Chapter 91

Yasenia smiled and said, “Even a mortal could tell you are lying. Do you really think I know so little about my mother? Even if most about mom is still a mystery, I know she is loyal to her current partner. What are you trying to achieve, elder? Me pairing you up with her because you can’t do it yourself?”

Tatyana smirked and hugged Yasenia’s arm. Zhang Kui laughed. “You have a sharp tongue! Don’t you know that I can kill you with a single stare?”

Yasenia shook her head. “If the elder were someone that would kill for that little offense, I would have doubted how you became the demonic sect master. There is nothing to fear; we are just talking.”

Guan Yu asked, “You said ‘Her current partner’ You don’t call him father? It seems that he hasn’t taken care of you. How about I become your stepfather? I don’t have much to do with Tatyana right now, just a relationship between you and me. ”

Yasenia answered politely, “Thank you, elder, but I currently live well without a father. If the opportunity arises or I change my mind, you will be the first one to know.”

They reached the side of the formation, and Tatyana started explaining. The next phase of the tournament was going to be tomorrow morning.

The battles were one vs. one, and participants would choose “life and death battle” or “spar” before the fighting began.

If you won a death battle, you would gain 3 points per fight. On the other side, if you win a spar, you would only earn one point.

To participate in a death battle, both sides don’t need to agree; only one of the participants is required to agree. However, the rules, or lack of rules of the death battle, will be applied only to the side that chose the death battle.

This means that if one side agreed and the other didn’t, the only one that can die is the one who consented. Of course, after winning, they would get points equal to what they chose; death battle side wins, the participant receives three points; spar wins, they get only one.

The additional rule that Tatyana added is that even if you choose Death battle, you can call for surrender, and the supervisor of the fight will stop it immediately. Other conditions for winning are; making the enemy faint, losing all their energy, or incapacitating them until they can’t move.

The formation they were revising was a formation that manages most of this.

If the combat isn’t a deathmatch, it will be revised completely by the formation, and when one of the participants is on the verge of dying or without energy, the formation will eject them from the battlefield. Moreover, it will also record the points of each participant, making sure that nobody tampers with them.

Each person will participate in ten random battles across two days. The top 8192 participants will be selected for the final tournament from the almost 20 000 participants left.

If participants accumulate the same amount of points, ranking in the previous stage will decide who passes and who doesn't.

After finishing revising the formation, they directly left with Tatyana. Yasenia had to advance to the Mental Nourishing realm, and they wanted to go to a place where nobody could bother them.

Yasenia said, "I have perfected everything before advancement. The tribulation will be very strong...."

"Tatyana frowned. "Little treasure, if we follow the pattern, this tribulation will have 27 lightning strikes. Reserve your energy even if you have to get hurt at the beginning. The first ones should not be lethal for you."

The others were scared shitless and started sweating cold. Angel exclaimed, "W-what do you mean 27!? Isn't that the amount received to enter the Unification realm!?"

Yasenia smiled and said, "Didn't I tell you that you will know in the future?"

Cecile frowned and became uncomfortable again. Yasenia gathered the four of them with her tail in a group hug, "I know you are scared, but believe in me. However, I warn you; I will become very injured. Don't panic and let the seniors handle everything, okay?"

They hugged her tighter and nodded. Yasenia kissed the four of them and smiled toothily, "Look how this dragoness fights against the odds and wins!"

Tatyana called the people she had on standby and some teachers. Mason and Madeline have especially made a trip for this event under Tatyana's orders. Tatyana's head was basically repeating, 'Protection, protection, I need all the protection. How much, you ask? My answer is yes.'

Yasenia looked at the side and smiled, gladly surprised. "Dr. Ava, Anna, Eve, long time no see!"

All of them smiled and bowed. Anna said, "We have come to protect you, miss, don't worry and focus on your tribulation. Nobody will pass this maid unless they kill her! "

Yasenia went forwards and hugged them. For her, Anna and Eve were like her big sisters. They have watched her grow, and she can feel their love for her.

Even if it is romantic love, she won't treat them differently. She also likes them a ton. There was an event previously where Yasenia asked them to be part of her harem. However, at that time, they answered, "Miss, you are still young. If you feel the same some years later, ask again, we will be waiting for you, no matter how many years pass."

Yasenia has never forgotten their words, and this was one of the reasons that she doubted if to fill the fifth spot now or reserve it for later years and add the pair of sisters.

She has a single spot in her "Wife" slots and doesn't want to take back her previously made promises. Furthermore, since Yasenia discovered her bloodline properties, about being a [Progenitor Queen], she has started planning for the future and propagation of her bloodline.

Yasenia refocused on the task before her, 'First, pass the tribulation, then the rest.'

She took out her sword, and her aura exploded. Yasenia started circulating her energy speedily, making her aura stronger by the second. Her body absorbed the energy of the surroundings like a whirlpool, and her meridians speedily transformed it and compressed it. The energy was sent through her whole body and gathered in the dantian. then Bang!

Her aura insanely inflated, and the celestial phantom dragon that appeared before manifested behind her, almost ten meters in height and more physical than before. She looked at the heavens, and the dragon looked up too; they took a deep breath, and then...

“RROOAAAAR!!!”

Yasenia and the phantom dragon released a deep and resounding roar simultaneously!

BOOM!

Her aura became even more tyrannical, making the floor cave in from her roar alone. The bicolor clouds started gathering a top of her, and the seniors appeared in the sky, looking at Yasenia.

They observed the phantom dragon behind Yasenia and raised an eyebrow. The Sun God spoke, “Little girl, you are impressive. Not only have you awakened a peak tier bloodline that combined both of ours, but it also seems that you have become a Progenitor. Oh... You have no heart demons and make the spiritual breakthrough? Good job, this time you also have my approval, don’t die on us; this tribulation is strong!”

The moon goddess smiled gently. “Yasenia, you now carry a new dragon bloodline. I hope you have many children in the future and become the leader of the new race. Celestial dragons are scarce; please don’t let them go extinct.”

Yasenia said with a laugh, “I have made my marked mate promise me 1000 children! I think we will be able to propagate the race just nice~.”

Both of them laughed and looked at the gathered people.

They spotted her marked mate, Cecile. The moon goddess smirked, “A human, however... [Ice Phoenix] bloodline? You found yourself a good mate Yasenia; your children will be strong!”

Cecil became flustered and bowed in thanks to the compliment.

Rumble

Feeling the tribulation about to start, they spoke simultaneously, “Inheritor, we have both accepted you, and rewards will be given if you survive. We wish you good luck!”

Yasenia looked towards the sky and saw one lightning bolt charging with the width of two fingers. The lightning bolt struck, and Yasenia calmly parried it with her [Draconic heart]. Clang

Not feeling much but a slight tingling, Yasenia looked strangely at the blade. ‘It absorbed it?’

The heavens didn’t let her analyze as there were already two lightning bolts the width of a wrist in the clouds!

Rumble!

Yasenia slashed upwards, hitting the two bolts of bicolor lightning. BamBam She felt the force behind them. However, she managed to block them easily. This time she focused on the sword, and she didn’t see it wrongly! It was absorbing the heavenly lightning!

Yasenia now saw six lightning bolts preparing on the clouds. 'I will use the sword to block all I can and the tail for those I can't.'

Rumble!!

The six lightning bolts fell one after another! Yasenia spun her sword as she managed to block the first four bolts, but the last two fell simultaneously, and she had to use her tail. Bang!

Her tail was repelled, but she didn't suffer any injuries. 'The first nine are over. Now it starts the hard thing.'

RUMBLE!

Another six lightning bolts started circulating on the clouds, this time with the width of a leg. Yasenia began to turn serious. "[Starry Sky], [Celestial Coat], [Moonless Night]."

Her domain deployed, and the bolts fell one after another. Yasenia used her empowered reflexes and body to block with the sword and tail, using the momentum of the bolts to spin.

Sword slash, BAM Yasenia let it be repelled and rotated, slashing with her swordtail at the next bolt! BAM The tail was repelled, and using footwork to pivot easier, she slashed toward the third strike. BAM Sword repelled, BAM Tail repelled, BAM The lightning hit slightly slanted, which caused her not to be able to reach for the sixth bolt with her tail! BANG! It hit her body squarely, making Yasenia grunt as silvery-golden electrical currents caused havoc in her body.

Yasenia felt the electric currents damage her body, but she didn't mind. 'Reserve strength for the last stretch! Twelve more to go!'

Meanwhile, the people who hadn't seen her tribulation before were with their mouths open. Cecil said, "No wonder she found my tribulation lacking. Her first nine strikes were as strong as mine!"

Andrea had a serious face looking at these. "If she has to pass this kind of tribulation, no wonder she is strong."

Evelyn commented, "The next six are as thick as a thigh! Truly abnormal!"

Yasenia looked at the bolts of lightning, and suddenly, she felt the weight of her sword increasing. She didn't have the time to analyze; she started using skills "[Crescent Moon]!"

RUMBLE!!!

When Yasenia sent a 30m wide crescent attack, the six bolts fell faster than before. 'I won't be able to use the same tactic as before.'

The crescent attack hit the first two bolts, breaking them. Then, Yasenia used [Shooting star] against another bolt, destroying it. Finally, she used her sword and tail as she defended against another two. However, she had to use the [Celestial coat] to resist the last one! BANG! The lightning hit Yasenia on the back, making Yasenia's legs bent and the floor sink.

The spectators could see the electricity going through her body, causing burns and Yasenia gritting her teeth in pain. However, The Heavens didn't want to let her rest!

RRUUMMBLE!!!

The last six bolts started coursing through the clouds! They all looked up, and some gasped, horrified. They were as thick as a waist!

Yasenia bit her lips and used her accelerated thoughts to think about how to pass them. After thinking a moment, her lips arched in a crazy smile. She pointed her sword towards the heavens as she squatted. Then, a silvery glow surrounded her sword as she shouted, “[MOON CHARGE]!”

Yasenia’s leg muscles inflated as she jumped with her legs and tail!

BOOM!

She shot to the sky, emitting silvery radiance as an ascending celestial.

When the bolts started raining, she used one star as a foothold for one leg and exploded it!

BOOM! Her speed multiplied as her leg became completely mangled. Using that foothold and all her accumulated stars but one, she shouted! “[LUNAR STAR CHARGE]!”

White stars appeared around the silver trail, spiraling around her sword and transforming Yasenia into a silvery-white vortex.

Yasenia and the first two bolts crashed!

BOOM! BOOM!

Yasenia destroyed them completely and lost speed. However, she continued upwards!

BOOM!

Another bolt weakened the silver and white glow around her, but this wasn’t enough to stop the ascending dragoness!

BOOM! CRASH!

The third bolt destroyed the silver and white charge, leaving Yasenia and her [Celestial coat] against the last two deadly bolts!

Yasenia spun in the air and used her tail to do one [Crescent Moon] attack, using the momentum to change her direction and fall quickly! BOOM! The crescent only weakened the two bolts slightly. However, Yasenia shot down like a bullet! While she fell, the last two lightning bolts sped up, approaching the dragoness! Everyone thought this was the end!

However, Yasenia’s smile became wilder, showing her fangs.

While falling upside down, Yasenia put the star on the sole of her uninjured leg and exploded it.

BOOM!

blood splashed as Yasenia’s acceleration towards the ground spiked! She pointed her sword towards the ground as she roared, “[FALLING FULL MOON]!”

BOOM!

Her sword struck the ground, and the powerful shockwave transformed into a silver defensive dome! The expanding dome and the two bolts crashed. The bolts impacted and deformed the dome cracking it everywhere! CRASH With the sound of shattering glass, everyone watched, horrified, as one of the bolts managed to continue its path toward Yasenia, weakened.

Yasenia then put the rest of the energy on her [Celestial Coat] And received the bolt!

BANG!

“ROOOOAAAR!”

An agonized roar followed the bright explosion, and then... Silence returned.

Chapter 92

Everyone focused on the crater and looked out for Yasenia. When they spotted her, a sorry sight entered their sight. They saw Yasenia still clutching the sword and standing. However, she had one arm completely charred, her face burned, and the visible skin filled with burns of different degrees. Her tail scales were open and dripping blood.

Tatyana shouted, “Ava, Eve, Anna, fast! I don’t care what you use, but I want her perfectly recovered for tomorrow!” Even before Tatyana stopped speaking, the three of them had disappeared from the spot and began their healing process.

With Tatyana’s first command, everyone snapped and started moving. The guards and teachers started scouting around to see if there wasn’t someone that saw this. Tatyana approached Yasenia with Cecile and the rest.

The seniors looked down, and the Moon Goddess spoke with relief in her voice, “It seems that she survived. I wasn’t sure, to be honest. This tribulation was similar in strength to a mythical beast’s advancement tribulation strength...”

Cecile looked asked, “Why is her tribulation so strong? It is incomparable to other people. Not to speak about the strength of the last six lightning bolts, the previous six were enough to kill almost anybody in the Body Modification realm!”

The two seniors looked at Cecile, and the Sun God said, “Since you are her current marked mate, expect your future tribulations to scale in strength. The benefits of being a marked mate of a [Progenitor Queen] are more than you think.”

The Moon Goddess answered her question. “As for why are her tribulations stronger... That is because of us, and the heavens are strengthening it. We strengthen the power of the lightning bolts, and the heavens add the quantity. That is why she was struck 27 times, and the bolts were that strong.”

Cecile became first apprehensive at the Sun God remark. However, then she became furious. “Why are you strengthening it!? Does she even gain something from this!? Isn’t she your inheritor!? If she dies, your legacy will die with her!”

They answered coldly, “If she dies, then she is unworthy.”

