

Her Revenge 181

Chapter 181

Zed raised his eyes and looked at Lea opposite him, his gaze dark and gloomy. "I... forgot to bring it..." said Zed.

"Look at you! It's such a valuable gift. How could you forget to bring it?" asked Zedd mother.

"Mrs. Jarvan, what valuable gift is it?" The other noble lady added, her tone diplomatic, but she was clearly up to no good.

With that crown, her tongue was as if tied in a knot. She didn't dare to answer

"No matter how valuable the gift is, can it compare to Mr. Alfred Andrew's crown? The noble lady smiled even more charmingly. This blow was precise and ruthless, Mrs. Jarvan and her son's expressions changed.

The noble lady glanced at Lea. After hearing Mrs. Jarvan's words, the young girl's expression was cold and distant

You, with your opportunistic attitude, are eager to snatch people back without considering whether the young girl is willing. You even deliberately test and pressure the girl. It's downright shameless, thought the noble lady.

s she receives are all

She continued to add insult to injury. "Lea is a genius rarely seen in our Vaporleon City for decades. The birthday presents: crowns. We don't know what kind of life opportunities she will have. She probably won't take the gifts today to heart. Mrs. Jarvan, am I right?"

"Even if she has accepted your son's gift, you can't ask a young girl to marry into your family, thought the noble Lady

Mrs. Jarvan's face darkened. She could only bite the bullet and nod. She then said to his son, "Forget it since you forgot. If there's a chance in the Future, you can make up for it. You were classmates with Lea for three years in high school and at university. After going to Iverion, you two are from the same hometown. You two must take care of each other."

"There is still a long way to go. Won't there be any opportunities Never give up thought Mrs. Jarvan.

Christian said to Lea, "Go and toast those guests; greet them." If he did not send her away, these people who came to go on a blind date would watch her away from him. He was extremely annoyed,

His granddaughter had just entered the university. Bland dates and marriages were all after her graduation. He had not spent enough time with her Matilda's matter traumatized him regarding marriage alliance between families. It was a severe trauma. The marriage between the two families was said to be for mutual development. But apart from Matilda working in the company, the Fraley family had never provided the Berry family any substantial help. On the contrary, the Berry family had continuously helped the Fraley family grow and prosper.

Now, it seemed that Matilda had an ulterior motive for entering the company so actively. If it wasn't for Lea, perhaps...

He suddenly paused and had a moment of disconnect from reality. For a moment, his soul seemed to have glimpsed the outcome of his past life. There were also Ewan's, Matilda's, Helen's, and even Lea's...

"Mr. Berry! Mr. Berry. His old friend by his side called out a few times before he came back to his senses.

"What are you so engrossed in?" asked his old friend "Nothing..." Christian responded.

"Let's drink. We'll replace wine with coffee." They had to take care of their health as they grew older.

Christian, feeling a bit dazed, picked up the coffee cup and clinked with his old friends. In his heart, he had already made up his mind to never let Lea enter into a marriage alliance between families in the future.

Seeing Lea leaving her seat, Alfred was about to go up to her when he was stopped by Craig. "Mr. Andrews's birthday gift has arrived. I don't know how to deal with it," said Craig know

Milion was the first child among the grandchildren of the Andrews family. The outsiders addressed him as Mr. Andrews. If Craig did not know how to deal with it, it wouldn't be an ordinary gift.

Alfred frowned and followed him out of the dining hall to a room in the hotel. On the large coffee table in the room were five rose gold gift boxes, already opened. As he approached and looked, his expression immediately darkened. It was a set of five diamond jewelry pieces.

The diamonds were from Ancrugo and were the largest natural blue diamonds discovered in the past decade. The world's top jewelry brand invited a leading designer to create this "Starlight and Sea" jewelry set." The set included a crown, earrings, necklace, bracelet, and ring. The total price is as high as 240 million dollars. If he didn't have a crown as a birthday gift, he would buy this set of jewelry for Lea

Craig found it unbelievable. "Mr. Andrews had only met Miss Berry once. No, to be precise, he only saw her figure,"

He had already reported to Alfred about Milion stopping the car at the Andrews Manor. Now that he had given such a valuable gift. It was obvious that he had put in a lot of effort.

Alfred's gaze darkened even more, with a violent storm brewing in his eyes. Craig had never seen him with such a terrifying expression and instantly became nervous. Because of Miss Lea, the two cousins...

Although they were born in the same family, Alfred spent most of his time overseas. He practically grew up overseas.

As for Milton, he grew up in the family and was involved in the management of the family group business since he was 14 years old, currently in charge of the group while Alfred was the heir. In terms of benefits, they were enormous,

1. d. He was

Alfred said coldly, "Find a place to dump it. Don't let Lea know," Craig took a deep breath. "Alright"

If it were an ordinary gift, he could just find a trash can and throw it away. However, it was so expensive that he had to find a place to dispose of it.

Matilda's matter had taken up too much time. After the dinner, it was already dark and the party was over. The guests left one after another

Before the party ended, the group of big shots from Conrad University left early because they had to catch their flights.

With so many things happening in the Berry family. Evan was going to divorce Matilda. He wanted her to completely cut ties with the Berry Group. Many things were waiting to be dealt with in the company.

Christian also did not wait for the party to end before bringing Victor to the company. Alfred was a guest who came from Iverton and had yet to book a flight back. As the host, he had to entertain his guest well. Christian handed him over to Lea because she was the only one who had nothing to do tonight

Christian had thought of bringing Les to the office. Since she could run a hospital, she would definitely be able to help. However, he decided to settle Matilda's matter first and deal with the mess before taking her there.

Lea brought Alfred back to the Berry Manor. Alfred drove and was already ten o'clock at night when they arrived.

There were very few people in the Berry Manor. The servants were all busy and it was very quiet.

Star and moonlight filled the sky, with lights inside and outside the residence sparkling like stars. It was a retro building and the vintage architecture spoke of the passage of time.

Alfred parked the car and got out first. He walked around to the passenger seat, opened the door, and extended his hand.

Lea smiled and placed her hand in his. Just as she was about to get out of the car, her body became light as Alfred already picked her up by her

He carried her out of the car but did not put her on the ground. Instead, he pressed her against the car. Thinking of the gift Milton sent to Lea, his kiss was intense and burning, as if he wanted to devour Lea entirely and claim her completely as his own a storm that wanted to devour her

Lea looked up. Under the quiet night sky, the man's eyes were filled with deep p love and desire like a ste

In a daze, she felt that time and space had shattered. The Alfred in her previous life and the Alfred before her overlapped.

“Alfred, I love you,” she said, her eyes red and her voice hoarse, breathing heavily. With courage, she continued, “I want you.”

Alfred paused and moved away from her lips. He looked at her from a close distance. Her eyes were filled with emotions, and her red lips opened and closed like a fish that had come ashore.

He suddenly lowered his head and bit her lips, reaching for the black belt around his waist. The belt was unbuckled, and he lifted the hem of Lea’s heavy dress, his other hand had already.

Chapter 182

“Miss Berry!” a voice called out. The two of them suddenly jolted awake upon hearing Candice approaching. “Miss Lea, you’re back?”

When Candice walked around the front of the car, Lea stood in front of her holding the hem of her dress. “Yes, Candice, I’m back”

Lea glanced at the back at a slight angle and said, “Alfred is helping me adjust the hem of my dress.”

Behind her, Alfred’s belt lay discarded, and his pants hung loosely on his hips. He subconsciously touched his nose, exuding a carefree demeanor.

“Oh: Candice looked at him and felt that he would eat up women without leaving their bones behind. “I’ll do it” She immediately went forward to protect her little master.

Lea quickly walked out. At where Candice held the hem, Alfred’s lower half was conveniently out of view. Lea instructed Candice to hold up the hem and head toward the main door.

In the night, Lea’s cheeks were as red as the sunset. Candice didn’t notice it.

At the back of the car, Alfred quickly fastened his belt and his fingers wiped his thin lips. There was still the taste of Lea’s lipstick between his lips. and teeth. It was grass, berries, taste, and desire. He could not stop it.

After tidying up, he quickly followed and stood side by side with Lea when they were about to enter.

Lea turned to look at him. He was wearing a white shirt and a tie of the same color as his suit. There was not a single wrinkle on his body. Coupled with his handsome features that carried a hint of youthful charm, he exuded a clean, reserved, and extremely refined demeanor.

