

Chapter 1041: Unable To Concede

Of course, someone would make arrangements according to the preferences of Dr. Wang's girlfriend.

From what he said, his girlfriend was in Di Xing?

Su Bei did not know about these things. Seeing that the doctor's name tag said Wang Juntang, an attending doctor, she smiled and said, "Doctor Wang, how's the child's condition?"

Wang Juntang was about to speak when a nurse ran in with an anxious expression. "Doctor Wang, the child's condition isn't good. They need emergency treatment."

Wang Juntang did not say anything else. He did not even bother to say goodbye. He turned around and left while running. It could be seen that the doctor's sense of mission and responsibility was top-notch whenever he encountered problems.

When Su Bei heard that the child still needed to be rescued, the world before her eyes spun again.

Lu Heting reached out to catch her. "Su Bei? Su Bei?"

After Su Bei did a check-up, she was fine and sent to the ward.

Actually, even she did not know how fragile she was when faced with this matter.

The wound she thought had recovered was torn open again, and the pain was difficult to bear.

She had only met this child by chance, so she did not have too many feelings for this child. But when she heard about the child's condition, it reminded her of the past. That was why her mood was so low now.

The doctor said that Su Bei was fine and just needed to rest.

But looking at her lying on the bed with a pale face devoid of any color and her fair skin looking almost transparent, the worry in Lu Heting's heart never faded.

He was already busy enough to begin with. He asked Lu Hang to transfer all his work to his email while he handled it in the ward.

As for the paperwork that needed to be signed, Lu Hang took them over.

As for Da Bao and Gun Gun, Lu Weijian would take care of them for the time being. In the future, Madam Lu would have very little chance to see the two children alone.

Her actions had severed the ties between her and the two munchkins.

This time, Su Bei did not have a nightmare and slept longer than last night.

Lu Heting was in the ward. He wasn't wearing a tie, but he felt uncomfortable as if something was strangling his collar.

He was not in the mood to work.

If Su Bei did not wake up, he would not be able to collect his thoughts.

However, as Lu Group was now facing a crisis, he had to hold on. Otherwise, he would only give Madam Lu more opportunities to hurt Su Bei.

Lu Heting forced himself to work.

Lu Hang had just finished reading a few contracts when he quickly walked in and said in a low voice, "There's a Doctor surnamed Gu who wants to see Su Bei."

Hearing that it was a doctor, Lu Heting did not stop him. He massaged his eyebrows and said, "Let him in."

Lu Hang went out and soon brought a young man in. Lu Heting stood up and recognized the man. It was Gu Xifeng, the one who grew up in the orphanage with Su Bei.

"I'm here to see Su Bei." Gu Xifeng was familiar with Lu Heting, so he went straight to the point.

Although he followed Feng Ze, his affection for Su Bei had never once decreased.

Perhaps Feng Ze also wanted to come and see Su Bei, but he didn't do anything, so Gu Xifeng didn't ask about it either. He just came alone.

"She's not awake yet." Lu Heting knew that he was a doctor and his medical skills were good, so he explained the situation to him. "She has no external injuries. She's just weak. Maybe she's too tired."

He Xuyan was an extremely strict director. Lu Heting even regretted letting Su Bei accept his movie.

Chapter 1042: Endured The Pain Alone

Gu Xifeng had another thought. "Su Bei helped deliver the child with her bare hands? The child is sick and is still being resuscitated?"

"Yeah," Lu Heting replied softly. "Maybe Su Bei was a little shocked too."

"It's normal for her to be frightened. Back then, when Xiao Bao was like this..." Gu Xifeng sighed softly. He recalled what had happened back then. He had personally delivered Xiao Bao. Unfortunately, he was incompetent and couldn't cure the child and return them to Su Bei.

Lu Heting sharply caught the words 'Xiao Bao.' "Xiao Bao?"

"Don't you know? One of the twins was called Xiao Bao."

Lu Heting did not understand the whole situation, but Gu Xifeng's words had already made him suspicious.

Xiao Bao?

Da Bao?

Twins?

"What do you think happened to Xiao Bao in the end?" Lu Heting was almost certain that he was approaching the truth of something.

Hence, he remained calm and did not ask about Su Bei being pregnant with twins. If Gu Xifeng knew that he did not know the whole story, he would definitely hide it.