The Sun God then said. “Moreover, there are benefits. The lightning bolts have heavenly attributes. Because we are strengthening them, the electrical currents are made of Heavenly Sun, Moon, and Star attributes. They will gradually evolve her elements and body, making her stronger. When she ends the mortal realms, her elements will transform, and her strength will become tyrannical even between Transcendence realm cultivators.”

Cecile was surprised and then bowed. “I’m sorry, seniors, for being irrational. Seeing Yasenia hurt this much again made some emotions resurface.”

Both nodded in understanding. “Being able to rectify your faults and admit them is very remarkable.”

The Moon Goddess looked at her and smirked. Pointing her finger toward Cecile, “Here, a present for you. Become stronger, little girl. I hope you use this strength to protect yourself and Yasenia.”

Cecile then was pierced in the chest by a moonbeam! Cecile felt an extremely potent Yin energy entering her and started to freeze her [Extreme Yin Body], which should be impossible!

Cecile sat cross-legged and started channeling her energy and trying to assimilate this powerful energy. Silver frost covered her body and consumed her surroundings; Tatayna transported her further from Yasenia so that she didn't bother her healing.

The silver ice covered her whole body, and Cecile felt something basic about her changing as if she was losing her humanity by the second, finding everything more and more irrelevant. This feeling of indifference invaded her soul slowly and covered it in ice. Cecile lost more and more emotions as the silver ice pierced deeper into her soul.

For the first time, Cecile felt completely overwhelmed by something. She tried to assimilate this energy faster, trying to stop the process. Sadly, she wasn't skilled enough! ‘I don't want to lose my feelings!’

However, the silver ice was unforgiving, That is until it reached the center of her soul.

The frost wave slammed against a golden, silver, and white cocoon where Cecile's core feelings and persona were. This cocoon didn't even budge and started to transform slightly into a dragon form. The dragon opened her mouth and roared silently against the invading frost. An invisible shockwave blew the ice away, filling her soul with warmth and a sweet scent that Cecile knew.

Cecile didn't lose the chance and used the push her connection with her dear dragoness gave her. Her meridians absorbed everything, creating a whirlpool of energy on the outside.

Then she felt something breakthrough Bang!

A refreshing and calming feeling filled her as she changed completely. Her Ice element evolved into the Moon element! Then, her constitution also advanced and became [Lunar Yin body], reviving one of the lost constitutions of Ancient times and surpassing the previous one's quality. Better, her bloodline changed from [Ice phoenix] to [Moon Phoenix].

Cecile's strength did an enormous qualitative jump!

While Cecile was receiving the baptism of the Moon Goddess, The Sun god raised an eyebrow and mentally asked her, “Are you sure? We can only upgrade a limited amount of people each. Wouldn't it have been better to use it on her mother in the future?”

The Moon Goddess shook her head. “That child would have died in her next tribulation if I didn't do this. Although the feeling of losing someone could have strengthened Yasenia... I don't want her to lose her marked mate so soon. It can be a major hit to her. Moreover, she is a good seed.”

The moon goddess sighed. She continued mentally, “She is the tenth inheritor. Most of them failed on the tribulation to pass the mortal realms; some failed even earlier... Yasenia is the strongest among them and the rarest.”

Change'er continued, "The previous ones were always born as female and male twins. This time, because of the transmigrating soul fate energy Tatyana made Yasenia absorb, a miracle happened, and she was born. We've already tried passing this inheritance for a million years, and we only have so much energy left...."

The Sun God nodded in understanding. He looked at Andrea, Evelyn, and Angel for a while, but he shook his head. "Too soon; I don't know if they will continue to be loyal after some time. They also aren't that special."

Then, looking at them, he said aloud, "I hope you don't stop her from adding mistresses. I don't care if you don't want her to have more lovers, but if there are people ready to bear her child in the future, I hope you think about it."

They couldn't help but frown, and Tatyana's face didn't even change on the surface.

Both of them felt the time approaching, so they turned towards Tatyana. They spoke simultaneously, "Tell Yasenia that her sword is more special than she thinks. Also, tell her to use it while she cultivates; she will receive a great surprise. Finally, tell her to focus on developing the [Celestial Coat]. If she evolves it, she will have another jump in strength."

Tatyana made a curt bow and said, "Thank you for everything, seniors. We will see each other in the next tribulation."

Both nodded and dissipated. Tatyana continued looking at the place where they disappeared, with her red eyes glowing. Then she shook her head and mumbled, "They are still beneficial for Yasenia... I should wait a little more...."

She turned towards Angel and the rest, who didn't have much reaction to their words and smiled a little.

After a whirlwind of freezing energy, they saw that Cecile had awakened. When they looked at her, her demeanor seemed to have changed. Her face changed from the normally inexpressive one to a cold expression. Her gaze became freezing and apathetic, and her gestures elegant.

While the others were apprehensive, Cecile turned towards Yasenia, and her whole being seemed to melt. Her smile became gentle and her gaze tender. "With this strength, I will be able to protect you, my love."

Evelyn asked, concerned, "Are you okay, Cecile? You frightened me right there."

Cecile turned towards them, and her face became her previous deadpan expression. "I'm okay, just felt apathetic for everything after opening my eyes, like everything was under me. However, after seeing Yasenia, those feelings disappeared. I think it was because my bloodline became a [Moon Phoenix] bloodline."

Tatyana approached and nodded. "That's right. The Moon Phoenix is one of the most indifferent creatures. However, when they find a partner, they are extremely loyal. Some of them even kill themselves after their partners die.

Tatyana analyzed Cecile and said, "Moreover, your ice element has changed to the moon element. To be honest, you have entered the monster category. From now on, you won't have many who can match you within the same cultivation level. However, expect your cultivation speed to slow down.”

Cecile nodded, and Andrea smiled happily. “That’s good! The stronger we become, the better we can protect our dragoness! Evelyn, Angel, you better pick up the pace! We are leaving you behind, hahaha.”

Angel pouted, “Yasenia won’t leave me behind.”

Andrea approached and hugged her, kissing her forehead. “En, En, Angel is Yasenia’s pampered baby. But... If you aren’t strong enough, isn’t your pampering time at night going to become shorter?”

Angel felt like lightning struck her. She hugged Andrea and pleaded, “Andrea, I want to train harder!”

Andrea smirked. ‘So easy to convince~ She is adorable.’

In truth, Andrea knows that Angel puts a lot of effort into cultivation. However, she focuses more on theoretical knowledge and formations. She also lacks combat experience. Worse, until now, most of her fights have been one vs. many. As such, Angel is quite unskilled when fighting one vs. one.

Andrea didn’t say anything to Evelyn. She was the youngest of them, excluding Yasenia, and was at the same level as Angel. This was enough to tell you how much effort Evelyn put into cultivation.

Moreover, Evelyn has discovered a method to improve faster. It seems that dual cultivation with Yasenia strengthened their foundation quickly, but there is a limit on their foundation’s strength because their bloodline and constitution limited it.

Evelyn realized this, and when her foundation became rock-solid, she sped up her cultivation at the cost of destabilizing it. Then, using their dual cultivation sessions, she made it solid again. Since she told them, the rest followed her advice, and it has worked wonders.

The foundation is the base of your level for those who don’t know, as the name implies. If it is weak, having bottlenecks when advancing is quite normal, meaning even having the energy to break through, you aren’t able to. Moreover, it also influences your energy usage and the strengths of your skills.

The worst thing about having a weak foundation is that heart demons strengthen easier the more fragile the foundation is. Therefore, having a rock-solid foundation was basic if you wanted to live a long life as a cultivator.

Tatyana approached Yasenia’s sword and picked it up. She raised her eyebrow and asked, “What was the level of this treasure?”

Andrea answered, “High-level magical treasure... Whoa! Did it upgrade? It did! Now it is a middle-level earth-rank sword!”

Tatyana passed it to Andrea. She took it from the handle, and her arms lowered, almost dropping it. “It also became heavier... Impressive. It seems to be changing... No... Restoring itself? I would like Master to look at it. I think she may find something useful and tell us what is wrong with this sword.” Tatyana nodded.

Cecile suddenly remembered about Kali and asked, “What are your thoughts on adding one more person to Yasenia’s harem?”

The others looked at her strangely. Evelyn asked back, “What about you?”

Cecile answered clearly, “I don’t want more women around Yasenia.”

Evelyn had an “As expected” look as she asked, completely weirded out, “Why are you asking then? I personally wouldn’t mind one or two more... But I rather she doesn’t add anymore.”

Angel said in her silvery voice, “I think I can accept one more... However, it depends on who is this one more girl. Too many people will shorten my cuddling time with her! Unacceptable!”

Andrea said, “I personally don’t mind how many women Yasenia adds. Moreover, since we are quite close to each other, the ones that enter later would have it harder. You all know that Yasenia isn’t someone who forgets the old when the new comes. She is actually quite the opposite.”

Tatyana said calmly, “I personally don’t mind who she has sex with since it is just another activity at the end of the day. But I gave her five wife spots, any more than that, and I will kill that sixth seductress personally.”

The others got a chill run up their backs. Tatyana locked her eyes on Cecile and said, “Spit it out. Who are you talking about? Moreover, it seems you haven’t spoken with Yasenia about this. Are you hiding something from her?”

Cecile met her red eyes and couldn’t help but feel a chill of fear going down her spine. She answered, trying to keep her voice calm. “It is Kali. She is a girl with a scarred face, a genius in the inner sect alchemy branch, and quite a nice girl.”

Andrea raised her eyebrow, “That girl? I’ve never seen her speak a lot to anybody, and she is normally very... Mysterious.”

Cecile nodded, “I didn’t tell Yasenia because I didn’t want her to shut her down directly. They were doing quite well together and speaking a lot... I told her I would speak it to you girls before telling her anyway.”

Angel asked, surprised. “Didn’t Yasenia realize her feelings? She is quite sharp normally.”

Cecile scratched her cheek and said awkwardly, “I was a little upset at her... Defeat, and she was paying most of her attention to me, cheering me up.”

Tatyana ordered, “Next time, just tell her. I don’t think she would change her attitude even if she knew that. She may even consider her more... I hope all of you are honest with Yasenia in the future.” They nodded and then continued talking about Yasenia a little.

Chapter 93

After one hour of healing, Yasenia started to look alive again, her charred arm regained skin, and her burns were healing nicely. Dr. Ava said, “We can move her. Let’s go to your inn rooms, and I will finish the treatment there.”

Tatyana picked a communication jade and spoke some orders. Then they started moving. Madeleine came and informed Tatyana. “Two groups tried entering the perimeter. We have finished them off and captured 4 of them. We are in the middle of interrogating them.”

Tatyana nodded and said with a smirk, “Don’t need to put too much effort. They are probably from the Long and Tang families. Those poor bastards, their children got handled by Yasenia in the elimination rounds before they could even present themselves. Yasenia doesn’t even know she has killed more of the Long and Tang family people, hahaha.”

The girls around laughed a little. Tatyana got thoughtful and said, “However, they still have two half-step children each. They can give a nice fight to Yasenia.”

Evelyn asked, “Can they fight her now that she has advanced?”

Tatyana nodded. “Although I’m not clear to what degree has Yasenia strengthened, the advantage of having a spiritual sense is very big. The only reason Andrea managed to beat that half-step in that fight is that she surprised the cultivator with tricky tactics, like the first spear and her powerful skillset. If it weren’t for that, the cultivator would have bested Andrea with light injuries.”

Andrea nodded. “I was lucky I didn’t die from my skill explosion. I wanted to just drag him with me because of his filthy mouth.”

Tatyana said, “However, don’t undermine yourself too much. You handled that fight nicely for your level.”

Evelyn asked, “Filthy mouth? The screens didn’t transmit sound, so we were surprised at your sudden attitude change. What did he say?”

Andrea told them about it, and they sneered. Cecile said, “I hope he appears against me. I think I will be able to send him to hell.”

The others looked at her, and Andrea said, “Cecile, you are becoming more and more protective of Yasenia.”

Cecile asked, confused, “Is it wrong?”

Andrea shook her head and laughed, “I don’t mind, but you shouldn’t kill for every little thing. I did what I did because I knew I could resurrect. However, we are now with only one chance. Have you thought about what Yasenia would feel if any of us died? Be careful with what you do. I have seen her sad once already, and I don’t want to see her like that again.”

Cecile remembered her face the other day when she lost her first possible child and felt a prick in her heart. She answered seriously, “I will be careful.” The others also nodded.

Tatyana tsked, ‘I thought a new companion would be born. Well, she is still developing nicely, like Angel. They just need a little push fufufu~ My Yandere companions will grow!’

They reached the inn, and when twilight approached, Yasenia woke up. She was on the bed with Tatyana by the side, caressing her head and with her tail positioned in Tatyana’s lap. Yasenia spoke, “It was close.”

Tatyana nodded. Yasenia smiled, a little sad, and continued, “I thought I wouldn’t make it. The last attack was too much. Those two bolts of lightning were... I would have been done if it weren’t for the skill [Full Moon] activating even while falling.”

Tatyana lowered her head and kissed her forehead. “But you overcame it, and now you are here alive and healthy little treasure. By the way, there are some things they told me to tell you.”

Tatyana passed the message, and Yasenia nodded. “When I was in the middle of the tribulation, I felt the sword’s weight increasing. It seems that it can absorb my energies and become stronger. Maybe that is why the red light from the core changes whenever I use skills.”

Yasenia chuckled, “Maybe I can hatch that egg this way? Cultivating with it by my side and giving it my blood from time to time. Only giving blood and energy doesn’t do anything.”

Tatyana smiled and said, “Trying doesn’t hurt. ”

Tatyana smirked and said huskily, “Love, you are a little weak. How about I give you energy~.”