After entering, Lea said, “Mr. Andrews, take a seat. I’ll go and have a change first. Other than looking good, the gown she was wearing was useless. It was tiring to wear it.

“Okay.” Alfred watched her go upstairs before reluctantly walking to the sofa

Soon, Lea changed her clothes and came downstairs. Alfred looked and instantly saw her in the stairwell.

She was wearing a white pullover long-sleeve T-shirt that reached mid-thigh. Her legs were long and flawless, her long hair loosely cascading over her shoulders in soft waves. She looked both pure and alluring.

Lea came downstairs and saw Alfred sitting on the sofa with his legs wide open. He looked lazy and sexy

Her gaze subconsciously moved to his waist, Just now, when she held his waist, she only felt that his waist was narrow and long, emitting vigorous strength

Now that she looked at it, she realized that he was really very tall, nearly six feet four. His golden head-to-body ratio made him appear even taller than he actually was

Knowing that she was looking at him, Alfred leaned back on the sofa. He stretched his long legs and pulled his waist apart to show her more of himself. He looked up at her with a smile in his eyes that would seduce her soul

Lea was lost for words. She had just washed her face with cold water upstairs, and the blush that had just subsided surfaced again.

“You didn’t eat anything at the hotel, did you? I’ll make you spaghetti” With that, she turned around and went to the kitchen.

When she was in the hotel dining room, she had been paying attention to Alfred. She noticed that he had been busy and had not eaten at all.

“Miss Lea” Candice and two other servants greeted her and wanted to go over to help.

They all knew what had happened in the hotel. If Helen was not the Berry family’s bloodline, then Lea was Christian’s only granddaughter.

Now, even the way they addressed her had changed to Miss Lea. Some even directly called her “Muss Berry”

“There’s no need. It’s late now, Go and rest. It’s just cooking spaghetti,” said Lea.

The servants were very obedient and all knew that she was excellent at cooking spaghetti. They thus went off to get busy. Only then did Alfred come to the kitchen He leaned against the door and looked at her without restraints.

Adding water, preparing the pan, turning on the fire, taking the plates, and taking the seasonings, her movements were skilled and graceful.

Lea was beautiful, and even cooking spaghetti was captivating. Ten minutes later, the spaghetti was ready. The two of them sat at the dining table

The noodles she made were nourishing. It tasted fresh, mellow, and delicious Alfred took a bite and looked at her with satisfaction. “I envy myself if I could eat this for the rest of my life,

Lea was amused. She looked up at him and her expression solemn. “Why did you give me that crown it’s very valuable.”

That was one of the things she wanted most. When she held the crown, for a moment, she felt in a daze that he was the man in her past life who was willing to give up his life for her, and he had given her what she desired.

Alfred looked up at her and replied, “It suits you very well, and I can afford it.”

many good

He stretched his long arm across the table and wiped the soup from the corner of her lips. “Lea, be my woman, and you can have many things Jewelry is just one of them

Lea’s eyes were filled with warmth. She looked up at him, focused and affectionate. “I already have the best thing in the world, and it’s you”:

He was about to move his finger away from the corner of her lips. Hearing this, his finger pressed the middle of her upper lip and he got up, leaning forward, and was about to kiss her.

“Bang!” The front door opened, Jason and the others escorted Christian through the door. The two of them returned to their seats almost instantly to eat their spaghetti properly and orderly.

Although the Berry family and Berry Group experienced a tsunami this time. Lea had already secretly maneuvered to extricate the Berry Group from Matilda’s influence. Coupled with the influence of her Riverview Hospital, not only was the group not affected, but it even welcomed a new turn of events, Even its share price rose.

Therefore, Christian only went to the company to deal with some matters related to Matilda and was back home now...

However, he was old after all. In the past over ten years, he trusted Matilda and let her handle the Berry Airlines.

Matilda was not pragmatic and only thought about making money. The business projects were heavily packaged and the share price rose steadily. However, the technology gradually fell behind, and the market share gradually decreased.

As time passed, the problem would be exposed. It was only after the development of artificial brains and the application of artificial intelligence technology to flight control systems that the company suddenly surged ahead globally, allowing the group to survive.

However, in the past two years, overseas flight control technology caught up. And the Berry Group had indeed suffered a huge blow. Nonetheless, this was a long-term matter. There was no point in mashing it now

Seeing the two young people eating at the dining table, especially Lea, who now had become his backbone, Christian immediately relaxed. He felt that this home had become warm. It really felt like home now.

He went forward and sat down on the main seat. Looking at the spaghetti on the two young people's plates, his appetite was instantly aroused. "Candice, cook spaghrrini for me"

After everything that had happened today, he didn't have much of an appetite when he was in the hotel. He didn't eat much either. Now, he was really hungry

"Let me do it" Lea got up and went to cook the spaghetti. He was her biological grandfather now and had to be pampered Christian picked up the spaghetti Lea had eaten and ate it. He was full of praise. "Our Lea is indeed a genius. She can even even cook spaghetti so well."

Alfred, who was eating his spaghetti in a refined manner, looked up at him and immediately pulled the plate closer to himself in a protective posture. Christian was speechless.

After a short while, Lea came out with a plate of spaghetti and placed it in front of Christian Christian had already finished her spaghetti and thus gave up to her. The grandfather and granddaughter continued to eat. Alfred arrived very slowly to accompany them.

"Lea, let me ask you." Christian's expression turned solemn. "Where did you get the money to invest in Riverview Hospital?"

Lea looked up and exchanged glances with Alfred.

Chapter 183

the company's shares previously! a few ups and downs, I bought low and Lea opened her mouth and explained seriously. "Didn't I hold 3% of the stock high. I managed to get over 600 million dollars"

She looked at Alfred again. "Then, Mr. Alfred invested over 400 million. The funds are enough"

So far, Riverview Hospital had received nearly 4 billion dollars of funding, and the value of its assets had doubled.

However, these were not suitable to be revealed at the moment.

Lea only told half of the truth. When Christian heard this, he was shocked and could not calm down for a long time. It turned out that Lea had done so much during this period of time. Previously, she had also revealed that she was buying and selling stocks, but he did not notice it at all. Now that he thought about it, it was reasonable and traceable. He had never expected her to be so scheming, intelligent, and ruthless at such a young age.

Alfred waited for Christian to digest it for a while before saying. The money I invested is my personal assets. It has nothing to do with the Andrews family. It won't affect Lea in any negative way!"

Only then did Christian come back to his senses. He looked straight at the two of them, feeling that the young generation were surely impressive. He couldn't possibly achieve these things at their age

Hearing Alfred's words, he was a little relieved.

A wealthy family like the Andrews family was like an ancient royal family. He did not want his little granddaughter to be involved with their family.

Lea also promised Christian seriously, “Grandpa, don’t worry. I’ll definitely not have any negative impact on the Berry family and Berry Group with my own business and hospital. I’ll be responsible for what I do in the end.”

Christian’s attitude at the banquet in the afternoon made her decide to protect the Berry family. He was old and she didn’t want him to worry anymore.

“What are you talking about?” Christian suddenly became unyielding. Do whatever you want out there. If anything happens, As your grandfather, I will naturally take care of you!

Thinking of all that she had suffered and experienced, he suddenly had an epiphany and wanted to do his best to support her decisions.

“It’s just that Grandpa has a request. He exuded the dignity of a soldier. “You can’t do anything evil

Now that he thought about what Fraley Hospital had done, he trembled and regretted his decisions in the past

“Yes” Lea nodded solemnly. I promise you”

Even if Christian didn’t ask for it, she would still do it

After supper, the family was tired and went to bed

Alfred stayed overnight at the residence,

Lea returned to her bedroom. It was already midnight.

Although tired and sleepy, she pulled out her laptop, lay back against the headboard, and turned it on.

The laptop was pure black. It was thinner and larger than the latest model on the market. There was no logo on it. It was custom-made

She had also written on the system herself. It was unique

She had just turned on the computer when the door creaked open slowly from the outside.

She looked up and saw Alfred squeezing in through the crack in the door. He was smiling-

Alfred entered, gently pushed the door closed, locked it, and walked towards her.

He wasn’t wearing shoes, and his footsteps were light.

He was wearing a set of blue pajamas. It belonged to Christian. There were no adult men’s pajamas at home, so he could only wear Christian’s.

