

Hidden 1591

Chapter 1591: A Girl Was Lying There

Lu Jingli kept on yelling, "Sister-in-law! You're only my sister-in-law! No one else's! Your roasted pork ribs and sweet and sour fish are mine and mine alone! You cannot be anyone else's sister-in-law! Never!"

"Uhh..." Anyone else's sister-in-law?

When Ning Xi imagined someone calling her sister-in-law, goosebumps rose all over her!

"Lu Jingli! That's enough! Get up and stop yelling! Where's your brother?" Ning Xi could not stand it anymore and stopped him.

Lu Jingli stood up aggrievedly. "He's still in a meeting. The senior management meeting just finished. Now, he's holding a meeting with the stakeholders. It'll probably take some time... I'm about to go to the hospital to visit my father. Sister-in-law, did you find out what happened at the dinner?"

"Mmm, Jiang Muye told me about it." Ning Xi's expression darkened slightly, then she asked, "Is it okay if I wait for him upstairs?"

Lu Jingli then mumbled, "It'll be okay even if you waited for him in the meeting room! Let me make a call. I'll get the secretary to lead you into his office!"

"Okay."

After she went into the building, a secretary welcomed her and brought her right into Lu Tingxiao's office.

"Madam, the CEO is still in a meeting. Please wait for a while." The secretary served Ning Xi with a smile and even directly addressed her as "Madam".

The Second Master had mentioned that it was his sister-in-law on the call, so she should be the rumored genuine girlfriend of the CEO!

Of course, she would need to seize this chance after all those wasted efforts on the fake girlfriends...

"It's alright. It's no issue."

"Madam, what would you like to drink? Tea, coffee, or juice?"

"I'll have some juice."

"Okay, I'll get it for you!"

Although the woman on the sofa was wearing sunglasses and a face mask, judging by her appearance and jawline, she must be a real beauty!

While the secretary was really curious about her real identity, she did not want to make her unhappy, she quickly retreated after a short glance.

Soon, the secretary returned with a glass of juice.

Ning Xi thanked her and continued waiting, but because she was too tired from the continuous script reading, she could not help it and fell asleep on the sofa...

On the other hand, Lu Tingxiao had finally finished another long meeting. Several stakeholders trailed behind him towards his office. They seemed to have several other matters to talk about.

Lu Tingxiao opened the door into his office and the others went in as well. Then, everyone saw that lying on the sofa in the CEO's office was a girl! Everyone was stunned.

Lu Tingxiao was slightly taken aback in surprise when he saw the girl on the sofa. Seconds later, his expression was like a melting frozen mountain, the aloof vibes of his vanishing.

"You guys can go back first. We'll talk later," Lu Tingxiao spoke to the stakeholders in a low voice. He then went up to the girl a little unhappily and frowned as he covered the girl with a blanket.

The stakeholders nodded as they were leaving, but they glanced back after a few steps. Though, they could not see anything because Lu Tingxiao blocked their view...

Was that the rumored Lady Boss everyone was talking about!?

What a stingy boss! He could have let them at least take a look...

Chapter 1592: Don't Mind It

As the stakeholders were chased away, the girl on the sofa seemed to have stirred. She half-consciously reached out and wrapped her wrists around the neck of her boss delicately. "Hmm... Darling..."

The girl called him intimately and very naturally gave him a peck on his cheek.

From that angle, although they only saw a fraction of the girl's face, she was stunning enough to them. What was more shocking to them was the expression their boss had on his face for that split second. He looked so loving that they were about to melt...

Everyone was speechless by what they saw.

When he heard voices from the back, Lu Tingxiao realized that the people had not left yet, so he turned around and glared at them.

The stationary stakeholders then quickly left the room and closed the door.

Damn!

What a shock!

"I didn't expect our boss to have this side of him. He was like the King of Hell during the meeting just now... He has a soft spot after all!"

"Guys, what kind of person do you think our Lady Boss is?" A few stakeholders were presuming.

"That's a tough question, but just by looking at our Boss' attitude, she really must be the one!"

"Then, why are so many people still trying to introduce girls to him?"

