C726 Benefits Make Us Friends

Lee Zerong still felt that Jin Xianyu was a very reliable person, even though the meeting wasn't very successful.

However, Lee Zerong still kept Jin Xianyu, he was very interested in the last sentence he said.

"Come, come, come. I want to see what you have in mind today. Is there any good news for me? "

Lee Zerong had a smile on his face. He wasn't always angry like that, it's just that he had to have a different expression towards different people.

"It seems that I have not escaped your ears. How should I say it? There is indeed something like this, but I'm not sure if I should tell you or not."

Jin Xianyu seemed to want to say something but hesitated. However, how could Lee Zerong not listen when he was very happy?

"Say it, it doesn't matter, will I still criticize you? "With how cautious you are, I wish everyone in the company could be like you!"

Lee Zerong was very confident in Jin Xianyu. He felt that Jin Xianyu was probably the best candidate to succeed him.

"It's like this. When I was doing business in China Country, I got to know their Chief Commerce Chamber Chairman. I feel that if we can contact them on a larger scale, we might be able to get some money from them."

Jin Xianyu kept talking about his thoughts, but Lee Zerong frowned.

"China Director Commerce Chamber Chairman?"

Lee Zerong felt awkward when he heard the name.

But it was not because of any other reason. The main reason was because Shuangxing Company Corporation was currently making a large scale acquisition in China, and from a certain perspective, this was a method for them to short out their China.

Since the other party was China nation's Chief, Commerce Chamber Chairman, how could they come to help an enemy like him?

"How could he possibly help us ..."

Lee Zerong still wouldn't believe it.

"You don't know about this matter. Although our Shuangxing Company Company wants to short it, if we use it well, the only people who can obtain benefits are not limited to us."

Jin Xianyu smiled meaningfully. Although he didn't say it explicitly, Lee Zerong, this sly old fox, immediately understood what he meant.

"What you mean is that China Director Commerce Chamber Chairman, he wants to do something ..."

Lee Zerong laughed, this wasn't hard to understand.

As the president of a chamber of commerce, although it sounded like he had a lot of power, in reality he had nothing but money.

After all, this Chamber of Commerce was not a government organization and did not have any compulsory authority. Although the government would occasionally invite them to be their advisors, it was only limited to providing advice.

The Chamber of Commerce did not have the ability to restrain and manage other members, so every chairman of the Chamber of Commerce urgently wanted to increase their influence.

But how could he achieve that when the world was at peace?

So, if it was possible to have an extremely terrifying economic catastrophe in China.

And if this China Main Chamber could appear as the savior, then their reputation and influence would naturally rise dramatically.

This was her plan. Although it was the hand of a fake enemy, if the news didn't leak out, who would know?

"So I think we can actually join hands with him, and it's a very good thing for him. I'm afraid the result will be that even if we don't go looking for him, as long as we stop moving, this Chief Commerce Chamber Chairman will come looking for us. "

Jin Xianyu had already made up his mind. He had the perfect grasp of this person.

"Alright, then we'll do as you say. As long as China is successful, I think you should accept the acquisition mission from Thailand. That blond guy was still not good enough!

"After spending so much money for so long, if we don't get a result, the government will ask us for money and we won't be able to pay it off."

Lee Zerong desperately wanted the money back.

Although the scandal had been suppressed, many people still suspected Shuangxing Company companies and misused their national funds.

The government obviously didn't want to hear that kind of voice, so they kept urging Lee Zerong to pay the money back.

As the chairman of Shuangxing Company Corporation, he obviously knew how much pressure this sum of money put on them.

"I will do my best to settle this matter. You can rest assured!"

Jin Xianyu patted his chest and promised. The two chatted for a long time, and the process was very enjoyable.

After leaving Shuangxing Company Corporation, Jin Xianyu sat on the plane and hurried back to S City.

But this time, the thing he had to do was to pay a visit to the President of the China Chamber of Commerce.

Although Commerce Chamber Chairman seemed very friendly on the outside, Jin Xianyu knew that Commerce Chamber Chairman definitely wasn't a good person.

Anyone who was able to sit in this position had generally gone through a very harsh political struggle.

