

Hidden 1471

Chapter 1471: Might As Well Donate It

Guests were bidding farewell to Ning Yaohua and Su Hongguang.

"Chairman Ning, I have to apologize. There's some emergency at my company, and I have to leave now. Congratulations again! Sorry!"

"It's alright. Your attendance itself is my pleasure. Thank you, CEO Wang!"

After Ning Yaohua bade farewell to one guest, another one came to him. "Chairman Wang, my company has been busy lately and I forgot that I have a meeting scheduled today. I've got to go now. I apologize in advance!"

Ning Yaohua quickly replied, "Not at all, let me send you off!"

"It's okay. Stay here! I'll leave on my own..."

At first, Ning Yaohua did not realize something was wrong. Only until the fifth person came to him, he knew that things were odd.

At the same time, Su Hongguang was faced with the same situation as well.

Unfortunately, the wedding ceremony was about to start, so they did not have much time to think about it. The host called them up on stage to start getting ready.

At the same time, in the multipurpose hall upstairs, a poster of the charity fund had been placed by the entrance. There were two usherers, and the setup was simple. Nevertheless, the poster design was clean and neat, and the usherers were really kind and polite as they were guiding the incoming guests towards the registration counter. It was clearly well thought out.

The decoration inside the hall was simple and tidy. Most of the people present were artistes from Glory World Entertainment and the company partners. There were not a lot of people but there was a comfortable vibe around.

Ning Xi was working together with the assistants and managers while having a call at the same time too.

It was from Zhuang Keer, who had just told her that she was about to reach with her mother.

Ning Xi was surprised, then she beamed gratefully. "Thank you, Keer!"

"You're welcome. I'm here already!"

At the entrance, Zhuang Keer registered her name, then she put a gift bag onto the table. "I'm donating this bracelet."

The item Zhuang Keer had taken out was the bracelet Ning Xueluo had left in her car. She would feel disgusted if she kept it, so she might as well donate it.

After she was done registering, Zhuang Keer went in with her mother.

Ning Xi quickly greeted them, "Keer, Mrs. Zhuang! Thank you for coming!"

Not just Keer, even Mrs. Zhuang was present. It was really an honor, and Ning Xi was a little shocked.

Meng Linlang noticed Ning Xi's gratefulness, and she spoke to her gently, "Look at you. I've told you a lot of times that you don't have to be so uptight. We should be the ones thanking you. You've helped us a lot and we've just treated you to a few meals. We don't really have anything else left to help you with. Plus, we could definitely help out at a charity event like this. You don't have to thank us!"

Meng Linlang had made the decision today after thorough consideration. Charity was a noble cause. It was the best way to help both the Zhuang family and Ning Xi, and no one would say anything bad about it.

Ning Xi was aware about it as well, and she was touched by Meng Linlang's heedful thought. She smiled warmly and served them some tea.

However, Ning Xi did not expect that not only did Meng Linlang come. She had done much more than she could ever imagine...

Chapter 1472: These People Are The Ones I Invited

Soon after Meng Linlang came in, the empty entrance was soon filled with people, and they seemed to behave oddly...

For example, an old man who was registering wore a full suit and seemed like he had just come over from an important function. He then asked, "Do you only accept cash? Can I donate items instead?"

"Of course, you can!" The staff nodded.

That elder instantly removed a pricey-looking watch from his wrist. "Then, I'll donate this!"

"Okay..."

To the surprise of the people manning the registration table, several other guests did the same as this elder. They all said that they had rushed over and did not prepare items in time. Then, they immediately took off some of their accessories and donated it, causing the two staff too look at each other in dismay.

As Ling Zhizhi saw more and more strange, unfamiliar faces, she went up to Ning Xi. "Ning Xi, did you invite them?"

Ning Xi looked around and saw people who were obviously not on the list. "Uhh, Sis Zhizhi, didn't you invite them?"

They were confused as they both thought that the other person had invited these people.

