C466 Failed to Act Cool!

"Yeah!" Hei liu nodded, he did not think much of it and said: "Huang Lan is only a little host now, she is nothing special."

"Pah!"

Zhao Huakang raised his hand and slapped Hei liu's face, swearing, "You really are blind, you dare to even offend Miss Huang."

"She's just an overpowered celebrity. Why should we be afraid of her?" Hei liu was very aggrieved in his heart.

"You don't know anything." Zhao Huakang scolded him. He pointed at Huang Lan and introduced her, "She is the CEO of Huaxing, and is our partner."

"What?" Hearing that, Hei liu was so shocked that his eyes were wide open, "She, she's the CEO of Huaxing Film TV?"

"Right."

Zhao Huakang pushed Hei liu and urged him urgently, "What are you standing there for? Hurry up and apologize to Miss Huang."

"Yes, yes, yes." Only then did Hei liu come back to his senses. He quickly licked his lips and apologized to Huang Lan, "Miss Huang, I'm really sorry. Please forgive me."

Even in his dreams, he would never have thought that she, an insignificant singing star, would transform into the CEO of Huaxing.

In this situation, he could only humbly kneel down and apologize to the woman.

"Pah!"

Huang Lan raised her hand and slapped Hei liu's face again, cursing, "In my eyes, you're even worse than a dog."

"You ..."

Hei liu did not expect Huang Lan to make a move on him this time. Since Zhao Huakang was beside him, he could only suppress his anger.

Zhao Huakang hurried forward to apologize to Huang Lan, "Elder Sister Lan, I'm really sorry for angering you."

"Boss Zhao, I hope you can fire Hei liu from your company." Huang Lan's tone was almost commanding.

Before Zhao Huakang could say anything, Hei liu blurted out, "Who do you think you are to want to fire me? Pah!"

Even if Huang Lan was the boss of Huaxing, so what? Boss Zhao couldn't fire him for a woman.

"This ..."

Zhao Huakang hesitated for two seconds and made his decision immediately. "Hei liu, you've been fired by the company. Get out of here quickly."

"Huh?"

Hei liu's mouth was agape and his expression was even uglier than if he had eaten a fly.

He never would have thought that Boss Zhao would kick him out for a woman.

After a slight pause, he hurriedly went forward and questioned: "Boss Zhao, even if Huang Lan is the CEO of Huaxing, why should we be afraid of her?"

"Let me put it this way, Huang Lan has a strong backer, if you offend her, then you will only have death waiting for you." Zhao Huakang leaned his head over and explained in a low voice.

"She's just a little singing star. What kind of backing does she have?"

"I'm not sure about her background, but I'm sure of one thing, with just one word from her, our company will disappear from the Luzhou very soon." After Zhao Huakang said this, he didn't forget to add, "The crisis in our company was planned by them."

"What?"

Hearing that, Hei liu was shocked.

He had thought that Huang Lan was just a little pop star with no background.

But never in his dreams did he expect that there would be such a powerful force backing this woman.

After knowing the truth, Hei liu changed his attitude from before. He came forward to curry favor with Elder Sister Lan. "Elder Sister Lan, on account of us working together before ..."

"Pah!"

Without waiting for Hei liu to finish, Huang Lan slapped him again, "Trash, don't let me see you again in the future."

After swearing, she left with Wu Tian.

"I ..."

Hei liu stood on the spot like a retard. He didn't expect that he would lose his job after offending Huang Lan.

He finally became the executive manager of Huakang Corporation, but he was beaten back to his original form before the full moon had even arrived.

He wasn't willing to abdicate like this. He quickly went over to Huakang and begged, "Boss Zhao, I'm your soldier, you can't just fire me like this!"

"I don't want to fire you either, but I don't dare to keep you. If I do, it will only bring trouble to the company." Zhao Huakang patted on Hei liu's shoulder and sighed helplessly. "Blame it on you for offending Miss Huang."

"Plop!"

Hei liu's legs went soft and his body collapsed onto the ground like mud. His eyes were filled with regret and despair.

If he had known Huang Lan's background would be so powerful, he wouldn't have dared to offend her even if he had tried to curry favor with her.

Unfortunately, it was too late for him to regret.

As for Wu Tian and Huang Lan, after the two of them left the hotel, they didn't go straight home. Instead, they went for a walk on the riverbank.

