C616 Bar Fortuitous Encounter

Wu Tian also did not expect to find something unexpected, Wei Jiaming actually had a very important tool in this matter.

"Because it's not the first time they've come to me for protection fees, and I really do have a bit of a grudge against them. Therefore, I found an opportunity to track them and collect some evidence, hoping that I would have the opportunity to sue them before the court in the future ..."

Wei Jiaming said excitedly. He didn't expect that his unintentional actions would be effective at this moment.

Wu Tian was also very excited. If this was true, then they could start their operation immediately.

"It's really great. You guys tidy up these things and see if there is any kind of devastating blow to them. I think that it might not be enough. It's best to use one action to solve it once and for all."

"President Wu is right, these powers have a strong ability to survive. If we can't eliminate them all at once, then they will start to retaliate on a large scale. At that time, it will be troublesome."

Azure Dragon also felt that the matter was not that simple. However, Wei Jiaming did not take these words to heart, as he was still in a state of excitement.

"It's fine. If possible, I will continue to gather information on this matter. Brother Azure Dragon, I'll leave these materials to you later. Anyway, I don't look too conspicuous... An intelligence investigation like this should be just right for me. "

However, he was aware that he would not be able to do it if they were to fight. However, he had been able to do it when he opened the store. Gathering so many materials meant that this guy was probably a genius at gathering intelligence.

"That's right, let's do as Wei Jiaming says. Azure Dragon, you must be careful not to go overboard. Also, Wei Jiaming, you must also pay attention to matters such as security investigation and intelligence. "In the past, it might have been luck, but now it's different. You have to investigate deeper, more useful, and more direct information first."

Wu Tian was still quite worried about the two of them. Honestly speaking, just the two of them seemed rather weak no matter what.

"Do you want me to find some people for you?"

Azure Dragon shook his head and straightforwardly refused, "No, our main task now is to gather information in secret. It will be very eye-catching if we have more people. We won't be going in and out of this building for a long time. I'll be renting a small house nearby and we'll both be working there at the same time. "

He thought very carefully. He had to be very careful when doing things. This was also the reason why Azure Dragon was highly valued by Wu Tian. It was definitely not a problem to pass the task to him.

After saying this, the two excitedly left. It was obvious that they were both eager to give it a try.

Wu Tian was also looking forward to what would happen in the future. However, when he thought about it again, it seemed like everyone had something to do, except for him.

Yu Naixin and the others were in charge of overall planning for the rest of the matters. As the person in charge of the overall command, he had already arranged all the necessary arrangements. Suddenly, he started to feel free.

Since he was free, he might as well go for a walk. Wu Tian also wanted to know more about this city. He felt that he couldn't think of equating this city with Luzhou that easily.

But in this S City, the Baili family had the Nanhe Securities Corporation, and now, Chen Cheng's Moka Company, these were all extremely strong opponents for Wu Tian.

Even if Wu Group used to be considered the number one in S City here, now that Wu Group has declined, countless rookies will naturally show up.

Wu Tian was naturally aware of this, so he wanted to redefine this Wu Group as a new business.

This would make it more dynamic and competitive.

Wu Tian wandered around the Wu Group building in boredom. Seeing how the employees were busy, and how he wasn't in a good position to wander around, he quickly walked out of the building.

There was a lot of fun and delicious food around, but Wu Tian didn't have any particular thoughts.

He just randomly found a bar and walked in. This bar looked pretty good and the decorations were very luxurious. The cars parked outside were all super sportscar, so it was impossible to get them without tens of millions.

This meant that there must be a lot of rich people here. Of course, Wu Tian was also rich. However, with his appearance, no one could tell that he was a rich person.

However, the bar was different from other places. The waiter didn't stop Wu Tian from entering, which made Wu Tian quite satisfied.

"Sir, what would you like to order?"

A waiter came over respectfully with a small menu in his hand. On it, he wrote down the prices of the various wines and beverages.

Wu Tian looked around and found a relatively quiet booth. He sat there alone and simply ordered a few bottles of wine.

"Just these few." After Wu Tian ordered, he started to look around the bar.

It might have been a little early for the bar, but there were only 20-30 people in the bar. Although it seemed empty, it was also very quiet.

Needless to say, this feeling was rather comforting. It allowed Wu Tian to calm down and think about the problems he had encountered during this period of time.

She didn't say anything. After walking over, she poured herself a glass of Wu Tian's wine and drank it all in one gulp.

"What you're drinking is my wine ..."

