable, but behave yourself a little. We are in public."

These words awoke her completely! Angel's face became red, then crimson, then almost maroon. 'KYAAAAA!!!! WHAT DID I JUST DOO!?' Angel fainted in embarrassment.

Yasenia and Evelyn looked surprised. Followed by Yasenia and Tatyana letting out a peal of laughter while Evelyn said, scratching her cheek. "I shouldn't have spoken... She fainted in embarrassment... My bad, Yasenia."

Yasenia went towards Evelyn and kissed her. "Don't worry, dear. It is good that you told her, she should hold back when in public~."

Evelyn nodded, and thankfully Angel was unconscious, or she would have fainted at Yasenia's shamelessness.

Rose spoke at this moment, "under this curtain is a mysterious egg! We don't know what species it is, and the area where the cultivators found it was very remote. It appeared one day after a big fight between two beasts."

Rose spoke mysteriously, "We have been trying to find clues about it for ten years. However, we found nothing. What is the meaning of this? Of course, That is very valuable. The starting offer will be 2000 crystals! With 200 crystal minimum increments!"

The offers started flying, and soon it reached 3000 crystals. Yasenia fixated her gaze on it while caressing Angel, who had regained consciousness but had a bet-red face. Suddenly she felt a slight aura coming from it and whispered, "It is a dragon egg."

Yasenia then entered the bid, "3200."

Tatyana was surprised. “Those are very rare... You can’t buy one even with one billion crystals. Dragon species have one trait that makes them superior. Unlimited growth. Normally an average dragon dies because they are too big and can’t generate enough energy to maintain its body functions. On the other side, a newborn dragon is one of the weakest beasts.”

Yasenia bid again, “3800!”

Tatyana continued her explanation while Yasenia bid, “There are other dragon races that instead of growing in size, they grow in strength; Yasenia is one. With her tail attributes, even if she never consciously trained, she will advance in her cultivation automatically.” The others looked surprised at her tail.

Yasenia looked around. There were some people down there and one hidden VIP room fighting with her. Although Tatyana helped her before, that was to face-slap those patriarchs. Now her pocket only had 13 thousand crystal coins! Yasenia frowned and said, “The bids aren’t slowing down... 5600!”

Yasenia said, “Mom, can’t you help me this once? This is a dragon egg!”

Tatyana shook her head. “Love, I told you the day you left, unless it is against fighting seniors or indirectly helping, I won’t help you. Buying you a dragon pet is like giving you wings.” Yasenia bit her lips.

One VIP room said, “10 000.”

Yasenia responded instantly and with a taunting voice, “11 000~” She can’t show weakness!

The man in that VIP room said, “Girl, let this thing go; you won’t even be able to use it. I will even give you 10 000 crystals if you let it go now.”

Yasenia laughed charmingly and said, “A mere 10 000 crystals? I can go all day. You know how much money I have since I used a part of it against Patriarch Tang~ Remember, you can’t make an offer in this auction house unless you have the amount told. Retire; you can’t win.”

Tatyana nodded in praise. ‘You don’t have it now, but you had it before. Bluff your way in.’

The VIP room man spoke, “I don’t want to do something regretful; let it go. 11 200.”

Yasenia laughed calmly, “Not even showing your face and resorting to threats? Even if you have influence, I don’t know who you are! 12 000!”

The VIP room man said, “Do not regret it later.”

Rose started the countdown. “12 000 going once, 12 000 going twice! 12 000 going thrice! Sold to the sexy VIP guest! Please come down to get it!”

Yasenia frowned and asked, “Why do I have to come down? Didn’t the rest objects get sent to the rooms?”

Rose thought for an excuse and said, “Is to make sure that nobody changes your normal looking egg for a truly normal egg! Do you want us to send it up anyways?”

Tatyana snickered at the side, knowing what Rose wanted to do.

Yasenia sighed, “Whatever~.”

She moved to the side and left Angel in her seat. Angel languidly sat while rubbing her still warm belly.

Yasenia laughed at her actions and then went to get her prize.

Chapter 75

The spectators saw the door on the side open, and a tall female walked through it. She had her robes quite opened, showing a large expanse of flawless skin.

Below her golden slit eyes, she had a semi-transparent black veil and scarf, which made her countenance mysterious and charming at the same time.

Her sashaying hips attracted attention, making people look at her frontal bare long legs. Then their gaze went toward the part that showed her beast-human nature—a long and charming black-golden tail.

When Yasenia reached the stage, Rose and all the spectators couldn't help but be charmed by the dragoness. Rose was scanning her unabashedly while thinking, 'Being pressed down by this big beauty should be fun~.'

Rose walked seductively towards her and gave the egg to Yasenia, rubbing their hands. Then she hugged the almost one head taller Yasenia making their bodies stick to each other, and the spectators gawked at the scene.

Meanwhile, a sweet floral scent assaulted Rose's senses. Rose blushed in excitement at the sensation of the soft, smooth, and fragrant body between her arms, but she still managed to say the word she had already planned, "Congratulations! I hope you can tell our action house what is born from the egg!"

Then she whispered, "Meet me at the back of the stage later." She ended with a kiss on the cheek.

Yasenia didn't push her away or answer her whisper; it would be rude. She just said with a smile, "Thank you. I will tell you for sure when I know."

She then turned and left with her sashaying hips and inviting swishing tail. Rose looked at her back for a moment and continued the auction.

When Yasenia returned, a wide variety of faces welcomed her. She rolled her eyes and said, "She just hugged and kissed me on the cheek. Don't be overdramatic."

Then she picked Evelyn and put her on her lap, hugging her from behind.

Evelyn spoke, "As expected, your heavenly tits are the best pillow."

Yasenia chuckled, "You are doing less and less of those comments."

Evelyn said, "What, do you want me to comment on them forever? Even myself is getting out of ideas. Moreover, I can even lick them if I ask! A breast lover like me is satisfied!"

Yasenia laughed, then jokingly said, "A shame I can't lactate... I would have loved to feed you and my baby."

Evelyn blushed, and Angel fixed her gaze on her breasts as if looking into them. Tatyana said, "Is not impossible... Especially with your bloodline...."

Yasenia massaged her temples and asked, “Mom, what the hell has lactating and a dragon in common? We are reptiles! We put eggs!”

Tatyana said, “High-level dragons can transform into humans and mate with them. Male dragons are extremely well endowed down there, and they are very handsome. Female dragons are all beautiful and quite busty. Moreover, they can stimulate lactation whenever they want.”

Yasenia and the others were surprised; Tatyana continued, “This is because they don’t have natural creation of milk when pregnant. Of course, there must be a production time, which is normally a few hours....”

Tatyana looked at Yasenia’s breasts and said, “Your bust size is just above average between pure-blooded dragonesses. And your male member could be said to be even below average in length. However, your body is perfectly proportioned for all kinds of humanoid races. Having a bigger member would have made it impossible for you to mate with certain races like elves, and having it smaller would be too small to mate with taller humanoids like bear-kin or similar.”

Angel and the others looked at those pair of proud melons and then remembered her length... For the first time, they doubted her words.

Evelyn used one hand and lifted one of Yasenia’s breasts from below, making it spill from the sides of her hand. Then, she let it fall, making it bounce for some time and finally returning it to its naturally standing form as if reiterating her pair of perfect melons’ size, form, softness, perkiness, and elasticity.

Everyone appreciated that perfect bounce.

Tatyana said, holding her laughter, “I met once a dragoness that didn’t transform into her human form often because it was very inconvenient... She was as tall as Yasenia, and her breast cup was a human-size zz-cup.”

Yasenia and the others entered a coughing fit. ‘ZZ-CUP!? Was she breasts with a woman attached to them!?’

Tatyana laughed and said, “She couldn’t use weapons, hahaha... Her breasts were in the way when she was swinging weapons, so she normally stayed in dragon form.”

Yasenia thought about it and looked down. “Well, they don’t bother me right now... I heard that human women have their breasts grow when they lactate... Will it happen to me? I think they will truly start bothering me if they get bigger.”

Tatyana raised an eyebrow. “You want to lactate?”

Yasenia said, “More things to have fun. I bet all of you are right now trying to imagine the taste of my milk!”

Tatyana smiled as if she had said something obvious. Angel and the others imagined themselves sucking her breasts and started to blush. Even Andrea could be seen to have her mind wandering who knows where.

Yasenia’s gaze locked on darling’s and her baby’s reactions. Her eyes sparkled. ‘Did I find their fetish? Angel and Evelyn, I already guessed they would like it, but my Darling....’

What followed after that thought was... “Mom, teach me!” Obviously, to learn about it!

Tatyana took out a scroll and threw it to Yasenia. Yasenia saw that the next item in the auction was some pills for fire cultivators and ignored it. She started to read the scroll.

When the object was sold, Yasenia had finished reading the scroll and raised an eyebrow. “So easy?”

