C673 What Is to Come Cannot be Avoided

With the good news, Wu Yongan was naturally overjoyed. As the saying goes, a new official needs to do some big things.

Of course he had to punish Wu Tian.

Unlike Wu Yongan, who was calm and low-key before, Wu Yongan was very high-profile from the start. When he became the chairman of Mecca Company, he even held a press conference.

Looking at the many reporters below, Wu Yongan nodded in satisfaction.

"Everyone, today, we will mainly clarify one thing. Earlier on, there was a serious criminal case in Mecca Company, and the person in charge of this matter, Chen Cheng, is currently escaping, so we will make another declaration. It is out of responsibility for the company, and we will also continue to maintain this act of buying a business, I, Wu Yongan, will be appointed as the chairman of Mecca Company."

The moment this news came out, all the reporters below burst into a commotion. They did not expect that the new chairman of Mecca Company would be Wu Yongan.

This news was broadcast live on television, becoming a huge piece of news for the S City.

Wu Tian, who was also watching, snorted coldly on the side.

"Wu Yongan is just a clown. There's no point in shouting so much."

However, this Wu Yongan was able to pull himself together so quickly, which surprised Wu Tian.

"From the looks of it, Shuangxing Company Group has found a new puppet, and it is even a person who is extremely hostile towards us." To Shuangxing Company Group, this was probably the best way to kill two birds with one stone.

Although Loong Yun said this, she didn't seem to care at all.

"If it was anyone else, we would probably have a headache. But now, since that person is Wu Yongan, I feel relieved. Those who are angry are, on the contrary, more impulsive and more easily controlled." Wu Tian chuckled as if everything was under his control.

Now that he placed his office in Wu Castle, although it was a little troublesome, it at least ensured Wu Tian's safety.

This way, Chen Cheng and the others wouldn't come and find trouble with him so easily.

"Wu Tian, don't you have a bar here?" A lazy voice suddenly sounded from outside the room, causing Wu Tian to be shocked.

This voice was obviously Su Cancan's master, Su Wenxin, but when did she come over? Wu Tian had no idea.

He looked at Loong Yun, who was also shaking her head at Wu Tian, indicating that she didn't know what was going on.

"Master, why are you here?" Wu Tian quickly went up to support Su Wenxin. She looked like she had just woken up and was still wearing her pajamas.

She seemed to be drunk and hadn't fully woken up yet.

"I came here with you. Didn't I tell you to stay in my room? You never came back, so of course I'm worried."

Su Wenxin easily wrapped her arms around Wu Tian's neck and leaned on him weakly. The pajamas she wore were very revealing, revealing a patch of white skin in front of Wu Tian. This scene was very alluring.

Loong Yun, who was watching from the side, was blushing. She hurriedly cleared her throat and coughed.

"Master, about that, please change your clothes. Your body is exposed." Although Wu Tian's gaze was attracted by Su Wenxin, he knew that there were outsiders present at this time. He couldn't let Su Wenxin do as she pleased.

Furthermore, the most important thing was that Su Wenxin was Su Cancan's master. If Su Cancan knew that there was a scandal between them, it would not end so easily.

"Take me to play, I want to go to the bar ..."

Su Wenxin was still unconscious and reeking of alcohol. She leaned on Wu Tian's body and started to act like a scoundrel.

Wu Tian really had no other choice. He could only look at Loong Yun for help and ask her to help him bring Su Wenxin into the guest room.

Then he quickly got the maid to clean up a room, ordered some wine and brought it over, and set up a small bar for her.

As soon as he had settled Su Wenxin, Su Cancan came to the door.

She was in a hurry as if something very important had happened. After arriving at Wu Castle, she rushed into Wu Tian's office.

"Wu Tian, have you seen my master?" Su Cancan was surprised to find that her master had disappeared again. She disappeared without a peep – in a situation where she didn't know anything.

Wu Tian smiled. Luckily, Su Cancan had come to look for him. If Su Cancan had gone to look for someone else, she probably wouldn't have been able to find Su Wenxin.

"If you ask someone else, they probably won't know. But I know that she's sleeping in the guest room, and I don't know why she came here."

Su Cancan looked at Wu Tian with a strange expression. The expression on her face was very complicated.

"Can you explain to me why my master is here?"

He still did not manage to avoid the question. In fact, he did not even need to avoid the question. Su Cancan would definitely ask him once she knew about this.

"I don't know either, your master took the initiative to come ..." Wu Tian originally wanted to defend himself, but he thought that if he told her that your Master not only wanted me to stay in her room, she would also want me to take her out and do something bad ...

Wu Tian felt that if he said this out loud, he would be killed on the spot by Su Cancan in the name of insulting her sect.