The banquet tonight was for charity purposes, so Ling Zhizhi had started promoting it and invited people very early, but it was pretty obvious that many of these people would not fall under her radar.

In addition, most people attended Ning Xueluo's wedding, which was coincidentally on the same day as her event instead.

Ning Xi suddenly thought of something, and she mumbled, "I think I know what happened... Let me ask..."

After Ning Xi told Ling Zhizhi to wait, she approached Zhuang Keer and Meng Linlang. "Mrs. Zhuang, it seems like a lot of top CEOs and celebrities are here today, and they aren't on our guest list. By chance, did you invite them?"

Meng Linlang looked at those people and smiled rather mysteriously. "These people? Nope."

She denied being responsible for this strange turn of events.

They were not invited by Meng Linlang. Then, who?

Ning Xi was really confused.

The elder CEOs who entered in a hurry were chatting.

"What's happening? Is the information given mistaken? I asked just now. It's just a charity fund organized by some little artiste!"

"Let's wait for a while. Didn't you see that Mrs. Zhuang and Ms. Zhuang are here?"

"What about Chief Zhao and Minister Liu? Didn't the news say they would come? None of them are here! I risked offending both the Su and the Ning families to come here. I might get into trouble!"

"Ms. Zhuang looks pretty young. Maybe she's a fan of this artiste called Ning Xi. My daughter is a fan of hers as well, always talking to me about her..."

"That might just be it..."

"Uhh, so... The news about the chief and the minister are not true? Should we go back down?"

As they were confused and complaining that they had donated their items for nothing, a group of people strolled in from the entrance.

They were chatting happily on the way here, and leading them were Chief Zhao and Minister Liu...

The people behind them were even more powerful. There were several government officials who rarely showed their faces in public and even their wives were here.

And then they saw...

"That... Is that Zhuang Liaoyuan, General Zhuang?!"

At the same time. Meng Linlang looked at Ning Xi, then she grinned. "There... These are the ones I invited."

"Uhh..."

Chapter 1473: People Are Gone

Ning Xi was really shocked to the core.

So, these were the ones Meng Linlang invited...

As for the others, from the chatter, they seemed to have come after they heard these people were coming.

"Chief Zhuang," Ning Xi greeted Zhuang Liaoyuan personally, not knowing what to say. It was a really great honor to her.

"I combined your event with a project from the Charity Fund Association without asking. I hope you don't mind," Zhuang Liaoyuan said.

Ning Xi quickly replied, "Not at all, but it must have really troubled you!"

Zhuang Liaoyuan did not seem to mind. "As long as it's not troubling you."

"Of course not! But the space here is a little small, and the decoration is a little too simple as well. It might not meet your expectations..."

"Don't worry about it. The space is definitely enough. We're doing charity here and not some commercial show, so the simpler, the better."

Ning Xi was relieved, then she thanked him again. "I'll leave you here for now. I've got to work hard!"

Meng Linlang said gently, "Go now, you don't have to worry about us!"

Ning Xi went to explain the situation to Ling Zhizhi.

"Ning Xi, you know General Zhuang?" Ling Zhizhi was surprised.

"I helped the Zhuang family a little out of coincidence, so I'm on friendly terms with Zhuang Keer in private. They are probably here to support me because of the help I've extended before," Ning Xi explained.

Ling Zhizhi was then relieved. Although it was a surprise to have so many people turn up, she did not have to worry anymore. The people from the Charity Fund Association had come to help too, and armed with their experience, they were already taking over the event.

In the wedding hall downstairs, the long-awaited wedding ceremony was finally starting. After a passionate speech by the host, the sacred wedding tune was played. At the end of the red carpet, the bride in her breathtaking white gown was accompanied by her father. They were walking slowly on the red carpet towards the groom.

They had finally reached this exciting moment. The cameras of all the invited media partners were focused on the bride Ning Xueluo, the guests, and especially on the girls who were so envious while looking at her. The awkwardness brought upon by the Zhuang family earlier was almost forgotten entirely...