Tatyana was surprised. “What do you mean easy? Normally, the dragonesses I let that scroll had to practice it for 4 to 100 years!”

Yasenia looked strangely at her mother, and after sitting Evelyn beside her, she closed her eyes and circulated her energy. Tatyana and the others focused on her. When only five items in the auction were left, Yasenia opened her eyes. Yasenia asked Tatyana, “Mom, can you hide the room?”

Tatyana instantly activated the formation of the room. Yasenia lowered her front robe showing her full breasts, and said, “Mom come here.”

Tatyana was suspicious but approached and put her mouth on her daughter’s nipple, then sucked lightly. Yasenia moaned and started petting Tatyana on pure instinct.

Tatyana felt a delicious liquid enter her mouth, and her eyes opened in surprise. While sucking, she grabbed the other breast and pinched the nipple. Seeing milk spraying, she was amazed, and the others locked their gaze on it.

Yasenia slapped Tatyana’s hand and looked at her baby, who had her unblinking eyes in her free dripping breast. “Baby~ you want some~.”

Like a brainwashed person, Angel walked toward Yasenia and placed her mouth in one motion. Then, she started to suck strongly. Angel felt a warm liquid enter her mouth and tasted it with delight.

Then, Angel put her arms around her waist and pushed her face into the breast, deforming it. The sweet taste spread in her mouth, and when she gulped, she started trembling in pleasure. To Angel’s surprise, it had a mild effect compared to her semen, but the effect was there! Therefore, her sucking motion became faster.

The others observed Angel and raised an eyebrow while Evelyn swallowed. Yasenia frowned and asked, “How can I feed my future babies if they feel pleasure from my milk? Did the technique you gave me have any faults?”

Tatyana stopped drinking and licked her lips, “Delicious~.”

Yasenia put the also unblinking Evelyn in the now free breast, and she felt her suck with passion! With her two dears showing such love for her breastmilk, Yasenia was extremely happy, which her tail showed clearly.

Yasenia thought, ‘Should I milk myself and prepare breakfast with my breastmilk~?’

Tatyana spoke into her head, ‘Little treasure, what kind of a stupid question is that? The answer is obviously yes! You should start to develop cooking. Maybe you can do it beneficial to cultivation in the future. I have some manuals that I can let you~.’

Yasenia's eyes shined, and she looked at her mother with eagerness.

Meanwhile, Cecil was red-faced seeing this show, and Andrea was a little fidgety.

Tatyana answered Yasenia's previous question, "Don't worry, dear, it has different effects depending on the person sucking it. Unless a person romantically loves you, it will only have the taste and relaxation effects. By the way, you have the most delicious dragon milk I tasted in my life."

Tatyana couldn't help but lick her lips again.

Yasenia separated Angel, who looked longingly at the pink nipple, and looked towards Andrea, saying, "Darling come here~."

Andrea shook her head, "Don't worry, I'm not that curious~" But she was pushed by Tatyana, tripped by Tatyana, and her fall was guided by Tatyana making her fall in her nipple expertly.

Yasenia didn't lose the chance and squeezed her full breast, making milk enter her mouth. Andrea felt a delicious liquid enter her mouth and swallowed instinctively.

Yasenia teased, "Ahn~ My darling is drinking my milk~."

Andrea unlatched herself quickly and hid her face with one hand, completely embarrassed. Yasenia laughed, and after separating Evelyn, with difficulty... "Dear, stop biting! I will give you more later, but not now!" With much difficulty, she raised her front.

Yasenia said coquettishly while shaking her bosom, "Don't worry~ tonight I will let you drink as much as you want~" They almost jumped at her again!

Tatyana saw that only four items were left and asked, "Are you interested in any of the last four items?"

Yasenia answered, "Let's see them. We don't have anything more planned to do today anyway...."

The first of the four items was a high-level heaven realm formation pen. This item lets the cultivators use their energy to draw formation lines even from a distance. However, the speed is not too fast, making it unusable in fights. Even Yasenia carries one to draw simple and useful formations that need more than just energy.

This is another reason why Angel's combat style is strange, to say the least, and was praised by Tatyana.

Since Yasenia only had 1500 crystal coins left, she couldn't get the item, which sold at a staggering 67 654 crystal coins.

The next item was a movement technique scroll; also a high-level heaven grade, the price for this is even higher than the previous item, reaching 242 000 crystal coins.

The next item was a formation core; surprisingly, a low-level transcendence ranked item! The quality between heaven realm and transcendence realm items is as big as the difference between mortal cultivators and transcendent realm cultivators, massive!

The starting price for the item was an impressive 5 000 000 crystal coins! However, this didn't deter the big houses as the bids were flying left and right.

“12 000 000”

“14 000 000”

The price continued escalating at impressive speed, and Yasenia and Tatyana, who were paying attention to the bidders, caught the voice of Tang Guo and Long Tian. They seemed to want this item with fervor.

“Forty million crystal coins!”

That was the current price of this item, and it kept growing! The Patriarchs were even exchanging words while bidding, making competitors retreat one by one. They seemed to be doing good work discouraging the other major competitor.

Now, Tang Guo was fighting only with a woman toe to toe. The big increments made by the Patriarch made the woman doubt if continuing to bid.

However, when she was about to give up, and they were approaching the 100 million, a strange bid came from Tang Guo, “99 million! I don’t want to enter the one hundred; give up.”

This bid was because He couldn’t reach the one hundred million! Yasenia’s previous involvement made their founds a little awkward! The woman seemed to have caught on to this and offered tentatively, “ninety-nine million five hundred thousand crystal coins.”

A big BANG! was heard from Tang Guo’s room! Tang Guo was completely furious! If he had 100 million, the bid wouldn’t have been so awkward, and he would have won!

His opponents have brought 105 million, and he knew it. That is why he was making 10 million increments! With how he planned to increase the prices and all the other tactics, he was 80% confident in winning.

Sadly saying ‘99 million’ or saying ‘100 million’ sounds very different. The first is like saying your limit, and the second is like starting a new fighting line with confidence.

Tatyana also caught onto this and laughed, “That brat has truly been done well by you, love! Hahaha.”

Yasenia also smiled, “It was your idea, mom, don’t throw all the flowers my way~.”

Tatyana pecked her with a smile “A mother and daughter combination!” Yasenia laughed happily.

After many angry sounds and slams, the theater became quiet again. Rose gestured to the staff to bring the last item, “As you all know, our last item is normally the most precious. Today we have a special beast core! This core can be fed to young beasts and increase their potential and growth speed many folds. The reason for it being more precious than the formation core is because it was stolen from the dragons of the forbidden zone, the forest of life! They were going to use this to feed their youngest princess, but luckily, some cultivators managed to steal it! ”

Tatyana frowned imperceptibly. Rose said, “the beginning price is 10 million crystals, no less increment than one million!”

Tatyana opened her mouth, using aura in her voice, “500 million, carry it up directly.”

Rose choked, and everyone that was about to bet entered a coughing fit.

Chapter 76

After Tatyana's absolutely crushing bid, everyone who was excited to bid felt their mouths twitching. Yasenia looked at her mother adoringly 'Domineering!'

Tatyana looked at Yasenia's eyes and thought, 'If she starts looking at me like that more often, I might as well tie her on the bed! She is screaming to get pounded into the bed!'

Rose started counting down and seeing that nobody bid for it, she sealed the deal. The staff got the orb and carried it to Tatyana.

Tatyana inspected the orb and seeing that the effect was actually better than what Rose said, she smiled, satisfied. 'With this, I will return the favor, I needed fresh royal dragon bloodline for the ancient formation.... I will go after the tournament. I can't leave my little treasure right now anyways. '

Since the auction ended, they got up and left. Wanting to return early today, Yasenia's group went around the auction house, and they all entered through the backdoor. Rose was there in her extremely revealing dress. She looked toward Yasenia and smiled happily.

Yasenia cut in, saying calmly, "If your objective is to have an intimate relationship with me, tell me fast so that I can leave."

Rose raised an eyebrow. "Aren't I beautiful? Why wouldn't you, a person with a harem, accept me?"

Yasenia shook her head and didn't bother. "Is this all? If so, we are leaving."

Rose said calmly, "I wanted to know why you wanted that egg and know what type of egg it is. "

Yasenia looked at her and said, "I don't know, I don't have a beast companion yet, and I saw a chance here. Raising them from the beginning is a lot easier, and as you said, since the egg has extraordinary qualities, the beast wouldn't be a common one. "

Rose smiled and said, "10 years, and we haven't found anything about it, yet I see that you are oddly confident. How are you going to hatch it? Its previous two owners gave up and returned it to the auction house."

Yasenia answered, "I'm only 20 years old. I have all the time in the world to try things and bring the egg around the cultivation world. I'm sure I will find something someday."