Tatyana lowered herself and started kissing her. Yasenia chuckled while answering the kiss and said, “You will drain my energy instead of giving it to me~.”

Tatyana smiled seductively and said, “I will drain more than your energy, dear.”

Yasenia started responding to the kiss eagerly and asked, “What about the others? Kiss Are they doing something right now?”

Tatyana stopped the kiss and said, “They are cultivating. We have one hour before they come back~.”

Yasenia nodded.

Tatyana started disrobing Yasenia while kissing her. When Yasenia was naked, Tatyana looked at her up and down, checking if she had completely recovered. Tatyana scanned her skin and saw that it was flawless.

Then, she analyzed her insides and checked that she was without internal wounds and that her meridians and veins had completely healed. Only then was she completely reassured and proceeded with their session.

Tatyana spoke gently, “Little treasure, today relax. I will treat you like you do with Angel fufufu~.”

Yasenia’s tail started wagging on the sheets in anticipation. Tatyana disrobed and went down where her member was already erect. She used her tongue and licked around the head. Yasenia sighed in comfort, feeling her mother’s warm tongue.

Tatyana opened her mouth widely and let her member enter. Then, she used her saliva and Yasenia’s delicious precum to lubricate her whole length. Yasenia closed her eyes and started moaning while Tatyana moved her head up and down.

Her tail tip moved in front of Tatyana, asking for attention. Tatyana knew where she liked to keep her tail the most, so she guided it to the entrance between her butt cheeks. Yasenia felt her tip touching her back entrance and pushed against it.

Tatyana relaxed her muscles, and the tip entered in one thrust. Feeling the tightness around her tail, Yasenia’s member twitched in delight inside Tatyana’s throat. She thrust deeply in both holes, and her tail started wiggling inside Tatyana, trying to feel more of her warm and tight insides.

Tatyana felt the tail movements and her pleasure senses started lighting up, which made her moan and transfer her throat vibrations to her dick.

Yasenia only lasted 5 minutes with this amount of stimulation and came, “Mom, I’m cumming!”

Both her members became hot and spurted rope after rope of semen. Tatyana felt the electrifying and delicious cum feeling her back and mouth, making her reach orgasm with it.

Yasenia came for almost one minute, satisfying Tatyana's craving for the dragoness release.

Tatyana took both her members out and closed her back entrance, not letting a single drop out. "Love, your breakthrough has made you even more delicious~ I think I'm getting addicted to it, fufufu~."

Yasenia smiled and said tenderly, "It doesn't matter. You and I will be together forever. Getting addicted to each other is actually quite good~."

Tatyana laughed and kissed Yasenia. Then she raised Yasenia's upper body and answered softly, "Yes, always together. My beautiful daughter, put your back on the headboard~ It is time for mommy to pamper you~."

Yasenia positioned herself, and Tatyana approached her, straddling her. They started kissing and caressing each other. Tatyana raised her hips, and after lining up her garden entrance, she lowered herself. Yasenia felt her member entering her and let out a moan.

Tatyana pressed their breast together, and while kissing, both started moving their waist in synch. They didn't move too fast nor too slow.

Tatyana controlled her insides and opened her cervix, allowing Yasenia to penetrate inside her uterus. When Yasenia felt her head pass the soft inner tight walls, she moaned, delighted. Tatyana also felt pleasurable waves course her body, moaning together with Yasenia. Now, Yasenia could hilt herself, so she hugged Tatyana and thrust up, slapping their waist together.

Pah Pah Pah

Yasenia moved her tail and entered her back entrance again. Tatyana answered, making her insides tighten, wriggle, or suck her.

The electrical currents climbed up to her brain, and Yasenia felt like the one being massaged was her brain. Her eyes rolled up and came with a throaty moan. "OOHHHH!!!"

Tatyana felt her members inflating, and then they flooded her insides with semen filled with life energy. This feeling invaded her nerves making her roll her eyes upwards in euphoria and squirted heavily, splashing on Yasenia's navel and wetting them both.

Yasenia regained a little clarity and kissed Tatyana strongly, wanting to share as many fluids as they could with their sloppy kiss.

Tatyana separated and asked, whispering, "Did my daughter feel good?"

What she received were loving growls and Yasenia's licks on her neck. She even felt her tail wag through the still inserted tail.

Tatyana's heart became a puddle.

She loved this Yasenia the most. She became so cuddly, childish, and cute, and her soft growls tugged her motherly senses, making her want to give her the world if she wanted it. Tatyana started kissing the side of her face that was buried in the crook of her neck and moved her waist, softly massaging her deeply inserted members.

Yasenia was feeling heavenly. She felt hot pleasure weaves, arriving again and again.

Yasenia grabbed Tatyana's butt as she helped her move up and down, enough to scrap her insides completely. Then she thrust her tail more deeply, using her previous discharge as lubrication.

She continued licking Tatyana's neck and going upwards to lick her cheeks. When she reached her mouth, instead of kissing Tatyana, she continued licking and biting softly. As if tasting the most delicious thing.

Tatyana was loving this, wanting to bring her dear daughter more pleasure; she stimulated Yasenia's pleasure nerves. Yasenia's golden slit eyes turned pink as her loving licks turned into more forceful bites, and her waist began slamming upwards, trying to reach deeper and deeper. Even when she was already at the end, she smashed her hips with Tatyana's falling ones wanting to advance deeper.

The loving mating became a frantic one. The pleasure built up, and both came at the same time again. However, they didn't stop the movements. While cumming, Yasenia pushed Tatyana onto the bed and began breeding Tatyana in the missionary position, slamming her waist strongly and quickly, making her discharge splash.

PAH PAH PAH

Yasenia placed Tatyana's legs beside her head and changed into the mating press position, slamming more speedily and deeply. Tatyana squirted again after some time, moaning loudly. But Yasenia didn't stop.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Yasenia continued messing up her insides with both her members. Then, she felt a big orgasm reaching, and after some more time, she thrust one more time powerfully, making the head of her member touch her wall. Yasenia's body tensed as she roared with pleasure, releasing her discharge. "ROAR!"

Tatyana felt the semen spraying powerfully against her inside walls, and her world turned white. "OHHHH!!!" She entered a powerful orgasm again, sending her mind into the high heavens.

Yasenia continued filling her until tension left her body, falling forward on top of Tatyana. Tatyana caught her between her arms and kissed Yasenia gently. Yasenia took out her tail and relaxed completely.

In the missionary position, Yasenia moved while kissing her. This time, they did it slowly and only with her penis. In and out, in and out.

Tatyana returned her kisses and hugged her neck. She spoke with a languid voice, "Good... Let's continue like this until they come~ How was it, dear? Did mommy's insides feel good?"

Yasenia stopped kissing her and buried her face in her neck without stopping her movements. Then, she spoke in a spoiled tone, "I love mommy the most~."

Yasenia began licking her again with slow and long strokes. Tatyana let her do whatever she wanted and petted her head while hugging her. She opened her legs to make it easier to have this slow sex and sighed in comfort.

After 20 minutes, Yasenia came once with a gentle orgasm ending their intercourse. Tatyana let her rest on top of her and continued to pamper her until she sensed the rest coming.

Chapter 94

When Tatyana felt the other's approaching, she used a formation she had prepared beforehand, and the scent and stains disappeared.

Tatyana took out her member, laid the lazy Yasenia on the bed, and dressed her up. Yasenia just let herself be pampered.

After dressing her up, Tatyana put on her clothes and seated beside her. Yasenia took the chance to put her head on her lap. Tatyana looked at her and smiled happily. 'I can feel every day pass when I'm beside my little treasure...It is quite... Mystifying.'

The others entered the room, and, seeing this scene, they also smiled. Andrea spoke in her deep and clear voice, "It seems our dragoness is awake. How are you, Yasenia? "

Yasenia chuckled mischievously, and since only family members were around, she said with a languid but sensual voice, "After filling up mom, I feel very lazy~."

Evelyn tripped, Angel spluttered, Cecile massaged her forehead, and Andrea burst into laughter.

Cecile said with fake anger, "Since you can fill your mother, I suppose you are cured and don't need our concern, right?"

Evelyn followed with exaggerated gestures, "How cruel~ We were washing our faces in tears, and here she was, fucking her mother behind our backs!"

The others laughed. Angel went to her side and laid on top of her. Yasenia hugged her, still using Tatyana's thighs as a lap pillow.

Yasenia asked, chuckling. "Now you know about my tribulations. That is why I was surprised by yours at that time."

The others nodded, completely convinced. Angel spoke with a muffled voice and with her head buried in softness, "Those two last bolts were dangerous...."

Yasenia sighed and said, "To tell you the truth, I didn't think I would make it. Luckily, I was able to activate [Full Moon]."

Andrea said, "Your last resistance against those six lightning bolts was truly nerve-wracking and impressive."

Cecile took the chance and explained her situation. Yasenia smiled and said, "Congratulations, sweetheart, you've become stronger. Don't worry about the tribulations. You always put a lot of effort; I'm sure you can pass it."

Cecile smiled and nodded. Evelyn suddenly exclaimed, surprised, "Yasenia, your tail!"

Yasenia moved her tail and looked at it. "What is wrong, dear... Oh. Did it change colors in the middle? Now is the same as the scales of the phantom dragon..."

Tatyana raised her eyebrow. "I didn't realize. Isn't it also longer?"

Angel turned herself, putting her back on Yasenia and using her breast as a pillow. Yasenia made her tail pass between their legs to show Angel. “Whoa... So beautiful~ is midnight blue with golden rings and little white dots as if stars are gathering in your tail! Will it become completely like this? I love it!”

She put her arms forward, and Yasenia, understanding Angel’s actions, lowered her tail for her to hug. Yasenia caressed her face with her tip and secured her with her arms around her waist. Meanwhile, Angel played happily with her tail.

Yasenia also used her hands to stimulate Angel slightly with energy. Angel went limp in the dragoness embrace.

Andrea asked, “Will you gain horns and wings in the future? Yasenia... When you reach the unification realm, many changes will happen.”

Yasenia nodded happily. “My movement technique, body changes, innate skills, I will also be able to feel my soul, and [Draconic Heart] will upgrade again...”

Tatyana said, “The Unification realm is practically the starting line that will divide adept cultivators and cultivators destined to be mediocre. One can’t breakthrough just gathering energy, feeling, and learning about the concept of the soul takes a big part in it. Cultivators can get stuck in this realm forever.”

Evelyn asked, “By the way, Tatyana. What is the average lifespan of each realm?”

Tatyana continued petting Yasenia as she said, “An Opening Realm Cultivator can live up to 300 years. Depending on the transformation stage, a body modification cultivator can live between 500 to 1000 years. Mental Nourishing cultivators can live between 1500 and 2000.”

Tatyana continued, “In the Unification realm, the lifespan starts escalating. Depending on your level in the Unification realm, a cultivator can live between 3000 to 8000 years. A dantian modification realm can live from 10 000 to 20 000.”

Tatyana finished by saying, “Then, Transcendence realm cultivators give an extremely big jump. The youngest of them dying of old age I’ve heard about had 320 000 years when she deceased. The oldest I’ve heard is a senior that had lived for 1 200 000 years... Well, the second one, I can’t confirm if it was his actual age. But I’ve known cultivators who reached close to the million years.”

Yasenia asked, “What’s your current age, mom?”

Tatyana lowered her head and kissed her forehead, answering, “I won’t tell you~.”

Yasenia grumbled, “Always trying to appear mysterious...” Tatyana laughed and said, “I want my dear daughter to be interested in me for years to come~ If I don’t leave any mysteries, how can I achieve that, hmm?”

Yasenia looked at the others, making her massage to Angel more stimulating, and said, “Don’t you dare think of making things mysterious for me! I will... I will...”

Yasenia struggled with coming up with a punishment that won’t hurt her heart, so she said, “I won’t control myself in bed!...” They were about to be seriously scared when Yasenia continued, “... Until you can’t take it anymore!” Then they relaxed, ‘Dear Yasenia, isn’t that what you normally do? How can you think about it as a punishment?’

The real question was, ‘Will the pampering dragoness ever muster the will to punish them?’

Yasenia was happy that they had so many years to come and commented, “Now that I’m at the Mental Nourishing realm, I can feel my mind clearer. I think I can start advancing on my cultivation technique again. How do you think I will change when I reach the Unification realm?”

As if it was the more natural thing, Cecile said, “For me, you will only become more beautiful, love. No matter how you change.”

Yasenia actually blushed and covered her face with Angel’s blonde hair. However, Angel felt the tail wag between her arms and laughed. “So cute!”

For the record, Tatyana had taken out her camera at excessive speeds, captured that moment, and then stored it again, stroking Yasenia’s silky black hair.

They continued speaking until the night began, and Angel was getting wetter with Yasenia’s mild stimulation. Yasenia ignored the fidgety Angel and looked at them, “This night, I will have to reward all of you for your performance in the elimination rounds! Prepare yourselves, my loves. Now I’m also at the Mental nourishing realm~.”

The four of them swallowed and looked toward Tatyana, asking about her recent experience. She smirked and said, “Not only did the taste become better, but the pleasure she gives when she releases inside is also at least twofold. The energy inside the discharge is at least threefold~.”

All of them prayed so that their dragoness had mercy on them. ‘The more she catches up with us in cultivation, the worse we will have it!’ This created another reason for our girls to speed up their cultivation!

Tatyana, however, continued lifting an eyebrow. “That was for normal discharges~ The ones when she tries to breed you are more pleasurable~.”

All of them swallowed nervously and looked at the dragoness licking her lips seductively. Angel, who was on top of her, felt something hardening below her butt and nervously spoke, “W-Wait, Yasenia, there are other people!”