Due to the large venue, and the red carpet being rather long, while Ning Xueluo was walking towards the stage, a large crowd of guests left the venue quietly.

"What's happening? Why do I see so many people leaving halfway?" An artiste in a yellow dress from Glory World Entertainment looked around suspiciously.

The artiste in red dress seemed doubtful as well. As they spoke, a CEO beside her got up to leave hastily too.

The artiste in red shirt stopped him. "CEO Li, where are you going?"

"Haha, I have an important event to attend. We'll talk again next time, Ms. Feng." CEO Li then quickly fled.

The more the artiste in red dress thought about it, the more she felt it was very strange. Finally, she could not suppress her curiosity and went outside with the artiste in yellow dress following her as well. They then saw that the guests who had left earlier were all going upstairs...

Chapter 1474: Make It Even Better

"That's weird... Is there an important event upstairs?"

"Isn't it Ning Xi's charity event going on upstairs? It's just a small hall, and it wouldn't fit any other event."

As the two artistes were discussing, a group of people came up from the staircase.

The one leading the posse was their boss Lu Jingli, and the one beside him was their big boss Lu Tingxiao. The ones behind were all the elusive higher-ups of Glory World Entertainment.

That was not just all. Soon, another group of people came up from the stairs. There was a white-haired man with sunglasses with several cold-looking bodyguards behind him, and a man in gold-framed glasses beside him.

This... This iconic white hair! Could... Could it be the rumored CEO Yun?

As the two artistes were shocked by what they saw, the two groups of people faced each other.

"Yo, CEO Lu, what a coincidence that you're here! Are you here to make things even better?" The man with white hair took off his sunglasses and smiled at the expressionless man.

Lu Tingxiao did not react. He just paused in his steps for a bit, then continued going up.

Lu Jingli looked at the man behind, then he quickly caught up with his brother.

Why was this guy here as well?

What a rough day!

They had already planned to support Xiao Xi Xi, and to go against the couple celebrating their wedding on the floor below them. In the end, the Zhuang family intervened, so not only did they have not much to do, even the love rival was here as well...

Downstairs, at this moment, people started to realize that something was amiss. They started asking around about what had happened. In the end, everyone found out that the people who had left went upstairs.

Even the guests could sense something was wrong, so of course, the media would catch up as well.

A few quick-witted reporters sensed that there might be big news this time. They decided to take the risk and give up on Ning Xueluo's wedding, secretly going upstairs instead...

They were shocked at what they saw.

They thought that what they had just witnessed downstairs was already a rare scene, but what was happening upstairs would be what one called a legendary scene.

It was a gathering of high officials and the obscenely rich...

If at this moment, a bomb were to go off inside there, the whole of China would crumble.

All the reporters who went upstairs did not return at all.

Ning Xueluo was clinging onto Ning Yaohua's arm, her eyes glassy and shiny as she walked closer and closer towards her happiness. Her everything...

Finally, as she reached in front of Su Yan, she turned around and to her horror, she realized that the once fully-seated hall was now only half-filled, and she could see people leaving quickly.

"What's happening?"

However, she could not do anything about it now, so Ning Xueluo could only keep her insecurities in check and wait until the ceremony was over.

The exchange of the rings, the recital of the sacred oath...

It was supposed to be the part she looked forward to the most, but the people in the hall kept on trickling out, and in the end only about a third was left.

The moment the ceremony ended, Ning Xueluo asked around about what had happened.

"Father, Mother... What happened? Why are so many guests suddenly leaving?"

Chapter 1475: Eh, Another One?

Ning Yaohua was sweating buckets as he reported, "I just sent someone to investigate. It seems that the guests are going upstairs!"

"What are they doing upstairs?" Ning Xueluo's expression darkened.