As expected, after hearing Lu Heting's words, Gu Xifeng thought that Lu Heting knew that there were two children but he just did not know about Xiao Bao's condition back then.

"Xiao Bao was born with congenital heart disease. Although Da Bao is fine, this incident must have left a huge trauma in Su Bei's heart. After giving birth, her emotions were abnormal for a period of time. As Da Bao grew older, she gradually recovered."

Lu Heting's heart skipped a beat as if something had grabbed it. His heart stopped for a moment, and a huge pain seized him. "Is congenital heart disease very difficult to treat?"

Gu Xifeng said casually, "It depends on the situation. Sometimes it's difficult, but sometimes it's not. Unfortunately, Xiao Bao's condition was very serious... We were afraid that Su Bei would be sad. So when Xiao Bao was born, we told her that Xiao Bao had suffocated to death. We originally planned to quietly bring Xiao Bao out for treatment so that she wouldn't worry. Who knew that I didn't have the ability to cure Xiao Bao?"

Lu Heting understood everything now. He instantly realized why Su Bei cared so much about the child she delivered last night. That child not only represented the meaning of what she had done, but they also represented her feelings from many years ago. It was a knot in her heart that had yet to be resolved.

And she had never told him any of this.

When she was with him, she always had a bright smile on her face. She was like a spring breeze, bringing flowers to the world.

As for her, she kept the scars in her heart and endured the pain alone.

The incident this time had stirred up the feelings in her heart. She could not withstand it and coupled with the pressure from other things, she was still sleeping.

Lu Heting clenched his fists. He thought that he had treated Su Bei well enough and given her everything she wanted, but in reality, he did not know her well enough. What he had done was far from enough.

"There's nothing wrong with her body. She should be fine soon." Gu Xifeng checked her pulse and said calmly, "Take good care of her."

Lu Heting stood rooted to the floor, hiding the sadness in his eyes.

Gu Xifeng did not mind and turned to leave.

Lu Heting coughed heavily after a long while. His head hurt.

Xiao Bao had heart disease. He suffocated when he was born.

Su Bei had experienced too much.

And he could not share her worries at all.

Chapter 1043: What More Do You Want to Ask?

After a while, those words lingered in Lu Heting's mind again. Xiao Bao? Heart disease?

He seemed to have thought of something. He could not quite grasp the thoughts in his mind, but they were so clear.

Lu Heting let go of the document in his hand and walked out with big strides. He ran out, and his footsteps became more and more hurried. Finally, Lu Heting found Gu Xifeng just as he was about to leave the hospital.

"Is there anything else, Mr. Lu?" Gu Xifeng asked.

Lu Heting's breathing quickened. It wasn't because he was walking fast but because of something else.

"What do you think happened to Xiao Bao?" Lu Heting asked, his voice drifting in the air.

Gu Xifeng put one hand in his pocket and thought for a moment before saying, "I brought Xiao Bao to another city for treatment. If the child could be cured, it'd be a surprise for Su Bei. If he can't be cured... Anyway, Su Bei knew from the start that the child wasn't saved. She doesn't need to be hurt again."

"Which city?"

"California." He wondered why Lu Heting suddenly asked this.

However, he was relieved in an instant. He and Feng Ze had hidden these things from Su Bei. Su Bei didn't know anything about it, and Lu Heting definitely didn't know either.

"California." Lu Heting repeated. What did Lu Weijian say the last time? According to Liao Xintong, Liao Qing had given birth in California.

So, Su Bei and Gun Gun's relationship was actually...

Then what were Gu Xifeng and Feng Ze's roles in this?

"The hospital name and address."

Gu Xifeng told him. Actually, he should have told Su Bei about it a long time ago, but after thinking about it, he felt that there was no need to. Anyway, Xiao Bao's ending was just that. Even if Su Bei knew about it, it would only make her sad.

He said, "Do you want to go to the hospital? I'll give you this number. My friend is in that hospital. If you want to go, it'll be much more convenient for you to look for him. As for Su Bei, Xiao Bao's death had dealt her a huge blow. You can do as you see fit."

Lu Heting's eyes darkened when he received the contact information. When he looked up, he saw Gu Xifeng's calm expression. There was only guilt from not being able to save Xiao Bao.

For the time being, Lu Heting thought that they were just being kind and didn't have ulterior motives.

"What else do you want to ask?"

Lu Heting had nothing else to ask. Gu Xifeng might not know anything more either.