He was much taller than Christian. When he wore it, his arms and legs were exposed. It was an old-fashioned style, but it made him look very retro

When Lea saw him approaching, she moved to the side. Alfred sat beside her, stretched out his long legs, and lay down beside her.

Histone was exceptionally gerald. "It's your birthday today. I want to keep you company"

"Alright," Lea replied. There was a hint of affection in her watery eyes. I'll go online fest

"Okay" Alfred turned around and looked at her computer screen with her.

She opened the webpage. Matilda and Nixon's incidents were almost everywhere. It was in the top ten trending searches of Vaporleon City. Helen occupied one. Lea occupied one herself. The rest belonged to these two,

The two of them were arrested, and Henry's death had another reason. This time, there was no need for Quicksilver to provide evidence. The police had to overturn and reopen the investigation of Fraley Hospital.

They had used Henry's death to separate the hospital from the case and almost succeeded. However, their efforts were in vain by now

Ewan also acted quickly. Before her birthday party ended, he went to the relevant departments in settle the divorce procedures.

Due to his special situation and his status, he managed to get a divorce certificate before the sky turned dark.

He had kicked Matilda out of the family and made her leave with nothing. He had also retained the right to sue her legally. Then, he got someone to send the divorce certificate to her overnight.

Everything was was going as Lea had expected.

"Go to sleep." Alfred rubbed her head,

Lea put the laptop back and lay down on the bed next to him.

Alfred's long arm passed through her lower back and pulled her into his arms as if she were a treasure.

He just wanted to accompany her and let her rest well. He lay there obediently and did not move.

Lea quickly fell asleep. This time, she did not have any more nightmares

At the hotel's birthday venue. Shannon and the others stayed behind to help Lea pack up the birthday present and clean up the aftermath. After the guests left, it was already very late when they finally left the hotel

She left the hotel and went to the side of the road to hail a taxi. Suddenly, she was dragged into an empty alley. It was Donna.

Ever since the case of Helen injuring her was filed, she had been waiting for the two million dollars she was promised.

She knew most of what had happened at the banquet and knew that Helen had been arrested.

“Where’s the money! Her hand went almost to Shannon’s face.

Shannon knew that Donna would come to ask about the money, but she did not expect her to still be there at this time. “Helen has been arrested by the police. Go and ask her for it “Look for her! Her mother is done for Where would she get the money? Donna was furious. “Didn’t I ask you to find an opportunity to let me talk to her first? Why did you do this?”

The police were arresting her. What could I do Shannon didn’t want to talk to her anymore, so she found a reason to retort

Shannon grabbed her daughter’s lapels, “Go find me a lawyer now. I want to see Helen and settle with her. She wanted to get compensation

In order to prevent Helen from going to jail, she felt that Matikla would definitely think of a way to fork out the money.

Even if she did not have two million dollars yuan, Donna thought that a few hundred thousand dollars would do

Shannon said, “Go find

“Go find one yourself.”

Lea wanted Helen to go to jail, and so did star. Shamon would not interfere in this matter. Donna did not have that much money now and did not have the ability to hand a lawyer

As she spoke, Shannon grabbed Donna’s hand and tried to push her away “Stap” Donna gave her a backhand slap. “You ingrate. Tell me, did you do it on purposer he’s that finde bitches Lea’s idea, right? Did you team up with her to set me up? Shannon, is the your mother, or am I your mother?”.

Chapter 184

Shannon could not listen anymore. She pushed Donna away and turned to leave.

Donna fell to the ground and grabbed her skirt. She cried miserably, “Someone, come and help me. My daughter, who I raised painstakingly. actually abandoned me and joined forces with outsiders to bully me...

Ever since Shnaon found Donna her in-laws, she had only seen her once. It was when Shannon went to look for Donna to file a case. After that, she could not find Donna Donna had already realized that Shannon had broken off her relationship with her.

Donna thought. This little ingrate. Now that she is doing well, she can afford to wear dresses, attend wealthy banquets, and live a life like an elite. She even wants to abandon me. No way. I have raised her. She has to listen to me for the rest of her life!

Although it was almost midnight, there were many people traveling around the hotel at night. Soon, people surrounded them.

A person asked, "How can you do this to your own mother?"

Another person said. "She looks decent and pretty, but she doesn't even care about her own mother."

Someone else said. "Even animals know to treat their parents well. This young lady has no conscience. Young people these days..."

The streetlights were dim and Shannon could not see the faces of those people, but their words were like needles that pierced her eardrums. Now, in their eyes she was an evil woman that they despised.

Even though she knew that this was not the case, she still felt ashamed and nervous:

"Let's call the police. Such people should be handed over to the police and punished by the law. Someone had already taken out their phone and started calling the police."

Shannon closed her eyes weakly and stood on the spot numbly. She did not want to continue arguing with her mother. She didn't know what to do

"Donna, why are you hugging this lady? Let her go" A voice spoke, Shannon opened her eyes and saw Yannis.

In an instant, Donna was pulled away by him secretly. "Miss. I'm sorry. My mother has a serious mental illness and often misidentifies people like this, I am so sorry

Then, he turned to the audience. "I'm sorry for disturbing everyone. It was my negligence that made her run out. I'll bring her back now?"

He picked Donna up and left. Donna wanted to shout, but her collar suddenly tightened and she could not make a sound.

A powerful fear came from the man behind her and spread throughout her body. She remembered the last time she had been put in a black bag and beaten half to death. She wanted to shout for help, but no sound came out of her throat.

There was a white BMW parked by the roadside. It was a luxury car worth millions. The car belonged to Chris, and the driver was Lorrاند. He was honking at Shannon.

She looked up at the sound and saw it was him. He was gesturing for her to get in the car.

She choked and swallowed back the tears as she walked toward the car.

A person said, "So she's a mental patient. I almost called the police!"

Another person said, "The little girl is really unlucky"

Someone else said, "I'm really sorry, I scolded you for the wrong reason,"

She got into the car. Lorrاند then drove forward.

The few of them looked at her apologetically. Shannon pretended to be fine and Yannis carried Donna and turned at the intersection. Chris, who was leaning against the corner, walked out.

Yannis threw her in front of Chris

“Who are you? What are you doing? I’m going to call the police! Donna shouted in fear.

“Sure,” Chris smiled coldly and said. “Coincidentally, our hospital has come into contact with a case of kidnapping a baby. It’s an old case. Coincidentally, we found out that you’re not related to Shannon by blood. Where did you kidnap her? Other than you, are there any other accomplices? Forget it. Let’s leave this to the police. Call the police. Why aren’t you calling! Yannis, go ahead”

Yannis took out his phone and dialed the number.

Just now, when he went to help Shannon, Chris was the one who asked him to do that. She was the one who taught him to say those words

“You...” Donna pointed at her, angry and anxious,

She knew who Chris was. She was from Riverview Hospital and was in cahoots with her daughter.

“Are you crazy! What are you talking about Donna cursed and ran away.

She did not expect these people to know that Shannon was not related to her by blood. If she was caught by the police and those things were exposed, she would be done for

She ran very fast before she tripped and fell. She immediately got up and ran as fast as she could, as if a ghost was chasing after her.

Chris looked at her back and snorted coldly, full of disgust

She thought, ‘Shannon’s so-called mother is a shackle. Shannon is kind, so she can’t be cruel and is always bullied by her mother. Now, I have to stand up and help “Will she come back to cause trouble for Shannon again?” Yannis asked worriedly.

He could not watch Shannon being bullied by Donna any more

“I don’t think so. After all, Donna looked really scared just now. Chris instructed, “If she shows up again, I’ll send her to the police station.

She felt that there must be something wrong with Donna adopting Shannon. She had plenty of ways to deal with Donna.

“I see...” Yannis felt relieved.

Lorrain parked the car at the intersection and waited for them. They quickly walked over and got into the car. The car then drove towards Riverview Hospital

In the car, the few of them did not speak. Everyone had a tacit understanding Shannon was also very calm. She had indeed been triggered by Donna just now

Donna had occupied too important a place in her life and had influenced her for more than a decade. It was impossible for Shannon to get rid of her so quickly.

After such a long time, even if it was a thorn in the flesh, it would leave scars and aftereffects. It was pulled out. Moreover, Donna was Shannon's so-called mother.

However, Shannon accepted this fact and instantly calmed down.

After a while, she secretly glanced at the people in the car and suddenly understood. These were the most important people to her. They weren't family, but they were more like family.

