

Heaven 751

Chapter 751: Arriving at Ascending Ocean City.

At the entrance of the Astral Sky Sect, about 400 people stood before Yasenia. Yasenia looked at them and spoke deeply. "We are now leaving for the [Ascending Ocean City]. I've already shared everything I needed to, and I've also taught you how to act in the presence of other powers."

Yasenia looked around and continued. "We are now a first-ranked sect. We are no less than any of the other sects, so we don't need to lower our heads. In this summit, we will grasp benefits and never bow down to injustice."

"Yes, Sect Master!"

Yasenia squinted, her auras entangling and spreading like a tide. "However, we are not bullies. If I hear that one of you has abused their position to force anything on anything, your end will not be as simple as death. Understood?"

This time, they answered louder. "YES, SECT MASTER!"

Yasenia nodded, satisfied. Then, she turned around and waved her hand.

Energy gathered in the sky above Yasenia, and with a silent flash of light, the [Profound Skeletal World Jumping Warship] appeared. "Let's go."

The four hundred cultivators flew upward and landed on the white, golden, and black elegant ship.

Once everyone was on board, Yasenia used her energy to manipulate the flying boat's formations and accelerated.

The people looking from below blinked, and the ship was gone.

Looking sideways, they could see the clouds parting in the distance.

"So Quick!"

"Are there more treasures like that in our sect? I need to search the catalog later!"

"I think I heard that it is a lost technology that the Sect Master managed to revive."

"As expected, the Sect Master is extraordinary."

"Even if it is for sale, do you think you can buy it with your pitiful amount of Astral Sky Points?"

"Hey, if I save for a few years, I might be able to buy it!"

Meanwhile, on the ship, the people who had never boarded the Skeletal Ship were stunned.

Even with their superior senses, they could only see the world around them blurring.

Luscia, the purple lamia, asked. "Yasenia, how long will it take to reach there?"

Yasenia pondered and looked at the map. "About 12 minutes?"

Luscia almost choked with her own saliva. "H-How long?"

Yasenia smiled. "12 minutes."

The others were also dumbfounded. To their knowledge, even the fastest vehicle would take two weeks to reach that coastal city from where the Astral Sky Sect was.

One of the two Supreme Elders, a male tigerkin without previous affiliation, asked, confused. "Then, why did we already leave, Sect Master? There are one and a half weeks until the summit starts, right?"

Yasenia nodded. "I need to create a small base in that city. While I don't want to lack trust in the Mermaid Queen's arrangements, being overly cautious with what is recently happening is a must."

They all nodded, somewhat understanding. Yasenia had been informed of the arrival of various groups from outside Distancia, so she was 100% cautious. While she could act a bit arrogant with people from this continent based on their lack of advanced knowledge, she didn't know if the people coming here would be from a higher world than herself.

However, other than wariness, there was excitement in her. "Will there be an interesting challenge in this summit?"

Her strength has increased by a lot, and even if she was in the fourth realm, her real level was far from just that.

In the Ascending Ocean City entrance, there were six groups looking at each other at the entrance.

A being made out of thick magma and with a female figure spoke cheerfully. "So fun~, will we fight? I'm ready if you want! We've been waiting for two days here, so it is getting boring."

A man covered in a black toga and with shriveled hands spoke with a breathy and ghostly tone. "Spirits Can you be turned into Undead? The books say it's impossible, but I want to capture you and make a few tests."

The woman made out of magma frowned. "Undead, can you be less creepy? The fact that you've died doesn't mean that you need to act so gloomily!"

Death aura leaked from that figure, but a red-skinned demon interrupted. "Why are we here, either way? Can't we see her later when the crappy summit starts? I want to enter and eat a few prostitutes. Beast Humans here have a very soft but juicy flesh."

A man with blue hair and feathered wings interrupted. "Demon, don't think you can act as you please with us here."

The demon laughed, unafraid. "And what will you do to stop me? Fight? I'm ready whenever!"

A female human spoke with a bored tone. "Can you all stop being so annoying? Do you have to jump to the throat each time you see each other?"

The demon frowned. "An Meiling, don't be so arrogant. You are just a human female born to give birth for us!"

The human woman rolled her eyes. "I've dissected a few demons, but I never found an additional brain in your genitals. And yet, you all think with your dicks, truly mysterious."

The Demon's aura burst, compressing the air around and sending it toward her, but An Meiling looked sideways coldly and sent her own aura burst.

BANG!

Both auras canceled each other, showing that they were equal in strength. An Meiling snorted. "Demon, this is not your house where you can call mommy and daddy to deal with the things you can't. If you are arrogant, I'll kill you."

The Demon was about to roar at her, but a strong stomp that made the land quake stopped him. The Demon turned toward the giant creature and smiled bloodthirstily. "Beast, are you all going to gang up on us like you always do? If it is interesting enough, I might be merciful and turn your griffin race into cattle to feed us!"

The giant and majestic griffin opened his beak, looking down at the Demon. "We've come here with our respective groups to see that mysterious Astral Sky Sect's arrival. Haven't we? We know they will arrive within this week, so stop quarreling before we meet them."

The blue-haired, blue-feathered Divine smiled. "That's right. We need to speak with the one who came here first so that they relent the land they've taken for our groups."

The Undead snorted. "Speak? Why should we? I've heard that her bloodline is precious and that she is a dragon. I want to create an Undead with her corpse."

The six groups were Human, Demon, Divine, Beast, Spirit, and Undead group. Behind each of the groups stood a race or a power that had decided to cooperate with them.

Behind the Humans, there was a group that others didn't know about hidden in black cloaks.

Behind the Demons, they could see beings from the [Ocean Chasm Empire].

Behind the Divines, there were people from the sixth strongest race of the Thirty-Three clans, the [Shadow Running Deer].

Behind the Beasts, there were leaders of wild beast clans that never joined a real group and lived in the deepest part of the wilderness.

Behind the Spirits, there were people from the [Nine Earthly Sword Sect] and another sect called [Spirit Communion Sect].

Finally, behind the Undead, there were people from the [Nine Devil Puppet Sect] and others who hid their identities.

Other than the weakest human group, all the others were made of very strong creatures.

Someone from the Ocean Chasm Empire, a large shark man with a heavy build, spoke. "Lord Dyrathos, you mustn't underestimate the Astral Sky Sect. They rose from nothing to their current level in less than ten years."

The red-skinned demon turned with annoyance. "So what? I could do the same in a few months, didn't I? If not, why would one of the strongest legions in one of the strongest powers in this shitty continent, the [First Abyss Ocean Chasm Army], be following my orders?"

The shark man stayed silent for a second and then spoke. "As the general of the army, I wanted to advise you. If Lord Dyrathos feels that there is no need, then I won't speak again."

Dyrathos snorted, waving his clawed hand. "Perfect. Now, shut up."

One demon behind him asked with heavy breathing. "D-Dyrathos, I'm at my limit. I want to mate with a female!"

Dyrathos sighed and frowned. 'Why did the elders tell me to take him out? Isn't he still unstable? What a pain in the horn.'

He suppressed his annoyance and commented coldly. "I know that being a half-bred incubus is difficult, as you lack control over your sexual urges, but you must resist a few days more until Hm? Oh You may find relief soon."

Suddenly, they felt fluctuations in the distance, and before they could even react, a massive flying ship appeared out of nowhere. The sleek white, black, and golden body of the vessel reflected the light, emanating the aura of a masterpiece that should be stored away instead of used.

The relaxed faces of the six groups tensed as even Dyrathos's face gained a touch of seriousness.

Then, from the ship, a mellow and slightly deep female voice with a touch of amusement was heard. "Such a grand welcoming, I'm flattered."

From the side of the giant ship, Yasenia, accompanied by her fifty maids, descended.

The moment Yasenia appeared, scanning everyone with her deep golden eyes, everyone felt their hearts skip a beat. The gorgeous blue dress did an excellent work of highlighting her curvaceous figure while her long black hair and empyrean dragon tail moved behind her in a hypnotizing manner.

The otherworldly charm of the dragon woman emanated was enough to enthrall mortals with a single smile. Even the Divines present, who were confident in their otherworldly charm, were momentarily mesmerized.

The male demons felt their crotch becoming tight, as many other male beings present had trouble suppressing their rising lust. There were a few females that weren't much better.

Yasenia's dainty feet, covered in flat but elegant golden shoes, touched the ground, and with her body landing, her floating dress and hair descended behind her like a cloud, enhancing her ethereal charm a few notches.

"Divines, Demons, Undead, Spirits, Humans, and Beasts, quite a few races have gathered here."

Yasenia smiled alluringly, her eyes soft and seductive enough to make people go crazy. "Welcome to Distancia, my name is Yasenia Dravory, a True Dragon."

The sex appeal and charm that Yasenia radiated were strong to the point that one of the demons, the half-incubus, lunged forward with a crazed smile. "Such a fine female to breed my children! COME HERE AND BECOME BY BREEDER!"

Dyrathos reacted, and his face tightened when she saw Yasenia's golden eyes flash with amusement and disdain as if she had expected this outcome.

Dyrathos shouted, having a bad premonition. "GHILOR, COME BACK!"

However, it was too late.

On the way between Yasenia and the Demon, a human woman with ominous black eyes and hair appeared, holding a dagger that was sheathed on her waist but with a malevolent aura wrapped around it.

Her voice was cold enough to freeze a burning forest. "Those who dare desecrate Young Miss shall perish."

Then, she moved and disappeared as she unsheathed her dagger, reappearing behind the demon in an instant.

Following her movement, countless black flashes of lights appeared around the demon.

The demon rushing forward with a crazed smile slowed down as he tumbled forward and fell face first. When his body hit the ground, a sickening sound of flesh splashing the ground was heard as chunks of his body tumbled around as if he were a house of bricks crumbling.

Doriel slowly sheathed her dagger, looking around with a terribly cold gaze. Those obsidian-like eyes were terrifying to the point that people froze under her gaze. After her dagger clicked, she returned behind Yasenia with leisurely steps, rejoining the other forty-nine women with white dresses similar to hers.

Yasenia bowed elegantly while holding the sides of her skirt, completely ignoring the death of the Demon. "It is a pleasure to meet you." Then, she straightened her body and spoke meaningfully. "I'm sorry for my maid's attitude; they can be a bit overprotective. Regardless, I hope we have a pleasant talk."

The previous confident groups fell as if someone had slapped their faces, and many who had shown smiles previously were pressing their lips tightly as they looked at Yasenia seriously.

Chapter 752: Spirit's Nature and Soluna.

Dyrathos looked at the corpse of the demon with a stunned expression, and then his face twisted as he looked at Yasenia. "SLUT! How dare you kill one of my people in front of my eyes!?"

Yasenia looked at him with a questioning gaze. "What do you mean? He came to me first."

Dyrathos shouted as plumes of fire spread around. "Do you think I care!? If you don't kneel and lick my feet while asking for forgiveness, I'm going to make you wish you were dead!"

The faces of the maids behind Yasenia fell as they looked coldly at him. Still, none of them moved.

Yasenia sneered and asked. "What, are you also going to come to me? Demon, don't treat me like a person who doesn't know about your race. If I dare do this, it means I have the confidence to face repercussions." Yasenia squinted as she spat with a low tone. "Filthy creature that only thinks of rape and has egos even bigger than us, dragons. If your race didn't have such a faulty brain, maybe you wouldn't be assaulted by all the other races as if you were a pest."

Dyrathos took a step forward, his aura about to burst, but a slender blue hand grabbed him. "Stop embarrassing us."

The maids who had stealthily moved their hands toward their weapons clicked their tongues in their minds. 'Unlucky.'

Meanwhile, Dyrathos looked back at the female demon with burning rage flaring in his eyes. "Are you going to allow this lizard to walk all over us, Kyril!?"

Kyril, a female bluish demon with a slender figure, black hair, eyes, and a pair of curved ram-like horns, spoke coldly. "Dyrathos, that half-bread incubus is not worth your anger." Her eyes locked with Yasenia's, and she spoke. "Moreover, she wants us to act recklessly."

Yasenia lifted an eyebrow and smiled, not hiding it. "Oh? A demon with a brain? Such a rare exception. It's a shame since I wanted to deal with all of you before the summit."

Kyril answered without a change of expression. "You can stop with those childish remarks and provocations."

Yasenia laughed. "Childish? Will you be able to say the same if I treat you like most male demons treat females from other races?"

One of the other demons shouted, his aura becoming turbulent. "How dare you speak like that to Senior Sister!? Do you want to die, reptile!?"

Yasenia looked at him with disdain. "Pathetic. Do you only have the guts to throw words around? How about you take a step forward and attack me? I pity if you've mated with any female. Those women got the bad luck of meeting a ball-less demon. You also probably have Yang deficiency since such a cowardly male Demon is quite a rare sight."

The male demon only saw red and was ready to pounce, but Kyril's aura exploded with a blackish wind, spreading massive amounts of Death energy into the surroundings as she looked at Yasenia coldly and restrained the about-to-go-crazy demon. "Dragon. Don't go too far."

Unafraid, she continued. "Or what?" Yasenia mocked. "You keep quiet when your slaves, oh, I misspoke, when your companions talk down other creatures. And yet, when it is their turn, you act like a protective hen. Such fragile egos go well with creatures from your race. Bully the weak and fear the strong. If it weren't for your seniors whipping your asses each time you got into trouble, I doubt if the Demon race would even exist nowadays."

Dyrathos spat coldly as he struck a palm toward Yasenia. "Die. [Vulcan Demon Explosion]."

The sky changed colors as a massive red wave swallowed the sky and rushed toward Yasenia. The strength behind the attack was enough to destroy a mountain range.

Yasenia didn't even place the attack in her eyes as she continued looking at the demons.

Selena slithered forward and summoned her large shield. "[Profound Glass Fortress]."

In between the attack and Yasenia, a massive structure appeared, completely blocking the attack in an explosion that sent all the secondary attacks created by the impact flying into the distance.

The heavy attack made Selena slide back for tens of meters, stopping only one meter before Yasenia. The red lamia's eyes were a bit more serious as she evaluated the attack. 'Heavy.'

Yasenia almost didn't even feel the wind created by his attack, but seeing that Selena couldn't stand her ground, her eyebrows raised in surprise. 'Is he strong?'

Selena smiled. 'Don't worry, young miss. I tackled the attack hastily, so I was unable to keep my balance. I'm confident in blocking him perfectly next time.'

Yasenia nodded. 'Then, I'll continue provoking them.'

While they spoke, the defensive formation of the city activated, preventing widespread destruction created by the large wave of magma that scattered after hitting Selena's Glass Fortress.

Yasenia looked at Dyrathos and clapped. "Such a beautiful show. How about you do it a few more times? If you amuse me, I might even consider looking at the Demon race with different eyes."

Kyril asked. "Are you participating in the summit?"

The dragoness looked at her with a disappointed expression. "And here I thought you had a minimum amount of intelligence. Did you think that I came here with exactly the summit's quota for companions to look at the stores of the city?"

