

Hidden 1822

Chapter 1822 Urging Her To Get Married

Su Bei nodded. "But Grandpa and Grandma..."

"I'll have more people keep an eye on things."

Su Bei breathed a sigh of relief. Lu Heting held her hand and said, "No problem."

As soon as the two of them stepped into the mansion, Gun Gun ran over. "Great-grandpa picked me and Big Brother Da Bao up!"

"Mhm," Su Bei replied gently. She reached out to touch his soft hair and smiled at him.

Gun Gun was soon satisfied and returned to Da Bao's side.

Lu Yaolan walked over and greeted, "Heting, Su Bei, you're back. Heting, can you call Weijian downstairs for dinner? Sorry to trouble you."

Su Bei knew that this pair of mother and son had something to discuss. Otherwise, with Lu Weijian's personality, it was impossible for him to avoid anyone.

It seemed that only in front of Lu Yaolan was he not so happy. At any other time, he was the joy of the entire family.

A moment later, Lu Heting brought Lu Weijian downstairs.

Lu Weijian still had a gloomy expression on his face as he greeted, "Hello, Sister-in-law."

"Let's eat first," Old Master Lu said.

While eating, Gun Gun picked up some food for Lu Weijian and said, "Uncle, why aren't you happy? I've already picked up food for you."

"I'm very happy. Look..." He ate a few mouthfuls of food to show that he was in a good mood.

"You child." Lu Yaolan couldn't help but say, "I only asked you to meet President Li's daughter, but you're pulling a long face. Look, you're not younger than your brother. Da Bao and Gun Gun are already so grown. Shouldn't you consider your personal matters?"

Su Bei knew why Lu Weijian was in a bad mood.

He was used to freedom and did everything according to his personality. If Lu Yaolan wanted to arrange a blind date for him, it would be strange if he was not angry.

She wondered what Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu would say.

Just as Su Bei was thinking about it, Old Madam Lu said, "Your mother is right. What's wrong with going to see her? Even if it doesn't work out, you can be friends, right? If you can't be friends, you can at least have a meal together, right?"

Sure enough, no matter what family it was, it was inevitable for them to urge the youths in the family to get married. No matter how smart and capable an elder was, they would always have the same attitude when it came to this matter.

Lu Weijian stopped eating. "I told you I'm very busy!"

"Don't think I don't know that you're not at your job and you secretly go to your sister-in-law's film set!" Old Master Lu also spoke. "I didn't rush you in the past because I thought that you hadn't grown up yet. This time, I think your mother is right. You're already an adult. If you don't get married, you'll never grow up. It's been arranged. You have to go this weekend!"

Su Bei thought to herself that the instigator of everything was Lu Yaolan. No wonder Old Master Lu and the others were not so unyielding in the past, but this time, they were forcing Lu Weijian to do this.

Lu Weijian said with a bitter face, "I'm not going. If you want to go, go by yourself."

"You!" Lu Yaolan was furious.

She held back her anger and persuaded, "You're with Huo Zhong every day now, but when he gets married and has children in the future, won't you still be separated? At that time, you'll still have to face this obstacle alone. What I'm saying is for your own good. Besides, you know how powerful President Li is. If you really marry his daughter, you can help your brother in the future, right?"

Lu Yaolan guided them patiently. Although Old Master Lu and Old Madam Lu felt that what she said was a little utilitarian, it made sense.

As a member of the Huo and Lu families, Lu Weijian needed someone with some status to be compatible with him.

"I'm full. Take your time."

Lu Weijian put down his chopsticks and disappeared.

Lu Yaolan looked embarrassed.

After dinner, Lu Heting went to his room to look for him.

He scratched his head gloomily. "Why does she have to manage my affairs as soon as she comes back? If she wants to, she can get married herself."

"Weijian, have you been blaming your mother all these years?" Lu Heting asked calmly.

The atmosphere in the room froze.

Lu Yaolan was frustrated. She had nothing to rely on now except her parents and sons.

Her parents were getting on in years. Sooner or later, they would no longer be her support.

She could forget about counting on Lu Heting and Su Bei in this family. After a few incidents, she had already offended the two of them.

Zhuo Qingcheng had proposed to her a few times, but how could she dare to marry him?

She could only rely on Lu Weijian now.

Lu Weijian's marriage was also her greatest reliance.

If Lu Weijian found someone else to marry, she and her son would be even more distant in the future.

She had tried all means to find out that President Li's daughter liked Lu Weijian very much. However, Lu Weijian had always been indecisive and refused to give the woman a chance, so she had no choice but to delay it.

She knew that if she helped President Li complete this matter, even though her daughter-in-law would not listen to her in the future, she would still be filial. That was what she could rely on in the Lu family in the future.

That was why Lu Yaolan asked. Fortunately, the two elders were on her side.

Unfortunately, Lu Weijian didn't agree at all. His response was especially intense. In the afternoon, he came back early. She had only said a few words when he locked himself in his room and refused to come out.

Lu Yaolan really had no choice.

She could only place her hopes on Su Bei. "Su Bei, help persuade Weijian. He has to get married. He can't be single for the rest of his life, right? It's not easy to find someone suitable now. If he misses this opportunity, he'll regret it in the future."

"Yes, I'll talk to him. But no matter what, the most important thing is whether he's alright with the arrangements. Aunt, you don't want to see your son unhappy, do you?"

Lu Yaolan was speechless.

A moment later, Lu Heting came downstairs, but they didn't see Lu Weijian coming down with him.

Lu Yaolan did not dare to ask Lu Heting what he had said to Lu Weijian. She could only watch as Lu Heting held Su Bei's hand and bid farewell to everyone. He picked up Gun Gun and let Su Bei hold Da Bao's hand before walking away.

Old Madam Lu said, "Don't be too anxious. Weijian has been free and undisciplined since he was young. Even if you want to restrain him, you have to do it step by step. I'm afraid it won't be so easy to convince him."

"Yes, I'll persuade him. The most important thing is that he's happy."

...

Lu Yaolan was in a bad mood, so Fu Yujia rushed over to accompany her. However, it was not appropriate for her to enter the Lu family's mansion again, so she chose a place outside.

The matter of Fu Yujia framing Su Bei was talked about a lot.

However, this matter did not cause any serious consequences. Fu Xing was also a lawyer and tried his best to absolve her of criminal responsibility.

However, Fu Xing also warned Fu Yujia not to do anything like that again.