Wu Tian lightly tapped the table with his finger to remind the other party in a low voice. He wasn't stingy, mainly because he wasn't used to people who came to know him on their own accord.

"Why are you blabbering so much? Didn't you just drink a cup of wine?" "Look at how stingy you are ..."

The great beauty was not convinced. She then picked up his bottle and poured another glass, gulping it down in one gulp.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 617 - Ineffective Celebrity

C617 Ineffective Celebrity

Seeing that she was so outspoken, Wu Tian got interested since he was fine anyways. The two of them started drinking just like that.

There wasn't much wine, and the bottles in the bar were small, so they all drank.

Wu Tian had just finished his drink and was feeling a little happy. Seeing that the liquor was almost gone, he was about to call the waiter over.

Seeing this, the beauty slapped the table and said very straightforwardly, "I'll treat you to a drink!"

As she spoke, she ordered a bunch of wine in one breath. From the looks of it, she wanted to kill Wu Tian.

"So many? Can the two of us drink? "

Wu Tian was a bit scared, but it didn't matter since he couldn't drink.

But who would have thought that this bold beauty would laugh coldly at Wu Tian's words: "You are a man. You won't be able to drink first even before I say something?"

Wu Tian was not convinced by Wu Tian's words. He said that he could do anything, but just saying that he wasn't a man was the same as angering Wu Tian and trying to grab onto the tiger's beard.

"I'm worried about you. As for me, just this little bit of wine isn't enough to quench my thirst."

Wu Tian also didn't care about these wines. He rarely drank too much, but it's not that he couldn't drink, it's just that he didn't want to put these cheap wines into his stomach.

"Don't dilly-dally, come!"

No matter what Wu Tian said, this beauty filled the cups for the two. She didn't say anything and was about to drink the toast.

It was Wu Tian's first time seeing this kind of drinking method, so he felt that it was quite novel.

"Do you have something on your mind or what? I don't think you came here to drink, it looks like you're here to seek your own death ..."

The beauty in front of him was getting drunk. Her actions were obviously slow, but Wu Tian was still the same as before. There were almost no changes.

"Don't worry about me, I'm willing!"

"I don't care what you do."

Wu Tian could only give up on talking to this guy. He looked carefully, although she was good at drinking, her face was still decent. If she had a perfect score of 10, she could still get 7 points.

Furthermore, her figure was so voluptuous and her skin so good. She should be the type to attract the attention of tens of thousands of people as she walked along the streets.

The two of them drank in silence. At this time, a man in a suit and glasses with a briefcase barged into the bar. He stared around as if he was looking for someone.

Soon, he found the beauty sitting in front of Wu Tian and hurried over.

"Oh my lady, why are you here!"

Zhang Chi wiped the sweat off his forehead and let out a sigh of relief. Xi Chengwen did not run away, after all. If she went back now, she should be able to catch up with the company's filming.

Xi Chengwen raised her head to look at her manager and her beautiful face immediately darkened. She lowered her head and said in an extremely low voice, "Sorry, but you got the wrong person."

Zhang Chi didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He was a manager after all. He had managed Xi Chengwen for one or two years. How could he not recognize her?

"Stop messing around, the company is still waiting for you. You have a lot of time to prepare for today. If you drag it on, then everything else will be delayed."

Xi Chengwen was suddenly furious, she slammed the table, and roared at Zhang Chi: "If it's delayed, then so be it! What's wrong! Am I a company dog? Even dogs had to have their own time off, right? Then I would be worse than a dog! "

Seeing Xi Chengwen's sudden outburst, Wu Tian was shocked, but he still didn't understand what was going on.

Zhang Chi quickly went over to comfort Xi Chengwen, and the rest of the people in the bar quickly apologized.

"Everyone, I'm sorry ..."

Zhang Chi bowed again and again. This guy should have a good personality.

"The company wouldn't treat you like a dog. It's just that we've already signed a contract with the company. If you don't listen, the penalty fee alone is an astronomical figure ..."

Of course he understood why Xi Chengwen was like this and why she was so angry, but there was nothing he could do about it.

"Excuse me, can I interrupt?"

Wu Tian watched from the side for a while and felt that it was awkward for him to not say anything.

"You are?"

"I'm the one drinking in this bar, she suddenly came here just now and insisted on drinking with me ..."

When Zhang Chi heard that, he immediately knew that Xi Chengwen was causing trouble for someone else.

"I'm really sorry, I'm really sorry. She gave you trouble."

Zhang Chi hurriedly bowed towards Wu Tian. Wu Tian even suspected that this guy did this hundreds of times every day.