The wedding had been going well at first, then the issue from the Zhuang family turned up, and people started disappearing at such an important moment. The rest of the guests were not really paying attention to her exchange of vows and were discussing what was happening. She felt like an idiot on stage. In retrospect, she wondered how she had endured that period of time, and had even recited the oath wrongly...

The worst thing was no one noticed that she had misspoken...

Upstairs?

Was it not Ning Xi's nonsensical charity event?

She had picked the same day and venue for her wedding. A huge part of the reason was to go against Ning Xi, which is what reminded her of it.

But what were these people doing upstairs?

Could Ning Xi have changed the date to avoid her, and some other important event was going on right now?

"We're not sure yet. It's really full upstairs at the moment, so there's no space to get in. No one knows what's happening," Su Hongguang said with a heavy expression.

Zhuang Lingyu looked pale as she looked at Su Hongguang and Su Yan's mother. "Why would something like this happen on such an important day? And up until now, the cause of the issue is still unidentified. Are you expecting us to take care of it?"

Su Yan's mother was unhappy. "Didn't we say we're working on it!? We're still not sure who's causing the issue here! Not all the guests who left are from the Su family's list!"

"What are you implying?"

Su Yan looked really exhausted and he quickly intervened, "Mother, please stop arguing. I'll go up and check it out myself."

"Bro Yan..."

"Be good and wait here. I'll be back soon." Su Yan patted Ning Xueluo's head, then he headed outside the hall.

When Su Yan went upstairs, the crowd outside had dispersed.

He just saw a board that was put up outside of the hall with Ning Xi in it. It was a poster of her wearing a white dress for the event promotion.

"Good evening, sir, please register here!" One of the staff invited him warmly after seeing Su Yan.

At that moment, another staff recognized Su Yan and quickly said something to the other colleague.

The staff saw the tag that said "groom" on Su Yan's chest and awkwardly stopped the other colleague. He wondered what Su Yan was doing here when he was a groom today.

"I'm sorry, I'd like to know if there's some event going on here today?" Although he had seen the board, Su Yan asked for confirmation anyway.

"It's the initiation of a charity fund and a donation ceremony by Bro Xi!" The staff replied cheerfully.

Su Yan frowned. It was really Ning Xi...

While he knew that it was rude, Su Yan could not help but to look into the hall. To his astonishment, he saw most of the guests who had left his wedding banquet were all here; not only that, the people seated in the front were all important officials of the city. He even saw people from the Zhuang family!

"Eh... Another one?" Just as all the blood had rushed out of Su Yan's face from the shock, there was a voice behind him.

He turned around and saw a white-haired man looking at him with a questionable smile.

Another person also showed up at the same time... Lu Tingxiao?

Coincidentally, Ning Xi knew that her big boss was coming over, so she was about to welcome her sweetheart personally, but then, she saw such an odd scene.

Chapter 1476: Dear, You Were Blind!

What the heck?!

What was going on?

Why was Yun Shen here too?

Apart from that, why was Su Yan here as well?

Ning Xi looked at Lu Tingxiao, then at Yun Shen, then at Su Yan... She was well and utterly confused...

How did the three of them end up together?

Yun Shen chuckled when he saw Ning Xi come out. He said as he looked at Su Yan, "Dear, this is your first love? How blind were you?"

Ning Xi was annoyed. "You're blind! Your whole family is blind!"

Yun Shen observed Lu Tingxiao and Lu Jingli when she said that, then he laughed maniacally, "My whole family is blind? You're probably right..."

"Lunatic..." Ning Xi was speechless. She then glared at Tang Ye, "Can you please hold your boss back?"

Tang Ye's expression told her that it had nothing to do with him at all.

Ning Xi then peered at Su Yan, her eyebrows raised a little. "Mr. Su, aren't you at the wrong place?"

Su Yan had mixed expressions across his face. He was about to say something, but the words just could not come out, so he turned around and left.

He thought that Ning Xi did not attend his wedding because she could not accept it and did not want to face them, but the truth was much more different than that.

It was as if his wedding today did not affect her in any way at all. Even his appearance did not stir any emotions inside her.