The shopping mall was like a battlefield, let alone this China headquarters.

Under its branches are branches of various countries. Therefore, the General Chamber of Commerce had obtained a large amount of money, which was probably not much less than the national funds of Korea.

Director Pu and the others drove Jin Xianyu to the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce.

This place didn't look very eye-catching, but it was a five-storey building. The decorations on its exterior were also very ordinary.

However, Jin Xianyu did not dare to underestimate this place.

"Mr Jin, we're here."

Director Pu Zi quickly got off the car and respectfully opened the door for Jin Xianyu. A few people followed behind Mr Jin and entered the building.

Chang Xiang Rong had been waiting for them in the main hall since a long time ago. He and the staff from the Chamber of Commerce had already prepared tea for them.

"Hello, Mr Jin."

Chang Xiang Rong had an amiable smile on his face as he walked up to shake hands with Jin Xianyu.

"Guild leader, have you been well?"

Jin Xianyu seemed to be an old friend of Chang Xiang Rong. The two chatted and laughed as they walked into the meeting room.

"Since I'm here, let's not beat around the bush."

After a few pleasantries, Jin Xianyu went straight to the point.

"We came here to discuss cooperation. Our Shuangxing Company Corporation needs a sum of money."

Chang Xiang Rong was still smiling, but he didn't have much of a reaction.

"You mean you want a loan?"

"Yes, and no, if you say so, we actually hope that you can invest in us."

Jin Xianyu also responded with a smile. The real negotiation had just started.

"Mr Jin, you misunderstood, we are a Chamber of Commerce, not a bank, we don't have that much money on hand."

As expected, Chang Wei Rong rejected him. This old fox couldn't possibly agree so easily.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 727 - Comeback

C727 Comeback

Mr Jin was already mentally prepared for this.

He gave Chang Xiang Rong a meaningful glance before letting everyone out.

His meaning was obvious. He wanted the two of them to have a secret discussion.

Chang Xiang Rong agreed, and everyone in the meeting room who had nothing to do with him left.

Two hours later, Mr Jin walked out of the meeting room with a smile on his face.

Director Pu and the others hurried over and carefully inquired about the situation of the meeting.

Mr Jin just smiled and didn't say anything, he just waved his hand to tell them to hurry up and drive.

"Let's go back and have a good dinner. I'm very happy today."

Since Jin Xianyu said so, the outcome of the conference would definitely be very good.

On the other side, Chang Xiang Rong was staring gloomily out of the window.

"President Chang, did these Korea people come back to lobby you again?"

An old friend of Guild Leader Chang's could tell at a glance that he was currently conflicted.

They, the merchants, were well-informed, and were not idiots. Of course, they knew what the Shuangxing Company Corporation had done in the China.

Finding them at this critical juncture was just a thought, which was to get Chang Xiangrong to help them pay for them.

"Yeah, they said that if we invest this time, we can get 30% of the profits."

This 30% profit rate was definitely an astronomical figure. If Chang Wei Rong didn't say that his heart was tempted, it would be a lie, but if the China Headquarters were to really appear in such a manner, there was no need to mention it, he would probably be spurned by everyone in the China.

"But this is too risky... If he failed ... We won't be able to get all this money back. "

Chang Xiang Rong sighed. He held two walnuts in his hand and was turning them in his hand nonstop. It was as if his heart was filled with anxiety and unease.

"I know, that's why I'm worried. But this is also a good opportunity, if we take advantage of it, the China's main merchant guild will soar into the sky! "

There weren't many opportunities like this, and if they were to make a mistake, the Main Chamber of Commerce would probably not be able to make any progress within ten years.

"Indeed, there are a lot of companies that have left the association recently. They all despise us for having too much member gold."

The current situation of the China Main Chamber was not that satisfactory, and from time to time there would always be businesses that would leave the chamber of commerce. This way, the revenues of the merchant guild would be reduced by a lot.

However, it was fortunate that they had accumulated quite a bit in the past, so they had not reached the bottom yet.