Tonight, Huang Lan was exceptionally happy. She was walking on the beach like a child, letting the river breeze ruffle her hair.

Smelling the fragrance, Wu Tian felt very comfortable. He smiled and said, "Elder Sister Lan, I've never seen you so happy before."

"Yeah, I've never been this happy before I met you." Huang Lan turned to Wu Tian and said in a gentle tone, "Tian, thank you."

"Thank me for what?"

"Thank you for appearing by my side when I need you the most. Thank you for protecting me all the time. Thank you for making me forget my worries ..."

"Elder Sister Lan, I didn't do anything."

"I'm glad to meet you." Huang Lan turned her head and looked at the surface of the river. As if talking to herself, she said, "Without you, my life would not have been complete."

"I didn't expect that I would have such an important place in Elder Sister Lan's heart." Wu Tian also turned his head to look out of the window as he thought about all the things he knew about Elder Sister Lan.

Originally, this was just an extravagant hope, but the beautiful dream came true. He really became friends with Elder Sister Lan, and their relationship was so delicate.

He didn't know what would happen in the future, but he didn't want to be separated from Elder Sister Lan. He was already used to having Elder Sister Lan by his side.

The two of them sat on the riverbank in a daze for a while. Then, Wu Tian said, "Elder Sister Lan, the wind is too strong. Let's go back."

"Hug me." Huang Lan spread open her arms and said in a coquettish tone.

"Huh?" Wu Tian was slightly surprised, he never expected Elder Sister Lan to take the initiative.

In the past, she had always paid a lot of attention to her image in public. She would always display a haughty and aloof attitude.

He had not expected Elder Sister Lan to disregard her image so much and ask for a hug on her own.

After looking around to make sure that there was no one around, Wu Tian finally reached out and picked Huang Lan up, "Let's go, I'll carry you to the car."

"No, I want you to carry me home." Huang Lan wrapped her arms around Wu Tian's neck and coquettishly scolded.

"This ..." Wu Tian showed a troubled expression.

This place was not far from the Aifei Castle, so it would not be difficult for him to carry Elder Sister Lan back.

Huang Lan immediately saw through Wu Tian's thoughts. She couldn't help but question him, "Are you afraid of being seen by your Chef Shen?"

"About that, I ..."

"Forget it, carry me to the car."

"Alright." Wu Tian quickly carried Elder Sister Lan out of the beach and put her in her red car.

Afterwards, Wu Tian drove Elder Sister Lan's car back to Aifei Castle.

When they got home, Xue and Secretary Loong were both asleep. They went to bed after showering.

C467 Two Eagles with One Arrow

The night passed in silence.

The next day, as soon as Wu Tian got up, he received a call from Liu Jun, telling him to go to the Fragrant Honey Lake Sales Department.

After washing up, he didn't even have time to eat his breakfast as he got in a car and hurriedly headed towards the Fragrant Honey Lake Sales Department.

Currently, ten percent of the first phase of Fragrant Honey Lake had already been completed, a few residential buildings had already been delivered, and some were even in the process of project acceptance checks.

A dozen more buildings were still under construction.

If all the Fragrant Honey Lake Phase 1 projects were completed, there would be more than thirty residential buildings, which would become the largest building in the area.

As soon as they met, Liu Jun couldn't hide his excitement and said, "Tian, let me tell you a piece of good news."

"What good news?" Looking at the happy smile on Liu Jun's face, he knew that this news was related to Fragrant Honey Lake.

"Great." Wu Tian was not surprised by this news at all.

Because he had arranged for Secretary Loong to do this, the first prize for the quality of the building was obviously a bit fake.

"Tian, if I'm not wrong, this first prize is because of you, right?" Liu Jun smiled strangely and leaned his head over to try asking in a low voice.

"You're amazing. You can even do that."

"The main reason is that the quality of our buildings is indeed top-notch. Otherwise, even if I have god-like ability, I still wouldn't be able to accomplish such a thing."

"That's right, there's no doubt about the quality of our buildings, they are definitely the standard of our Luzhou." Liu Jun nodded in approval and said with a smile, "With this first prize, those voices that were slandering the quality of our houses will break on their own."

"How are our sales now?"

"I didn't expect that after the price of the building increased, instead of decreasing, the sales would actually increase. It's exactly as you predicted."

"That's good." Wu Tian was a lot more at ease after hearing the news.