What really shocked him was the attitude of the two men and the way they looked at Ning Xi.

Being a man himself, he knew exactly what those eyes meant!

And the important guests in the hall...

The person-in-charge had issued a special order to open up the other connecting hall to contain all the guests.

He realized that the girl he used to know so intimately had turned into someone he hardly recognised.

Ning Xi turned towards Lu Tingxiao with glistening eyes after Su Yan left, and her attitude had totally changed. "Boss, please come in!"

Lu Tingxiao seemed to be satisfied with the girl's joyful expression when she saw him. "Mmm, don't overexhaust yourself."

"Mmm, I got it, Boss!" Ning Xi nodded.

"Hey, there's another Boss here too! Xiao Xi Xi, you have really bad eyesight!" The neglected Lu Jingli started complaining.

"Yes yes, Boss. Please come in as well. Thank you for your hard work!"

"That sounds better!" Lu Jingli then went in.

The uninvited Yun Shen did not seem to mind at all, and he entered on his own accord.

The moment Lu Tingxiao went inside, there were gasps of shock everywhere, and as Yun Shen followed in afterwards, the voices grew louder...

"Oh my gosh! I was just saying earlier that if Lu Tingxiao and Yun Shen were to be here, all the big shots in the world of business would be gathered at this one spot! And... come they did!"

"This is really shocking! Who exactly is that artiste? Isn't this too much?"

"I heard she's the top artiste of Glory World Entertainment now..."

After the two female artistes from Glory World Entertainment who joined Ning Xueluo's wedding found out about the event upstairs, they regretted not being there even though they were invited. They had missed such a huge opportunity, and when they reached there, the event was already going on halfway!

Chapter 1477: Married A Wild Fowl

"Bro Yan, you're back! Have you found out? What's happening upstairs?" Ning Xueluo asked impatiently.

"It's an important event. The guests who left probably went to show their faces there..." Su Yan only mentioned the important event, but he did not bring Ning Xi up at all.

Still, just because Su Yan hid it from her, it did not mean that the others would not talk about it.

Su Xun came over unexpectedly and sneered, "An important event? It's just a private charity fund initiation by a female celebrity! Oh right... I almost forgot... That celebrity is Ning Xi!"

Ning Xueluo's face went pale. "Su Xun, what did you say?"

"Su Xun, shut up if you know nothing. Su Yan already said that it's an important event!" Zhuang Lingyu's expression changed when she heard Ning Xi's name.

Su Xun acted even more high and mighty as he continued, "You think I'm talking nonsense? If you don't believe me, you can ask Su Yan if I'm telling the truth! Mrs. Zhuang and Ms. Zhuang, who claimed not to know anyone from the Ning family just now, were the guests of Ning Xi! Also, even Chief Zhuang is here!

"Not only did the three of them attend a little charity event. They even invited many high officials there..."

"Su Yan, is he telling the truth?" Before Zhuang Lingyu could say anything, Su Yan's mother, Zheng Minjun, was holding onto Su Yan's arm in disbelief. Zhuang Lingyu and Ning Xueluo were shocked as well.

Ning Xueluo could not believe anything Su Xun just said. It was like... a fairytale story...

Somehow Ning Xi was on good terms with Zhuang Keer, but at most, she was just friendly with her. How could she make Mrs. Zhuang and Chief Zhuang do so much for her?

Impossible!

Su Yan's expression darkened and he did not say anything at all, but his silence was enough to be deemed guilt.

It was still far from being over. Su Xun's wife smiled. "Those are nothing. Even the CEO of the Lu Corporation, Lu Tingxiao, and the rumored elusive CEO Yun are there! With such a legendary lineup, of course people would run over after hearing about it..."

Ning Yaohua was shocked. "What? Lu Tingxiao is there?"

He could understand the commotion since Lu Tingxiao was somewhat the boss of Glory World Entertainment...

"CEO Yun... Which CEO Yun?" Ning Yaohua asked.