"You'd better not have done anything that you shouldn't have ..." Su Cancan said one word at a time as if she was staring at a hooligan.

"I didn't." Wu Tian quickly denied it. After thinking for a while, he confirmed that he didn't do anything to let her down.

If such a thing happened, it would definitely be Su Wenxin's doing, and it had nothing to do with him.

After finally sending Su Cancan away, Wu Tian finally felt relieved.

Loong Yun looked at his expression and snickered while covering her mouth. Then, her expression returned to normal.

"Young master, the people you arranged for me to investigate earlier have arrived at the living room."

Wu Tian nodded. They were the young people that he admired. Honestly speaking, they were the luck of the Wu Family to be able to exist within the Wu Family.

The two siblings were the leader of the group. This made Wu Tian even more curious.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 674 - Look at the Big Picture

C674 Look at the Big Picture

To be honest, this was the first time Wu Zaibin and Wu Zaiyao entered the Wu family's castle.

In the past, most of them had always been outside, waiting for their parents and never being invited in.

The main reason was that there were indeed a lot of people with Wu Family. If they could get in, who knows how many people would be in front of them.

However, the number of people in the Wu Family had almost decreased by 99%. Including Wu Tian, there were probably not even ten people with him.

"Sis, what do you think this clan leader is up to?"

Although Wu Zaibin said he saw Wu Tian as his idol, but when Wu Tian said that he wanted to meet them, he couldn't help but mutter in his heart.

Previously, Wu Tian had never interacted with them before. In fact, both sides didn't even know each other's names, nor had they ever heard of each other before.

Wu Zaiyao shook her head. She didn't know that from their observations, every step Wu Tian made was out of their expectations. It seemed that this person never played cards according to common sense.

Based on their experience, there was no way to predict Wu Tian's next plan, so they could only take things one step at a time.

"Could it be that he wants to kick us out of the Wu Family as well?"

There was a boy who was not very old, but was somewhat worried about this. After all, they were the only ones left in the entire Wu Family. Although these people didn't sign their names on the list at the time, who could guarantee that Wu Tian didn't have any thoughts towards them.

"If you say so ..." Wu Zaibin frowned. Thinking about it this way, they indeed didn't cause any trouble for Wu Tian at that time, but they also didn't show any support for Wu Tian.

As the Patriarch, it would be too easy for him to put on small shoes for them.

Suddenly, a somewhat panicked feeling began to spread among the few of them. They only turned their heads to think about it, but it was actually still alright.

None of these people's businesses were within the range of Wu Group, and they had nothing to do with Wu Family either. These were all created by themselves.

Wu Tian couldn't do anything about them. At most, he would just use his identity as a big company to pressure them.

With such a guess, they didn't have any ideas in their hearts. As the door to the living room opened, the Wu Tian, who they were yearning in their hearts, finally came.

However, Wu Tian's face did not carry that sort of seriousness. Instead, he looked at them with a smile.

"Hello everyone, thank you for your hard work. I'll trouble you to come over from a far distance."

Wu Tian hurried forward to shake hands with them, making Wu Zaibin, Wu Zaiyao, and the rest a little dazed.

Earlier, they all thought that Wu Tian wanted to kick them out or cause trouble with them. They all felt that Wu Tian would definitely be angry or something when he came.

However, Wu Tian's sudden kindness actually caught them off guard.

"Clan head, how are you ..."

Wu Zaibin shook hands with Wu Tian in fear. He didn't know what Wu Tian meant by that.

"Come, come, come. Let's have a good chat. "To be honest, if it wasn't for the situation from the day before, I really wouldn't have noticed any of you."

Wu Tian was direct and straightforward. Wu Zaibin, Wu Zaiyao, and the others were probably used to this kind of thing.

The Wu Family was simply too glorious, so they, the juniors who stayed far away from the family, wouldn't be taken seriously by anyone.

"You're too polite, I just don't know why the Patriarch called us here."

Wu Zaibin, Wu Zaiyao, and the others looked at each other and decided to get straight to the point.

There was no need for young people to beat around the bush.

Wu Tian nodded and gestured to Loong Yun.

Loong Yun then took out a file and handed it over, one by one.

"Everyone, this is the agreement for the transfer of shares from the Wu Group's director. To be honest, when I saw that you guys weren't in the same group as Wu Yongan, I was really happy in my heart, because it was you guys who let me know that there was still hope for Wu Family."

Wu Tian looked at them with a smile. He was waiting, waiting for their shock and disbelief.

Astonishingly, these documents stated that he wanted to transfer the shares of the Wu Group company to each of them.

