

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 129 - The Contest at the Auction -

C129 The Contest at the Auction

At 8 PM in the evening, the auction officially began.

This banquet was not a formal auction. There was no need to be strict, no need to pay the deposit money in advance, and the auctioneer was hired by the hotel manager on his behalf.

Those who were either rich or powerful enough to participate in the auction would pay for the items they were auctioning on the spot. No one would go back on their words.

To the rich, face was more important than anything else.

The auctioneer walked up to the stage and announced loudly, "The auction officially begins. Please do not blindly bid. The winner will not be allowed to destroy the auction."

After a series of opening remarks, the auctioneer asked the workers to bring the first item up onto the stage.

The first item was a landscape painting by a primary school student in a poor area. The total amount of money received would be donated to children in poor mountain areas.

The first item had no value in itself, it was mainly for the public good. To put it bluntly, it was to warm up the field.

"The starting price for this landscape painting is 10,000. The auction begins, please bid." After a brief introduction of the items, the auctioneer began to let the guests compete for the items.

"I'll pay twelve thousand."

"Fourteen thousand."

"Fifteen thousand ..."

Below the stage, many people were bidding. Everyone wasn't interested in landscape painting at all. The main reason for the bidding was to liven up the atmosphere.

Very quickly, the price of the landscape painting broke through 30,000 yuan.

"Fifty thousand." Wu Tian also couldn't help but open his mouth to bid. His main goal was to make a small contribution to the children in the poor mountain area.

After the bid was raised to fifty thousand, the guests gradually calmed down and did not continue bidding.

After all, the value of this landscape painting was not high. At most, it was no more than a hundred yuan. There was no need to spend so much money to buy such a useless thing.

"Sixty thousand!" At this moment, Huang Ze couldn't help but open his mouth to bid.

The reason why he raised the price was naturally not for the children in the poor mountain area. It was just to make Wu Tian lose face in front of everyone.

"Seventy thousand!" Wu Tian continued to raise the price and shot a provocative look at Huang Ze at the same time.

Huang Ze naturally wouldn't easily admit defeat and continued to raise the price: "Eighty thousand."

"Ninety thousand."

"One hundred thousand."

"One hundred and ten thousand."

"..."

"Two hundred thousand."

Under the intense bidding of the two, the price of the painting was raised to an astronomical figure of two hundred thousand.

The atmosphere at the scene became tense. This place seemed to have turned into a battlefield devoid of smoke, and neither one of them was willing to admit defeat.

"Three hundred thousand." Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled. He continued to raise the price and directly increased it by 100,000 each time.

Huang Ze still did not show any weakness as he raised the bid: "400,000."

"Five hundred thousand."

"Six hundred thousand ..."

"One million."

When the price was raised to one million, the scene instantly boiled up.

They didn't expect that the worthless landscape painting would be sold for a sky-high price of one million, more than most of the collections.

Even the auctioneer became extremely excited. He scanned the crowd and asked: "One million, is there anyone else?"

"..."

The scene was silent.

After waiting for a few seconds, the auctioneer asked again, "Does anyone continue bidding on this landscape painting?"

"Me!"

When the auctioneer asked for the second time, Wu Tian finally opened his mouth: "I'm sure I'll buy this painting. I'll pay two million."

The moment he said that, the scene erupted. Everyone looked at Wu Tian. They didn't think that this brat would actually spend two million to buy a worthless painting.

Even Huang Lan was surprised. She nudged Wu Tian's shoulder and reminded him in a small voice, "Are you crazy? Why did you spend so much money to buy this painting?"

"Don't worry, I won't buy it." Wu Tian pursed his lips and smiled. Once again, he used his provocative gaze to look at Huang Ze.

He just dug a hole for Huang Ze. With Huang Ze's unyielding personality, he would definitely jump into it.

"But ..."

Before Huang Lan could finish her words, Huang Ze, who was standing not far away, once again raised the bid, "I bid 3.5 million."

The moment he made his bid, the crowd burst into an uproar of exclamations.

"4 million." Wu Tian did not show any signs of weakness, as if he was determined to win.

