C721 The Enemy Is in the Dark While I Am in the Light

After making sure that it was safe, Wu Tian sat on the sofa.

For a moment he felt tired, as if he had no strength left in him at all.

"Why are you in that place? What a coincidence! I don't know what I would have done if I hadn't met you! "

Wu Tian was quite grateful. If it weren't for Cui Yongji, Loong Yun really wouldn't have survived anymore.

"What are you saying this for? Luckily, I met you. If it was anyone else, I'm afraid no one would have cared about you."

Cui Yongji smiled, what he said was true. When those ordinary commoners saw the thugs of Korea, they all ran away in fear.

They didn't even dare to call the police. With their poor mental fortitude, how could you expect them to come and save them?

"Looks like someone wants to harm me."

"Then do you have any leads? Or did you offend someone?"

Cui Yongji passed a cup of tea to Wu Tian and told him to slow down.

After all, if that happened, no one would be able to calm down.

"I'm not sure either. I suspect that it was Shangguan Junyi who did it."

I just want to tear down his shop for revenge. However, this shop was only one of the many assets that Shangguan Junyi had in Korea.

This shop was not the most profitable, he did not need to send someone to kill him because of this.

But for any other reason, besides destroying the store, the only other reason was probably Tang Yanrou.

"Shangguan Junyi? is it the Shangguan Family of the legendary Four Great Clans in your China Nation? "

Cui Yongji had some understanding about these things. After all, they were both business people. He had more or less heard of those with greater reputations.

"That's right, you also know my identity. I believe you understand that Wu Family and the Shangguan Family are irreconcilable."

Wu Tian frowned. At this point, it was very likely that Wu Tian's next actions would be affected.

He seemed to be planning on using this method to warn Wu Tian. Did they sense that Wu Tian was trying to short their currency?

It was because he was involved in Tang Yanrou's affairs that these people started to panic.

These two reasons seemed to make sense, and the target must be Wu Tian.

"Mr. Cui, do you know who those thugs are?"

Wu Tian felt that they weren't people from the business world, and they now looked more like an underground organization.

And just now, during the battle, there was a person pointing a gun at him. He once said that someone wanted to buy Wu Tian's life.

If they could find out who gave them the money and who entrusted it to them, then this matter would be brought to light.

"I can roughly guess, they committed crimes in broad daylight, who else could it be other than the underground organization. The number of underground organizations in Korea Country is not small, and people like us who operate companies are often suppressed by them."

Speaking of which, Wu Tian also understood that there were situations like this with China. If he didn't listen to their protection fees, he might be humiliated by these underground organizations.

"Then I have to go find them. I can't just let this go."

Wu Tian supported himself up. He felt that this matter should be done immediately.

"Wu Tian, why are you in such a hurry? Even if you go now, what solution can you come up with?"

Cui Yongji quickly stopped Wu Tian. With his current physical condition and mental state, he was really not in a good position to do this kind of thing.

He might encounter more danger.

"Then what do you think we should do?"

Wu Tian knew Cui Yongji was kind, but he couldn't accept this fact.

He had already been bullied to this extent. If he still didn't do anything, Wu Tian felt that he wouldn't need to continue staying in this business.

Could a person bully him? Then he's still the chairman of Wu Group company?

Wu Tian, on the other hand, felt that it was very possible that the enemy had already targeted Wu Tian from the very beginning, and Guan Ruonan was injured because she blocked the knife for Wu Tian.

The enemy probably also came for Wu Tian in the beginning, but mistook Guan Ruonan's car for Wu Tian and ended up doing the wrong thing.

Upon realizing this, they immediately made a comeback and prepared to launch a second attack.

"Now that the enemy is in the shadows and you are in the light, no matter what you do, it is too easy for people to discover you. You can wait. Don't worry, think carefully about what to do. "

Cui Yongji said with a smile. For someone at his age, such a thing was no longer unusual.

