

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 689 - Strategic Withdrawal

C689 Strategic Withdrawal

Mr Jin's method was very simple.

Within a day or two, he had sold all the shares he had borrowed, causing the entire stock market to fall.

Nangong Ying was really worried now.

Baili Zhenlin had already put a lot of pressure on things, but now the stock market was in turmoil again.

Their Nanhe Securities Corporation s had instantly suffered significant losses.

Nangong Ying spun around the office anxiously while holding the phone.

"Secretary Loong, tell him about this matter again. Let's see if we can get him to lend us a hand. The collapse of the entire stock market is not good for everyone."

There was no one else he could look for now. If he could affect the entire stock market, Nangong Ying only knew one Wu Tian.

"President Wu is still unconscious, even if you ask me that, I can't tell him."

Loong Yun hesitated for a moment before choosing to speak in an official tone.

Nangong Ying laughed out of anxiousness. He understood that this was a scam.

"Come on, Secretary Loong, do you think I don't know? If Wu Tian was really unconscious, then you guys would still be able to be so carefree. I don't think your company is in chaos at all."

"About this, we already had Yu Naixin take charge of the work, so even if President Wu is still not awake, the company will still operate as usual."

Loong Yun also laughed. If this was in the past, she wouldn't have believed it. But now, it had become a reality.

"Alright, alright, I'll believe whatever you say. Think about it and help me persuade Wu Tian to hurry up and get him out. The stock market can't be disturbed."

Nangong Ying hung up the phone and let out a long sigh.

He was unable to contact Wu Tian and his superior, Baili Zhenlin, was also unable to do so. This really made him at a loss of what to do.

If Baili Zhenlin didn't withdraw all of his funds, he wouldn't have it this hard.

On the other side, Wu Tian's mood was a lot better.

"Would you like some tea?"

Wu Tian had been researching how to drink tea these two days, but he didn't have any connections. He just casually brewed some tea.

Loong Yun was standing beside him, talking about the recent situation of the company. On the whole, Wu Tian was quite satisfied with it.

"No, I'm not really thirsty. Blanche came again, do you want to meet her?"

Recently, a lot of people wanted to see Wu Tian. It seemed that the atmosphere outside had become tense.

"I don't want to see her. I'm so comfortable here and I don't want to go back now. It's rare to have such a good opportunity to be lazy."

Wu Tian said and changed his chair into an even lazier position.

This small village was filled with birdsong and fragrant flowers. It was very quiet, and the air was also very fresh. The most important thing was that there weren't many schemes and scheming about it.

"Life has been so comfortable."

Without the hustle and bustle of the city, Wu Tian almost didn't want to leave.

"President Wu ..."

Loong Yun looked at Wu Tian with a piece of paper in her hand as if she wanted to say something but hesitated.

Wu Tian glanced at her and looked at the folder.

"What's wrong?"

"Nangong Ying said that the S City's stock market is in turmoil ..."

Loong Yun said as she handed over the document. Inside was a map of the nearest stock market.

"Hey, it looks like our enemies are already moving. They probably think it's too slow if this goes on."

Wu Tian wasn't nervous at all, even though the movement of the stock in his hands had dropped a lot.

It was already a scene of mourning outside.

Mr Jin directly brought the Shuangxing Company Group's people and invested a large amount of money into the S City's stock market. He was prepared to short out the S City in one go.

Nangong Ying had received the news in advance because Mr Jin was borrowing shares from major securities companies and had also found Nanhe Securities Corporation.

However, Nangong Ying didn't agree to their request. With his keen senses, he immediately realized that these Koreans wanted to short the stock market.

Thus, if no one came out to serve as a tray, the stock market might not be able to withstand such hardships.

"Is it the stock market again?"

Wu Tian smacked his lips. To be honest, he didn't want to get involved in this mess. Although he could help someone else, these people wouldn't necessarily appreciate his kindness.

Moreover, short-selling by external forces had always been the main inducement. The main force in short-selling would still be those retail investors and investment institutions.

To put it bluntly, the ones who caused the avalanche were their own people who seemed to be very profitable.

"Yes, that's why Nangong Ying is trying so hard to request a meeting with you. He probably wants to come here to talk about it."

Loong Yun didn't agree immediately, so she decided to come over to get Wu Tian's opinion first.

"Don't promise him, we're in no hurry."

Although this was a big threat to S City's economy, Wu Tian didn't really care that much.

If Shuangxing Company Corporation really planned to do this, it would also mean that they would have to invest an extremely large amount of money in this area.

And if Wu Tian and the others were to launch an attack in Korea Nation at this time, the result would be even more outstanding.

