C716 Dig the Foot of Wall

Perhaps no one could have thought that Tang Liansheng was killed by such a despicable method.

"No wonder, I just happened to know about this Mr. Tang's matter. I didn't figure out why he was killed, and even now, he still hasn't solved the case."

Wu Tian also didn't know what to say. Things had turned out like this, and it happened at Korea, so it was really difficult to solve it.

And Wu Tian had to investigate the identity of the company participating in the competition. It was too immoral of him, and using such a method was the humiliation of being a China user.

"It's normal for it to be unable to be found. It is said that that company has very close relations with the upper echelons of Korea. "Actually, this matter is related to the struggle between the Director of the Space Bureau and myself. On the eve of this event, the leader of the Space Agency completed a new job ..."

Hong Xiangtai had a wry smile on his face. In fact, such a thing shouldn't have happened in the technical department. However, it just happened.

The people in power changed, so did subordinates. Hong Xiangtai became a victim of these officials' struggles and was thrown out the door.

"Then how many people were expelled like you?"

Hong Xiangtai thought about it and counted with his fingers. Finally, he gave a relatively reliable figure.

"There should be around a dozen. They are all skilled core members. However, we were groomed by the previous bureau chief, so we were all kicked out this time."

Hong Xiangtai felt deeply moved when he said that.

The struggle between them clearly had nothing to do with these technical staff. In the end, they were fired because they were mistaken for the former director's henchmen.

"I have an idea that I don't know if you are willing or not."

When Wu Tian found out that this person was the technical director of the Space Bureau, this idea started to form in his mind.

Now that he knew that there was still a group of people who had experienced the same thing as him, Wu Tian had already made up his mind. He felt that he could do it himself.

"What do you mean?"

"Very simple. If possible, I would like to establish a company. I hope to hire you to be my technical director."

Wu Tian smiled faintly. It would be a pity if such a talent was wasted like that.

It just so happened that China had opened up some restrictions on the private sector, and some areas that previously could not be touched could now be started.

As for spaceflight, Wu Tian had always wanted to participate in it.

However, since he wasn't someone related to this matter and his technical requirements were very high, Wu Tian didn't have a way to do it just because he had that thought.

Now it was different. If Hong Xiangtai could join, it would be like adding wings to a tiger.

"May I ask what kind of company you want to start?"

Hong Xiangtai looked at Wu Tian with caution. He felt that there was no such thing as a meat pie falling from the sky, but this young man in front of him kept giving him such good conditions. Could he have some other purpose?

A foreign spy?

Hong Xiangtai's first reaction was this. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been so generous.

However, he also said just now that he was no longer working in the Bureau of Space. In terms of technology, China Country's technology in this area far exceeded Korea, so they didn't need to send spies to steal their technology documents.

"Of course it's for this. Just do your old job."

Wu Tian said with certainty. Although this industry looked like a bottomless pit of investment, he didn't know what kind of return it would bring.

Because no one has invented a more suitable private enterprise to engage in space profitability projects, basically no capitalist would choose to invest in this area unless they had a lot of money.

"You mean to establish a space company?"

Hong Xiangtai was so surprised that his mouth couldn't close. He pulled Wu Tian's arm and told him worriedly.

"Listen to me, it's not that easy. You may have some money on hand, but this project is too expensive. Our space agency puts in billions of dollars a year, and that's what you see. "

Wu Tian knew what Hong Xiangtai meant, and he was clear that the investment was more than the reward.

But as an entrepreneur, as a businessman, he had to have a long-term vision.

That was using the sea of stars as his journey.

Sooner or later, the market on the surface would be snatched away, and by that time, the only place for humans to develop would be the Stellar Sea.

"You don't need to worry about these things. I can only promise you that I definitely won't lack any funds. These billions are not a problem for me."

Wu Tian patted his chest and guaranteed that he really planned to do this. There probably aren't many companies like this in the whole world. If Wu Tian succeeded, then he would be number one in the world.

Ever since he had left the country, his judgement and demeanor had risen to a whole new level.