Seeing that Lu Heting stopped talking, Gu Xifeng turned around and left.

Lu Heting stood rooted to the floor. After a while, he called Lu Hang and asked him to send a confidant to a hospital in California.

Lu Weijian had been to that hospital before, but he hadn't been able to find any leads because of many things. Plus, Lu Group was in trouble now, so he didn't stay there for long.

Now that there were clear clues, things were much easier.

As for Su Bei and Gun Gun, it was very convenient for Lu Heting to handle them.

He asked someone trustworthy to bring Gun Gun's toothbrush over, whereas he only needed to get a strand of Su Bei's hair.

It didn't even need to be so troublesome. Su Bei still had bruises on her body, so it wasn't too troublesome for the nurse to get an extra blood sample.

Su Bei still hadn't woken up even after Lu Heting had arranged everything.

It was Lu Weijian who called. "Feng Ze is meeting Mom. Brother, what should I do?"

Chapter 1044: There's More

"I'll handle it. Take good care of Da Bao and Gun Gun," Lu Heting said in a low voice.

Su Bei had yet to wake up, so Lu Heting could only arrange for someone to take care of her. He had to know what Feng Ze and Madam Lu had talked about and understand their dispute.

Lu Heting arranged everything in an orderly manner.

The thought in his heart became fervent.

...

Madam Lu received a call from Feng Ze, asking to see her in person.

She finally had the chance to meet Feng Ze.

No matter what, she wanted to know why Feng Ze was doing this to her.

From the beginning to the end, Madam Lu was still responsible for Feng Ze. Since her best friend had passed away, she couldn't leave the child alone.

Feng Ze told her to meet him in a top-notch clubhouse in the capital, where prominent figures liked to meet.

Madam Lu also had the platinum card. Once she entered, she was warmly welcomed by the service staff.

Feng Ze was already sitting there waiting. He looked cold and noble, and his expression was calm.

It was hard to imagine that he was the one who did those things to Lu Group.

How could a seemingly harmless man do that?

Madam Lu sat down in front of him. Without beating about the bush, she asked, "Feng Ze, are you willing to see me now? Tell me, why did you do those things?"

She did not mention Su Bei this time because her rationality told her that a man would never be stupid enough to do that for a woman.

Feng Ze's actions against Lu Group this time could be analyzed by anyone with discerning eyes. If Lu Group really took a bad fall, Feng Ze and his vast investments would also fail.

Feng Ze looked at the sanctimonious Madam Lu and said, "Do you not remember, or do you not want to admit it?"

"What is it?" Madam Lu had never done anything wrong to the Feng family.

In business, it was inevitable for her to have some tricks up her sleeves, but that was only for others.

She had never thought that she was a weak and charitable person, but she really couldn't recall ever doing anything wrong to the Feng family.

Feng Ze couldn't be bothered to remind her anymore. He got someone beside him to pass Madam Lu an iPad.

There was a video on it, and Feng Ze gestured for Madam Lu to take it.

Madam Lu took it.

This was a video. To be precise, it was an abstract video with simple lines. It was like a cartoon.

She watched it suspiciously.

In the video, an abstract character drove an abstract car forward. When another car in front was spotted, the first car did not dodge and directly collided with it.

The car that was hit stopped, and two abstract figures climbed out. It could be seen that it was a man and a woman. The figure from before didn't stop the car or save anyone. Instead, they directly crashed into the man and woman.

The man was sent flying while the woman was crushed to the ground. The scene looked exceptionally terrifying and disgusting.

The soundtrack was a little eerie, mixed with the cries of children. Even though it was an abstract animation, the color of blood was realistic, and the effects were so good that they made people shudder.

Madam Lu felt extremely uncomfortable as she watched this. She felt dizzy and nauseous.

Feng Ze's lips curled up mockingly as he watched this scene. He said, "Aunt Qing, continue watching. There's more."

Chapter 1045: Who Is That Person?

Madam Lu had no choice but to continue watching. In the following scenes, the plot did not move forward. Instead, it repeated the impact from different angles.

In other words, Madam Lu saw the impact happening from at least ten different angles.

Finally, she couldn't take it anymore and put down the iPad. She rushed straight to the bathroom and vomited.

Feng Ze merely stared at her back with a cold expression. He continued to sit in his seat in a calm and carefree manner as he patiently watched.