"If I were to say so, I might as well go for broke! "Let's take a gamble!" Chang Xiang Rong turned around, his eyes filled with ferocity. He wasn't a vulgar person, so he was quite bold.

His old friend was a little surprised. He looked at Chang Xiang Rong and then at the outside and said in a low voice, "This is not a small matter. There is no way back."

"I know, but high risk is bound to bring about high returns!"

Chang Xiang Rong was still somewhat persistent. The more he thought about it, the more he felt that it was necessary to do it.

"If you insist, then I have nothing to say, but everything must be prepared. Oh right, Wu Tian from Wu Group company that you told me to assassinate did not succeed. "

Chang Xiang Rong was stunned for a moment, but soon after, he waved his hands.

"It's fine, it's fine. Right now, his side isn't the most important side. Even if the matter with NASA were to be exposed, it wouldn't be able to burn us down in a short period of time. Furthermore, this matter is related to Shuangxing Company company, I'm afraid that they will not just sit by and do nothing. "

Chang Xiang Rong didn't really care. If they really had to kill Wu Tian, they wouldn't be able to find an underground organization to do this.

In other words, from the start, he wanted to give Wu Tian a warning and let him know what to do.

The Korea Nation was not a place one could casually meddle in. The conflicts of interests within were truly very complicated.

Especially the China main merchant guild, there were many dark curtains over there.

"Bring out our funds. If we want to play, we'll play with a big one!"

Chang Xiang Rong said viciously as he extinguished the cigarette in his hand.

At the same time, on the other side of the bed, Wu Tian sliced an apple and gave it to Loong Yun.

"President Wu, you are too polite, I am free now so I can take care of myself. "You'd better get busy."

It had always been Loong Yun taking care of Wu Tian's life. This was the first time she was taken care of by Wu Tian, so she felt a little embarrassed.

"What are you talking about, you're still lying on the bed, don't move, in case the wound breaks."

Although this time she had injured her leg, according to the doctor, it was as if she had hit an artery. Fortunately, she had undergone surgery in time, or else it would have been a massive hemorrhage.

At that time, even the deities wouldn't be able to save her.

"I'm fine! Look, my wounds are starting to heal ..."

Loong Yun pretended to lift up the blanket, but Wu Tian quickly turned his head away.

This girl, I didn't expect you to have such a naughty side to you.

"Alright, alright, quickly cover it up. I am not in the mood to take advantage of a wounded person. "What's more, you have to show me your thigh. In any case, you should at least wear some black silk ..."

Wu Tian started to flirt with Loong Yun as if there was oil in his mouth. This made Loong Yun shy and angry.

If Loong Yun wasn't injured and hospitalized here, the relationship between the two wouldn't be so intimate.

In the past, Loong Yun always had a serious expression on her face.

However, Wu Tian didn't know if Loong Yun had any memories when she was in the bath ...

Wu Tian could still remember the feeling when Loong Yun's lips touched his, it was too wonderful.

While the two of them were messing around, Wu Zaibin walked in hastily from outside the ward.

"President Wu, there's something I want to tell you."

Wu Tian turned around to look at Wu Zaibin's anxious expression and asked calmly, "What is it? Tell me slowly."

"It's like this. There's a message from the main company saying that Moka Company has suddenly increased investment and acquired a lot of listed companies on the stock market ..."

Wu Zaibin was a little nervous because his Mecca Company had already entered a stagnant state. Everyone thought that they would definitely be finished.

However, he didn't expect that this fellow would suddenly come back to life. Moreover, the first move he made was over a hundred billion ...

"Mecca Company, could it be that the Shuangxing Company Group gave them money again?"

Wu Tian frowned. As expected, they were still very powerful, it seemed like he still needed to increase the pressure on Mecca Company!

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 728 - Borrowing Force

C728 Borrowing Force

To Wu Tian, this news did not make him happy at all.

Originally, the reason he came out this time was because he felt that it would be fine with Su Cancan and the others at Wu Group company.

However, Mecca Company was suddenly in trouble, if Wu Group company could not hold on, then it would be troublesome.

It was rare for Wu Zaibin to be in such a hurry, but this time, it really made him feel troubled.

"President Wu, what should we do!"