That night, Lea had a good sleep. When she woke up the next day, Alfred and Christian had already finished breakfast and were drinking coffee in the living room.

"Christian, try what I made. Alfred poured the brewed coffee into a cup and brought it to him with both hands.

Christian took it and took a sip. He nodded comfortably. "Yes, it tastes good. I didn't expect you to know this."

It was obvious that Alfred had learned it professionally.

He said, "I've learned it before. If you like it, I'll make it for you in the future."

Christian looked at Alfred and was very satisfied.

In the past, he had thought that Alfred was cold, arrogant, and condescending. It seemed that he had misunderstood. He did not realize that Alfred's attitude had changed because Lea had acknowledged him.

Hearing the sound of the stairwell, Alfred looked up and saw Lea.

Lea was wearing a simple white dress. Her long black hair was very textured. Just her casual clothes were very stunning,

Her eyes met Alfred's and they exchanged a look.

Last night, Alfred was afraid of being discovered by Christian, so he secretly returned to his room before dawn.

The last time he brought Lea back to the Andrews family's residence, he already knew Blake's attitude. He would not agree to Alfred marry Lea.

Therefore, they couldn't let Christian know about their relationship yet. Otherwise, things would get out of hand. Lea looked at the two of them in surprise.

Alfred

was wearing a w

a white shirt. At this moment, he was very gentle and reserved.

Christian was also very kind. The scene was especially warm and beautiful.

The maid had already prepared breakfast. Lea greeted the two of them and went to the kitchen to eat breakfast. After eating, she prepared to go to the hospital to work

Previously, when she went to the hospital, she had to find an excuse. Now that her identity was exposed, she could go openly. Alfred went out with her.

“Drive this car” Christian handed her a new set of car keys.

He even handed her a bank card. This is your pocket money!”

Lea looked at him suspiciously. “Where did the money come from! Does the company have enough to pay for the employees for this month!”

She was very clear about Berry Group’s financial situation. They could not make ends meet.

Christian’s face darkened. This is my private savings”

Berry Group was still very profitable in the early days. He had a lot of dividends from his shares every year. He did not spend money and kept them all in the bank. He also bought some mutual funds. Over the decades, he had accumulated a lot of money. He had enough money for her to spend Lea’s eyes lit up. Thank you, Grandpa”

“Just go” Christian waved at her and chased her away.

It was true that he had private savings, and he could spend some for her, but as she had asked, he had to pay for the employees salaries this month with his personal account.

He was so thrifty that he felt his heart ache when he spent so much money on her.

Lea fell silent

“Let’s go, Mr. Alfred. I’ll drive you. She waved at Alfred with the car key.

Alfred followed her obediently with a gentle expression and bright eyes

After leaving the gate, Lea saw a yellow convertible sports car parked outside. The lines were smooth, and the car was cool and elegant. It was a standard sports car for rich second-generation heirs.

She got into the car and gave it a try. She felt extremely good and hooked her finger at Alfred with great interest

Alfred had been standing at the side and watching her. She was bathed in the morning light and had become a part of the morning sun. Even if it was a fire pit, he would plunge into it

He got into the car and Lea checked the bank card that Christian had given her. There was 200 thousand dollars in it.

She felt that this was the life of a rich second-generation heir and it felt good. The car sped away like the wind.

Lea drove to the hospital. Alfred had something to do, so she went straight to Chris’s office.

Shannon was now living in the hospital as a hospital employer. She did not have to work today, so she stayed in Chris's office and waited for her to assign work for her.

As soon as Lea entered, she saw the two women looking at the mountain of gifts. Her head hurt. She found the gifts they had given her and said,

Chapter 185

"Let's auction the rest of

"Sell? Why? I think many of them are pretty good. You can keep them Chris suggested

These gifts were all from rich and famous people. There were no cheap items.

There were jewelry, cosmetics, brand bags, and clothes. There were also famous paintings, school supplies, and so on. –

There were many limited edition items that were difficult to buy,

No woman could resist the temptation of jewelry, bags, and beautiful clothes,

"Keep whatever you like. Sell the rest, Lea said without hesitation.

"That's true. With the crown given to you by Alfred; these are indeed not attractive anymore."

All of these combined probably couldn't even compare to the value of a ruby on the crown Chris thought about it and lost interest.

Lea explained, "I'm short of money"

Chris and Shannon looked at her in a daze. In just one night, she had become the number one wealthiest young girl in Vaporleon City. They were surprised that she needed money.

"I want to buy Fraley Hospital" Lea had to work hard on her career

The two of them were speechless. They felt that Lea was being braggy.

Chris said. "Then sell them all"

Shannon said. "I got an auction for you online"

Soon, the three of them sat on the ground and began to open the gifts.

Although they didn't want these things anymore, it didn't affect their happiness.

Half a month later, all Fraley Hospital's cases had their verdicts.

Nixon was sentenced to death for malicious murder, malicious assault, illegal business, organ trafficking, investment fraud, and many other crimes.

Matilda was sentenced to life imprisonment for murder, hiring a murderer to injure others, illegal business, and so on. He was immediately imprisoned.

Helen was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and immediately imprisoned

Fraley Group, including Fraley Medical, would go bankrupt. Even the Fraley family's manor would be auctioned off.

Lea took some time to visit Matilda in prison.

She waited in the meeting room for a while before the door creaked open. She looked up and saw Matilda at the door. Shock flashed across her

She was wearing a blue prisoner's uniform and had lost a lot of weight. Her long hair was cut short to her ears, and her hair was gray. Her face was covered in wrinkles, and her skin was dim. Her eyes were sunken, and her body was stooped. She looked like a lifeless old lady in her sixties

However, she was only in her forties.

Lea thought, Is it that hard for her blow

withstand a blow? In my previous life. I have been sent to an asylum and endured such an unimaginable

Seeing that it was Lea, Matilda turned around to leave. She was scared.

"Bang" The door behind her had already been closed by the prison guard.

She had no choice but to turn around and face Lea

Lea sat in a chair. She was wearing a black suit. Her long hair was slightly curled, and her red lips were fiery. Her skin was so smooth that it was glowing

She exuded maturity and sophistication beyond her age. Her every frown and smile was beautiful and valiant

She showed the vibes of a wealthy lady. It was a strong contrast to Matilda.

Matilda secretly clenched her fists and gritted her teeth again.

"sit down. It must be hard for you to stand, Lea said. There was a smile on her beautiful face. The more calm and elegant she was, the more painful it was for Matilda:

Lea could tell that Matilda's health was not good. This was also the reason why she had aged so quickly.

She felt that she was being very sweet

"Lea, I've already fallen to such a state, and you still want to come and laugh at me? Do you hate me that much?" Matilda sat down and looked at her with obvious hatred.

"Matilda, how can you say that? No matter what, I have helped you find the person who killed your father"

Manka's expression turned terrible. Her heart, which felt like had already been dismembered countless times by Lea, had only recovered for a few days before it was gouged out by her again.

“Lea, stop pretending Don’t think I don’t know why you’re doing this.”

Matilda knew that Lea did all this in order to deal her a good blow.

Matilda added, “At least you have some strength. What’s the point of being so hypocritical?”

Lea was not angry. She knew that it was for the best this way. Only then would she be able to deal a good blow to Matilda.

“Matilda, you don’t care what I do, but you’re so devoted to Nixon. You don’t mind his poor background and are devoted to him. You use your own resources and the family’s resources to help him rise to the top and give him power. Even after you got married, you gave birth to his children and took a large risk to have sex with him. But he killed your own father. What a beast. That kind of person doesn’t even have human nature. How can he have true feelings?”

Lea reminded Matilda again that Nixon’s biased love for her was a preposterous facade. In fact, that was not the case. Matilda and Nixon indeed had feelings for each other. When they were young, they loved each other so passionately and sincerely

Now, because they had suffered such a blow, they had lost everything. Their future was ruined, and they had a bad reputation. Nixon even lost his life. Their love that was already standing on a dangerous cliff would naturally be doomed

However, Lea had to end all of this in order to give Matilda the most ruthless blow and the greatest pain

As for Matilda, she no longer had the ability and energy to distinguish these things.

Lea sighed heavily. “I really feel sorry for you!”

Chapter 186

Lea was scolding Nixon and defending Matilda

However, Matilda could hear the mockery in Lea’s words. She felt her heart heat up and her mouth turn bloody. She was so angry that she vomited blood again.