Those abstract images kept assaulting Madam Lu's mind and pressing down on her nerves. She vomited for a while. She splashed cold water on her face, but it did not help.

In her mind, those scenes seemed to overlap with certain scenes in the depths of her memory. Those abstract animated characters also seemed to overlap with real people's figures from her memory.

Madam Lu came out of the washroom after a while. She no longer looked young after removing her makeup, and the wrinkles at the corners of her eyes were obvious, making her lose her usual elegance.

She returned and sat down again, her face pale from the discomfort.

"How is it? Do you remember?" Feng Ze asked.

"The people who were hit were your parents?" Madam Lu enunciated each word with a heavy voice.

"The things I drew aren't bad, right? As long as you grasp the essence of a person when drawing them, you'll be able to recognize who it is no matter how abstract it is." Feng Ze's tone was extremely relaxed as if he was talking to someone about painting. It was completely different from the serious and tense Madam Lu.

Madam Lu asked, "Who's the driver?"

She had a vague feeling that the person driving the car looked a little like her. This was also why she felt extremely uncomfortable when she saw the video.

However, the driver never got out of the car, so she couldn't see their body shape.

But Madam Lu did not think that there was such a thing in her memory. Besides, why would she do anything to hurt her best friend?

Even if there were times when she had to resort to ruthless means in business, they were not used in situations like these. She knew how to avoid risks.

Feng Ze stared at Madam Lu.

Madam Lu could tell from his gaze that Feng Ze thought it was her.

She tried her best to deny it. "Feng Ze, think about it. How could it be me? Why would I do that?"

Feng Ze continued to look at her with the same gaze as before. There was no evidence, and even this video was just a depiction. However, under his gaze, Madam Lu felt that she could not defend herself at all.

The person driving the car was clearly her!

Something in her mind was triggered again. Madam Lu's headache worsened. It was extremely unbearable. She wanted to defend herself and deny it, but everything seemed to be chaotic.

Feng Ze's voice rang in her ears. "It's okay. Take your time."

Madam Lu's head hurt even more, and her breathing quickened. No, impossible! How could this be?!

She had always been on good terms with her best friend and would never do such a thing.

But what was with those things in her memories? They appeared bit by bit, seemingly breaking through the surface and sprouting out like plants. They grew leaves and branches.

It was too scary. Madam Lu could no longer stop herself from thinking about it.

Chapter 1046: Passed Out

Feng Ze looked at Madam Lu indifferently as she broke down.

Yes, people could forget what they had done, but how could they completely forget?

She would remember eventually.

He looked at Madam Lu calmly.

He had lost everything. It had been more than 20 years since he lost everything. What could Madam Lu use to repay him?

Madam Lu suddenly shouted and fainted.

When Lu Heting received the news that Madam Lu had fainted, he was very surprised.

Madam Lu had already been sent to the nearest hospital.

Before Su Bei woke up, Lu Heting had already gone to Madam Lu's side.

When he went over, Madam Lu had yet to wake up. However, the doctor's results showed that she was fine. She fainted because she was too emotionally distraught.

Lu Hang said to Lu Heting, "Mr. Lu, it was said that Madam Lu fainted after seeing this."

Lu Heting clicked on the video.

Although those abstract drawings were not scary, Lu Heting still felt unbearable pressure after watching the video.

Moreover, he clearly recognized the characteristics of the person driving the car and the two people who were hit. The photos of the two people hung in the Feng family's company building that Madam Lu was in charge of previously. Even if Lu Heting had not gone there often, he could still recognize that the drawings were of those two people.

The characters in these abstract drawings were very recognizable.

Lu Heting pinched his eyebrows and wondered if this was true.

From the contents of the video, it was clear that the person who made this video knew this matter very well. Regardless of their perspective, they were emotionless and explained the matter clearly.

Would his mother have done such a thing?

As her son, Lu Heting refused to believe it.

But what if it was the truth?

No wonder Feng Ze wanted to make a move on his mother.

Lu Heting immediately thought of something else. Feng Ze had never taken out the video before this, but he did not show any mercy when he attacked Lu Group. He just seemed to have been too lazy to remind Madam Lu about this.

However, he took out the video this time and caused Madam Lu to be hospitalized... He should know that Madam Lu had gone to look for Su Bei and indirectly caused her to be in trouble, right?

Hence, he did this to avenge Su Bei.

For some reason, Lu Heting felt a little impatient. However, Madam Lu was not awake yet, so he could not pursue the matter.