Wu Tian looked at Loong Yun and smiled at her, "Rest. You don't have to worry about the things here."

With that, the two of them walked out of the ward. Wu Tian paced back and forth in the corridor.

"President Wu ..." Wu Zaibin looked at Wu Tian. Since he couldn't do anything about it, he came to look for him.

Wu Tian stopped his steps and took a deep breath, then looked into the distance with a serious expression.

"Don't worry, we'll just take care of this matter first. Since they have increased their speed over at the China, then we might as well increase our speed as well."

Hearing Wu Tian's fierce breathing, Wu Zaibin didn't become happy because of this.

"But, this way the pressure on our side will be too great."

Guan Ruonan hadn't left the hospital yet, and their funding was still a problem.

The pressure was like a mountain pressing down on Wu Tian, but he could only choose to resist.

"Let's not talk about all of this for now. There will definitely be a way. How about this, you prepare to buy me a plane ticket at any time. If it really doesn't work, I'll personally go back and take care of it."

Right now, the only choice left was to take one step at a time. Although the Korea Nation did not have any big movements, it was still a chaotic situation, and even Wu Tian's life was already on the line. It would be too easy to change things here.

After dealing with all this, Wu Tian went back to the ward with a smile on his face.

Loong Yun's eyes were filled with worry. She wasn't an idiot.

"If I'm fine now, then I can help you."

Listening to her, Wu Tian felt warm inside. However, he couldn't rely on Loong Yun for everything. After all, Loong Yun couldn't always help him.

"Just take a good rest, you don't need to worry about anything else." Wu Tian gently covered Loong Yun with her blanket. After giving her a few instructions, he rushed back to the company.

Wu Zaibin had been living in the company for the past few days, keeping a close eye on the Exchange.

"How is it? How much is Korea now? "

Wu Tian looked at the big screen that was densely packed with numbers, he couldn't understand it anyways.

"It's rising again. It's almost back to where it was before we attacked."

These few days, although the price of the Korea's currency, under Wu Tian's sale, dropped by a lot at the start of the scandal, it had now returned to its previous level.

Wu Tian was as confident as ever. This situation was basically within his expectations.

"Sure, what kind of news is it that the media is reporting now?"

Wu Zaibin's face was full of wrinkles. He had been worrying a lot during this period of time. It was mainly because he didn't know what Wu Tian was planning that made him remain as unmoving as a mountain even now.

Seeing how the price kept rising, if they were to go up even further, they would not only be unable to earn money, but they would also lose money.

Putting everything else aside, just the Korea coins that they had borrowed all required interest. If they couldn't pay back the Korea coins, they could only fill it in with their own money.

"It's all about gossip and the upcoming elections of Korea. The attention of the media seems to be focused on this matter."

"Is that so?" Wu Tian raised his eyebrows when he heard that and was immediately interested.

He had been waiting for a chance, but now it had finally arrived.

"We finally found the guns." Wu Tian's gloomy expression instantly became cheerful.

However, Wu Zaibin still looked confused at this moment.

"What gun?"

"Why are you so silly? Of course it's their general election. "The presidential election is an important matter for a country. Although we are foreigners and cannot participate, we can make use of that."

Wu Tian sat down on the sofa and started looking through the news on his phone.

It was said that there was a relatively young politician who was currently in the limelight.

Looking at his picture, he was indeed very young. It was said that he was only in his forties now, so he should be able to run for president. He was a very talented person indeed.

"Look at this, the name seems to be Li Zhaoye, he seems to be a lawyer, no wonder he's so capable." Wu Tian commented as he showed the scene to Wu Zaibin.

"President Wu, how are we related to this person? Are we going to contribute politically?"

Wu Zaibin only knew this much about foreign elections.

"Of course not, I'm not interested in interfering with this sort of thing." Wu Tian gave a mysterious wink and then smiled evilly, "Just wait and see tomorrow's news. I have to keep Wu Zaiyao busy."

Wu Zaibin watched as Wu Tian left in a far distance, but the doubts in his heart were still unanswered.

The next morning, Wu Zaibin was immediately shocked by Wu Tian's actions.