Kyril smiled coldly. "Then, watch your back."

Yasenia didn't answer and just smiled. "I really hope you try to attack us before the summit. One less competitor will always be a good thing to have Speaking of which, Divines, the demons are attacking a poor and unprotected creature. Are you not going to stop them?"

Auriel, the white and blue Divine, frowned. "What, are you going to provoke us now, dragon?"

With a wry smile, Yasenia said. "Do I look like someone who goes provoking at will? I was asking how are you all so patient and unactive when you see a few demons acting wild before your eyes." Then, she added. "You see, it's my first time seeing your race, so I thought that you would at least intervene at some point to fight your archenemies." Yasenia smiled. "Sadly, I was disappointed."

Auriel snorted. "If you are seeking death, why should we stop you? We are not your parents."

Yasenia blinked. "You should help because I'm seeking death by provoking demons, perhaps?"

Auriel squinted and was about to speak when something suddenly appeared before Yasenia.

Yasenia saw someone appearing before her before she could realize it, and her pupils constricted as her hands tensed, preparing to tear a life-saving treasure she had prepared beforehand.

However, the creature that appeared before her didn't emanate maliciousness, so she didn't react instantly, looking down at the being that suddenly appeared before her.

The creature that appeared was an empyrean-looking female spirit made of golden and silver flames. The exotic body wrapped in an enchanting dress that portrayed the Sun and the Moon added to her charm. Furthermore, there was a Sun as her right eye's pupil and a crescent moon as her other pupil.

Her entire body radiated the beauty of the firmament.

"Soluna, come back." A female spirit made out of magma, Embera, called her with a soft tone.

However, Soluna continued looking at Yasenia, somewhat mesmerized. She spoke, her voice strangely sounding like two women speaking at once but with a pleasant resonance that made that voice weirdly attractive. "Yasenia, what kind of dragon are you?"

Yasenia looked at the woman more than a head shorter than her with a pondering expression.

Now that she had relaxed from her surprise, she looked closely at her. Yasenia could feel a strange closeness to her, making her confused.

Still, her mind was calm and clear. 'I feel close? Hm Looking at her form Is she a spirit of the Moon and the Sun?'

Yasenia rationalized, and knowing that the spirit probably had no bad intentions, she extended her hand forward and patted her with a smile.

One of the spirit's faces changed as he shouted. "Dragon, stop! Her body is unstable and can create an explosion when others touch her?"

Soluna's eyes widened when she felt Yasenia's hands landing on her silver and gold hair made out of two different fires. 'Huh? She can touch me?'

Even the other five spirits wore incredulous expressions, their eyes comically widening as Yasenia's fingers softly passed through Soluna's hair.

Yasenia answered her with a smile. "I can't answer your question because there are a few bad people who haven't left yet." Yasenia gave a side-eye to the demons. "But I can tell you that we are quite compatible."

Soluna's Sun and Moon eyes squinted as she cautiously moved forward, poking Yasenia with a finger. 'I can touch her?'

When she saw no reaction, she smiled and threw herself forward, hugging the dragoness. 'So nice~. The first person I can touch.'

Yasenia didn't feel any malice, so she didn't dodge. Giving the spirits a friendly nod, she turned toward the other groups and smiled. "Well, it was a fun welcoming. We'll speak again during the main event probably."

Then, she gently pushed Soluna, who was rubbing her face on her chest and laughed gently. "See you later, little one."

Soluna looked at Yasenia's smile dazedly and saw her fly into the floating ship, followed by the 50 maids.

Right after, the dragoness manipulated the large ship and flew into the Ascending Ocean City toward their accommodations. No one stopped her.

Embera, the magma and fire spirit, turned toward the Demons and warned with a seriousness that her usual cheerful and playful self didn't have. "We were going to look from the sidelines, but after our princess's reaction, we will intervene until we discover why she can touch her. Control yourselves."

Kyril gave the spirits one cold look and turned around, guiding her people into the city.

Embera ignored her and looked at the longing clearly expressed in Soluna's eyes with a serious expression. 'How can there exist a creature that can touch the spirit of the Sun and the Moon? Since she represents the purest Yin and Yang, even the slightest touch with foreign energy should make her body react uncontrollably like a chain reaction. And yet, not only did nothing happen, but Soluna's face was one of pure comfort and dependence.'

Free spirits like them were normal creatures that couldn't really reproduce the normal way, so to increase their numbers, they either found places with extreme concentrations of energies and meditated there to create new "free" spirits, or they were naturally born in places with high concentrations of the attributes.

That's why spirits with opposing attributes couldn't usually be born. Natural places where opposing energies resided in a non-chaotic way were so rare that even in the event of a spirit being born, they would die almost instantly because of the conflicting nature in their bodies.

Only Natural Treasures had a chance of maintaining a semblance of a form.

Speaking of which, the difference between a spirit and a Natural Treasure was the time for their birth and the concentration level of the energies. A spirit could be born in 10 to 10,000 years, and the places where they appeared were not as concentrated as the ones where Natural Treasures appeared.

Usually, the place where a Natural Treasure was born was filled with many spirits born from that concentration of energies guarding it.

If a spirit was a concentrated drop of an element with a consciousness, a Natural Treasure was an ocean without a clear mind of its own. The reason they didn't have clear minds was that thoughts would hinder the growth of a Natural Treasure.

They were supposed to be the "essence" of an attribute. Sapient intelligence was not something that would allow a Natural Treasure to understand the profound laws of the Universe better and grow.

Naturally, Spirits could also become extremely strong by cultivating from a "drop" to an "ocean," but it took absurd amounts of time.

Valeria was such a spirit.

Refined from one of the first concentrated spots of Life energy, Valeria grew to become something akin to a Queen for spirits. That's why she can communicate with Natural Treasures, as she did back in the Secret Realm with the Heaven-Born Earth Core.

Why was all of this important? Well, Soluna's existence should have been impossible to manifest as a spirit, but it did.

As with many things, she was an "exception."

A one of a kind. So, the spirits treated her respectfully, even calling her "princess" when she wasn't a real princess.

However, Soluna was relatively young, and she had yet to grow and find a place to increase her strength. Even if Soluna was born as a Fifth Realm creature, meaning that at birth, she had the strength of a Dantian Spiritualization Realm creature, she had not grown since then.

Still, Embera, as well as the other spirits, realized something when Soluna came into contact with Yasenia. Their vision and energy manipulation were exceptional as spirits, so they saw Soluna absorbing the "extra" energy Yasenia released.

Embera thought about that, and a rush of excitement hit her. 'If what I'm thinking is correct, we must protect that dragon at all costs.'

"Soluna, we are entering the city."

Soluna looked at Embera with her exotic Moon and Sun eyes. "Can I meet with Yasenia later?"

Embera smiled softly. "Of course."

Soluna fiddled with her fingers shyly. "D-Do you think we will become a nuisance? I don't want to upset her"

Embera and the other five spirits chuckled. "Don't worry, Soluna. I'm sure she will be delighted to speak with you again."

Soluna's Sun and Moon in her eyes glowed softly. "Really?"

The other spirits nodded with confidence. "With how cute our Soluna is, how could that lizard-."

Soluna interrupted without a change of expression. "Yasenia."

The Earth spirit blinked. "Yes?"

Soluna's smile widened, creating a strangely suffocating atmosphere around her. "Yasenia. That's her name. Do not call her 'lizard.'"

The spirit that was speaking stuttered. "Y-Yes!"

Soluna's tense aura relaxed, and she hummed. "I hope I can see her soon~."

The other five spirits felt their equivalent of cold sweat falling through their backs. 'T-That was scary.'

Even if Soluna was just in the first level of the Fifth Realm, her strength was not to be underestimated.

Meanwhile, inside Soluna's head, Yasenia's gentle smile repeated constantly, making her look at the sky dreamily.

Chapter 753: Cuddling With Cecile and Kali. (R-18)

Arriving at their lodgings, Yasenia set up everyone in their rooms and called the formation masters. "Time to work. We knew about which house we would have and how big it would be. So, the only thing left to do is set up the formation we planned previously." Yasenia looked at them and smiled. "However, do not activate the shield, but just the secondary defensive response."

Angel, who was sitting on her lap, asked while looking up at her. "Why?"

Yasenia smiled and leaned down to give her a kiss. "Well, there is a small chance the demons come to bother us. I want to capture them using the illusion formation."

The defensive formation they planned had four barriers. The first was a common outer shield, the second was an illusion that would make the intruders think they'd managed to break through, the third was a suppressing formation, and the final line of defense was an attack formation that attacked every creature registered as an enemy with countless arrows.

The first barrier was to deter weak cultivators who might want to try their luck. The second and third barriers were created with the intention of capturing the intruders. However, if all failed, the fourth was a killing formation. After all, if their previous efforts to capture them were ineffective, it meant that the intruders had a certain level of strength and needed to be taken seriously.

The mansion they were in was large enough to house all 400+ people in Yasenia's group. Plenty of these mansions in a large residential area were specially prepared for this occasion. Courtesy of the Mermaid Race, the sects only had to pay 10 Flawless Parus. The price of a peak-level Earth Ranked treasure.

Yasenia was generous since the Mermaid Race were considered allies and shared a formation core that could be deployed to increase the density of water energy in a large area. A treasure that was estimated to cost between 100,000 to 1,000,000 Flawless Parus, depending on the increase in energy concentration.

It took Angel about four days of work to make, showing how genuinely profitable it was to have mastery in a profession.

While it was time-consuming, the reason Yasenia never stopped learning the Spiritual Professions was because they had value everywhere. Knowledge of that kind would always be welcomed, assuring our dragoness that she would be able to live wherever.

With everything sorted out, the formation masters of the group, about eight cultivators excluding Angel, Tatyana, and the maids with formation expertise, got to work.

Because it was a defensive formation, Tatyana, Selena, and Angel acted as supervisors, but other than that, they didn't touch the process. It was an excellent opportunity to hone the skills of the sect's formation masters.

Meanwhile, Yasenia decided to call Cecile and Kali about a very important matter.

Kali and Cecile arrived and saw Yasenia languidly sitting on a sofa in a private room.

Kali asked, curious. "What's the matter, Yasenia?"

Cecile laughed a bit, already knowing why Yasenia called and stepped forward while explaining to Kali. "She wants to cuddle with us."

Kali blinked twice and then saw a spark of anticipation in Yasenia's relaxed golden eyes, making her burst into laughter. "Sure, sure. Let's cuddle together."

Yasenia smiled and opened her arms, and Cecile and Kali sat by her sides and hugged her back. With both women in her arms, Yasenia sighed, contented, and tightened her arms.

Their tails moved and entangled with each other. Yasenia snorted in comfort as Kali's fluffy tail and Cecile's soft feathers coiled around her dragon tail while they shared body heat.

Kali raised her face and kissed Yasenia's earlobe, making Yasenia squirm a bit. "Honey, that tickles."

Kali smiled. "Oh? It does? Then I should do it a bit more~."

Without waiting for Yasenia to react, she used her lips to softly caress Yasenia's ear, making the dragoness melt and purr comfortably.

The vibrations of her throat spread through their body as the low and otherwise menacing growl caressed their ears.

Cecile laughed with her eyes, and a mischievous light flashed in her usually icy blue eyes. She started kissing her neck, but one of her hands sneaked down Yasenia's perfect belly and went into her skirt.

Yasenia's pupils expanded, and she gasped when the cool and soft hand of her sweetheart wrapped around her limp member. The dragoness looked at Cecile with puzzled eyes. "N-Now?"

Cecile lifted her silvery eyebrow, her icy blue eyes showing tenderness and playfulness. "No?"

Her hand expertly coiled around Yasenia's hardening shaft, moving up and down in tantalizing motions, making Yasenia swallow her words.

Kali's green eyes shone with shyness, but her lust won over her shyness, and she also moved her hand into Yasenia's skirt, further below Cecile's hand, and landed on the warm and soft lower lips.

Yasenia's waist jumped as a heavenly moan escaped her lips. "Ah~."

Cecile and Kali felt their hearts skip a beat. When Yasenia moaned, it felt as if it resonated with their souls, making them feel aroused. Her voice was charming and alluring to that degree. Plus, adding their soul connection made them feel their blood rushing down as moistness began involuntarily building between their thighs.

Slowly but surely, Cecile felt Yasenia's dick going full mast, pushing the skirt upward for all the impressive length of her member.

Kali looked at the large upward bulge and laughed softly as she felt the dragoness's vulva moisten between her fingers. "I'm always impressed that I can take that in~."

She had begun feeling the slimy fluids that Yasenia's vagina secreted, and her middle finger parted the labia to caress the insides.

Yasenia moaned. "Ah, Ah! Mmm~."

Yasenia leaned toward Kali and captured her scarred lips, making the fox's three tails wag as her fingers explored between Yasenia's folds more eagerly.

Meanwhile, Cecile licked Yasenia's neck, tasting the sweet and addicting sweat that her skin was beginning to produce.

The scent flying around made the Fox and Phoenix feel a tingling in their stomach as their uterus throbbed. Once the mating scent of the dragoness tickled their olfactory sense, their brains couldn't help but activate all their sexual receptors, preparing their bodies to welcome their lover.

However, they didn't stop their slow and seductive movement and continued caressing Yasenia's genitals. They wanted to give Yasenia pleasure this time. Yasenia sighed, her voice dripping with seductive charm while the two hands caressed her weak points. "Oh~, feels so good."

Cecile's cool and soft hand went up and down her penis, caressing the tendons and glans with expertise and spreading a tingling sensation throughout her body. Then, Kali's elegant, long fingers gently parted her moist flower and dug inside her opening, touching the outer part of her vagina.

The dragoness lowered her hands and placed them on Kali's and Cecile's stomachs, making soothing and gentle circular motions while pressing down in the womb area whenever she passed over it.

The Fox and Phoenix women gasped as the throbbing in their uterus became more intense, thanks to Yasenia's loving caresses.

They loved that in these situations, instead of focusing on their breasts, ass, or vulva, Yasenia gently touched other places like their navel area and lower back or gently scratched their scalp.

The tenderness in those movements made them feel as if a jar of honey had spilled in their hearts, and they began kissing Yasenia's neck, shoulders, and face with entranced eyes.

While their dragoness didn't touch any innately erogenous zones, the mental satisfaction and pleasure they received were hundreds of times better than beastly pleasure.

Kali kissed her neck and moaned when Yasneia's fingers pressed down on her womb with tenderness and desire. "I love you, Yasenia. Mmm~."

After receiving so much love from the dragoness, Kali's memories of that nightmarish time were so fuzzy that she almost forgot about them. If it weren't for the scars around her body, she would've probably not cared anymore about her revenge.

Of course, even if Kali herself didn't care, Yasenia would never forget.