"But, our Wu Group's share price has also dropped by a lot ..."

"Stock? It's just that there's a drop and a rise, so what's there to be afraid of? In any case, we don't have a lot of stocks outside. In the future, I think we should just take them all back and directly withdraw from the stock market."

Wu Tian had already felt that the stock market was dragging their feet a bit. Perhaps pulling out of the stock market was better for their development.

However, it was better to more or less respond to Nangong Ying's request.

No matter what, he was his business partner, and he had to rely on Nangong Ying to help out with a lot of matters regarding Nanhe Securities Corporation.

"Just reply like that. Let them continue to persist. I will discuss it with Baili Zhenlin."

Wu Tian wasn't worried at all about the collapse of Nanhe Securities Corporation. What a joke, they still had Baili Family behind them and wouldn't be finished so easily.

"Alright, I'll make the arrangements now."

Loong Yun also understood Wu Tian's meaning and quickly prepared to carry it out.

"Oh yeah, I received some news from Wu Zaibin saying that the progress in North Korea is pretty good. He has already formed a company and is asking you if you want to go over to take a look. You can go take a break."

"Country of Korea?"

Wu Tian was stunned for a moment. To be honest, he had never been to this country before, and he has never been out of the country. It would be a pretty good chance for him to go out now.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 690 - Can't Borrow Money

C690 Can't Borrow Money

Wu Tian unexpectedly agreed to this request.

Loong Yun exclaimed, this guy just said that he wasn't going anywhere and was just staying in this village.

But he went back on his word so quickly.

"Oh right, don't tell Su Cancan, Shen Xue, and the others that I want to go alone."

When Loong Yun was about to leave, Wu Tian added this sentence.

Loong Yun nodded and happily booked two tickets. One was for Wu Tian and the other was for her.

What a joke, it was impossible for Loong Yun not to go with him.

What if something happened to Wu Tian outside, and he went to the Shuangxing Company Group's base, Korea.

He knew that he was going out, so Wu Tian packed his luggage.

However, when Loong Yun walked him to the airport, Wu Tian was surprised to find that Loong Yun had also taken down a small suitcase from the car.

"Ai, didn't I say that I would go alone?"

Loong Yun pushed her glasses and pretended not to hear him.

"About that, we have to check the tickets. We have to hurry."

"Hey, why didn't you answer my question just now ..." Wu Tian found that the protest was futile and could only choose to accept the result.

In order to keep a low profile, Loong Yun purposefully chose not to enter first class, and instead reserved a normal cabin.

Even the seats of Loong Yun and Wu Tian were close to each other.

Wu Tian was speechless when he saw this scene.

He always felt that it was a little strange. Because this Loong Yun was wearing a suit and skirt, which made her look very commercial.

He was dressed in casual attire. No matter how you looked at it, he looked like a tourist.

However, since she had come, he could only accept this arrangement. Wu Tian decided to take a rest after he had settled down.

As soon as he closed his eyes, he heard Loong Yun making all kinds of noises, as if she had been doing something all along that prevented him from having a proper rest.

"What the hell are you doing?" Wu Tian couldn't take it anymore and suddenly opened his eyes.

Loong Yun held a cell phone and kept taking pictures of Wu Tian, as if she thought he had fallen asleep.

When Wu Tian said this, it gave Loong Yun a fright. She couldn't hold her phone and dropped it.

She quickly picked up the phone with a pale face and put it back in her pocket.

"I'm fine, aren't you resting ..."

Loong Yun looked very nervous, even her face had started to turn red.

"Why am I sleeping when you were doing so many small movements? What were you doing just now?"

"That, is fine ..." Loong Yun was hesitating, unlike her usual serious appearance.

Wu Tian suddenly became suspicious. However, he couldn't say anything on the plane. He turned around, covered his head and went back to sleep.

When the plane landed, Wu Zaibin and co. were already waiting at the airport. They immediately drove the car to the hotel the moment Wu Tian came out.

He specifically booked a room at the most bustling restaurant in the Korean capital. The predetermined price alone might be tens of thousands of yuan.

However, this amount of money was nothing to them. It was just that Wu Tian never really liked such a simple and unsophisticated way of wasting money.

Spending money without meaning was a waste, and Wu Tian never spent money without meaning.

"How have things been? Are the banks of Korea willing to lend them to us? "

Wu Tian was very concerned about Wu Zaibin's progress on this side. The faster the progress on this side, the faster the method Wu Tian used to attack Shuangxing Company Group.

"We've talked about a few banks recently, and they're willing to lend us money, but the amount is limited. I've decided to continue to expand the scope of this discussion."