"Four million five hundred thousand." Huang Ze hesitated for a few seconds and finally called out the bid price of 4.5 million.

Of course he wouldn't be that stupid to spend several million on this broken painting. He only wanted to dig a pit for Wu Tian and let this brat fall into the pit that he dug.

This was his last bid. After he finished, he was waiting for Wu Tian's bid and wanted this brat to spend 5 million to buy a piece of scrap paper.

The young girl with thick makeup quickly understood Huang Ze's intention. She looked at Wu Tian with a look of schadenfreude. She was waiting for that brat to fall into the pit dug by Huang Ze. At that time, she would make fun of him.

Huang Ze and the girl with thick makeup stared unblinkingly at Wu Tian as they quietly waited for this kid's final bid.

After waiting for a long time, he discovered that the kid was standing there unmoved, as if he had forgotten about the auction.

As Huang Ze walked over, he couldn't help but remind Wu Tian, "Brat, why don't you continue bidding?"

"Why should I bid?" Wu Tian asked with a smile.

"What? You're not bidding?" Hearing that, Huang Ze was stunned. His eyes opened wider than a frog's.

"I feel that Boss Huang's bid is already high enough, there's no need for me to continue bidding."

"You ..." Huang Ze was so angry that he didn't know what to say. Only now did he realize that this brat had already dug a hole for him to jump into.

At this time, the auctioneer on the stage spoke again, "Four million five hundred thousand, is there anyone else who wants to raise the bid?"

"..."

The scene was completely silent. Even a fool would not raise the bid.

"Well then, congratulations to you sir, you actually got our number one item." The host took the painting of a primary school student off the stage and passed it to Huang Ze, "Now, congratulations, this painting is yours now."

"I ..."

Huang Ze's mouth twitched as he received the landscape painting with a stiff expression.

Originally, he wanted to raise the price on purpose to let Wu Tian fall into the pit and let the kid suffer a loss.

But who would've thought that this brat would go against the rules. Instead, he fell into the pit and lost 4.5 million for nothing.

"Congratulations to Boss Huang for obtaining this item. You are indeed rich." Wu Tian seemed like he was congratulating Huang Ze, but in reality, he was laughing at Huang Ze's misfortune.

Only a fool would spend so much money to buy a lousy painting. Not to mention Wu Tian, all the other guests present also laughed.

Although no one said it out loud, they all believed that Huang Ze was a fool. Otherwise, he wouldn't have spent millions to buy such worthless things.

"You ..."

Huang Ze was so angry that his face turned dark and his body started trembling.

Not only did he lose so much money, he even became the laughing stock of the entire stadium. He was too angry.

In this small game, Wu Tian won again.

"Boss Huang." Wu Tian patted Huang Ze's shoulder and kindly advised, "I told you a long time ago not to mess with me, why didn't you believe me?"

"Kid, this matter isn't over. Sooner or later, I will destroy you." Huang Ze shook his arm and turned around to the trading area angrily.

Thus, the enmity between the two became deeper and deeper. It would be difficult to forget it if they did not fight to the death.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 130 - There be Some Beauty in the Atmosphere -

C130 There be Some Beauty in the Atmosphere

After the auction dinner, Wu told Uncle Fugui to take Elder Sister Lan home, then drove back to his residence.

He had just entered the building where the residential complex was located when he saw Teacher Mu Ran pacing back and forth in front of the elevator.

Eh, why did Teacher Mu come here?

Teacher Mu was currently wearing a sportswear, with a hint of feminine gentleness and gentleness.

After pausing for a moment, Wu Tian walked over to greet Mu Ran: "Good evening, Teacher Mu."

"This is bad!"

Upon seeing Wu Tian, Mu Ran's face immediately darkened. She angrily scolded, "Do you know how many days you've been absent from class?"

"Teacher Mu came to look for me specifically because of my truancy?" Wu Tian's expression was even more bitter than a bitter gourd.

Teacher Mu had really put a lot of effort into this. She had even personally come knocking on his door because he had skipped class for the past few days.

It was not unusual for Teacher Mu to know his home address. He had already registered it at the school, so he could easily find it by checking it out.