One of the slightly older stakeholders spoke up, "This would mean that... The boss is satisfied with this woman, but his parents aren't... She probably isn't from a good background..."

"That makes sense!" The people around him agreed. They then mumbled quietly, "So, this means the others still stand a chance to be the head lady! Especially since it's now such a crucial period of time, a marriage will help the Lu family secure their position. No matter what, CEO Lu will have to consider the grand scheme of things..."

"It's just a guess after all. I suggest not doing anything rash. What if the Lady Boss is from an extraordinary background? No one knows!"

After they chatted for a little while, someone went up to the slender-looking female stakeholder who was walking at the very back. "Well, Ms. Song, it's a rare occasion that we get to see you. Want to go out for a meal later?"

"Sorry, I still have something to do later," Song Lin apologized and turned them down.

"That's too bad. Next time then. Please come out with us the next time..."

"Of course, CEO Feng, I'll take my leave first."

As Song Lin was leaving, she turned her head around for another look at the CEO's office, her eyes hiding something.

In the CEO office, Ning Xi woke up when Lu Tingxiao came closer to her. She unconsciously leaned over, then she realized that this was Lu Tingxiao's office!

And she vaguely recalled seeing a bunch of people behind Lu Tingxiao earlier.

Oh no! How embarrassing!

Ning Xi instantly got up. She scratched her head shyly. "I'm really sorry. I'm a little blur having just woken up. I'll be careful next time..."

Lu Tingxiao leaned in and kissed the girl's lips, only letting go after a long while. "I don't mind it."

"Oh."

Lu Tingxiao did not move away. He sat on the sofa beside Ning Xi and put the girl along with the blanket onto his lap. He appeared sleepy and tired since he probably had not rested for the past day. He was even wearing the same shirt that still had that familiar lip stain on it...

Chapter 1593: Find Someone Little Treasure Likes

"You heard?" Lu Tingxiao's finger slowly fixed the girl's tousled hair.

Ning Xi nodded, then she probed, "So... It's all real? Have you... known for a long time?"

"I was just guessing previously."

Ning Xi now had a lot of questions. She could not help but continue to ask, "Then, what's the concrete situation? Is that guy really your...?"

She just really could not say it. She was still very dumbfounded up till now!

Lu Tingxiao did not cover anything up and he explained, "Father merely said that back then, he had been just momentarily spellbound and had made a mistake."

Ning Xi frowned. Was he trying to imply that there was more to it?

Even though she had been by Yun Shen's side for a long time, she did not know anything. She was also the last person to find out about his relationship with Lu Tingxiao...

"I don't know all of these either. He's never revealed anything related to this," said Ning Xi.

Lu Tingxiao lifted the girl's fingers to his lips and kissed them. "You don't have to do anything. You don't have to feel bad either. I've said that this is between me and him."

Ning Xi frowned slightly.

No wonder Lu Tingxiao had said back then that it was a private grudge.

This was quite a huge beef indeed...

Ning Xi studied the man before her. She looked startled.

This man... Regardless of when, what he cared most about was that she would not be implicated and troubled.

When he saw the girl looking at him, Lu Tingxiao asked, "What's wrong?"

The girl lifted her head ever so slightly. The way she looked at him was as if her gaze was full of stars. "Lu Tingxiao... No matter who the Lu family belongs to... Whoever belongs to whoever... I am yours..."

The man's eyes suddenly dilated. An abyss wavered violently at the depth of his eyes. Moments later, it turned into a pond of soft ripples as he sighed softly. He held the girl's head and kissed her hard...

After the family meeting, the Lu family's secret had caused violent waves beneath the tranquillity. Even the entire Imperial was in turbulent times.

Even if they had tried to lock down the information, it was such a huge scandal and it was impossible for them to have continued keeping it a secret. Among the high society circle, those who were well-informed would know that the Lu family was going to experience a change in regime...

The fourth brother of the Lu Corporation's director, Lu Chongming, had initially been at an overseas branch of the company. However, recently, he had taken on a new lease of life and become part of the top management at Yi Lan Innovative Investment Group. In fact, he had transferred all five percent of his shares to Yi Lan. This was such a huge move. Even if everyone wanted to overlook it, it was impossible!