Meanwhile, Cecile was almost purring as she sniffed, licked, kissed, and rubbed herself on the dragoness, spreading her own scent possessively. Her wings behind her created a rustling sound as they flapped in happiness while her three phoenix tails tenderly coiled around Yasenia and moved across its entire length, sometimes bumping with Kali's tails, which were doing the same.

At the same time, Yasenia felt the pleasure building up and warned. "I-I'm almost there. Ah!"

Cecile's blue eyes flashed as her free hand moved the skirt down, revealing the precum-soaked, glistening, large penis, and she leaned down. Yasenia couldn't see well because her large breasts obstructed her vision.

Still, her waist jumped upward when Cecile's lips wrapped around her penis, adding a feeling of moistness and warmth. The sensations that built thanks to Kali's fingering and Cecile's handjob climbed up her spine, exploding like fireworks in her brain.

Cecile felt the wide head of the penis swelling even further, making her jaw hurt a bit, and then a stream of thick and delicious semen poured into her mouth with a twitch of the dragon's penis.

The hard-to-swallow thick fluid spread its deep flavor that made her brain's neurons fire around her mouth, making Cecile's waist tremble as her vagina sprayed fluids in a sensory orgasm.

Cecile felt as if her body was accustomed to cum whenever the savory and powerful semen entered her body. Each twitch of the dragoness's dick spurted a thick stream of semen, which forced Cecile to gulp down a few times to swallow everything without spilling.

Simultaneously, Kali's index finger, which was gently caressing Yasenia's vagina's entrance, felt the walls clamp down like a vice, squirming around her finger as if they were alive, making Kali's heart-rate increase at the sensual feeling. 'My~, her insides are trying to milk my finger~.'

Other than the sensual pleasure, Kali felt a stream of transparent and sweet-smelling liquid hitting her hand as Yasenia moaned and squirted. The sudden increase in the scent concentration made Kali's nostrils widen as she took in a deep breath and moaned. 'Her scent is against the rules~.'

Dazed because of the stimulating scent, she took out her finger and hand and lifted it, looking at the dripping fluids, and then she couldn't help herself and started licking her fingers.

Her fox tails wagged as the flavor of Yasenia's squirt filled her taste and olfactory senses, making her eyes blurry with arousal.

Yasenia stopped orgasming, and seeing the fox and phoenix licking her fluids with such enraptured expressions, she decided that whoever was able to stop themselves in this situation wasn't a living creature.

Her initial desire was to cuddle calmly, but things had escalated, and she had no intention of stopping it. Using one hand to caress Cecile's hair and scalp, Yasenia asked. "Sweetheart, do you mind if we do it together today?"

Cecile licked Yasenia's glans as if it were ice cream while looking up and got thoughtful.

Meanwhile, Kali gulped as she looked at Cecile. Of all of them, Cecile was the one closest to the definition of "Peerless Beauty." Her face was sculpted like a goddess as her platinum-blond hair and icy blue eyes accentuated her aloofness and elegance.

In terms of "pure" beauty, Cecile bested everyone in their group. Of course, this didn't mean that Yasenia or Tatyana lost to her, but their beauty was more centered on seductiveness for the former and imperialness for the latter. Meanwhile, Cecile was more of a "perfect" beauty.

Therefore, seeing that peerless beauty licking Yasenia's dick with enraptured eyes and her usual stern facial features relaxed as she tenderly looked at Yasenia was lethal.

The melted face of the aloof Moon Phoenix could ignite a strange primal desire and urge on anyone who placed their eyes on her. Moreover, her submissiveness, when rubbing against the palm caressing the top of her head, added a layer of cuteness that made Kali swallow her saliva.

However, Kali knew that Cecile was against doing the act together, so she smiled and spoke. "Let's do it one by one, Yasenia. Go with Cecile first, and come to me later."

Cecile blinked and looked at Kali, not stopping licking the delicious dick in her mouth. "Hm I don't mind for today."

Yasenia and Kali looked down with surprise. Cecile stopped licking and used her hand to slowly pump Yasenia's penis as she rubbed her face and nose on the hard member. "Kali was a good friend. I don't mind. But" Cecile looked at Kali and smiled seductively as she licked the precum that built up on the top. "I'm very greedy during intercourse."

Kali coughed with a blush. 'W-Why is she so seductive?!'

Then, she stuttered. "I-I don't mind."

Kali thought to herself. 'I think that seeing the two of them having sex would be enough to make me orgasm until I go stupid, so I don't really mind.'

Because Kali's first time happened by constantly seeing Angel getting dominated by Yasenia, she considerably liked seeing Yasenia dominate the other girls. It gave her an immoral feeling of arousal that only Yasenia knew about.

That's why Angel and Kali had nights together with Yasenia quite often. One liked being seen, and the other liked seeing. Yasenia knew it, so she satisfied them both from time to time by making love to Angel until the little girl couldn't think of anything else but the member plowing her in front of the fox.

By the time she got done with Angel, Kali, more often than not, was masturbating with a melted expression. Naturally, after that, Yasenia always had pampering sex with Kali until the fox melted in her arms because of the love radiating from the dragoness.

Cecile blinked twice, looking at Kali with confusion. "Really? You don't mind? I'm not lying when I say that because of my instincts, I get extremely possessive with Yasenia. I might even involuntarily push you away."

Kali continued nodding with two red clouds on her cheeks. "I can wait at those times for Yasenia to finish with you. Even then, it's not like we can satisfy her lust with just the two of us. I'll eventually have my turn."

Cecile found it reasonable, even if she couldn't understand the ability not to want to monopolize Yasenia during sex. Our Phoenix was a very possessive girl, after all. "Well, after practicing Body Cultivation, her stamina had taken another leap. So, that's the truth. Sure, let's do it."

All of them had an increase in stamina, but for Yasenia, who was using the [Celestial Cosmos Body Refinement] learned in the Ethereal Soul Realm, the effects were much stronger. That skill increased the dragoness's bodily strength a notch higher than the others by using a lot of resources to temper her body.

During this conversation, Yasenia didn't intervene and allowed them to choose and speak with each other. While she was the "head" of the harem, she was of the opinion that she should allow her girls to speak about these things instead of imposing anything on them. Her only "order" related to sexual intercourse was her prohibition of intimacy without her being there.

Yasenia had more than enough stamina to satisfy everyone, even if she went one-on-one with all of them. Which was another of the reasons she was personally reluctant to increase her harem.

The dragoness preferred having overflowing stamina after a night session over being able to satisfy herself completely. The reason was that if the latter happened, it meant that someone in the harem was not satisfied. This was currently the case with Tatyana, but it was something the dragoness could do nothing about yet.

Having a harem when you couldn't satisfy their emotional and sexual needs was something the dragoness found loathing. After all, a harem like that was built for the pleasure of the harem head, not to create a harmonious family.

Being the head of the harem meant that you needed to be much more responsible for your lovers than in a normal relationship. Those who didn't do so were just selfish bastards who treated their lovers like glorified sexual toys.

While thinking of all of this, Yasenia realized that they chose to try having sex together today, and both of them were looking at her, asking with their eyes what Yasenia thought about.

Chapter 754: Making Love with Cecile and Kali. (R-18)

Cecile and Kali looked at her, and the Phoenix asked. "What do you think, my love?"

The dragoness smiled gently and caressed their heads, her fingers passing through their hair. "If that's what you want, we can try." Then, she looked at them with serious eyes. "However, if any of you feels uncomfortable, you must tell me. Okay? We can talk during the session and change things as we go until you both are satisfied. Remember, you two are always my priority."

Kali and Cecile blushed a bit and laughed happily, jumping on her as they inserted energy in the sofa to make the back reclinable.

Yasenia got talked down to a laying position, the backrest falling back with her. The smiling and happy smile tickled Yasenia's heart, making her laugh. "Let's get undressed first, shall we?"

First, Kali and Cecile worked together and began stripping Yasenia's dress. It was not that difficult, and because Yasenia's dress had the function of helping her fix her breasts, Yasenia didn't wear a bra. When the dress got lowered, Yasenia's voluminous breasts bounced up and down, showing a gravity-defying feat that made Kali and Cecile gulp.

The perfect shape and pink nipples attracted their sight, making them blush and want to lick them. They looked so sweet and attractive.

Yasenia saw their eyes and sensually grabbed her own breasts, squeezing them gently. Kali and Cecile saw the hidden pores around Yasenia's nipples opening and leaking a white, milky substance. The drops slid through the pink nipple, staining the areola, and following the large curve as it fell across Yasenia's sensual belly.

They swallowed at the same time, feeling their throat dry, and their desires got pushed further when Yasenia asked in a low and seductive tone. "Are you thirsty? You can drink-Aahn~."

Both of them forgot about the other as they leaned down and trapped one nipple each. The dragoness's back arched, emphasizing her voluminous chest as she felt the milk leaving her breasts. Her fingers gently continued their slow head massage, caressing their scalp as their tongues and throats sang with delight at the delicious flavor of the dragon woman's breast milk that fell into their stomach.

While both of them closed their eyes and buried their faces in Yasenia's breasts, the dragoness used her energy to strip them down, similarly storing her own dress. In no longer than a few seconds, the clothes of the three women disappeared, revealing their bodies.

Kali's and Cecile's eyes opened, and they crossed gazes with each other. A surge of embarrassment appeared inside their eyes when they saw the other person sucking Yasenia's breast like a baby. The sight of their cheeks puckering was quite shameful.

They stopped and lifted their heads, hearing Yasenia ask with a teasing tone. "Are you full? There is some milk left~."

Their faces burned hotter, but when their eyes looked down and saw each other naked bodies, they paused.

Kali couldn't help but be drawn to Cecile's flawless body. 'Wow.'

A perfectly slender body with unblemished white skin. The whiteness was not the usual rosy whiteness; it was white-white, but it didn't come as unhealthy. The glossiness of her skin, the perfect body proportions of her slender build, the pink nipples and rosy cheeks because of arousal, and the silver wings and hair that draped over her body all coalesced into a goddess-like woman.

Even when they were naked, feeling lust for Cecile was difficult for Kali, as only feelings of admiration and appreciation appeared in Kali's mind. She was utterly dazed at Cecile's immaculate beauty. 'She is so beautiful.'

Meanwhile, Cecile also looked at Kali. At first, she was surprised when she realized that Kali was far more voluptuous than she initially thought. Kali's clothes did a good job of hiding her curves.

While she was not at Yasenia's level, she easily won second place in their group. Angel had very big breasts for her height, but her hips were a bit small in proportion.

Kali had a perfect hourglass figure that, now that they were lying down highlighted the large breasts, slim and elastic waist, and mermaid-like hips and legs.

Still, even with such a beautiful body, Cecile couldn't help but feel a pang of pity.

The skin was marred with countless big and small scars crisscrossing everywhere. While the skin where scars didn't pass through had a healthy color, overall, it was a heartbreaking sight. The gentle and mature beauty that Kali's natural appearance would create was now a tragic one. 'So many scars.'

In the cultivation world, where even a small scar on the face was considered as being deformed for many because of the innate search for perfection that cultivators aimed at, Kali would be considered a "monster" by 99% of the population.

However, even after this, remembering how Kali smiled and laughed with them in their everyday life, the Phoenix couldn't help but look at Yasenia with dripping love and appreciation.

The previous gloomy and terrified woman she had interacted with had now bloomed into a lovely and caring flower by being showered in gentle and nurturing love. She could walk around in their house and even outside without a veil, she could speak with people outside without feeling fear, she radiated confidence when facing her enemies, and she could confidently accept Yasenia's love and live her best life with a large smile on her face.

Cecile felt sincere admiration for both Kali and Yasenia.

Although they've bathed together in the past, this was the first time they took their time to look at each other, and both of them thought that they were like two separate faces of a single coin.

A flawless, elegant beauty.

A scarred, mature beauty.

Yasenia saw their gazes and smiled, pulling both her girls into her arms and turning her head to kiss Kali deeply.

Cecile saw Kali's facial expression melting as the scarred lips parted to welcome Yasenia's long tongue and met with Yasenia's soft and seductive lips without hesitation.

Although it was an everyday sight, the situation they were in made the imagery even more beautiful. A woman who could be considered the "most beautiful" unhesitatingly showering a woman considered a "monster" by almost everyone with sincere love was a lovely sight.

Yasenia stopped her kiss and looked at Cecile with a gentle smile. "Sweetheart, come here."

Cecile moved upward and gave Yasenia a deep kiss full of love.

Since they were going to go all the way, Yasenia's hands gently slithered down their bodies, and her arms wrapped around their waist so that her fingers gently slid through the pelvic area, reaching their plump mounds between their legs.

"Ahn~."

"Mmm~."

While exchanging kisses with both of them, Yasenia tenderly aroused her two dears with slow but deep finger movements. Her long and elegant fingers pressed on the soft labia, moving it in circles not to carry pleasure but to warm them up.

Cecile and Kali opened their legs in comfort to allow Yasenia's fingers to dig deeper. The vulva massage was so comforting that they almost began purring in comfort.

Soon, the fingers started creating a wet sound that accompanied the moist kisses shared above.

Yasenia asked between kisses. "Who wants to go first, dears?"

Kali muttered shyly, her verdant green eyes looking slightly moist. "I-I want to see."

Cecile chuckled a bit and moved her legs and body, straddling Yasenia while looking down with seductive eyes. "Sure. I'll show you, then."

Looking at the peerlessly beautiful woman spreading her legs while her large silver wings extended behind her made Kali gulp. The word beautiful repeated in her mind all the time in pure admiration.

Cecile used her hand to move Yasenia's dick and opened her labia with the wide glans. The head of the penis parted the lower lips, and Cecile's body shuddered at the pleasant sensation, her vagina discharging a small stream of viscous fluids that smeared Yasenia's dick.

She didn't insert as she moved the dick up and down, making the tip caress her clitoris as it got moistened by a mix of precum and vaginal fluids. Kali blushed at the gushing vagina and asked in a whisper. "A- Am I like that?"

Yasenia laughed lowly and whispered. "No, you release more."

Kali's fox ears twitched as her three fox tails entangled in embarrassment.

Cecile released a trembling sigh, moving her waist back and forth. "Ha~, I think that I could orgasm by doing just this."

Yasenia smiled and moved her tail stealthy, looping around Kali's back and slithering between her thighs. Then, she mimicked Cecile's movements.

Kali's waist jumped at first, and then her face flushed. Since her eyes were locked on Cecile's and Yasenia's genitals, she realized that Yasenia was mimicking the movements with her tail, which made it strangely arousing. It felt as if she was feeling how Yasenia was having sex with another woman.

Cecile, satisfied at the slow rubbing, began lowering her waist, and Kali saw and felt, thanks to the tail, how Cecile's plump lips surrounded Yasenia's wide glans and slowly swallowed it. Cecile and Kali groaned when their vaginal entrance widened, and their insides began to become filled with the dragoness's impressive girth.

"Oh~, so nice."

"Mmm~."