She choked and swallowed the blood in her mouth to protect the last bit of her dignity. “Lea, so you’re here to kill....

Lea succeeded. The biggest failure in Matilda’s life was Nixon. He’d sold her out and killed her father.

Matilda thought. That’s right. How can such a person have true feelings for me? Therefore, my twenty years of hard work and feelings for her are a joke and a humiliation“

Lea looked at her and was extremely happy. The smile on her lips became even even more gorgeous.

Compared to Nixon, the blow she dealt to Matilda was not worth mentioning.

She had successfully used Nixon to completely shatter Matilda. She had turned Matilda's life into a joke. Matilda was humiliated and in extreme pain.

Lea had returned what Matilda had put on her in her previous life back to her.

How could that

Lea said gently with a smile. I know you miss my sister, so I specially sent you news about her."

Matilda's eyes widened as she looked at Lea in shock

Lea took out her notebook from her luxury

bag, opened it, clicked on the video, and turned to face Matilda. Matilda instinctively refused. She knew that Lea would only bring her terrible and distressing news, but when it came to her baby girl, she couldn't help but look. No matter how much Helen hurt her heart, she was her daughter.

Moreover, Matilda felt that Helen had suffered such a huge blow that she had spoken rudely to her.

The content of the video was specially filmed by Lea from the prison where Helen was. In order to clearly

With Lea's hacking skills, the video was very clear.

The video was only three to four minutes long and was divided into a few segments.

played on air. In the end, she knelt down and begged for mercy. She was so hungry

After she was in prison, she was beaten up and injured because she knew that she cried as she ate the rotten food she had only been in prison for a few days, but she had been bullied, starved, splashed with cold water, knelt, and teased. Her wounds could not be treated, and she had a high fever. She kept shouting, "Mom, save me!"

Helen only lived for a few days before she started to have mental problems.

She always smiled under the light and smiled foolishly, muttering that she was the daughter of a wealthy family and a big star. She treated it as a red carpet and walked up before rolling down the stairs.

This was the hatred she had suffered the most in her previous life.

She put the laptop back in her bag. Her face was still calm, but her eyes seemed to have been tempered with ice. "Mrs. Berry, I think you're mistaken. I didn't hurt her. It was those people in prison who hurt her. Even if you want to help her, you have to beg them."

With Helen's personality, she would only keep courting death in prison.

Lea added, "I forgot. Even if you want to beg now, you can't. What should we do? Look at Helen. She looks mentally unstable and about to go. When do you think she'll go completely crazy?"

Matilda walled again and accused, "Lea, why are you taking revenge on me like this? Why are you so ruthless? Why are you so cruel?"

"I'm ruthless? Lea's expression turned cold. What if I were in your shoes?"

"Lea, when have I ever done this to you!

A cold smile appeared on the corners of Lea's mouth. In her previous life, Matilda and Helen could have done this kind of thing to her. However they kept her alive to extract her value bit by bit. They cruelly hurt her closest relatives until they died,

At this moment, Matilda felt confident about these things. Even she did not realize how evil she was Lea said. "This is just the beginning.

There was a faint smile on her beautiful face. Her tone was soft and gentle, revealing a suffocating coldness and cruelty

"As for why? Just take it as you owe me in your previous life."

Matilda looked up at Lea sharply. Previously, it was just an illusion. Now, she was completely sure that Lea was here to take revenge on her.

Lea, I've already!

y lost everything. Look at me now. What else do you have to take revenge on?"

Lea smiled.

1. As long as Matilda and Helen did not die. Lea had plenty of ways to take revenge.

Fear welled up inside Matilda. She thought, What else is this little bitch going to do! What else can she do?

Lea took out a document from her bag and handed it to her. "Sign it"

That was why she was here. Matilda took it over to take a look hungry that she could not breathe.

"You..." She was so angry

She threw the document on the ground. "Lea, I won't sell it to you. Give up!"

Not only did Lea want to buy Fraley Medical, but she also wanted to buy all of Fraley Group's projects.

y ruined. Only the Fraley Medical was one thing. After the case was re-examined, the reputation and credibility of the hospital were completely destroyed. The hospital's building and equipment were worth some money. It was not enough to repay the bank's debt.

However, the smart cars, hotels, real estate, and other projects under Fraley Group were still very valuable.

Lea said, “Matilda, do you think there’s anyone else besides me who’s willing to take over For the past two weeks, the bank has been looking for someone to take over Fraley Group, but no one has dared to take it.

No one is willing to stay in Fraley Group’s hotels anymore. Only some foolish people are interested in the manor of the Fraley family. The most promising umari rar project is costing money every day. Without a new artificial brain, it will only be a bunch of useless code. With every day that drags on, the funding gap gets bigger. Even if you sell everything in Fraley Group now, it won’t be enough to repay the delit. Are you sure you don Lea looked down at her, more like a savior who had come to save Matilda.

Chapter 187

Matilda clenched her fists and started trembling again. If that’s the case, why do you want to buy it”

Lra said, “To anmay you

Matica choked. This time. Lea was direct with her thoughts.

Lea added, “These things are only valuable in my hands.

She could make use of everything in Fraley Medical. She could even continue to develop the smart car project.

Matilda gritted her teeth again. Some blood had already seeped out from between her gums. “Your price is too low. Fraley Group is worth at least 6 billion, but you only offered 2 billion dollars, Lea, Those who take advantage of the situation don’t even do this kind of thing”

“Are you sure you want to keep it and let it rot in your hands? Lea asked leisurely, “At the very least, if pay off the bank’s debt, right? Otherwise, how long can you hold on to the mountain of debt?”.

Matilda gritted her teeth and pursed her lips. She did not dare to speak again.

you

at this price, you should be able to

Lea was right. The debt was like a huge mountain pressing down on Matilda. Moreover, the weight of this mountain was increasing every day. If this continued, she would be stuck in endless ilebr.

“I will only give you this one chance. Lea became serious. She raised her wrist and looked at her diamond wristwatch. “I will give you half a minute.

In the cramped space, the air felt suffocating again.

After ten seconds of silence, Matilda wrote down her name and threw it to Lea. “Get lost.....

Lea put the file back in her bag and glanced at her.

Matilda tried her best to control herself. Her thin and old body was on the verge of collapse, and even her breathing was filled with despair.

The corners of Lea's mouth curled up. She carried her bag and left the meeting room.

As soon as the door closed, Matilda's body fell limply into the chair.

There was nothing left. Even the Fraley family's manor was gone. In Vaporleon City, such a wealthy family was destroyed just like that.

Matilda was penniless and sentenced to life imprisonment. Even her daughter was imprisoned. At this moment, she felt that bring meaningless

After coming out of the prison, Lea raised her head and bathed in the sunlight. She closed her eyes and breathed hard. The shackles that were imperceptibly suppressing her relaxed a little, and even her breathing became more relaxed.

It was as if something was slowly awakening in the depths of her body and mind.

In the car far away, Alfred looked at her profile through the car window. She raised her head, her neck long and slender, enjoying the breath and sunlight. Her soft long hair fell freely, lazy and beautiful, untainted by dust. He looked at her without blinking, coveting her current appearance.

After standing there for a long time, as if she had rested enough, Lea opened her eyes. Her eyes were filled with wisdom and intelligence. She turned around and walked towards the car, just as she reached the car, the passenger door was pushed open from the inside.

"Alfred?" She looked at him. "Why are you here?"

"What? You don't want to see me?" Alfred chuckled and sat up straight.

"To Her voice was a line coarse, and her eyes were

When she had just come out of prison, she really missed him. She really wanted to see him. Unexpectedly, he really came.

"Get in the car" Alfred lowered his voice, his deep eyes restraining something.

"Alright" Lea came back to her senses and bent down to get into the car drove out of the gate and headed towards downtown.

Lea said, "Let's head back to my place. We need to ask my grandfather for money"

Buying Fraley Group required more than two billion dollars. The contract had been signed and the deposit was hundreds of millions. She needed to make up for it. She was still short of a lot of money.

Although Berry Group didn't have a lot of money, Christian had a wide network of connections and could always find a way

In any case, after obtaining Fraley Group. Lea would be able to cash it out very quickly.

Alfred smiled wildly at her. I've already prepared the money for you. I'm here to give you the money"

Lea was stunned. Her phone buzzed. It was a message from n Chris. (We received 2 billion dollars from Alfred.)

Holding the phone, Lea turned around and looked at Alfred in surprise. "You prepared so much cad!!