The shopping mall was like a battlefield. It involved the interests of others, and everyone was determined to protect their interests. There was no need to joke around.

This was because there were a lot of cases of people dying in the business war.

Wu Tian frowned, this kind of thing was not that simple for him, he would not speak of Korea anywhere and it would seem very special.

"What you said makes sense. I should be hiding right now to see what the enemy is up to."

Wu Tian quickly calmed down. He knew that there was no point in being impulsive.

"Don't worry, I have some spies in this place. I can help you check it out."

Cui Yongji wrote a note as he spoke and handed it to his secretary. On the other hand, he advised Wu Tian to take a good rest here and wait for Loong Yun to be rescued before making a move.

At this time, if Wu Tian rushed out, it would not be safe. The enemy might still be staring at Wu Tian. If there was a chance, something like this would probably happen.

"Thank you, I didn't expect that you would be the one to save my Mr. Cui."

Wu Tian acknowledged Cui Yongji's arrangement, so he quickly thanked him.

Cui Yongji waved his hand and smiled meaningfully.

"It's fine, it's fine. We should help each other. In the future, when I might have need of you, you might even return the favor."

He was frank, after all, Wu Tian's existence had a great meaning.

If Wu Tian was just a commoner or a nobody, perhaps Cui Yongji wouldn't even drag him into the car.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 722 - Extortion

C722 Extortion

A few hours later, Loong Yun was finally pushed out of the emergency room.

Her complexion had already recovered quite a bit, but she was still unceasingly writing.

Wu Tian quickly rushed over to ask the doctor how was the situation. After getting a confirmation from the doctor, Wu Tian felt relieved.

Fortunately, it was fine and wouldn't harm her life.

Wu Tian let out a long breath. If Loong Zaiyan knew about this, what expression would he have?

Su Cancan would probably be the first to not let him off when the time came ...

As expected, it was someone else's territory. This was their advantage.

Especially the intelligence report, Cui Yongji's people will be back in a few hours.

The document they handed over contained a photo and some lists. Cui Yongji looked at it and then handed it to Wu Tian in satisfaction.

"Take a look, these people seem to be the ones that attacked you today."

Wu Tian opened the list. The first one he saw was the man with one eye, who was pointing a gun at his head.

He couldn't understand his name, but Wu Tian didn't care too much about it. He was more concerned about where these people were and how he could find them.

"Mr. Cui, can you lend me some people? I want to ask them whose money they took."

Wu Tian knew that his request was a bit too much, but he couldn't ask for help anymore. Perhaps Cui Yongji was the only one who could help him.

However, Cui Yongji agreed without any delay.

"No problem, I'll find you 20 people. They know where these people are, so you can just mention my name after you go there."

Cui Yongji's words were very domineering, as if everything was in his hands.

"Thank you, Director Cui."

Wu Tian didn't know how to thank Cui Yongji.

"No worries, you can go. Come back to this place after you're done. I'll tell you a few more things."

Cui Yongji smiled as he arranged a car for Wu Tian. It was still early, enough for him to go back and forth.

Soon, Wu Tian and his men found the hiding place of these thugs. This was a rather chaotic district.

The dozen or so people they had were all hiding in a courtyard, and they were all injured.

Just now, Wu Tian had beat them up, but he didn't let them off the hook at all.

These thugs are basically broken... At this moment, he was lying on the ground and wailing non-stop.

At this time, the blind Korea man was calling nonstop, seemingly wanting to ask the doctor to come and treat them.

However, they didn't expect that Wu Tian would lead a group of people to kick open the door and barge in.

The blind man was stunned, but he immediately realized that the situation wasn't good. He threw the phone in his hand and quickly picked up the gun beside him and shot at Wu Tian.

However, Wu Tian was already prepared. He dodged to the side and missed again. The courtyard was full of wounded people. Wu Tian picked up a broken guy and put him beside himself as a shield.

Then he continued to move closer to the blind man.