It had to be known that this was already quite a lot. Every 1% of the shares of Wu Group company could mean that they were worth several hundred million.

The few of them added up to more than 20%. This percentage was quite large, and Wu Tian was quite generous with it this time.

"Patriarch, what is this?"

Wu Zaibin couldn't even close his mouth anymore.

"Just like what you guys saw, I'm in need of people right now. I also feel that you guys are a talent. I know you have your own company, but for now, I'd like you to come and help me. Although Wu Group company has already received rebirth, it is still very difficult for us to face it. It is not possible for me to rely on myself. "

Wu Tian rarely spoke like this. He always gave people a sense of peace of mind. Regardless of what he said or how he did, he always made people feel that Wu Tian had already planned everything in his heart.

However, this time, Wu Tian revealed his cowardice, but it didn't make anyone feel disgusted or that Wu Tian couldn't do anything.

"Clan leader, isn't this share too much? Truthfully, we don't have much experience ..."

Wu Zaiyao also felt that this was too surprising. Although they had a company, the company wasn't big. Compared to Wu Group Corporation, they were like heaven and earth.

Asking them to come straight to the board of directors, wasn't that handing over such a huge position to someone who didn't understand?

"All of you have to be confident. Do you believe that Wu Yongan won't even blink if I give him this? If people like them can become chairmen, why can't you? "

The more Wu Tian chatted with them, the more he felt that these young people were very reliable. First of all, they are humble. This was a very rare quality for youngsters. Many people would think that they were very powerful after achieving some accomplishments.

Pride and complacency, these are the most common of young people.

However, Wu Zaibin, Wu Zaiyao, and the others could not see anything like this.

"You've all heard the news, right? Wu Yongan took the lead and established a new Wu Family. It is clear that he is going against us. If I do not invite you guys, then wouldn't this Wu Family of mine collapse? "

Wu Tian was a bit self-deprecating, but he also dispelled their doubts.

To be honest, if Wu Tian really gave it to them for free, Ye Zichen didn't ask for anything, but Wu Zaibin and co. would definitely not believe it.

If they said what he wanted directly, it would actually put them at ease.

Wu Zaibin bit his lips, at the end, he fiercely nodded and said, "Since that's the case, we will accept it."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 675 - He Gave Them an Important Task

C675 He Gave Them an Important Task

These people happily signed the letter of appointment. For these few people, Liang Tian had also taken out 24% of his shares. It could be said that he had really invested a lot.

"Patriarch, do you have anything that you want us to do?" After signing this, they could be considered the directors of Wu Group company. Strictly speaking, they should be serving the company.

"I need people. I heard that you guys have a cultural media company that seems to specialize in cultural communication. "

Wu Tian already had a plan. It could be said that he had a plan for every step of his plan.

"Right, that's my company. We just do some publishing, media and the like. Of course, sometimes we also write comments for others ..."

Wu Zaiyao said somewhat embarrassedly. She felt that compared to Wu Group Corporation, her culture company seemed out of place. The work and business they did, there were some that were not very proper.

"Great, I need to have the upper hand in public opinion now. Right now, Moka Company is our main enemy, but you have to know, they are also just a pawn of our enemy. The real Demon Lord isn't them, it's Shuangxing Company Corporation. "

Wu Tian usually wouldn't tell others these kinds of words in the past because he was afraid that these people wouldn't be able to keep it a secret.

At that time, if someone were to accuse him of slander, it would become troublesome.

Although he would not be appealed against, the key point was that in the public opinion positions, there was a high chance that his Wu Group would fall into a passive state.

"What you mean is that we should first think of a way to find some of the Mecca Company's scandals ..." Wu Zaiyao, with her professional training, was keenly aware of Wu Tian's intentions.

"You are so clever! That's pretty much what I meant, the reason why I destroyed Mecca Company was for our safety. If Mecca Company goes bankrupt, Shuangxing Company Corporation will personally suppress us, and at that time, we will have to avoid their attacks. "

Wu Tie nodded. The opponent had already started to play in public opinion battles, so Wu Yongan purposely held a press conference to display the strength of their Mecca Company.

The other point was, to emphasize that he was the orthodox of Wu Family. To put it bluntly, it was to draw a clear line between him and Wu Tian.

A discerning person could tell what was going on at a glance, so a lot of people were watching. Including the old customers, they were all good friends with Old Master Wu Zhi.

However, in the face of benefits, this so-called relationship wasn't that important.

They wanted to know who could represent Wu Family. They will support whoever wins in the end.

"If that's the case, then I can arrange this matter right now." Wu Zaiyao quickly took out her phone and sent a few messages to settle the matter. All they had to do now was wait.