Zhang Chi! Can you not be like this! Even if you don't bother me, I will still find it annoying! "

Xi Chengwen didn't change her mind just because of his kind words. She even grabbed the table tightly.

It was clear from her appearance that she was not planning to go back. He also didn't know what kind of excitement this girl was going through ...

"My dear lady, even if you want to give up, you can't do it at this time. The rookie talent show is about to begin. If we succeed, we'll be able to sign a new agreement with the company. At that time, you won't need to be so busy every day. "

Zhang Chi also felt sorry for Xi Chengwen. After all, he saw her busy every day like a dog, so he couldn't help but feel sorry for her.

"This beauty is a celebrity?"

After Wu Tian listened to it, he felt that his understanding was pretty close.

"With your blessings, she isn't that angry ..." Zhang Chi was very modest, but when he said those words, he was obviously glared at by Xi Chengwen. It seemed that this beauty didn't like others to say that.

This way, Wu Tian would understand what was going on. This was actually quite common in their capital markets.

Although celebrities seemed to be high and mighty, they were actually just a tool used by capitalists to make money. It could also be said to be a commodity.

However, they were not selling things, but the star herself, her everything, songs, dances, variety shows, movies, etc. Almost anything that could be placed on the screen, anything that could be appreciated, could be sold.

Wu Tian nodded. He had an idea. He stood up and poured a glass of wine for Xi Chengwen. He looked into her eyes and slowly said, "If you are interested, I can help you get out of your current life."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 618 - Newbie Join

C618 Newbie Join

Actually, it was not only Zhang Chi who was stunned. Xi Chengwen did not expect Wu Tian to say such words.

"Are you joking? How is that possible?"

Even though Xi Chengwen didn't believe it, how could she not hope for someone to actually do it?

"Mister, we're already in trouble enough, so don't bother us. We know you have good intentions, but our agreement was signed that way ..."

Zhang Chi wiped his sweat away again. He finally came to his senses and knew that this person might have some money, but their sky-high penalty was not something that anyone could afford.

Wu Tian smiled and slowly took a sip of the wine in his glass. He then looked at the two people in front of him with a smile and said faintly, "I'm just asking if you're willing or not. I didn't ask you to pay for this."

Xi Chengwen stared at Wu Tian for a while. He was silent. Then, he poured himself a large cup of wine and drank it all in one gulp. Finally, he fiercely put the cup on the table.

"If you can afford the penalty fee, I'm willing to leave with you. I'm willing to sign the contract with you."

He didn't know why, but looking at the person in front of him, he felt that the things he said might really come true.

"What are you talking about? Forget it, hurry up and come back with me."

Zhang Chi wanted to say something, but he took a look at Wu Tian's clothes and accessories. They were all very ordinary, so he felt that Wu Tian must be joking.

"What's your penalty?" Wu Tian said. He then took out his chequebook from under his clothes and prepared to write a number on it.

"Sir, I know that you might have some money, but the penalty is 3 million ..." In other words, this price had long since exceeded Xi Chengwen's own worth. Therefore, Zhang Chi wouldn't believe that someone was willing to pay the penalty fee for them.

Hearing this price, Wu Tian wasn't stunned, he directly wrote 3 million on the cheque and tore it off from the book, giving it to Zhang Chi.

"You guys go to the bank and take this. Isn't it 3 million?"

As he spoke, he signed a cheque for $5 million and handed it to Xi Chengwen.

"This is for you, it's my application fee. What I said just now was not a joke. If you still want to do this, I will use my resources to help you."

Wu Tian said with a smile. The two people in front of him were both stunned, but he didn't seem to care at all. It was as if he had already gotten used to this sort of thing.

His voice was already trembling. If this matter was true, it would be a very good opportunity for them.

Zhang Chi quickly ran out of the bar. There was a bank across the street that happened to be the one on the cheque, so he quickly ran over.

Wu Tian didn't care. After all, he couldn't carry cash with him, and he had to take out tens of millions of dollars in cash ... If he didn't have a car, he probably wouldn't be able to get away.

"Why are you helping me?"

Xi Chengwen couldn't figure it out. The two of them didn't have any relationship, it was just that they drank a little bit of alcohol here. Wu Tian came to help her redeem her body because of this matter ... She wouldn't believe it even if she was beaten to death.

"It's very simple. I want you."

Wu Tian looked at her and smiled. Actually, he wasn't thinking too highly of himself, now that his Huaxing has been broadcasted over to the S City at his request, he had to at least flatter a new person to come out.