The phoenix placed her hands on Yasenia's soft stomach, looking at how her fingers slightly sank into her lover's seductive flesh until they touched the solid mass of muscles below the fatty layer, and her vaginal clenched. "This kind of body goes against the rules!"

Her back twitched a bit in a mini orgasm. Kali moaned in surprise as the tail vibrated to mimic the feeling of Cecile's vagina's small convulsion.

Savoring every inch that dug deep inside her, Cecile's waist descended until her labia kissed Yasenia's pelvis, hiding the large dick inside her up until the root.

Kali and Cecile moaned simultaneously when Yasenia kissed their cervix and pushed against it, lifting their womb and very slightly opening their cervix. "Oh!"

The feeling of an almost womb penetration was exciting, making their bodies heat up.

With her body prepared, Cecile began rotating and moving her waist in seductive motions. Cecile's perfect body undulated as she moved her waist up, down, back, forth, and sideways. It looked as if she was dancing, and pleasure moans escaped her mouth. "Hang, mmm~. Ah!"

Kali's eyes rolled in pleasure as moans escaped her throat. The tail moved inside her vagina, mimicking Cecile's movements which allowed the penis and tail to scrap the vaginal wrinkles in a very stimulating way.

Instead of deep penetration, it felt as if the Yasenia were massaging the deep tissue in their flesh cave. The multitude of bundles of nerves constantly sent signals of pleasure across the two women's bodies, making their eyes become hazy as their faces became slack.

Moreover, because of Kali's tight and small vaginal entrance, Yasenia usually refrained from exaggerated pistoning movements, focusing more on scraping the insides. So, Kali was very sensitive to this kind of "inside" movement.

"Ah! Ah! Ah!"

Kali and Cecile moaned as their tight pussy was lovingly fucked by the tail mimicking Cecile's waist movements. Utterly aroused, the fox turned her head without breaking eye contact with the meeting point between Yasenia's and Cecile's genitals, and she began licking and kissing the dragoness's body.

Meanwhile, Yasenia also began leaking moans as Cecile's vagina tightened and trembled, stimulating her shaft, and Kali's flesh clamped down and spasmed as a multitude of small orgasms occurred in them.

Cecile and Kali were involuntarily milking Yasenia's dick because of their orgasms, making Yasenia groan in delight and pleasure.

Yasenia's hand, which had been constantly moving around Kali's spread labia, moved upward and slowly caressed her clitoris. Like a bolt of lightning hitting her, Kali's body tensed, and her eyes rolled at the sudden increase in the pleasurable signals.

The continuous small orgasms stacked one after another in a massive burst of pleasure that made her nervous system flicker with pure waves of pleasure.

"OHH!"

Kali's back arched as a gush of squirt shot forward and hit Yasenia's thigh. Kali was lying sideways by the dragoness's side, so the forward spry hit Yasenia's leg, letting the dragoness know about her Fox's deep orgasm.

Feeling her honey's climax, the dragoness used her other arm to grab Cecile's waist, and with a smile, she bent her legs as support and began pounding upward.

Pah!

The first thrust pushed against Cecile's womb, making her blue eyes roll upward and her body fall forward. Her head snugly landed between Yasenia's large breasts, and then her hole was assaulted.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

The sound of flesh against flesh colliding was accompanied by the squelching sound of their soaked genitals and Cecile's and Kali's melodic moans.

"AH! AH! AH! AH!"

"OHHH! OH!!"

Kali and Cecile felt the members inside them move quicker than before, aiming for the weak points in their pussies, making their brains melt in pleasure as they both began moaning in delight.

Lost in the passionate and loving pleasure, they began licking, kissing, and sniffing their skillful lover. It didn't pass long until they felt both members swelling, warning them of the imminent release.

Their bodies heated up further even while they were almost constantly orgasming. Their brains lit up, and blood flowed toward their lower bodies as their uterus's cervix relaxed, prepared to swallow the wave of semen that was soon to arrive.

Yasenia moaned as the bodies of her lovers did everything in their strength to milk her as they prepared to accept her release.

With a powerful thrust, her tail forward as much as she could, piercing deep when all the pleasure climbed up her spine and burst into her mind.

Yasenia moaned. "I'm cumming!"

Kali and Cecile felt the swollen members twitch and release a thick wave of semen that filled their wombs. Their bodies exploded with a monstrous wave of pleasure that coursed like electricity through their nerves up to their brains.

Their eyes rolled up as their bodies began spasming in pleasure. Kali moaned throatily as the powerful Yang energy caused havoc in her womb. "AH! I'm cumming! I'm cumming! AH! AH! AH! I'm cumming again!"

Cecile was not any better as her throaty moans got swallowed by her burying her face in Yasenia's large breasts. "OHH!! So good! So good! Your cum feels so good! So hot inside! OH!"

The dragoness sighed in comfort while releasing deep inside as her dears squirted all over her, and she filled them enough to make semen leak even before she took out her shafts.

Chapter 755: Loving Fox and Phoenix. Maid's strength and Cultivation Techniques (R-18)

Kali and Cecile stopped trembling after being filled and moved upward, landing kisses on Yasenia's face, neck, and upper body.

The dragoness felt their hot insides wrapping around her after she released her load. "Good?"

Kali muttered while the tail gently stirred her insides. "Yes, I feel so warm~."

Cecile sighed as she moved her waist in circles. "My body is still trembling with pleasure."

However, Cecile soon began to move again, and so the tail followed her movements. Yasenia's large penis moved back, scraping the wrinkles inside Cecile's vagina, which made Kali feel the same, thanks to the tail.

Kali's relaxed eyes widened as her sensitive pussy was starting to get stroked again. "O-Oh, wait, I'm still sensitive!" But Cecile didn't wait, and her waist got to work again, moving up and down as her upper body rested on Yasenia's torso.

Kali squirmed and moaned. "AH! AH! AH!" The sensitive genitals sent waves of pleasure to her brain, and her pussy began squirting fluids in a surprise orgasm. "OH! OH! OH!"

Cecile's lips arched as she saw Kali's green eyes rolling and the chestnut-colored hair stuck to her sweaty face. Cecile moaned and spoke. "Since you want to experience what I experience, prepare yourself~."

Then, Cecile's waist accelerated further as she began pistoning like crazy and fucking herself with wild abandon. Her body gushed water to lubricate their connected parts, and each time, it made Cecile feel a climax.

Cecile's mouth slackened as saliva began dripping because of the continuous orgasms, but she didn't stop her waist for a second.

Yasenia also moaned as Kali's and Cecile's pussies convulsed like hungry mouths as if they were trying to milk the soul out of her. Her penis and tail melted in pleasure, making the feeling of orgasm rise quickly.

Kali trembled and hugged Yasenia tightly as her pussy became a fountain that squirted fluids each time the tail went out, and her moans echoed in the room. "I'm cumming! Oh, again, again! I'm Cumming again! I can't stop! I can't stop! Yasenia, Yasenia, Yasenia! I-I'm, oh no, I can't hold it in! I'm cumming!!!"

The orgasms made Kali lose control of her waist muscles, and her bladder loosened, releasing a stream of liquid as the tail continued to fuck her. Kali's body spasmed in pleasure but couldn't vocalize it because Yasenia' swallowed her mouth in a tongue-deep kiss.

Yasenia felt a warm liquid hitting her leg as Kali's green eyes rolled in pleasure, and her tongue moved around, greedily swallowing her saliva, but her tail didn't stop squelching inside Kali's pussy.

Meanwhile, Cecile's drool had already started pooling on Yasenia's breasts as the dragoness started taking an active role and moving her waist upward.

The thrusts reached her womb and pushed it, forcing the cervix to widen. Cecile's melted icy blue eyes widened as she realized the aim of her lover, and it wasn't long before the constant poking managed to open her last line of defense. "Ah! Womb! You are inside my womb! Oh, yes, yes, yes! Fuck my womb, fuck my womb!"

Cecile's body spasmed in pleasure as Yasenia's dick stirred her insides.

Yasenia sped up, and not holding back the sensations, she reached an orgasm. "Get filled!"

After one powerful thrust, both members dug as deep as possible and began releasing another discharge. The jet of semen pushed against the uterine walls, making Kali's and Cecile's lips arch in a deranged manner as their entire faces loosened in pleasure.

After the powerful wave of pleasure that rocked Kali's and Cecile's minds, the Fox couldn't hold on, and she fell limp on the bed.

Yasenia laughed a bit, kissing Kali's slack mouth as she took out her tail from her pussy. A gush of white semen flowed out, staining the sofa and creating a small puddle. "Sweetheart~, now it's your turn."

Yasenia pushed Cecile sideways, quickly repositioning and placing the Phoenix woman under her.

While Cecile relished in the afterglow, she was surprised at the sudden change in position, and then she saw how Yasenia took her legs and placed them on her shoulders. As Yasenia leaned forward, Cecile was basically folded in half, her pussy and asshole vulnerably facing toward the ceiling.

The Phoenix woman gulped when she saw the predatory smile on her lover's face. This position was not only arousing for her own vulnerability, but Yasenia's large breasts dangled right above hers, making them push against each other and making Cecile feel her own breasts almost melt in the unrivaled softness.

Then, using her own semen as lubrication, both the tail and penis lodged into Cecile's two holes. "Let's have fun, Sweetheart~."

Cecile's eyes widened as Yasenia began double-penetrating her in the mating press position. "So deep! Oh heaven! More, more! Yasenia, Yasenia, Yasenia!!!"

Yasenia pressed Cecile under her body and started to fuck her in earnest while kissing her mouth.

Kali came back to her senses a few moments later, her ears flickering as melodious moans entered her ears. 'Huh?'

Looking sideways at the loud moans coming that way, her eyes widened slightly as the phoenix was utterly dominated by the dragon and plowed helplessly.

Her legs were up in the air, flopping limply as liquid constantly gushed from their connected parts, and Yasenia's large penis and tail dug both of the Phoenix holes relentlessly. "Ah! Ah! Yasenia! Yasenia! OH!!!"

The pleasant cries of the Phoenix filled the room, accompanied by the lustful squelching sounds of the large penis and tail digging into the flower of the helpless woman.

Kali moved her hand to her pussy and began using the leaking semen as lubrication to masturbate. Her throat felt dry, so she swallowed, and her heart pounded.

The sight of the previously aloof and beautiful woman helplessly falling for the carnal pleasure delivered by her lover was very stimulating. The second her fingers touched her pussy, Kali felt her own fluids leaking, making her accelerate her masturbation.

Kali realized that even when their waist moved quite frantically, their mouths and hands tenderly caressed each other, showing a deep bond of love and trust. Their breasts pressed against each other, deforming in a beautiful dance created by their bouncing motions. Their hands entangled on each other's backs, and while the Phoenix was moaning freely, Yasenia's lips tenderly kissed her mate's neck, face, eyes, eyebrows, and lips.

Inside the frantic mating, there was an unmistakable layer of love.

Even without a connection with Cecile, she could feel the intense satisfaction and love coming from her.

After a while, Kali saw Yasenia doing a powerful downward thrust, and Kali quickly rubbed her own clitoris, entering an orgasm at the same time as Yasenia filled the womb and back hole of the phoenix.

Yasenia let Cecile go, making the woman fall limp with her legs spread open, and Kali saw the dragon's eyes shift toward her.

The growing smile as Yasenia used her hands to push her wet, long black hair backward made her waist twitch as her uterus throbbed again.

What followed was the Fox's awaited moment, the pampering love-making session in which she helplessly melted as loving words filled her ears and hot semen filled her womb again and again until she fainted like her other companion.

Kali was buried below her lover's soft body as her hard dick dug into her, gently exploring her tight vagina. The first thrust was done slowly to allow her small hole to spread around the glans, and when they became one, Yasenia began moving her waist in long and slow tantalizing motions. Kali's eyes got lost in tenderness as Yasenia kissed, pampered, and caressed her body.

It took about 30 more minutes to extract all of Kali's Yin energy and make her faint with a satisfied smile.

The dragoness smiled and carried her lovers to take a warm and relaxing bath, cleaning all the traces with patience and gentleness. "You did a great job, Honey, Sweetheart."

They didn't wake up during the whole process, feeling at complete ease between their lover's arms. Still, when they heard Yasenia's words, their lips arched upward as they searched their lover's body heat and hugged her tightly.

After the bath, she placed both of them into the cozy and clean bed, giving them a tender kiss on the lips. "Sleep well, Honey, Sweetheart."

Then, she straightened and changed into a relaxing and relatively not-revealing red kimono. It had a large cleavage because it would feel a bit stuffy otherwise, but the rest was normal, as it covered her arms, waist, and legs, having a hole in the back to allow her tail to pass through.

While she walked across the mansion, she saw a few sect members looking at her dazedly.

After all, even if she was wearing non-revealing clothes, she was currently emanating an unconscious sexual aura because of her recent act. Even when she tried to hide it, her body was dripping with seductiveness.

She naturally ignored the looks she received, being accustomed to being looked at, and her eyes moved toward the window in the hallway that faced the garden.

Looking outside the window, she spotted Andrea and Evelyn playing with Kaleina and Flame. After much deliberation, Yasenia chose to have them accompany her.

Although it was a bit risky, Yasenia was confident in being able to protect them. One reason was the growth of her own strength. And the other was that the maids were also becoming stronger.

Moreover, this was a good chance for Kaleina and Flame to see a real battle, not the demonstrations and spars they'd planned.

Furthermore, it was not only Yasenia that got stronger; the girls also got stronger. It had already been around five years since the maids arrived at Distancia, and their strength was much higher than back then.

Other than Alaia, another five of them managed to arrive at the Half-step Dantian Spiritualization Realm. Moreover, even the weakest maid was a level Five Dantian Spiritualization Cultivator. Their numbers were like this. There were six Half-steps, nine Level 9s, ten Level 8s, ten Level 7s, twelve Level 6s, and lastly, three Level 5s in the maid group.

Their rapid growth was thanks to all the resources they had in their rings, specially prepared by Tatyana for them. Pills, herbs, formations, equipment, and many more treasures, all of them tailor-made for each of the maids, resided in their rings, able to push their cultivation past the mortal realms.

Additionally, being "low-level" meant little to the maids who specialized in many powerful and sometimes obscure branches. Eira and Doriel were good examples.

Eira was a pure sword cultivator, which was very, very rare. With pure cultivator, it meant that Eira didn't have any other intent besides [Sword Intent], and her mastery over elements was also lacking.

The only thing that Eira needed her attribute for was to increase her Spiritual Cultivation level. Otherwise, all her skills carried zero attributes; she only had sword skills.

Moreover, now that she can train in the attributeless body cultivation technique, Eira will slowly evolve further and become much stronger in the future.

Doriel, on the other side, threaded the Curse Assassin path, a very obscure and unpopular path. Assassins were usually a one-hit-one-kill type of cultivator. Still, with the Curse path she took, Doriel was more proficient in delayed confrontations, even if, as an assassin, she still retained that one-hit-one-kill capability.

However, her strength was more than guaranteed.