It was not that she doubted his wealth, but even top families like those in Iverton could not fork out so much eath at once.

Alfred said, "It's my own money. Don't worry about it.

Lea was speechless and felt that Alfred was no ordinary rich second-generation heir. She felt that his money was inexhaustible.

"You've already invested a lot of money. I can think of something else to come up with the rest of the money." She didn't want him worrying about her.

Alfred smiled playfully, I regret not seizing the opportunity to invest in such a huge profit return."

"Besides," he said, suddenly leaning over and kissing her on the cheek before straightening to drive again, "if you don't help me spend my money, who am I going to leave my money for?"

"Alright," Lea agreed with a smile.

She would soon earn double this amount of money. In the future, when the hospital expanded, the wealth she would obtain would be extremely considerable.

All of that would be given to Alfred in the future, becoming a bargaining chip for him to defeat his opponent and ascend to the top Although she did not need to ask Christian for money, Alfred still drove the car to her home. When it was alm it was almost dark, Christian returned from the company. Lea and Alfred came back early and waited for him to come back for dinner.

Lea specifically took the time to cook a few dishes, stunning the chef and servants. They immediately felt that they were about to lose their jobs and asked her for guidance on cooking.

Ewan Berry also came back for dinner. After divorcing Matilda, he sold all the joint property and luxury cars under their name. He even sold the Berry Villa

All traces of Matilda had been crased from his life.

He handled it so cleanly that even Lea looked at him in a new light.

Sure enough, when husband and wife turned against each other, Lea felt that they could both be ruthless people.

In just half a month, Ewan's mental state had changed completely. He looked a few years younger. The expression on his face was relaxed and content, and his smile had increased. His kidneys were also completely healed.

Hack in the hospital, his kidney situation was exaggerated by Lea mainly to set up a trap for Helen to expose her identity. Coupled with the special medicine developed by the hospital, he would not need a kidney transplant in the future.

A marriage could affect not only a person's life quality but also their lifespan.

of them sat around the long wooden dining table. Warm lights poured down, creating a warm scene. Everyone talked a lot. Even Christian and Ewan, who didn't see eye to eye, would occasionally chat.

The first time in nearly 20 years, the members of the Berry family acted like a family.

As time went on, the more they chatted, the more satisfied he was. In his heart, he praised Blake for being good at

Christian chatted with Alfred and said his grandson

looked at the two of them and was stunned. He felt that Christian treated Alfred like his grandson-in-law.

Ewan looked at Alfred with a kind and gentle expression. He started to put himself in the position of Alfred's father-in-law, Ewan was very experienced with girls. He knew that there was only one reason why a man would give a woman jewelry worth hundreds of millions of dollars as a birthday present. It was because he wanted to be with her. Ewan felt that Alfred would be a great son-in-law.

As he watched, his and Christian's expressions became strange.

Christian looked at Lea in surprise. "You bought all of Fraley Group?"

He pursed his lips and looked at her

Ewan was also shocked and almost choked. He pursed

At the birthday banquet half a month ago, Lea had already proven how impressive she was. However, it was still unbelievable for Ewan to take in the fact that Lea had bought out the entire Fraley Group.

Chapter 188

Lea said. "It's not me. It's Riverview Hospital."

Ewan and Christian both fell silent. They felt that there was no difference.

They

had already understood that Lea owned 51% of the shares of Riverview Hospital. It was pretty much hers. They felt that Lea was showing off “How much more money do you need? I will help you, Christian said.

After all, she was only a nineteen-year-old child. This was not a small sum. Although Christian did not have that much money, he felt that he had to think of a way. He had to support his granddaughter even if he had to risk his life.

“I have some money. I can lend it to you...” Ewan said.

He got it from selling his assets.

Christian looked over.

“I can... give it to you. Ewan felt scared immediately

Lea said, “There’s no need. Alfred has already paid the money:

Christian was shocked and looked at the two young people. Ewan was a little stunned. In front of such a rich person, a small tycoon like him was simply insignificant

Previously, he was still unwilling to accept that Christian had transferred so many shares of the company to Lea. Now, he no longer had any regrets.

With such a genius, he felt that only needed to be responsible for having fun in the future.

But it’s very risky to buy Fraley Hospital” Christian was worried.

The medical industry was different from other industries. Reputation was very important.

This way, everyone would be suspicious if they went to Riverview Hospital for treatment. As long as they had a choice, they would settle for the next best thing..

There were many small and medium-sized hospitals in Vaporleon City

If Christian had to choose, he would rather go to a smaller hospital instead of Riverview Hospital.

Therefore, he felt that buying Fraley Hospital was not a good choice. Ewan was also a little worried, Alfred turned to look at Len beside him. He was not worried at all.

He believed in her. Even if there were any problems, he could solve them himself, “Don’t worry,” Lea said to the three people at the table, I’m ready to win back the reputation of the hospital?

Chrisnan and Ewan hraved a sigh of relief.

Christian nodded. “No matt matter what problems you encounter, tell me. As long as you do good deeds, there’s nothing the Berry family can’t handle. As for the hospital, we still have to prioritize the livelihood of the people.

Those who win the hearts of the people will get the market”

Christian believed in her ability, but he was worried that she was too young and would lose herself in the business world.

shunned. She looked at Chriman and then at kwan. Ewan nodded at her

She looked at Alfred again. He gave her a look of trust and support.

Her heart gradually felt fulfilled and warm

In fact, she purchased Fraley Hospital not only for its benefits but also for the patients who were under it.

Fraley Hospital had branches in more than ten large cities in the country. According to incomplete statistics, there were a total of more than five million patients under it while the Fraley Group got in trouble. There were tens of thousands of patients who were hospitalized in the long term.

On one hand, their treatment was delayed. On the other hand, they could not get back the medical fees they paid to the hospital. That was their life-saving money.

Only when the hospital started operating again would the losses of these people be minimized.

Riverview Hospital's newly developed medicine could also allow those patients to receive better treatment

Lea was only focused on revenge after she came to this life.

treatment and recovery

However, during this period of time, she had Alfred by her side. Now that she had Christian, she had a real home. Slowly, she started to want more.

In the following period of time, Lea was busy dealing with Fraley Hospital's matters. She usually spent the night at the hospital

As Christian had said, acquiring Fraley Hospital had indeed brought a lot of negative effects to Riverview Hospital. Many patients had been transferred to other hospitals. Those who were seriously ill were even transferred to a better hospital in Iverson.

Since

Many people and the news media posted comments on the Internet. Some media outlets criticized Riverview Hospital for being it bought Fraley Hospital which was involved in selling organs.

A week later, Riverview Hospital held the first official press conference since its establishment.

Lea also let the outstanding researchers in the medical research room participate,

Therefore, in this life, if there was a chance, Lea would let them show their faces and introduce their projects. However, many confidential and could not be revealed to the public. Everyone simply showed their faces.

Lea and Alfred both attended. On the rostrum, they sat at the coffier.

The middle Were the director of the hospital, Lorrard, the director of the medical research department, Charles Wessen, the CEO, Chris, the director of the city health bureau, and the leaders of several important institutions.

The main content of the press conference was to announce the release of the three new drugs.

Of course, Lea had asked Charles to produce more than three drugs However, if the other drugs went on the market, it would cause chaos, so they did not plan to release them. There were also two newly developed medical devices.

Charles also revealed several advanced medical devices being researched by hospitals, including artificial uterus, hand and foot transplants, and so

It was explained that Frank Conor's p patent was used in the body transplant technology.

When the audience heard that they had bought this murdering patent, there was a commotion.

Frank was a murderer, and people only wanted to erase his existence.

Charles represented the hospital's position. He expressed that many people in Vaporleon City and even around the world needed such technology. It could give those people a new life. Therefore, if a patient needed it, the hospital would provide it.

Excluding this point, the rest shocked the audience and media, as well as the people watching the live broadcast online, especially those in the medical hel

Previously, the hospital had received widespread attention in the industry because of the live broadcast surgery of "Dr. Berry" Knowing that they had a press conference, many professionals were watching the live broadcast.

The drugs and equipment they announced were brand new and had surpassed current products on the market.

Most of the audience present were not involved in the inchistry and did not clearly understand the importance of these drugs and espiipient. They wete duae concerned alexut the acquisition of Fraley Grouje. Many media representatives asked questIONS.