The newspapers of that day were actually filled with news related to this Li Zhaoyi, and there was a huge report on the relationship between Li Zhaoye and Shuangxing Company Corporation over the diversion of the National Fund.

Although there was no direct evidence, this report was very convincing. It was as if someone had personally witnessed it.

Wu Zaibin was too familiar with the style of this report, so he could tell that it was written by Wu Zaiyao herself.

All of a sudden, both the TV and the newspapers were discussing this matter. As the protagonist of time, the unfortunate Li Zhaoyi was pushed to the forefront of the discussion.

After seeing this situation, Wu Zaibin finally understood Wu Tian's intentions.

In this upcoming general election, the candidates would be in the middle of an intense pre-election publicity campaign. At this crucial moment, any news would be immediately magnified.

Not just the media. Even competitors would talk about such things.

And this Li Zhao Ye had unfortunately become Wu Tian's sacrifice to discredit Shuangxing Company Group.

"President Wu, your move is really brilliant!"

Wu Zaibin was truly impressed. Although Wu Tian was not a financial professional, he could still use these clever methods.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 729 - Variable Day

C729 Variable Day

On the television, the reporters were interviewing this Lee Zhaoye, causing Wu Tian and the others to laugh incessantly.

Perhaps in the entire Korea, only they knew what exactly had happened.

While laughing, Wu Tian still did not forget the situation at the market price.

"What's the price now? Is it still rising? "

Wu Zaibin shook his head. His worry had finally eased up a lot.

"It's already stopped rising, but there's still no obvious trend of going down."

However, this was still good news.

"Then let's add some fire and throw out 10 billion!"

Wu Tian did not hesitate at all. This was exactly the effect that he wanted.

Hearing the order, Wu Zaibin did not hesitate and directly threw out the ten billion Korea currency on the computer.

In next to no time, he was like a small stone that had been thrown into a pond, causing ripples to appear on the surface.

"The price is starting to fall!" Wu Zaibin, who was staring at the screen, was so excited that his voice started to change.

"Continue, do not stop. What we want is for them to keep going down the price!"

Wu Tian continued to eat his food as he watched the news. The chaos in Korea were almost like a form of entertainment for him.

If he had been anywhere else, he would not have seen such fun.

Right now, Li Zhaoyi was definitely in a dire situation. No matter how hard he tried, he just couldn't figure out who he had offended.

On television, journalists are interviewing Li Zhaoyi about what happened.

"Like I said, this is the one and only service. It's a fabrication from a competitor!" Li Zhaoyi's angry face twitched. However, no matter how hard he tried to explain himself, the media kept chasing after him.

The plan to announce the event had now been cancelled.

"Do you want to deny what your competitors are saying now?"

Li Zhaoyi was about to explode, but he suppressed his emotions in front of the live broadcast.

"Let me reiterate once again, this matter is completely illusory, I will absolutely not admit it."

Wu Tian continued to laugh as he watched. He really wanted to know if this Lee Zhaoyi knew that he was the one randomly chosen by Wu Tian to discredit him, he would go crazy on the spot.

Although Wu Zaibin was very happy over here, it wasn't that good on Wu Zaibin's side.

"President Wu, not good, the price is starting to rise."

Wu Tian immediately moved his head closer to Ye Zichen. He looked at the latest price movements on the screen and felt that the price was indeed going up.

"Who is causing trouble with me again? Can you find out where the money came from?"

This request was a bit of a challenge. Generally speaking, unless he voluntarily revealed it, no one would know about it.

"Of course not. Don't even think about it."

"That won't do." Wu Tian smacked his lips. In Korea, there was only one thing that made him very unhappy, as the sources of information were really too few.

This was different from back home, it was too troublesome to gather information.

While the two of them were worrying about what to do, Wu Tian thought of something on his phone.

It was a link from Loong Yun. It seemed to be news.

Wu Tian opened it and saw that the Ministry of Finance of Korea was preparing to intervene actively in the market.

Originally, this matter should have been considered a big piece of news. However, because the matter regarding Li Zhaoye had become too hot, this piece of news was drowned out by the endless gossip.