"The CEO Yun that supported Ning Xi during the cocktail party last time!"

Zhao Shanshan probably thought that Ning Xueluo did not hate her enough already, so she purposely brought up the cocktail party last time. She even looked at Su Yan's mother, Zheng Minjun, and said, "Mother, I really don't know what you were thinking, spending so much effort and money... Just to marry a wild fowl?"

"This wild fowl looks okay, but she can't stand competition at all! I mean, the moment a phoenix stands in front of her, she has nothing that she can use to win!"

"Zhao Shanshan! Who did you say is a wild fowl?!" Zhuang Lingyu was fuming. It was the last straw and she went up to Zhao Shanshan.

"Are you not admitting it now? Are you brave enough to tell everyone that Ning Xueluo is your biological daughter? Why don't you go to the hospital and do a paternity test now? You can trick outsiders, but what's the point of acting in front of us?" Zhao Shanshan's words sounded harsher by the moment, and they were all critical hits. Each and every word landed on Ning Xueluo's weakest spots.

Chapter 1478: Really A Huge Loss!

Zhao Shanshan had gone out of her way and investigated Ning Xueluo before her wedding. Unfortunately, she was not able to gather any solid proof, but now that she found an opportunity, she would never let this chance to humiliate her slip by!

Su Xun had felt uncomfortable when he saw that Su Yan's wedding was organized in a much bigger scale than his. Now that the wedding was falling apart, he was so gleeful that he gloated, "Bro, I really didn't want to say this! But as far as I know, you were in a relationship with Ning Xi, weren't you? Your taste is getting worse... You then picked up someone like this?"

"Shut up!" No matter how well mannered Su Yan was, he looked furious. "I don't need you to comment on my personal matters!"

Su Xun was chuckling happily. After finished messing with Su Yan, he was going to mess with his father. "Father, I'm impressed by your train of thought. What were you guys thinking? That the Zhuang family would recognize this wild fowl Ning Xueluo? Aside from what you guys thought, who do you think the Zhuang family are? Do you think they can't separate the truth from a lie? Will they ignore their true heir and help a non-related wild fowl?"

Su Xun kept on repeating the word "wild fowl", and the faces of Ning Xueluo, Zhuang Lingyu, and Ning Yaohua looked extremely unhappy, but a lot of guests were still outside now. It would only make matters worse if they made a scene here, so they could only bear with it for now.

Ning Yaohua warned, "Su Xun, be careful of what you say!"

At this moment, apart from the sour looks Su Yan's parents had on their faces, they were starting to regret on the inside.

While Su Xun's words were unpleasant, they made sense as he had accurately depicted the whole situation today...

Everything had started when the Zhuang family was backing Ning Xi up, which was why so many guests had left. Even people like Lu Tingxiao and Yun Shen went had gone to support, spurring more and more people to go...

Could the Zhuang family really be there to back Ning Xi up?

Zhuang Lingyu was the daughter of Zhuang Zongren, and her precious child Ning Xueluo could not get any attention from them. On the other hand, Ning Xi being just a little well-known star in the industry was enough to make them invest in so much effort for her?

It was unbelievable, but it really did happen...

Su Hongguang and Zheng Minjun looked at each other, noticing the fear in each other's eyes.

If the Zhuang family was really more concerned about Ning Xi, and even accepted and acknowledged Ning Xi, then this marriage between them and the Ning family was really a huge loss!

A hundred Ning families could not even compare to just a fragment of the Zhuang family!

Ning Xueluo saw the faint traces of regret on Su Hongguang and Zheng Minjun's expressions, then she clenched her fists so hard that her manicured fingernails almost broke. She acted calmly and said, "In recent years, the government has been encouraging artistes to use our influential power as celebrities to do more charity work. Ning Xi was probably just lucky and aligned herself with a government project."

Ning Yaohua went along with her, "That's right, that must be it! It's just a coincidence that our events clashed on the same date. No matter what, let's quickly run through the remaining programme! The guests are still waiting for the toast!"