“Keep an eye on her.” He instructed Lu Hang before driving to the hospital where Su Bei was.

Along the way, he received countless calls from work. All of them were very urgent.

Work was piling up.

When he returned to the hospital, Su Bei was still unconscious. Lu Heting sat beside her for a long time, holding her hand and gently caressing her fingers.

After a while, his rationality reminded him that it was time to work.

Otherwise, when Su Bei woke up, he would not even have time to accompany her.

When Su Bei woke up this time, the suppressed pain in her heart was much less intense. She had recovered a lot of her energy.

She opened her eyes and saw that the coffee table was filled with documents. The man was frowning and reading something.

With Lu Group’s current situation, his workload would definitely be more than ten times of usual, right?

Su Bei’s heart ached as she looked at the man’s slightly furrowed brows.

Chapter 1047: I’ll Do My Best

She stood up. She did not feel too uncomfortable, but she knew what was wrong with her.

She would be fine after a good rest.

Su Bei stood up and slowly walked to Lu Heting’s side. She was about to bend down to talk to him when the man’s long arm grabbed her waist and pulled her into his embrace.

She was now sitting on him.

They were in the hospital, so she was a little embarrassed. A red blush quickly appeared on her face.

Lu Heting's tightly furrowed brows relaxed as he kissed her ear. "I'll call the doctor over."

"It's alright. I've just exhausted my physical strength. It's not a big problem," Su Bei said softly. "As for you, you must be very busy recently. Why don't I just get discharged? This way, you won't have to work here and it won't be convenient for you to handle things."

Lu Heting's heart softened as his long fingers brushed past her cheek. How could she be concerned about him when she had just woken up?

From Gu Xifeng's words, Lu Heting knew what was bothering Su Bei. He did not expose her at this moment and just said, "It's better to recuperate for a few days. It's not hard for me. I'll just get them to send the things over."

"Then they'll be busy."

"Employees need to be trained." Lu Heting hugged her tightly. "Rest with peace of mind. Once you recover, I'll naturally be fine."

After being intimate for a while, someone knocked on the door, making Su Bei so shy that she quickly sat aside.

"Come in." Lu Heting's face darkened a little, but thinking that it might be a doctor, he allowed the person in.

Unexpectedly, it was Wang Juntang.

Su Bei fainted when he was away, so after performing the surgery on the child, he came over to give Su Bei an explanation. Although Su Bei had nothing to do with the child, he still felt that it was necessary to tell her about it.

Doctor Wang Juntang admired Su Bei for being a good person.

Seeing that it was him, Lu Heting asked, "What's the matter?"

From his tone, it clearly meant that Wang Juntang should not say anything if the situation wasn't good.

Wang Juntang had operated on Gun Gun before, so he knew Lu Heting's temper well. He knew what he meant, so he said, "The child's condition has stabilized."

"Has the child undergone surgery?" Su Bei asked.

"The child didn't have heart surgery. He's too young to handle it. However, we've taken some precautionary measures. He won't be in a critical condition for the time being. He can undergo surgery when he's a little older."

"Is there a high chance of success?" Su Bei really wanted to know.

It was fine if she had not encountered such a situation, but now that she had, it was impossible for her not to care.

Wang Juntang said, "50-50."

Su Bei's eyes darkened.

That was not optimistic.

Seeing her like this, Wang Juntang comforted her. "I'll do my best."

Su Bei smiled, but her smile was not very bright.

Wang Juntang knew that Lu Heting would get tired of him talking, so he did not say anything else and turned to leave.

Su Bei's eyelashes fluttered as she lowered her eyes slightly to hide the sorrow and gloom in them.

Lu Heting carried her back and said in a low voice, "Are you still worried?"

"I'm alright." Su Bei smiled at him to reassure him, saying that she didn't care too much about it. "After all, it all boils down to fate. I just hope that the child will be okay."

Chapter 1048: Accompany Me, Then

Lu Heting hugged her and said calmly, "Do you know Dr. Wang Juntang?"

"I do, but I'm not familiar with him. I just gave him an umbrella last time. I also learned that he works here."

"He's very knowledgeable about heart disease. He's an expert in this field."

Su Bei could tell that he was comforting her. He was so busy, yet he still wanted to say these words to comfort her. Su Bei no longer had any thoughts in her heart. The past was the past. She could already accept it and move on from it.