He could not possibly shoot at his brother. The bespectacled man had no choice but to throw away the gun and turn around to run.

Wu Tian chased at a leisurely pace. He didn't care about this guy running away.

The blind man hurriedly opened the door and prepared to escape through the back door.

However, he didn't expect that there were already a few burly men standing outside the back door, looking at him with a smile.

The people under him quickly turned their heads, but at this moment, Wu Tian had already caught up. With this pincer attack, he knew he couldn't escape anymore.

He threw away the gun and sat on the ground dispiritedly with the cigarette in his mouth.

"You won. Go ahead."

Wu Tian harrumphed and winked at the several hulks.

They immediately came up and tied up this man.

Wu Tian looked at the man in front of him with an unhappy expression and a livid expression.

Yet, this man knew that he wouldn't be able to escape, so he didn't care.

"Who told you to kill me?"

Wu Tian looked at him and said coldly. He picked up the gun and placed it in front of Wu Tian. He took out the magazine and loaded it one by one.

The threat was enough, Wu Tian felt that he didn't need to give any more hints.

"You think I'm going to tell you?"

The blind man wanted to stubbornly resist, but as soon as he said that, a strong man nearby immediately walked over and ruthlessly slapped him.

With this strike, half of his face swelled up.

Blood dripped from the corner of his mouth, and the man even spat out half a tooth.

"I'm going to die whether I say it or not, so why should I say it?"

This man seemed to believe that he was doomed this time around. After all, in this line of work, he had to hang his head on his waist every day. It was unknown when he would die.

"You don't have to tell me. If you don't, I will kill one of your brothers every minute until you tell me."

Wu Tian's expression was not a joke. His smile was so sinister that it made people shudder when they saw it.

Moreover, as soon as he finished speaking, a few robust men went to grab a unlucky fellow and carried him over.

Wu Tian obediently loaded a bullet into the pistol and pointed the gun at the thug's head.

"Are you going to say it or not? If you say it, maybe you won't have to die. I'm not such a bloody person. "

The blind man fell silent. It was one thing if he had died, but to have to bring his brother with him ...

"They don't know anything. Let them go, I'm willing to use my life to repay them."

The blind man was the only thing that he could do for his brother. Many of the thugs were crying. They had not expected their leader to be so loyal to them.

"This is not the question I asked you. This is a warning to you. " Wu Tian said coldly and pulled the trigger. However, the shot did not hit the thug's head. It hit his shoulder instead.

This shot caused the blind man's entire body to tremble. At that moment, he even thought that his brother was dead for sure.

Hearing the screams of his brother, the man's mental defenses slowly started to crumble.

"I'll tell you anything as long as you don't kill them."

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 723 - Close to the Truth

C723 Close to the Truth

Facing such absolute power, the blind man could only tell them everything that he knew.

They were indeed the hooligans from nearby and someone specifically asked them to help kill a person.

It just so happened that they were short of money during this period of time, and the reward given by this client was also very generous.

The blind man immediately accepted the request.

However, they only knew that the person to kill was Wu Tian, and did not know why.

After listening to his confession, Wu Tian pondered for a while. He carefully sized up this man and wondered if he was lying or not.

It didn't sound complicated, but the blind man still hadn't said who the client was.

Not even a hint of the man.

"I really said everything ... Let my brothers go. "

The blind man looked at Wu Tian pitifully and begged him.

Wu Tian nodded to the person beside him, then took another injured unlucky guy and threw him beside the man.

"I feel like you're... Still lying. You want to fool me by making up such a story? "

Wu Tian pointed his gun at his partner as he spoke. The man immediately kneeled down in fright.

"I really didn't lie, what I said was all true!"

"Is this all true? If you say so, I can make it up. You tell me you don't know who this client is? "Then you dare to take this job?"

Wu Tian sneered. He wasn't that easy to deal with, and he wasn't someone that could be tricked with just a few words.

"I tell you to be honest, if you keep going like this, we won't hit his shoulder the next time."