Rose revealed a surprised expression. "You are almost at the third realm at 20 years old?"

Yasenia didn't even have the minimum interest in Rose, so she turned and left; she was wasting her time here. Rose stopped her hastily "wait, wait, why are you so anxious to leave? I want to talk a little more~."

Cecile spoke in her cold voice, "I'm already tired to open my mouth again and again, but can you not sense that I'm her marked mate? People from the Dantian Spiritualization realm and above should be able to sense it! Can you all stop flirting with my wife!"

Then she turned and took Yasenia's arm to drag her away, leaving a stumped Rose behind. Tatyana was barely holding her laughter and followed behind them with the others.

Cecile looked at Yasenia's face and then her body and robes and bit her lips. Yasenia stopped, and without caring about the surroundings, she embraced her waist and bent down to capture her lips in a very deep and sensual kiss.

Cecile was at first surprised but then embraced her neck and reciprocated the kiss happily. Cecile relaxed as she felt Yasenia's flavor spread in her mouth. 'Much better...'

Yasenia stopped the kiss and looked at her icy blue eyes, "Better? Cecile, I'm yours, no matter who covets me; I'm yours from that night I choose you. You can be as jealous as you want and hate it all you want. I will reassure you time and time again that I'm yours. However, do not be so sensitive and let it affect your heart."

Cecile looked into the golden slit eyes, only to see herself reflected. Her words were like music, and her voice was like a honey coating above her heart.

Yasenia smiled, making her eyes curve, and said. "I also promised not to betray any of you. I know my actions until now are not very reassuring, but can you put faith in me? I don't want to be trusted so little. My love has mostly been given out, and my heart is full of all of you."

Cecile hugged her and buried her face in her neck. "I know, it's just... I seem to have become very possessive of you... I can't control myself. Sometimes I'm tempted to just become pregnant whenever you try to fertilize me and shackle you to me with family ties."

Yasenia's tail started to wag happily, but she had a clearer head right now because she was partially emptied before.

She tightened the hug, surrounding Cecile with her soft body, and said, "You don't need that, I'm your dragoness, and you are my treasure. I love you all a lot, Cecile."

Yasenia looked at the others and gently said, "Let's go home. We can spend the rest of the day relaxing in the living room and reading some of your favorite books." Cecile looked at Yasenia and nodded with a happy smile.

When they started going back, the others and Yasenia saw a handsome youth approaching, and Cecile frowned. Yasenia stopped herself from lashing out instantly and listened to his first words. "I'm the person who wanted the egg in the auction, and I advise you to give it to me-"

Yasenia was in no mood for this. 'Can't they leave me alone!?! Always bothering me, I'm sick of this!'

Her aura exploded tyrannically, Locking the guy in place! Then she gathered energy in her throat, and ROAAAR! a brutal dragon roar exploded from her mouth, exploding the guy's eardrums and making him faint.

Yasenia's face became enraged, and she growled to the people around, "I don't want to kill you, so scam before my already nonexistent patience runs out even more!"

The people waiting for a show scrambled around as they fled from the angry dragoness! Yasenia restarted walking, and when she passed by the guy, she calmed her aura, making him fall to the ground with bleeding ears, eyes, and nose.

The people in their way let them pass without bothering the group anymore.

Angel and the others had starry eyes as they looked at Yasenia ‘She is so cool!!!’

Like this, they reached home, and Andrea hugged Yasenia from the back. “That attitude, I like. Very sexy and fitted for your bloodline!”

Angel was nodding like a pecking chicken.

Evelyn commented, “As expected, the talent is high, the stature is high, the aura is also fitting, and you also have enormous ti-” Bang!

Yasenia pushed Andrea to the sofa and straddled her, and then she buried her face in her neck. Andrea hugged her, secured her, and gave her a massage on her tail in that position. Yasenia started growing comfortably and snuggled deeper. “Darling’s embrace is the best~.”

Andrea hugged the soft body between her arms tighter and gave her kisses, pampering the dragoness.

They passed the afternoon like that until sunset approached. Yasenia changed to her cultivation kimono and went to cultivate. After dusk ended, she went to Andrea’s room.

Andrea was on a chair in her room, looking through the window. The moonlight softly surrounded her, giving a silvery light to her tanned skin. Her light green eyes were contemplative as she watched the outside.

Yasenia stood there a short while, admiring Andrea’s beauty. She even took a silent artifact and took out a photo. ‘Another one for my collection~ Speaking of collections... What was that Volume 2 of how to make Yasenia wag her tail in my baby’s bedroom? I wasn’t able to read the contents before my baby stored it.’

Returning to herself, Yasenia walked toward Andrea’s bed and sat beside her. “Is something wrong, darling?”

Andrea shook her head and said in her deep and clear voice, “It’s just that I’ve never been this happy in my 31 years of age. Every day is fun. Speaking with the girls and receiving your affections... Some months ago, this was just a distant dream.”

Andrea stood up and went to bed, sitting beside Yasenia. Yasenia smiled gently and hugged Andrea, “I feel the same, darling. a little more than a year ago, I didn’t even have my first kiss. Who would have known that the person to steal it was my own mother, hahaha.”

Andrea looked at the charming laughing face and became entranced, ‘She is just so beautiful, inside-out. If she can charm a person with her appearance, she can entangle them with herself.’

Yasenia looked at Andrea’s dazed face, and her smile widened, “Darling, whether we are living in a dream or reality, let’s live our life to the fullest so that we have no regrets.”

Andrea hugged her and said softly, “I love you, Yasenia. I will always protect you, no matter what.”

Yasenia hugged her tighter and answered, with full confidence in her words, “En, I never doubted that. My darling is the best.”

Yasenia looked up at Andrea, and Andrea lowered her face, caressing Yasenia's lips with hers. The kiss was slow and satisfactory. Both became entranced in their action, and they used their lips to taste the others as if they were eating the softest creams.

The kiss escalated, and Andrea sucked Yasenia's tongue into her mouth to taste the delicious saliva of the dragoness. Yasenia loved the more assertive part of Andrea; being dominated by her was always pleasurable for Yasenia.

Andrea lowered her hand and took Yasenia's hardness into her hand. Using her fingers, she caressed it softly and gently. Yasenia let her weight fall into Andrea's embrace as she received the loveliest hand-job in her life.

Andrea continued the slow strokes on her hardness and made enough pressure for her pleasure to escalate. Yasenia growled comfortably.

Limp, the dragoness moaned, kissed, and growled as Andrea made her putty with her hand. "Darling~ I love you~ So good, your hand is so good~."

Andrea caressed Yasenia's ears with her deep voice, "Who is a good girl?"

Yasenia answered, rubbing her body on Andrea, "Me, I'm your good girl~ mmm, but darling, I'm bad, and I feel like reaching it already oh~ so good~ so comfortable~."

Andrea said, kissing her tenderly, "Does my girl feel that good?"

Yasenia nodded, Andrea said, "Don't worry, where does my girl want to cum? Tell me, love."

Yasenia felt Andrea's voice tingling her senses, and the orgasm that was near was triggered, making her unable to answer. 'My darling's voice is too much~.'

Andrea felt it inflate and lowered her head, putting her lips on her tip and kissing it. Yasenia came. "Ohhh..."

Andrea savored the cum in her mouth and enjoyed its taste, 'She is as delicious as always.'

Yasenia felt Andrea sucking on her tip while she came, drinking everything she released, and her orgasm extended because of her excitement. 'My darling likes my seed~.'

After Yasenia stopped cumming, Andrea lifted her head and kissed Yasenia. Yasenia had golden-pink eyes as she looked at Andrea. "Darling~"

They kissed another while, and Yasenia regained some arm strength. She managed to separate from Andrea and said sultrily, "Now, darling~ It is time for the night you were anxiously waiting for~."

Andrea chuckled and looked toward the door.

The door opened, showing Tatyana in a transparent nightgown. As Tatyana approached, Andrea and Yasenia ate her up with their eyes, "Tonight, my little treasure has forbidden me from taking out any toys. I hope you can satisfy me, or I will take the more advanced ones."

Yasenia stood up, and she went to Tatyana's side. They then stripped each other. When they were fully naked, they both hugged naked and kissed with their tongues out in an extremely lewd manner, making a show for Andrea.

Then while hugging each other, they looked toward Andrea and touched each other vaginas, which were already dripping, especially Yasenia's. They said at the same time, "Mother and daughter are under your orders tonight~."

Chapter 77

Andrea, who had her pajama pants stretched in a mighty tent, stood approached them. She picked both of them by their waist, making them giggle, and threw them on the bed. They both exclaimed, "Hyan~ So mighty~."

Then they hugged, pressing their breasts together, and opened their legs towards Andrea, showing the already dripping bare flowers. Andrea felt herself twitch.