"That's right." Mu Ran crossed her arms and looked at Wu Tian angrily, "Tell me, how many days have you skipped class?"

"Two days."

"Say that again?"

"Five days."

"You are getting more and more outrageous. Before, you only skipped classes for a day or two at a time, but now, you directly skipped classes for a few days. Do you have any respect for me?" Mu Ran reprimanded him right away.

"I'm sorry, Teacher Mu. I was wrong." Seeing Teacher Mu lose her temper, Wu Tian hurriedly apologized, "I promise that I will never skip classes again."

"You've said this many times before, but the result is still the same. You'll be skipping classes the next day as well."

"I swear it this time."

"It's no use even if you swear on it. Write a guarantee." Mu Ran took out a pen and paper from her bag and passed it to Wu Tian. She instructed, "This time, I want you to write a guarantee."

"Huh?" Wu Tian was stunned. He never expected Teacher Mu to carry a pen and paper with her. Had she come specifically to ask him to write a guarantee?

It seemed like Teacher Mu was serious this time. He did not dare to be negligent and hurriedly took the pen and paper. "Teacher Mu, I'll write the guarantee certificate now."

After which, he wrote a guarantee in front of his teacher.

"Just these few words?" After Mu Ran finished looking at the guarantee, she frowned in dissatisfaction.

Because there was only one sentence written on the certificate: I promise that I will never skip classes again.

This sentence was simply too insincere.

"Then I'll write more." Wu Tian was as obedient as a kitten, he took the pen and paper and added a few sentences.

Mu Ran took the guarantee and looked at it again, then put it into her bag. She reminded him, "In the future, remember to come to school on time and never skip classes again. If you continue to skip classes, I'll punish you."

"Alright, I promise I will not skip classes next time." Wu Tian promised sincerely, and every time he admitted his mistakes in front of the teacher, he was always sincere.

"Alright, don't be late tomorrow."

"Teacher Mu, you're already here. Why don't you come visit my house?"

"It's too late, so I won't go."

"Fine." Wu Tian didn't force her and tried to please her again, "Why don't I send Teacher Mu back?"

"No, I'll just take a taxi." Mu Ran retracted the anger on her face and walked outside.

After walking not too far, she suddenly stopped. She turned around and asked anxiously, "Classmate Wu, is there a toilet nearby?"

"Yes, it's over there." Wu Tian said to Teacher Mu while pointing at the public restroom on the right side.

"Yes, thank you." Mu Ran ran off in the direction of the toilet after she finished her sentence. Her face was a little unsightly.

Wu Tian couldn't help but laugh when he saw Teacher Mu's back twist.

There were three types of emergencies for people to deal with. Unexpectedly, Teacher Mu also had her own emergencies, which made her seem no different from an ordinary woman.

He stood in the corridor for a long time, waiting for Teacher Mu to come out. Worried that something would happen to Teacher Mu, he then walked towards the toilet.

It was a simple toilet, divided into a men's room and a woman's room. This was for emergency use by the residents of the residential complex.

Of course, every household had a toilet, so it was rare for them to come to this toilet for convenience.

"Teacher Mu, are you alright?" Wu Tian walked over, and whispered something in concern.

"I'm fine." Teacher Mu's voice came from the ladies' room, but it was obviously unnatural.

"It's really fine?"

"I'm fine."

"Since Teacher Mu has nothing else, then I'll head home first." After Wu Tian said this, he stood outside the toilet and waited for a long time, but there was no reply.

Just as he was about to leave, he heard Teacher Mu's voice: "Classmate Wu, are you still there?"

"I'm here." Hearing this voice, Wu Tian had no choice but to stop.

"I'm in some trouble right now, so I need your help." Inside the washroom, Mu Ran's voice was as quiet as the buzzing of a fly.

Wu Tian could only move closer and put his ear to the door, "Teacher Mu, if there's anything you need, feel free to tell me. Even if it's something difficult, I won't refuse."

He agreed readily and flattered her.

"About that, I ..." Mu Ran's voice was getting softer and softer. She was so embarrassed that she could not speak.