Added to all of the above, thanks to the Astral Sky Alliance, Yasenia had managed to secure cultivation methods for all the elements, all of them being high-level Heaven ranked and with good potential, personally picked by Tatyana, Mirrory, and Valeria.

It should be mentioned that when someone learned a cultivation technique, changing it was complicated. It was similar to someone learning a dagger technique and trying to recreate it with a greatsword. It might be possible to some extent because both of them are bladed weapons, but the limitations were more than clear. Worst case, it could lead to self-injury.

Therefore, to learn or change to a new technique, that new one must be compatible with the previous one. Let's explain it with our previous example.

If you have a dagger technique, and that dagger technique focuses on, for example, quick thrusts, you gain a basic understanding of the dagger weapon regardless of what specialization you choose later. Therefore, if, instead of a dagger thrust technique, you start learning a dagger slashing technique, the basics learned from the other technique would still be useful, having to change only the details.

Cultivation techniques were similar.

If you learned two water-attributed techniques, and their way of moving energy had similarities, it was possible to transition from one to the other by just making minor changes to the way the cultivator circulated energy instead of having to start all over again.

After all, almost no cultivator was brave enough to throw their cultivation up to that point to start anew without guaranteeing that the new technique would suit them better.

So, with all of this in mind, our girls didn't change techniques yet, as they were working with the seniors to create a technique where transitioning wouldn't screw up their foundations.

Unlike Yasenia's, which took only a few weeks thanks to her Immortal Ranked Dual Cultivation technique, there was a lot of work to do for theirs. It was to the point that they took two hours daily with the seniors to work on it.

They could do more, but thanks to their current Transcendent Rank technique, they didn't have any haste in gaining a new, improved one. The one they had was more than good enough for the entirety of the fifth realm and even beyond. Remember that techniques didn't limit cultivation, but the "aided" cultivation.

Regardless, all of this meant that our girls and the maids weren't too preoccupied about these matters yet. The maids could wait until they reached the limits of the Dantian Spiritualization Realm to start learning a Body Cultivation Technique that was tailor-made for them, and the girls could do the same.

Chapter 756: Kaleina vs Flame.

Yasenia arrived at the garden and joined Kaleina, Flame, Andrea, and Evelyn.

"Mommy!"

"Aunty!"

Kaleina and Flame rushed toward her with large smiles once they spotted her, falling in her arms.

By now, Kaleina was considered a big creature for common beasts. Although her body was in the long and slender spectrum as an eastern dragon variant, she was already three meters long. While a three-meter-long snake would be relatively slim, as a dragon, Kaleina was at least three times thicker.

Moreover, unlike most Eastern Dragons, Kaleina only had frontal limbs, and on her back, there were two small dragon wings. They were still growing, and for now, they were unusable, but in the future, they would grow beautifully.

Yasenia asked while caressing the two little ones in her arms. "What were you doing, dears?"

Kaleina answered enthusiastically. "We were fighting!"

Kaleina's speech was much more mature than before, as she was already approaching ten years of age.

Flame corrected her quickly, looking a bit nervous. "Sparring! Not fighting!"

Flame was also taller after her growth during her 10~13 years. Of course, for our dragoness, Flame was still petite and could fit snugly between her arms.

Yasenia laughed and kissed Flame's and Kaleina's foreheads. "Very good. How about you show me?"

Kaleina and Flame nodded quickly and went to the small arena Andrea created. It was about 10 meters wide, more than enough for both of them.

Arriving by Andrea's and Evelyn's side, the dragoness asked. "How are you doing, Dear, Darling?"

They smiled, and Andrea spoke first. "Well, we are relaxing a bit with the children. Have you finished whatever you were doing?"

Evelyn's nose twitched as she sniffed around Yasenia. "Did you have fun with the others?"

Yasenia was speechless. "What are you, a dog? I bathed before coming here."

Evelyn lifted an eyebrow. "Right, you smell fresh, as if you just showered. And other than when you shower with us after sending us to Pleasure Heaven, you don't shower. Hence, since you took a bath, it means that you got intimate with someone."

Yasenia and Andrea were stumped. They couldn't say anything else but admit defeat. Yasenia hugged her and laughed. "I was with Cecile and Kali."

Evelyn's eyebrows raised. "Did you just say, 'and'?"

The dragoness smirked. "The situation was just right, so Cecile didn't mind."

Andrea looked toward the arena and commented. "They are in position, love."

Yasenia patted Evelyn's head. "Let's talk later."

Evelyn didn't have any problem with that, and the three of them looked at the arena. Kaleina shouted. "Mommy, give us the go-ahead!"

Yasenia took out a coin and smiled. "When this coin touches the ground, you both can start."

Cling~.

Her nail accurately flicked the coin upward in a parabola, sending it toward the center of the arena between Kaleina and Flame.

The young dragon's muscles tensed as Flame also took a fighting stance, her red wings folding on her back.

Yasenia pondered in her mind. 'Kaleina is a Level Five Mortal Beast, while Flame is a high-level Foundation Building Phase Body Cultivator. In terms of energy, Flame has an advantage, but in terms of strength, Kaleina should be above. It will be an interesting match.'

Since she had taken Flame under her wing, Yasenia did not hold back teaching her, and she had prepared suitable Fire Attributed Spiritual and Body Cultivation Techniques and Treasures. While she still couldn't learn the Spiritual Cultivation Technique, she was already learning it to have much less trouble when starting later.

Moreover, she had noticed that the first realm of the Spiritual Path and the second realm of the Body Path had many similarities in terms of being the realm when the cultivator developed their meridians and Dantian.

Remember that the first Body Realm was about coating the body with energy, while only in the second would the cultivator grow their meridians.

While she thought about this, the coin she threw finally hit the ground with a crisp sound.

In the same instant, Flame leaned forward and pushed while Kaleina also shot forward like an arrow shot from a bow.

Yasenia's eyes flashed. 'Good speed.'

Flame moved her arms in a circular motion that ended in a straight punch. "[Fire Punch]."

Answering her punch, Kaleina's golden dragon eyes flashed with deep energy, and her body shifted in place. Yasenia's eyebrow shot upward. 'Spatial manipulation? Already?'

Flame's fist burst in a fire explosion, creating a fireball, and as if she expected Kaleina to dodge, her body spun, and her leg shot venomously toward Kaleina's body. "[Fire Kick]!"

With the sound of air igniting, Kaleina had to twist her body and place her arms defensively. "

Bang!

Kaleina's body moved backward, but she quickly opened her jaw as white energy gathered. Flame quickly sidestepped in surprise, her feet tangling a bit, and a small white ball shot quickly from Kaleina's mouth, brushing past her and landing on the ground, creating a small explosion. It was a ball of Star Energy that she had compressed and shot.

After dodging, Flame was quick and stepped into mele range, shooting her fist toward Kaleina's reverse scale without mercy. Kaleina's pupils shrunk as she moved her head, dodging the uppercut, and her tail quickly moved as she lashed at Flame from the side.

Flame, without any other option, used her wings and arms to protect herself.

BANG!

The heavy hit blew her arms and wings open, and the strike of the dragon forced her to take a few steps back.

Kaleina didn't let that opportunity go, and her Beast Core rotated, emitting Void Energy and making the space around Flame's right foot vanish for a second.

The young woman's eyes opened as her foot felt as if it stepped into nothing, losing balance as her body fell sideways.

With a quick movement, Kaleina threw herself toward her prey with her mouth open, rushing to bite Flame's throat.

Flame wanted to dodge by using her wings, but it was too late.

Before the dragon's teeth sank into Flame's skin, Yasenia appeared and hugged them both in her arms. "Wow! You two did so well!"

Their combat-ready state completely disappeared, returning to their usual cuddly and cheerful selves. Kaleina exclaimed. "Oh! I won! I won!"

Flame laughed from Yasenia's arms. "Congratulations, Kaleina! Today, you were much sharper than usual." Flame teased. "Is it because Aunt Yasenia was looking?"

Kaleina's cheeks became brighter in embarrassment, and she nodded shyly. "I wanted to show Mommy my best."

Yasenia laughed and rained kisses on their faces. "You both did excellent. Flame's combination at the beginning was extremely well executed. The only reason you couldn't finish Kaleina off with the uppercut was that your sidestep was a bit rushed, and you tangled yourself."

Flame blushed at the compliment and then seriously nodded when Yasenia pointed at her mistake.

Yasenia then looked at Kaleina and smiled. "When someone attacks you, and you dodge, it's not always best to rush into an opening because they might have created it on purpose. For the first exchanges, unless you are 100% confident, it is best to evaluate your opponent slowly and never take risky approaches. Remember that as a dragon, you usually will have more stamina than your opponent. Long fights are your strong point; take advantage of them."

Kaleina nodded, thoughtful.

Evelyn approached and coughed. "Yasenia, are you sure that there are no problems with this way of sparring?"

Yasenia blinked. "What's wrong?"

Evelyn commented. "I mean, they are attacking to kill."

The dragoness was confused. "Yes, and? Don't we do the same?"

Evelyn opened and closed her mouth, scratching her head. "Aren't they too young?"

Yasenia shook her head. "Of course not. I trained similarly with children Mom carried over when I was little. It is a very good way to hone instincts against attacks toward weak points. It comes to a point when you can sense that someone is aiming at your vulnerability before they even begin the attack."

Andrea patted Evelyn's back with a laugh. "Don't worry so much, Evelyn. Aren't we here to take care of them? Moreover, they have protection treasures to avoid accidents. Once they grow and it starts to be more difficult to protect them, we can always teach them how to spar less lethally?"

Evelyn sighed and nodded. "Sorry. I'm just not accustomed to seeing the two little ones trying to kill each other."

Kaleina laughed. "It is fun!"

Flame nodded shyly. "The thrill when an attack risks your life is very stimulating."

Yasenia smiled. "Right? The body cells are active as your senses sharpen for a second, your brain speeding up to find ways to avoid the lethal strike. That sensation is addicting."

Flame and Kaleina nodded a few times. Flame commented. "It was a bit difficult at first, but now I'm completely okay!"

Kaleina asked, changing the subject. "Mommy, will we go outside?"

Yasenia pondered. "Do you want to go outside?"

Kaleina nodded her dragon head eagerly. "I want to see the underwater city!"

Yasenia looked at the shy Flame and asked with a smile. "What about you, Flame?"

Flame nodded and spoke softly. "I also want to."

Her temperament had softened a lot during the last years from her cheeky and playful self, thanks to all the love she received from our girls. In front of Yasenia, she was always a soft-spoken and shy little girl, looking up at her admiringly.

Yasenia nodded thoughtfully, and Andrea asked as she approached. "Are you worried about those new groups?"

The dragoness tilted her head upward, looking at Andrea with a smile. "Not by a lot. It's just that I want to stay here until we set up everything perfectly. I was thinking if walking outside would be possible if I ask Alaia and the others to accompany me." The dragoness smirked playfully. "If I ask them to follow me in secret, we might lure an interesting catch."

Evelyn laughed. "But you won't, right?"

Yasenia lifted her eyebrow. "Oh, why not?"

Evelyn snorted. "As if you would use Kaleina and Flame as bait."

The dragoness chuckled. "Well, you are right. That's why I want to wait for a bit."

Kaleina exclaimed while putting on a begging face. "Mommy, we can go! I'll be obedient!"

Flame said at the side with a sterner tone. "Kaleina, Aunty Yasenia is saying this for our own good. We should listen to her."

Kaleina blinked and said cutely. "But Mommy can squash those people like bugs with her strength. There shouldn't be any problem." Kaleina sorted twice. "Hmph, hmph. If they dare attack Mommy, they will only become her food."

Evelyn's eyebrow twitched. "I'm always a bit taken by surprise."

Andrea agreed with a laugh. "Right? Kaleina's speech patterns are truly 'Dragon-like.' Hahaha."

Kaleina looked at them, confused. "Do I speak strangely?"

Andrea patted her head and shook it. "Not at all."

Kaleina nodded with a smile. Flame asked, curious. "Aunty Yasenia, I've never seen some of those races. What are they?"

Yasenia reviewed in her mind the knowledge that Flame was currently learning and realized that she wouldn't start learning about other species until one or two years passed. Knowing that, she answered. "Well, you'll learn about them the next year. However, I can give you a small summary."

Flame and Kaleina listened attentively.

Yasenia smiled and explained. "There are a few races gathered there. The ones you don't know about are the Demons, Divines, Spirits, and Undead. The other two groups were a Human and a Beast group."

Kaleina blinked. "Aren't Undead what Mama Tatyana summons?"

Flame also remembered. Yasenia clarified. "Those Undead are a bit different from Tatyana's Undead. While Tatyana's Undead can evolve to have their own thoughts and can also become stronger, they are all formed by Tatyana's strength. Meanwhile, the ones we saw the other day are naturally forming Undead, creatures born from places with a high concentration of energy and with independent souls and cultivation methods."

Flame tilted her head. "Cultivation Methods? Aren't there only three paths, excluding the beast path?"

Yasenia nodded with a smile. "For almost all creatures, like beast humans, humans, and other types of humanoids, that's correct. However, the reason these creatures are so special is that each of them has different cultivation methods. Divines, Demons, Spirits, and Undead all have their own cultivation path."

Flame put on a puzzled expression. "Aunty Yasenia, then who are the humanoids you talk about, then?"

Yasenia commented. "These humanoids are usually sapient plant creatures, elemental beings, and human sub-races like Nature Elves. There are plenty of races like that."

Flame blinked, surprised. "Humans are a strong race!"

Yasenia smiled and asked. "Why do you think so?"

Flame commented. "There are so many different types of human-like creatures like me, all super different but with the same common ancestry."

Yasenia laughed. "That's right. Even beasts strive for a humanoid transformation when they become mature. The reason is actually simple, or so it is thought among those knowledgeable. Legends say that the first cultivator was a human. So, all creatures strive to gain a humanoid shape. You saw that even spirits, creatures made of pure elements, also take humanoid forms."

Flame nodded. Kaleina listened to the side and smiled at Flame proudly. "I already knew all of this!"

Flame looked at Kaleina and laughed, patting her head. "Little Kaleina is super smart, after all."

Evelyn, Andrea, and Yasenia saw the young phoenix girl patting the proudly smiling dragon and laughed.

Chapter 757: Mirrory Spills one of Tatyana's Secrets.

Yasenia and the others moved to an open room by the garden, and soon, all the other girls also gathered here, with a few of the maids formally waiting at the sides.

It took a while for Kali and Cecile to arrive, so until they came, they chatted about everyday things. The Fox and Phoenix arrived with refreshed looks, taking a seat in the free spaces. Valeria materialized, laying sideways behind Kali, allowing the fox woman to use her body as a backrest.

Evelyn was slowly sewing a beautiful golden and purple dress for Kaleina when she asked. "So, what's up with those races? Where did they suddenly pop from, and why? Was there a Secret Realm opening again?"