Yi Lan's team was clearly ready to fight the war of shares. Lu Chongming was just the first step.

All these years, the Lu Corporation had been ruled with an iron fist under Lu Tingxiao's management. To overcome it would definitely be no easy feat. Apart from Lu Chongming, they could only buy some of the dispersed shares. However, Yi Lan's financial capabilities were mind-blowing. If they let them continue like this, no one would know what would happen next.

At the Lu family's old residence.

It had only been a few short days, yet Lu Chongshan's hair had turned much whiter.

"Ruyi, have you arranged the thing I asked you to prepare?"

Yan Ruyi looked hesitant. "Is it really okay for us to hide it from Tingxiao? Isn't it best to discuss with him first?"

"No need. Don't you understand Tingxiao's temper by now? It would just be a waste of energy! Most importantly, we're out of time right now! We must make thorough preparations! He's in this position and all these things are what he must bear!"

When Yan Ruyi heard this, she felt sorry for her son. Her frustration was clear, yet she could not retort back.

"Go. Get someone to bring Little Treasure over first. I'll talk to Little Treasure about this... We still have to consider Little Treasure's opinion... We have to at least find someone that Little Treasure can accept..."

When she heard this, Yan Ruyi's expression softened. "I'll get someone to fetch him now."

Chapter 1594: I Will Protect Mother Well

At Platinum Palace.

The servant carefully knocked on the door of the study room. "Master, someone came from the old master's side. They said that they're here to pick Little Master up to go over for a meal."

Lu Tingxiao peered up from his documents. "Ask Little Master to come here for a while."

"Okay, Master," the servant answered and went out.

A while later, Little Treasure entered the study room.

Lu Tingxiao stood up from his chair before his desk, then he sat on the sofa in the room. He said to his son, "Come sit here."

The little bun walked over and sat down as he hugged a furry bunny in his arms.

This bunny was the one he had saved the last time they had gone for a picnic with Mommy. After the bunny's leg had healed, Ning Xi brought Little Treasure to try letting the bunny go, but unexpectedly, it only wanted to follow Little Treasure and not go anywhere else. Furthermore, Little Treasure hated to part with it too, so he had just brought it back and kept it as a pet.

Now, the bunny had become as fat and round as a ball. In the little bun's arms, it looked just like a round, little white dumpling.

Lu Tingxiao told his son, "Grandfather and Grandmother want to bring you back for dinner. Of course, apart from the meal, there'll be something else..."

The little bun stroked the bunny in his arms with single-hearted devotion without even looking up.

Lu Tingxiao then said, "It's related to your mother."

The little bun instantly glanced up and stared at Lu Tingxiao. Even the bunny in his arms had perked up its ears.

Lu Tingxiao did not know whether to laugh or cry as he sighed and continued, "Your grandfather and grandmother are preparing to put me up to a blind date."

The little bun immediately understood his father's meaning. He then pursed his lips. Moments later, there was a determination in his eyes as he said, "I will protect Mommy well!"

No one can replace Mommy!

Lu Tingxiao nodded, satisfied. "Try to drag as much time as possible. I'll deal with the rest."

The little bun nodded.

After the father and son finished their chat, Little Treasure then followed the people who had come to fetch him to the old residence.

"Grandfather, Grandmother!"

Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi had long been sitting in the living room and waiting. When they saw their dearest grandson had arrived, the two elders instantly beamed with happiness. The gloomy clouds in the past few days instantly vanished.

"Little Treasure is here! Grandmother missed you so much! Quickly come here and give Grandmother a hug!"

The little bun obediently ambled over and hugged his grandmother.

Yan Ruyi was so overjoyed that her heart melted and her face showed that all was well with her grandchild.

"Quickly come over for dinner. Don't starve Little Treasure!" Lu Chongshan said as he urged for the kitchen to start serving.

On the dining table was all of Little Treasure's favorite dishes. Little Treasure's bowl had turned into a tiny mountain as Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi kept spooning food.