The brawny man beside him also kicked the blind man hard, causing him to fall to the ground.

"All I know is that... I only know that he seems to be from some company... I don't know anything else. When he came here, it was as if someone else was sitting in his car. I think I heard the words of the China people ... "

The blind man didn't dare to speak carelessly this time. He told Ye Zichen everything he knew.

"China person?"

Wu Tian immediately frowned. If that's the case, this person shouldn't be lying.

That's right, the people with the most hatred towards Wu Tian were these China s.

As the saying goes, if you travel together, you are an enemy. Wu Tian suspected that he offended Shangguan Junyi, so this guy sent someone to kill him.

"Let them go."

Wu Tian nodded to those hulks. Then, he walked out as if he had thought of something. There was no longer any use for him to stay here.

It seemed like he had to quickly investigate who it was that wanted to take his life.

Wu Tian hurriedly returned to Cui Yongji's hospital. Loong Yun was still rescuing him, so he paced back and forth outside the operation room anxiously.

Seeing that he was alone, Cui Yongji also came to sit beside me.

He leisurely read the newspaper as he sipped his coffee. Beside him, there was a secretary who had been waiting by his side all this time. He felt like his life had gone by in an unrestrained manner.

"How is it? Did you get anything? "

"I asked a few questions, but I don't know much."

Wu Tian told them everything he knew. The other party had not revealed their identities, and this blind man was not very powerful.

The reason why the other party had sought out them was probably because they did not want to divulge any information.

"China person?"

Cui Yongji clicked his tongue. This area was too big to be found in a short period of time.

"Yeah, it's understandable that they would make a move on Guan Ruonan. I'm afraid there's some clues from the Chamber of Commerce that might be able to find out their identities."

But for those who were doing business in the Korea, more or less, if they wanted to relax, they would go to their own merchant guild.

After all, the Chamber of Commerce had plenty of resources and connections. If they could borrow them, it would be very effective for their business.

Guan Ruonan was severely injured. This meant that the China and Korea Chamber of Commerce had already entered a state of suspension.

"Don't worry, we'll slowly investigate this matter. How about I send someone to protect you like this?"

Cui Yongji was not in a hurry, in fact, it was useless even if he was in a hurry.

The killer would not jump out on his own. They had to investigate carefully, and it was better to have clues than no clues at all.

"There's no need for that. If you get too close to me, I'm afraid others will criticize you."

Wu Tian smiled at Cui Yongji. He was actually very grateful to Cui Yongji.

"If that's the case, then I won't force you. But if you need anything, you can come and find me anytime."

Cui Yongji wasn't an idiot, he knew his intentions clearly.

He knew what Wu Tian was going to do and what the consequences would be.

Whoever came close to him would probably be the first to die. Especially to people like them from the Korea, they would be drowned by the saliva and saliva of their own citizens.

Wu Tian continued to wait for Loong Yun alone. Cui Yongji returned to his office.

A few big guys, who went with Wu Tian, were already waiting in the office.

Cui Yongji put out the cigarette in his hand and looked at them seriously.

"How is it? Have you found anything? "

"We interrogated them for a while more. According to our explanation, it seemed that their remuneration came from an account overseas. We needed to investigate the source of this money, and in the end, we obtained it from Shuangxing Company Corporation ..."

"Uh-huh." Cui Yongji's eyes lit up. Since the situation developed to this point, it became very interesting.

"That's interesting. Did the evidence stay?"

"That's right. We've checked the account and the information at the back."

Cui Yongji nodded and looked outside the window. In the distance, the Shuangxing Company Group's building was shining brightly, but in Cui Yongji's eyes, it was nothing more than a show of strength.

"That's good then. Don't worry about this matter, continue the investigation. I want to know who tried to kill Wu Tian."

After Cui Yongji finished arranging things, he took out a bottle of wine from the cabinet with a smile.