Kali took the cup of medicinal tea that Flora served, thanked her, and commented after taking a sip. "It shouldn't be right. They are all very powerful. I think that each group had at least two Peak-level Fifth Realm cultivators." She looked at Flora, asking for confirmation. The Dryad nodded and smiled. "You are right, Kali. Each group had at least two peak-level Fifth Realm cultivators. The strongest group was the Spirits, with all of them but the Spirit that approached Young Miss being peak level."

Cecile lifted an eyebrow. "All of them?"

Flora nodded. "That's right. They are quite a dangerous group. Spirits can be as strong as dragons at the same level."

Yasenia and Kaleina snorted at the same time, disagreeing, which made the others burst into laughter.

Angel sat on Yasenia's right side, playing with the dragoness's tail. "But That Soluna was strange." Then, she pouted while swinging her tail back and forth. "I didn't like the way she looked at Yasenia. I really wanted to to to do something!"

The girls looked at how Angel strangled the tail, clearly thinking of it as if it were Soluna, and laughed. Andrea added. "What blew me away were her eyes."

The girls didn't disagree, and Kali added. "It's really rare for the pupils of creatures to gain such rare shapes, a Sun on her right eye and a Moon on her left eye. It's clear that the spirit and Yasenia must have many things in common."

Tatyana, sitting on Yasenia's left, asked Yasenia. "What do you think about her, Little Treasure?"

Yasenia tilted her head and didn't hide her feelings. "I felt strangely close to her? There was a strange resonance between us, and when she looked at me, I couldn't help but have a good impression. I even patted her head even before I could realize what I was doing as if it were something natural to do."

The girls got silent as they looked at Yasenia's thoughtful face.

Evelyn asked playfully. "Has the exception you spoke about in the past appeared?"

The other girls glared at Evelyn, making her hiccup.

Cecile muttered. "Shall I kill her?"

Evelyn stuttered. "I-It was a joke. Don't look at me like that" Evelyn's eye twitched and begged tearfully at the particularly intense red gaze. "Tatyana, please. I was joking!"

Tatyana hummed. "Should I follow Cecile's advice?"

Evelyn silently asked for forgiveness in her head. 'Sorry, spirit, I've placed a target on your back without realizing.'

Yasenia laughed. "Whether she is an exception or not, I don't care. Remember that if any of you even feel slightly disagreeable, nothing will ever happen."

Even before Yasenia completed her sentence, Mirrory blurted. "[Love Intent]. Moreover, it is maxed out, which probably means that she has reached Intent Domain or even Law Level."

Tatyana's eyes widened, not expecting her to really say it, and then she blushed up to her ears. "MIRRORRY!"

The girls looked at the girly Tatyana, and a few of them were K.O.ed at once, like Angel. Even the trained maids were having problems maintaining their serious expressions.

When she saw the blushing Tatyana, Yasenia's mind was frozen for a second before something snapped. Unable to hold it back any longer, she warped her arms around Tatyana, pushing her onto the sofa and devouring her lips. Her pupils were heart-shaped as pink color consumed her golden irises. "Aahn~, so cute. Your blushing face is so cute~. Give me a kiss. Mm~, so cute. So cute. Mommy is so cute~."

Tatyana was kissed and didn't resist, her face burning a bit. Her eyes closed as she was gathered and ravenously kissed in Yasenia's arms. Her heart strangely thumped, ultimately being led by Yasenia's attack. "You, mmm~, little treasure, stop. Mmph."

Yasenia looked down at Tatyana's embarrassed face with an enamored expression and continued giving her deep and loving kisses. "No~, I won't stop. Mm~, I won't stop kissing my cute Mommy~." Yasenia bit her ear and whispered. "I really want to get such cute Mommy pregnant~."

Tatyana's womb throbbed, and her face became hotter as her mouth was invaded again by Yasenia's long tongue.

What was an "Intent"? An Intent was the cultivator's intentional search to understand a concept. So, for Tatyana to have [Love Intent], and possibly something higher, it revealed that below the "Empress," there was a woman with just a pure desire to be loved by someone.

So, for someone with so many years on her back and someone who usually never lets her softest self be revealed, laying this out in the open was like placing one of the deepest and softest parts of her heart for all to see.

It was different from knowing that Tatyana was searching for a lover and knowing that Tatyana had [Love Intent]. The meaning of each of them was very different.

Some people discovered it in the past, but Tatyana at that time didn't act like she did now. How did she act? Well, if I tell you that nobody knows about Tatyana's [Love Intent], it would be a good hint at what happened at those times.

This time, Tatyana felt a bit helpless. Mirrory was an Ancient Treasure of Truth, so Tatyana had been anxious in the past about her revealing this Intent. She didn't doubt that Mirrory could discern its existence, no matter how hard she tried to hide it. Leaving it in the open in front of Mirrory would actually make it more inconspicuous than trying to hide it.

Moreover, if she went toward her and asked her not to reveal it, she felt as if she would be blatantly telling Mirrory that this thing was her weakness, or at least, something precious. So, she just acted nonchalantly because, in her head, there would probably never be any chance for a conversation where this needed to be said.

Still, it happened, and much sooner than she expected, at that. Less than ten years later, the conversation occurred. However, she could do nothing about it. So, she just immersed herself in Yasenia's kiss to forget her embarrassment. 'Ah, whatever. If they know, they know.'

During all this time, Cecile had used one wing to surround Kaleina's and Flame's heads, going as far as using energy to block the wet sounds created by Yasenia's and Tatyana's lips meshing together.

Yasenia separated, looking at Tatyana lovingly, and smiled, placing her hand on her cheek and caressing her. "I hope that your time with me can allow you to develop it to enormous heights."

Tatyana's heart thumped again, her red eyes filled with soft love, and she nodded with a bright smile. "I also hope so."

Once she said so, from the bottom of her heart, an aura surrounded Tatyana, surprising her, and the Death Empress closed her eyes.

Time stopped as Yasenia and Tatyana were sucked into Tatyana's inner world. Yasenia opened her eyes and saw a world that was black and red.

The sky, dark as a starless night, had two bright red suns illuminating her surroundings. Feeling a sticky liquid touching her up to her thighs, Yasenia looked down and saw blood. A thigh-deep ocean of blood that extended beyond the limits of her gaze.

Moreover, in this ocean, countless corpses were floating about. Some were faceless, others had terrified faces that seemed to have frozen before their death, and others had missing limbs, flesh chunks, or things like eyes, noses, or even heads.

Moreover, the blood ocean was not still, as it sometimes grabbed one of those corpses and crushed it as it devoured it.

The terrifying sight and sound of a human being crushed like a paper ball by the blood ocean as the organs spilled around was something that would make most creatures nauseated.

Yasenia looked at everything calmly, and her eyes locked in the distance. Both red Suns in the Sky pointed at that place with a ghostly green light like two spotlights telling Yasenia where to go.

'Mom.'

With an unhesitating attitude, the dragoness stepped forward in that direction, her tail moving from side to side to help her move in the thigh-deep, thick, bloody ocean.

Andrea: What will happen?

Kali: I'm intrigued.

Angel: Mommy Tatyana was so cute!

Author: Today, let's answer a few questions I've had in the past. It's a relatively long Celestial Theater! I summon you!

Randomplant: Hello!

Kali: Well, ask away.

Randomplant: Right, here are the questions.

Randomplant: What are the most common and least common methods that cultivators of transcendental level and above use to increase the possibility of having children with a partner if they are having problems?

Valeria: That would be alchemy products to induce ovulation and Dual Cultivation products to increase the affinity between the two people aiming for a child. The reason it is difficult to form a child is the sperm cells not being able to pierce the ovaries or the ovaries are too weak and being eaten by the sperm cells. Other than that, the compatibility of Yin and Yang is difficult to achieve, so even if a sperm cell succeeds in combination with the ovaries, the result could be a dead zygote.

Randomplant: Interesting, second question! Once you reach the transcendental level, do you plan to try to explore other worlds? This one is for the girls.

Andrea: I think I speak for everybody that we will take things slowly. Exploring the World can be done together, so unless there is a need to go on a journey, we probably won't separate in a short time.

Randomplant: I see. Third Question. How does the core given to young beasts to increase their potential differ from normal cores? I'm talking about cores like the one Tatyana had prepared for Yasenia. And the one that was given to Laurina.

Mirroy: Those cores are reinforced with many techniques and alchemy resources to be purer and target, not the strength of the core but the potential. This potential can be realized much later, so feeding it during childhood is unnecessary. Tatyana didn't give Yasenia one because of Yasenia's lack of beast core in the past.

Randomplant: Makes sense. Last question! What is the probability that Yasenia, at the Transcendental Realm, will attract powerful cultivators to be her companions?

And how likely is it that they will try to use force or Shenanigans to get her? Even if they know that Yasenia is loyal to her wives.

Everyone: 100%

Randomplant: Really?

Kali: You might not realize it, but the higher a person goes in strength, the more "selfish" they become. Even Yasenia shows this trait with her "I will follow the rules until I'm strong enough to follow my rules" sentence she usually says.

Kali: If strong cultivators that were considered "young masters" eye something they like, more often than not, they will take it by force. Low-level cultivators are indeed arrogant by using their seniors as backers, but high-level cultivators are arrogant and use their own strength.

Kali: The stronger you become, if you want to remain safe, the more cautious you need to be.

Randomplant: Yikes.

Author: And that's all for today! See you tomorrow~.

Chapter 758: Chains of the Heart: Tatyana's Demons.

"How long has it been?" Said a woman with a smile.

"A long time, maybe ten thousand years?" Said another woman with a laugh.

Then, another one spoke flatly with an emotionless expression. "It doesn't matter how long. What matters is Welcome back, Tatyana."

The third woman who spoke looked at a place where a woman was chained and warped in thorny vines that slithered across her skin, spilling blood constantly.

However, the face of this woman was nonchalant as a smile hung on her lips. "I didn't expect it, either." She looked around at the many females with the same face as her, wearing a variety of attires, and laughed. "Heart Demons, quite a pathetic bunch, aren't you?"

One of the "Tatyanas" summoned a bloody whip and swung it.

PAH!

Tatyana's face forcible swung sideways, a large gash appearing on her previous immaculate skin. However, Tatyana lifted the corner of her lips and licked the blood that dripped from the side of her face. "Weak. All of you are still so weak."

"Shut up!" The "Tatyana" that swung the whip snarled, her face warping in rage. "You, broken creature, how dare you even oppose us!? Tormented by us every day, at every moment, at every second. You are nothing but our plaything!"

Lifting her face to look at the whip-bearing woman, Tatyana laughed. "What Heart Demon were you? I forgot since we all have the same face."

That "Tatyana" mocked. "Acting tough? Just a little girl in search of a prince in a white horse."

Another laughed. "A woman that has opened her legs like a frog countless times in her life."

Another added. "A devil who kills innocents and relishes in slaughter."

Another ridiculed. "A pitiful being that has had her sanity broken and reforged, barely alive because she sacrificed those close to her."

"Pitiful."

"Pathetic."

"Weak."

"Indecisive."

"Liar."

"Coward."

"Insane."

Many of them began mocking her as the thorns around Tatyana tightened and dug into her flesh. Each word forced blood to spill onto the ocean of blood. However, as if accustomed, Tatyana remained calm.

One Heart Demon suddenly appeared behind Tatyana and hugged her, biting her ear. "Will you do the same to her?"

Tatyana flinched as that Heart Demon laughed and moved around, stopping when they were face to face. "She, our good daughter, such a cutie, isn't she?"

Tatyana looked at that Heart Demon coldly, not answering. However, that "Tatyana" smiled seductively as she whispered. "Yasenia will make a beautiful Undead in the future~, like Ying Yue."

CLANG!

The multiple chains that held Tatyana's limbs rattled as she pulled. "Say her name one more time, and I'll kill you."

That "Tatyana" laughed. "You can't kill me, Tatyana. While I'm your newest Heart Demon" She approached, almost kissing Tatyana's lips, and smiled. "I'm the strongest~."

Tatyana pulled the chains, creating a cracking sound around the pillars holding her, but the Heart Demons laughed.

"She thinks she can move?"

"She thinks she can escape?"

"Weak as she is, a helpless struggle."

"Our daughter, so talented."

"So beautiful."

"With such an accepting heart toward us."

"A noble desire to help kill us."

"Nave woman."

"Innocent dragon."

"A little ant trying to face the sky, not knowing that a single droplet of rain can kill it."

Tatyana snarled, her eyes bursting with a bloody light. "SILENCE"

CLAAANNG!!!

All the Heart Demons stopped speaking, holding smiles on their lips. Suddenly, Tatyana felt pleasant electricity around her body as another Heart Demon appeared.

This one was different, as she was completely naked while hugging Tatyana from behind.

"Tatyana~, doesn't it feel good when our daughter has sex with us~."

The fingers of the naked Heart Demon sank into Tatyana's clothes, caressing her. Tatyana tightened her jaw. "However Our main body is thirsty. It doesn't feel that good physically. As women, don't we have needs? We should go have some fun before our lover can reach a level that can satisfy us."

Tatyana turned to look at the Heart Demon caressing her with murderous eyes.

Instead of fear, that Heart Demon moaned, showing a lustful face as she licked Tatyana's bloody cheek. "Such good eyes~. Don't you want to lose yourself? To open your legs in an orgy and not know who is fucking you? I want you to satisfy us~, satisfy our lust~."

Tatyana suddenly smiled, then with the help of the chain attached to her leg, she swiped her leg quickly, making the naked Heart Demon's body stumble forward. Without a single moment of hesitation, a red aura leaked from Tatyana's mouth and eyes as she opened her jaw and bit her neck deeply. "AHHH!"

The mocking Heart Demons opened their eyes wide.

Tatyana, like a wild beast, laughed as she used her tongue to latch on the flesh and arteries and continued chomping at her neck. The lustful Heart Demon began screaming and flailing around, but the red aura around Tatyana's mouth kept her there as Tatyana brutally chomped on her.

All the other Heart Demons suddenly started shouting.

"Pathetic woman!"

"Acting like a dirty beast!"

"A lustful creature that refuses to accept her nature!"

"A liar!"

"A slut!"

Each of their statements made the chains and thorn vines around her tighten until they pulled her backward, strong enough for her to be unable to continue biting.

The naked Heart Demon grabbed her open neck and gurgled in pain, blood flowing constantly as she fell into the Blood Ocean and flailed around in pain.

As the Heart Demon that represented Tatyana's past lust, she was quite weak to pain.

Tatyana laughed as she gulped the flesh she chomped. "Ah~, insignificant Heart Demons. All you can do is torture me and try to erode my Will. Hahaha." She looked around, blood dripping from her lips in a sensual manner. "I was wondering why I came here, so it was for this~. Now I can retaliate~."

BOOM!

A massive aura exploded from her as her body glowed with a bloody light. It felt as if the black sky would change colors as the World around Tatyana bent to her Will.

"Is it fun? Creatures of the unknown?"

Clang!