It couldn't be said that Wu Zaibin didn't make any progress at all, it was just that the progress wasn't that fast.

Wu Tian wasn't particularly satisfied with this, which was a bit different from what he had imagined.

If he was too slow, it meant that he might not be able to raise enough money to start a currency war.

"That won't do ..." Wu Tian shook his head. He had to be able to borrow a lot of money, which was an important precondition for their business.

If this could not be done well, he might as well take the opportunity to recover the money.

The 30 billion that they raised was actually not the capital needed to start a commercial war, but to repay the interest on borrowing money.

Thirty billion in interest? Think about the amount of money you can borrow. At the very least, it has to be hundreds of billions of dollars in capital.

"This... Actually, we don't have any good methods either. After all, we are a small company that has just arrived, and those banks see that we don't have any foundation, so they definitely aren't willing to lend them money. "

These Koreans were quite conservative, and they were very cautious about this sort of thing. It was very difficult for them to follow their plans.

Wu Zaibin was also worried about this matter and called Wu Tian over. Actually, he also had a need for this and wanted to ask Wu Tian's opinion.

"Did you find any other companies to work with? Or consortium. Isn't it fine to borrow money in their name? "

Loong Yun interjected. This kind of thing was quite common in the financial industry, Wu Zaibin should have thought of it.

"We tried. Nanhe Securities Corporation borrowed quite a bit of money, but it's only a few billion, it's still too little from our goal. "However, I have a message this time. President Wu, can you take a look and see if it's okay?"

Wu Zaibin scratched his head. This news might become a huge help to them, but it wouldn't be easy for Wu Zaibin to do so with his current abilities.

"Just say it directly. There's no need to hide it."

Wu Tian was looking forward to it. He wanted to see what Wu Zaibin could say.

"Someone suggested that we go to the Chamber of Commerce with China in Korea. They have also accumulated a lot of reputation by doing business here for many years. If they were to come and borrow money, then it would be much easier than us. "

"Chamber of Commerce?"

Wu Tian frowned when he heard the name.

He had never really liked this kind of merchant guild because he had always felt that these people were tycoon bosses. Every one of them had their little plans in mind.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 691 - Chamber of Commerce

C691 Chamber of Commerce

They had their own ideas, but that was nothing. The main reason was that an organization like the Chamber of Commerce would always make people feel that it was a little private.

In business, the best thing is for everyone to be open and fair. And the Chamber of Commerce only had a few people helping each other.

This way, it would be difficult for other merchants to resist.

The effect of these various powers was that their advantage would only get bigger and bigger.

The snowball was getting bigger and bigger, and it was very likely to endanger the interests of others.

Therefore, Wu Tian tried his best to avoid having any contact with the Chamber of Commerce. On one hand, he was too lazy to socialize with them, and on the other hand, he didn't want to get involved with the messes of the Chamber of Commerce.

Loong Yun felt that Wu Zaibin's words made a lot of sense.

"The influence of China Country's Chamber of Commerce is indeed very big, they have many famous companies under their banner, their funds are also very large, if we can get their help, it will definitely be of great help to us."

However, the two of them looked at Wu Tian with a unhappy expression. It might not be so easy for him to decide this.

"Is there no other way?"

Wu Tian frowned. He was also seriously considering this matter.

"Not just the Chamber of Commerce, I also want to look for another organization. However, there are basically no good results. "So I think this is the only choice we have."

Wu Zaibin had no other choice. This China Chamber of Commerce in Korea included almost all of the China enterprises that operated in the Korea Nation.

Their size could be said to be extremely huge, but it also brought about a drawback, and that was that their organization was also extremely bureaucratic.

The levels within were very distinct, and there were even all sorts of unspoken rules and restrictions.

This had always been something that Wu Tian didn't like, and Wu Zaibin knew it. Therefore, he felt that this suggestion wasn't very reliable.

"If there's no other way, then that's it. Have you talked to them?"

It was better to focus on the overall situation. In the end, Wu Tian made a difficult decision. Under these circumstances, his preferences no longer mattered as much.

"I've talked to them, but I haven't decided on anything. They also did not have a clear statement. "

Wu Tian nodded after listening to it, then picked up his wine glass and drank it all in one gulp.

"I will go to them myself. I'd like to see what they can say. "

Originally, he wanted to relax, but he didn't expect things to turn out like this. However, it wasn't a bad thing. If the negotiations were successful, then so be it. If it wasn't, then forget it.

After dinner, Wu Zaibin arranged for Wu Tian and the others to rest for the day. Then, the next morning, Wu Zaibin drove his car over to pick them up.