As the two elders looked at their obedient, sensible, and bright grandson, their eyes were filled with affection.

Lu Chongshan cleared his throat. He had to disrupt the mood, so he looked at his wife to remind her of something.

Yan Ruyi frowned before she probed, "Little Treasure, what kind of woman would you like to be your mother?"

Little Treasure pretended to contemplate her question seriously. Yan Ruyi and Lu Chongshan watched him nervously.

"A girl like my Mommy," answered Little Treasure.

Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi were speechless.

Without a doubt, Little Treasure's "Mommy" was definitely referring to Ning Xi.

Yan Ruyi helplessly cleared her throat. She resumed, "Baby, your Aunty Xiao Xi is indeed a very excellent woman but... Actually, there are even more excellent ladies! You're just too young, so you've never seen them... If there's a woman you like even more, would you be willing to let them be your mother?"

The little bun blinked. "Then, I'll have to see them before I know."

When Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi heard this, they were instantly thrilled. They did not expect things to go this smoothly.

Lu Chongshan immediately said, "Then, Grandfather and Grandmother will arrange for it. Later on, we'll let you choose yourself, okay?"

The little bun nodded. "Okay."

Chapter 1595: Bunch of Idiots

When they heard their grandson's confident answer, Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi were incredibly pleased.

"So, Little Treasure, Grandfather and Grandmother have come to an agreement with you and you can't back out, okay?"

"Mmm, Little Treasure will take a serious look at it."

Lu Chongshan let out a long sigh of relief, feeling the weight on his heart finally lifted by half.

Initially, he thought it would be very hard. After all, their grandson was completely taken by the woman and they did not know what she had said to Little Treasure behind their backs either. He was worried that Little Treasure would cause a ruckus, so he did not expect things to have gone much smoother than he thought.

As long as Little Treasure was willing to be in contact with others, he had confidence that they could definitely change Little Treasure's mind!

After Little Treasure confirmed it, Lu Chongshan and Yan Ruyi started to organize everything in full swing.

The blind date banquet this time was definitely much grander than the one that had ended midway five years ago.

He did not believe that with so many incredible girls, all of them heiresses from top wealthy families, there would be none that would catch Little Treasure's eye.

Apart from that, the biggest difference between this time and the one from five years ago was probably... The fact that the person they had prepared to meet the girls the last time was Lu Tingxiao, but now it was Little Treasure.

Very soon, the news about the Lu family organizing a "socialite tea party" had spread all around the circle.

On the surface, it was said to be a tea party to which all the heiresses of the top families would go over and be guests to admire flowers. However, in reality, those who were well-informed would know that this was actually a marriage arrangement dinner.

The reason it was put like that was merely an elegant and tactful way to say it.

After the family meeting ended, most of the socialites who had come for Lu Tingxiao had yet to leave Imperial. Therefore, when they heard the news about the tea party, all of them started to get excited.

In a certain luxury resort under the Lu Corporation.

In the spa room, a group of girls was anxiously bickering to get an aromatherapy facial massage. They were all gathered in groups as they chattered on continuously.

"Oh my God! I still don't feel like it's real. Is Mr. Lu really going to have a marriage arranged for him?"

"I was surprised too. I thought that this time, I had definitely come for nothing! After all, that lip stain on the chief's collar was so striking during the family meeting the other day..." The girl spoke with a jealous tone.

"Such a huge thing has happened to the Lu family, so this is rather expected, isn't it?" Someone muttered sorrowfully, but because this was taboo, she did not dare to even speak loudly.

"Enough talking. It's best to prepare quickly! I'm really nervous! I wonder what's the chief's type!"

"He's a still a man. Men, they're all the same! They just like the pretty ones..."

The few girls were debating when suddenly there was a mocking scoff that came from the side, "Bunch of idiots!"

The girl who spoke had fair skin, good looks, and a slim body. Her face was full of arrogance.

A girl, who was getting her nails done, instantly exploded when she saw who it was. "Hey! Chi Yingying! Who are you calling idiots!? The last time you lied to me that the head of the family was an ugly monster. I haven't even settled that score with you!"