The secretary quickly came over with a cup and Cui Yongji personally poured two cups of wine.

"Director Cui is in a very good mood today."

"Of course. From the looks of it, this Shuangxing Company company is going to become history. "

Cui Yongji smiled and took a gulp of the wine in his glass. He was extremely happy.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 724 - Long Yun's Awakening

C724 Long Yun's Awakening

Looking at the lights outside the operation room that suddenly went out, Wu Tian's heart leaped into his throat.

This meant that Loong Yun was about to be pushed out.

However, he did not know what kind of situation she was in, or whether she was saved or not.

Soon, the door of the operation room was opened. A group of people pushed a flat car and rushed out.

Wu Tian rushed over and asked worriedly, "How is she?"

The doctor looked at Wu Tian with a weird expression because he didn't understand what Wu Tian said...

However, he could guess what Wu Tian was asking.

"No problem, mother and son are safe."

This time, it was Wu Tian's turn to be confused. He listened to the voice of the translator from the headphones, and his face showed a different expression.

"What, mother and son are safe?"

When was Loong Yun pregnant?

He had been by her side for so long, why hadn't he seen her pregnant at all?

Besides, Loong Yun wasn't married yet. Who was she with?

Wu Tian suddenly felt that he was in a mess, the world instantly made him feel lost.

He stood there in a daze, watching the doctors and nurses push the flat car away.

Should he go or should he not go ...

Just when he was at a loss, the door to the operation room opened again. This time, another flat car walked out from inside.

Wu Tian turned his head and looked. He immediately saw the name plate on the car.

Loong Yun's name was clearly written on it.

Wu Tian finally felt relaxed inside. That person was not her ...

"Doctor, how is she?"

"The operation was successful, but she was still a little weak."

A few nurses helped push Loong Yun into the ward. This was a special VIP ward, so the nurses took good care of her.

Wu Tian saw that although Loong Yun was still unconscious, her complexion was getting better. He could finally feel relieved.

He quickly called Wu Zaibin to tell him to calm down for now. Wu Tian didn't tell them that Loong Yun had been hurt.

It was just that this matter could not be notified to the China for the time being. Otherwise, there would be trouble over there.

Knowing that Loong Yun was injured, Wu Zaibin brought a bunch of stuff to check on her.

He was carrying a bunch of things in his hands, while the people beside him were also carrying a pile of things.

The moment they entered, the gifts they brought along with them as well as the nutrition products nearly filled the entire ward.

"Why are you taking so many things? We're not going to open a supermarket."

Wu Tian felt a headache coming on ...

"President Wu, aren't we just expressing our concern?" This is a little favor from the employees in the company, you can't possibly make others not give it to you, can you? Usually, Secretary Loong treats everyone pretty well in the company. If anything happens to her, we have to let her know. "

Since he said that, Wu Tian had no way to answer the question. He could only make them quiet down.

It had been an hour or two since she came out of the operating room. Loong Yun had also gradually woken up from her anesthetic state.

She still had the bottle of blood hanging from her arm, and now she had to start the transfusion as soon as possible because of the loss of blood.

"Loong Yun is awake."

Wu Tian was pleasantly surprised as he saw Loong Yun slowly open her eyes. He quickly called for everyone to come over.

Loong Yun was slightly relieved when she saw Wu Tian beside her.

"President Wu, are you alright ..."

Loong Yun's first sentence, which sounded a little weak, was to be concerned about whether Wu Tian was injured or not.

"I'm fine. I haven't even scratched my skin. You should take a good rest, don't worry about me anymore."

Wu Tian couldn't hold back his tears anymore.

Loong Yun nodded slightly. She really didn't have much strength left at the moment. She looked around and saw everyone around her. She looked around to see where her briefcase was located.

Wu Tian looked at her as if she was looking for something. He followed her gaze and saw the small satchel that Loong Yun always carried.

She hurried over to get it.

"You want this?"

Loong Yun nodded. Wu Tian opened the door for her and saw some documents inside.