I love you so much! Wu Tian really wanted to hug Loong Yun and give her two kisses.

But how did she know that Wu Tian and the others needed this?

Wu Tian didn't have time to think about it. He quickly passed the news to Wu Zaiyao, telling her to continue using her abilities.

The government's intervention in the market was a bad sign for a trading market like Korea that advocated complete freedom.

Because from a certain point of view, it meant that the situation had most likely exceeded what people had expected, which meant that the situation wasn't good.

If nothing had really happened, then the government wouldn't have needed to do such a thing.

Soon, Wu Zaiyao's new article was published.

What they were saying was that the National Fund was already completely empty. If the people went to exchange for it, they definitely wouldn't be able to take it out.

This fund was actually money that the citizens had in their accounts. When this news came out, regardless of whether people believed it or not, it would be a thorny problem for Korea's government.

However, this article was published rather late. It was not long before the exchange stopped trading, so it did not have much effect on the currency's price.

However, Wu Tian was in no hurry as the night was long. He still had one night to slowly let this thing ferment.

At the same time, just as the sky was about to turn dark, a document was delivered to Korea's Integrity Department.

That night, the Bureau of Integrity had cooperated with the police by arresting people overnight and arresting several people from the Bureau of Space Affairs.

At the same time, a video began to spread on the internet.

It was five days before Loong Yun and Loong Yun were monitored by the side of the road when the truck crashed into them.

This matter was clearly something that he did not choose to report to the police. It was unknown who intentionally edited this matter, and later on pointed out that it was done by Shuangxing Company company.

Lee Zerong didn't sleep well the whole night. His phone kept ringing and countless people were calling him.

Some were from the government, some were from the executives of Shuangxing Company Group, and some were the managers of other enterprises.

Maybe ordinary people could not understand what was happening outside, but as long as these people could see, they would understand that the Shuangxing Company Group was being targeted.

It really was like being pushed by a crowd. Lee Zerong was smoking one cigarette after another.

He was the chairman of Shuangxing Company Group and had single-handedly established this company. However, at this critical moment, he had been tripped by someone.

"Director Li, are you alright?"

The secretary knocked lightly on the door. Lee Zerong didn't make any sound for a long time, so he was a little worried that he might be alone inside.

"What's wrong?"

Lee Zerong's voice was very calm, making people not feel flustered at all.

"Erm, Minister of Finance is waiting for you in the living room. No matter what, he wants you to go down and see him."

Sure enough, what should come will eventually come. Lee Zerong put out the cigarette in his hand.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 730 - Dog Bites Dog

C730 Dog Bites Dog

Minister of Finance was furious. He stood up in annoyance as he watched Lee Zerong walk towards him with a smile on his face.

"Lee Zerong, I don't care what methods you use right now, you have to return the money to me!"

"Haha, Minister, are you in a hurry for something?"

Lee Zerong sat opposite the secretary calmly and snapped his fingers. Very soon, hot tea and dishes were served.

"I don't have the mood to tell you anything else. I came to find you so late just for this matter. The people from the Independent Commission Against Corruption seem to have found out something and are now investigating it. "

Minister of Finance's face darkened. They were very nervous now, but this Lee Zerong was still as calm as ever, as if this matter had nothing to do with him.

They were grasshoppers on the same rope. If one of them was in trouble, everyone would be.

No one can escape.

"There's a lot of wind outside right now. If you guys go public like this, doesn't it mean that all the rumors are true?"

Lee Zerong asked with a smile. The chancellor was always calm. You can't judge without being calm.

"You're right. Tomorrow morning, the Administration of Integrity will bring people here to check the balance of the National Finance Fund. Where can I go to fill in such a big hole?"

Minister of Finance said in a flustered manner. His slightly chubby body hit the table heavily, smashing the tea cups on the table.

Lee Zerong's expression immediately became gloomy. This was not giving him face at all.

Asking Lee Zerong for money at this moment, wasn't that equivalent to asking for his life?

All of the National Fund's money had been invested into the Char Country trading market. They were just a step away, how could they stop at this time?