The girl by the side took off her mask too. "Exactly! Who said we're idiots?! Be frank if you have anything to say! Why are you being so peculiar, skulking here?"

"I'm not responsible for giving all you idiots lessons," the girl finished, then turned around and left. She did not linger for even a moment.

She had long received the insider news that the person who would appear at this tea party would not be Lu Tingxiao, but Lu Tingxiao's only son, the little prince of the Lu family...

So, all these idiotic woman were just doing useless things!

Up till now, they still did not know the real key to being the head lady. If they were not idiots, then what were they?

Chapter 1596: I'm Brother Little Treasure's Wife

Chi Yingying was not the only one who had received insider news.

Many people had received the news directly from the Lu family, especially people who caught Lu Chongshan's eye.

Guan Zhichen had been going over to their residence every day ever since the family meeting. He might as well be staying there already. The Chi family also sent their grandson, Chi Shuai, who was the same age as Little Treasure to play with him as they wanted to get to know him better.

Some of the further-sighted people were thinking that even if they could not have a head lady in their family, maybe they could have a future one from the next generation.

Suddenly, the garden in the residence was filled with grandchildren from all the prestigious families.

In the living room were their mothers, watching their lively children with loving gazes.

Apart from their parents' exhortation, the children were genuinely fond of Little Treasure. While he was quiet, he was very polite and really bright. He had a natural sense of leadership.

The girls were especially admiring Little Treasure after a few days of being together. All of them wanted to play with him, and even gave him whatever nice things they found such as food and toys.

Guan Zhichen was in disdain when he saw this brat being complimented and fawned over, but on the surface, he kept on praising him as well, "Brother Little Treasure is such a genius. I gave him a Rubik's cube, which took me an hour to solve, but Little Treasure solved it in about a minute! There was also a really difficult maths question the last time that no one was able to solve but Little Treasure..."

"Wow! Little Treasure is awesome!"

"Amazing! Little Treasure, can you be my master!?"

"Me too, me too!"

Among the crowd, a pretty and cute lolita hopped over and said sweetly, "Brother Little Treasure, I want to marry you when I grow up!"

Because of this, the peaceful atmosphere was broken...

A heavy-set boy rushed out from the crowd. "Tian Tian! No! You're my wife!"

The lolita looked at the boy in disgust, then she walked beside Little Treasure. "I'm not your wife! I'm Brother Little Treasure's wife!"

"You are! You are!" The boy's face was all red when he heard that, and he even tried to drag the girl away.

Despite being in the limelight, Little Treasure backed away, still having no expression on his face as usual. He was not really interested in girls like his father. More apparently, he was not interested in the topic of who was going to be whose wife.

"Say it out loud! Tian Tian is my wife! Not yours!" The chubby boy went up to Little Treasure and shoved him to get him to admit it when he could not convince the girl.

Guan Zhichen looked at this little boy and recognized him as the grandson of one of the largest stakeholders of the Lu Corporation. He was Chi Shuai, Chi Jingwen's dear grandson. The Chi family doted on him to the point that he was fearless. He also got angry and violent easily.

It was surprising that the Chis would send him over without worrying that he might get into trouble, but this was their best chance.

His father had said that the Chi family was his aunt's biggest competitor...

He would use this chance to eliminate his aunt's competitor, so that they would not even get the chance to participate in the tea party!

Chapter 1597: Little Bunny Doll

An evil thought that was inconsistent with his age flashed through his mind. The best scenario for him was to kill two birds with one stone. It would be great if he could finish the arrogant brat Lu Qingyu together!

He had humiliated him during dinner the last time, causing him to be grounded by his grandfather and father for a whole month, then he was forced to apologize and be nice to this brat like a servant. He had had enough.

He needed to let it out on him this time!

A super genius? An outstanding little prince? He would humiliate him in front of everyone. He would then see if anyone would compare this brat to him again!

It was obvious that Chi Shuai liked the lolita. He was impatient now. He had been fine with Little Treasure before this argument because his family had persuaded him, but now that the girl he liked was being taken away, he suddenly forgot about everything. He even forgot his mother's attractive promise of buying him a Transformers figurine if he became friends with Lu Qingyu...