However, the dragoness had been preparing her meal and had the intention to eat it! Yasenia’s eyes gained a slight pink shade and lowered Angel’s skirt in one motion. Then she released her member with the aid of her tail, and with astounding precision, she pierced upwards, widening Angel’s labia and reaching deep.

Angel’s face became lewd because of the sudden intrusion, and she moaned, “Ohh! Yasenia sto-”

Yasenia took her legs up, and she started pounding upwards in the full nelson position

Pah! Pah! Pah!

Angel entered a moaning spree, “Anh! Ah! AH! Yase-Hyan!”

Tatyana smirked and continued stroking the dragoness’s hair as she drilled into Angel. The others couldn’t process what was happening before their eyes until Yasenia came inside Angel three minutes later.

Angel, who was on the verge of orgasm, suddenly felt Yasenia's member inflate, and with the next thrust pressing on her cervix, the dragoness creampie'd her.

The hot, thick semen invaded her uterus, overcharging her pleasure nerves with her newly strengthened energy. Angel felt her whole body exploding with pleasure as she moaned throatily and squirted extremely hard. "OHHHH!!!!"

Her eyes rolled up while her bent legs straightened because of the sheer pleasure she was receiving. 'I'm going crazy!'

This big moan woke Cecile and the others up from their stupor. Cecile tried to flee to her room. However, she was locked by the primal hunter. Yasenia quickly let Angel fall on the bed and went after Cecile. When Cecile was about to reach the door, Yasenia arrived behind her and pinned her face-first on the door. Yasenia then lowered Cecile's lower garments and penetrated her from behind, pounding her against the door

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Evelyn and Andrea waited their turn, disrobing obediently. Cecile couldn't help but feel aroused, trapped between the door and her crazy mate who was smashing her waist against her butt. Yasenia turned Cecile's head and devoured her lips without stopping her waist.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

After another five minutes, she filled Cecile, who was drooling against the door because of pleasure.

Because of their connection, Cecile got the worst burn of the enhanced pleasure and sprayed on the door, seemingly without end, wetting it completely and letting out a high-pitched moan. "AHHHH!!!!"

Yasenia unplugged from Cecile, and Cecile lost the only support maintaining her standing. She slid down on the door, squirting with rolled up eyes.

Yasenia turned and looked toward the two fidgeting women. She walked toward them while disrobing. Yasenia reached Evelyn's side, picked her up from below her knees, and pierced her while standing. Evelyn moaned and hugged her neck, lovingly looking into Yasenia's slit eyes. Yasenia kissed her, and after grabbing her little butt, she moved Evelyn's waist up and down.

Andrea approached from behind and opened Yasenia's soft and big buttocks. Yasenia looked back at Andrea and arched her back to ease penetration. Then, Andrea hugged her waist, penetrating her backdoor, lowering her head to kiss the dragoness, to which Yasenia answered joyfully while moaning.

Yasenia moved her tail and penetrated Andrea's vagina from below, thrusting in both of them while receiving Andrea's pounding.

Because Yasenia arched her back to ease Andrea's penetration and not bother her with her tail, Evelyn had her big tits bouncing in front of her face each time Andrea slapped her waist onto Yasenia. Evelyn continued to moan, burying her face in the breasts she loved so much.

Not much passed until Yasenia filled them both, "I'm cumming!"

When they felt the pure energy invading their uterus, they hugged Yasenia strongly and moaned throatily at the same time.

“OOHHHHH!!!”

“OOHHHHH!!!”

Yasenia also moaned while receiving Andrea’s load inside her. ‘I missed my darling’s warm and delightful load~.’

After Yasenia gave each of them a taste of her new “prowess,” she went toward Angel, lying on the bed, and covered her from above, kissing Angel deeply and penetrating her. After filling Angel again, she approached Cecile and pushed her onto the wall, lifting her legs and pistoning inside. Then she did Evelyn in all fours, and finally Andrea in the cowgirl position.

A crazy night followed where Yasenia released one load at a time in each of them, making them spasm with pleasure and finally pass out. Meanwhile, Tatyana looked from the side with a smirk, ‘A strange one-on-one orgy... Is she trying to acclimate them to interact with each other? It is not a bad idea~. Now mommy’s turn arrived!’

Yasenia looked at her work with a smile while breathing a little heavily and caressed her now full belly, thanks to Andrea. However, her cockiness stopped there because Tatyana decided to go serious, she took out her 30cm monster and approached the smiling dragoness from behind...

Twenty minutes later, the poor dragoness was out of combat, spasming in pleasure and cumming from her three sexes while her face was completely ruined with pleasure, tears, and drool.

Tatyana chuckled and said, “Not bad progress~. She could even use her tail the whole time to penetrate me~.”

She took the five people and cleaned the whole room. Then putting them in a bed she took out from her spatial ring, they went to sleep in their usual position. Andrea to the left, then Evelyn, Yasenia, Tatyana, and Cecile. Angel was, of course, on top of Yasenia.

Chapter 95

When they woke up the next day... All four of them, still on the bed, looked at Yasenia inquiringly. Cecile even asked, “Didn’t you say you will start including us together little by little?”

Yasenia laughed and said, “That was not together. It was me doing one-on-one with each of you in the same room~.”

Yasenia used her tail to move Evelyn until she could kiss her without bothering Angel. After the kiss, she said, “The one that I know that she likes me having sex with another woman while doing it also got what she liked~ Isn’t that right, dear?”

Evelyn blushed and nodded shyly. Yasenia continued giving a kiss to Andrea and said coquettishly, “I also know that my darling doesn’t mind, so I did it with her to fulfill Evelyn’s likes. Moreover, I got my darling’s weapon all for myself~.”

Andrea chuckled and nodded. Yasenia looked at Angel and lifted her by her little butt to kiss her softly. “My baby got the rough sex she likes to have from time to time and the public sex I know she has started to like~.”

Angel blushed crimson and buried her face in Yasenia's breasts, but she nodded timidly. Yasenia turned toward Tatyana and kissed her. "I didn't do it with mom until the end because we had our fun before."

Tatyana just hugged her side lazily. Finally, she made Cecile pass over Tatyana using her long tail and kissed her. "I also made sure to make it with you away from the others, sweetheart. I know you only want to have sex with me, so you are only mine until you want to try new things."

Cecile smiled and nodded. Yasenia finished saying, "More than an orgy... It was a one-on-one show to the others. I know you girls are already close, so doing this kind of thing from time to time... I think it will strengthen our bonds. If you want anything in this aspect, remember to tell me."

They all nodded. Tatyana said lazily, "Even if I don't want to move... We have to prepare ourselves. Today, you will play this death game again... You have to be careful." All five of them nodded seriously.

They got up, and Yasenia put on her robes together with her scarf and veil, then she put her giant sword on her back. She looked at the others and said, looking directly at their eyes, "All of you aren't wallflowers, so I won't say anything stupid like "choose deathmatch the least you can." Don't fear choosing to do a deathmatch in each of your matches if you think it is appropriate; I fully trust you. However, always fight with caution and be ready to surrender." They smiled confidently and nodded.

Then, they went to the gathering spot. When they arrived, most of the 20 000 disciples were gathered in one place to hear the rules again; Yasenia's group also went to that place. The place was extremely big. It had ten arenas next to each other, and each one was 2.5km square(1 square mile); giant coliseum stands surrounded everything.

Invisible barrier formations covered the borders of each fighting arena, making it safer for the spectators and other competitors.

The formation Yasenia and the rest revised the previous day would monitor the normal duels, and a senior will supervise the deathmatch. Yasenia and the others didn't hear anything different from the rules Tatyana mentioned before a total of ten battles; five today, five tomorrow. Then, the top 8192 will pass to the final stage.

After hearing about what they couldn't use and to be respectful to the opponent and more drivel, the participants dispersed and went to the stands.

Yasenia looked around but didn't spot Kali, Linda, or the people she fought with during the elimination round.

Tatyana guided them to a post where they picked up their participant jade. Then, they reached their seats without interruptions and waited to be called.

The fights began, and they observed the participants that went first. After seeing some people go up and fight, Evelyn said, "I'm not between the strongest competitors. I think I would have to be lucky... Or reckless, to pass to the next round...." Angel, who had similar strength to Evelyn, also nodded. She has also spotted a lot of cultivators stronger than her that she didn't have confidence in besting.

Yasenia lifted both of them and sat them one on each leg. They smiled and hugged Yasenia's waist. Yasenia said, "It doesn't matter. If you can't make it through, then that's it. We will have a ton of opportunities in the future."

Yasenia felt the jade vibrate and looked at it. The words "Arena 6, opponent Guo Lin Yuan." Appeared on it.

Yasenia gave each of them a reassuring peck, stood up, and jumped from the stands. Then, she walked, sashaying her hips toward the arena. Some spectators started speaking, "A Mental nourishing level one cultivator? She was lucky to pass the previous phase."

Another answered, "That tail... I think I have seen her in one of the highlights in the previous elimination. There were so many that I don't remember clearly."

Another one said, "She fought against a lot of cultivators and died at the end. However, she took with her ten or more of them. It was a quite nice fight!"

The others raised an eyebrow and focused on her battle.

Yasenia reached the arena and looked at her opponent. It was a level nine cultivator. 'A level nine right of the bat? Well, perfect to test my new strength~.'

That man spoke and said, "I'm from the Demon Sect's main branch. Surrender and don't waste both our time."

Yasenia looked at him and said with a seductive smile. "I choose deathmatch."

The other side raised his eyebrow and grinned lewdly, "I will be able to play with you! Foolish woman, the only thing prohibited in a death match is touching the opponent when they say surrender!"

Then he started looking at Yasenia up and down lewdly. Yasenia took out her sword and used her accelerated thoughts. 'Now that he is thinking with his lower half, he probably won't attack me seriously. He will lower his attacking strength and give me hope to win so that I don't surrender. Then immobilize me with a single attack and force himself on me. Although it hasn't happened yet, some matches were close to this outcome when fighting against demonic or dual cultivators. It seems that seduction techniques, even if frowned upon, are quite effective.'

Yasenia looked at the side where one man was already naked against a woman that was using seduction techniques. 'Is he going to be the first victim? That girl is a half-step dual cultivator.... Wait, haven't I seen her before? Blue feathers... I saw her while I was dead, right? Well, it doesn't matter.'

Yasenia refocused on his opponent, 'Thankfully, in the Mental Nourishing realm, the quantity of strength doesn't grow by much. The pill that I ingested from mom, the spiritual breakthrough, and the body strength I gained from my bloodline make me a monster in this realm. The only big destructive power enhancement a cultivator has is when entering the half-step, so I will have to be careful of them. This match is an easy win if I play my hand right.'

The senior on the side said, "Ready? Begin!"

Yasenia started buffing herself with [Celestial Coat] and [Starry sky]. 'I will use solar skills.'

Then she charged at him at 30% of her current top speed. On the other side, the demonic cultivator was surprised. 'She is quite fast for being in the first realm. Well, I still can see her.'

He also charged forward with his long sword and coated himself in a black energy coat.

Yasenia smirked, 'He is darkness and death attributed. My Sun energy is a perfect counter.'

She used [Shooting star] with a quarter of its strength when they were close. The star ballooned up to apple size and shot forward. The cultivator slashed at it, and it exploded- Bang!

The explosion made his sword rebound a little. 'She is also strong! I will have to hold back a little less.'

Yasenia took the chance and did a horizontal slash. He regained his posture fast and blocked easily. Yasenia let her sword rebound, then showed a little frown that disappeared instantly. However, this was enough for someone to notice.

The cultivator grinned. 'She is easy prey~ I will have fun breaking her!'

Yasenia and the cultivator started exchanging blows, and Yasenia let herself be pushed back while using [Shooting star] From time to time. Yasenia began to incorporate the [Sunset] skill gaining an advantage even while holding back.

After two minutes of going back and forth, Yasenia was starting to get cornered and showed an anxious expression. The cultivator didn't want her to surrender; therefore, he lowered the strength of his next attack. 'I will let her push me back a little.'

Yasenia saw this and grinned while thinking, 'Full strength attack!' "[Sunrise]!"

When the cultivator relaxed, Yasenia's sword suddenly flashed with a golden light! SLASH The cultivator closed his eyes because of the radiance for a moment. When he opened them, he was confused. 'Why is she turning? Is she surrendering?'

Those were his last thoughts before his body bisected from the middle, falling dead and splashing blood across the arena.

Yasenia went back to her seat, "Breathing heavily." When she reached her seat, she picked Angel up and put her on her lap, hugging her waist. Then she buried her face in her neck and laughed, tickling Angel. "What a stupid person, hahaha."

"Yasenia~ It tickles!"

The others shook their heads, and Andrea said, amused, "The dragon plays sheep to catch the tigers? Even now, people can misunderstand that you are resting on Angel. I didn't know you were so cunning, love."

Yasenia kissed Angel on the neck and raised her head. "I don't want to be targeted. I'm only using, more or less, double my strength before the breakthrough. I want to reserve myself against the half-steps. Remember what I told you. To win without using all your cards is ideal... Although I really want to go all out and squish those bugs."

Tatyana raised an eyebrow at the last comment, 'Dragon pride? And here I thought my little treasure would avoid it... I will have to educate her a little in emotion management.'

Even if they found the last comment strange, they ignored it and nodded. Angel and Cecile were called next.

Cecile didn't have time to change any of her techniques since she was still assimilating the changes to her body strength. Therefore, she fought similarly to before. However, the chill in her arrows, their strength, and her energy and wound regeneration were on another level.

The formation paired her against a level eight cultivator. Cecile didn't even blink as she spoke coldly, "Deathmatch."