"Huang Jinzhou's method of slandering our building failed. I'm afraid he's already crying in the toilet right now. Hahaha ..."

After Liu Jun said this, he raised his head and laughed out loud.

He couldn't help but admire Tian. He only used one move to resolve the sales crisis, but instead, helped to raise the brand's profile.

"Has Huang Jinzhou made any movements in the Fragrant Honey Lake during these two days?" Wu Tian accompanied by two laughs, and could not help but open his mouth to ask.

"According to your instructions, we are currently investigating and assessing the surrounding area of the Fragrant Honey Lake, pretending to purchase these land blocks in order to lure Huang Jinzhou over."

"Then would he be fooled?"

"Yes!" Liu Jun nodded forcefully and said confidently, "It seems like Huang Jinzhou wants to fight with us for these land pieces. They seem to be determined to get it."

"Alright."

Wu Tian pursed his lips into a smile, looked up at the sand table, and said, "As long as Huang Jinzhou enters the pit, he can pull the investment heat of our entire Fragrant Honey Lake, and at that time, it will attract more real estate agents to enter, helping us to develop the big project on Fragrant Honey Lake together."

"To lure Huang Jinzhou into the pit, not only can it stimulate the heat of the Fragrant Honey Lake's investment, it can also make the Jinzhou Group funds nervous." Wu Tian lit up a cigarette and smoked a few mouthfuls, then continued, "Once Huang Jinzhou puts a large amount of funds into the area around Fragrant Honey Lake, the other projects of his company will be affected. If an accident happens, it will cause a huge loss to his company."

"Two birds with one stone." Liu Jun stretched out his thumb excitedly and praised, "Tian, I admire you more and more now."

"It's too early to be happy." Wu Tian shook the ash from his cigarette and asked with a smile, "What are you going to do now?"

"Everything is done, only the east wind is left." Liu Jun also lit up a cigarette and said confidently: "In a while, there will be a small shoot at Yu Ling Inn, the nine land masses around Fragrant Honey Lake are also included."

"Alright!"

Wu Tian exhaled a puff of smoke and instructed Liu Jun: "Buy some developers from outside the city and have them bid on the land surrounding Fragrant Honey Lake. Use them to heat up the entire Fragrant Honey Lake project."

"Alright, I'll do it right away." Liu Jun put out the cigarette in his hand, turned around and ordered Jiang Yuan: "Manager Jiang, show Boss Wu the sales board"

"Boss Wu, after you." Jiang Yuan walked over and made a 'please' gesture. Her tone was much more respectful than before.

As the sales manager, Jiang Yuan didn't think highly of Wu Tian before, she even thought that this kid was useless.

She originally wanted to wait for Wu Tian to make a fool of himself, but she was surprised.

Who would have thought that Wu Tian would use a series of amazing methods to easily solve the real estate sales crisis. After the price increases, the sales volume of the real estate market instead of falling, instead of rising.

This kind of bold and unconventional action caused the fame of the first stage of Fragrant Honey Lake project to increase, and the sales also increased along with it.

She was surprised by the result, as were all the staff in the sales department.

Originally, no one agreed with Boss Wu's method, but the result made everyone unable to accept it.

"I won't be looking at the substitute sales." Wu Tian exhaled a mouthful of smoke, pointed at the sofa across them and said: "Manager Jiang, sit, I want to talk to you."

"Yes sir!"

She had worked in the real estate business for more than a decade, but she couldn't see what the boy was thinking.

The boy in front of him seemed simple, but in reality, he was calm and reserved. He was a business genius that had been severely underestimated.

"Manager Jiang, how old are you this year?" Wu Tian put out the cigarette in his hand and asked with a smile.

Jiang Yuan frowned a few times. She didn't understand why Boss Wu asked this question. After pondering for a few seconds, she said, "Thirty-six."

"I really can't tell. Manager Jiang is already thirty-six. I thought Manager Jiang was eighteen!"

"Boss Wu sure knows how to joke around." Although Jiang Yuan knew it was a joke, she still couldn't help but be secretly happy in her heart.

"Since Manager Jiang is older than me, I'll call you Big Sis Jiang from now on." After Wu Tian said this, he gradually stopped smiling, "I wonder if Sister Jiang has any suggestions for the sales of Fragrant Honey Lake?"