She stripped and pinned them both, pressing one leg on each flower. They rubbed their wet cores on her leg, and Andrea started kissing Tatyana.

Yasenia rubbed herself on the leg hornily and asked, "Darling~ May I use my tail on Tatyana~?"

Andrea commanded in her deep voice without separating from Tatyana, "Penetrate her as far as you can and ravage her."

The tail moved fast and penetrated Tatyana deeply, making her moan. Then, the tail ravaged her, and Andrea changed to Yasenia's lips.

While Andrea kissed Yasenia, Tatyana asked, "Andrea~ Can I do a handjob on Yasenia?"

Andrea ordered, "I want her cumming in three minutes."

Tatyana's hand grabbed Yasenia's member and started pumping, caressing it oh so well that Yasenia sped up her rubbing on Andrea's leg. Andrea continued kissing them while Tatyana and Yasenia stimulated each other. Yasenia was reaching it, so she moaned, "I'm close! Darling~Aahn~ Where do I put my cum~ Ah! Ohhh, I'm cumming shortly!"

Andrea ordered, "Down her throat."

Yasenia didn't waste time; she moved without unplugging her tail and grabbed Tatyana's head to penetrate her. Tatyana opened her mouth, welcoming her.

Yasenia, without caring for anything more than pouring her load down Tatyana's throat and deep into her butt, thrust deep inside. Tatyana had her throat penetrated and moaned in delight, sending those vibrations to Yasenia's member. Yasenia shouted in ecstasy, "I'm cumming!!"

Tatyana swallowed everything, and Yasenia's delicious cum made her eyes roll up and squirt.

Andrea watched with arousal from the side how the mother's throat bulged thanks to her daughter's girth and load.

After mother and daughter came down from their orgasm, Andrea chose Yasenia for the first penetration. Andrea ordered with her magnetic voice, "On top of Tatyana, and penetrate her vagina. However, be a good girl and don't move."

Yasenia blushed at her tone and answered, "Yes, darling~."

Yasenia pinned Tatyana onto the bed, penetrating her with one powerful thrust PAH. She used her legs to open both their legs and hilted completely, leaving Yasenia's lower lips Touching below

Tatyana's widened flower petals. Yasenia started kissing Tatyana, and after she felt Andrea's tip, she became excited.

Andrea mercilessly hilted herself in one thrust "MMMPPHH~."

Tatyana felt Yasenia's hardness twitch in pleasure inside her and became more aroused. She returned the kiss lovingly and waited for the big girl to send them to heaven.

Andrea took back her length until only the head was inside and then pounded her dragoness into oblivion.

PAH PAH PAH

Yasenia bounced as Andrea roughly invaded her insides. The pink inside Yasenia's eyes grew as her darling dominated her, "MORE, MORE! Ah! Ah! Ah! Darling, I love your dick!"

Andrea penetrated the deepest she could, and Yasenia's cervix came down to greet the one that would be filling her tonight.

Andrea felt Yasenia's cervix surround her hardness and her waist became even more violent. Thanks to Yasenia's pleasurable inner spasms, Andrea felt that Yasenia was about to cum, so she ordered between moans, "Yasenia, enter Grunt all you can in Tatyana's back with your tail when cumming!"

Yasenia obeyed, she put more strength on her legs, raising her and Tatyana's hips more, and when her back hole was perfect for deeper penetration, her tail pushed further than the 20cm. "Mmmph!!!"

Tatyana moaned, and her insides stimulated Yasenia even more. However, Yasenia continued the orders, wiggling her tail, and made her way inside Tatyana. This time, her objective was Fit all you can inside.

Tatyana felt her tail wiggle, spin, push, thrust... Penetrating deeper as Andrea was pounding Yasenia.

The tail was already an inhuman 40cm deep but continued its movements, ravaging her insides. Tatyana couldn't hold against this stimulation and directly came. "MMPH!!!"

Yasenia felt the contractions in Tatyana's holes, and fireworks exploded in her mind, making her cum with her three sexes. In turn, this made Andrea feel a sudden clenching, suction, and spasms inside Yasenia, and she also orgasmed, filling Yasenia and making all three cum in a chain orgasm! "OOHHHHHH!!!"

After filling the dragoness, Andrea took out her member and looked at both women. They were exchanging kisses lovingly and connected very deeply. Andrea saw the greatly buried tail, enlarging Tatyana's backdoor amounts that would scare a mortal, and her penis twitched.

Andrea said, "Yasenia, take out your dick but leave the tail, then stand on your feet and hands."

Yasenia did as told, positioning her body and standing on all fours. Tatyana continued lying there with her insides invaded by the soft and squishy tail. 'She is so deep~.'

Andrea aimed at Tatyana's entrance while Yasenia's beautiful flower was in front of her face. The tail was long enough to let Andrea move into Tatyana without bothering her, so she dove in both, making them moan in pleasure.

Andrea, not caring about her own fluids staining it, ate Yasenia's soft, sweet, and delicious flower ravenously. 'She is like cream~ so soft and delicious.'

While pistoning in Tatyana, she used her arms to grab Yasenia and push her face deeper into her softness, burying even her nose. Yasenia was completely enamored with her darling's passion for her privates.

Because of Yasenia's position, Tatyana had the giant dangling breasts of Yasenia just above her head. She didn't miss the chance to raise her head and suck those dangling melons.

When she bit the nipple, it sprayed milk which Tatyana didn't expect.

While being deliciously eaten by Andrea, Yasenia moaned sultrily, "Do you like aahn~ Your daughter's milk~? Mmm! Drink, mommy; I want to feed you as you did to me~."

Tatyana's holes clenched at the sound of that voice, and Andrea moaned. Yasenia's words made Tatyana go over the edge, making her bit the nipple hard.

Milk sprayed, and Tatyana came because of the sinful taste in her mouth.

Andrea felt Tatyana's electrifying clenching, also bringing her over the edge, so she took out her member and came on Tatyana's stomach without stopping her mouth.

Yasenia was close, but since she didn't cum. She took the initiative while they were orgasming.

She took out the tail leaving a gaping hole that closed shortly. Then, with her eyes almost completely pink, she pushed Andrea onto the bed face down and penetrated her vagina. Andrea, who was mid-orgasm, moaned loudly.

Meanwhile, she placed Tatyana on top of Andrea's back and cradled her, penetrating Tatyana's vagina with the tail and putting her nipple in Tatyana's mouth. She used her free hand and played with Tatyana's recently ravaged butthole.

She started moving her tail and waist, pounding both of them. Yasenia multitasked as she sent both of them into a moaning spree.

Tatyana felt that this was too indecent, and she loved it.

She was completely open-legged while she drank her daughter's milk, and the tail was thrusting into her, flaring pleasure waves with its wiggling movements that were impossible for a normal member.

Better yet, Yasenia was fingering her sensitive butt while cradling her like a baby, making those pleasure waves cause havoc in her brain. After a short while, Tatyana came. Her eyes rolled back, and her back arched, spraying squirt until it reached the adjacent wall.

Andrea wasn't any better. With Tatyana's weight on her, and her legs spread open, the dragoness was pistoning inside her as if she wanted to dig her insides out. Yasenia spoke, "Darling~ let's enter your favorite Mmmh! spot, shall we~?"

Andrea shook her head, but Yasenia made a powerful thrust and entered through her cervix directly to the uterus; Andrea's face morphed with pleasure and came, staining the sheets with rope after rope of cum.

Yasenia did the same with her tail and also forced Tatyana's cervix open, invading those spots where she would put a child in the future.

The tightness of these two entrances was extremely stimulating, and Yasenia shouted in ecstasy, "I'm cumming!!"

Both Tatyana and Andrea felt the rods inflate and spurt rope after rope of their dear dragoness's cum. The nerves on their waist exploded with pleasure signals, and both entered another orgasmic spasm.

Yasenia had already entered sex mode and didn't stop! She put down the Twitching Tatyana, who had three consecutive big orgasms, and cradled Andrea to the left so that she could suck her other full breast. Andrea deliriously sucked Yasenia's milk while the dragoness looked adoringly at her.

Yasenia picked up Tatyana by the waist with her tail and positioned her above Andrea's standing member. Then, she let Tatyana fall, making Andrea penetrate her deeply. The sensitive girls gasped in delight.

Tatyana started to move her waist in the cowgirl position.

Yasenia didn't finish with Andrea; she used her free hand to put her ring and middle finger inside Andrea's cum dripping flower and started fingering her strongly and hooking her fingers, touching those sweet spots.

With her tail now free, Yasenia penetrated Andrea's back hole and started thrusting rapidly. Andrea bit the nipple in her mouth, making milk spray, which didn't help calm the pleasure the sex-crazed dragoness was giving her.

Andrea had her rod pleased by Tatyana, her vagina fingered by Yasenia, and her butt ravaged by her tail, all of this while she drank Yasenia's milk. Andrea didn't have another option but to fall into a world of pleasure.