The other cultivator raised an eyebrow at her blatant show of confidence. He had just seen Yasenia's previous fight, so to be sure, he said, "Spar."

The senior asked him, "Activate the jade pressing it into the arena; then, we will start."

The cultivator nodded, and Cecile prepared her bow.

"Ready? Begin!"

The cultivator directly charged forward, using his light element to speed up. Cecile buffed herself with [Chilling Wind Coat] and placed a [Return Mark]. Then she began shooting [Ice Arrows] while maintaining her distance from him.

Swish* Swish *Swish

The cultivator saw three blue blurs speeding toward his head and reflexively raised his sword. Clang!Clang!Clang! He got stopped in his track by the arrows and felt his sword trembling. 'What is this arrow strength!?! She is only at level three!'

Cecile saw how effective they were, so she didn't hold back. She tensed her bow in a full moon, and gales erupted from her bow, blowing away her long blue hair. Then, her blue eyes coldly flashed as she chanted, "[Freezing Gale Arrow Rain]."

Her hand blurred as she continuously shot while running around the arena. The cultivator used his skills to deflect or evade the arrows and tried to close up to her. However, the unceasing arrows blocked his way!

Cecile then silently used a single [Explosive Ice Arrow]. The cultivator didn't even know what happened when an explosion on his sword shot him backward. Then Cecile aimed precisely and shot an [Space Arrow] to his head; It landed.

She used the [Return mark], teleporting to her initial spot and confusing the cultivator. This action gave Cecile enough time to charge her finisher. "[Shredding Glacial Shot]"

BOOM!

A giant shockwave occurred when Cecile's bicolor arrow left the bow.

Before being ejected by the shot, the cultivator thought, 'Thank the heavens I chose spar.'

Bang!

He shot backward, spinning, but mostly unharmed because the formation protected his life. The supervisor said, "Cecile Wins!"

Meanwhile, Angel was against a level six cultivator. When she reached the arena, she spoke with a silvery voice, motivated, “Senior, I will choose deathmatch!”

Seeing Angel’s gentle demeanor, the senior couldn’t help but confirm her option. “Are you sure, participant Angel? You are against a level six cultivator.”

Angel said, “I’m sure senior! I can’t let down Yasenia!”

The senior sighed and nodded, ‘I will be extra attentive to save her life if she surrenders.’

The level six male cultivator had a spear and chose deathmatch. The senior said, “Ready? Begin!”

Chapter 96

Angel prepared her shield and used [Prismatic coat], putting some [Glass Nodes] around. However, this cultivator was fast! Before she could complete a single formation, He was already in front of her.

Yellow electric arcs covered his spear as he thrust forward. Angel hardened her [Emerald Mirror Shield] and blocked, Bang! The impact moved Angel back some steps. ‘Whoa, he is much stronger than me!’

The male cultivator didn’t let her recover as he began attacking her continuously. Sounds of the spear and shield clashing resounded in the arena as they moved around. The man was surprised, ‘What a tight defense! Even if I’m dragging her around, I haven’t injured her yet.’

Meanwhile, Angel was biting her lips and trying to control where they moved so that she could continue placing her [Glass Nodes]. BANG! A big hit to the shield made Angel grunt and slide back. She took advantage of the created distance and charged light energy in her shield, “[Focus Light-Beam].”

The cultivator was about to close the distance when the green mirror shield shone brightly and fired a thick beam toward him. It was so fast that he couldn’t move out of the way.

Bang!

After regaining this slight advantage, she continued shooting light beams from her shield, moving around and keeping the cultivator away from her. ‘Come on, a little more, and I will create the first formation!’

The lightning cultivator regained momentum and pierced through the next light beam, “[Lightning Unicorn Charge].”

Angel smirked and said, “Too late! [Golem Formation]!” Her body shot myriads of Prismatic lights toward the different nodes, activating the formation. The level six cultivator saw something appearing in his path toward Angel.

CRACK!

A three-meter tall glass golem that appeared in his way was what stopped him. He sped up his mind and looked around, spotting three more golems running toward him. ‘Four golems, and the one that blocked me had its chest cracked by my charge. I can best them easily.’

With heavy steps, the four golems ran toward him and started fighting bare-handed against the lightning cultivator. However, they weren’t strong or fast enough to damage him.

The cultivator dodged a punch and thrust with his spear, hitting its chest and making it retreat a single step. Then, he jumped and kicked another in the chest, forcing it back. He used the strength of the kick to approach another one and his spear struck the head, cracking it.

He continued fighting with high mobility maneuvers and destroyed two of them; nonetheless, they managed to stall him enough time for Angel to chain into the next formation, “[Glass Prison Formation]!”

A dome covered the two golems and the cultivator, reducing the cultivator’s maneuvering space. He ran toward the dome and attacked once, “[Lightning Unicorn thrust].”

Clang!

His spear rebounded powerlessly, doing nothing more than a scratch to the dome. He opened his eyes, surprised, ‘Solid defense! Impressive.’

Angel, however, wasn’t done yet! “[Light prison formation]!”

A prismatic light covered the glass dome and fused with it, creating the [Laser prison formation].

He frowned, feeling danger from the new dome. This fear came into being fast when countless lasers shot from the wall!

Now, the cultivator had to evade the last two glass golems and be careful of the lasers. The worst part was that the golems could channel the lasers that hit them and redirect them toward him.

The battle continued, and he managed to destroy the two golems while receiving burns from the lasers. He was about to get to work with the formation when he heard a silvery voice chanting gleefully from the side, “[Golem Formation].”

When he looked at the side and saw another six golems coming his way, he chuckled, ‘Little girl, Could you not be so gleeful about this?’

He then said, “I surrender!”

Angel instantly stopped her skills, detonating the [Glass Nodes] supporting them. Angel smiled and jumped happily, “I won! I won!”

The cultivator approached and said, “Nicely fought, little girl! To be able to create formations mid-battle, you are going to become someone powerful in the future!”

Angel bowed and said, “Thank you for the praise, senior brother! It was a good fight, and I learned a lot.” He smiled and nodded. Then, both returned to the stands.

Yasenia welcomed Angel with a hug and showered her with kisses, “My baby is so strong! I’m so proud of you~.”

Angel laughed and hugged Yasenia while receiving her kisses. Tatyana said at the side, “Angel, we will work with instant-activation formations. You only have big formations, which is a big weakness if you don’t have teammates that give you time to set them up.”

Angel, who was still being showered with love by the dragoness, nodded with a smile. Yasenia stopped kissing her and sat. Then, she buried her little head between her breasts, making Angel straddle her. Angel rubbed her head on the softness and relaxed in her embrace, surrounded by her scent. ‘So comfortable~.’

Shortly after, Evelyn, Yasenia, and Andrea were called. Yasenia and Andrea entered different arenas and fought against a level seven cultivator. The level sevens didn’t even stand a chance before Andrea’s scorching attacks, and Yasenia’s overwhelming strength destroyed them completely.

Evelyn was lucky in her first battle and got paired against another level two cultivator. The senior gave the start sign.

Evelyn used [Thunder Light coat] and charged forward. She put the spear aiming at the sword cultivator, and blue electric currents surrounded her body, activating [Thunder charge]. Her speed soared.

The other cultivator only saw Evelyn become a blur, so he raised his sword defensively. BANG! he felt like he was run over and shot backward. Evelyn didn’t lose the chance and used [Light passing strike]. Her movements became erratic and passed the cultivator. Then, five continuous hits landed on him. He shot back like a ragdoll, and the senior spoke, “Evelyn wins!”

Evelyn was surprised, ‘I’m this strong? Cultivating with Yasenia is making us monsters... To think that before, I couldn’t fight comfortably against someone two levels above me... Sigh, I’m blessed.’

Evelyn returned to the stands and looked at Yasenia, who had just arrived. She walked toward her and jumped into Yasenia’s embrace. Yasenia, of course, caught her mischievous spark. “What’s wrong, dear?”

Evelyn sighed and said, breathing her scent. “Nothing, I just wanted to let you know that I love you.”

Yasenia smiled happily and hugged her tighter, kissing her forehead softly. Then she whispered lovingly, “I love you too, dear.”

The matches continued. Angel got bad luck on her fourth match and faced a half-step cultivator of the Heavenly Sect. Angel saw that the woman had a righteous character. She was curious about comforting a half-step, so instead of surrendering, she chose spar.

When the “battle” started, for Angel, the half-step practically teleported before her, and BANG! she was sent flying by a punch to her chest, protected by the arena’s formation. After smashing on the arena’s invisible border almost a whole kilometer away, Angel began to sweat cold, ‘Andrea managed to beat one of these!? How!?’

When she reached the stands, still stunned, a distressed Yasenia greeted her, “What were you thinking, baby? Are you okay? Are you hurt? Any after effects?”

Angel looked at Yasenia, then Andrea, and frowned, “I wanted to know what you fought against... I couldn’t even see what he did... I’m weak.”

Yasenia picked her up and gave her a peck, “Baby, if you are weak, then the rest of the cultivators will have to cry to sleep! You won against a level six, being only at the second level! That is very, very impressive.”

Then Yasenia said with a completely straight face, “You had to listen to the audience saying things like, ‘That ultra adorable cute and endearing girl has a great future!’ or ‘The super mega beautiful and cuddly little girl is very talented!’”

Angel looked at her and burst into laughter. Then she thought with fluffy feelings in her stomach. ‘Do you want to make it impossible to be depressed when we are at your side?’ Angel just hugged Yasenia with a sweet smile on her face and relaxed.

The rest looked on with smiles, thinking, ‘Does Yasenia have a filter in the world? Only half of those sentences were true.’

Meanwhile, Evelyn had it worse than Angel. She got a level nine on her second match, another level nine on her third match, and a half-step on her fifth. She could only surrender and lose those battles.

The five battles finally ended. After today’s five battles, their points were like this. Evelyn had 6 points, Angel 9, Cecile 12, Andrea 12, and Yasenia 15. Cecile wasn’t strong enough to fight a half-step cultivator yet because she didn’t even have time to assimilate her changes completely.

She tried to fight back when she faced one, but the spiritual sense was a big advantage against her arrows, making her have no choice but to surrender almost ten seconds into the battle.

Andrea lost, surprisingly, against a level five cultivator. That woman used a combination of Earth, Nature and Wood attributes, overwhelming Andrea with countless plants and interrupting her steps with roots and the like. A very similar fighting style compared to Kali.

The difference was that this person was also an archer and used non-sentient plants. The ranged attacks ended up wearing her down and making her lose.

However, Yasenia wasn’t convinced because she saw that girl say something to Andrea before the duel. Sadly, she wasn’t able to hear what she said.

When the battle ended, Yasenia locked her gaze on that girl. Then she imprinted her in her memory, memorizing every single detail about her, from her face to her aura and scent. She will ask Andrea later, but if she is blackmailing her darling... Just thinking about it made the red inside her irises start growing.

That girl felt a chill run up her spine and turned. ‘Andrea’s current girlfriend? W-Why is s-she looking at me like that!?’

Even with all the people between them, she could spot her pair of golden-red slit eyes locking on her and the hostility in them. The feeling was like an ancient beast locked onto her as prey, unsettling her greatly.

Yasenia averted her gaze, and her eyes returned to normal. Cecile felt Yasenia’s hostility and approached, whispering while looking at that girl, “What is wrong, Love? Why are you angry at that woman?”

Yasenia explained what she saw. Cecile smiled and tiptoed, making Yasenia lower her head a little to kiss her cheek, “Don’t worry, Love. We will also protect each other. If someone tries something funny with one of us, we won’t let it slide. Let’s ask Andrea later, okay?”

Yasenia nodded with a smile caressing her cheek. Feeling that Yasenia was happy again, Cecile was satisfied. ‘I will also have to remember that woman... Making my dragoness upset is not something I appreciate.’

It was already deep into the afternoon when today’s battles ended. They decided to go home, resting and not doing anything until tomorrow. On the way back, Cecile spoke, “Yasenia, do you remember what I told you before?”

Yasenia looked at Cecile while hugging a depressed Evelyn, “The thing you are keeping from me? Shoot, what is wrong?”

Cecile said, “I was thinking of speaking to you about Kali. I am sure that she is in love with you, and I wanted to know what you think about her.”

Chapter 97

After hearing the reason, Yasenia looked at Cecile and sighed. “This is why I want you girls to tell me what is going on when you are worried about something. Sweetheart, what have I told all of you? My wives are only the four of you and Tatyana. An exception will only fill that last spot, and Kali isn’t one at the moment. I like her, talking to her is entertaining, and our cooperation while fighting with her is superb... But it is just that, and there isn’t anything more.”

Yasenia tightened the hug on Evelyn and said, “I know she has a sad past; her scars in her heart run deeper than the ones in her flesh. But I don’t want to accept someone out of... Pity.”

Yasenia spoke with a small smile, “Next time, don’t keep for yourself these kinds of things... Cecile, do you know what will happen if I accept Kali lightly without deepening my bonds first?”

Cecile shook her head. Yasenia said with a sigh, “With time, I will accept Linda, Eve, Anna, Lucia, the pair of twins from the outer disciples... I will keep accepting girls because, ‘Well, it is only one more; she will be the last.’ That mentality will start to surface. Moreover, the more I accept, the easier it will be for me to accept one more.”

Yasenia released Evelyn from her hug and turned, walking a little ahead of them, “To tell you the truth, if it wasn’t because mom keeps me company at night, only the four of you aren’t enough to satisfy my lust...”

The others walked after her, but Yasenia’s steps got longer and began to open a distance between them, “However, you are enough to keep it under control. If I wanted to, I could have another four women in the level of Cecile and still have a harmonious harem. I would, without a doubt, be able to satisfy all of you.”