Wu Tian thought for a moment and asked, "Teacher Mu, did you go to the toilet without any paper?"

"No, no, I ..."

"What's going on?"

"That's me ..." Mu Ran whispered after spitting for a long time, "Something is coming."

"Which one?"

"Menstrual period."

"Ugh." Wu Tian finally understood and tried asking, "Teacher Mu didn't bring a sanitary towel, right?"

"Right." Mu Ran's voice became softer and softer, "Classmate Wu, can you help teacher buy some?"

"No problem."

"Buy the big ones."

"The one with the stronger absorption ability, right?"

"Ugh ..."

"Wait a moment, I'll be right there." After Wu Tian said that, he turned around and ran out of the district as fast as he could.

There was a supermarket not far away from the residential area. Wu Tian quickly found the sanitary napkins and bought two bags for each of the two brands and models.

In less than five minutes, he returned to the district with a few bags of sanitary napkins. He knocked on the door of the women's restroom, "Teacher, I've bought some things. Open the door."

"Wait a moment." After Mu Ran answered, she opened the toilet door after a long time. She then stretched out her five fingers, "Quick, give me the thing."

"Here." Because he had bought too many sanitary napkins, he had to push the door open a bit before he could hand the things in.

Mu Ran cried out in fright when the door was pushed open. She snatched the towel away and slammed the bathroom door shut.

He stood outside the door for a long time before he saw Mu Ran walking out of the toilet with several bags of sanitary napkins in her hands.

However, her cheeks were flushed as if they had been dyed with blood. At this moment, she looked extremely charming and alluring, giving off a particularly feminine vibe.

Mu Ran raised her head and glared at Wu Tian. With an embarrassed expression, she lowered her head and reproached, "You have let me down too much. You didn't learn well at all."

"Where did I not learn well?" Wu Tian asked with a sullen expression.

If he thought about it carefully, he did not do anything wrong just now. Why would Teacher Mu say that?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 131 - You Can Stay in My House -

C131 You Can Stay in My House

Mu Ran gritted her teeth as her expression turned even more embarrassed. She said angrily, "I was in the toilet just now. Who told you to open the door so wide?"

"There are so many sanitary napkins! If I don't open the door, I won't be able to pass them in!" Wu Tian explained seriously.

"Who asked you to buy so much?"

"I'm afraid you don't have enough ..."

"You obviously bought so many sanitary napkins on purpose and then found an excuse to push the door open, wanting to take this opportunity to peek at me." The more Mu Ran spoke, the angrier she got, and the redder her cheeks became.

She felt ashamed and angry when she thought of her own student using such a despicable method to take advantage of her.

"I swear to god, I really don't have that kind of thought. If I did that kind of dirty thing to teacher, I would be struck by lightning." Wu Tian raised his right hand and swore to the heavens.

He just wanted to pass Teacher Mu the sanitary towel, and it was not because he wanted to take the chance to peek at Teacher Mu.

Although he wanted to see Teacher Mu, he didn't have the guts to. After all, Teacher Mu was very fierce, and this had left a deep shadow in his heart.

"Are you really not peeking at me?" Seeing Wu Tian swear so sincerely, Mu Ran doubted her own judgment.

Could she have misunderstood Classmate Wu?

"It really isn't." Wu Tian shook his head forcefully and explained, "I don't know which brand of sanitary napkins Teacher Mu used, so I bought a few more."

"Alright!" Mu Ran also did not want to pursue this issue any further.

Actually, she couldn't tell if Wu Tian was lying or not, but she couldn't wrongly accuse Wu Tian because of this.

After thinking for a moment, she gritted her teeth and asked, "Did you see anything after you pushed the door open?"

"I didn't see anything." Wu Tian told the truth.

Actually, he also wanted to see something, but it was too dark in the toilet to see.

"That's good." Hearing this, Mu Ran felt more at ease.

If Wu Tian saw something, it would be embarrassing to death for her.

She calmed down and took a long time to recover her composure, "Classmate Wu, thank you for helping teacher buy that thing just now."

