

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 737 - Epistatic

C737 Epistatic

Jin Xianyu was not surprised that they would say that.

If they all passed it, he would think they were taking the wrong medicine.

"What's the point of arguing here? The documents from Minister of Finance's side have been sent over, and they want us to return the money that we lent. Whoever can return this money will become the chairman."

There was nothing wrong with those words. Right now, they were under enormous pressure and Shuangxing Company companies were not so easy to deal with, so who could solve their current problems and be qualified to talk about becoming the acting chairman.

"This ..."

The few people who had been clamoring suddenly became mute, no one saying a word.

"Why aren't all of you saying anything? Is it that hard to return? "

Jin Xianyu looked at these people with a smile. The ridicule on his face was obvious.

This amount of money was naturally hard to return. The amount was as much as a trillion, and with such a large amount of money, they could take it out in a short period of time. Unless they sold out the entire Shuangxing Company Company...

However, selling assets on a large scale, the first point was that the Governments of the Korea would not agree to it.

The reason why they provided such great support and benefits to Shuangxing Company Corporation was because they hoped to develop a powerful multinational force to become the face of their nation.

If Shuangxing Company company sold their assets, it would roughly mean that they were selling off the wealth of their nation.

Thus, early in the morning, Korea Empire had already banned them from selling their branch companies.

Even if they wanted to sell it, they would have to go through an audit. Therefore, it was extremely difficult to recover money on this matter.

"Then do you have any good ideas?"

One of the Division Ministers changed the topic to him, and everyone's eyes turned to Jin Xianyu.

Honestly speaking, Jin Xianyu was indeed a rising star within Shuangxing Company Corporation.

Everyone knew that he was powerful and highly regarded. However, many people were unwilling to accept this.

"I don't have any good ideas, so I don't fight for this position."

Jin Xianyu spoke frankly. In any case, he had long since occupied the moral high ground, whatever they wanted to say.

"Then why are you talking about such useless things? You still can't do anything about it!" "If you want me to say, this matter cannot be rushed. Let's slowly bring the money back from the market and return it to the Ministry of Finance in batches."

It was one of the ideas of almost everyone, because there was no other way at this stage.

"How about we go to the bank and borrow some money to mortgage the company?"

"Or a foreign consortium... We'll pay the money back first! At most, the Ministry of Finance will continue negotiating! "

Jin Xianyu looked at these people's opinions coldly and snorted.

"Is this your first day in society? You're all old, yet you still say such childish words. Will this solve the problem?"

It was definitely impossible to borrow money from these kinds of ordinary financial institutions, and they were definitely aware of the crisis in public opinion that Shuangxing Company Corporation was facing right now.

Therefore, whoever lent them the money at this time would be pushing them to the edge of the battle.

If he wasn't a fool, he wouldn't have done such a thing.

"How can you say that, Jin Xianyu!" At least we are your seniors in the company! "

"That's right, don't think that you can do whatever you want just because you're Boss Li's favorite! "Why don't you tell me if you can get the money, I'll let you be the chairman!"

"That's right. If you can return the money, we will all elect you as the acting chairman!"

At this time, the other vice presidents who were originally intending to compete all unified their voices, as if they were prepared to see a joke of Jin Xianyu's.

In any case, this guy would definitely not have a good idea. In the end, he still had to shut his mouth obediently. He would then try to find a way to borrow money from the consortium according to what they said.

At this moment, Jin Xianyu stood up and revealed a victorious smile towards everyone present.

"Is that what you said just now? If I can solve this problem, then elect me as the acting chairman."

The several vice chairmen were muttering in their hearts, but they still insisted on what they had said just now.

"That's right, that's what we said!"

"We are men, we will do what we say!"

Hearing them say that, Jin Xianyu immediately understood.

He slowly walked to the door of the meeting room, opened it, and invited a person in.

Everyone's gaze followed his body, they didn't know what Jin Xianyu wanted to do.

"This is?"

Jin Xianyu put Chang Xiang Rong aside and introduced him loudly.

"This is Chang Xiang Rong, he's my esteemed guest, he's also the president of the China headquarters!"

When they heard his introduction, the expressions on their faces immediately became unsightly.

The higher-ups' faces immediately darkened. When they heard Chang Xiang Rong's identity, they were able to guess what kind of move Jin Xianyu was thinking.

This fellow had indeed come prepared ... They accidentally entered Jin Xianyu's trap just now, and now they're done for.

"China General Chamber of Commerce? If I remember correctly, our Shuangxing Company Group is currently in the midst of purchasing on China, isn't this and the main chamber of commerce being enemies? "

He had already expected that these people would ask such a question, but Jin Xianyu didn't panic at all and went back to his seat.

Chang Xiang Rong sat beside him with a smile on his face. The smiles on their faces were hard for the people in the meeting to understand.

"Without eternal friends, there will naturally be no eternal enemies. As long as we have the same interests as them, why can't we cooperate? "

This kind of thing was a very simple problem for him. What Jin Xianyu was going to throw next was the real heavyweight bomb.

"And this time, I invited Mr. Chang over. It was for nothing other than to borrow money from him. Mr. Chang is willing to give us a trillion dollars to pay back the hole in the National Fund. "

These words caused the entire venue to boil with excitement.

This was a trillion, not a small number!

And Jin Xianyu really had a way to block the hole.

Only this way, the higher-ups weren't as happy.

They really didn't want to see Jin Xianyu casually take the position of acting chairman.

"Everyone, there is a prerequisite for me to be willing to pay this sum of money. The reason why I am here today is to explain this matter. I am willing to cooperate with the chairman of Shuangxing Company Group. "

Now that things had come to this point, their goal could only be more obvious.

Jin Xianyu had already taken notice of the chairman position for a long time.