As for Xi Chengwen, although she may not look perfect on the surface, her personality and words gave people a special feeling.

Since Wu Tian had taken a fancy to her, the audience now might not all like the former celebrities anymore. A girl with a great personality like Xi Chengwen could very likely stand out in these intense competition.

"You mean keep me?" Xi Chengwen's voice became softer and softer. Her body was shaking and she was scared. However, this conjecture made Wu Tian smile.

This fellow's thoughts are really impure. I can't believe she thought of that ... Wu Tian really didn't consider this matter. Now that he thought about it, if she really signed the contract with him, there wouldn't be much of a difference between his current situation and the situation when he was taking care of her ...

"What do you mean by 'maintain'? I'm on the job, so you can drink your wine, but you can't say whatever you want!" If Shen Xue and the others knew about this, he might even make them viciously beat him up ...

"Don't feel too inferior. If I said I would sign you, I would sign you. I don't have any other thoughts. I think you can be popular, and I have the ability. "

With the way Wu Tian and the rest were doing things, it was too easy to make a person famous.

First of all, Huang Lan was very famous. She was very famous online. If Huang Lan could help her do it, on her live broadcast or video show, Xi Chengwen's fame would increase a lot.

"I feel a bit sorry for what I've done. Can I do something for you too ...?"

Xi Chengwen looked at Wu Tian blankly. After thinking about it for a long time, she still said it out loud. Now, she had woken up from her drunken stupor.

"Cheng Wen, that cheque is real!"

Before Wu Tian could reply, Zhang Chi, who ran out to verify the cheque, had already come back shouting excitedly.

When he came back and saw Wu Tian's expression, he immediately realized that he had wrongly accused him. Indeed, one cannot judge a person by their appearance!

Judging by one's appearance and clothes, it was obvious that he or she had no money at all. It was simply too superficial.

"President Wu, I'm really sorry for what happened just now!" "It's my fault for not recognizing Mt. Tai with my eyes ..."

Zhang Chi quickly apologized. The cheque was now OK. The only thing left was to hope that Wu Tian would be willing to sign this Xi Chengwen.

"Alright, alright, I will get into this sooner or later. It's fine if you don't have more than one, but now that you've seen the money, what do you think? Are you not going to let go of this person?"

Wu Tian pointed at Xi Chengwen. With one word from Zhang Chi, this Xi Chengwen could be considered as someone who had changed her strings easily.

Zhang Chi was stunned for a moment, looked at Xi Chengwen then looked at Wu Tian, "About that, I'm her manager, not her boss. Strictly speaking, it's her pay for me. This matter still depends on the written decision."

"I'm willing, of course I'm willing!"

The Hidden Billionaire Chapter 619 - Do Whatever You Want

C619 Do Whatever You Want

Wu Tian was already mentally prepared for her to say that.

To be honest, there were not many opportunities like this. As long as one was sane, they would not choose to refuse.

"Alright, I don't have any documents with me right now. Come and find me then. They will settle on the contract documents."

What should be done should be done. Simply saying it out loud would definitely not do.

Xi Chengwen nodded excitedly. She was still very angry just a moment ago, but now she had a completely different face. However, she was more touched.

Due to the lack of time, the two of them hurriedly went back to prepare their belongings before splitting up the property with their old boss.

"Pinch me ..."

Xi Chengwen muttered on the side, still wondering if she was dreaming ...

"Pinch me first ..." Zhang Chi murmured. What kind of development was this ...

Looking at their departing backs, Wu Tian also smiled. This time, the money he spent was not from Wu Group, but from what he had saved in Luzhou Bank.

Signing this little girl was only the first step. Huaxing Group did not have any branches within the S City, so if she wanted to take the first step, she had to make proper preparations.

If that was the case, he would have to call Huang Lan over. After all, she was an old celebrity, and she had a lot of traffic on her hands. Xi Chengwen's attention would be greatly boosted by that.

However, if he was missing one person, it would be meaningless for him to drink by himself. Wu Tian thought about it and decided to settle his account and go somewhere else.

He also did not expect that when he was about to leave, the number of people in the bar had increased. It was already bustling with activity everywhere.

Just when Wu Tian was about to leave after settling the bill, he suddenly saw a pair of people walking in through the door.

Since they had more people, Wu Tian moved to the side. However, when he looked, he realized that Chen Cheng was in this group.

They didn't notice Wu Tian, but said something and went in.

Wu Tian, who was planning to leave, suddenly decided to see what these people were up to.