"Did you hear that? Tian Tian is mine!" The chubby boy roared.

"Oh." Little Treasure nodded. He did not seem to be very interested in girls.

The chubby boy was taken aback. He did not expect Little Treasure to really give up on such a cute girl like Tian Tian.

Seeing that the chubby boy might not get mad now, Guan Zhichen instigated with a playful tone, "Brother Chi Shuai, you can't do this! As a gentleman, you need to respect the girl's wishes!"

He seemed like he was helping Little Treasure by defending him since he was not speaking up for himself.

Little Treasure looked at Guan Zhichen with a frigid stare.

Guan Zhichen freaked out a little. There was no issue with what he had just said. There was no way that this brat would see through it. Even if he did, he could not do anything about it...

Chi Shuai looked nervous. "Tian Tian! Tell me! Who do you like?!"

"Of course, I like Brother Little Treasure!" The lolita replied almost instantly as she clung to Little Treasure. "I like Brother Little Treasure. I don't like you. Stop pestering me! I hate you!"

With Guan Zhichen's meddling, the issue bubbled to the surface once again.

Chi Shuai was even angrier this time.

While Chi Shuai was the same age as Little Treasure, he was about a head taller than Little Treasure and much bigger in size too. When he rushed angrily in front of Little Treasure, he looked like a big mountain in comparison to Little Treasure.

"Tian Tian! What's so good about this shorty?! He's so short and skinny! Look at his pocket! He has a little bunny doll inside! That's a toy for girls! He's a sissy! How shameful!"

Children were innocent, but it was also the worst when innocent children became evil.

Little Treasure had been ill for a few years after all. Even though Ning Xi had helped him grow quite a bit, height was not something to be rushed easily. He was slightly shorter than other children of the same age.

The impatient Chi Shuai started calling him names like "shorty", "sickly person", "sissy", and so on. A lot of children were not satisfied with Little Treasure as well, especially when he was so popular with the girls.

Trouble arose when it came to people; it was the same in the children's world.

They had been forced to go there by their parents. As time went on, with this incident as a trigger, they exploded.

Chapter 1598: It Was Exactly Like Xiao Xi Xi's

Some people started voicing out after Chi Shuai made his move. "That's right. He's so short and fair, just like a girl!"

"Sissy! Sissy... I saw on TV that he's like a sissy..."

"He even plays with girl's toys!"

Guan Zhichen was defending Little Treasure, "Stop messing around. We're all friends! Don't make things worse. How could you guys say that about Brother Little Treasure?"

The girls, including Tian Tian, were defending Little Treasure angrily. "You guys are overdoing it! Don't bully Little Treasure!"

Chi Shuai rushed in and took out the little rabbit plushie from Little Treasure's suit pocket. He clenched it in his hand and mocked, "That's right! Playing with a girl's toy! Disgusting!"

At this moment, the ladies in the living room realized that something was not right in the garden, especially Elder Madam Chi. She stood up and went towards the garden quickly.

The expressionless Little Treasure's face changed when his little bunny was snatched away.

Guan Zhichen did not realize this. He was just smug when he saw the brat being bullied and not having any comeback.

"Give it back." Little Treasure looked at the little bunny doll that had been snatched away by Chi Shuai with an extremely cold expression.

Chi Shuai shivered but felt incredibly pumped up when he saw Little Treasure looking so weak. He was fearless at home after all, so it was not a habit that could be changed so easily. "Nope! I don't want to! Get it from me if you can, shorty!"

Chi Shuai held the little bunny high up as he was taunting so that Little Treasure could not reach it. The other boys were laughing at him. "He might cry later!"

"Only girls cry!"

"He's a girl after all..."

...

Little Treasure took a deep breath. "I'm saying it for the last time."

"I don't want to! Come on! I'd rather throw it away than giving it back to you! Shorty! Sissy!" Chi Shuai was waving the doll around with his soiled hand.

At this moment, the quiet, expressionless Little Treasure appeared right in front of him in a blink of an eye.

Without any time to react, he only heard the sound of wind passed by his ears...