She was apologetic and said in a low voice, "Yes, so I'm not worried."

Moreover, she had been worrying about a baby she did not know. It must look strange to outsiders. Her smile widened.

Lu Heting knew that she was just too used to transmitting good emotions to others and leaving the bad ones for herself to process.

He hugged her hand and tightened his grip. "Gun Gun also had congenital heart disease after he was born. It was Wang Juntang who performed the surgery. Now, Gun Gun's physical fitness has recovered quite well. Many experts have examined him and said that his bodily functions are normal."

"Gun Gun has this illness too?" Su Bei felt that it was too much of a coincidence, but she could not connect the dots.

"Yes, so Wang Juntang must have a way to treat this child."

Su Bei could tell that he was continuing to comfort her. While her heart ached for Gun Gun, her heart also ached for her husband. She held his face with her soft fingers.

Lu Heting smiled. "Are you in a better mood now?"

"What if my heart aches for Gun Gun again?" Su Bei asked softly.

"But he's fine now. Everything is fine. It was because of this I promised Wang Juntang to let his girlfriend join Lu Group."

"Oh, who is it?" Su Bei was grateful to Wang Juntang and his girlfriend.

Lu Heting shrugged. "I'm sorry, I don't know either."

"Is this how you treat your son's savior?" Su Bei joked.

"I invested in Wang Juntang's medical research institute. Does that count as enough repayment?" Lu Heting asked with a smile. Of course, he would have thanked Wang Juntang.

He was just doing him another favor by helping his girlfriend as well.

Su Bei smiled. Seeing that his eyes were red, she held his face. "Mr. Lu, you haven't rested since last night, right?"

"It's alright. I can handle it." Lu Heting was pleased by her soft words.

"Why don't you take a nap? You have so much work to do. You might not be able to finish it in a short time. You'll get twice the results with half the effort if you take a nap now," Su Bei said softly.

"Then will you accompany me?" Lu Heting had indeed been busy for a long time. It was not just last night. In the past few days, he had not even gone to visit Su Bei in the suburbs. She could imagine how many days he had been busy.

At the moment, there were people taking care of Madam Lu. Now that Su Bei had woken up, his tense muscles were relaxed. He felt a little tired now.

Su Bei nodded. "Of course."

Lu Heting hugged her and squeezed into the small bed with her.

Su Bei was still thinking about Gun Gun. Gun Gun coincidentally had heart disease as well?

However, she did not dare to think too much about it, nor could she think of anything else. It was because Xiao Bao was pronounced dead when he was born. She had heard the voices and words of those people who saved her when she was semi-unconscious. She could never forget them.

Even so, she did not know where Xiao Bao was sent to be saved.

Chapter 1049: Expressing Apology

After thinking for a while, she still had no clue and could only close her eyes.

The thoughts in her mind were suddenly spinning, but it was difficult to link them together.

Lu Heting opened his eyes after sleeping for a moment.

It was about half an hour, but this half an hour was enough for him to recover his strength.

Moreover, with Su Bei by his side, the quality of this half an hour of rest was very high.

Su Bei was not asleep. When she felt the movement, she got up as well.

As soon as he got up, Lu Heting's phone rang. He picked it up and heard Lu Hang say, "Madam isn't in a good mood. That video affected her a lot. She seems to be in a bad mood."

"Let the doctor go over," Lu Heting said calmly.

What Madam Lu needed the most now was a doctor, not her son.

Because Su Bei knew that Gun Gun had once been sick, she was a little worried when she heard the mention of a doctor. "Who's sick?"

"My mother."

Su Bei paused. "Is she okay?"

Lu Heting told her about the incident and mentioned the video. The people who had seen it would indeed feel uncomfortable.

However, very few people had such a big reaction.

Madam Lu was not an inexperienced person. It was hard for Lu Heting not to think too much about it.

Hearing his calm and objective description, Su Bei wondered if Madam Lu had really done that.

Otherwise, things would not have become like this.

As for Feng Ze, Su Bei admitted and said, "I don't know him very well. I've never heard of his parents dying in a car accident."

"I'll handle this matter." Lu Heting did not want Su Bei to worry.

He did not mention that Feng Ze suddenly took out the video to anger Madam Lu because he wanted to avenge Su Bei.

Su Bei did not need to shoulder so much burden.

After a while, Lu Weijian came over. He went straight to Su Bei's ward.