Zheng Minjun's expression hardened. She could not suppress her emotions anymore, and she looked at Ning Xueluo in annoyance. "Going for a toast or to embarrass yourself?!"

Ning Xueluo bit her lips, her eyes were red. "Father... Mother... I'm really sorry. It's my fault. I should've considered more options. I really didn't expect it'd clash with Ning Xi's event..."

Chapter 1479: Divorce and Remarry

"I really didn't think that my wedding would clash with Ning Xi's event... I'm sorry..." Ning Xueluo choked between sobs, appearing wronged.

So, why would they have clashed so coincidentally? And on such a bitter note?

The two families present had started to think about this question, especially Zhuang Lingyu, who was so angry that she immediately cursed in rage, "That brat, she's clearly doing this on purpose!"

No matter how it happened, it was no longer a matter of consideration. The priority was still to quickly smooth things over.

After he pondered for a long while, Su Hongguang finally took a deep breath and said, "Let's talk about other things later. Su Yan, immediately take Ning Xueluo out for your toast!"

Su Yan put his arm over Ning Xueluo's shoulders and ushered her out.

Ning Yaohua also consoled Zhuang Lingyu to go out and attend to the guests.

Still, Zheng Minjun was still not quite satisfied. Until everyone had left, she shot her husband a dirty look and demanded, "Are you really just going to let it be!?"

Su Hongguang replied with a whine, "What was I supposed to do then? They've registered, and we've announced it to all our family and friends. Plus, the wedding is also halfway through. How can we still reject the goods now?"

"I'd really like to return it..." Zheng Minjun muttered.

"Don't even think about it! It's already chaotic enough. Don't cause trouble for me! Now, we're not even sure about what's with the Zhuangs' attitude yet! Even if we are, they're already married. Are you going to let Su Yan get a divorce? It would look worse then! Aren't you worried that we aren't embarrassing enough today?" Su Hongguang was filled with anger.

When she heard this, Zheng Minjun's thoughts started to run wild. "Whoever said that we have to let them get a divorce now? Obviously, we have to wait and see... If the Zhuang family is really willing to give Ning Xi face and even acknowledge her as their granddaughter, so what if we let Su Yan get divorced? He can then remarry. Whatever it is, it was still the Nings who lied to us first! If they had not intentionally kept it a secret from us, would we have taken in a fake? No matter what we do, we wouldn't be going overboard at all!"

Su Hongguang did not completely agree when he heard this, but he did not disagree either. He just urged Zheng Minjun to quickly go out and entertain the remaining guests.

It had already reached this state, so no matter what the situation was, it was irreversible. They could only quickly continue the upcoming toast in the programme. Otherwise, even the remaining guests would leave if they continued to delay.

The remaining ones who had not yet left were mostly the relatives of both families. If it were not for the shared benefits from their relatives, they would not have been able to hold it in by now. Naturally, they could not wait for the wedding banquet to quickly end.

Based on the traditional wedding ritual, at least some of the lively guests would mess with the bride and groom, but now the entire wedding banquet was so quiet that it was incredibly awkward.

Ning Xueluo faced the many peculiar gazes and braced herself to share a toast with Su Yan, then they sent the guests off. As they watched the guests who had just left, they noticed that they were secretly sneaking upstairs right away...

She had worked on her wedding today for so long and had even invited so many people, yet in the end, she had provided an advantage to Ning Xi!

Even if she died, she wanted to die with a clear perspective of what had happened!

Ning Xueluo kept thinking about it and was still upset. When she entered her hotel suite to remove her makeup and change her clothes, she immediately changed plain clothes, put on a face mask, sunglasses, and secretly rushed upstairs. She hurriedly donned a pair of earrings and then sneaked inside.

When she rushed there, she saw that there were almost no empty seats left in the hall. Even the inner hall that had never been opened to the public was filled.