This China nation's merchant group was located in a place near the outskirts of the capital city.

Although their geographical location was not very good, this did not mean that the China country's Chamber of Commerce did not have status.

On the contrary, they were definitely the kind of existence that could call the wind and summon the rain within the shopping mall of Korea.

The reason why they had set up their headquarters in such a remote location was to conceal their strength.

It was obvious that this president of the merchant guild was quite shrewd. He knew when to show off and when to rein himself in.

From this point of view, this kind of person was definitely very smart and definitely would not be easy to fool.

However, there was one benefit to this. If the pros and cons were placed in front of him, such a person would undoubtedly choose to pursue the one with the greatest profit and the least risk.

This was one of Wu Tian's bargaining chips, and that was all he could provide.

"We've arrived. I've already contacted the president of the Chamber of Commerce. He's currently waiting for us in his office."

Wu Zaibin parked the car and pointed at the building in front of them.

It really did have the style of China. This was an ancient style that seemed to go in and out a few times, and was decorated very luxurious and complete.

The bamboo leaves were bustling with activity. The pavilions, the rivers, and the rivers, all of them seemed very poetic.

There weren't many people here, so it was very quiet. When people came by, there weren't many cars at the entrance.

Wu Tian even started to suspect if this was a Chamber of Commerce ... It felt more like a tourist attraction.

Since it wasn't Wu Zaibin's first time here, he brought them inside with familiarity.

Commerce Chamber Chairman's office wasn't located a few floors deep, but a small courtyard inside the courtyard.

The location of this courtyard was just right. One more point was too much, and one less point was too little. The courtyard blended in with the surrounding scenery, and together, they constructed the entire appearance of this company's base.

It was calm and elegant, yet it also seemed very warm.

In addition, it also gave off a heavy feeling. It was truly the embodiment of the spirit of the China.

From this, Wu Tian gave this guild leader a passing grade from his impression of him.

First of all, he was sure that it wasn't a person like Wu Yongan. If he said that, then his heart would accept it a lot more.

After knocking on the door, a woman in white clothes quickly came out from the inside.

She was dressed in ancient clothes, and had a bun in her hair. There was no makeup on her face, but even if she had a plain face, it could still be seen that she was a very beautiful girl.

He looked to be around 30 years old, but his skin was well groomed and he walked like a gust of wind.

The faint fragrance from her body quietly entered Wu Tian's nose, making him feel incomparably at ease and comfortable.

"You must be Wu Group's President Wu, right?"

The woman in white recognized Wu Tian at first glance and nodded at him modestly.

Wu Tian quickly replied and shook her hand.

"How did you know me?"

He didn't think that he had made any public appearances before, and there might not even be a few people who knew his true identity even within the S City.

They might not even know who the person in charge of the Wu Group was.

"I'm still the president of the China Chamber of Commerce, if I don't have this little bit of information, then there's no need for me as the president. If there's anything else, come in and talk about it, I don't want you standing outside the door."

She invited them all in.

The small courtyard was extremely elegant, and not a single trace of modern technology could be seen. Everything inside was simple and unadorned, yet it gave people a sense of elegance.

"I still don't know how to address guild leader."

Wu Tian's attention was basically focused on this guild leader. Honestly speaking, this was the first time he had seen a woman with such a style.

"My name is Guan Ruonan, and as you can see, I am Commerce Chamber Chairman from China Empire."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 692 - Guan's Choice

C692 Guan's Choice

Wu Tian was actually the most surprised at this person's age.

If she was really as old as 30 years old as he imagined, then she would have become Commerce Chamber Chairman at that age. She would simply be a legendary existence.

"I really didn't expect you to be so young ... "I always thought Commerce Chamber Chairman was one of those old men with gray hair."

Wu Tian joked around, since they were going to chat, there had to be a topic that slowly emerged.

"This is just a joke from you. In fact, the Chamber of Commerce isn't that pedantic. In other words, our Chamber of Commerce is the fastest to change its style."

Guan Ruonan smiled faintly and let them all sit down.

She sat at the coffee table and made tea for them on a mat.

Her techniques were very traditional and professional. Every movement of hers was clean and without any hesitation.

It was unknown how long she had practiced this movement.

Wu Tian never cared too much about drinking tea. He just drank it all up like he was drinking a drink or drinking it all like it was water.

He had never tasted the tea in detail and felt that there was nothing worth investigating.

Aren't they all things soaked in water? What's the difference?

However, this time, he was received in such a manner. Moreover, the teacups and teacups in his hand were extremely small. When he held them in his hand, it was like holding a ping pong ball.

For such a small tea bowl, Wu Tian first said he would give him ten cups or twenty cups, so it was nothing.