Her chains rattled as she pulled again, and the pillars around her cracked.

"You can cage me."

CLANG!

"You can torture me."

CLANG!

"You can molest me, rape me, I don't care."

Tatyana smiled crazily as she pulled with all her strength.

CLAAAANG!

The pillars almost crumbled, but she couldn't escape them.

"The moment those pillars fall" Tatyana's lips widened past normal human limits as her red eyes shone with a maniacal light. "I'll devour you. Piece by piece. Finger by finger. Bite by bite. Slowly, while you are alive and screaming in pain. While you beg for forgiveness. While you try to return to wherever you came from. I'll make you all suffer unspeakable horrors while being devoured by me."

Tatyana laughed aloud, her aura swirling around her like a pillar of red and black light as she tensed her limbs. "So pray,ahaha."

CLANG! CLANG! CLANG!

Tatyana looked around with her face-splitting grin.

"PRAY TO WHATEVER GOD YOU BELIEVE IN."

CLANG! CLANG! CLANG!

"PRAY THAT THESE CHAINS ARE ENOUGH TO KEEP ME HERE FOR ETERNITY!"

CLANG! CLANG! CLANG!

"THE SECOND I ESCAPE! THE SECOND I CAN MOVE! I WILL CONSUME YOU!
HAHAHAHA!"

CLAAAANG!!!!

The Heart Demons involuntarily took a step back as they looked at the constantly cracking and regenerating pillars, many looking at Tatyana with fear.

At that moment, a voice reached Tatyana's and the Heart Demon's ears.

"Mom?"

Tatyana froze as her heart sank, and she turned her head to her right side to see Yasenia looking at her from a distance.

The Heart Demons stood still for a second before some of them suddenly felt a powerful wave of strength. Most of those stepped forward, appearing by Yasenia's side with gentle smiles. "Little Treasure, you've come?"

"Oh, we were waiting for you."

"How about you have fun with us?"

"So beautiful. Can you give me a kiss?"

Yasenia looked at the many "Tatyanas" around her with a frown, and she spat coldly. "Back off."

BOOM!

A tyrannical aura spread around Yasenia, pushing them back.

"Huh?"

One of them asked, puzzled. "How?"

Even the chained Tatyana was surprised. Yasenia looked around, walking forward toward Tatyana with slow steps as she commented coldly. "How can a Heart Demon affect someone who has overcome them?"

"Oh? Our daughter is so heroic~."

"So beautiful. Should we congratulate her?"

"How about we satisfy her lust~? We are many. We can give her pleasure she can't even imagine~."

"How about we sacrifice her?"

"Right! Like many in the past!"

"Such good Undead material~."

Tatyana's chains and thorny vines continuously tightened, making blood burst from her wounds and making her grunt for the first time. Her red aura also vanished as her body became weaker by the second.

"She is feeling it?"

The newest Heart Demon smiled. "How could she not when I, the newest but strongest Heart Demon, is here, hahaha. Tatyana, scream."

Yasenia saw a new chain appear from the blood ocean and pierce Tatyana's chest, tightening around her body. The soul-level pain was too much, and Tatyana screamed. "AH!"

Yasenia was startled and rushed forward. "MOM!?"

However, that new Heart Demon appeared by her side and hugged her, stopping her. "Little Treasure, stop for a moment~."

Yasenia extended her arm, summoning Draconic Heart, and swung it at the Heart Demon. "SCRAM!"

However, the new Heart Demon stopped it with two fingers, pinching the giant sword. She smiled softly, her eyes filled with love. "So strong~, Mom is so proud of you. But, forget about Tatyana for a moment and listen to Mom, Little Treasure."

Yasenia looked at Tatyana's warped face because of pain, and her mind spun. 'If I heard correctly, this one is the newest Heart Demon? Think, think, think Did something happen when I was away? No, Mom was cultivating in seclusion. Analyze everything, speech patterns, situation'

Her eyes flashed as she looked at the new Heart Demon. Then, she smiled childishly and acted coquettish, rubbing her face with her. "Mom, but I want to go out to play. Can you let me go, please?"

The newest Heart Demon paused, looking at Yasenia strangely. She opened her mouth to mock her, but instead, she patted Yasenia's head while tip-toeing with a smile and landing a soft kiss on her cheek. "Okay, be careful."

Yasenia nodded and easily moved away. "Thank you, Mom!"

The new Heart Demon waved her hand gently, and then she snapped out of its daze. "Huh? What happened?"

Yasenia smirked. 'Her newest Heart Demon should be her fear as a parent.'

Yasenia arrived in front of Tatyana and called her while leaning forward with a smile. "Mom, why are you so worried?"

Tatyana looked at Yasenia, her red eyes showing an incredibly vulnerable side. "Little Treasure, leave. They may hurt you."

Yasenia extended her hand forward, caressing her sweaty and bloody face. "Mom, didn't we talk about this in the past? I won't go anywhere." Yasenia smiled gently. "How could I ever abandon you?"

The new Heart Demon sneered. "Lies. Tatyana, we know exactly how things always go. She might remain by your side for one thousand years, maybe five, maybe ten. But eventually, you know how things will end."

Yasenia looked at the new Heart Demon. "Aren't I Tatyana's first daughter?"

That new Heart Demon frowned while Tatyana looked up. The new Heart Demon asked. "So what?"

Yasenia smiled. "I, who inherited parts of her. How could I fall? I, who she gestated, how could I die? I'm born from the strongest mother. How could I perish?"

A few at the side mocked. "Strongest? Hahaha, we are weak."

"Every time, others sacrifice for us."

"Every time, we are the only ones remaining because we flee."

"How could we be alive otherwise? After so many fights, after so many desperate situations? If we didn't flee each time, we would've died long ago."

"Undeserving, we remain alive."

"Underserving, we trampled among many innocent lives to remain afloat."

"Without us, how many creatures wouldn't have needed to face extinction?"

"Without us, how many creatures wouldn't have needed to fall into despair?"

Yasenia heard Tatyana grunt, so she looked at her. Yasenia sighed and leaned down, lifting her falling head with her fingers. Yasenia smiled tenderly, her golden eyes reflected in Tatyana's red eyes. "Did you think that I adore you because you are a hero? Because you can save people?"

Yasenia laughed, leaning down to gently kiss her pale lips. "How could that be? The only reason I adore you is because you are my mother, my lover, my first wife." Tatyana's eyes trembled, and Yasenia smiled softly. "A devil? A murderer? A scum that only brings despair to those around her? So what? My love for you is selfish, Tatyana. I would rather slaughter all sentient creatures than see you hurt."

Yasenia placed her forehead with hers and lovingly said. "Our love is not an honorable one. How could the daughter of a devilish woman like you be normal? Our love is selfish." Yasenia's golden reptilian eyes shone with insane possessiveness. "All the Worlds be damned as long as we can be happy. I don't mind destroying this Heaven and Earth if, at the end of those moments, we are laughing together."

Tatyana's red eyes regained vigor, and the previous red aura that had died out reignited with the brilliance of a thousand Suns.

CLANG!

BOOM!

One of the many pillars shattered, and Tatyana's lips arched as her right arm was liberated. "Right." She looked at those Heart Demons and laughed, her eyes shining with a crazed light. "As long as MY Yasenia is by my side, everything else matters not."

Then, the chains that held her right arm shot and divided, piercing the hearts of twelve Heart Demons. "[Innate Skill: Death Absorption]."

"AHHHH!!!!"

The screams of twelve out of the few thousand Heart Demons burst like the wails of a Banshee, being absorbed by the chains and flowing toward Tatyana. Between them, the Lust Heart Demon was also destroyed.

Once they entered her, the pillar she exploded reappeared, and as if attracted by a magnet, the chains were instantly locked in place again.

Yasenia's eyes widened, but she heard Tatyana's soft and loving voice. "For now, it is enough, Little Treasure. I love you."

Then, Yasenia's vision spun as she was pushed outside Tatyana's inner World.

Chapter 759: (Spoiler, title at the end). (R-18)

Tatyana opened her eyes in her cultivation room. Her royal red dress fit around her perfectly, highlighting her perfect slender curves. A pair of breasts slightly larger than what a man's hand could hold, a slim waist that would fit in someone's arms, and a perfect curve that connected with wide hips perfect for hugging.

The woman who seemed to have been carved by a divine being stood dazed, her red eyes looking past the walls of her cultivation room. 'Did I dream that?'

Tatyana, confused about what had just happened, looked inside her and felt twelve strands of foreign energy moving through her meridians. Her eyes widened, and her heart pounded. 'D-Did I really defeat those?'

Using the entirety of her Demi-goddess cultivation base, she analyzed the essence of each of those strands and realized that they truly came from her Heart Demons.

She took a deep breath, relaxing her heart, and then closed her eyes. 'Did absorbing that Heart Demon improve me by a lot?'

Tatyana looked inside her, and her mouth opened. 'If I exhaust the System's Fate energy before letting it go I can break through in five years?' Tatyana was stunned. 'That's insane. I've cut 30 years' worth of cultivation with these 12 Heart Demons.'

She couldn't help but open her eyes and stare at the wall dazedly.

"How long" Tatyana paused. "No, did I ever defeat a Heart Demon before?" She couldn't remember such a case other than those times that it was either getting swallowed by them or continuing to be herself.

Her mind spun quickly, and she moved the twelve strands around her meridians and into her Dantian. While 11 of those twelve energy strands were like a drop in the ocean, the same couldn't be said for the last one, which was the one that gave her the major cultivation boost. 'Did I really defeat that one?'

Of all her Heart Demons, Tatyana understood that the one related to her Lust was one of the strongest. And yet, with Yasenia's help, it took nothing but a few seconds to get rid of it.

Her heart started beating, and her cheeks flushed with shyness. "Yasenia" Her lips arched in a lovely smile, and the ice around her old and tired heart started melting. She placed her hands on her beating chest and laughed, unable to contain her bubbling happiness. "My Little Treasure."

It has been only about eleven years since they started a relationship and not longer than 29 years since Yasenia appeared in her life, not counting her 90 years of pregnancy. Tatyana smiled widely, her face dripping with love. "I love you, Yasenia."

The reason she could overcome her Lust Demon was because she found actual and tangible love. Until now, Yasenia's presence was nothing but illusory for her. After all, how many times has Tatyana been in such a position before? Although she admitted that she had never really loved someone as much as she loved Yasenia before, most of their relationship, in Tatyana's mind, was based on Lust.

Tatyana trusted Yasenia, but she didn't trust relationships, so she was afraid that once Yasenia's lust was quenched or controlled, the dragon woman might leave her side. Of course, it was a silly fear, but Tatyana's mind did not function normally.

With all the mental torture that she went through every day, she was actually very vulnerable in the places where it mattered to her. So, no matter how much Yasenia showered her in love, the Death Empress never truly felt her heart at ease. She could feel calm by her side, and she could probably even relax, but when she thought of the future, there would always be uncertainties.

'What if I get betrayed again?'

'What if Yasenia dies soon?'

'What if our relationship sours because of my extreme nature?'

'What if'

Many "What ifs" always circled her mind.

However, one of those worries, 'What if our relationship is only based on lust?', which was one of her major worries, got completely obliterated today.

Even after seeing her ugly appearance and messed up inner World, from the very moment she appeared, Yasenia only had eyes for herself. With slow but confident steps, her little treasure walked through the blood ocean, unfazed by the corpses floating around or the thousands of Heart Demons trying to tempt her and safely reached her side.

Like a Sun that drove away the darkness at dawn.

Like the Full Moon that guided those lost at night.

Like the stars that showed a lost being directions during a moonless night.

She arrived at her side and filled her with warmth and security.

To say that Tatyana got worried the moment she appeared was an understatement. Tatyana, at that moment, almost felt her heart jump out of her throat.

And yet, her Little Treasure not only reached her side but gave her the most romantic confession she had ever heard in her life. Tatyana giggled like a little girl, her cheeks blushing. "She was so cool! KYA!"

From when she started to walk toward her to the point she leaned forward by her side, Tatyana couldn't help but constantly repeat that scene in her mind.

Thinking of something, her red eyes shone, and when she realized that her [Divine Lich Empress Body] and Yasenia started moving again, she focused on her other body, returning to her silent cultivation.

On the other side, time ticked again, and Yasenia and Tatyana opened their eyes at the same time.

Seeing the two people who were about to mix bodies stop as if they were dazed puzzled our girls, so Kali asked. "Are you okay, Yasenia, mother-in-law?"

Yasenia and Tatyana kept looking at each other, and the girls saw a sudden burst of possessiveness overflow from Tatyana's eyes.

Yasenia was about to open her mouth, but Tatyana cut her with a deep kiss. Then, she placed her mouth by her ear's side, and Tatyana muttered with a tender and loving voice.

"Little Treasure~"

Yasenia's heart pounded, and she didn't know why, but a sudden scent hit her nose, making her moan. Her pupils dilated as Tatyana's female scent hit her nose, tempting her entire body and heating her up.

Tatyana licked her earlobe and begged submissively. "Get me pregnant."

The girls around paused, their eyes widening. Cecile suddenly moaned as an electric current of primal pleasure flooded her through the connection, and she quickly picked up Kaleina and Flame, exiting the room using a movement technique.

Then, from Yasenia, a small and gentle gale spread around. The girls were puzzled at why Cecile reacted as she did, but once the small wind hit them, an incredibly sweet and arousing scent hit them.

Their bodies bent forward as their thighs pressed together while their wombs squeezed and almost released an ovary. "Aaaah~."

A cacophony of moans came from everyone in the room, and when their eyes turned toward Tatyana and Yasenia, they saw Tatyana's eyes rolling upward as her pussy suddenly squirted a fountain of liquids, as if she were urinating.

The last thing our girls would hear from Yasenia and Tatyana for the following one and a half weeks was Yasenia's seductive growl. "We are not stopping until a child is in your womb."

Alaia, on her knees because of the potent scent messing with her brain, moaned. "O-Open the windows, ah!"

Evelyn did so, and an energy pulse pushed the mind-raping sweet scent that appeared to stick to their nerves through the window.

Thankfully, Evelyn and Andrea were quick to store Ebirah and Sierra in their Beast Pockets, or else Zephyrith might have their wife stolen.

Of course, the reason it affected Alaia so much was because of the maids' zero resistance to Yasenia. Even when Yasenia was a baby, they all allowed her scent to permeate their bodies, marking their every cell with her brand.

So, all the maids that were present in the room were currently helplessly climaxing, while our girls were not much better. If Yasenia's scent completely changed the maids, our girls had basically grown with Yasenia's Yang Energy.

Evelyn's waist twitched as a small spurt of water moistened her ruined underwear. "My Heavens, that scent was 100 times more concentrated than usual. I saw white for a second."

Andrea released a trembling sigh. "I need to change my underwear."

Evelyn looked and saw that Andrea had released her discharge even without being erect. Her body twitched in fear and anticipation of the time when it would be her turn. 'Will I even be the same person? Even Tatyana's eyes rolled upward when she received at point blank.'