"Didn't I ask you to look after Da Bao and Gun Gun?" Lu Heting frowned when he saw him.

"Don't worry, Brother. They've both gone to school, and there are people watching over them. I came to see Sister-in-law and express my guilt to her."

Seeing his humble appearance, Su Bei smiled and said, "What do you have to feel guilty about? I'm already very grateful that you helped me take care of Da Bao and Gun Gun."

"My mother went to look for you and asked you to leave. I came to express my apology."

"Lu Weijian!" Lu Heting stopped him.

The smile on Su Bei's face disappeared. That was what Madam Lu wanted to do. Why was Lu Weijian involved?

Moreover, is she supposed to forgive Madam Lu just because Lu Weijian had apologized?

Su Bei knew that she could not be so magnanimous. At most, she would let it go on account of Lu Heting, but she could not pretend that nothing had happened.

"Brother, let me finish. Although Mom was the one who said those words, she must've done it for my sake too," Lu Weijian said sincerely.

Lu Heting and Su Bei did not interrupt him.

He continued, "Sister-in-law, you might not know this, but I'm not my brother's biological brother. Although I've always wanted to be, my biological mother is actually my brother's aunt. I should call my brother 'Cousin' instead. And I should call my mother 'Aunt'."

Chapter 1050: I Have To Apologize To You

Su Bei really did not know about this.

Few people in the outside world dared to spread the news about the Lu family, and Su Bei had not heard much about the family.

However, when she thought about how some rich second-generation heirs secretly looked down on Lu Weijian, she began to understand a little. Some people who knew about Lu Weijian's background did not respect him as much as they did Lu Heting.

Lu Weijian continued, "I'll be straightforward. When my biological mother was pregnant with me, she was supposed to marry my biological father. However, my biological father had an affair with an artiste before he got married. That artiste happened to be a model and an actress. After my biological mother married him, she found out about this. When she was about to give birth to me, that woman also gave birth to a son.

When Lu Weijian, who was usually carefree, said this, his tone could not help but become a little gloomy.

"Because of this, my biological mother suffered a huge blow to her body and mind. When she gave birth to me, she lost a lot of blood. Although she was saved, her body was in a terrible state after that and she broke down. How could I watch my biological mother suffer with me? She fought with my biological father for custody and brought me back to the Lu family to raise me as a child of the Lu family."

Su Bei couldn't help but pity Lu Weijian.

However, she knew that he did not need sympathy. He usually lived a carefree life. Lu Weijian had already mustered a lot of courage to reveal what he did not want to mention in front of her.

"I was raised by my current mother. That's why she has always hated celebrities, especially models. It's very normal. However, I also know that she's being narrow-minded. I've corrected her countless times, but she can't change her mindset. But no matter what, it's wrong of her to hate you. She's taking her anger out on you, so I have to apologize to you."

His words were sincere. Su Bei understood that he really shared a mother-son relationship with Madam Lu. He was even willing to bear all this for her.

How could Su Bei blame him?

However, the matter had nothing to do with him, so Su Bei could not forgive him.

Lu Heting could tell that Su Bei was put in a difficult position. This was also the reason why he had never mentioned this to her. Could it be that because their mother had difficulties and preferences, they had to force Su Bei to be understanding? What had Su Bei done wrong?

It was not her fault.

Hence, when he saw Lu Weijian standing in front of him, he was a little angry. Lu Weijian was facing death with equanimity and was prepared to be kicked by his brother. He also knew that he had made things difficult for his sister-in-law, but his mother's health was so bad now. If he did not take on this responsibility, would his mother be forced to take it?

After he joined the Lu family, Madam Lu had always treated him as her biological son. Her feelings for him were no different from her feelings for Lu Heting. Lu Weijian had always been very grateful to her. He wanted to work hard to resolve everyone's conflicts.

Lu Heting did not kick Lu Weijian and just said, "Go back and look after Mom."

Lu Weijian looked up at him. "Brother, do you believe that Mom did it?"

Lu Heting did not answer.

No answer was an affirmative answer.

There was another reason why Lu Heting could not explain it. After all, watching the video had caused his mother's mental state to collapse. He knew his mother well. No matter how many things she had done, none of them had affected her. Hence, her reaction this time was suspicious.

Could it really be the truth...

"Brother, Mom wouldn't have done such a thing!" Lu Weijian shouted.