In the past, just based on the Luzhou, he had already expended a lot of effort to pester those people with Shangguan Family.

Later on, when he reached the S City, he faced the entire Jiangnan directly, but he could still be considered to have made some achievements.

Now, he was facing the whole world. When he looked at this point, Wu Tian instantly realized what a huge market he was facing.

"Are you serious? You're not joking, right? "

Hong Xiangtai was afraid that Wu Tian would tell him everything he said was a joke after he left the room.

Because he was really excited, he had almost worked in the Bureau of Space for the rest of his life. Now that he was kicked out, Hong Xiangtai really didn't know what kind of job he could find to support himself.

Wu Tian being willing to hire him was already the best choice for him.

"Of course I'm not joking. I'm willing to sign a contract with you."

Ignoring all else, Wu Tian's guarantee that he had enough money really moved his heart.

The budget for every project in the Bureau of Space was extremely tight. Even so, the leaders still had to pay a lot of attention to this. It was really hard for them, the people who did the following things, to spend such a small amount of money to produce results.

"Alright, I am willing to agree, but I have a request. Can you hire all of our people over? They are all very skilled technicians, so you won't lose out."

When Hong Xiangtai said this, he was very loyal. However, he was also a bit worried. He was afraid that if Wu Tian was unwilling, he would set this matter aside.

How could Wu Tian be so stupid? These technicians are priceless, even other companies can't buy them.

"Of course not, I guarantee that they will all be treated the same as you. As long as they don't make any serious mistakes, I won't expel anyone. "

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 717 - Attacks on Guannan

C717 Attacks on Guannan

With Wu Tian's promise and the contract he signed, Hong Xiangtai left the coffee shop happily with the bank cards.

It was really like he was in hell one second ago. The next second, Hong Xiangtai had already ascended to heaven.

The changes before and after all depended on Wu Tian's appearance.

He had to inform Loong Yun of this news as soon as possible. This won't do.

Wu Tian thought about it. In these few days he was in Korea, he was preparing brainwave devices, preparing to play games, getting into virtual currency, and now he was even planning to go into space ...

He suspected that if he stayed here any longer, who knew what kind of business he would be able to create.

Although his Wu Group had the ability, it couldn't withstand Wu Tian's rapid expansion within a short period of time.

Every company needs a lot of money to start...

And most importantly, they were lacking in talent.

However, Wu Tian was very satisfied with the conversation just now. He felt that his investment was very valuable.

On one hand, he had acquired such a skilled talent, which was the technical director of Korea's Space Bureau.

On the other hand, Wu Tian had obtained an important weapon in this financial war, which was a piece of evidence.

He had asked Hong Xiangtai to write this testimony just now. The main content of the testimony was to accuse the head of the Space Bureau of colluding with foreign businessmen.

He did not forget about Tang Liansheng's matter. At the moment, he still had not found out about that mysterious supply China company.

Therefore, Wu Tian did not plan to let this matter pass.

However, inspecting the China was much more convenient than checking the Korea.

He knew he couldn't trouble Loong Yun with this matter anymore. She was too busy to deal with it.

The only person who could help him was Su Cancan.

When she received Wu Tian's call, Su Cancan felt a little surprised. Ever since this guy left the China, he had never contacted them.

"There's something I need you to help me investigate ..."

The first thing Wu Tian said was to directly say what he wanted.

Although it was very efficient, Su Cancan still felt very unhappy.

"Is this a pleading tone?"

Su Cancan hung up the phone.

What a joke, didn't he take her too seriously?

Su Cancan didn't think that she would be so cheap, and what kind of tone did Wu Tian have? Was he ordering his men?

Wu Tian, who was embarrassed after being hung up, realized that something was wrong with his tone of voice, so he called again.

After a long time, Su Cancan finally picked it up.

"Hello."

Her tone was extremely cold, giving others the feeling that she was a great distance away.

"That... Can I ask you something?"

Wu Tian changed his tone, but as soon as he finished his words, a busy tone sounded on the phone.