Meanwhile, in the main room of the mansion, Yasenia and Tatyana exchanged kisses and swallowed each other's fluids as if they were nectar from the gods.

Yasenia's scent was assaulting Tatyana's Unification Realm body, her brain being raped by Yasenia's scent as stupid moans left her mouth. "O-Oh! Yes! Mmmh! So good!"

Tatyana hugged Yasenia tightly, her hands roaming Yasenia's seductive and soft body as the glands in her mouth drooled endlessly, making their kiss wet. Her body was trapped in the tall Yasenia's arms, and the dragon tail was coiling around her and squeezing her with such lovely motions that her legs began trembling.

They were just kissing, but Tatyana's pussy was constantly gushing with fluids as Yasenia hugged and ravaged her mouth. Her body felt hot; her blood flowed toward her nether regions and breasts, and her nipples stood hard enough to show even through her high-quality dress. Her elegant voice moaned and repeated her lover's name. "Yasenia, Yasenia, Yasenia."

It was Tatyana's first experience in terms of pregnancy sex, so she was extremely excited.

They were on the bed, Tatyana sitting on Yasenia's thighs as Yasenia's fingers dug into her waist and pampered her pussy. Her labia sucked Yasenia's fingers, pouring liquids without end.

Whenever Yasenia moved her fingers, Tatyana's waist would jump without Tatyana knowing.

After ten minutes, Yasenia smiled, her irises slowly changing color to a sensual pink as she started rubbing her face with Tatyana's. Her fingers didn't stop for a moment, feeling an addictive sensation at the seemingly endless pouring pussy water. The dragoness's tone was lower and gentler than usual. "Good?"

"Heavens, yes! So good. Your fingers feel so good that my other body is getting wet!"

Yasenia looked at Tatyana's moist red eyes with love, her body constantly emitting the powerful mating scent and stimulating her partner. The powerful scent forced Tatyana's womb to squeeze the ovaries as they tried to push her eggs into her fallopian tubes.

Yasenia got rid of all their clothes, and while her fingers loosened Tatyana's entrance, she used her other hand to press at a point slightly below the navel. Tatyana's back arched. "Womb! That's my womb~!"

With a powerful momentum, her pussy squirted another stream of juices. If she were a mortal, Yasenia would've started to get worried that she might get dehydrated.

"That's right. It's Tatyana's womb that will soon get stuck with my dick inside."

Tatyana smiled brightly, looking at Yasenia with eyes dripping with love. "Yes~."

Yasenia couldn't hold herself and kissed her deeply again, slowly placing her on the bed. Her massive breasts fell on top of Tatyana's, making their nipples touch and sending shivers of pleasure to both of them.

All this time, Yasenia's dick had been extremely swollen and spewing precum crazily; Tatyana saw it, and her tongue licked her lips. "Let's start by squeezing nutritious milk~."

Chapter 760: Yasenia's Loving Intercourse. (R-18)

Tatyana pushed Yasenia around, straddling her, and smiled deeply. Her waist movements perfectly pressed Yasenia's dick between her labia, and she began grinding on Yasenia.

While her waist moved, her hands landed on Yasenia's voluptuous breasts, and she squeezed, making milk flow between her fingers as Yasenia moaned. The bed below them easily cushioned their waist movements as both of them moaned. "It feels so good~, your pussy is squeezing my dick."

Tatyana moaned as her fluids coated Yasenia's long dick and made it glisten. "Aahn! Ah! It rubs in perfect places, oh!"

Each time she went back, the powerful dick would tilt upward, scratching her clitoris, and when she moved her waist forward, the backward motion would make Yasenia's glans open her pussy lips, almost penetrating her.

Thanks to her length, her waist motions were unrestrained, going back and forth without having to think of the dick slipping out or in. 'Good. Good. Her scent, her body temperature, the feeling of her breastmilk in my fingers, the precum that stains my pussy when her head almost penetrates me. Everything is so good!'

Tatyana's breasts shook as the sensations built up; looking at Yasenia's pink eyes, her uterus squeezed, and her glands worked to create body fluids in preparation. Soon, from her waist to her head, the orgasm hit her brain, making her eyesight flash white as it consumed her. "Ahhh!!"

Her pussy squirted, staining Yasenia's stomach and breasts. Her release washed away the precum that had accumulated on Yasenia's stomach. 'It feels so good!'

Tatyana's pupils would have taken a heart shape if it were possible as she looked at Yasenia. The sensations of sex that aimed to get pregnant gave her filled her female instincts in a way that had never happened. A sensation of fullness in each orgasm that couldn't be explained made her soul sing in happiness.

Even if she had yet to get penetrated, Tatyana could feel her vagina twitching, wanting to be penetrated by the magnificent dick of her Little Treasure. However, Yasenia didn't seem to be in a rush as she pushed her body upward, hugging her and capturing her lips.

"Tatyana, please let me taste your mouth."

Her sensual and low voice made Tatyana's nerves tingle, and she obeyed without any resistance. With loving eyes, Tatyana kissed her chin and her neck and went downward, her path greatly arching because of Yasenia's colossal breasts. Looking at the dripping, pink nipple, she gave a long lick, savoring the substances she had squeezed during her grinding. 'Ha~, her breast milk is delicious.'

Tatyana felt tempted to make a stop and fill her stomach with the delicious white substance, but her nose caught the thick and mind-melting scent coming from down below, telling her that the other white substance would be ten times more delicious.

Reaching down below, Tatyana rubbed her face against the long dick that was thick enough to create a shadow along her entire face. "Mmhn~, the smell is so intense."

The sexuality dripping from Tatyana's voice made the dick twitch, spewing precum on her face and making the scent even more tempting. Tatyana moaned as her waist twitched and her body trembled. Her pussy disobediently spurted another stream of transparent fluids.

With eagerness, Tatyana extended her tongue and licked up from the base, reaching the wide glans. Placing her lips around the tip, the tip of her tongue began rapidly tickling Yasenia's urethra.

"Ah! Mah!? Aaaah!"

Yasenia's waist began jumping as the sensation of Tatyana's soft lips surrounding her glans, and the tongue tickling her tip exploded in her mind.

Tatyana looked upward, wanting to see Yasenia's face, but she almost laughed at the sight of two large bouncing breasts that blocked her view. Yasenia was seated in an open-legged position, leaning on her arms so her chest was pushed outward, making it basically impossible to see Yasenia's face.

However, the sight of the large breasts bouncing almost made Tatyana moan as she licked her dick. It was extremely arousing.

With the sound of liquids being spurted, Tatyana felt the tingling sensation of the precum on her tongue. "O-Oh. I'm cumming! I'm cumming!"

The rapid taps with her tongue tip on the sexually aroused and sensitive penis electrified the dragon woman, making her dick swell as she orgasmed.

Moreover, before she cummed, she leaned forward, her two hands holding the back of Tatyana's head as she thrust upward and pushed her head downward.

Tatyana's eyes opened when the large dick forced her jaw open and began spurting cum like crazy. Her cheeks bulged, and her tongue and brain trembled at the feeling of Yasenia's powerful cum.

Moreover, Tatyana felt that it was completely fertile semen, which made her thighs tremble as her pussy began squirting without control.

The sound of gulping was loud in the room as Yasenia released enough semen to make Tatyana's stomach slightly bloat. Yasenia sighed in comfort. "Haaa~."

Tatyana took out the dick from her mouth, her body twitching in pleasure, and released a breath as her hand touched her full belly. 'W-What is this? I can feel the life energy in her sperm so clearly~.' Her mouth, still filled with unswallowed semen, rolled the thick semen in her mouth, feeling the powerful life.

This was the image Yasenia saw when she looked down. Tatyana on all fours, her eyes lost as her tongue moved her semen around. Her dick hardened in an instant as she pushed Tatyana onto the bed and kissed her deeply.

Tatyana wrapped her arms around her neck as they both began an extremely arousing kiss with Yasenia's taste in between. The wet sound was loud as their moans filled the otherwise silent room.

After Tatyana swallowed everything, Yasenia and she looked at each other with heavy breathing. Yasenia smiled as she rubbed their bodies together and nuzzled cheek-to-cheek. "I love you."

Tatyana smiled, and she opened her legs. "Let's begin, love."

Yasenia, looking deeply into Tatyana's eyes, grabbed her dick and moved it up and down Tatyana's pussy, opening the labia and finding the vaginal hole.

"I'm entering, my love."

Then, she slowly pushed her waist forward. The vaginal entrance widened without problems after their foreplay.

"Haa"

"Mmm~."

They released a moaning sigh as they felt their genitals mixing into one. Yasenia affectionately licked Tatyana's lips and then bit while speaking. "Why are your insides so good? My dick is melting~."

Tatyana moaned. "That's my question, love. Ah! You are pressing all my buttons perfectly~."

Yasenia smiled temptingly, her eyes arching. "Having me inside you for 90 years ended up helping~."

Tatyana's vagina clenched, entangling around Yasenia's dick like a snake and then trembling, forcing a moan out of Yasenia. Still, the dragoness bit Tatyana's ear and laughed. "You climaxed? Such a lustful woman."

With a laugh of her own, Tatyana turned her head and captured Yasenia's lips. "Give me a kiss down below~."

Yasenia grabbed her waist with one arm, lifting it to allow for easier penetration, and then pushed forward until she buried her entire length to the root.

The penis opened the squirming flesh, reaching the cervix and forcefully kissing and almost opening it. The contractions didn't end this time in the vaginal canal, but Tatyana's waist and abdomen also trembled. Her body was extremely sensitive right now, and she couldn't help but climax.

Then, Yasenia began moving her waist as she softly kissed Tatyana. Tatyana's breast bounced with Yasenia's, making their nipples rub against each other constantly. Tatyana felt Yasenia's delightful control at moving her waist back enough for the glans to push her flesh out, and the moment her vaginal muscles were about to release the escaping dick, she pushed forward, piercing all the way inside.

Her perfect size made her pussy cry in joy, as only pleasure assaulted her brain. Tatyana moaned as Yasenia didn't only fuck her but made love with her.

The dick moved against her folds in a way that would stimulate a woman instead of mindless thrusting. Tears of pleasure began gathering in her eyes as her mouth opened and saliva flowed. 'She is so good!'

Tatyana understood that Yasenia was using all her techniques on her. This was probably the first time that she was letting go. And the result was this kind of love-making instead of mindless and animalistic sex.

Her brain melted as pleasure attacked her while her body gently rocked in Yasenia's arms. Tatyana couldn't help but cry in her head that all the sex she had done until now was a lie.

Yasenia was basically imprinting herself in her brain with each loving but extremely pleasurable thrust, and her womb and cervix opened on their own, wanting to swallow such a loving dick.

Yasenia felt it, and she changed the position so that the female between her arms would have a lightly arched back so that the womb would fall without making the position uncomfortable. Then, lowering her own waist, she made a slightly upward thrust with more strength than before.

Tatyana's eyes almost rolled to the back of her skull as her cervix was penetrated and her womb invaded by the large dick. Her uterine walls tightened around the invader as her walls released fertile ovulation fluids.

"Ahhh!"

"Ohhh!"

Yasenia and Tatyana moaned loudly as the sensations penetrated their heads.

Yasenia bent her waist to bury her face in Tatyana's neck and began thrusting in that position that would be slightly uncomfortable for herself.

However, Tatyana almost flew to another dimension.

The slightly upward thrusts that caressed her entire vagina, pierced her cervix, and hit her womb's wall to then drag her flesh out on the backward movement were mind-meltingly good. "Oh! Yes! My womb! OHH! Fuck my womb! Fuck my womb! YES! AHHH!"

Animalistic mating? Tatyana didn't even want to remember what that was. This kind of lovemaking was making her soul sing in elation, her body tremble in joy, and her mind drown in satisfaction. "I love you! I love you! I love you!"

Yasenia licked her moaning mate's neck and grunted as she made a powerful thrust, her dragon tail coiling around her lover to immobilize her. "Get pregnant!"

Tatyana felt the dick swelling, and all her neurons activated as her eyes widened. Then, a massive load of fertile semen invaded her womb. Her legs started flailing around helplessly as her body trembled in unrivaled pleasure, and her face became ruined in pleasure. "OOHHHHH!!!!!"

A throaty moan exploded from her as her ovaries squeezed her eggs outside to meet with the powerful dragon seed swelling her uterus.

Her powerful senses saw Yasenia's healthy and powerful sperm swimming up her fallopian tubes and meeting with her egg. Unlike mortal women, cultivators could also feel what happened to the egg.

At that moment, Tatyana stuck out her tongue, and her eyes flew upward.

"!!!!!!!"

The sensation of Yasenia's millions of sperm cells fighting against her egg's outer defense layer made her body spasm stupidly. Her egg sent a massive Yin energy wave outward, exterminating almost all of the weaker sperm cells and leaving the rest in a dazed state.

Tatyana's body continued to climax as wave after wave of sperm cells attacked the egg she had squeezed out, and Yasenia hugged Tatyana tightly without taking out her dick. Using her large glans as a stopper so that the semen that bloated Tatyana's womb didn't flow out.

After releasing the Yin energy wave a few times, the egg died, making the impregnation attempt unsuccessful. Yasenia's and Tatyana's tense bodies fell limp onto the bed.

It took the Death Empress almost 5 minutes before she could escape the after-taste of such an event. She felt the loving tongue of her lover licking her neck while a deep purring sound made her body pleasantly vibrate.

Tatyana hugged Yasenia's head lovingly and smiled languidly, her hands caressing Yasenia's long hair. "That was good."

Yasenia lifted her eyes and asked lowly. "Only good?"

Tatyana chuckled, looking at her with a loving expression. "Honestly, it might have been the best orgasm of my life."

Yasenia lifted her eyebrow in doubt, and Tatyana laughed. "Difficult to accept? However, the fullness in my soul and pleasurable sensation are truly the best. I really can't even compare it to other times."

The dragoness laughed. "Then, you'll probably have many new 'peaks' after today."

Tatyana smiled playfully, poking her Little Treasure's cheek. "That, I don't doubt."

Neither of them showed sadness at Yasenia's failure to impregnate her. It was very difficult to get pregnant, especially when the cultivation rank was higher. Hence, not being successful in the first attempt was within their expectations.

Tatyana's [Divine Lich Empress Body] was actually in the first level of the Dantian Spiritualization Realm. So, her Yin attribute had gone under a massive change, making it stupidly powerful. Even before this happened, it would've probably failed.

Since Tatyana's secondary body was not actually a normal body, it didn't need to go through tribulations. The limit of the body, however, was the limit of the cultivator. Therefore, even with that advantage, the [Divine Lich Empress Body] would also be weak if the main body weren't strong.

Yasenia kissed Tatyana's lips slowly and smiled, her pink-colored iris shining with love. "Let's continue."

Tatyana laughed and whispered lovingly. "Work hard, Little Treasure~. I really want to have a little baby in my womb~."