However, in order to maintain his modesty, he could only take small sips.

The tea was brewed and placed in the small teacup. Wu Tian suddenly felt as if he had opened the door to a new world after drinking it.

The taste was as smooth as silk, just as the advertisement had said it would be.

Moreover, it did not have the bitterness that he normally felt when he brewed tea leaves. Instead, it had a sweet taste that made him feel as if he had crossed over to an endless field of tea.

It was as if he was tasting the tip of the leaf.

"Good tea, even the people making it are great!"

This wasn't a compliment from Wu Tian to Commerce Chamber Chairman, but a genuine expression of emotion from his heart.

"President Wu, you are praising me too much. The Way of Tea is just a small hobby of mine. Normally, I don't have anything else to do. It is my honor to be able to satisfy you."

Guan Ruonan was neither humble nor arrogant, which made Wu Tian feel very good. He liked to talk to people like this.

"Guild Leader Guan, I came this time to discuss a matter with you."

Wu Tian thought about it and decided to get straight to the point. Guan Ruonan was not an old person anyways, so she probably wouldn't pay too much attention to these things.

"Is it still the same thing as before?"

Guan Ruonan smiled. He couldn't tell what kind of attitude she had, as if she was neither refusing nor objecting.

"That's right, I heard that you didn't express your opinion, so I wanted to know what you really thought."

Since Wu Zaibin said it once, Wu Tian felt that there was no need to state the importance of this matter again.

But he didn't want to put a great man's hat on her head either. Wu Tian wasn't that great. If this wasn't profitable, how would he work so hard?

"I actually don't have any opinions on this matter, because I don't think that things will turn out as you said."

Guan Ruonan smiled faintly before she continued to explain her reasons.

"It's like this. Although Shuangxing Company companies can cover the sky in the nation of Korea, they can still be considered to be a formal enterprise. Generally speaking, they would not do things that are short of money."

Wu Tian was speechless when he heard that. How could the public relations image of a company on the outside be a prerequisite for their discussion?

They can make up their own image as good people as they like. Which big company doesn't have something shameful to do?

"You can't look at it like that. He has countless of subsidiaries, but the key is that the things in the Kingdom of Charles are right in front of your eyes. Their situation is getting worse and worse." If we had also been unprepared, I'm afraid we would have followed in their footsteps. "

Wu Tian also tried to reason with her in a calm manner. Even if he felt that what Guan Ruonan said was wrong, he wouldn't be angry.

As long as Guan Ruonan smiled at him, he would feel that his emotions were immediately soothed.

"What President Wu said does make a bit of sense. However, as Commerce Chamber Chairman, the reputation of the Chamber of Commerce is the most important. If I help you borrow money, what if you cannot repay me? "

Guan Ruonan's opinion was very clear. This was a very risky matter and she would not easily do it.

"Don't worry about this, we have already prepared interest rates. We won't let the Chamber of Commerce take on this loan for us."

Wu Tian knew that was what he said, but the other person definitely wouldn't do as he said.

Everyone who borrowed money had a fair and square appearance. They patted their chests and promised that they would return the money on time.

However, when it came to returning the money, there were quite a few people who had a completely different face.

"I'm sorry I can't agree with you if you have such a small promise."

Guan Ruonan bluntly refused. This was their core interest. They could not touch it, and they absolutely could not give in.

Wu Tian pondered for a moment, then hardened his heart and said, "Then, how about I give you some collateral?"

In order to borrow money, he definitely needed something to mortgage.

This way, the creditor will be able to feel at ease. Even if you don't pay him back, he will be able to take away your collateral to protect him from this debt.

"Then tell me what can be used as collateral? Based on my observations, the amount of money you need to borrow should be at least over 100 billion. With such a large amount of money, I really can't imagine what kind of investment you're going to make. "

Of course, Guan Ruonan wasn't an idiot. She vaguely understood what Wu Tian wanted to do.

"Since I'm from Wu Group company, I'll use them as collateral. If that's not enough, I can also use Nanhe Securities Corporation company as collateral."

Wu Tian almost took out all of his cards and looked at Guan Ruonan nervously.

If she agreed, that would be good, but if she didn't, it would be hard to do.

It was Wu Tian's choice to mortgage the Wu Group company.

It's just that it's Nanhe Securities Corporation, not his company. Wu Tian made the decision on his own, but no one knew what Baili Zhenlin would think.

"Two companies with a market capitalization of at least 200 billion. "Okay, if you really can sign the documents for the mortgage, then I can agree to your request."

After some consideration, Guan Ruonan naturally chose the one that would benefit the most.
