

C695 Enemies Have a Narrow Road

Chamber of Commerce?

Wu Tian just came out of the Chamber of Commerce so why did he hear about the Chamber of Commerce again?

Moreover, this boy claimed to be Commerce Chamber Chairman's child ...

However, wasn't Commerce Chamber Chairman that Guan Ruonan now? Could it be that something had happened to her superior that led to Guan Ruonan's appointment?

"Don't talk for now, the ambulance will be here soon to take you to the hospital."

Wu Tian quickly comforted the boy. When the crowd saw that there were no longer any movements, they gradually dispersed.

The young man didn't know if he should leave or not ...

He was the one who brought these two bosses here, yet something like this happened ...

It seemed like there wasn't much point in bringing them to the red light district, but he had wasted so much time and hadn't earned any commission at all.

Wu Tian looked around and saw the shop assistant, the young man, standing there in a daze.

"Oh yeah, do me a favor."

When the shop assistant saw this, he hurriedly ran over happily.

"If you have any orders, just say them."

Wu Tian took out a stack of bills, which was probably tens of thousands. When no one was around, he secretly gave it to the shop assistant.

"Take this money. I want to know what happened." You often stay here, so you must know something. Do you understand what I mean? "

The clerk touched the stack of thick money excitedly, then he looked at Wu Tian and nodded.

Although this place appeared to be a grey zone, it also had a very common value.

That's what money can buy.

"Don't worry, this is my phone number. Just call me after you're done with your matters."

The shop assistant, the young man, came up and handed Wu Tian a business card. Then, he left in a hurry.

Wu Tian didn't know whether this person was trustworthy or not, but it wasn't a lot of money, what if he was trustworthy?

Wouldn't that make it worth it?

With the arrival of the ambulance, Wu Tian led the boy to the hospital in a hurry.

After they left, Loong Yun quietly turned on her phone in the dark.

She had seen everything just now, or rather, this guy had never gone to a cosmetics store.

She was following them both in secret, intending to see what the two of them were up to.

She didn't expect such a thing to happen. She squinted her eyes as she looked at the shop. It was obvious that she was unhappy.

The hospital in Korea was still rather efficient, and very quickly, the examination for this boy was carried out.

However, the situation was not optimistic. There were multiple fractures all over his body, and there was even a clot in his chest.

Wu Tian could only tell them to start the operation immediately. This operation would take at least a day and a half, and Wu Tian didn't want to waste time here.

He told Wu Zaibin to wait here, while he left the hospital in a hurry.

After receiving Wu Tian's call, the employee changed his clothes and went to a café near the street just now.

The two of them had agreed to meet here, and this time the clerk, the young man, hurried over with a large bag of things.

"How is it? Is there any news? "

Wu Tian and Wu Tian looked around vigilantly, then he lowered his voice.

In a foreign land, it was easy to tell that he was a foreigner by speaking in China.

The shop assistant slightly nodded, then opened the folder in his hands.

There were photos and a small video player.

"Take a look at this. If there's no surprise, that boy is looking for him."

The shop assistant handed over a photo. On the photo was a woman wearing gorgeous clothes. She looked very beautiful and young.

However, the expression on her face was extremely sorrowful. Although she was in a very seductive position, the feeling she gave off was that of a hibiscus.

"You mean this is the person he's looking for?"

Wu Tian picked up the photo and looked at the other photos, then he confirmed that this girl was from the same store.

However, he didn't see it just now, so it was likely that the shop owner had hidden himself.

"That's right, it's said that she's a student from a foreign country with China, so she's quite famous in this area."

The clerk nodded, then took the player over.

"This information is very rare, you should take a look at it first."

Wu Tian frowned when he opened the video.

This was because in the video, a few robust men were carrying a bag. From the looks of the bag, it was obviously a person.

And the direction that they were heading towards, was precisely the custom shop that had the theme of China.

"What's going on? Could it be that they ..."

Wu Tian was about to say something else, but was stopped by the employee.

"Don't say it out loud, it's basically like this. That guy should be telling the truth."

Wu Tian was so angry that his chest heaved up and down. He didn't expect such a thing to happen. Luckily, it was him.

If it had been another person, he might not have been able to deal with them.

"This store... Any background? I heard that these two people are related to the merchants of China."

Being angry was being angry, but if he really wanted to interfere in this matter, he had to start from cooperating.

The shop assistant laughed as he took out another document. The words on it were all in Korea, so Wu Tian wouldn't be able to understand it.

"This is a copy of the store's license, which I collected before. Look at the name on it. "

The employee pointed. Wu Tian looked over and saw Shangguan Junyi's name written on it.

Great, truly, enemies often cross paths with each other ...

He didn't think that Shangguan Family would have such a long reach, and actually have an estate in the State of Korea.

Furthermore, they even attacked his compatriots. This was the most difficult thing for Wu Tian to accept.

He then took out a stack of money, which was at least a hundred thousand yuan. After wrapping it up in paper, he handed it over.

"This is your reward. You did well." If we have the chance in the future, I hope we can work together again. "

Putting everything else aside, at least this power source had no problems in collecting information.

In such a short time, he had already brought out so much information. Wu Tian had never seen such a powerful person before.

"Thank you, thank you. I was only working for money." In our Korea, as long as we have money, we can do anything we want. "

he heard the clerk say. Wu Tian rolled his eyes and took out another sum of money.

"If that's the case, can you do one more thing for me?"