"I have been doing sales for almost a decade, and I feel that Fragrant Honey Lake is different from other projects. For such a large scale building, we should set up a separate sales company and draw up a separate sales plan so that we don't overrely on the main company. If the project is affected, there will also be no sales involved."

"You mean to divide the sales?"

"That's about what I mean."

"Alright, I'll discuss this with Uncle Liu and give you an answer."

"Thank you, Boss Wu."

"Alright, you can go back to your work now." After Wu Tian said this, he leaned his body against the chair and fell into deep thought.

As for the matter of the sales, he wasn't in a hurry right now.

To put it bluntly, he wasn't in a hurry to sell the house because he had ten billion dollars in cash on hand.

Right now, his priority was to eliminate Jinzhou Group. This was the biggest obstacle in the way of Fragrant Honey Lake.

C468 Traps

Seeing Liu Jun return to the office, Wu Tian came out of his deep thoughts and asked, "How is it? Did everything go smoothly?"

"Everything is going well." Liu Jun nodded his head vigorously, smiled and said: "Everything has been prepared, we just need to wait for the land auction at noon."

"That's good." Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction. He remembered Jiang Yuan's suggestion and said, "Uncle Liu, have you ever thought of splitting the Sales Department and setting up a separate sales company?"

"I didn't think of that."

"This is Jiang Yuan's proposal. She says if we separate the sales, the project will not be restricted."

"Makes sense." Liu Jun nodded in approval. Then, he changed his tone and said, "Let's talk about this later. I'll take you to the project department to check on the construction situation."

"Alright." Wu Tian also felt that this matter was not too urgent. He stood up and followed Liu Jun out of the office, arriving at the project department that was not far away from them.

The two of them inspected the situation in the project department. Seeing the progress of the construction site, they also felt a lot more at ease.

After the inspection, the two of them found a restaurant nearby and had a meal. At 2 PM sharp, they arrived at Yu Ling Inn.

They were going to participate in a land auction auction for the nine sects' residences and business land around the Fragrant Honey Lake.

After finishing the bidding procedures, just as the two of them walked to the entrance of the venue, they met Huang Jinzhou and his followers.

"Boss Huang, it's nice to meet you." Wu Tian grinned as he welcomed Huang Jinzhou with a smile, "Tell Boss Huang a piece of good news, our Fragrant Honey Lake Phase 1 project is very popular right now, and our sales have greatly increased. We have to thank Boss Huang for this."

"You ..."

Huang Jinzhou was so angry that the corner of his mouth twitched, and his old face became distorted.

He bought people to slander the Fragrant Honey Lake program and let them spread rumors that there was a problem with the quality of their buildings.

However, in just two short days, they had won the first prize for engineering quality.

Not only did it not harm Wu Tian, it even helped to advertise these buildings.

Now that he saw that the price of the first phase of the building had risen and was still selling like hotcakes, there was no need to mention how infuriated he was.

"Boss Huang, right now the old factory and Fishridge area are both in our hands, I suggest that you quickly withdraw from Fragrant Honey Lake and this cake." Wu Tian threw his head back and laughed. He looked extremely cocky.

Now, he just wanted to anger Huang Jinzhou and make this old guy gamble everything he had.

"Don't be happy too early." Huang Jinzhou gritted his teeth and refused to show any weakness as he replied, "There are still nine pieces of land in Fragrant Honey Lake. This time, I am determined to win."

"Boss Huang, I advise you to not worry about it. You won't be able to get any of these land pieces."

"I should have said that." Huang Jinzhou stuck his head over and yelled as if he was swearing, "These land masses will all be taken by me, don't even think about them."

"Alright, let's wait and see."

"Hmph, let's wait and see." Huang Jinzhou shook his sleeves. He had never been this strong before.

At that moment, a young woman came out of the washroom. She was dressed flirtatiously.

She was Feng Xia, the owner of Golden Bay and also Huang Jinzhou's woman.

"Jinzhou, let's go." As soon as Feng Xia walked out of the bathroom, she immediately went up to Huang Jinzhou and grabbed him by the arm. Her figure was as bewitching as a fox spirit.

When she saw Wu Tian standing opposite her, her face sank as she angrily scolded, "Bastard, I didn't expect it to be you."

"A Xia, you know this kid?" Huang Jinzhou couldn't help but ask.

"I know him better than that. I was slapped twice by him in Golden Harbor yesterday." Feng Xia recounted what happened at Golden Harbor yesterday.