"Deal with these things properly. You have to help President Wu with the rest of his things ..."

Loong Yun pointed at Wu Zaibin and warned him in detail.

Wu Zaibin nodded his head resolutely, indicating that this matter was up to him.

He was not a useless person. She didn't have to worry about giving him such a small matter.

Wu Tian turned his back and secretly wiped away his tears.

He could not help but feel that Loong Yun was actually so concerned about him, something that he might not have noticed in the past.

She was already injured to such an extent and didn't even have the strength to lie on the bed. The first thing she thought about was whether it was Wu Tian's work arrangements or not.

"You don't need to worry about these things. Right now, your task is to rest well. I still need you to come and help me after you get well."

Wu Tian said in a choked voice. He didn't want anything else, he just wanted Loong Yun to get better as soon as possible.

"Of course, I'm your only secretary, President Wu. Not only now, but in the future, you're not allowed to have other secretaries."

Loong Yun rarely asked Wu Tian for anything, but this time, she was the one who spoke out her thoughts.

Wu Tian nodded heavily, "Don't worry, I will only have you as my secretary."

This was a promise to some extent. Wu Zaibin saw that their mood seemed to be getting better, so he quickly gave them a look and they quietly left the room.

He left Loong Yun and Wu Tian to have a good chat and take advantage of this opportunity. They probably didn't have much to communicate with each other.

"Let's go, Secretary Loong has nothing to do now, we still have a lot of work to do."

Wu Zaibin waved and prepared to follow them back to the company.

"Manager President Wu, are we still in the market? Are we still going to climb up those funds?"

During this period of time, the price of the Korea and currency had started to rise again, and the influence they had previously had was slowly being offset.

"Of course, but don't be too anxious, the current situation in the Korea is still not hot enough."

Wu Zaibin was very calm. His biggest characteristic was stability. He definitely wouldn't lose his mind just because of a moment of benefit.

The people beside him also nodded. They all recognized Wu Zaibin's standard, especially his sense of smell in finance, which was definitely at the top.

He had been able to set up a financial consulting company from scratch and earn more than 100 million yuan. This was something that he could only do with very great ability.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 725 - Twin Star Group Sad

C725 Twin Star Group Sad

During this period of time, all sorts of small newspapers and television programs in Korea Nation were talking about some of the rumours about Shuangxing Company Corporation.

Sometimes they not only embezzle state funds, they even bribe state officials.

There were even some who claimed that they were connected to foreign countries, and that they were exploiting the people of Korea.

In short, there were all sorts of rumors, but there was not a single valid piece of evidence.

During this period of time, Shuangxing Company Group was also extremely anxious. They probably did not expect such a huge public relations crisis.

In the giant conference room of Shuangxing Company Group, Lee Zerong looked at the hundreds of directors seated below him. His expression was very unhappy.

"Can someone explain to me what happened in this period of time!"

Lee Zerong's voice was incredibly depressing, but it revealed an extraordinary ruthlessness that made others shiver just by listening to it.

"Minister of Propaganda, tell us about it."

Noticing that no one said anything, Lee Zerong brought up a person and stared coldly at the Minister of Propaganda.

"That, our Propaganda Department is doing our best to conduct public relations. We have also commissioned an investigation to find out who is slandering our company."

The Minister stammered as he wiped the sweat off his forehead.

Lee Zerong always gave people a very serious feeling. Moreover, his emotions frequently changed. The people around him were all afraid that Lee Zerong would be angered by what they said.

If he was angry, he could fire them at any time.

"This is your result?"

Lee Zerong picked up a newspaper beside him, which had the words Shuangxing Company Corporation's scandal written on it ...

He slammed the newspaper onto the table, causing the Minister of Propaganda to be so shocked that he almost fell to the ground.

"I'll give you two days to make sure everything is back to normal, or else get the hell out of here!"