Wu Tian was so angry that he was about to smash his phone.

What was she doing? What did she want him to do?

Although he was angry, he still had to make this call. If not, Wu Tian didn't know who to ask for this.

After picking up the call, Wu Tian quickly announced before the call ended: "Don't hang up yet, I really have something important to talk to you about. I don't have time to joke around."

"Yes."

Su Cancan simply acknowledged, but this time, she didn't hang up on him.

"It's like this, I heard a piece of news here, the previous China, Commerce Chamber Chairman, was ambushed by a company in our China. I want to know who opened this company? Who exactly is behind this? "

Su Cancan nodded and recorded all the details that Wu Tian mentioned.

"Is there anything else? What does this guild leader have to do with you? This is the first time I've seen you so focused on helping others clean up their mess."

Wu Tian sighed. If it was before, he might not care about it, but now that he was abroad, he realized that when he was in a foreign land, the only people who could stand behind him were people from the same country.

"Because of some things. I want to find out what's going on. It should be useful for us."

Wu Tian couldn't explain too many other reasons. He couldn't say that he put in so much effort just because he thought Tang Yanrou was good-looking and wanted to keep her by his side.

Although he might have that thought, he would never say it in front of Su Cancan.

"Alright, I got it. If there's nothing else, I'll be hanging up."

Su Cancan didn't seem to have any feelings for him. Seeing that Wu Tian didn't say anything else, she hurriedly hung up the phone.

Wu Tian looked at the phone being hung up by her again. He sighed, but his heart relaxed.

It would definitely be fine to leave this matter to Su Cancan.

He didn't know why she had such a bad temper either ... Could he have had his period these two days?

That was truly terrifying. This woman was already quite ferocious to begin with. If it was combined with some physical problems ...

It was fortunate that he wasn't in China. Otherwise, Su Cancan might have come to PK in person.

Wu Tian was about to leave the café after finishing his meal when his phone rang.

Normally, if there were no urgent matters, no one would call him.

Wu Tian picked it up and saw it was Loong Yun. He didn't know why she was in such a hurry.

"What's wrong?"

"President Wu, Guan Ruonan is here ..."

Loong Yun's tone was very anxious. It was unknown what had happened that had caused her to panic like this.

"So what if she's here? I'll go back now and make her wait for a bit."

"That's not it. Guan Ruonan's body is covered in blood now ..."

"What's going on?"

Wu Tian immediately realized the seriousness of the situation and quickly hailed a taxi.

He rushed over there.

Before he hung up, Loong Yun was telling him about the situation at the scene.

"She seems to have been hunted down by someone, down below us. Luckily, she was lucky. She only suffered from some external wounds but was bleeding non-stop."

"Hurry up and contact the doctor, then quickly deal with the confidential documents in the company and call the police."

Wu Tian quickly responded. Since this happened in public, the other side must have deliberately targeted him.

However, their target was Guan Ruonan, which confused Wu Tian a little.

What were these people's intentions? Could it be that they were not targeting him?

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 718 - Police Presence

C718 Police Presence

Wu Tian didn't know who was the culprit behind this.

After he hurried back to the company, he found that the police had pulled up the police tape and quite a number of police cars were parked outside.

Wu Tian was let into the store after he confirmed his identity as the boss.

Guan Ruonan was said to have been taken away by the hospital and was undergoing emergency treatment.

Loong Yun was waiting for him at the entrance of the company's lobby. She was relieved when she saw Wu Tian coming.

"President Wu, over here."

Loong Yun quickly ran to Wu Tian's side as if there was something important to do.

"The police chief of Korea is waiting for you in his office ..."

"The chief of police? Why is he looking for me? "

Wu Tian was very confused. Although this happened at his company, it had nothing to do with him and it was not him who sent people to do it.

Furthermore, he wasn't in the company at the time, so he didn't know anything about the situation.

"I don't know, but he asked you by name."

"Alright, alright, let's go take a look."

Wu Tian nodded and followed Loong Yun.

Within the office sat a man and a woman.