In other words, he wanted to see what bad idea Chen Cheng had.

Wu Tian secretly followed behind the group of people and watched them walk into a private room.

Seeing that, Wu Tian hurriedly called the waiter over. He pointed to another empty box beside this one.

"Mister... We've already been booked on this... "

Wu Tian immediately frowned when he heard that. He didn't waste time with this waiter and directly went to their front desk to look for their manager.

"I want this room right now, tell me how much it is!"

After the manager found out the whole story, he found it hard to deal with.

After all, they were in the business world. They had to pay attention to honesty and give others a pre-reserved room. They couldn't simply transfer the room away.

"Sir, this private room has indeed been booked. It's not that I'm not willing to give it to you ..."

No matter what Wu Tian said, the manager just didn't want to agree.

"How much money? I can pay for it."

"This isn't a matter of money ..."

Wu Tian frowned. He didn't hate this manager at all. To be honest, he really liked people with principles.

It was a very valuable quality to not change one's principles just because of how much money one had.

But right now, it was very troublesome for him ...

"Then what do we do? I'm really worried right now ..."

The manager thought about it and finally came up with a plan.

"How about this, I'll give the guest who booked the room a call. If she is willing to transfer it to you, we'll immediately arrange it for you." If the customer is unwilling, then we have no other choice. "

Hearing him say this, Wu Tian could only agree. As the general manager of Wu Group, he couldn't force others to humbly accept him just because of such a small matter.

The manager didn't waste his breath and hurriedly called to explain the situation.

However, the voice coming from the phone seemed to be in a bad mood.

"This won't do, we've already booked a room, what right do we have to transfer it to him!"

It sounded like the type that was hard to deal with. The manager was also really tired, so he explained to Wu Tian that they needed this place urgently and that they would need an hour or two to get this customer over to the room. He could return this room to them when the time came.

But even so, the woman on the phone continued to pester him relentlessly ...

Wu Tian was so angry that he directly took the phone and said to the inside, "Cut the crap! With a single word, I'll take this room! "

"Who are you? Why are you so arrogant? Do you think that you can do whatever you want just because you have two pieces of money in your possession?"

Wu Tian didn't know whether he was arrogant or not, but he knew that the person on the phone was very arrogant.

"I'm sorry, I can do whatever I want with money. Who are you?"

"Who am I? Does Guantai Market know? I am the manager there! "

The person on the other end of the line was still quite proud of himself, but it was just a manager ... What was there to be excited about ... Wu Tian was truly confused.

"You're just a manager. How dare you be so arrogant. You've really done yourself in." However, it was fine to know what he was doing. Wu Tian put the phone aside and took out his phone.

Now that the technology was very advanced, Tianmu Technology had developed an online trading system which could buy shares and assets of other companies in real time.

Right now, this business was already doing a lot of advertising in Luzhou, and recently, S City were also being promoted.

Many companies and enterprises have entered their own information into the transaction to make it easier for everyone to trade. This will also allow their own company to obtain a lot of money from the source.

Wu Tian flipped through his phone and found the boss behind Guantai Market, Heng Shuo Capital Holding Co., Ltd.

He took a closer look and saw that the company only had a few billion yuan in assets, not more or less.

However, Wu Tian was too angry to care too much. He just picked out their company's shares and all the assets they could buy and settled the accounts on the spot ...

The manager, who was watching from the side, was completely flabbergasted ... He had never seen such a huge transaction occur in real life. Furthermore, it was done in his face. Because of some conflict, he had bought the other party's parent company ...

How rich could one be to be able to do this? Ordinary people would simply not be able to imagine it.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 620 - Unexpected Discovery

C620 Unexpected Discovery

The bar manager was also very glad. Luckily, he did not say anything excessive just now. His conduct was also very appropriate.

He probably wouldn't offend this god-like tycoon in front of him.

The other party probably wouldn't buy the bar where he worked just because of this matter ...

"You woman, let me tell you. I will definitely take this private room today. If you don't want to work at Guangtai Market, then you can reject me and I'll send a letter requesting for you to be expelled! "

Wu Tian's attitude started to become indifferent. The scales of victory were already slanted towards him.

As he had said, money could really do whatever it wanted.

Even if he did not have the upper hand in this matter, he could still exert pressure on the other party from other areas. Although it did feel like he was using his power to bully others ...

"Aren't you afraid of talking big and biting your tongue? Why did you fire me? Are you my boss or something? "

The manager quickly snatched the phone over. His body was trembling and his breathing was erratic.