She couldn't control her orgasm and came, "I'm cumming!!!"

Tatyana let her member out, and Andrea sprayed. They stopped moving to let Andrea relax for a short moment.

When Tatyana and Yasenia felt her stop orgasming, Tatyana reinserted Andrea, and they continued the attack in that position. Andrea came another two times in that position.

Yasenia was close to cumming, so she let Andrea fall onto the bed and moved behind the bouncing Tatyana. Then, Yasenia penetrated Andrea's flower and started pounding her. Seeing Tatyana bouncing before her, Yasenia hugged Tatyana from behind and used one hand to rub Tatyana's clitoris and another to play with her breast. The three started moaning crazily.

Yasenia finally felt it coming. "Ohhh, this feels AH! good! I'm Cumming!"

Yasenia pinched Tatyana's clitoris and nipple, making Tatyana's back arch while letting out a throaty moan, "OHHHH!" Andrea trembled, feeling both her holes being filled with the dragoness's cum.

Yasenia put Tatyana aside and moved above Andrea's twitching member. She felt it was a waste of her darling's release spurting outside, so she glomped Andrea's member with her flower. She started jumping in the cowgirl position, and Tatyana lay on the bed, relaxing from this crazy round.

Andrea felt her rod being wrapped in warmth again, and the oversensitive member sent pleasure spikes to her brain, making her shout because of the pleasure. "Yasenia Ah! AH! AH! let me Ohh! rest, I can't! It feels too good!!!"

Yasenia continued bouncing in her darling's hardness, delighted. "Darling~Ah! Ah! It feels so good, fill me, darling~ Ohh!"

Then Andrea felt Yasenia's cervix open, glomp her tip, and close, squeezing her sensitive member.

Suddenly, Andrea felt Yasenia's uterus releasing a liquid full of life energy, surrounding her glomped tip. This was a liquid that would then become an egg!

Andrea's heartbeat accelerated as she saw Yasenia looking down at her with a loving smile and completely pink eyes. Yasenia lowered her upper body and started whispering lovingly, "Darling~ one more time, cum inside me~ Impregnate me~."

Andrea had heard about Yasenia's desire for children from the others. However, she didn't expect Yasenia to want her child, instead of Yasenia trying to impregnate her! This was something extremely hard to resist for Andrea, especially now that they were having sex so passionately.

Yasenia slowed down her waist, changing from having sex to making love. Even with this, Andrea managed to deny her for some time. Still, Yasenia started whispering tenderly, growling beside her ear, kissing her softly, and moving her waist lovingly. "Darling~ Imagine me with a big belly with your child in it~ Don't you want to see that~? Impregnate me, please~."

The loving dragoness on top of her made Andrea so enticed that she didn't even know her own name anymore! She was so showered in love by the dragoness that something snapped, making Andrea fill Yasenia with fertile semen!

Yasenia felt Andrea's life energy and smiled widely, delighted. When she was about to use it to try and fertilize herself, Tatyana appeared fast.

She lifted her, unplugging her from Andrea, and BAM! hit her stomach with her palm before the impregnation happened. This sent an energy wave that pushed all the fluids outside her and onto the bed without injuring Yasenia.

Yasenia froze and looked down at the bed, where all the fluids were, not understanding what just happened. Tatyana hugged Yasenia and said, with an apologetic voice, "Sorry, little treasure."

This woke up Yasenia, making mother and daughter look at that spot with pained expressions.

Chapter 78

Andrea came back to herself and hastily hugged them both berating herself internally. 'Crap, I shouldn't have done that! Even if we want it, we can't have a child yet!'

Tatyana spoke disheartened, “Thankfully, it was before the impregnation happened... To be honest, I wouldn’t have the will to do that if the impregnation was successful...”

Yasenia looked down and said weakly, “Sorry... I know I mustn’t... but I love all of you so much... I just can’t control myself....”

Tatyana kissed Yasenia, stopping her from speaking. ‘This is one of the problems of finding her mate so young, it lit the spark of children and since she feels secure, this feeling is growing daily... Moreover, the fertility of her lovers isn’t that crippled because of the low cultivation level, which pushes her desire for a child further...’

Tatyana frowned a little, ‘However, she is considered a child among dragons. Her instincts shouldn’t be so strong toward breeding until much later. Where does this instinct come from? Even while she grew up, I haven’t once told her that having children young is good.’

Tatyana stopped her spinning thoughts and focused on her upset daughter. She spoke lovingly, and Andrea constantly kissed the beautiful dragoness, trying to cheer her up. “Little treasure, don’t worry, just be yourself; if you want to impregnate us while doing it, then release fertile semen. If you want to receive Andre’s fertile semen, ask for it. We will be the ones to resist the temptation until one day, one of us will come with good news for you.”

Andrea talked this time while Tatyana kissed and petted Yasenia. “That’s right. This time, it was my mistake; although I do not regret anything, I shouldn’t have done that. Don’t worry, Yasenia, I will make you pregnant one day. This, I promise.”

Yasenia looked down at the sheets and cried a little. Both of them showered her with kisses.

Cecile burst into the room and jumped toward Yasenia without caring about anything else. She carefully hugged Yasenia and also started kissing her tears away. Cecile spoke hastily and slightly anxiously. “What happened, my love? Why are you so sad? Don’t worry; we are here for you.”

Cecile couldn’t help but have her heart hurting seeing her like this. ‘What happened? I’ve never felt her so saddened.’

A short moment later, hearing the commotion, Angel and Evelyn arrived and hastily went to Yasenia’s side. Tatyana and Andrea took this chance to put on their clothes and change the bed for a clean one. Tatyana used a cleaning formation to clean everything.

Then, the five of them started pampering Yasenia to the skies and above to elevate her mood!

They kissed her, massaged her, told her sweet for nothings, and sometimes tickled her. When they felt Yasenia recovering her mood, they started playing with the still naked dragoness, who was growling happily between the five of them with a smile.

The five continued making her laugh, making her smile, making her pout... Showering the dragoness in tenderness.

Cecile nodded and said gently, “This is the face that suits you the most. Our dragoness must be seductive, confident, and overwhelming! But remember, my love, when you feel that there is too much pressure, we five are here to help you carry any burden.”

Yasenia hugged Cecile’s waist, still growling happily and her tail wagging. All of them had their hearts melting in affection toward her.

This night they didn't do anything more. They just pampered the naked Yasenia until she fell asleep in Tatyana's arms. Tatyana smiled bitterly, "That hit... It truly hurt my heart... a lot. I haven't felt so upset about something since tens of millenniums ago. That could have been my first grandchild..."

Angel hugged Tatyana and said, "It was the correct thing to do, Tatyana. It is on us to resist her advances."

Angel chuckled happily. "However, when yesterday night I felt Yasenia fill me with fertile semen... The happiness came like a tide... It was truly hard not to accept... Thankfully Tatyana distracted her."

All of them nodded; Andrea said, laughing a little to alleviate the mood, "At least you resisted. I truly couldn't stop her advances."

Cecile nodded. "I have lost count of how many times I've been this close to just giving up. She is just too good at seducing us."

Evelyn laughed. "This dragoness is truly troublesome! This morning she filled me until it was spilling in just ten minutes!"

The others laughed softly and looked lovingly at the sleeping dragoness. They put Yasenia in the middle of them and slept, surrounding her protectively.

They also let Tatyana sleep on top of Yasenia this night. Tatyana sent a subconscious message to Yasenia, 'Don't worry, love, you will have a house filled with your children one day. This wish I shall grant, no matter the price.' Yasenia's sleeping face gained a smile and subconsciously hugged the person above her tightly

The night passed, and dawn was around the corner. Yasenia was already awake, with everyone but Tatyana sleeping around her. They were talking about yesterday night, "Mom, don't worry, you did what you should. Didn't I already tell you that I forgive you?"

Tatyana bit her lips and was about to speak. However, Yasenia lifted her by the butt and kissed her. She kissed her as if tasting a delicacy, using her tongue to caress her lips, and using her plump lips to trap hers. Tatyana surrendered to her kiss, "Okay, I won't bring it up anymore, happy?"

Yasenia nodded and continued. To make sure her dear mommy understood, she lifted Tatyana's hips, and with Tatyana's cooperation, she inserted inside. Yasenia knew Tatyana didn't need to move to bring her to climax, so they didn't move.

Tatyana used her insides expertly, massaging her hard length. They didn't separate their mouths for a moment, and there wasn't a gap between their genitals. Only two minutes and, Yasenia started cumming, not a lot like her normal discharges; the pleasure was not enough. Still, Tatyana ensured that she couldn't stop cumming without flooding Yasenia's pleasure senses.

To Yasenia, it felt the same as discharging each time her member throbbed. The pleasure was tingling and continuous, not overwhelming. She had constant gentle pleasure waves massaging through her body and making her senses tingle with each throb of her member.