The man looked very tall and powerful, but he also had a stern expression on his face. There was even a knife scar that slashed across his face.

On the other side, there was a female. She was also serious, but her appearance was as beautiful as a flower.

"Hello, I'm Wu Tian, I'm also the boss of this company."

Wu Tian walked up and shook hands with them, and the translator beside him immediately translated his words into Korea.

"Hello."

That very refined policewoman stood up and shook hands with Wu Tian, but there wasn't much of an expression on her face.

"We just want to ask, did you know about the murder case just now? Do you know anything about it? "

The policeman's face was full of fierceness. If he took off his police uniform, those who did not know what kind of villain he was would think he was.

"You're making things difficult for me. I just got the news and came back from outside. I don't know what's going on either."

Wu Tian told the truth and did not hide it.

"According to what we know, there seems to be a group of people chasing after the merchants of your China Nation. A similar case has already occurred before. So we suspect that this is likely to be related to the previous case. "

The policewoman briefly introduced the situation. Actually, they didn't come to question Wu Tian on purpose, it was mainly because of his background as a China merchant that they were very concerned about.

This was because these murderers had clearly come straight for their China s.

"A merchant who specializes in killing our China?" Wu Tian was stunned. There was actually such a thing.

And the case they were talking about before, could it be the matter about Tang Liansheng?

"That's right, so I hope you can think about it. Have you offended anyone recently, or have you gotten into some sort of trouble?"

The police was getting impatient. Wu Tian finally understood what was going on after talking for quite a while, but he immediately started to think.

To be honest, there were people like Wu Tian. Wu Tian often offended people, so there were a lot of people who wanted to kill him.

He really didn't know who to say what he said.

"Of course there is. Let's not talk about the matter of me at the China anymore, there really is a possibility that there's a custom shop at the Korea in the red light district. I'll close their shop."

Wu Tian thought about it again and again and felt that this was the only possibility. Otherwise, he really didn't have any conflicts with others.

Hearing Wu Tian's words, the policewoman quickly took a notebook and wrote down this matter.

The policeman tilted his head and thought for a moment before slapping the table.

"I know the red light district. It's pretty messy."

"Other than this place, there should not be any other people here. In any case, the people I offended in my memories were gone."

Wu Tian had said everything he needed to say, so he had no idea what the two policemen were up to.

"Alright, thank you for your cooperation. After some discussion, we decided to put a police officer here. "

The policeman suddenly said. This request caught Wu Tian off guard.

"Send one to me?"

Hearing Wu Tian's surprise, the policeman revealed a very fierce smile.

"That's right. Since this matter is being carried out towards your China, we can't let it continue on like this forever, right? So having the police stand guard here is the best choice."

The policeman explained it clearly, but Wu Tian frowned.

If they really sent people over, then wouldn't Wu Tian be restricted in everything?

"How can that be? There's really no need. I don't have a very famous company here either. "

Wu Tian quickly refused. He really didn't want to cause trouble for himself. If the police were here, it wouldn't be so easy for them to do anything.

And most importantly, people like Hong Xiangtai and the others should try their best not to appear in front of the police.

"We have decided on this matter. Guan Ruonan is injured now. Luckily, she was lucky that she was lucky and did not die. Otherwise, it would have been a dead end for her."
"You still think it doesn't matter?"

The policeman seemed to be angered by Wu Tian's words. He hit the table hard and pointed at Wu Tian's nose while reprimanding him loudly.

He acted like a parent teaching a child a lesson. This policeman was very arrogant, as if he didn't take Wu Tian and the others seriously at all.

"If I say no, then no. Does the law here have such a rule?"

When Wu Tian heard that, he immediately became angry and refused to agree.

What a joke. If he spoke properly, these things could still be discussed.

The person Wu Tian is least afraid of is this kind of arrogant person. If you are this arrogant, then I will be even more arrogant than you.

"Sir, according to the rules of our Korea, we, the police, have the duty to move into a private enterprise when we deem it necessary to conduct active defense. And please know that. "

The policewoman said in a neither humble nor arrogant manner. Although she wasn't as arrogant as the police, she did not put Wu Tian and the others in her eyes.

