

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 736 - Some People Are Happy While Others Are Sad

C736 Some People Are Happy While Others Are Sad

Loong Yun was now in a much better condition than before. She could even walk on the ground.

It was still a bit of a struggle, but at least she didn't have to stay in bed every day.

As soon as Wu Tian entered the ward, he saw a pile of documents inside. Wu Zaibin's underlings were giving a report to Loong Yun.

Even if this guy was recuperating, she had to do her job well.

"You just need to rest properly, there's no need to care about this anymore."

Wu Tian's heart warmed. With a secretary like this, what else was he not satisfied with?

"It's alright, President Wu. You are in need of help right now, so it's fine if I stay here."

Loong Yun smiled. She was very happy to hear Wu Tian's praise and concern, but she rarely showed such an expression in the past.

"It's fine. There are many things that you can't do alone. Doing them yourself might not be beneficial. Just listen to me."

Wu Tian insisted for Loong Yun to ignore everything and dismiss all the documents.

There were too many things that would affect Loong Yun's recovery, and her work at the office wasn't that efficient either.

"President Wu, I heard that a lot of things have happened recently."

Although Loong Yun was in the ward, she was still well-informed.

Even Wu Tian didn't know how much information this guy had.

"Not bad, it's a very good thing for us all. They should be out of luck, and everything is moving in the direction we want it to go. "

This morning, Wu Tian had been looking at the news of Shuangxing Company company's Lee Zerong's accident. At the same time, several officials had also been caught.

Although the official's identity was not revealed, a lot of media had linked their arrest to the fact that Lee Zerong had fainted.

It was very easy for people to guess both sides. If they hadn't colluded, how could they have appeared at the same time?

"Perhaps, our arrangements in the Korea Nation will soon come to an end. At that time, we can return to the China."

Wu Tian showed his two rows of white teeth to Loong Yun and smiled brilliantly.

"Before I leave, I'll take you to have a look. It just so happens that you've been working hard recently."

Loong Yun was pleasantly surprised. This was the first time, even the women beside Wu Tian probably didn't have this kind of special honor.

"That's for sure. You can't go back on your word on this matter!"

Wu Tian nodded. If he agreed, of course he wouldn't go back on his word.

"Oh yeah, who's in the next ward, why are the police standing at the door ..."

Loong Yun chuckled. She forgot to tell this to Wu Tian.

"That's Guan Ruonan. It seems like Cui Yongji used his connections and transferred her to this hospital."

This time, it was much more convenient. Wu Tian initially wanted to go and see Guan Ruonan, but it just so happens that he could pass by after taking a few steps.

The police at the door were not a hindrance. After Wu Tian identified himself, he let him in.

Guan Ruonan had been in a coma before, but now she was a little sober these two days.

However, she was still unconscious and sleeping more often.

"How is she?"

A few people from the merchant guild were taking care of Guan Ruonan inside. They knew Wu Tian, too, and had seen her at the place where the China Chamber of Commerce worked.

"It's still not too good, but overall she's already much stronger than before."

"After she wakes up, tell her to rest peacefully and not to worry about anything else."

Wu Tian left the hospital after giving some instructions.

It was almost afternoon, and the market would definitely be in full swing by this time. He could not afford to waste any more time.

After rushing back to the company, Wu Zaibin had already carried out a large-scale sale in the trading market.

The trading market, which had been tepid until now, has finally seen a big drop.

This new round of crisis had completely shattered everyone's confidence.

Most likely, Minister of Finance and the rest were extremely worried by this time, because the news kept reporting that they had promised not to touch even a single cent of the National Fund.

However, these words were only used to deceive idiots, but people with brains knew that there was definitely something fishy going on.

Otherwise, Minister of Finance and the others wouldn't be so flustered and exasperated.

Some people were happy while others were sad. Those who were worried were already there. Those who were happy were all quietly making a fortune at this time.

"How about it? How much stock did you throw out today?"

"I've already thrown out 12 billion. I'm ready to continue. I'll try to break through 20 billion today."

Wu Zaibin was eager to give it a try. The current market reaction was exactly what they had expected.

"Alright, let's do as you say!"

Wu Tian sat on the sofa and looked at the falling index on the big screen. He thought that the opportunity to make a mistake had finally come.

On the other side, in the conference room of Shuangxing Company Group, a group of people were fighting with faces flushed red because of a matter.

The news from outside continued to be bad for them. However, at this moment, these people were only interested in this matter, and were unwilling to let it go.

Although Jin Xianyu was also sitting here, he did not argue with them. He looked at everything that was happening in front of him with a cold gaze, like a master from the outside world.

"Now that the chairman has fainted, the company needs someone to take charge! As the vice chairman, of course I have the obligation and the right to take over! "

"Sit down first, we have several vice presidents here, why would you want to come?!"

"That's right, if someone is to represent the position of chairman, I feel that I am the most reliable. What I am in charge of is the business of our Korea Empire, the foundation of our Shuangxing Company Corporation!"

"Forget about it. The game that we developed has brought a huge revenue to the company. If not for our Ministry of Science and Technology, you all would have had a hard time getting through it!"

A group of old men over a hundred years old with bald heads. At this moment, it was as if they were children fighting, and they were grabbing onto each other without letting go.

Everyone wanted to move their butts toward the chairman's chair.

Even if they were acting chairmen this time, the appeal to them was enormous.

Jin Xianyu was also interested in the chairman position.

"All of you, calm down for a moment!"

Jin Xianyu said coldly. The meeting room immediately became quiet and everyone looked at him.

Jin Xianyu was the most popular person beside Lee Zerong. They often saw Lee Zerong call his sword over for a meeting alone.

The meaning of this was naturally self-evident. Thus, when he spoke, almost everyone stood against him.

"What, you also want to fight for the position of acting chairman? Don't forget your identity! You are currently only the person in charge of the China area! "