Tatyana used her cervix not to let a single drop fall out, trapping her head, and started absorbing the discharge with a technique to allow more space inside of herself.

This constant gentle orgasm was a wonderful sensation that made Yasenia's waist twitch with each throb of her member. She started growling lovingly and changed the normal discharge to a fertile one to show her satisfaction.

At first, Tatyana didn't feel the life energy, which made her feel a little anxious even if pleasurable. However, when she started to feel the change later, her heartbeat skipped a beat, and she started to smile while kissing. Her pleasure also increased, making her orgasm without squirting.

Yasenia coiled her tail around Tatyana and, thanks to her regeneration, continued this constant slow discharge for almost 15 minutes straight. Each time her penis pulsed, a rope of cum shot, making her pleasure senses tingle. The continuous pleasure made her tremble and euphoric.

At the end of the fifteen minutes, Yasenia was caressing Tatyana all over her body, feeling her mother's soft and silky skin. Their kiss was very sloppy, and because Yasenia was below, she was swallowing their exchange delightedly. Tatyana was also quite aroused, and thanks to Yasenia's cum properties, she reached another three orgasms.

Tatyana felt that Yasenia couldn't discharge more, so she stopped her stimulation and changed it to a slight massage. With that masterful level of vaginal muscle control, Yasenia transformed into a complete boneless blob that only wanted to keep cumming like before inside her mother. She said through a mental link, "Mommy I want to stay like this the rest of the day~."

Tatyana was completely delighted, and her bad mood flew away after having her fill her up so nicely. Tatyana answered through the connection, "Little treasure, do you like mommy's massage so much~?"

"The best~" Yasenia growled lovingly, and her tail tightened around Tatyana. She even used her hands to grab Tatyana's butt and fondle it, showing her delight.

Tatyana relaxed, having her inside, and said, "Only until they start waking up. After that, I will stop."

Yasenia didn't answer, melting more each second that passed of their massage and kisses.

The others started waking up, and Tatyana unplugged Yasenia from her, which caused a dissatisfied snort to come from Yasenia. Tatyana chuckled and went down to clean her up with her mouth swiftly. Then she returned to her previous position and kissed the now grumbling dragoness one last time.

Tatyana rose and stood up. After all of them woke up, she said, "Time to change and go to the tournament grounds! Today starts the first round of a very difficult challenge. I hope all of you qualify to enter the secret realm. The opportunities in them are abundant and life-changing."

All four of them looked at the Yasenia-shaped blob, stunned. Their gaze went down, and they saw her erect member twitching from time to time from pure reflex. Seeing this scene, they asked inside their heads, ‘Who is this twitching blob, and what did you do to Yasenia!?’

They changed their sights towards the smiling Tatyana, and Evelyn blurted out, “As expected, Tatyana is mighty, no matter the smaller ti-” Bang!

Yasenia sat up groggily and looked at her tail, asking out loud, “Has it gained a mind of its own?”

The others burst out in laughter. They changed and followed Tatyana to gather with the other students. They reached an enormous plaza with hundreds of thousands of people gathered. There were all kinds of cultivators around.

Yasenia was impressed that there were also all kinds of Beast-humans of different sizes and forms. Some more beastly, some more humanoid. What impressed her was that they weren’t slaves. Some were rogue cultivators, and others were part of a sect.

Nonetheless, our little group was also gathering a lot of attention.

Yasenia was wearing her black, white, and gold cultivation robes. The long and light back-skirt moved with the wind, increasing her seductiveness. She was also wearing the black transparent veil and scarf, adding a touch of mystery and attracting gazes all around.

Angel wore the completely white female robes [Radiant Robes], which enhanced her pureness, like a wingless and beautiful seraph. Her delicate facial features and droopy blue eyes made her appear even more ethereal, arousing protective instincts from people around. However, her curvy bosom also stimulated a desire to taint that purity.

Evelyn was wearing black and purple normal robes, making her look more like a mischievous little demon. Her electric blue hair and violet eyes, combined with her disposition and wear, enhanced this quality. Thanks to her more average facial features, she stood out more among the group of beauties.

Cecil was in her usual white and blue robes. Her peerless facial features formed a cold visage making people feel like an ice goddess descended. Moreover, her indifference for everything seemed to overflow from her movements and aura.

That is until they saw her speaking to the seductive woman. Her facial features melted into a gentle smile, making the people looking at her entranced, feeling like spring had arrived after winter.

Andrea was wearing black and gold normal robes, resalting her feminine but toned body, looking like a war goddess among people. Her movements radiated confidence, and her tall frame was imposing. She was holding the seductive woman’s hand and was, from time to time, looking around, attentive to the surroundings.

Tatyana was at the helm with a cold and tyrannical aura. Her elegant posture, black dress, and steps made her seem like an empress walking to her throne. People couldn’t help but bow instinctively, knowing she was a rather strong senior. Some people that recognized her bowed 90° without opening their mouths; most of the people that knew Tatyana was aware that she didn’t like attention.

“Who are they!?”

“They are from the Rita Academy. I know Andrea; she is the heroic-looking woman.”

“Who is the senior at the helm? I don’t know her, but she seemed rather important...”

One person who knew said, “I would rather save those questions for when she isn’t around. She doesn’t like attention.”

That person knew that some seniors were eccentric, so they didn’t ask anymore. You don’t mess with people that can kill you with a thought!

A man said, “Why didn’t that beast girl come to our dual cultivation sect!? I can feel peerless Yin energy inside of her!”

A woman near sneered, “Is your brain hurt!? She has the most potent Yang energy I have ever felt from our generation. I wouldn’t mind paying one crystal coin for a bottle of her Yang energy or even becoming her bed warmer!”

Of course, four out of the six “divine” women had their lips twitching slightly, hearing some comments.

One was controlling her mouth from scowling. ‘Control... Control, they are just annoying cannon fodder.’

One was controlling her mouth from bragging loudly to the world. ‘Hohoho, you aren’t the chosen ones to feel those heavenly mounds! Squirm and die from envy!’

Or controlling her mouth from smiling in amusement. ‘When did those sects become so rich? Buying a bottle of her Yang energy for one crystal coin?’

And also controlling her mouth from forming a proud and happy smile. ‘Of course, she is the best. She is my Yasenia! Who is better than her? No one!’

That way, each with their thoughts, they reached the Academy group.

Seeing the group, some friends approached, teasing them for the stares they were receiving. Yasenia couldn’t help but notice someone covered in a mantle and also wearing a veil covering their whole face. Andrea, who knew most of them, began to make conversation and present them to Yasenia.

Chapter 79

Tatyana disappeared and reappeared beside the sect masters. Today was the first time she would show up in public like this without covering anything or using illusions to confuse people.

Before this, she didn’t have a reason not to appear, but it was bothersome, so she never did. Moreover, she wanted to avoid every cultivator recognizing her in public and knowing her different identities because of her face.

However, this time, she has come with her little treasure. She had planned to reveal her identity as headmistress here, but those Long and Tang bastards spoiled her. She had a very hard time resisting destroying them and their whole family right there and then. However, every time she does this, she must disappear from her little treasure side for a while.

Tatyana didn't want to be apart from her anymore and lose more of her growing days, so like a good mother, she didn't slaughter them. 'I mean, what would you guys choose? Being beside my little treasure or massacring those brainless people? How about you tell me in your comments~?'

In the place Tatyana appeared, there were nearly 30 people beside her. These thirty people and Tatyana walked toward the tall stage in the middle of the plaza. Two handsome men led everyone, and Tatyana approached their side, walking side by side with them; no one objected. These two men seemed to represent two sides.

One was in black robes; he radiated demonic charm and had deep purple eyes. He was 195cm tall, and his body was perfectly muscular, with smooth skin. His face had a constant smile that took female and male souls away, and his eyes had their ends slightly raised, adding to his fascinating facial features.

The other man had white and gold robes. He was 190cm tall, and his body was also perfectly proportioned. He was also tall and handsome, but he overflowed with a gentle aura that made people lower their guards around him. However, his face was stern, and his facial features seemed carved by a sword, making people respect him.

They both had black hair, but their disposition was completely the opposite. They looked at Tatyana with surprised expressions, not knowing that she would participate in the presentation this year. However, they didn't say anything.

This woman could be considered the third power of the continent. Even if they were among the strongest on the continent, having this woman as an enemy was not something they wanted.

Not because of fear, because if she helps one of the two, the balanced situation will break instantly.

When they reached the top of the platform where the oceans of people looked at them, a giant screen appeared in the sky.

The leader of the Heavenly Sect spoke; his voice was deep, and his aura was now as steady as a mountain. "You're all here to get an entry jade to the secret realm that will open soon. Since the only limitations for presenting was to be above the ninth level of the body modification realm and lower than the half-step of the Mental nourishing realm, the participants this time are plenty."