Moreover, even if he withdrew all the money, not only would he lose a lot of money, he might not even be able to recover 70% of the money he had taken out.

"At that time, it was you who insisted on stuffing this money into my hands, and now you are even asking me for it, isn't that a little too unreasonable? I already said it before, our Shuangxing Company company does not need your funds!"

At this time, Lee Zerong no longer cared about matters like face and directly started to argue with the Minister.

"What do you mean we stuffed it in front of you? If there's nothing based on it, don't spout nonsense. I will sue you for slander. Also, can you give us evidence?"

Minister of Finance sneered. He already expected this kind of thing and naturally wouldn't be afraid of Lee Zerong's threat.

Lee Zerong didn't realize that the other person was more shameless than him and didn't know what to say anymore.

"Let me tell you, I don't have any money today, only one life."

Lee Zerong didn't care that much as they were dead pigs that weren't afraid of boiling water.

"Are you sure you won't give me anything?"

Minister of Finance's face was gloomy. If this didn't involve their position, how would these people offend Lee Zerong for this matter? After all, Shuangxing Company company usually gave them a lot of money.

"Since we've already reached this point, I don't have any money to give you." Lee Zerong did not intend to retreat at all. If he gave him a little bit of this, the other party would definitely ask for more.

"Alright, don't regret it." Minister of Finance left in a huff. Looking at his back, Lee Zerong laughed coldly.

"Director Li, is it really okay for us to do this?"

The secretary looked at Lee Zerong worriedly. If they really fell out with Minister of Finance, it would be even harder to get any more funds from him in the future.

Lee Zerong didn't say anything and silently went back to his resting room.

The secretary did not get a response, so he could only dejectedly go to rest.

The next morning, the secretary went to wake Lee Zerong as usual. He called him a few times but didn't hear any response from inside.

The secretary was a little worried, so he went in to check on the key to the door.

Lee Zerong was not young anymore, and there was a high chance that he might have a sudden illness or something like that.

Logically speaking, a secretary should have close protection, but Lee Zerong never liked having people in his bedroom, so he firmly refused this matter.

"Director Li?"

The secretary looked around the room but didn't find anything on the bed, so he went over to the sofa and saw Lee Zerong sitting on a chair with his back to the door, looking out the window.

Lee Zerong didn't react at all after the secretary called him a few times. Usually, Lee Zerong slept very lightly, but whenever someone called to him, he would wake up.

"Director Li?" The secretary went up to push Lee Zerong, but he didn't expect Lee Zerong to be pushed to the ground.

The secretary immediately turned pale with fright and screamed out in shock.

An hour later, the ambulance appeared at the entrance of the Shuangxing Company Building. The paramedics put Lee Zerong on a stretcher and sent him away.

This was a big piece of news. Quite a few reporters who had been waiting for an opportunity to take action were having a good time this time.

When Wu Tian heard the news, he was also stunned for a moment. This was completely out of his expectations.

He knew what kind of person Lee Zerong was, and he felt that this guy wouldn't admit defeat so easily.

However, he never would have thought that he would fall unconscious and sent to the hospital.

All of a sudden, the media and the internet were abuzz with discussion about this matter.

Many of them even felt that Lee Zerong had fainted because of the recent controversy that had plagued his mind.

Wu Tian quickly called Wu Zaiyao when he saw the news.

"Quickly, now is the time. All the people I had you arrange before, move them all."

Following Wu Tian's order, a statement suddenly appeared on Korea nation's internet. Some people said that they couldn't take out their national funds even though they were going to use them, causing him to be puzzled.

This matter wasn't that serious in the first place. However, with the help of a group of people, it quickly became a new topic of conversation.

And this move was the key to Wu Tian's plan for a long time.

The response from the market was always the most sensitive. Soon, it began to decline. Although it wasn't a big decline, Wu Tian had already seen a very good future.

Before he could feel much joy, the office door suddenly opened.

"Didn't I say that? You must knock on the door before you enter! "

After Wu Tian finished, he slowly raised his head towards the door.

He originally wanted to criticize her, but he did not expect that the one standing there was actually the beautiful female police officer stationed at this company.