She had finally squeezed her way to the front when she saw the honored list of guests sitting in the front row. It was truly an astonishing sight. Every one of them were figures who could make people tremble at the stomp of their foot in the government and business world!

All these people... were actually here for the Zhuang family?

After she witnessed the Zhung family's terrifying influence, Ning Xueluo was so resentful that she almost split her lips from biting on them.

If the Zhuang family had come for her wedding banquet today, then all of this should have belonged to her...

Chapter 1480: Have Fun With You

If the Zhuang family had come for her wedding banquet today, then all of this should have belonged to her...

This thought tortured Ning Xueluo until she felt like she was going crazy.

Even now as she watched Ning Xi looking bright and beautiful on the red platform, giving a speech with all attention on her, she thought about how her dream wedding had become a nightmare. It was completely ruined...

After Ning Xi finished her speech, there was a thunderous applause from the audience. Then, the host announced that the donation ceremony was about to begin.

In between her racing thoughts and blind fury, Ning Xueluo watched Zhuang Keer walk up stage, while the host introduced the item Zhuang Keer had donated.

It was a bracelet...

Zhuang Keer had clearly said that she would be attending her wedding, yet in the end, she had unexpectedly appeared here, and even donated the bracelet she had left in her car!

Ning Xueluo was as pale as a ghost behind her mask of sweetness. Could the Zhuangs already know about the mix-up between her and Ning Xi?

Was it because the Zhuangs had realized she was not the biological daughter that they treated her this way?

She was clearly the lady of the Ning family! She was clearly the only daughter that Zhuang Lingyu had personally acknowledged! She was clearly the granddaughter that the Zhuangs should be acknowledging!

Why... Why had it become like this!?

Ning Xi, that witch! Why!?

Worried that if she stayed any longer she would be noticed, Ning Xueluo ground her teeth and rushed to leave with the remaining rationality she had.

Now, she had too many things to resolve apart from Zheng Minjun's anger, and the expected coverage from the media tomorrow...

An hour later, Ning Xi's charity event ended perfectly.

Apart from the guests who had arrived later, Ning Xi had many friends who attended too. Most of them were Glory World Entertainment artistes and some partners she had met from previous shoots.

After the event ended, Jiang Muye, who could not stay, had gathered a huge group of friends on the spot to go to the KTV. Obviously, there were a hundred answers to his single phone call.

Thus, after the group of people left the exhibition centre, they followed Jiang Muye to the KTV.

As the organizer, Ning Xi still had to stay back and finish up some work, but in between, Jiang Muye called many times to rush her.

"Ning Xiao Xi, are you done? Come quickly! Everyone's here. We're all just waiting for you!" Jiang Muye frantically urged her.

Ning Xi was arranging the donation details as she said, "Blondie, have you been injected with chicken blood? What are you so excited for? I'm already tired from the whole day's events! Where am I going to find the energy to have fun with you!?"

From the other end of the phone came Jiang Muye's complaint. "What!? It really doesn't pay to be a good guy. It's not about you having fun with me. I especially organized a gathering to have fun with you, okay?"

Ning Xi raised her eyebrow. "Huh? Why did you specially organize a gathering to have fun with me?"

Jiang Muye snorted unhappily, "It's Su Yan's wedding night tonight! Aren't I afraid that you'd think of nonsense when you're alone tonight and have nothing to do? Enough nonsense. Are you coming or not?"

She did not think that this guy would have even thought of this...

She had almost forgotten about it herself...

When she heard Jiang Muye's impatient tone, Ning Xi's heart warmed. "Okay, okay, send me the address. I'll be there right away. You guys have fun first! Also, it's my treat tonight!"

"Hmph, that's more like it!" Jiang Muye hung up satisfied.

Ning Xi grinned helplessly, then she rushed towards the address Jiang Muye sent her.

Hmm... If she had the ability to see the future and if she had known that she would be tricked by Jiang Muye tragically, she would not have gone even if it killed her...