The leader from the demonic side continued; his voice was pleasant, and his face charming, but his aura was similar to a malevolent demon. "Since this secret realm will be opened in various places, some in my territory and others in his. We decided to make this tournament. This secret realm is important because it is the legacy of a strong cultivator from before the Heavenly cataclysm."

He let it sink in and continued, "There are less than 1500 entry jades left after dividing it among the sects. Since there is a lot of trash around, we decided to create various stages. In short, you will need to make it into the top 1500 to have a chance to get an entry jade."

Tatyana took a step forward; her face was frosty, and her bearing elegant. Her aura was like a tyrannical ruler, overwhelming, profound, and ruthless. "Since the neutral sects and rogue cultivators didn't want to be left out, I came here representing them as the headmistress of the Rising Talent Academy. The rules will be ruthless. So, if you die, well, bad luck."

Her red eyes swept everyone and said, “Here, all of you play in the same field. You won’t be able to use the influence of your oh-so-powerful daddy or mommy. So be it male or female, you better think with your head instead of your lower half before taking action. Especially those dual cultivation sects and “noble” cultivators.”

The other two leaders’ lips twitched. ‘Weren’t you going to explain the rules of the first round!? What the hell are you saying?’

Tatyana continued, “The rules are simple and very common. A giant formation will send all of you to different grounds; you can kill beasts, find objects, and kill other people to gain points. We don’t want mass murder to occur; therefore, the formation will send only your spiritual body and your weapon of choice. It can’t be higher than a high-level heaven-ranked weapon.”

Tatyana finished saying with a smirk, “If you kill a person, you steal 10% of their points. The person killed will be revived in ten hours, the test will last one week, and each day the formation will eliminate the lower half of the people. Thus, we will reduce the more than a million people here to a little more than 20 000 this week. There will also be a ranking board that will show the people on top inside and outside the formation. If someone knows your name and face... I hope you are friends with them, or you can be in trouble~.”

People started cursing and saying that this was too cruel. But the leaders ignored the angry mob, Any cultivator above the mortal realms could easily kill the more than one million Mental Nourishing realm cultivators gathered here. That was the difference between mortal and transcendent realm cultivators.

Tatyana suddenly said, “By the way, don’t worry about your real bodies. All the sects here are protecting you; if one participant is killed, the moment we discover who did it, the rest will attack that individual or sect, no matter their strength. It has been sworn to the heavens. So go wild inside without caring about the outside. Moreover, there is a healing spring in the center of all the spawning points, where attacking or touching other people is prohibited.”

Then she stepped forward, disappearing from the spot, and returned to Yasenia’s side. The friends who didn’t know Tatyana’s position looked at her stupidly. ‘SHE IS THE HEADMISTRESS!?’

Yasenia asked Tatyana, “When are we starting?”

Tatyana said, “Just sit crossed-legged. The whole plaza has been transformed into a giant formation. After we wait for those that want to leave after hearing the rules, you will go inside.”

Tatyana, knowing her daughter’s skill set, said. “The position of the sun and moon you will see in the formation is synched with the outside. Use it well.”

Yasenia nodded and sat cross-legged. The academy disciples went around her and followed her example. Where is better to sit than around the headmistress? Other disciples also modeled and created a chain reaction, and soon, all the participants sat cross-legged.

Tatyana stayed by Yasenia’s side without moving a single step. ‘Let’s see if you dare do something, Long and Tang families; this eminence will send you to the underworld!’

The formation activated, illuminating everything, and every participant felt like the ground sucked them downward.

When Yasenia opened her eyes, she was inside a normal house. She looked around and saw her sword beside her. Besides that, she didn't see anyone else inside nor anything practical. Curiously she tried to cultivate, and to her surprise, it worked! However, the absorption rate was lower than normal. 'A shame I'm at the realm breaking point. Since I'm so close, I could have advanced inside the formation if I didn't have to cross the tribulation.'

How they could gain points was imprinted into their heads at this moment. Yasenia internalized the information and nodded.

She stood up and looked outside a window. She was in a small city, and she could see tall walls on the borders. The buildings weren't very high, and the streets were very narrow compared with Champion city's streets.

Cultivators started appearing on the street and decided to observe a little. She shook her head when she saw a man of a dual cultivation sect trying to drag a woman away. The woman's companions reacted fast, and a big fight started inside the city.

However, the buildings seemed to be indestructible, as they weren't damaging them. 'This can be useful, but the fact that the man dragged the woman confirms that we can have sex with our spiritual bodies. Moreover, forcing oneself on another person is allowed since dual cultivators have seduction techniques and techniques to squeeze dry their target, killing them. When mom said that rules are ruthless, she wasn't lying....'

Yasenia tried to find someone she knew, but she didn't see anyone. 'I won't be joining a group... I'm too attractive, and problems will arise almost for certain... Sigh, the problems of being too beautiful, what a tragedy~.'

Thankfully no one was reading her thoughts, or they would have a stroke at her shamelessness.

Yasenia snickered at her thoughts and went out through the window onto the roof, carrying her giant sword. She looked around and ran in the direction of the north wall, which was the closest to her position. While jumping from roof to roof, she saw that it was a little later than Noon. 'Elimination will happen each day at noon. Maybe I can use this...'

When she neared the wall, she put strength into her legs and jumped up from the 30m tall building toward the 80m tall wall. She soared to the sky and landed without problems on the wall. Then, she looked around. Her objective was to see if the beasts would attack the city or if she had to find them outside.

If it were the first, gathering objects for points would be inefficient.

The formation ranked the beasts' points like this; second rank beasts, no matter the level, 1 point. Low-level third rank 10 points; middle-level third rank 50 points; high-level third rank beast's value was 250; finally, a fourth rank beast valued at 2500 points.

However, killing one was practically impossible. They were as strong as Unification realm experts, whom Yasenia couldn't even scratch... Yet.

On the other side, the object value was 1 point per item. Spirits items went like this; 5 points for a low-level spirit treasure, 15 for a middle-level spirit treasure, and 30 for a high-level spirit treasure.

Magical treasures started scaling, low-level magical items valued at 100 points, a middle level 150 points, and a high-grade one at 250. Finally, an earth-level treasure was 1000 points worth.

Knowing this, Yasenia intended to fight in a zone and use her dragon sense to search for treasures after killing the beasts in that area.

After waiting for 5 minutes, Yasenia saw people advancing towards the forest. She suddenly saw a name jumping to the first position on the rankings. It was Angel with 1000 points! 'Did she find an earth-level treasure!? My baby is mighty!'

Yasenia didn't see the cultivators that went ahead returning, so she guessed that the beasts were scattered in the wild.

She jumped off the 80m tall wall, launching herself forward. BANG! She landed, creating a small crater, and shot toward the forest quickly. She looked back and saw some people on her trail. 'Already aiming for me? Are my previously jesting thoughts becoming a reality? Mom, why did you make me so beautiful!'

She didn't appreciate people following her around, so she started using the [Lingering star steps] to lose her trackers. She then activated [Starry Sky], gathering stars around her.

Even if the skill consumes energy per second, with her current regeneration at the half-step level, she could maintain it, slowing her energy regeneration down. Little white lights started gathering around her.

Chapter 80

After two minutes of running through the forest, she spotted 50 points cough one-third rank middle-level beast. It was similar to a female lion, but with white fur and 3 meters tall.

She decided to kill it in one hit so that her pursuers didn't catch up to her. "[Celestial coat], [Lingering Star Steps]." Her speed soared!

She clutched the handle of the [Draconic Heart] with both hands, and when she was 300 meters close, she pointed her giant sword forward and chanted, "[Star charge]."

Half of the 120+ white lights started rotating fast around the sword, making a white vortex. Yasenia stomped the ground and burst forward. The beast turned its head toward Yasenia, but Yasenia was already at its side! The white whirlwind of destruction landed on the beast, and with the sound of bones and flesh getting obliterated, Yasenia pierced through the side of the lion, making a giant hole.

The beast roared in agony. However, the absurd vitality of the beast supported its vitals, avoiding death! Nonetheless, Yasenia didn't even turn back; she continued forward, deactivating her skills and finding other prey.

The lion was about to chase the offender even with the hole on its side, but the stars that Yasenia used in the charge were lodged inside of it! A chain of explosions occurred, turning the beast's torso into a meat firework, killing it on the spot!

Yasenia didn't slow down and continued this mad charge killing the second-ranked beasts she encountered with a single use of the ranged attack, [Shooting Star], and if she found stronger ones, she would use her [Star Charge] and destroy them. Her points soared, and her position jumped in the ranking speedily!

While she was running, she turned her head towards the east. She felt something valuable there.

Yasenia used [Lingering star steps] thrice, sending illusions in various directions, and then ran eastward.