Chris both sincerely expressed the hospital's view. Fradry Medical committed serious crimes and mistakes, but they abo left behind

eti, bublings, medical facilities, and so DIE

These were all beneficial to the public. They could also protect the interests of millions of patients at the coplayment of over a hundred Himnand employers Therefore, the lampical decided to do this.

However, prople did not buy it. The hospital did not intend to convince them with a press conference. They try would slowly prove it with facts.

They had enough money to operate, and they were not worried about the impact of these negative problems on the hospital.

This press conference received the most attention in the industry and became an important chapter in the history of modern medicine.

The photo of Lea and Alfred was captured by netizens and sent to the trending searches. [The most beautiful and wealthiest young lady with Mr. Alfred!]

Under the camera, Lea was wearing a black suit dress. In order to look more mature, she had a high ponytail and fiery red lips.

Her facial features were still very young, but her aura was strong and steady.

Alfred was wearing a black shirt and looked very young, but his temperament and aura would not be underestimated because of his youth..

The netizens praised their facial features and temperament.

Everyone said that they were a match made in heaven and invited them to get married on the spot

There were also people who said that they could get married in their current outfit.

Lea looked very beautiful in this outfit. Alfred also saw this trending topic and was in a good mood

However, he still asked Eddie to remove the trending topic. It was not suitable to be so high-profile now and attract the attention of those people from Iverton.

After the press conference ended, the hospital's main team began to work on the expansion of the hospital.

The main thing was to change Fraley Hospital's appearance, optimize the upgrade, and restart operations.

The hospital's reputation quickly spread in the industry. Many hospitals, equipment manufacturing companies, and pharmaceutical companies came to work with them. They made a lot of money and invested the money in the expansion of the hospital. Everything was working as planned. by Lea.

A week later, at breakfast time, at the lierry Manor. The members of the Berry family sat together for breakfast

The reason why they were able to do this was because Ewan had not completely gotten over Matilda's incident recently. He was not in the mood to mess around, instead, he worked obediently with Christian.

A message reached the dining table. Matilda died in prison. The reason was suicide.

When Lea heard this, her expression immediately darkened. Her clear eyes were deep and profound.

She thought, Someone like Matilda would commit suicide? I don't believe it,'

Chapter 189

Christian and Ewan were a little unhappy when they heard this

What Matilda had done to the Berry family and this society was not worthy of forgiveness. They did not want to pay attention to whether she was alive or dead.

They were silent for a moment. This news passed like a gust of wind in their ears.

After breakfast, the three of them took their own cars to work.

Jason Perez took the Mercedes-Benz z and gave Lea a ride.

Lea said. "Don't go to the hospital yet. Let's go to the prison to see Helen. We need to find out what exactly happened to

Jason answered, "Yes, Miss Berry!"

The car turned around and headed towards the prison,

In the car, he made a few calls and arranged for the prison visit,

With Lea's current status in Vaporleon City, she could go anywhere she wanted.

She called Shannon and took her with her.

The car drove to the prison and everything was arranged

The two of them waited in the meeting room for a while before two prison guards brought Helen over,

Matilda"

As soon as Helen entered the meeting room and saw that there was someone inside, she suddenly screamed, "Don't hit me, don't hit me..."

Caught off guard, the two prison guards let her break away. She ran to a corner, put her head in her hands, and hid.

"Miss Berry. I'm sorry. She's mentally unstable. Why don't we handcuff her first!" one of the prison guards said.

Knowing her identity, his attitude was very respectful.

Lea was a little shocked. She knew why two prison guards had dragged her over

"It's fine. You guys can leave now." Lea knew that Helen would not hurt them based on her current state.

"Okay, we'll be right outside. Call us if you need anything." The two of them left the meeting room and closed the door.

Only then did Lea walk towards Helen in the corner. "Don't come over, don't come over. Don't kill me, don't kill me..."

Helen curled into a ball in the corner.

corner. There was no place to retreat. She could only scream desperately and beg for mercy.

Seeing that she was so agitated, Lea did not continue forward. She maintained a safe distance of three steps and squatted down. "Helen, I came to find you because I have something to tell you."

Lea's voice was soft and unaggressive. Helen's emotions were a little more stable. She raised her head slightly and looked at Lea from between her

Her heart skipped a beat when she saw Lea's look. "Helen, do you recognize me? I'm Lea"

Helen snuck a glance at Lea, then shrank back and lowered her head. The look in her eyes was so strange, it was as if she didn't know Lea.

Lea's eyes darkened as she sized Helen up again. Helen was skin and bones, and her long hair was as dry as grass. She had a lot of hair loss, and there were a few bald spots on her head. She had several injuries and inflammation. Someone had forcibly pulled her hair off.

She was wearing a

I'm not going to hit you" Lea's voice was soothing as she went to tingle at her collar.

Helen struggled to get out of the way but huddled in the corner. Her collar was pulled open and her expression darkened. Shannon was shocked by the scene in front of her again. She could not help but cover her mouth.

Lea's pupils dilated

Helen's body was covered in wounds. There were cuts, burns, hoirs, and all kinds of injuries. The serious ones were already rotten and emitting a stench. It was a shocking sight, Lea thought, "What kind of hellish torture has she suffered? It can simply be called torture. It is no wonder that she has become like this!

In the past. Lea felt that Helen did not deserve to live in this world. She wished that she could die

However, looking at the person in front of her, Lea felt that Helen was really pitiful.

se she didn't sympathize with Helen. But what had happened to Helen now was truly pitiful

She wasn't a saint, so of course

"No." Helen struggled free from Lea. She grabbed her collar and covered herself.

Doubt Hashed across Lea's eyes. She retracted her hand and looked straight at her. "Helen, don't you recognize me?"

Helen looked up at her, then looked away in fear.

I'm Lea. It's all thanks to me that you've fallen to your current state.

Helen jerked her head up and looked at Lea. Her eyes were as sharp as a marl beast's, She wanted to hinge at Lea and tie with her. But it was only for a moment. Avoiding her gaze again, Helen shrank back.

“Do you know her, then Lea turned sideways and pointed at Shannon.

Shannon went forward so that Helen could identify her

Helen raised her eyes and looked at Shannon carehilly. Then, she lowered her head and stopped communicating with them.

Lea saw her expression clearly, even if it was just a slight change in her gaze

After a pause, she said, “I came to tell you something. Your mother, Matilda, died in prison. She committed suicide.”

Helen was stunned at first. She looked up at Lea, then smiled blankly and shrank back,

That smile was stiff and misshapen as if she'd been tortured beyond the ability to smile.

Lea looked at Helen again. There was nothing she needed to say to her. She left the meeting room. The two prison guards were still outside.

“Has the management of your prison reached this level? Are you allowing criminals to commit murder” Lea turned her gaze and looked straight at the prison guard.

The prison guard felt his legs go weak and he almost knelt down. “Miss Berry, no... Helen has a bad temper. She was beaten up because she angered Heing looked at like this, the prison guard felt like he had been seen through and could not continue.

Lea retracted her gaze and walked away.

Shannon followed her out of the pravom

The prison guard wiped the cold sweat off his forelical. “Report this to the warden i immediately?

Even if they were slow witted and negligent, they could tell from Helen's condition that those criminals wanted to torture her to death.

Meanwhile, Lea had clearly seen through everything. She said this because she did not want Helen to die.

The prison guard thought, “Weren't they enemies! Wait she the our who sent Helen in? What a headacher!

After leaving the prison, the wood them headed i the parking but.

“How do you feel” Lea asked

Shannon was stunned for a moment before she came back to her senses. The shock that Helen gave her was too great. “I didn't expect her to be su müserable. She was such an armugant and lawless person, but die actually became like this She's so timid now and doen't have any temper at all like a different person”

She’s not like her at all.

“Not the same person as before?”

“Yes. Shannon nodded. “Maybe there’s something wrong with her mind. She didn’t seem to be able to recognize us?”

She thought, “It’s only been less than a month. This change is too great.

“Her mental state isn’t that serious. She’s still sane. Lea had been observing Helen. With her medical skills, she was sure of that.

Shannon was shocked and turned to look at her. “What do you mean?”