Her company had a lot of people who gathered intelligence. In the current society, the previous method of obtaining information was not enough. There was no way for them to obtain such eye-catching and explosive news.

So digging up news is also a key factor, which is very important for people like them who rely on cultural media to eat.

"Then, what else do you have for us to do?"

When Wu Zaibin and the others saw that Wu Zaiyao had already started working, they couldn't help but ask Wu Tian.

Wu Tian was happy to see them so positive.

"Don't be in such a hurry, calling you over is of course of use."

He brought a few people to the front of the desk and placed a map on it. It was just that it was not the map of China, but rather the map of Korea.

"This is the map of the Korea Country. In the future, financial battles between us and the Shuangxing Company Group will definitely occur, however, the battlefield is not in our territory — — it's not S City, nor is it China!" Wu Tian said while patting the map.

"Are we going to fight financial battles?"

Wu Zaibin's company engaged in financial services. They did things like investment banking funds to provide advice and advice. Wu Zaibin himself was from the financial industry, so he was quite knowledgeable about this.

In fact, the biggest manifestation of a business war was finance. Not just the stock market, but many other ways as well.

Wu Tian nodded his head. This was indeed what he had in mind, and was also the only way to defeat Shuangxing Company.

Compared to the Shuangxing Company Group's financial resources and the ability to purchase companies, they couldn't compare to the Shuangxing Company Group at all.

After all, the Shuangxing Company Group possessed the national fund of the nation of Korea ... The amount of money was not something one or two companies could compare to. It was the wealth of a country.

"That's right, it's just that, we don't have a solid foundation at the State of Korea yet, so it's not that simple to operate it. That's why I need someone to go over first and build a good foundation for us. "

At this point, Wu Zaibin immediately understood.

He patted his chest and promised Wu Tian, "Patriarch, you can leave this to me! I guarantee that I will be able to complete it well! "

Wu Tian lightly patted on his shoulder and was quite excited.

"It would be great if you were willing to go. I know that there won't be a problem if I leave this matter to you."

"Don't you worry about that, that's what I've been doing all these years. I used to set up a company, then contact the banks of the Korea countries and buy some shares. You may need to provide me with some funds. "

Wu Zaibin had already thought far ahead, he already had an idea on how he was going to deal with the rest of the matters.

"Alright!" Wu Tian reached out his hand and took a cheque, which he had prepared beforehand and handed to Wu Zaibin.

Wu Zaibin took it and looked at it. He was stunned. This sum of money was too much. He had never seen so much money before.

"One billion?"

Wu Zaibin and a few of his friends were shocked. Was Wu Tian really trusting of giving him so much money?

If his investment failed, or something went wrong, this billion would be for naught.

"It's only a billion, what's there to be nervous about? Let me tell you, for this trade war, I've already prepared close to thirty billion, and of course, this thirty billion includes Nanhe Securities Corporation. A billion is just the beginning."

Wu Tian didn't care at all. When he first knew how much assets he had, he was also surprised by such a large number. He didn't think he'd be able to spend all his money in his lifetime.

But now, when he saw so much money, he didn't feel anything.

Sometimes money was really just a number. In this sort of large-scale commercial confrontation, no matter how much money one had, it was just a drop in the ocean.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 676 - Dinner

C676 Dinner

He finally settled these people down and assigned a lot of tasks to each of them.

Wu Tian suddenly felt the pressure on his body lessen. As expected, someone helped him, so he relaxed a lot.

Although in terms of ability, they might not be at the peak, as long as they could wholeheartedly serve Wu Group, then Wu Tian would already feel very satisfied.

Soon, night came. Seeing that these people were busy working here, Wu Tian decided to let them stay.

The Wu family castle was so large, everyone could have their own room.

Besides, it was possible to work here.

Wu Tian had already moved his office over. With the Wu Group, he could now let Yu Naixin and Shen Xue take care of it.

However, Wu Tian was still thinking that since Old Master Wu Zhi wasn't living here anymore, could he also bring Shen Xue and the others over ... When that time came, wouldn't that be a blissful time?

Speaking of Old Master Wu Zhi, Wu Tian wanted to ask him, but stopped himself.

He had seen Wu Zaibin and the others take Old Master Wu Zhi away. With their personalities, they would have treated Wu Zhi well.

There was really no need for him to worry. However, he just told Old Master to leave like this, could it be that he won't be able to let him come back in the future?

Dinner was quickly prepared, and almost everyone gathered in the castle.

Wu Tian purposely chose the auditorium of the Wu family Castle for the dinner. Not only them, but also those maids, butlers, handymen, and bodyguards.