When she reached the spot, she slowed down and sneaked around. She saw a group of five fighting against a high-level, rank-three beast a kilometer away from her position. They were all between the fourth and seventh levels of the third realm. 'How do the points divide when you kill something in a team? They didn't explain that...'

Yasenia smirked. 'Well, it doesn't matter. If I kill all of them and the beast, I will know how many points I receive from the beast.'

Yasenia already maxed her number of stars with 300 lights around her. She waited until the beast was weakened and pointed [Draconic Heart] at a 45 angle towards the sky. Its ominous red light changed to silver as Yasenia chanted, "[Celestial coat], [Moon Charge]."

Yasenia continued her charge until she was above them. When she was on top of them, she made a silver circle below her with the sword tip, and her voice echoed, alerting the people and beast below. "[Midnight]."

All her stars fell in her targeted area while she dove downwards, sword first! The people and beast below tried to evade, but when 300 watermelon-sized white balls of destruction fell around them, they had to enter defensive measures.

Right after the stars, Yasenia arrived, and like a silver meteor impacting earth, a giant silver explosion engulfed them, obliterating them.

Yasenia stood up with her legs shaking, saying, "This attack still hurts a ton! Thankfully I wasn't in my [Day and night cycle] mode, or it would have been a repeat from before... What!? That consumed 40% of my total energy! I now have 40% left... This skill is horrendously strong but equally scarily costly!"

She looked at her points. "Hoo~ I gained the full 250 from the beast and a total of 130 from those guys. It seems that they have been working hard. My rank also jumped a lot. Now I'm in the top 5% ... Too high; I need to slow down a little so that people don't target me... Am I being too paranoid? Who knows me anyway? Well, rather safe than sorry."

While moving around, she looked for her dears' ranking, "Angel has fallen a lot on the rankings... Thankfully she hasn't been killed... yet."

Yasenia picked up speed and ran away from that spot when the aches in her legs faded enough to let her run without problems.

Yasenia thought while running, 'This time, we are going to experience death if we don't play our cards well... There are very strong cultivators.'

Yasenia arrived at the spot she had sensed before. There was a high-grade magical treasure. She looked around carefully, 'There aren't any traps, nor do I sense monsters....'

She took one fruit from the side and threw it towards the treasure. Nothing happened again.

Yasenia whispered, “[Lingering star steps]” A phantom of herself launched at the object. Nothing happened again.

Reassured that it was safe, Yasenia approached and picked it up. Then she ran away from there after not finding anything more of value. ‘Maybe... Was that beast that the group fought its guardian? Well, it doesn’t matter; 250 easy points for me~.’

She reached a grove with more sparse trees and looked around. ‘Oh~ a lot of mortal-ranked herbs... There are some spirit ranked ones as well~ Let’s pick them up!’

She started picking them up fast and got another 85 points. ‘There are fewer beasts than I expected... Maybe I can bombard with [Starfall] a rank two beast nest and get some points?’

She looked at the ranking and frowned; I’m going up in the rankings... The worse of the ranking is that it shows your cultivation level. ‘A half-step body modification realm in the top of the ranking... Won’t I become a perfect target? Wait... The more they come, the more I kill, the more points I get?’

She licked her lips seductively, “Let’s start the hunt~ and then... The massacre! Hahaha.”

Meanwhile, in the same area as Yasenia, Cecile was killing beasts around. Thanks to her archery, she preferred fighting hordes of weak beasts to gain many points fast. She was lucky enough to follow the trail of an early level, Rank three alpha wolf, and right now, she was massacring their pack. The rank three alpha was her first victim, and it was lying on the side with a hole through its skull.

“[Freezing Gale Arrow Rain]” SwishSwishSwish Thanks to her heaven-grade gloves, her hands have become extremely agile, and she could fire arrows almost three times faster than before. This kind of boost is why equipment is a big part of a cultivator’s strength.

The second-rank wolves didn’t stand a chance and were all skewered. This totaled to a nice 105 points. ‘My rank is quite high; let’s keep up this pace. Maybe I can group up with people from the academy? I will try to find some soon; I work better in teams.’

Cecile went inside the cave, and to her surprise, there was a middle-level magical treasure inside; she picked it up and continued her hunt. ‘Yasenia is a bit far, and I can’t sense her presence clear enough... Focus on yourself; if you meet up with her, good. If not, try to overtake her score!’

In a completely different area, filled with rocks, Andrea stood clad in full-body silver armor and holding a red and gold Halberd. A magma-like substance coated her armor and weapon; this was her elemental coat, [Chromosphere]. Not only did it spread scorching heat around her, but all attacks that fell on her were mildly stopped, like trying to hit a viscous substance. Better, her attacks splashed that magma-like substance on top of her enemies, burning them up, and slowing them down when it cooled down into a solid state.

This coat was so powerful because it was on the way to becoming the evolved version of the coat skills, which were more physical than aura-like. However, Andrea needed one last push to develop it completely, making her power jump.

Andrea was a dual element master with Sun and Metal attributes. What was impressive about her equipment was that she had made her armor and halberd by herself and were, impressively, low-level Heaven-ranked treasures!

Right now, she was fighting against two third-ranked, middle-level brown bears! The bears were 7m tall, making Andrea appear very small beside them. However, Andrea's halberd technique was refined, but with imposing momentum, making the beast retreat when receiving her attacks!

She truly looked like a goddess of war clad in molten-silver armor! She calmly said while receiving their attacks, "This is my first time in an event with Yasenia; I should show off a little so that my little dragoness praises me~ [Prominence]."

[Prominence] was a skill that periodically expels molten metal to all her nearby enemies in giant arcs, similar to the sun's prominences. Combined with her elemental coat, being around Andrea was a true hell!

She sped up her swings, spins, and thrusts of her halberd, attacking both giant bears and covering them with molten metal. They roared in agony, and knowing they had messed with the wrong human, they tried to flee!

Andrea lifted her eyebrow as she felt their intentions and decided to end the battle. "Well, this is enough warm-up. You can die. [Solar explosion]."

Her elemental coat inflated, and...BOOM It covered everything around her in superheated liquid metal. The wave of molten metal engulfed both beasts and roared in anguish and pain. They sped up their escape, but the solidifying metal plus their melting skin made them perish there.

Andrea smirked at the +100 in her score, "That was a big jump. Well, 100 points is not a small sum... But compared to this...."

She approached a red flower that survived the wave of molten metal because it was below a rock and picked it up. Her name disappeared in the rankings and appeared a lot higher. Andrea chuckled while walking away. "Earth-level treasures sure are nice~."

Meanwhile, Angel was having a hard time in another forest, 'I shouldn't have picked up that treasure; now everyone is targeting me. Some people chased me during the excursion, and now this has happened! Will I become the running goddess or something at this pace?'

She looked at the six people following her and sighed, 'At least there aren't high-level cultivators. The strongest of them is a level five cultivator... Well, do you think I didn't learn something from my previous experience?'

She created a new formation especially for this because of her previous experience! It was low consuming and extremely lethal. She turned around a thick tree, and after running a little more, using the distance between them, she set up the formation. "[Glass mine formation]."

Around her, transparent glass surfaces started appearing. She channeled her light energy in them with her [Prismatic Constitution] and ran away.

The group following her reached the area. They were suspicious when they saw her in front of them, much closer than before, so they stopped running. Angel also stopped and looked back with a sweet smile. “Truly a bunch of dogs, only knowing how to chase me. I’m only a little over one thousand points, is this mob needed?”

Seeing that she had stopped, they started walking towards her. “Just die and be out for 10 hours; I swear we won’t chase you after that.”

Angel smirked. “Not only dog behavior, but also dog mouth and brain, go sleep for a while. I have to do a good job so that my Yasenia pampers me! Activate!”

All those transparent glass nodes lit up with a strong light simultaneously. Before they could even react, a big explosion occurred! BOOM! Angel saw fleshy bits raining as her points soared and chuckled. “And it only costs 5% of my energy~ Mommy Tatyana’s advice is the best~.”

Angel walked away with a foolish smile and a blush on her cheeks, thinking about the mother and daughter she loves so much and leaving behind a pit filled with human body parts.

Evelyn was in the same area as Angel, so when she heard that explosion, she thought, ‘Isn’t that Angel’s glass formation explosion? Lucky~ I found my big-breasted little sister! I should go and protect the most beautiful flower’s pampered baby! And maybe play with her tits if she lets me~.’

“[Flash lightning steps]” zap Like an electric spark, Evelyn sped up toward Angel. She found a third-ranked early-stage beast on her way and said, “Do not slow down my titty playing time! [Passing lightning strike]” Her movement became erratic and confusing, then she passed the beast and continued forwards.

The beast was confused, but the sudden pain on its side made it check itself. There were five 20cm wide scorched holes on its side. Next, its sight darkened, and it fell dead.