"Big sister, stop talking. This big brother just bought your Heng Shuang company. He really can fire you ..."

Hearing the manager's words, the person on the other end of the phone became speechless.

But he could hear her going to other people for confirmation. After all, even he felt that it was unlikely for anyone to buy a company like this? How much would that cost?

In just a short moment, it seemed like her investigation had already revealed the results.

When she spoke again, her tone was not as arrogant as before, but filled with self-blame and fear.

"President Wu, I was blind not to recognize Mt. Tai just now. I'm really sorry for offending you. Please don't fire me. I have an old man, children, and a husband to take care of. I really need this job ..."

Before she could finish, Wu Tian took the phone over and hung up.

"She agreed."

Wu Tian looked at the manager, then directly walked towards the room.

The bar manager quickly prepared the procedures for him. Actually, there weren't any formalities. All he did was register a name.

And, without waiting for Wu Tian to order, the bar manager brought a group of waiters with him, pushing elaborate dining carts with their most expensive wines, then plates of fruit and dessert. In short, they set up a huge table for Wu Tian.

"I haven't ordered anything yet ..."

Wu Tian was stunned as he looked at all these ...

The bar manager quickly bowed and slowly said, "We don't know your identity, so we didn't welcome you. This is our apology. I hope you can spend a wonderful evening here. Our bar will be responsible for all the expenses. "

It had to be said that the way they handled things was quite satisfying. They did all sorts of things well.

"Alright then, help me thank your boss. After that, you don't have to stay here and guard it. My friend might come over later. You can leave for now."

Wu Tian wanted this room mainly for eavesdropping ... Of course, there wouldn't be anyone here accompanying him ...

"How's the recent situation? I only gave you three months, and there's still less than a month left. This Wu Group, how is it still alright?"

A harsh voice sounded like it was reprimanding someone. Wu Tian didn't hear it clearly, but he could probably hear the content clearly, so he didn't know who was the person who said that.

The voice only made him feel that it was a bit familiar. He must have seen him or spoken somewhere before.

"Young master, what you are criticizing is... I am also thinking of a way to solve this problem. The previous plan was carried out very well, and Wu Yongan also worked very closely with us. The branches under Wu Group were also successfully purchased by us. However, we don't know who injected funds into the Wu Group either ... "

Chen Cheng was also very helpless. Their plan could be said to be foolproof, and the scale of their funding was also very huge. Just these rich families in Jingou Club alone were able to put together nearly ten billion.

Not to mention that there were still some other powers' funds being poured in, Mecca Company was definitely an enterprise that could receive the Wu Group's support now.

"What I want is not the process, but the result. What is the use of the things you said? Do you not understand the profit report yourself? Do I even need to read you how much money the report has earned?"

Of course, it wasn't that Chen Cheng didn't understand, but he had no idea what to do. These companies did indeed buy them, but at the same time, they also brought a large amount of debt ...

A large portion of the Mecca Company's capital flow had gone to repay these debts. It would take some time to start a new business. Even with business, it would take at least a year or so to earn all the money ...

Three months was simply not enough.

"Young master, I really have no other choice. The company's funds are about to run out. "If it wasn't for the infusion of external funds, we probably wouldn't even be able to last this one month. We're going to go bankrupt ..."

"You are such a waste!"

Although he scolded, what Chen Cheng said was the truth. The people behind the scenes would understand.

"What should we do? Everyone, let's talk about it and see what we can do. "

The so-called Young Lord sighed. Although he was in a bad mood, he couldn't kick Chen Cheng away at this moment.

Now that they had done this, they had to finish the whole plan in one go.

Otherwise, all of the previous investments would have gone down the drain. This was not a small amount, it was already worth as much as 30 billion yuan.

"Indeed, as Chen Cheng said, we need the continued support of the funds right now. I think that this Wu Group is merely a reflection of the light before it shines again, so there is no need to be too worried. "

"That's right, their businesses are all gone now. Even if they had the money, they would only have lost it all."

Such opinions and voices came and went, basically becoming a universal recognition.

Chen Cheng finally let out a sigh of relief. Luckily, they didn't bring him out to criticize.

Chen Cheng rolled his eyes and thought about it. This matter was not that simple.

If he talked too much, this young master wouldn't be someone who was easy to deal with. He would definitely think that he wasn't good enough. However, if they were to say too little, it would not be so easy for them to get more financial support, and the company could not wait that long.

"We need at least 3 billion more ..."

"What, 3 billion, why don't you go snatch the money?"