Of course, she didn't mention the matter of seducing Wu Tian. Instead, she said that Wu Tian took advantage of her and only hit her out of embarrassment when she rejected him.

"How preposterous." After knowing what had happened, Huang Jinzhou was furious. He pointed at Wu Tian's nose and cursed, "You are truly shameless. You actually dared to hit my woman, and you even took advantage of her."

"I think Boss Huang misunderstood. I don't have any interest in this bitch at all. In my eyes, she's just trash." Wu Tian spoke a few harsh words.

After saying this, he brought Liu Jun into the venue.

"You ..."

Being humiliated like this, Feng Xia almost died from anger. She turned around and urged Huang Jinzhou, "Jinzhou, quickly help me teach this kid a lesson."

"A Xia, don't be anxious. I will deal with this brat slowly in the future. Right now, the most important thing is to snatch the Fragrant Honey Lake Land and not let them fall into Wu Tian's hands." Huang Jinzhou said with a dark expression.

"Alright, I'll listen to you."

"Come, let's enter the venue first." After saying that, Huang Jinzhou walked towards the venue with Feng Xia in his arms.

The venue was already filled with people. Most of them were local developers while some were foreign developers.

Huang Jinzhou glanced around the venue and finally brought Feng Xia to sit beside Wu Tian and Liu Jun.

The two sides did not interact at all. They only looked at each other with hostility in their eyes for a while, and they could faintly feel the smoke permeating the air.

The venue wasn't big, and very soon, it was filled with people.

Three in the afternoon, land auction officially started.

This time, there were seventeen pieces of land, the majority of which were around Fragrant Honey Lake, occupying more than half of the total.

After the land auction had started, everyone was fairly optimistic about the new city district's few areas. They all raised their signs and bid.

In less than half an hour, all the hot plots had been snatched away, and the next few commercial plots began to show signs of mishap.

The last item up for auction was Fragrant Honey Lake Land, and the first one to nine was for package sale. This was also the largest plot in the outer city.

Everyone wasn't too interested in this piece of land. Firstly, the area of the land mass was too big, and the starting price was too high. Secondly, this was the distant city, so it wasn't worth the price.

It was clear that a large majority of the people did not see the location advantage of Fragrant Honey Lake, and naturally did not know the potential value of this land.

The first bidders were all foreign merchants, but Liu Jun had actually bought all of them. They were bidding simply to use this as a chance to heat up the Fragrant Honey Lake Land.

Following that, Huang Jinzhou and Liu Jun also joined in the bid and made bids, showing their desire for the land.

Seeing the Jinzhou Group stealing this piece of land, some people started to bid.

After all, Jinzhou Group was the number one real estate agent of the Luzhou, the wind vane of the Luzhou Real Estate.

Under Huang Jinzhou's lead, seven real estate companies successively bid, heating up the Fragrant Honey Lake Land.

This made everyone feel very surprised, as they didn't expect that the large piece of Fragrant Honey Lake that no one thought highly of would suddenly become popular.

Within the venue, everyone was fighting intensely. In just half an hour, the price had risen to 700 million.

This price had already exceeded everyone's expectations, and the unit price had already exceeded the average price, becoming a true King of the land.

Many real estate companies gave up bidding. After all, the price was too high, and many real estate companies didn't have the ability to do so.

The auction continued and finally, only Huang Jinzhou and Wu Tian were still bidding and the price quickly rose to 800 million.

Because it was an area of land far away from the city and there was no melting mechanism, there was no limit to the price of the land.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 469 - Entraining Monarch into Urn

C469 Entraining Monarch into Urn

"850 million." Wu Tian once again raised his hand, at the same time he looked at Huang Jinzhou provocatively.

"860 million." Huang Jinzhou hesitated for a few seconds and was unwilling to lose to Wu Tian. He then raised the card in his hand again.

This plot of land was not worth that much money. Adding in the appreciation potential and the premium rate, the land's maximum value would not exceed five hundred million yuan.

However, the price of the land had been raised to over 800 million, so the risks to the land could be imagined.

"890 million." Wu Tian hesitated for a few seconds. This was the last time he would raise a card.

He knew that Huang Jinzhou had also reached his limit. If he continued to raise the price, it might cause the opponent to give up.

Huang Jinzhou held the plate tightly and did not continue to raise the price.