Yasenia’s steps kept getting longer as she talked, making the distance between them grow. “However, that wouldn’t be a relationship. Our bonds wouldn’t be as strong as they are right now. There would be many more people to split my attention to, my interactions with each of you would lessen, the favoritism would become more evident, and groups would start to form inside the harem....”

The others looked at how Yasenia was making the distance wider between them with her steps, and they subconsciously sped up theirs, trying to catch up. Yasenia heard their steps getting faster, and she turned with a gentle smile, waiting for them, “Aren’t we good right now? Even if I love all of you for different reasons... Do you feel neglected?”

Yasenia looked at Angel and said, “What If the new harem member is also cuddly like you, and I have to share my embrace or let her sleep on top of me from time to time?” Angel flinched a little and bit her lips. Her jealousy couldn’t help but grow thinking of that scenario.

Yasenia looked at Cecile. “What if the new harem member is another beast-human of high-level bloodline, and she marks me? Even if I have marked you, others can still mark me because, being human, you can’t.” Cecile frowned, and her heart felt very uncomfortable. It felt as if Yasenia would be sullied if another person marked her.

Yasenia looked at Evelyn and said, “What if the harem starts growing more and more. Aren’t you worried that your heart demon will resurface? I haven’t forgotten what you told me, and I will never forget, dear.” Evelyn looked down to hide the restlessness on her face. She has felt so secure in relationship terms with Yasenia that she forgot about her previous heart demons, ‘Will it be the same if the harem grows a lot?’

Yasenia looked at Andrea. “What if the harem member is someone that makes me feel safe between their arms, someone that can support me better than you, make me more submissive to them than I am to you? Make me feel... They are more reliable than you?” Andrea looked calm, but her fist clenched a little harder.

Yasenia saw their reactions and smiled gently. She stepped forwards and made Andrea hug her from behind. Andrea buried her face in her soft and silky hair and breath in her scent.

Then, she opened her arms, and Angel dived right in the middle, burying her face between her softness and smelling her sweet fragrance.

Cecile approached from the right and buried her face in her neck, enveloping her senses with her floral aroma.

Evelyn came from the left, letting Yasenia’s arms pass over her shoulders and putting her face in her soft side breast, feeling the softness and letting her scent relax her nerves.

Tatyana looked from the side with a smile, ‘I didn’t raise her badly, did I?’

Yasenia spoke gently, making her scent stronger. “Isn’t it fine like we are right now? What if there was another woman, another two? What about another three?”

Yasenia felt their arms tighten around her. She chuckled. “Let nature take its course, don’t force anything. If it needs to happen, then it will. If it were never meant to be, it will fade away within the rivers of time....”

Yasenia moved her tail to loop around Angel’s waist once and then went behind to pat Andrea. She used her hands to caress Evelyn’s and Cecile’s hair. “I told you at the beginning, I will tell you no matter how many times, even if I have to remind you daily. I want to be with a person more than for sexual satisfaction or superficial romantic feeling... I want to... Love a person, not appreciate a beautiful wallflower.

Yasenia smiled and said, “Sometimes we will have fights, you will get into disagreements with each other, and you may become sad for something the others did... However, remaining together through all of that is what will make it worth our efforts in our relationship today.”

Yasenia chuckled and finally said, “I want to be able to give you a love that, even when you speak with other people, you can brag about. No matter if you are in my harem, I want you girls to be able not to be embarrassed to say that you are part of one. However, if you truly don’t mind... I don’t mind adding Kali and trying to be together. As I said, I don’t dislike that girl, but she hasn’t become the exception yet.”

Yasenia felt the little head between her breasts shake. She also felt that Cecile and Evelyn were against the idea. Andrea said from behind in her clear and deep voice, “Yasenia, to be honest; I don’t mind. Someone like you knows what she is doing. I know that you won’t start a relationship with someone that might hurt our bonds. You always have us first in your mind when making decisions. If you feel that Kali can fit in... Then, I will trust your judgment.”

The others struggled after listening to Andrea’s words but nodded. Yasenia smiled and said with a chuckle, “Then, let nature take its course. I wasn’t planning to add anybody anyways. If I feel that I’m falling in love with Kali in the future, I will speak again. In the meantime, let’s stay like we are right now.”

Yasenia said the next seriously, “I want clarity and honesty, not only about how you feel about Kali but with anyone that may be close to filling that fifth stop. If you are against the idea, I want you to tell me. Even if it makes you feel only a very little discomfort, tell me. Remember that the four of you are the most important. I won’t let anybody, not even myself, hurt any of you.”

Yasenia separated from the hug and looked at them with a serious face. Seeing their rising smiles, she also smiled.

Tatyana appeared at this moment. “As expected from my daughter~ She knows what she wants and knows how to keep it close~.”

Yasenia chuckled and asked jokingly, “Was the show of these youngsters entertaining, mom?”

Tatyana nodded. “Entertaining! Especially little Angel making your breasts jiggle while shaking her head between them! For me, that was the best part.”

Angel turned red, and the rest started to laugh.

Tatyana said, “Evelyn, today you had bad luck, but luck is also an important skill to have. Don’t become depressed because of this and continue. If you manage to score 15 points, the chance to pass will be high.”

Evelyn said with a smirk, “I will score 24 points! I can feel that I can make my energy coat better tonight!”

Tatyana nodded and continued, “Angel, your one vs. one is still your weakest point. I will tell you better strategies you could have used in your battles today. The most serious mistake is that you fight as if you have teammates that can protect you while setting up the formations. You have to create smaller-scale formations, a single-use attack formation, or one that makes a small barrier in front of you, maybe one that could confuse the enemy... There are a lot of options.”

Angel nodded, a little embarrassed. Yasenia wouldn't let her baby be crestfallen, so she picked her up and started giving her tap kisses, making Angel giggle.

Tatyana shook her head while smiling and turned towards Cecile. "You are still adapting to your changes, do not try to create anything new and fancy. Reinforce your current skills, use your new bloodline and attribute power to strengthen them. You will be able to have a chance against an average level nine if you do that. I recommend you change your skill, [Ice Arrow] to the moon attribute." Cecile nodded.

Tatyana looked at Andrea and said, "You could've won that match you lost easily. I don't know why you doubted to directly charge at her with full strength after knowing about her attributes. Your [Chromosphere] and [Prominence] alone could have done the trick. Did you give up on purpose?"

Yasenia's attention changed from her baby to her darling. Andrea scratched her head and smiled a little awkwardly. "That girl was someone I promised a favor once, and she used it to make me surrender if we encounter now in the tournament or if we fight for something in the secret realm. It is a heavenly oath; I couldn't do anything."

Yasenia frowned, and her aura leaked a little, but she reigned it in fast, thinking, 'This can be very dangerous, especially inside the secret realm where a single misstep can kill you... If that girl dies, this oath wouldn't matter, right?'

Tatyana, Cecil, and Angel took notice of Yasenia's killing intent leaking a little. Angel caught on to it because Yasenia was carrying her. They looked at her, and Yasenia shook her head.

Andrea felt something strange and said, "It doesn't matter; I just have to be lucky enough never to meet her in the main tournament again, hahaha."

Yasenia approached her and smiled. "En, it doesn't matter. The rest of your matches were beautifully fought~ I love seeing you fight a lot, darling!"

Andrea chuckled and patted Yasenia and Angel. Angel smiled at Andrea with a face that said, 'Everything Yasenia says is always correct!'

Andrea could practically see the words plastered on her face and laughed.

The rest of the day passed fast and night arrived. Today Yasenia wanted to give a little surprise to three of her girls. She started her night rounds with Cecile.

Their compatibility soared thanks to the bloodline upgrade, and Yasenia was very eager to taste Cecile again since yesterday. Yasenia had already disrobed when she entered Cecile's room.

Chapter 98

After hearing some knocks, Cecile saw the sexy dragoness walk inside, naked. Her seductive hips sashayed with her steps, showing her jiggling breasts and rock-hard penis to her.

Cecile swallowed and thought, 'Isn't it bigger than normal?'

While Yasenia approached with a seductive smile and Cecile hastily disrobed. She was impatient to have Yasenia deep inside her.

Yasenia reached beside the naked Cecile and lowered her face, kissing Cecile without saying anything. Her hand went down and caressed her labia and soft blue pubic hair. Her finger pressed on the soft flesh and played with it while kissing Cecile. Then, she released her scent at full strength.

Cecile felt her powerful sweet scent assaulting all her senses, making her body tingly, and wetting her core at record speeds. She moaned as she placed her arms around Yasenia's neck and pulled her down onto the bed, opening her legs.

Yasenia fell between Cecile's legs and on top of her. Her rubbing on Cecile sped up until she felt that Cecile was practically gushing out fluids. She separated from the kiss and took back her hand, looking directly at Cecile's eyes. Cecile saw Yasenia placing her hand in her mouth and savoring it while moaning, arousing her.

Yasenia's eyes started becoming golden pink, making Cecile's uterus squeeze with delight, knowing what was coming. Yasenia opened Cecile's legs and pierced her in one thrust, reaching her cervix.

PAH!

“Aah!!” Cecile's waist jumped.

Yasenia then began pistoning fast and hard, hitting against that last entrance repeatedly. It was clear she wanted to open it forcefully. The pleasure Cecile's vagina gave after her transformation made Yasenia moan while thrusting inside. “Ah! Ah! Ah! Cecile~, Ohh!”

*Pah! *Pah! Pah!

Cecile felt the head of her hard penis rubbing every fold inside, making pleasure waves course through her body. Her legs and arms went around her domineering mate while receiving the dragoness.

Yasenia changed their position from the missionary to the mating press position. Using her height advantage she buried her face in her breasts and slammed her waist downwards.

PAH PAH PAH

Cecile started moaning in delight. Yasenia felt that the last entrance was going to open in short and aimed her tail.

“AH! AH! AH! Yasenia!! Ohh! You are AH! Going to enter-” And Yasenia entered not only her uterus but her buttole with two powerful thrusts! “-OHHHHHH!!!” Cecile squirted directly, feeling the surprise invasion of the tail and her cervix widely opening.

Yasenia felt the powerful contractions and let herself be carried to orgasm, “I'm cumming!”

Yasenia came and filled both her holes with her semen. While having a powerful orgasm, Cecile felt Yasenia's enhanced Yang energy invading her, and her pleasure senses went astray. Her face distorted in pleasure, and intelligible moans escaped her mouth while she started to scratch Yasenia's back and bit the breasts surrounding her head.

Her vagina squirted powerfully, splashing both of them with her fluids.

Yasenia stayed inserted, filling her to the brim.

Yasenia lowered her face to her ear and whispered huskily, “Let’s see how much you can last today, sweetheart~.”

Then without letting her rest anymore, she moved her waist and tail back and slammed her onto the bed.

BAM! BAM! BAM!

Yasenia continued this crazy mating with Cecile making her forget even about her name and only feel both ravaging members trying to breed her again and again without stopping.

After some time, Yasenia had scratch marks all over her back and teeth marks over her breast. However, the pink-eyed dragoness hadn’t stopped even for a moment. Right now, she had Cecile face down on the bed and pounding her from above, smashing her waist against her butt, and biting Cecile’s nape while surrounding her with her body.

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Cecile’s legs bent up each time Yasenia smashed her waist on her butt, and her butt was gaining a red color.

“AH! AH! AH!”

Twenty-five minutes later, Yasenia was pounding her from behind while holding the waist of her pleasure-filled mate

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Cecile’s moans were intelligible blabbers. Therefore, Yasenia decided to end their session with one last fertile load directly in her womb. “Take this load, sweetheart~! OHH!!”

The powerful stimulation made Cecile convulse and almost surrender to the dragoness’s seed.

Yasenia knew that one more load and Cecile would succumb; therefore, she stopped while mentally chanting, ‘It’s not time yet, not time yet, not time yet....’

She looked at Cecile and saw her convulse, which made semen spurt from her vagina and her penis twitched. ‘It’s not, it’s not, it’s not..’

She took a deep breath and carried her to the bath. She kissed her and used her tail to lower the overflowing energy causing pleasure waves inside her meridians.

While they bathed together, Cecile regained most of her senses and chuckled while leaning on Yasenia. She spoke hoarsely, “One more time, and you would have bred me.”

Yasenia entered the water and kissed her. Cecile returned the kiss a little tiredly but happy. Yasenia opened her legs, asking, “Can you resist? Because I really can’t stop filling your womb. Your insides feel too good, sweetheart.”

Cecile nodded with a tender smile. “As much as you want, Yasenia... I love you.”

Yasenia slowly penetrated her while they were in the bath. She only used her penis, moving slowly and tenderly while kissing Cecile with passion. “Cecile, I love you, I love you.”

Shortly after the start of their loving session, Yasenia came, filling her one last time. Yasenia hugged the trembling woman strongly while cumming and kissed her tenderly. After the orgasm, Cecile spoke with a whisper, "Goodnight... My love..." She then fell asleep because of tiredness.

Yasenia looked down at the sleeping visage and smiled, gently kissing her cheek. "I love you, sweetheart."

Yasenia then cleaned her slowly with a constant smile on her lips. She washed her hair, then her arms. Yasenia cleaned each of her fingers and moved to her body. Without waking up Cecile, her hands slowly and meticulously washed her privates and went down her legs. She reached her toes and cleaned them one by one, supporting Cecile with her tail so that she didn't fall into the water.

After that, Yasenia dried Cecile's body and put on her pajamas. Then she carried her to the bed and tucked her into the bed, giving her one last kiss on the forehead, "Goodnight, sweetheart."