Lee Zerong looked at this department head and couldn't even say anything due to anger. His gaze then shifted to the person beside him.

"Finance Minister, what's with our share price?"

The various ministers were all standing up at this moment. In the worst case scenario, the next target might be them.

"Li, Boss Li, the rumors outside definitely have an impact on our share price. Furthermore, our country's currency has fallen greatly recently, and many people have lost their shares with the wind. However, based on the current situation, we can definitely recover."

Shuangxing Company Corporation's account was currently very unsightly. This was also the reason why Lee Zerong was very angry.

"What I want is not the process, and what I want to ask is not the reason, but the result! I hope that you can let me see the results as soon as possible! "

Lee Zerong was like a cannon, firing at everyone here.

He talked for more than half an hour before the ministers let out a sigh of relief. Luckily, Lee Zerong didn't dismiss them on the spot ... This was already a blessing in disguise.

After Lee Zerong finished his sentence, he took a sip of water and thought about who he should point at next to vent his anger.

"Director Li, do we still need to continue shorting our stocks overseas?"

For such a large-scale meeting, some of the more reputable people would basically all participate, and Mr Jin, who was in charge of matters regarding China, was no exception.

If one were to say where it was better, perhaps it would only be the China market. Because Mr Jin was extremely cautious, the China division of the Shuangxing Company company was not affected that much.

"Of course. To be honest, I don't always have to criticize him here. Jin Xianyu is doing pretty well. If you guys could be like him, then what would I have to worry about!"

Lee Zerong nodded to Jin Xianyu in satisfaction. He was already very old, and always hoped that there would be a good successor for his company.

But so many years had passed, and all of his sons seemed to be useless, as though they didn't know anything at all.

As for those young subordinates of theirs, they either didn't have any desires or no ability to support a large company.

In short, there were all kinds of situations. The only one that Lee Zerong was interested in was probably this Jin Xianyu.

"Right now, our business in Korea is already saturated. No matter how big the commotion here is, the basic business will not move."

Lee Zerong calmly said that he was prepared to short out the stocks of other countries. This was also an important step for Shuangxing Company Group Corporation to expand outwards.

"Then I understand, we will move faster."

Jin Xianyu acutely knew what Lee Zerong wanted to hear, so he cooperated with him to express his views.

Lee Zerong nodded in satisfaction, then his gaze landed on the other people.

"How are things at your place, my person in charge of Char Country?"

The person in charge here was a foreigner with blonde hair and blue eyes, but he was a bit scared in front of Lee Zerong.

"Our progress has been slightly hindered. "Normally, they don't have any foreign exchange reserves, but I don't know why they are able to hold on until now ..."

"I think you don't want to do it? I've given you so much money, what are you going to do now? "

Lee Zerong threw his teacup out in anger. In the short duration of Char Country, the Shuangxing Company Group had invested most of his foreign exchange resources.

This was like a bottomless pit. The deeper they went, the more they felt that there was no way to fill it up.

"Director Li, don't worry, Char Country is a relatively strong financial country after all. They still have some strength."

Jin Xianyu hurriedly advised Lee Zerong when he saw that he was about to lose his temper.

Otherwise, Lee Zerong might be more angry, and might even fire the person in charge directly.

However, the situation on the Char Country side was getting more and more intense, and whoever stopped fighting first would be the loser.

As a result, it was impossible for them to change hands before the battle.

Hearing Jin Xianyu's words, Lee Zerong could only slowly calm down.

"Then what do you think we should do? Are we going to keep investing like this forever? We've already spent billions of dollars on the National Fund, can we still use it any longer?"

Lee Zerong said in annoyance. Most of the money was not theirs, that's why Lee Zerong was so angry.

Although he was the boss of Shuangxing Company Group, it was still not easy for him to get so much money from the government.

"Maybe we don't need that much. More international consortia have joined us. As long as we act as if we are not going to back down, we will definitely have the money. "

Jin Xianyu's eyes lit up as if he was planning something.