Huang Jinzhou had considered the company's ability to resist risks, and now he had reached the limit. If he continued to raise the price, it would bring about a negative impact to the entire Jinzhou Group.

"Jinzhou, what are you waiting for? Hurry up and increase the price!" On the other hand, Feng Xia couldn't help but urge him.

"I can't raise the price." Huang Jinzhou shook his head and explained in a low voice, "If I continue to raise the price, it will bring danger to the company."

"Are you just going to watch Wu Tian steal it?"

"This land is several hundred million above the market price, even if Wu Tian gets the land, he won't be able to make money." Huang Jinzhou said with a sinister smile.

"So, Wu Tian will lose money?"

"He'll lose money." Saying this, the corner of Huang Jinzhou's mouth hooked up into a gloating smile: "Let's just wait and see a good show!"

Huang Jinzhou had already guessed that this was Wu Tian's trap. Wu Tian was waiting for him to enter the trap, Huang Jinzhou only confirmed it was a trap after he saw Wu Tian raise the price to nearly 900 million.

Luckily, he found out about this in time and didn't continue bidding. Otherwise, he would have fallen into Wu Tian's trap.

Seeing that Huang Jinzhou didn't intend to increase the price, Liu Jun became anxious and whispered to Wu Tian, "It seems that Huang Jinzhou doesn't intend to continue bidding."

"Don't worry, he will definitely continue bidding." Wu Tian smiled with a very confident expression.

"What if Huang Jinzhou doesn't continue raising the price?"

"If he doesn't continue raising the price, then our Fragrant Honey Lake project will be completely ruined." After Wu Tian said this, he comforted Liu Jun with confidence and said, "Don't worry, I believe he will raise the price."

"This ..."

Liu Jun didn't say anything, but his heart was beating so fast that cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

If Huang Jinzhou didn't continue bidding, then the land would be in their hands and the losses would be astronomical.

This was originally a trap set up for Huang Jinzhou. If Huang Jinzhou didn't participate in the bidding, it would be equivalent to them falling into the pit themselves.

"890 millions, is there anyone else who wants to raise the price?" Looking at the audience, the host was slightly nervous.

He had hosted countless auctions, but he had never been as nervous as he was today.

This was a nine hundred million soil auction. As long as this auction came to an end, this piece of land would become the king of the Luzhou.

The scene was silent. No one said anything, and no one continued to raise the bid.

No one would be stupid enough to spend nine hundred million to buy a plot of land in the outer city. Besides Jinzhou Group, no other company had the ability to do so.

The most nervous person on the scene was none other than Liu Jun. At this moment, his hand was covered in cold sweat.

This was because this auction had a direct impact on the life and death of the company. Once they bought this land, the entire company's capital chain would be broken and all projects under the company would be suspended.

Right now, they could only hope that Huang Jinzhou would immediately bid and buy the land, otherwise the company would be done for.

Unfortunately, Huang Jinzhou was sitting on the spot with the cards in his hand and had no intention of bidding.

Not to mention Liu Jun, even Wu Tian was very nervous right now.

To him, this was a huge gamble. If he won, he would obtain the complete victory, and if he lost, he would lose his company — It would even have a major impact on his big Fragrant Honey Lake projects.

He had put in a lot of effort into this gamble. He had done a lot of hard work and preparation, and now he was only waiting for the results.

"Since no one is bidding, then ..." Before the auctioneer could finish his sentence, someone below the stage suddenly raised the bid, "I bid 900 million."

After someone bid 900 million, the venue went into an uproar. Everyone's eyes fell on Huang Jinzhou.

The one bidding was Huang Jinzhou. At this moment, he was raising his number 18 high, with confidence and pride in his eyes.

No one would have thought that the Jinzhou Group's Boss Huang would buy the land of the distant city at such a sky-high price.

Even Feng Xia was surprised. Boss Huang knew he was going to lose money — he knew Wu Tian had dug this hole, so why did he raise the card?

Liu Jun let out a long breath. He didn't expect Huang Jinzhou to spend a sky-high price to buy this land at the very last moment.

Luckily, Huang Jinzhou made a bid at the critical moment, otherwise, the company would be forced to buy this land, and the consequences would be unimaginable.

At this moment, Liu Jun's entire body was drenched in sweat, and his clothes were sticking to his back. Those few minutes seemed like half a century to him, it was a kind of suffering for him.

"Alright, Boss Huang bid 900 million." Even the host was very excited as he asked, "Is there anyone else who wants to bid?"