Yasenia passed through Evelyn next without bothering to put on her clothes. She entered Evelyn's room and looked at the lean girl lying on the bed with just her nightgown. Evelyn looked at Yasenia's naked figure and couldn't help but marvel. 'She is just too beautiful.'

Yasenia chuckled and said, half turning and lifting her tail to show her plump buttocks, "Dear, today is a little special. Do you want to come with me~?"

Then she walked away, sashaying her hips. Evelyn, hypnotized by her, followed after.

Yasenia reached Angel's room and entered with Evelyn behind her, still looking at her rear. Angel chuckled and asked, "Will we do it together?"

Yasenia shook her head and reached Angel's side. Angel opened her arms, knowing that Yasenia wanted to lift her. Yasenia picked her by the butt and carried her with one arm and the help of her tail. Angel didn't mind her nakedness and hugged Yasenia, kissing her on the cheek.

Yasenia looked at Evelyn, who was looking at their squishing breasts, and smiled, "Let's go for the last participant, dear."

Evelyn nodded, and Yasenia hugged her over her shoulders and started walking towards the other room with her two little girls.

Andrea was in her room reading a book that Cecile recommended to her. Then she heard a knock on the door and opened it. What greeted her was a naked dragoness hoarding two girls and looking at her seductively, "Darling, do you have space for three more~."

Andrea lifted her eyebrow and nodded, letting them pass. Yasenia went toward the bed, sat, and put Angel on her lap with her already erected penis between her thighs. Angel looked down at the penis crossing her thighs and swallowed. Yasenia spoke on her ear, licking her earlobe. "Caress my head, baby. Start working for your favorite milk~."

Angel blushed, and with trembling hands, she started massaging the head and smearing the precum around its head. The other two looked at that show and swallowed. Yasenia helped Angel undress the one-piece nightgown she had while speaking. "Tonight, mmm~, We four will have fun together~."

They were a little surprised because she said, "Together."

Yasenia ordered Andrea and Evelyn, “Undress.”

Both obeyed. It was not the first time they had seen each other anyway. Yasenia sighed in comfort thanks to Angel’s handjob and said, “Good job, baby, now is time to get rewarded~.”

Yasenia took out two 25cm dildos and passed them to Angel and Evelyn. Both looked at them doubtful but wore them anyway.

Yasenia pointed at herself and said seductively, “I have three holes, and you have three weapons~ How about you use them?”

All three of them swallowed hard this time. They looked at each other and nodded.

Andrea lay on the bed, and Yasenia crawled towards her erect member and penetrated herself. Andrea grunted in pleasure and grabbed her waist, thrusting up. Yasenia moaned and said while meeting her waist with Andrea’s. “One less hole, Ah! Mmm! Where will my dear and baby go~?”

Pah. Pah. Pah.

Angel walked above the bed, reaching above Andrea’s head, and aimed at Yasenia’s mouth. Then, she placed her little feet at the sides of Andrea’s head and showed her dripping vagina to Andrea. Seeing Yasenia’s bouncing breasts and Angel’s dripping flower, Andrea became excited and pounded the dragoness stronger.

Yasenia opened her mouth wide, and Angel grabbed it with her hands, penetrating her throat. Yasenia easily took the length and moved her head, stimulating Angel. “Oh... Yasenia~.”

Yasenia continued to bounce, arched her back, and moved her tail to the side, letting Evelyn see the pink entrance perfectly.

Evelyn went behind Yasenia, and Yasenia stopped her waist movements to make the penetration easier. She invaded her buttock and grabbed Yasenia’s waist on top of Andrea’s hands. Then she slapped her waist on the bouncy buttocks.

Pah! Pah! Pah! Pah!

The three of them moved their waist, reaching the deepest they could inside the dragoness.

The sounds of Yasenia’s slurping and the slapping of flesh onto flesh were heard in the room, together with Angel’s, Andrea’s, and Evelyn’s moans.

Yasenia’s eyes rolled up as her dears messed up her insides, sending pleasure electric currents to her brain. Her saliva was dripping from her ravaged mouth onto her big bouncing breasts, and her vagina was leaking juices making Andrea go crazy with stimulation. Yasenia used her holes, sucking, tightening, and wriggling her insides.

Meanwhile, Angel, Evelyn, and Andrea were going crazy with visual stimulation. Seeing Yasenia so sensual while they ravaged her in this manner awakened a sadistic feeling, making them move their waist stronger. Angel even grabbed her head and inserted herself to the hilt, going down her throat and bulging it. This made Yasenia directly cum and moan throatily.

Her tail, vagina, and dick sprayed while pleasure waves coursed her body. The other three moaned, feeling the dragoness trying to milk them, but they resisted and didn’t cum. Yasenia, however, wanted their discharge. Therefore, while orgasming, her insides tightened and spasmed, making Evelyn and Andrea reach orgasm.

Yasenia started vacuuming and making all her throat muscles convulse, making Angel feel hot waves of pleasure and roll her eyes upwards in pleasure, reaching orgasm.

Yasenia felt them filling all her holes, and something snapped, making her eyes completely pink.

While they cummed, Yasenia started throat-fucking herself, making Angel lean forward with pleasure. Then, Yasenia opened her cervix and let Andrea in with one downward push, which prolonged Andrea's orgasm, shooting more semen inside the dragoness. Finally she made her rectum tighten and spasm, sucking Evelyn deeper. Evelyn leaned on her back with trembling legs because of the stimulation.

“Aaahhhn~”

“Oohhh!!!”

“Aahhh!!!”

Chapter 99

Yasenia let the three rods inside her free when she felt their orgasms subside. Angel fell backward with her legs weakened, hitting Andrea with her dildo, causing Andrea to laugh and Angel to blush. Evelyn fell backward on the bed, breathing a little heavily. Yasenia licked her lips and said, “Thanks for the meal, my loves~. Now~.”

Yasenia picked Evelyn with her tail and laid her between Andrea's legs, penetrating herself with Evelyn's member. Then, she leaned forward, taking Andrea's dick in her mouth and surrounding Evelyn's head with her breasts. Next, she picked Angel with her tail and placed her behind her. Angel didn't wait and penetrated her back hole.

They didn't lose a moment and began moving while hugging the dragoness's head, torso, or waist. They continued pounding the dragoness another two rounds until they used all her holes at least once.

After the last round, Yasenia took off Evelyn's and Angel's dildos. Then, she lay Angel on the bed and placed Evelyn on top of her, pressing their cores together. Angel and Evelyn felt an eclectic zap to their brains, feeling each other vagina pressing together.

Angel and Evelyn were a little out, so they hugged each other. Yasenia covered Evelyn from above and penetrated her flower with her dick and Angel's with her tail, widening their labia and making their clit rub together.

“Ahh!!”

“Ahn~!”

Yasenia leaned forward and pressed her big breasts on Evelyn's back and leaving her dripping flower for Andrea to see. Andrea went behind Yasenia, and seizing her waist, she pierced her strongly. “Aahn~ Darling is so vigorous tonight!”

PAH! PAH! PAH!

Each time Yasenia pounded Evelyn, it made their clitoris rub, sending those delightful pleasure waves through their body.

Squished between their two pairs of big breasts, Evelyn thought she was in heaven.

Angel and Evelyn continued moaning and hugging each other, feeling Yasenia ravaging their insides. After one minute, their eyes rolled up and squirted, which splashed their fluids together. Yasenia felt Evelyn's and Angel's contractions, and without stopping her waist, she whispered with a deep and sensual voice, "You already cummed? Such naughty girls~. Feeling each other core is turning you both so much? Hyan!"

Yasenia had her butt pierced by Andrea's fingers, and her clitoris pinched.

While stimulating her, Andrea said from behind with a smirk, "Less talk, dragoness!"

Yasenia entered a moaning spree, "Ah! Ah! Ah! Darling, you are doing me so good!"

Yasenia and Andrea sped up their hips, stimulating Evelyn and Angel with their crazy mating. Yasenia was pounding them into oblivion.

PAH! PAH! PAH! PAH!

Yasenia licked their ear, and every time Andrea pounded her, she released a sensual moan, making Evelyn's and Angel's senses tingle with delight, "Since you like our breasts so much..."

While pistoning into them, Yasenia took Angel's waist and moved her up until Evelyn had her face between Angel's breasts. Then, Yasenia used her height to cover the back of Evelyn's head and sandwiched her head between four mountains.

Yasenia kissed Angel while receiving Andrea's pounding and penetrating Angel and Evelyn.

The four of them reached another orgasm. Yasenia's semen invaded their uterus and sent Angel and Evelyn straight on a journey to the heavens.

"AAHHH!!!"

"AAHHHH!!!"

With those high-pitched moans, Yasenia knew they would be out of combat for a while. Therefore, after she finished filling them up, she turned toward Andrea.

Yasenia led her down off the bed, and while both of them were standing, she used her hand to aim at Andrea's flower and penetrated her. Andrea put her arms over Yasenia's shoulders and lowered her face, kissing her.

Yasenia moved her waist and said, looking at Andrea's light green eyes with her pink ones. "Darling ~ let's squash that pesky heart demon tonight, okay?"

Andrea's insides tightened, and she pressed her body on Yasenia's, "Yasenia, you don't need to..."

PAH!

"...OH!"

Yasenia just made an upward thrust, strongly pushing against Andrea's cervix. Then, she put her forehead on Andrea's and spoke gently, "Darling, look at us. Do you even have to be frightened? I know that your previous experiences were hurtful, but now you are with me. Lift me, darling."

Yasenia hugged Andrea closer and unplugged herself. Then, with the help of Andrea, who lifted her by the butt, she buried Andrea's member inside her.

Yasenia surrounded Andrea's waist with her legs, and her arms went around her neck. She looked at Andrea, pressing their forehead together. "No matter what others think about you, don't you have me who looves~ That part of you. Where is your marvelous weapon now, hmm~?"

Andrea chuckled and said, "Inside the most pleasurable place in the world."

Yasenia laughed, and her tail wagged happily. "I'm happy my darling likes me so much~ What do you say? Let's give it a try; if they don't like it, then good for me~. If they don't dislike it... I will reluctantly share with them."

Andrea smiled tenderly, moved Yasenia to a nearby wall, and pressed her on it. Then while kissing Yasenia, she moved her wrist in circular motions. Andrea finally said, "You are right, my love. What do I have to fear with you by my side? Let's try."

Yasenia said, "Good~ But, before going with them, I want to get filled by you one more time and fill you once since I still haven't painted my darling's insides white."

Andrea accelerated her waist, pounding Yasenia onto the wall. "Then, mmm~ I will have to cum fast, Oh! Yasenia, it feels so good."

^Pah!* Pah! Pah!

Andrea continued pistoning for some minutes and cummed, filling Yasenia again. Yasenia moaned but held in her own orgasm. After feeling that Andrea's warm cum stopped filling her, she whispered, "My turn now~."

Yasenia unplugged, stood on the ground, and reversed their positions, slamming the taller woman against the wall. She then penetrated her and began thrusting.

Yasenia used her tail and penetrated her butthole. She lifted one of Andrea's legs and buried her head in Andrea's firm breasts, relishing in her darling's strong scent. Then, she bit her nipples while moving her waist and tail.

Andrea entered inside a world of stimulation and moaned loudly. She loved this aggressive Yasenia. However, Yasenia wasn't done yet. She lifted the big girl off her feet, and Yasenia grabbed her by her firm and toned butt. Then, she pounded upwards and lowered Andrea at the same time.

PAH

Andrea released a throaty moan, "OHHH!!" Yasenia lifted her again until only the tip was inside and lowered her again, entering Andrea's most sensitive spot. Andrea felt her cervix being forcefully widened and invaded by the usual visitor. 'Oh my heavens, it feels so good when she enters there!'

Yasenia did the same movement, lifting Andrea, and existing the cervix, then lowering strongly and piercing again inside. She then picked up speed until Andrea could only moan in delight.

Yasenia felt the two gazes on them, so she sped up even more. The stimulation of the cervix massaging her hardness was enough for her to cum shortly after inside.

Andrea squirted, and her dick sent rope after rope of semen because of the mind-blowing orgasm.

Yasenia stayed hilted and lifted her head to lick the drool falling from Andrea's chin until she reached her mouth and entered it, kissing her deeply.

After Andrea came back, Yasenia put her down and asked her in a coquettish voice, "Darling~ How many shots do you have?"

Andrea hugged Yasenia and whispered in her deep and sensual voice, "Two more. I'm getting tired dear."

Yasenia nodded and whispered something to Andrea. Andrea looked at Yasenia and smiled. However, she asked again, "Are you sure?"

Yasenia smiled tenderly and took her hand, guiding her towards the other two.

When Yasenia reached their side, she hugged Andrea and asked seductively, "Who of my two little girls wants to be squished between us? I even prepared breastmilk~"

Angel nodded eagerly and said with a red face, "T-To be honest, I-I've wanted to d-do this for a long time...."

Yasenia looked at Evelyn and said, "Do you want to go after my baby, dear?"

Evelyn nodded while fiddling with her hands and looked at Yasenia with a peculiar gaze. Yasenia understood her gaze and said, "Don't worry, dear, you will like it a lot... Similar to what we did with Mom, but more loving."

Yasenia's sharp gaze saw a little gush of liquid spurt from her flower, "As expected... You are so naughty, dear." Evelyn lowered her reddening face.

Yasenia approached Angel and picked her up. She looked at her and cooed gently, "My baby, how about you tell me what position you want~."

Angel blushed at her tone and said softly, "I w-want mommy Yasenia to b-b-breastfed me...."

Yasenia lowered her head and gave her a rewarding kiss. Then, she cradled her and put her nipple in Angel's mouth. Angel hugged her waist and started sucking. The warm and delicious milk spread in her mouth, 'So yummy~.'