Everyone inside the Wu Clan Castle was called over to eat together.

In order to achieve this goal, it could be said that the maids had spent a great deal of effort preparing the food, and had only managed to cook so much food from morning to night.

Looking at the bustling crowd below, there were at least one to two hundred people. Just by being able to maintain the operation of the castle, it would be a huge expense.

However, to Wu Tian, this was something he could afford.

These people also needed to earn money to support their families. They had followed Old Master Wu Zhi their whole lives. Even if they didn't do anything, they would still have to work hard. Wu Tian definitely wouldn't let them go.

"Everyone... You've all worked hard. Actually, today is not a special day, it's just that you should know what happened yesterday. From today onwards, Wu Family will become like this, and we will say our farewells to the past. "

As he spoke, Wu Tian raised a glass of wine and toasted everyone.

After finishing the cup of wine, he poured another.

"Right now, we are both tired both internally and externally. It can be said to be the most dangerous and the most opportune time. We are very happy to be able to meet you all. I hope that you can continue to display your talents here and emit light and heat! "

Tears welled up in the eyes of the servants and stewards.

Although Old Master Wu Zhi was also good to them, no one would ever say something like that to them.

Due to his status and his strong self-esteem, Old Master Wu Zhi didn't allow him to say such words, but Wu Tian didn't care about these things at all.

He had almost broken all the rules of the Wu Family in the past. Those things from the past were no longer suitable for the present, so there was no point in continuing to stay.

Wu Tian's words almost immediately won over everyone in the castle.

Initially, some people felt that it was difficult to understand and even opposed the matter of chasing Old Master Wu Zhi out.

But when he said that, it was Wu Tian who got a lot of understanding.

Even if they thought about Old Master Wu Zhi, what was the point? Wu Tian would only be better for them.

Many people ran over to toast Wu Tian. If it wasn't for his alcohol tolerance, he would have already been drunk under the table.

Wu Zaibin and Wu Zaiyao chatted while drinking wine and laughed as they talked. It was the kind of truly presumptuous laughter.

Everyone was very happy. The entire auditorium was filled with a sense of happiness.

It was as if grief had never visited them.

Su Cancan had never seen such a scene. Actually, she was not used to it. However, due to her feelings, it was not good for her to leave immediately. She just sat there, eating alone.

Su Wenxin was already very happy. She didn't care if the people around her knew her or not, and so she started drinking with them. She had a good capacity for alcohol. She drank from one table and then another.

Even the bodyguards who were tall and sturdy knelt down under her skirt.

"There's no one who can drink a lot ..." After Su Wenxin looked around, she found that only Wu Tian and the rest were left standing.

"Come on! Wu Tian, my little son-in-law, come over here and drink with me! "

Su Wenxin waved at Wu Tian. It was unknown how drunk she was, but her words were full of nonsense.

"Son-in-law?"

Su Cancan's face changed when she heard this, and she quickly ran over to hold Su Wenxin back.

"Master, what are you talking about? What son-in-law!"

Su Wenxin looked at Su Cancan with a strange expression and said with a puzzled expression, "Weren't you engaged to him?" Then isn't she your fiancée and then you are my disciple? Basically, you are also my daughter, so what's wrong with me calling him son-in-law? "

The people around them all felt that Su Wenxin was right. There was nothing wrong with this logic.

Su Cancan's face turned red as she glanced at Wu Tian. Seeing him sneering, she quickly scrunched up her face.

"Who said he's my fiancé? No, that's not right, who's betrothed to him! That's only your wishful thinking! "

"Wishful thinking?" Su Wenxin seemed to feel that something was wrong. She pulled Su Cancan closer to face her and said, "I remember that you also agreed to it at that time, right in front of Wu Zhi and me."

Hearing this conversation, Loong Yun, who had been keeping a low profile all this while, was stunned. She immediately pricked up her ears.

This was an extremely big gossip, how could she miss it?

"What? Master, don't spout nonsense!" I did not nod my head in agreement! "

Su Cancan pulled at Su Wenxin with all her might to make her whisper, because she could clearly feel that many gazes were focused on them. They were all very curious.

"No, didn't you have any objections back then? When I was discussing it with Wu Zhi ..."

Su Wenxin didn't notice Su Cancan's small actions at all. Instead, her voice became louder and louder, to the point that Su Cancan almost wanted to cry out loud.

"Master, you ..."

Su Cancan really didn't know what to say anymore. Meeting such a master, she had really been through eight lifetimes of bad luck.

"It's quite lively here, looks like I'm late."

Suddenly, a man's voice appeared at the door. Su Wenxin, who was laughing happily, instantly woke up and stared at him with a pair of sharp eyes.