They would never have such an attitude when speaking to their own people.

Wu Tian looked back at Loong Yun and asked her with his eyes if she had such a rule.

Loong Yun quickly went through the inquiry and nodded at Wu Tian helplessly.

"Alright then, we'll listen to you guys, but we can't interfere with our normal business."

Wu Tian couldn't do anything but nod in agreement. Letting them in didn't mean that he couldn't do his own thing.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 719 - Accident

C719 Accident

After coming out of this room, everyone could tell that Wu Tian's expression was very unhappy.

He was using the law against him. No one would be happy about it.

"President Wu, we're just going to let them stay here?"

Loong Yun whispered behind Wu Tian. They were very unhappy with this situation.

"We can only do this for now. Let's go to the hotel."

Wu Tian returned to his office and grabbed his laptop, preparing to leave. Thankfully, the previous transactions had already been completed, and the only thing left was to wait for the change to occur in the trading markets of Korea.

"The hotel is a bit inconvenient, but now we have no other choice."

Loong Yun nodded. However, she changed the topic and said, "Did they notice something and find an excuse to keep an eye on me?"

After all, they were doing something that was short on the currency of Korea, so would it be the Shuangxing Company Group who was in the background looking for trouble with them?

"We can't rule out the possibility, let's be careful."

Wu Tian frowned. He wasn't the most worried about this, it was mainly Guan Ruonan's side.

If anything happened to her, it would be a problem.

She needed to provide a lot of money. If she was injured like this, she probably wouldn't be able to go out and borrow money for a while.

"Let's go to the hospital, Guan Ruonan can't be in trouble."

Under Loong Yun's lead, Wu Tian rushed to the hospital. At this time, Guan Ruonan was still undergoing surgery and would not be able to come out for a few hours.

Outside the operation room, there were several police officers standing guard. It seemed that they also knew that this was a security issue that could not be ignored.

Since the police were here, Wu Tian knew that it wouldn't be that easy for him to get close to Guan Ruonan.

The two of them were silent again as they drove back.

There were very few cars on the roads of Korea, but it was not because they could not afford the cars, but because they preferred to take the public transport.

Suddenly, there was the sound of a rapid whistle. Loong Yun and the rest were driving past an intersection when a huge truck rushed out from the side.

The train was like a heavy locomotive, charging towards them.

Loong Yun jumped in fright. She hastily tried to turn the steering wheel to avoid the attack, but it was already too late.

The truck and the car crashed into each other, and the huge impact ravaged the car.

Loong Yun and Wu Tian were thrown into a frenzy inside the car. The car rolled a few times on the road before it slowly came to a stop.

All of this happened in a split-second. No one had the time to react.

The bystanders looked at the scene in astonishment, and only after staring blankly for a while did they realize that they should call the police.

The moment Wu Tian became aware of the danger, he immediately covered his head with his arm and curled up into a ball.

When the car came to a stop, he slowly opened his eyes and saw that he was okay, just a little bruised.

He unbuckled his seat belt from his body and struggled to get out through the glass of the door.

The car door was already twisted and couldn't be opened. Loong Yun, on the other side, was groaning as if she had suffered some kind of injury.

After Wu Tian came out, he rushed to save Loong Yun. However, at this moment, Loong Yun was stuck on her seat.

In addition, a pool of blood flowed from Loong Yun's side, dripping onto the ground.

Wu Tian was even more frightened. He desperately wanted to open the car door, but even with his great strength, he could only tear open a small hole.

"Loong Yun Loong Yun!"

Wu Tian shouted Loong Yun's name with all his might. He wanted Loong Yun to keep replying to him and confirm that she was fine.

If she fainted at this time, it might cause shock and Loong Yun would be in danger.

Wu Tian, who was busy rescuing them, didn't even notice that a few figures had appeared beside him. The passersby were about to call the police, but a few people got out of the truck and waved at them. The passersby immediately realized that these people did not seem to be good people.