Andrea approached from the side, took Angel's waist, and put her tip on Angel's entrance. She looked at her and saw that she was sucking more strongly, seemingly excited. While caressing Angel's head, Yasenia looked at Andrea and nodded gently.

Andrea penetrated Angel and pushed slowly, feeling her warm and tight insides. When she hilted herself, she stopped. However, she saw Angel move her waist and start moving on her member. Andrea smiled and picked up her pace.

Angel thought, 'Different from Yasenia, the pleasure Andrea gives is... Less overwhelming. It's not bad....'

Then, she heard Yasenia's mellow and slightly deep voice, "How is it, baby? Does my baby like it~."

Angel looked up to Yasenia while sucking her nipple and nodded shyly. Angel saw Yasenia's smile become gentler, and suddenly she felt another hard thing poking her back hole. Angel's eyes shined in anticipation, and she met Andrea's thrust faster. Yasenia penetrated her free hole and dug deep with her tail, "That is your reward, baby~."

Angel squirted shortly after. Andrea grunted in pleasure, feeling Angel's inner spasms.

Yasenia looked at Evelyn and beckoned her to come, "Come here, dear. I don't want to leave you out so long."

Yasenia used her free hand to lift her free breasts signaling what to do to her. Evelyn bashfully went to her other breast and started sucking. 'Delicious~ I feel tingly drinking it~.'

Yasenia used her free hand and fingered Evelyn. "Sigh, Good girl~. Your reward is my fingers~."

After a while, Yasenia felt Angel cum twice and also saw that Andrea was nearing orgasm. Andrea reached her orgasm and took out her member, cumming all over Angel's belly. Yasenia didn't stop her tail or hands from stimulating Angel and Evelyn, allowing them to reach their orgasms.

"Darling, come to kiss me while these two come back."

Andrea looked at the now gentle dragoness and couldn't help but go forwards and kiss her with care and love, "Thank you, Yasenia. I know why you did this. Don't worry; I won't disappoint you."

Andrea closer her eyes a moment, took a deep breath, and...Bang! She had a spiritual breakthrough, just like that! That little insecurity was finally squashed away by the dragoness.

With this, all five of them had it before the Unification realm. Yasenia laughed happily and said with a proud smile, "As expected~ my darling is outstanding~!"

Andrea smiled tenderly seeing her happiness. Their dragoness is always like this; she is happier when they become stronger than when her own strength increases. If they are Yasenia's treasures, Yasenia, without a doubt, is their most important treasure.

Their foursome continued until they were completely tired. Yasenia took them one by one to the bath and cleaned them. After she put them to sleep, she went to Tatyana.

Today they had slow, nice, and loving sex. After Yasenia told her about Andrea, Tatyana praised and spoiled her daughter, making Yasenia become a puddle in her mother's arms, growling in comfort until she was emptied.

After they finished, Tatyana took Yasenia to the bath. Even if she could do it with a snap of her fingers, she liked bathing the spoiled Yasenia. Yasenia would cling to her and lick her cheeks while growling. Tatyana found her endearing, and the action of bathing Yasenia was becoming a great joy she looked forward to daily, be it as her mother or her lover.

After the bath, Tatyana took Yasenia to bed and positioned Angel on top of Yasenia. Then she hugged her side and looked at her sleeping profile, 'I will miss her when she goes inside the realm... It will open six months later and will last for three months....'

Chapter 100

The night passed, and the morning came. Yasenia gave each of them a morning kiss, and they woke up. She carried Angel and went to the washroom. The others also prepared and wore their energy-gathering robes.

After the morning cultivation session, breakfast, and some light talk, they changed into the cultivation robes and went to the arena. They reached quite early. Yasenia looked around and saw fewer people than yesterday. It seems that there were a lot of deaths yesterday...

Tatyana went to the side to speak with some sect masters about the security of the formation; it seemed that some sects had many deaths yesterday.

When Tatyana separated, a group of cultivators approached. They had the murderous aura that demonic cultivators normally carried. The woman at the helm was pale-skinned and had gnawed cheeks with white hair and completely black eyes. "I'm Long Tian Xue, of the graveyard sect. I heard that you killed my little brother."

The people around stopped and looked at them. Yasenia looked at her and nodded, "That's right. Since he tried to make me agree to something forcefully, I took matters into my hands when I saw he wasn't giving up... Well, killing him was a matter of course."

The girl sneered and said, "Then killing a whore such as you should also be a matter of course! I will be your first opponent today; you better choose death battle so that I can make you my undead!"

Yasenia raised her eyebrow at the one-and-a-half-head shorter woman and said, smirking. "Now that you asked me, your battle will be the only one I will not choose death battle. Congratulations, you played yourself."

Andrea and the rest directly laughed. Evelyn sniggered, "It seems that the Long family won't lose one more junior thanks to their stupidity; truly lucky~."

Long Tian Xue was about to lash out when a handsome man with silver hair entered the conversation. He looked at Yasenia and spoke with a reprimanding tone, "You shouldn't make trouble, junior. The graveyard sect has some deals with our academy, and being in a bad relationship can hurt the academy. How about Yasenia apologizes, pays compensation, and we resolve it silently."

Yasenia didn't dismiss him and played with the man, answering, "Apologize? Are you trying to imply that I'm in the wrong? Better yet, did you just say that it will be a loss for our academy? Hahaha, wouldn't it be the other way around?"

Yasenia smirked and said, "Our academy is allied with many sects with similar or superior strength to the second-rate graveyard sect. Moreover, do you really think that the sect will cut ties with one of the strongest powers of our continent for an argument between juniors? I don't know if you are delusional or simply stupid to make that asinine statement."

While speaking, Yasenia looked at his face closely and suddenly asked, "How are you related to Lucia?"

The man who was about to respond to Yasenia had his gentle smile twitch imperceptibly when he heard her last question. However, Yasenia's sharp dragon eyes caught it. The man answered, "I'm not closely related. I know about her because our hair color is the same, which is rare. Moreover, she is quite a lovely girl. "

Yasenia discreetly focused on his reaction. She raised an eyebrow and taunted, “Then it is good; I warned her to not play little tricks anymore in the future and tell me straight if she wanted something. Even if I like her, I won’t be able to forgive her a second time if she does something stupid.”

Her senses caught a slight leak of killing intent, and her smile became more provocative. “However, I made her moan for one afternoon; her voice is truly beautiful. What I liked the most was her squishy butt; sinking my hands in them until she squirted was quite a delight. I hope she comes for another session~.”

After saying this, Angel and the rest caught on to her strange choice of words and knew something was up. Yasenia wasn’t someone that provoked without reason, especially in this blatant way.

The man’s smile disappeared, and he looked flatly at Yasenia. “Do not refuse a toast to be forced to drink a forfeit, Yasenia. I’ve been watching you, and you aren’t a match against half-step cultivators. Apologize before something bigger than you can handle happens.”

Yasenia laughed aloud and said, “Finally, you show your real face, pretty boy. Do you think I’m afraid? Worst case scenario, I surrender. Moreover, do you really think the Long family can make a splash in our Academy’s foundation? A single elder is enough to raze them to the ground, not to mention our headmistress.”

Without letting him speak, Yasenia asked what was bothering her all this time, “What is your problem anyway? You are also from the academy, and here you are, supporting a ghost girl. I hope you didn’t stick it in her; she doesn’t seem-”

Long Tian Xue interrupted, completely provoked, “Here speaks the disgusting snake girl! It seems that your heart resembles your animal ancestry! I’m getting tired of this absurdity. You don’t even have the guts to fight to the death, and now you are looking down on me!? Don’t regret it if your little lovers die mysteriously someday!”

Yasenia’s killing intent exploded, locking onto Long Tian Xue and her group. Then she spoke with a deep growl, “I didn’t want you to die because I didn’t want to give our headmistress more work dealing with your pathetic sect and family. However, congratulations, you pissed me off. Relish in your few hours of life before I turn you into one of the corpses that you like so much.”

Yasenia turned and left without listening to the rest.

Meanwhile, Long Tian Xue’s group was sweating cold. ‘W-What was that amount of killing intent!?’

Long Tian Xue herself wasn’t affected because she is a death attributed master, but her guard went up a few notches.

After they walked some distance, Angel asked worriedly, grabbing her hand, “You normally wouldn’t react to those provocations. Why did you fall for it? I bet she has something up her sleeves!”

It was Andrea who answered with a smile, “Justification, Yasenia had the intention to kill her from the very beginning. However, if she accepted straight away, it would be obvious. Now, when Yasenia wins, the people will probably think, ‘Serves her right.’ Truly stupid on their part. I bet the guy wanted to turn Yasenia into the “Bad guy.” Yasenia and that boy were having a silent battle until the Long girl threw his plans out of the window, lashing out like that.”

Yasenia went to Andrea’s side and kissed her. “My darling knows me so well~ I’m delighted, hahaha.”

Yasenia plastered herself on Andrea and continued walking. Yasenia explained a little about what she had learned about the Long family. “The Long and Tang families are closely related. They are descendants of powerful demonic cultivators. However, the time has worn down their family’s strength, and right now, they are nothing but a shadow of their previous glory.”

Yasenia continued, “That ancestry is what is making me worried, they should have something left from their ancestors, and I don’t want to put mom in unnecessary danger. You realized how many people stopped to listen, right? I said all of that for them to listen. I want to have the support of the people in this fight.”

Yasenia scratched her cheek and said, “I’m sure that I could have done it better, but I’m still a little inexperienced in this kind of back and forth.”

They reached their seats, and Yasenia sat on Andrea’s lap. Angel said with starry eyes, “No matter what they have, I bet Mommy Tatyana can beat them all alone!”

This made all of them laugh, and Tatyana, who was approaching, asked, “Who can I beat, little Angel? Tell Mommy Tatyana~.”

Angel blushed and climbed onto Yasenia’s lap, making a three-person tower. Then, she buried her face in Yasenia’s breasts because of embarrassment, hiding like an ostrich. Yasenia caressed Angel’s head while chuckling, and Andrea hugged them both with a smile.

Yasenia looked at Tatyana and explained the situation. Tatyana laughed coldly and said, “Kill her without caring, little treasure. Leave the old things to me. You just have to think about what is before you until you are stronger; I will take care of the rest.”

Yasenia shook her head. She looked into Tatyana’s eyes and said firmly, “Even if I’m weak, I want to help you whenever I can. Mom, I will become your strongest ally. This is my main drive to become stronger. And these little steps are my commitment.”

Tatyana smiled gently and nodded, kissing her cheek. Yasenia felt the jade vibrate and saw that her opponent indeed was Long Tian Xue. She put Angel down, kissed her forehead, and looked back to kiss Andrea. Then, she walked towards the arena with her sashaying hips.

When she stepped onto the arena, Yasenia took the initiative and spoke loudly, putting energy in her voice. “Long Tian Xue, your Long family, and the Tang family have been aiming for me again and again since I entered this city. I have already killed the main culprit, so I didn’t want to fight you to death, yet you provoked me again and again. You even dared to threaten my loved ones. Don’t blame me for being ruthless. I choose death match!”

Long Tian Xue sneered, “Should I stay silent and let the murderer of my little brother free? Is your brain as small as a lizard’s? I didn’t know that the Academy disciples were this arrogant!”

Some murmurs started sounding; they seemed to agree with Long Tian Xue. Some even said loudly, “The Academy has been getting more arrogant lately.”

Another answered, “True, we should take them down a peg and make them remember that the rest of us are also people.”

Yasenia laughed, making all the people look at her. She shook her head and said with a smile, “You perfectly know that your little brother wanted to force himself on me, and now you are instigating the people with lies? Are you demeaning their intelligence? Countless witnesses saw our altercation and can tell you that I warned not only him, but his guards not to make a move.”

Yasenia sneered, “However, it seems that you had spoiled your little brother so badly that his brain functions had lowered to his lower head. Your little brother has raped countless women, and only you are entitled to be angry? What about those girls’ families? Did you even reprimand your lovely little brother? The Long family has truly fallen from grace!”

The murmurs became louder, and many people started cursing at Long Tian Xue. “Trying to buy our compassion for such thrash? You are dreaming, Long girl!”

One middle-aged woman shouted, “Your family has finally kicked iron! My daughter, the revenge for your miserable end will soon be realized!”

Hearing the shouts around, Long Tian Xue wanted to speak more, but Yasenia didn’t let her. She took out her giant sword and pointed it at Long Tian Xue, “Enough nonsense! Take out your weapon; today, we battle to the death! Even if I’m just at the first level of the Mental Nourishing realm, I won’t let filth like you roam around!”

The people around were surprised. “She is only at the first level!?”

Another spectator said, doubtful, “Isn’t Long Tian Xue at the half-step?”

One elder shook his head, “Even if her heart is in the right place, her strength is lacking, aish... To think that such a good seedling will be lost....”

Long Tian Xue also realized this, “That’s right! Even if she can win with words, her strength is pathetic. No matter what she says, everything will turn around if she dies!”

Long Tian Xue took out a bone white orchestra flute with some black engravings. It was a high-level heaven-ranked treasure!

Yasenia looked at the sky and saw that the sunrise had already passed, and Noon was still distant. She thought, ‘She is a necromancer. The arena is also big, and she is more than 1km away from me. I also won’t have any special effects... It seems that this fight will be against a small army. I will have to be careful about her sound attacks if she has any while fighting her minions....’

The supervisor raised his hand, and all the spectators nearby focused on that arena. “Begin!”

Yasenia didn’t plan to hold back anymore. She directly used [Celestial coat], [Starry Sky], and [Lingering star step] at full strength. Then she stomped the ground and sped up towards Long Tian Xue, sinking the floor under her!