"It's no big deal. In the future, if Teacher Mu wants to buy sanitary napkins, she can find me anytime ..."

*

Mu Ran coughed dryly with a flushed face. She snappily rolled her eyes and retorted, "How much did those things cost? Teacher will give you the money."

If it wasn't for the urgent situation, she wouldn't have let her students buy her those things even if she were beaten to death. She felt so embarrassed that she could die.

"Those things are not expensive. They are not worth much money. You don't need to pay for them." Wu Tian waved his hands generously, naturally feeling embarrassed to ask his teacher for money.

"No, I told you to buy these, I have to pay for them." Saying this, Mu Ran took out a hundred dollars from her purse, "You keep this, teacher can't take advantage of you."

"Teacher Mu, I don't want money."

"Quick, keep it."

"I really don't want money."

"If I tell you to collect money, then accept it!" Mu Ran exclaimed, her face blushing red again.

Wu Tian was so scared that he quickly retracted his hands and apologized, "Sorry, Teacher Mu, I didn't do it on purpose."

He had accidentally bumped into Teacher Mu's body just now.

"Student Wu Tian, since I told you to take it, take it. Don't reject me again." Mu Ran passed the money to Wu Tian angrily, but the blush on her face did not disappear even now.

"Yes." Wu Tian could only accept the hundred yuan bill.

He was afraid that if this continued, another embarrassing incident would occur.

"Alright, it's too late. Teacher should leave now." It was already awkward enough tonight. Mu Ran turned to leave as soon as she finished her sentence.

She had only taken two steps when she let out a cry of pain. She covered her stomach and slowly squatted on the ground. Her expression was one of extreme pain.

Seeing that the situation was bad, Wu Tian quickly went up and expressed his concern: "Teacher Mu, what's wrong with you? Are you alright? "

"Pain!" Mu Ran only said two words. At this moment, beads of sweat rolled down her forehead, and her face was contorted.

Seeing Teacher Mu in such pain, Wu Tian couldn't help but feel sorry for her. "Teacher Mu, bear with it. I'll send you to the hospital."

"No need."

"Since you're in so much pain, how can you not go to the hospital?"

"It's the same every time I get my period. It's no use going to the hospital!"

"Dysmenorrhea?" Wu Tian was still at a loss after learning about the situation, "Then what do we do now?"

"I'll find a place to rest for a while. It'll be fine after it hurts for a while." Mu Ran turned her head to the side after saying that.

She didn't want to show her sorry state in front of her students.

"Teacher Mu, I think your dysmenorrhea is very serious. If you go home now, I won't be able to rest at ease. How about you stay at my house tonight? My house is big anyway." Wu Tian suggested.

"This ..."

Mu Ran wanted to retort, but she couldn't go home in this situation, so she could only nod and say, "Alright then."

"Come, let me help you up the stairs." Wu Tian quickly held Teacher Mu's arm and took the elevator to his house.

After sending Mu Ran to the guest room, he hurriedly poured some warm water and handed it over to her. "Teacher Mu, have some water."

"Alright." Mu Ran took the teacup and took two sips before she collapsed on the bed, clutching her stomach, letting the beads of sweat roll down her face.

Wu Tian quickly wiped the sweat off Teacher Mu's forehead with a tissue and said gently, "Seeing you in such pain, I really don't feel good. I wish I could help you to bear these pain."

Mu Ran's heart was inexplicably warm when she heard this.

She had always suffered alone before. This was the first time a boy cared so much about her.

She gritted her teeth and forced a smile as she said, "Don't worry, I'll be fine. I'll be fine very soon."

After saying that, she turned around and lay down, not saying anything else.

After a long while, the pain in her body gradually disappeared, and she quickly returned to her usual state.

However, her complexion still didn't look too good, as if she was suffering from a serious illness.

Mu Ran stood up from the bed and tidied up her messy hair. With an embarrassed face, she said, "Classmate Wu, thank you for your concern. Teacher is fine now."

"It's good that you're fine. You scared me to death just now." Seeing that Teacher Mu had recovered, Wu Tian also secretly felt relieved.