Thus, they all fled from the scene.

These Korea people were not without love, they did not want to help Wu Tian. It was these thugs who had suddenly appeared. Their bodies were tattooed with a large golden chain, making them look like an underground organization.

"Your life is tenacious enough. "He didn't even die."

Wu Tian heard the Korea words being translated from his headphones. He turned his head and saw that a few people had surrounded him with weapons.

There were a lot of them, about seven or eight of them. They surrounded the car and looked at Wu Tian coldly.

It looked like these people were coming for him.

Wu Tian took a deep breath. Although he knew what was coming would come, he didn't expect it to come so soon.

Whether it was fortune or misfortune was unavoidable.

Wu Tian ignored them and continued to dismantle the car door beside Loong Yun. The situation now was already pretty good.

If he was allowed to continue for a while longer, he should be able to pull Loong Yun out from inside.

"Didn't you hear me when I spoke to you?"

A robust man from Korea seemed to be very dissatisfied. Seeing Wu Tian ignore him like this made him angry. He raised the metal rod in his hand and hit Wu Tian's side.

The iron rod collided with the car with a loud noise, causing sparks to burst out.

Wu Tian stopped what he was doing. He turned around and looked at the man coldly.

"Get lost as far as you can."

He wasn't in the mood to pay attention to these people, but that didn't mean he didn't have the power to deal with them.

"This kid is quite arrogant!"

The surrounding men all laughed, feeling that Wu Tian's actions were very funny.

Wu Tian put his hand on the car door again. Loong Yun had been losing blood, and now she was lying on the ground with a pool of blood.

Wu Tian couldn't see where the wound was at all. If this went on, Loong Yun would definitely die from excessive blood loss.

Therefore, he didn't have much time left. Wu Tian had to save Loong Yun as soon as possible.

"Don't save her, neither of you can leave today."

Several Koreans looked at each other. One of them held a metal rod and silently ran to Wu Tian's back.

Then, he suddenly raised his metal rod and aimed it towards the back of Wu Tian's head.

Wu Tian naturally knew about the whistling sound of the iron rod as it was swung.

He saw the right moment and quickly shook his head, dodging the attack.

However, because this person had too much momentum and used too much strength, he didn't stop attacking even after a short while. However, the stick didn't stop.

It landed directly on someone else's head, and their people ended up hitting them instead.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 720 - Intolerable

C720 Intolerable

The scene instantly became chaotic. A few Korea people rushed forward and prepared to cut Wu Tian into pieces on the spot.

Knowing that he couldn't avoid it, Wu Tian temporarily let go of the work in his hands and turned around to avoid the stick.

Just being beaten up without retaliating was not Wu Tian's character. He quickly swung his fist to find an opening and struck towards one of the Korea people.

This ring was even stronger than his stick, so it was directly his turn to sink down into the pit of the nose along with the top of his head.

This strike made his bones emit a crisp cracking sound.

The person from Korea who was beaten up ran away while covering his nose with blood.

His screams had instead provoked the other Korea people, who continued to attack Wu Tian.

Even if they were big and strong, they were merely a dish of bean sprout vegetables in front of Wu Tian.

Wu Tian dodged a few attacks and then picked up an iron rod, easily knocking all of them to the ground.

It took less than a minute. Wu Tian looked at the group of people lying on the ground and screamed. He snorted and went back to the car with the iron rod in his hand to pry open the door.

"Let's call it a day!"

A voice suddenly sounded behind Wu Tian's head. At the same time, the sound of a gun being loaded could be heard.

Wu Tian immediately stopped because he felt something hard pressed against the back of his head.

"Turn in my direction and throw away what you have."

The voice behind him was telling him that Wu Tian didn't want to do it because Loong Yun was getting worse and worse.

However, a gun was pointed at the back of his head, what could Wu Tian do?

Turning around, he saw a fierce-looking man wearing a mask on his face.

One of his eyes seemed to be blind. Although it was open, its eyes were white.

It looked very strange.

The gun was pointed at Wu Tian's forehead. He was a little confused as to what this thug was trying to do.