“It’s impossible for two conflicting personalities to appear on the same person at the same time. If she was Helen, the first thing she would do when she saw me would be to rush up and kill me. It’s impossible for her not to recognize you. After hearing about Matilda’s death, her reaction was more like she had vented her anger. Helen won’t be like this. Although she’s a little crazy and will resent Matilda, she’s very dependent on her and has deep feelings for her. She’ll be in pain and panic if she hears about Matilda’s death”

There was one more thing Lea could not understand Helen did not have any other enemies. Other than Lea, no one else would want her life. But now, apparently, someone wanted her to die in prison. If Lea didn’t interfere, Helen wouldn’t be able to last long.

Shannon immediately understood. “So she’s not Helen! This was 100 shocking and unbelievable. “But she clearly looks like…”

The current Helen was different from what she remembered. She couldn’t recognize her face. Moreover, she trusted Lea’s judgment more. Otherwise, Lea wouldn’t have said those words to the prison guard before she left.

care about her life.

Shannon knew that it was already kind of Lea not to hit Helen in this situation. She would not “We’ll know after we go back and do a DNA test. Lea opened her palm. There were a few strands of hair inside.

Chapter 190

After leaving the prison, they went straight back to the hospital. The test results were out in the afternoon.

Lea waited in Alfred’s office. Alfred was rarely around, so his office became hers.

When she received the text message about the test results, she immediately checked the news online. As she had expected, that person was not Shannon also wanted to know the results. When it was about time, time, she came to look for Lea. After seeing g the results, she was still very shocked. She did not expect such a thing to happen. Then where is the real Helen?"

Helen

Lea had the same question in his heart. It was dark, but she still hadn't gone home.

Christian and Ewan also had to work overtime, and they were already used to her working overtime and even staying in the hospital.

Jason didn't come back until 10 pm. "We're almost done investigating about Matikla, Miss Berry" He relayed all the information to her.

Manida committed suicide by taking poison in prison three nights ago. The poison was developed before Fraley Hospital, and Jeffrey was poisoned to death by this poison.

There were still some collateral branches of the Fraley family that had emigrated to other countries because of conflicts of interest with Matilda in their early years After this incident, they had cut ties with her.

The person who collected her corque was her former secretary, Max Fraley.

After cremation, he bought a cheap cemetery in the suburbs ang buried her.

After hearing this, Lea turned around and walked out of the door.

Jason asked, "Miss Berry, where are you going at this hour?"

She didn't answer as she strode out. He had no choice bui to follow

Shannon brought her supper. When she saw Lea going out, she followed her

After coming out of the hospital building, they went to the parking lot. Yannis Sanders had just returned from training in the underground boxing arena. When he saw them, he followed them

Lea drove personally. She had just gotten her driver's license,

The car drove all the way to the suburbs, up the mountain, and into the cemetery.

Most of the suburbs were mountainous and had little development value. They were used as a cemetery. The cemetery was cheap, and most of the civilians around Vaporleon City were buried there.

It stretched for several hectares, and it was night time. There was no end in

It was already two o'clock in the morning. A clear moon hung in the sky. The old trees were withered, and the branches were c coiled with each other. The shadows were heavy and sinister,

The sound of the car driving startled the buds, making one's hair stand om ens.

"Miu Berry!" Jason gulped and wondered if they could head back

However, when he saw Lea's cold and bom expression, he swallowed the rest of his words.

He fell that there was no point in saying it. No one could stop what she wanted to do.

ooking at the two young people in the back row, fur held his forehead in shame.

Shannon was very afraid, but at this mom she would accompany Lea though all kinds of difficulties.

Yannis was not afraid of such a scene. After all, his life was saved by bra

The tires screeched against the ground and stopped.

Lea got out of the car, picked up the shovel from the trunk, and went straight into the depths of the graveyard. Her high-heeled leather boots stepped on the weeds and rocks as if she were walking on flat ground, exuding the aura of an army

The moonlight outlined her tall and graceful figure. The night wind blew her long hair and the hem of her black suit skirt.

Jason looked at her figure and suddenly paused. He felt that even ghosts would be afraid of Lea in this state. Even if this was hell, he felt that she could tear it down and Batten it.

He got out of the car and followed her. Shannon and Yannis had also caught up with them.

Fark

Lea came to a tombstone and looked at the words and photos on the tombstone. After confirming that it was Marilda's, she went around to the b and stabbed the shovel in her hand into the ground,

She stamped her foot, and the shovel sank into the earth. When she put her arms together, the dugged a hole. Soon, the grave was dug open.

When the three of them surrounded her, they were surprised.

They felt that Lea was indeed different since she was a genius. Even digging gr graves made them admit defeat. A few of them

also hel

helped to dig.

The grave was newly buried and the soil was still relatively loose. The four of them dug quickly, mainly because Lea's movements were very fast as if there was an endless amount of strength in her small body. After a while, the coffin was revealed.

Jason was about to go down and open the coffin, but when he saw the dark collin, his movements slowed down.

Lea had already jumped down and opened the coffin. There was an urn inside, as well as some old coins and clothes that probably belonged to Matilda. It looked a little sinister and terrifying.

However, Jason felt that Lea was even more terrifying. He jumped down to help.

Lea carried out the urn and took some ashes. Obviously, she had no intention of burying the grave properly.

The three of them hastily buried the sod back. They felt that it was better this way.

Then, everyone got into the car and went back. It was Jason who drove this time.

The ashes were taken to Riverview Hospital for testing, and the results were out the next morning

Lea was in the office. Jason took the result and sent it to her. "Miss Herry, it really isn't Matilda"

Lea laughed at that. The sunlight shone through the windows and landed on her face. It reflected in her eyes, making her look devilish and wild.

Jason was stunned as he thought, "Why is she happy that Matilda and Helen had escaped? However, looking at her expression, Matilda and Helen will probably regret not really dying this time.

Lea was indeed very happy. If Matilda and Helen really died, she felt that it would be too easy for them to end this way.

She could not let them off easily for the sin they committed to her in Lea's past life. Therefore, she wanted them all to stay alive. Initially, she had hoped that they would spend the rest of their lives in prison in pain.

Even if Helen was released from prison, she was already ruined. The rest of her life would be very painful. Now, they had all escaped. Lea didn't expect Matilda to have such ability at this stage. She really did not disappoint Lea,

Lea felt that Matilda must have had this thought when she signed the acquisition agreement for Lea. Without Fraley Group's debt, it was easier for

Matilda to escape

What surprised Lea was that she thought that after getting rid of Nixon and taking over the Fraley family, Matilda would have nothing and no one to rely on. She did not expect that Matilda still had associates that at she did not know about. Otherwise, it was impossible for Matilda to escape with her daughter by themselves.

"I've also found out about Helen Berry' in prison" Jason handed her a few pages of information.

After returning from the graveyard yesterday, he realized how important this matter was to Lea. He didn't dare to sleep and went to investigate the substitute overnight. This substitute's background was simple, so there was not much information

She was an orphan in the orphanage. She was the same age as Helen and had a similar figure. Two months ago, she had plastic surgery and was made to look like Helen. At that time, Helen was involved in a murder case. Shannon went back on her testimony and exposed her, aggravating her

Matilda had planned to use this orphan to replace Helen. However, she did not expect Lily's parents to be bribed. Therefore, this chess piece was only used now,

“Nice job” Lea compared the body double with the photo of Helen. “To be able to look so similar in such a short period of time and make people unable to see any clues, this plastic surgeon is very capable”

In her previous life, when she was 25 years old, due to the medical application of Andrews Group’s artificial brain technology, the medical technology had already become very advanced, and the plastic surgery skills had also improved.

had a few very outstanding and large cosmetic hospitals. There were a few very mustanuding cosmetic surgeons.

However, Lea was not interested in this aspect and did not pay attention to it because she was already beautiful enough.

familiar with experts in this field. She tried in recall but couldn’t find any clues.

Jason was stunned. He thought, “Is this the

he point we should pay attention to right no

He said, “After you visited her yesterday, the prison locked her up in isolation. I heard that she had a serious mental illness and they even planned to let her receive treatment. What should we do with her?

Lea said. “Since it’s a mental illness, let the prison authorities take care of her. If they can release her for treatment earlier, let her out earlier.”

Since this girl was was not Helen, Lea felt that there was no point in letting her stay in prison. She did not want her hands to be stained with unnecessary blood.

That girl was very good at pretending. Lea felt that she had some brains. What would happen in the future to her would depend on her luck.

Jason understood, “I understand. I’ll go to the prison to inform them later. When about Matilda and her daughter? Should we go and find them?”

Even if they hid at the ends of the world, as long as Alfred put in the effort, he could find them.