Honestly speaking, this was the first time he had seen a woman suffer such pain. He didn't expect it to be so painful. That taste might never be felt by boys.

Therefore, he admired Teacher Mu even more.

She was clearly in pain earlier, but she still clenched her teeth and persisted.

"I should go back now." Mu Ran wiped the sweat off her forehead and turned to leave with her bag in her hand.

In the end, Wu Tian blocked her way, "Teacher Mu, it's too late now. It's not safe on the road, and if your pain starts again, no one will take care of you. Why don't you stay at my house tonight?"

"Stay here?"

"Don't worry, Teacher Mu. As long as you don't call me in, I promise I won't enter this room."

"Alright then." Seeing Wu Tian being so sincere in urging her to stay, Mu Ran could only nod and agree.

Furthermore, what Classmate Wu said was right. It was indeed very late now. If another accident were to happen, she really wouldn't be able to deal with it.

She might as well stay here. Naturally, she wasn't worried about what Classmate Wu would do to her, since this guy's personality was pretty good.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 132 - Pitiful Li Meng -

C132 Pitiful Li Meng

The night passed in silence.

The next day, Wu Tian got up early. He first went to buy breakfast for Teacher Mu, then asked Uncle Fugui to drive them to school.

Before they reached the school gate, Mu Ran hastily spoke, "Classmate Wu, stop the car. I will get off here."

"Why did you get off here?" Wu Tian frowned in confusion.

"Once I enter the school, it won't be good if my classmates see me." Mu Ran coughed dryly and explained in a low voice.

She didn't want others to know that she had spent the night at Wu Tian's house, so it would be bad for her reputation if it got out.

"Alright!" Wu Tian did not force her to stop. He quickly told Uncle Fugui to stop the car.

After getting off the car, Mu Ran stroked her hair and said gently, "Classmate Wu, thank you for taking care of the teacher last night."

"It's nothing."

"In the future, remember to attend school on time. Don't skip classes again."

"Don't worry, I won't skip any classes in the future."

"That's good." Having said so, Mu Ran turned around and walked towards the north gate of the school.

Wu Tian shook his head with a bitter smile and let Uncle Fugui drive the car into the school. After getting off the car, he obediently went to the school to teach.

In order to live up to Teacher Mu's expectations, Wu Tian was very serious about his lessons. Whenever he had time, he would learn the lessons he had missed in the past few days.

Teacher Mu also saw him studying hard. Teacher Mu was especially pleased and smiled at him from time to time.

At noon, Wu Tian asked Jiang Wan and Sunn Xiaohao to go to the restaurant to eat together. Wang Hong also eagerly followed along to pay his respects.

This made Wu Tian feel very disgusted, but he didn't say much and brought the three of them to the cafeteria.

While the three of them were talking and laughing, a commotion came from the dining hall and attracted the attention of many students.

"Look, Tian, isn't that Lee Meng?" Jiang Wan's eyes lit up as he looked at the center of the crowd.

Hearing this, a few of them raised their heads and looked over.

Staring at the crowd, Sunn Xiaohao couldn't help but exclaim, "Lee Meng seems to be arguing with Zhao Yang."

Wu Tian listened carefully. Lee Meng and Zhao Yang were indeed quarreling, and they even mentioned his name from time to time.

After arguing for a while, Lee Meng pushed Zhao Yang away and walked over quickly. The students also followed Lee Meng's line of sight.

Seeing that Lee Meng was getting closer and closer, Jiang Wan could not help but ask doubtfully, "Tian, is Lee Meng here to see you?"

"Yes, I think so too." Sunn Xiaohao nodded in agreement.

They didn't expect Lee Meng to be quarreling with Zhao Yang. What was she planning to do by running over to Wu Tian so quickly?

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd, Lee Meng walked in front of Wu Tian with gentle footsteps and begged in a low voice, "Wu Tian, I came to apologize to you. Please forgive me. I shouldn't have forsaken you, I shouldn't have hurt your pride."

"The past is over." Wu Tian's tone was as calm as water without any ripples.

"Tian ..."