The next moment, Chi Shuai, who was almost twice the size of Little Treasure, was kicked away by a long distance. He fell hard on the ground and dust flew up in the air...

Everyone gasped. The children stood there, stunned.

Little Treasure walked slowly towards Chi Shuai. He glared at the chubby boy who was still confused by what had just happened. It was supposed to be a really cute face, but his expression was extremely cold at this moment. "I warned you."

Somewhere nearby, Lu Jingli witnessed this whole scene just when he wanted to check on what was happening...

What the heck!?

That kick...

It was exactly like Xiao Xi Xi's!

He was actually worried that Little Treasure might get bullied, so he had rushed over.

The children of the two monsters, his brother and Xiao Xi Xi... With the combined entity of their genes, could he even be bullied?

Chapter 1599: So Cool

"My mother taught me to use peaceful measures before using force and I've given you a chance." The little bun bent down, picked up the little bunny that had fallen. He carefully cleaned the dust on it with a handkerchief before carefully putting it back into his pocket at his chest.

Half of the little bunny was stuffed into his pocket, while the other half of its head hung outside as if it was sticking its head out and leaning from the pocket. It was especially cute.

"Oh dear" The ladies who had just rushed over and coincidentally saw Chi Shuai being kicked were instantly stunned and only reacted moments later. They quickly ran over, Elder Madam Chi being the fastest.

"Shuai Shuai! Shuai Shuai! Are you okay? Oh my God! This isn't good..." Elder Madam Chi was so frightened that her soul left her.

"I didn't hit his vital parts. He's fine," answered Little Treasure with a cold expression.

He had been kicked so far away! How could he be okay?

At this moment, Chi Shuai who was dumbfounded by the kick had become clear-headed again. Once he snapped out of it, he immediately pushed his grandmother who was hugging him away. Then, he ran to Little Treasure like a tornado before he said emotionally and incoherently, "Lu Qingyu, you... You... You... How did you do that?! Do you know kungfu?! Like the swordsmen on TV who can kick people until they fly? And can make them even fly... Do it again! Do it again!"

Uhh...

Elder Madam Chi instantly looked embarrassed. Now, she believed that her grandson was indeed okay.

"What nonsense are you saying?! What do you mean 'do it again'?! You monkey, how many times have I told you? This is someone else's house and we're guests. You must know your manners. Why are you causing trouble again!"

Elder Madam Chi had seen her grandson snatching someone else's belonging and provoking them first with her own eyes. Earlier, she had been worried that her grandson had been hurt, but now that she had returned to her senses, the lingering fear dawned on her!

He must have offended him horribly!

Chi Shuai did not know that much. He was already circling Little Treasure excitedly as he kept asking him how he did it and whether he could teach him. He even brought his treasured toys to exchange for the knowledge. If this little guy had a tail, it would probably be wagging crazily.

It was not just Chi Shuai. All of the children were very interested in things like this, especially the boys, thus Little Treasure was instantly surrounded by the little guys again.

"Brother Little Treasure is so cool!"

"Brother Little Treasure is so amazing! He's a real man! Not a girl!"

"Lu Qingyu, why are you so strong?"

"Lu Qingyu, do you know the Lightness Skill ?"

...

The group of brats' moodiness came and left rather quickly. Now, they were surrounding Little Treasure and everyone was chattering away. There were no more traces of trying to pick a fight...

"Madam Lu, look at this. I... I'm really sorry! My Shuai Shuai is just too mischievous but he has no ill intentions!" Madam Elder Lu looked apologetically to Yan Ruyi and apologized.

Yan Ruyi had been really incensed when she saw Little Treasure getting bullied earlier, but now she obviously felt pleased when she saw her grandson teaching all those children. She said, "They're just children. It's normal to have some friction, Madam Chi. There's no need to worry."

Elder Madam Chi let out a sigh of relief. Immediately, there were other ladies on the side who saw a gap and quickly took advantage of it. They started to brownnose her. "Madam Lu, your Little Treasure is extraordinary! He's still so young, yet he's so talented already!"

They were not really brownnosing. With the display of Little Treasure's skills earlier and the way he was teaching the other children now, one look and they could tell that he had gone through proper training.