"Who are you people? What do you want to do?!"

Wu Tian was not afraid. He stared at the man in front of him, hoping to see a flaw in him.

"You must be Wu Tian. That must be right. Someone wants to buy your life, that's all. "

Then, the man suddenly took out a phone and prepared to take a picture of Wu Tian as evidence to prove that they were done.

Wu Tian secretly gathered his strength. He took a deep breath and focused all his attention on the spear in front of him.

While the man was distracted with his photos, Wu Tian made a move. He quickly moved his head away and reached out to snap Wu Tian's wrist.

The man reacted very quickly and pulled the trigger as soon as he noticed Wu Tian.

However, he wasn't as fast as Wu Tian and missed.

However, he would not have another chance. Wu Tian had already grabbed his wrist and twisted backwards.

The man couldn't hold the gun anymore. He let go of it and it fell to the ground. Wu Tian kicked him away.

He was unarmed, and he was the absolute truth here. Wu Tian did not believe that he would lose to them.

Seeing that the gun was gone, the blind man immediately raised his punching bag sized fist, wanting to have a hand-to-hand fight with Wu Tian.

However, Wu Tian didn't have the intention to fight him at all. He went behind the man and wrapped his arms around his neck, grabbed one of his ears and twisted fiercely.

He forcibly tore off one of the man's ears.

Blood immediately flowed out from his head as the man rolled on the ground while screaming in pain.

However, Wu Tian wasn't in the mood to do this sort of thing with him. He directly threw away the thing in his hand, then went back to dismantle the car door with full of resentment.

The moment the car door was pulled off, Wu Tian threw the door back and rushed over to check on Loong Yun's situation.

Loong Yun was now unconscious, her clothes soaked with blood.

Wu Tian carefully blew Loong Yun out of the seat. Only then did he notice a sharp metal stuck into her thigh.

Fresh blood continued to gush out from the wound. It was very possible that it had hurt her blood vessels.

The situation was urgent, so Wu Tian knew that she had to hurry to the hospital.

However, no police car or ambulance had arrived at the scene after such a long time, and not even a car dared to come near.

Wu Tian was at a loss of what to do as he carried Loong Yun. At this moment, the screeching of tires could be heard from afar.

A luxurious car stopped in front of them. The glass behind the window was rolled down, revealing a face that made Wu Tian feel very gratified.

"Get in the car."

The person that passed by was Cui Yongji.

Although Wu Tian had some deals with him, he didn't expect to meet him here.

However, Wu Tian couldn't think too much into it in this situation. He carried Loong Yun and got on the car. Then, they slipped away to the hospital.

In order to prevent Loong Yun from losing more blood, Wu Tian tore off a piece of cloth from his clothes and wrapped it around her thigh.

He covered her wound with some clean cloth and did some simple work.

"I have some simple medical supplies in my car. See if there's anything I can use."

Luckily, Cui Yongji's car was very big, and it was a business version. It was the kind of car that could meet face to face in the back row.

Wu Tian felt that he wasn't able to restrict his movements.

"Thank you. I'll trouble the driver to hurry to the hospital. If it's night, I'm afraid I won't be able to save you. "

Wu Tian nodded at Cui Yongji and urged him.

He didn't need to say it, the driver was already doing it.

In less than five minutes, their car was parked in front of a hospital. A few doctors and nurses were already waiting there with a car.

When they saw Wu Tian and the others, they immediately picked Loong Yun up and pushed her into the emergency room.

Seeing that Loong Yun was taken away, Wu Tian finally felt relieved. There shouldn't be much of a problem at the hospital.

"What happened? What happened just now?"

Cui Yongji lightly patted Wu Tian's shoulder and signaled him to follow him over.

However, the direction he was going was the inside of the hospital. Cui Yongji took Wu Tian directly to the top floor of the hospital and walked towards the chairman's office.

"Rest assured, you are absolutely safe here. I ran this hospital. "

Cui Yongji saw the alertness in Wu Tian's eyes and said with a smile.