Lee Meng suddenly rushed forward and grabbed Wu Tian's arm, crying pitifully, "Let's make up. Give me a chance. I promise that I will never abandon you in the future and will never part with you again."

Recently, she saw Wu Tian becoming more and more outstanding and powerful, so she didn't feel good about it at all.

When she compared Wu Tian with Zhao Yang, she discovered that in terms of ability, strength, money, and skill, Wu Tian was much better than Zhao Yang in any aspect.

If she missed a good boy like Wu Tian, it would be a lifetime of regret for her. That was why she begged him to reunite with her.

"As I said, the past is the past. We can't go back." Wu Tian retracted his arm and mercilessly refused.

It wasn't because he was rich that he refused to make up with Lee Meng.

That was because after he had money, he had clearly seen Lee Meng's essence. This girl was a greedy, vain, selfish girl.

This kind of girl wasn't worth his effort.

Something unexpected happened.

Unexpectedly, Lee Meng's legs went soft and she kneeled down in front of Wu Tian. She begged, "I was wrong, I really was wrong. Please, please give me one last chance."

As she spoke, tears rolled down her face.

She knew that this was her last chance. If she didn't fight for it this time, then she wouldn't have another chance in the future.

Seeing this scene, the entire audience began to boil with excitement.

Including Sunn Xiaohao, Jiang Wan, and Wang Hong, all of them were dumbstruck. They didn't expect Lee Meng, who had always been arrogant, to kneel in front of them.

Previously, in order to pursue Lee Meng, Wu Tian gave up on his dignity and tried his best to curry favor with her.

In the end, Lee Meng viciously hurt Wu Tian, trampling on his feelings like dog shit.

But now, everything had changed.

Lee Meng, who had once trampled on Wu Tian's dignity and feelings, was now kneeling down in front of Wu Tian.

Seeing this reversal, Sunn Xiaohao and Jiang Wan both felt vexed, as if they had avenged years of humiliation.

Wu Tian's heart was slightly touched. Seeing Lee Meng kneel, his heart softened.

However, when he thought of the damage Lee Meng had done to him, the softness in his heart disappeared in a flash.

"I made a mistake once. I won't make the same mistake again. It will never happen between us." Wu Tian said this coldly, stood up and left.

Lee Meng immediately lost all hope.

Lee Meng's body went limp, collapsing onto the ground like a pile of mud.

She had already put down her dignity and tried to reunite with Wu Tian in such a lowly way, but the result made her dissatisfied. Her heart ached.

Thinking about how she hurt Wu Tian before and now that she suffered the same pain, perhaps it was her retribution.

Once Wu Tian left, the scene boiled up once again.

No one felt sympathy for Lee Meng. In fact, many people felt that Lee Meng had brought this upon herself.

All the students mocked Lee Meng. Previously, she didn't know how to cherish things, but now it was too late for her to regret it.

Right now, Lee Meng really wanted to cry, but there were no tears. Other than regret in her heart, there was only regret. She would probably regret it for the rest of her life.

Sunn Xiaohao and the others saw Wu Tian leave. They got up and quickly followed him out. They only caught up to Wu Tian when they were outside the restaurant.

"Tian, I really didn't expect Lee Meng to kneel before you in public." Sunn Xiaohao ran over and exclaimed in an exaggerated tone.

Jiang Wan followed along and said, "Tian, you are so awesome. In such a short period of time, you made the woman who humiliated you kneel down and apologize."

"She didn't kneel to me, she knelt to the power of money." Wu Tian smiled and threw down his mocking smile.

If he was left with nothing now, Lee Meng would definitely not kneel for reunion and even trample on him a few times.

"However, when we saw the woman who once hurt you kneel to you in such a humble manner, we brothers felt extremely relieved." Sunn Xiaohao was so happy that he couldn't even close his mouth.

"Let's not talk about her." Wu Tian smiled bitterly and took the initiative to change the topic, "We haven't had our fill just now. I'll treat you guys to a meal somewhere else. Let's go."

Having said so, Wu Tian walked to the other side of the street with Sunn Xiaohao and Jiang Wan by his shoulder. Wang Hong followed closely behind, flattering them from time to time.