轻功 - The ability to make the body light and move with great agility & swiftness. At high proficiency, practitioners of this skill can run across water, leap to the top of trees, or even glide through the air.

Chapter 1600: I'll Turn Everyone That Comes Gay

Yan Ruyi proudly announced, "Actually, it's nothing. I just hired a master for him to train from so that he can strengthen his body..."

"This isn't just at a level of strengthening the body, is it? I hired a Taekwondo teacher for mine too, but it wasn't effective at all!"

"Mine too. I wonder which master did you hire, Madam Lu?" One of the ladies asked.

When Yan Ruyi heard this question, she looked a little awkward. She had heard Jingli mention that Little Treasure's master was one of Ning Xi's friends.

"Well... It's all arranged by Tingxiao, so I'm not too sure either!" Yan Ruyi answered vaguely.

On the other side, Lu Jingli was secretly texting Xiao Xi Xi and his brother.

Lu Jingli: Xiao Xi Xi, do you know what I just saw? Our Little Treasure was so cool! He used one leg and kicked that chubby boy from the Chi family who bullied him into the air!

Very soon, Ning Xi replied to his text.

Ning Xi: My dearest's genes are indeed incredible!

Lu Jingli sent the same content to his brother too.

Lu Tingxiao's reply was, "It was the child's mother that taught him well."

Lu Jingli was instantly stuffed with their mutual public display of affection, causing him so much pain that he just did not want to live...

Are you two on this together, hey!?

...

At Peachwood.

Ning Xi lazed on the rattan chair in the backyard under the shade of the flower bush. She had a script in one hand, while her phone was in the other hand held as she replied Lu Jingli's messages with delight in her eyes.

When the phone chimed, Lu Jingli replied her again. It was a screenshot of Lu Jingli having sent the same thing to Lu Tingxiao, and Lu Tingxiao's reply being: "It was the child's mother that taught him well."

Ning Xi instantly giggled to herself. She could almost imagine Lu Jingli's expression upon reading her and Lu Tingxiao's reply.

Tomorrow, she would be going to Jiang Xingzhou's set for the audition. At night, Lu Tingxiao, Little Treasure, and Lu Jingli would come over for dinner. They had said that they wanted to support her. Ning Xi had decided to invite her Second Senior Brother, Tang Lang, over too. After all, he was Little Treasure's master. His contributions could not go unnoticed now that Little Treasure was being so amazing.

At night after he came over, Lu Jingli started to vividly describe the way Little Treasure had carried himself well throughout the day to Ning Xi.

"Now, that group of brats has been obediently reduced to submission by our Little Treasure!"

Tang Lang was initially not very happy about having this student. However, now he was particularly content as he felt an odd sense of achievement. "Well, you should see who taught him!"

Ning Xi looked speechlessly at a certain someone who was glittering with sunshine. "Stop blowing your own trumpet! that's my Little Treasure. If it were a different person, they'd definitely be angered to death by an unreliable master like you! Are there masters like you who disappear so frequently?!" Ning Xi said as she looked gently at the father and son duo who were busy in the kitchen. There was a faint smile in the corner of her mouth.

"Well, I didn't delay teaching either. Today's incident was the best testimonial..." Tang Lang laughed mischievously, then he looked contemplatively at Ning Xi on the sofa. He beamed in admiration. "Tsk tsk, Little Junior Sister! It's not that I want to nag you, but you're rather calm! Your dearest darling is about to have a marriage arranged for him, yet you can still smile?"

"With my darling and baby keeping watch, what's there for me to worry about?" Ning Xi rolled her eyes at him, then she paused and drawled to say, "Besides..."

"Besides what?" Tang Lang raised his brows with interest.

Ning Xi propped up her legs on the coffee table, one hand lazily supporting her head as she continued with wandering eyes, "Besides, there's still me! If anyone dares to seduce my darling, worst come to worst... I'll turn everyone that comes gay!"

Tang Lang was speechless.

"Pfft—" Lu Jingli who had just brought a cup of water in had spat out and coughed until the earth shattered.
