Buy an island?

Wu Tian widened his eyes. He thought he was an exaggerated person, but he didn't expect these people to be more ruthless than he had imagined.

Buy an island... Heavens, do they know how much money it would cost? How could they still use money to measure the amount?

"Do you really know what you are talking about? This is an island. Let's not talk about whether I can buy it. Even if I wanted to buy it, how much money would it cost ..."

Right now, Wu Tian was in need of money. Originally, he wanted to find a place to settle them in Korea or China, build a factory laboratory or something, and have them research it.

These scientists had no idea what to say. They had always considered what was most appropriate. As for how much money they had, that was certainly not what they were considering.

"But this place is indeed the best. For our large area, this island is the most suitable place to fire rockets. The angle of entry and economic benefits are both excellent."

Hong Xiangtai said with a serious expression. The people who suggested this were not joking.

Wu Tian was so angry by what they said that he started laughing.

"Then can I ask you guys, isn't this island the territory of a country? Could it be that I can buy it?"

Hong Xiangtai blinked and nodded.

"This is indeed something we can buy. Previously, the Ministry of Land had put up a board to sell it, and our Bureau of Space wanted to buy it, but something went wrong with our funds and there was no movement on this island, saying that it's in a good location is fine, but this place is too desolate, so even the tourism developers don't like this place."

This time, it was Wu Tian's turn to be confused. He didn't think that this island could really be bought. This was really strange, this was something he never expected.

"I will send someone to ask about this. You don't need to be anxious. If you can buy it, and if the price isn't too expensive, I will definitely satisfy your needs."

No matter what, he would first agree to this matter. Wu Tian was actually a little tempted, this thing sounded very exciting.

Buy an island of your own, listen! This was really refreshing.

If he could build some villas on the beach, he would be able to go on holiday every day.

The incident was a minor interlude. Since the scientists were already here, they naturally couldn't go back. Some even brought their own luggage with them.

Wu Tian just bought an apartment near the company and put them all in there.

Two days later, he was done with it.

He felt that something wasn't right these few days, but he couldn't really tell what was wrong.

Every time he went in and out of the company, he felt as if there was someone watching him. It seemed like someone was monitoring him.

"Wu Zaibin, does the company have any cameras installed nearby?"

Wu Tian wasn't afraid. The main reason was that this feeling made him very uncomfortable.

"There are, but there aren't that many left. It's impossible to cover them without a blind spot."

Wu Zaibin didn't know what Wu Tian was doing, but he still gave the key to the control room to Wu Tian. If he needed anything, he could just let him investigate it himself.

Looking at the screens in the room, Wu Tian started to check every time he passed by the entrance of the company. However, every time he checked, it seemed like there was a woman in long pants wearing a hat and mask in the distance.

Every time Wu Tian appeared, he would be able to find this woman not too far away, as if she was stalking and monitoring Wu Tian.

Looking at this scene, Wu Tian sucked in a breath of cold air.

He had always kept a very low profile in Korea, so this company did not have any special security arrangements. However, he did not expect that he would still be targeted.

However, the person staring at him was actually a woman, and she seemed to be such an amateur ... This confused Wu Tian a bit.

However, this didn't matter for the time being. He would find out what she wanted to do if he asked.

From the monitor, he could see that this woman was looking into the company's back door.

She seemed to be holding a telescope in her hand and kept looking up the stairs.

Wu Tian started to move very quickly. He didn't go directly to catch the woman but instead went around to the back.

If it was going to happen, then it was a surprise attack. When Wu Tian was only a few meters away from the woman, she was still using her binoculars to look and didn't notice that Wu Tian had already appeared behind her.

"What are you looking at?"

Wu Tian lightly patted her shoulder and looked over along with her gaze.

"Don't bother me, I'm busy!" The woman shrugged her shoulders impatiently and tried to get away from Wu Tian's hand.

After being stunned for a second or two, the woman finally felt that something was wrong. She turned her head around absentmindedly and looked at Wu Tian, who had appeared beside her.

"Ah!" The shriek suddenly tore through the sky. Even the telescope was thrown to the ground by the woman. The sharp scream almost made Wu Tian unable to endure it.

"Stop screaming, I didn't do anything to you ..."

Wu Tian covered his ears as he tried to cover her mouth. This girl seemed to have suddenly realized that she should escape and was ready to run away.

However, how could she outrun Wu Tian? She had only run a few steps when she was caught by Wu Tian.

"Let me go, I want to call the police, I want to call you indecent!"

The woman struggled desperately. However, Wu Tian's hands were like two iron pincers as he grabbed her tightly and didn't let go.

"What's the use of you shouting so much?" Wu Tian chuckled. There were no cameras nearby and no pedestrians. No one would notice what was happening at this place.

This woman had really smashed her own foot with a stone. She didn't have the ability to be tough, but she was still thinking of doing such a thing under Wu Tian's nose. She was truly seeking her own death.

Without saying anything, Wu Tian carried the woman on his shoulder and brought her into the company through the back door.

In order to avoid anyone's eyes and ears, he had deliberately brought her into the basement.

In this place, even if there was a shout between them, no one would notice it.

"Who the hell are you?" Wu Tian pushed the woman onto a chair while he blocked the door.

There was no need for him to use force against this woman. The disparity in strength between both of them could not be overcome.