Silence reigned below the stage. No one dared to continue bidding.

"Then congratulations Boss Huang for buying the land from A1 to P30 at a sky-high price of 900 million." After saying this, the host led the applause.

The others applauded as well, and the audience gave a round of applause.

Just like this, the Jinzhou Group paid a sky-high price of nine hundred million to purchase the dozens of land masses around the Fragrant Honey Lake. These places became the king of the territory located further away from the Luzhou.

This time's auction immediately raised the reputation of the Fragrant Honey Lake. In the past, people rarely paid attention to the outer city. It was because of this auction that Fragrant Honey Lake had become a hot area, attracting more attention from real estate companies.

Wu Tian believed that before long, there would be a large number of merchants investing in Fragrant Honey Lake, and money would constantly pour into Fragrant Honey Lake and its surrounding supporting projects.

After the auction ended, the successful customers took out their cards to go through the formalities and sign a formal contract.

Wu Tian didn't buy anything, but he wasn't in a hurry to leave either. He just sat in the lobby of Yu Ling Hotel and smoked.

Liu Jun took a deep drag from his cigarette and said expressionlessly: "The auction just now was too dangerous, we were almost forced to buy all of these land blocks."

"This auction is indeed a bit exciting." Wu Tian nodded his head in approval and analyzed with a smile, "Looks like Huang Jinzhou also found out that we dug a hole for him."

"After all, Huang Jinzhou is also a veteran in the field of real estate. He is not someone who is easy to deal with." After Liu Jun said this, he changed his tone, "But he knows that we dug a trap for him, so why did he suddenly jump into the pit and spend such a huge price to buy the surrounding area of Fragrant Honey Lake?"

"Only I know the reason." Wu Tian smiled strangely.

"What reason?"

"Actually ..." Wu Tian was about to open his mouth to explain the matter. He suddenly saw Huang Jinzhou walk out with the contract with a smile on his face.

From the looks of it, he had already settled the land purchase contract and was in a good mood.

Wu Tian extinguished the cigarette butt, stood up and walked towards Huang Jinzhou while smiling: "Congratulations Boss Huang, you have taken down the Conclave's land in Fragrant Honey Lake."

"Foolish brat, you're still a bit too inexperienced to fight me." Huang Jinzhou shook the land purchase contract in his hand, raised his head and laughed.

"You spent 900 million to buy the plot of land in the outer city, how can you be so happy?"

"Brat, I already knew that this was a trap dug by you, and you intentionally lured me into it." Huang Jinzhou grinned, and narrowed his eyes with a wise look, "You brat, purposely raised the price, purposely infuriated me, wanting me to stake everything on this land."

"Boss Huang is really smart."

"As long as I buy this land, not only will it help you heat up the Fragrant Honey Lake project, it will also bring us huge risks. To you, it's killing two birds with one stone."

"That's right, I do want to pull you into the water." Wu Tian nodded, then changed his tone, "Since you know of my scheme, then why did you buy this land at such a high price?"

"These land masses are not worth 900 million, not even 500 million. But if the subway is built here, how much would it be worth?"

"If your plot can build a subway, it will be a priceless treasure in the future."

"That's right." Huang Jinzhou nodded strongly and whispered mysteriously, "I just received reliable news that a subway is about to be built from my position, and the station is at P8."

"Hahaha ..."

He laughed for quite a while before he couldn't help but hit Boss Huang, "Boss Huang, you are really talking nonsense. How can you build a subway with your land?"

"I knew you wouldn't believe it, but I did get some reliable insider information. Otherwise, I wouldn't have paid such a huge price to buy these plots of land." Huang Jinzhou said with a proud smile.

No wonder Huang Jinzhou knew it was a trap and spent a lot of money to buy those plots of land. After a long while, this old thing finally found out the inside news about the subway construction.

If a subway was built on those plots, the price would at least quadruple, and its future value would be limitless.

"Then, where did Boss Huang get the insider information from?" When Wu Tian spoke, he always had a smile on his face.

"Since you want to know, then I'll tell you." Huang Jinzhou leaned his head over and whispered, "I'm pretty close with the director of the city planning department, so he leaked the inside news to me. They're planning a subway station near P8 in the second half of this year."

"Then did he also tell you that the northern part of Fragrant Honey Lake is to plan for the new area and that your area will be called the core area of the new area?"

"Right." Huang Jinzhou first nodded his head, then frowned: "How did you know about this inside information?"

This was the inside story of the Bureau of Planning. He had never leaked it to the outside world, so how could this brat in front of him know?

"Then I'll also tell you that the director of the planning department will give you new information very soon. He will tell you that there are changes in the planning and that the subway has been cancelled."

"Impossible ..."

He took out his cell phone and saw that it was a message from the director of the Planning Bureau. The plan had changed and the subway had been canceled.

"Pa Da!"

After reading the message, Huang Jinzhou's arm shook and his phone fell to the ground. His body staggered and he took a few steps back.

Previously, he had received a message from the director of the Planning Bureau, informing him that the P8 was to be used for the construction of the subway, and that the vicinity was to be planned as a new national area.

After hearing so much good news, he decided to put everything on the line and spend a large sum of money to buy the P8.

He had just finished his land purchase contract when the director of the Planning Bureau sent him another message telling him that there was no subway and that there was no so-called new national district.

This news was undoubtedly like a bolt from the blue, causing his head to buzz.

"Boss Huang, don't tell me that you still haven't figured it out?" The corners of Wu Tian's mouth curled up as a strange smile appeared on it.

"It's you."

Huang Jinzhou's eyes lit up and he suddenly woke up, "It was you who bribed the head of the Planning Bureau to deliberately frame me?"

"Hahaha ..."

Wu Tian smiled without saying a word.

That's right, before participating in land auction, he had asked Secretary Loong to use her family's power to pressure the head of the Planning Bureau. Wu Tian told him to leak the fake information to Huang Jinzhou.

All along, Huang Jinzhou had a very good relationship with the director of the Planning Bureau. After getting this news, he would naturally choose to believe it, which was why he spent 900 million to buy the P8 Conclave.

"Brat, you're really shameless." Huang Jinzhou was so angry that his body was trembling. He pointed at Wu Tian and cursed fiercely.

After learning the truth, he almost died from anger.

He didn't expect the kid in front of him to be so despicable as to bribe the director of the Planning Bureau to leak out the fake information.

However, he couldn't understand how this kid could bribe the head of the Planning Bureau.

"Boss Huang, you can only blame yourself for being too greedy and stupid." Wu Tian patted Huang Jinzhou's shoulder and laughed mockingly, "Don't you ever think about it, P8 belongs to the karst cave's geology. How could it be possible to build a subway station?"

"You, you, you ..."

Huang Jinzhou was so angry that his face turned pale and his body trembled.

"A stupid person like you, fighting me will only bring about your own destruction." After Wu Tian said this, he raised his head and laughed out loud.

Huang Jinzhou's face darkened in anger. His lips even turned dark purple. The corner of his mouth twitched for a long time, but he couldn't say a word.

He had spent most of his life in the real estate business and had not expected to lose to a kid.

The sale cost hundreds of millions of dollars and put the company in great danger.

Money was a small matter. The key point was that this mishap would tie down the company's capital chain and affect other big projects.

"Boss Huang, the fun has only just begun. Let's wait and see." Having said so, Wu Tian turned around and quickly left, leaving Huang Jinzhou to sulk on his own.

Liu Jun chased after him at a fast pace. When he walked out of Yu Ling Hotel, he couldn't help but give Wu Tian a big thumbs up. "You're such a genius. You've convinced me."

Never in his dreams did he expect that Tian would dig such a huge trap, causing Huang Jinzhou to fall into the trap and be unable to escape.

He was indeed very surprised. He didn't think that Tian would bribe the head of the Planning Bureau to confuse Huang Jinzhou with this kind of fake insider news.

No one could escape such a huge trap. He could only watch helplessly as he fell into the trap.

"Uncle Liu, I'm not a genius." Wu Tian was actually a bit embarrassed by this kind of praise.

"Only you can think of such a perfect method." Liu Jun admired Wu Tian from the bottom of his heart. After praising for a while, he couldn't help but ask: "As far as I know, the director of the Planning Bureau is quite close with Huang Jinzhou. How did you bribe him?"

"As far as I know, the director of the planning department often steals inside information to Huang Jinzhou, so that Huang Jinzhou can get the land at a low price and get the good land in advance. I'll use this as a threat to get the director to pass on the fake information to Huang Jinzhou."

"So the director of the Planning Bureau will agree to help you?"
